Chapter 101

At this moment, Qin Chen showed a confident smile, and said: "With me, what can I worry about? It's just the cultivation technique. It won't trouble me. Both of you are at the king level. In other words, the corresponding exercise method is preferably a heavenly exercise method. I have 13 different exercise methods that are suitable for you. Which one do you want to cultivate?"

"Ten... thirteen kinds..."

Lin Tian and Zhang Ying stared so that their eyes were about to fall off.

And it's still a heavenly technique.

It's over, Master Chen is not crazy, right.

The exercises are divided into four levels: Heaven, Earth, Xuan, and Huang. The most top exercise in the entire Great Qi Kingdom, but it is not even the highest in Xuan-level. If Qin Chen said that he could come up with Xuan-level exercises, it would be possible for two of them. I believed it, but Qin Chen talked about the Heavenly Cultivation Technique all at once.

This is a technique that those legendary empires and big sects may not have.

"Dust... Less dust... Are you okay?"

Lin Tian and Zhang Ying said nervously.

"You only have problems!"

Seeing the nervousness of the two, Qin Chen couldn't smile, and said, "Forget it, I'll choose for you."

Guiyin Di Jue? No, this method is too evil, especially at the end of the cultivation, it needs to absorb a lot of pure Yin power, it is easy to cultivate so that people are not people, ghosts are not ghosts.

Hades? No way. Although this technique is not evil, it does too much damage to the meridians, and requires a lot of treasures to assist in the process of cultivation, which is extremely difficult.

Ten Thousand Shadows? It fits Lin Tian's physique very well. This set of exercises is well-known even among the many celestial exercises and can be called a metamorphosis. This sutra is divided into nine levels. The first three levels are not difficult, and the more difficult they are, the more difficult they are. But once the cultivation is successful, its power is by no means comparable to ordinary exercises.

In practicing this set of exercises, Lin Tian is still very sure that he will reach the top six levels in the future, but whether he can cultivate to the last nine levels depends on Lin Tian's own chance.

"Lin Tian, you are ready to practice the Ten Thousand Shadows Heaven Sutra. This is one of the strongest exercises among all the Nether System exercises. It can be practiced to the extreme, and it can be transformed into tens of thousands. At the same time, it is extremely scary in terms of hiding aura.

"I will now teach you the first three mantras and mental methods. As for the next few mantras and mental methods, when you finish the first three levels of cultivation, I will tell you that you will listen carefully..."

Qin Chen taught Lin Tian the formulas and mental techniques of the Ten Thousand Shadows Book of Heaven. This set of exercises was not obscure, and Lin Tian was extremely talented, and he quickly remembered it.

Lin Tian was shocked after studying carefully and silently. Although Wanying Tianjing's formula seems simple, but after careful study, it far surpasses all the exercises he has seen before, and is compared with the exercises he practiced before. , It's too strong.

Just according to the inner mental method to rotate the true qi in the body, there is a feeling that the true qi is boiling and cannot be suppressed, and even the power of the blood in the body will flow with it.

After finishing the first three meditations, Lin Tian looked astonished. He hasn't started practicing yet, and the true energy in his body has grown slightly. Once he has cultivated, it will be fine?

There is such a terrible exercise in this world?

Could it be that as Chen Shao said, it was because of the failure of the heavenly technique.

"Lin Tian, you can try to practice now, how about this exercise."

Qin Chen said.

"Yes!"

As soon as Qin Chen ordered, Lin Tian could not wait to practice cross-legged.

"Little dust, what about me? What practice do I practice? Lin Tian cultivates the Ten Thousand Shadows Book of Heaven, which seems to be very bullish. I must be even better than him, right?"

Zhang Ying was already on the sidelines a long time ago. Although he had some doubts about Qin Chen's Heavenly Grade Cultivation Technique, he had been extremely convinced of Qin Chen after experiencing these days. After practicing the exercises Qin Chen had given, he was suddenly very anxious, and his heart felt as if thousands of ants were crawling, making it itch.

"Your bloodline is an undead petrified bloodline. This bloodline is very terrifying. It is known as one of the top hidden bloodlines in the Tianwu Continent. There are not many techniques that fit this bloodline. To be honest, there are not many, but I happen to have a very scary set here. Yes, it is called the Undead Chaos Art, so you can practice this."

"Immortality Chaos Art? Is it strong?" Zhang Ying asked excitedly, "Listening to the name, it seems to be more powerful than Lin Tian's Ten Thousand Shadows?"

"Of course, the Immortal Chaos Jue is not inferior to the Wanying Tianjing, it can be said to be comparable, but at the end of the cultivation, which one is better depends on your personal cultivation and your own cultivation strength." Qin Chen laughed Said: "If you don't work hard, you will definitely be no match for Lin Tian."

Hearing Qin Chen's words, Zhang Ying said with a righteous expression: "Little dust, you too underestimate me Zhang Ying, I like to joke and play sloppy in other days, but I am not sloppy in my practice. Just watch it."

Qin Chen smiled.

He knew that Zhang Ying did not just talk about it. Zhang Ying was a perverted person and looked quite frivolous, but he was very hardworking in his cultivation.

Just because he wanted to improve his family's status in the Great Qi Kingdom.

"Shao Chen, you said that I have practiced this Immortal Chaos Art, do you have any hope of becoming a strong celestial power in the future?"

Heavenly powerhouse...

If the founder of Undead Chaos Jue knew that Zhang Ying's ambition was so 'great', I'm afraid he would crawl out of the coffin and hit him to death.

"Heaven-level powerhouse?" Qin Chen was also extremely speechless, I am afraid it won't be long before Zhang Ying will discover how ridiculous his dream is.

With his talent of undead petrified blood, coupled with the terrifying of Undead Chaos Secret Art, even if he only wants to stabilize at the heavenly realm, it is impossible. The powerful talent will push him forward and finally reach a perverted state.

I told Zhang Ying the mind and formulas of the Undead Chaos Jue, and soon Zhang Ying also practiced cross-legged in this awakening room.

The true qi in the two of them fluctuated violently, and in an instant, countless true qi between the world and the earth poured into their bodies like a tide.

The cultivation base of the two of them is slowly increasing at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Seeing the changes in the two of them, Qin Chen sighed slightly.

In fact, Qin Chen still experienced a struggle in his heart if he wanted to teach the two Heavenly Rank techniques.

Feng Shaoyu's betrayal in his previous life left him with a thorn in his heart, and he was full of scruples about the so-called brotherhood.

But getting along with Lin Tian and Zhang Ying these days made Qin Chen completely believe in the character of the two.

Feng Shaoyu from the previous life was introduced by Shangguan Xi'er. From the beginning, he had a purpose and made friends with himself in a pretended way.

But Lin Tian and Zhang Ying were brothers who were born and died together when they were poor and humble. The kind of friendship that Feng Shaoyu can never compare.

Moreover, after experiencing the betrayal of the previous life, Qin Chen was also more cautious about seeing people. Through this time of getting along, he believed that Lin Tian and Zhang Ying were definitely not the kind of brothers who would betray him.

What's more, Qin Chen helped Lin Tian and Zhang Ying to cultivate his own power and better avenge Feng Shaoyu and Shangguan Xier.

Chapter 102

In his previous life, he was alone and did not establish any influence, so in the end, he was lonely and betrayed without help.

In this life, he wants to change all of this and build a huge power with many powerful people around him to compete with Feng Shaoyu and Shangguan Xi'er who have already reached the peak of the mainland.

"Feng Shaoyu, Shangguan Xi'er, you are waiting."

With his fists clenched, Qin Chen squeezed the corners of his mouth, a sharp gaze shot straight through the sky.

Boo! Boo!

At this moment, a violent fluctuation suddenly came from the entire hall, an astonishing breath erupted from Lin Tian and Zhang Ying, and the two broke through to the late human level at the same time.

After another stick of incense, the two opened their eyes almost simultaneously.

"me....."

Feeling the terrifying power in the body, the two of them looked dumbfounded and filled with disbelief.

How long has passed since, in just half an hour, he has actually been promoted from the middle stage of the human level to the peak of the latter stage of the human level, and he is only one step away from the ground level.

This is incredible!

It took them more than half a year to cultivate from the early stage to the middle stage, and under Qin Chen's guidance, they had just broken through.

Unexpectedly, after only half a month of work, they actually broke through to the late human level, and even reached the peak of the late human level. This speed made the two of them feel like they were in a dream.

Only then did they understand how terrifying the exercise Qin Chen gave them.

It is definitely not an exaggeration to say that it is a heavenly practice.

"Little dust, you too..." The two stammered, unable to speak for a long time, their eyes were reddish, full of gratitude.

Because of Qin Chen's help, a broad road had been presented to the two of them, as if an unprecedented door had been opened.

The two looked at each other. Even Zhang Ying, who is usually hippy smiling, was full of dignity at this time, and solemnly said: "There is less dust, not much talk about it. We will keep your kindness in our hearts. In the future, what can you do with less dust? Go to our place, despite the instructions, even if we go up to the sword mountain and down to the sea of fire, if we frown, we wish to die by heaven."

The eyes of the two were solemn, and their true energy rose, making Qin Chen slightly moved.

This is a martial arts oath, once it is issued, it is equivalent to a heart demon, staying in the hearts of the two, if the two really violate the oath in the future, it is likely to be verified.

Even if there is no verification, the demons of the two will explode. Since then, the cultivation base will not only make no progress, but will continue to retreat.

This is a taboo in Tianwu Continent, so few people would be willing to take the martial arts oath.

Qin Chen didn't expect the two of them to do this.

"Don't say that, we are good brothers, just one exercise!" Qin Chen patted the shoulders of the two of them.

For Qin Chen, this is just a technique, but for Lin Tian and Zhang Ying, the meaning is completely different!

"From today, you will be our boss, Shao Chen, Lin Tian and I, let you send it!" Zhang Ying said.

Lin Tian also nodded.

Qin Chen was speechless and said with a smile: "If this is the case, then I will give you a task, that is to improve your cultivation as soon as possible. With your talents, soon this great Qi country will not be able to accommodate you. Your future should be This is the vast Tianwu Continent."

"Hey, boss, wait, maybe we can break through to the ground level before you, don't be overtaken by us." Zhang Ying said with a smile.

"Then I will wait and see!" Qin Chen smiled slightly.

"Let's go!"

After getting everything done, Qin Chen immediately led Lin Tian and Zhang Ying out of the awakening room.

He has to go to Dan Pavilion. There are too many things today, and they are a little too busy.

"Squeak."

At this moment, the awakening room on the side suddenly opened, and a middle-aged man wearing a gray bloodline master robe came out from it.

When the two sides met, they were taken aback.

"Uh, mentor Chen, hello." Lin Tian and Zhang Ying hurriedly saluted this person.

This person, Chen Zhuo, is a mentor of the Tianxing Academy, mainly teaching bloodline knowledge, and he is also a first-order bloodline master.

However, because Qin Chen had never awakened his bloodline before, he had never attended his class, so naturally he didn't know him.

"Lin Tian, Zhang Ying, are you?!"

Chen Zhuo nodded proudly. Lin Tian and Zhang Ying were both talented, and the awakened bloodlines were also first-rank bloodlines, very common. In the academy, Chen Zhuo hadn't paid much attention to them, but they still knew them.

"And you, it should be Qin Chen!"

Turning his head to look at Qin Chen beside them, Chen Zhuo was slightly startled.

Qin Chen didn't know him, but he knew Qin Chen. He also watched the year-end exam that day, not to mention that almost no one knew Qin Chen's name in the Sky Star Academy now.

"It's a student." Qin Chen nodded, and then said to Lin Tian and Zhang Ying: "Lin Tian, Zhang Ying, let's go."

It's almost the afternoon, and there are still important things to go to Dan Pavilion, but you must not delay.

It was only Qin Chen's attitude that made Chen Zhuo frown, and his heart suddenly became dissatisfied.

This student doesn't understand the rules too much!

When you see the instructor, let's not say what to do, bow and salute, that's basic, but it's better for him to just say "it's a student"!

What's even more annoying is that it's okay if you don't show courtesy, you even ignore yourself and just want to leave. He is still standing here as a tutor, but he is a student who wants to go first. Does he still think of himself? This is clearly a lack of respect!

Think you won the first place in the year-end exam of the Star Academy, that's amazing?

"Qin Chen, did I say to let you go?"

Subconsciously, Chen Zhuo snorted coldly.

"Teacher Chen Zhuo, are you still okay?" Qin Chen paused and couldn't help but look over.

Seeing Qin Chen's appearance, Chen Zhuo was even more angry. As a mentor, and also a Tier 1 bloodline master, does it have to be something to call him?

With a cold snort in his heart, Chen Zhuo was about to think of a reason to scold him. He suddenly shuddered when he saw the awakening room behind Qin Chen.

"Lin Tian, Zhang Ying, who let you into this awakening room?"

With a loud shout, Chen Zhuo was so scared that his soul was almost gone. These little rascals are too lawless. Do you know who this awakening room belongs to?

My God, this is the exclusive awakening room of the one in the Holy Land, and these three dare to go in and mess around.

Which guy with no eyesight in the Holy Land let them in?

For a while, Chen Zhuo's hair stood up, and his horror could not be added.

"This...this is... the receptionist asked us to use this awakening room."

Lin Tian and Zhang Ying didn't know how Chen Zhuo's mentor suddenly changed. They even explained, while looking at Qin Chen, then said, "The waiter is the foreman at the front desk, he should be a friend with less dust."

"Serve... waiter..."

Chen Zhuo almost spit out a mouthful of old blood.

OK!

Lawlessness, too lawlessness.

Chen Zhuo's expression changed in an instant, and two cold lights shot out in his eyes.

Chapter 103

In just an instant, he already wanted to understand the ins and outs of the matter.

It must be a certain friend of Qin Chen's, who worked as a waiter here, but did not know the depth, and brought the three of Qin Chen to the chairman's awakening room in violation of the rules.

Too presumptuous!

Chen Zhuo thought about it, his legs were a little soft and he could hardly stand.

This is a special awakening room for the president, let alone a small waiter, even the elders and deacons in the Holy Land of Blood, they dare not move at all.

But now...

"Lin Tian, Zhang Ying, and Qin Chen, you three brave enough to make trouble in the Holy Land of Blood. What crime should you do."

Thinking of this, Chen Zhuo couldn't bear it anymore and burst out loudly.

The thunderous voice shocked Lin Tian and Zhang Ying, and stammered: "Teacher Chen Zhuo, we...no...no!"

"Dare to say no? Do you know who this awakening room is? Immediately follow me to the Holy Land Law Enforcement Hall and beg for forgiveness. Otherwise, I won't blame this instructor for being polite."

Chen Zhuo took a step forward, piercing the three of Qin Chen with a horrible aura like a thousand swords.

At the early stage of Chen Zhuo's cultivation as high as the heavenly level, Lin Tian and Zhang Ying could hardly resist even if they had just made a breakthrough. Under the aura of terror, their faces suddenly turned pale and stepped back.

"Teacher Chen Zhuo, what are you doing?"

Up to this time, Lin Tian and Zhang Ying didn't understand what had happened, and why the mentor Chen Zhuo in the academy was so fierce.

"Hey, isn't this Chen Zhuo? He actually made a lot of noise outside the awakening room, didn't he know that when the bloodline master was in the awakening room, the most taboo thing was being disturbed!"

"Who are the two children in front of him?!"

"Instructor Chen Zhuo? I heard that Chen Zhuo is still the instructor of Wangdu Tianxing Academy. Could it be that these two children are his students in the Academy?"

"It doesn't matter who these two children are doing, it's too much for Chen Zhuo to make a big noise outside of Awakening."

At this time, the movement outside the awakening room immediately shocked many bloodline masters who were cultivating in the awakening room, and they opened the door and walked out one by one with dissatisfaction.

The Awakening Room is an extremely important training place for the bloodline masters. Here, the bloodline masters can use instruments to better understand their own bloodline problems and make corrections.

So what is needed most is cleanliness.

But this Chen Zhuo was good, he made a big noise in the public area outside Awakening, how could everyone not be angry.

"No, you see..."

Suddenly, someone saw the door of Lin Tian's awakening room opened behind them, and he yelled suddenly, his eyes rounded, as if he had a ghost.

"What's the matter? What a fuss!"

Several people next to each other said with contempt, showing a haughty look.

As a bloodline master, the most important thing is not to be surprised, how can you make such a fuss.

"Hey?"

Everyone followed the gaze of the person before, but immediately all expressions were dull.

This this.....

Why was the chairman's awakening room opened?

Everyone who saw this scene felt that the sky was going to fall in an instant.

For an instant, the crowd was so noisy that it almost exploded.

"Isn't it the mentor Chen Zhuo who let his students use the awakening room of the president?"

"It is very likely that the two teenagers I saw just now came out of this awakening room."

"My God, Chen Zhuo has eaten the bear heart and leopard courage, dare to move the awakening room of the adult."

The crowd is almost crazy.

Chen Zhuo, who heard everyone talking, suddenly staggered and almost fell down.

I brought them in?

Chen Zhuo is about to cry.

Please see clearly, this person was not brought by me at all.

This pot, I can't carry it properly, it's mortal.

"Everyone, listen to me, these three guys were not brought in by me at all. Please don't get me wrong."

Chen Zhuo shouted.

"You didn't bring it? Obviously you stand together, and these two teenagers are still your students!"

"Yes, who else did you bring it? Could it be that we didn't bring it?"

"Who is going to notify Deacon Li, otherwise all of us who have been to the awakening room this afternoon will have to take the blame."

Chen Zhuo was about to cry, why didn't these people believe it?

Looking at the Lin Tian trio, they almost burst into flames with angry eyes.

It was all the fault of these three guys. If it reaches the president's ears, there will be no good fruit for himself.

"The three of you, tell me right away, who brought you in and find out the waiter for me!"

With a violent shout, Chen Zhuo could no longer remain calm, his hands like eagle claws grabbed Lin Tian and the three.

at this time.....

"Deacon Lee is here."

There was a sudden burst of noise and panic from the crowd, and the crowd of onlookers suddenly moved away.

I saw outside the awakening area, Li Wenyu was walking swiftly and quickly, like a gust of wind, he immediately came to the crowd.

Everyone suddenly became solemn and nervous.

Li Wenyu is the assistant of the guildmaster, the bloodline master of the second-order of the Holy Land, with an extraordinary position in the Holy Land.

Moreover, he was very concerned about the Lord President's affairs, and now seeing someone use the Lord President's Awakening Room indiscriminately, he must be furious.

Everyone couldn't help backing up a few steps, only to feel that the atmosphere was solemn and suffocated, as if a terrifying explosion was coming.

"Deacon Li, you are here."

Chen Zhuo was so scared that his soul was gone, and he greeted him immediately, feeling nervous.

"Chen Zhuo, are you okay?"

Li Wenyu frowned and looked behind Chen Zhuo, searching everywhere.

He was cultivating in retreat just now, and as soon as he came out, he heard Lin Xinrou tell him that Qin Chen was here and rushed over immediately.

After Qin Chen left that day, Li Wenyu investigated him urgently, and learned that Qin Chen was the illegitimate grandson of King Dingwu, Li Wenyu and Dongfang Qing were a little confused.

A trash who has not even awakened his bloodline, turned out to be a disciple of a bloodline master, and they both thought it was incredible.

The two even specifically called for the two bloodline masters who had awakened Qin Chen before, but they all said that Qin Chen couldn't perceive a bloodline at all in his body, and that it was completely a waste vein and had no ability to awaken the bloodline.

This surprised the two of them.

Until yesterday, during the examination of the Star Academy, Qin Chen publicly awakened his bloodline and won the first place in the year-end exam in one fell swoop. It instantly made the two of them awakened and strengthened Qin Chen's idea of having a powerful bloodline master behind him.

A person who was designated as a waste line unexpectedly awakened his blood line, and his cultivation was progressing by leaps and bounds. From a recognized waste person, he suddenly became the champion of the Star Academy.

The meaning of this makes people shudder just thinking about it.

It can be said that the year-end exam at Tianxing Academy made Dongfangqing and Li Wenyu more determined that Qin Chen had a powerful bloodline master behind them.

Don't dare to neglect at all.

Chapter 104: An Ear Scraper

Seeing that Chen Zhuo frowned frequently and looked behind him, Chen Zhuo's heart was like falling into an ice cellar.

When it's over, Deacon Li must be furious.

After gritting his teeth, Chen Zhuo said in a loud voice: "Deacon Li, it is like this. Today I was practicing in the awakening room and suddenly heard a voice next door. When I walked out to see, there were three boys who broke into the awakening room of the president. It is a student who had been taught by his subordinates in the Star Academy..."

"The students you have taught?!" Li Wenyu interrupted him and said solemnly.

His dignified gaze made Chen Zhuo feel even more guilty, his scalp numb, and he hurriedly said, "Deacon Li, listen to me. Although I have taught these people before, how can the subordinates recklessly take advantage of such a big matter? I stopped the three of them and asked sternly, only to discover that the waiter of our bloodline sanctuary violated the rules and brought them in. This kind of behavior is really lawless. These three people were imprisoned in the execution hall of the Holy Land of My Blood, and then let the Law Enforcement Hall of the Holy Land intervene to interrogate them to see if anyone in the Holy Land of my blood used their rights to seek personal gain for others."

Chen Zhuo sternly scolded, expressing his position, filled with righteous indignation.

Then he turned his head and yelled: "Lin Tian, Zhang Ying, Qin Chen, the three of you don't give me a hurry to come over, explain the situation to Master Li Wenyu, begging for forgiveness, do you really know repentance only when your head falls? ?"

"presumptuous!"

After listening to Li Wenyu, his face was pale, as black as the bottom of a pot.

Interrogate, who does Chen Zhuo want to interrogate?

She also asked Shao Chen to come over to apologize and admit her mistake, begging for forgiveness, and even said that the head fell.

Oh my God!

Young Chen can enter the guild leader's awakening room, but that is an order given by the guild leader himself, is Chen Zhuo tired of living?

And listening to what Chen Zhuo said, he seemed to have had some conflicts with Chen Shao just now. No wonder there were so many people here, and when he came here just now, he seemed to have heard the quarrel.

Well, it turns out that Quante is the ghost of Chen Zhuo.

The anger in my heart, like a volcanic eruption, could not be suppressed instantly.

"Snapped!"

A big ear scraper was directly pulled up, and half of Chen Zhuo's face instantly swelled.

"Explain the situation. Who do you want to explain? I think it should be you who want to beg for forgiveness!"

The chairman had just told himself yesterday that the next time I saw Shao Chen, he must be dignified. This is better for Chen Zhuo, who directly offended people all over again.

If Chen Shaoyi gets angry, he won't come to the Holy Land in the future, who will carry this pot?

Is it Chen Zhuo? He just wants to recite, and he doesn't see if he can afford it!

"Deacon Lee, I..."

Chen Zhuo covered his face with a blank look.

When I was about to talk, I saw Li Wenyu walk around him, and came to Qin Chen a few steps, with a cold face above him, and the spring blossoms and the sun was shining instantly: "Haha, little dust, what kind of wind brought you today? , You come to my blood sacred place, why don't you tell me, so I can meet you in person!"

Li Wenyu smiled and looked like he had met a leader. He should be more enthusiastic and enthusiastic.

Huh?

Chen Zhuo's mouth opened wide, his eyes bursting.

what's the problem?

How can Deacon Li be so polite to Qin Chen?

Chen Zhuo was almost dizzy.

"A little thing, don't dare to disturb Deacon Li."

"What you said, Shao Chen, you are a distinguished guest of my bloodline holy place." Looking at the opened door of the awakening room, Chen Zhuo smiled and said, "Is Shao Chen also here to use the awakening room this time? It's a pity that the adult will not be here today. , Otherwise the president of the president will come in person, but he said, if you come again, Shao Chen, you must inform him."

"President's love, I have received it from my heart."

Seeing Qin Chen and Li Wenyu's calm exchanges, Chen Zhuo was completely frightened, and he found that he had probably made a serious mistake.

Lin Tian and Zhang Ying on the side also watched.

How can Shao Chen know people everywhere?

From the communication with people around, they also knew that the smiling middle-aged man in front of him was a deacon from the Holy Land of Bloodlines, a second-tier bloodline master.

Such a character, even if the father of their family sees him, he must be respectful and not dare to offend him, but in front of Shao Chen, how can he be like a child.

Just thinking about it, I saw Li Wenyu looking over with a smile on his face. The kind smiles made the two goosebumps straight up, "Are the two little brothers friends with little dust? Haha, they really are a kind of talent. Come to the Holy Land of Blood, even if you find me Li, I will arrange it."

Lin Tian and Zhang Ying were dizzy, but nodded blankly.

"Is Deacon Li still okay?" Qin Chen said suddenly.

"It's okay, Shao Chen, do you have any instructions, just say it." Li Wenyu said.

"Since it's okay, let's go first."

Turned around and walked out of the Holy Land.

Chen Zhuo was dizzy, eldest brother, this is the deacon of the Holy Land of Blood, who is in charge of many matters of the Holy Land of Blood, did you say that?

In the outside world, who doesn't want to stay with the bloodline teacher for a while? Even the patriarchs of the major families in the royal capitals, Lord Hou, are eager to talk with the bloodline masters.

Good for you!

If there is nothing wrong, I will leave first.

This.....

"There is little dust, why don't you stay longer?" Li Wenyu thought that Qin Chen was angry, and couldn't help but try his best to stay.

In fact, he has another task, which is to communicate with Qin Chen on blood issues.

"I have something to do, so I won't nag, next time."

Hearing this, Li Wenyu also knew that it was impossible for Qin Chen to stay anymore. He even personally sent Qin Chen, Lin Tian, and Zhang Ying to the door of the Bloodline Holy Land. He turned around until he saw the other party disappear. To the awakening area.

"Deacon Li, I didn't figure out the situation this time, so please forgive me, Deacon Li."

Chen Zhuo was crying, and knew that he had done something wrong.

He couldn't think that Qin Chen entered the president's awakening room, and it was the president's approval.

"Hmph, I have offended Shaochen. Go back and reflect on yourself. Before tomorrow morning, put the review on my desk. Don't think that you are a bloodline master, that's all right."

With a cold snort, Li Wenyu didn't show Chen Zhuohao's expression at all.

Fortunately, Chen Shao didn't get very angry, otherwise he would almost be wronged by this guy.

"Lin Tian, Zhang Ying, you go back first, I still have something to do, remember to practice hard after I go back."

When he came to a crossroad, Qin Chen looked at the two.

"Okay, you will be careful, little dust."

Seeing Qin Chen leave, the two of them were filled with determination, and they clenched their fists fiercely: Don't worry, Chen Shao, we will never let you down, we will definitely catch up with you and become your right arm.

Chapter 105

"It's getting late, Dan Pavilion... should be in this direction."

Qin Chen walked swiftly on the streets where people flowed through.

As one of the top professions on the Tianwu Continent, the Alchemist always occupies an extremely important position and has a prominent reputation on the mainland.

Any warrior will be injured in the course of the battle. Any warrior also wants to break through to a higher realm, and the alchemist who can help the warriors do this has naturally become the sweet bun in the hearts of everyone.

Even in the Martial Domain, Dan Ta is an extremely terrorist force, no one dares to despise it, and belongs to one of the top giants in the Tianwu Continent.

Following the memory, Qin Chen quickly arrived at the Pill Pavilion not far from the Holy Land of Bloodline.

What appeared in front of Qin Chen was an extremely magnificent building, towering above the prosperous area of the king's capital of the Great Qi Kingdom, with an unspeakable atmosphere and majesty.

Without much hesitation, Qin Chen walked in directly.

The loud noise came in an instant, and the whole hall was full of people coming and going, and the flow of people shuttled. The vast majority of them were carrying swords and even a trace of blood. Obviously they were experienced outsiders. Musha.

Compared with places like the Bloodline Holy Land, Dan Pavilion is much more lively, and there are all kinds of people.

After all, a warrior has few opportunities to awaken his bloodline and improve his bloodline throughout his life, but the number of times he buys pills is absolutely indispensable.

Huang Yuling is a waiter in Dange.

Although the waiter is a very humble profession, the waiter in Dange is extraordinary.

In Dange, every waiter who sells medicinal pills can get a commission. Although this commission is not much, because the price of medicinal pills is too expensive, the accumulation is more than the waiters in other industries in Wangdu. The income is at least five or six times more.

This is not the most important thing. The most important thing is that as a waiter in the Dange, you can often contact the alchemists. If you can get acquainted with a pharmacist and even make a good relationship, the future is boundless.

Therefore, it is very difficult to become a waiter in Dange. Every time she recruits, she will break her head. Huang Yuling also spends a lot of money and trusts people to serve as this waiter.

And there is another thought in her heart. If she can become a pharmacist and become a pharmacist's woman, then she won't have to worry at all for the rest of her life.

Unfortunately.

Even the pharmacy apprentices have a very high vision. Although Huang Yuling's appearance is not bad, she is not amazing, and she is of average background. Therefore, she has been in the Dan Pavilion for two years and was rubbed a lot. But he never caught a satisfied beetle-in-law.

Not to mention being married by a pharmacist.

Seeing that she is in her early twenties, Huang Yuling is also secretly anxious, wondering if she wants to lower her goal. If she can enter the house of a major patron in the pavilion, it is actually not bad.

Thinking like this in her heart, Huang Yuling looked up at the entrance of the Dan Pavilion. It happened that a middle-aged man wearing gold and silver came in. This person was wearing a long robe and looked like a rich man. He put three sets of five fingers on her right hand. Jade pull finger, either rich or precious.

"This is a rich lord."

Huang Yuling was overjoyed, her eyes brightened, she hurriedly closed her hair bun, and pulled her work clothes, only then did she step forward with a smile on her face.

"You are Dan Ge's waiter!"

At this moment, a figure suddenly stood in front of her.

Huang Yuling slipped under her feet and almost staggered. When she looked down, she realized that she was a teenager in a normal robe.

"You don't have eyes when you walk!"

After such an interruption, when Huang Yuling looked up again, another waiter had already arrived in front of the middle-aged man and snatched her gold master. She was suddenly beautiful and furious.

After finally waiting for a rich lord to come, he just slipped away like this, where the wild boy has ruined the good things of the old lady.

The boy is Qin Chen.

Qin Chen was taken aback. He had been standing here just now. It was you who came hurriedly and almost bumped into me. Why did you curse in turn?

His face suddenly sank: "Is that the attitude of Dan Ge's waiter? Do you want me to call your supervisor right away?"

He was the honorary elder of Danta in his previous life, and he was very clear about Danta's rules. When working in Dange, the waiter must have a good attitude towards customers. This is the most basic etiquette before entering the job.

"This... This guest officer, I don't know what you need, do you want to buy a pill?"

Huang Yuling scolded Qin Chen fiercely in her heart, but she didn't dare to be presumptuous, she even squeezed a smile and said respectfully.

If the complaint comes to the steward, it is good to be blamed. If you lose your job because of this, it will be really bad luck.

Forget it, just be my old lady. I was unlucky today and met a broom star.

Huang Yuling thought viciously.

"Tell me about the medicine of your Pill Pavilion."

Seeing Huang Yuling's expression, Qin Chen didn't know what she was thinking, but he didn't bother to care about a waiter, and it was important to do business.

This time he came to the pill pavilion, in addition to preparing some pills for refining the body, he was also planning to do a business with the pill pavilion and make a fortune.

Before that, we must first understand the true level of the Great Qi Kingdom Dan Pavilion.

Hearing Qin Chen's words, Huang Yuling's face looked a little better. It turned out to be a customer who bought pills. Although it seemed unreliable, no matter how much, a little commission was good.

"please follow me."

Habitually twisting Xiaoman's waist, Huang Yuling twisted and twisted, and brought Qin Chen's model to the pill area.

"I don't know what medicine pill are you going to buy?"

The whole pill area, crowds surging, is the most lively place in the pill pavilion.

"Tell me all about it." Qin Chen said.

Hearing Qin Chen's words, Huang Yuling almost spewed a mouthful of old blood, and the smile on her face suddenly sank, her expression ugly.

The warrior who really came to buy the medicine pill came here without a need.

And this kid actually said to introduce them, obviously he has no intention of buying, let's entertain himself.

Besides, I will introduce them all again, can you afford it? Do you need it?

What kind of garlic!

"Why, don't you know?" Qin Chen asked doubtfully without seeing the change in the other's attitude.

I endure it!

Huang Yuling was so angry that her lungs were about to explode, and she wished to kick Qin Chen out, but to work, she still endured it.

He took a deep breath and said, "The first-grade healing pills on this counter, including Rejuvenation Pill, Yulu Pill, etc.; the first-grade cultivation pill, Qi Condensing Pill, and Zhen Qi Dan, etc. As for that counter, there are first-grade breakthrough pill, and this counter is for detoxification, and the counter next to it is auxiliary, all first-grade pill. And go ahead, that The pill on the counter next to it is basically the same as here, except that they are all second-grade pill. Okay, I don't know what pill you want to buy."

Huang Yuling pointed at the counter next to her, and said coldly, and the introduction was over in less than half a minute.

Chapter 106

"This is the end?"

Qin Chen was stunned, what kind of introduction was this?

What is going on with this waiter? As soon as he came up, it was like taking gunpowder. It seemed that he was not too old, so he should not have reached menopause.

Qin Chen felt depressed, "Forget it, let me see for myself."

Too lazy to talk nonsense with the waiter, came to the counter, Qin Chen scanned the pill in front of him.

Most of the pills here are placed in jade bottles, but there are also some samples, which are placed directly on the jade plate on the counter. Qin Chen gently picked it up and looked carefully.

"Well, this rejuvenation pill is barely medium. The surface of the pill is rough, and the medicinal fusion degree is about 70%... It should be refined by a first-grade pharmacist, and his refining method has many wrong places. general."

"This Yulu Pill is not bad, but it's a pity that the heat isn't in place, and the effect can only be in the 70s, and it can be regarded as medium."

"This one..."

Sweeping it at will, Qin Chen observed the various information of the many pills in front of him instantly, and even the level of a pharmacist could be estimated by Qin Chen.

Huang Yuling watched Qin Chen pick up the pills one by one and sneered in her heart.

Install, continue to install.

At first glance, this young man was only 16 or 7 years old. I'm afraid he doesn't even know the name of each pill, but can see what it is.

How could I be so unlucky today that I actually met such a pretending guy, wasting a lot of my time, and also let myself lose a chance to get close to the golden turtle.

"Oh I see!"

Suddenly, there was a flash of light in his mind, and a thought suddenly emerged, Huang Yu's eyes were disdainful, and he finally understood why the other party had to pretend in front of him.

I must feel that I am beautiful and deliberately strike up a conversation in front of me. Such people have seen a lot.

He didn't look in the mirror to see his own virtues. He dressed so ordinary, and he must be a poor boy from somewhere. Toads also want to eat swan meat and daydream.

Thinking of this, Huang Yuling raised her head even more arrogantly.

"It's no wonder that there are not many masters in the great Qi country, and the strength of the alchemist is not good, and the overall strength of a country is naturally not good."

After reading the first-grade pill and the second-grade pill in the hall, Qin Chen basically understood the strength of the Great Qi Kingdom Pill Pavilion.

Weak, it is too weak.

I thought that Pill Pavilion was directly affiliated to Pill Tower. Even if the level of the alchemist in it was average, it was not too bad. Now it seems that he thinks too much.

There are at least a dozen mistakes and omissions for every kind of pill. Whether in terms of material selection, heat, or technique, it is too far from the martial arts, and it is not at the same level.

Although the pill here is only Grade One or Two, it is definitely not made by the top alchemists in the alchemy pavilion, but from these low and middle-level alchemists, Qin Chen can see how the level of the alchemy pavilion in the Great Qi State is.

Shaking his head, Qin Chen sighed softly, no wonder that treasure pavilions like Jubaolou dared to challenge Dan pavilion.

Seeing Qin Chen shaking his head and sighing while watching, Huang Yuling wanted to laugh at the look of dissatisfaction with the pill in front of him.

Laughing, this guy actually pretended to be addicted.

The pill in front of him are all second-grade pill. Even those first-grade alchemists dare not make any comments. He is a little poor boy who wants to comment?

Too lazy to wait any longer, two steps forward, Huang Yuling said slightly mockingly: "Has the guest officer considered buying any medicine?"

"I didn't buy a pill today."

Qin Chen shook his head. Now that the level of Pill Pavilion is known, then it is time to do business.

"What? You didn't come to buy the pill, then you came to amuse my old lady?!"

Huang Yuling almost didn't yell at her. You talked to yourself so much and wasted so much time. Even if you are poor, you still have to buy one or two pills. It means, not buying a single pills, which is too much.

"If you don't buy the pill, please leave. I have to take care of other customers." Huang Yuling was too lazy to talk nonsense, and turned to leave.

"Hold on." Qin Chen frowned. Before he finished speaking, this guy was in a hurry.

"What else do you have?"

Huang Yuling turned her head and put her hands on her chest. Two huge meat * were squeezed by her and her lungs exploded.

I have seen shameless people, I have never seen such shameless people, who don't buy medicine pill, and they call themselves shamelessly.

"Where is your pavilion master? Take me over to see him, I'll talk to him about something." Qin Chen said directly.

The business he was talking about was so big that even an ordinary deacon was not qualified to talk about it, and he had to look for the patron of the Great Qi Guodan Pavilion.

"Pavilion Master, do you still want to see our Pavilion Master?"

Huang Yuling almost didn't laugh out loud. This kid didn't even look at her identity. She wanted to see Lord Pavilion Master. Is Lord Pavilion Master so good to see?

"I don't know if you have made an appointment. Our Lord Pavilion manages everything every day. If you don't make an appointment, you won't see the Lord Pavilion."

Huang Yuling said impatiently.

"Make an appointment? Is there no other way? You will inform me and say..."

Qin Chen wanted to say something, but was interrupted directly by Huang Yuling. She couldn't help it anymore, "I said you don't understand why you don't understand. Our pavilion master is noble and busy, so it's not just for anyone to meet. Yes, if any cat or dog would come up and say to see our pavilion master, wouldn't our pavilion master not have to work all day long? Want to see our pavilion master directly? Yes, are you a pharmacist? If you are not a pharmacist, you also want to see us Pavilion Master, do you think it is possible!"

Huang Yuling said like a machine gun, with a look of disgust.

If you want to immerse yourself, you have to have some brains too!

"Do you want to see your pavilion master, only a pharmacist can do it?" Qin Chen looked upset.

Isn't this woman ill, why is it like taking gunpowder?

"What do you think?" Huang Yuling was too lazy to say any more, taunting: "What is the identity of our pavilion, not a pharmacist, even those high-ranking officials in the capital, Grand Master Hou, have to line up for appointment. When you are in a good mood, say Maybe you will be given a chance to meet for ten days and a half months. If you are in a bad mood, wait obediently. It is normal for a year and a half, and it is impossible to even refuse to see you. So you don't have an appointment, and you want to see our patron?"

"Become a pharmacist!"

Qin Chen also instantly understood what Huang Yuling said.

He was also a pharmacist in his previous life, and he naturally knew the Dan pavilion very well. As the center of the Dan Tower in the Great Qi Kingdom, the identity of the Dan pavilion master was indeed extraordinary, and not everyone could see it.

Even some princes, grandsons and nobles have to queue up and wait for an appointment.

"It's really troublesome. It seems that if I want to see Pavilion Master Pill, I have to test a pharmacist first." Qin Chen shook his head.

However, the identity of a pharmacist must be obtained.

As one of the top forces in the mainland, Danta possesses terrifying resources. In the future, when he walks on the mainland by himself, his identity as a medicine alchemist will bring many conveniences.

Since you have to take the test sooner or later, it is better to take the test directly today.

Chapter 107 Apprenticeship Certificate

"Where is the place for your Pill Pavilion to test the pharmacist? Take me over."

Thinking of this, Qin Chen didn't worry, and asked directly.

"You... still want to test the pharmacist?"

It's okay not to listen to these words, Huang Yuling almost exploded with anger upon hearing this.

She had already believed that Qin Chen was accosting herself, and she took him to look at the pill for a long time, and the other party didn't buy a single pill. It was considered as benevolent, and now she still wanted to test the pharmacist.

Don't look at their own virtues.

Can a pharmacist be admitted casually?

As a waiter in the Pill Pavilion, Huang Yuling has seen too much. Many apprentices in pharmacy did not become an official pharmacist in their entire life. This kid is good, and pretended to be forced to test pharmacist in front of him. He thought it was a pharmacist. Is the assessment a playhouse?

Unable to bear it anymore, Huang Yuling said angrily: "Young man, if you want to get my attention, congratulations on your success. Unfortunately, this will only make me hate you even more. I advise you, if you have nothing to do, please return as soon as possible. Home, a guy like you who only knows how to talk and pretend, I've seen Huang Yuling a lot, even if I'm blind, I won't look at you."

As soon as she pushed her waist, Huang Yuling looked at Qin Chen with contempt.

To deal with this kind of rascal guy, it is to use this method. If you don't give him a bit of color, he doesn't know how to repent.

"I caught your attention?"

Qin Chen couldn't laugh or cry, what's the matter with this, after a long time, the other party thought he was here to soak her?

Looking up and down, Qin Chen shook his head speechlessly.

Where does this woman come from such a confident, average appearance, she can only say that she is a little bit pretty, she also painted a lot of rouge gouache, and she was painted with makeup.

As for the figure, so-so, it's pretty decent.

The most important thing is the temperament, that arrogant appearance is somewhat similar to Zhao Feng, but compared with a beauty like Zhao Lingshan, it is a thousand miles away, not to mention the first beauty like a mother.

This kind of woman, I have seen too many in my previous life, I would not want to post myself, and I think I am here to soak her, this is simply...

Shaking his head, Qin Chen turned and walked towards the interior of the Dan Pavilion.

"Where are you going?" Seeing Qin Chen's wanton gaze sweeping back and forth on her body, Huang Yuling bit her teeth with anger, and saw that he didn't go, but walked towards the depths of the Dan Pavilion, suddenly shouting out of anger.

"Naturally go to examine the pharmacist."

Qin Chen had been to many alchemy pavilions in his previous life. Although he didn't know the alchemy pavilions of the Great Qi Kingdom very well, he couldn't find it after a bit of exploration.

After hearing this, Huang Yuling was about to explode.

I've been talking about feelings for a long time, but this kid hasn't given up on him yet, he still has to test the pharmacist?

Okay, you want to pretend, right, then let you pretend, don't you want to test the pharmacist? Let me see how you test it.

"You are in the wrong direction. The place for the appraisal of the pharmacist is here."

With a cold snort, Huang Yuling suddenly came to Qin Chen and walked to the other side of the Dan Pavilion. At the same time, she turned her head and looked at Qin Chen, her eyes full of provocation.

In the Pill Pavilion, the appraisal of the pharmacist can be different from the others. It is a very sacred thing. If you are really a pharmacist, it is okay, even if you have not taken the exam, the examiner will not say anything.

But if you don't understand anything, just come and fool around, then you will be on the blacklist of the Dan Pavilion, and even the examiner will be severely punished in anger.

In the history of Daqi Guodan Pavilion, there used to be an examinee who didn't understand anything, just came to play, but was found out by the examiner at that time. The examiner happened to be of a grumpy type. In his anger, he beat this guy to death. , Thrown at the door of Dan Pavilion.

Originally, this guy's house was considered a little powerful in the capital, but after learning that it was Dan Ge that was offending, he was so frightened that he didn't let any farts, so he obediently admitted.

Now this kid also wants to learn from others to play, hehe, there will be crying later.

Not long after, the two came to the interior of the Dan Pavilion, in a magnificent hall.

A middle-aged man is sitting behind a counter, dozing off.

"Luo is in charge." Huang Yuling said with a smile on her face, full of flattery.

"Oh? It's Huang Yuling. I haven't seen you for a few days. Does it seem to be a lot older?"

The middle-aged man known as Guan Shi Luo opened his eyes and squinted with a smile.

"Luo Guan, you're just kidding me, someone is there."

Huang Yuling's face was red, and she pretended to be shy when she said.

Manager Luo found out that Qin Chen was standing next to Huang Yuling, coughed and said sternly, "What's the matter?"

"It's this customer who said he wants to test the pharmacist, so I brought him over."

Huang Yuling pointed to Qin Chen and sneered in her heart.

"You want to test the pharmacist? Are you sure you are right?"

Guan Shi frowned and was also startled.

He is responsible for the registration for the appraisal of pharmacists. He naturally knows how difficult the assessment is. Many apprentices have not passed the exam for a lifetime. This kid is only fifteen or six years old.

Come to play?

"Well, I want to test." Qin Chen nodded.

Manager Luo showed a weird look, "You are lucky. Today there happened to be a pharmacist exam. Almost all the people in it are here. It will start soon. You can still get in now. You can pay the registration fee of 1,000 silver coins first. Yes, take out your apprenticeship certificate."

"Apprenticeship? I don't have one!"

Qin Chen said as he handed over a thousand silver coins.

"What? You don't have an apprenticeship certificate?" Guanshi Luo said silently: "You don't have an apprenticeship certificate. What kind of pharmacist is here to test, go and go, hurry up and go."

I thought that Qin Chen was a pharmacy apprentice, and Luo's attitude became so good. Who knew that he was a guy without an apprenticeship. Isn't this kidding?

Before becoming a pharmacist, you must first become a pharmacy apprentice, and there are three levels of pharmacy apprentices, namely elementary, intermediate, and advanced. I thought Qin Chen was a pharmacy apprentice, but no matter how bad he was, he was also a junior apprentice. It's nothing.

"Huang Yuling, who exactly did you bring me?" Luo Guan said dissatisfied.

"In charge of Luo, the client has to come to assess the pharmacist, and I can't help it."

Huang Yuling pretended to be innocent, but she sneered repeatedly in her heart.

Okay, this is bad luck, I have to pretend, I already knew this would be the result.

"Anyone who stipulates that he does not have an apprenticeship certificate cannot assess a pharmacist."

At this moment Qin Chen suddenly said.

"Who rules? Without an apprentice certificate, it means you are not a pharmacy apprentice at all, and don't know anything about refining medicine. Do you still need to prescribe? Hurry up and play." Luo Guanshi sneered.

He has been working here for more than ten years, and for the first time he dared to test a pharmacist without an apprenticeship.

Chapter 108 Pharmacist Chen Mu

Although the apprentice is not a formal profession, it means that the person has a preliminary understanding of medicine, at least knows the usage of some medicinal materials, the state of the furnace, the methods of controlling fire, etc., is to become a practitioner. Prerequisites for pharmacists.

Because refining a pill is a very complicated process, it must be perfect in all aspects, otherwise, once the refined pill fails, it will be light to waste materials. If it kills people, the problem will be serious. Up.

Although many pharmacists have never refined medicines before, they have at least observed them under some pharmacists, and even served as assistants of pharmacists.

But the young man in front of him was not even a pharmacy apprentice, so he wanted to test a pharmacist. Isn't this just a joke?

"Since there is no explicit stipulation, what reason do you have to refuse!"

Qin Chen's attitude was unhappy.

Do things well, why is it so difficult?

Although there are apprentices in various places, they are only the unspoken rules of the pill pavilions in various places, and they are set up to serve as assistants to some apprentices.

Such a profession has not been verified by Danta at all. In other words, Danta does not recognize the identity of a pharmacist.

The other party refuses his application for the appraisal of a pharmacist because he is not a pharmacy apprentice. Isn't it a mess?

"Regulations, I'm talking about regulations. You are a pharmacist who is not a pharmacist, and you want to come to test a pharmacist, so quickly get out of it!" Luo Guanshi's expression sank.

How could this guy make it? He said that it was not a pharmacy apprentice who could not be assessed, and he had to mess around here.

"You? Do you represent Dange or Danta!"

One by one, the little ones who signed up to take care of things were also uttering their words here, and Qin Chen couldn't help being slightly angry.

When Huang Yuling saw this scene, she couldn't help but sneer in her heart. This guy dared to challenge Luo Manager, wanted to die?

Sure enough, Guan Shi was furious when he heard Qin Chen's words, his eyes narrowed slightly, and a cold glow was shot out.

"Hey, have you even heard of Danta?" Manager Luo sneered: "Your Excellency, don't blame me for speaking ugly. This is Dan Pavilion. If you dare to mess with things any more, you can stop blaming you for being unkind. You drove out."

The kid from nowhere, dare to be wild in Dan Pavilion, eat the courage of the bear heart and leopard.

"I want to see if it's you or the Danta." Qin Chen snorted coldly and got angry.

"what happened?"

At this moment, a cold snort sounded, and from the room behind Guanshi Luo, an old man suddenly walked out with sharp eyes and no anger and prestige: "The appraisal of the pharmacist is about to begin inside, you are outside. Noisy, so decent."

"Pharmacy Chen Mu."

Seeing the visitor, Guan Shi Luo and Huang Yuling were shocked and hurriedly saluted them respectfully.

Chen Mu is a first-grade pharmacist in the Pill Pavilion, and one of the examiners for this time.

"It's this guest who has no apprenticeship certificate. He has to participate in the appraisal of the pharmacist, and he doesn't listen to anything. You said this is not making trouble.

Manager Luo said nervously with sweat on his forehead.

"If you don't have an apprenticeship certificate, you want to test a pharmacist?"

Chen Mu faintly glanced at Qin Chen, and said in a deep voice, "Young people, you can't be a good man. If you want to test a pharmacist, you must first become a pharmacy apprentice. A pharmacist is not as easy as you think. Can be admitted."

After that, turn around and prepare to enter the house.

"You are also a first-grade pharmacist. Even the basic rules of the Danta are not clear. The purpose of the Danta is that anything is possible. Anyone can become a pharmacist. But you do not even have the chance to be evaluated. Give it to me, haha, I wonder if your Excellency is really a pharmacist."

Touching his nose, Qin Chen said coldly.

"what?"

"What is he saying?"

"God, this kid dared to speak to Pharmacist Chen Mu like this!"

Huang Yuling and Luo Guanshi were completely dumbfounded, and their hearts almost jumped out, and they were about to explode in tension.

This kid is crazy. That is Pharmacist Chen Mu, an official first-grade pharmacist certified by the Pill Pavilion. This kid dares to say that Pharmacist Chen Mu is not a pharmacist. Is he looking for death?

Even if you are looking for death, don't pull us down.

At this time Huang Yuling and Luo Guanshi were almost crying. They knew that this kid was a lunatic, so she should get him out as soon as possible. Now she has angered Pharmacist Chen Mu. When it's over, she must have a great position in Pharmacist Chen Mu's heart. Discounted.

"Boy, what are you talking about, how dare you question Pharmacist Chen Mu."

"Presumptuous, too presumptuous."

"Pharmaceutical Chen Mu, don't worry, I will chase this kid out immediately, and I will never disturb the next assessment inside."

Taking one step forward, Manager Luo was afraid that Qin Chen would say something shocking to the sky, and was so frightened that he hurried to drive Qin Chen out.

"Wait?"

Chen Mu gave a cold shout, turned his head, his eyes looked like sharp blades, staring at Qin Chen indifferently, and said coldly, "What did you say?"

Manager Luo complained constantly, and when it was over, Pharmacist Chen Mu was really angry, seeing this look.

Blame this kid, change the occasion if you want to die!

"I said, I very much doubt whether your Excellency is a pharmacist at all!" Qin Chen ignored Chen Mu's gaze: "Danta added a supplementary clause to the latest assessment method for pharmacists promulgated in 1168 in the Martial God calendar. , Article 5 of Item 8 clearly stipulates: Anyone in any of Danta's affiliated institutions can be assessed as a pharmacist, and Dange shall not refuse for any reason. If you are a pharmacist, you will not even violate this requirement. Don't know?"

"If I report things here to Danta, you should know what punishment you will face."

Qin Chen sneered.

Chen Mu's pupils shrank, staring at Qin Chen, slightly startled.

Who is this young man in front of him, who even knows this rule?

As a pharmacist, Chen Mu didn't know what Qin Chen said about this clause. In 1168, Dan Ta did add such a supplementary clause.

The purpose of joining was to commemorate a pharmacist named Hua Luoxuan.

This person was born in a remote place on the mainland. He had never received orthodox knowledge of refining medicine since he was a child. However, he was very interested in refining medicine and was immersed in the study of refining medicine.

His lifelong wish is to become an official alchemist.

But because he had not received the orthodox alchemist study, he did not even have the qualifications to participate in the alchemist assessment. Even when he was forty years old, he was still unable to obtain a variety of pills. Opportunity for assessment.

However, he did not accept defeat, and focused on studying refining medicine, and because he had never accepted refining medicine, he took a different path in refining medicine.

Chapter 109

But his value has never been discovered.

In his life, he had been to the Pill Pavilion dozens of times, trying to get a chance to be evaluated and become an official alchemist, but he was rejected.

Even when he died of old age, he never became a real alchemist, and regrettably passed away.

A few years after his death.

A Danta elder accidentally got a pill that Hua Luoxuan once refined, and he was shocked to heaven.

He immediately rushed to Hua Luoxuan's residence from Danta, trying to find the person who refined this medicine, only to realize that Hua Luoxuan had passed away.

In his regrets, Hua Luoxuan's wife and children handed over the notes that Hua Luoxuan had recorded during his life refining medicine to this Danta elder.

The Elder Danta who saw the content was completely shocked. The refining method Hua Luoxuan used was different from that of any other school in the mainland at that time. He actually created an unprecedented alchemy school.

If Hua Luoxuan can join the Dan Pagoda, he will definitely create an unprecedented refining genre and become a great pharmacist renowned in the mainland.

It's a pity that such a genius of refining medicine only has no orthodox education, let alone becoming a pharmacist, but he doesn't even have the opportunity to participate in the appraisal of pharmacist.

Finally regretted his death.

The Danta elder who had been touched, regretted, finally reported the incident to the Danta, which caused a violent shake of the entire Danta.

Finally, in 1168 of the Martial God calendar, Danta revised the rules for the appraisal of pharmacists. There will be no threshold for the appraisal of pharmacists. Anyone who aspires to become a pharmacist will receive a pharmacist as long as they can afford the registration fee. Qualifications for assessment.

It's just that this matter and this clause were only circulated among pharmacists. Chen Mu didn't expect that a young man like Qin Chen would also know this rule.

Once Qin Chen reported the matter to Dan Ta, and it was confirmed by Dan Ta that he had rejected the appraisal application of others, he would definitely be severely punished and even deprived of his qualifications as a first-grade alchemist.

"Sign up for him."

Thinking that he was threatened by a boy who was only fifteen or sixteen years old, Chen Mu was full of uncomfortable heart, snorted coldly, and turned back into the house.

"This....."

Seeing that Pharmacist Chen Mu had actually agreed to Qin Chen's request, Guan Shi was taken aback.

"Hurry up and go through the formalities." Qin Chen said.

"Humph."

Although Guan Shi was upset in his heart, he still reluctantly completed the procedures for Qin Chen and coldly handed over a note, "Take it, this is your assessment certificate, you can go in through this door."

After receiving the assessment certificate, Qin Chen stepped into the room.

"Luo Guan, why did Pharmacist Chen Mu agree to this kid's application? This is not in line with common sense?" Huang Yuling was puzzled.

Pharmacist Chen Mu couldn't be more clear about her temper. She was absolutely inconsistent. The person who was furious and opposed would even agree to this kid's assessment request.

If something goes wrong, there must be a demon.

"You ask me, how do I know, but this kid has offended Pharmacist Chen Mu and wants to pass the test. I really don't know that the sky is so great. Pharmacist Chen Mu is one of the examiners for this time. That kid got a chance to be evaluated, it was useless."

Manager Luo sneered: "You wait and see, it won't be long before the kid will be driven out in a desperate way."

Assessment room.

Qin Chen walked in, but inside was a very magnificent refining hall. In the entire hall, many medicine refining equipment and pill furnaces were placed.

In the center of the hall, there are already dozens of people waiting. Most of these people are over 30, and there are even some gray-haired old men sitting there tremblingly, all coming to participate. Appraised by the alchemist.

Opposite the crowd, sitting two men wearing first-grade pharmacist robes, Chen Mu was one of them, the examiner for this assessment.

"Find a place to sit down." Chen Mu snorted coldly, pointing forward.

Qin Chen came to the crowd and sat down.

"What? This kid also came to participate in the appraisal of the alchemist?"

"No, he is so young, he is only fifteen or six years old."

"Hmph, I have taken the test more than a dozen times, and this year is more than 60. I still haven't been able to become a first-grade pharmacist. This kid wants to be a pharmacist at such a young age. What a joke."

"That's right, he thought the appraisal of the pharmacist was for children to play house, is it easy? Naive!"

When a group of people saw Qin Chen, they immediately started talking, with mocking and disdain on their faces.

People like them know how difficult it is to become a pharmacist.

In addition to remembering the properties of at least tens of thousands of medicinal materials, we must also have an amazing understanding of fire control, mental power, and the ability to grasp medicinal effects. The difficulty of each item is very high and requires years of immersion. And learn.

Many of them have been in control of several of them decades ago, but because they have not mastered all the keys, they have only been senior apprentices for decades.

Qin Chen is so young, even if he started to learn medicine refining from his mother's womb, it has only been 15 or 6 years now. I am afraid that he may not even be able to recognize tens of thousands of medicinal materials. He even wants to test the pharmacist. This is a joke.

"Hey, didn't you hear just now? This kid is not even a pharmacy apprentice. He has to come to participate in the appraisal of the apprentice. Pharmacist Chen Mu had no choice but to let him participate in the appraisal."

"With the temper of Pharmacist Chen Mu, it's weird to let this kid pass."

"I don't know what it is, Pharmacist Chen Mu persuaded him, it was for his benefit."

"I don't know how high the sky is."

Noisy voices sounded constantly in the assessment hall, and everyone looked at Qin Chen jokingly, as if they were watching a clown.

"Okay, give me peace."

Chen Mu gave a cold shout, and everyone immediately fell silent, not daring to speak more.

"It's not the first time for most of you to evaluate a pharmacist. I believe you already know it very well. But here, I repeat it. I hope you can listen carefully."

"First of all, the appraisal of pharmacists this time is divided into three rounds. The first round is a written test, the second round is a random assessment of one of the ten operation abilities of refining medicine, and the third round is a real exercise. Drug assessment."

"Only those who have passed the previous round of assessment can enter the next round of assessment. Once eliminated, they are not allowed to apply for the assessment again within one year."

"Well, now the first round of assessment begins."

Chen Mu's voice fell, and someone immediately took a thick stack of test papers and distributed them to everyone.

"The first round of assessment, a total of 100 points, must reach 90 points or more, to pass the first round.

"Remember, during the assessment process, there must be no cheating. Once discovered, they will be severely punished, and it may even be cancelled for life. I hope you will all remember."

Everyone nodded solemnly.

But Qin Chen's eyes have fallen on the thick test questions.

Chapter 110

"Please write down the thirteen basic methods of dispensing medicine and the advantages and disadvantages of each method."

"What are the growth habits and medicinal properties of quince leaf? What role can it play in the process of pill refining, and write down three quince leaf materials."

"Please describe the role of flint mines in alchemy."

"..."

Qin Chen swept slightly, and many of the topics on the first page had already entered his eyes, and he wrote it in the first place.

Huh huh!

As the honorary elder of Danta in his previous life, the question of the first-tier alchemist assessment is too simple for Qin Chen. There is no need to think about it. The answer naturally emerges in his mind. The sound is overwhelming.

In contrast, the rest of the players in the hall frowned and thought, scratching their heads, and thinking hard.

In front of the hall, Chen Mu and another pharmacist Ouyang Cheng were chatting boredly.

"Brother Chen, these people actually participated in this assessment, I am afraid they will be depressed!" Ouyang Cheng said with a smile.

"Yes, even if they were unlucky, they actually chose today. This time, Master Liu personally asked them. I don't know how many people can pass this round of written tests."

"Master Liu is the most rigorous among the deacons in Dange, and he is also the chief examiner for this assessment. I had a rough look at the test questions before. The difficulty was extremely high, and the angle of the questions was very tricky. Even if you and I answered, one was accidentally, Will also fall into the trap, let alone these practitioners."

"Hehe, it depends on their good fortune."

Chen Mu and Ouyang Cheng were deeply moved.

Pill Pavilion's pharmacist examination will be conducted once a month, and each examination question is set by the chief examiner.

And this chief examiner is generally a few second-grade alchemists at the deacon level in the Pill Pavilion.

Each chief examiner has different personalities and different questions.

Some chief examiners are more casual. The questions set in the first two rounds are naturally simpler, but some chief examiners are very strict, and the questions set up are much more difficult.

This time, the chief examiner Liu Guang who presided over the assessment has always been extremely strict. Once it is his turn to examine the alchemist, the passing rate of the first two rounds is often only half of the other chief examiners.

That's why Chen Mu and Ouyang Cheng have this emotion.

With emotion, suddenly there was a sound of clattering answers, and the two of them were taken aback, and they saw Qin Chenfen in the crowd.

"Ok?"

Both frowned at the same time.

"Brother Chen, this should be the candidate you scolded outside just now, so young that he came to participate in the first-tier pharmacist examination?"

"It's this kid." Chen Mu's eyes were cold, and he said angrily: "Brother Ouyang, look at what this kid is doing. This is the place where the pharmacist is evaluated, and he writes randomly on the test questions. This attitude is fundamental. Just make trouble again, really want to drive him out!"

"Brother Chen, even if I write a bit faster here, it may not be messing up, right?"

"Brother Ouyang, you also know that the exam questions this time were designed by Master Liu. Do you think he is a kid who is not a pharmacy apprentice and can answer freely? Even if you and I do it, Wanda is not Come on?"

Ouyang Cheng was taken aback and nodded immediately.

Indeed, this time the examination questions designed by Master Liu are still quite difficult. Even some real first-order pharmacists need to think carefully before they can write.

Can see Qin Chen in front of him.

The speed of answering the questions at this level, he has written the answer without thinking at all. If he is answering the question seriously, no one believes it.

"Brother Chen actually gave him a chance to evaluate such a delusion. If it were me, I would have been driven out long ago."

Ouyang Cheng also snorted coldly.

In this world, there are always some opportunists who want to rely on luck to pass the appraisal of the alchemist.

Without thinking about it, if the appraisal of pharmacists is so easy to pass, how can there be so few pharmacists in this world?

"Do you think I don't want to? But you don't know the rules of our Dange. You can't deprive a person of the opportunity to be evaluated without a reason."

Chen Mu was depressed. He knew that Qin Chen was writing indiscriminately, but there was no reason to drive him away. He was so angry that he was vomiting blood.

Not only were the two of them depressed, but the other pharmacists who participated in the assessment heard the sound of Qin Chen's pen tip sliding, and they were all depressed.

Many of them are not the first to participate in the appraisal of alchemists, and they are all dumbfounded when they see the questions this time.

The question this time was much more difficult than the previous few times. Soon after seeing that the person who wrote the question was Liu Guang, all of them complained and complained and went crazy.

Who doesn't know, Master Liu Guang is the most demanding one among the several second-grade pharmacists in the Pill Pavilion. If Master Liu Guang presides over this assessment, then their passing rate will be at least harder. Thirty or more.

How did you meet Master Liu Guang as the subject?

When everyone was depressed, they heard the scene of Qin Chen's pen touching the ground and frantically writing. One by one almost vomits blood.

Grandma, we thought about it for a long time, and didn't even think about the first question clearly. This guy wrote it without thinking, and looking at the posture, at least several questions have been answered.

Can you pretend to be so realistic?

You are a fifteen or sixteen-year-old boy, even if you started learning medicine from your mother's womb, do you know the thirteen basic methods of medicine distribution? Still pretending there, why don't you die.

Depressed and depressed, these candidates can only cover their heads, pretending that they did not hear Qin Chen's writing, thinking hard, frowning.

Huh huh!

Writing like clouds and flowing water, Qin Chen had completed more than half of the questions in only a quarter of an hour, and only the last few major questions were left.

"This is too simple."

Let him, the honorary elder of the Danta in his previous life, and the ninth-rank emperor-level pharmacist to answer these questions, it is as simple as doing the first-grade math problems with doctoral students, and you don't even need to move your mind.

Glancing at his mouth, Qin Chen's eyes fell on the last few big questions.

"what!"

At this look, Qin Chen couldn't help but his eyes brightened.

I saw that the first big question was a scenario simulation question. The title was: "You are a first-grade alchemist and a warrior at the top of the earth level. Once, looking for medicinal materials in the Demon Ancestral Mountains, you suddenly asked There is a faint fragrance from the front of the road, which makes your pores relax and intoxicated. You raise your head and find that a hundred-year-old ambergri grows in a bush 100 meters ahead, and in your perception, Fangyuan Within a few miles, there is no monster, what would you do? What is the reason for this?"
