Chapter 1051: Get cheap and sell well

There are three ways to enslave the skeleton rudder master.

One is to use evil methods to refine it into a ghost. It is extremely difficult for ordinary martial artists to be refined into a ghost. Although Qin Chen has dabbled in his previous life, he wants him to be close to the eighth-order martial emperor. The powerhouse is refined into a ghost, which is temporarily impossible.

But the Skeleton Rudder Lord is different, he himself is already a ghostly existence.

If it is to sacrifice the soul and make it into a ghost, Qin Chen may not be unable to do it after careful study.

But once so, his original soul will often be annihilated and become an unconscious weapon. The second method is to kill the soul will of the Skeleton Rudder Lord through the secret technique, just like a ghost, but compared to a ghost, some martial arts skills in front of him can be used, and even the same can be practiced, and it has its own. Thoughts and thoughts, but among all the thoughts, only Qin Chen is recognized and Qin Chen is Being a master is equivalent to being a vassal of a puppet.

It's just that in this case, the Skeleton Rudder Master is a living dead, and life is better than death.

The third is to use secret techniques to control the skeleton rudder master, but the latter still has his own sense of autonomy and can practice on his own, which is almost no different from ordinary people, but surrendered to Qin Chen because of life threats.

Like the Blood Hand King, Qin Chen controls life and death, but he also has his own will and can act on his own.

If it were the first two methods, the Skeleton Rudder Master would never agree, and would rather die.

Becoming an unconscious slave is like a puppet, Qin Chen gives birth to life, Qin Chen gives birth to death, and will not refute, will not think, and it is worse than destruction. What is the meaning of this kind of living?

In the third method, the Skeleton Rudder Master still has at least a little hope.

For example, if Qin Chen died, the Skeleton Rudder Master would be able to recover his freedom.

Or in other words, his soul attainment was restored, far above Qin Chen, and he could naturally break through Qin Chen's secret technique and regain his freedom.

Therefore, this method is most suitable for him.

However, this third method requires the cooperation of the enslaved person. Ordinary warriors naturally don't care, but a master like Skeleton Rudder Master, if not willing, even if Qin Chen wants to enslave him, he still needs to bear huge risks.

"Okay, naturally you won't be a walking dead, I will keep you, and there are big uses."

Qin Shao smiled faintly.

For him, even if a puppet is useful, it is not as strong as the skeleton rudder master's autonomous consciousness.

Moreover, how does he not know what Skeleton Rudder thinks? And Qin Chen used his idea of survival to deliberately let him surrender.

Because Qin Chen has confidence in his own strength and growth, and can fully control the Skeleton Rudder Master.

"In that case, don't resist!"

Hum!

When the voice fell, a terrifying soul breath shot out from Qin Chen's eyebrows, like a sharp arrow, sinking into the head of the skeleton rudder.

"It's actually the Soul Destruction Seal?"

Skeleton Rudder was shocked, and immediately surprised.

Naturally, he couldn't understand this secret technique better, and even he had performed such secret techniques on many elders of the Blood Demon Cult.

The soul-killing seal can control the life and death of a warrior. It is entirely dependent on the other party's ability to use the soul-killing seal to easily crush the soul of the slave, so that the slave cannot resist.

But the disadvantages also exist. Once the strength of the soul of the enslaved person exceeds that of the enslaved person too much, he can retain a trace of his soul at the moment when the soul-killing seal is activated and get out of control.

Even if the soul is strong enough, the slave cannot even kill the soul of the enslaved through the soul-killing seal.

"This child is actually displaying the Soul Destruction Seal. With the strength of this seal, if you cultivate in the Demon Suppressing Cauldron for a year or two, the strength of the soul will surely be improved by leaps and bounds. At that time..."

There was a hint of joy in his heart, and the Skeleton Rudder Master directly released the happy god, allowing Qin Chen's Soul Destruction Seal to enter his own soul sea, leaving a mark in his own soul sea.

The whole process, about a stick of incense time.

Qin Chen successfully integrated the "Soul Destruction Seal" into the depths of the soul sea of Skull Rudder Master.

"The soul origin of the Skeleton Rudder Master is really powerful. Even after a serious injury, it is far beyond the reach of ordinary warriors. Roughly speaking, in its heyday, its soul strength is definitely higher than that of the nine-day martial emperor on the mainland."

The last time Qin Chen enslaved the Bloodhand King, he succeeded in just a moment.

This time, Qin Chen broke through again, and his soul was transformed again, but it took a full time for a stick of incense to leave a perfect mark.

In addition to Qin Chen being more afraid of the Skeleton Rudder Master and wanting to increase his control, it also has a strong and indispensable relationship with the Skeleton Rudder Master's own soul origin.

Of course, the effect is also very good. Compared with the Blood Hand King's Soul Slayer Seal, the Soul Slayer Seal planted in the head of the Skeleton Rudder Master is too strong to be the same.

"Not bad."

Qin Chen nodded in satisfaction.

The Skeleton Rudder Master's face was pious, but he smiled in his heart. After Qin Chen's soul power evacuated, his soul power slightly swept the soul-killing mark in the depths of the soul sea, trying to find the flaw.

"Ok?"

Just this look, his expression instantly solidified.

I saw a cloud of emptiness in his mind floating, and the Soul Extinguishing Mark was located in the middle of the flame. With his soul power, he couldn't even clear what was inside?

At the same time, the Soul Extinguishing Seal exudes a strong force, and every moment, a trace of aura escapes and blends into every corner of his soul sea.

"how is this possible?"

Skeleton Rudder Master's eyes widened, and the soul-killing seal set by a small human King Wu was so terrifying that even he could not catch the clue.

"Although this imprint of soul-killing cannot be seen, it has reached the level of transformation from the aura that escapes. Unless I am restored to the ancient peak state, it is almost impossible to resolve this imprint without making a sound. "

Skeleton Rudder stood up, but his expression was extremely ugly and depressed.

Unexpectedly, Qin Chen and Yan could set such a terrifying soul-killing mark. How did he know that although Qin Chen is only a seventh-order martial king, he was a bloodline master standing on the peak of the mainland, easily enslaving the powerful nine-day martial emperor, this kind of soul-killing seal, he wanted to design complex and perfect everything , Even those ninth-order bloodline masters in the Martial Domain may not be comparable

Get on him.

"the host."

Standing up depressed, Skull Rudder said respectfully.

"Get cheap and sell well." Qin Chen shook his head, "Obtaining the soul-killing seal of this young man, you already have a human aura in your soul sea. The absorption of the true qi from this world will be far more powerful than before. I'm afraid it's a tenfold or a hundredfold improvement."

The Skeleton Rudder smiled flatly.

What Qin Chen said was true, because he was a member of the alien demon race, so it was extremely difficult for him to recover his physical body and strength after seizing his home, and he only recovered so little in thousands of years.

But now, after being enslaved by mankind, the will of heaven and earth also recognizes it to a certain extent and will relax.

Although it was only a slight relaxation, the improvement of his strength was a change of ten times a hundred times.

This benefit is even more so.

"Well, now you, the skeleton ghost, can hand over the town boundary beads, right?" The * cat came to the front and said anxiously.

Chapter 1052: Heart of the world

The * cat couldn't wait and asked.

It can be seen that the reason why he had made the Skeleton Rudder Lord surrender to Qin Chen was for this purpose.

"The town boundary pearl is indeed not on me." Skeleton rudder master shook his head.

"You are the first to enter the altar of the ruins, how could the town boundary bead not be on you?"

Skeleton Rudder said with a wry smile: "I was indeed the first to enter the altar, but when I entered, there were no town beads in the altar. If there were town beads, I couldn't be suppressed by you so easily."

how come?

"If there is no town boundary pearl, how can this emperor..."

The * cat's eyes widened, incredible.

It chased and killed the Skeleton Rudder Master, and brought Qin Chen to the site of the ruins, the purpose was to obtain the town boundary beads, who knows, the town boundary beads were not on the Skeleton Rudder master.

"If you didn't take the town boundary beads, who would take it?" The * cat frowned, "Besides you, is there anyone who has entered this ruined palace ahead of time?" "This is also what I wondered." The Skeleton Rudder Master frowned, "When this seat entered this ruined palace, the organs and traps inside were not destroyed, but the town boundary beads in the altar were missing. This is indeed very strange, and There is one more thing I don't understand

"what?"

"The town boundary beads are located on the altar and suppress the secret realm of the heavenly devil. If the town boundary beads are taken away after I enter the secret realm of the heavenly devil, then there will be a vision born in the secret realm of the heavenly demon, but the facts, there is no Any vision." Skeleton rudder master meditated: "If the town boundary bead is not taken away for long, then there must still be the atmosphere of the town boundary bead in the altar, but in fact, there is absolutely nothing in the entire palace. The breath of the town boundary beads, that is to say, the town boundary beads, it is absolutely impossible for us to enter the demon

The warrior of the secret realm took it away, but it was taken away many years ago. "

"Eighteen years ago?"

As if thinking of something, Qin Chen and the Skull Rudder Master glanced at each other abruptly.

Before entering the heavenly demon secret realm, the master of the Tianji Pavilion Shangguanlu once said that eighteen years ago, the heavenly demon secret realm was opened strangely, and he would have believed in doubt. So, did someone really enter the secret realm of heavenly demon quietly 18 years ago? ?

The heavenly demon secret realm is usually hidden in the depths of time and space, and only opened once in a hundred years. It is extremely difficult and terrifying to enter it in advance.

Even in Qin Chen's previous life, I am afraid that he could not enter the secret realm before it opened.

So how terrible was the person who entered the secret realm of the heavenly devil in advance?

If someone had forcibly entered the secret realm of the Heavenly Demon 18 years ago, it would not be impossible for this person to take away the town boundary beads.

Thinking of this, everyone's heart sank.

"Big black cat, you said that the town boundary pearl can really get rid of the parasitic seeds in my body?"

Qin Chen even looked over. "You think the emperor can't deceive you?" The * cat was unhappy, hearing the words, the old man with a face, "Young man, tell you the truth, the town boundary pearl is the natural treasure of the Tianwu Continent, not by anyone. Creation, but at the same time the continent is formed

The heart is the core of the entire continent. "

"This thing, in the alien demon clan, is equivalent to the existence of the alien demon clan's mother chaos nest. It is the most heaven-defying treasure of the Tianwu continent. Suppress and block the secret realm of the demon to prevent the demon energy from leaking." "It can be said that this thing can shield and suppress all non-Tianwu Continent aura and power. The parasitic seed in your body is actually accompanied by the Chaos Demon Nest of the Alien Demons. Out, so once you get the Boundary Orb and refine it, the power of the Boundary Orb can naturally eliminate the Alien seeds, even if the Chaos Demon Nest of the Alien Demon Race is here, they will be rejected by the town boundary beads, let alone a parasitic seed accompanying the Chaos Demon Nest. "

The * cat talked freely.

The Skeleton Rudder Master and Qin Chen looked at each other, and even the Skeleton Rudder Master showed strange light and looked at the * cat in surprise.

He doesn't even know these things. He only knows that the town boundary pearl is the treasure of the ancient human race, suppressing the existence of the heavenly demon secret realm. Once the town boundary pearl is obtained, he can unlock the secret realm of the heaven demon. As for the origin of the town boundary pearl, he It's also not clear.

What is the origin of this * cat?

In their doubts, everyone was helpless. Now they don't even know who entered the secret realm of the heavenly devil back then, how can they find the existence of the town boundary pearl?

Moreover, since this person was able to open the heavenly demon secret realm back then, his cultivation base was absolutely extraordinary, and he was simply beyond the reach of them now.

The most important thing is that the battle between the ancient alien demons and the human race has long been annihilated in the historical river. Very few people know about it. Even in the Martial Domain, almost no one knows the existence of the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, let alone the town. How did this person know the location of the Jiezhū?

And after entering, he only took away the treasure of the Town Boundary Orb, didn't he know that once the Town Boundary Orb was taken away, the alien demons in the heavenly demon secret realm could be reborn and revive?

Everyone looked ugly, and at the same time they were confused, they were also worried.

Next, Qin Chen learned from the mouths of the Skeleton Rudder Master and the Big Black Cat to learn about the effects of the Universe's Fortune Jade Plate and the Calming Ding.

Among them, the jade disc of good fortune in the universe contains the power of space, and it is a key to unlock the many relics in the mysterious realm of heaven and earth. It is rumored that the jade disc of good fortune in the universe contains a world. Once someone can open it, it can communicate with an ancient world.

However, this is just a rumor. Even in ancient times, no one has ever really opened the jade disc of good fortune in the universe to communicate with the so-called realm, so it is only used as a key to communicate some secret realms, which is extremely illusory.

As for the Suppressing Demon Cauldron, it is a treasure for the ancient human race powerhouses to suppress the alien demons. It has a huge restraint effect on the alien demons. It can easily refine the powerhouses of the alien demons and absorb the devil energy between heaven and earth.

The strange thing is that when the Demon Suppressing Cauldron is not activated, the demon energy it absorbs also has the effect of nourishing alien demons, which is very magical.

Next, it took Qin Chen a day to recover his injuries and loss of true energy.

On the side, the Skeleton Rudder Master is dragging his broken body, slowly repairing, absorbing the magic energy in the land of the wronged souls to heal and restore vitality.

Qin Chen frowned slightly.

If he continues to heal his injuries, he may not be able to recover his strength for a few months. Skeleton Rudder said distressedly: "This seat was hurt so miserably by you, in order to fight for life and even burned the origin of the soul. It will take at least one or two years to restore the injury to normal conditions, but this is a land of evil spirits. Sufficient, the speed of injury repair can be several times faster, at least about three months."

Chapter 1053: Army of bones

Qin Chen opened the eyes of breaking the ban and got insight into the status of the skeleton rudder master.

The skeleton body of the Skeleton Rudder Master is extremely powerful, and its hardness can almost ignore attacks below the Wuhuang level.

But correspondingly, once this kind of bone physique is injured, it is extremely slow to completely recover, and it takes a lot of resources and time.

"Is there any way to speed up the repair?"

"The way is that Master Miaohuang said, if the master, you can spur the Demon Suppression Cauldron to absorb the demon energy in this Celestial Demon Secret Realm, and this seat will enter the Demon Suppression Cauldron to practice, and the recovery speed can be increased by at least several times, perhaps ten days. In half a month, it will be able to fully recover." Skeleton Rudder Master expected.

"Move the Zhen Devil Ding?" Qin Chen nodded.

Next, he began to concentrate on refining and urging the Suppression Demon Cauldron.

The prohibition in the Suppression Demon Cauldron is very complicated. At the beginning, Qin Chen simply refined it, but now, he wants to control it and be able to move it.

Immediately settle down and study carefully.

After a full three days, Qin Chen completely controlled the Demon Cauldron.

"Om!"

With a light urging, the Black Demon Cauldron quickly flew high in the sky, and a horrible suction surged from the mouth of the Cauldron.

Rumble!

In an instant, many demon qis from the entire land of the evil spirits swept over, frantically rushing into the demon-suppressing cauldron, and even the aura of the evil-souls could not resist the devouring of the demon-suppression cauldron. come.

If someone stood in the sky at this moment, they would be shocked to see that the resentment and devilish energy in the entire land of wronged souls surged crazily, like a long whale sucking water, extremely terrifying.

Huhuhu!

Every moment, there are countless souls and demons rushing in. These demons are long enough for a strong person like Skeleton Rudder Master to cultivate for a long time, but now, they are easily swallowed.

Moreover, with the swallowing, the lines on the Suppressing Demon Cauldron became clearer and more bizarre, a breath that seemed to come from the ancient times, madly dissipating, and the suppressed Skeleton Rudder master could not breathe.

"It's terrifying."

Even Qin Chen was shocked. With such a mighty power, the Demon Cauldron of this town definitely surpassed the Ninth Treasure Soldier, at least it was at the top level among the Nine Treasure Soldiers.

It's just that the current Qin Chen's cultivation base is too low, he can only release one percent, even one thousandth, or one ten thousandth of his power.

With the devouring of the Summoning Demon Cauldron, the original misty scene in the Land of the Wrong Soul suddenly disappeared. It seemed that because a large amount of the spirit of the Wrong Soul was swallowed, the scenes deep in the Land of the Wrong Soul gradually became clear.

It can be faintly seen that in the depths of the land of wronged souls, there is actually a mountain of corpses, full of bones everywhere.

While being shocked, suddenly--

"Roar!"

"Who disturbed this seat's dormancy again? Damn it!"

An angry roar suddenly resounded in this ancient place.

Immediately after.

Click!

A bone in the depths of the wrong soul land suddenly stood up, holding a bone knife in his hand, his body jumped, and fell to Qin Chen. This skeleton has been sealed in the dust for tens of thousands of years. It has long been mottled and pitted, but after such a long time of immortality, it is obvious that he was also a strong man against the sky before his death. Under this knife, it is like passing through the void. Distance, the bone knife in his hand came to Qin Chen instantly,

The terrifying aura of Buddha being able to break through the sky.

what?

Qin Chen was shocked, but reacted instantly. Fan Tianyin didn't know when he appeared in his hand and smashed it out instantly.

With a chuckle, the skeletal creature flew upside down, blasting smoke and dust from the bones on the ground.

Click!

The skeleton shook his head and stood up again. There were no eyeballs in the hollow eyes, and his whole body was unharmed.

"A terrible defense, I didn't even get any physical injuries under my attack."

Qin Chen was shocked. The bone creatures are different from the warriors. The warriors have external defenses such as true essence shields and armors. However, the bone creatures can only resist with their bodies, but they are unharmed under their own attacks. Terrible.

But think about it, the bones are still immortal after so many years of falling in the heavenly demon secret realm. The strength of this skeleton owner must be extremely terrifying before his life, and it is understandable to have such a defense.

"In that case, take this trick from me again."

Qin Chen was shocked, but not panicked, the mysterious Rust Sword appeared in his hands.

"Thunder's punishment!"

The fusion of the power of bloodline swordsmanship was displayed, and a lightning sword light suddenly traversed the sky, and instantly landed on the bones.

Crackling!

Countless thunder lights surged, and cracks appeared on the bones, and at the same time, a trace of extremely frightened eyes flashed through the hollow eye sockets.

The next moment, with a bang, the entire skeleton was shattered and turned into a sky full of bone dregs, and an invisible resentment spirit dissipated from the shattered skeleton and turned into nothingness.

"It seems that the power of thunder and lightning has certain special effects on it."

Qin Chen nodded, the stone in his heart had not yet fallen, and suddenly heard a series of kaka sounds.

At first, this sound was just one piece, but gradually, this sound became louder and louder, and even this kind of click sound was everywhere in the world.

"Master, look quickly."

There was a frightened voice from the Skeleton Rudder Master, and Qin Chen hurriedly raised his head and saw a scene he would never forget.

I saw in the depths of the land of wronged souls, countless bones all swayed to their feet. These bones, the big ones are four or five meters high, the short ones are only one or two meters, and some even lack arms and legs, but they are shaking one by one. Shaking, looking around, thousands.

"Little ones, kill this seat, kill these foreign invaders."

The angry voice sounded again. This time, Qin Chen finally heard clearly. The voice came from the ground and was a little dull. It seemed that he hadn't awakened from a deep sleep.

With the fall of his voice, in an instant, thousands of bones rushed down frantically, and behind Qin Chen and others, there were countless bones crawling out of the ground, and in a blink of an eye they surrounded the three of Qin Chen. In the middle.

"Master, what shall we do now?"

Seeing so many bones, Skeleton Rudder looked terrified, even if he was the strongest of the alien demons, he was still terrified.

"Kill out!"

Qin Chen's face was ugly, and he obviously didn't expect that he would spur the Demon Surgery Cauldron to alarm these strange corpses. He immediately spurred the Demon Surgery Cauldron and swept it out.

"boom!"

The black ancient cauldron swept out, filled with the black atmosphere of the debut. In an instant, hundreds of bones were shattered. Amid the screams, a trace of evil spirits escaped from the bones, and then they were suppressed. The tripod swallowed up.

"These skeletons are really driven by the spirit of wronged souls."

Qin Chen's eyes flashed, and his heart was shocked.

Previously, Fan Tianyin could not kill a skeleton with a full blow, but just now, when the Demon Surgery Cauldron was shaken, it killed hundreds of skeletons. The terrifyingness of the Demon Surgery Cauldron was indeed extraordinary. . It's just that Qin Chen can't help but think too much at this moment. The hundreds of bones in the dense skeleton army can only be regarded as a drop in the bucket. In the blink of an eye, more bones rushed over desperately.

Chapter 1054: Corpse perception

"Kill out!"

Qin Chen shouted angrily, with a solemn expression, watching the scalp numb of the dense army of bones.

The Skeleton Rudder Master on the side was even more frightened, and followed Qin Chen closely, his legs weakened.

This is the first time he has entered this land of unjust souls. He thought it was just a terrible atmosphere of unjust souls, which would make people lose their minds. Unexpectedly, there are so many corpses inside.

What horrified him even more was the roar that just now contained an extremely terrifying soul impact, and even him trembled and was terrified.

Among the sky full of corpses, Qin Chen urged the Demon Surgery Cauldron, and every time a shot fell, a large number of skeleton corpses were shattered, as if the Demon Surgery Cauldron specifically restrained the existence of these corpses.

But even so, there are still a lot of bones that broke through the obstacles and pounced.

boom! boom! boom!

The Skeleton Rudder master fought for Qin Chen on the sidelines, but he couldn't hold on for long before he was hurriedly killed by the army of bones, and the unrecovered body once again added a lot of color.

It's not how strong these skeletons are, but these bones are invulnerable, almost painless, and seem to have no will, only knowing to pounce.

If it weren't for the Skeleton Rudder Master, he was a powerful alien of the Demon Race, and had some immersion in the ghoulish art, if he came to the ordinary seventh-order triple peak martial arts, I am afraid he would have died long ago.

But even so, after only holding on for a moment, the Skeleton Rudder Master was already scarred, and he was obviously about to be unable to hold on.

Seeing that he was about to be defended, at this moment, a black stream of light suddenly appeared, swish swish, and quickly passed the skeletons in front of the skeleton rudder, and the spirit of the soul in the bodies of the skeletons made a scream of nothingness. , The body instantly fell down and shattered.

"Sure enough, the mysterious rust sword can also suppress these bones!"

Not far away, Qin Chen breathed a sigh of relief.

These bones are left by the top powerhouses of the two ancient races. They can be retained until now. They are all the best of the two races. The defense is extremely terrible. Even if it is the master of skeleton rudder, it is difficult to disperse the opponent. .

Qin Chen naturally did the same. With his own strength, he wanted to kill the opponent with no small difficulty.

However, after knowing that these bones could stand up because of the fusion of the spirit of evil spirits, Qin Chen immediately guessed that since the Demon Surgery Cauldron has special effects on these bones, then his mysterious rust sword is not for these bones. The same is effective.

Sure enough, the result of the previous shot was far beyond Qin Chen's expectation. Under his mysterious rust sword, the spirit of the soul supporting these bones was hard to resist, and it was absorbed by the mysterious rust sword.

"Master Skull Rudder, you resist the bones that break through the line of defense, and leave the rest to Ben Shao."

With his eyes flashing, Qin Chen urged the Zhenmoding to suppress the large skeletal bones while using the swordsmanship to urge the mysterious rust sword.

In an instant, the mysterious rust sword turned into a black sword light, like a long black thread, instantly surrounding Qin Chen's body. As long as all the bones were hit, they would inevitably fall back into broken bones.

At the same time, a faint smell of bones escaped from the broken corpses.

"This is a great tonic!"

Skeleton Rudder Master's cold and deep pupils, his eyes gleamed, and he hurriedly sucked hard, and the sliver of bones suddenly turned into strands of blue smoke, which merged into Skeleton Rudder's body.

It can be seen to the naked eye that the skeleton of the skeleton rudder is slowly repairing, and the original broken place heals at a visible speed and becomes stronger.

"Fast repair speed."

Qin Chen was shocked and repaired at this speed. Within a moment, the injuries on the Skeleton Rudder Master's body would be completely healed, and his strength would increase.

"He's meowing, but he was taken advantage of by this skeleton ghost."

The * cat said depressed.

Failing to obtain the town boundary beads, its heart was full of resentment, and every time a sharp claw fell, a skull skeleton shattered.

boom!

Shoo!

Under the dual protection of the Zhen Devil Cauldron and the mysterious Rust Sword, Qin Chen took the skeleton rudder and the little black cat to retreat continuously. In the blink of an eye, thousands of bones were beheaded and turned into broken bones.

The power of a large amount of bones quickly restores the injured bones of the Skeleton Rudder Master. Except for the consumed blood and energy that cannot be repaired in a short period of time, the strength of the bones on the body is only stronger than that of the heyday.

Even a glimmer of light circulated on the skeleton of the skeleton rudder master, like jade.

After a stick of incense, there were corpses of bones on the ground all over the floor, roughly estimated to be tens of thousands.

But the remaining army of bones still seemed to feel no pain, and continued to kill, without the offensive becoming more and more fierce.

And because of the prolonged urging of the Demon Suppressing Cauldron, the true essence in Qin Chen's body had been severely consumed, and the level of its consumption was not as fast as that of the Demon Surgery Cauldron.

"No, if this continues, the true essence in my body will be exhausted sooner or later. Once my true essence is exhausted, I will fall into the army of bones and die sooner or later."

Qin Chen's face was ugly.

With the continuous recovery of Zhen Mo Ding, its power became stronger and stronger, but the consumption of True Yuan became stronger and stronger, so strong that Qin Chen even couldn't bear it.

You must know that what he cultivates is the supreme Nine Star God Emperor Jue, transformed into an ordinary seventh-order mid-level peak martial king, and I am afraid that by urging the Suppressing Demon Cauldron once, it will exhaust their true essence.

"Master, what shall we do now?"

Seeing Qin Chen taking back the Demon Cauldron and the more and more corpses gathered, the master skeleton rudder said anxiously.

"What can you do? Naturally kill it. There are so many bones here. Once you absorb all the corpse energy, I am afraid that the bones will return to the realm of Martial Emperor, it is not a problem at all?"

Qin Chen snorted coldly, a black light flashed on the mysterious rust sword, and the dozen or so corpses that came up in front of him suddenly collapsed in horror.

"kill!"

Then he gave a cold shout, and the mysterious rust sword continued to emit sword lights in Qin Chen's hands. At the beginning, Qin Chen needed the mysterious rust sword to touch these bones to behead the army of corpses.

But after speaking, Qin Chen discovered that his sword light had a certain spirituality.

Qin Chen was completely immersed in the light of his mysterious rust sword. He had a vague feeling that once the spirituality of the mysterious rust sword was completely controlled by him, his swordsmanship would enter a whole new level. .

In the endless killings, Qin Chen completely ignored him and was surrounded by thousands of corpses. He even killed the surrounding corpses completely by perception. Waves of corpses were killed by him, another wave Bo's remains surrounded him. Compared with the Zhen Devil Cauldron, the mysterious Rust Sword consumes too much true essence, enough for him to continuously slay the corpses and keep making moves.

Chapter 1055: Lord of the Wraith

The * cat and Skeleton Rudder on the side were already staring at it, and they saw Qin Chen rushing into countless corpses, and the whole figure seemed to have fallen into a kind of epiphany. At first, Qin Chen rushed out of the land of the wronged soul. Instead, it stopped at this time, just like not killing all the corpses.

Like.

And the army of these corpses was completely attracted by Qin Chen, but the Skeleton Rudder Master and the * cat who were not far away were completely ignored.

Especially the Skeleton Rudder Master, absorbed a lot of corpse gas, making him also haunted by this corpse gas, and many corpse army around him regarded him as the same kind.

Looking around, endless bones continued to drown towards Qin Chen, but the army of bones seemed to be blocked by a force at the center, and there was no way to drown the person in the middle.

If the skeleton rudder and the * cat are in the middle of the army at this moment, you can see that Qin Chen at this moment has completely closed his eyes, and even his mental power and soul power are no longer scattered, just relying on the keen sense of crisis. Control the sword light with the five senses.

The spirituality and charm of that sword light became clearer and clearer.

However, Qin Chen released the sword light irrespectively, and then looked for the spirituality in the sword light.

Every time an army of bones attacked, he would be blocked by the light of his sword, and then he brought up a piece of broken bones, but that's it, the army of bones besieging him was too much, and some of the army of bones that had not been blocked passed through the sword. Light, hurt him.

However, Qin Chen's Immortal Body has been cultivated to the sixth level. The bones that can attack him are some of the least harmful, and some threatening attacks are caught by his perception, and then the sword light will be in the first. Blocked for a while.

In the end, Qin Chen even formed a sword light shield, a piece of black paint.

No matter how low the consumption of the mysterious rust sword on the true essence, Qin Chen's fight with such a density makes it difficult for Qin Chen to persist. Whenever the true essence in his sea of anger weakens slightly, Qin Chen will take out a large amount of replenishment. The medicine of medicine was swallowed instantly.

In order to prevent accidents in the mysterious realm of the heavenly devil, Qin Chen refined almost all the elixir in his body into pill. These pill was originally intended to be used in battle at the most critical moment, but at this time, they were all consumed. In the battle with these skeletons.

In fact, with the speed of Qin Chen killing these bones, it is not very difficult to leave the land of the wronged souls.

But at this moment, he seems to have completely forgotten to leave here. There is only one action in his heart and hands, controlling the sword light, and then killing the bone army.

Prior to this, Qin Chen had reached the pinnacle of swordsmanship, and had extremely deep attainments in swordsmanship. He had reached the second stage, the point where he moved with swordsmanship.

As for the third level of the human sword unity, urging the true essence sword light, thousands of miles away, beheading the human head, but still can't understand it.

Even Qin Chen has been unable to release his true essence sword light outside, causing his sword light to be moved by the imperial sword.

But before, Qin Chen unexpectedly discovered that when he was performing imperial swordsmanship, when Jian Guang had spirituality, he was instantly immersed in it, so that he even forgot his own situation.

This feeling of controlling the spirituality of the True Essence Sword Light allowed him to capture the sense of the unity of swords in the third stage of Yujianshu, and there was a kind of cheerful pleasure in his heart, how could he let it go.

He was afraid that once he stopped, the subtle feeling he had just got would disappear again.

The Skeleton Rudder Master and Big Black Cat looked at them in a dazed manner. If they still can't tell that Qin Chen is cultivating, then they are also idiots.

But it was the knowledge that Qin Chen was practicing that made him feel more shocked and frightened by Qin Chen's actions.

Is this guy an idiot? Or do you not take your life in your heart at all?

Still cultivating at this critical moment of life is simply a rhythm of death.

Although puzzled in their hearts, Qin Chen's spirit of cultivating death has shocked them like never before.

At this moment, they finally understood why Qin Chen's talent was so amazing and his combat power was so terrifying!

This guy is simply a martial idiot, a person who doesn't even want his life in front of cultivation, is his strength terrible?

Qin Chen felt that the power of the skeleton army seemed to be getting bigger and bigger, but he still did not open his eyes, the mysterious rust sword in his hand kept bringing out the sword light, and he could even feel that the sword light he could control was increasing. .

With a ding sound, the mysterious rust sword in Qin Chen's hand suddenly shook, and the light of the true essence swords he controlled flew away and became extremely messy. The next moment Qin Chen felt an extremely dangerous feeling coming from his chest.

That huge sense of crisis gave Qin Chen a fear of death. He subconsciously mobilized all the sword lights to kill him in the crisis, and opened his eyes at the same time.

Qin Chen didn't expect that in a hurry, all the sword light he emitted would be controlled by him, like a swimming fish, the dense sword light of true essence instantly converged into a long sword of nothingness, and then cut it out. It's just that Qin Chen hadn't had time to be happy, there was a loud "boom", and the Void Longsword seemed to be split on a piece of incomparably hard gold and iron, and a terrible force was transmitted, and Qin Chen was shaken off instantly. , The whole person fell heavily into the bone mountain, pouting, and spouting a mouthful of fresh

The blood comes.

At this time, Qin Chen had time to carefully observe the surroundings. He had been immersed in the spiritual perception of Jianguang. Qin Chen didn't realize it, but when he opened his eyes and saw the surroundings, he was surprised. .

The surrounding area is full of scattered bones, and there are densely packed bones surrounding dozens of miles around, and the bones under his feet have been piled into a small hill. A rough estimate is that the number of dead bones is at least Has reached tens of thousands.

Qin Chen took a breath of air, and he glanced at his own situation, his body was covered with blood and scars.

But there was still a deep scar on his chest, with bones visible, which was obviously the scar caused by the terrifying murderous intent he felt last time. At this time, Qin Chen saw that under this bone mountain, a thick bone stretched out. This bone was one meter long, which was different from the pitted surface of other bones. Above this bone, the whole body was crystal clear and extremely Perfection, there is even a layer of light black mist, which is very evil Meaning and ghosts.

"Damn boy, disturbed the great Lord of Wraiths to fall asleep, and killed so many of his subordinates. In that case, you will become the nourishment of this land of wronged souls today." The rumble of rage sounded, With a bang, Bone Mountain shattered, and a huge palm came out from the ground, and the white bone that hurt Qin Chen before turned out to be just a finger on this palm.

Chapter 1056: Demon Lord Skeleton

"this is....."

Not far away, the skeleton rudder and the * cat were also shocked.

With a bang, from the ground, a white arm was suddenly protruded. This arm was seven or eight meters long, and each finger was nearly one meter long, exuding a frightening atmosphere.

Moreover, under the Bone Mountain, there was violent shaking, as if there was a huge object, slowly climbing up. It was obvious that the seven-eight-meter-long arm was just a hand of the Lord of the Wraith.

Just an arm is seven or eight meters long, so how huge is the entire body of this resentful lord.

In horror, this huge white-bone arm shot down at Qin Chen fiercely.

boom!

The void shook. Although it was just a bone arm, it exuded a palpitating ancient aura. The terrifying coercion, the legs of the depressed skeleton rudder became soft, and he felt unprecedented fear from the depths of his heart.

Just looking at it from a distance, there is an illusion that is hard to resist.

Under this huge arm, Qin Chen also felt an irresistible feeling in his heart. He awakened from Xiulai, his figure instantly retreated backwards, and at the same time he remembered the last moment in his mind. Let Jianguang produce spirituality, and then control the sword of Jianguang.

It should be that one, blocking the previous blow of the bone, otherwise...

Qin Chen subconsciously glanced at the deep wound on his chest, feeling cold.

In the next moment, the mysterious rust sword in his hand was lifted up, hoo, hoo, countless true essence sword lights burst out of the mysterious rust sword, these true essence sword lights rolled up and down under his thoughts, like a spiritual flying Like a sword, each path contains power no weaker than the mysterious Rust Sword itself.

The third level of swordsmanship is the combination of man and sword.

These true essence sword lights quickly merged together, and finally formed a terrifying long sword with the mysterious rust sword, and slashed frantically toward the white bone arm.

With a bang, the sword light collided with the white bone arm, making a harsh rubbing sound. This sound was extremely harsh, just like a nail scratching the glass, but it was more than a hundred times more harsh than the nail scratching the glass.

The low voice sounded again, roaring in anger, and Qin Chen had already been stunned by this force, hitting the ground hard, and his whole body was painful, as if falling apart.

Rumble!

Immediately after the tremor, a terrible breath filled the air. Amidst countless bones splashing, the densely packed skeleton army tens of miles away retreated in horror, and knelt on one knee, as if welcoming their king.

boom!

In the end, the entire Bone Mountain rumbly collapsed, and a huge skeleton with a height of several tens of meters crawled out of the ground. Its body was lingering with the spirit of evil spirits. These spirits of evil spirits were so strong that they could hardly dissolve, as if they were black. The liquid substance flowing in every corner of the skeletal body.

In its twin pupils, there are two groups of terrifying flames, exuding unprecedented heart palpitations. The hollow twin pupils stare indifferently at the Skeleton Rudder Master and Qin Chen below, like a demon god.

"No, let's go!"

Qin Chen was shocked. The aura on this skeleton was too terrifying. The two seemed to be not on the same level at all. The escaping aura caused Qin Chen's heart to throb. Deep in his heart, he felt powerless to resist.

Especially the bones on the bones are extremely crystal clear. After tens of thousands of years of obliteration, they are still shiny. What kind of terrible strong man was this before his death to keep the bones immortal in the tens of thousands of years of history?

"It's the body of the Demon Lord of the Alien Demon Race, who was actually resurrected by this spirit of injustice."

Even the * cat, with a look of horror, said silently.

"What, Lord Demon Lord?"

Skeleton Rudder shook his body and almost fell to the ground?

The demon master is the leader of his alien demon race, and one of the strongest men who led the alien demon race powerhouse to attack the Tianwu Continent, and he was just an extremely ordinary member of the alien demon race powerhouse army.

Although the strength is not the bottom, but compared with the devil, it is definitely the lowest level existence.

No wonder he shuddered involuntarily as soon as the skeleton came out, and he almost couldn't even move.

Although Lord Demon Lord has been dead for tens of thousands of years, the blood and ranks imprinted in the depths of his soul still make it difficult for him to produce resistance.

"You * ants, how dare you disturb the great Lord of Wraiths to sleep and die!"

Compared with the other skeletal armies, this huge skeleton has a certain level of consciousness, but the consciousness is extremely simple, just roaring these words angrily, slapped Qin Chen and the skeleton rudder master.

"puff!"

The Skeleton Rudder Master, who had just restored his cultivation base and even evolved his bones to the realm of Martial Emperor, had no time to react.

If it hadn't been for him to absorb a large amount of skeletal energy, increase the strength of his bones to the level of Emperor Wu, and fully recover his own cultivation base, I am afraid that under this terrifying blow, his whole person has been completely broken and wiped out.

Even so, at this moment, he was already seriously injured, even more severely than when he was against Qin Chen before.

With a palm that shook the flying skeleton rudder master, the huge skeleton seemed to be flying a mosquito, his hollow eyes locked on Qin Chen, and the palm took another shot.

call!

The skeletal body is huge, but the action is extremely agile, the void is trembling, and the air is rippling with ripples, as if the world is being shattered by this blow, the huge white bone arm instantly came to Qin Chen, and the cover fell down. .

"Young man, be careful!"

The * cat lost his voice in horror, shook his body, and appeared from a hundred meters away, looking anxious.

"Zhen Mo Ding, come out!"

The black magic cauldron appeared in the void instantly, screaming, the black cauldron revolved frantically, and instantly became several meters high. On the calming magic cauldron, a black halo appeared, exuding a terrible pressure that shocked the universe.

Qin Chen frantically urged the Zhen Devil Cauldron, the true essence of the Nine Star God Emperor Jue in his body, surging desperately.

Boom!

At the next moment, the huge white bone palm was slapped again on the black magic pot, and a terrifying shock wave was transmitted. A large number of bones below were instantly exploded, and Qin Chen's robe was also completely shattered. Pupupupu spurts blood.

"Wow!"

A mouthful of blood spurted out, Qin Chen's body shook, and his whole person instantly became a blood man.

Qin Chen was furious in his heart, looked at the huge bone powerhouse above his head in amazement, and was shocked: "It's too strong." If it weren't for his Summon Demon Cauldron to specifically restrain the resentful soul monster in the land of wronged souls, he would replace it with an ordinary eight. When the Emperor Wuhuang came, I am afraid that he would be crushed to pieces by the previous blow.

Chapter 1057: still you

"Damn, disgusting thing, the Lord of the Wraiths hates this thing, kill, kill this group of ants."

Looking at the Demon Cauldron in front of Qin Chen, the huge bone skeleton suddenly showed a strong sense of disgust, full of disgust at the Demon Cauldron in Qin Chen's hand, and the huge bone palm fell crazily.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Qin Chen desperately urged the Zhen Devil Cauldron to resist the attack of the Demon Lord's bones. The terrifying shock wave spread out. Qin Chen kept backing up, but did not dare to relax.

He knew that once he slackened, he would definitely die.

At the same time, the Summoning Cauldron in front of him also trembled frantically. Under the attack of the huge bones, it made a clanging sound, as if it could not hold on at any time.

It was not that the Demon Surgery Cauldron was not strong enough, but that Qin Chen's cultivation base was too weak to exert its strongest power at all.

"He's meowing, isn't he really a bully?"

Huh!

A black shadow flashed past, and instantly fell on the huge bones. It was the * cat, a pair of sharp claws, that kept scratching on the bone giant, and it actually caught many traces on the bone giant.

However, this skeletal giant was too terrifying. The attack of the * cat only slowed down the attack on this skeletal giant's hand, but it could not stop the skeletal giant's shot.

But with the * cat's move, Qin Chen, who was almost unstoppable, finally had a chance to breathe. With a sigh of shape, he escaped from the attack of the bone giant.

"Qin Chen, the core of this skeletal giant is the spirit of evil spirit condensed in his mind. Only by extinguishing the spirit of evil spirit can it be killed. Otherwise, with your strength, you currently want to resist this guy's attack. It's impossible." The * cat said solemnly.

"Is there the anger in my mind?"

Qin Chen's gaze flashed, his figure advancing instead of retreating, shot straight at the head of the skeletal giant.

"Roar!"

The skeletal giant roared, slapped the * cat on his body, slapped, the * cat was extremely fast, and instantly disappeared into the void, but the skeletal giant was swayed constantly by his arm, which was extremely funny.

"Zhen Moding, go!"

Qin Chen urged the Zhen Devil Cauldron, the huge black Devil Cauldron spun wildly, and instantly slammed into the head of the bone giant.

But the bone giant reacted extremely quickly. Knowing the danger, his arm stretched out and instantly blocked the Demon Suppressing Cauldron. With a bang, the violent devouring power emitted by the Demon Summoning Cauldron continuously restricted the actions of the Bone Giant.

However, Qin Chen did not fight with the bone giant at all, and used the devil-suppressing cauldron to contain the bone giant. His figure shook, and his whole body instantly came behind the bone giant, spurring the mysterious rust sword with all his strength, and piercing the bone giant's head with a sword. go with.

The skeletal giant seemed to feel the danger, and with a boom, a terrifying shock wave was released from his body. Qin Chen only felt a huge force hit, and was shocked to fly out, his throat was sweet, and he almost spewed a mouthful of blood.

It was too strong, just the spread of power, almost injured Qin Chen, unable to resist.

"Can't go on like this!"

Qin Chen narrowed his eyes, "Qinglian Demon Fire!"

call!

A group of blue flames burst out from Qin Chen's hands instantly, filling the body of the skeletal giant.

This flame was extremely small at first, but it spread across the bone giant in an instant. In a moment, a layer of blue flame burned on the bone giant, and it roared with anger.

In fact, with the current power of the Qinglian Demon Fire, it is still unable to bring harm to the bone giant's body, but the Qinglian Demon Fire can bring certain damage to the spirit of the enemy, directly affecting the actions of the bone giant.

Immediately afterwards, Qin Chen released the gas-eater ants and the fire-refining insects, and carried the power of the green lotus demon fire on the gas-eater ants and fire-refining insects, and drilled into the body of the bone giant, but it has not yet come. When he reached the bone giant, he was slapped to pieces.

The two burning flames instantly burst into countless sparks, turning into countless individual gas-eater ants and fire-refining insects, pouring into the bone giant.

"Damn, * ant!"

The bone giant roared angrily, and his body shook wildly.

But the refining insects and the gas-eater ants are too small, no matter how hard the bone giant struggles, it is impossible to avoid the erosion of the refining insects and the gas-eater ants.

It is a pity that the power of Qinglian Demon Fire is not strong enough, even if it enters the body of the bone giant, it cannot cause fatal damage at all, but it makes it inconvenient to move and extremely angry.

However, this is enough.

"Wow!"

Taking advantage of the moment when the bone giant was frightened, Qin Chen's figure flickered, and instantly came to the front of the bone giant. The swordsmanship urged to the extreme. A sword pierced out of the bone giant's eye sockets, and at the same time he roared: "Da Black cat."

"He's meowing, the emperor is here."

The * cat yelled and also appeared on top of the bone giant, a pair of sharp claws, madly grabbed at the bone giant, and a strong soul impact hit the bone giant's head, making it dizzy. , The response is greatly reduced.

"dead!"

At this time, the mysterious rust sword in Qin Chen's hand had already turned into a black streamer, piercing the bone giant's eye socket with a thud.

"Ant, die!"

The skeletal giant roared, and at this moment, he opened his huge mouth, roaring, a terrifying soul shock, like an ultrasonic wave, rushed towards Qin Chen.

"You should be the one who died!"

Qin Chen roared, stimulating the spatial mood, instantly avoiding this fatal blow, and desperately stimulating the mysterious rust sword, and instantly pierced the bone giant's eye socket.

In the eye sockets, two clusters of flames were burning violently, and Qin Chen's angry eyes were facing each other at this moment. In the eye pupils of the skeletal giant, it seemed to see something terrifying it.

"It's you, last time you disturbed the sleep of the Lord of the Wraiths, this time it's still you..."

An angry roar sounded, and the bone giant was frightened, as if stupid, letting the mysterious rust sword pierce its mind instantly.

Then, in the mysterious Rust Sword, a cold breath suddenly burst out.

"what!"

The skeletal giant howled in pain, and the substantive spirit of the soul condensed in his mind, which burst to pieces in an instant, and a large part of its power was absorbed by the mysterious rust sword.

And the rest of the spirit of evil spirits, after being broken apart, turned into independent breaths of will, rising into the sky.

"Hahaha."

"I live by swords, so is the Supreme Sword Emperor!"

"Kill, kill, kill, kill all foreign races, and give me back!"

"An inch of mountains and rivers and an inch of blood, defend the human race to the death!"

"Fengyun Road is the end, and you will be a man in the next life!" Qin Chen's mind seemed to resound with earth-shaking voices, and then he saw that hundreds of thousands of willful breaths rose to the sky, shooting in all directions toward the mysterious realm of the heavenly devil. Go away, disappear in the sky instantly.

Chapter 1058: Supreme Blade Emperor

Qin Chen was completely dumbfounded, each of these countless auras contained terrifying coercion, as if he could easily kill himself.

That's all, and what astounded him even more was that these breaths were so strong that they were even more terrifying than the many martial emperors he had seen in his previous life.

As if every breath is a supreme Nine Heavens Martial Emperor powerhouse.

A large amount of breath was madly overflowing, and it dissipated in an instant, leaving a pure power in the end, quickly dissipating.

Feeling these dissipated spiritual powers, Qin Chen's soul felt an extremely hungry feeling, as if to devour this power at all costs.

"This is... pure spirit power?"

Qin Chen was shocked, and instinctively unfolded the power of the soul, swallowing this power.

boom!

For an instant, Qin Chen felt as if his mind had exploded, and the sea of soul was shaking crazily, rising at an astonishing speed.

This power appeared quickly and dissipated quickly. When all the power dissipated, the sea of souls in Qin Chen's mind had increased several times more than before.

In the dark soul sea, a deep pool appeared, slowly rotating, deep and cold, the original emptiness soul sea, on the basis of transformation, seemed to be condensed into substance.

"The power of my soul has actually reached the Void Breaking Realm?"

Qin Chen was shocked.

The power of the soul is divided into three realms: nothingness, soul gathering and condensing form, and disintegration of emptiness.

The soul power of ordinary warriors is only in the realm of emptiness, unable to sense the existence of their own souls, but some powerful people, such as bloodline masters, can condense the soul and reach the point of condensing soul.

Before, Qin Chen was in the realm of gathering souls and condensing forms. In this realm, soul power is like spiritual power, forming a certain form of nothingness, which can be used to attack and manifest.

And above the soul gathering and condensing form, it is breaking the void.

The so-called breaking the emptiness is the strength of the soul to a certain extent, from a state of emptiness to a state of substance, as if a real and visible power.

At that point, the soul power can even form a physical attack in a physical state.

Generally speaking, only masters of the Nine Heavens Emperor Wudi level, and the outstanding ones among the Nine Heavens Emperor Wudi, can cultivate soul power to the realm of breaking the void.

Of course, some bloodline masters and alchemists will be earlier, if they have practiced the soul secret technique, they will be faster.

However, even Qin Chen in the previous life had cultivated his soul power to the realm of breaking the void when he broke through the mid-level peak of the eighth stage.

And in this life, he is only the peak of the seventh-tier mid-term, and his soul power has reached the realm of breaking the void. How can he not be shocked?

"Boom!"

And in Qin Chen's shock, after the bone giant lost the support of the spirit of evil spirits, it collapsed instantly and turned into a pile of dead bones, as if it had been emptied of power.

Taking back the mysterious rust sword, Qin Chen was just about to take it down, but when he grasped the mysterious rust sword in his hand, hum, suddenly, a cold breath suddenly passed from the mysterious rust sword.

At this moment, Qin Chen seemed to see that mysterious place again.

It was a dark space, and the whole space was dark and cold, like purgatory, making people feel creepy.

In the darkness, blood was flowing everywhere, and the corpses piled up like a mountain, tragic.

And in the deepest part of the piled corpse mountain, a hideous black shadow, surrounded by countless rivers of blood, felt Qin Chen's snooping and roared in anger.

"Fucky boy, let this seat out quickly, let it out!"

The black shadow roared, blasted, and exploded with a terrifying killing intent, shaking the entire space violently.

"puff!"

Outside, Qin Chen spit out blood, and his whole body woke up, the original hot mysterious rust sword gradually cooled down and turned into a simple appearance.

Qin Chen's eyes were still in a trance.

I actually saw that scene again. Back then, it was the first time he practiced swordsmanship, and when he engraved the soul mark on the mysterious rust sword, he felt the strange space.

This time, I felt it again.

Does this space really exist, or is it just a fantasy?

If it was just a fantasy, why was there such a terrifying black shadow inside, and that black shadow gave Qin Chen an extremely familiar feeling.

"Shoun Lang, what's the matter with you?"

At this moment, the voice of the * cat awakened Qin Chen.

"I'm fine, by the way, what are those breaths just now?"

Qin Chen reacted, feeling severe pain throughout his body, and couldn't help but laugh bitterly. He was not injured much in the previous battle against the Skeleton Rudder Master. This time, he was almost killed by this terrifying army of bones.

If he hadn't had the Devil Suppressing Cauldron and the mysterious rust sword on his body that specifically restrained the opponent, even if he broke through the Emperor Wu, he would still die in the hands of the bone giant, which would be extremely thrilling. "Those are the wills of the strong people of the ancient human race who have fallen in the mysterious realm of the demon in the ancient times."

The * cat suddenly showed a trace of depression. Without dispersing, it merges with the aura of many powerful aliens,

Formed the spirit of the wronged soul, and finally turned into this wronged soul. "

"Before, after you dissipated the spirit of evil spirits, the will of these strong men was finally released. However, after such release, the time they can exist in this space is very little left. It is estimated that it will not be a moment. , It will dissipate completely."

There was a hint of nostalgia in the * cat's eyes.

"Are they the seniors who died in the ancient battle?"

Qin Chen murmured, his heart was shocked. At the previous moment, he could feel the obsession of these ancient powerhouses, the kind of obsession of immortalizing foreign races and unwilling to die.

What kind of era was that, and how many strong men were born?

But now, these powerhouses have been dissipated in the long river of time, leaving only this obsessive will, how sad is it?

At this moment, Qin Chen stood in awe, and felt immense admiration for these powerhouses who guarded the human continent. "Haha, but don't worry about it. If these obsessions dissipate like this, it's not a relief, and if I guess it's correct, all the martial artists who have entered the Secret Realm of Heaven Demon this time may be blessed, I'm afraid many people Will get a big chance, it depends on their luck!

The * cat laughed.

"Opportunity?" Qin Chen looked over. The * cat laughed and said: "The obsessions of these strong human beings are not willing to dissipate at will. If there are people who are fancy, they are likely to bestow the inheritance to the other party. Although it is just an obsession, but if you can feel these The spiritual will of the ancient powerhouse is an escape for any warrior.

A reborn change. "

Just as the * cat expected, these obsessions rushed out of the land of the wronged souls, and instantly came to the many geniuses and martial kings in the mysterious realm of the heavenly devil, searching for the martial artist who fit them.

Among them, the extremely terrifying will of the Supreme Sabre Emperor sensed the aura of Wang Qiming on the periphery of the heavenly devil secret realm.

"Haha, this son has a relationship with my Supreme Sword Emperor."

boom! Wang Qiming, who was cultivating cross-legged, hadn't realized what had happened, and a terrifying breath instantly rushed into his body.

Chapter 1059: Luna Palace

"Hahaha, this son is indeed a genius of swordsmanship, and his understanding of the meaning of swords is extraordinary. What is even more commendable is the unyielding will of this son. Yes, yes, I like it."

A rumble of will echoed in Wang Qiming's mind, sending a roaring sound.

Suddenly, the voice of the Supreme Sabre Emperor suddenly changed: "What, there is a parasitic seed of the alien demon in this child?" "Silver parasitic seed? I didn't expect that tens of thousands of years later, this powerful alien of the alien demon would perish my mainland. The heart is not dead. Damn it. Since this son can be planted with a parasitic seed by the alien demon, he must be a genius that the alien demon sees. Once he becomes the Emperor of the Nine Heavens, the parasitic seed will most likely be awakened.

Son, make him a slave of the alien demons. "

"My Supreme Sabre Emperor, I must never allow such a thing to happen, how can the genius of my human race allow the alien demons to control it?"

"Boy, you are optimistic, this sword emperor teaches your supreme sword technique. As long as you practice this sword emperor's supreme sword technique to the extreme, you will surely be able to cut off the parasitic seed's seizure of your house by then, opposing the guest, what is your future? It all depends on your understanding and talent."

"However, your physical body still has many flaws. Don't worry, this sword emperor will use his last strength to open up the meridians, wash the hair and marrow, reborn, and transform into the legendary sword * body!"

The will of the supreme sword emperor Longlong echoed, and the power in Wang Qiming's body burst out instantly.

Rumble!

Wang Qiming only felt a terrible force enter his body, and countless blade lights appeared in front of him. Among the blade shadows, a tall figure appeared, holding a sword in his hand, full of domineering and arrogant air.

He opened his eyes desperately, trying to see the person's face clearly, but he could only see a vague figure, wielding his saber there, every knife seemed to be able to cut the world and everything in the world.

boom!

At the same time, a terrible aura burst out from Wang Qiming's body, his aura skyrocketed in an instant, and a terrifying sword intent rose into the sky, as if to split the space of this heavenly demon secret realm and penetrate into the endless starry sky.

"Wang Qiming what happened to him?"

"what happened?"

When the surrounding You Qianxue and others saw this, they were all shocked, and under this terrible breath, they backed away.

It can be seen to the naked eye that Wang Qiming's whole person seems to be transformed into a nihilistic sword, the sword soaring into the sky, with the momentum to cut everything, horizontally and horizontally.

In addition, Wang Qiming's aura was also rising. He, who was still half-step at the peak of the Martial King, suddenly stepped into the realm of the Seventh-Order Martial King, and a series of invincible sword intent swept across the world.

"Hahaha, this woman is good, suitable for inheriting the picture of the Nine Heavens Goddess of the Lord of the Palace, my Moon God Palace has finally found a descendant!" "Hey, the blood of this child turned out to be an undead petrified blood, and the technique is very against the sky, leading to The power of the bloodline is extremely pure, although the rank is not high, but the future is unlimited, yes, I am an undead old man, with the immortal celestial meridian, the bloodline of this child is more suitable for the immortal celestial meridian of this seat.

Wrong, yes, it's you! "Hahaha, let the old man find someone with the bloodline of death and fire, my shadow emperor, I am the shadow killer who changed the color of everyone in the ancient times. In the ancient battle, he assassinated the demon king of the different demons and died. It's a pity that he was against the heavens and no one inherited it.

To find the most suitable descendant, God treats me not badly. "

"This son has a dark atmosphere. I like it, my old demon Jiuyou, boy, although you are a little older, you are better than old demon Fu, and you are the only one!"

Boom boom boom!

Along with the transmission of emptiness, countless astonishing auras instantly fell between heaven and earth, sinking into the bodies of You Qianxue, Lin Tian, Zhang Ying, Black Slave and others.

Not only them, but the rest of the geniuses of the mighty dynasty were also favored by the surviving will of many ancient powerhouses and passed on one after another.

It is really because with the help of Qin Chen, many geniuses of the Dawei Dynasty have extraordinary aptitudes and amazing talents. At a young age, they have extraordinary cultivation bases and magnificent skills, attracting the coveting of the will of many ancient powerhouses.

Even some geniuses are not only favored by a strong person. After the final competition, the strongest wills have found their successors perfectly. As for some weaker wills, even broken wills whose will is not completely preserved, Can only find second-class geniuses.

But even the most inferior broken will, after tens of thousands of years, can be retained to the present, and it can maintain a certain original will under the intrusion of the evil spirits. Before him, it is all in the ancient human race. Extremely strong against the sky.

Even if there is only a trace of will left behind, even because there is no self-consciousness, it is impossible to keep the inheritance, but after the baptism of such will, it is enough to make these geniuses and martial kings of the land of a hundred dynasties reborn and refreshed.

At this moment, the terrifying aura was rising everywhere in the entire Heaven Demon secret realm, and the number of geniuses who broke through King Wu in an instant was at least hundreds.

After many Wuwang strongmen received the baptism, some Wuwang with weaker cultivation bases broke through one after another, and some Wuwang with stronger cultivation bases also gained huge gains and benefited a lot.

As for those warriors who have not been favored by the will of the ancient powerhouses, after experiencing such a breath baptism, they have become extraordinary. Compared with the geniuses who have never entered the secret realm of the gods, the probability of growing into a powerhouse in the future is at least increased. Several times.

In the depths of the heavenly demon secret realm, Mo Li raised his head in amazement, feeling the terrible will shock between heaven and earth, and couldn't help but awaken the Chiyan Demon Lord in the jade bottle.

"Huh? It turned out to be the will of the ancient human race experts, what's the matter? How can the will of these human race experts be preserved to the present, looking in this direction, is it..."

Chiyan Demon murmured, his tone was shocking.

"You mean, these breaths are the martial arts will of the ancient human race powerhouse?"

"Yes, but they are all remnants of will, which should have been released because of some change. It seems that they are looking for a descendant. Hey, the will of the strong human race has already selected you and is coming."

The aura of Red Flame Demon suddenly became immersed, and the entire jade bottle instantly became extremely ordinary.

After a while, sure enough, a terrifying will appeared on the top of Mo Li's head.

"Haha, this son has a terrifying will. Although his breath is a bit cold, he is definitely a man who is against the sky, suitable for my unintentional old ghost, come in!"

The terrifying will rushed down instantly after turning a circle on Moli's head and entered Moli's body.

"Huh? There is a parasitic seed in this child... No, this child has started to assimilate with the parasitic seed, how is it possible? No, this child actually has the blood of an alien race?"

"Damn alien demon cub, die for me!" The unintentional old ghost suddenly became furious, and a terrible force exploded, actually trying to shatter the will and kill the magic.

Chapter 1060: Recovery

"Jie Jie Jie, it turned out to be the unintentional old ghost your will. Since it's here, don't leave."

The jade bottle suddenly burst into blue light, and the evil voice of Demon Lord Chiyan came out, and a black forbidden curse swept out in an instant, and fell into the body of the demon.

The black streamer revolves, banning the aura of unintentional old ghosts.

"Damn it, Chi Yan, you alien, kill."

The terrifying will was furious, and a terrible murderous intent broke out, but was suppressed by the black curse, unable to break free.

"Hmph, in the ancient battle, although this monarch has fallen and his body is shattered, but the soul is still there, and you, with only one thought left, want to fight with me?"

Red Flame Demon Lord sneered, his smile contained endless murderous intent, and the jade bottle exuded a terrifying force, suppressing the momentum of Mo Li.

"Chiyan alien race, one day, my human race will surely slaughter your race."

The unintentional old ghost roared, with a boom, the momentum shattered, and then the power died and turned into nothingness.

One of the pure auras was swallowed by the jade bottle, and the remaining power merged into Moli's body, causing Moli's aura to rise again.

"Hmph, this unintentional old ghost would rather die than give up his strength, but unfortunately, under the control of this lord, he wants to struggle and won't have a chance."

Chiyan Demon Lord Jiejie smiled strangely, above the jade bottle, the light flowed, as if he had received a huge nourishment.

"However, this Heavenly Demon Secret Realm has become extremely unstable because of this riot. If you want to leave, you must take advantage of this. This Demon Lord knows an exit for you and me to leave, otherwise, it will be difficult to have another chance." Chiyan Demon Lord reminded.

"Okay." There was a trace of struggle on Mo Li's face, but he quickly became firm.

Although this trip to the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm has not received any major treasures, breaking through the realm of King Wu is already a huge gain, why not leave now.

Huh!

His body shook, the magical Li turned into a streamer, and disappeared instantly.

The land of wronged souls.

After killing the skeletal giant, Qin Chen and Skeleton Rudder have gained a lot.

Among them, Qin Chen, under the nourishment of the power in the bone giant, the power of the soul has reached the realm of breaking the void, and he has cultivated and reached the peak.

According to the * cat, after the soul breaks through the virtual realm, the soul is separated from the body.

Originally, he didn't report much hope for eliminating parasitic seeds, but at this time, Qin Chen finally saw a glimmer of hope.

However, if you want the soul to enter the realm of divine soul separation, first of all, you must cultivate your body to the realm of no leakage.

"Now my Immortal Eucharist has reached the sixth stage. According to speculation, the seventh stage of the Immortal Eucharist should not be the Immaculate Realm. It's just that I don't know whether the eighth or ninth stage belongs to the Immaculate Realm. "

Qin Chen meditated and healed at the same time.

While he was healing, the Skeleton Rudder on the side frantically swallowed the terrifying power that escaped from the Demon Lord's bones.

Losing the support of the spirit of wronged souls, the skeleton of the demon lord that had survived for tens of thousands of years finally came to an end, the gloss on it dissipated, and the original power disappeared.

The Skeleton Rudder Master is absorbing these original forces and strengthening himself.

With a trace of pure power integrated, the skeleton of the skeleton rudder master's body is overflowing with light, faintly shining with a hint of silver, and the gloss is flowing, and the momentum is amazing.

"This is the bones of Lord Demon Lord. In ancient times, in front of Lord Demon Lord, I was just an ant. I did not expect that this time, I could swallow the essence of Lord Demon Lord's skeleton."

Skeleton Rudder is crying in his heart.

He couldn't even think of such a good thing.

All this is thanks to Qin Chen.

In other words, he was here alone, even if he knew that the Demon Lord's bones had a great effect on him, he would not be able to obtain it.

However, the Lord of the Resentful Soul who could easily obliterate him before was severely beheaded by Qin Chen, which shocked him extremely.

Three days later, Qin Chen took the lead to stop practicing and stood up.

The embarrassing injury on his body has been healed at this moment, and the whole body exudes a terrible breath.

Although he has never stepped into the seventh-order and triple-layer, but Guanglun's aura is only stronger than the general seventh-order and triple-layer martial arts.

What's more terrifying is the improvement of his soul and spiritual power, which makes him contain unpredictable powers in every gesture, as if he is in control of the heaven and earth, which is admirable.

"Yes, yes, * cat, this time, thanks to you." Looking at the * cat, Qin Chen showed his gratitude.

This time, without the help of the * cat, it would be impossible to kill the bone giant with his own power.

In the previous battle, the * cat's soul attack gave him a great help, and it was because of the * cat's restraint that he could hit the bone giant in one fell swoop.

"Huh, it's just a trivial thing." The * cat said proudly, as if it wasn't a major event, and at the same time looked suspiciously at Qin Chen: "However, before he died, the lord of the resentful soul said that you disturbed him last time. Sleeping, it's still you this time, what do you mean?"

The * cat's eyes were solemn, and his eyes flickered.

Qin Chen was taken aback, and he also remembered what the Lord of Resentment had said before his death.

"To be honest, I am also very surprised. This is the first time that this young man has entered the mysterious realm of the heavenly devil. How could it be possible to disturb him twice?"

Qin Chen frowned, and the words of the Lord of Resentment also made him confused.

"Hmph, depending on the age of your bones, it's just eighteen years old. Eighteen years ago, you should have been in the womb. If it weren't for this, the emperor even suspected that he entered the secret realm of the heavenly demon 18 years ago and took it away. You are the one in Zhenjiezhu."

The * cat said sullenly, he was very concerned about the whereabouts of the town boundary beads.

"However, the lord of the resentful souls is condensed by the aura of the wronged souls. It recognizes people based on their aura, not on their appearance. In this way, the person the lord of the resented souls has met with you should be extremely aura. Similar, otherwise it is impossible to admit you wrong." The * cat said again.

Qin Chen was speechless, similar to his own? Could it be that he had entered the secret realm of a heavenly demon in his previous life and had no impression at all.

Suspiciously, he heard a click. Not far away, the Demon Lord's skeleton was instantly shattered into bone * because of the exhaustion of power. At the same time, a terrible breath was transmitted from the Skeleton Rudder Lord.

boom!

The void oscillated, the skeleton rudder mastered the whole body, and there was a faint flow of terrible spatial power. The bones of his body turned out to be dark gold, exuding monstrous might.

"Huh? The power of space? The skeleton rudder master restores the order of the eighth-order Martial Emperor?"

Qin Chen and Big Black Cat looked shocked.

"Hahahaha, Lord Demon Lord deserves to be Lord Demon Lord, the cultivation base of this seat has finally returned to the realm of the Eighth Martial Sovereign, unexpectedly!"

Loud laughter sounded, and the Skeleton Rudder master burst out with a terrifying killing intent, his whole body standing proudly like a demon god, a pair of cold eyes, flickering cold, deep and terrifying. On him, dark golden light circulated, and runes even appeared on his bones, his aura was amazing.
