

Valkyrie Domination

Chapter 19

That crazy and mighty innocent energy, roaring and roaring, gathered in Qin Chen's dantian and turned into a turbulent vortex.

This kind of time is the most careful moment for the martial artist, because once the zhenqi is out of control, the terrible zhenqi will tear its own meridians and destroy the fragile dantian.

Especially the true Qi in Qin Chen's body, both in quantity and quality, is several times higher than that of a normal martial artist, and the horror vortex formed is even stronger and terrifying.

But Qin Chen didn't have the slightest worry on his face.

His ability to control Zhen Qi is too strong, so he doesn't need to do anything deliberately, he just needs to constantly push the Zhen Qi to the extreme, letting them rush and rush like a flood that bursts a bank, and then have rich experience in previous lives. , He would instinctively use his body to control all of this, allowing them to gather at the rhythm Qin Chen wanted.

After a while, a Qi pool formed in Qin Chen's body.

This qi pool was the size of a duck egg, which was several times larger than the qi pool the size of a pigeon egg before Qin Chen.

It is also stronger and fuller.

But Qin Chen didn't stop. He urged the surging zhenqi forcefully, and the fragile qi pool that had just formed, burst instantly and melted into nothing.

Qin Chen didn't worry at all, condensing his true energy again, causing him to gather in his dantian frantically, forming a Qi pool again.

This qi pool was a circle bigger than the previous qi pool the size of a duck egg, and it was even more impressive.

however.

Qin Chen still crushed it again.

After doing this seven or eight times, a fist-sized qi pool finally condensed in Qin Chen's Dantian.

But this time, no matter how Qin Chen used the zhenqi shock, he was satisfied after the qi pool remained still, and began to slowly strengthen the qi pool itself with zhenqi.

The Qi pool far beyond ordinary people slowly stabilized, and every time it turned, it brought up an astonishing true Qi that quickly spread to every meridian of Qin Chen's body.

No matter how powerful the warrior sees this scene, I am afraid I have to admit that this is an almost perfect Qi pool, with amazing endurance, terrifying explosive power, and powerful capacity, which is completely comparable to an earth-level warrior. .

But what is unbelievable is that the person who formed this Qi pool turned out to be just a warrior in the early human level...

At this stage, only Qin Chen can do this.

Because of the normal martial artist's ability to control true Qi to reach this point, it must be after the seventh-order martial artist, before he can have Qin Chen's current control method that is almost cheating.

After spending another day, Qin Chen broke his cultivation base to the mid-human level, and then stopped his cultivation.

In just a few days and nights of hard cultivation, although Qin Chen's cultivation base was only promoted from the early stage of the human level to the middle stage of the human level, only a short level, he has become completely different from himself a few days ago.

It's no exaggeration to say that you are reborn.

"Boom!"

The door of the practice room opened, and Qin Chen walked out with envy from everyone.

"Lin Tian and Zhang Ying should have left. The effect of this training room is good, but the price is too expensive."

Looking at the dozens of silver coins he had, Qin Chen smiled bitterly.

The price of the training room was one hundred silver coins a day, and within a few days, the hundreds of silver coins accumulated in his body would be completely consumed.

Walking out of the training tower, the sun is shining and the fresh air is refreshing.

Qin Chen frowned and turned to look aside.

A young man standing at the door saw Qin Chen, his eyes flashed with gloom, and he turned to leave.

Qin Chen flickered and stopped in front of him.

A panic flashed in the boy's eyes: "What do you want to do? Why are you blocking my way."

"It should be me who should ask this? Who are you and why are you staring at me?"
Qin Chen squinted his eyes.

"Huh, who is staring at you?"

"Don't tell me?" Qin Chen was too lazy to talk nonsense, grabbed his neck and picked him up like a chicken.

"You...you...let go of me!"

The young man firmly grasped Qin Chen's wrist with both hands, trying to break it, but Qin Chen's right hand was like an iron hoop, no matter how hard he tried, he couldn't move.

Soon, the boy's face was flushed, and he howled in pain like a drake, his body struggled violently.

"Let's talk!" Qin Chen said coldly.

"I...I don't know...what are you talking about." The boy was still resisting himself.

Qin Chen's increased strength and terrifying wrist force firmly clamped the opponent's throat, causing the chest cavity to shrink violently because of the lack of air.

The cold eyes made the young man's heart chill.

"I...I said, I said..." The boy finally surrendered.

boom!

Qin Chen released his hand and threw the opponent to the ground, looking at him coldly.

"It was Young Master Wei Zhen who asked me to stare at you. He found Lin Tian and Zhang Ying and knew that you were cultivating the tower, so he asked me to guard the tower. As soon as he saw you come out, he would notify him..." He fell to the ground, breathing heavily, watching Qin Chen's eyes full of fear.

He dared to guarantee that if he didn't say it just now, he might be choked to death by Qin Chen alive.

"It's him again." Qin Chen's eyes were cold: "Where are Lin Tian and Zhang Yingren? Are they all right!"

"I don't know, they were taken away by Master Wei Zhen."

"What!" Qin Chenhan said: "Where is Wei Zhenren now?"

"In his own courtyard, I don't know anything, I just stare at you."

"Take me over now!" Qin Chen's eyes were cold, and his tone was colder than ever.

It seems that the lesson I taught the guy the other day wasn't enough. Only two days later, this guy came back and took Lin Tian and Zhang Ying away.

"I don't know how the two of them are now?" Qin Chen felt a trace of worry in his heart.

Under the leadership of the teenager, Qin Chen came all the way to the door of Wei Zhen's dormitory.

The boy pointed to the front courtyard and said.

In addition to the multi-person dormitories prepared for civilians, Tianxing Academy also has some extremely high-end individual dormitories. These dormitories are like villas and even have their own gardens. They are very private and are prepared for the powerful children of the capital. of.

When Qin Chen looked up, the teenager who led the way took advantage of Qin Chen's carelessness, suddenly jumped up like a rabbit, rushed into the garden, and yelled: "Brother Zhen , The kid is here, he is here."
