Chapter 1071: Dragon and phoenix

"At that time, who would dare to oppose my Dayong Dynasty? With the order from this seat, Hundred dynasties will surely make offerings. My Dayong Dynasty will become the first dynasty in the history of the Land of Hundred Dynasties. Shocking the ages, what is the current expansion of the Chendi Pavilion?"

"Therefore, in the land of hundreds of dynasties, what I am waiting for among the major dynasties is not the land, not the short-term gains and losses, but the time, the time to break through the Emperor Wu."

"This trip to the mysterious realm of the heavenly devil, I and the ancestors of all the great dynasties have all entered the half-step Wuhuang realm. It can be as short as one and a half years, and as long as three and five years. We will have the opportunity to enter the eighth-order Wuhuang realm, and we competed, Who can be the first to break through to the realm of Wuhuang, this is the real struggle

The key to capture. "

"At that time, what is the so-called genius? All the geniuses in the land of the hundred dynasties will become the disciples of our Dayong Dynasty."

Pei Dongxing laughed coldly. "So, what you have to do now is the resources. Collect all the resources that this seat needs, so that this seat can surpass Li Xuanji and others and break through the eighth-order martial emperor. At that time, this world will be me. The world of the Dayong Dynasty, the land of hundreds of dynasties, will also be my Pei Dongxing dynasty!

"Do you understand?"

Pei Fengxiang was completely shocked by the rumbling voice.

He finally understood why the ancestor would behead Hengtian Xiao on Chaotian City Square, and why he returned to the dynasty and left nothing but penance. It turned out that all this was for this.

Indeed, in the face of the Geshibaye, the Supreme Dynasty, what is a small horizontal owl? What's more, he was a genius who scrapped his arm.

With the strength of the Chendi Pavilion displayed in the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, even the current ancestors did not have full confidence in suppressing the Chendi Pavilion, making it an enemy, consuming one's own strength and making others cheaper.

It is better to abandon everything and strive for a brilliant future.

The Great Dynasty!

Even with Pei Fengxiang's calmness, he couldn't bear it at this moment, and his heart was excited.

"Disciple, understand!"

Kneeling on one knee respectfully, Pei Fengxiang with a look of excitement on his face, stepped back contentedly.

After knowing the purpose of the ancestor, he no longer dissatisfied with the decision of the ancestor, and some just admire.

indeed.

Just as Pei Dongxing guessed, after coming out of the heavenly demon secret realm, Li Xuanji and others were like Pei Dongxing. The first thing they did when they returned to the dynasty was to retreat.

Perhaps their thoughts may not be like Pei Dongxing's, they want to achieve a great dynasty, but at least, everyone wants to be the first to break through to the eighth-order martial emperor realm and become a land of hundreds of dynasties. Emperor Tianwu.

Southwest of the land of a hundred dynasties.

In a verdant mountain range lies a valley.

Green hills, rivers and stone platforms, birds and flowers, gorgeous and rippling.

Here is the ancestral land of the middle-powered Xuanyin Valley. Inside, towering pavilions, carved with white marble stone steps, are beautiful and majestic.

"Valley Lord!"

At this moment in the valley, surrounded by a large number of strong men in the Xuanyin Valley, a group of women in white skirts stood, old and young, respectfully looking forward, with dismay.

On the stone platform in front, Xuanyin Valley Master Hua Yunfeng took Zhou Zhiwei and stood there.

"Everyone, I don't know how long it will take to go here. When I return, I may be able to introduce you to the Misty Palace."

Hua Yunfeng spoke in a great mood.

Rumor has it that Xuanyin Valley and Wuyu's supreme Misty Palace have a slight connection, but it is not a lie.

The founder of Xuanyin Valley was a maid in Misty Palace back then. She was expelled from the palace because of violation of palace rules and came to the land of hundreds of dynasties to establish Xuanyin Valley. She was lonely and very miserable in her old age.

However, the Post Misty Palace spread rapidly, recruiting talents from various places, and even established palaces in the Northern Horizons, acting as the headquarters of the Misty Misty Palace to take charge of the major forces in the Northern Horizons.

And the old master of Xuanyin Valley left a jade pendant that year, indicating that if there is a genius born in Xuanyin Valley in the future, he can be recommended to the Misty Palace of the Northern Heavens.

Reluctantly, Xuanyin Valley is in the land of a hundred dynasties, only at the top of the middle power. For so many years, no top genius has been born.

In this life, Zhou Zhiwei, a rare genius in a century, appeared.

Less than twenty years old, first stepped into the sixth-order martial arts realm with the help of Huazun grass, and later got a strange encounter in the heavenly demon secret realm, and stepped into the seventh-order martial king realm in one fell swoop.

This kind of talent, let alone enter the Misty Palace North Cosmos Branch, will have a good tone in the future, and will be favored by the above. It is not impossible to directly enter the Wuyu North Cosmos Headquarters, so Hua Yunfeng is not excited.

Even in order to prevent Zhou Zhiwei from having any accidents on the road, she, the master of Xuanyin Valley, the Martial King of the late seventh stage, even planned to personally send Zhou Zhiwei to the Misty Palace in the North Heaven to avoid a situation.

Standing in the highest place of Xuanyin Valley, Hua Yunfeng looked at the land of a hundred dynasties in the distance, with an indifferent smile at the corner of his mouth.

Wait, one day, she will come back with Hua Yunfeng. On that day, this so-called land of a hundred dynasties will only exist in her eyes, right?

And Zhou Zhiwei was also looking at the place of a hundred dynasties. For some reason, Qin Chen appeared in her mind at this time. Qin Chen's previous strong performance in the mysterious realm of the heavenly devil gave her an immense shock. She has always considered herself a genius rare in a century, and even the so-called top ten rookies in the land of hundreds of dynasties were not regarded by him. , Only when facing Qin Chen, a sense of powerlessness will be born.

Shocked by it.

But soon, Zhou Zhiwei's expression became indifferent, and Qin Chen was discarded from her mind.

Yes, Qin Chen is strong, but what? No matter how strong it is, it is only in this land of a hundred dynasties, like a loach in a quagmire, never knowing the height of the sky and the size of the dragon.

And she is about to enter the Northern Heaven Territory, and is even expected to enter the Wuyu Misty Palace headquarters in the future. She is a dragon and phoenix among people, and one day she will soar for nine days. As for Qin Chen, I am afraid that after many years, she can only look up to her, right?

"Lord Valley, let's go!"

With a loud smile, Zhou Zhiwei turned around floating, and together with Hua Yunfeng, flying up into the sky like a goddess of nine heavens, she disappeared into the boundless mountains in an instant, and headed to the distant northern sky.

What Zhou Zhiwei and the others didn't know was that Qin Chen had no long-term plans to stay in the Land of Hundred Dynasties, and was also preparing to leave here.

After all, the Land of Hundred Chaos was too barren. With his current cultivation base, every time he improved, he needed too many resources and treasures, and the Land of Hundred Chaos was far from able to provide such conditions.

What's more, after Zhuo Qingfeng and the others had broken through the seventh rank, they had already wanted to go to the northern heaven. But before leaving, Qin Chen had another important thing to do.

Chapter 1072: Bloodthirsty Dafa

That is Blood Demon Cult.

The Blood Demon Sect has developed in this land of hundreds of dynasties for so many years, secretly controlled many forces, and is always ready to subvert the land of hundreds of dynasties, which is not in line with Qin Chen's interests.

How the Blood Demon Sect is just an ordinary force, Qin Chen may also use the Skeleton Rudder Master to control this force in his own hands.

However, many masters of the Blood Demon Cult practiced the techniques of the alien demon race. They were bloodthirsty and easy to kill. In order to practice the magic arts, each hand was covered with blood.

This is unacceptable to Qin Chen.

What's more, soon, he and Zhuo Qingfeng and the others will go to the Northern Heavens, and the Skeleton Rudder will naturally bring them together. Without the Skeleton Rudder, Qin Chen is also afraid of any changes in the Blood Demon Church.

Might as well be beheaded to eliminate the troubles.

A few days later.

Outside the land of a hundred dynasties, in a majestic mountain range not far from the Dawei Dynasty.

"call out!"

A stream of light pierced the sky in an instant, like a movie of lightning, submerged into the vast forest.

Here is a barren mountain range outside the land of a hundred dynasties, where blood beasts are rampant, perilous, and quite barren.

Many warriors in the land of a hundred dynasties rarely come to this mountain range and enter the depths of the mountain range.

At this moment, it is amazing that a young man in a green robe came here alone.

"Master Skull Rudder, is this the residence of your Blood Demon Cult?"

The young man stood on a cliff with a light wave of his hand, and a gray mist emerged. Then, a skeleton monster exuding a cold air appeared, with a pair of eyes and a cold and evil spirit, emitting a cold light.

It is the Skeleton Rudder of the Blood Demon Cult.

And this boy is naturally Qin Chen.

"Master, that's right, the place where this seat used to sleep is not far from here, and it is the core residence of my Blood Demon Sect."

Skeleton Rudder said respectfully, his body exudes a cold light, and the aura is so strong that it is much more terrifying than when he was in the mysterious realm of the heavenly devil.

"The original choice was really wise."

Feeling the surging power of his body, Skull Rudder sighed inwardly.

How could he have such a good state if he hadn't practiced in the Demon Suppression Cauldron? It took only three months to consolidate the cultivation base of the eighth-order martial emperor, and even heal his injuries while getting closer?

I'm afraid it will take several years to recover from the injuries on his body, so he will continue to lie down in his cold coffin for many days.

After following Qin Chen, with the passage of time, the Skeleton Rudder Master also felt more and more comfortable.

"Your leader of the Blood Demon Cult is also in this resident?"

Skeleton Rudder nodded: "Master, a thousand years ago, my Blood Demon Cult developed rapidly in this land of hundreds of dynasties. As a result, I was attacked by the Dan Pavilion and the Holy Land of Bloodline. The death and injury were heavy. In the end, the Lord Master was forced to perform secret techniques to block The enemy has saved a part of its strength."

"For these years, I have been treating my injuries here, but the original injury was too serious, and after the seizure of the house, the physical discomfort, this seat only regained consciousness two hundred years ago, and used these two hundred years to control whether The strong in the land of a hundred dynasties."

Speaking of this, the master of Skeleton Rudder said with an expression: "However, in the Secret Realm of Heaven Demon, you have already killed a lot of people by the master. The rest of the people have been summoned back to the station by the secret method. However, at the level of King Wu, you should Not much anymore."

In this trip to the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, the Skeleton Rudder Master almost mobilized all the remaining forces of the Blood Demon Cult. Originally, his purpose was to slay all the powerful people in the world, reshape the body, and find a way to release the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm. The remaining souls of other ancient alien demons.

As a result, the plan was destroyed by Qin Chen, and his success fell short.

"Then your leader of the Blood Demon Cult is also in this resident?"

"His master used the forbidden technique back then to block the two powerful forces, and then confined himself in this mountain range. Although not together with the place where this seat is located, it is not far away."

Qin Chen nodded.

The purpose of his trip was to kill the remaining members of the Blood Demon Sect, and secondly, to completely behead the sleeping body of the leader of the Blood Demon Sect.

According to the information obtained from the Skeleton Rudder Master, the leader of the Blood Demon Cult is also a powerful alien of the alien demon clan, and is a high-ranking demon lord of the ancient alien demon clan, whose status and status is still above him.

Once these characters wake up, the disaster they will cause is absolutely huge, and Qin Chen will never allow such things to happen.

"Huh!"

With a body like electricity, Qin Chen moved forward quickly.

This time, he came alone, and did not bring Liu Tai and others.

With the strength of him and the Skeleton Rudder Master, it is enough to handle everything. If Liu Tai and others come, it will not help him, but if there is any danger, it will only distract him.

After a while, a gloomy valley appeared in front of Qin Chen.

"Arrived."

"right here?"

Qin Chen's powerful soul power instantly diffused.

Ok?

In the entire valley, there is not much life aura, but a faint * aura, slowly spreading.

The two were taken aback for a moment, what's going on? Did the fight just happen here?

The two of them flickered and swept into the valley in an instant. The next moment, their expressions instantly solidified.

The whole valley was full of corpses, and there were hundreds of corpses lying in them. The scene was extremely tragic, with a trace of strong blood lingering in the valley, giving people a strong visual shock.

What is even more shocking is the expressions of these people, terrified, as if they have suffered some pain before their lives, their whole bodies twisted, their skins are peeled off one by one, revealing thin muscles.

However, these muscles were gray and white, and there was no trace of blood, as if the blood in the body was sucked dry by something, only a skeleton frame was left, extremely tragic.

"Who did it?!"

Qin Chen's face was ugly, and the other party was too cruel. It was clear that after peeling off the skins of these warriors one by one, letting the other party die in pain, this technique was infuriating.

"Bloodthirsty Dafa, it turned out to be bloodthirsty Dafa. Could it be that the master leader has revived?"

Skeleton Rudder was so shocked that his tongue was about to spit out. If he has hair on his body, I am afraid all his hair will stand up at this moment. Seeing Qin Chen's gaze, the Skeleton Rudder master lost his voice: "Bloodthirsty Dafa is a technique used by my alien demons to swallow the human blood. The human blood is a great tonic for our alien demons. Not only can it recover our injuries, but it can also improve our strength, and the stronger

The greater the human race, the deeper the effect of the blood. "

"Even, the grievances caused by the pain of the human warriors before they die will make the aura in the essence and blood stronger and more delicious for our alien demons." "These people in the valley are my blood demons. People who teach, but their death state is absolutely because of bloodthirsty Dafa absorbed the blood and died in pain."

Chapter 1073: Eternal Night Demon Lord

The Skeleton Rudder Lord didn't say the rest, but the meaning was already very clear. In this mountain range, except for a strong alien from the demon race, the remaining one was the leader of the Blood Demon Cult.

It's just that the leader of the blood demon sect has been in a deep sleep before and has not awakened. Now that so many people are dead, the first thought of the skeleton rudder master is that their rudder master has awakened, and because of weakness, he swallowed it directly. The blood of these humans.

Qin Chen's face suddenly became extremely ugly, and the alien demon had such a perverted technique, and even sucked human essence and blood for a living.

What makes him even more angry is that when the alien demon is absorbing human essence and blood, it will make the opponent desperate and painful to increase the deliciousness of the blood. How cruel is this?

These guys are simply too abnormal, even if they kill them all.

Qin Chen looked at the Skeleton Rudder Master with a cold gaze, making the Skeleton Rudder Master suddenly cold, and hurriedly said: "Master, I am different from them. When I recovered my cultivation, I was lying in the Xuanming Coffin, which can nourish. The body of our alien race, I have never sucked their blood."

The Skeleton Rudder Master was so scared that his soul was almost gone, and he was afraid that Qin Chen would urge the soul-killing mark in his mind and directly killed himself.

The two flew into the valley and looked for a circle. There were still quite a few corpses in the valley. They died in a miserable state, and their blood and essence disappeared. The aura of Qin Chen's body became increasingly cold.

Even if these people are running dogs of the Blood Demon Cult, their dying state is really too miserable.

In the end, hundreds of people fell here in the entire valley, and no one was able to see it.

"Master, these people didn't have much time to die, and the leader should not have gone far."

Skeleton Rudder said with trepidation.

"Where is your blood demon leader sleeping place? Take Ben Shao quickly."

Qin Chen was slightly anxious. If the leader of the Blood Demon Sect was born, it would be dangerous.

The key is that the opponent's strength is terrible. If you find a place to hide in the land of a hundred dynasties, it is extremely difficult and almost impossible to find the opponent.

And the other party can keep killing people and improve one's own cultivation level, when the time comes, the whole hundred dynasties will be in chaos.

"Master, come with me!"

The skeleton rudder led the way and swept all the way to the depths of the mountains.

After a while, the two of them came to a deep cave in an instant.

This is a cave that seems to lead to the depths of the earth. The inside is pitch black, and there are gusts of overcast wind blowing out. There is not even a blood beast within dozens of miles outside the cave.

"Master, this is it."

There was a panic in the voice of the Skeleton Rudder Master. To be honest, even if he broke through the Eighth Martial Emperor, he still had a great fear of the leader.

The ranks of alien demons are strict, this is the rule imprinted in the soul, it is difficult to change.

"Master, when his subordinates awakened more than two hundred years ago, they had come here to see Lord Guru, but that time, Lord Guru hadn't regained consciousness, and later, the subordinates will pass." said the Lord Skull Rudder.

"You lead the way." Qin Chen said directly.

Without a word, Skeleton Rudder took the lead to enter the cave.

Whizzing!

The two quickly descended, and after flying by for a while, a broken stone gate appeared in front of them.

The stone gate has been broken, revealing a dark hall inside, revealing a gloomy atmosphere.

"What, Shimen was actually opened?"

Skeleton Rudder's hair is almost standing up.

"There is breath in it."

Qin Chen's soul force sensed a wave of fluctuations and rushed in first.

This is an underground hall with a radius of one hundred feet. In the center of the hall, there is a huge coffin, but at this moment, the coffin is hollow, and beside the coffin, there is actually a black and * young man sitting awkwardly. It is magic.

At this moment, the magic power lingers with black magic energy on his body, and there is a jade bottle on the side. The aura is surging all over his body. The cultivation base is the same as Qin Chen's, reaching the middle stage peak of the seventh step, and the whole person is like a demon.

How could it be him?

Qin Chen and Skeleton Rudder were stunned for an instant.

And when Qin Chen and Skeleton Rudder came in, Mo Li also saw the two of them, and was completely stunned.

"Master Rudder, how are you..."

Mo Li looked at Skeleton Rudder Master in amazement, his brain was completely insufficient, how could Master Rudder be with Qin Chen?

"Mo Li, how come you are here, Master Leader?"

The Skeleton Rudder Master was also in a daze. He clearly remembered that Lord Hierarch was sleeping in this coffin, but now, the coffin is hollow, but Mo Li is here.

The brain is completely out of time for a while.

Qin Chen flashed in his heart, and even transmitted the sound to the skeleton rudder master: "You said I was controlled by you, immediately stop him, and can't let him run away."

Feeling the strong * air in Moli, Qin Chen instantly understood that it was Moli who killed those warriors before.

However, Mo Li's method of escape was too weird. He had run away once when he was in the ruined palace.

Later, when he came out of the heavenly demon secret realm, Qin Chen specially guarded the exit, but he still could not find the trace of the magic. In addition, the magic at this moment gave him a very strange feeling, which made him intuitively feel that he could not immediately Instead, you should hold him firmly and catch him in a surprise attack. The Skeleton Rudder master instantly understood what Qin Chen meant, and immediately walked towards Moli, coldly said: "Moli, where have you been in the heavenly demon secret realm? This child has been controlled by this seat with the soul-killing seal. You don't need to worry, but You, I have a lot of questions. You killed those people in the previous station? Who?

Teach you bloodthirsty Dafa? "

Skeleton Rudder asked, while walking towards Mo Li.

"What, Qin Chen has been controlled by you, Lord Rudder?"

Mo Li was taken aback, seeming to be taken aback by the news, and said, "Master Rudder, those people did die at the hands of the disciples before, but there is a reason for the disciples, this jade bottle..."

"shut up!"

At this moment, a cold voice sounded, and the jade bottle next to Mo Li suddenly floated, and a strong cold wind instantly echoed in the cave: "Eternal Night Demon Lord, you were unexpectedly caught by a little human Being enslaved, I'm so disappointed by this demon."

The gloomy voice echoed in the hall, giving people a gloomy feeling.

"What? Lord Rudder was enslaved?"

Mo Li was taken aback. Before he could react, the Skeleton Rudder master suddenly moved. Hey, a white bone whip appeared in his hand, and he lashed out like lightning. The rules of martial arts appeared on the bone whip. Combine Mo Li and the jade bottle. Wrap together and tighten quickly.

boom!

But at this moment, the jade bottle trembled, and a terrible force erupted from it, an aura no weaker than that of the Skeleton Rudder Master permeated, and the white bone whip fiercely shook away.

At the same time, the jade bottle was wrapped in Mo Li and flashed to the side in an instant.

"Master Rudder." Mo Li looked at Skeleton Rudder in surprise, and his eyes instantly became extremely hideous.

Chapter 1074: Sorrowful magic

How could he not feel it, Skull Rudder Master clearly wanted to bind him and the jade bottle together.

Is it true that as the Lord Demon in the Jade Bottle said, the Skeleton Rudder Master was enslaved by Qin Chen?

how can that be?

He didn't know the power of Skeleton Rudder Lord. It was rumored that he was the number two figure in the Blood Demon Cult, who would be enslaved by a little genius.

No matter how I think, I feel unrealistic, like a fantasy.

Seeing this jade bottle actually saw through his plan, and rescued Mo Li, the master skeleton rudder's face suddenly became very ugly, staring at the jade bottle in front of him, and said coldly: "Who are you?"

There are very few people in this world who can call him the Eternal Night Demon Lord, and the breath just now gave him a very familiar feeling, and claimed to be the Demon Lord, is it the leader?

wrong!

The voice of the master leader is very familiar to him, and it is not at all the same. Or, is it an ancient alien monster brought out from the mysterious realm of the demon?

The more the Skeleton Rudder master thought about it, the more possible it became.

Not far away, Qin Chen also showed amazement, staring at the jade bottle.

The aura radiating from the jade bottle is not weaker than that of Skeleton Rudder Master, what the * is it?

"Jie Jie Jie, Yong Ye, didn't you even forget the demon king? I didn't expect that in the ancient war, you, a timid fellow, did not die, but you were actually enslaved by a little human martial king, I simply lost my face as an alien race."

Lord Skull Rudder frowned, his eyes opened suddenly, and he said in shock: "This voice, Chi Yan, are you the Chiyan Demon Lord?"

"Jie Jie Jie, Yong Ye, you finally remembered it." The jade bottle shook in the air, making a harsh sound, "Yong Ye, for the sake of your own clan, this demon king will cut this kid for you. Kill, let you regain your freedom."

Yu Ping gave a strange laugh, shook suddenly, and struck Qin Chen instantly.

boom!

The bottle body turned into a dark shadow, and the speed was so fast that there was nowhere to dodge it. There seemed to be black magic energy in the void, turning into a monstrous torrent of true energy, sweeping down towards Qin Chen madly.

Qin Chen also understood at this time. There was a soul of an ancient alien demon hidden in this jade bottle. It seemed that he wanted to seize the demon, but found that the demon possessed a parasitic seed and could not seize the demon. Brought out by Mo Li.

In this way, the previous warriors should also be killed by Demon Li and this alien demon soul, because only the alien demon needs to devour human essence and blood to restore power.

"Ancient Demon Race, everyone is punishable. Since you are looking for death by yourself, die here today."

Thinking of this, Qin Chen suddenly sneered and raised his hand, Fan Tianyin appeared in an instant, and he slammed down towards the jade bottle.

boom!

The black Fan Tianyin instantly hit the jade bottle with a bang. The jade bottle just shook, but Fan Tianyin was shaken out, banging on the side of the stone wall with a bang, making a rumbling roar.

"Hey, the strength is good, no wonder he dared to challenge this demon king, but unfortunately, it is still far away!"

The Jade Bottle quackled and shook slightly before hitting Qin Chen again.

"Humph!"

A bone whip on the side struck in an instant, covering the void layer by layer, winding towards the jade bottle.

It was the Skeleton Rudder Master who took the shot, his eyes were cold, and the black magic energy was on the bone whip, restricting the movement of the jade bottle.

"kill!"

After seeing this scene, Mo Li violently moved, swish, and his whole body instantly came to Qin Chen and blasted Qin Chen with a punch.

"Majesty is the world!"

Boom!

The demon at this moment, strong and terrifying, with a punch, and the monstrous demon energy, the whole person is like a world-famous demon, his eyes are tyrannical, and his body is blooming with endless killing intent.

He was full of hatred towards Qin Chen.

Back then, at the Gunandu Grand Tournament, I was originally the undisputed champion. It was this kid who defeated himself and let himself leave with hatred.

Not long ago, in the Secret Realm of the Heaven Demon, he was already enough to kill Heng Wuji and the others, and to win the most precious treasure in the ruined palace. It was Qin Chen who caused Lei Jie to kill the old town of ghosts and let him escape in embarrassment.

All of this was deeply imprinted in Mo Li's heart, making him unforgettable forever.

As a peerless genius, Mo Li is full of confidence in his own strength, but Qin Chen has wiped out his confidence time and time again and has become the demon in his heart that must be killed.

Now, with the help of Lord Chiyen Demon Lord, he has already stepped into the realm of King Wu, his strength has increased more than ten times than before, and he has a strong confidence to kill Qin Chen in shame.

boom!

The terrifying power of the fist, like the waves, swallowed Qin Chen, the devilish energy in the sky was violent, and the whole cave was full of ghosts crying and howling.

what?

The next moment, Mo Li's expression was dull for an instant, he watched his attack fall on Qin Chen, and he could not even break Qin Chen's skin.

how can that be?

Mo Li was so startled that his eyes almost fell off.

You must know that after he broke through the peak of the seventh-stage early peak Wuwang, his strength rose greatly, even if he faced the seventh-level mid-term peak, he would dare to say that he could kill with one effort.

This is already incomparable. He is confident that he will be smashed by his own punch if he changes to any seventh-tier mid-level martial king, or even the seventh-tier mid-level peak martial king.

But Qin Chen?

He actually took his own punch abruptly, and even the shield was not broken, let alone the scum.

Could this guy be made by Xuan Tie?

Even if it was made by Xuan Tie, it might be blown up by yourself, right?

His scalp was numb, and he roared again, his eyes staring as big as a copper bell, and dozens of punches were madly blasted in an instant.

"Magic Aurora!"

I don't believe it anymore. I'm a magnificent heavenly arrogant, after breaking through King Martial, I can't even hurt you.

Mo Li used all the energy to eat milk for a while, the true essence in his body was energized to the extreme, and the blood of the demon king was also released. A tall demon king phantom exudes an unprecedented horror aura, like a world-famous demon god. , Looked at Qin Chen coldly.

After doing all of this, Mo Li still felt that it was not enough, and even spewed blood and burned the true essence in the body, and the breath in an instant doubled again.

Boom boom boom boom!

The violent attack was like a meteor falling to the moon, swallowing Qin Chen again.

Must die now, right?

Moli panted and opened his eyes wide, but then, his eyes were dull again, and his tongue was about to come out.

In the cave where Qin Chen stood proudly, he was unharmed, and he didn't even look at him. He just stared at the jade bottle in front of him with a solemn expression.

"Chang!"

A black rusty sword appeared in his hand for an instant, the sword aura was vertical and horizontal, like a wolf smoke of essence, billowing into the sky, and the terrifying sword intent shook the magic out in an instant. He only felt that his sight was filled with endless sword intent, as if his body would instantly Was split in half.

A mouthful of blood spurted out, only the sword intent was released, and dense sword marks appeared on Mo Li's body, which was thrown out like a dead dog.

At the same time, Qin Chen moved.

Huh!

The sword light was dazzling, like the sky across the sky, with thunder shining, and it smashed into the mysterious jade bottle in an instant. From beginning to end, Qin Chen didn't look at Mo Li, but stared at the jade bottle, as if his enemy was only the jade bottle.

Chapter 1075: Demon Lord

"Puff!"

With another spit of blood, Mo Li was going crazy.

This time it was not hurt, but angry.

Originally thought that breaking through King Wu, soaring combat power, able to suppress Qin Chen, was shameful.

Who knows that the result is even worse than before. When he was in Ancient Southern Capital, he was still able to compete with Qin Chen for dozens of rounds.

But just now, Qin Chen stood there and let him fight. He couldn't even break the opponent's defense, and Qin Chen didn't even look at him. How ignorant of him?

Shame, an unprecedented shame.

Thinking of this, Mo Li exploded again with anger, blood spraying from his mouth.

However, anger returned to anger, and the terrible vigor came from the front, but he backed back again and again in horror, because Qin Chen had stood with the jade bottle like lightning.

"Chang!"

The mysterious rust sword rust sword turns into a terrifying streamer, smashing into the jade bottle crazily, and is accompanied by a terrible thunder light, like a layer of sky and earth nets, wrapping the jade bottle layer by layer.

Crackling!

The thunder light surged, the sun was like weaving, and the entire cave was filled with blue thunder light, as if sinking into a sea of thunder.

Knowing how powerful this jade bottle was, and there was an ancient demon in it, Qin Chen didn't dare to be careless.

"Good boy, you dare to shoot at this demon lord, it seems that you are impatient to live, looking for death!"

The jade bottle was originally fighting with the Skeleton Rudder Master, and when he saw the thunder rushing, he was immediately angry enough, what are you, you dare to take the initiative to shoot at me?

Black magic energy erupted from the jade bottle, spitting out towards Qin Chen. In the mouth of the bottle, the whole body was pitch black, as if there was an endless abyss, exuding an astonishing aura, then turned into a black murderous intent and cut it up.

boom!

The terrible devilish energy collided with the mysterious rust sword, Qin Chen and Yu Ping both trembled and moved back a little.

Actually, evenly split, autumn!

If Yu Ping had an expression, it would definitely become very exciting at this time, with a dull face.

Seeing that Qin Chen ignored Mo Li's offense before, and knew that the opponent was strong, but it was just that. In terms of strength, Qin Chen was just a martial king at the mid-tier seventh stage. Such a dregs, he could spit to death in his heyday. A dozen.

Even now, although the devil-slashing energy he released did not have the strength of one-thousandth or even one-tenth of a million during the heyday, it was not impossible to kill a Martial King who was a seventh-order triple peak.

But Qin Chen actually resisted.

He couldn't believe it.

It's okay if the opponent hides his strength, and what is even more terrifying is that Qin Chen's aura is clearly only the seventh-tier mid-stage peak!

Can the peak in the middle of the seventh tier fight against yourself? When did human warriors become so terrible?

In shock, the attack of the Skeleton Rudder Master had already struck again, booming, the white bone whip instantly seemed to be violent, turning into a sky whip shadow, layered on top of it, sweeping the jade bottle crazily.

At the same time he shouted angrily: "Master, let's join hands to suppress him."

Without the Skeleton Rudder Master's command, Qin Chen had already killed him, murderous in his heart, and he would never allow the Red Flame Demon to escape from his palm.

With the evil of the alien demon race, once they escaped, the entire land of hundreds of dynasties would be turned into disaster by that time, and the other party didn't know that there would be a so-called bloodthirsty Dafa that would destroy the martial king of how many dynasties.

"Kill kill kill!"

On the mysterious rust sword, the sun was shining, and the thunder was woven, intertwined with infinite sword energy in an instant, hitting the jade bottle like a squally rain.

Ding ding ding ding ding!

This jade bottle didn't know what kind of treasure it was. Under Qin Chen's violent attack, it kept trembling, but there were no scars at all, and the hardness was just like the stone in the pit.

But think about it, this jade bottle can be preserved in the ancient times, and to accommodate the soul of the red flame demon, it will not be an ordinary thing, if it is cut with a sword, it will be strange.

"Chiyan Demon Lord, where did the leader go?"

On the side, the Skeleton Rudder Master also roared again and again, the white bone whip lashed wildly, and contained soul shock, without leaving his hand at all.

Strong alien races are different from humans. The relationship between them is extremely complicated, and they are only loyal to Lord Demon. In fact, there is fierce competition between Demon Lords, and there is no friendship between them.

The reason why he would follow the Sky-Swallowing Demon Lord at the beginning was only because the Sky-Swallowing Demon Lord was a high-ranking Demon Lord, and he recovered more strength than him after seizing the house.

But now the Red Flame Demon Lord is locked in this jade bottle, only a soul power is left, and he has swallowed the remains of the Demon Lord, recast the flesh, and has a boundless future. How can he care about a small Red Flame Demon? Jun?

"Quickly, where did you get the master leader?"

If you are afraid, the Skeleton Rudder Lord is still more afraid of the Sky-Swallowing Demon Lord, so while attacking frantically, he kept asking.

When he came here more than two hundred years ago, the leader of Heaven-Swallowing Demon Lord was still sleeping in this coffin, and now the coffin was empty. It wasn't the Red Flame Demon who took it away, who else could it be? "What is the leader who does not teach the leader? Are you talking about the things in this coffin? When the demon lord came over, the inside was empty and there was no fart. Who cares about where your leader is? Master, Yongye, this demon lord sees you have been in this human world for a long time

Up. "

Yu Ping roared, the horrible killing intent blooming in the bottle body, resisting the attacks of Skeleton Rudder Master and Qin Chen.

"Is it true that Lord Hierarch was not taken away by Lord Scarlet Flame?"

The Skeleton Rudder was stunned.

The ranks of the alien demon race are strict. Although the Chiyan Demon Lord is extremely strong, it is still a little worse than the leader of the Swallowing Demon Lord. After all, the Chiyan Demon Lord is just like him, just a middle-ranked Demon Lord.

If the Chiyan Demon Lord had seen the Demon Lord, he would never have said that the Demon Lord was "this thing", or even said, "There is no such thing as a fart." After all, the position of the high demon Lord is placed there. Now, Chiyan Demon Lord still wouldn't say such violent words.

It's just that if Lord Chiyan hadn't taken it away, who would it be? Could it be that the leader of the leader awakened himself and could not run away?

The resident of the Blood Demon Sect is here. If the leader of the leader wakes up, and he hasn't used it, it is impossible for the leader of the leader not to come to him.

Thinking wildly in his mind, the Skeleton Rudder Master couldn't understand how to do it, and it was almost a mess.

No matter what, first hold this Red Flame Demon Lord, and then say, if you capture this Red Flame Demon Lord and then refine it by yourself, such a huge soul power is at least enough to make yourself into the late Martial Emperor in one fell swoop, and even have a chance Enter the realm of Emperor Wu!

Thinking of this, the attack of the Skeleton Rudder Master was even more violent, and he was even harder than Qin Chen, and the terrifying soul power continued to impact, completely stunned the red flame demon without a physical body.

"Yong Ye, you guy is too presumptuous, do you bully me without a physical body?"

The Red Flame Demon became angry, and was attacked by Qin Chen and the Skeleton Rudder Master.

boom! In an instant, the aura above the jade bottle skyrocketed, and the magic light continued to spit out, and it suddenly rushed out of the encircling circle of Qin Chen and the skeleton rudder master, hanging in the air, exuding an increasingly strange aura.

Chapter 1076: Resurrection

Immediately after.

boom!

I saw a figure suddenly flew out of the jade bottle and landed in front of Qin Chen and Skull Rudder Master.

This is a burly man with muscular knots, but without a breath of life, his face is pale, and he is obviously dead long ago.

However, his bones are strong, his body is strong, and his strength is not weak during his lifetime.

Iron Wheel King?

The Skeleton Rudder master was shocked.

This Martial King is surprisingly a top powerhouse of medium power secretly controlled by the Blood Demon Cult. In addition to the Skeleton Rudder Lord, he is currently one of the strongest powerhouses of the Blood Demon Cult.

However, I didn't see the iron wheel king's body in the valley before, and I didn't expect it to be stored in the jade bottle by the Scarlet Flame Demon Lord.

But what did the Chiyan Demon Lord move out of the Iron Wheel King's body at this time?

When I was in doubt, I saw a buzzing sound in the jade bottle, bursting out a terrifying black glow, which exuded an evil aura, instantly entered the body of the iron wheel king, the next moment, well, that king Wu His eyes suddenly opened, and two groups of dark magic light burst.

"Jie Jie Jie, Yong Ye, now this Demon Lord also has a body, you two, just wait to die."

The voice of Demon Lord Chiyan came out from the mouth of the Iron Wheel King, with a wicked smile on his face, and the black magic patterns spread all over the Iron Wheel King's body, as if he had become a demon in an instant.

boom!

When the voice fell, Demon Chiyan held the jade bottle, and struck at the Skeleton Rudder Master and Qin Chen like lightning. His body was agile and his speed was fast, which was comparable to that of Emperor Wu.

"Resurrection with a corpse!"

The Skeleton Rudder was taken aback.

Borrowing a corpse to resurrect the soul is a secret technique of the alien demon race. The power of the soul of the alien demon race is very strange and powerful. When it reaches a certain level, it can take away the human warrior.

At the beginning, the Skeleton Rudder master seized a human martial arts king, but later he had a mutation reaction, turning himself into a human, a ghost, a ghost, and a skeleton.

And now, the resurrection of the corpse displayed by the Red Flame Demon Lord is obviously stronger than his original seizure. It just uses the body of the human martial king as a container for short-term containment, and a powerful force erupts in a short time.

This shows that the red flame demon's soul recovery level must be even higher than that of him, otherwise it would be impossible to use the secret technique of borrowing the corpse to restore the soul, because this secret technique requires extremely high soul strength.

Boom boom boom!

In an instant, Red Flame Demon Lord and Skeleton Rudder Master and Qin Chen fought wildly together. At the beginning, Red Flame Demon Lord was obviously not familiar with human bodies, and his movements were a bit stiff, but after a quick effort, he became more As he became more proficient, his reaction and speed had already entered the Wuhuang level.

Is this too abnormal?

Qin Chen's gaze was horrified, and he used the corpse to recover his soul. Is there such a strange move in this world? No wonder the alien demons would become a disaster for the entire continent, creating a dark and turbulent era.

Let's not talk about the strength of these powerful aliens, just this ability to rob the bodies of human warriors at will is almost insoluble.

This is simply a transformation flow!

Being able to change body at will, how to fight this?

Bang bang bang!

After Chiyan Demon possessed a body, his strength instantly improved compared to the jade bottle. This jade bottle was obviously still a treasure, constantly rippling black magic energy, forcing Qin Chen to retreat again and again.

"Likan Holy Mirror!"

Qin Chen sacrificed the Likan Sacred Mirror, and the white light bloomed, instantly shining on Chi Yan Demon Lord, scorning, Chi Yan Demon Lord's body instantly bursting with black smoke, and his skin was full of scars.

"Damn, you broke the body of this demon king, you are looking for death!"

The Chiyan Demon Lord jumped with anger. This Iron Wheel King had finally found a decent body from among the many martial kings. He was known for his defense, so he stayed here and used it to fight.

Who knows, this guy is too hateful, these white light directly corroded his skin, making him a human, a ghost, a ghost, how can he go out to see people in the future?

boom!

The jade bottle skyrocketed and bumped into it. In the jade bottle, the runes of the avenue flowed, and the horrible aura stunned for nine days. The stars of nine days were shaking and about to fall.

puff!

A mouthful of blood spurted out, and Qin Chen was blown out, his skin cracked and blood oozing out.

The strength of Chiyan Demon Lord is too strong, comparable to the eighth-order martial emperor. Qin Chen can kill the peak martial king of the late seventh-order, but facing the powerhouse of the eighth-order martial emperor, it is much worse.

"Hey, you little human doll, the defense is so terrible?"

Demon Chiyan stared at Qin Chen, his eyes glowed with green light, and his saliva almost flowed down.

What kind of defensive power can he use a jade bottle to hit without death? At least surpassed the seventh-order triple peak, several times stronger than the body he currently occupies.

"Jie Jie Jie, this body is good, this demon lord is very satisfied."

Red Flame Demon Lord's eyes gleamed, and when he looked at Qin Chen, it was as if a pervert had seen the naked woman. The green eyes were scary.

"This dead pervert."

Qin Chen revolved the indestructible sacred body, his cracked skin quickly healed, and his hair was erected and his hair was horrified by the red flame demon.

Snapped!

At this time, the bone whip of the Skeleton Rudder Master quickly struck, leaving a scar on the Red Flame Demon Lord, and his skin was ripped apart, and the bones inside were exposed.

Although Chiyan Demon Lord is powerful, his body is after all the Iron Wheel King at the mid-level of the seventh rank, and he is not strong in physical defense.

However, after suffering this blow, Chiyan Demon Lord did not have any pain on his face. On the contrary, he felt that the clothes on his body were troublesome. He tore the broken clothes directly, and even the muscle that was rolled out of his body was also torn off. Charged towards Qin Chen again.

"Master, use the Demon Cauldron." The Skull Rudder master roared.

Without the command of the Skeleton Rudder Master, Qin Chen had already used the Demon Suppressing Cauldron, hum, the black cauldron, exuding a terrifying aura, like a prehistoric opening, the world collapsed, and like a sky sinking, it was severely suppressed.

"What, Zhenmao?"

For the first time, Chiyan Demon Lord's voice was full of terror, and the black demon energy surged in the jade bottle, instantly rushing up.

With a bang, the jade bottle shook violently, and there was an illusion of fragmentation, it was directly smashed and flew out, and then the Demon Suppressing Cauldron continued to move forward and hit the Chiyan Demon Lord severely.

With a puff, how terrible is the Summer Ding? It directly exploded half of Iron Wheel King's body, half of his head flew, blood flying across the brain, one eyeball exploded, and the other eyeball was drooping there, terrible.

Under this blow, the consumption was huge. Qin Chen felt that his body was empty, and his true essence was directly consumed by a half, full of emptiness. But he looked indifferent and gritted his teeth. The Nine Star God Emperor Jue's True Essence continued to be poured into the Demon Cauldron desperately. Om, the Demon Cauldron trembled again, and directly absorbed half of the True Essence in Qin Chen's body. The king's body exploded directly.

Chapter 1077: shocked

Phew, a black afterimage rushed out of the shattered Iron Wheel King.

"Damn the human ants, how dare you explode the body of the demon Lord, Jie Jie Jie, in that case, the demon Lord will take you away!"

The Chiyan Demon screamed strangely, with excitement in his furious voice.

He has been looking for a human body, but a good human body is too difficult to find. It is simply a scarce resource.

Although their alien demons can use the corpse to recover the human body at will, they do not have no requirements for the body.

For example, this Iron Wheel King is just an ordinary seventh-tier mid-level pinnacle martial arts king, and the defense is not strong. Once the soul is fully in charge, it will have a huge impact on the strength of the Chiyan Demon Lord.

Another example is the Skeleton Rudder Master. For thousands of years, he was only able to restore the peak of the seventh-stage late stage before. This is because he was only an ordinary middle-stage seventh-stage martial king.

But if you change to an eighth-order martial emperor, I am afraid that the current strength of the skeleton rudder master will be infinitely close to the nine-day martial emperor.

This is the difference between different bodies.

Now that the Red Flame Demon Lord sees Qin Chen's physical body so terrifying, and even controls the Demon Surgery Cauldron, he is extremely excited in an instant. As long as he seizes Qin Chen from his home, the speed at which he will restore his cultivation in the future is absolutely extremely fast, and he can even master it. Zhen Mo Ding.

That was the treasure of terror that killed countless alien demons in ancient times.

"Jie Jie Jie, God has shown me such a good body for the Demon Lord Chiyan so much that God has given me such a good body, quack, this devil is here."

Huh!

The speed of the black streamer is so fast that it seems to have penetrated the void, and unexpectedly broke out of the Qi Ji range of the Zhen Demon Cauldron, and it has come to Qin Chen before a thousandth of a blink, and it is so fast that it makes people unable to react.

This shows the cunning of the Chiyan Demon. It can be seen that although Qin Chen used the Demon Suppressing Cauldron to shatter the body of the Iron Wheel King, this was simply abandoned by the Chiyan Demon.

Otherwise, Red Flame Demon Lord would definitely not explode at such a terrifying speed at the moment his body exploded.

Obviously, he had already settled the attention of Duo She Qin Chen.

"Jie Jie Jie, now this Human Race kid and Yong Ye Mojun are going to be scared stupid."

Seeing that he was about to move into Qin Chen's body, Demon Chiyan even took a peek at the Skeleton Rudder Master in a leisurely manner.

Since the Skeleton Rudder Master has been enslaved by Qin Chen, he can naturally take over the Soul Destruction Seal after he seizes Qin Chen, and the life and death of the Eternal Night Demon Lord will be in his hands.

Controlling a middle-ranked demon like himself, this is something he never imagined in ancient times, just thinking about the red flame demon is almost climax.

Only after the Chiyan Demon Sovereign swept the expression on Skull Rudder Master's face, the whole person was stunned for an instant.

Because instead of being panicked, Skeleton Rudder Master's face showed a trace of abuse, as if he was looking at an idiot.

by.

When did the Eternal Night Demon Lord have such a good psychological quality?

Why didn't you know in ancient times? Life and death are almost under his control, and leisurely despise yourself? Despise your sister.

What made him even more puzzled was that Qin Chen didn't have the slightest surprise in his eyes.

I guess this kid is scared, right?

The thoughts in his mind turned, Chi Yan Demon Lord had no time to think too much, sigh, like a meteor, instantly submerged into Qin Chen's body.

Hum!

A terrible soul shock, madly invaded Qin Chen's soul, the speed was astonishing.

"Quack, perfect body, here I am."

Demon Lord Chiyan came to the sky above Qin Chen's soul instantly, laughed out loud, and was about to rush into Qin Chen's soul sea.

Hum!

At this moment, a terrifying force suddenly spread, but Hou Chiyan Demon Lord saw Qin Chen's brain above the sea, a golden seed appeared, and instantly protected Qin Chen's soul sea, that terrifying power, like a big mountain, stopped the Chiyan Demon in an instant.

This...this...this...

Demon Chiyan was completely frightened for a moment.

I go!

Is this a golden parasitic seed?

At this time, Demon Chiyan finally understood why Yongye Demon and Qin Chen didn't panic at all on their faces, Nima, there was a golden parasitic seed in his mind, and he was worried about it?

This is a sacred object from the Chaos Demon's Nest, let alone a small middle-ranked demon.

Even if the demon master comes, don't even think about taking away someone with a golden parasitic seed.

He didn't come up in a breath, the Chiyan Demon was so angry that he almost vomited blood. He thought he had found a perfect body. Who knows, this is a body that cannot be taken away.

At this moment, Chiyan Demon was extremely depressed, almost not going crazy.

boom!

The golden parasitic seed resisted the soul impact of Demon Chiyan, from which a terrible force was born, and it shocked towards Demon Chiyan.

Chiyan Demon Lord yelled badly, turned around and ran.

Don't you run to stay for lunch?

What's more, the parasitic seeds can not only resist the outside world, but also cause huge damage to the invaders.

Seeing Lord Chiyan wanting to run, Qin Chen sneered: "Since I'm here, why should I go in such a hurry? Stay here and chat!"

Hum!

A powerful soul power instantly turned into dense soul charms, and then formed a defensive shield, which suddenly stopped in front of the Chiyan Demon Lord.

Chiyan Demon Lord roared: "Smelly boy, don't think it is great to have a parasitic seed. No matter how strong you are, you will only be a dog of my alien demon by then. Give me a break."

A black stream of light burst out from the soul of Demon Chi Yan, trying to blast through Qin Chen's soul defense.

In his opinion, Qin Chen is no more than a seventh-tier mid-level peak martial king, even if his physical body is strong, his soul power is definitely not good.

Besides, the soul of the human race warrior is weaker than the alien demon race, and it was destroyed in minutes?

It's like using soul power to defend him, isn't this funny?

Amidst the quacking laughter, Demon Chiyan bumped into Qin Chen's soul defense.

With a bang, Red Flame Demon Lord felt like he had hit a big mountain, he was dizzy for a moment, and his eyes stared at Venus.

Suddenly completely dumbfounded.

how can that be?

If the Chiyan Demon had a body, his eyes would definitely stare into duck eggs, and the shock for tens of thousands of years had not been more than today.

"Qinglian Demon Fire!"

boom!

Qin Chen smiled coldly, but was too lazy to care about the thoughts in Monarch Chi Yan's heart, the terrifying blue flame burst out in his mind, and immediately enveloped Demon Chi Yan.

At this time, Red Flame Demon Lord did not dare to underestimate Qin Chen, the blue flames filled him, making him feel extremely palpitations, a black light filled his body, forming a firm soul defense.

Chi Chi Chi Chi! But this soul defense was constantly shattered under the burning of Qinglian Demon Fire.

Chapter 1078: Soul dies

Red Flame Demon Lord panicked completely. He had never thought that he would be so embarrassed by a human race kid.

The parasitic seed released a terrifying aura, constantly shaking his soul body, and the terrible Qinglian demon fire was also constantly burning his soul. He had a feeling that if this continues, he is a magnificent alien middle-level demon. Jun, it's really possible to die here.

The key is that Qin Chen's soul defense also firmly blocked his way.

Is there any reason?

Is this kid really just a human martial king at the peak of the seventh-tier mid-term?

Demon Lord Chiyan was about to vomit blood in depression. You know, he is the middle demon Lord among the alien demon race. Although there is only one remnant soul left, he is also a strong man who has crossed the ancient times.

Not to mention a small human martial king, even if a human martial emperor comes, he can suppress it.

But now he was actually trapped by a human martial king, which was a huge blow to his confidence.

On the side, Moli was also shocked and his scalp was tingling.

He knew how powerful Chiyan Demon Lord was. Killing King Wu was just like cutting melons and vegetables, with no effort at all.

If it was him, even if Chiyan Demon Lord couldn't take him away, it would hurt his soul, but it was not difficult.

Not only that, the strength is also extremely terrifying, comparable to the eighth-order Wuhuang.

In this way, isn't Qin Chen's strength comparable to the eighth-order Martial Emperor?

I was not afraid of not knowing the goods, I was afraid of comparing goods. I thought I could be called the world's arrogant, the top genius in the mainland, but now compared with Qin Chen, it is simply too much difference. It is not an exaggeration to say that he is rubbish.

"The soul is dead!"

Feeling that his soul power was constantly being consumed, Chiyan Demon Lord couldn't help it anymore. With a bang, his soul power suddenly burned, and an aura that seemed to be able to shock the eternity suddenly diffused.

This is desperate.

I have to say that once the soul of Red Flame Demon Lord burned, the aura was too terrifying, even Qin Chen felt heart palpitations, and his mind sank inexplicably.

After all, no matter how you put it, the Chiyan Demon Lord is also the middle demon Lord of the alien demon race. In ancient times, the nine-day martial emperor who beheaded was no longer a minority.

With a bang, Red Flame Demon Sovereign suffered serious injuries, directly shook the Qinglian Demon Fire, and then shuffled through Qin Chen's soul defense, like a tortoise, and with a swish, he retracted into the jade bottle.

But he wanted to run. Outside, the Skeleton Rudder Master had been waiting.

"dead!"

The long bone whip is like a circle of chains, imprisoning the void, immediately entangled the jade bottle, and locked in the void.

"Yong Ye, you bastard, I'm never finished with you."

The Red Flame Demon screamed frantically in the jade bottle, and black avenue runes appeared on the jade bottle. Under the shock, they broke through the blockade of the white bone whip.

But the aura of the jade bottle immediately weakened, and it was obvious that the use of this trick consumed a lot of soul aura of the Chiyan Demon Lord.

"Zhen Moding, go!"

Yu Ping had just escaped, and Qin Chen, who had recovered, had once again urged Zhen Mo Cao to smash it down.

This consumption was too severe, Qin Chen almost emptied the true essence in Qin Chen's body, his face turned pale, and he almost couldn't stand steady.

However, his eyes were ferocious, and he had already sacrificed his life in order to kill the Chiyan Demon Lord.

Seeing that the magic pot of Zhenzhen was about to hit the jade bottle, in the jade bottle, a black magic energy was spit out again, and this magic energy instantly turned into a black shield. On the shield, there were many weird and evil road signs. The text was intertwined, and instantly stopped in front of the Zhenma Ding.

With a chuckle, the black shield looked terrifying, and it was smashed by the Demon Cauldron, and it broke to pieces, and then after another shock, it blasted into ashes and disappeared.

After the black breath was ejected, the gloss on the jade bottle dimmed a bit again, and it seemed a little shaky.

But he stubbornly came to Mo Li's side, wrapped him in an instant, and then exhausted the last strength, shocked, and with a boom, the void was shaken by a gap, and the jade bottle wrapped Mo Li and rushed into the gap.

"You wait, I will come back, Red Flame Demon Lord."

An angry roar sounded, and the black jade bottle disappeared instantly with the magic power.

boom! boom!

At the moment when the jade bottle disappeared, Qin Chen and Skeleton Rudder's attacks arrived at the same time, but they were completely empty.

"Damn it."

Qin Chen's face was ugly.

Unexpectedly, the battle became like this, but in the end he was actually escaped by the Red Flame Demon Lord.

But at the last moment, Red Flame Demon Lord directly opened the space channel, even if Qin Chen wanted to stay, there was no way.

"That jade bottle is a treasure of space, and the subordinates can't keep it."

The Skeleton Rudder Master was also extremely depressed.

If the Chiyan Demon Lord can be left behind and swallowed by him, his soul power can definitely be more than doubled.

"chase!"

Qin Chen and Skeleton Rudder didn't give up. The last strength of the other party was only a little bit. Even if they moved the void, they would definitely not be far away, they would definitely be nearby.

Just as Qin Chen had expected, the jade bottle flickered, only bringing the magic power hundreds of miles away before reappearing in the forest.

"Shock again."

Regardless of the pause, Yu Ping roared with a demon, then broke through the void again and disappeared.

After a few times.

The breath of the jade bottle was already extremely weak, but it was also far away from the previous fight.

"No way, this Demon Lord consumes too much power and must immediately fall asleep." After moving several times in a row, Chiyan Demon Lord said out of breath.

The aura on his body is extremely weak, where is the coolness of the alien demon king?

"Then what should I do?"

The devil was in a hurry. At this moment, he had been suppressed by Qin Chen completely without self-confidence, like a helpless child.

"Pig brain, do you need to ask? Of course I left right away. The farther you go, the better, damn, what a land of hundreds of dynasties, it's horrible."

The Chiyan Demon was almost crying, it was too horrible outside, and it was not as safe as the heavenly demon secret realm.

"Remember, this devil will have to rest for at least one year before he can regain some strength. Within one year, you should not contact the devil."

After saying this, the jade bottle was completely dimmed and turned into an extremely ordinary bottle, and the aura of the Chiyan Demon also completely disappeared.

Putting away the jade bottle, Mo Li did not dare to neglect, and hurriedly flew towards the land of Hundred Chaos, disappearing into the sky in the blink of an eye.

Near the cave thousands of miles away, Qin Chen and the Skull Rudder Master searched for a long time, but in the end they could not find the trace of the Red Flame Demon Lord, and could only return to the cave.

"Damn it, let these two guys run away."

Qin Chen was worried. What he worried most was the ability of the Chiyan Demon to kill humans, absorb human essence and blood, and rob the human body at will with the alien demons. Once mixed into humans, it is almost difficult to be discovered.

"The master doesn't have to worry too much. After displaying the soul dying, this Red Flame Demon Lord will have to sleep for more than one or two years. By that time, with the strength of the master, he can completely suppress it." Although the master skeleton rudder was depressed, Still relieved.

Chapter 1079: Misty Palace

Qin Chen nodded, it's all like this now, it can only be so.

to be frank.

Before the Red Flame Demon wanted to escape, he really couldn't help it. After all, his soul power was too weak. If he is now an eighth-order martial emperor, he will definitely be able to leave the Red Flame Demon behind.

In the final analysis, his cultivation is too low and his soul power is not strong enough.

"It's still too weak, and we have to regain strength as soon as possible."

The more strength he recovered, the more Qin Chen felt that he was not strong enough.

However, there are some things that cannot be rushed, and must be done slowly, and the most important thing now is the trace of the leader of the Blood Demon Sect.

According to the Lord Skull Rudder, the leader of the Blood Demon Sect, the Devouring Demon Lord is a high-ranking Demon Lord. Once this person regains his strength, it will be a disaster for the entire world.

However, now the cave is hollow, nothing is left in the coffin, and there is no devilish energy left in it. From this point of view, the Red Flame Demon Lord may not say nonsense that the leader of the Blood Demon Sect may not have taken him away. .

Even, it didn't disappear recently, otherwise the Heaven Swallowing Demon Lord had recuperated in this magic coffin for thousands of years, and it would be impossible for him to not even have any devilish energy left.

"Ok?"

Suddenly, Qin Chen seemed to see something, his eyes condensed, and he came to the cover of the coffin, his eyes flickering.

"Master, what did you find?" Skeleton Rudder was puzzled.

"Mission Palace!"

Qin Chen suddenly said three words coldly.

"Mission Palace? What do you mean, master, do you mean that the Devouring Devil was taken away by the people of Misty Palace?" Skull Rudder opened his eyes wide.

He has also heard about the Misty Palace. The rumor is that a terrorist force has risen on the mainland in the past three hundred years. It is one of the most powerful forces in the entire continent. But, how can this Misty Palace be related to Lord Master?

"It can't be wrong, it's Misty Palace."

Qin Chen looked at the magic coffin for a long time, and his whole person stood up suddenly, his eyes were cold, and said coldly: "When you came here more than two hundred years ago, this magic coffin should have been covered."

The Skeleton Rudder nodded.

This is normal.

When their alien demons are in retreat, they will definitely close the magic coffin to prevent being disturbed. Otherwise, being disturbed in the retreat will definitely affect their recovery.

"That's right, once this kind of magic coffin is closed, unless the person inside wakes up and opens it actively, it is generally difficult to break it." Qin Chen squinted his eyes.

The Skeleton Rudder was surprised.

Indeed, the magic coffin is their place to live after all. Under normal circumstances, it will definitely be unbreakable. It can be said that once his magic coffin is closed, at least a powerful person at the Martial Emperor level will be required. Externally open.

As for the master leader's magic coffin, it is even more terrifying. Even the Martial Emperor of the eighth peak, it is difficult to open the master leader's magic coffin.

But now the magic coffin is opened, there are only two possibilities.

One is that the leader himself wakes up and opened the magic coffin. This is not a big possibility. After all, if the leader is really awakened, it is impossible not to contact him.

The second possibility is to be forcibly opened by someone outside.

The Skeleton Rudder master suddenly took a breath of air-conditioning, and said in amazement:

"Master, do you mean that the master leader's magic coffin was forcibly opened by the people of Misty Palace?"

Qin Chen looked gloomy, just nodded, without explaining too much.

Because he saw the traces of the blocked hand on the magic coffin.

The Forbidden Hand is a powerful technique he controlled in his previous life, specializing in cracking all kinds of organ techniques. The reason why he was able to break into the most terrifying forbidden land in the mainland, this technique also played a huge role. effect.

In addition to him, Shangguan Xier and Feng Shaoyu also knew this technique in the world today.

"According to the traces of the hand of forbidden, the time when this magic coffin was opened, it was almost a hundred years ago. The people of Misty Palace, in order to come here for thousands of miles, opened this magic coffin? Is it because of the alien demon? If it is because of this, how did they know that there are strong aliens here?"

Qin Chen couldn't understand.

After all, Misty Palace and this place of a hundred dynasties are simply too far apart, it is almost impossible to connect the two together.

"do not care."

Qin Chen shook his head. Since he doesn't understand, he doesn't need to think about it. At least he already knows that the leader of the blood demon sect was not here as early as a hundred years ago, and the leader of the blood demon sect has not been contacted for a century. Skeleton rudder master, obviously the opponent is no longer in the land of a hundred dynasties.

Qin Chen's biggest worry was gone.

Three days later, Qin Chen returned to Chaotian City again.

Seeing Qin Chen safe and sound, everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

In order to prevent any accident in the Chendi Pavilion, Qin Chen went to the Medicine King Garden again before heading to the Northern Heaven Region.

"Congratulations to the Master of Medicine King Garden for restoring Emperor Wu's cultivation." As soon as he entered, Qin Chen said with a smile.

"The old man knows that this little thing can't hide you from Xiao Chen."

The owner of the Medicine King Garden was radiant and full of breath, and said with a smile.

Compared with Qin Chen and the others before entering the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, the owner of the Medicine King Garden at this moment added a thicker breath, which made people feel unfathomable.

After receiving the soul-refining technique given by Qin Chen, the Master of Medicine King has been cultivating frantically in the past few months. For more than 50 years, the soul damage that cannot be cured is repaired by this soul-refining technique. , Slowly healed.

Finally, a few days ago, he completely recovered.

Once the soul is healed, the cultivation base that the owner of the Medicine King Garden has fallen will naturally recover again, returning to the eighth-order Martial Emperor realm.

"It seems that the owner of the Medicine King Garden was not only an eighth-order martial emperor, but I am afraid that he was not ordinary in the eighth-order martial emperor. Moreover, depending on the aura of the owner of the garden owner, it is condensed and not sent. With such an imposing manner, if you want to come to Medicine King Garden Master, should he come from somewhere else?"

The two exchanged greetings for a while, and the owner of the Medicine King quickly offered tea. The two parties tasted and talked, Qin Chen immediately said with a smile.

"Oh? Where does Shao Chen think I am from?"

The Master of Medicine King said with a smile.

To Qin Chen, the owner of the Medicine King had already admired him greatly, and he did not dare to treat him as an ordinary person.

"If Shao Ben is right, the owner of the Medicine King Garden should come from the Martial Domain." Qin Chen smiled and squinted his eyes. "Moreover, the person who injured the Lord Garden owner back then is probably a disciple of Misty Palace. ."

what?

The owner of the Medicine King Garden suddenly stood up in fright, an aura of horror filled his body instantly, and he looked at Qin Chen in shock.

The news that she was seriously injured by the people in the Misty Palace has always been the deepest secret in her heart. Now that Qin Chen has revealed it, how can we not be shocked?

The Misty Palace, the highest in the mainland, once the news spreads, let alone her recovery of less than one-tenth of the cultivation base in her heyday, even if all her cultivation bases are restored, she still cannot be the opponent of Misty Palace. In an instant, the master of Medicine King Garden instinctively released a killing intent.

Chapter 1080: Wuyu Triple Heaven

"My lord, why should he be so alarmed? If this young man is the enemy, how can he be outspoken?"

Qin Chen didn't care, said with a light smile, gently picked up a cup of tea, and drank it all in one go.

The Master of Medicine King Garden was taken aback, and then he realized that the one in front of her now, but Qin Chen, if Qin Chen is hostile to her, how could he say this, let alone teach her the soul-refining technique to restore her. Strength.

The killing intent on her body was reduced, and the Master of Medicine King sat down again, but her heart was not as calm as her expression, staring at Qin Chen and said, "I don't know why Young Chen said this?" Qin Chen smiled: "When the Lord Zhuo took me to meet the Lord Garden Master for the first time, he mentioned the branch of the Misty Palace of the Northern Sky Territory. As a result, there was a trace of killing intent in the Lord Garden Lord's eyes. Although it passed away in a flash, it was still Ben Shao saw it, so Ben Shao made such a guess. I didn't expect to give it a try.

Correct. "

In fact, Qin Chen was not sure, just guessing.

"what?"

The owner of the Medicine King Garden was even more shocked, Qin Chen actually saw this?

I'm good, this is too abnormal, right?

When I saw Qin Chen for the first time, I heard Zhuo Qingfeng mention offending Misty Palace, she did reveal a trace of killing intent, but this trace of killing intent was extremely subtle, even she herself did not care too much, if not When Qin Chen mentioned it, she wouldn't even think of it.

But who would have thought that Qin Chen would have caught it.

You must know that when Qin Chen came to the Medicine King Garden for the first time, his cultivation was only Tier 6, and a martial master was keenly aware that she could hide the killing intent of the former eighth-order martial emperor. What eyesight?

The owner of the Medicine King didn't realize that he was not hiding well. After all, in addition to Qin Chen, Zhuo Qingfeng also followed, and Zhuo Qingfeng was the seventh-order martial king, but Zhuo Qingfeng did not see it, but Qin Chen did. .

How can this not explain the problem?

"I don't know which power of the Third Heaven in the Martial Domain, Master Yuan, why would he offend Misty Palace again?" Qin Chen asked, squinting.

Three hundred years later, his understanding of Wuyu still remained three hundred years ago, and he was eager to know some news about Wuyu.

The owner of the Medicine King looked at Qin Chen again in shock.

Isn't this Qin Chen a disciple from the land of a hundred dynasties? Even Wu Yu Sanzhongtian knows it? You must know that the land of Hundred Dynasties is extremely remote, it is impossible to know anything about the situation in the Martial Domain, otherwise she would not hide here.

Not to mention the land of a hundred dynasties, even if it is the Northern Heaven Territory, many imperial-level forces only know that the Martial Region is the supreme land of the mainland, but they don't know that the Martial Region actually has three heavens, one layer and one world.

"In fact, the owner of the garden does not have to worry so much. Before this young master and Misty Palace, they actually have some connections."

Qin Chen squinted his eyes and said, speaking of Yuanyuan, his tone suddenly became heavier, and a chill flickered.

The bitter chill made the owner of the Medicine King cold all over, and there was a feeling that she couldn't look at it, as if she saw a superior person who made her look up, and felt shocked from the bottom of her heart.

She looked at Qin Chen in amazement, how could it be possible? No matter how strong Qin Chen is, but at the peak of the seventh-tier mid-term, how could she be afraid of the eighth-tier Martial Emperor.

What's more, she is not an ordinary Martial Emperor. If it were in its heyday, there might not be a few people in the entire Northern Heaven Region who could be her opponent.

The owner of the Medicine King Garden hesitated a few times, but in the end, he still did not tell his origins, and said, "I'm so sorry. The origin of the old body is very complicated. It is related to the survival of the old body sect. Forgive me, but the old body is indeed from Wuyu First Heaven."

"Since the owner of the host does not want to say it, I will not force it."

Qin Chen didn't particularly care about the origin of the Master of Medicine King Garden. What he wanted to know more was the situation in Wu Yu.

In this regard, the owner of the Medicine King Park knew everything and informed Qin Chen of Wu Yu's current situation.

In the past three hundred years, the Martial Domain has changed a lot, but the top powers are still the same as Qin Chen's previous life. The only difference is that the Misty Palace has suddenly emerged and become one of the most powerful forces in the Martial Domain.

And over the years, it has become more and more terrifying, and its power has expanded to all parts of the mainland, even the Pill Pavilion and the Holy Land of Bloodlines, are firmly crushed by the Misty Palace.

At the same time, the Xuanyuan Empire also expanded rapidly, becoming the most powerful empire in Wuyu, not one of them.

This made Qin Chen's eyes cold. Unexpectedly, after three hundred years, Misty Palace and Xuanyuan Empire were so powerful that even Pill Pavilion and Bloodline Holy Land were suppressed. This shocked Qin Chen and at the same time became more angry. .

After that, Qin Chen asked many more questions.

For a few of them, the owner of the Medicine King provided answers, but she didn't even know the rest.

After all, the power she was originally in was just an ordinary power in the First Heaven of Martial Domain, and she didn't know much about the top things in Martial Domain.

The question Qin Chen asked, on the contrary, shocked the owner of the Medicine King Garden.

Is this Qin Chen really a genius in the land of a hundred dynasties? Some questions, even the Saint Child of the top power in the Martial Domain Triple Heaven, might not be able to ask, right?

In the end, before leaving, Qin Chen once again gave the Master of Medicine King a soul refining technique.

It was several times stronger than what he had given.

"I believe that this soul-refining technique will surely restore the master's cultivation level in a short time."

Qin Chen could see that the Martial Emperor in the early stage of the eighth stage was just the starting point for the Master of Medicine King Garden, and her true strength was definitely not the case.

But think about it, although the power of the Lord of the Medicine King is only in the lowest martial domain, there is no ordinary force that can stand in the martial domain. It is definitely the most powerful when placed in a place like the northern sky domain. The top university teachers are even worse.

Of course, before leaving, Qin Chen did not forget to let the Master of Medicine King Garden help guard the Chendi Pavilion.

The owner of the Medicine King naturally agreed.

After being guarded by the owner of the Medicine King, Qin Chen naturally completely let go of the Land of Hundred Dynasties.

After half a month, Qin Chen, who had dealt with all the affairs, left the Land of Hundred Chaos with Zhuo Qingfeng and others, and headed to the headquarters of the Northern Heavenly Pill Pavilion.

In order to hurry, Qin Chen even went deep into the mountains and surrendered a seventh-order dragon sculpture.

This dragon sculpture is only at the peak of the middle stage of the seventh stage, but when it comes to long-distance travel, the effect is absolutely leveraged, and it is not slower than the general king of the late stage of the seventh stage. The most important thing is to last. Speed flying.

In just two days, the group went out of a hundred dynasties.

It's just that the Tianwu Continent is too big, and the land of a hundred dynasties is too remote.

At this speed, it is estimated that Qin Chen and the others will be able to rush to the nearest imperial power in three months.

But getting there is much more convenient. Between the imperial-level forces, they all have a teleportation formation, and Qin Chen and the others can use the teleportation formation between the imperial-level forces to go to the headquarters of the Northern Heavenly Pill Pavilion. Otherwise, just rely on flying, I am afraid it will not fly in a few years.
