"Kid Qin Mo, do you feel anything?" The * cat looked at Mo Qin. Qin Mo's right hand touched Qin Chen's body, and immediately, invisible soul power lingered out of Qin Mo's body, trying to enter Qin Chen's body, but Qin Mo was shocked that that trace of invisible soul power was entering Qin Chen's body

, As if blocked by a special force, it was impossible to enter.

How is this possible?

Qin Mo was taken aback. Even though he and Qin Chen were two separate individuals, they were actually one soul. The souls could fuse together in an instant, but now, the souls he had separated could not fuse.

wrong! Qin Mo suddenly shook his head. He felt that it was not that the two separated souls could not fuse, but that the speed of fusion was too slow. Qin Mo could feel the two souls merge slowly, but the speed was extremely slow, so Just give people a feeling

I feel like it cannot be integrated.

At this rate, it would take at least a few years for him to merge the two souls together. However, the speed of Qin Chen's soul's weakness is even faster than the speed of fusion. That is to say, even if Qin Mo keeps fusing, within a month, Qin Chen's soul will dissipate and turn into nothingness. Fall in sense

Qin Mo said his feelings to the * cat, and the * cat's brows wrinkled, "Is it a soul mutation?"

Everyone looked over, with doubts.

"Soul mutation is a special state of the soul. After the warrior is severely injured, the soul will fall into a state of self-protection. The soul will not wake up until the injury is recovered."

"But Chen Shao's injury has been completely cured!" "This is the special nature of soul mutation. Many times, after the soul of the warrior falls asleep, the injury will recover. According to the truth, the soul will wake up, but because the injury was too serious. , Causing the soul to fall into a special situation,

If you don't want to wake up, you will become weaker and weaker until you completely lose your will. "

"Soul mutation, can Young Dust still wake up?"

You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue held Qin Chen's left and right hands, and tears flowed down.

"Of course, this is just my guess." The * cat shook his head and said: "The soul is a very mysterious place. The emperor's cultivation base has not recovered now, and it is difficult to say what the situation is."

"Mao Sovereign, you tell us how much chances there is to wake up with less dust." You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue looked up. The * cat smiled bitterly: "I don't know this, but there is one thing that Qin Chen fell into a coma obviously because of some special reasons. It should be that the soul has encountered some kind of impact and change. It may be the soul of a strong man in the heavens. Attacks are also possible

It could be the mysterious rust sword, or even Qin Chen himself had an accident when he performed the soul attack. As for the specific reason, I am afraid it is difficult to say clearly, but it is certain that the survival rate of soul mutation is not high. "

The * cat sighed.

You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue turned pale, their survival rates are not high?

No, it's impossible!

It is impossible to die with less dust.

Although Qin Mo is also Qin Chen, what they are familiar with is Qin Chen's body, and naturally they don't want Qin Chen to fall away.

"Senior Cat Sovereign, what is the survival rate of Shaochen?" You Qianxue's eyes were red, and her eyes looked up resolutely. "There are very few people with soul mutations, and it is usually the holy realm master who has practiced some sort of soul secret method, which will lead to soul mutation." The * cat sighed: "The emperor knows the soul mutation powerhouses. There are seven or eight, and all are holy Realm-level masters, among these people, only one survived. "

You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue trembled.

"What about the people below the holy realm?" You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue were frightened.

"I have never heard that below the holy realm, even the soul is not complete, how can the mutation succeed?" The * cat smiled bitterly: "The probability of survival below the holy realm is zero!"

You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue's faces were completely pale.

no, do not want!

"Then what to do?" You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue panicked: "We will transfer the soul power to Chen Shao." "It's useless, if you do this, not only will it not help him, but it will harm him." Da Hei The cat shook his head, "The soul has mutated, no one can save it, only Qin Chen himself can be seen, but fortunately, Qin Chen still has a clone, which is maintained by a clone.

Qin Chen's probability of waking up may be a little higher. "

The * cat sighed.

In fact, it has no bottom in its heart, so it can only comfort everyone.

Qin Mo sighed, stepped forward, and transferred a trace of soul power into Qin Chen's body, maintaining the last trace of Qin Chen's soul.

This was because Qin Mo broke through the holy realm, and his soul power reached an unprecedented height. If Qin Mo was still the cultivation base of the previous semi-sage peak, I am afraid that he would not even have a chance to give Qin Chen a trace of soul breath.

You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue stood quietly beside Qin Chen, with faint tears on their faces.

Now that everyone is here, there is obviously no need to stay here anymore. With the * cat, the group entered the depths of the Demon Ancestral Mountain Range and came to the seclusion of the Five Kingdoms.

This is the headquarters of Chendi Pavilion. Because of the Hall of Law Enforcement, masters from the Land of Hundred Dynasties and the Land of Five Kingdoms lived in seclusion here.

After knowing the news of Lord Pavilion's return, Chendi Pavilion immediately caused a sensation.

The owner of the Medicine King Garden and others came to visit one after another, but they were all blocked outside. Only a few people could see Qin Chen.

"Chen'er!"

The gray-bearded old man Qin Batian stroked Qin Chen's face, tears running down.

Under the cultivation of Chendi Pavilion, Father Qin Batian also entered the realm of Emperor Wu, and even reached the peak of Emperor Wu's cultivation.

However, in this life of the old man, being able to cultivate here is already the ultimate, there are no more geniuses, and it is still difficult to reach the realm of Emperor Wu.

The Qin family now has the current prestige, and everything is because of Qin Chen, but now Qin Chen has fallen into a coma and is still awake.

"Grandpa, it's okay, even if the main body is dead, I'm still alive." Qin Mo comforted.

"Ugh."

Qin Batian sighed. He didn't know that Qin Mo was Qin Chen, but he still couldn't accept the pain of parting.

Three days!

Ten days!

Half a month!

Soon, another month passed.

The * cat once again came to the Universe Jade Plate, and it would come to check Qin Chen's situation every once in a while.

"The situation is very bad. This month, Qin Chen's soul has been weakening by a very small rate. Although Qin Mo has been merging into his soul power, at this rate, Qin Chen may not be able to resist for three days."

The faces of the people on the side turned pale instantly.

In three days, there are only three days left for less dust! Everyone's hearts sank completely.

Chapter 2402: Forbidden place

"Three days, just these three days, is it completely annihilated, or has a turning point? It depends on the last three days." The * cat shook his head.

In the feeling of the * cat, if Qin Chen's soul was still burning like a flame a month ago, very faint, then Qin Chen's soul can only be regarded as sparks at this moment.

"It will be fine, it will be."

You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue connected.

Qin Mo's face was solemn, he had tried his best to heal himself, but there was still no way. The speed at which he instilled the soul couldn't compare with the speed of the weak soul.

When the * cats worried about Qin Chen anxiously.

The core of Wuyu is an ancient region.

Several silhouettes appeared in this desolate area instantly.

"Several adults, this is the periphery of the forbidden land."

Shangguan Xi'er stood in front of a few people. Behind her, many powerhouses in the heavens, such as Ling Luling and Xiu Chengze, stood proudly in this sky, staring at the vast void ahead.

Ling Luling perceives the void in front of him, there are boundless wasteland everywhere, and Gobi wilderness is everywhere, exuding a desolate atmosphere.

"Everyone, this world is a bit special."

A celestial powerhouse stepped into this void with a strange color on his face.

"Have you all felt it?" Ling Luling frowned and said.

"I feel it, the Heavenly Dao of Tianwu Continent seems to have disappeared."

"This world is too weird. It's clearly above the mainland, and I can't even feel the heaven and earth of this world."

Needless to say, everyone also feels the special nature of this world. In this Tianwu Continent, wherever they enter, they will be oppressed by the Heavenly Dao of the Tianwu Continent, and will even be attacked by the Heavenly Dao of the Tianwu Continent whenever they have the opportunity.

But after entering this area, they felt that the oppression of the Tianwu Continent on them by the Heavenly Dao had disappeared.

"I'll try!"

Xiu Chengze stepped forward, rumbling, and a terrible aura burst out of his body, a sky-reaching aura soaring into the sky.

Under normal circumstances, a master of the heavens radiates their power, and the heavens of the Tianwu Continent will inevitably suppress their opponents and even kill them.

This has been verified many times before.

But this time, the Heavenly Dao of the Tianwu Continent didn't even react at all. In the sky, the ancient aura was flowing without any fluctuations.

"The Way of Heaven has indeed disappeared."

"How could this be?"

"Could it be said that the origin of heaven and earth in this continent is not here? If the origin of heaven and earth is in this place, how can there be no heaven and earth?"

The faces of a few strong celestial figures are ugly.

One of the most important goals of their trip is to find the origin of the mainland, but if the origin of the mainland is not here, wouldn't it be a trip for nothing?

"wrong."

Ling Luling suddenly raised his head, "Even if the origin of heaven and earth is not here, it is impossible that there is no way of heaven here."

This place is absolutely weird.

call!

Ling Luling stepped out in one step, and immediately stepped into the forbidden place.

"My lord, be careful." Shangguan Xier hurriedly said.

"Huh?" Ling Luling turned his head.

"The God Forbidden Land is the most terrifying forbidden land in our Tianwu Continent. It is rumored that anyone who steps into it will not be able to get out alive. If it is only on the periphery, it is okay, but if it breaks into the interior, I am afraid..." Shangguan Xier cautiously said .

"Huh, it's just a small forbidden place in the lower realm. I really thought it could stump us?" A celestial expert sneered.

Ling Luling frowned, pondered for a moment, and said coldly: "It's better to be more careful. Have you forgotten what happened in the Thunder Sea?"

As soon as this was said, the audience was silent, and everyone's complexion changed slightly and looked very ugly.

The death of Jian Pingdao was still vividly remembered by everyone. The danger of this divine forbidden land in Tianwu Continent seemed to be still above the sea of thunder, and a few people could not help but be vigilant.

They don't want to fall in such a place.

"Then what to do?" The strong man frowned.

"Go ahead and let's talk about it. No matter how dangerous this God's Forbidden Land is, it is far better than the warriors of the Tianwu Continent with our strength. It may not happen. As long as you don't rush, there should be no problems."

Ling Luling thought slightly: "After I entered, I used the big prediction technique to calculate, and I should be able to calculate something."

When the voice fell, Ling Luling took the lead in the secret realm. Entering the depths of the wilderness Gobi, the place has become full of vitality. When I look down and look at it, I can see that all the trees are extremely tall, thousands of feet high, and the leaves are thicker and bigger than ordinary houses. Shang Xu many.

You can faintly hear the sound of tiger roar and wolf chanting in the depths, and there are even birds flying in it, but they never leave the secret realm instead, but return to the secret realm after flying around in the sky.

"The history here may be countless thousands of years." Ling Luling closed his eyes slightly and calculated slightly. Suddenly, strange auras flowed through her body.

Humph!

Suddenly, Ling Luling let out a muffled snort, and there was a burst of blood from the corner of her mouth, as if she had been bitten back. She opened her eyes, with a look of shock in her eyes.

"Ling Luling, what's wrong with you?" Everyone looked at it.

"This place is extraordinary! I have a feeling that this place has great opportunities." Ling Luling said tremblingly.

"Great chance?"

The eyes of Xiu Chengze and others brightened, and Ling Luling could say that a place with great opportunity was definitely a treasure that would allow them to have an amazing transformation.

Is it true that Shangguan Xi'er is right, there are really amazing treasures here?

"What did you figure out?" everyone said fiercely. "I reckoned that in this world, many strong men have fallen, super wars broke out in the ancient era, and many holy realm strong men have fallen, even stronger than us. Moreover, I can faintly feel this world. The origin of it is very promising

The reason why I can't feel it in this secret realm is simply because something went wrong. " hiss!

The breathing of Xiu Chengze and the others suddenly rose. Could it be true that what Shangguan Xi'er said was true? There have been countless celestial powerhouses on this continent.

At first everyone didn't believe it, but now even Ling Luling said that, so they didn't believe it.

All of a sudden, everyone was tempted.

What if they get a treasure left by a certain top power in the celestial realm here, and help them to step into a higher realm? "I didn't expect that in this small lower realm, there would be a lost place of ancient times, and countless celestial experts have fallen. The aura here is too strong." Ling Luling was shocked, looking up at the sky: "This should be It's an ancient Yunfeilin Beast? These strange beasts were all extinct in the heavens, but I didn't expect to see them again here. "Ling Luling saw a bird rising into the sky in the distance, and immediately shot it. Suddenly, during the Sheng Yuan riot, this bird was grabbed by a huge sacred hand. No matter how hard it struggles, it is wasted effort and was taken to the crowd. before.

Chapter 2403: Power of time

Feeling the breath of everyone, this ancient cloud flying beast trembles immediately.

This bird has only an emperor-level cultivation base. In front of such a group of heavenly powerhouses, no matter how wild it is, it will instinctively feel awe.

The Holy Land represents the heaven and the earth.

"It's really Guyun Feilin Beast. I also saw it from some records. Although it didn't step into the Holy Realm, it possessed the power of the ancient wilderness. Isn't this a strange beast unique to the ancient times of the heavens? Will it appear here?"

Several people were taken aback.

puff!

Ling Luling squeezed it down, and the Gu Yun Fei Lin Beast screamed and burst out, the endless blood dissipated, exuding the ancient atmosphere.

Ling Luling nodded, "It is indeed Gu Yun Fei Lin Beast, but the power of the bloodline has faded a lot, what exactly is this place?"

She looked up and vaguely felt that she seemed to have discovered an extremely shocking secret.

"Go, go in and take a look."

Ling Luling and the others were about to enter the depths of the forbidden land.

But suddenly, a series of roars rang out, and the birds, feeling the fall of the ancient cloud flying beast before, rushed forward.

Only dozens of birds pounced. Each of these birds exudes an ancient aura. They are fierce and powerful. Although they are only emperor-level cultivation bases, they are not even better than some peak martial emperors, and they are special. Blood,

Even the top martial emperor could not please these birds.

However, these celestial sacred realm powerhouses are not afraid. They come from the celestial realm, so they are naturally not afraid of this ancient atmosphere, and they are even more terrifying than the sacred realm masters of the Tianwu Continent. Naturally, they will not be afraid that these are just the greatness of the Holy Realm beast.

Bang bang bang!

When they shot, the wild beasts screamed, and blood was blasted out of their bodies.

But these wild and wild beasts didn't even retreat, and continued to pounce wildly.

Shangguan Xi'er changed color. No wonder this * forbidden land was called the forbidden land of Tianwu Continent. Countless people came in and few of them could go out alive. Among other things, these emperor-level wild and wild beasts can only be resisted by the strongest forces of the mainland's top forces. If it is not for relying on these celestial holy realm masters, they will be replaced by those before devouring the devil. She came and said no

Ding is now in a hurry.

Boom boom boom!

Ling Luling and the others joined forces to kill heads of wild animals one after another. Moreover, their hands were haunting the rules of the avenue, and the power of the terrifying rules was immediately beaten out by them, extracting the blood from the bodies of these wild animals.

A line of blood lingering with the atmosphere of the ancients was sealed in a jade bottle.

This is the power of the Primordial Bloodline. Although it has been very watered down, it is still a great tonic when it is taken to the heavens. For some special heavenly masters, it is a good thing, and it may be able to sell a lot of money.

"Hahaha! I had such a harvest as soon as I came in, which is not bad."

Xiu Chengze and the others laughed, and the corpses of the wild beasts that had been drawn with blood power fell from the sky, and the blood splashed like a rain of blood. Suddenly, an extremely terrifying breath rose in everyone's mind, a strong sense of crisis surged, Ling Luling's perception was the most keen, and the strange breath was sensed for the first time, and her cold hair was erected. Imitate

The Buddha was stared at by some monster.

"Everyone, be careful."

She hurriedly drank, just as her voice fell, calling, and a clear breeze blowing in the distance.

This was a refreshing breeze, extremely weak, and seemed to have no power at all. It fluttered, but it made Ling Luling's cold hair stand up, and dense goose bumps appeared all over his body.

Whoosh whoosh!

Everyone instinctively flew up, avoiding this breeze.

But the corpses of the fallen wild animals couldn't escape the breeze, and were blown by the breeze.

Click!

These corpses that originally exuded a frightening atmosphere instantly became petrified, and suddenly became old, as if they had gone through hundreds of millions of years of weathering and turned into fossils, and then cracked, turned into ashes, and disappeared.

This scene stunned everyone.

What the * is this? In the shock of everyone, the imposing power was irregular, and it actually blew towards a strong celestial man. That day the strong man's hair was erected and he hurriedly dodged in shock, but the breeze was too strange, as if it could penetrate the void. Blown over

His left arm.

"Ah!" A screaming scream sounded. That day, the world powerhouse watched in horror as his left arm gradually grew old. First it was full of goose bumps, and then the skin was loose, the essence of it passing away in an instant, and finally it shriveled and turned into Fossils, in the end, turned into Ashes disappeared.

The whole process was too fast, just a few seconds, as if after thousands of years, the left arm of the world powerhouse had disappeared that day.

What's even more amazing is that, except for the left arm that was blown by the breeze, there was no injury to the world powerhouse that day. If it weren't for the empty left arm, no one would have known that he actually walked in front of the gate of life and death.

"The power of time, is it the power of time in the legend?"

Ling Luling watched this scene in horror, and said in shock: "Get out, get out first."

Whoosh whoosh!

They retreated frantically, retreated toward the periphery of the forbidden land, left this arbor zone all at once, and returned to the former wilderness Gobi.

"The power of time, it must be the power of time just now." Ling Luling trembled with excitement.

Both excited and scared.

Can a warrior experience hundreds of millions of years in an instant, what is the power of time? These powers are also the most legendary powers in the heavens, and are related to the rumored rules of time and space.

"You have to contact your lord."

Ling Luling raised his head, his eyes determined. They couldn't eat such a treasure at all. Only by contacting an adult could they make a decision.

Originally, Ling Luling and the others wanted to go directly into the depths of the forbidden land, but now they were terrified and immediately withdrew, thinking about countermeasures first.

And when Ling Luling and the others were thinking about countermeasures outside the Forbidden Land.

Demon Ancestral Mountains.

Three days passed quietly.

The days of these three days were very difficult. Qin Chen's soul was getting weaker and weaker, showing no signs of improvement at all, until the complete annihilation disappeared.

Qin Chen's soul aura completely disappeared.

"The soul breath has disappeared." The * cat said with an ugly face.

"Do not!"

You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue's tears fell all of a sudden.

Qin Mo's face was also green, he tried his best, but he still couldn't save himself.

"No!" Suddenly Qin Mo stood up quickly, because he felt that he still had a slight connection with his body. Although this connection was so weak that he could barely perceive or sense Qin Chen's soul at all. The soul breath still exists.

Chapter 2404: Qin Chen wakes up

"The soul has not been completely annihilated, there is still a trace of existence."

Qin Mo nervously said.

At this moment, in Qin Chen's mind, when his soul aura was about to disappear, an ancient book appeared, Om, this ancient book just suspended in Qin Chen's mind, bursting with a soft light.

The light of the soul that Qin Chen had originally disappeared was instantly illuminated.

boom!

A terrible soul breath burst out of Qin Chen's body. The light that bloomed from the ancient book did not reconsolidate Qin Chen's soul, but only brought a glimmer of hope to Qin Chen's soul.

And it was this light of hope, like a medium, that caused Qin Chen's soul to suddenly burn.

boom!

As if a fire was ignited, the terrifying soul breath instantly rose from faint to rising, growing at an astonishing speed.

"Qin Chen's soul power..."

The * cat was startled instantly.

"Senior Cat King, what's wrong?"

You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue hurriedly said.

The * cat turned his head in disbelief and looked at You Qianxue, Ji Ruyue and others, "Unbelievable, really unbelievable, Qin Chen's soul is now becoming stronger, just like a baby growing up, moving at a very fast speed. Promote."

The eyes of You Qianxue, Ji Ruyue and others were filled with consternation.

Immediately rushed up in ecstasy and held Qin Chen's hands.

"It's great, I know, Young Chen will be fine, he will definitely be." You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue were ecstatic.

Qin Mo's eyes were also incredulous, and his face showed excitement, "It's really getting better, and it's fast."

He was the person who felt the changes in Qin Chen's soul most clearly. Compared with the weakness of his soul's power, Qin Chen's soul's ascension speed was much faster.

In just ten days, Qin Chen's soul power had risen to an extremely terrifying level, even reaching its previous peak level.

However, Qin Chen's soul power was still improving, and even striding forward to a stronger point.

"how can that be?"

Half a month later, when the * cat felt Qin Chen's soul power, he was shocked. Qin Chen's soul power was almost the same as Qin Mo.

This is already the Holy Land level.

A person with a semi-holy peak cultivation level, but his soul power has reached the holy realm. If you say it, I am afraid it can cause shock in the heavens. In the heavens, there are many kinds of exercises, and there are also many secrets. There are body-building and soul-cultivating. It is actually normal for the soul and physical power of the martial artist to exceed their own level. However, there are several key points, but it is very normal. Few people can break broken.

The first is the soul of the Holy Land. To break through the holy realm, a warrior needs to understand the origin, and the original power will make the soul of the warrior get a certain kind of transformation. This is impossible to overcome by any secret method. Simply put, a martial artist can cultivate the soul secret method to support the emperor.

There is a spirit of Wudi level strength, but it is absolutely impossible to possess the soul power of a holy realm at the semi-holy level.

Because without the baptism of the origin, the soul cannot undergo qualitative change at all.

But at this moment, Qin Chen's soul has reached the level of Qin Mo in strength, which clearly represents that Qin Chen's soul power has entered the Holy Realm.

What is even more frightening is that Qin Chen's soul is still being promoted.

However, although Qin Chen's soul power is constantly getting stronger, he has never awakened.

In the blink of an eye, twenty days passed.

At this moment, Qin Chen's soul power had even reached twice that of Qin Mo, and it was still improving.

One month after Qin Chen's soul became stronger in the jade disc of good fortune in the universe.

"Senior Cat Sovereign, why is he still not awake in Young Chen?" You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue are a little anxious. The two of them are not too worried now, because they clearly feel how powerful Qin Chen's soul is now, even far away. Super breakthrough

Qin Mo's.

If Qin Chen's soul that was close to the Holy Realm before was a lake, then today's soul is an unfathomable ocean.

But the aura on his body is still the pinnacle of Half Saint.

The soul is the essence of the martial artist. If the strong man in the heavens knows a martial artist at the semi-sage pinnacle, the soul power is so terrifying, and even a master of the sacred realm, I am afraid it will be able to make a sensation in the whole heaven.

So powerful, but Qin Chen hasn't woken up yet.

"Don't worry!" The * cat smiled, "I will definitely wake up." Although the * cat is smiling, there is a trace of worry in his heart. Qin Chen's soul has grown so terribly strong, but he and Qin Mozhi The connection between the two is still not able to be combined, that is to say, Qin Mo still cannot perceive the main body.

status.

This is very unusual.

If something goes wrong with Qin Chen at the last moment, it can't be undone.

And today the world powerhouses were taken by Shangguan Xi'er and the others. If the heaven world powerhouses get the origin of the Tianwu Continent, then the Tianwu Continent will be over.

"Everyone, now Qin Chen is not awake, we can't wait any longer, the emperor has an idea, it is better to go to the Martial Domain first, otherwise it would be meaningless to stay here."

Said the * cat. You Qianxue and the others listened. They knew what the * cat meant, and they also knew that what the * cat said was the truth. If they continue to stay here, little dust will not wake up right away, but now the mainland is in danger. Don't let the heavenly powerhouse be reckless Fearful in the martial arts field.

But when the * cat said.

suddenly.....

Qin Mo was startled, screamed, and immediately held his head and knelt to the ground.

"Qin Mo kid, you..."

The * cats were startled, and then they felt aghast that Qin Chen suddenly exploded with a terrible breath behind them.

boom!

The terrifying aura soared to the sky, and instantly formed a connection with Qin Mo in front of him.

Everyone hurriedly turned their heads and saw Qin Chen, whose eyes were tightly closed, where he was originally lying. At this moment, his pupils opened.

Qin Chen!

Woke up.

And at the moment of Qin Chen's attributes, the soul between Qin Mo and Qin Chen immediately made contact, and the information of each other instantly merged together.

The intense information fusion caused the soul of Qin Mo's body to boil all of a sudden, so he fell to the ground in pain.

The moment Qin Chen woke up, his mind was still a little confused. His first thought was, "What happened to me? I'm not dead?"

More than two months without consciousness, in fact, to Qin Chen's body, it was like a second has passed.

But the next moment, Qin Chen and Qin Mo's soul exchanged, and he knew that he had been in a coma for nearly three months.

In these three months, countless things have happened in the mainland.

"I'm in the jade disc of good fortune in the universe."

Qin Chen stood up, the moment he stood up, Qin Chen felt his own change!

"Huh? What's the matter?" Qin Chen clearly felt the fluctuations in the space around him. He was already in the Universe Jade Plate and had complete control over this world, but the feeling of control at this moment was completely different. . Qin Chen felt that something extraordinary had happened to him.

Chapter 2405: A kiss

At this time, a feeling of absolute control emerged in Qin Chen's mind, giving Qin Chen a feeling of controlling the fate of others.

Absolutely control like an emperor.

The key point is that this sense of control does not come from the jade disc, but from his own, as if his own power can control others.

"Qin Chen!"

"Less dust!"

A cry of surprise and liking sounded, and the movement from Qin Chen instantly awakened everyone and rushed towards Qin Chen almost simultaneously, while You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue plunged into Qin Chen's arms.

"Woohoo, we thought you would never wake up again."

You Qianxue started to cry, the worry and fear in these days broke out completely at this moment, and then there was immense joy.

Qin Chen looked at the people in front of him, the * cat and Lao Yuan were happy with joy, and the excitement and tears of You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue made Qin Chen's heart soft.

"do not Cry."

Qin Chen held the faces of You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue, and the two beautiful women were in front of him. Qin Chen was moved in his heart. He and Qin Mo's souls instantly merged, and they naturally knew what had happened before. Moving.

During this period, You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue worked hard.

An inexplicable sentiment surged in his heart. He lowered his head and kissed Qianxue. Qianxue was stunned. His mind went blank, his eyes were round, and he felt Qin Chen's strong male aura. His body seemed weak and boneless, and he collapsed into Qin Chen's arms. Here, Ji on the side Ruyue looked at this scene, her face flushed suddenly, she lowered her head and did not want to look at it, but before she had time to lower her, Qin Chen held her chin and kissed her mouth.

Well!

Ji Ruyue blushed like a ripe apple, humming, and suddenly even more red.

"Ahem! Kid Qin Chen, everyone is here, you don't need to be so anxious." The * cat's wretched voice came.

Qin Chen raised his head and smiled slightly: "Everyone is worried."

While You Qianxue and Ji Ruyue lowered their heads, blushing, embarrassed to look at everyone, their hearts were beating violently, Qin Chen was really too, not paying attention to the occasion, so spurned in their hearts, but in their hearts Beautiful.

"Well, kid Qin Chen, things are urgent now. What happened to you before and why did you suddenly fall into a coma?" The * cat flew up and said. Qin Chen smiled bitterly: "I don't know. After I was injured before, I absorbed the origin of the realm powerhouse that day. It seemed that something abnormal happened in my body, and then I lost consciousness. Even now, I don't know how I am. In the body

What happened. "

"Have you absorbed the origin of that strong man in the heavens?" The * cat looked over in astonishment, "but your cultivation base is still at its peak and semi-sage, and you have not broken through." The others were also shocked and absorbed the heavens. The origin of the power of the holy realm, according to the truth, is enough to have the opportunity to enter the holy realm, because what the semi-holy master lacks is the power of the origin, just like Shangguan Xier and the others are trying their best to devour the demon master,

It is to absorb the original power of the Sky Devouring Demon Lord and break through to become a holy master.

Only because of Shangguan Xier's special body, she finally failed.

But Qin Chen didn't have any changes in his body now, making everyone not wonder. "Is it because you understand the rules of the alien demon?" Lao Yuan said suddenly, knowing that after Qin Chen realized the rules of heaven and earth, he has not been able to enter the realm of Emperor Wu, because he has integrated the alien demon in his body. Rules and days

The two rules of Wu Continent didn't break through until after the Ji family absorbed the power of Amethyst.

Is this also the reason this time? But Lao Yuan immediately felt wrong again, because Qin Chen had transformed the rules of the alien demon race and the power of the parasitic seed into the Qin Demon clone, and Qin Demon had absorbed the Chaos Demon Nest and broke through to the Holy Realm, even because of the two Rules, Qin Chen ontology

It only needs to absorb the original strength of Tianwu Continent to break through.

And the origin of the Celestial Master definitely possesses this kind of effect for normal martial artists.

But if it was not for this reason, what would be the reason? The * cat thoughtfully said: "This may have something to do with your body. Check it out. You have undergone a soul mutation before and you have carried it over. This is nothing in billions. At least the emperor is In my memory, I have never heard of Warriors below the holy realm can successfully mutate their souls. "

"Now the strength of your soul is far beyond that of ordinary holy realm masters. You can check it out. Some changes are not visible from the outside, and only you can detect them."

"Yeah, Little Chen, how is your soul?" You Qianxue said expectantly: "I feel a kind of coercion lingers around you all the time, making me a little in awe."

"Soul mutation is a special kind of soul change. You have two avatars, what will happen after the mutation?" Lao Yuan also looked at Qin Chen with fiery eyes.

"Soul mutation?"

Qin Chen himself didn't know the changes in his soul, but he still closed his eyes and carefully felt his own soul now!

In a sea of souls.

The mighty soul sea exudes a deep light, and the power of the soul is surging like an ocean, and it seems to have a dreamy color, the depth, like an abyss, as if it can swallow everything.

This vast ocean is too vast. If Qin Chen's soul sea was just an ordinary sea before he was unconscious, then Qin Chen's soul sea now is like a vast ocean, and even Qin Chen himself has a sense of vastness and unfathomable depth. .

Can a person's soul be so strong? After Qin Chen used the heavenly soul forbidden technique to split the Qin Mo, the Soul Sea was once severely injured, because it was extremely difficult to split the soul and the damage was also great, but now Qin Chen has a feeling that if he splits Qin Mo according to the original Continue to divide

He who splits the soul sea, even if he splits ten times, there will be no damage.

If a bowl of water is divided into two halves, the loss will naturally be huge, but if a vast ocean, even if a large river is cut from it, it will not have much impact compared to the ocean. What shocked Qin Chen even more was that in his soul sea, a black bead was condensed. This is a dreamy bead, undulating in the soul sea, and there is a gray halo covering the surface of the bead. It seems that it is more common through.

But at this moment the breath exuding from the beads is no less than the entire soul sea.

"Soul materializes!"

Qin Chen took a deep breath. This is what he saw from the Heavenly Soul Forbidden Art. The soul is substantive. After the martial artist's soul reaches a certain level, it evolves into substance, containing endless soul power, which can only be achieved when it reaches a certain level. . But now he has reached it?

Chapter 2406: Soul materialization

"So powerful, so special." Qin Chen said silently in his heart.

Others, even if they were Lao Yuan who went deep into Qin Chen's soul sea, they would not discover the specialness of Qin Chen's soul, but Qin Chen himself could feel it.

"That feeling of control is very special." Qin Chen secretly said.

"Look at how strong this legendary soul is."

Qin Chen secretly urged the soul power, hum, a terrifying soul power lingered away, and instantly enveloped everyone on the field.

Everyone on the court was under Qin Chen's observation, with a feeling of absolute control.

This feeling does not come from the jade disc of good fortune in the universe, but from Qin Chen himself.

Among all the people on the field, the strength of each person's soul aura appeared in Qin Chen's mind.

"Lao Yuan is worthy of being a master of the holy realm, and a source beast naturally raised by the alien demon continent. His soul power is indeed powerful, much stronger than that of the general holy realm master.

"Gu Zunren is also very powerful, but a little worse than Lao Yuan. Obviously the soul power has not been recovered after damage." "Mokara and Skeleton Rudder are also very strong, and the cultivation base is only one step away from the Demon Lord level, maybe Nourished by Qin Mo's Chaos Demon's Nest, it will not take long to break through, and the souls of alien demons are indeed terrifying, and the semi-sage peak is actually

The ancient Venerable who used to be in the Holy Realm is almost the same. Although the ancient Venerable has fallen down, his soul is still the holy master of the year. No matter how strong Mokara and Skeleton Rudder are, they are only semi-sacred peaks. "

"You Qianxue's soul breath is ethereal and cold, and contains a special kind of power. Could it be that picture of the Nine Heavens Goddess? The future development potential is limitless."

"Ji Ruyue..."

When Qin Chen swept Ji Ruyue, he found that in Ji Ruyue's mind, a purple spar blocked his investigation. Obviously, with Qin Chen's current soul strength, he could not see through the heavens left by the ancestors of the Ji family. Arcana Amethyst.

"It seems that the ancestors of the Ji family had an extraordinary position in the heavens, otherwise the treasures left behind would not be able to stop their exploration."

You must know that even the soul of a holy realm source beast like Lao Yuan could not hide under Qin Chen's investigation, but he actually couldn't see Ji Ruyue's soul, obviously this amethyst was extraordinary. "But that's right. If the ancestors of the Ji family were not strong, they wouldn't possess the heaven-defying secret technique such as the heavenly soul forbidden technique in their bodies. , What on earth is Tianwu Continent

What kind of a world? "

Qin Chen sighed, finally falling his perception on the * cat.

"What? Why can't I see through the soul power of the * cat?" Qin Chen was shocked to find that the * cat was surrounded by invisible and strange rays of light. This ray of light was invisible to the naked eye. I couldn't even see it in the former soul state, but now it appears in Qin Chen's perception

And this strange light contained amazing power, and this trace of power made Qin Chen a little shocked.

It seems to be a seal.

What is the origin of the * cat, that he has such a seal on his body?

Qin Chen was shocked.

"It seems that the origin of the * cat is extraordinary."

Qin Chen thoughtfully.

"But it's very strange. Although the soul of my body shares the soul information with the clone, in terms of soul power, the soul of the clone has not been assimilated and promoted."

Although the Qin Mo clone is a clone, the soul and the body are actually one. According to the truth, after the soul of the clone and the body merge, the two will inevitably reach the same height. But now after Qin Chen's body soul is substantive, although the soul of the clone has also been promoted, it does not reach the same height. Instead, it is a bit like the clone has become a vassal of the body. The two souls are upgraded separately and can support each other.

But it cannot fully share power.

"It seems that my soul will be improved by itself in the future."

Qin Chen gave a wry smile.

"Qin Chen, Qin Chen!"

The voice of the * cat interrupted Qin Chen's thinking.

Inside the Universe Good Fortune jade dish, everyone looked at Qin Chen expectantly, and the * cat said, "Kid Qin Chen, what's going on, tell us what happened."

Qin Chen said: "My soul power has improved a lot, and it seems to have reached the point where the soul has become substantive."

The soul materializes.

The * cat suddenly took a breath, staring at Qin Chen, "How is this possible?"

The * cat is incredible. It shocked: "Soul materialization, do you know what it means? In the heavens, even the masters of the earth sacred realm may not be able to materialize their souls. Only the genius of the earth sacred realm can do this. A little bit if you really Once you have reached the realm of soul materialization, as long as you enter the celestial realm, you can definitely be taken into consideration by some great forces in the celestial realm and cultivated as a direct disciple. "

"Are you sure you have reached soul materialization?" The * cat was still a little skeptical.

Is it so awesome?

Everyone looked at Qin Chen in shock. Qin Chen shook his head: "I don't know how to explain it, but my soul has indeed materialized, and I have a special feeling, as if I have a feeling of absolute control over this world. This feeling is not because Heaven and Earth

In the jade disc, but because of oneself. "

The * cat was shocked and hurriedly said, "Go, then let's go out and have a look."

A group of people immediately came out of the Universe Good Fortune Jade Plate and came to the Chendi Pavilion residence.

"Change place."

The * cats soared into the sky, swish, and suddenly came to a corner of the Demon Ancestral Mountain Range, far away from the station.

"Kid Qin Chen, do you still have this feeling?" the * cat said nervously.

"Yes." Qin Chen felt it carefully and nodded, "I have a feeling, as if this world is under my control, I can block the world here at will."

As Qin Chen said, he prodded it out.

His grasp was extremely casual, and he didn't even urge any true essence, but with a "poof", the void in front of him split like a cloth, and he grabbed a piece of it abruptly.

The void on this side was directly emptied, but there was no space crack. The space was still that space, but the rules in that space had disappeared, as if it had become a dead place.

"This....."

Lao Yuan was dumbfounded, and the Gu Zun people were shocked, but the * cat's eyes lit up. One claw grabbed the rules of the void. This is like a legend. The void did not split, but the rules of the world on this side disappeared. The rules disappeared. Then the warrior in that void could not push the rules at all. Can use the power in the body but spur, so that the strength will definitely drop.

Chapter 2407: Son of the Plane

This is almost magical.

"Master, how did you do this?" Mo Yuanbai said in shock.

"Me? I don't know." Qin Chen was a little dazed: "I just have the feeling that I can control this void, but I didn't expect that I did it."

"Qin Chen!"

A shout sounded. Qin Chen turned his head, it was the * cat who was talking, and at the moment the * cat's face was full of excitement, "Haha...Qin Chen, you are the will of heaven and earth, the son of the plane, you actually belong to this world. Son of the plane, no wonder you swallow the sky

The power of the realm powerhouse also failed to enter the holy realm, because of your son of the plane! "

"Son of the plane?" Qin Chen was stunned. He seemed to have heard the Heavenly Realm powerhouse Pu Caijun, who was killed by himself, said what kind of son he was. He thought it was just a casual name, but he didn't expect it to happen. Kind of stuff.

"Senior Cat Sovereign, what is the son of the plane?" You Qianxue and the others hurriedly asked. The * cat groaned: "Son of the plane, how should I say, every plane has a darling. These people will be recognized by the plane and have special abilities. In a plane, the gods will treat him incomparably. Take care, this kind of person is called For the son of the plane. "

"The children of the plane are divided into innate and nurture. For example, Lao Yuan can also be called a natural child of the plane. Why?" "Actually, Lao Yuan is a source beast born when the world of the alien demon continent opened up. They feel when it came to the rules established by the world of different demons, it was recognized by the world of different demons. To a certain extent, the source beasts were like A fish in the water, the same cultivation base is far more powerful than the power that can be mobilized here in Tianwu Continent. "

"And Qin Chen is a son of the acquired plane, and has been recognized by the heavens and the earth. He can control more rules and powers in this heaven and earth." "And Qin Chen was able to capture the rules of this world before, except it is because of this and also because of his soul power. After the soul power is substantive, it has a substantive attack, and the erasure of the rules is often only the soul.

Power can only be done, ordinary Shengyuan power, it is difficult to succeed. "Of course, being a son of a plane has both good and bad. The advantage is that in this world, Qin Chen can control more rules of the world, but the disadvantage is that he wants to break through the holy realm and must absorb this world. The power of the source, absorbs other sources

It is impossible to break through. "

"For example, Lao Yuan, it is a source beast naturally raised by the alien demon continent. It can only break through the holy realm by absorbing the power of the alien demon continent, and cannot absorb other powers to break through the holy realm, even if it comes from a higher level of heaven. same."

"In addition, there is another function of the power of the soul, which is the materialization of the attack. If you integrate the power of the soul into the attack, you can have the power of the holy realm even if you haven't reached the holy realm."

"Can you have the power of the holy realm without reaching the holy realm?" Mo Yuanbai and others were shocked.

"Yes." The * cat nodded and said with a smile: "You can try to compete with Lao Yuan to see how strong your strength will be after your soul breaks through."

"Lao Yuan?" Qin Chen looked over, and from the bottom of his heart he wanted to find out whether his soul materialization was as strong as the * cat said. It did not break through the holy realm, but possessed the power of the holy realm. Lao Yuan of Jingxiu base, but it is a good test

Refining objects.

"Haha, kid Qin Chen, you can come and try it." Lao Yuan also laughed, booming, and a terrible source of Qi suddenly erupted from his body.

It also swallowed the origins of some celestial powerhouses. Although not many, the injuries had been healed long ago, and they wanted to know Qin Chen's strength.

Mo Yuanbai next to him immediately said: "Master, you won't destroy the Demon Ancestor Mountain Range by taking action?"

Qin Chen smiled and said: "Haha, it's okay, this battle is just a test of strength, Lao Yuan, you and I will use your strength in this battle, don't use the rules."

"Alright." Lao Yuan also thinks this proposal is good. After all, no one knows what Qin Chen has reached, and it will be difficult to do if there is any accident between the two parties.

A group of people came to a deserted area again.

Qin Chen and Lao Yuan looked at each other, while the * cat on the side watched attentively.

"let's start."

Qin Chen smiled slightly, his figure suddenly moved, and his figure flew out, forming a terrible sonic boom, and the void around him split directly.

This shocked everyone, just using power and not using the rules, it actually exploded the void. Once you make a full shot, can the world of Tianwu Continent bear it?

"Lao Yuan, you are careful."

Qin Chen blasted out a punch, and suddenly terrifying power swept towards Lao Yuan frantically.

"What a magical feeling." Qin Chen felt that although his cultivation level had not been improved, the power of this punch was at least several times higher than before. Under this punch, it was enough to compete with a demon master like the demon master. Level masters are fighting.

"Good job."

Lao Yuan laughed, and a red source energy burst out from his body, booming, this source force contained terrifying explosive power, and it also blatantly collided with Qin Chen's attack.

Rumble!

The forces of the two parties collided, and the terrible roar erupted like an earthquake, and a huge gap was directly cracked in the void, and Qin Chen's figure flew out with a bang.

And Lao Yuan flew upside down thousands of meters.

Evenly matched, but Qin Chen seemed to be at a disadvantage.

"Hahaha, kid Qin Chen, great, you almost hurt me with this punch." Lao Yuan laughed, but he could feel that Qin Chen's current attack could withstand it.

Qin Chen smiled slightly: "Old Yuan, I didn't use the power of my soul just now."

Yes, Qin Chen didn't use his soul power before taking action.

what?

Everyone was dumbfounded.

Rely on.

is this real?

Without using the power of the soul, he could be evenly matched with the old source. Even if it falls below, it is not much different. Is this possible?

Lao Yuan is a master of the Holy Land.

Lao Yuan himself was dumbfounded, and immediately smiled: "Hahaha, great, kid Qin Chen, then continue."

When the voice fell, Lao Yuan moved with a bang, and it turned into a red angry dragon, rushing towards Qin Chen.

boom!

The surrounding void burst directly, spreading cracks.

"Good job."

Qin Chen shouted, his eyes sharpened suddenly.

"Wow!"

A series of phantoms appeared in the air, but Qin Chen himself had already fought against Lao Yuan.

The heaven and the earth broke open directly, and there were space cracks everywhere. Two vague figures collided, and every time there was a shocking roar, the heaven and the earth cracked huge cracks.

Gu Zun and others watched this scene blankly.

Such a perverted attack, if replaced by them, I am afraid that it has long been unable to bear.

"Lao Yuan, I didn't use the power of my soul before. Now I'm going to use it. Be careful."

Qin Chen's voice sounded during the explosion, and the next moment, a breath that made everyone feel palpitation suddenly diffused from the explosion.

Qin Chen was shaped like a dragon, with a terrifying gray aura lingering on his palm, and collided with Lao Yuan with a punch.

puff!

The crystal on Lao Yuan's body cracked directly, and flew out with a bang, like a cannonball out of the chamber, slamming into the mountain behind.

With a punch, Lao Yuan was directly blown away. Everyone had their mouths open, and they all stared blankly.

Chapter 2408: Got rich

"This this....."

Gu Zun and others stared at this scene with wide-eyed eyes, dumbfounded not knowing what to say.

With a punch, Lao Yuan was blown away.

incredible.

"So strong!" Gu Zunren's throat moved, his eyes straightened.

Because of Qin Chen and Lao Yuan's fight, the space where the two were fighting was fragile like sheets of paper, which were torn open and repaired continuously, and finally returned to calm.

call!

Qin Chen flew out from the fluctuations and came to Lao Yuan, "Lao Yuan, are you okay?" Lao Yuan rushed out from the ground, with cracks in his body, but blood-colored Origin Qi power lingered. After that, these cracks healed again, and Lao Yuan looked at Qin Chen blankly, and said in disbelief: "Kid Qin Chen, how could you do this?"

How strong? "

Qin Chen was also shocked by his move and fisted Lao Yuan with a punch, which he didn't expect.

"This is the essence of the soul, plus the power of the son of the plane." The * cat flew up and said. At this moment, he really believes that Qin Chen controls the essence of the soul. This is not necessarily achieved by a master of heaven and earth. Realm.

"Kid Qin Chen, I have the feeling that your previous blow is already comparable to the master of the previous day." Lao Yuan said in a deep voice. The Celestial Master it said was the Pu Caijun who Qin Chen had killed before. When confronting Pu Caijun before, everyone was unable to resist even the slightest. Therefore, after being bombarded by Qin Chen, Lao Yuan had a feeling that Qin Chen's strength was already complete

The demon master who surpassed the original Heaven Devourer was not much different from the previous Heaven Realm master.

The key is that Qin Chen is not yet a holy realm. Once Qin Chen breaks through the holy realm, what point will he reach? It is hard for everyone to imagine. "Haha, now if we meet the masters of the realm of the day, we will not be so embarrassed." Gu Zunren laughed, "With the master's strength, plus the master's clone, and Lao Yuan and the others, in those heavenly masters Without knowing it,

Can give them a lesson. "

They also laughed.

Obviously, Qin Chen's awakening and breakthrough, but everyone's heavy heart settled instantly, as if as long as Qin Chen was there, everyone's heart would be filled with a sense of security. This feeling can only be brought by Qin Chen. Them. "The top priority is to find the location of the heavenly masters first. Shangguan Xi'er is following those heavenly masters. I doubt that this person will never be willing to surrender and will play tricks. We must find them as soon as possible and raise those heavenly realms.

All hands beheaded. "

Qin Chen's heart was full of coldness when he thought that there were masters from the heavens now rampant around the Tianwu Continent. "Qin Chen, don't worry, this matter is handed over to us. We have mobilized the power of all major forces to secretly investigate Shangguan Xier's movements. Those strong in the heavens are different from the alien demons. The purpose of coming to the Tianwu Continent is very simple. Just to find the world

The origin, there are not many places in the Martial Domain that can attract them, just need to deliberately investigate, there should be news feedback soon. "

Although Shangguan Xier and the others quickly lost track after leaving Sky Thunder City, Big Black Cat and the others knew very well that there were not many places where this group of celestial powerhouses would go, only a few. The convenience.

"In that case, let's set off directly. When we arrive at Wuyu, the news should be sent back if we want to."

Qin Chen found time to meet his grandfather Qin Batian and the others, and left the regular sacred stone and many top-quality real stones in the Universe Fortune Jade Plate in the Demon Ancestor Mountain Range before leaving the resident of the Chendi Pavilion.

With these rules and gods and the best real stone, the cultivation base of the disciples in the Chendi Pavilion will inevitably increase at an astonishing speed, and their strength will also increase rapidly.

After leaving the Demon Ancestral Mountain Range, Qin Chen and the others quickly headed to the Wuyu Region.

Qin Mo broke through the holy realm, and his speed was the top one. He carried the Universe Good Fortune Jade Disc all the way, while Qin Chen and others stayed in the space inside the Universe Good Fortune Jade Disc.

Inside the Universe Good Fortune Jade Plate, Qin Chen was investigating the treasures and storage rings that Pu Caijun left behind after his death.

"As expected to be a master of the heavens, this guy actually has such a treasure on his body?" Qin Chen was shocked when he saw Pu Caijun's storage ring, and was shocked by the treasure inside.

I saw that the space in this storage ring was extremely huge, very vast, more than a hundred times larger than the storage ring in Tianwu Continent?

In the vast space, all kinds of precious treasures were placed, and there were various elixir and elixirs. These elixirs all exuded amazing medicinal energy, and they were obviously sacred pills.

At that time, Pu Caijun's death was so unexpected that he didn't have time to take these pills.

In addition to the pill, the various materials are also holy, exuding a strong aura, densely packed, occupying most of the space of the entire storage ring, how much material is needed? Qin Chen's heart was beating, and with these materials, he could even produce a saint-level formation flag himself, and refine a saint-level pill. Of course, Qin Chen now only has some ancient saint-level pill. The prescriptions are all left from ancient times on the Tianwu Continent

Qin Chen naturally wouldn't consume these materials recklessly before he got it through.

Of course, what attracted Qin Chen the most was that in addition to these materials and pills, there were a large number of holy crystals, tens of thousands of holy crystals piled up in a corner of Pu Caijun's storage ring, giving people a strong shock. Although Qin Chen saw countless sacred crystals in the Abyssal Demon Secret Realm, and even absorbed some of the sacred crystals, this was only an absorption from the outside of the prohibition. In fact, none of the true sacred crystals were obtained. So many holy crystals,

Qin Chen's eyes widened suddenly.

Although the absorption of the holy crystals cannot allow the semi-sage masters to directly enter the holy stage, it can allow the semi-sage level powerhouses to directly breakthrough to the semi-sage peak, and allow those martial emperors of the ninth-tier peak to also enter the semi-sacred state. .

Ten thousand holy crystals can at least cultivate hundreds of semi holy masters.

"The strong man in the heavens is indeed rich."

Qin Chen was shocked. No wonder so many people like to rob, because the speed of looting money is so fast.

With these materials and holy crystals, Qin Chen can definitely increase his power by a big margin. However, Qin Chen did not intend to distribute these holy crystals too much for the time being. He would give You Qianxue, Ji Ruyue, Black Slave and other few holy crystals so that they could breakthrough to the semi-sacred peak as soon as possible. Will provide too much holy crystal. Qin Chen knew very well that the battle nowadays is no longer something half-sages can blend. Even if many masters of the holy realm are cultivated, they will not be able to bring much help to the masters of the heavens. These holy crystals may remain. Other uses.

Chapter 2409: Sacrificial Blood Spear

The * cat can naturally see the treasures in these storage rings, and said coldly: "These are only mortal sacred crystals, ordinary mortal sacred realm masters, all of whom have at least tens of thousands of sacred crystals. This Pu Caijun should be leaving. Heaven has been too long, so only

There are ten thousand sacred crystals left, but there are indeed too many materials here. If you guessed it correctly, it should have been plundered from various planes by these heavenly people. "

Qin Chen nodded, and he could also see that many of the materials in it contained the aura of the alien demon continent, clearly looted from the alien demon continent.

If you can't stop the conspiracy of these celestial experts, it may not be long before many treasures of the Tianwu Continent will appear in the storage rings of other celestial masters and become their trophies.

Thinking of this, Qin Chen's eyes became increasingly gloomy.

After checking the storage ring, Qin Chen focused his attention on the two treasures of Pu Caijun. One was the golden gong. It was the golden gong before. It resisted Qin Chen's many attacks. It was clearly a saint. Treasures. Qin Chen picked up the golden gong, and the terrifying holy aura permeated. Qin Chen immediately urged his soul power and began to infiltrate the golden gong. This golden gong contained extremely terrifying restrictions, which were obviously holy restrictions. , And still have the spirit of Pu Caijun

God brand. If Pu Caijun is not dead, Qin Chen may not be able to remove the brand of Pu Caijun, but since the other party has fallen, Qin Chen easily removes the brand of Pu Caijun with his substantive soul power and leaves his soul aura in it.

This is under the prohibition of Jin Gong.

It was also thanks to Qin Chen that he had learned the prohibition of the holy rank when he was in the Yuanmo Secret Realm Town Boundary Pearl, otherwise it would not be a simple matter to leave a mark.

Hum!

The golden gong quickly hovered in front of Qin Chen, turning into a golden light barrier, protecting Qin Chen. If you let a master in the heavens see this scene, your shocked eyes will fall. A warrior who can't even reach the holy realm can refine a holy weapon, and in such a short time, even directly. Sacrificed,

This is an extremely abnormal thing in the heavens.

But for Qin Chen, this is actually not too difficult.

After refining the golden gong, Qin Chen took out the blood-colored spear again. As soon as the spear appeared, a terrible and violent aura suddenly appeared in the void.

"This blood spear..."

The * cat was immediately attracted, "This blood spear is not simple."

It said in a deep voice, because the breath from the blood spear made it very heart palpitating, which was far more terrifying than the golden gong before.

Moreover, the terrible and violent aura from the blood spear made Qin Chen feel uncomfortable.

But Qin Chen knew very well the power of this blood spear, and if it could be refined, it would definitely become a big killer for him.

Thinking of this, Qin Chen began to try to refine this blood spear.

A mottled and terrifying murderous aura came from the blood spear. These violent auras were very complicated, with murderous aura, resentment, demonic aura, ghost aura, etc., which made Qin Chen very uncomfortable.

These violent auras surround the blood spear, seeming to riot anytime and anywhere, killing Qin Chen under the spear. Fortunately, Qin Chen's soul was so powerful that it had even reached materialization, but he suppressed this blood spear without a master.

As soon as Qin Chen's soul power entered the blood spear, he was shocked to find that the blood spear had only nine restrictions. Qin Chen was stunned. What was going on?

Not because there are too many restrictions in this blood spear, but because there are too few restrictions in this blood spear.

The more powerful a general top weapon, the greater the number of bans. Just like the golden gong before, there were at least a thousand bans, but there are only nine bans in this blood spear. What is going on?

And when Qin Chen's soul came into contact with this restriction, the ferocious aura that had been chosen and devoured became even colder, even directly permeating Qin Chen's body.

Qin Chen didn't care about the coldness of the blood spear, and didn't stop, directly began to refine the restrictions. When his soul power began to try to refine this first prohibition, Qin Chen immediately realized that he was thinking too simple. It turned out that this prohibition actually contained nine interlocking prohibitions, and Qin Chen was relieved. , This is normal.

One prohibition also contains nine prohibitions. The nine prohibitions contain a total of eighty-one circular prohibitions. Nine is the number of extremes. Although the eighty-one prohibitions are not comparable to many thousands of prohibitions, they are at least compared to nine prohibitions. Much better. When Qin Chen began to refine these nine prohibitions, he knew how difficult it was. The first big ban took him a full half an hour, the second one took two hours, and the third one took a full half a day. Waiting for him to take the sixth

When the ban on refining was successful, three days had passed.

And Qin Chen and the others have already entered the Martial Domain. At this time, Qin Chen realized that no matter how he practiced, he could not successfully practice the seventh great restraint. The complexity of the seventh restraint increased too much. Even if Qin Chen possessed substantial soul power, he could not use the seventh great restraint. Succeeded in the prohibition of sacrifice

, After all, he didn't even reach the holy realm.

Fortunately, although only seven restraints were practiced, Qin Chen could already activate this blood spear.

boom!

I saw that the blood spear immediately exploded out of endless terrifying murderous intent under Qin Chen's urging, and this murderous intent lingered in the jade disc of good fortune in the universe, bursting out astonishing killing intent.

"Good baby!"

Qin Chen looked at this blood spear in surprise. The power of this blood spear was almost as good as he had imagined. With this blood spear, even those strong in the heavens could be penetrated by himself even with some Saint-level defense methods.

When Qin Chen and the others just arrived at the First Heaven of Wuyu, the news of Shangguan Xi'er passed.

"In the forbidden place, Shangguan Xi'er actually took those guys to the forbidden place." Qin Chen's eyes were solemn, showing a pensive expression. The God Forbidden Land is the most terrifying forbidden land in Tianwu Continent. The reason why I was able to break through in the previous life was a coincidence. I don't even know how I entered the depths of the God Forbidden land. Looking back now, that place is extremely incomparable. Can

I'm afraid, Qin Chen has a feeling that even if he breaks into it with his current cultivation base, it may not really mean that he will be safe and sound.

"Shangguan Xi'er is a good method. Obviously, he wants to use this * forbidden land to kill these celestial masters."

Qin Chen instantly wanted to understand Shangguan Xi'er's purpose.

Moreover, the forbidden land is the most likely place where the origin of Tianwu Continent will exist.

"Go, go to the forbidden place right away."

Qin Chen ordered that whether it was to stop Shangguan Xi'er or to prevent those strong from the heavens from gaining the origin of the Tianwu Continent, he must rush over as soon as possible.

When Qin Chen and the others rushed from the First Heaven of the Martial Domain to the forbidden land in the most approved zone of the Third Heaven of the Martial Domain, the third heaven, the space for inheriting the secret realm of the Abyss in the Sea of Thunder.

Hum! The figure full of enchanting aura finally passed the ninety-nine steps and stepped onto the highest point of the altar.

Chapter 2410: Mysterious Bloodline

Hum!

When this figure stepped onto the altar, the void vibrated, and this black figure instantly became the core in this square of heaven and earth.

The endless divine light bloomed on her body, lingering around the black divine rainbow, under the divine rainbow, Chen Sisi finally opened his eyes.

A multicolored light burst out from her eyes, emitting endless charm and ruthlessness.

Have you finally set foot on this altar?

Chen Sisi just stood here without any expression on her face. After so long of comprehending the profound meaning of the magic way, her mind seemed to have completely fallen into the magnificent magic way, forgetting everything.

But in just a moment of effort, her eyes became cold, and the cold and severe breath escaped from her, and the void around the altar condensed like ice.

"Did I... have passed the exam?"

Chen Sisi murmured, with hatred deep in his bones in his eyes, with a merciless cold front.

Suddenly!

boom!

A terrifying breath suddenly came from the sky above the endless altar, and a pair of huge twin pupils appeared, staring down.

Those pupils radiated endless cold light, and Chen Sisi felt the blood in his body instantly solidify, and there was a feeling of suffocation. The whole person seemed to be seen through. These pupils seemed to be able to see through the endless desires in people's hearts.

"The ruthless way...no, it is sentimental and ruthless, if the sky is sentimental, the sky is also old, the moon is like no hatred, and the moon is always round. Unexpectedly, in this small lower realm, someone can comprehend this ruthless way to this level. , Rare, rare!"

The rumbling roar resounded, and the Lord of Abyss Demon stared at Chen Sisi, showing emotion.

It can see that Chen Sisi's cultivation path, the ruthless way, can be in ruthlessness, but it also contains sentiment. Why is it ruthless? Just because of sentiment, this kind of Taoism, even in the heavens, is extraordinary, and it is not something ordinary people can understand.

People who practice the ruthless way often cut off all emotions and desires. They exist as if they are only for cultivation and abandon everything. They are one of the most terrifying ways.

"You are the Lord of Abyss Demon?"

Chen Sisi raised his head, his eyes burst with multicolored light, and the power of charm lingered out. This altar emptiness seemed to become seductive and vivid because of Chen Sisi's words. Chen Sisi, who has realized the endless magical way in this inheritance, has a more restrained aura. If Chen Sisi's charm in the past comes from her body and her temperament, then Chen Sisi at this moment has nothing on her body.

It does not exude the power of fascinating charm, this is a charm that radiates from the depths of the soul.

The endless enchantment surging through her, as if it could seduce everything in the world, and make people fall into the endless dark abyss, sinking into the desire and ugliness in her heart.

Such a terrifying power of charm is extremely difficult to resist even if it is a person higher than Chen Sisi. "Awesome, magical body." The Lord of the Abyss laughed, "Unexpectedly, after you have realized the demon way of the demon inheritance, you can actually transform your own body of charm into the body of magical charm. You are naturally suitable for the magic way. For many years, this demon has not seen such

This gifted young man. "

The Lord of the Abyssal Demon laughed, "However, you don't need to use your charm to this demon. In front of this demon, your charm is just the clouds of the past, and you can't charm the demon to the point."

Chen Sisi raised his head with fiery eyes, gritted his teeth and said: "I remember you said that as long as you pass the inheritance, you can enter the Supreme Demon Path?"

She stared at the Lord of Abyss Demon, as if she was just an ordinary person in front of her, not a powerful demon clan powerhouse.

There was endless determination in those eyes, which made it feel a little palpitating and feel the terrible determination in it.

"Do you want power so much?" the master of the deep demon said.

"As long as I can become stronger, I can do anything." Chen Sisi said indifferently, containing endless coldness, but also containing the determination to change the color of the Lord of the Abyss.

"well."

The Lord of Abyss Demon smiled, with appreciation in his eyes, "The demon likes you. Compared with the guy before, the demon likes you more because you have ambitions and desires."

"As long as you can complete the mission of this demon, you can gain enough strength to complete any obsession that you want to complete in your heart."

The voice of the Lord of the Abyss was full of temptation and cruelty.

"What task?"

"Don't worry, your strength is too weak now, let this demon improve your strength first."

Hum!

With the fall of the voice of the Lord of the Abyss, a wave of invisible magic light shrouded, and along with this magic light, there was also an extremely terrifying soul oppression.

A stream of pure demon aura poured into Chen Sisi's body.

boom! The endless resentment in Chen Sisi's mind swallowed in the magic abyss suddenly screamed miserably. These resentful souls were originally howling and roaring in Chen Sisi's mind all the time, but at this moment, they were absorbed by Chen Sisi and strengthened her. soul

"what!"

Chen Sisi suddenly roared in pain, unable to withstand this terrible power, and at the same time her soul power was also increasing crazily.

Moreover, because these resentful souls were the power in Chen Sisi's own soul, there was no backlash at all.

A terrible breath radiated from Chen Sisi's body.

Moreover, Chen Sisi's cultivation level is also frantically improving.

The late peak.

Half holy.

Half-Holy Peak! Like Qin Mo, when he reached the peak of Semi-Holy, the Lord of Abyss Demon did not continue to improve Chen Sisi's strength, because once Chen Sisi was allowed to break through the Holy Realm here, he would not be able to send Chen Sisi out from here, which would violate Its Original intention.

Hum!

And when the power in Chen Sisi's body increased crazily, a colorful light also lingered from Chen Sisi's body, and there was a black breath in this colorful light.

"What? This blood..."

The face of the Lord of the Abyss changed drastically, as if he had seen something incredible.

The aura on it shook violently, "How could this bloodline be? How could any bloodline be in the body of this small Tianwu continent human race? Could it be the one back then..."

The Lord of Abyss Demon was shocked.

There was shock in its eyes, but immediately, it smiled again: "I can't think of which bloodline she has on her body. It's so good. It seems that this demon's plan can be completed with an 80% probability."

The Lord of Abyss Demon was extremely excited. Originally, its plan for itself had only a 50% probability, but now, it has suddenly increased to 80%.

Moreover, the original plan should also be changed.

boom!

The Lord of Abyss Demon stopped the power operation, and Chen Sisi immediately woke up.

"I..." She felt that her body was full of power, her perception of heaven and earth was extremely clear, and she could even faintly perceive the destructive thunder power of the outside world.
