Chapter 971: This is very awkward

“D*mn. Is there an end to this?” Lin Fan kept looking through the news on his phone. Initially, he had thought that the incident should have passed.

However, what made him curse out was that the news was getting more and more viral. It was as if it couldn’t be stopped.

It made headline after headline.

Were all these headlines made especially for him?

Many celebrities had seen this situation and they had started to fall into despair. The headlines had been supposed to be theirs but since the previous year until now, how many headlines had Master Lin made?

Any news that concerned Master Lin made the headlines no matter what. Sometimes, even small matters would somehow make the headlines. This was painful for them to see.

They had put everything on the line to create all kinds of earth-shattering news in order to make the headlines but they wouldn’t even amount to anything that Master Lin did.

Comparing with others will only cause one to go mad. They had started to try and forget about Master Lin. They tried not to compare themselves to Master Lin.

Because it really couldn’t be helped. If they tried to compare to him, they would only humiliate themselves.

On the Internet.

“My Master Lin is really amazing. Who knew that after a series of twist and turns, he would actually receive the Nobel Prize?”

“Haha, did you see the news? Master Lin is really too godly. He tricked the old man until the old man was stunned. I feel like the old man might have been tricked so much that he became stupid.”

“This isn’t tricking. It’s a true skill. Master Lin’s Chinese medical ability is shocking. Being able to tell one’s bodily condition with just one look is normal for him.”

“Yeah, you’re right. Master Lin has brought glory to our country. Chinese medicine has once again been placed in the spotlight thanks to Master Lin. There were no dirty tricks involved at all. And for someone who brings glory to our country, no matter what he does, I can forgive him.

“^Are you retarded? What if Master Lin f*cks your wife?”

“^If Master Lin can give me a valid reason for doing that, I would forgive him and I would even sincerely wish him luck.”

“F*ck, this guy is a retard. He’s an extremist.”

Weibo.

Many celebrities opened their Weibo. Although Master Lin didn’t know them, they decided that they should congratulate him. After all, it would help them gain some popularity, no matter how small.

And if Master Lin were to see it, he might have a good impression of them and they would be beneficial to them in the future.

Although they were celebrities, they couldn’t compare to Master Lin. If they were to commit a mistake, it might be the end of the line for them. But if Master Lin were to commit a mistake, people would forgive him.

Because Master Lin had done many things that other people were not able to accomplish. This was the difference in their abilities.

Cloud Street!

Wang Ming Yang called.

D*mn! Brother, I'm going to go mad!" Wang Ming Yang cried out.

Lin Fan asked, "What happened?"

"I've been cheated." Wang Ming Yang even felt like dying right now. The International Nobel Lottery Company had escaped.

When Wang Ming Yang heard about it, he had been dumbfounded.

That international lottery group had been feeling great at first. It had paid the money that it was supposed to pay and taken the money that it was supposed to take. But later on, when the Nobel Prize in Medicine was given out once more, the company suddenly owed a large sum of money.

Especially in China, the people who had placed bets were too many. And basically, all of them had bet on Master Lin receiving the prize.

They had initially thought that it was just a dream for a Chinese man to win the Nobel Prize in Medicine. Hence, the odds of Lin Fan winning had been very low. And the returns were very high.

After the prize had been given, the lottery company had been stunned. In the end, all of them packed their things and ran away.

The local police force was already in the midst of investigations. They were tracking down the suspects but they hadn't caught them yet. However, they had discovered that the suspects had already fled to a crime-rampant area and had pretty much gone into hiding already.

"Forget about it. You were the one who wanted to gamble. Isn't being cheated to be expected?" Lin Fan didn't care about that. He had warned Wang Ming Yang that he would suffer a financial loss in the future. Whether or not Lin Fan received the award, that prediction was unavoidable.

"Sigh, I'm helpless. They've organized a few bets before. Who knew that they would run away this time? They really aren't trustworthy at all. But I told you, didn't I? I told you that you would get the award, so you would definitely get it. You even told me that it wasn't possible," said Wang Ming Yang.

It was only 10 million dollars. Since he had been cheated, he let it be. He wouldn't be depressed over it. He decided to just wait and see if the foreign police would be able to catch the culprits.

But he felt that the probability was very low.

Lin Fan laughed. "You're f*cking awesome. You really guessed it."

Wang Ming Yang said, "That wasn't a guess. I have unshakeable faith in you. If you didn't get it, then that Nobel Prize shouldn't even exist anymore."

"Oh right, Huan Yue said that you want to make a new album for her."

Lin Fan said, "I did say that. But that will have to wait until she returns from her work. Then, I'll prepare it for her."

Wang Ming Yang said, "Brother, to be honest with you, you should hurry up and secure her if you can. Wu Huan Yue is progressing pretty well now and the contract that I have with her is very simple. This is all dependant on you now. If she leaves someday, I will suffer a huge loss."

Lin Fan responded, "Why do you only care about the money? Hasn't she already earned a lot of money for you? Even if she leaves someday, it would be fair, wouldn't it?"

Wang Ming Yang said, "That's not possible. Those are two different things. But if you can secure her, even if she leaves me, I wouldn't be angry. Because our relationship isn't something that can be affected by such a small matter."

"Alright, alright. I'm hanging up. I've been busy with something lately," said Lin Fan.

"What are you busy with?" asked Wang Ming Yang.

Lin Fan said, "Teaching the children to play the piano."

The task hadn't been completed yet. It was time to increase the tempo.

He wasn't afraid that the children wouldn't be able to learn quickly enough. After taking the little intelligence pills, these children's learning ability was exponentially greater than average people. The teachers were especially excited as well. They felt as if they had discovered geniuses.

Lin Fan was very troubled by this as well. Learning too quickly would make things difficult for him as well.

He could only find some hobbies to enrich the children further.

But he had faith that, in a few years, these children would burst out with never-before-seen abilities that will shock not only the country but the whole world.

He was very confident in this beautiful future.

He had already stopped thinking about the Nobel Prize incident. For Chinese medicine to be able to cause waves in other countries was a pretty good thing.

But the pressure from Zhao Ming Qing's side was very high. He wasn't able to meet Zhao Ming Qing's expectations and it was a very awkward situation.

Chapter 972: Clatter! A look of disbelief

Dongyue Hotel!

Liu Xu was patrolling the inside of the hotel. Although it was a big business now, she still had to check it personally.

She had only just managed to set herself up in Shanghai and she really appreciated all that she had now. She wanted to prove that she was able to run her own business even after leaving her home.

She understood deeply that the more she had, the greater her burden would be. If she started to loosen her grip on her business and started to relax, everything might suddenly collapse one day.

“Good day, Chief Liu.”

The staff members who passed her were all very respectful towards her.

Liu Xu nodded at them. Then, she called a female staff member to halt. “What’s going on in here? Why is it so noisy?”

The female staff member looked at the tightly shut door. All kinds of noise were emanating from inside. She shook her head and said, “Chief Liu, I don’t know either. Since they booked this conference room, they’ve been having lessons inside. Occasionally, they would make such strange noises.”

Liu Xu stood at the door and listened discreetly. She was very curious about this group that had booked the conference room and were making these strange noises.

However, since they had paid to rent the conference room, it wouldn’t be good for her to disturb them. As long as they weren’t doing any illegal things inside, she wouldn’t ask.

She listened for a while outside the door but still couldn’t understand what the heck was going on.

They were saying things like power, focus, wealth and other kinds of strange and random things. It made her very curious.

Then, she saw the description placed on the door and went to take a closer look.

“Spiritual Transmission. Experience the beauty of the universe.”

She took a look but still didn’t understand what it meant. But Liu Xu kept feeling that it was really weird.

Rumble! Rumble!

Thunderous noise rang out from inside the room. Liu Xu frowned. If it wasn’t for the fact that the conference room was not usually booked, she wouldn’t have rented it to these people.

Soon after.

Liu Xu was prepared to leave. She told the staff to pay attention to the room. If anything happened inside, they had to control the situation immediately.

At that moment, the room suddenly went quiet.

The door was opened.

A group of people walked out.

Liu Xu stood there, watching with a curious gaze. Everyone was dripping with sweat as if they had just done some kind of intense exercise.

The men who came out of the room saw this beautiful lady standing there and couldn’t help but take a few looks at her. However, thinking about what they had learned that day, they felt that they had to go back and practice it properly.

“Chief Liu.” At that moment, a man walked over.

Elder Wang was all smiles. He was very satisfied. He felt that he had gained a lot of knowledge today. When he saw Liu Xu, he went forward to greet her.

Master Lin had organized several activities before and they had all been here. Elder Wang knew about Little Boss's relationship with Liu Xu. It was not a normal one. Now that he had seen her, he naturally had to greet her.

But unfortunately, Liu Xu didn't recognize Elder Wang.

Elder Wang didn't appear to be embarrassed. "Chief Liu, I'm a shop owner from Cloud Street, Elder Wang. I've come here with Little Boss a few times."

"Oh." Liu Xu came back to her senses. She was very curious about what had happened in the conference room. "What were you all doing inside?"

When she brought this up, Elder Wang was filled with pride. "Chief Liu, we were learning inside. Spiritual transmission. It is the feeling of being filled with the energy of our surroundings and integrating it into our bodies to make our spirits more ethereal."

Liu Xu was completely confused. "???"

She had a dumbfounded look on her face as she couldn't understand what he had said at all.

Elder Wang continued, "Chief Liu, if you are interested, you can come and listen in on the class tomorrow afternoon. I think the teachers will definitely welcome you. And let me tell you this. Tomorrow afternoon, a true teacher will be coming to teach us the latest lesson."

"Are the lesson fees expensive?" Liu Xu pretended to be interested as she asked.

Elder Wang shook his head. "It's not expensive. It only costs 1880. I signed up a few days ago and I feel like I've really learned something. My spirit has become fantastic."

"I'm planning to buy something when the teacher comes tomorrow. For example, I might buy a jade stone to put in my house. It would change the electromagnetic fields at home to be more suitable for the human body."

When Liu Xu heard that, she immediately knew that something was wrong. Wasn't that multi-level marketing?

"Oh, I see. Alright then. I still have stuff to do. Go on with what you were doing then," said Liu Xu.

"Alright." Elder Wang carried his red bag as he caught up with a fellow student in front. The two of them chatted cheerily as they went downstairs.

Liu Xu watched Elder Wang leave as she was immersed in deep thought. She felt that something was wrong and she had to give a warning.

Although she wasn't really on great terms with Lin Fan, she had to give him a heads up about something like this. Otherwise, what else would she do?

Cloud Street.

The phone rang. Lin Fan saw the phone display and was a little surprised.

It was as if he had seen a ghost. Why would Liu Xu give me a call? Could it be that she's unhappy and she wants to scold me? =

Alright then. I'm happy to scold her back. =

"Ah, Chief Liu, why did you suddenly think about calling me?" Lin Fan said in a mocking tone as he answered the call.

Liu Xu said, "I have to tell you something. If you don't care, then I won't be bothered either. I'm just going to tell you."

Lin Fan said, "Alright, tell me. I'll see what it is."

“You have someone called Elder Wang from Cloud Street right? He came to attend some kind of conference at my place. I feel like it’s multi-level marketing. If you see him, ask him about it. I’m hanging up,” said Liu Xu.

Then, without waiting for Lin Fan to reply, she hung up.

Lin Fan was dumbfounded as he listened to the beeping of the phone. He had wanted to ask a few more questions but she hadn’t given him the chance at all.

But something wasn’t right. What did that woman just say?=
=

Elder Wang has joined some multi-level marketing?=
=

If that’s true, it’s a big problem.=

That would mean that Cloud Street’s intelligence level has fallen all the way.=

“Brother Lin, what is it?” asked Zhao Zhong Yang.

Lin Fan said, “Is Elder Wang involved in multi-level marketing?”

When Zhao Zhong Yang heard that, his jaw dropped. “That can’t be. Under Brother Lin’s leadership, how could anyone from our Cloud Street be scammed?”

“I’m going to take a look at his shop and check out the situation.” Lin Fan didn’t say more as he immediately left for Elder Wang’s shop.

Indeed, the shop was closed. Then, he headed to Elder Chen’s side.

“Elder Chen, has Elder Wang been acting abnormally lately?” asked Lin Fan.

Elder Chen was watching a war film. Then, he nodded. “Yeah, he has been acting a little strange. He doesn’t even open his shop anymore. I just see him carrying a red bag and locking the shop every day. When we asked him, he said he was going to study.”

“What is it? Is there a problem?”

Lin Fan nodded. “There might be a problem. My friend just told me that Elder Wang might have become involved in multi-level marketing.”

Clatter!

Elder Chen almost collapsed to the ground. His face was filled with disbelief. “What?”

Lin Fan nodded helplessly. “That’s the case...”

Chapter 973: I have to save you

Elder Chen even stopped watching his war film. He immediately turned it off as he exclaimed, “It can’t be. Elder Wang is such an astute man. How could he be tricked into joining something like that?”

“Astute people are the easiest to trick. I am 90% sure that this is multi-level marketing. When he comes back, we have to question him,” said Lin Fan.

Sister Hong had brought her kids to buy some snacks. As she walked past, she decided to come in. “Little Boss, Elder Chen, what are you two talking about?”

Lin Fan shifted his position to allow Sister Hong to stand next to him. “Sister Hong, Elder Wang has been acting abnormally lately. My friend saw him at some kind of conference. It seems like he’s been tricked into multi-level marketing.”

Sister Hong was startled. “That can’t be. Elder Wang hasn’t told us anything about this.”

Of course, she didn't believe it. Elder Wang was such an astute man and he was usually very careful about the things he did. Now that they were telling her that he had been tricked into multi-level marketing, she wouldn't believe it even if she was beaten to death.

"Okay, stop talking about this. Elder Wang is back." Elder Chen looked into the distance at Elder Wang, who was carrying a red bag and a smile as he chatted cheerily with the people around. "Should we call him over to ask him about it? We won't say that it's multi-level marketing, we'll just ask him what he's been up to lately."

"That is a must," said Sister Hong.

They were all a part of Cloud Street. Everyone was very united. Whenever someone came across trouble, the rest naturally couldn't sit idly by. Moreover, they didn't know if Elder Wang had actually been tricked into joining multi-level marketing and how much money he had been scammed of.

Lin Fan hollered, "Elder Wang, come over for a moment."

Elder Wang saw Little Boss and the rest at Elder Chen's shop and started smiling as he came over. "Little Boss, what are you guys doing?"

Sister Hong and Elder Chen just watched without saying anything. They decided to leave the talking to Little Boss.

Lin Fan said, "Elder Wang, I see that you've been very busy lately. What have you been doing? Is it something important?"

Elder Wang smiled embarrassedly. "No, I've just been learning some new knowledge to enrich myself. I've just finished my lesson, so I'm back."

Lin Fan glanced at the red bag. It seemed to be containing something and it was all full. "What are you learning? Tell us more."

Elder Wang said, "Alright, I shall tell you then. I came across something good so I definitely have to share it with everyone." Then, he opened the bag and took out a book, which he then placed on the counter. "Look at this book."

Cover page: 'Mysterious elements are all around us'

"What kind of book is this?" Lin Fan was stunned. It really seemed very unsafe.

Elder Wang explained with a smile, "This is basic teaching material. It means that around us, in the air, there is a kind of mysterious element that exists. When we can sense these elements, our spirits will enter an immense relaxation. We could even mediate the magnetic fields in our bodies. There are many things. I've only just listened to several classes and I haven't learned as much as those fellow disciples of mine."

Sister Hong and Elder Chen looked at each other. At this moment, they understood that Elder Wang had been scammed.

And judging by the looks of things, he deeply believed those lies.

Lin Fan said, "Ah, it's so mystical. How much did you spend?"

Elder Wang waved his hand. "Not much. The fee is only 1880. With this book, I spent a total of around three or four thousand. This isn't much. Some of those who have attended the further classes have spent tens of thousands on buying items. I wanted to buy as well but because I haven't learned enough, they weren't willing to sell the items to me either."

Lin Fan's mouth twitched a little. That's f*cking harsh.

Elder Wang seemed to sense Sister Hong and Elder Chen's distrust, so he said, "Don't think that this is a scam. Let me tell you that this is not a scam. They are very responsible. Before you reach a certain level, they wouldn't sell you items. If they are scammers, they would definitely sell things to you, wouldn't they?"

Lin Fan wanted to say a certain sentence but didn't say it in the end.

'It's not that they don't want to f*cking sell it, they're just afraid that they haven't brainwashed you enough and that you'll escape!'

Elder Wang replied, “There’s another class in the afternoon. This class is very important. There will be a professional teacher coming to teach us. I have to go and do some revision. I’m going to ask the questions I don’t understand in the afternoon.”

Before Lin Fan said anything, Elder Wang kept the book and left immediately.

Lin Fan tilted his head and said softly, “Did you hear that? Elder Wang seems to have fallen deep into the trap.”

Elder Chen asked, “Little Boss, what should we do?”

Sister Hong sighed, “Sigh, Elder Wang is usually a really astute man. How did he become so stupid?”

Lin Fan said, “Don’t tell other people about this for now. I’ll go and take a look in the afternoon. We have to help Elder Wang avoid this plight, isn’t that right? If we can’t save him, then he’ll be screwed.”

Elder Chen and Sister Hong nodded immediately. That was indeed the case. They hadn’t expected Elder Wang to have fallen deeply into a scam. It was simply scary. If they hadn’t discovered this early and Elder Wang had really been scammed of a lot of his money, that would have been tragic.

In the afternoon!

Dongyue Hotel.

Elder Wang reached the venue very early and most of the other participants had reached very early as well. They felt that if they missed out on even a bit of content, it would be a great loss.

Liu Xu watched from afar and felt that these people were really maniacs. She roughly estimated that there over a hundred people.

Spiritual Exchange Conference.

The person-in-charge was a middle-aged lady who was dressed brightly and had short hair. With one look, you could tell that she was capable of big things.

“Is the lecturer here yet?”

The assistant said, “He’s coming. He’s on the way.”

“Mmm, that’s good. Prepare the materials. After the lecture is over, get the students to buy them,” said the middle-aged lady.

The class fees were just a small sum. The real profits came from these materials and other supplementary goods.

When the members were really immersed, something worth ten dollars could be sold for several thousand or maybe even ten thousand.

“It’s ready.” The assistant nodded. In this line of work, in order to brainwash others, one had to first brainwash himself or herself. Otherwise, how would one convince others?

Hence, they were now feeling the energy from around them as well.

Unfortunately, they could never feel any energy but this didn’t make them give up. They just believed that they were not competent enough to feel it.

In the very large conference room.

A group of students were seated.

And amongst them, Lin Fan was seated as well. He had utilized his Wuxia class of knowledge to make others not notice him. There was indeed a way to do this.

He wanted to see what exactly they would talk about in such a 'powerful' lesson.

Suddenly, all the members stood up and shouted towards the entrance, "Teacher Zhou..."

Teacher Zhou nodded and gestured for everyone to be silent.

"Please sit."

On the platform in front, that lady who had been greeted as Teacher Zhou stood in front of a drawing board. Then, she pointed at the content on the board.

"Today, we will be learning how to absorb the mysterious elements around us more effectively."

The crowd nodded. They were very eagerly anticipating it.

Chapter 974: I'm really innocent

Lin Fan's gaze shifted. He saw Elder Wang sitting there, listening attentively as if he was afraid that he would lose out if he missed out on anything.

Lin Fan felt helpless. A grown man actually still believed in this kind of thing.

Teacher Zhou explained a bunch of theories. Lin Fan didn't really understand but he realized that these members were really listening with keen interest. Some of them were even writing notes in their notebooks. It was as if they fully understood what she was saying.

Could it be that my IQ is low? Lin Fan was surprised. Other people were so immersed in listening while he still couldn't understand anything.

"Now, let me recommend a few items that will increase the effectiveness of absorbing mysterious elements," said Teacher Zhou. Then, she gestured to the assistant to bring the items up.

The first was a flower vase only as big as a palm.

Teacher Zhou explained, "According to scientific theories, this flower vase has a very mystical function of affecting the magnetic fields around it. It can change the magnetic fields around your body. However, its effectiveness is still rather low. Students who have attended two classes can buy it."

"As for the price, we'll talk about it later on."

Then, she took out a Buddha amulet necklace. This Teacher Zhou started to hype it up again and she was exceptional at doing it. This necklace required one to have attended ten lessons in order to buy it.

And the price would be revealed later on as well.

To Lin Fan, these people's schemes were way too deep.

They were so deep that it was scary.

Outside!

In a sedan, a middle-aged man with spectacles was seated at the back. The driver at the front handed him a cigarette. "Teacher Ma, it'll be your turn to lecture soon. I hope that you will be able to make those people become more absorbed in this."

Teacher Ma lit up the cigarette. Then, he smiled and said, "Don't worry. I've been doing this for so many years, how could I slip up?"

"Of course you won't. Teacher Ma has cooperated with us for so long and you've managed to shock every crowd." The driver was sucking up to him. Then, he received a message on his phone. "Teacher Ma, it's time. You can go up now."

“Mmm. Wait a while for me to finish this cigarette. Tell those members to wait. If they want to learn the real stuff, they’ll have to wait.” Teacher Ma casually smoked his cigarette. After finishing, he opened the car door and headed inside the hotel.

On site.

The place had gone into a maniacal state again.

The members were following Teacher Zhou and doing some rather difficult actions. For example, taking deep breaths and absorbing the mysterious elements into their bodies.

“Hold your breaths. Can you feel the anxiety in your spirit?”

“Now, start to take in deep breaths. Big breaths. Use all your strength to breathe as deeply as possible. Do you feel the icy sensation in your body? Your spirit has completely relaxed.”

“That’s right. That’s it. That’s because I’ve already made it so that you can easily absorb the mysterious elements. When your spirit completely relaxes, close your eyes and normalize your breathing. Do you feel that a blurred image has appeared in your mind?”

When Lin Fan heard these and looked at the surrounding members, he was stupefied.

Are these people stupid? Anyone would feel these things if they did this.

Soon after, Teacher Zhou said, “Alright, the first lesson ends here. Let us invite Teacher Ma into the room.

At that moment, the members simultaneously looked over at the door as if they were anticipating something.

They already knew that in the afternoon lesson, a teacher would be coming. This was a true teacher who would be able to teach them even more useful knowledge.

Creak!

The door was pushed open.

Teacher Ma entered. Under Teacher Zhou's lead, the members started clapping in a frenzy.

"Let's invite Teacher Ma forward. I'll be doing a brief introduction of Teacher Ma. He's a first-class Chinese medicine master from the Chinese Medicine Association. He's also the Vice-Chairman of the Health Association. More importantly, he is the founder of the Ma Family Breathing Technique..."

After listing a bunch of titles, the members were all dumbfounded. They only felt one thing, which was that this Teacher Ma was really amazing.

Lin Fan looked at the person who had just come in and was a little doubtful. Then, he took out his phone and did a search.

With one look, he was impressed. It turned out that this person was really a veteran. On the Internet, he had many teaching videos. Lin Fan compared the person on his phone to the person in the room and they were indeed the same person. This guy was also really on the name list of the Chinese Medical Association.

"Hello, students," Teacher Ma said calmly as he stood there.

"Hello, Teacher Ma," the members replied simultaneously.

Teacher Ma was very pleased with this situation. This was what real students should be like.

"Today, I'm going to talk about the theory of the existence of mysterious elements and the kind of mystical sensation that you should feel when you absorb them."

"I think everyone has heard about the five elements of the body: Gold, wood, water, fire, and ground. In Chinese medicine, these really exist. Amongst them, the gold refers to real gold and silver, which means fortune. Fortune is everywhere, but where exactly is it? Actually, it is within the mysterious elements. As long as you can absorb these elements effectively, you would possess fortune. When that happens, become millionaires or billionaires will be possible."

“For example, you all know about the current boss of Yang Tai Insurance Company, right? Perhaps some people may not know, so let me tell you. He’s a senior disciple of yours. He used to be very poor but after he absorbed the mysterious elements around him, he accumulated large amounts of gold energy. That’s how he managed to create such a huge business. Of course, your abilities are not there yet. But with hard work, you will also become like him someday.”

The members’ hearts had started thumping furiously. They hadn’t thought that the boss of Yang Tai Insurance Company had such a backstory.

At that moment, Teacher Ma continued his bragging again, “I’m a first-class master from the Chinese Medical Association. And you all know about Master Lin who has been very popular on the Internet recently, right? He’s from the association too. I once went to have tea with Master Lin and we were chatting about this. He kept on praising this method, saying that whoever thought of this technique must be a genius.”

“He even continued to probe me about this spiritual breathing technique...” Teacher Ma was speaking expressively as if it had really happened.

Looking at all those eager faces below the stage, he felt as if he had taken over the world.

But suddenly, he realized that a certain face was very eye-catching. It kept drawing his attention. When he took a look, his heart started racing.

Lin Fan was standing there as he kept nodding profusely as if to tell Teacher Ma to carry on and that he was speaking very well.

Ma You Min was a member of the Chinese Medical Association. Naturally, he recognized the most famous member of the association, Master Lin. He had always faced obstacles in his profession and hadn’t been able to progress, so he resorted to scamming people with such tricks.

But at that moment, when he saw Master Lin, he suddenly panicked.

In his view, Master Lin kept smiling at him and even nodded at him as if to say ‘Your speech is brilliant. Carry on, I’m listening.’

Gulp!

He started to stutter with his speech.

Teacher Zhou was a little confused as she looked at Ma You Min. What's going on? You've said this speech countless times, how could you stutter?

Ma You Min suddenly changed the direction of his speech. "My dear students, what I've just said are all nonsense. Mysterious elements do not exist. We were just scamming you of your money. I, Ma You Min has lied to people for so many years and my heart has been tormented. I do not wish to trick you anymore. This flower vase or whatever is only worth ten dollars. We lied to you. Don't believe us."

Teacher Zhou lost her mind when she heard this. "Teacher Ma, what nonsense are you spouting?"

Ma You Min didn't bother about her. He pointed at her and said, "She's the mastermind behind this. Every time she invites me over, she says that I get twenty percent of the profits from what I trick you all into buying. This isn't my fault."

The members were all stupefied. They felt as if they had misheard him.

Teacher Zhou yelled sharply, "He's gone mad. Hurry up and kick him out!"

Ma You Min immediately stepped off the stage and went in front of Lin Fan. he said respectfully, "Master Lin, I'm really innocent..."

"Master Lin?"

When the crowd heard this, they all turned over and stared at the person who was standing there.

Elder Wang was even more shocked. "Little Boss, when did you come here?"

Lin Fan said, "Carry on. I feel like your speech was pretty good. The police are outside, waiting for you."

Clatter!

When Ma You Min heard that, he instantly collapsed to the ground in terror.

That Teacher Zhou panicked as well as she scurried to the door. But when she pushed the door open, she realized that the outside was filled with police officers.

Liu Xiao Tian had been eavesdropping the whole time. Then, he looked at Teacher Zhou and said, “The things you say are really unbelievable. I can’t even understand it. Follow us back to the station and explain to us slowly.”

Chapter 975: I can’t be courteous with you

Teacher Zhou and Ma You Min were both dumbfounded. This disaster had struck too quickly, so much so that they hadn’t had the time to react at all.

Ma You Min, in particular, had no idea when Master Lin had appeared there.

Also, he felt that it wasn’t right. Master Lin was so famous, how could all these members be so stupid not to recognize him?

He was so famous and he was a living, breathing person who had been standing right there. Could it be that those members only had mysterious elements on their minds and couldn’t see this man standing right there?

If he had known earlier, this wouldn’t have happened.

The police officers apprehended the main culprits and brought them onto the car.

Lin Fan said, “Even my old friend from Cloud Street was tricked into joining, so I definitely had to save him. However, I didn’t expect that there would be someone like him in the Chinese Medical Association. He knew that he was lying to people but he still involved himself in it. Isn’t he just bringing shame to Chinese medicine?”

Liu Xiao Tian nodded. Then, he looked at the dumbfounded members. Perhaps even now, they hadn’t come to the realization of what had happened yet.

“Scam? This was a scam?”

“How could it be? We were involved in multi-level marketing? Isn’t this scientifically proven?”

“I’ve already spent hundreds of thousands. This...this...”

At that moment, an old auntie grabbed Liu Xiao Tian’s hand. “Officer, you have to help me. I’ve already invested hundreds of thousands.”

Liu Xiao Tian sighed but nodded. “Don’t worry. We, the police, will look into this properly. We will trace back the money that everyone has lost. We guarantee that we will minimize everyone’s losses as much as possible.

Those townsfolk who had awoken from their daze couldn’t believe that they had really been cheated. To them, it was too big of a blow.

But luckily, the police had come in time to catch the culprits. They also had some hope of getting back the money that they had lost.

Lin Fan came to Elder Wang’s front. He said in a surprised tone, “Elder Wang, what’s wrong?”

Elder Wang had a look of astonishment on his face. His eyes gaped as he pointed at himself. “Little Boss, you mean that I’ve been tricked?” Then, he said with a little more emotion, “I’ve been tricked into multi-level marketing?”

Lin Fan comforted him, “Elder Wang, don’t be too emotional. Being tricked is very normal.”

He was really afraid that Elder Wang wouldn’t be able to take this blow. He might be emotionally scarred.

Elder Wang said, “How can this happen? I was prepared to learn more and even bring you all to join. Now that this is multi-level marketing, won’t I be laughed at by them? Little Boss, you didn’t tell anyone about this, did you?”

Lin Fan was stunned. He hadn’t expected that Elder Wang was worried about this. Then, he thought for a few seconds before replying seriously, “No, don’t worry. In the whole of Cloud Street, besides me, not another person knows.”

“That’s good, that’s good.” Elder Wang heaved a sigh of relief. If this matter wouldn’t be spread, he could still accept it.

But if it were to be spread, he felt that he really wouldn’t be able to take it.

It was too f*cking embarrassing. He was so old but he had still gotten tricked.

Seeing Elder Wang’s expression, Lin Fan sighed helplessly as well. There were already several people who knew about this back at Cloud Street.

It seemed that he would have to talk to everyone when he went back and tell them to pretend not to know about this. They should let this matter end just like this.

Liu Xiao Tian patted Lin Fan’s shoulder. “Little Boss, you’re a Chinese medicine master too. Why don’t you give them a lesson?”

Elder Wang slapped his thigh. “That’s right. Little Boss, give us a lesson so that we’ll be more wary in the future.”

Many of these townsfolk who had been scammed knew Lin Fan. As for his other titles, they might not have known but they knew that Master Lin was a Chinese medicine master.

“I didn’t expect that this was multi-level marketing. Luckily, the police arrived early. If you arrived any later, who knows how much money we would have lost?”

“Yeah! Thank you so much, police officers. Thank you so much, Master Lin.”

Looking at the eager expressions of the crowd, Lin Fan couldn’t refuse. Since it was like this, he decided to give them a lesson. However, if he followed how things had been going previously, with his Wuxia class of knowledge, he really would be able to do things with the mysterious elements in the surroundings.

“Alright, since it’s like this, I shall give everyone a lesson on maintaining your health using Chinese medicine,” said Lin Fan.

Elder Wang was the first to applaud. Liu Xiao Tian was quite interested as well. If it had been any other lesson, he definitely wouldn’t have had any interest but as for Little Boss’s lesson, he was very interested.

The other police officers were detaining the culprits while Liu Xiao Tian and the rest just sat there.

Lin Fan went on stage and thought for a moment before speaking, “I shan’t waste too much time. I’ll just speak a little about maintaining your health using Chinese medicine. There are many ways of maintaining one’s health and this is related to wealth as well. Think about it. If you live longer, wouldn’t you be able to earn more money?”

“When you wake up in the morning, don’t be in a hurry to get up. Lie down and stretch your limbs out. Stretch your muscles and tendons so that they warm up...”

These things he was talking about were just minor things. They were some of the easier things to do to maintain one’s health. This was one of the ways that one could maintain one’s health in the morning when waking up.

After about half an hour, Lin Fan felt that he was about done. At that point, he decided to stop speaking.

But the townsfolk were all relishing the lesson. They felt that it made a lot of sense and they wanted to listen further.

However, since Master Lin didn't want to speak anymore, they were saddened.

If Master Lin were to start a class like this, they would be willing to come every day.

Outside the conference room.

Lin Fan said, "Inspector Liu, I'll have to trouble you with this matter."

Liu Xiao Tian nodded. "Don't worry. This is our responsibility. Nowadays, there are too many of these multi-level marketing organizations. Most of them are hidden on the Internet and within the citizens. They are hard to catch and we can only rely on the public's reports.

"This time, we don't know how much money was involved but we'll definitely do all we can to get the money back to their rightful owners."

Lin Fan nodded. "Alright then. I shan't disturb your investigations anymore."

Li Xiao Tian waved at Lin Fan before leaving. He had to hurry back to the police station to start interrogating those culprits and track down the money.

Right now, the important thing for Lin Fan to do was to thank Chief Liu.

This time, if Chief Liu hadn't told him about the situation through the phone, perhaps Elder Wang would have fallen deeper into the trap for an even longer time.

Very soon, he found Liu Xu.

Lin Fan was all smiles as he said, “Chief Liu, I am really grateful to you this time.”

Liu Xu glanced at Lin Fan. “There’s no need for thanks. But if there are opportunities in the future, recommend more guests to come here.”

“Hehe, Chief Liu, you really are unscrupulous. You aren’t courteous at all,” Lin Fan said with a grin.

Liu Xu replied, “With you, Master Lin, I can’t be courteous. Once I’m courteous with you, I’ll lose out greatly.”

Lin Fan waved his hand. “Alright, alright. You’re right, Chief Liu. I’ll have opportunities in the future to bring guests to you. I’m leaving now.”

Liu Xu looked at Lin Fan’s back view as he left. Then, she stopped herself from thinking too much and got back to work.

Chapter 976: A big move

Cloud Street!

Lin Fan returned with Elder Wang.

Elder Chen, Sister Hong, and the rest didn’t know about what had happened and they told whoever they came across about Elder Wang’s situation. By now, every person in Cloud Street knew that Elder Wang had gotten tricked by a multi-level marketing organization.

To them, this was really too worrying. They thought about those people who had been tricked by multi-level marketing organizations in the past and how they would always end up tragically.

But luckily, Little Boss had gone over. They believed that as long as Little Boss, made a move, there was nothing that couldn't be solved.

"Little Boss is back."

At that moment, someone saw the two figures walking back and was delighted.

"Elder Wang is back too. Looks like the matter is already resolved."

"This was really scary but luckily, we have Little Boss. Otherwise, who knows what we would do?"

"Go, let's go and take a look."

In the distance.

Elder Wang realized that everyone was walking towards them and he couldn't help but become suspicious. "Little Boss, what's this? Does everyone really not know?"

Lin Fan looked at the situation before them and he grumbled in his heart before saying unsurely, "I don't think anyone knows."

Elder Wang made a doubtful expression. If they don't know, then what are they doing?

But a small part of him still thought that perhaps everyone really didn't know. Perhaps they were walking over because they had something to say to Little Boss.

But soon, that wishful thinking completely vanished.

Elder Chen patted his shoulder. "Elder Wang, you're usually quite astute. Why did you get tricked by the multi-level marketing organization?"

Sister Hong added, "Yeah. We were all worried to death. Luckily, Little Boss brought you back. You have to be smarter in the future."

Elder Liang said, “Elder Wang, you have to learn from this. Don’t ever get tricked again.”

Everyone surrounded Elder Wang, saying things one after another.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan had been maniacally trying to use his facial expression to stop them at first but in the end, he gave up. It was useless as they completely ignored him.

Elder Wang had a dumbfounded look on his face as he saw the current situation. Didn’t Little Boss say that no one knows?

But what’s going on now? How come so many people know? This is so humiliating!

Then, he wanted to question Little Boss. At least give me a reasonable explanation!

But in the blink of an eye, he realized that Little Boss had disappeared completely.

In the shop!

Lin Fan sighed. This really couldn’t be blamed on him. Who had known that after going out for a while, the whole Cloud Street would know about it? Initially, it had only been Elder Chen and Sister Hong who had known about it!

Forget it, forget it. I shan’t think about this. This doesn’t have much to do with me.

But now, he still had something that he had to settle.

That lecturing teacher, Ma You Min, was actually a member of the Chinese Medical Association. If this were to be made known, it would be unbelievable.

He took out his phone and gave a call to the Chairman Zhou Qing Quan of the Chinese Medical Association.

The call went through.

“Master Lin, why are you so free to call me?” Zhou Qing Quan said excitedly. Right now, Master Lin and Elder Zhao were progressing too quickly. The rest of them couldn’t even keep up.

Moreover, Master Lin was a member of the Chinese Medical Association. This made him feel honored.

After all, for there to be such a big shot in the association, he would be respected when he went out and told people about it.

Lin Fan said, “Chairman Zhou, I want to report something to you.”

When Zhou Qing Quan heard that, he immediately paid more attention. “Tell me, Master Lin.”

“This is the situation. A member of our Chinese Medical Association is bringing shame to our association. He was working as a lecturer in a multi-level marketing organization and lying to regular citizens. This is very severe...” Lin Fan explained the day’s happenings. Regarding that behavior, Lin Fan absolutely could not just ignore it.

On the other end of the call, Zhou Qing Quan listened seriously. When he found out that there had been such an incident, he was very concerned.

“How could that be?” Zhou Qing Quan was in disbelief. He really didn’t dare to believe such a thing. How could there be someone like that in their Chinese Medical Association?

“Chairman Zhou, that is exactly what happened. What I want to say is that this kind of people in the association affects the association greatly. And I think that this case is probably not the only one of its kind,” said Lin Fan.

“Master Lin, don’t worry. I will definitely deal with this situation severely. I’ll immediately kick Ma You Min out of the association and also crack down on other similar cases. This kind of behavior has already severely impacted the name of the association. We have to quickly organize a press meeting to clarify things with the public,” said Zhou Qing Quan.

Right now, the situation was really quite complicated. Kicking Ma You Min out was not a problem. The main point was what Master Lin had said at the end. There wasn't only one such case in the association. That made the situation much more complicated.

The Chinese Medical Association had developed until now and the number of members was very high. To completely get rid of all impurities was practically impossible.

And it was an intricate and complicated thing. The network of connections was huge. To make a move was really not simple.

Lin Fan said, "Chairman Zhou, can I suggest a plan for this?"

"Please do," said Zhou Qing Quan. He had a lot of faith in Master Lin. Whether it was regarding Master Lin's medical skills or his social standing, he was capable enough to take on the appointment of Chairman of the association.

Zhou Qing Quan felt that as long as Master Lin was willing, he would give up his appointment without hesitation.

To have such capable people amongst them. That was the only way for the association to keep progressing

Lin Fan thought for a moment before saying, "I suggest that the members of the association go through a Chinese medicine-related evaluation once again. Kick out members who joined the association through backdoor means and for their own personal gain. Secondly, find a professional company to establish a platform and upload personal introduction and achievements of each member onto the platform. It would be good to give citizens a platform which they can search and find information.

"Also, have a reporting system. If there are citizens that discover any Chinese Medical Association member publicly giving lessons, they can share the video to verify if what they are teaching is effective or if it is just multi-level marketing or something else..."

Lin Fan said quite a lot of things but Zhou Qing Quan had heard them all. He couldn't help but start becoming slightly worried.

“Master Lin, although these suggestions are good, I’m afraid they’ll be very hard to realize. Right now, the association isn’t just an exchange of knowledge. A lot of economic benefits are involved. There is a complicated network of relations. If I make such an announcement, I’m afraid that it will be very hard to implement.” Zhou Qing Quan was aware of himself. He was already old and he couldn’t afford so much trouble.

Moreover, he didn’t have the energy to do it. The association would definitely go through a complete change. When that happened, he truly felt that it would be difficult to appease the people.

Lin Fan didn’t think too much. “Elder Zhou, how about this? I’ll take over as Chairman. Do you think that’s possible?”

Zhou Qing Quan was startled. Then, he gasped in astonishment, “Master Lin, you’re really willing?”

“I am,” replied Lin Fan. Although he didn’t want trouble, this matter wasn’t troublesome at all. He would just suppress everyone with an iron fist. Anyone unwilling could just leave.

Chapter 977: Appointed

The next day!

Chinese Medical Academy.

The Shanghainese local association members had formed a group and were walking along the corridor.

“What’s happening today? Why did Chairman Zhou call everyone over?”

“Who knows? Maybe there’s something happening. Perhaps the association is reforming or something.”

“Master Lin received the Nobel Prize in Medicine. That’s really a great boost to our image. Recently, the medical license at my hospital has inflated in price.”

“Same here. It inflated by quite a lot too. I didn’t think that it would have such an impact.”

The Chinese Medical Association members were chatting with smiles on their faces. They were in good moods. After all, their Chinese medicine which had not been high looked upon in the past has now gained a level of respect that was unprecedented.

Also, some hospitals had started looking for Chinese medicine masters to work in their hospitals. And they were treated extremely well.

Members of the Chinese Medical Association were especially well-received.

Although other people didn’t say it, they knew that this was all because of Master Lin. If it hadn’t been for Master Lin single-handedly raising the reputation of Chinese medicine, it probably would be where it was now.

In the conference room.

The big conference room was filled with people.

This meeting was attended by all Shanghainese members. If it had been before, some members might not have attended. They might have felt that it didn’t matter even if they didn’t attend as they had only joined the association to gain a title.

But now, it was different. With Master Lin’s existence, the Chinese Medical Association’s standing had been raised within the nation and even internationally.

Just recently, many reporters had come to the association to interview people. This had greatly promoted the association.

Of the people present now, many had been approached by people who wanted to join the Shanghai Chinese Medical Association. As for why they didn’t join the association at other places, some people were rather ambitious and didn’t want to climb their way up from the bottom.

Footsteps

At that moment, the sound of footsteps came from outside. Everyone's gazes shifted over as they waited silently.

Zhou Qing Quan, accompanied by Vice-Chairman Wang Tian Feng, entered the conference room. At the same time, his secretary, assistant, and other people followed closely. They were going to record the contents of this conference.

He stepped on the rostrum.

All the association members stood up. "Greetings, Chairman Zhou."

"Mmm." Zou Qing Quan nodded as a form of greeting to the members.

Previously, the place had still been a little noisy but now, it was completely silent.

There was not a single sound. Before Zhou Qing Quan spoke, no one dared to speak.

Wang Tian Feng sat there, arranging his files and not saying a word. Elder Zhou had already told him about the situation. He agreed with Elder Zhou's suggestion to let Master Lin be the new Chairman as well. This wouldn't be disadvantageous to the association at all. It would only bring benefits.

Of course, he knew that Master Lin wanted to reform. This was not an easy path to follow. If they handled anything badly, it would draw harsh criticism. If that were to happen, it might be a problem.

But this had already been decided on. No matter what reform it was, it would be fine as long as they followed Master Lin's lead.

Cough cough! A gentle cough was heard throughout the conference room. All the members sat up straight. They felt that something big was about to happen.

“Before the conference begins, I’d like to say something. Chinese Medical Association member, Ma You Min, was involved with a popular multi-level marketing organization and he used the name of the association to scam others outside. He has been severely dealt with and kicked out of the association. He will never be accepted again. Also, he has been handed over to the judicial authorities for appropriate punishment. The person who recommended Ma You Min to the association will also be suspended for observation.”

When these words were said, some people had disbelief on their faces, some had anger, while some were feeling guilty. They felt as if some problem had been discovered.

Ma You Min didn’t have a high standing in the association but there were some commercial lectures where they would invite association members to put on a front.

As for what was involved, that was needless to say. Of course, they would gain money and benefits.

Zhou Qing Quan then changed the topic. “That’s all I have to say about this for now. Now, I’ll talk about something important. The Chinese Medical Association has already existed for several decades. It has gone through many lows but no highs. Since taking up this appointment, I haven’t brought glory to the association. I am deeply regretful.”

The tension in the room was stifling. Everyone felt that something huge was about to happen.

Nervousness, fear and other such emotions filled their hearts.

“Right now, I will step down from my position as Chairman of the Chinese Medical Association and hand over my appointment to Master Lin. Master Lin will take on the appointment from in the future. Now, you all may vote if you agree with this or not,” said Zhou Qing Quan.

At that moment, everyone was secretly happy in their hearts. Those who used the association’s name for personal gain outside were especially excited.

If Master Lin was going to take on the appointment of Chairman, their Chinese Medical Association’s standing wouldn’t be the same anymore.

If they were to say this in public, other people would be shocked.

Our Chinese Medical Association's Chairman is the man who conquered leukemia and received the Nobel Prize in Medicine, Master Lin. If you work with us, there is nothing to worry about.

At that moment, everything was perfect.

"Chairman Zhou, you're stepping down. This...this..."

"Yeah! You've given so much to the association and your body is still robust. Why are you stepping down all of a sudden?"

They were only pretending to persuade him to stay. It could be seen through with a single look.

Some association members who were sincere understood Elder Zhou's thinking. He wanted the association to keep progressing, so he had to have a capable person step up.

And obviously, Master Lin was that capable person. They completely approved of this.

But some artificial people just had to pretend to make Zhou Qing Quan stay. They acted as if they couldn't bear to see him step down.

Zhou Qing Quan looked at the crowd. "I've already discussed this with Master Lin. He has accepted the appointment as well. Does anyone have any opinions?"

Then, the place went silent. No one was against it.

"Alright. From now on, Master Lin will take over as Chairman of the Chinese Medical Academy. Today's conference ends here. Please take your leave. Also, spread the word about this," said Zhou Qing Quan.

This outcome was what he had expected.

Master Lin becoming the Chairman only brought benefits to most people. There were no disadvantages.

Of course, he knew that there were many bad people mixed with the honest folk in here. They all had different agendas. But he wondered whether they would still be as joyous if they knew about what was going to happen later on.

Chapter 978: A small public notice

Outside the Chinese Medical Association.

“Elder Li, do you want to attend a dinner with me tonight?” asked association member Wang Zhong Fei.

“What’s going on?” Elder Li was thinking about the incident. Master Lin was going to take over as the association Chairman. What advantages would that bring him?

He had to think this through.

“What else could it be? Someone wants to join the association and he needs someone to recommend him. I just recommended someone else recently so it wouldn’t be good for me to do it this time.

Elder Li asked, “Who is it?”

Wang Zhong Fei smiled. “Don’t worry, it’s a generous person. He knows what to do. Just come with me tonight.”

Elder Li nodded. “Alright, as long as he knows what to do. The association isn’t the same as before now. After Master Lin takes up the appointment, the association’s standing is going to rise up. Joining the association won’t be so easy anymore.”

“How could I not know that? When they announced it just now, I knew that things were going to be crazy with the association. It’s time for it to soar.” Wang Zhong Fei was feeling great.

Lin Fan becoming the association Chairman would only bring them benefits. It was as if the association had stumbled upon a piece of gold that would raise its standing in the medical world.

Just thinking about Master Lin’s achievements was scary. Were these things that other people could achieve?

Obviously not.

The next day!

The news on the Internet.

After the conference at the Chinese Medical Association had ended that day, they had made a public statement on their official website. This matter had drawn the attention of reporters and they were reporting it without any restraint.

Cloud Street.

Lin Fan was thinking hard about some things. He felt that there had to be change. Although this method of change was rather harsh and blunt, didn’t all reforms cause huge repercussions? In the end, he would have to withstand the pressure and resolve the situation with swift and decisive action.

Zhao Ming Qing called. “Teacher, I was pondering the whole of last night. Regarding what you said, I feel that implementing it might really cause problems.”

Lin Fan said, “Ming Qing, don’t be afraid of problems. We can’t let fear stop us from taking action. If we’re going to do this, we have to go all the way. Slow change? That’s all fake. The new grass grows even before the old roots have decomposed. Right now, we don’t know how many people in the association are corrupted. Slowly figuring it out won’t work. We have to handle this decisively.”

“Then what about the various associations from other cities and provinces?” asked Zhao Ming Qing.

Lin Fan said, “I’ve already thought this through. Everyone will go through the evaluation again. With Shanghai’s headquarters as the foundation, we will recruit people based on evaluation once again.”

Zhao Ming Qing was a little nervous because his teacher’s plan was too brutal and things could easily go out of hand. If they didn’t handle it well, it would easily draw backlash. If that were to happen, they wouldn’t be able to take back what they’ve done.

But as the student, he would do whatever his teacher wished. Even if his teacher jumped into a pit, he would jump in as well.

After hanging up.

Lin Fan opened Weibo and posted some personal thoughts.

“I’m honored to take on the appointment of Chairman of the Chinese Medical Association. I will do everything in my ability to carry forward the association.”

Just a short post had expressed Lin Fan’s conviction.

“Master Lin, you’re the Chairman now. Why don’t you celebrate it?”

“Yeah! I’ve been following you every step of the way since you only had tens of followers. Now, you have tens of millions! I’m a hardcore fan!”

“Congratulations, Master Lin. This is another step forward.”

“Isn’t that obvious? With Master Lin’s capabilities, how could he not be able to support the Chinese Medical Association?”

Lin Fan looked at the comments for a while. He would let everyone relax for today. Tomorrow, he was going to talk about serious business.

This time, he had decided that he would take on the role of the bad guy. He had the energy and he had nothing much to do every day anyway. Hence, he was going to play around with them a little.

But before that, he had to prepare some information.

The evaluation definitely had to involve a exam. Without an exam, how could they decided if someone could pass?

As for the exam script, of course he would be the one to write it.

In a certain mansion.

“Zhou Qing Quan’s decision this time was really right. Master Lin becoming the Chairman will bring great benefits to the association and to us,” said an old-timer with a smile. He was a master with a long history in the Chinese Medical Association.

Zhang Guo Shou was probably a name known by everyone in the Chinese Medical Association.

He had once been the Vice-Chairman and there were many of the association members that were his students.

Although he had already retired now, he still had a great influence on the association. If he were to say something, even Zhou Qing Quan would have to consider it.

“Dad, the Chinese Medical Association has been very well-received lately. The Chinese medicinal ingredient market is already becoming lively. Now that Master Lin had become the Chairman, it would definitely double the effect.” A square-faced middle-aged man said excitedly.

“Mmm. Take advantage of the current market price for Chinese medicinal ingredients. Right now, the Chinese Medical Association is like a sleeping lion that will soon be awakened.”

“Dad, do you really have that much faith in this Master Lin?”

Zhang Guo Shou smiled. “Of course I do. If not, how would we earn money?”

The next day!

Everyone was in deep sleep.

Lin Fan woke up early and looked at the time. It was only 7 AM. He was still a little drowsy but he had things to do. Then, he clumsily took out his phone and started typing.

“On the second day of my appointment as Chairman of the Chinese Medical Association, I want to make a small public notice: There are crooks mixed in with the honest folk in the Chinese Medical Association. Some of them got in through backdoor means and some got in using bribes. I am very unhappy about these. Hence, I’m going to freeze all membership and have all members undergo an evaluation once again. If they pass the evaluation, they will remain as association members. If not, they will be kicked from the association. I’d like to reiterate that not matter what your appointment is, what your identity is, or what your credentials are, everyone will be evaluated once again. The time of evaluation has yet to be confirmed. After this notice is sent out, it will start taking effect. To all who are collaborating with people involved in the Chinese Medical Association, please take note...”

After sending this message, Lin Fan threw his phone to the side and continued to sleep.

I’m throwing a dynamite early in the morning for you guys to enjoy first.

After sending the message, he stopped caring about it. He had no idea huge waves had been created in the world outside because of this message of his.

When the Vice-Chairman, Wang Tian Feng saw this, he immediately updated the official website with this information.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan’s Weibo had many followers and there were many reporters as well.

When this Weibo post was sent, they immediately reposted it.

Wang Zhong Fei, who had taken a bribe from someone else the previous night, was cuddling with a lady as he slept. But suddenly, his phone started ringing furiously.

His soul almost got shocked out of his body.

Chapter 979: If I can't hammer you to death, I'll give it to you

The lady next to him had been woken up by the phone call and was a little upset.

The man next to her had taken drugs last night and tossed around until past midnight. She had struggled to get just a few hours of sleep and now, she had been woken up again.

But earning money was always a struggle. She could only endure it, close her eyes, and force herself back to sleep.

Wang Zhong Fei had wanted to reject the call but when he saw the phone display, he leaned on the back of the bed and answered it.

“Elder Li, what’s going on? It’s so early and you’re calling. Didn’t you go out to play last night?” Wang Zhong Fei grumbled. They had brought a lady each back to their hotel rooms. He was so exhausted right now and he hadn’t expected Elder Li to have the energy to give him a call.

On the other end of the call, Elder Li’s tone suddenly became rough. “You still have time to talk about that right now? Something huge has happened. Hurry up and take a look at Master Lin’s Weibo. The association is being overturned.”

“What happened? What’s all this?” Wang Zhong Fei was confused as he wondered what was going on.

Master Lin had already become the Chinese Medical Association Chairman. Could it be that people were still blind enough to find trouble with the association?

Although they hadn't interacted with Master Lin before, they could see from weibo that Master Lin was unafraid of trouble. Anyone who caused trouble for him would definitely be flamed to death by Master Lin, so much so that that person's parents might not even recognize him anymore.

But hearing Elder Li's words, it seemed that a big problem had really occurred. Then, he opened his Weibo and took a casual look.

Even if the sky had fallen, there was someone to hold it up. If someone had really come to cause trouble for the association, Master Lin would be there to stop them. Wang Zhong Fei and other people would only watch until the matter was resolved and shout a few remarks afterward.

But when he saw the content of the Weibo post, Wang Zhong Fei was completely dumbfounded.

"What?" he gasped in shock. Then, he jumped up from the bed and stood there bare naked in disbelief.

"Memberships will be frozen and they'll re-evaluate everyone?"

"Who the f*ck made that rule?"

Wang Zhong Fei was talking to himself. He couldn't believe what he had just seen.

The Chinese Medical Association had so many people. It couldn't even be counted. Suddenly, they had announced that memberships would be temporarily frozen and they would no longer be members for this period.

This impact was immense.

"Boss, what's going on? Do you want to have a go in the morning?" The lady was wrapped up in the bed sheets as she seduced him.

But to Wang Zhong Fei, even if the lady was even more seductive, it was useless.

He hurriedly made a few calls to his friends.

When he found out that this content had been posted by Master Lin, he had a very bad feeling.

As the saying goes, 'The new boss cracks the whip three times.' This was one.

But this whip was way too brutal. Wasn't he afraid of causing an uproar?

He sat his butt on the bed and put down his phone. His eyes glimmered with fear. "It's going to be a real mess."

At that moment.

All the members of the Chinese Medical Association had found out about the public notice.

Some of them felt that the association indeed needed to be cleansed but many others felt that this was a mistake.

They had no idea what Master Lin was trying to do. He had only just taken up his appointment and he was already making such a move. He had probably already planned this from the start.

Yet, they had actually stupidly approved of Master Lin taking up the appointment.

Initially, they had wanted to share some of Master Lin's spotlight and develop their businesses further but now that the public notice was out, they weren't even association members anymore. They even needed to be evaluated again. They were already so old, how could they go through the evaluation?

Weibo.

There were some office workers that didn't have high statuses but in their hearts, it was as if they owned the world.

When they saw Lin Fan's Weibo post, the netizens started discussing.

"The new boss cracks the whip three times. This move by Master Lin is rather harsh."

"If they really do that, that means that all the members of the association have had their memberships frozen and they have to be evaluated once again to re-enter the association. To some people, this may be a good thing. But to some of the old members, this is definitely unfavorable."

"That's right. I can't help but be worried about Master Lin. This is going to cause huge problems."

"Master Lin's meaning is very clear. Did you see the news from yesterday?"

"What news?"

"About the multi-level marketing organization. There was a Chinese Medical Association member who acted as a guest speaker and he even got exposed by Master Lin. Master Lin is probably doing this now because of that incident."

"I didn't know about that. But I support this. When an organization develops to a certain stage, it is sure to have impurities mixed in with the good people. Since Master Lin has agreed to take on the role of Chairman, he definitely wants to help Chinese medicine to progress, so he's starting by removing these impurities."

"The Chinese medicine masters that I follow have all started protesting."

Cloud Street!

When Lin Fan reached the shop, Fraud Tian and the rest approached him.

"Brother Lin, isn't this too big of a move?" Zhao Zhong Yang said worriedly. He hadn't known about this incident at first but when he saw his Weibo, he was surprised that Brother Lin was going to implement such a large-scale reform.

Lin Fan smiled. "What's so big about it? It's just a reform. Say what you want but this is already set in stone."

Fraud Tian shook his head. I feel that you're too rash, kid. As they say, you have to slowly simmer the water to cook the frog. This isn't something that can be resolved in one go. Now that you've done this, it will bring huge repercussions."

Lin Fan said giddily, "If I let it simmer more, all the water will be gone and the frog might still be alive. I'm taking the hammer and smashing them in one go. If they don't die, then I'll give it to them."

In a certain villa.

"Dad, it's bad. Master Lin just became the Chairman and he's already making such a big move. He wants to completely cleanse the members of the association." A middle-aged man ran over anxiously.

Their family had deep roots in the Chinese Medical Association. Many people in the association had close relationships with their family. Now, this had suddenly happened in the association. Everyone was going to be kicked out and had to be evaluated to re-enter the association.

What if they couldn't pass the evaluation?

Could it be that they really wouldn't be recruited anymore?

Zhang Guo Shou looked at the public notice and frowned, appearing very displeased. "He's good. I didn't think he would dare to play like that."

"Dad, what do we do now? Since they've already made the public notice, it's definitely going to be implemented."

"Implemented?" Zhang Guo Shou looked at his son. "He's dreaming. I thought that he could understand the way things worked in the association but looking at things now, I was taking it for granted."

"Although the Chairman of the association sounds like an appointment with lots of authority, this authority is built on the members of the association. I want to see what he can do all by himself," Zhang Guo Shou scoffed. He had been doing business in the association for so long and spent so much effort and resources on it in order to build his network of relations. How could it be gone just like that?

“Dad, what do we do now then?”

Zhang Guo Shou said, “Yesterday, there was a television channel that invited me to appear on their show, right? Reply to them on my behalf. I’ll go there today. And spread the word to those in the association to look for Zhou Qing Quan. since he wants to make a ruckus, we’ll play with him.”

“Got it, Dad.”

Chapter 980: The association is going to be screwed

Chinese Medical Association. In the office.

At that moment, there was a ruckus inside.

Zhou Qing Quan and Wang Tian Feng looked at the people around. Some were sitting down with gloomy looks on their faces while others were standing around or pacing back and forth.

“Vice-Chairman Zhou, you have to tell Chairman Lin that he can’t do something like this. It will cause the association which has been painstakingly built up to collapse again,” an old member said painfully as if what Chairman Lin had done was a big mistake.

The others agreed with him.

“Yeah! Our association has progressed to where it is now through steady progress. We have never taken big strides. Now that Chairman Lin has taken up his appointment, he’s cutting all of us off. Even if we haven’t contributed, we have suffered to get here. This is heartbreaking to everyone!”

“That’s right. It can’t go on like this. The other associations are all watching us. If we do such a thing, we’ll become a joke for the rest of our lives.”

“Sigh, I really regret it. I’ve been in the association for eleven years, cautiously and conscientiously working but now, our memberships are going to be frozen all of a sudden. Didn’t he consider our feelings at all?”

Zhou Qing Quan and Wang Tian Feng listened to everyone’s complaints.

They felt a great deal of stress. It was as if they were walking on a tightrope.

If they were not careful even for a moment, they would be in trouble.

However, Master Lin had already talked to them about this beforehand. He had told them to push any problems towards him.

At that moment, Zhou Qing Quan started to speak, “Everyone, quieten down and calm your hearts. This is indeed a rather rash action but Chairman Lin’s intentions are good. I believe that everyone knows that, right?”

“Vice-Chairman Zhou, how could this be good? Do you know how many phone calls I received this morning from people saying that they wanted to leave the association? They’re saying that the association has hurt their feelings and they don’t ever want to join anymore.”

“Same here. Elder Yang and Elder Chen are so pi*sed that they’re just lying at home.”

“I don’t agree with this reform. It’s really too ridiculous. I suggest that we remove Master Lin from his appointment and choose a new Chairman.”

“Yeah, I agree as well.”

Zhou Qing Quan and Wang Tian Feng looked at each other. They hadn’t expected that these people wanted to overthrow Master Lin. But it was a shame. That was already not possible.

“The documents for Master Lin’s appointment as Chairman have already been submitted. We cannot remove him from his post. When we selected him as Chairman, you all voted in agreement. If you want to remove him from his post, the association will become a real joke,” said Zhou Qing Quan.

Wang Tian Feng added, "Since things are like this, we'll have a talk with Chairman Lin. Hopefully, we'll be able to mediate things. Is that alright?"

The crowd looked at each other. In the end, they nodded and said, "Alright. We're only so agitated because we want what's best for the association."

Wang Tian Feng smiled. "Of course. Everyone here is a senior member of the association. Who doesn't want to see the association to well?"

They didn't say much else. They had already stated their thoughts and they would just have to see how Zhou Qing Quan and Wang Tian Feng handled the rest.

Right now, they were filled with regret. If they had known, they would never have agreed to let Lin Fan become the Chairman even if they died.

How long had it been since he had become the Chairman?

Not even two days. And he was already making such a harsh move.

After everyone left, Zhou Qing Quan and Wang Tian Feng looked at each other.

"Look. When it has to do with benefits, all the greedy people come out." Zhou Qing Quan sighed. He had already known about this but in the past, he hadn't dared to take action. Now that Master Lin was in charge, he immediately cut them off and those members had started to panic.

"I think that there's someone behind this that's adding fuel to the fire. If no one said anything, they wouldn't have all come at the same time," said Wang Tian Feng.

Zhou Qing Quan nodded. "But the good thing is that the higher departments haven't stopped us. Otherwise, it would be hard to continue."

"I don't think they will. Master Lin is the Chairman now. To put it bluntly, they are afraid of Master Lin too. They don't want to find trouble for themselves." This was what Wang Tian Feng believed. But what he said was indeed true.

There were departments that managed the association. However, those departments didn't dare to manage it anymore.

Master Lin was way too ferocious. He wouldn't give anybody any respect. If they tried to managed him, they would end up in trouble, so they just decided to sit back and watch the show.

Cloud Street!

Lin Fan was making a call. He was contacting people that he hadn't contacted in a long time, the people of the National Internet Safety Bureau.

"Yes, help me out. The behind-the-scenes management of the Chinese Medical Association has to be changed. If I wasn't banned from the Internet, I would have done it myself long ago. I wouldn't have trouble you guys."

"Master Lin, don't say that. You aren't troubling us. Since you've instructed us, we'll work overtime today and we'll definitely get it done."

"Alright then. Go into the system and make a backup of the member name list. This name list has to be able to be found with a search. It must also..."

Lin Fan started to instruct them. If he had done it himself, it definitely wouldn't have been a problem. But thinking about how he wasn't allowed to touch a computer, he definitely had to abide to the rule.

Moreover, he was close to the people in the National Internet Safety Bureau, so he could get them to help him.

As for those who were hooting on the Internet, he wasn't bothered by them at all.

Let's look at this guy.

A senior member of the Chinese Medical Association, Senior Professor wang, had been ranting on Weibo. His words were ferocious and filled with disdain.

“I’m firmly against this reform. It will harm our association and harm Chinese medicine. If it is implemented, I would rather leave the association and never come back.”

There’s also this one, another senior member.

“All is lost. The association is unlucky to have chosen the wrong Chairman...”

All is lost? Why isn’t your life lost then?

Zhao Ming Qing had come to Cloud Street because the situation was getting complicated.

“Teacher, I just found out that the former Vice-Chairman of the Chinese Medical Association is very displeased about this matter. Right now, majority of the association members have received instructions from him to protest,” said Zhao Ming Qing worriedly.

“Oh.” Lin Fan nodded but wasn’t bothered at all. “Oh yeah, Ming Qing, look at the exam script that I wrote last night. How is it?”

Zhao Ming Qing looked at his teacher in astonishment. “Teacher, you really aren’t bothered at all?”

Lin Fan replied, “What’s there to bother about? If me bothering about it will stop him from being so cocky, I would definitely bother about it. Since it’s useless, what’s the point? Don’t you agree?”

Zhao Ming Qing had no argument to that. He felt that his teacher really made sense.

But if it hadn’t come from his teacher, he felt that whoever said it had to be really stupid.

Because this matter wasn’t something so easily handled.

Now, things were becoming controversial. Everyone was divided. Some of the association members had already spoken out in protest.

Most people wouldn't have been able to withstand the pressure.

For his teacher to still be so calm now, Zhao Ming Qing was really in awe.
