Chapter 2491: Phoenix Liver Demon Heart

The three of them stepped into Cangxuan City.

"Kong Lao, it seems that the status of your Ancient Zhong Sect in Cangxuan City is really not very good?" Qin Chen smiled slightly while walking on the main street of Cangxuan City.

"Little dust...this is really what makes you laugh..." Shang Gukong's face suddenly blushed, and the dignified ancestor of the ancient bell sect was actually stopped by a guard in the middle of the mortal realm of Cangxuan City. I have to say, indeed It's shameful.

Even if Shang Gukong changed his face, Qin Tingting was also a big disciple of the Gu Zhong Sect, and his and Qin Chen's disguised identities were also the Supreme Elder of the Gu Zhong Sect, but they were still stopped. How could it not mean that the Gu Zhong Sect is now Situation?

The dignified elder was actually blocked by a guard at the door. This was an individual, and he could step on the ancient bell sect. Looking at Shang Gukong's awkward old face, Qin Chen smiled slightly and patted him on the shoulder: "Don't worry, this kind of thing will not happen in the future. In Xuancheng, everyone can hold their heads up,

Anyone who sees it must be respectful and dare not make any insults. "

Qin Chen said casually, but Shang Gukong was shocked. Is this not his dream?

He recalled countless years ago when he was the head of the ancient bell sect. Wasn't this his original intention?

But so many years have passed, the years have worn away his water chestnut, and he has gradually understood the cruelty of reality.

But at this moment, when these words came out of Qin Chen's mouth, Shang Gukong had a feeling of enthusiasm.

Do not forget the original intention, simple to say, difficult to do!

"Little dust..."

Shang Gukong's tone was trembling, and tears flickered in the corner of this old man's eyes.

If Qin Chen can really do this, even if he sells his life to Qin Chen, what counts? Qin Chen smiled lightly, walking in this Cangxuan City, only to see shops, restaurants, and wide streets on both sides of the street, all martial artists walking around. A prosperous faction, most of these warriors are in the mortal realm, although most

It was only in the early and mid-stage, but it was really like a cloud in the holy realm.

Qin Chen glanced at the past. Those shops and restaurants were extremely magnificent, with countless runes, prohibitions, and magnificent aura carved on them, which made people amazed.

The street is very wide, with a dazzling array of goods displayed. In addition to restaurants, there are also tea houses, medicinal shops, cultivation shops, pill halls, and saint soldiers... all of them towering into the sky, crowded with people, and lively.

It is indeed the heavenly realm, it is too prosperous. Compared to the top martial arts realm in the Tianwu Continent, it is not known how many times it has prospered.

All kinds of precious treasures that can't be seen in the lower realms are placed in the shop, and all kinds of high-end medicines are unheard of and unseen.

The prosperity of the heavens is vividly displayed in this huge ancient city.

This is just an ancient city in Yunzhou, and how prosperous will Yunzhou and even Guanghan Mansion above Cangxuan City be? Qin Chen couldn't imagine.

It's no wonder that many masters can be born in such a place, and it is indeed a holy place to train masters. "The fresh phoenix liver, the phoenix liver that was killed on the spot, the ancient phoenix from the demon race, the holy phoenix, was captured from the demon race, take a look, take a look." At the entrance of a tall restaurant, one A phoenix full of flames lying in the restaurant

At the door, guarded by several masters, phoenix blood flowed, and the flames skyrocketed.

This phoenix was smashed, the liver was taken out, and it was steaming for sale.

This is the signature dish of this restaurant today. It is placed at the entrance of the restaurant to attract customers. These top restaurants have special dishes for sale every day.

"Holy Phoenix..."

Qin Chen was shocked. If such an ancient phoenix was in the lower realm, it could dominate a continent, but in the celestial realm, it would be slaughtered like a beast and become fish on the chopping board, too naked. However, Qin Chen has read the collections of the Ancient Zhong Sect and knows that in the heavens, the monster race and the human race are two different races, occupying different regions, and there will always be some conflicts. It is not like in the Tianwu Continent, where humans occupy the mainstream. The beast will hardly give

How many threats humanity poses.

Humans cook the strong monsters for food, and the monsters will also devour the strong humans and refine the source. "This is the heart of the genie from the demon clan. A plate of genie heart only needs three hundred holy crystals. They are all pure saint-level genies. After capturing, they dug out their hearts and supplemented them with ninety-nine. Eighty-one kinds of medicinal materials are refined and formed Peerlessly delicious, one bite can purify the holy yuan, and it is extremely delicious. "

At the entrance of another tall restaurant, a huge genie powerhouse was imprisoned, killed alive, and dug out his heart for speculation.

This is terrifying. In the lower realm, both the demons and the demons are lives. Although humans also kill blood beasts to increase their bloodline power, they rarely slaughter directly at the entrance of a restaurant, but in the heavens, this scene is too common. Up.

Compared with the Tianwu Continent, the laws of the heavens are more naked and cruel. The strong is respected. If you are strong, you can control everything.

Qin Chen felt this in the ancient clock school. It seemed to be a common thing to refining the origin of others.

"Let's go."

Qin Chen is not interested in these so-called 'food', what he has to do now is to find an alchemy power and cooperate.

Of course, before coming, he had already done his homework. There were too many alchemy powers in Cangxuan City, and there were some extremely powerful alchemy powers, which Qin Chen couldn't conquer right now, so he wanted to find an ordinary one first. Easier to control.

Coincidentally, the Gu Zhong Sect would often go to an alchemy power in Cangxuan City to cooperate. This power belonged to one of the countless ordinary alchemy powers in Cangxuan City, and was generally medium, which was suitable for Qin Chen's cooperation.

"Go away, go away!"

Suddenly, a huge angry shout resounded in the sky, and a team of guards composed entirely of holy realm masters descended from the sky, shouting again and again, as if driving the crowd. "This is the guard of Cangxuan City, why are they all dispatched?" When the warriors on the street saw the group of guards, each was shocked. Each of these guards was elite, and their cultivation level was not high. Just like the guard at the door

, But the aura is too strong, each of the pupils is shining brightly, as if it contains endless majesty.

Such a character, put in the lower realm, I am afraid that each of them can control a continent and become the master of the continent.

But here, it turned out to be just a guard. However, the aura of this group of guards is extraordinary, although it is only the cultivation base of the middle and late stages of the sacred realm, but if you really want to fight together, I am afraid that ordinary earth sage masters will suffer.

Chapter 2492: Soul Fire Family

"Little Chen, this is the guardian of the gods. They are all the elites of the city lord's mansion. In Cangxuan City, the Ao family is respected. The Ao family was once a large family in Yunzhou. Later, the Guanghan Mansion was established and the Ao family was sent to Cangxuan. Xuancheng, became the lord of Cangxuan city, and took charge of Cangxuan city

, Is currently the largest family in Cangxuan City. "

Shang Gukong hurriedly explained.

"Of course, in addition to the Ao family, Cangxuan City also has some ancient local forces, which are also very powerful. Now that the guards of the * armor of the City Lord's Mansion are dispatched, it seems that they are welcoming someone, and they must be the powerful."

Shang Gu Kong's voice just fell.

A divine ship appeared in the sky, and on this divine ship, a famous young man stood proudly, each full of arrogance soaring to the sky, and his aura was like the ocean, extremely frightening. Especially the young man standing at the bow of the ship is even more remarkable. This young man is throbbing with divine flames, turning into circles of divine rings, like a shelter from the gods, it seems that he is a divine child, his eyes are stern, and he does not look at all. Downward

Cangxuan City is just ahead of the proud world!

It should be understood that Cangxuan City is a big city, anyone can only enter through the city gate, but this group of people can come from the sky in a divine ship, and their identity is absolutely different.

"The soul fire is around, is a member of the Yunzhou soul fire family, but it is actually Li Dongyu, the eldest son of the soul fire family, is here?"

Seeing the young people on this ship, various exclamations came from all around, many people evaded one after another, and Shang Gukong couldn't help being moved, and hurriedly pulled Qin Chen and the others away.

"Why do you want to avoid it?" He hides when he sees people, this is not Qin Chen's style, he asked with a smile.

Qin Tingting glanced at Qin Chen suspiciously, "Senior, Yunzhou Soul and Fire Family, haven't you heard of it?"

"Master Ben hasn't heard of it?" Qin Chen said with a smile.

Although this soul fire family seemed very powerful, Qin Chen could see through it at a glance. The young man in front of the divine ship seemed to be only the pinnacle of the mortal holy realm, close to the earthly holy realm, but had not broken through.

As long as he is below Earth Sage, Qin Chen is not afraid of anyone.

On the contrary, the flames entwined with each other made Qin Chen quite curious. This flame was not earth fire, sky fire, demon fire, blood fire, and demon fire, but a special kind of flame. Qin Chen saw it for the first time. . Qin Tingting smiled bitterly and patted her forehead. She forgot that Qin Chen was not a member of Yunzhou. However, the Soul Fire family is a famous family in Yunzhou. Shao Chen has never even heard of the Soul Fire family. Far away from Yunzhou

Place it. "With little dust, the Soul Fire family is one of the most famous families in Yunzhou and one of the strongest inheritances in Yunzhou. Although they are not the controlling family of Yunzhou, they are the first-class family in Yunzhou. Yunzhou's controlling family is almost Just point. "

"Yes, the Li family of the soul fire family is one of the oldest families in Yunzhou. It is said that the heavens existed before the shattered world, and they claimed to be descendants of the Holy Lord." Shang Gukong explained.

"That's it." Qin Chen nodded. No wonder the people here are so jealous. The descendants of the former saints sound like awesome. "This soul fire family has a special method, born with the power of soul fire, this power can burn everything, it is said to rely on soul power to burn, it is Yunzhou's top flame mystery, all talents are so famous .Not only Therefore, Li Dongyu, the eldest son of the soul fire family in this life, has an older sister, a well-known beauty in Yunzhou, with amazing talent, and even above Li Dongyu, he was betrothed to Master Yunzhou. "

"Zhou Zi?" Qin Chen asked with a smile.

Qin Tingting knew that Qin Chen didn't know anything, so she explained, "Master Zhouzi, is Yunmengze, the elder son of the Yun family, the lord of Yunzhou. He is one of the three most dazzling new stars among our Yunzhou Tianjiao, and also Yunzhou. Son of the Overlord."

"Oh, I see, it's a second-generation official!" Qin Chen smiled. "Li Wanxue of the Soulfire family is the top arrogant in Yunzhou. I heard that it was betrothed to Yunmengze of Yunzhou Zhou not long ago. Of course it is just a rumor. No one knows the truth or not, but it is enough to make the soulfire. The reputation of the family has gone up." Qin Ting

Ting smiled bitterly, this kind of family rumors, to them, was like gossip, too far away.

"The one on the ship just now is Li Wanxue's younger brother Li Dongyu, the son of the soul fire family." Shang Gukong looked wary, "the soul fire family is the top family, we better avoid this kind of existence." No wonder Shang Gukong is cautious. The Guzhong school is just a small sect in Yunzhou, and it is completely incomparable with the top aristocratic families like the Soulfire family. It can even be said that the Soulfire family can destroy them with a finger. For such a behemoth

Of course, Shang Gukong must stay far away.

In this world where the strong respects the strong, the way of life for a small person is to not cause trouble, not to cause trouble.

Not only Qin Chen and the others are discussing, but other warriors around are also discussing.

"This time in the Cangxuan City event, even the soul-fire family elders were shocked. It seems that ordinary people's hopes are greatly reduced.

"Really, these arrogances are born with a golden key and already possess inexhaustible resources. Why should they compete with us ordinary people." "Hmph, what can you do about this? This world is born with it's so unfair. To be honest, it's pretty good to be born in the celestial realm. Haven't you heard? Recently, the rules of the celestial realm have improved under the influence of Xiaoyao Supreme.

After establishing contact with some continents in the lower realm, the lower realm has gradually begun to ascend to the heavens again. Compared with those ants in the lower realm, we are already lucky enough. "Huh, the lower bound?" That's true. The lower realms are all small ponds, and it's difficult to even become a holy level. It's said that the continents below are lacking in true qi to die, and a little holy qi is very precious, unlike our heavenly realm, who can breathe at will, they are all pure and pure. Saint gas. "Friends, those in the lower realm can't be underestimated. Before the heavens were destroyed, there were still many masters in the lower realms. There have been outstanding characters of all races. Think about it, in an environment lacking aura. , Can practice

People in the sanctified state, when they reach the heaven, don't know what they will grow into. "

"This is...but we don't need to think about these things. It just happens that the battle with the demons is still going on. If the people from the lower realms really reach the heavens, it's not bad to let them be cannon fodder."

"By the way, I heard the news. It is said that Li Dongyu, the eldest son of the Soul Fire family, came to Cangxuan City because he fell in love with the eldest lady of the City Lord's Mansion Ao's family and wanted to come on a blind date."

"Hey, there is even this news. No wonder the first son of Li Dongyu will appear here. I think this rumor is true."

"There is this kind of gossip?" Qin Chen smiled slightly. Compared with the lower realm, this strong man in the heaven is also very secular.

"Hmph, who do you listen to, nonsense, aren't you afraid of being cut off your tongue?" At this moment, a pleasant voice resounded with dissatisfaction.

Chapter 2493: Lore

Qin Chen looked back and saw that it was a woman, dressed in academic clothes, with a folding fan in her hands. She was disguised as a man. She had a very ethereal temperament, and her aura had reached the peak of the final stage of the Holy Realm.

It's not far.

At this moment, this woman looked very dissatisfied when looking at several warriors who were discussing there.

"Who are you? We chat, can you control it?"

The warriors glanced at the woman and said with a sneer.

The woman's aura converged very well, and Qin Chen could see that, from the outside, she was almost an ordinary mortal martial artist.

The woman sneered, "You guys, where did you hear the news? It's ridiculous that the eldest lady of the Ao family will fall in love with the kind of vulgar people who show off their power."

"Yaowu and prestige? That is clearly Qiyuxuanang, okay? Tsk, look, even the * armor guards of the City Lord's Mansion are personally escorted. If the City Lord's Mansion is not interested in the sons of the Soulfire Family, who believes?"

"It's ridiculous." The woman's tone was disdainful, but she was too lazy to argue: "It's just you vulgar people that think it's a magnificent beauty." Qin Chen took a deep look at the woman, and he found the woman's tone. The disdain in the middle seems not to be a pretend, but a kind of really look down on, a woman in the mortal realm would actually look down on the son of the soul fire family, a bit meaning.

"Miss, why are you here? The first son of Li Dongyu has already gone to the City Lord's Mansion. The adults are looking for you everywhere. Go back quickly."

At this moment, a guard wearing divine armor was looking for something anxiously, suddenly saw the woman disguised as a man, rushed forward and respectfully kneeled in front of this woman.

This woman is obviously distinguished and has something to do with the City Lord's Mansion.

Seeing this scene, the faces of the warriors who were talking about before were all panicked, their faces turned pale, and cold sweat on their foreheads.

They even slandered the eldest lady of the city lord mansion in front of the people of the city lord mansion, this...

The bodies trembled crazily and their faces were ashen. "Get up, there are a lot of people here, don't show my identity." The woman waved her hand to make the guard of the * armor stand up, then looked at the people, and said coldly: "You guys, get out of here. I heard your nonsense again and again,

Up your mouth. "

"Yes Yes!"

These people were overjoyed, and never expected that this woman would let them go. Her heart was filled with palpitations while rejoicing, so she must not talk nonsense in the future.

Qin Chen was also surprised. He didn't think that this woman had a good-mindedness, and she let them go.

Ok?

Just when Qin Chen saw a joke and was about to leave, suddenly, he felt a chill, which was transmitted from the crowd not far away, extremely obscure, but the murderous ingenuity was incomparable.

"What a murderous spirit, who is it?"

He immediately looked over, and saw a dark shadow flashing in the void, as if traveling through the void, suddenly a sword penetrated directly at the woman next to him.

It turned out to be an assassin, violently attacking, to assassinate the woman beside him.

Huh!

This pitch-black sword gas pierced through countless spaces to assassinate, and the target was directed at the woman wearing a scholar costume.

咻咻咻咻... Countless sword qi tore to the outside, sword intent is vertical and horizontal, and there is a * storm on the street. Before, I was fortunate to have recovered the lives of the few Mortal Saint Realm martial artists, even a sword light. Can't resist it, I'm completely strangled into a virtual reality

Nothing, the whole body penetrates nothingness, as if it has turned into a part of the power of kendo, into this sword aura that contains endless killing intent.

"Killing sword aura!" Qin Chen was startled. The other party turned out to be a killer sword aura, and this killing mood was very terrifying. After beheading a person, he could plunder the original strength of the other person after death and turn it into the sword aura itself. The meaning of killing makes the attack more and more

The more fierce and fierce.

This method is extremely evil. The assassin was definitely a master, extremely dangerous, Qin Chen even felt the power of the terrifying profound rules contained in his body. The endless and terrifying sword aura contained spatial artistic conception. He slashed out, blasted out with one blow, no Oath

Looking back, this is a lore.

Moreover, this person's strength is extremely terrifying, he has reached the peak of the late Mortal Sage Realm, and even only one step away from the Earth Sage Realm, it can be said that half of his foot has entered the Earth Sage Realm.

On the square, many masters of the mortal realm were torn apart, their flesh and blood were extraordinary, and they couldn't stop a blow at all. Even in the late stage of the mortal realm, they were all beheaded with a single blow, turning them into a piece of kendo. power.

The sword of lore!

"Miss, be careful!" The guard of the * armor beside the woman yelled in anger, and instantly rushed out, turning into a stream of light, blocking her in front of her, actually using her body to block her, seeing death as home, but that fierce sword light, Just penetrate his body directly, holy

The divine armor was torn apart, it was difficult to resist an instant, and it did not stop at all.

The woman reacted extremely quickly. At the moment when the guard of the * armor stopped her, she immediately shot, banging, and suddenly, a terrible aura lingered out. This woman was definitely not weaker, even better than the leader of the ancient Zhong sect. Xuan is even stronger. However, the other party was ready to go, and she was hurriedly challenged. The Sheng Yuan displayed was immediately pierced, and the robes on her body also exploded. At the same time, the many treasures on her body were also exploded. , Can't resist the sword at all

The edge.

Suddenly, this woman fell into a desperate situation. The sword maker is unprecedentedly fierce, vicious, and inhumane. He was born specifically for assassination. The most important thing is that his cultivation is too strong, he is half-step holy, combined with this assassination secret technique, even ordinary earth holy masters. Can't resist it, will be cut kill.

At least, even Shang Gukong couldn't react, and was affected by the sword with Qin Chen.

When the assassin was shot, he didn't leave his mouth at all. Not only did he want to kill the woman, he also wanted to kill all the martial artists around him, becoming the force in his sword, and completing his supreme blow. .

He also did this. This sword blatantly broke through all the defenses on this woman, and wanted to pierce into this woman's body. Moreover, an invisible force rippling over to destroy the woman's soul. kill.

At this moment, all the people saw a pair of eyes at that moment, cold, with endless killing intent, and saw that they were about to succeed in the assassination, showing a ghostly smile.

when!

However, his smile stopped. At the moment when the woman was finally killed, a hand, like lightning, appeared on the top of the blade, and a hand actually held the blade in the palm of the hand. The endless power contained in that blade, at this moment, All blasted into an endless depth

In the abyss, was resisted by a stalwart figure.

This stalwart figure is the owner of the palm. Qin Chen!

Chapter 2494: Ancient jihad

Qin Chen held the sword in his hand at the moment of a critical moment of life and death, and at the same time forcibly withstood the peerless blow that surged from the sword, with eternal killing intent.

Boom!

The killing intent and sword aura power poured into his body, and in an instant, it was about to overwhelm Qin Chen's body, and the terrifying killing power would completely explode Qin Chen.

Immortal Eucharist! Qin Chen took a deep breath, the power in his body was mobilized to the extreme, and in his eyes, a terrifying light was blasted out, and he looked deeply into the eyes of the assassin. The majestic original power in his body turned, solid. Physical body, instantly

At the extreme, the sword aura in Qin Chen's body lingered, urging the rules of space, and the origin in his body was spinning crazily, forcibly disintegrating the killing aura and sword aura. This is what Qin Chen can do, because his physical body is extremely powerful, comparable to the earthly saints, and Qin Chen's strongest is his skills in kendo, he has the rules of killing, and he is the most familiar with this kind of attack, otherwise he will change himself. Come, even Shang Gukong will also be penetrated by this sword.

"Huh?" The assassin was shocked. He never thought that his lore would be blocked by others. Even the terrifying mood of killing contained in the sword was like a stone sinking into the sea, being suppressed forcibly. What happened to that person? Point? Ground

Mid-Holy? Late Earth Saint?

However, the other party did not have the aura of Earth Saint, just like him, he was in the mortal sacred realm, or the pinnacle of the mortal sacred realm, but how could such a person resist his lore?

It should be known that he is a peerless assassin who has assassinated an earthly master.

"Kill!" This assassin, after all, is a peerless master, a crazy strong, unable to assassinate with a single sword, so he closed the sword abruptly, and Qin Chen grabbed it hard, and the endless rules on the blade suddenly moved, and the terrifying aura agitated. , And breed an infinite sharp

Breath.

This is a holy sword, and it is extremely extraordinary among the holy swords. Of course, it has not reached the level of an earthly holy weapon, otherwise Qin Chen would also be injured under this sword.

Puff!

Qin Chen's palm stabbed slightly, and a slight gap was cut open, and the other party forcibly pulled out the sharp sword from Qin Chen's hand.

"Unfortunately, if my cultivation base is higher, this child will not be able to withdraw the sword at all."

Qin Chen sighed. The strength of this peerless assassin was too strong to assassinate the master of the early days of the Earth Saint. No matter how strong Qin Chen is, under these sage soldiers and regular sword aura, it is absolutely impossible to force the opponent to leave behind. Li Jian, could not help but regret.

If you let other people hear this, you will definitely go crazy. With this sword, the early masters of the Earth Sage will be beheaded, but Qin Chen is so dissatisfied with a little oily skin on his hand, and it is more angry than people.

This assassin drew his sword and swept it on the spot. A dozen people died under the sword across the street. Other mortal masters at the peak of the sacred realm, under this attack, were like cutting melons and vegetables. Beheaded, there is no resistance.

"Qin Tingting be careful."

The vigor hit, Shang Gukong stood in front of Qin Tingting, the earthly holy breath lingered, resisting the attack of sword Qi for her. The assassin's sharp sword absorbed a lot of power and burned again. Just when everyone thought he would assassinate again, the mysterious assassin, without a hit, turned into a black smoke and fled madly outside Cangxuan City. , In a moment, just

To disappear into the void.

"Stay for me!"

Where did Qin Chen allow the assassin to leave, he blasted out a punch right away.

Killing fist!

Boom!

The terrifying power swept across the street, and the sky above the street was like a big storm, containing the power of endless rules, shaking the whole street, and many warriors on the scene retreated under this pressure and did not dare to watch. In the mighty storm, a terrifying fist shadow swept out, like a billion mad dragon going out to sea, stirring the wind and clouds, the fist shadow covering the sky and the sun, containing the rules of the universe, shaking the four directions, khaka, the surrounding buildings are all Trembling in rustle, start

Cracked.

Countless warriors have felt the huge fluctuations in the Saint Yuan, sweeping across this street, many strong men have felt the power of suffocation.

This is the power of the earth saint level.

when!

Qin Chen bombarded directly behind the assassin. The assassin was furious, knowing that if this blow hit him, he would not die or be disabled. He turned around and quickly shot his sword against the mighty fist.

Shoo! The endless sword light surged, and the assassin unexpectedly displayed more than 3,600 swords in this instant. Each sword was a killing intent and contained endless aura. More than 3,600 swords gathered in Together, they form a sword light across the sky, booming

Long blocked Qin Chen's fist.

Cang Dang!

Heavenly sword light shattered.

puff!

The assassin flew upside down, vomiting blood in his mouth, but his figure kept going, and he was about to sink into the void again. "Unfortunately, although my attack is strong, it is not easy to use the time rules, and many of the cards are not easy to use, otherwise, this one can directly disrupt the time and kill the assassin." Qin Chen was hesitating. Do you want to show some bottom

Card, behead this assassin.

At this moment of hesitation, a roar came from not far away: "Boldly, dare to assassinate the lady and seek death."

Boom! Countless powerful auras rushed in. Not far from the depths of Cangxuan City, a famous master came over. Each of them was magnificent, and the leader was an old man. He burst into the sky with anger. The burning arrogance went straight into the sky, the whole

The void is almost solidified.

This person was extremely fast, swish swish, a few flashes, and he had already appeared in mid-air. Suddenly, countless people present couldn't help but want to kneel and bow to the ground.

"Earth Sage mid-term master! No, the mid-Earth Sage peak!"

Shang Gukong was taken aback and lost his voice.

In Cangxuan City, as long as it is an Earth Saint Martial Artist, it is already considered a strong side, and can build a small power, but that is only the early stage of the Earth Saint, or even the initial peak. After arriving in the middle stage of the earth saint, it is completely different, not to mention it is only a small level, but it is extremely difficult. Shangukong has not been able to break through the penance of thousands of years. Such masters are enough to establish a medium power. , Continue the number in Cangxuan City

Inheritance for thousands of years. As for the late Earth Sage, that is a powerful person who can dominate Cangxuan City. It is said that the city lord of Cangxuan City, Ao Lie, is the master of the late Earth Sage, and some people say it is the peak of the late Earth Sage. It is rumored that it is Cangxuan city. The first master, as for the real reality

boom!

This old man appeared and rushed directly to the mysterious assassin.

what!

The assassin was taken aback and was about to run away, but the old man shook him out of the void with a palm in the air, then stepped on the void and turned into a mysterious step, and hit the assassin with a powerful assassin.

"This is...ancient holy warfare!" The assassin was shocked, and hurried back with a sword!

Chapter 2495: No space organization boom! However, as soon as his sword energy was cut out, he was enveloped by endless fist power, bang, bang, all the space around his body was imprisoned, various bursts of sound came from his body, and the sword qi displayed was It exploded quickly, the figure left and right, the root

Ben couldn't rush out.

"Is this the master of the mid-Earth Sage peak? So strong!"

Qin Chen was shocked. The middle stage of the earth sage was far better than the early stage of the earth sage. More than a little bit, the assassin was also a master of the half-step earth sage, able to leapfrog the level of assassination, but in front of the old man, he had no ability to resist.

Whoosh whoosh!

At the same time, a stream of light swept behind the old man, rushing towards the woman beside Qin Chen.

"Miss, are you okay?"

"The subordinates are late for help, please forgive me."

"Come on, come on, heal the lady quickly."

There were shouts of anger, these streamers fell down, and everyone was panicked, stepping forward and asking questions.

Boom!

But at this time, after struggling, the assassin was finally suppressed by the old man and held it in his hand, like a chicken, without any resistance.

The old man's figure flashed and landed, and the audience was silent.

The burning holy aura is restrained, the old man's eyes are muddy, but he bursts into ejaculation. He is wearing a simple dress, but between his gestures, there is a great momentum blooming, holding the power that can crush everything, and he is looking everywhere.

"It's Cai Gaofeng from the City Lord's Mansion."

"The chief steward of the City Lord's Mansion."

"It is rumored that Cai Gaofeng, the chief steward of the City Lord's Mansion, is in charge of many affairs of Cangxuan City, and his cultivation has reached the peak of the mid-earth holy realm. It is possible to break through the late earthly holy realm at any time. No wonder he is so tyrannical that the assassin was captured in a moment."

"The assassin didn't know how he came from, so he dared to do an assassination in Cangxuan City. He really wanted to die."

The crowd talked, shocked and inexplicable.

"Miss, the old slave is too late. He deserves to die. Miss is shocked!"

When Cai Gaofeng fell, he knelt down and bowed directly, treating the woman respectfully, like a slave.

This made everyone even more shocked.

There are many women in the City Lord's Mansion, and there are many people who can be called young ladies, but there is only one person who can be called a young lady by Cai Gaofeng, the chief steward of the City Lord Mansion, the daughter of City Lord Ao Lie of Cangxuan City, Cang The pearl of Xuancheng-Boil Qingling.

"Uncle Cai, please hurry up, I'm fine, I thanked this friend for his help before...Hey, where is this friend?" Zhuo Qingling turned her head and suddenly let out a startled suspicion. I don't know when Qin Chen already knows. Whereabouts. Seeing Cai Gaofeng's arrival, Qin Chen knew that the assassin was bound to die, so he took Shang Gukong and Qin Tingting and left immediately. After all, he was just borrowing the identity of the Ancient Zhong Sect. The other side must be

Will investigate his identity.

Besides, Qin Chen didn't want anything in return. When would he not leave at this time?

"When did the man who rescued Miss City Lord's Mansion leave? I don't even know."

"Yeah, I didn't see it. What kind of luck was it to save Miss City Lord's Mansion. The Lord City Lord would not be exaggerated to say thanks, and he left quietly. It's amazing."

"The man who rescued the eldest lady is also a powerful character. At the moment of the moment, he blocked the killer and also prevented the killer from escaping. Otherwise, when the opponent escapes from Cangxuan City, it is very likely that he will be hidden."

"I thought he was not old before. He seemed to be a young man. Could it be that he was also the arrogant talent of some top power outside Cangxuan City? At least I had never heard of this person in Cangxuan City."

The crowd calmed down at this time, and there was a lot of discussion, and many masters also came from afar, they all heard the news here and watched the excitement.

"Uncle Cai, you must find my savior. If it weren't for him, I was in danger before. I must repay him face to face." Zhu Qingling said anxiously.

She is a woman who is jealous and hateful, repays gratitude, grievances, and does not pretend or twitch.

"Miss, don't worry, the old slave will help you find the person, but the most important thing is to figure out the origin of the assassin." The old man said, turning his head to look at the assassin in his hand, and said coldly: "Say, you Where is the killer? Why do you want to assassinate

My lady, otherwise, I want you to die. "

"Quack, no space and no me!"

The assassin suddenly laughed strangely, and said four words, the whole soul was shocked, turned into nothingness, disappeared, and turned into nothingness.

His soul was self-destructed, and it was directly returned to nothingness, different from self-destruction, it was too late to suppress it.

"Damn it!"

Upon seeing this, the old man directly squeezed the corpse open and took off the storage ring and sword, but he knew that there was basically no useful information in it.

"No Space Organization!"

There were whispers from the crowd.

"Uncle Cai, what is the Wukong Organization?" Zhu Qingling asked with a frown. The old man's face was gloomy, and he said coldly: "This is a mysterious killer organization that we have just infiltrated into our Yunzhou. This organization is called the Wukong organization. Recently, it has been buying all the major forces in Yunzhou. Unexpectedly, it has infiltrated it now. I

We Cangxuan city. "

"But why does this organization want to assassinate me?" Zhu Qingling was still puzzled. "This old slave doesn't know. Maybe the master knows something. It seems that this matter should be reported to the master right away. By the way, the first son of Li Dongyu of the Soul Fire family arrived at the City Lord's Mansion. Why did you run out, Miss? I will take you right away

Bring back. "

"I won't go back. The elder son of the Soul Fire family will be here. Let my father receive him. Why do I have to go back?" Zhu Qingling pouted, dissatisfied. The old man smiled bitterly: "Miss, your mind master still doesn't understand? Don't worry, the master will not force you, but after all, the soul fire family is the top power in Yunzhou. My Ao family still has to give some face, let alone , You just did Danger, if you don't take you back, the master will punish the old slave. You can't watch the old slave get punished. "Okay, okay, can't I go back? By the way, the benefactor who saved me just now, you must find it for me, and I want to personally thank him. "Zuo Qingling patted her chest. To be honest, she has lingering fears even now. After all, she has encountered such a thing.

There is no interest in traveling outside.

"Don't worry, the old slave will find it for you."

The old man smiled and sighed in his heart, such a good lady, and so considerate of their servants, if any young man can marry in the future, it would be a blessing for eight lifetimes.

The old man hopes Miss Happiness more than anyone else.

At this time, on another street in Cangxuan City, the three Qin Chen slowly walked on the street.

"Senior, why did we leave just now? If I'm not mistaken, the person just now should be the eldest lady of the City Lord's Mansion. Senior, you saved the eldest lady of the City Lord's Mansion. You will definitely repay you with the face of Lord City Lord Right?" Qin Tingting couldn't help but wonder.

Chapter 2496: Ancient Medicine Hall

"Haha." Qin Chen smiled and glanced at Qin Tingting: "Do you really think so?"

Qin Tingting was taken aback: "Isn't it?"

"Shang Gukong, please answer it." Qin Chen smiled and looked at Shang Gukong.

"This..." Shang Gukong smiled bitterly: "Little Chen, your subordinates don't know what Chen Shao's intentions are. If you change to a subordinate, you will definitely not leave. After all, you can get to know the people in the City Lord's Mansion. It's something that my subordinates have always dreamed of."

Qin Chen: "..."

It's no wonder that this ancient bell school is so unpromising, it hasn't been able to develop until now.

"Well, I ask you, Qin Tingting, if you have a child..."

Before Qin Chen finished speaking, Qin Tingting's face turned flush, lowered her head, and whispered like a mosquito: "Senior, I don't have a boyfriend yet, where are the children from..."

Qin Chen sweated coldly, "I'm just making an analogy. For example, do you know, if you have a child and you encounter danger outside and are rescued by a Nine Heavens Martial Emperor, what will happen to you?"

"This..." Qin Tingting thought carefully, and said: "I will give him some rewards, thank him for saving my'child'."

Speaking of children, Qin Tingting's face blushed again. I have to say that Qin Tingting is quite a person to look at. She is not the kind of woman who makes you feel amazing at first glance, but she is the kind of woman who makes you more and more comfortable, and her appearance belongs to the upper middle class, but because of Qin Tingting's body For the ancient bell

Senior sister, there is always a kind of elder sister's demeanor, and she will not be particularly noticed by her appearance.

But at this moment, when the little woman came out, she immediately became more amorous, which made many passers-by stare at it.

Qin Chen shook him and said, "Then what will you pay him? Saint Soldier? Or give him a panacea and let him directly break through the Holy Realm, or let him join the Ancient Bell Sect?" Qin Tingting thought for a while. Said: "None of these should be possible. After all, the opponent is just a nine-day martial emperor. It is a waste to give him a holy soldier. As for allowing him to break through the holy realm, that kind of spirit pill is extremely precious, I am afraid it will not be possible. ,on

Not to mention, he should be rewarded with some holy crystals and top emperor soldiers. "

For Qin Tingting, these are the most suitable ones for her. "That's not enough. Although we saved the eldest lady of the City Lord's Mansion, what kind of reward can the other party give as the city lord and our status as the ancient bell sect? Earth Saint Weapon? No way, let Ben Shao break through Earth saint? Or let the empty old sudden

In the middle of the saint breaking ground? None of this is possible. At most, it will be more convenient for the Gu Zhong Sect to walk in Cangxuan City in the future. "

"But, don't forget, we appeared with the assassin. Do you think this happened, will the City Lord's Mansion investigate us?"

Qin Tingting pondered, "Absolutely."

In empathy, she will also investigate the savior of her child.

"Then what if the origin of the person who rescued Miss City Lord's Mansion is unknown?"

Qin Chen smiled.

"I understand." Qin Tingting suddenly said, "The other party will think that we may be in the same group as the assassin."

"Correct."

Qin Chen nodded: "Although we rescued the other party and even obstructed the assassin, it cannot be ruled out that this is a double reed, a bitter trick, and a double reed close to the city lord's mansion. Although it is unlikely, it is indeed possible. "If there are only you and Kong Lao today, you can stay and accept the reward from the City Lord's Mansion. It is because you know the basics, but because Ben Shao made the move, there is no need for Ben Shao to stay and fight. One point for Ben Shao

Use a small reward. "

"the most important is....."

Qin Chen smiled proudly: "You don't need to go to curry favor with their City Lord Mansion."

This trace of self-confidence made Qin Tingting's heart throb.

"However, Senior, if the people from the City Lord's Mansion want to find, there is still a high probability that we can be found." Qin Tingting hesitated, and there were still some people Cang Xuancheng knew of her.

"Hehe, find the return, as long as we don't take the initiative to contact each other, then the suspicion will instantly weaken, and Ben Shao's identity will not matter."

Qin Chen flashed his eyes and laughed.

If the City Lord's Mansion finds him out, that's another matter. He doesn't resist using the power of the City Lord's Mansion to find Qianxue and the others, but Qin Chen still has to develop the Chendi Pavilion first. "Senior, we are here. This is the pill shop that our ancient bell sect often cooperates with. It is called the ancient medicine hall. In this ancient medicine hall, there is an alchemy master from the sacred realm and ten masters at the peak of the sacred realm. There is also an early visitor

Qing, ranked middle among the many alchemy powers in Cangxuan City. "Although there are not many top masters in this ancient medicine hall, the master ancient medicine master of the ancient medicine hall has extraordinary attainments in alchemy. It is rumored that he was originally just an ordinary alchemist, and later entered a certain ancient medicine. Relics, got a copy of ancient times

The secrets of the alchemy of the period, since then, alchemy attainments have advanced by leaps and bounds, and have a not weak reputation around. "

Shang Gukong introduced to Qin Chen.

"Really? Go in and take a look."

Qin Chen walked to the entrance of this ancient medicine hall. On the entrance of this medicine store, there were two characters, "Ancient Medicine". After stepping into it, a burst of medicinal gas spread over it, mixed with at least tens of thousands of medicinal materials. the taste of.

"Sure enough, it is the Heavenly Medicine Hall, which is different from the secular. In the secular, even the medicine gas of the pill pavilion is not so scary."

Qin Chen nodded, already distinguishing some medicinal materials and strength of this ancient medicine hall based on the smell.

Although Qin Chen was just able to refine the holy grade pill, Qin Chen was not afraid of anyone during the pill refining process, just as he could refine the holy yuan pill in a few days and put it in the heavens. Can also stun anyone.

What's more, many alchemy inheritances in the heavens have been lost. In the Tianwu Continent, countless powerful people have gathered. Qin Chen has read countless ancient books of alchemy, and his soul power surpasses those of the earth sages. Alchemy master.

And following the smell, Qin Chen has already calculated that most of the materials he wants to refine the Years Huiguang Pill are here.

"Hmph, don't blame me for not giving you a chance. In three days, our Gu Fang Zhai only gives you three days. If you don't pay off what you owe in three days, don't blame our Gu Fang Zhai for not giving face, and go."

As soon as Qin Chen and the others entered, they heard a sneer, and then a few fierce and evil people walked out of the ancient medicine hall. Before leaving, they looked at Qin Chen coldly and walked away.

The atmosphere in the ancient medicine hall was very embarrassing, and it was only after these people left that the excitement returned.

"Three, what kind of medicinal materials do you want to buy? Is it to refine the pill or to buy the pill directly?"

A waiter walked over with a bit of bitterness on his face, but he asked respectfully.

"We are from the Guzhong School, we are looking for your hall master." Shang Gukong took a step forward and said lightly.

Chapter 2497: Master of Ancient Medicine

The attendant glanced at Shang Gukong, and his body was shocked. It seemed that he slightly sensed that his cultivation base was beyond the mortal realm, and he immediately showed respect.

Shang Gukong's cultivation base was an earth saint, and his status was enough to deter a large number of people.

"A few please."

The attendant guided Qin Chen's three people in. Qin Chen glanced at the ancient medicine hall. The shop was not small, but there were not many customers. It seemed that the business was very ordinary.

He frowned slightly, this shouldn't be right. In the heavens, the pill is a very treasured thing, and it should be very popular everywhere, and it should not be as tepid as here.

Thinking of the few people he saw before, Qin Chen felt thoughtful.

After a while, the three of them were directed to the reception room.

I saw flames lingering around the reception room, and the entire ancient medicine hall seemed to be filled with an extremely terrifying fire. The power of the flame rose from the ground, turning the entire ancient medicine hall into a melting pot.

In this way, a terrifying prohibition was formed, exuding an aura against the sky.

And in the back of the ancient medicine hall, there are a lot of medicinal materials, and some pill, in the void, countless powerful prohibitions, talisman, and array light are flashing, blocking those who dare to cross the thunder pond.

"Senior, the flame aura here is so strong, I'm afraid the Earth Saint powerhouse would not dare to force it? It seems that the master of the Ancient Medicine Hall does have some means." Qin Tingting said in shock. "It's nothing." Qin Chen smiled lightly. "This is the most basic means of flaming an array. If I'm not mistaken, the alchemist in this ancient medicine hall controls an ancient flame, the smell of flames. It seems to come from the wild, the power is extremely ancient, but Part of it is missing, so there is something lacking. When encountering a master of Earth Sage, it can stop it all at once, but if it really can stop it, it's not possible. If nothing else, Ben Shao wants to destroy it, and it can be destroyed immediately. "

His words spread out slightly, seeming to spread far away, and they seem to be in the ears.

"Huh, where's the madman, the old man's hard-laying confession of fire can burn the sky and destroy the earth, but you said it is useless, boy, your tone is so big..."

A voice was passed over, and the void fluctuated slightly, passing through this reception room, a great pressure, oppressing Qin Chen. Qin Tingting's body trembled, almost suppressed to breathe, saw the invisible flame aura pouring in, as if turning the reception room into a world of flames, Qin Tingting was dripping with sweat, even though it was in the later stage of the Holy Realm.

The powerhouse, but can't resist such a breath, seems to be burned to ashes.

This is a flame power close to the Earth Sage level. It is incredibly strong. Although it has never completely entered the Earth Sage, it can already hurt ordinary Earth Sage masters. Even Shang Gukong must be careful and jealous, not to mention Qin Tingting.

However, Qin Chen laughed. He waved his robe and gave a slight shock. Suddenly, the endless flame pressure suddenly disappeared, and Qin Tingting suddenly felt like a spring breeze, and all the pressure disappeared.

"Huh?" A sound of surprise sounded, and I saw that an old man in a medicinal robe slowly walked over from the reception room, came to Qin Chen's face, glanced at the three Qin Chen, It flashed even more when I saw Shang Gukong.

Then he sat down in front of the three of them and said lightly: "When did the two great masters of the Gu Zhong Sect appear? Where is Mu Daoxuan? Didn't he come to buy pills in the past?"

As Shang Gukong was about to speak, Qin Chen waved his hand to prevent him from speaking, and said lightly: "Your Excellency is the master of ancient medicine?" With a flick of his finger, the surrounding restrictions seemed to shake out of thin air, and the entire ancient medicine hall The banning array was trembling, and I could vaguely feel that the many elixir and the aura of immortality stored in the ancient medicine hall seemed to be instantaneous.

The destruction is about to collapse. "You... can you actually shake the old man's big fire formation?" The old man moved his eyes and waved his big hand. Suddenly, a terrifying flame aura surged, and endless flame power merged into the formation, the original shaking formation. Fa immediately seemed to gain strength

The amount of support is quiet again.

But the old man's gaze when looking at Qin Chen changed, because he could feel the aura of Shang Gukong, he was an earth sage master, and Qin Chen's cultivation base was just the pinnacle of the mortal realm just like himself. Among the people, it seems that Qin Chen is the main one.

Moreover, this young man could easily shake his final fire formation and almost collapsed. Such accomplishments were unheard of.

"Who are you?" The old man sneered coldly, showing cold light.

Qin Chen smiled coldly, but didn't do anything anymore. "Huh, you guys are not here to make trouble, are you? The old man is the ancient medicine master. Since you have come to the ancient medicine hall, you never even heard the name of the old man? What's more, your ancient bell sect is also with you My ancient medicine hall has had a lot of cooperation, referring to

I want an old man to come out, what's the matter, just say it straight, don't sell it there." The old man said coldly.

"The young master is indeed looking for the ancient medicine master." Qin Chen smiled and took out a pill: "This young man has a pill here. I don't know if you have any materials in it."

Dan Fang?

The ancient medicine master furrowed his brows and took the pill. After seeing this, his eyes suddenly condensed: "This is... some kind of pill for prolonging life?" The ingredients in it are rare, but they are still rare. They are ordinary, not some particularly against the sky. Your ancient medicine hall, I wonder if they are here.

s material? "Qin Chen smiled slightly.

Shang Gu was excited in the hollow, he knew that this was the material for Shao Chen to refine the Pill of Return to Light for himself. The ancient medicine master coldly glanced at Qin Chen, and said lightly: "Although these materials are rare, most of my ancient medicine halls have them, but they lack one or two core ingredients. Originally you were in my ancient medicine. You will be beaten to death outside if you let go of the bad words, but in my ancient medicine hall, for the sake of a guest, the old man will spare you once. But the pill you took out should be a local saint. Pill, the sacred pill of land quality, at least you need the giant of the holy pharmacist to refine it, even if you buy the materials

, The old man can't refine it, so I can only apologize to see him off..."

"and many more....."

Qin Chen gestured, and said lightly: "Who said Ben Shao wants you to refine, you just need to take out the materials." "Don't want me to refine?" The ancient medicine master was taken aback, and sneered: "Could it be you Want to use it to refine for other alchemy masters? Cangxuan city has an earthly saint pharmacist, but this person only takes care of the business of the city lord's mansion and several big families, not your little ancient Zhong Pai can contact. Of course, if you insist on buying materials, the old man will naturally not do your business. As long as you can get the holy crystals, you can buy anything you want. These materials are worth a total of..."

"Wait!" Qin Chen interrupted him again: "I don't want to buy these pills from the holy crystal."

Chapter 2498: Gambling

"You..." The ancient medicine master's face was cold, and his expression contained a bit of anger, "Your Excellency is playing me?"

boom!

A terrible breath erupted from him, and an endless flame power suddenly burst out from him. Qin Chen smiled slightly: "The ancient medicine master is safe and quiet. I waited, naturally with sincerity. However, besides this material, this young master also wants to do another business with the ancient medicine master. This business is successful. I want to come to this first business

The master of medicine will naturally not have any dissatisfaction. "

"What kind of business?" "Young Master Ben is going to establish a power in Cangxuan City called Chendi Pavilion. This power manages all kinds of businesses, including medicines, formations, saint soldiers, etc. , Ben Shao didn't want to spend too much effort, just a little bit to build, just

It is like inviting some forces to join the Chendi Pavilion of this young man and develop together. I wonder what the ancient medicine master wants? "

"Chendi Pavilion?" The ancient medicine master was taken aback: "I don't know your Chendi Pavilion, what forces have joined now?"

Qin Chen smiled faintly: "Currently there is only the Gu Zhong school, but when the Gu Yaotang joins, the most basic framework will be completed."

"Haha, hahaha." The ancient medicine master suddenly laughed, "It turns out that your excellency is a force to take, and it sounds good, join your Chendi Pavilion, see, I want my ancient medicine hall to submit to you. Chendige, sure enough, wolf ambition, sorry, my ancient medicine hall does not have

The intention of joining any forces and sending guests off. "

The ancient medicine master stood up, his eyes suddenly became cold, and he waved his hand, a murderous intent surged, but he could still exercise restraint. Qin Chen said indifferently, "Why the master of ancient medicine should resist so? You ancient medicine hall has been developing for some time. In this Cangxuan city, it is not tepid, and there are not even many guests. The people from Gu Fangzhai are making trouble, the master of ancient medicine

, Master Ben really came to talk to you with sincerity, and couldn't bear to look at your ancient medicine hall, and disappeared in Cangxuan City from then on. "Okay, the old man finally knows, are you from Gu Fangzhai?" What kind of ancient bell sect is still fake, I said, you said that it is a person of the ancient bell sect, why did Mu Daoxuan, who used to do business with my ancient medicine hall, never come here, because he wanted to deceive the old man,

Get together to lie to me in this ancient medicine hall, three of you, get out of me immediately, if you don't get out, don't blame the old man for being polite. "

boom!

The ancient medicine master was completely angry, and the flames shrouded his body, suddenly forming a world of flames, clusters of flames lingering around him, turning into the shape of all things, beautiful and magnificent.

"Hahaha, people from Gu Fangzhai? Master Ancient Medicine, you think too much."

Qin Chen didn't care at all, waved at Shang Gukong, and said lightly: "Old Kong Kong, show him your true colors."

"Master of ancient medicine, take a closer look, who is the old man!" Shang Gukong's face changed, and his original face was suddenly revealed, and, besides, the earth-sage-level aura suddenly exploded, like a swept ocean.

"You... Gu Zhong sent Shang Gu Kong! You are already..."

The ancient medicine master stepped back, showing a look of horror. The Guzhong School had been cooperating with the ancient medicine hall, and the ancient medicine master naturally knew Shang Gukong.

"Master Ancient Medicine, the old man has not fallen. This time I followed Chen Shao to discuss cooperation with Master Ancient Medicine. Do you believe it now?" Shang Gukong laughed.

"Shao Chen?" The ancient medicine master was startled and looked at Qin Chen, so that Shang Gukong, the ancient sage ancestor of the ancient bell school, could be called Shao, and his opinion of Qin Chen suddenly became concerned. "Yes, this young man with an extraordinary identity, came to my Yunzhou by accident. The old man admired him. He has led the ancient bell sect to seek refuge in Xiao Chen. Master of ancient medicine, listen to the old man's advice, if you want the ancient medicine hall to develop, following Chen Shao is definitely the best opportunity. "Shang Gukong discouraged.

The ancient medicine master flashed his eyes and was silent for a moment, before finally shook his head: "I'm sorry, everyone has aspirations. The old man doesn't want to take refuge in anything, so he can only quietly refine the medicine and live the life of an alchemist."

"You..." Shang Gukong's expression was stagnant, and he looked at Qin Chen. "Stubbornness!" Qin Chen stood up and shook his head slightly, seemingly regretful, and said lightly: "Well, the ancient medicine master should have never seen Ben Shao's abilities, Ben Shao is also quite proficient in some alchemy techniques. , I heard that the ancient medicine master got the ancient pill

The inheritance of Taoism can't help but get into the itch. How about we gamble on it? "In this way, if I win, you Ancient Medicine Hall, you will go to Ben Shao and join the Chendi Pavilion. If I lose, hey, the original power of this body, even my flesh and blood, will belong to you. "As Qin Chen spoke, there was a hint of provocation.

. "What? You want to bet on the technique of alchemy with me? You are also a master of alchemy?" The ancient medicine master didn't seem to hear clearly, his face changed, and he immediately sneered: "Are you sure? The old man's alchemy, although Cangxuan City can only be regarded as medium, But it is also no small matter. Even if you can refine the medicinal pill of the later stage of Mortal Product, are you sure you want to gamble against me? "

The ancient medicine master is very confident in his alchemy attainments. Perhaps he has no chance of winning against the old alchemy masters in Shangcang Xuancheng, but for the young man Shang Qin Chen, it is easy and easy.

"Then you gamble or not?" Qin Chen said lightly.

The ancient medicine master saw Qin Chen so confident, his eyes flashed, is there really something special about this son? Looking back on the materials Qin Chen had brought out before, he was suddenly shocked, maybe some preparations may not be necessary.

However, it is absolutely impossible to make him retreat.

"If you want to bet, you can, but I have to choose the content of the bet. Can you dare?"

The ancient medicine master thought that Qin Chen would use some weird gambling methods to deceive himself, and said with a sneer, thinking that he had exposed Qin Chen's conspiracy.

"That's OK."

Unexpectedly, Qin Chen agreed without hesitation.

This made him even more shocked: "Are you sure? The old man wants to bet for you, but it is fire control, can you dare?"

The technique of controlling fire is the strongest content in the ancient secret books he has obtained. In terms of controlling fire, let alone Qin Chen, even those old guys in Cangxuan City, he dared to make a bet.

"Then bet to control the fire."

Qin Chen smiled. The most important thing about fire control is soul power and spiritual power. He is not so confident when he is betting on other fires. He is still ten percent sure that he can control fire even if he is a celestial pharmacist. Pressure.

"Okay, okay, since you have to die, don't blame the old man."

The ancient medicine master's eyes froze: "Shang Gukong, little girl, you two will be witnesses!" The ancient medicine master flew out all of a sudden and entered directly into the space behind the ancient medicine hall. Boom, suddenly In the meantime, endless flames bloomed on his body, and the aura of wild ancient flames surged. In the entire space, a flame burned and annihilated everything.

Chapter 2499: Ancient Hengyu Furnace

"Boy, do you dare to come in? If you don't dare to come in, let the old man go. This is your last chance."

The ancient medicine master said that he would do it with his hands. The wild ancient flames on his body were displayed, and countless flames appeared throughout the whole world, and each cluster of flames instantly expanded, turning into a flame god.

"Wild ancient spirit fire!"

He is the cultivation base of the pinnacle of the sacred realm, and his fire control technique is superb. In addition, the flame he possesses is an ancient fire, and he has obtained the fire control inheritance of the ancient times, and is fearless.

When it comes to controlling fire, he is not afraid of anyone. In the flame space, the terrible flame rules linger, as if it can burn all things in the world. When the flame is out, everything is extinguished. Even Shang Gukong feels a trace of heart palpitations. This flame can threaten a place like his Holy master, too

Terrible.

"Less dust!"

Shang Gukong looked at Qin Chen worriedly.

"Hahaha, it's interesting, Ben Shao wants to see how powerful your fire control technique is." Qin Chen laughed, not afraid, shook his figure, and rushed directly into this flame space. Then, facing the endless flames, Qin Chen opened his mouth, countless vortexes appeared, and he swallowed these flames all at once.

He inhaled the body. The raging fire burned everything out, even ordinary earth sage masters could not bear it, but as soon as they entered Qin Chen's body, these terrifying flames felt the aura of Qinglian Demon Fire and Youkong Ice Flame, and immediately lost their arrogant capital. Boom boom three

Kind of flames collide together.

Under the suppression of Qinglian Demon Fire and Youkong Bingyan, this wild ancient spirit fire was retreated steadily, and was immediately tamed. A flame * screamed, transformed into pure flame rules, was thoroughly refined and integrated into Qin Chen's two big sky fires.

Sky fire, sky fire, rumors are the flames of heaven. Back then, in the Tianwu Continent, countless powerful people gathered, and there were many masters in the Holy Realm, and even a master of the Holy Master level landed, but Qinglian Demon Fire and Youkong Ice Flame were the top two flames in the history of Tianwu Continent. The origin is extraordinary, absolutely not

Same as usual.

This is where Qin Chen's pride lies. Even at the beginning, this Qinglian Demon Fire was able to fight against the master clone of Abyss Demon, ordinary flame, how could he do this?

Now that the implementation began, it immediately suppressed the ancient medicine master's wild ancient spirit fire. It was Qin Chen's failure to fully release the power of the Qinglian Demon Fire. Qin Chen prided himself that once the Qinglian Demon Fire continued to grow, it would be enough to cross the heavens. .

"Impossible, how could you dissolve my wild ancient spirit fire so easily, and swallow it down, it is impossible for a holy realm master to dissolve my wild ancient spiritual fire, what is in your body?"

The ancient medicine master glared his eyes and almost fell off.

"Hehe, this is your ancient spiritual fire, look at the flame of this young man."

"Qinglian Demon Fire, Youkong Bingyan, come out!" Qin Chen started, with a flick of his finger, and launched a counterattack. Qinglian Demon Fire and Youkong Bingyan suddenly surged out, two flames, one to the left and one to the right, one up. Turn into Tai Chi gossip, condensed into a flame phantom, in the phantom, there is a blue fire

Harmony and coldness bloom, one hot and one cold, one yin and one yang, representing all things in the universe, covering all directions.

Qin Chen's powerful soul power spurred two sky fires and suppressed everything.

In an instant, the master of ancient medicine was wrapped.

"What kind of flame is this?" The ancient medicine master was taken aback: "Could it be the ancient sky fire?"

As soon as this flame came out, his wild ancient spirit fire shuddered and his breath was suppressed.

"Damn, the old man doesn't believe it, the flames turn into spirits, and the emptiness is forever!" The ancient medicine master roared, and repeatedly used the ancient spiritual fire, but he could not break through the suppression of Qin Chen's two great sky fires. The ancient spirit fire evolves into various shapes, including fire phoenix, fire dragon, and flame

Gods, there are also Flame Mountain.

But no matter how he changed, Qin Chen's yin and yang fires suppressed him, unable to resist.

"go with!"

Qin Chen smiled faintly, and immediately bursts of flames spread out, and the clusters of flames turned into a mighty formation, controlling the rules of this space, and completely enveloping the master of ancient medicine.

"Not good!" The ancient medicine master looked shocked and hum, an ancient furnace flew out of his hand. This furnace cauldron was only the size of a palm, but it became as tall as a person in a flash, containing everything in the universe. The breath, there are birds and beasts, vivid, like sudden

But come alive in general.

"Ancient Hengyu Furnace!"

This was actually a saint-class furnace tripod, rapidly rotating, bursting out an aura against the sky, and with a boom, it broke through Qin Chen's large flame array, as if a white rainbow pierced the sun, hitting Qin Chen's body.

Qin Chen's pupils shrank suddenly, and he split out with a palm, using the palm as a sword. Suddenly, the terrifying sword aura soared into the sky, as if to split the heaven and the earth in two, crashing on the cauldron.

when!

The furnace tripod shook violently, erupted with a harsh roar, and the entire ancient medicine hall shivered under the blow, almost bursting.

With a bang, this terrifying furnace cauldron was smashed into the air by Qin Chen.

"Good furnace!"

Qin Chen laughed. If it were an ordinary holy weapon, he would not destroy the holy weapon with this attack, but it would still leave traces, but this furnace ding, unmoving, bloomed with the ancient atmosphere of its debut. terrible.

Unexpectedly, the ancient medicine master has such a treasure.

"But master ancient medicine, didn't we say that it is like fighting fire control? Why do you even display alchemy guys? Could it be that you have to compete with all alchemy skills?"

"Oh!" The ancient medicine master sighed. He suddenly retracted the deserted ancient Hengyu furnace and stood in this space, his face full of decline: "You can actually block the old man's deserted Hengyu furnace with a mortal body, you How powerful is his body? Nothing, I think

He was eclipsed, and suddenly seemed to be thousands of years old.

After so many years of hard work, he was not even as good as Qin Chen as a young man. He was frustrated and extremely disappointed. An endless retreat sprang up in his heart. He only felt that the world was full of darkness and there was no light.

"Master of ancient medicine, what about your previous agreement with me?" Qin Chen shook his figure, left this space, returned to the reception room, sat down generously, and said with a smile.

"That's it."

The ancient medicine master also returned to the reception room, and said bitterly: "Anyway, after a short while, this ancient medicine hall will not be able to keep it, even if you take refuge in you, what can you do?"

He sat down desperately, his face full of bitterness.

"Master Ancient Medicine, why be disappointed? The old man said long ago that being able to worship Shao Chen is an opportunity for your Ancient Medicine Hall. Do you know who refining the pill that Shao Chen is searching for?" Shang Gukong said with a smile.

"Could it be..." The ancient medicine master looked over in confusion.

"Yes, these materials are collected by Shao Chen for the old man. Once the materials are collected, Shao Chen will refining for the old man himself. If you can wait for Shao Chen's guidance in the future, why don't you worry about the ancient medicine master? Not happy?"

Shang Gukong laughed. "What? You refined it yourself?" The ancient medicine master jumped in surprise.

Chapter 2500: Unusual Pill

Although he didn't know what level of pill this year's Huiguang Pill was, it could be seen from the materials that at least a holy grade alchemist of local grade was required to make it.

But Shang Gukong actually said that Qin Chen himself wanted to refine this pill. How could this be possible? "Yes, this pill was indeed made by Ben Shao himself." Qin Chen admitted openly, his eyes flashed, and said lightly: "But not now, because Ben Shao hasn't found all the materials yet, and Refining the Pill of Returning to Light

The system still lacks some necessary preparations. After everything is prepared, the young master will start refining. This preparation will take some time..." "I said. "The ancient medicine master suddenly breathed a sigh of relief. Qin Chen meant that he obviously had to wait for him to break through the holy grade pharmacist before refining, but it is so difficult to break through the ground grade pharmacist. Is a hundred years, a thousand years

In time, can Shang Gukong still have time to wait?

Unexpectedly, Qin Chen's next words surprised him.

"This preparation time will probably take a month or two!" Qin Chen said casually.

One or two months?

The ancient medicine master was stunned. Qin Chen said that he needed some time. He thought it would be a thousand years or a few thousand years. Who knew it would only take one or two months.

Rely on!

He couldn't restrain the shock in his heart.

He didn't realize that Qin Chen was bragging, because this kind of thing couldn't be bragging, and the truth would be seen in a month or two.

"Hahaha, Master Ancient Medicine, haven't you come to see Shao Chen?" Shang Gukong laughed when he saw Master Ancient Medicine's dumbfounded expression.

"Ancient medicine, I have seen less dust." The ancient medicine master immediately saluted respectfully.

"Okay, okay." Qin Chen helped the ancient medicine master up, and he finally took the first step in this Cangxuan city.

The next step is how to develop Chendi Pavilion.

The first thing Qin Chen did was to understand the power of Cangxuan City's alchemy and get familiar with the elixir of the heavens.

To be honest, although Qin Chen had confidence in his pill refining attainments, he was not as good as the master of ancient medicine in many pills and materials. After all, he didn't know much about the pill of heaven.

There were not many classics in this area in the ancient bell school before, but in this ancient medicine hall, there is naturally not less information on this aspect.

After learning that Qin Chen needed to read all the classics of pill medicine, although the master of ancient medicine didn't know why Qin Chen wanted to know these basic things, he still decisively took out all the classics he collected.

Even the ancient alchemy he obtained from that mysterious ruin was not hidden. This is not something that is particularly remarkable and cannot be shown to others. If the master alchemy can be cultivated by looking through the classics casually and looking at the alchemy techniques, then there will not be only a few holy alchemists in the heavens, ancient medicines Big

It has been at least tens of thousands of years since the teacher obtained this classic, and what he has mastered is still only the fur of this far-classic book.

This kind of cheat is just * in the eyes of people who don't know how to do it and don't have the talent of alchemy. Only the top alchemy masters will treat it as a treasure.

After taking out so many classics, then, like Qin Chen, the master of ancient medicine began to introduce the situation of Cangxuan City's alchemy. In Cangxuan City, the alchemy power is not complicated, but very simple. The strongest alchemy power is a power called the Shanyao Pavilion. This Shanyao Pavilion is extraordinary, and its power is spread across many Yunzhou City, the good medicine of Cangxuan City

The cabinet is just one of its branches.

The pavilion owner of the Good Medicine Pavilion of Cangxuan City is an earth-level powerhouse, and he is also a land-grade alchemist. He has a prominent status. Although he is only an early-stage alchemist, he is already second to none in Cangxuan City. Character too.

Shanyao Pavilion only does big business. His clients, including the top powers of the City Lord's Mansion and Cangxuan City, have eaten up half of Cangxuan City's alchemy business, accounting for about 50%. In addition to the Good Medicine Pavilion, there are many alchemy powers remaining in Cangxuan City, such as Gufangzhai, Sihailou, and Ancient Medicine Hall. There are no less than a dozen of them. Among them, like Gufangzhai, they belong to the front line. Has several prefecture-level powerhouses, even

There is a mid-level master, and there are several masters of Alchemy at the Fansheng level, which is extremely terrifying.

The ancient medicine hall and others belong to the second line.

The competition between the first line and the second line is extremely fierce, and there are often powers rising and falling.

With the explanation of the ancient medicine master, Qin Chen gradually understood the power distribution of Cangxuan City, but there was one place that Qin Chen puzzled.

"If Shanyao Pavilion is so strong, why only occupy 50% of Cangxuan City's pill business? If he is willing, I'm afraid he can swallow 80% of Cangxuan City's pill market, right?"

In any industry and in any field, there are twenty-eight rules. The top 20% forces account for 80% of the profits of the entire market. The same is true for the pill market.

With the strength of Shanyao Pavilion, it was enough to swallow the entire Cangxuan City's alchemy power and occupy 80% of the market, but now it was only 50%. "Haha, little dust, you don't know anything about it. The reason why Shanyao Pavilion only has a 40% share is because of the control of the City Lord's Mansion. Under the control of Shanyaoge,

It can only occupy 40% of the share, otherwise if Shan Yao Pavilion controls the entire Cangxuan City's alchemy market, wouldn't it be able to pinch the throat of the City Lord's Mansion? "

"understood."

Qin Chen understood what the ancient medicine master said.

"By the way, when we came in earlier, we heard Gu Fangzhai's people saying that Gu Yaotang owed them something, what's the matter?"

"Oh." The ancient medicine master sighed, "It's all because I want to refine the Huanggu Yiqi Pill."

"You know Shao Chen, there are two ways for Master Alchemy to improve the cultivation base of the Alchemy, one is to break through the cultivation base, and the other is the natural soul power, both of which can improve the strength of the alchemist." "But the old man has been trapped at the pinnacle of the mortal sacred realm. For many years, he has been unable to break through the earth sage, and it is difficult to temper the five secrets. However, the old man has seen the record of the ancient Yiqi pill in the ancient secret book. This is a pill that can condense the saints of the warrior Medicine, to some extent

, is enough to enhance the soul power of the warrior, allowing the warrior to break through to the realm of earth sage more conveniently. "

"It's just that the refining of this kind of pill is very troublesome, and the materials are extremely rare. The old man has been collecting materials for these years. Among them, there are two special materials that can't be collected at all." "Gu Fangzhai learned the news from nowhere. I actually sent these two materials, but made an agreement with the old man, and asked the old man to return three Huanggu Yiqi Pills within three years to the other party in return. If there is no Huanggu Yiqi Pill by then, he must take the old man's Gu Yaotang pledged."
