Chapter 18 Mysterious Ancient Books

Seeing the last trace of innocence will be exhausted.

"No, you can't stop, you must not stop."

"For me, for my mother, to retaliate in the Martial Domain, and to avenge the pair of dog men and women, how could I, Qin Chen, fall in this place."

"broken!"

"Break it for me!"

"Battered..."

Qin Chen roared silently in his heart, and his strong will was like a stormy sea.

Hope is right in front of us, and we must build the pulse of success!

Qin Chen tried his best to mobilize all his mind and energy, and rushed towards the last moment of the twelfth meridian along with that trace of true energy.

"boom!"

As if there was a thunderbolt on the sunny day, a deafening sound instantly resonated in Qin Chen's mind. The rumbling sound made him almost fainted, and his entire mind was buzzing.

If it weren't for the Tianmai Shenzheng who guarded the Tianmen and the heart acupuncture point, he would definitely lose his mind and be shocked into an idiot with this blow.

After the violent roar, a cold feeling passed from Qin Chen's body, the original sharp pain gradually disappeared, and a tingling sensation followed.

Puff puff puff puff...

The eighteen heavenly pulse needles that pierced Qin Chen's body finally consumed the last trace of strength, turned into powder, and drifted outward.

"Haha, succeeded, I finally got through the twelve meridians."

When the moment of success arrives, Qin Chen's heart is excited, no one can understand.

The previous life fell to the Martial Domain, and this life made a comeback.

He has suffered too much!

If he can't successfully open up the twelve meridians, he will not be able to surpass his previous life and return to the peak in his life.

And now, he finally succeeded.

It even reached a height that was never reached in a previous life.

In his previous life, he had just opened up 11 meridians before breaking through the human level.

In this life, because of the Nine Star God Emperor Jue, he saw the hope of opening up the twelve meridians.

And this hope is finally realized now.

Between great sorrow and joy, Qin Chen fluttered all over and wanted to fall asleep here.

But he knew that he could never sleep.

The iron must be hit while it is hot to condense the true energy.

Even a seriously injured body can only find a way to recover later.

"The Nine Stars Divine Emperor Art is the most mysterious technique I have obtained from the forbidden land. Let me see what is the mystery of this technique."

Qin Chen resisted the drowsiness and ran the mental formula in the Nine Star God Emperor Jue.

With this movement, a cool feeling spread across his body in an instant, and the whole person was suddenly excited.

The original groggy meaning disappeared in a magical moment.

In the entire training room, a large amount of heaven and earth vitality seemed to be drawn by invisible force and penetrated into every pore of his body.

The pores of the meridians that had already dried up in true qi are like a long drought and rain, greedily absorbing the vitality of the surrounding heaven and earth.

In just a moment of effort, a trace of real air flow appeared in Qin Chen's meridians.

"The fast condensing speed of True Qi is more than twice as fast as the Heavenly Grade Cultivation Technique I practiced in my previous life, and the twelve meridians are absorbed at the same time. This speed is simply against the sky."

Qin Chen was taken aback.

It deserves to be the nine-star divine emperor art obtained from the forbidden land. The speed at which the true energy condenses is higher than all the techniques he has seen in his previous life.

For a time, a large amount of heaven and earth vitality rushed into his body.

time flies.

The true energy in Qin Chen's body continued to condense.

The original pain slowly disappeared. I don't know how long it took before Qin Chen felt that he was instantly trapped in a profound and profound realm, and his mind was empty.

Then, he saw an ancient book floating in his mind.

"Didn't I get this ancient book from God's Forbidden Land? How could it..."

In the place where God was forbidden, Qin Chen obtained a mysterious ancient book with no words in addition to the technique of Nine Star God Emperor Jue.

After returning, he racked his brains and failed to study the origin and function of this mysterious ancient book, so he put it in the storage bracelet.

Unexpectedly, this mysterious ancient book came with him three hundred years later, and entered his mind.

"I can be reborn in three hundred years, maybe it is related to this mysterious ancient book."

Qin Chen was curious, and aroused his true energy. He wanted to touch the mysterious ancient book and try to see if he could arouse the mysterious ancient book.

Suddenly, there was a loud "bang" in his mind, Qin Chen's eardrums kept shaking, and a terrifying force poured out from the ancient books, like a raging flood, rushing along the thick meridians, Qin The true energy that the dust finally condensed was instantly dissipated.

Qin Chen found in horror that this power was completely out of control, and he quickly withdrew his thoughts back, and that power instantly disappeared without a trace, as if it had never appeared before.

"what happened?"

Qin Chen opened his eyes and woke up from that ethereal state.

The blood scabs on his body fell, and Qin Chen was shocked to find that the serious injury he had suffered had healed.

The whole person is like a reborn, crystal clear, white as jade, like a newborn baby.

Even the painful meridians in the body are smooth and plump, returning to the peak shape.

"What is the origin of this ancient book? Why just release this power to instantly heal my severely injured body, even if it is the holy medicine for healing, it may not be able to achieve this, right?"

The ancient book is quietly floating in his mind, motionless, but it makes people feel mysterious and unpredictable.

Moreover, Qin Chen had a kind of doubt. The previous power was very peculiar, and it seemed to be somewhat similar to the power of blood from a deep level.

"The origin of the ancient book will be figured out later."

Qin Chen cast aside his thoughts and fell into practice again.

The absorption speed of the Nine Star God Emperor Jue was indeed amazing, and a large amount of heaven and earth vitality poured into his body at all times.

Gradually, the Zhen Qi in the first meridian was filled.

The true qi in the second meridian is also slowly filling.

Followed by the third article.

Article 4...

After three full days, the true energy in Qin Chen's twelve meridians was finally filled again. The surging true energy was like an angry dragon, roaring and flowing in the spacious and strong meridians, full of power.

The infuriating energy that is far more than the average number of people, such as the surging river, surging, ordinary warriors have long known what to do with this situation.

However, Qin Chen, who was an eighth-order martial emperor in his previous life, was able to control with ease and ease.

"True Qi is full, and then, it will condense the Qi pool again and hit the human level."

Only when he reaches the human level again can his practice be considered complete this time.

Break and stand!

The break has been completed, and the stand must also be completed.

Under Qin Chen's powerful control ability, the true energy in the twelve meridians slowly flowed.

At the beginning, this kind of flow seemed soft and soothing, just like a large meandering river, but as Qin Chen continued to urge, Zhen Qi began to surging restlessly, and finally turned into a rushing river. With howling, rolling up the waves, they continue to gather in Qin Chen's Dantian.
