

Valiant Life 851

Chapter 851: Who made our little baby so angry?

The headmaster came to the hostel and security guards came too.

After hearing that there were students walking around the campus with those signboards, he felt that something was wrong. If this matter were to be blown up, who knew what consequences it would bring?

“Students, please keep quiet,” the headmaster immediately tried to calm the people down upon reaching the scene.

Those students that were holding the banners looked at the headmaster and started talking to him.

“We want Jin Shan Ping to leave the school. She has gravely affected our psychological health.”

“That’s right. Whenever I think of her face, I will have nightmares. That will affect my energy level for the next day.”

“We want the school to expel her and give us a pleasant learning environment again.”

One of the ladies said, “Headmaster, if she were to continue staying in school, we will withdraw from here.”

The others also agreed with what she said.

“That’s right. You can only choose her or us. Whenever I see her face, I get goosebumps all over my body. If I were to see her in the toilet at night, I would be shocked to death.”

The headmaster looked at the students and furrowed his brows. They really had no leniency. They had received a lot of reports about this matter. In the end, they had a meeting and they decided to expel her. Although the official statement had been announced, nothing was confirmed yet. They still had to speak to the student to get her understanding.

“All of you, shut up,” the headmaster said loudly and sternly.

The students kept quiet and they just waited there.

After asking the teachers, the headmaster knew which hostel Jin Shan Ping stayed at. He brought some people there and hoped to be able to discuss it with her.

Jin Shan Ping sat in her room feeling really uneasy. She heard everything that was said outside. She really didn't want to leave the University because he wanted to finish her studies.

However, she felt that nobody wanted to give her the opportunity to finish it.

knock knock

After hearing the sound of the door being knocked, she trembled in fear. She felt that something bad was about to happen. However, she still opened the door. When she saw the people outside, she felt as if she couldn't breathe anymore.

“Hi, headmaster and teachers,” Jin Shan Ping greeted respectfully.

When the headmaster and the teachers saw Jin Shan Ping's face, they felt as if the air had become still. It was horrifying. It was indeed horrifying.

They went into the room.

The headmaster said, “You should've understood what had happened by now. We're all helpless about this. Because you really affected the other students and they're unhappy about it. Therefore, I am going to have to expel you. Do you understand that?”

Jin Shan Ping was anxious after hearing that, “Headmaster, can you not expel me? I really want to finish my University education. I didn't cause fear in any student. I always wore a mask and a hat whenever I go out. Furthermore, I have never left my hostel at night before.”

She was so emotional that she almost knelt down in front of the headmaster.

The headmaster felt that her face looked scarier with every look at her. He was horrified and he couldn't look at her anymore.

Then, he finally understood what the students were feeling. Gradually, he began to side the students that made a big fuss out of it.

"Alright, don't say anything now. This matter has been decided. Just pack up and leave by this week." The headmaster didn't say anything else. He just wanted to leave the room as soon as possible.

It was as if it would affect his mood if he stayed any longer.

The headmaster walked out and announced the final outcome to the students.

When the students heard that, they laughed.

"Haha, nice! It feels amazing. We finally won!"

"Long live, my school!"

When the headmaster saw that, he nodded happily. He finally resolved this issue.

Meanwhile, those students that didn't support the decision just stood there helplessly. They couldn't have done anything and they just sighed.

Jin Shan Ping felt as if her life was over. She felt that she had lost it ever since that incident three years ago. Now, she was only struggling while death was waiting for her.

She didn't know if what she did that time was worth it but she knew that her life was hopeless now.

Despair and sadness filled her heart.

"Everyone."

Just when most of the students were cheering, a voice came.

“D*mn, why is she outside? Ugh, my eyes.”

“It’s so scary. Don’t let us see your face. It’s too horrifying.”

“Get lost. Get lost now.”

“We don’t want to see you.”

Some of the students that were carrying the banners, covered their eyes. While the other students scolded and shouted. They felt as if they were being hurt.

Jin Shan Ping lowered her head after being abused. “I’m sorry to have caused the inconvenience. I really want to continue studying. Can you give me a chance?”

“No, get out of our school.”

“Yeah, whenever I see you, I can’t continue studying.”

...

At Cloud Street.

Lin Fan was scrolling through Weibo. He didn’t really continue reading about the school’s incident. However, someone sent him a private message.

Lin Fan opened the message and realized that it was a video. His calmness slowly disappeared as he watched the video.

After watching it, he couldn’t take it anymore. He immediately cursed.

“F*ck!”

It was so loud that it shocked everyone in the shop.

Fraud Tian gasped, “What the, what happened to you?”

Lin Fan immediately stood up, “Don’t care about me. F*cking hell, I’m so angry. Looks like I have to do something about this today.”

“What is it?” Everyone just stared at each other curiously. They didn’t understand what was going on.

He was infuriated after watching the video. How could the students do that to her?

The mockery in the video was too infuriating.

In the end, he posted it on Weibo without any hesitation.

Lin Fan: I won’t say anything else. I’ll have to be a busybody today. Nobody shall stop me.

The netizens who were active on Weibo didn’t know what had happened. Who made their precious one so furious? However, when they watched the video, they were furious too.

*F*ck, that’s too much. Count me in. I am going to skip class to go to that stupid University to take a look at these idiotic students.”

“F*ck, I’m not in Shanghai. If I was in Shanghai, I would rush there too.”

“Are the leaders in school mentally unsound?”

“It’s infuriating. It’s really infuriating. I can’t take it anymore.”

“Brothers and sisters of Shanghai, let’s go to Jin He University now to take a look. In the past 30+ years of my life, it’s the first time I want to do something about something.”

“They’re such bullies. They can’t bully her like this.”

“Master Lin, we support you. All the best!”

...

Chapter 852: I’m a big fan of yours

Right now, he was thinking that these students were really too disgusting. He was wondering how they could be so unforgiving.

This was totally different from what he was thinking.

Could they have studied so much that they’ve become stup*d?

Have they really become so selfish, only caring about themselves as well as being so unforgiving?

D*mn!

This was really a pity.

When he reached the entrance to Jin He University, he had already finished doing his preparations. Given the current situation this school was in, he was afraid that his righteous approach would not work.

His Hummer stopped at the entrance. Lin Fan made his expression a little more serious to let the guards feel his vigor and then slowly opened the door.

“The school does not allow outside vehicles to enter,” the security guard at the door came by and said. However, when he took a closer look and saw who was in the car, the security guard was stunned. Then, he could not help crying out in excitement.

“Master Lin!”

Lin Fan’s expression became friendlier. He did not expect that the security guard would actually recognize him. Thus, he couldn’t be so cold anymore.

He didn’t wait for Lin Fan to say anything before he said excitedly, “Master Lin, are you here to uphold the justice in this place? I saw your post on Weibo saying that you would be coming.”

Lin Fan nodded and said, “Yep.”

The security guard heard this and immediately pressed the button. The school’s electronic gate slowly opened, “Master Lin, you should get in quickly. The rascals here are really out of this world. If I did not rely on this place to support myself, I would have taken a weapon and fought with them already, they are really huge bullies. I really pity those female students. Okay, I won’t say so much, you should quickly get in.”

Lin Fan, “...”

He was a little stunned. Then he laughed. He never thought that this security guard was so righteous.

D*mn, if I don’t settle this situation today, I’ll really be letting down this man who opened the gate for me.

“Okay, you can just wait for the good news. Although this doesn’t really concern me and can be deemed as meddling with other people’s business, but that’s what I like to do. If anyone has any issues, I’ll definitely come and butt in,” Lin Fan said.

“That’s right. Master Lin, I’m a big fan of yours. I really like your personality. However, you should quickly get in. From what I saw just now, there was some very barbaric ruckus. They are gathering below the female’s dormitories, I’ll give you the directions there. Just walk towards there and you will be able to see it,” the security guard pointed to the nearby road and said.

“Heroic man. If anyone causes you trouble in the future, you can come to Cloud Street and find me. From how you opened the door for me today, I can feel that you’re a real man,” Lin Fan did not say much else then stepped on the gas pedal and quickly drove in.

The security guard stood at the same spot and watched the car zoom away. Immediately, he felt very different.

Lin Fan said that he was a true man. Such a praise really made him feel exceptionally happy.

They were also filled with anticipation. That group of rascals was done for.

...

Below the dormitories.

The ruckus was even louder. A group of students was surrounding the area, watching, pointing around as well as holding on to their phones.

They felt that this demonstration was really very unfathomable. They were merely studying and had to wear masks whenever they left the house, so how did this obstruct their cause?

However, there were bits of gossip that were being spread around.

“I heard that Jin Shan Ping offended her roommate and now she is being aimed at.”

“I also heard that gossip. However, I don’t know if it’s real or not. If it really is like that then it’s really too disgusting.”

“Isn’t it that Han Yan? She is the school’s female goddess. There are a lot of people who secretly like her. I’ve seen her circle of friends with a picture of Jin Shan Ping and I was very surprised. Then, a group of dumb*sses gathered together and wanted to chase Jin Shan Ping away for their goddess.”

“Also, I heard that Han Yan was raised by a gangster. That gangster has a very good relationship with the school’s headmaster and he even sent him some money to chase Jin Shan Ping out of the school.”

“It can’t be. Jin Shan Ping didn’t even provoke them, how can they treat her like that?”

“How would I know? This society is really extraordinary. If it is not you provoking other people, then other people will come and disturb you. In the end, no one would understand what is happening and wouldn’t know why such a thing has happened.”

“Hush! Don’t talk about it anymore. If other people hear us talking about it, it will be bad for us as well.”

...

On the scene.

Jin Shan Ping lowered her head in despair. Tears were flowing down her cheeks. She did not know how to act in the face of all of her own schoolmates trying to chase her out.

At this moment, within the group of people, the girl that everyone was looking out for, stood up.

“Jin Shan Ping, if I were you, I would not stay in this school anymore. All you ever do is think about yourself. You’ve never thought about us before. You being in this school is affecting all of us,” Han Yan very calmly said. However, on her face was a very complacent smile, one which frightened people.

Right now, she was extremely satisfied. This whole situation was instigated by her. Initially, she just wanted to complain, so she wrote a small post on the school’s forum to blame her. However, she did not think that it would actually blow up to such a large extent.

Some of the male students heard their female goddess say that one sentence, and one by one they all agreed with it.

“That’s right, it doesn’t affect you but it deeply affects all of us.”

“Just hurry up and go. Don’t stay here any longer.”

“You must really not want any face. No one here welcomes you and you still insist on staying here. It’s really a joke.”

The headmaster saw this entire scene and opened his mouth and spoke, “Okay, students, stop it,” then his gaze shifted to Jin Shan Ping, “Student Jin, I hope that you’ll carefully think about this. Whether it’s about you or about other students, you should try to empathize.”

“Empathise your *ss.”

At this moment, booming noise could be heard. In everyone’s eyes, a Hummer drove in flashily. Due to the friction between the tires and the ground, it made a monstrously ear-piercing noise. Ignoring the parking spot, it immediately came to a halt, blocking the entire road.

The silhouette of a man appeared. It pushed the door open and a man immediately came out.

The surrounding students saw the person and cried out in shock.

“Sh*t! Master Lin is here.”

“Motherf*cker, Master Lin really came. This is really going to blow up.”

“Quick, start videoing! This thing is going to become disastrous. Master Lin is famous for poking his nose into others business because when he sees something that makes him unhappy, he will definitely go and settle it.”

“Too cool. We can see how presumptuous he can be.”

Some of the students who didn’t dare to make any noise saw that Master Lin had come and finally found a backbone and became braver.

Initially, they did not dare to say anything. But now, they were even louder in their discussion.

The school's headmaster and teachers all came by and looked on.

“Why is this b*stard here?”

Right now, he had a deep amount of hatred for Lin Fan.

Tell me, does this issue even concern him the smallest bit?

He was really so insistent on poking his nose into other people's issues. He had been the school's headmaster for such a long time and regardless of what kind of parents he faced, he has always been very polite. However, right now, there was this young man, who became so cocky just because of some small accomplishments, thinking of himself as some sort of God.

...

Chapter 853: Are you taking bribes?

The headmaster walked up to Lin Fan. His expression was a little angry as he said, “Master Lin, I hope that you will watch your tone. Also, how did you get in here?”

“How I got in does not concern you at all,” Lin Fan had talked to this headmaster on the phone and he expressed his anger to him before. Now that he was meeting him face to face, he was definitely not going to give him any face at all.

To others, the headmaster was like a God. The children wanted to study here so they kept trying to flatter the headmaster. However, for Lin Fan, he didn't even have any kids, so there was no need for him to flatter the headmaster.

“You...” the headmaster cast an angry look onto Lin Fan, “Do you not have any basic courtesy at all? Can't you talk to me properly?”

“Nope,” Lin Fan said as he taunted the headmaster with his expression. Then, his gaze shifted to the female student who was standing there. He carefully looked at her. He felt helpless.

However, in his eyes, there was not anything too scary about this. Maybe at a glance, he would think it was scary but he was already used to it.

After which, he did not care about the headmaster and the students who looked like they wanted to beat up him but went directly to Jin Shan Ping's side. He patted her on the shoulder and tried to comfort her by saying, "Student Jin, don't be scared. Even though none of them want to help you, the Master is here to help you," then he looked at the students who were carrying a banner.

"What are you students doing?" Lin Fan asked.

The rowdy students looked at Lin Fan and unhappily said, "Master Lin, don't bother about this issue. You said that we were trash on Weibo didn't you?"

"That's right. You humiliated us."

"In the past, I still thought that you were pretty decent. I didn't think that you were such a disgusting person."

The students were not going to be afraid of Lin Fan just because he was famous on Weibo. They had so many people with them so they had nothing to be afraid of. They simply scolded as they wished.

Lin Fan laughed and said, "Trash? I said that the people who enrolled themselves at this university were fools. I did not say that you guys were trash."

When the rowdy students heard this, they could not help feeling complacent. To them, this Master Lin was in complete fear of them.

However, when they thought about it, they felt like they were right. They were all higher education students, the future of the nation. Against them was just a guy who uses Weibo to amuse himself. How would he even dare to provoke them?

But suddenly, something felt amiss.

Lin Fan very calmly said, “I did not think about it before, but now that you guys mentioned it, I’ll have to add on to my statement. You bunch of rowdy students, in my eyes, are trash. Wait, no... you guys aren’t even trash. Trash can still be recycled and become something useful, but if we recycle you guys, it will feel like we are just polluting the area.”

“Good...”

The surrounding students heard this and could not hold control themselves and started shouting. However, in the blink of an eye, they shut up. They realized that the headmaster was staring at them with a killer look in his eyes. When they saw that, they panicked and felt like something bad was going to happen.

Han Yan, as a female goddess, saw that Master Lin was standing up for Jin Shan Ping and was very unhappy.

Such ugly people should just stay away.

Master Lin, in her heart, was someone she deemed to be a suitable partner. However, she already had a partner. Even though he was a fat pig, but his load of money was even bigger.

In her eyes, good looks came from assets.

Although this Master Lin did not have a lot of money, he was famous enough. However, she did not see anything attractive in the way Master Lin was right now.

“Master Lin, as a famous public figure, don’t you think that it is very inappropriate for you to say things like that?” Han Yan arrogantly said.

The moment she spoke, everyone’s attention shifted to her.

The surrounding students all saw that the female goddess had opened her mouth and they all agreed with her. To them, whatever the female goddess says, goes.

“Suitable or not, how does that concern you? I’m here today to say one thing – You students, are trash. Do you understand?” Lin Fan was lazy to talk about useless things with them and got straight to the point.

Not surprisingly, when everyone heard that, they became furious in an instant. They felt like they had been humiliated.

“F*ck you mother, how can you be so untactful with your words?”

“F*cker, calling us trash.”

“Humiliating our goddess. Disgusting. Really too disgusting.”

Han Yan’s expression became very ugly. She had never had anyone speak to her like that before.

Jin Shan Ping did not know what to do and was just rooted to the spot. She did not know what was going on and why Master Lin had come to speak up for her.

The only thing she could feel was that the atmosphere was not right and that everyone was seemed to be angry.

“Master Lin...” Jin Shan Ping said with a very weak voice as she was not very confident. However, when she was about to talk, she was cut off but Lin Fan.

To Lin Fan, she did not need to say anything right now.

Lin Fan looked at the headmaster and said, “I really want to ask, since these trash are saying that this student is bothering them, how do the other students feel? Can I trouble you guys to tell me if you really think that her appearance is affecting your studies?”

“You guys should know that she is only like that because she saved someone’s life three years ago.”

When Lin Fan said that, the surrounding students all looked at each other in dismay.

One of the darker skinned male students stood up.

“I haven’t been affected at all. I feel like besides losing my head out of fear the first time, I got used to it the second time and it hasn’t affected me at all.”

This male student had been holding back for a long time. He was a very righteous person inside, but in the face of so many people opposing him, he was a little scared. But now that Master Lin had stood up for her, he was not scared at all.

Han Yan and the rest of them heard what he said and then immediately shouted at him. Their eyes were filled with anger and some of the rowdy students began to snarl at him.

“Which class are you from?”

“F*ck, I think he wants to die.”

Various words of abuse came from the crowd of people.

Lin Fan laughed and said, “Headmaster, are the students your school accept of such a manner? Or is it because your school is lacking money so you opened up your back door and let some rich hooligans come here and study?”

When the headmaster heard this, his expression looked a little green as well as a little white. He said, “You better not try and slander us. Our school’s enrolment is all based on the grades of the students. There is definitely none of that ‘opening the back door’. Please watch the words that you use.”

In the sea of surrounding students, another one of them stood up.

“I did not feel like she was affecting us but rather, it was the actions of you guys that made me feel disgusted. She did not do anything to provoke you guys so why do you guys want to chase her out of the school?”

“That’s right. She came in through her results. How can people like you, who have access to higher education, still have this sort of discriminating eyes?”

“This was all the doing of Han Yan. I don’t know if the rest of the group are crazy but this girl is already the mistress of some fat pig. Yet they still suck up to her every day and are being used as tools by her. It is really foolish.”

“Master Lin, I have no complaints at all.”

Lin Fan smiled and said, “Headmaster, what do you have to say? A majority of the students all have no problem with her and yet you are still listening to the displeasure of a small group of students and going to expel a student. Let me ask you – is your brain being controlled by them or are you taking bribes and doing deeds for them?”

Chapter 854: Losing his head in anger

“You... you,” the school’s headmaster was infuriated by words that Lin Fan had said.

At the same time, he was feeling a little guilty. Initially, he would never let such things happen. However, this guy with the surname Lin was right, he had been taking bribes.

After taking the money, he felt that this was something that was pretty hard to do. However, after investigating, he realized that this Jin Shan Ping’s parents were divorced and they were also foreigners. Naturally, he did not fear the situation anymore.

Getting rid of one family was easy. So much so that getting rid of some other of the poor families from this school was pretty easy as well.

Especially since there started being demonstrations after that and the students were protesting. That made his life even easier.

He did not really care even if the situation blew up. He had already thought of his excuse to tell others. This student had an individual problem which has caused a lot of objections from the large majority of the student body. In order to give the large majority of the students a better learning environment, he had no choice but to expel the student.

Although this could possibly have some issues, he was just going to say it anyway.

However, he never thought that after this situation occurred, the busybody from Cloud Street, Master Lin, would actually come to this school and get into a heated argument with them.

Unbearable, it is simply unbearable.

At this moment, Lin Fan's gaze shifted to the rowdy students and said, "I'm giving you guys a chance right now. Immediately disband and stop making all this noise. Whether or not Jin Shan Ping can study at this school is not up to you pieces of trash to decide, understood?"

The rowdy students heard this and one by one all became furious.

"F*ck you, what are you trying to say?"

"Who do you think you are?"

"F*ck, this is the first time I've wanted to beat someone up so much."

"You really are dogsh*t."

The rowdy students frantically cursed him in rage.

Then, the headmaster stepped up, he was controlling his anger as he said, "Master Lin, please leave our school grounds. This is a decision the school board has come to and is not for you to decide. I hope that you will quickly leave."

The rowdy students all shouted loudly, "That's right. This is our school's issue, why is an outsider like you caring so much? Quickly get out of here."

Jin Shan Ping, who was standing next to Lin Fan, had an enormous change in her expression. She had received a deep amount of attack to her and her heart was already filled with despair.

Lin Fan couldn't take it anymore. He immediately shoved the headmaster aside and then turned his eyes to this group of fierce-looking and easy to hate students and then angrily said, "You pieces of trash, I really just want to beat all of you guys up."

The students could not take it after hearing that.

"F*ck, who do you think you are? Wanting to beat us up. Whether you believe it or not, we are going to make you unable to leave the school grounds."

Lin Fan beckoned and said, "Good, come, all of you, come at me. Take a look if I'd beat you guys to a pulp."

"F*ck, who's afraid of you," one of the tall students angrily rushed up to him. Looking at his build, he looked like he frequently played basketball. Right now, they were all trying to get Lin Fan to leave the school. They didn't know what this b*stard was trying to do, being such a huge busybody.

They did not think it was even possible that all of them could be afraid of this one guy.

Then, at this moment.

"Master Lin, where are you?"

Everyone's gaze shifted into the distance.

The silhouette of a group of people appeared in the distance. These were the people who had seen the posts on Weibo and rushed all the way down here. They were all from Shanghai.

With regards to this issue, they were all very angry and did not agree with it. In their eyes, this group of brats was really too much. They were way too different from the love-filled days back when they were in university.

The group of people came to Master Lin's side and looked at the group of students who were holding the banner. All of them with angry looks on their faces.

One of the big sized men burst out in anger. He rolled his sleeve up and pointed at the students and scolded them. “You pieces of trash. What are you guys trying to do? Bully other people?”

The rest of them also joined in the scolding. It was very clear that they were all furious. But of course, when they saw Jin Shan Ping, they were a little taken aback, thinking that she was really a little scary. However, after making mental preparations, they were not that scared anymore.

However, they knew that this situation was not easy to solve. They were outsiders so even if they made some noise today, then what about tomorrow and the next few days?

It was simply not practical for them to just keep coming down to the school every day.

If they wanted to deal with this issue, they had to tackle the root cause.

Lin Fan saw that so many people had some and rushed to say, “Okay, everyone relax. Today, we are here to settle this situation. Although we have no relation to this issue, but since we happened to find out about it, we couldn’t just sit back and watch. What is happening to her today might happen to us in the future.”

“Yes, Master Lin is right. As long as we have the capability to help, we can’t just sit back and watch.”

“This group of brats is really easy to loathe. How can they be university students? In my eyes, they aren’t even at the level of primary school students. At least primary school students have respect.”

In the face of so many people, the rowdy students were starting to dread this situation,

When the headmaster saw this situation, he rushed to shout, “Where are the security guards? Where have the security guards gone? Quickly call the police. These people are trespassing on school grounds, they should all be arrested.”

Lin Fan looked at the headmaster and said, “Let me ask you, is it a must for you to expel her?”

The headmaster replied, “This is the conclusion that the school’s discussion came to. Please leave the school right now, if not, we’ll have to call the police.”

Amongst the rowdy students, some of them were filled with resentment and immediately took their phones out and said, “Everyone, report this to the police and let them come over and arrest them. They came here to our school, made noise and even wanted to attack us.”

“That’s right, call the police. We have to call the police.”

The surrounding students were also furious in that moment. They said, “This group of b*stards are actually too shameless. F*ck, this is unbelievable!”

“I was actually friends with them before. Such an embarrassment.”

“Sh*t, I really regret this. If I had known earlier, I wouldn’t have come to this school.”

As the situation became more and more agitated.

Han Yan did not think that there would be so many people who would come and protect this incomparably ugly girl. She became furious and couldn’t take it anymore. She shouted, “If she isn’t expelled, then we will drop out!”

“That’s right. We will drop out. If you want her, then we’ll leave. If you want us then she’ll have to leave.”

“Headmaster, we request that you expel her.”

The rowdy students were all extremely stubborn and did not want to back down.

At the same time, there were some people inside who liked the drama, who was making some noise also.

To them, seeing other people’s pain made them feel very blissful.

As for whether Jin Ping Shan has distracted them or not, they did not care about that at all. Anyway, even if they were not playing around in the dormitories, they would be playing around outside, thus they would not even see her much during the school term.

However, since everyone was making noise, they definitely wanted to make some noise as well.

They were probably just following the opinions of the majority.

In any case, there were so many people. What could the school possibly do to them?

Furthermore, the headmaster was on their side so they had nothing to fear.

Lin Fan was so angry that the pit of his stomach was hurting. He really wanted to do something about it and beat this group of b*stards to death.

Chapter 855: Giving them a huge amount of pleasure

At the Shanghai Airport.

“Director Chen, it must have been tough on you.”

“No, it wasn’t tiring at all. To be able to talk to the people overseas from Stanford University makes any hardship worthwhile,” Director Chen was about 50 years old and was highly capable. His trip overseas went very smoothly this time around. Although it was a little time-consuming, he did not care because he had succeeded.

“Hey, Director Chen. Looks like something has happened at the school.”

Director Chen was stunned. He said, “What happened?”

“You should take a look. It looks like the students have organized a movement request for one of the students from the school to be expelled. Even Master Lin from Cloud Street has gotten involved.”

Director Chen was very familiar with the name Master Lin. He said, “Master Lin? Is it Master Lin from the Chinese Arts Association?”

He loved classical literature, poems, and paintings. He had specially made a trip down to the Beijing museum to see the artworks. When he first saw them, he was stunned by the unique masterpieces.

As a result, he was very curious about Master Lin and wanted to get to know him. Although Master Lin was young, he was able to create such masterpieces, he must have had some profound kind of training.

“That’s right, it’s that Master Lin. He is already at the school now, confronting the students as well as the teachers.”

Director Chen waved his hand and then looked at the video. He was watching and walking at the same, trying to rush back to the school.

He was only gone for half a month, how could such a thing happen?

In the car.

Director Chen had already understood the situation and his complexion was very unsightly. He said, “Preposterous, absolutely preposterous. Jin He University was established 60 years ago and in all its time, it has never had anything like this before. Who approved this? Who agreed to have this student expelled?”

His tone was very serious and he was furious.

The staff members with him admired him in their hearts and they said, “Director, it was Headmaster Yang who made the decision.”

“Yang Min? What power does he have to make this decision? Since Jin He University was established, its goal has been to educate students. Even if the students commit some big mistakes, we will, according to the situation, still give them a chance to turn over a new leaf. Right now, this student is going to be expelled merely because her appearance is a little frightening? I want to ask, who is the one who caused this?”

“Director Chen, the student is called Jin Shan Ping. She had this change of appearance because three years ago, her neighbor’s house caught fire and she went in to save her neighbor’s child.

When Director Chen heard this, he was even more furious. He said, “This sort of student with such virtues is exactly what Jin He University is looking for. She did not receive any commendation and is even going to be expelled? Drive faster. I want to quickly see who is the one who had the nerve to do something like this.”

“Got it,” the driver said as he drove even faster.

Even as a driver, when he heard about this situation, he was very angry inside as well. He never thought that there would actually be students like that in a school. But the thing that confused him, even more, was the actions of the school’s headmaster. He could not understand why he would agree such a request by the students, causing trouble with no reason.

...

At Jin He University.

Jin Shan Ping was very grateful to see Master Lin and the rest of them. However, at that moment, she stood up and said, “Master Lin, don’t argue with them anymore. I’m willing to drop out.”

“No, I won’t allow that,” Lin Fan waved her off and said.

Even if I don’t settle this thing today, I, Master Lin, will keep dragging this on.

Also, the surrounding students also called out.

“Student Jin, don’t drop out. We still love you.”

“That’s right. We don’t feel like you are distracting us. We are willing to be friends with you.”

The rowdy students saw the scene unfolding in front of their eyes and could not help hooting.

“Jin Shan Ping, if I were you, I definitely would not stay here.”

“What are you guys trying to do? She is already willing to drop out by herself.”

“That’s right.”

...

Jin Shan Ping stood up and said, “I’m sorry my fellow students. Because of me, you guys have to live in horror. I understand the situation and I am willing to drop out so that I won’t scare you guys anymore.”

Then, she turned around and bowed towards Lin Fan and the rest of them and said, “Thank you Master Lin and the rest of the students. I’ve already thought it through, I’m going to drop out. Thanks for your help.”

“I said that I won’t allow that,” Lin Fan said. He was furious. Then he looked at the group of rowdy students and said, “F*ck your mothers, you pieces of trash. I’m really itching to make all of you guys crippled. I never thought that there would actually be students like you guys in schools, it’s really disgusting.”

“What do you mean, Mr. Lin? Don’t think that just because you have some fame that we will all be scared of you. What wrong do we even have in this issue? We were the ones who were frightened by her.”

“That’s right. Why don’t you take a look online and see how many people are also frightened by her?”

...

The arguing on the scene was never-ending.

Lin Fan was feeling f*cked on the inside. He really wanted to hammer these students to death. However, he controlled himself.

Don't do anything rash. Calm down. I won't give up until this situation is resolved.

“What are you guys doing?”

At this moment, a shout of rage came from the distance.

Everyone saw the person that was coming and was stunned.

“It's Director Chen.”

The headmaster saw Director Chen and was stunned as well. He did not think that the director had come back already.

Initially, this was also just a small issue and they could have taken care of it. It would never have reached the level of which the director would have been alerted.

Director Chen's expression was very solemn as he walked towards them. The moment he reached the school, he had heard all the words of the rowdy students. If he did not personally hear them himself, he would not have dared to believe that it was from his own students.

Then he looked at Lin Fan and immediately walked towards him and extended his hand. He said, “Hello Master Lin. I am the director of Jin He University. I went overseas to do some work and I just got back. Regarding this situation, I'm really sorry to have ridiculed you through this.”

Lin Fan originally wanted to express his dissatisfaction towards the director but upon seeing his expression, he could sense his intentions. Thus, he calmed down and nodded. He said, “Director Chen, Jin He University has been a disappointment. Although it is not some hundreds-over-years-old famous school, but it is still quite prestigious in the circle of universities.

Director Chen kept apologizing. This was all his fault. He did not even need to think about this issue. He definitely would not agree to expel a student for such a small reason.

Yang Min rushed over and said, “Director, this issue...”

Director Chen glared at him and did not say a word. Then, he looked at the students who were holding the banner and then looked at the teachers and said, “Record down the names of all these students.”

The teachers definitely could not defy the words of the director.

Han Yan opened her mouth and spoke, “Director, we object to this. Her being in this school is severely affecting our ability to study. We request that she be expelled.”

“That’s right director. We object.”

“If you want her then we will leave. If you want us, then she has to leave.”

The group of ret*rds still did not understand the situation. They thought that just because they had strength in numbers, they could do anything.

The teachers passed him the names that they had recorded down.

Director Chen glanced at it and then was very bitter as he said, “Ever since Jin He University was established, we have strived to educate students as well as govern them with rules equally. Regardless of whether the students are rich or poor, as long as they have the heart for learning, Jin He University will always welcome them. However, in the face of people with huge deficiencies in moral quality, regardless of whether they are the top scorer or have obtained how many awards, Jin He University won’t accept them. Thus, with regards to your request, I’m telling you guys that the student Jin Shan Ping will be staying here. As for you guys, I’m here, giving you guys formal notice that you guys have been expelled. Your actions have been disgraceful and hateful.”

When that sentence was said, the headmaster was thoroughly dumbfounded.

The faces of the rowdy students were as white as ghosts. The arrogant looks on their faces were long gone.

“I don’t want to leave the school. I was wrong. I was just joining in the fun, I didn’t really want her to leave the school.”

“Director, please give us another chance.”

“I can’t be expelled. I’ll get beaten to death.”

“Boo Hoo! Director, please don’t do this, don’t expel us.”

Some of the teachers urgently said, “Director, one of the students here is an International Mathematics Competition champion, you see...”

Director Chen did not even give it a second thought and just waved them off and said, “We don’t need this type of champion.”

Then, he went in front of Jin Shan Ping and said, “Student Jin, I’m very sorry. The school has never discriminated against anyone before. I hope that you don’t have any prejudice against the school.”

Jin Shan Ping stood rooted to the spot, dumbfounded. She still could not grasp what was going on.

Lin Fan raised up his thumb and said, “Director Chen, you really have the greatest conscience out of all the directors in the academic world.”

“Master Lin, if I am the first director you have seen with a conscience, then it is really the grievance of the academic world. Without you Master Lin, I’m afraid that the situation would have spiraled into a stage where it would not be controllable,” Director Chen forced a smile and said.

Lin Fan laughed and said, “Director Chen, this situation really doesn’t concern me at all. If I did not come here, you would have peacefully settled this issue.”

“Hey, I really pity that Student Jin,” Director Chen said.

Lin Fan replied, “Actually, I have another reason for coming here. I feel that I can restore this Student Jin’s face back to normal.”

When Lin Fan said this, the people next to him were all stunned.

Jin Shan Ping looked at Lin Fan with even more disbelief. It was as if she did not believe what he said.

As for the students who were protesting just now, their faces were all completely white and they were crying for their parents. They really did not think that they would be expelled.

The female goddess Han Yan was so scared, she couldn't even speak.

At the same time, the students who were watching on were all clapping in excitement. They had a huge amount of resentment towards those rowdy students and right now, their retribution had come. It made them feel a great amount of pleasure inside.

...

Chapter 856: Mutual business promotion

Jin Shan Ping looked at Master Lin in disbelief and said, "I can really look normal again?"

Lin Fan did not have a huge amount of assurance. However, the pills that he concocted did have that type of result, so he felt like it should be possible. Then he nodded and said, "Yep, believe me, it should be possible. Do you know where my store is?"

"I know, I know," Jin Shan Ping immediately nodded. She was clearly very excited and felt like good luck had fallen on her head.

"That's good. Come over tomorrow afternoon and I'll help you take a look," Lin Fan said.

Jin Shan Ping did not know what to say. Maybe she had her doubts about this situation, but she had complete trust in Master Lin.

In his many identities, one of them was the Godly Doctor.

The amount of trust she had in Lin Fan had reached a very high level.

The problems at Jin He University had been resolved. Originally, to others, they would not care about this issue too much as it did not happen to them. However, to Lin Fan, he had to uphold justice since he had gotten involved.

He did not want to be asked why he was such a busybody.

I like to be a busybody. If you can't take it, come and whack me.

The residents who had previously come here to help felt very satisfied with the outcome. They also thought that this director was not bad.

Lin Fan looked at everyone and said, "Thank you, everyone, for coming to assist us. In the face of such unfair circumstances, we can't just sit back and watch but we also cannot add fuel to the fire. This time, everyone dropped what they were doing to come and help, I'm really grateful."

The residents who had come earlier to help could not help laughing.

"Master Lin, there's something wrong with you saying this. Also, there's no need for to thank us. This sort of situation was very unbearable for all of us."

"That's right. I feel like ever since I started paying attention to Master Lin, I feel like I've become more righteous as well."

"Haha, me too. I realized that I've started to like butting into other people's business. When I see something that isn't right, I'll go up and say something. The previous time, I almost got beaten by someone."

To them, this was the perfect ending to this issue and they felt elated inside. Although they did not help much, but at least they got involved in it.

Lin Fan was also feeling very grateful. It seemed like he had started something very good with all these residents feeling the magical power of righteousness.

After today, they will walk down the road of righteousness, bravely advancing forward and never falling back.

“Director Chen, I shan’t disturb you any further,” Lin Fan said.

Director Chen nodded and replied, “Master Lin, regarding this issue, I’ll conduct a very strict investigation and giving a stern talk to all those people involved in it.”

This issue had already blown up to something pretty big and you could even say that it had become a stain.

Being the director of the school, he could not just sit back and not care about this.

“Okay, I’ll make a move first,” Lin Fan smiled and said. Then he prepared to leave.

However, when Lin Fan was preparing to leave the school grounds, the students, who were already completely confused, one by one cried and begged.

“Master Lin, I beg you, please help us talk to the director. We were in the wrong.”

“I can’t drop out of this school. If my parents find out about this, they will give me a very gruesome death.”

“Boo Hoo. I really regret this. How did I end up joining a demonstration?”

The people who were originally hooting and calling themselves awesome were now all extremely afraid.

When the situation had not occurred yet, they were arrogant bullies, driving people into the wall. However, now something that they did not think would happen happened to them.

Expulsion!

This would definitely lead to something major.

Lin Fan looked at these students and laughed.

You guys still want me to plead for you all? You guys must be dreaming.

Then, he ignored them and left the area.

He did not care about what the students said. When they were forcing someone into the wall, they were so excited. However, now that the tables have turned, they finally know how it feels.

As far as helping them plea, he would only do so if he was possessed by the Virgin Mary.

Of course, was something like that possible?

It definitely was not.

When he reached the gate of the school.

The security guard saw Master Lin leaving and he immediately raised his thumb, indicating that he did well.

Lin Fan looked at him and smiled. He raised his thumb as well, indicating to him that he did well.

He did not merely just let him in, he let all the other residents in as well. His security guard really had a righteous heart.

But right now, even if he wanted to leave the school, it would not be so easy.

The outside had been filled with reporters a long time ago.

The security guard had stopped all the reporters outside and did not let them in. He did not want the school to be affected too much.

Although he was a security guard, he knew the way reporters were and how they would recklessly report the news. It would lead to situations where simple explanations would not solve.

The reporters had been waiting outside for a long time. When they heard that Master Lin was coming to the school, they could not wait and rushed right over.

They wanted to come to the front line and get the news in order to get the latest reports.

However, this security guard did not let them into the school, making them extremely anxious.

Then, the reporters all cried out in shock.

“Master Lin is coming out.”

All of the reporters gaze shifted onto Lin Fan. The main man had arrived. Although they did not know how the situation had developed, if they could get a hold of Master Lin, it would definitely be good enough.

When Lin Fan saw so many reporters, he helplessly sighed. Even if he wanted to leave, he was not going to be able to.

He would be dreaming if he thought he would be able to leave without satisfying these reporters.

Even if he were to run away from them here, he would not be safe back at Cloud Street.

Just when Lin Fan was still deep in thought, the reporters had already gathered around with all their microphones and handphones out and ready.

“Master Lin, how is the situation inside now?”

“What has happened to that female student who had her face destroyed by a fire?”

“Master Lin, did you talk to the students? Also, how did the school handle the situation?”

“Master Lin, what is your relationship with that female student? Why did you have to stand up for her?”

One by one, they asked the questions as if they were free. This made Lin Fan feel very helpless. There were too many questions being asked and he could not answer any.

Then he waved his hand and said, “Everyone please quieten down a little. You guys are asking so many questions, how do you expect me to answer them? Let me answer them one by one, okay?”

Lin Fan did not really have much of a choice. In the face of this questioning by the reporters, he had to say something. If he just let the reporters recklessly guess, who knows what would happen.

“For the first question, the problem was perfectly dealt with. This was the work of a few figures in Jin He University. Director Chen had just come back from doing work overseas and when he found out about this issue, was very angry. He removed all the people involved in this from their positions on the spot and is conducting an investigation.”

“As far as the student Jin Shan Ping goes, she can continue to stay in the school. Also, for the problem with her face, I’ll deal with it tomorrow,” At this moment, Lin Fan still had to make a statement. After all, he needed to show off.

“As for the other questions, I’ll just give a simple explanation. I don’t have any relations with this girl. I came to Jin He University because I like to stick my nose in other people’s business. Also, the residents behind me are like me as well, seeing something that they weren’t happy with and coming over to put pressure on the school.”

“I’m going to say this here – Jin He University is not bad, especially that director of theirs. He is an educator who to deserves to be where he is. I’m very happy that Jin He University has a director like him. I’m here to make a bit of an advertisement. If there are any students out there having problems deciding on which university to go to, come to Jin He University, I guarantee that you won’t regret it.”

At that moment, Lin Fan had started doing some mutual business promotion.

The director was a decent person so there was nothing wrong with promoting him.

Chapter 857: I'll just calmly accept it

The reporters all wrote down what he said. They too were very satisfied with the outcome of this issue.

They were very concerned about this issue as well as sympathetic towards Jin Shan Ping. They felt like it was a pity for her to do a good deed and get her face disfigured. Furthermore, she was being pushed aside by her schoolmates and being asked to drop out. In their eyes, this was really too disgusting.

They did not have a very favorable opinion of this Jin He University.

However, they were very happy that this issue had been resolved perfectly.

The only thing is, some of the reporters were still wondering about one thing.

“Master Lin, may I ask, how are you preparing to help student Jin to restore her face? As far as we know, the disfiguration to her face is pretty serious. Even the hospitals with the best restoration plastic surgery cannot guarantee to restore her face.”

This question was one which was present in the minds of all of the reporters.

Lin Fan gave a very mysterious laugh and said, “For this question, I'll need a few days before I can answer you guys. Of course, I still can't guarantee 100% that I can do it, but the chances are pretty high. I don't want to say too much right now. When I'm successful, then we can talk again.”

Another reporter rushed to ask, “Master Lin, one last question. How were those students that were protesting dealt with?”

Lin Fan hesitated for a moment. This question was a little complicated. He answered, “Regarding this... It's not for me to say. We still have to see how Jin He University deals with it. However, as of right now, those rowdy students have been expelled.”

When the reporters heard this, there was immediate commotion. They all felt that having so many students expelled would definitely have a large impact.

“Master Lin, what do you think of this method of handling the issue?”

Lin Fan replied, “I think it’s fair and reasonable and I think the school has done the right thing. In any case, I will just lift my hands and support them in what they do.”

The reporter said, “Master Lin, this method of handling the protesting students will definitely have a very large impact. It might even affect their future.”

Lin Fan shook his head and said, “My dear reporter, actually, I don’t really agree with what you said. These students have a huge deficiency in their moral character. They need to go back and thoroughly learn about how to improve their thinking and morals. If we let them walk out into society and go into the teaching industry or just a normal job, given their moral standings, it will definitely piss a lot of people off. Okay, that’s enough questions, I need to rush home already.”

Lin Fan did not wait for the reporters to say anything and just immediately left.

The reporters still had a lot of questions to ask but given the current situation, it seemed like they were not going to be able to ask anymore.

They were filled with regret.

However, the people were still inside the school. Thus, they were going to try and interview the people in the school and try to see if they knew anything else.

In the car.

Lin Fan felt like the reporters were really too crazy already. However, having reporters around was not a bad thing.

Many issues only gain importance because these reporters exposed them to the world.

Although there were times where he really loathed these reporters, overall, they were still pretty awesome.

At Cloud Street.

When Lin Fan got back to his store, all the surrounding shop owners all rushed to gather around him.

Elder Liang was very concerned about the issue and said, “Little Boss, how is it?”

They all knew about the issue already. They were all very invested in this situation and all did not know how it would turn out.

Elder Zhang said, “These students are really too much. How could they do something like that?”

Fraud Tian furiously said, “If they were in front of me right now, I’ll slap all of them. I’ll have to slap all of them to death.”

In the face of everyone all asking him questions at the same time, Lin Fan could not help laughing. He replied, “Okay, it’s fine already. The issue has been resolved.”

Wu You Lan curiously asked, “Brother Lin, how was it resolved?”

Lin Fan smiled and said, “For this, I’ll have to explain it from the start.”

Upon seeing how excited everyone was, he decided not to hide it anymore and just immediately told them everything.

When everyone heard about what happened, one by one, their expressions showed them becoming more and more at ease.

“I told you already. As long as you are there to handle it, there is no issue that can’t be resolved.” It was a very rare piece of praise from Fraud Tian. Although he was already old in age, he was not old in his mind.

He was still filled with righteousness.

Zhao Zhong Yang smiled and said, "Fraud Tian is really not bad."

Fraud Tian glanced at him and said, "Hurry up and get out of here. I haven't really been keen on seeing you these past few days."

Given the situation between the two of them, it appeared like something had happened. It was probably because the things that happened that night were not up to Fraud Tian's expectations.

Zhao Zhong Yang laughed and said, "Fraud Tian, what kind of attitude is this? You don't know how to hit on girls and yet you are blaming me?"

Fraud Tian did not want to say much already. That night, he had poured out all his hard earned money and in the end, did not gain anything. It was like he was just there to pay for the meal and there was nothing else there which concerned him.

"Ha ha..." Lin Fan laughed.

The next day.

The news reports all came out.

"Jin Shan Ping will continue to stay at the school. The protesting students have been expelled from the school."

"Upon seeing something unjust, he went in to help out. Master Lin stepping up for justice and has caused a chain effect, with more people going to help. With people like this, may I ask, does society still need heroes around?"

"With regards to the way Jin He University handled the protesting students, do you think they did the right thing?"

"Director Chen speaks up. Feels that this situation must be dealt with firmly and is absolutely unacceptable."

“Jin He University needs students with good moral characters and doesn’t need the ones with bad moral character.”

...

Various news headlines all came out.

This caused a huge stir online.

To the netizens, there were a lot of talking points for this issue.

“666... Jin He University has done beautifully.”

“I feel like it is Master Lin who has done beautifully. With his character, I will be a fan of his for my entire life.”

“I’m not even kidding, when I saw this news last night, I was furious. I did not think that the outcome of it would come out today. I originally thought that it would drag on for a period of time.”

“The way that these rowdy students have been dealt with is a little excessive. Expulsion is definitely not a joke and will affect the rest of their lives.”

“Hehe, you’re still thinking about them? Then why didn’t they think of others? They felt really good when they were chasing people out of the school. Let’s see how they feel now that it’s happened to them.”

“It’s good to hear, I really love these types of situations. Those ugly b*stards definitely deserve to be punished.”

“Society doesn’t need these kinds of students. They should go back and learn some morals before coming back to studying”

On Weibo.

Lin Fan's Weibo had need bombarded by many netizens. They were all extremely satisfied with this outcome.

They initially thought that Master Lin going over to the school to speak up for the girl was going to be useless. However, they never thought that things would turn out this way.

This made everyone adore Master Lin even more.

Especially the younger people, they loved Master Lin even more.

He was really a hero in their hearts.

In the face of such crazy fans, Lin Fan felt helpless. Being so popular was a bit of a punishment as well.

At Cloud Street.

When Lin Fan came to his store, the people queuing up for the scallion pancakes all started clapping. They were all praising Lin Fan's actions.

In the face of such thunderous applause, Lin Fan calmly laughed.

Since it was like that, he just calmly accepted it.

Chapter 858: Treatment

The ten scallion pancakes were made really quickly. Some of those townsfolk in the queue knew how difficult it was to buy the scallion pancakes. However, they still persevered and came to try their luck. After all, they were used to it already.

The people that queued up frequently were mostly familiar with one another. Sometimes, when people didn't come, they would ask one another about their whereabouts.

"Hey, why didn't Elder Wang come today?"

"Elder Li didn't come today?"

It was like a place for them to network. If they were in luck, they would be able to get scallion pancakes as a bonus.

Especially since the re-sellers were buying the scallion pancakes at high prices. Those that managed to get their hands on the scallion pancakes could earn quite a big sum of money by selling them.

However, that was a rare sight. Most people were already under the control of the scallion pancakes. They always chose to eat it instead.

Also, the businesses of the other shops in Cloud Street were getting better. Each time the queue ended, many townsfolk would go to the shops and buy things from them.

Therefore, the popularity of one single shop had already helped to boost the economy of the entire street. It was pretty scary.

Many other shop owners wanted to set up their shops on Cloud Street but it was a pity that all the units on Cloud Street had been taken up. There weren't any available to be rented.

Some of them tried to go by the back door and sent gifts to the estate developers of Cloud Street. However, those developers didn't dare to risk anything.

To them, Master Lin was like the God of fortune. If they really dared to do it, the other shop owners would be driven away and Master Lin would definitely be infuriated. If Master Lin were to change his location, they'd be crying over it.

They always remembered how bad business was on Cloud Street in the past.

It was really pathetic.

Furthermore, the current Master Lin wasn't the same anymore. He was more influential now and average people didn't dare to mess with him.

At noon.

After eating his lunch, Lin Fan laid there and drank the tea that Wu You Lan had made. He felt really great.

"Brother Lin, who are you waiting for?" Wu You Lan walked to Master Lin and massaged his temples gently.

Lin Fan closed his eyes and enjoyed the massage. "I'm waiting for the student to come over. The one that got burnt in the fire. I'm thinking of helping her."

Wu You Lan was stunned, "Are you able to help her?"

Lin Fan smiled, "Should be able to."

Although he said that, he was really confident of doing it.

This time, the completion of the task depended on this.

Jin Shan Ping had a really tough life. If she had a bad attitude, she would have shut herself out from the world. However, she managed to get into University which showed that she was really resilient.

Even if a person was resilient, he/she would definitely break down at the mockery of others.

Wu You Lan said, "It'd be really great if you can treat her."

Lin Fan laid there comfortably, "Please press a little harder. It feels great."

"Okay," Wu You Lan said and nodded. Then, she massaged with greater force.

She had decided to follow Lin Fan for the rest of her life. Of course, that was what she was thinking about. She didn't want to tell any other people about it.

After a short while.

A mysterious person appeared. She wore really thick clothing to cover herself.

Jin Shan Ping was nervous and emotional upon arriving at Cloud Street. She didn't know what the final outcome was going to be.

"Master Lin," Jin Shan Ping said as she saw the person lying down.

He didn't even need to look to know who had arrived.

Lin Fan smiled, "Come in."

Wu You Lan asked curiously, "Brother Lin, is she Jin Shan Ping?"

Lin Fan nodded, "Yes. Come in, please."

Jin Shan Ping didn't dare to show her face as she was afraid of scaring people. She usually didn't leave her room in University. Even if she were to leave her room, it would just be to buy some daily necessities.

Because her family wasn't really well to do, she wanted to get a scholarship. However, she couldn't get any since nobody wanted her.

She looked really scary. The companies were afraid that she would scare people and affect their reputation. Of course, everyone rejected her.

Fraud Tian and the others looked at her curiously. Although they saw pictures of her online, they had never seen her face to face.

With Fraud Tian's personality, he was definitely okay to look at her directly. However, he was behaving like a transgender. He acted really calm and normal. He didn't show any signs of curiosity.

He was probably afraid of making her feel different and depressed.

Although Fraud Tian was a blunt and straightforward man, he was still pretty thoughtful.

At the resting area in the shop.

"Take off your mask and your sunglasses," Lin Fan said.

Jin Shan Ping was hesitant, "Master Lin, can they not look at me? I don't want to scare them."

"I, Fraud Tian, have seen so many things in my life. I'm not afraid! As long as you're kind, you're beautiful in my eyes," Fraud Tian said.

D*mn!

Lin Fan was stunned. He didn't expect Fraud Tian to have said such nice things. Furthermore, he said it so fluently and it sounded really convincing.

Zhao Zhong Yang nodded, "Yeah. Only those that are judgmental would feel scared."

They were really friendly to Jin Shan Ping.

Lin Fan was really happy about their words. They were indeed the righteous followers of Master Lin.

Jin Shan Ping was really emotional as she looked at them. She knew that they were encouraging and comforting her.

Then, she just removed her mask and sunglasses without any hesitation.

Lin Fan's heart trembled for a second when she showed her face despite having seen her looks before. She looked hideous and that was the only word that could describe her. Perhaps even the word 'hideous' couldn't justify it.

Fraud Tian gently closed his eyes. He wasn't afraid. He was just sad that such a loving lady had suffered so much.

Zhao Zhong Yang's hands trembled. However, he calmed himself down and didn't show any signs of fear.

Wu You Lan asked softly, "Brother Lin, are you confident about it?"

Lin Fan stretched out his hand and touched her face. It was pretty tender and some parts of her face were hard. It was definitely severely burned.

Even if he were to swap her flesh, she probably couldn't recover fully.

"I have to try. Follow me to the hospital. I have to use the tools there," Lin Fan said.

Fraud Tian asked curiously, "How are you planning to treat it?"

Lin Fan said confidently, "I'm going to use a medicinal pill."

Fraud Tian was stunned. He didn't believe that he was going to use a medicinal pill to treat her.

It wasn't logical at all.

"Let's go to the hospital first," Lin Fan said.

"Okay." Jin Shan Ping was really nervous but she was looking forward to it.

...

Chapter 859: Don't doubt your lives

After Lin Fan set off from Cloud Street, a group of reporters came in different vehicles.

A reporter immediately stretched his head out of the window, "Where is Master Lin?"

Fraud Tian replied, "He just left..."

Then, one of the reporters shouted, "He is there! I see his car! Quickly catch up with it."

When the reporter heard that, he quickly made a U-turn and chased after it. The other vehicles also followed him.

They didn't expect Master Lin to have taken action so quickly. They almost didn't have enough time to react.

However, it was lucky that they managed to catch up with him.

"What do you think Master Lin is going to use to treat her?"

"Who am I supposed to ask? If I knew the answer, I wouldn't have rushed here."

"Some of the professionals have expressed their thoughts online. They said that it's literally impossible."

"Who knows? I don't want to go against those professionals blindly."

They were really convinced by Master Lin's power. The professionals had claimed a lot of things to be impossible only for Master Lin to prove them wrong.

On the internet.

Shanghai's best plastic surgeon immediately expressed his thoughts online.

"In this situation, her face is already so severely burned that it is impossible to cure with the current technology. Master Lin was simply bullsh*tting. I have been a plastic surgeon for twenty over years and I definitely don't believe that Master Lin can help this female student regain her looks. It's impossible now and even ten years from now. If anyone of you doesn't feel confident in your looks, you can come and look for me. We are professional and our doctors are the best from all around the world. We can give you the perfect looks that you want. Please call the number below for inquiries."

This surgeon spoke about this matter to gain some popularity.

The plastic surgery industry had really stiff competition. If he didn't think of something to boost his popularity, it would have been difficult to survive.

"I feel that his words are really logical. Her face is so badly burned. If he can help her regain her looks, I'll broadcast myself eating sh*t."

"I don't know what to say about Master Lin. I think he is overconfident. I wonder who gave him so much confidence."

"You're a bunch of idiots. Is Master Lin someone that you can understand? If you don't believe in him, just wait for your face to get smacked."

"Haha, come at us. I'll put my face on the line for him to smack. I want to see how he's going to cure it."

"That's right. This professional has more than twenty years of experience. How could he be wrong?"

"Even if she were to go to Korea, she wouldn't be able to fix her face."

"Guys, don't argue with these idiots. Let's just wait for Master Lin's good news."

"Yeah, let's wait."

...

The discussion online wasn't really intense. However, an interesting poll appeared on Weibo.

It was about whether the student could regain her looks.

She will recover: 15032 votes.

She won't recover: 52101 votes.

The community on Weibo was paying close attention to this too. After all, it was about Master Lin. Now that there was a poll feature, they wanted to see what people thought about it.

Of course, a lot of people felt that it was impossible.

However, Lin Fan's fans had to believe it even if they didn't. Even if they were to lose, they still had to show their support for Master Lin.

At the hospital.

Lin Fan parked his car and looked at the nervous Jin Shan Ping. He smiled, "Don't be too nervous. Be confident. Let's go."

"Okay." Jin Shan Ping nodded and tried to encourage herself.

Regardless of the final outcome, she was already in her worst state. Why should she be afraid of it becoming worse?

"Master Lin..."

Lin Fan raised his head and turned around. He was stunned by what he saw and he sighed. The group of reporters was really crazy. They actually followed him there.

“What are you doing?” Lin Fan smiled and asked.

The reporters looked at Master Lin ecstatically, “Master Lin, yesterday, you said that you’re going to treat student Jin’s face. May I know how you’re going to do it? Some of the professional plastic surgeons expressed their thoughts online and they said that it’s impossible.”

Lin Fan was stunned. He didn’t know who he had offended. What did this have to do with those professionals?

“How am I supposed to answer this? I am not on the same level as them. They want to improvise people’s faces but I want to regain her looks. Therefore, they can’t understand my methods at all.”

He didn’t care about what the professionals said. They felt that what Master Lin said made sense too.

He was really young and it was infuriating to compare him to the experienced professionals.

“Master Lin, may I know how you’re going to treat student Jin’s face?” A reporter asked.

Lin Fan wanted to pretend to be awesome and say that he was going to use a medicinal pill. However, it would have sounded crazy. Therefore, he had decided to stay low-key.

“I’m going to use the tools in the hospital and a medicinal pill that I specially crafted.” He felt that it was better to put it that way.

When the reporters heard that, they were stunned.

What did Master Lin just say?

He said that he was going to use the hospital’s tools and a medicinal pill.

Lin Fan felt that the expressions of the reporters seemed a little weird. He wondered if he had shocked them.

“Master Lin, how long would she need to recover?” The reporters asked.

Lin Fan was fearless. He didn’t even need to think about how many days he required. The medicinal pill had immediate effects. Furthermore, he loved to play with people’s thoughts. He immediately raised one finger.

The reporters were stunned, “One month?”

Lin Fan shook his head, “One day.”

clatter!

The reporters felt that Master Lin was crazy. He wasn’t treating a cold. He was trying to regain his looks.

Even if the best plastic surgeon were to perform the surgery, she would need a long time to recover.

What did they just hear?

Who would believe that she would only require one day to recover?

Lin Fan smiled, “Alright, don’t say too much. Time is precious. I’ll speak to you after this.”

He had the medicinal pill and he wasn’t afraid of others knowing about it.

“Let’s go,” Lin Fan smiled and said.

Jin Shan Ping was really stunned. She just nodded and followed Lin Fan. She just heard what he said and she was also in disbelief.

The Director of the hospital knew that the Godly Doctor Lin was coming to the hospital and he needed a surgical theatre. He immediately agreed to his request without any hesitation.

However, Lin Fan didn't want anyone to see this surgery.

Because if they were to see it, Lin Fan was afraid that they would question themselves about life.

Chapter 860: I can't lose face

At the hospital!

One of the head doctors was really excited and he was looking forward to the surgery. However, when he found out that he couldn't watch it, he was really disappointed. Then, he looked at the director, "Director, it's such a pity to be unable to watch Godly Doctor Lin perform his surgery."

"Sigh, we can't do anything about it. Godly Doctor Lin refuses to let anyone see it. We can only wait here." The Director said helplessly. It was a really good learning experience. Although it was considered to be a plastic surgery, it was a type of fortune to be able to see Godly Doctor Lin in action.

"I saw the patient and her face is severely burned. Can Godly Doctor Lin regain her looks?" Another doctor asked curiously.

He wasn't doubting the medical skills of Godly Doctor Lin. It was because he knew that it was impossible to regain the looks of a severely burned patient with the current technology.

It would probably still be impossible five or ten years from now.

The Director replied, "Don't make wild guesses. Since Godly Doctor Lin is willing to do it, he is obviously confident about it. You should know that Godly Doctor Lin's medical skills are not something that we can imagine."

In the past, Lin Fan had done voluntary medical treatment to complete his Encyclopedic task. He had cured a lot of complicated diseases. Some of them were impossible to be treated with the current technology. However, what happened in the end?

Those patients recovered fully after being treated by Master Lin. They were living miracles in the history of medical cases.

As long as a person knew some medical knowledge, he/she would know Godly Doctor Lin.

A lot of top hospitals wanted Godly Doctor Lin to be their hospital's honorary specialist but they were all rejected.

The Director felt that they were lucky to have Godly Doctor Lin visit their hospital. It was a once in a lifetime experience to be selected by the Godly Doctor.

Everyone knew that the Director of Shanghai's First Chinese Medical Academy asked the Godly Doctor to be his mentor. Now, his abilities improved tremendously. Was it something that could be achieved?

The reporters waited outside. They wanted to know how Master Lin was going to treat her.

They had been shocked by Master Lin's words.

He said that she'd be able to recover in one day.

If that was true, it would be law-defying.

It was something that they didn't dare to imagine.

The reporters surrounded the doctors that were waiting outside. They couldn't find anyone to interview and they decided to interview them to get some other information.

"Hi, may I know what do you think of this matter?"

The Director was used to being interviewed by reporters. He wasn't going to be like the professional plastic surgeons and say that it was impossible. He answered reasonably, "Regarding this, I think that it is impossible to be accomplished with the current level of technology and medical knowledge. However, I trust Godly Doctor Lin and I believe a miracle is going to happen."

The reporter didn't expect the Director to have spoken so highly of Master Lin. They continued to ask, "Is it because Master Lin's medical skills are really good and therefore you believe him?"

The Director smiled, "Actually, you don't have to ask that. Everyone here can tell you that we really respect Godly Doctor Lin's medical skills."

The reporters continued to ask more questions and the Director and doctors didn't reject them. They were still a little doubtful about this but they trusted Godly Doctor Lin's medical skills a lot.

These people were the fans of Lin Fan in the medical world. They could confirm that his medical skills were insanely superior.

In the surgical theatre.

Lin Fan comforted her, "Don't be nervous. Just lie down over there and it'll be over soon."

It wouldn't be possible for Jin Shan Ping to be calm. She felt that she couldn't breathe properly as she lied down on the operating table.

"Master Lin, will I really be able to regain my looks?" Jin Shan Ping grabbed onto Lin Fan's sleeves and looked at him. She looked like she wanted some reassurance.

"Yes, you will," Lin Fan smiled and answered. It was to boost her confidence. If she wasn't confident, she wouldn't be able to trust him fully.

He was really confident about it. However, he wasn't sure if the medicinal pill could be used to treat Jin Shan Ping's severe burns effectively.

If it wasn't able to treat it, he'd be doomed.

He couldn't afford to lose face.

If the medicinal pill didn't work, he would have to do extra things to accomplish it. He could afford to lose Encyclopedic Points since he could earn them back. However, he couldn't take his bragging rights back.

"Go to sleep. When you wake up, you'll realize how different the world looks." Then, Lin Fan immediately let Jin Shan Ping go to deep sleep.

If she was conscious, it would be more challenging for him.

When Jin Shan Ping was unconscious, Lin Fan immediately took out the medicinal pill.

It was something that he had crafted after spending so much time and effort. It had to work.

The perfect-grade Beautifying Pill was considered to be of little value among all the medicinal pills. However, it was said to be practical and effective.

He immediately placed the medicinal pill in Jin Shan Ping's mouth and pressed her throat for her to swallow it.

Now, he just had to wait for it to take effect.

Time past normally.

Suddenly, the effects started to take place.

Jin Shan Ping's burned flesh started to squirm. It was like a butterfly trying to break out of a cocoon.

"Looks like I have to do something extra." Lin Fan immediately took a surgical knife and sliced Jin Shan Ping's burned flesh. It looked like there was new flesh growing under her skin.

“Looks like I gotta continue working on it.” Lin Fan understood the limitations of the medicinal pill. It was useful but it required him to work on it too.

The martial arts knowledge classification was law-defying. He had already reached its peak and he knew a lot of ways to treat injuries.

He immediately covered Jin Shan Ping’s face with his palm and the energy started to transfer to her squirming flesh. The mystical boost of the Encyclopedia was also being activated.

Lin Fan felt that if the usage of three magical energies didn’t work, he’d be better off committing suicide.

...

The people outside had been waiting for quite some time.

Besides the reporters, the doctors were really anxious too.

“What is happening inside?”

“I don’t know. One hour has passed. I think we have to wait longer.”

“It’s making me so anxious. I wonder if he succeeded.”

The reporters had been waiting for a long time. They wanted to be the first ones to see the results. There were a lot of people online that were waiting to see the latest news.

There were already a total of one million votes in the Weibo poll.

Only 150,000 people felt that Master Lin would succeed.

The remaining people felt that he was literally dreaming.

Even most of the loyal righteous fans of Master Lin voted that it was impossible.

The Director said, “Don’t be anxious. This is a highly complicated surgery. He might even need more than 24 hours for this.”

A reporter replied, “Director, when we interviewed Master Lin, he said that he was going to use a medicinal pill. He wasn’t going to operate on her.”

The Director was stunned when he heard that.

“Medicinal pill treatment?”

He was stunned. What kind of medicinal pill was he talking about?

He couldn’t accept it at all. Because he felt that it was impossible for a medicinal pill to have such powerful effects. It was impossible.

Suddenly!

The doors of the surgical theatre were opened.

Everyone turned to look at the door.