Chapter 591: Something really happened

Young Chang waved his hand, "I'm not going. I'll just watch you all have fun."

He had just come back from Shanghai a while ago. He got to know Master Lin from Shanghai. What Master Lin said at the end of the banquet is something that would forever be engraved in the memory of Young Chang.

"After getting back, you are not to participate in any form of dangerous activities for seven days, or else something bad will happen!"

According to his normal frame of mind, he wouldn't believe it. However, the thing is that Master Lin gave him a mysterious feeling. Such a feeling was profound. Those words were always in his head and were impossible to get rid of.

"Hey! Chang Hai Ge, what's gotten into you lately? You're not playing anything with us. Could it be that you're scared?"

Chang Hai Ge didn't answer him. He didn't even know how to explain it. In their circle, it would be very embarrassing if they were to be scared of anything.

Young Shen, who was by his side, opened his mouth and said, "It's not that Young Chang is scared. But during the time when he was in Shanghai, he met a nobleman. This nobleman said that, when he got back here, he should not participate in any dangerous activities for a week, or else something would happen. It's already the sixth day. Everything would be fine after tomorrow."

He went to Shanghai with Young Chang, therefore he knew about the situation. Although he also did not believe his words, he still advised Young Chang to not be rash, since it was only a week. It would pass by with a blink of an eye. He didn't know what would happen if he did participate, but what if something really happened? What would he do?

"Haha!"

At this moment, this man laughed out loud, then proceeded to face his surroundings and shouted, “Look at this! This time, when Chang Hai Ge went to Shanghai, he got scared silly! He still bloody believes it!”

The surrounding ladies and gentlemen all gathered.

“Zhou Bing, what happened? What happened to Elder Chang?”

Zhou Bing mocked, “I just issued them a challenge to race, and do you know what their response was? He said that he met a nobleman in Shanghai. This nobleman said that after returning to the Capital, he can’t take part in any dangerous activities for a week, or else something bad would happen. Never would I have imagined that he would believe this. What do you all say, what should we do?”

When the crowd heard this, they all laughed out loud.

Chang Hai Ge replied awkwardly, “Don’t laugh. You all haven’t met him. If you were to meet him, you wouldn’t be laughing.”

He didn’t expect that they would mock him. This made him very unhappy.

He had to be responsible for his own life. Who cares if it was real or fake? Since he chose to believe it, then he shouldn’t play around.

But he was rather proud and arrogant. Whenever he would be mocked by his friends, he would feel extremely unhappy.

At this moment, Chang Hai Ge said in a serious tone, “Everybody! Stop laughing. It’s not that I am gutless. I’m just taking responsibility for my own life. Do you all understand?”

The gentlemen beside him shook their heads. If such an explanation had any use, these people wouldn’t be themselves.

As expected.

Chang Hai Ge explained. The crowd couldn't help but hold back their laughter, "Yes, yes. What Young Chang said is what it is. It's not that you are gutless, but it's because you care about taking responsibility for your own life. Hence, we shouldn't make fun of Young Chang anymore."

"Makes sense. This isn't a bad excuse. I can make use of it next time."

"Oh dear! I can't join you to get high today! A nobleman told me that if I were to get high, I would die from it!"

"Hey! Young Chang knows Young Master Zhou. He would get a fast progression in his career. However, we don't know him. We wouldn't be able to progress as quickly."

"This time Young Chang went to Shanghai to have fun with two celebrities. He knew to bring along Young Shen but not us. It's evident he doesn't really care about us anymore."

Was it that those surrounding him were unhappy with him or were they trying to use psychological methods to piss him off?

To them, the more the situation was undoable, the more they had to watch it.

Chang Hai He had already said, within seven days, he cannot participate in any dangerous activities, yet they didn't believe it and insisted that he broke this lie.

"You guys..." Chang Hai Ge was speechless, "What do you guys mean? Since when have I ever looked down on you all? Why can't you all understand a brother? The nobleman already said it, so why can't you all believe me?"

Zhou Bing waved his hand, "Forget it! Young Chang has already made his mind up, what else can we do? Let's go play on our own. Let's not make Young Chang unhappy, or else Young Master Zou would come and teach us a lesson. Then we would really be unlucky."

"What the f*ck! Are you doing this on purpose, Zhou Bing? I've already told you, I can't join you guys during this seven days! After these seven days, I can play with you for as long as you want!" Chang Hai Ge was getting anxious.

He was unable to tolerate his friends misunderstanding him.

However, he just didn't know why they wouldn't believe him.

Zhou Bing said, "No. I trust you. How can I be doing this on purpose? Am I right?"

The crowd replied, "Yes! How can we be doing it on purpose?"

"Let's go play on our own!"

"Hey, this is boring."

Chang Hai Ge frowned. He was beginning to feel apprehensive. He gritted his teeth, "F*ck! Enough! I'll do it. I'll join you guys to play. Don't say I'm not enough of a brother, just because I know Young Master Zou doesn't mean I don't recognize you guys."

At this moment, the crowd burst into laughter.

"That's right! That's the way! Who cares about what nobleman. That's all just a blind scam."

"This is the awesome and aggressive Young Chang that we all know. We didn't recognize the previous timid Young Chang.

Young Shen looked at Young Chang, "Are you really going to play? Are you not going to trust Master Lin's words?"

Chang Hai Ge replied, "What can I do? Just let them slander me? No worries. I'll just play for awhile, then I'll stop."

"I feel that it's best you don't play. You also believed in Master Lin's words. But now you're against it. What if something really were to happen?"

"Young Shen, Young Chang has already agreed to join us. Why are you still trying to advise against him? If you don't dare, just stand to one side!"

“Indeed!”

Chang Hai Ge waved his hand, “No more bullsh*t. If you guys want to begin, then let’s begin. Today, I’ll let you guys know what happens when you provoke me.”

The crowd laughed, “Haha! Then come at us! Let’s see who’s more impressive.”

The group of people got on the cars.

After Chang Hai Ge got into his car, he specially checked his car to make sure that everything was safe. He put on his seatbelt and heaved a sigh of relief.

Once ready, let’s begin!

Start!

Waves of thunderous engine sounds could be heard.

One by one, each car disappeared from the starting point.

Young Shen was very worried, “Nothing is going to happen...”

Chang Hai Ge, who was already immersed in the speed of things, had completely forgotten about Master Lin’s words.

With an unyielding spirit in his heart, all he could think of was to drive faster, faster!

Chang Hai Ge sneered, “Peasants thinking you can overtake me. Dream on!”

“D*mn! Young Chang is driving so fast, he even shook off Zhou Bing!”

“You must be joking. Young Chang is a professional racer. He is fully deserving of the title Qingtian Bay Racing God, don’t you understand?”

Young Shen slowly became less and less worried. Looking at the situation, it seems like nothing is going to happen.

Bang!

Suddenly, a loud sound could be heard from the distance.”

A sound came from the walkie-talkie.

“Something’s happened to Young Chang’s car!”

“F*ck! Young Chang’s car got smashed by a tree. We don’t know what’s the situation like.”

“F*ck! Where did the tree come from?”

Young Shen’s expression changed entirely to one of shock and fear.

How is this possible?

How could something happen so quickly?

At the accident site.

One of the racecars had been smashed by a tree.

The crowd rushed to the site. Their entire body was shivering and was feeling fearful.

“Young Chang, are you okay...”

“Young Chang...”

At this moment, a horrifying scream came from inside the car.

“Hurry up and save me! My leg is being pressed on. It hurts badly! I already f*cking told you guys, something bad would happen to me. But you guys didn’t trust me. Now, do you trust me? F*ck! Hurry up and save me!”

Roaring sounds came from inside the car. The crowd could only look at each other in dismay. Their faces were all filled with shock.

They didn’t expect that something would really happen.

This was simply too terrifying.

Chapter 592: You can always try your luck

At the hospital!

Chang Hai Ge looked at his legs. He was completely stupefied. There were no feelings in his legs. No feelings at all.

“My legs!” When he woke up, the situation had already been like this.

In the ward, he was surrounded by a group of people.

Zhou Bing was blaming himself, “Brother Chang, I didn’t expect it. I really didn’t expect that this would happen.”

Just at that instant that something happened to Chang Hai Ge, he was already stunned. He never thought that it would be true. That something bad would really happen.

Getting Brother Chang hurt wasn’t his intention, but rather, it was because he didn’t believe what the nobleman had said. Therefore, he used his words to provoke Brother Chang. If he were to know beforehand that such a thing would happen, he would have told him not to do it.

Young Shen grabbed Zhou Bing's collar, "Are you f*cking sick? Brother Chang had already said before that he didn't want to participate. But you just had to provoke him. Now, look what happened! What are you going to do?"

The crowd held their breath. They were ashamed and were blaming themselves. Even if were to be harshly scolded by Chang Hai Ge, they wouldn't retaliate.

What they didn't understand was why the tree would collapse. There wasn't even any heavy rain or strong winds. It was perfectly fine! How did it turn out this way?

Right now, Chang Hai Ge didn't have any time to care about them. "Doctor! Come over here!"

The doctor knew that this person wasn't to be irritated anymore. When the patient came over, a whole group of wealthy-looking people followed the ambulance over.

"How is my leg? What exactly happened?" Chang Hai Ge raged on. He was still so young. Nothing bad could happen to him, or else he would have to be a cripple for the rest of his life!

At the same time, he was in deep regret. In his heart, he was shouting, "Master Lin, I didn't listen to your words!"

If the Heavens were to give him another chance, he dared to swear that he would no longer participate in any more dangerous activities and even to stay at home the whole day, afraid to go out.

The doctor hesitated for a moment, "Mr. Chang, please be mentally prepared. When you came out of the accident, because your legs were squashed for too long, it caused your nerves to be severed. Therefore, if you want to preserve your life, you're going to have to... amputate it."

It was a bolt from the blue!

Chang Hai Ge was stunned. His expression was one of shock and fear, "What did you say, doctor? I have to undergo amputation?"

To Chang Hai Ge, the word ‘amputate’ was as good as taking his life away.

The doctor nodded. “By today’s level of medical technology, there’s no way we can heal it. If you do not go for amputation, the blood vessels would become clogged and it would pose a risk to your life.”

Chang Hai Ge’s face was momentarily drained of all color. His throat was shaking. He wanted to burst out in rage, but the word ‘amputate’ had shocked him speechless.

The door was pushed open.

A man and a lady walked in.

When the middle-aged man walked in, he scanned the surroundings. In the end, his gaze landed on to Chang Hai Ge, who was lying on the bed.

“Dad...Mom...” When Chang Hai Ge saw them, he wanted to cry.

When Mother Chang saw this, her face was one of love and regret. “Son, what happened to you? Weren’t you okay? How could something like this happen?”

Zhou Bing walked up, “Uncle Chang, I’m sorry. It’s all my fault. If only...”

Slap

Father Chang slapped Zhou Bing on his face. He was shaking with fury. He might have seen a lot of things happen before but at the moment, it was hard for him to contain the anger in his heart.

He only had one son. And now that he heard that he needed an amputation, wouldn’t it mean that he would be useless in future?

The room was in complete silence.

Zhou Bing lowered his head. He didn't dare to block his face. Even though he was slapped by Father Chang in front of the crowd, he knew that it was his fault. If only he did not provoke Brother Chang into participating, none of this would have happened.

"Uncle Chang, Auntie Chang. It's all my fault. If you want to beat me, please do." Zhou Bing was feeling uncomfortable on the inside. Even though he had already quarreled with Chang Hai Ge, but they knew each other since young and had grown up playing with each other. Even though in the eyes of the adults, they might just be rich sons idling about and wasting their time, but he knew Brother Chang as well as he knew himself.

They wanted to go crazy when they were still young. When they age, they wouldn't have such chances anymore.

Father Chang didn't even look at him. He immediately said, "Get lost."

Zhou Bing didn't dare to say anything else. He went to stand outside. Leaving wasn't an option. Even though this matter was an accident, but it wouldn't have happened if he didn't provoke Brother Chang.

Chang Hai Ge was so scared that he was sweating. "Dad, Mom, you have to save me. I cannot undergo amputation, I cannot!"

Father Chang wouldn't agree to his son's amputation. However, that is the doctor's only suggestion. Doing it would at least be able to save his life.

At this moment, Father Chang looked at the doctor, "Is amputation the only way?"

The doctor nodded, "It's the only way."

If only the doctors were present at the accident site or if the firefighting officers removed the tree from him immediately. Then, there might still be a chance to keep his two legs, but it was too late now.

The legs are like the brain. If the brain did not have enough fresh air, causing the brain to be lacking in oxygen, it would result in death.

It works the same for the legs. If the blood is unable to flow, it would result in becoming useless.

Mother Chang urgently said, “No! There’s no way we’ll agree to amputation. If he undergoes amputation, it would be over... His life would be over.”

Father Chang sighed. “Doctor, let’s outside.”

They were in Beijing, the Capital of the nation. The medical equipment here was the best. If even the doctor said there was no other way, then there really was no other way.

Shen Ming accompanied Chang Hai Ge, “Brother Chang, don’t think too much about it...”

Chang Hai Ge replied, “How do you expect me to accept it! It’s amputation! This is about amputation! I would become a cripple in future. How am I supposed to accept it?”

Shen Ming sighed. What should we do now? The nobleman had already advised him and yet Brother Chang didn’t listen to him. Now that something had happened, what could they do about it?

This was completely his own fault.

If the nobleman were to know of this, he would probably only say one sentence.

“You deserved it.”

...

Outside.

Father Chang was interacting with the doctor. They were talking about the amputation and they agreed upon prosthetics. With the current level of technology, prosthetics might still affect him. But if he has enough practice, he shouldn’t have a problem getting around.

The situation was already like that. What else could he do?

Amputation was the only way. Do you expect him to just watch his son throw his life away?

At this moment, a figure appeared in the hospital.

Zou Tian Fu had just received the news that the little partner that he just began to work with got into an accident. He was stunned. Didn't Master Lin say that he shouldn't play around? Why did he still do it then?

If this was like in previous times, he wouldn't have come.

However, since Chang Hai Ge decided to follow him, he would definitely have to come and take a look.

Father Chang stood outside, talking to the doctor. When he saw that Zou Tian Fu had come, he frowned. Naturally, he recognized Zou Tian Fu, but Zou Tian Fu did not necessarily recognize Father Chang.

However, with the current situation, Father Chang didn't have the mood to greet Zou Tian Fu.

Outside the door, the two of them locked gaze momentarily. Zou Tian Fu nodded his head, then proceeded to go into the room.

"Chang Hai Ge, what happened to you? Didn't Master Lin tell you that you shouldn't participate in any dangerous activities? Why didn't you listen to him?" Zou Tian Fu spoke to the spiritless Chang Hai Ge.

"Young Master." Chang Hai Ge lowered his head. "I regret it. I deeply regret it. However, it's all too late. The doctor said I have to undergo amputation."

Zou Tian Fu frowned. Amputation?

Wouldn't that make him a cripple?

When they saw Zou Tian Fu, the surrounding friends didn't dare breathe a single word.

Even though they may be very rich, but compared to Young Master Zou, they are lacking way behind.

Zou Tian Fu said, "This is very serious."

Chang Hai Ge lowered his head. He didn't say anything. He too knew that it was very serious. He knew that his life was over.

"However, you can always try your luck!" Zou Tian Fu said.

"What?" Chang Hai Ge immediately turned his head to face Young Master Zou. He didn't know what his words meant.

Chapter 593: Can't take being wronged

Chang Hai Ge asked impatiently, "Young Master, what do you mean by what you said? What does test our luck mean?"

To him, Young Master definitely had a plan.

He really didn't want an amputation. No matter what price he would have to pay, he didn't want it.

Shen Ming said, "Young Master, you have to help Brother Chang out. It's not that he doesn't trust Master Lin's words, but...sigh."

At that moment, Mama Chang was looking at Young Master Zou. "Is there still hope for my child? Is there really a chance?"

Zou Tian Fu thought for a moment, then said, "I'm not too sure about that either but I suggest that you look for Master Lin. Master Lin is a Godly Doctor and you should know that. Since the hospital says that they have no other options, why not go to Shanghai to have a try?"

"Master Lin." Chang Hai Ge was considering. Suddenly a hopeful expression appeared on his face. "Right, I'll look for Master Lin. He'll definitely have a way."

Father Chang opened the door and entered. “Young Master Zou, who is this Master Lin that you talk about?”

“He actually could have avoided turning into such a state. Master Lin already warned him not to participate in any dangerous activities within seven days. But it’s a shame that he didn’t listen.” Zou Tian Fu shook his head regretfully. However, he now had an even higher regard for Master Lin’s abilities. Master Lin actually managed to see through his calamity and fortune. That was unheard of.

Papa Chang’s heart shifted. The great nobleman had already warned his son but his son had refused to listen. That was what led to this disaster.

He held a high status and had seen all kinds of people but he had really not heard of someone who could predict calamities and fortunes. However, he knew of Young Master Zou’s status, so he asked courteously, “Young Master, that’s not quite possible, is it?”

Zou Tian Fu gave a short laugh, “That is indeed not possible. However, that’s just what I used to think. Just because you haven’t seen it, doesn’t mean that it doesn’t exist. Hai Ge, since you are my follower, I cannot let you become a cripple for the rest of your life. Whether you go to Shanghai to see Master Lin or not depends on yourself.”

Chang Hai Ge replied without a second thought, “I’ll go.”

This was his last hope. He couldn’t be a cripple for the rest of his life. He had to go no matter what. Even if it was just a tiny hope, he had to give it a try.

But just as Chang Hai Ge was feeling hopeful, Zou Tian Fu’s words made him nervous again.

“Master Lin already warned you but you didn’t listen. I’m afraid this would make him very unhappy. If you just go like that, it’ll be hard to explain. I’m not too close to this Master Lin either. Before you go, prepare something. You’ve embarrassed yourself and it’s sure to make him unhappy,” said Zou Tian Fu.

Chang Hai Ge heaved a sigh of relief. So that was all it was. “Young Master, I understand. If not for your reminder, I wouldn’t have thought of that.” Then, he turned to his father. “Dad, Master Lin is really a great man and also a Godly Doctor. He’s my last hope. If I don’t go, I’ll regret it for the rest of my life.”

Father Chang said, "As long as Hai Ge doesn't have to be amputated, I'll agree to any request. But in your state, it isn't convenient to go. Why don't we invite him over? I'll personally receive his flight."

Zou Tian Fu smiled, "Deputy Head Chang, although you hold a high status and have authority, I'm afraid that it would be no good. Even I personally went to Shanghai to thank Master Lin, yet you want Master Lin to personally come all the way to Beijing? Although I'm not too close to the Master, I can tell that this Master isn't the type to fawn over authority. Since we have already made him unhappy, we have to reduce his anger."

Father Chang nodded. He seemed to have understood it. Also, he didn't expect Zou Tian Fu to know who he was.

Chang Hai Ge said, "Dad, I'll get Shen Ming to accompany me. This was caused by me and I have to resolve it myself."

Zou Tian Fu saw that things were pretty much settled, so he said, "Alright, then I shall take my leave. Send my regards to Master Lin for me."

Chang Hai Ge nodded. In the end, Father Chang sent Zou Tian Fu off.

Although he was a Deputy Department Head, the people behind Zou Tian Fu, the Zou Family, were not simple to deal with in Beijing.

...

At Cloud Street.

Lin Fan casually placed his fingers together and read his fortune. Then, he shook his head, "You can't hide, whether it's from fortune or calamity. This is all fate."

Wu You Lan asked curiously, "Brother Lin, what are you doing? What's fate?"

Lin Fan shook his head, "It's nothing, just a small matter. Some people are just born with this kind of fate. I'm thinking about something."

Wu You Lan's beautiful eyes shifted. "What is it? Tell me. Perhaps I can help to give advice."

Lin Fan smiled, "Forget it. You wouldn't understand. It's best not to say."

Fraud Tian smiled and said, "I have to say that you really like to deliberately make a mystery out of things, kid. You have the skills to do what I used to do for a living."

"Pffft", Zhao Zhong Yang couldn't help but spit out a mouthful of tea. Then, he hurriedly wiped his mouth and said, "Fraud, stop acting. Other people may not know how you do things but we've known you for so long, how could we not know?"

"Haha." Everyone burst into laughter.

Fraud Tian glared at him, "What do you know, little kid?"

The thing was that Zhao Zhong Yang really didn't know that Fraud Tian really had an ability but that ability was Ba Gua Zhang. Judging him by today's standards, he was master-level. However, he still couldn't be compared to Lin Fan.

Lin Fan was a super grandmaster. He wasn't someone that a little master could compare to.

Just as Lin Fan was chatting with everyone, cries of shock rang from outside.

Elder Liang came rushing in. "Little Boss, it's bad. Lil' Wang, the computer seller wants to jump from a residential building."

"Huh?" Lin Fan was startled and a little dumbfounded. "What happened? Why would he want to jump from a building all of a sudden?"

Elder Liang said, "I'm not sure either. I heard that his girlfriend was taken away by someone else. He couldn't think things through properly and so he wants to commit suicide."

Lin Fan was taken aback. There were so many people who wanted to commit suicide lately. It was a little too much, wasn't it?

"Go, let's hurry up and go take a look."

Fraud Tian shook his head helplessly, "Love is really too hurtful. I didn't think that Lil' Wang wouldn't be able to think things through."

On the way there, Lin Fan asked, "How do you know about this?"

Fraud Tian seemed to feel a little sorry. "I can read people very accurately. I've seen Lil' Wang's girlfriend before. She's very beautiful. She wears branded products from head to toe and she spends money very freely. How can Lil' Wang bear all that? This is just as I predicted. She really dumped Lil' Wang. It's a shame for Lil' Wang as well. His parents are not around and he is all alone. After taking such a hit, he surely wouldn't be stable."

"That's not right. I remember that when Lil' Wang helped me assemble the computer, he didn't seem to have a girlfriend. How did he find a girlfriend is just over a month?" Lin Fan said in a puzzled tone.

Fraud Tian shrugged. "Who knows? Maybe Lil' Wang is just amazing."

Lin Fan didn't think too much. He just hurried to the scene.

When they reached the scene, it was in a mess. There were already many people gathered there.

And on the rooftop was Lil' Wang, sitting there. His emotions didn't seem too stable. "Li Xiao Xiao, why? Was I not good enough to you? Why must you be with another man behind my back?"

Fraud Tian was startled. "D*mn, he didn't get dumped. He got cheated on. No wonder Lil' Wang can't take it. It turns out that he's been wronged."

Lin Fan nodded as well. He had really been wronged too much.

Over at Cloud Street, all the shop owners were urging him against it as well.

“Lil’ Wang, come down quickly. This isn’t worth it. Sister will introduce you to an even better woman. It’s fine not to have this kind of woman.”

“Yeah! Lil’ Wang, don’t do something so stupid.”

“This woman is really despicable. She actually bullied our Lil’ Wang. Why must such a polite and courteous kid like him meet a woman like her?”

Everyone kept on advising him not to do it but it wasn’t having much of an effect. Lil’ Wang was still sitting there and his state of mind was clearly fluctuating wildly.

Suddenly, some angry sounds came from the crowd.

“What are you trying to do, woman? You’re even thinking of leaving at such a time instead of advising Lil’ Wang to come down.”

“You’re really inhumane. You should just break up if you want to. You don’t have to bring your lover to Lil’ Wang’s face.”

At that moment, a young and fashionable lady was surrounded by the crowd. She had her luggage bag in her hand and by her side, a young man was shouting, “Get out of my way. Him jumping has nothing to do with us. Move aside.”

Fraud Tian pointed forward, “Look, that’s Lil’ Wang’s girlfriend. I didn’t think that this lady would be so cruel, to bring her lover to Lil’ Wang’s face. Isn’t that just provoking him?”

Lin Fan looked over. That was indeed the case. The lady was beautiful indeed and she was dressed fashionably. The young man next to her was dressed luxuriously as well. He wasn’t a poor man.

Qian Hao Yun was a little pissed. What were these unruly people doing? He had seen a loser together with a beautiful lady and felt unsettled about it, so he thought of ways to woo the beautiful lady. He hadn't expected that the beautiful lady actually liked money. To Qian Hao Yun, that was not a problem at all.

It was just money. What he had was money.

So he immediately took her with him.

After having some fun with her the previous night, he came here at noon to say in front of that loser's face that he had stolen his beautiful girlfriend and that he was going to take her away. What could the loser possibly do about it?

However, he hadn't expected this kid to be so rash. He immediately ran up the building and wanted to jump, causing this screwed up situation to happen.

Li Xiao Xiao was dragging her luggage bag, looking at her ex-boyfriend on the rooftop. She felt a little disgusted. Then, she looked at the man next to her and instantly smiled. This was her real Prince Charming. That Lil' Wang had been the last thing on her mind for a long time already.

"Lady, can't you urge him not to do it? Can you bear to just watch him jump?" someone from the crowd said.

Li Xiao Xiao frowned, "What does him jumping have to do with me? I've already broken up with him. It's not like I told him to jump."

The crowd said, "You're being a little ridiculous. Would it kill you just to talk to him? Also, how can someone even be like you? If you didn't like him, you should have just told Lil' Wang. you even brought your lover over for him to see. Aren't you just purposely making him angry?"

"That's right. Let me tell you, if Lil' Wang really jumps and dies, then you would be considered the murderer for intentionally provoking him."

Li Xiao Xiao was a little scared now. "This..."

But at that moment, Qian Hao Yun embraced her and said with disdain, "Hehe, who are you trying to scare? He should just jump if he wants to. If he doesn't I would look down on him. Don't bother about that loser, Xiao Xiao. Let's go."

Li Xiao Xiao nodded. She had wanted to leave this place since long ago.

“Ah! Lil’ Wang, don’t be rash,” the crowd cried out in shock.

Lil’ Wang seemed to have seen what had happened below. His heart contracted furiously and it ached very much. He suddenly moved as if he was really about to jump.”

Lin Fan opened his mouth and said, “What are you doing? Step backward.”

When the crowd saw that he had come, they rejoiced. Their Little Boss had come. They had complete trust in Little Boss and they felt that he would definitely be able to resolve this.

Lil’ Wang, what are you doing? What is there that you have to jump from a building? Hurry up and come down right now,” Lin Fan yelled towards the rooftop.

Lil’ Wang saw Lin Fan too. “Little Boss, I don’t want to live anymore. I’ve been wronged.”

Lin Fan shook his head. This young man was too fragile. However, it was normal. When someone sees his own girlfriend get taken away right in front of his eyes, unless he’s an ironman, he wouldn’t be able to take it.

Most people with unyielding personalities would grab a knife and kill that guy immediately.

While people with gentler personalities would probably not be able to accept it.

Lin Fan said, “I know that you’ve been wrong but come down now. This is nothing. If you believe me, then let me tell you. This lady favors the rich and has disdain for the poor. She is vain and she is hypocritical with her affection. If you are to be with her in future, that would really be a misfortune. Now, God has opened his eyes and gotten an idiot to substitute you. You should be feeling fortunate. Next time, you’ll meet an even better girl.”

The crowd was shocked. They hadn’t expected Little Boss to be so overbearing in his advice.

He really made them speechless.

When Li Xiao Xiao heard this, he was a little dumbfounded as well.

What did this man just say? He actually degraded her like that.

Meanwhile, Qian Hao Yun was angry. He immediately shouted, “Who are you f*cking talking about?” Then, he pointed to the rooftop. “Let me tell you that your girlfriend was snatched away by me. What can you do about it? Jump down if you have any guts, loser. If you don’t jump, I’ll look down on you.”

“How can you be so malicious?” The townsfolk were furious. They hadn’t expected this guy to be so cruel, using words to provoke Lil’ Wang.

Indeed, Lil’ Wang was provoked. “I...I...”

Lin Fan saw that things looked bad. He felt as if Lil’ Wang was really going to jump down.

He opened the department store.

He started a search.

Then, his eyes lit up. He found it.

Nobita’s Forgiveness Cap: 10 Encyclopedic Points

History: An item from Doraemon’s 4D pocket, used by Nobita Nobi. It can relax the spirit, allow one to see past one’s humiliation and gradually forget about it.

“F*ck, this is it. Although I don’t know what this has to do with Doraemon, it looks like it’s very powerful.”

At that moment, Lil’ Wang was in an extreme state. It seemed that he wouldn’t heed Lin Fan’s advice any longer. Lin Fan could only use his 10 Encyclopedic Points in exchange for this ‘Nobita’s Forgiveness Cap’.

He said in his heart 'Exchange'.

To outsiders, they saw a green cap appear out of nowhere and rise up into the sky, finally landing on Lil' Wang's head. It shone with a dim light for a moment.

Lin Fan took a deep breath. "Lil' Wang, come down right now."

The townsfolk looked on worriedly. They didn't know what to do anymore. Even Little Boss couldn't seem to do anything. Could it be that Lil' Wang was really going to jump?

On the rooftop.

Lil' Wang's brain shook a little. Then, he looked down. He was shocked and he stepped back in fear. What the heck was he doing? Why was he so high up?

Oh!

Right.

His ex-girlfriend was together with another man and she even brought that man here to humiliate him. But why had he been so angry? He should have felt fortunate for discovering that his ex-girlfriend was such a person early. Otherwise, if he got married to her, he wouldn't know what to do.

"Hey, it seems that Lil' Wang has gone down."

"D*mn, Little Boss is Little Boss after all. Once he appeared, he managed to get Lil' Wang to come down."

Soon after, Lil' Wang appeared in front of Lin Fan. Then, he said gratefully, "Little Boss, thank you so much. If it wasn't for you, I might really not have been able to think things through. You were right. This kind of woman is no good. I should feel fortunate that an idiot has taken my place."

Lin Fan patted Lil' Wang on the shoulder, "As long as you can look past it now, that's good."

When Qian Hao Yun heard Lil' Wang's words, he was so angry that his face turned pale. What did that guy say?

He was in a towering rage!

"F*ck your mom! What did you f*cking say? Didn't you want to jump, loser? Jump then! You piece of sh*t..." Qian Hao Yun yelled furiously. But suddenly, his whole body flew backward.

Lin Fan patted his pants gently to remove the dust. "Just listening to this kind of people talk is disgusting." Then, he waved his hand and said, "Everything's fine now. Disperse, everyone."

The Foshan Shadowless kick. Lin Fan had sent him flying with a single kick, causing the place to erupt in commotion.

Everyone cried out in shock.

Amazing!

Chapter 595: Very regretful

The first time exchanging something from the department store gave Lin Fan a complete understanding of it.

However, there were all kinds of weird and strange things inside. There were many things that he didn't understand. Even this 'Nobita's Forgiveness Cap' had a mysterious history.

He just felt that this 'Nobita Nobi' was a little rash for specially creating this Forgiveness Cap. It was a little scary.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan was left with 395 Encyclopedic Points.^a

He could only wait for his Chinese Medicine foundational teaching materials to be distributed completely to earn more Encyclopedic Points.

Wu You Lan said with some lingering fear, “That was really too dangerous. If it hadn’t been for Brother Lin, Lil’ Wang might really have jumped and it would’ve been really bad. That woman is really shameless. Even I, as a fellow woman, am looking down on her.”

Fraud Tian sighed, “Sigh, people nowadays. Luckily, I, Tian, was had seen through this society decades ago. That’s why I’ve been single until now. It’s because I’m afraid of being harmed by this kind of woman.”

Lin Fan laughed, “Fraud Tian, can’t you have some shame? You probably couldn’t find a woman, am I right?”

Fraud Tian chuckled, “What are you talking about? Back then, I, Tian, was undefeated in the cities and the countryside. Who knows how many girls cast flirtatious glances at me? But I turned a blind eye to them because I’m a man that they will never be able to get.”

clap clap

Zhao Zhong Yang applauded. “You should be given a hundred points for that awesome reasoning. But I can only give you one point. The remaining ninety-nine points have been deducted because you are just bragging.”

“Cheh, I shan’t talk to you young people. You won’t understand my experiences,” Fraud Tian said with a sigh. He silently sat at the entrance and lit up his cigarette. Then, he looked afar with a deep expression on his face.

Soon after.

Lin Fan was thinking about life when a series of disharmonious sounds came.

“It was him who hit me,” Qian Hao Yun pointed at Lin Fan as he said this. He had come in hastily with a policeman. There was a look of rage in his eyes.

The policeman said, “Master Lin, this man says that you hit him. Did such a thing really happen?”

Lin Fan glanced at Qian Hao Yun and said, "Who is he? I don't even recognize him."

"Bullsh*t. You were the one who just hit me. Look, my face is still swollen," said Qian Hao Yun angrily.

The policeman frowned, "Please watch your attitude. Don't speak so vulgarly."

Qian Hao Yun was about to erupt in rage. "He was the one who hit me."

The policeman said, "He said that he doesn't recognize you, nor did he hit you. Do you have any proof?"

"Xiao Xiao, come here and tell the policeman whether he hit me," Qian Hao Yun shouted.

Li Xiao Xiao was stuck in a dumbfounded state. When she heard Qian Hao Yun's words, she looked at Lin Fan and said, "It was him. He was the one who hit my boyfriend."

Actually, this policeman already believed that Master Lin must have hit him, but would he admit it?

Of course not.

Who was Master Lin? Master Lin was the idol of the normal policemen like him. Master Lin had a great relationship with the police department.

The policeman asked, "You said that you saw it. How did he hit you then?"

Qian Hao Yun had no idea. He hadn't seen it. He shook his head and said, "I didn't see it."

The policeman said, "You are really strange. You said that he hit you but you didn't even see it. Then how do you know that he hit you?"

Qian Hao Yun said, "This is my girlfriend. She saw it."

“Oh, your girlfriend saw it. Alright then. How did he hit your boyfriend?” asked the policeman.

Li Xiao Xiao gestured as she said, “He jumped up, then kicked my boyfriend’s face with a single kick, sending him flying for several meters.”

“Several meters. How heavy are you?”

“I’m 160 pounds.”

“He kicked your face and your 160-pound body flew several meters. Do you think that’s possible?”

“That’s the truth.”

At that moment, Qian Hao Yun pointed at the policeman and said, “I know now. You’re on his side. You never even thought about arresting him, did you? What’s your police code number? I’m going to complain about you.”

Lin Fan couldn’t keep watching. “Alright. You said that I hit you, right?”

Qian Hao Yun glared at Lin Fan furiously. “Right, it was you.”

“You said that I hit you. I won’t admit to that. But if you have to insist that I hit you and if I really admit to it, you definitely wouldn’t agree. Stand still and watch closely,” Lin Fan said.

Qian Hao Yun just stood there, with no idea what Lin Fan was going to do.

“Watch the leg.”

Bam!

At that moment, Lin Fan’s kick sent Qian Hao Yun flying back several meters.

“We’re good now. You’ve seen it clearly. There’s no more need for debate. My police comrade, that kick was kicked by me,” said Lin Fan.

The policeman was dumbfounded. What was going on? Master Lin had really kicked him.

Li Xiao Xiao gasped in shock, then hurriedly ran to Qian Hao Yun’s side.

However, there seemed to be a packet of granules on the floor.

Lin Fan’s gaze shifted. “Hey, my police comrade, look at what that is. Why does it look like ecstasy to my expert eyes?”

The policeman was startled. Then, he rushed forward and picked up the white packet that Qian Hao Yun had dropped. He had received the police department’s drug lesson before and he could tell what it was with one look.

Then, he took out his handcuffs and cuffed Qian Hao Yun’s hands together.

“Emergency Headquarters, I’ve captured a man in possession of ecstasy. Please lend assistance,” The policeman quickly contacted the headquarters. He hadn’t expected things to turn out this way.

When Li Xiao Xiao heard what the policeman said, her expression changed. She wanted to leave the place. She had no idea what was going on. Why was her boyfriend hiding ecstasy?

However, the policeman couldn’t let her leave. He blocked her off and said, “You’re not allowed to go. Follow me back for investigation.”

Li Xiao Xiao was stupefied. This had nothing to do with her. She had only gotten to know Qian Hao Yun a few days back.

Lin Fan shrugged and said, “My police comrade, there’s no issue with me hitting him anymore, right?”

The police comrade said, “Master Lin, you’ve assisted us in arresting a drug user.”

Lin Fan smiled. How magical.

Soon after, the police forces arrived.

Qian Hao Yun and Li Xiao Xiao were both taken into the police car.

Lin Fan waved goodbye. “Have a safe trip, police comrades. I shan’t take recognition for this contribution. No need to give me another Good Citizen Award...”

The policemen in the car couldn’t help but laugh, “Master Lin is really amusing. But now we understand why Inspector Liu can promote so quickly. When you’re with Master Lin, you can close your eyes and still run into a criminal.”

“That is true.”

What Lin Fan didn’t know was that after this incident, a rumor spread in the police department, saying that if you wanted to capture a criminal, you should get to know Master Lin. Then, you might really find that criminal.

...

Two days later.

Lin Fan was looking at his phone in the shop. Suddenly, two expected guests came.

“Master Lin, save me...” Before Chang Hai Ge’s body appeared, his shouts could already be heard.

Shen Ming was pushing the wheelchair with a look of anticipation on his face as well. They had finally reached.

To Chang Hai Ge, coming to Cloud Street again made him very thrilled and excited.

Because there was hope here.

Lin Fan glanced at the two of them. He shook his head, "This is the result of not listening to me."

Chang Hai Ge lowered his head. His heart was filled with regret.

"Master Lin, please save me. I know my mistake now..." Chang Hai Ge was closed to tears. He could only hope that Master Lin would give him a second chance.

Chapter 596: Depends on my mood

When Chang Hai Ge arrived at Cloud Street, he felt like he had arrived at his land of fortune. Especially when he saw that handsome face of Master Lin's. The fear in his heart completely dispersed.

Because he believed that as long as Master Lin was on his side, nothing could go wrong.

Fraud Tian went forward and said in astonishment, "Little Bro, these legs are as good as crippled." After saying that, he couldn't help but go forward and press his legs.

Zhao Zhong Yang and the rest all fixed their gazes on Chang Hai Ge. He was so young but both his legs had been crippled. That's really pitiful.

Shen Ming, who had been by his side, begged, "Master Lin, can you please take a look at Brother Chang and see if he can still be helped?"

"You guys are putting me in a tough spot," said Lin Fan as he looked at the two of them, "Didn't I tell you already not to participate in dangerous activities for seven days? Why didn't you listen? Tell me, how did this happen?"

It was hard for Chang Hai Ge to explain as well. Now that he thought about it, he was really unlucky when it happened.

"Master Lin, I had initially stayed away for dangerous activities until the sixth day but because of an accident, I joined a street racing competition. Who would've thought that halfway up a mountain, a big tree would fall and smash into my car? I was lucky that it didn't fall on my torso. It only crushed my legs. Otherwise, I would've lost my life."

When he said all this, he felt a sense of lingering fear in his heart.

Fraud Tian said, "From my point of view, you really are unlucky."

Chang Hai Ge replied, "I'm still not considered unlucky. At least it didn't crush my torso. If it had gone a little higher, my life would've been gone."

"It's the first time I've seen a situation like yours. His fortune-telling predictions are very accurate. For you to not listen to him, you are pretty amazing," Fraud Tian shook his head as he said this. He really felt a deep admiration for this guy.

Chang Hai Ge was filled with embarrassment. He lowered his head and said, "I believe him. It's just that...it's just that..."

He was really in deep regret. It wasn't that he hadn't trusted Master Lin but he had been spurred on by his friends. He had thought that maybe the prediction wouldn't be so accurate. But he had never expected it to really be so accurate. He only drove his car halfway up the mountain before this happened, causing him to lose his legs.

"Master Lin, can my legs be recovered?" Chang Hai Ge looked at Lin Fan like a beggar. He had no other choice now. If Master Lin was to say that it couldn't be helped, he would be done for.

Lin Fan looked at him. "Sigh, you really are awesome. You're the first one not to listen to my advice. Thinking back to the past, a family of three were going for a vacation but after heeding my advice, they avoided a calamity. You're good for not believing me. Now, something has happened. Are you regretting it yet?"

Chang Hai Ge nodded, "I'm regretful. I'm really regretting it to death."

"I can see that you aren't a good person but neither are you bad. You don't stick to your words. Initially, I hadn't planned to save you but the heavens are kind, so I had decided to help you change your fate and help you avoid this disaster. But I never thought that you...sigh, I shan't say anymore."

Chang Hai Ge looked nervously at Lin Fan. “Master, I really know my mistake now. I will change.” Then, he took out a card from his pocket. “In here is ten million dollars, please don’t think that it’s too little, Master. This is already all the money I have in cash right now.”

Ten million!

Fraud Tian stared at Chang Hai Ge. He hadn’t expected this guy to have so much money.

And when he saw the card on the table, Fraud Tian suddenly realized that the bank card’s shine was dazzling.

Ten million dollars. How long must he painstakingly work in order to earn that much?

Lin Fan glanced at the bank card. Ten million, it was really not a small amount. This Chang Hai Ge was really rich. However, as a Master, how could Lin Fan be so shallow?

“I don’t care if my patient has money when I see the sick. This all depends on my mood. If my mood isn’t good, I won’t treat the patient. Even if he has a mountain of gold and silver, I won’t even blink a single time, so you can take back your card.” Lin Fan shoved the bank card forward.

Some shop owners had gathered around. When they saw this scene, they gasped in shock.

“Amazing, Little Boss sees money the same way he sees dirt. We really can’t compare to him.”

“That’s ten million dollars. How long would we take to earn that much? I don’t even know if we have a chance to earn that much in this lifetime.”

The shop owners kept on gasping in shock. They really had incomparable admiration for Little Boss.

This was the Little Boss that they knew.

How resolute his mind must be.

If it was someone else, the person would have definitely accepted the ten million dollars straight away.

Wu You Lan looked at Lin Fan and her eyes gleamed with a deep sense of adoration. This was the Brother Lin of her heart. He was simply different from other men.

To Chang Hai Ge, the fact that Master Lin didn't accept the money meant that he wasn't willing to treat him. Then Chang Hai Ge begged, "Master Lin, I know that this is very little money but that is all I have right now. Please, accept it. I will remember your grace and I will definitely repay it someday."

Lin Fan said calmly, "I don't see the sick depending on whether they have money. It depends on if they are good people. Tell me, are you a good person?"

At that moment, Chang Hai Ge was deep in thought. "Am I a good person?" he thought.

Besides bullying people occasionally, he hadn't done anything ridiculous.

Before Chang Hai Ge opened his mouth, Shen Ming said, "Master Lin, Brother Chang is a good person. He really is. Although he has some small issues and he occasionally has sex with small celebrities, he doesn't have a bad heart."

Lin Fan looked at Chang Hai Ge and frowned. "Hey, judging by your physiognomy, it seems that you aren't quite trustworthy. In the past, you've promised people things but forgot about them. That's not quite right. The kind of people I hate the most is people who go back on their words."

Chang Hai Ge was dumbfounded. Go back on their words?

When had he ever gone back on his word?

At that moment, he couldn't recall.

Shen Ming was thinking as well. Brother Chang was quite a trustworthy person and he usually wouldn't go back on his words. But Master Lin said that about Brother Chang. What was that based on?

No...wait a moment!

At that moment, Shen Ming seemed to have remembered something. Then, he lowered his head and whispered into Brother Chang's ear.

When Chang Hai Ge heard it, his expression changed as if he had figured it out.

Lin Fan said, "Figured it out yet?"

Chang Hai Ge was a little embarrassed as he nodded, "I've figured it out." Then, he said, "Master Lin, don't worry. I will definitely change this bad habit of mine. I definitely won't do it again."

Fraud Tian had been thinking about the ten million dollars the whole time. Then, he said, "I think you should just help him out. He's so young and something like this has already happened. It is really quite pitiful."

The surrounding shop owners said as well, "Yeah, Master Lin, this kid looks refined and gentle. He seems pretty good. If he were to become crippled, it would be pitiful."

"Kid, you should know your mistakes and change. Don't be an untrustworthy person anymore."

"Our Little Boss isn't the type of person to watch someone suffer and not do anything. As long as you change, there won't be a problem."

Lin Fan came to Chang Hai Ge's front and patted him on the shoulder. "As long as you know your mistake and change, it's fine. Your leg won't be a problem."

At that moment, Chang Hai Ge was close to tears. He had finally heard the news that he had been waiting for.

Chapter 597: This day is finally here

Lin Fan took a look at the bank card on the table. “You can keep the bank card.”

However, Chang Hai Ge was the kind of person who was unable to tell good from bad. He hurriedly waved his hand and said, “Master Lin, I won’t take the card back. I know that you don’t think much of money but I also know that you have taken over a Children’s Welfare Institute. I don’t usually do good deeds but please just accept it as my way of helping those children.”

“This...” Lin Fan thought about it for a moment.

The surrounding shop owners said, “Little Boss, why don’t you just accept it? This kid is pretty good. He has some kindness in him.”

“Yeah, the Children’s Welfare Institute requires some money to run as well.”

“You donated the extra funds raised from the art sale the last time. The Children’s Welfare Institute will definitely need more money in future. This will help to solve some issues.”

Lin Fan nodded, “Then I shall accept it. I will pass on your goodwill.”

It was ten million dollars. If he didn’t accept it, it would have been a waste.

Fraud Tian watched as Lin Fan kept the bank card in his pocket. He was dying of envy.

This money was too easily earned.

Chang Hai He let out a deep breath. Although those ten million dollars were all the circulating money he had, he didn’t bother much about money.

His father was a high-ranking official and his mother was a business expert. Although there were rules that there cannot be government officials and business people in the same family, his mother had already started a huge family business before she had gotten together with his father.

Hence, his allowance was quite high. Starting companies was like a game to him.

These ten million dollars were indeed painstakingly earned himself. The circulating funds from the company were all in that card.

Ever since Lin Fan had gotten his godly medical skills, there had been many things added to his shop. Chang Hai Ge's injury was indeed very severe. Using modern medicine to treat him would definitely result in him being crippled.

However, as compared to the children of the Welfare Institute, he was still much better off.

"Although the nerves in your legs are dead, it hasn't been too long and they can still be recovered. It isn't anything too difficult. I just hope that you will do what you have promised me. I don't like being lied to," said Lin Fan with a smile.

Chang Hai Ge nodded, "Don't worry, Master Lin. I will definitely change as I said. I definitely will not go back on my words anymore."

He really wanted to change, mainly because he wanted to get to know this mystical person, Master Lin, better.

With the silver needles in his hands, Lin Fan expertly placed the needles into Chang Hai Ge's legs.

To activate the nerves, using only acupuncture was far from enough. He needed the Encyclopedia's mystical boost to do it.

The shop owners watched from the side in wonder. To them, Little Boss's technique was amazing. When he removed the needles, he was lightning quick. It left them flabbergasted. It was too quick. It was really too quick.

Chang Hai Ge had been very nervous the whole time. Then, his expression slowly changed as he said delightedly, "I can feel it, I can feel it! A rush of heat is flowing into my legs."

Shen Ming gasped in shock, "That's way too amazing."

He knew the condition of Brother Chang's legs. The hospital's doctor had already said that these legs would be useless for the rest of his life. Who would have thought that once he came here to Master Lin, he would regain feeling in his legs? That was really shocking.

As Shen Ming looked at Master Lin's eyes, a change happened in him. He realized that this Master Lin was really too mystical and he drew admiration from everyone around.

"Try lifting your legs," said Lin Fan as he removed the silver needles from Chang Hai Ge's legs.

Chang Hai Ge was a little nervous. He gently lifted his legs and he really felt them move.

Suddenly, Chang Hai Ge was moved to tears. "Master Lin, my legs are well. They're really well."

Lin Fan said, "They're alright but they still need to slowly recover. I'll give you a prescription. Go back and take some medicine to nurture your body for half a month. Then, you'll be pretty much fully recovered."

Chang Hai Ge nodded, "Mmm, I understand. But will there really be no issues in the long run, Master?"

Lin Fan waved his hand, "There won't be. Just take the prescription and get the medicine when you go back and you'll be fine."

Initially, Lin Fan could have instantly cured him but in order to make this guy suffer a little, he sneakily left out a procedure. However, Chang Hai Ge would indeed be fine if he just rested for a period of time.

"Thank you, Master," said Chang Hai Ge gratefully. He felt like hugging Master's legs as he started to weep.

Lin Fan waved his hand and said, "I've already treated you. Next time, be more careful. I shan't make you all stay. Why don't you go back to Beijing now?"

Lin Fan didn't want to carry on interacting with this Chang Hai Ge. They were people on very different paths. Although they might still come across each other in future, there was no need to interact any further at the moment.

After Shen Ming and Chang Hai Ge left, Lin Fan couldn't help but burst out laughing as he lay on the chair.

Sometimes, it was really too easy to earn money.

Of course, that was on the condition that he met a nouveau riche like Chang Hai Ge.

Moreover, that nouveau riche had to have come across some kind of problem.

Ten million dollars to treat his legs that originally had to be amputated. Was that expensive?

To normal people, that would have been very expensive but to this kind of nouveau riche, it was simply too cheap. It was so cheap that it was scary.

At that moment, Fraud Tian came to Lin Fan's front. His eyes gleamed with vigor as he said, "Do you think I can learn Chinese medicine?"

Lin Fan took a look at Fraud Tian and said, "Weren't you learning fortune-telling from Elder Wu?"

Fraud Tian said, "Learn my a*s. That's too advanced. How can I learn that?"

Wu Tian He said, "Elder Tian, what I'm teaching you is just the foundation. If you can't even learn that, how can you blame me?"

Fraud Tian said, "I'm not blaming you. It's just that my own foundation is too firm. It's not compatible with your foundational knowledge."

Fraud Tian used to swindle people. He was already too used to his way of doing things. Learning new foundations was not suitable for him.

Lin Fan said, "Fraud, I think that you should just watch over the shop properly. These things aren't suitable for you."

“Hehe, I think you’re scared that once I learn it, I’ll surpass you. I understand that. Geniuses are always unwelcome by others. Sigh, forget it. I, Tian, shall stick to being a low-key unrecognized talent,” said Fraud Tian.

“Haha!”

At that moment, everyone burst into laughter.

ring, ring

Zou Tian Fu’s call came.

“Master Lin, has Chang Hai Ge gone over to your place?”

“Mmm, I’ve already seen him. He’s fine.”

On the other end of the call, there was silence. Then, there was a sigh, “You’re amazing indeed.”

To Zou Tian Fu, this Master Lin was really very mystical and he really drew the admiration of others.

Zou Tian Fu wanted to give a proper explanation for what had happened but he kept feeling as if Master Lin was deliberately trying to distance himself from him. Of course, this was just Zou Tian Fu’s thoughts and he wasn’t sure of it.

Lin Fan had his reason for distancing himself from Zou Tian Fu. If Lin Fan were to be with this guy, there would probably be a lot of trouble.

Lin Fan could tell by reading his fortune.

To keep himself safe, it was best to stay away from this Young Master Zou.

The two of them chatted for a while more before they hung up.

At that moment, Lin Fan looked at the blue sky and white, fluffy clouds outside. These days were really very comfortable and pleasurable.

Half a month later.

Every day in Cloud Street was the same as usual. There was no change at all.

On this day, Zhao Ming Qing came to the shop.

“Teacher, the teaching materials have started being distributed to various parts of the country.”

When Lin Fan heard this, delight appeared on his face.

Chapter 598: Come to me, Encyclopedic Points

Lin Fan was filled with delight. “Which schools will they be distributed to?”

Zhao Ming Qing knew all the medical academies across the country like the back of his hand. “Teacher, there are a total of thirty Chinese Medical Academies in the country. The Education Department has given permission for the teaching materials to be used in the Chinese Medical Academies of the remaining provinces. I think in one or two days at most, your teaching materials will become widely distributed, Teacher.”

“That’s great!” Lin Fan had been waiting for this moment for a long time. He finally saw hope. However, he was still a little worried. Even if the teaching materials were to become widespread in the Chinese Medical academies, he wouldn’t get any Encyclopedic Points unless the students studied them closely.

But this didn’t matter. In a total of thirty Chinese Medical Academies, how could there be no one who would seriously study?

Moreover, Lin Fan was very confident in his foundational teaching materials. Even some old Chinese doctors would study them, so the number of Encyclopedic Points he received shouldn’t be too f*cked up.

Zhao Ming Qing said, “Teacher, I’ve been realizing lately that those little intelligence pills are really too mystical. I’ve studied all the medicinal ingredients used in the pill creation but I don’t feel like the essences of those ingredients should produce this kind of effect when fused together.”

“The little intelligence pill is magical indeed. I see that your complexion lately has been very different from last time as well,” said Lin Fan.

That was true indeed. Although Zhao Ming Qing had always been energetic, as compared to now, the difference was really quite obvious.

However, the most remarkable part should be his memory. The greatest function of the little intelligence pill was to develop one’s brain and improve one’s memory. In Zhao Ming Qing’s state, if he could attain photographic memory, it would really be perverse.

Judging by the current situation, it seemed that he hadn’t attained photographic memory yet. However, if he used his brain often and made his brain work more, there was a great possibility that he would attain it.

Zhao Ming Qing nodded, “Teacher, I have to say that my memory has been improving. There has been a great improvement in my medical abilities. This is all thanks to the little intelligence pill.”

Lin Fan said, “In my opinion, it’s thanks to your past hard work. After taking the little intelligence pill, the contents of texts and books that you have read before have resurfaced in your mind.”

Zhao Ming Qing replied, “That is indeed the case.”

Fraud Tian looked at the two of them, wondering what on earth these two were talking about. “What little intelligence pill? And what is it about your memory improving?”

Lin Fan replied, “We’re talking about that pill I wanted to give you last time. It’s a shame that you didn’t want it. It’s a godly pill. What a shame...”

“Cheh, I don’t want such a thing.” Although Fraud Tian said that, he didn’t feel the same way about it. He was very curious about what that pill was. It was so mystical. Could it be that they were talking about the white pill from last time?

Lin Fan chuckled, “It’s best if you don’t want it because I don’t want to give it to you either. Later on, I’ll give You Lan and the rest one pill each. Let’s see if you’ll want it then. This is a pill that can make someone become smarter.”

Fraud Tian looked at Lin Fan. Why was it that he had a feeling that this wasn’t reliable?

Lin Fan said, “Ming Qing, since you are already here, why don’t you stay for dinner? At the same time, I’ll see if you have anything that you don’t understand.”

Zhao Ming Qing smiled, “Teacher, there are indeed such things. Lately, my mind has become more nimble and I’ve read many books, so I have quite a number of questions. These have all been accumulated in my mind and I haven’t gotten answers for them yet.”

To him, becoming Lin Fan’s disciple was the most fortunate thing that had ever happened to him because his teacher had brought him down the true path of Chinese medicine.

Lin Fan chuckled. This Zhao Ming Qing was really studious. But it was because of this that Lin Fan was so willing to teach him. If Zhao Ming Qing wasn’t so eager to improve, Lin Fan would be too lazy to teach him as well.

Although Zhao Ming Qing was old, he still had potential. Especially after taking the little intelligence pill, his potential had become even greater.

To a Chinese doctor, this was a good thing.

...

Several days later.

At a certain Chinese Medical Academy.

“Did you hear? The new teaching materials will arrive today.”

“They’ve already arrived long ago. The new teaching materials have been in the school the whole time and they’ll probably distribute them during the lessons later on.”

“Then what about the old teaching materials? Have we wasted our time studying them?”

“That’s not for sure. The new teaching materials may not be too different from the old ones. After all, these things are all the same.”

“I heard that they were written by the Godly Doctor. I wonder how they will be?”

“What Godly Doctor? In today’s society, people like to give themselves nice names. I won’t believe this.”

In the academy’s office.

A group of teachers had gathered together and were discussing the matter of the new teaching materials.

“I just received a notice that the Education Department has already sent the new teaching materials over. We’re already halfway through this semester. If we suddenly change teaching materials, it won’t be very good, would it?”

“What can we do about it? This is an order given by the higher-ups.”

“Does anyone know how these new teaching materials are?”

“I don’t know. I haven’t seen enough of them.”

“But previously, the writer of the new teaching materials had a conflict with those old specialists right? It was an earth-shattering conflict. I heard that a leader of the Education Department was dragged into it.”

“That’s harsh.”

“Yeah, so we should stay low-key. We should take things as they come. Regardless of what teaching materials they are, we should just teach properly and we’ll be fine.”

“I don’t think that has to be the case. I wonder what Elder Han has to say about this.”

At that moment, a fifty-something year old, yellow spectacles-wearing, Mediterranean, middle-aged man entered.

“Elder Han, what do you have to say about the new teaching materials?” asked one of the teachers.

Elder Han replied, “I don’t know. I haven’t seen them.”

“What do you think we should do if the new teaching materials are lousy?”

Elder Han laughed, “Lousy? You’re thinking too much. If these new teaching materials are lousy, then there wouldn’t be any good teaching materials.”

Everyone looked at each other. “Elder Han, you’ve seen the new teaching materials? How do you know that they’re not lousy?”

“Elder Han, do you know the man who wrote these teaching materials?”

Elder Han shook his head, “I don’t know him but I’ve seen him once before. He did volunteer medical work in our city, don’t you all know? I personally went to the site. His medical abilities are amazing. If I hadn’t seen it for myself, I wouldn’t dare to believe it.”

Everyone was stunned. They hadn’t expected that Elder Han would have so much faith in these new teaching materials before he had even seen them. This made them very curious as to how these new teaching materials would be.

In the classroom.

The teacher stood at the lectern and said, “Students, the new teaching materials have arrived. Now, I’ll start to distribute them.

Gradually, the new teaching materials went into the student’s hands.

Those Chinese medicine students were frustrated. They had studied half of the old teaching materials and suddenly, there were new teaching materials. This was a little f*cked up.

When the students flipped to the content page of the new teaching materials, their expressions slowly changed. Then, they cried out in shock.

“Look. What are these new teaching materials? Why are they not the least bit similar to the old ones?”

“D*mn, that’s true. Are they playing with us?”

“Hey, look at the first section. It is written so bluntly. It’s not profound and mysterious like the old teaching materials. It’s so easy to understand!”

“Didn’t you see the news on the Internet from last time? The old teaching materials have a number of parts that are mistaken. The explanations in these new teaching materials are the correct ones.”

“Is that really true?”

At that moment, such situations were happening in every Chinese Medical Academy in the country.

Chapter 599: A sharp rise

A few days later!

Zhao Ming Qing's call came. "Teacher, this is a joyous thing! The teaching materials have made a huge impact on all the Chinese Medical Academies across the country!"

Lin Fan was startled. "Really? It's doing so well?"

Zhao Ming Qing smiled, "Teacher, these are teaching materials written by you, how could they be bad? I've asked other people in my profession and they all have good comments about the new teaching materials. Compared to the old ones, they feel that these new teaching materials teach beginners true rudimentary medical abilities. And the students really like them too. Unlike how the old ones are, these new ones are easy to understand."

"That's good." Lin Fan smiled. As long as the new teaching materials were well received, he would earn a lot of Encyclopedic Points.

Zhao Ming Qing said, "Teacher, you can go on the Internet to take a look. The new teaching materials have appeared on the news. They are very well liked by students and teachers alike."

After hanging up, Lin Fan immediately checked the news on the Internet.

'New Chinese Medicine teaching materials have drawn overwhelmingly positive feedback. Teachers and students of Chinese Medical Academies have praised them highly.'

'Teaching materials written by the Godly Doctor are much, much better than the old ones.'

'Students have expressed that these are the teaching materials that they have always needed.'

...

Lin Fan smiled. But at that moment, that smile on his face got even brighter.

Encyclopedic Points +1

Encyclopedic Points +1

...

At that moment, his Encyclopedic Points increased vigorously at a rate that Lin Fan had never dared to imagine. In the past, he had taken great pains just to earn a few Encyclopedic Points but now, the rate that he was earning at was simply scary.

It kept going on and when it ended, Lin Fan had a look of shock in his eyes. The smile on his face was about to explode.

Encyclopedic Points: 3450

He had really never dared to imagine this before. It was really too perverse.

And what made Lin Fan even more surprised was that his Encyclopedic Points were still slowly increasing.

Bit!

By bit!

It seemed that there were constantly people studying his new teaching materials. However, as compared to the number of people in the whole country who study Chinese Medicine, it was still too little.

But this was because some of the people that study Chinese Medicine just wasted their days away. He couldn't have expected all of them to immerse themselves in the teaching materials.

But at this rate of progress, it wouldn't be impossible for his Encyclopedic Points to soar.

At that moment, his phone rang.

Zhou Qing Quan.

“Congratulations, Master Lin, your teaching materials have really exploded with popularity. The students of every academy really love them!”

“You’re flattering me.”

“We, the Association members, are going to distribute your ‘Various Types of Typhoid’ as well. A great writing like that must be shared with everyone who has an interest in Chinese Medicine.”

For that to be distributed was all that Lin Fan could wish for.

“Alright. If Chairman Zhou is taking care of it, I don’t have to worry. Go ahead and distribute it.”

“Haha, thank you very much, Master Lin. When you come to Beijing next time, I’ll definitely treat you to some wine.”

“Alright then.”

One after another, a few more calls came. The last one was from his father.

“Dad, what’s up?”

“Son, are those teaching materials on the news yours?”

“Yes, they are.”

“Haha...son, you’re too brilliant. Dad is proud of you. I shan’t talk anymore. I have to find a way to get a few copies of them and send them to your Uncle Li. I’ll talk to you next time. I’m hanging up.”

Lin Fan shook his head helplessly. Of course, he knew of his father’s intentions. Uncle Li was going to get attacked by his Dad again. Lin Fan couldn’t help but feel tragic for Uncle Li. Uncle Li had met this kind of a neighbor and friend, what could he possibly do about it?

Fraud Tian said, “Kid, what kind of happy incident have you come across now? That smile of yours has been there since morning.”

Lin Fan smiled, “Happy? Happy is an understatement for me right now. I feel like I’m going to soar into the sky!”

Wu You Lan carried a cup of tea over. “Brother Lin, even though these teaching materials are well received, based on your personality, you wouldn’t usually be so excited over this.”

Lin Fan smiled calmly. “You guys wouldn’t understand.”

Fraud Tian said, “How could we understand if you don’t tell us?”

Lin Fan smiled but didn’t reply. This situation wasn’t something that could be explained. What could he possibly tell them? That his Encyclopedic Points had increased sharply?

If he told them that, it would be like seeing a ghost.

He was now a rich man. Over three thousand Encyclopedic Points! That was something that he had never dared to imagine before.

But after this incident, he was filled with hope for the future. He had to keep working hard to keep earning more Encyclopedic Points.

...

The next day!

When Lin Fan woke up, the first thing he did was check his Encyclopedic Points. When he saw it, he instantly smiled.

Encyclopedic Points: 4035

It had increased by a considerable amount from the previous day.

It seemed like these Chinese Medicine teaching materials could indeed earn him enough Encyclopedic Points. As long as they didn't replace the teaching materials, he would have a never-ending source of Encyclopedic Points. Just thinking about it made him excited.

There were many things in the Encyclopedia's Department Store that he wanted to get but in the end, he decided not to. He still had to complete a task.

To get each child a perfect-grade little intelligence pill required an enormous amount of Encyclopedic Points. Six or seven thousand at least. Hence, he decided not to use the Encyclopedic Points unnecessarily for now.

At that moment, Director Huang of the Children's Welfare Institute called.

"Master Lin, a group of volunteers has come to the Welfare Institute. Do you have time to see them?" asked Director Huang.

Lin Fan, "Alright, I'll come by later. I didn't think that our Welfare Institute would get volunteers."

Director Huang laughed, "Master Lin, actually, there are volunteers every week. It's just that you've never noticed. Although these volunteers don't come frequently, they bring a different kind of feeling to the children."

Lin Fan chuckled. Then, they hung up.

Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute.

Several cars stopped outside.

Groups of men and women were carrying various types of things as they came out.

One of them, a short-haired woman smiled and said, "I never thought that I would become a volunteer. This is the first time for me. Wei Wei, you volunteer frequently. Are there any requirements we should take note of?"

This group of people hadn't volunteered before but their friend, Zhu Wei Wei, was a veteran volunteer. She would frequently go to various places to volunteer. This time, when she came to Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute, the rest followed along to take a look.

Zhu Wei Wei was quite good-looking. She had a warm and gentle smile. "There's nothing much to take note of. Just interact with the children passionately. Let them feel your warmth."

A man by the side smiled and said, "Aren't we just dealing with kids? I can do that."

Zhu Wei Wei was a little displeased. "Yang Mu, they aren't little brats. Please mind your attitude."

Yang Mu chuckled and said apologetically, "Don't be angry, Wei Wei. I was just saying that casually."

He wasn't really willing to come and volunteer. He just wanted to get closer to Wei Wei. He wasn't willing at all to come and play with some little brats. Since he had the time, he would rather do something more meaningful.

"Yang Mu, you'll make Wei Wei unhappy like this. You really should mind yourself," the short-haired lady said with a smile as she held onto Wei Wei's arm.

At that moment, Director Huang came. "Nice to meet you all. I'm the Director of this place."

Zhu Wei Wei went forward and said, "Nice to meet you, Director. I'm a volunteer, Zhu Wei Wei. Here's my volunteer certification."

Director Huang smiled, "Thank you."

Zhu Wei Wei was carrying some things. "Director Huang, this is my first time at Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute and I'm not too familiar with this place. Could you give me an introduction? That way, I'll be more familiar the next time I come."

Director Huang nodded, "Sure."

Director Huang really liked these volunteers.

Especially those who were truly willing to volunteer themselves.

Chapter 600: Drawn in

Director Huang brought Zhu Wei Wei and the rest to have a look at the Children's Welfare Institute. Through Lin Fan's hard work, the Welfare Institute had completely changed. On certain open grounds, construction workers were doing construction work. They were building places for the children to study.

The chief of the construction team knew that they were building a place of study for children who had no homes of their own. Hence, he was naturally very serious and responsible. In every regard, he did close inspections to prevent his workers from doing shoddy work. If he found anything that was not up to standard, he would get them to start all over again.

To him, building a school building for these children was a great, charitable deed. If he didn't put his heart into it, it would be a sin.

Zhu Wei Wei asked curiously, "Director Huang, what are they building here?"

Director Huang replied, "They're building a classroom building for the children. The children here have some special needs. If they were to go to school elsewhere, the schools would be too full and they wouldn't be able to enter. Furthermore, these children are not very young anymore and they should be receiving an education."

Yang Mu muttered, "This Children's Welfare Institute has a lot of money. Just building this would require at least several millions."

When Zhu Wei Wei heard this, she shot a glare at Yang Mu.

Director Huang smiled, "Actually, we don't have much money but these children have met a good person and that person has helped to raise funds for them."

When Zhu Wei Wei heard this, she nodded as she felt grateful to that person. To donate a sum of money to the Welfare Institute, that person must have really been a good person.

Far away, Lil' Fatty was pushing a wheelchair. The child in the wheelchair was missing a leg but even so, the two children were chatting cheerfully. They seemed very happy.

"Good morning, Director." The two of them displayed child-like smiles when they saw Director Huang. Although they were young, they were much more mature than average children.

They were very content with their current lives. Compared to last time, when they would get beaten and scolded for being disobedient, this was hundreds and thousands of times better.

"Where are you two going?" asked Director Huang with a smile.

Lil' Fatty replied, "Sister Xiang Xiang says that she wants to see the big car, so I'm pushing her to that side to take a look."

Director Huang patted Lil' Fatty on the head. "Mmm, very good, Lil' Fatty. You know that you should help your friends. Come, greet these older brothers and sisters. These brothers and sisters are volunteers and they're here to visit you all."

"Good morning, Big Brothers and Sisters."

Zhu Wei Wei squatted down. "Nice to meet you, Lil' Fatty. Are you happy here?"

Lil' Fatty scratched his nose and said, "I'm happy. I'm exceptionally happy."

At that moment, Zhu Wei Wei's gaze shifted to the side, to Xiang Xiang, who was sitting in the wheelchair. A hint of sorrow appeared in between her brows. "Nice to meet you, Little Sister."

Xiang Xiang was a little shy. "Nice to meet you, Big Sister."

After Lil' Fatty and Xiang Xiang left, Zhu Wei Wei was a little emotional. "Director Huang, this Xiang Xiang is very cute but..."

The short-haired little sister nodded, “At such a young age, her leg is...sigh...”

Zhu Wei Wei had done her research on the situation at Nanshan Children’s Welfare Institute before coming. The children had basically all been rescued from the clutches of the human traffickers. How good could the children’s days have been when they were with the human traffickers?

Director Huang said, “This is already considered good. We have a total of 365 children here but only 160 of them have complete and perfectly healthy bodies. The rest all have disabilities in their bodies.”

“So many?” Zhu Wei Wei couldn’t believe it. The government was actually very caring towards these disabled children. When they grew up, the government would arrange welfare jobs for them. However, their lives were still much different from those of average people.

Director Huang shook her head, “But after Master Lin’s medical treatment, only 35 children remain uncured in the end. The others have all been cured.”

Zhu Wei Wei was extremely surprised. “Director Huang. This Master Lin treated those disabled children back to health? But why are there 35 children left who can’t be treated?”

Director Huang replied, “You saw it yourself. These children are all missing limbs and they really can’t be treated. For our Welfare Institute to reach its current state is all thanks to Master Lin’s contributions.”

“That’s amazing,” said Yang Mu in shock. What Director Huang was talking about sounded like a fantasy. It was hard to believe that.

Zhu Wei Wei wasn’t Shanghaiese. She wasn’t familiar with this Master Lin. She asked curiously, “Director Huang, just who is this Master Lin? He seems so amazing.”

Initially, she had thought that this Master Lin was perhaps a volunteer like her but now, that didn’t seem like the case.

Raising funds, for someone with ability, was not a difficult thing. But treating these disabled children back to health was a little unthinkable.

Director Huang smiled, "I've already informed Master Lin that there are volunteers coming. He'll be coming over later. Then, you'll be able to talk to him."

At that moment, series of joyful voices came from outside.

"Uncle Lin..."

"Uncle Lin, hurry and come watch me draw."

The cheery laughter of the children rang from outside.

Director Huang smiled, "He's here. Over here, he's very well-liked by the children."

...

Outside.

A group of children had surrounded Lin Fan. Meanwhile, Lin Fan was all smiles. He then asked Han Lu, "Where are the volunteers?"

Han Lu had already stayed here for very long and he really liked this place. Especially when he woke up and the first thing he saw were these children, his heart would burst with excitement.

He had found his life's goal.

"Director Huang is bringing them around inside," said Han Lu.

"Oh." Lin Fan nodded, then looked at the children and asked, "How have your Chinese arts been? Have you all been lazy?"

The children replied in unison, "We haven't been lazy, Uncle Lin."

Lin Fan smiled. These children had indeed not been lazy. His Encyclopedic Points increased every day and a good number of them came from these children.

“Master Lin, you’re here.” At that moment, Director Huang came over with everyone else.

Among the crowd, Zhu Wei Wei was curiously looking at Lin Fan. He was very young but he looked very reliable. When he faced the children, in particular, he had a very warm and gentle smile.

But what made Zhu Wei Wei most curious was what kind of person this Master Lin was exactly? Why did he have such capability?

The short-haired lady held onto Zhu Wei Wei’s arm. Her mouth opened slightly as she asked in a surprised tone, “Wei Wei, is that Master Lin? But he looks so young, is he really that amazing?”

Zhu Wei Wei had no idea. This was the first time she had seen Master Lin. She believed everything Director Huang had said but she had never seen it personally, so naturally, she was a little doubtful.

Yang Mu looked at Lin Fan. Such a young man but so well-received. When a man meets another man, it is only natural for them to compare each other. In his heart, he muttered to himself, “This guy doesn’t seem like much.”

Lin Fan smiled, “Director Huang, are these the volunteers?”

Director Huang said, “Let me do an introduction. This is volunteer Zhu Wei Wei.”

The short-haired lady went forward immediately, extended her hand and said with a smile, “Nice to meet you. I’m Li Qian, this is my first time volunteering.”

Lin Fan smiled and shook her hand. Then, he said, “Welcome, everyone. I’m the person-in-charge here, Lin Fan. Nanshan Children’s Welfare Institute welcomes all of you.”

Lin Fan was very welcoming towards volunteers. Of course, that was on the condition that they were real volunteers and not people who just came here to pretend like they really cared.

However, when he first saw Zhu Wei Wei, he could already tell that this lady was a very kind person.

As for the others, they were perhaps there just to experience it once. However, that didn't matter. As long as there was one sincere person, it was enough.
