

Valiant Life 981

Chapter 981: He's full of confidence

In a certain Chinese Medical Academy private chat group.

“We’ve just come out of the association. Vice-Chairman Zhou and the rest will talk to Lin Fan. I don’t believe that he will be able to defy everyone else and carry out what he said.”

“How despicable. Does he really think he owns the association?”

“Yeah. With all of us protesting, let’s see how he will handle it.”

“We’ve worked so hard to establish ourselves in the association and he wants to throw all that into the gutter just by saying the word. Who would be able to stand something like that?”

“Without us, his ‘association’ is just an empty shell. No one will recognize him.”

...

Weibo.

The netizens completely approved of what Master Lin was doing. As for those who were criticizing Master Lin’s behavior, the netizens immediately flamed them.

“Brothers, I absolutely agree with what Master Lin is doing. I’ve been tricked before by one of these bullsh*t association professionals in the past. After I bought something from them, I was filled with regret.”

“Right now, Master Lin is taking action against them. The best case is that he kicks all of them out.”

“That’s right. Enough talk. The boss is making his move. Those who want to battle with him, hurry up and follow the boss. If we miss this, we won’t have another opportunity.”

“Reporting, reporting. My keyboard can’t take it any longer.”

Those associations who had come out to rant immediately suffered harsh scoldings on Weibo. They didn’t even know where to vent their anger anymore. But it couldn’t be helped. They really couldn’t win these netizens in a flame battle. They could only watch helplessly as they got flamed.

However, it didn’t matter. As long as they managed to suppress that Lin Fan, it would be a victory.

At that moment.

Zhang Guo Shou took out his phone and dialed a number.

Cloud Street.

When Lin Fan saw this unknown number, he was suspicious. He wondered who it was but he still answered in the end.

“Hello, who is this?”

Zhang Guo Fei answered with a smile, “Hello, Chairman Lin. I’m Zhang Guo Fei, former Vice-Chairman of the association.”

When Lin Fan heard that, he was stunned. He hadn’t expected this guy to call him. It was really unexpected. If not for what Zhao Ming Qing had just told him, Lin Fan might have had a nice chat with the opposite party.

But now, Lin Fan decided to let Zhang Guo Fei continue his act.

“Oh, what is it?” A Chairman had to have the aura of a Chairman. Although the opposition was a former Vice-Chairman, there was still that ‘Vice’ in his title. Lin Fan was a Chairman himself.

Zhang Guo Shou heard Lin Fan’s indifferent tone which did not show any sense of respect for his elder and couldn’t help but become a little displeased.

His impression of Lin Fan worsened dramatically.

“Chairman Lin, I’m calling you because, as someone who has been around for some time, I want to advise you to take things slowly. The Chinese Medical Association has gotten to where it is through slow and steady progress. You can’t be so reckless. It will draw backlash. The association...”

Using his position as a senior, Zhang Guo Shou started to give an account of the Chinese Medical Association’s history of development, the events that the association had gone through in the past, etc.

He ended up saying a whole bunch in one go.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan had placed the phone on the table and started discussing with Zhao Ming Qing about the exam matter.

“Teacher, I feel that this question is pretty good but it’s a little bit too difficult.” Zhao Ming Qing had been taking a close look at the exam questions. His gaze then shifted to the phone for a split second.

This is a call from Zhang Guo Shou. Is it really alright for Teacher to just put the phone there?

Lin Fan took a look and nodded. “Mmm, that makes sense. This is indeed a bit difficult. But I feel that putting this question inside is suitable. This is the Chinese Medical Association. It’s not a school. People who are able to enter the association should be capable. If they’re not capable enough, how can we let them join the association?”

“They can’t enter based on interest. They have to have genuine ability and knowledge.”

Zhao Ming Qing thought for a moment before saying, “Teacher, what you’re saying is that the Chinese Medical Association is different from other associations. For example, in the case of the Chinese Art Association, someone who has interest in Chinese art and has some connections would be able to join. But for the Chinese Medical Association, even if one has broad connections, one cannot join so casually.”

The two of them continued to chat about this.

Meanwhile, Wu You Lan and the rest glanced at them occasionally. They had nothing to say in this matter. They felt that this situation was a little complicated.

Soon after, Zhang Guo Shou shouted into the phone.

“Chairman Lin...”

Lin Fan picked up the phone. “I’m here.”

Zhang Guo Shou: “That’s all I have to say. Does Chairman Lin have any questions?”

“No, it’s very good. If there’s nothing else, I’m hanging up,” said Lin Fan.

After hanging up, Zhang Guo Shou was very pleased. He felt that he still had his dignity as he had managed to make Lin Fan agree with him on this matter.

Being too reckless wouldn’t be good after all.

But looking at the situation, it seemed that Lin Fan had listened to what he had said and could still be saved. At least it seemed Lin Fan had understood that he couldn’t do whatever he wanted.

Nighttime.

Lin Fan went back home and turned on the television. With one look, he was astonished.

On the television.

Zhang Guo Shou was a guest on a certain television programme. In the programme, the host asked several unimportant questions.

But towards the end, the host started to ask about the incident that was happening.

The host said, “Elder Zhang, recently, Master Lin was appointed as Chairman of the Chinese Medical Association and he is executing a member reform. The members have to be re-evaluated. What do you think of this?”

Zhang Guo shou sat there with a powerful demeanor. “About this, I don’t think it is very good. Master Lin is young and he already has such achievements. It can be said that he has surpassed all before him. Although his knowledge and talent are great, he doesn’t have enough experience dealing with people. He is too extreme with his methods.”

“Today, I spoke to Chairman Lin on the phone and told him about the repercussions of his actions. He accepted my words humbly and that is something worth admiring. I hope that he will learn and grow from this incident.”

The host said, “Oh, Elder Zhang, does that mean that Master Lin will not be carrying on with the reform?”

Zhang Guo Shou nodded, full of confidence. “Mmm. That’s right.”

The association members who were watching the programme all started smiling.

Indeed, when Elder Zhang made his move, nothing could stand in his way.

Lin Fan wasn’t bothered by it as he continued typing a Weibo post. Then, he looked through it again and felt that it was pretty good before he posted it.

“The evaluation for the Chinese Medical Association has been confirmed. It will be on the first of the next month. The evaluation will be held Beijing Assembly Hall. For those who do not attend the evaluation, it will be regarded that you voluntarily withdraw from the association. Your past appointments within the association will be terminated. Also, we welcome Chinese doctors from everywhere to come and take the exam to join the Chinese Medical Association... The registration time will be 12 PM tomorrow. Please visit the Chinese Medical Association official website for more information.”

He typed quite a long paragraph, mainly describing the benefits and welfare that would be received after joining the Chinese Medical Association.

As for those people protesting and hooting about, he completely ignored them.

They could do as they liked. It didn't concern him one bit.

As for this Zhang Guo Shou, it was useless even if he was the former Vice-Chairman. He had already retired anyway. He should have just spent his time taking care of his old body. What was he thinking so much for?

Chapter 982: I've agreed

Several members of the Chinese Medical Academy were gathering in front of the television while drinking wine.

"You see, Elder Zhang is still the best. Personally making a move and immediately settling things."

"Haha, reform? Reform my a*s."

"That's right. He just took to office as the Chairman and then immediately tries to be bold and decisive and starts reforming. Who does he think he is?"

Then, the phone of one of the members rang. It was a notification from Weibo. When he saw that it was from Master Lin's Weibo, he could not help laughing.

"Guys, wait a moment. Our Chairman Lin has posted on Weibo. Let me take a look and see what has happened."

Everyone started laughing. "Let's see What our Chairman Lin will say. Could it be that he'll say that it was because he was immature and that he realized he was in the wrong?"

However, the smile on the face of the member who was checking his Weibo slowly disappeared and turned into an expression of deep shock.

“What happened? What did he say?”

The member showed his phone to everyone and then swallowed his saliva. “You guys can see for yourselves.”

After everyone’s eyes locked onto the phone’s screen, their expressions completely changed. Some of them could not believe what they were seeing.

“How could he dare to write something like this?”

“This can’t be true. Didn’t Elder Zhang speak to him already? He is really just clinging on to his old ways.”

...

Online, the netizens were watching the program. When they saw the other party say that Master Lin had accepted his suggestion, they were all slightly in disbelief.

“What is this old man saying? Master Lin listens to him?”

“We can’t say for sure. However, the other party is the former Vice-Chairman of the Chinese Medical Academy. So he is probably higher in seniority than Master Lin.”

“Impossible. Master Lin isn’t the type of person who will act in a way to save other people’s face.”

“Bullsh*t, you guys can go take a look at Master Lin’s Weibo for yourselves. You’re still talking about seniority. Master Lin doesn’t care about seniority.”

At this moment, everyone rushed to check Lin Fan's Weibo. When they saw his latest post, everyone was stunned.

He's being a tyrant again!

During the program.

The host heard all the sounds from backstage in his earpiece. After that, his expression immediately changed. He had never thought that the situation would turn out like that.

"Elder Zhang, I'm sorry to interrupt you but we just received an update that Master Lin has posted on Weibo, announcing the time and the place of the examination." The host felt a little bit embarrassed. Master Lin had updated his Weibo right after the introduction.

It can't be that he has been watching the program all this while and waiting for the right moment, right?

However, he had guess it right. Lin Fan indeed was watching the program.

Zhang Guo Shou waved his hand, obviously showing that he was in disbelief, "What did you say?"

The host said, "Master Lin just made a post on Weibo informing people of the place and time for the examination. Also, he's telling them they can sign up on the Chinese Medical Academy's official website tomorrow at 12 noon."

At that moment, Zhang Guo Shou whipped out his phone and immediately went to check Lin Fan's Weibo. When he took a look at it, his face immediately turned red and he got up from the sofa.

"How can he do this? He doesn't listen to instructions at all." Zhang Guo Shou felt a knot in the pit of his stomach and he got extremely worked up. Also, he was in the middle of the show right now so Lin Fan was not giving him any face at all.

I just said that this rascal listens to me and then he turns around and makes this kind of post. How could he be so quick to attack me?

Relax. Calm down. I can't lose face here in the middle of a show.

"It hasn't been easy for the association to develop to this stage. I can't just let it get destroyed like this. I, Zhang Guo Shou, have been the Vice-Chairman of the association for decades. Although I've retired already, today, for the sake of the future of the association, I have to stop these reforms."

"If he still insists on doing things his way, I, Zhang Guo Shou, I will withdraw from the association altogether," Zhang Guo Shou very sternly said.

Some of the association members who were watching the show also complied with what Zhang Guo Shou said, immediately posting their comments on Weibo.

Wang Zhong Fei: "If he still doesn't want to change his ways, I'll also withdraw from the association."

Elder Li: "The association can't just be overturned like this. It hasn't been easy for us to get this far. If he still insists on these reforms, I'll withdraw as well."

In a short span of time, dozens of members from the association started making noise on Weibo.

The large majority of the people in the association were old people who were high in seniority as well.

At the same time, all those people who were together with Zhang Guo Shou in this were definitely going to boycott the event.

Also, some of the other association members, upon seeing so many people come out and object, also started to think about whether or not they wanted to join them as well.

After all, this reform had no benefits for them at all. All the effort that they had tirelessly put into the association could all just vanish into thin air.

As a result, in order to protect their own interests, a protest was necessary.

However, at that moment, all those people who had been prepared to go with the flow stopped what they were doing. They even started to delete the posts that they had been drafting.

This was because they saw that Master Lin had made another post on Weibo and this post had quite a bit of killing power.

Lin Fan: “I, in the capacity as the Chairman of the association, shall comply with the wishes of the following members who have volunteered to leave the association: Zhang Guo Shou, Wang Zhong Fei, Li Ming, Yang Zhen... the following members have applied to withdraw from the association and I have agreed to their request. From now on, they will no longer hold any position of power within the association and will no longer enjoy any of the benefits that come with it. If they wish to enter the association again, they will have to wait 1 year before applying and will have to take the examination as well.”

Those few people who had been about to follow the crowd saw this post on Weibo and were dumbfounded.

He must be joking. Is this for real?

Zhang Guo Shou is the former Vice-Chairman of the association, how could he just chase him away like that?

Could it be that he has no apprehension at all?

He is the former Vice-Chairman of the association. He has a very high position in the association. Is the Chairman not afraid that this will enrage people?

In the midst of their thoughts, Lin Fan made another post on Weibo.

Lin Fan: “If there is any other member who wishes to leave, please @ me on Weibo. Right now, we are tidying up the association so the slots here are limited. We do require most slots for the people who are really interested in being part of the Chinese Medical Academy.”

His message in this post was very clear. If you want to leave, quickly leave. Don't waste my time.

The members who were gathered together looked at each other in dismay. “Do you guys...still want to leave?”

One of them, who had been very quick to post just now and had gotten his name called out, was completely dumbfounded, “I... I...”

“I think I’m going to wait a while first.”

“I think Chairman Lin said all of that in a fit of rage. Elder Zhang is in such a high position within the association, I don’t think he’ll really get rid of him.”

“I don’t know. I’m not going to post anything for now. I’m going to see how things turn out.”

“Yes, I won’t post it either.”

...

On-site of the programme.

Zhang Guo Shou sighed in relief after saying his bit. He felt like he had done everything he had to, letting Lin Fan know his stand.

He was the former Vice-Chairman of the association. So if he were to pull out of the association, it would definitely have a huge impact and as a result, his words should definitely have some weight.

Then at that moment, one of the guests who were at the scene suddenly stood up.

“Elder Zhang, Master Lin has made another post on Weibo. He has accepted your request to leave the association. At the same time, he has also accepted the request of dozens of people to leave the association as well. From now on, you’re not a member of the association anymore.”

A few of the guests on the scene, upon hearing this immediately, whipped out their phones. They were all thoroughly shocked after they checked Weibo.

Zhang Guo Shou, who was on stage at that moment, was stunned upon hearing that. It was as if he could not believe what he was hearing.

...

Lin Fan looked at his phone, then looked at the television screen. After that, he turned the television off and got ready to sleep.

“F*ck, you actually tried to threaten me? If you say you want to leave then you can leave. No one is afraid of you. I’ll send all of you guys to your graves.”

“Goodnight.”

Chapter 983: Your Hands Must Be Really Long

At night.

After Lin Fan had finished making his posts on Weibo, he went straight to sleep, not caring about whatever happened outside.

On the show, Zhang Guo Shou had tried to fight for justice, using his position as a senior figure to appeal to everyone to threaten to withdraw from the association in order to pile the pressure on Chairman Lin and make him take back the announcement for the reforms.

Originally, in the eyes of many people, this incident had already cooled off.

After all, Lin Fan had just newly been appointed as the Chairman of the association whereas Zhang Guo Shou was part of the older generation of the association, so his networks of relationships were very complicated. There were many members who had a beneficial relationship as well as a relationship as a student with him.

If he did not give Zhang Guo Shou any face, it would be like not giving the whole association any face at all which would have a huge impact on the association.

This kind of problem exists in all kinds of places. People want to initiate reforms but it implicates the interests of the people. As a result, some of the older generations would stand up and appeal to the community to resist these changes. This sort of thinking causes people to be stuck in the same spot.

In the eyes of the people, Lin Fan's medical prowess was truly amazing. However, in the association, he still was not even at the level of an ordinary member. Especially now that Zhang Guo Shou was going against him, it made it even tougher.

He could not compete with Zhang Guo Shou as he had to respect the previous generation. If he were to just remove Zhang Guo Shou just like that, it would definitely break a lot of hearts.

However, regrettably, Lin Fan's brain did not work that way. He did not care about interpersonal relationships. With regards to the previous generation, he would naturally respect whoever was worth respecting. But if they were to use their seniority to try and impede him, he would not hold back against them.

On the news!

The reporters were all extremely shocked after what had happened last night. At the same time, they felt like Master Lin was really too wild. He was simply too ruthless.

'Former Vice-Chairman of the Chinese Medical Academy, Zhang Guo Shou, has his withdrawal request from the association accepted by Master Lin.'

'Swift and decisive. Reforms are necessary and Master Lin won't let anyone stop him.'

'Zhang Guo Shou thought that he had a high place in Master Lin's heart but gets utterly embarrassed.'

'Master Lin is a man on a mission and won't get threatened by anyone.'

The news headlines were all reporting last night's incident.

At the same time, whatever Zhang Guo Shou had said on the programme yesterday had been recorded into a small clip. It was posted online and was being transmitted around.

This was a totally negative example of what to do. He had initially made himself seem so firm and heroic by giving that speech, only to be embarrassed by Master Lin on Weibo while later.

The netizens that saw this all sneered, scoffed, and could not stop themselves from laughing.

In his mansion.

Zhang Guo Shou laid down on his head. His son, Zhang Han, was by his side, filled with anger.

“This rascal really doesn’t know good from bad,” Zhang Guo Shou sternly said. His expression was so gloomy that it was terrifying. The events that had happened during the program yesterday had dealt a huge blow on him. He felt like he was a clown.

He was the former Vice-Chairman of the Chinese Medical Academy. Although he was already retired, he still had his dignity and he also had a pretty high standing in the association. However, right now, he had been treated like this by some young rascal and he did not know how to show his face anymore.

“Dad, what are we going to do now? That rascal really did not give you any face at all,” Zhang Han said.

“Public opinion. We will use the public’s opinion to discredit him. Help me to find someone in public relations, tell them I...” Zhang Guo Shou went into deep thought for a moment and then thought of an idea.

Zhang Han listened to his idea and kept nodding his head. Inside, he could not help getting a little excited.

It was a good idea.

Nanshan Children’s Welfare Institute.

Lin Fan was sitting on the stage and was playing the piano. The children who were sitting below and listening were all moved. In the entire classroom, besides the sound of the piano, not a single sound could be heard.

Lin Fan looked at his progress for the task and realized that he was still short of a few. However, he was not in a rush and was okay with just finishing it slowly.

*Ring ring*

His phone rang.

When he saw the caller ID, he saw that it was Zhou Qing Quan calling. Then, he motioned to the children to practice by themselves as he walked out of the room.

“Hello? Elder Zhou, what’s up?” Lin Fan asked.

Zhou Qing Quan knew all about what had happened last night. He knew all about the things that Zhang Guo Shou had said on the programme and the things that Lin Fan had said on Weibo.

After all of that, he only had one thought. Master Lin was really too ruthless. Even he was starting to get scared of Master Lin.

When most people go about to do things, they would usually try and appease other people.

However, when Master Lin was doing things, he did not care about other people at all. If he wanted to do something, he would do it. Regardless of what your background was, if you tried to stop him, he would crush you.

“Master Lin, the people that you called out to withdraw from the association have all come to find me and they are all trying to protest. Elder Wang is handling them now and it is causing a huge headache,” Zhou Qian Quan said.

The dozens of people from last night were really unlucky. They probably had not thought that Master Lin would immediately remove them from the association.

After all, when it came to this kind of situation, a normal person would definitely try and defuse the situation and not do anything rash.

However, none of them had expected that Master Lin would not bother trying to console them and would just agree with what they wanted straight away. This had given them no chance to react and no room to protest at all.

When he heard this, Lin Fan momentarily laughed. “These people are really funny. They said that they wanted to withdraw from the association and after I agreed to their request, they protest? Tell them that what I said is final. Although the association may have fewer people, we definitely won’t be lacking in people.”

Zhou Qing Quan replied, “Got it, I’ll pass the message to them and I won’t care about them anymore. Oh, also, the people over at Zhang Guo Shou’s side aren’t taking this too well. There are people in leadership positions who have let me know their opinion on this.”

Lin Fan said, “Who said it? Give me their numbers and I’ll deal with them.”

“Got it. I can’t handle them anymore.” That was exactly what Zhou Qing Quan had wanted to hear. Although he was the previous Chairman of the association, he was not as overbearing as Master Lin in handling this kind of situations.

Master Lin was not afraid of offending people but he was. Other people did not dare to offend Master Lin but they dared to offend him.

After saying those few sentences, they hung up the phone.

Then, Lin Fan received a text message.

Lin Fan looked at the message on his phone and immediately dialed the number on it.

In a certain unit, there was a leader who was handling his business. With regards to the Chinese Medical Academy situation, he felt that Master Lin’s method of dealing with the situation was not right and that it was too extreme.

Zhang Guo Shou was part of the previous generation of Chinese medicine doctors, he was also a veteran of the association. To just remove him like that would definitely make people feel terrified.

Although he did not care about this kind of situation, as a leader, he felt like he had to come out and give a piece of his mind to Zhou Qing Quan.

*Ding ding*

At this moment, his phone rang. He did not give it much thought and just picked up the phone. Before he could even say a word, a sound came from the other end of the line.

“Hello, I am Lin Fan, the Chairman of the Chinese Medical Academy. I must say, your hands must be really long to meddle all the way into my affairs, don’t they?”

“Let me tell you this. Just care about your own things. Don’t be such a busybody, got it?”

The leader was dumbfounded. Getting attacked immediately after picking up the phone. He had been attacked to the point that he did not even dare to fight back.

“Chairman Lin, it’s a misunderstanding.” With regards to Master Lin, he was quite familiar with what kind of person he was. He definitely should not provoke him as it would definitely not turn out well.

Lin Fan said, “Don’t say it’s a misunderstanding. Just take care of your own business. The business here at the Chinese Medical Academy is none of your business so I don’t need you to care about it.”

*Beep beep*

He immediately hung up the phone.

At this point in time, he had to be firm. He did not have time to talk about any emotions.

Chapter 984: Swaying the public's opinion

When the leader heard the sounds from the phone call, his expression turned into an ugly one. This was the first time that he had been reprimanded by someone and the worst part was that it was a young man.

However, after thinking about the other party's position, he thought that he should just forget it and just bear with it. He did not want to bring himself down to the level of this young man.

Since you insist on doing things your way, then I shall let it be. However, we'll see how you handle things when this situation gets out of hand.

After Lin Fan had finished making that phone call, he was afraid that other people would come and meddle with this issue as well. Thus, he went on Weibo and made a post.

"The reforms in the association are absolutely necessary. I request that all of you dishonest people don't stick your hands into this issue. This Chairman will fight with you to the death. Don't say that I didn't warn you. Also, I request that some of the members correct your attitude. Since you are already retired, just enjoy your old age at home. Other people may pamper you, but this Chairman won't."

When this post was made, everyone was thrown into shock.

The netizens.

"D*mn, Master Lin is such a tyrant. He's saying some really nasty stuff."

"Who is he referring to? Did all those people not feel the pressure from him already?"

"That's right. That's how it should be. Those people tried to interfere in with Master Lin's issue from behind the scenes. However, unfortunately for them, Master Lin is not so kind with his words."

“I’m a doctor from a village. After seeing Master Lin’s post, I’ve already registered for the test and have started preparing for it to get into the Chinese Medical Association.”

“Same here. I wanted to join the Chinese Medical Association in the past but did not get recommended by anyone so I was not able to get in.”

“I think that Master Lin’s approach is very good. If you want to get into the Chinese Medical Association, you have to prove yourself. That’s very fair.”

Lin Fan’s reform was something that was beneficial to a lot of these frontline doctors. In the past, if you wanted to join the association, it was not enough to sign up for it. You had to have someone inside recommend you. All these ordinary Chinese doctors definitely would not have such connections. As a result, they had not had the chance to join the association. But right now, it was different. There was no other prerequisite, all they had to do was sign up and through an exam, they would be able to join the Chinese Medical Association. This was a very good system.

It was something very welcomed by those basic level Chinese doctors.

When he was on the way back to Cloud Street from Nanshan Children’s Welfare Institute, he received a phone call from the people from the National Internet Safety Bureau.

“Master Lin, the website has been set up. This is something that our people tirelessly worked through day and night to complete. Although I can’t guarantee that it will be super awesome, it definitely is good.”

Lin Fan was very grateful for these IT people from the National Internet Safety Bureau. “Thank you. The next time you come over to Shanghai, I’ll treat you guys to a meal.”

“Hehe, Master Lin, the chance to have a meal with you is enough. Next time, when we have the chance, we have to learn more from you. Please do teach us some stuff as well.”

Lin Fan laughed “Relax, that will definitely not be a problem. As long as you guys are willing to learn, I will definitely teach you guys.”

After hanging up the phone, he made another phone call to Wang Tian Feng.

He wanted him to take note of the new official website. Since this was a new system, it required someone to take care of it. At the same time, he wanted to backup all the original data and then completely delete the old website it.

Also, the new system was not bad. They could upload the profiles of all the association members which made it convenient for the other people to check it. At the same time, other people could also report the members if they needed to.

If there was an association member that made a speech or statement outside, other people could use this system to report them behind the scenes. Then, the association would be able to conduct an investigation and see if it was multi-level marketing or some kind of scam.

Right now, many of the members were just standing around and watching how the situation would develop. However, when some of the members saw that the official website had completely changed, they were dumbfounded.

Initially, all their information had been stored there, all their titles and their ranks. However, right now, it had all disappeared.

This made the association members a little panicky.

Before, all their personal profiles had been easily accessible and a lot of people just added on to their profiles as they wished, making themselves look very good. However, there was nothing left of that right now. Could it be that they had to start all over again?

However, there were still a lot of the members that felt that this reform was good.

They were very sincere and invested in Chinese medicine and did not partake in any of those dishonest practices. Also, they felt like those people who just added on titles to their profile as they wished to make themselves look good were extremely shameful.

However, by now, the atmosphere of the association had already changed. If you did not join in and take part in these dishonest practices, you would not be able to assimilate into the community and they would even try to push you out.

Whenever the association had some meetings where they would come together and chit chat as well as discuss their lives, those people who could not assimilate into the community would not come at all.

The people there were all part of their own community.

In the past, Zhou Qing Quan had wanted to change this situation. However, making any sort of change was very hard. The problem had already built up to such a huge extent that any sort of attempt to fix it would require an astronomical amount of effort.

Given the situation of the association in the past, it was something that had been way too difficult.

Also, he had not had the energy to do it.

But right now, it was different. Master Lin had taken over the office and he was swift and decisive. He was extremely ferocious with his actions.

The more senior people in the association were dumbfounded. Initially, they had thought that they could use their rank and power to make the newly appointed Chairman back out of the reform. However, they had never thought that the other party simply did not care about their feelings at all and would just immediately suppress them.

This was really something that stunned them.

The next day.

Lin Fan was in the middle of a dream when suddenly he was awoken by his phone.

“What happened? Who’s causing trouble now?” Lin Fan was very suspicious inside, not knowing who it could be. When he saw that the phone call was from Zhou Qing Quan, he felt very annoyed.

Is it really that hard to handle this situation? It seems that there must be some other problem that he cannot solve.

After answering the phone.

Zhou Qing Quan's voice was very urgent as he spoke over the phone, "Chairman Lin, you should quickly check your Weibo. Zhang Guo Shou has made a post which has caused a huge stir. It doesn't look good for us."

After hearing that Zhang Guo Shou was up to some other stuff, he did not want to say anything.

He opened up his Weibo to take a look.

On Zhang Guo Shou's Weibo, there were pictures posted of him being bedridden and looking extremely frail. Also, these posts had been made by his son. The intention of these posts was very obvious.

It was to show that his father was so angered by what had happened in the association that he had fallen sick. At the same time, there were also some pictures from the past, showing the situation of association when he had first entered it.

At that time, the Chinese Medical Association had still not been very huge. The previous generation had put in a lot of effort for the association to get it to where it was right now. However, the things that had happened these few days hurt them a lot.

He had written a huge chunk of text meant to play on the emotions of the people. It was very easy to play on the feelings of the netizens and to make them feel pity and sympathy.

Sure enough, when these posts were made, some netizens could not hold themselves back.

"Ah, after looking at this, I suddenly feel like Master Lin has gone too far. He has not even thought about the previous generation. I can't take this anymore."

"That's right. Mister Zhang Guo Shou has given his life to the association. I never thought that he would be completely ignored once he got old."

"This is suppressing the older generation who have done so much. I hope that Master Lin will change his decision."

“This sh*tty Master Lin. I think he is such a vile character. To be handed a position of power and yet not care about what other people think is disgusting.”

“^ you shouldn't say things like that. Master Lin's actions are for the benefit of the association. It's just that he needs to calm down a little.”

Chapter 985: How Can I Not Fight Back?

A luxurious villa in Beijing. This was something that not many people could afford to buy, especially since the land was very expensive here. Unless he was extremely wealthy, for a Chinese doctor to buy one of these, he had to have extremely great medical prowess.

However, the owner of this villa, although it was a Chinese doctor, did not have great medical skills. Especially under the shroud of the Western doctors of today, him affording this villa was definitely not possible.

Inside an old-fashioned study room.

Zhang Guo Shou was seated in the room. His old fingers nimbly navigated the mouse of the computer as he studied the situation online. As he read on, he could not help but have a smile on his face.

Zhang Han, who was next to him, was very excited as well. “Dad, I've already done everything according to your idea. Also, the public relations branch has also gone into action. Let's see how long he'll be able to hold up this time.”

Zhang Guo Shou nodded in satisfaction, “Yes, this rascal really thinks too highly of himself. He just got appointed the Chairman of the Association and yet he thinks that he can do anything that he wants. He is really living a fantasy. Those words that he said on impulse have implicated so many people. Did he really think that he could get away without anything happening to him?”

Zhang Han said, “Dad, the only problem is that the people who initially wanted to leave the Association have all been scared by this rascal. They are all just observing the situation and they don’t dare to stand up.”

“These people, sigh...” Zhang Guo Shou felt a little resentful. “They’ve all been scared by a young man, just thinking about protecting themselves. They did not even question, if they allow this rascal to carry on with the reform that he has planned, what will they have left to protect in the future?”

Zhang Han nodded. “Dad, why don’t we go talk to them and ask them to come out. Right now, with this post, that rascal must be getting flamed online. The netizens don’t care about the person anymore, they just care about the situation. As long as we put the situation in a way that makes us look good, they will definitely agree with us.”

“Yes.” Zhang Guo Shou thought about it for a moment. “Go. Let them know. I don’t think we will be able to handle this situation by ourselves. If we can get them to all stand up, we can blow this situation up and just remove this rascal from power.”

Zhang Han was an expert in this sort of matters so he got to work right away.

These association members were all seated on the fence. They all wanted to see which side was winning before they picked a side. Although this was something disgraceful, with the given situation, if they did not have the support of the people, they would not be able to deal with it.

Cloud Street!

Lin Fan was not feeling too good inside. This old b*stard was really too good at jumping back into the fight. Initially, Lin Fan had thought that he had completely defeated the old man and that he did not have to care about him anymore.

But, unexpectedly, this old b*stard was quick to get back on his horse and had even whipped out his bayonet, ready to duel with him.

This made him feel a little helpless.

It left him utterly speechless.

At the shop.

The townsfolk had still come to queue up. When Lin Fan saw this, he decided to not think about this situation for now. Right now, the most important thing for him was to get the scallion pancakes done properly.

He was going to wait till he finished his work before going back to entertain Zhang Guo Shou and utterly destroy him.

A middle-aged man who was standing in the queue asked, “Little Boss, do you not care about what happened online?”

Lin Fan was expertly making the scallion pancakes and did not even lift his head. “Care about what? He can do whatever he wants.”

It seemed like the middle-aged man suddenly remembered something as he said, “Little Boss, I will definitely believe in you. Those people online are crazy. They do not bother to find out what really happened before flaming others. They are truly keyboard warriors.”

“Haha,” Lin Fan laughed. “You have a point. For your kind words, I’ll make your scallion pancake slightly bigger than the others.”

“That’s great!” The middle-aged man had not thought that things would turn out this way. It made him very happy.

Fraud Tian was at the side shaking his head. He could not believe what was going on. “How do you think the kid is staying so calm and collected? The people on the internet are all flaming him and yet he hasn’t stepped forth to explain things.”

Zhao Zhong Yang had a lot of faith in Lin Fan. He shot Fraud Tian a look and did not understand why he did not get it.

“Brother Lin is just full of confidence. He doesn’t care about these types of people who just jump from roof to roof. Thus, he can stay so calm and just focus on making the scallion pancakes, get it?”

Fraud Tian looked at Zhao Zhong Yang, slightly despising him. “You’re just kissing his a*s. How about you go online and see how badly he is being scolded?”

“Those are just trolls. With what Brother Lin has done, many true fans can bear to scold him?

Wu You Lan had been staring at her phone all this while, her fingers constantly tapping on her screen.

“You Lan, what are you doing?” Fraud Tian curiously asked.

Wu You Lan did not even bother to raise her head. “I’m trying to speak up for Brother Lin by arguing against these people.”

“Heh!” Zhao Zhong Yang laughed. “I think you shouldn’t try and find trouble. When these trolls get riled up, they are extremely frightening. You should just ignore them.”

After a while, the scallion pancakes had all been sold.

Lin Fan spoke to himself, “Too much. This is really too much. This old man does not know the limit. I wanted to give him some face at first but after this, I’m not going to give him any face at all.”

“Huh?” Zhao Zhong Yang was stunned. “Brother Lin, you’re ready to fire back?”

This was totally contrary to what he had thought. Brother Lin was such a high and mighty person, yet, he was actually going to personally fight back against him. It was something very scary.

“How can I not fight back? I don’t know what in the world the Chief of my Internet trolls is doing. I don’t know what I pay him for. I haven’t seen him all day,” Lin Fan scolded. With regards to that Autumn Sword Fish Killer, Lin Fan was truly dissatisfied. His productivity was really too low.

The situation online had already escalated to such an extent and yet he was nowhere to be found. It seemed like he did not want his job.

In a certain small apartment.

Autumn Sword Fish Killer looked at his brand new computer. He was very elated. He put on his headphones and lit his cigarette before giving his fat body a shake and wiping his mucus with his palm.

Then, he vulgarly screamed, “My brothers, watch how I use my S-shaped movements and avoid this hail of bullets. It’s a piece of cake.”

Right now, his life was going pretty well. He had already found a new job and a new exciting game had come out.

PUBG.

100 people would be thrown into an arena and only one of them would survive.

When he played it for the first time, he had managed to kill 30 people, making him feel like he was unbeatable.

After that, he even started live-streaming. For reasons unknown to even the audiences themselves, they were drawn in by his sheer skill and power in the game and he had obtained a pretty large following.

There were even days where he would get a thousand dollars in donations. Far more than he was earning as an Internet troll.

As for whether he would be able to keep doing this long-term, he did not really care. In the worst case scenario, he could just go back to being an Internet troll. Right now, he just wanted to see how much money he could earn from this.

As for his boss getting flamed by other trolls online, he was helpless. He had changed professions already and did not want to work in that field anymore. He was prepared to just let his boss get flamed. At the same time, he could let his boss understand something.

You can’t live without me.

Chapter 986: Easily Settled

Lin Fan unlocked his phone. His expression was a little solemn as he went to take a look at the discussion on Weibo.

The whole thing had blown up. The direction of the discussion had been skewed.

However, the good thing was that his fans were still loyal to him. The people that were flaming him right now were mainly those trolls.

The only thing is, he had not thought that Zhang Guo Shou would be so tech-savvy, to be able to abuse the internet to such an extent even at such an old age. His experience was truly amazing.

However, it was not enough.

It looked like Lin Fan had to teach him a lesson.

At this moment, some of the members of the Chinese Medical Association suddenly started to cry out as well.

“I’m very hurt after seeing Elder Zhang’s condition. He has given his whole life to the association and I never thought that he would be treated this way, so bitterly and hurtfully. If this is how the association is going to be, I’m withdrawing. I don’t need any approval, it is my personal decision.”

“Elder Zhang is someone truly worthy of being a teacher. I’ll have to support him even in his older years. I’m withdrawing as well.”

“Dear new Chairman, you have really been too overbearing. Whenever anyone opposed your ideas, you did not even give them a chance to explain themselves before just attacking them. What’s the point of having an association like this? I’m leaving and I hope that other people will follow suit.”

Lin Fan had no idea where these b*stards came from. It seemed like it was something that was prearranged, for all of them to come out one by one. Although the things they were saying were different, the meaning of their words was the same – they could not take it. They were against Chairman Lin and they wanted to withdraw from the association.

At the same time, they were all placing Zhang Guo Shou on a pedestal, saying that he was not getting what he deserved after all he had done.

When the news reporters saw this, they were all stunned. However, they all knew that, for so many people to suddenly come out like this, it must have been something that was orchestrated. Any ordinary person could see this so how could they, the people who presented the news, not see that?

This was totally something that had been prearranged.

Initially, Lin Fan had thought that he could calm the situation down. However, after this fiasco, the whole thing had become a lot more complicated.

Lin Fan sighed. He felt a little helpless, wondering why these people would do this.

Am I not just doing a little bit of reform? Why is everyone getting so pi*sed off about this?

Forget it. If this is how you want to play, then I'll play along with you.

Of course, he could just completely ignore these b*stards and just carry on with his own ways. However, after thinking about it, he was not the kind of person who would just stand by and let other people insult him. He had to win back the support of the Internet, if not, he would not have any face anymore.

All the netizens were carefully watching this situation. Suddenly, Master Lin released a new post.

When everyone saw this post, they were stunned.

Lin Fan: "Stop putting up a front. There will be consequences."

The netizens were all stunned. They almost spat out their blood.

The situation online had already blown up to such an extent and yet Master Lin was saying that the other party was putting up a front. It was really too fierce.

However, to all his loyal fans, if this was what their idol was saying, then they had to support it. If their idol said that they were putting up a front, then they were putting up a front.

Zhang Guo Shou and the rest of them had teamed up and were trying to put pressure on Lin Fan.

The whole group of them was gathered together.

“Haha, let’s see what he can do now.”

“That’s right. With all of us gathered together, there’s no need to be scared of him anymore.”

“However, Elder Zhang has played this beautifully, immediately using this sort of posts to put pressure on him.”

“Hush! What are you talking about? Elder Zhang was really angered until he fell sick. This isn’t playing at all.”

“Right, right. My bad.”

“Look at Weibo. This rascal really doesn’t know how to admit his mistake. He still dared to post this.”

Everyone was stunned. They did not know why, but the moment they saw that post on Weibo, their faces all turned black. They felt like this b*stard was really too presumptuous.

“Stop putting up a front, there will be consequences?”

Who is this directed at? Could it be that it’s directed at us?

He really doesn't know when to give up. Even now, after everything has blown up, he still thinks he's in the right. It's disgusting.

"Hmph, I want to see how long this rascal can hold up. I don't believe that the board of the association won't stand up and do something. The Chinese Medical Association can't possibly be run by him alone."

"That's right. If he thinks that, just because he's the Chairman, he can do whatever he wants, he's really thinking too much."

"Even the government won't do things without caring at all."

Zhang Guo Shou did not care about what Lin Fan posted on Weibo and did not take it to heart. To him, it was just some tactic to distract them."

Let's see how he handles things once it gets out of hand.

...

At this moment, Lin Fan's phone rang. The person that called was one of his friends from the National Internet Safety Bureau.

"What's up?" Lin Fan asked.

"Master Lin, don't do anything rash."

Lin Fan laughed and said, "I'm not being rash. It's for real."

"As long as you haven't done anything rash, it's fine. We have been notified of this incident already. We're looking for information on the database which we'll send over to you later."

Lin Fan was stunned. "What information? What are you guys trying to do?"

“Master Lin, don’t touch your computer. We are settling things for you. We have recorded all the data on Zhang Guo Shou already. He is rejecting your reform because it is going to affect his personal interests, even though he said that it would not affect him. This situation developing to this stage is that we did not think would happen, so we have decided to hand the information over to you. Once you post it on Weibo, everything should be settled. Please don’t touch your computer and don’t try to hack the database.”

After hearing that, Lin Fan was still a little suspicious as he did not really understand what the opposite party had said. But suddenly, he thought of something.

The people at the Internet Safety Bureau had definitely done some sort of investigation into those people with power. They definitely had information about each one of them.

These days, there was a countless number of big shots getting exposed every year. And it was all done mysteriously and randomly. Finding out this information about them was very simple. However, why had the bureau waited until now to expose Zhang Guo Shou?

It seemed that they had to pick several people to expose each year. Otherwise, if they exposed all of those big shots in one go, it would cause a huge stir.

It made sense.

Lin Fan was moved by his own ability to speculate things.

However, what he had not expected was that the Internet Safety Bureau would take this incident so seriously. Could it be that they were scared that he would start hacking again and do something that they would not be able to handle?

That was the only plausible reason that he could think of. After all, his IT skills were still pretty good, so with a small bit of effort, he would be able to cause quite a mess in their system.

A while after he hung up.

He received a private message on Weibo.

When he saw it, he was dumbfounded. He had not thought that this Zhang Guo Shou had such a dark past.

He had used his position to seek all sorts of benefits from all the different pharmaceutical company owners.

There were even various business deals that he had done with the hospitals.

Even the details of his extramarital affairs were in here.

If these were to be exposed to the world, there would definitely be huge repercussions.

However, after seeing all this, he started to understand why this old fellow was trying so hard to protest against him. He was doing it all for his own benefit.

All the things he had talked about in the past was all bullsh*t.

Lin Fan did not have to think much.

He just immediately exposed all of it.

“Zhang Guo Shou, sometimes, when people grow old, they should learn how to just be content with what they have. I was initially planning to let you enjoy your old age and retire in peace with all the glory and honor that you had. However, you’ve been too much of a bully so don’t blame me for this.”

Chapter 987: It’s not too late

Initially, he had still wanted to give the opposition a small escape route.

As people say, it isn't good to burn bridges. However, he wouldn't have anything to do with this old man in the future. He knew that if he didn't eliminate the roots of the problem, it could grow out again.

Especially when he saw how contemptible this old man was, acting righteous while doing despicable things, Lin Fan couldn't stand it.

If Lin Fan didn't take completely crush him in one go, he wouldn't know what else to do.

As for the situation on the Internet, Lin Fan waited quietly.

Zhao Zhong Yang had been paying attention to Weibo. When Brother Lin posted the latest Weibo post, he thought that Brother Lin was explaining something. But when he saw the contents, he was completely dumbfounded.

His eyes widened as he stared at Brother Lin in astonishment. "Brother Lin, where did this come from?"

Lin Fan smiled calmly. "When you have more friends, you have more options. With more options, you have more ways of doing things as well. It's good that the friends I know are all very righteous."

Zhao Zhong Yang was dumbfounded. The contents of the post were very explosive. Now that Brother Lin had uploaded this, the effects were shocking. It was more than just a complete defeat. Perhaps the opposition might even think of killing himself.

On the Internet.

The Internet trolls were shaming him very delightfully. After all, they were hiding behind the Internet. As long as they had keyboards, they would dare to dig out a gigantic hole in the world.

And the person being shamed was Master Lin. Some of those with poor attitudes were filled with jealousy and envy.

Master Lin was just as young as them. How could this guy be so famous and have such a high status? Although he didn't have a beautiful female partner, they knew that he had very good relationships with several beautiful ladies.

Hence, with jealousy as their motivation, they kept on shaming him on the Internet tirelessly.

Some people were fans of Master Lin. However, seeing the previous news, they felt that Master Lin seemed to have gone overboard. He hadn't considered other people's feelings at all.

But at that moment, the newly posted Weibo post by Master Lin made their jaws drop.

They didn't dare to believe it.

Could it be real?

The comments completely erupted at this moment.

"D*mn! Is this for real? Are all those things said by Master Lin true?"

"If that's true, then we are all idiots. We even thought that the former Vice-Chairman was really worthy of respect. If this is true, I want to beat him to death."

"He kept saying that it was for the good of the association. I didn't think that he was actually afraid that the reform would be too drastic and it would affect his benefits."

"F*ck, I said it all along. He was so set on preventing the reform, it turns out that it's because the reform affects his benefits. I couldn't tell. I really couldn't tell. He was actually so evil."

"D*mn. This old man even has extramarital affairs. I can't understand that. At his age, how can he even erect?"

"Are you stupid? Have you forgotten what he does? He's an old Chinese doctor. Those mysterious home remedies are scary. Even going all night wouldn't be a problem."

To go against this reform, most of the Chinese Medical Association's members had banded together.

With Zhang Guo Shou as the leader, they've initiated a boycott. They believed that, with Elder Zhang's status, boycotting it was just a simple task.

But at that moment, everyone was shocked.

Because they had already seen Chairman Lin's latest Weibo post. Everyone looked at each other with a heavy sense of fear in their hearts.

Especially when Zhang Guo Shou saw it, he was so furious that he gave up on his life. If he didn't think of all the wealth he had accumulated, he would want to just die right there.

"How can this be? How can this be?" Zhang Guo Shou paced back and forth in the house. In the end, he sat down on the chair and all his strength left his body.

Meanwhile, Zhang Han had a stupefied look on his face as he looked at his father in disbelief. He raised his hand which was trembling with rage. "Dad, you have extramarital affairs."

Zhang Guo Shou waved his hand. "Alright. It's already come to this. Don't think about it."

"No. Dad, you are really disappointing. Back then, Mom was angered to death by you. I didn't think that you haven't changed at all. You..." Zhang Han had known all those other things very well. However, he hadn't known about his dad's extramarital affairs at all. It was unbearable.

When he had been young, he had lost his mother. Everything had been because of his father's fooling around that caused his mother to become bedridden due to rage. In the end, she passed away.

He hadn't thought that, after so many years, his dad hadn't changed at all. His dad had been fooling around behind his back. Zhang Han was enraged.

The association.

When Zhou Qing Quan saw all this, he was astounded. He hadn't known about all this, not even the businesses Zhang Guo Shou was involved in. Now that he saw all this information, he felt that it was earth-shattering.

The former Vice-Chairman, even after retiring, had a huge influence. But who would have thought that he had meddled so much, using his connections for his personal benefit. This were simply shameless acts.

Wang Tian Feng gasped, "Elder Zhou, Chairman Lin's capabilities are really scary. To find out all this information, it's really not easy."

Zhou Qing Quan nodded. "Indeed. This information is very complete. It feels as if Zhang Guo Shou said it all himself. But Chairman Lin has done a great deed. If he didn't say it, no one would believe that Zhang Guo Shou is actually so corrupted. If this had continued, the association would probably become one of his ways of gaining personal benefits."

They really approved of this move by Chairman Lin. Since Zhang Guo Shou had done these things, he had to be prepared for them to be exposed. Although he wasn't young anymore, it wasn't a valid excuse.

The remaining matters didn't concern them anymore. The rest would be left up to the relevant authorities.

After this incident.

The association's members quietened down. They seemed to already be afraid. Some of them removed their Weibo posts and some of them apologized. It seemed that they had recognized their faults.

At the same time, some people started to push the blame.

Everybody hits a man who is down.

Zhang Guo Shou had fallen. Some members, in order to protect themselves, couldn't wait to rid themselves of any relations with him.

“I was forced. Zhang Guo Shou forced me to do that. I have brought shame to the association. I admit my mistake.”

“Zhang Guo Shou secretly manipulated the association. Those who didn’t follow him would’ve been suppressed. I truly love the Chinese Medical Association. Regarding my mistakes, I am sorry. I hope that the association will give me one more chance.”

One after another, they completely laid their cards on the table.

The netizens were all startled as well. This turn of events had been too sudden.

So sudden that it left them dumbfounded.

Some netizens who had held Zhang Guo Shou in reverence felt as if they had swallow flies. It was disgusting.

They had spoken in defense of such a person and even thought that Master Lin had been wrong.

Thinking about that now, they were filled with regret. If they had trusted in Master Lin’s decision, this wouldn’t have happened.

But the good thing was that it wasn’t too late.

...

Chapter 988: Unlocking new knowledge

The biggest malignant tumor had been removed. The rest could be left to Zhou Qing Quan and the rest to handle.

Lin Fan didn’t have been involve himself in this for now. Those exam scripts had pretty much been finished. He sent them to Zhou Qing Quan for safekeeping.

However, he went to the official website to take a look as well. There were applicants from all over the country but many of them were Chinese doctors from small towns and villages. They seemed not to have any authority and power.

Now, getting into the Chinese Medical Association was similar to getting into a university, it depended on results and not relations. Hence, those people who only had the title of Chinese doctor without real abilities could forget about it.

The next day!

Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute.

As the sound of Lin Fan's piano faded, a familiar sound rang out.

"The task of teaching the piano to thirty children has been completed."

"Unlocking the twenty-second page of knowledge. As it is the twenty-second page, a class of knowledge will be randomly chosen."

"Unlocking the subclass of the Blessing major class of knowledge: Blessed Carvings."

"Task: Gift ten blessed carvings to ten kindhearted people to bring them good fortune."

"Reward: Encyclopedic Points +100."

Lin Fan: "???"

He was confused. What the heck was this small class of knowledge?

But after he went through the knowledge in his mind, he understood. This class of knowledge was unreal. It allowed him to carve objects and these objects would have blessings within them that could change one's fortune for the better.

This task was to gift the carvings to ten kindhearted people to bring them good fortune.

But he had to say that it was too unreal.

Still, the difficulty was not high.

He just hadn't expected that the classes of knowledge that he unlocked would get more and more mystical.

He wasn't bothered by it. He clapped his hands together as he looked at the children. "Alright, you are all great. Today's piano lesson shall end here. Go out and play."

"Watch out for your own safety."

The children really liked being with Lin Fan. However, they liked going out to play even more.

After the children left, the teachers came to Lin Fan's side.

"Master Lin, your piano playing sounds so great."

Lin Fan smiled. "It's just alright. It's not that great. It's passable."

The teachers at the side started talking very pleasurably.

"I feel that it really sounds really good. It's even better than those famous pianists."

Facing such compliments, Lin Fan just calmly waved his hand. At the same time, he grumbled in his heart. Isn't that obvious? Of course my piano sounds great.

However, one had to be humble.

Han Lu had been standing behind the whole time as if he was the guardian spirit of the welfare institute. However, his gaze was placed rather far away. He had been staring at one of the teachers inside. Occasionally, he would shyly avert his gaze. He couldn't let his intentions be seen by her.

Now, there was nothing much to do in the welfare institute, so Lin Fan left.

But thinking about the task, he felt that he could go and give it a try.

Then, he drove his car towards the market. He decided to buy some materials back to Cloud Street to slowly carve it.

The carving material market. This was one of the biggest markets in Shanghai.

After parking the car, he looked around the place before entering a shop. He picked out the materials he needed and paid for them. After buying all his equipment, he left.

He drove back towards Cloud Street.

...

At that moment, on the pavement, a young lady was carrying a small bag as she walked. She was still thinking about what had just happened.

“Sigh, what a shame. I didn’t get accepted. I was so close.” Wang Ying was thinking about the interview. Because of one sentence from her, she had offended the interviewer. Just thinking about it made her feel stupid.

That interviewer had spat his phlegm on the ground at the interview venue. She had advised him to watch his hygiene. Then, she got marked down by the interviewer and failed immediately.

Although it was a shame, she didn’t regret it. If that happened again, she would still advise him.

At that moment, she saw a group of people gathered at a place and she was curious. Why were there so many people gathered?

A group of passersby had gathered around, whispering into each other’s ears.

“Don’t touch him. We don’t know what happened. If he wakes up, he might blame you.”

“Yeah, that’s what I was thinking. That’s why I didn’t dare to touch him.”

“Should we call an ambulance?”

“You call. I won’t do it.”

“Then I won’t call either.”

The crowd all watched but none of them did anything.

Wang Ying squeezed through the crowd. When she saw that a cleaner had collapsed on the ground, she was startled. Then, without thinking much, she rushed forward and kneeled down. She gently called out, “Uncle, uncle, are you okay?”

“Young lady, don’t touch him. This has nothing to do with you. If something happens, you might be implicated,” the people around warned her.

Wang Ying glanced at that person. Then, she started to recall the first aid treatments she had seen in a book before. She could at least remember some of it. She opened the cleaner’s mouth with her hands.

Without hesitation, she blew into his mouth.

When the crowd saw this, their hearts trembled. This young lady is really brave. She even dares to do such a thing.

At that moment, Lin Fan had just passed by and he had joined the crowd as well. Initially, he had wanted to help. But when he saw that young lady doing that, he was startled. He hadn’t expected that there would be someone like that.

However, blowing air wouldn’t save the man. Then, with a flick of his finger, he shot out a burst of energy which permeated into the cleaner’s body.

Before long, with Wang Ying's efforts, that cleaner gradually woke up.

Everyone gasped.

"He's awake. He's really awake."

"This young lady is amazing."

"Yeah!"

Then, some people rushed forward. They appeared very caring as they asked, "Uncle, are you okay?"

The uncle woke up in a daze. When he saw that so many people were surrounding him, he was confused. However, thinking about how he had fainted, he started thanking them.

"Thank you, thank you..."

To the cleaner, there seemed to be a lot of people.

A group of people helped the old uncle up and cared for him. It was completely different from the coldness they had shown before.

On the other hand, Wang Ying had been forgotten by the old uncle.

Seeing that the old uncle had awoken, Wang Ying didn't think much. Although he didn't know that she had helped him, she hadn't helped him for his thanks.

Then, she dusted off her knees before walking off in front.

She still had another interview to go to.

Moreover, it was an even better company. The competition was intense. She had to do her best.

Lin Fan watched Wang Ying closely. This young lady was really kindhearted but her luck wasn't too good.

She was one of those people who wouldn't receive any credit no matter how much work she did.

For her to be so positive, her attitude had to be strong. It was hard not to respect her.

"Hello..." at that moment, Lin Fan shouted from behind. He was all smiles as he looked at Wang Ying. And this smile appeared to harbour some bad intentions.

Wang Ying heard someone shouting at her from behind and was suspicious. But she cheerfully turned around. When she was who it was, she was startled.

Exhilarated, she blurted out.

"Master Lin..."

Chapter 989: A good person will live a life of peace

Lin Fan was already very famous now. He was an idol in many young people's hearts.

Besides studying, Wang Ying would always read the news on the Internet. Since last year, she had noticed this fearless and ever-righteous Master Lin. Since then, she had been filled with curiosity.

Earlier on, she had had some doubts about Master Lin. She had felt that Master Lin had been overly domineering for making an old man heartbroken. But now, she had already realized her mistake.

Now that she saw her idol, how could she not be excited? Especially since her idol had spontaneously called for her.

"Master Lin, I'm a fan of yours," Wang Ying exclaimed excitedly.

Lin Fan smiled. "It's an honor to have a fan like you."

Wang Ying was a little shy. Then, she asked curiously, "Master Lin, is there something that made you call me?"

Lin Fan explained, "I saw what you just did. Actually, you helped that cleaner but those people snatched the credit."

Wang Ying said, "I don't mind all that. As long as the uncle wakes up, it's good. Moreover, they helped the uncle as well."

Lin Fan hadn't expected Wang Ying to reply like this. He was mumbling in his heart. There are actually still such people in this world. Suddenly, he felt as if this task wouldn't be so easy to complete.

But he decided not to think about that for now. When that comes, he would think about how to resolve that. Right now, he had to resolve the situation at hand.

"Looking at how hurried you are, I can predict that you are going to an interview," Lin Fan said with a smile.

*Pfft!*

Wang Ying looked at Lin Fan as he pretended to read her fortune and couldn't help but laugh. Then, she nodded. "Mmm. I have another interview later on. I just got rejected on the spot before this but I won't give up."

"You're very enthusiastic. This is for you." Lin Fan took out the product of his first try at carving and passed it to her.

Wang Ying's jaw dropped as she looked at it in disbelief. "Master Lin, this is a gift for me?"

Looking at that wooden carving, she was stunned. She hadn't expected Master Lin to give her a gift. Moreover, the wooden carving looked very good. Although she could quite understand what was carved into it, she felt that it was probably a god or Buddha.

Lin Fan nodded. “Mmm. You’re a kindhearted young lady. This wooden carving will bring you good fortune. If you bring it with you, your interview might even turn out successful and bring you a life of fortune.”

Wang Ying really loved that wooden carving. Especially since it had been given to her by her idol, she really adored it.

But she realized that what Master Lin had said was a little unreal. She couldn’t help but look at her idol doubtfully.

Lin Fan smiled. “Trust me. Bring it with you. You will receive a blessing. Alright, I’m going. All the best.”

Before Wang Ying could respond, her idol had turned and left.

Then, she looked at the wooden carving which was only as long as her finger and couldn’t help but be a little lost. What was going on? But somehow, as she looked at the wooden carving, she felt as if her heart was at peace.

Lin Fan returned to the car. He didn’t know if it would be useful. Then, he didn’t think too much and just drove straight back to Cloud Street.

...

A certain listed company.

The competition amongst applicants was great this time. There were very many interviewees and their educational backgrounds were all impressive. Most of them had degrees and there were also many of them who had masters degrees.

To emerge victorious in such a competitive application, it was simply too difficult.

It was as if ten thousand soldiers were crossing a wooden bridge and only one would make it across.

Cloud Street.

Lin Fan carried all the materials that he had bought into the shop.

Fraud Tian looked at all these things and couldn't help but ask suspiciously, "Kid, why did you buy all this wood?"

Lin Fan looked at Fraud Tian helplessly. "These are for carving. If you don't understand, don't ask."

Zhao Zhong Yang, who had been playing with his phone all along, became curious. "Brother Lin, you know how to carve wood?"

Lin Fan smiled. "Yes. I learned it today."

Wu You Lan stood behind Lin Fan and said proudly, "Nothing is too difficult for Brother Lin. Even if it's building a rocket, I believe Brother Lin can do it."

Lin Fan felt helpless. Although it wasn't impossible, saying it so bluntly made him a little embarrassed.

Fraud Tian said, "You Lan, sometimes, you can't brag as you like about his awesomeness. If you brag too much, it would be meaningless."

Wu You Lan's face turned red as if she felt that her bragging had been a little too much.

Lin Fan retorted, "Bragging? What You Lan said is the truth. Even if I can't build it now, it doesn't mean I won't be able to build it in the future. You Lan, you have great vision. I think that you're brilliant."

Wu You Lan's heart was filled with delight. Then, she shot Fraud Tian a glare. "Brother Lin is the best."

To Lin Fan, having a true fan was something that made him very happy sometimes. Moreover, he felt very proud.

You Lan is pretty good. I haven't taken care of her for nothing.

Fraud Tian shook his head and sighed. Comparing people to each other would make one go mad. This kid really made him envious. He wasn't just amazing but he also had ladies who mindlessly followed him.

Thinking about his own life, besides knowing Ba Gua Zhang, Fraud Tian didn't have much to show for.

He decided not to think about it. The more he thought about it the worse his mood would become.

Nighttime.

As a member of Lin Fan's army of fans, Wang Ying was elated after having met Master Lin that day. What made her even happier was that she had managed to fight her way through and emerge victorious among hundreds of applicants. She had been hired on the spot during the interview.

To Wang Ying, that was simply inconceivable, because this kind of big company typically informed the applicants of their application outcome by mail. They would typically never hire someone on the spot.

She felt that it was inconceivable that she had been hired. Her performance hadn't been outstanding. It had been much weaker than other people's performances.

She had no idea why she had been hired.

There was only one strange thing.

An old auntie had applied as well and she had sat next to the old auntie. When she went to get some water to drink, she brought a cup of water for the old auntie as well. Later on, they started to chat casually and that old auntie asked her a lot of questions and even looked at her resume.

Then, the old auntie left all of a sudden.

Then, she it was her turn for the interview, it went smoothly, seemingly without any obstacles. And that was how she passed.

When she went home, she took out the gift from her idol and happily held it in her hand. She eagerly took out her phone and took a photo.

Weibo.

Wang Ying: “Today, it has been one good thing after another. I’ve never had such good luck in my life. Thank you to my idol for giving me this present. It is very lucky. I actually passed such a difficult interview. I will definitely keep this present safely @MasterLin.”

After sending that post, Wang Ying started fading out into her dreams.

In her sleep.

That wooden carving that had been placed on the table seemed to be slightly different. It emitted a mystical power that enveloped Wang Ying’s body as if causing some sort of change.

Chapter 990: I can’t treat you

The next day!

Cloud Street.

Lin Fan finished selling his scallion pancakes and just lay there, preparing to do some carving. But before that, he took out his phone to look at Weibo.

He realized that someone tagged him, so he went to take a look. It was the young lady from yesterday.

When he had read her fortune yesterday, he had seen that she wouldn't be hired. But now that he saw this Weibo post, he instantly smiled. It seemed that the carving had really been useful. It was really blessed.

But the only downside was that the effectiveness was limited. This blessed carving could only bring fortune to kindhearted people. To people who didn't meet this requirement, it was just a normal wooden carving.

Of course, the aesthetics of the wooden carving was amazing. It completely surpassed carvings made by the current masters.

Then, Lin Fan's hands moved as he typed a reply.

"Work hard, kindhearted lady. That wooden carving will bring you fortune."

When some netizens saw that Master Lin was replying to a random lady, they were confused as they wondered what was going on. Could it be that a beautiful lady had drawn Master Lin's attention?

But when they clicked on her profile, they saw that she wasn't a beautiful lady. She only looked average but she loved to smile. She gave off a feeling that she was a good person.

"What does Master Lin mean by this? Does anyone understand?"

"I don't understand. Is there an expert that can come and explain this?"

"Are you all stupid? It's so simple yet you don't understand. Master Lin gave that young lady a present that can bring her good luck. This young lady's luck indeed became good and she got hired successfully. It's that simple."

"666... Master Lin came across a fan and gave her a present. That's very well done."

"Haha. Not bad, not bad."

Lin Fan didn't bother about all this. He sat there as he took out the materials and the carving knife from his drawer and prepared to start carving. He would make some carvings and store them in the storage ring that he had fished up. In the future, when he meets suitable people, he would give it to them and the task would be completed.

But to him, this task was quite hard. The difficulty was high.

Wu You Lan rested her chin on her palm as she watched him unblinkingly. “Brother Lin, are you going to start carving?”

Lin Fan nodded. “Mmm.”

He had wanted to make one for Wu You Lan. But under Lin Fan’s care, You Lan’s fate had already changed drastically. She didn’t need it at all.

Afterward, he thought about what he would carve later. Then, he seemed to have thought of something and his hands started moving nimbly.

Wu You Lan watched from the side. She suddenly realized that Brother Lin looked very good when he was serious too.

With a move of his fingers, the Encyclopedia’s mystical boost rushed out. This kind of blessed carving was very mysterious. Besides Lin Fan, no one else could make it.

*Whistling sound*

The sound was clear and crisp as the initially rectangular piece of wood gradually changed shape.

Suddenly, there were two people at the door. A middle-aged man and a young man.

They seemed to have been stunned by Lin Fan’s carving technique as they stood there and stared.

That middle-aged man, in particular, was shocked beyond words because he realized that this carving technique was too amazing. If he hadn’t seen it for himself, he wouldn’t believe it.

There were no unnecessary movements. He had never seen such skill before.

It was really too amazing.

After it was done, Lin Fan's hands stopped. Then, he gave it a gentle blow to blow off the wooden shavings and reveal the true appearance.

"Good."

Suddenly, that middle-aged man gasped.

Lin Fan looked up and chuckled. Without saying much, he took a closer look at the carving. It was really not bad. It had quite an aesthetic look.

"It's vivid and lifelike. It's as if it has a soul of its own. Master Lin's skill is something that normal people can only dream of attaining," the middle-aged man praised.

Lin Fan nodded. "Thank you."

That middle-aged man liked it very much. He couldn't help but ask, "Master Lin, how about you sell it to me? Just name the price."

Lin Fan didn't know who he was but this middle-aged man knew him. It was mainly because Lin Fan was way too active. The Internet was a strange place. When one reached a certain level, everyone would know that person.

Lin Fan shook his head. "It's not for sale."

This wooden carving was very precious. Just its aesthetics and charm were already outstanding. Moreover, it even harboured special powers.

Although it would only be useful for certain people, he didn't want to sell it.

The middle-aged man was in no hurry. He felt that there was no problem at all. "Master Lin, just tell me a price. Anything you say, I'll accept. I really like this carving. It's domineering. It's really great."

Lin Fan shook his head. "You can't afford this."

The young man next to the middle-aged man was displeased. He felt that this Master Lin was being too arrogant. Then, he resisted his anger as he said, "Master Lin, you're looking down on us. This is Uingrow Corporation, Mister Zhou Shi Ming."

When he said that, he sounded quite proud.

Uingrow Corporation wasn't very well-known to the public but that was because it was very low-key. The businesses under its banner were many.

Lin Fan chuckled. "Having money is useless. This isn't something that can be bought with money. What do you two want?"

After hearing what the young man had said, Lin Fan took a closer look at this Zhou Shi Ming. Indeed, his fortune was awesome. But this had nothing to do with Lin Fan. Even if he had even more money, it would be useless.

Because wealth and social status were nothing much at all to Lin Fan.

Zhou Shi Ming was only in his middle age and he already had such accomplishments. Hence, he was quite self-confident. No matter what he faced, he had the confidence to seize everything in his control.

"Master Lin, I really like this wooden carving very much," repeated Zhou Shi Ming. If it had been a normal person who kept on rejecting him, he would have been enraged.

But this was Master Lin. Although Master Lin didn't have much wealth, he wasn't someone to be messed with. Even in terms of connections, Master Lin was on par with him.

Lin Fan waved his hand. "Chief Zhou, this is really not for sale. It isn't something that can be traded for money. Did you just pass by or do you have something to do here?"

Zhou Shi Ming saw that Master Lin really didn't want to sell it, so he didn't press further. He really liked it but now, there were more important things to do, so he decided not to delay any further.

"Master Lin, I have something to do. I'd like to ask for your help," said Zhou Shi Ming, "That son of mine, for some reason, has lost the ability to move one of his legs."

Lin Fan smiled. "Chief Zhou, if his leg can't move, he has to go to the hospital. What are you looking for me for?"

"Sigh. Master Lin, we've already been to the hospital. It became fine for a while but then the problem returned. This has happened for a few times already. That's why I'd like to invite you to take a look." Zhou Shi Ming instructed the young man to go to the car and help his son over.

At that moment, another young man, being supported, walked over awkwardly. His right leg didn't move at all. It was as if it was just a stiff metal rod.

Lin Fan looked over and felt strange. "What happened?"

Zhou Shi Ming's son, Zhou Jun, had a blank face. His tone was a little rushed as he said, "I don't know either. A while ago, after playing with my friends at a bar, I saw a dog squatted on the road, so I went up to kick it. At that time, it felt a little painful. The next day, my leg started having problems and I couldn't move it.

Wu You Lan hadn't been paying much attention at first but when she heard that man say that, she looked over disdainfully. The dog didn't even bother you. Why did you kick it?

"Master Lin, please help us out," said Zhou Shi Ming.

Lin Fan glanced at Zhou Jun before shaking his head. "I can't treat you."

The answer was firm and without hesitation.

Zhou Shi Ming panicked. "Master Lin, you haven't even looked."

“I don’t need to look. I understand it already,” said Lin Fan. With a good look, he could see what this Zhou Kun had done. He had cruelly kicked a pregnant dog to death. Even that puppy that had been in its mother’s womb had died.

This was just retribution.

Even though Lin Fan could treat him, he didn’t want to. It was that simple.
