

Valkyrie 2591

Chapter 2591: Shame and angry

"Okay! At any cost, win over this person!" City Master Cangxuan made a move in his heart and decided. This is a good idea. He has long regarded Qin Chen as extraordinary, but he has no way to win Qin Chen. Now, Qin Chen's potential really stimulates him. If Qin Chen can completely stay in Cangxuan City, Cangxuan City will be unified. Yunzhou is just around the corner

Wait.

"Father, you..."

Ao Qingling was embarrassed and angry, stomping her feet, her face flushed, and she was speechless, especially shy and moving.

"Why, daughter, are you not willing?" Ao Lie glanced at her and said in a deep voice: "Daughter, being a father is also for your own good. This Qin Chen is definitely a good match. If he is not a good person, neither will he be a father. Will take your happiness to bet, being a father is not the kind of holding a daughter's happiness to fight for the future

People. "

"I....."

Ao Qingling opened his mouth, but couldn't say a word.

Is she unwilling?

But why is there a faint expectation in my heart?

So she stopped talking, and for the first time felt that her father's dominance made her feel less disgusted.

"Boy, I didn't expect you to have such a method! However, my Fengyun Tyrant Body Art has just begun. Next, I will let you know that your confidence is not worth mentioning in front of this seat. , Clouds and waves!"

The look of the wind is more domineering, the Saint Yuan of the whole body is condensed, and the demeanor of the peerless Earth Saint is truly unfolding. Hey, his clothes flew up, and his whole body was glowing like a god. He shook his big hand and waved a palm. In the void, endless clouds appeared. These clouds, layered on top of each other, contain amazing profound meaning. Massive cloudification

It was like a wave, in an extremely terrifying state.

How can the golden scales be things in the pool?

The profound meaning of Fengyun was truly revealed in his body. His whole person was transformed into the profound meaning of the Great Dao, and the endless situation turned into a memorial to the heaven.

Huh! The power of the Wind and Cloud Tyrant Body Jue was finally brought into play. This move was used to clear the clouds and shake the waves. Compared with the first move, Fengshen chanting, I don't know how powerful and profound it is. In contrast, the first move is equivalent to the initial start, a tentative move.

, Now, is the real killer.

Qin Chen's mind also felt the danger. The big killer move of the clouds and waves came in an instant, confining the world and the various rules. It was impossible to guard against it. It seemed that this world had become the world in the body of the headwind. He is in control.

"Space Profound Truth, Thunder Ruling!"

Qin Chen was in a state of danger, and his whole person was peaceful. He faced each other tit-for-tat. Suddenly the power of thunder flashes condensed in his palm, crackling, and countless thunder lights surged, forming a sea of thunder.

In addition, a terrifying spatial force spread out, to regain control of this world.

Boom!

The endless demon energy of Yama, rushed and whizzed, some demon energy even condensed into a demon head, roaring and roaring.

The entire hall seemed to have become Qin Chen's mountain gate, and of course he could occupy an absolute advantage in his own mountain gate. Even Ao Lie said that the city lord felt the throbbing. The constantly surging demonic energy in the main hall changed the expressions of many experts around and backed away. Some of the demonic energy suddenly rushed to the masters of the three major cities. Contaminated to the three major

Some of the masters of the late sage in the city.

"Ah, ah..."

The bodies of these masters corroded all of a sudden, their skin snorted, screamed, and hurriedly operated the Saint Yuan to resist.

But there were still people who couldn't bear it. In an instant, two of the three city masters who were present died.

"Damn it!"

City Lord Xue Wudao of Tianyue City, and Gu Liushen, City Lord of Ancient Language, angered again and again, and hurriedly shot. This stabilized the surroundings, resisted the invasion of demonic energy, and guarded the masters of their respective forces behind him.

"Pull the clouds and shake the waves, the storm is profound, the mighty, the world returns to the original!"

When Qin Chen erupted, the headwind broke out, and his palm shot out, hitting the rules of a thousand avenues, and every avenue rule contained the terrifying origin of the earthly saints, forming a chapter of the doomsday.

Qin Chen wasn't afraid, and he slashed directly. The two banged, banged, and the sky broke, and countless rules were strangling, collapsing, and vanishing.

"You can actually arouse the devilish power in this large hall, no wonder you are so confident."

The face against the wind was blood-red, and his eyes were like poisonous snakes. Standing on the spot, the endless clouds and waves disappeared. Under the thunder light, under the devilish energy, they turned into nothingness.

Obviously, he did not take advantage.

hiss!

Everyone sucked in air-conditioning, Fengyun City Lord headed against the wind and made a strong move. With two moves, Qin Chen didn't even move. This was incredible.

If it weren't for Qin Chen as a human, Xue Wudao and the others would even suspect that Qin Chen was a member of the Demon Race.

"You even attacked me with two moves, and it's my turn to fight back!" Qin Chen flashed out of the devilish energy, and all of a sudden, he played the strongest assassin.

"Cracked Sky God Mark!"

Qin Chen once again played the terrifying Dao Mark killer move of the Forbidden Land.

The cultivation base broke through the middle stage of the earth saint, coupled with the baptism of the ancient holy vein and the peerless true dragon pill, the strength in Qin Chen's body soared, and the rifting divine mark had reached an incredible level.

You must know that Qin Chen's cracked sky divine mark is an insight into the way of heaven. The more rules he controls, the stronger his cultivation will naturally become.

When the cracked sky divine mark was displayed, in an instant, a dark Dao Yun divine mark appeared in the void. This divine mark seemed to contain the most terrifying Dao Yun aura in the world. It appeared on the head against the wind in an instant, and it fell directly. under. The cracked sky divine mark turned into a Dao pattern traversing the aura of the heavens, an irresistible general trend, collapsed down, and could not resist and contend at all. At this moment, the heaven and the earth are silent, the profound meaning flows, and all the sounds, light and shadows, and the origin of the earth are all Strong collapse!

The line was suppressed.

A holy vestment on the body of Fengfeng collapsed directly and turned into ashes, and the saint yuan transformed into a wolf smoke of essence and was also involved in the terrifying breath of the gods.

A terrifying trace of the Heavenly Dao appeared in heaven and earth. Especially in this trace, the phantom of the true dragon appeared. This is the true dragon aura contained in the peerless true dragon pill, which was displayed by Qin Chen. The shapes of the true dragons are looming and hidden. Among the gods of heaven, power mad

Violent and fierce, swallowing the world with anger.

This is the perfect combination of Rippled Sky Divine Mark and True Dragon Qi.

No one can describe the horror of this blow.

The group of saints changed their colors.

"What kind of aura is that? It's terrifying. Why did his strength suddenly rise to such a terrifying state? What kind of mystical magic power is this, and I have never heard of it, and I have never seen it before." Xue Wudao, as well as the many powerful late-stage experts present roared.

Chapter 2592: Four ultimate moves

"I am not mistaken for the supernatural powers of annihilating the heavens! This is more terrifying than the supreme supernatural powers of my Ancient Language City. What is the origin of this kid?"

Many people feel that their eyes are blind in an instant.

"Is this person still a human?"

City Master Cangxuan felt that he had some incoherent words, and Qin Chen challenged the limit of his thinking time and time again, which made him feel mad and crazy.

The combination of the split sky divine mark and the breath of real dragons can no longer be described as horror. "I have cultivated the Ao family's unique skills, the unique mastery of a thousand generations, to the highest level of the uniqueness of all generations. The breath that can radiate, the divine mark and magical powers Qin Chen displayed, there is a huge gap, it is incredible. Is this a legend? Holy Lord Supernatural powers? Heir of the Holy Master, is it really so terrible? "

"Not a person, definitely not a person..."

"Good! Good! Good!"

Some family elders in Cangxuan City were dumbfounded, unable to say anything in shock, all they could do was yell.

With this counterattack of the Split Sky Divine Mark blending into the real dragon breath, Qin Chen immediately gained the upper hand, exploded the opponent's defensive clothing, directly attacked the opponent's body, and wanted to destroy the opponent in one fell swoop, bombard the opponent, and win the battle. "Qin Chen, do you think you can kill me? Turn defeat into victory? I tell you, the gap between Peerless Divine Saint and you! The third move of the Fengyun Tyrant Body Art, the Tyrant Body comes! The fourth trick, the Tyrant Body is invincible! The fifth move, the overlord body! The sixth move, the hegemon Body rejuvenated! "

boom! The City Lord of Fengyun City stood upright against the wind. Among the clothes that had exploded, his skin was shining, emitting a dark, hard aura. This is the arrival of the overlord body. Above the physique, the dark air currents and textures communicate with each other. , A powerful place

The Holy Law, exuding from above, the breath that radiated, shocked the eternal wilderness.

His hair was flying, showing the style of a peerless land of ancient sacred gold, facing Qin Chen's true dragon's qi cracking in the sky. Suddenly, his arms changed, and he played the last four moves of Fengyun Tyrant Body Art.

There are a total of six strokes in that Fengyun Tyrant Body Jue, representing six different profound meanings and different methods. The singing of the wind **** is the profound meaning of the wind; the clearing of clouds and the waves are the profound meaning of clouds; the coming of the hegemonic body is the profound meaning of domineering; the invincible hegemonic body is the invincible profound meaning; the hegemonic body of all ages is the profound meaning of eternity; and the last hegemonic body is the vitality, Incorporating the first five profound meanings, Formed the most terrifying force.

Moreover, the first two moves are the means of attack. The Arrival of the Tyrant Body and the Emperor Wudi are the means of defense. When the last move of the domineering body return to vitality came out, suddenly the headwind suddenly turned into three phantoms, countless earth saint origins in his body were burning, and the domineering aura on his body began to merge with the physical body. Broke out Unparalleled combat power.

This inexperienced martial arts, an ancient martial art, collided and exploded in the void in an instant. It shows the rhyme of the birth and death of the universe and the reincarnation of all things.

boom!

Qin Chen's divine mark in the sky broke, the sky collapsed and the earth cracked, the two forces collided, and the terrifying force penetrated into the endless void. Even some of the Yama demon energy in the hall could not help but retreat. In the hall, the magnificent sound rang loudly.

boom!

Qin Chen's Sky Splitting Divine Mark blasted against the wind, and was actually resisted by his overlord body power. This overlord body had amazing defensive power, not even weaker than the Immortal Eucharist, and the physical body was unprecedentedly powerful.

Klang Klang!

The endless domineering aura shattered, but it quickly formed, constantly eroding the rhyme of Qin Chen's cracked sky divine mark, and at the same time, a terrible return to the original energy swept across.

boom!

Qin Chen flew out like a cannonball, his robe shattered, blood spattered all over his body, blood spurted out of his mouth, and he was hit hard under this wind and cloud domineering body art.

Obviously, it was still the headwind, the same move, the headwind resisted layer by layer, and Qin Chen was seriously injured.

The difference in cultivation level between the two is really huge.

Of course, that peerless Di Sage Headwind was not comfortable either. The skin on his face, originally ruddy and shiny, is now withered, showing the luster of an old man.

This is the scene of the decline of the Holy Source and the invasion of Daoyun by the Fractured Sky Shenhen.

Although he blocked Dao Yun's attack, the Split Sky Divine Mark is very special, able to travel through the ancient, modern and future, attacking the soul and origin. With a single blow, the origin collapsed, and he encountered the invasion of the demonic energy of Yama in the hall.

Those Yan Luo Demon Qi and Dao Yun attacked, suppressed by his domineering body, but still entered some of the acupuncture points of the body, leaving hidden dangers.

Moreover, just now he performed the supernatural powers, and successively performed the last four moves of the Fengyun Tyrant Body Art. The loss of vitality and blood was extremely severe, and there was a feeling of exhaustion.

"I don't know if it's dead?"

He glanced at the place where Qin Chen flew upside down. At this moment, everyone also looked at Qin Chen who was flying upside down, and they waited and see to see if it was perished. Because this time it was Qin Chen gambling with Headwind, and took over the six ultimate moves of his Fengyun Ba Body Art. If you can follow

Lost against the wind, we must withdraw from this competition.

However, even the strongest moves against the wind have been displayed. If Qin Chen can't be killed yet, then he can't really be killed.

There was silence in the entire hall of devilish energy.

Everyone looked at Qin Chen, who was retreating in the devilish energy and gradually falling to the ground, everyone didn't feel Qin Chen's breath and was very nervous.

Boom! Qin Chen's body fell to the ground, but did not lie down. Instead, he stood upright. Suddenly he opened his eyes, extremely sharp, and let out a long whistle: "The Wind and Cloud Tyrant Body Art is really powerful, six terrible secrets, the last one. Recruitment Qi, the fusion of endless profound meaning...Awesome, really amazing, almost knocked me out, but unfortunately, it was still weaker, let alone killed me. "

Qin Chen is still alive and full of vitality!

This is simply beyond everyone's expectations.

All the experts in Tianyue City, Ancient Language City, Wind and Cloud City, and Cangxuan City were going crazy. The Qin Chen in front of him didn't know what kind of monster it was, and he couldn't beat him to death. In fact, Qin Chen didn't feel very well. The opponent's Wind and Cloud Tyrant Body Art was indeed powerful, especially the last move, the Tyrant Body's return to vitality, which hit his body, making him really feel that his soul was about to explode. Perish forever, this

The qi of the overlord body's return to the origin seems to be able to break through all defenses. But Qin Chen survived with the immortal Eucharist and the aura of the true dragon. The immortal Eucharist, eternal and immortal, contains the power of the world, and the aura of the true dragon is the ancient real dragon, the body is powerful, and the world is invincible. The combination of the two and the other broke out the power that shocked Qin Chen, and his body was stronger than ever.

Chapter 2593: No Air Kill

Moreover, this Wind and Cloud Tyrant Body Art is also very inspiring to Qin Chen. The ultimate move of Na He body returning to vitality has been analyzed over and over again in Qin Chen's mind, evolving, six kinds of profound meanings are in his body. Gradually condensed into a simple prototype

This time we played against each other and benefited a lot.

However, his physical body was also seriously injured, and his acupuncture points all over his body were on the verge of collapse, and his physical body was also cracked everywhere.

He immediately madly absorbed the pill energy of the peerless real dragon pill in the jade disc of good fortune of the universe, and the origin of the true dragons flew out, fusing the power of the ancient sacred veins to make up for the damage of the body's vitality and soul.

Even this battle completely consolidated the cultivation base Qin Chen had just broken through, and his physical body was about to move in the process of repairing. There was an illusion that he would break through again after absorbing a large amount of strength.

"How about it! Peerless Earth Saint, it's just so, it can't kill me at all, and Fengyun City's unique knowledge and Fengyun Tyrant Body Art can't put me to death."

Qin Chen was recovering from his injuries, his whole body was full of energy, and facing the headwind, he said, "You are headwind, and you are also a generation hegemon. What you said doesn't count? If you didn't kill me, you should leave immediately and withdraw from the fight."

"This....."

The headwind was taken aback, and my heart hesitated violently. I was too unwilling to leave now. I came to this Yama secret realm. Not only did I not get much benefit, but even ruined some treasures, and the city also lost a few people. Master.

Not only that, but he himself suffered a lot of injuries, his body was very corrupt, and his condition was very bad.

Just walk away dingy and lose face in the future.

But if he didn't leave, he was also ashamed.

"Instead of doing this, it's better not to do two things!"

In his eyes, cold light flickered, as if he had made up his mind, and his body was upright again. "Where is there so much nonsense, you little beast, worthy to talk to me? It's just that you have got a lot of treasures here, so you have such strength. If you want me to go, you can hand over the peerless earth pill, otherwise, I will die today

Burial place! Come! Brother Xue Wudao, Brother Gu Liushen, let's take action together and destroy this son. No one can kill him. If the three of us work together, can't we still kill him? "

"Okay! In this Yama secret realm, there is no need to talk about any rules, kill him."

Xue Wudao had long been intent on killing.

The three great earth saints, ready to move, must join forces to kill!

"Shameless!"

Miss Ao Qingling scolded: "Father, hurry up and help.

"Shameless you!"

Cangxuan City Lord Ao Lie was also angry. He was also a peerless earth sage, the overlord of a large city. The City Lord of Fengyun City's behavior against the wind really made him disdain.

Up to this scene, he couldn't do without interference.

No matter how strong Qin Chen is, he can contend against a peerless earth sage, but it is absolutely impossible to contend with three peerless earth sages, and he must be killed. We must help if we are both emotional and rational.

As soon as his body moved, the terrifying aura of eternity enveloped him, resisting the three peerless earth sages.

"Huh! Ao Lie, do you dare to stop the three of us alone? It's almost a death! Today we will completely annihilate you Cangxuancheng and that kid."

The three major city masters were not afraid of Ao Lie at all. After all, they were three people, together, they could sweep everything.

"I knew that the three of us would just kill the kid, why bother with him alone?" The regret in the heart of Fengfeng.

"Just try it! See if you can kill Qin Chen and me?" City Lord Ao Lie coldly shouted: "Qin Chen, come here, I don't believe it. With the two of us, we can't resist them. Three people."

"City Lord Ao Lie's kindness, I take it with my heart. I, Qin Chen, travel alone, moving across the heavens, and walking alone. I don't need anyone's help. Practice yourself."

Qin Chen said loudly: "I don't believe that these three peerless earth saints can kill me."

Huh!

On his body, thunder light surging and flickering, every rune flowing on him, the whole person turned into a thunder light current, and a terrible spatial atmosphere lingered out, and the space around Qin Chen became blurred. , Shaking up.

"Turn into thunder!"

When the three peerless earth sages saw it, they all roared wildly, "This son is turning his body into thunder, fusing space power."

A gust of true dragon aura, ancient holy aura, haunted Qin Chen's body, circulating. "No, this son is using the true dragon aura and ancient holy veins in that peerless earth pill to evolve the law of thunder. Once successful, he will transform into thunder and merge into the void, plus the Yama demon energy that can control here, In this secret realm of Yama,

They really can't catch him! "

Xue Wudao and the others were furious. They all saw the changes in Qin Chen's physical body. This technique of transforming thunder with his body is the strongest manifestation of the profound meaning of the rules. Ordinary people can't do it. Once Qin Chen does it, he will be empty and empty. People together can kill Qin Chen

, But what's the point of being unable to catch Qin Chen at all?

Especially in Yama's secret realm, Qin Chen can still control Yama's devilish energy and can travel anywhere. The three of them are really not sure to leave Qin Chen behind.

The three peerless earth saints know that people who are as terrifying as Qin Chen have obtained so many treasures here, and even the heavenly sacred pill. Later, they will enter the later stage of the earth saint and become a peerless earth saint. That is a certain thing. . Once they failed to break through the Heavenly Sage and the other party came to avenge them, their three major cities would definitely fall into crisis. Even if they broke through the Heavenly Sage, seeing Qin Chen's previous performance, they were extremely worried and were not sure that they could be in Qin. Dust's Revenge Survive.

"How many secrets are there in Little Friend Qin Chen? How can it be so terrible? The descendant of the Holy Master, is it really so terrifying?"

City Lord Cangxuan thought that Qin Chen was on the brink of desperation every time, but every time the opponent had a chance to get out.

This really makes people wonder, is it impossible for him to perish? "Really? Turn your body into thunder. I have to see if your Excellency is omnipotent and difficult to capture. Humph, you kid, you are indeed cruel. You killed my Assassin from No Space Organization, and you were so swaggering. Obtained Peerless Earth Pill, Ancient Shengmai, do you really think that I have no time to organize a bully? "

A negative sound rang. I don't know where it came from, let alone who sent it out.

Huh!

A three-foot-long sword beam shot out from a certain void in this hall, directly assassinated and entered Qin Chen's back.

Although the sword light is not long, its power has penetrated the peerless earth. The person holding the sword is a black shadow, entwined with depraved light and aura, so dark, as long as people look at it, they feel uncomfortable all over, especially on the sword light, with cold light flowing, heaven and earth Everything seems to be melted into it.

Chapter 2594: Listen to me

This assassin, who claimed to be his seat, was also a peerless sage. This gloomy and peerless earth saint was obviously a long-planned to carry out a lore. The sword light pierced through, and one sword would kill. When the sword light was approaching Qin Chen, it suddenly picked up and down, and it changed into a ultimate move. Between the changes of that ultimate sword move, it actually enveloped a world. The space of heaven and earth is imprisoned, everything is Sinking, forming a unique small world of caves, this area has completely become that person's world.

Moreover, that black ancient sword also burned, and the gloomy devilish qi lingered, and it also aroused Yama's devilish energy, attracted Yama's devilish energy into it, and formed a terrible combat power.

With a sword, Qin Chen was completely enveloped, terrifying power, shocking everything in the past.

With this continual method of dealing with Qin Chen, a mid-level saint martial artist, even if it surpassed the existence of the peerless earth saint, it might not be able to save it.

"The leader of No Space Organization desperately?"

City Lord Ao Lie of Cangxuan City was about to split his eyes, but he didn't change a bit at this moment, he could only watch Qin Chen about to be assassinated.

Because when his divine intent reacted, the desperate killer move had completely enveloped Qin Chen.

None of them expected that the killer leader of the No Air Organization suddenly appeared and directly assassinated.

"What, people from Wukong Organization are also here?"

"Damn it, let that desperate move first."

"No! Then Qin Chen must have counterattack means, we can make them both lose, and then seize the peerless earth pill, all kinds of treasures."

"Yes, prepare, kill together!"

Xue Wudao in Tianyue City, Gu Liushen in Ancient Language City, and Fengyun City against the wind were assassinated by Qin Chen, fighting back desperately, and then both sides were injured. They had the idea to capture together.

However, the next scene disappointed them. That huge killer move shrouded, but it fell through. Qin Chen's body cracked with a bang, breaking every inch, with a smile on his face, despite the killer move, there was no movement at all, the sword's killer move hit one. Thunder phantom, hit the void burst.

The desperate leader screamed in shock: "How could it be a clone? I clearly locked his breath with the life sword. It shouldn't be a clone phantom. How can he hide my eyes and ears?"

"Huh! The assassin of the Wukong organization, the peerless earth sage strongman, actually so shamelessly attacked me a warrior in the earth sage mid-term. It's really despicable, don't you fear that the world laughs." A voice, another from the hall Passed from everywhere, the thunder light condensed and turned into a figure. It was Qin Chen: "You hide in the dark and want to deal with Ben Shao. Unfortunately, you think too much. How could Ben Shao be tricked by such despicable people? Your Excellency should be vomiting blood out of anger at this moment? To tell you the truth, Ben Shao had expected that you would be robbed by fire. Because although Your Excellency is hidden in this hall, your breath is hidden very well, but Ben Shao can control Yama. Devilish, your

The breath is still felt by Ben Shao, so any movement here can't be concealed from me. From the very beginning, your sneak attack will not be successful. "Qin Chen had indeed anticipated that there would still be someone who was peeping. He had just used the pill energy of the peerless true dragon pill and the ancient holy pulse to spur the incarnation of Thunder. Although he did not truly incarnate Thunder, the power of Thunder still caught this wave. Cold kill machine.

In addition, he had known that Wukong Organization and the Soulfire Family had arrived here, so in an instant, he created a Thunder clone, but he quietly lurked away.

In the current chaotic situation, the desperate leaders of Wukong Organization have suffered a big loss.

"Hmph, do you think you can escape!"

Just as Qin Chen spoke, an indifferent figure with white eyes appeared. His face was indifferent and cruel, his hands opened, endless cold lingering, turning into a cold domain, and suppressed from behind Qin Chen.

"The soul fire family enshrines poison Luo Xin!"

Everyone was shocked and shocked one by one. The visitor was no one else. It was the leader of the soul fire family who came to Cangxuan City this time, the peerless earth saint, dedicated to poison Luo Xin. "Really? It's really stupid, the Soul Fire Family, No Space Organization, Tianyue City, Ancient Language City, and Fengyun City, you forces, also considered the top powers in Yunzhou, actually deal with this young man, huh , The major forces in Yunzhou

You have lost all of your face. If you want to kill Ben Shao, it is impossible for you to do it. As long as you can't kill me today, when Ben Shao breaks through the peerless earth, you will definitely be killed! "

The soul-fire family dedicated to poison Luo Xin grabbed it with big hands, and unexpectedly grabbed another phantom!

Qin Chen's voice floated in the air, and the thunder light flickered, and no one could grasp where his real body was. "City Lord Cangxuan, since their major forces are going to join forces and target us, it is better for us to rush out together and spread the treasures of the Yama secret realm. At that time, Ben Shao will have to see if these people have the confidence to keep this Yama. Demon Saint

The Lord's treasure inheritance, once news of this inheritance comes out, I am afraid that the entire Guanghan Mansion will be shaken, let alone Yunzhou?" Qin Chen laughed, his voice echoed in the hall, "City Lord Cangxuan, these are a few exceptional Di Pills, which can be regarded as my tribute to Miss Ao Qingling. I hope she can cultivate into a peerless earth sage as soon as possible. Ben Shao also stepped into the peerless Di Sage, so he helped

You smooth out these big forces. "

A pill bottle appeared from the void and instantly appeared in front of Ao Lie.

Ao Lie was overjoyed, and with a paw with his hand, he immediately put the pill bottle into Noah's Ark in his body.

boom!

In the void, the thunder light flickered, and it was about to sweep towards the outside of the main hall, and Ao Lie also shook all over, bringing the people of Cangxuan City's major forces to rush out of the main hall.

"Everyone, let's join hands and keep them."

Xue Wudao's complexion changed, and they immediately stepped out to intercept Xiang Qin Chen and Ao Lie's party. They must not let Qin Chen and the others leave safely, otherwise, if the news spreads, everything will be over.

However, they are just ready to shoot.

Boom!

The desperate leader of Wukong organization slashed out with a single sword, and the three of them were stopped abruptly. At the same time, the desperate leader appeared in front of Du Luo Xin, and stopped Du Luo Xin's shot.

"City Lord Ao Lie, kid Qin Chen, pause to leave, I still have something to say."

He rumblingly opened his mouth, waving his hands, and suddenly, the whole hall was filled with devilish energy and cold air lingered, turning into an invisible barrier at the entrance of the hall, slightly blocking Qin Chen and the others.

As for his whole person, he also put away the sharp sword, without any hostility.

"Little friend Qin Chen, see what he wants to say."

Ao Lie's eyes flashed, and he fell down at the entrance of the hall, staring at desperation. "Why do you kill each other like this? Since everyone is here, it is destined, and what you did is just the treasure in this demon corpse. If that is the case, why not listen to the words of this seat and cooperate together to win this demon corpse. Where's the treasure in it?

Want to kill each other and let outsiders take advantage? "Desperately shouted, his tone was Chen Ken, and his eyes flashed with a sharp light.

Chapter 2595: mutual cooperation

mutual cooperation?

Everyone looked at Desperate in shock. Did the leader of this organization think too much? Everyone was still fighting to death before. When you look back, you will say that fighting is turned into jade. How is this possible?

"What's the joke, work together?"

"Don't even think about it, we must kill them today."

"The desperate leader, in fact, we can join hands. If our five forces join hands, it may not be impossible to stop Qin Chen and Ao Lie and kill them here."

"Yes, what nonsense with them?"

There were cold shouts, and Xue Wudao and others walked out one after another, their eyes cold and murderous lingering all over.

"Hahaha, desperate leader, I thought you were going to say something. It turned out to be this kind of idea. You have also seen it. This group of people is impossible to agree to, and how can we trust you."

Qin Chen's eyes flashed and sneered. Desperately said in a deep voice: "Everyone, listen to what I said, you all come here to ask for money. No one wants the treasure to be taken away by others. But today, if you let them go, then the devil's Treasure, no one can get it, which is more important, I think

You should all have an abacus. "Here, this seat is here before you, so I understand very well that this hall is the temple of life and death of the ancient sage Lord of the Yama demon clan. In this demon temple, the house of the Yama demon clan back then Treasure, Demon Tree of Ten Thousand Worlds, this is Yama

The most precious treasure of the Demon Race, as long as you get this Demon Tree, not to mention the mere sage of heaven, even the realm of the Holy Lord, you can snoop a bit, this seat does not believe that you are willing to give up. "

"Yan Luo Mozu's treasure?"

"The Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Realms?"

Everyone was shocked.

Although they don't know what the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Realms is, it can be called the most precious treasure of the Yan Luo Demon Race, so it can be seen that it is generally, not to mention, at least the treasure of the Holy Master.

It should be noted that the Yama Demon Race was considered middle among the many demon races. If this Ten Thousand Realm Demon Tree is really the treasure of the Yama Demon Race, then even among the treasures of the Holy Lord, it is absolutely against the sky.

"Hmph, if there is a Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Realms, would you kindly say it?"

Qin Chen's eyes flashed and sneered.

Not only him, even Xue Wudao and the others are also confused.

The Ten Thousand Realm Devil Tree is such a treasure, will the Wukong Organization willingly let it out? He desperately said: "There is nothing to say about this. There are actually two reasons why this seat is willing to make this suggestion. The first is that you can't let you leave here. Your strength, I have already understood before. It's clear that even if you join forces with the other three powers, this seat is not absolutely sure that you will be able to keep you, and once you are allowed to escape here, then your Excellency and City Lord Ao Lie will surely pass on the news, and there will be Heavenly saints come,

Not in line with our interests. "Second, in fact, in this Demon Palace of Life and Death, there are many crises. We alone may not be able to enter the depths of the Palace of Life and Death and find the Demon Tree of the Ten Thousand Realms, but in addition to the three major cities, the Lord and the Cangxuan City Master, this seat is 70% sure

Enter the depths of the Demon Hall of Life and Death and find the Demon Tree of Ten Thousand Realms. "Otherwise, why do you think this seat should be hidden here?" If you have the ability, you would have entered the depths of the Demon Hall of Life and Death alone long ago, and you have to waste time staying here to attack you? Since you escaped the assassination of this seat, then you get

Only after this seat's approval did we make recommendations. "

"What do you think?"

Desperately looked at everyone.

This.....

Everyone on the field fell into silence, and everything that Desperate said gave everyone present a great shock. The Palace of Life and Death, the Demon Tree of Ten Thousand Worlds, Desperate to understand this demon corpse, far away from all of them. Above.

Moreover, what Destiny said is indeed somewhat reasonable. The members of the Wukong Organization and the Soulfire Family had entered the hall before them, but did not continue deep. Obviously, they wanted to enter the hall. Deep down, the difficulty is bound to be great.

Once Ao Lie and others spread the news and attract the Yunzhou Tiansheng powerhouse, is there still hope for them in the treasures here?

For a time, Xue Wudao and others hesitated. "Everyone, what are you waiting for? We are not the only one who knows the news of the Yan Luo Secret Realm. The more time is wasted, the lower the hope of getting the treasure. It is better to join hands and enter the depths of the Demon Temple. Ability

Not better? "

Desperately said solemnly.

His words caused Xue Wudao and others to constantly think about it, and secretly communicate with each other.

"Brother Xue, what do you think?" "I see that the desperate statement is also quite reasonable. If we join forces, I may not be able to stop Ao Lie and Qin Chen, and the Wukong organization may not agree to do so. , Once let them leave, the problem will be troublesome, why don't you agree to it first?"

Happening? "

"It makes sense, no matter what, as long as the three major forces join forces, then no matter what happens, there will be a foothold. If things are really as this desperately said, it will not be too late to wait until you see the treasure in this magic temple. ."

"It may not even need to wait that long. After the meeting, as long as there is a chance, everyone can do it."

"Hmph, if that's the case, then let's make the decision first."

Xue Wudao, Gu Liushen, and Fengfeng looked at each other and made a decision instantly.

"Okay, the desperate leader, our three major forces have agreed." Xue Wudao said coldly: "Just let this kid and City Lord Cangxuan take a shot, wait for the treasure, and then rely on their own skills." desperate haha smiled: " I knew that the three of them were all heroes who were able to judge the time and the situation." He turned his head to look at Qin Chen and Ao Lie, and said lightly: "I don't know what City Lord Ao and Your Excellency think? Such a treasure of the Yama Sage Lord, the two really willingly hand over.

Give in? "

Qin Chen and City Lord Ao Lie glanced at each other, their eyes flashed: "If this is the case, then I will also agree to look for the treasure first, and then each will have its own ability."

"Haha, okay." He desperately clapped his palms, "Everyone, the entrance of this Demon Temple, this seat has been studied for a long time, and our No Space Organization has once obtained the ancient information of this Yama Demon Clan, and we know more about it here. Many, where we are now, just live

At the entrance of the Palace of Death Demon, in front of you is a large formation of Yama Demon Race. This seat has a solution. After a while, I hope that you can follow the orders of this seat and don't go crazy and join hands to find the treasure. "

"Say it!"

Everyone looked at each other, nodded and said, but in their eyes, it was obvious that they were all thinking. At the same time, everyone suddenly got up. It's no wonder that Destiny was able to come here the first time. It turns out that Wukong organization had received information from the Yama

Demon Clan. If it weren't for this Palace of Life and Death, it would be extremely difficult to open, and everyone would need to join hands. Fate

The treasure has been taken first. For a time, everyone has a bottom in their hearts.

Chapter 2596: Magic Fruit of Ten Thousand Realms

Now that they agreed to cooperate, everyone gathered together again. Of course, everyone did not completely trust each other. They restrained each other and were very vigilant.

"Everyone, come with me." Desperately took the masters of Wukong Organization and the Soulfire Family, walking in front, and saw him take out a black magic talisman. Suddenly, the magic talisman surged and turned into an invisible black light. , Opened a channel in the magical energy deep in the original hall

This method naturally amazes everyone.

"Little friend Qin Chen, when you told me to wait to leave before, how did you know that this desperate situation would stop and you proposed to join forces?"

Ao Lie took the master of Cangxuancheng and walked at the end, looking at Qin Chen with shock.

In fact, when Qin Chen yelled for Ao Lie to leave, he had secretly informed Ao Lie that as long as they pretended to leave, Desperate would definitely stop them and propose to join forces, even at the hands of the people in the three major cities.

Ao Lie would be suspicious, but because of his trust in Qin Chen, he decided to pretend to break through. Otherwise, he had worked so hard to come here, how could he willingly give up the treasure in this demon corpse so simply.

Who would have thought that Qin Chen had expected all this. "City Lord Ao Lie, there are too many flaws in these desperate words, but the news about the Demon Palace of Life and Death and the Demon Tree of Ten Thousand Realms may be true. After a while, look at Ben Shao's eyes and act. I have to see, what exactly does this organization do?

ghost. "

Qin Chen's eyes flashed and said lightly.

"it is good."

City Lord Ao Lie agreed instantly. After a series of things before, he completely admired Qin Chen. Knowing that this son was great, he naturally agreed.

"By the way, among the strongest in Cangxuan City, the little girl has the lowest cultivation level. I will ask little friend Qin Chen to take care of him after the meeting. Qingling, there will be opportunities to communicate with little friend Qin Chen in the future. You are all young people. More common language."

Ao Lie said again.

"father....."

Ao Qingling's face blushed and she almost stomped her feet. She naturally knew what her father meant.

Qin Chen smiled, "City Lord Ao Lie is polite. Miss Qingling is a friend of Qin. She will naturally not stand by when she encounters danger. Please don't worry, City Master Ao Lie."

"Haha."

Ao Lie laughed out loud, he believed Qin Chen could understand what he meant.

Under the desperate leadership, everyone cautiously entered the depths of the hall.

I saw that there were countless weird glyphs engraved around the main hall, and a weird aura lingered around. The Yama demon energy around it was extremely tyrannical, making everyone secretly surprised.

If it were not for desperately to cast this special magic talisman and bring them into it, it would not be that simple to rely on them to go deep into this hall.

However, everyone also understood that this should not be the difficulty of the main hall, otherwise they would have entered the depths of the main hall long ago, and the danger should still be deeper in the devilish energy.

After half an hour, everyone finally walked out of this channel.

Boom!

As soon as the demon energy came out, everyone came to a gloomy world. They saw that the world was dim, like a domain of the demon race. The ground was black gravel, and the black wind swept through it, which could wipe out everything.

Everyone was shocked, the depths of this hall turned out to be such a strange world.

"This Demon Temple of Life and Death contains the cycle of life and death. It is the evolution of the world smelted within the sacred body of the Yama Demon Race. Therefore, although this is a hall, it is also a world. Various scenes can be encountered."

Desperately said in a deep voice: "What we are entering now is a small world in the Palace of Life and Death."

Everyone was stunned.

"strange!"

Afterwards, many people looked up and were shocked. =

Because it was still dim here, but the sky not far away was a faint yellow, and the adjacent sky on the other side was devilish, and further forward, there was black flames billowing, and then the black rain poured down.

Count them, there are five extreme weathers.

"Five completely different environments, and there happens to be the Five Secrets in the saint's body. Does this indicate something?" Qin Chen said.

Desperately said: "This is just a coincidence, because these five environments merge to cultivate the magic fruit of the world."

"Magic Fruit of Ten Thousand Realms?" Everyone was surprised, what is this? Desperately continued: "This is what my Wukong organization learned from a secret of the Yama Demon Clan. This Ten Thousand Realms Demon Fruit was based on the essence and blood of the Yama Demon Clan's holy lord when he fell. Born by watering, and then we have to lay down a great array of reincarnation in the Five Realms.

After several years of growth, it has become a positive result. "

Everyone looked at each other. Although they were not Demon Race, they had also inquired about a lot of Demon Race secrets. Why had they never heard of such a thing?

"What is the use of Ten Thousand Realms Demon Fruit?" Xue Wudao asked. "A lifelong Dao fruit of a demon tribe saint master!" said desperately, "and the Yama demon tribe saint master can be called one of the top masters of the demon tribe at that time. How amazing its Dao fruit is, let me say everyone Can you guess one or two? If you can get one million Realm Demon Fruit, refining the power in it, is easy to break through the Heavenly Sage in a moment, and it is even possible to touch a trace of the Holy Lord's threshold in the future. "

hiss!

Everyone sucked in air-conditioning. Many people's eyes are fiery, and they are all heartbroken. Heavenly Sage, they are not afraid of danger and what is the purpose of going deep into this Yama secret realm, just to spy on Heavenly Sage Fate, but even if they get the opportunity, they want to break through the Heavenly Sage Realm , But also

It takes time, and this time can be as short as one or two years, or as long as a hundred, thousand, or even ten thousand years.

This is too long.

But if a devil fruit of the ten thousand realms goes down, they can go straight to the realm of Heavenly Sage, how much time can they save for them? Moreover, let them have a glimpse of the mystery of entering the Holy Lord, this is the most important thing.

The holy lord, a great figure in the heavens, is in charge of the world, and he speaks the law. Who doesn't want to be?

"You just said it so generously?" Ao Lie asked in a deep voice. A desperate smile: "First of all, without mutual cooperation, none of us can close this Five Realms Reincarnation Array. How can we talk about harvesting? Second, as far as I know, there is more than one Devil Fruit in the Ten Thousand Realms, maybe enough for everyone to share. Yes, of course, I really have to meet

, But it will not be distributed according to the number of influences, everyone can only rely on their own ability, and the ugly words are first. "

Can you trust him?

Everyone has a question mark in their hearts, but Wukong Organization currently knows the most about the corpse of the devil, and everyone can only choose to believe it.

"If this is the case, then everyone will work together, complicity in Devil Fruit!" said Headwind.

He smiled desperately and said: "Then please cooperate with me. I believe I know more about the situation here than you."

Everyone nodded.

As they moved forward, the environment in this area was extremely harsh, with black hurricanes blowing everywhere. These black cyclones were extremely terrifying. The gravel on the ground was shattered and even the void was constantly fluctuating under these cyclones.

"call!"

Suddenly a hurricane appeared beside everyone and swept over them suddenly.

"Ah!" A Martial Artist of the Late Earth Sage of the Ancient Language City was swept away, instantly torn apart and turned into ashes.

Chapter 2597: Smearred with blood

"Be careful, the hurricanes here are very dangerous, and they often appear out of thin air. There is no warning. It is best for everyone to gather together and fight together. When everyone's holy yuan attacks are united to form a strong enough force, they can resist.

Block the hurricane here. "

Desperately shouted immediately.

As if to corroborate his words, a series of hurricanes ahead are constantly forming. These hurricanes are strong and weak, strong, like a tornado, connecting the world, and the weak may be just a whirlwind.

But even the weakest whirlwind is enough to hurt the warriors of the late Earth Sage, if it is stronger, it can even make the warriors of the late Earth Sage directly annihilate and turn into nothingness.

"Everyone joined hands to explode these whirlwinds." Desperately said in a deep voice.

Without him speaking, the others had already taken action after seeing the hurricanes around them.

No one wanted to be the next warrior who was directly beheaded like the warrior in Ancient Language City before.

Boom!

Many powerhouses joined forces, and suddenly, some whirlwinds formed around were beheaded.

"So simple?"

Everyone was a little surprised.

Faced with these hurricanes, it is very difficult for any single strong person to explode, but it does not seem difficult to join forces.

Qin Chen jumped out, slashed with his right hand, cutting out a sword aura.

Puff and puff, the two whirlwinds were cut and exploded immediately, but a strange scene appeared. After the sword energy was cut, the power of these whirlwinds continued to surge, and they condensed and formed in another place.

"Sure enough, it's not that simple." Everyone said.

The hurricane force here will not dissipate at all. Although it was blown up, it did not disappear, but returned to the world.

At any rate, this is also a means deployed by a strong saint, it can't be so simple.

咻咻咻, the whirlwind swept across.

Everyone gathers together and keeps making moves.

The whirlwind appeared one after another, one, two, three, and the number was increasing, which put a lot of pressure on everyone.

After the quantity exceeds a certain limit, a qualitative change will occur.

The number of cyclones is endless, and when it exceeds one hundred, everyone is under great pressure.

It was Ao Lie who frowned slightly. Although everyone was united and still able to resist, the number would rise to hundreds or thousands, so even if they had more numbers, they would not be able to hold it.

"Desperate, is there any other way?"

"You can't defend so passively, otherwise everyone won't be able to keep it going."

Everyone shouted.

"This world is actually a big formation, as long as the eyes are broken, everyone insists on following me for a while."

He desperately shouted: "Please also the peerless Di Sage to open the way!"

Ao Lie, the four major city masters, and the poisonous Luo Xin didn't evade them. Now is not the time to care about personal grievances.

The five powerhouses cleared the road ahead, and everyone moved forward. Naturally, the whole way was like a broken bamboo, but the more these whirlwinds got, the more they had to slow down.

Qin Chen followed the crowd and guarded behind the team. He shot and exploded the whirlwind one by one, but his perception was looking around, calculating something.

From the very beginning, he saw that this was a formation, but this formation was so ingenious that even his formation attainments could not be revealed for a while.

Everyone sacrificed treasures one after another, shattered the whirlwind, and slammed forward.

This is the small world opened up by the Holy Master and the Demon Hall of Life and Death, the area of which is not small, and everyone has walked for several hours and still has not come to an end.

From the perspective of the sky, the entire small world is divided into five parts like a cake, with the big outside and small inside, and the five areas are gathered in one place. And they are heading towards this central area.

"There are still two hours away." Everyone said panting.

Regardless of the end point, the hurricane is getting stronger and stronger, making them spend a lot of energy every step forward, and the speed is naturally slow to the extreme.

They didn't say anything to cheer up, if it were a peerless earth sage, the late earth sage masters would not even have this perseverance. So what qualifications do they have to get to this point? How can we talk about becoming a god?

Everyone gritted their teeth. Two hours later, they finally reached the end of this area, the center of the whole world.

There is a stone stele, which is covered with complicated lines, and a devilish atmosphere lingers, exuding a heart-palpating breath.

"This is the front eye?"

"How to break it?"

Everyone frowned. Although most people couldn't say nothing about breaking the formation, they didn't know much, at least they couldn't see through formations of this level.

"According to the information obtained by our No Air Organization, as long as everyone wipes blood on it, you can break this formation." Destiny said.

Dripping blood?

Everyone was taken aback, so simple?

"I don't know the specific principle, but the information I got from the air organization does say so." Destiny knew that everyone was suspicious and couldn't help explaining it again.

Qin Chen was suddenly in a trance at this moment.

When they were in the Sea of Thunder, the secret realm of the deep demon, they once encountered a large formation of stone pillars. At that time, they also needed strong blood to release the seal.

Could it be that this demons has such a hobby for essence and blood?

However, at the beginning of the Abyssal Demon Secret Realm, it was also said that there was an unseen opportunity, but as a result, when the Lord of the Abyssal Demon was encountered, everyone almost fell.

Is this also a trap?

After all, which one who can become the Holy Lord is not a peerless hero, doesn't he give himself a way out?

However, the Lord of the Yama Demon Race has been dead for so many years after all. Perhaps this possibility is not great, right?

"It seems that you all have concerns, so I will come first."

Desperately led the people from Wukong Organization to go up first and wiped the blood on the stone tablet. Suddenly, the pitch-black stone tablet lit up, emitting a little light.

"Sure enough there was a reaction."

Everyone was taken aback.

"We come too."

Immediately afterwards, people from the Soul Fire family also stepped forward and smeared the blood.

Seeing this scene, people from other forces also stepped forward and smeared blood.

I saw the light on the stone tablet getting brighter and brighter.

"Not enough." Desperately urged: "Everyone must be smeared with blood. The stronger the blood, the more blood, the formation can be broken. It is a pity that there is no strong heavenly sage among us, otherwise only a few heavenly sages will be enough. opened."

Qin Chen, Ao Lie and others looked at each other. Although they were a little wary, the pressure was indeed too great now. Qin Chen stared at the stele for a long time, and finally walked up, smeared with blood.

The stele is getting brighter.

Hum!

After the last Qin Chen's blood was smeared, a beam of light suddenly rose into the sky, extremely bright.

At the same time, all the hurricanes disappeared, as if they never existed.

Everyone was relieved, and under the continuous battle, they were all full of exhaustion. They sit down and rest first, and recover to their best condition as soon as possible.

Chapter 2598: Stay guard

After a short break, everyone's energy was restored.

Although they have cooperated with each other in this way, in fact, the hostility between the two sides is still there. However, considering that the next four areas require the concerted efforts of everyone, there is no conflict between them.

The most urgent task is to obtain the Devil Fruit of the Ten Thousand Realms. If the Heavenly Sage can be achieved, everything can be discarded.

So, now is not the time to turn your face.

To be able to become a peerless earth saint, of course everyone will not lack patience.

"Can I go directly to the next area from here?"

Everyone rested for a while and stood up again.

If you walk from here, the end points of the next two areas are only ten miles away, very close.

Everyone just wanted to go to both sides, but they didn't go far, only to see the light of the stele dimmed suddenly, and the hurricane reappeared.

Huh?

They stepped back a few steps, the stele reappeared, and the hurricane disappeared again.

This... can't they leave?

If you can't leave, how can you activate the other four areas?

Everyone is looking at desperation.

Desperately said: "Although the front eye here has been closed, each stone tablet needs to have a peerless earth-sage-level strong man to maintain its operation. And we can't take shortcuts, this means that the demon's holy master deployed , Must go around from outside."

Of course, this method is not absolutely effective. I believe that the Holy Master can definitely break through it, but does the Holy Master still need to come here?

There is no Holy Lord among them, so it is necessary to leave the strong here.

Moreover, it must be a powerhouse of peerless earth saint level.

Everyone looked at each other, so wouldn't all the leaders of the major forces stay?

Fortunately, he desperately said at this time: "You only need to stay like a peerless earth saint master. If you are a late earth saint martial artist, leaving ten is enough, which is enough to be equivalent to a peerless earth saint."

This... everyone looked at each other. Although it is not necessary for the Peerless Earth Sage to stay, the ten late Earth Sage masters are not a small number. The power of the late Earth Sage brought by the major forces, up to now, each power has about There are more than ten people left, ten left

, Which is equal to half of the combat power left by each force.

Of course, compared to leaving the leaders of the major forces, it is much better, at least, they can move on.

But who left the first stone monument?

Everyone is worried, who knows if this is a conspiracy by No Space Organization, naturally no one wants to come out first. Seeing everyone hesitate, they couldn't help saying: "In this way, we have a total of six powers, and there are a total of five regions here. It's better to guard one stele from each power. If everyone hesitates, the stele in this first region will be I have no time

How about the organization stationed? "Furthermore, it is not a loss to stay here, because once the five areas are closed, a passage to the central area will be opened, and everyone can enter the center of the small world for the first time. Those who stay here , On the contrary

Recharge your energy. "

When the voice fell, he directly nodded ten masters of the Wukong Organization, ready to stay.

"No way."

Everyone refused.

Just kidding, the people from your organization stayed behind to guard this stele. How can you rest assured other forces?

"Why don't we all keep people behind and make up ten people?"

Xue Wudao said solemnly.

This is a good idea. Every force will keep people behind, so there is no need to worry that the other side will do things on the stele. After all, everyone is guarded.

For a time, the major forces nodded one after another.

"That's it, then."

Destiny frowned and said, seemingly uncomfortable, but no one saw it, there was a glimmer of light flashing quietly in Wukong's Destiny pupils, and it disappeared quickly.

"This can't work."

Unexpectedly, at this time, Qin Chen spoke.

Everyone couldn't help but look over. Qin Chen sneered: "If you want to keep people, you stay, Cangxuan City will never keep people. Who knows if you will join forces? If something goes wrong then, your five forces will join forces and we will stay in Cangxuan City. People, I'm afraid it's just minutes

Was it eaten by you? "

Ao Lie glanced at Qin Chen. He didn't understand why Qin Chen said so, but he instinctively believed in Qin Chen.

"Yes, we Cangxuan City does not keep anyone." He said.

"Hmph, if you don't stay in Cangxuan City, you won't stay. If you remove Cangxuan City, we still have five powers, and exactly one power will leave two." Xue Wudao sneered. He wanted to see this situation. As a result, six of them can stay in the three major cities, and Wukong Organization has obviously joined forces with the Soulfire family, but it can only leave four, six to four, three of them.

The big city is enough to take the initiative in front of every stone monument.

Ao Lie's proposal was just as he intended.

"This....."

This time, Destiny hesitated.

This further confirmed Xue Wudao's speculation, impatiently said: "Desperate leader, what are you still hesitating? Continue to delay, wait until when, it is better to leave someone to garrison immediately, and the rest continue to set off."

Desperate and helpless, had to agree.

In the end, Tianyue City, Guyu City, and Fengyun City left six masters of the late Earth Sage, Wukong Organization and Soul Fire Family left four, and continued to operate the stele, while others continued to advance.

Sure enough, everyone walked a long distance this time, but the stone stele still showed a beam of light soaring, without the slightest meaning of diminishing.

Destiny is not wrong at least on this point.

Qin Chen and the others still tried, and they wanted to go directly from here to the two areas on the side, but it didn't work. It seemed that they could pass directly, but there was an invisible wall separated by an invisible wall, and no one could pass through.

This is the method of the Yama Lord, and this has not disappointed everyone, but it is full of expectations.

The stronger the Lord Yama, the more precious what he left behind.

"Little friend Qin Chen, why don't we let our people stay? This desperate, uneasy or kind, maybe it's hidden on the stone tablet without telling it." Ao Lie asked on the way.

"City Lord Ao Lie, if you believe me, just do what I said. As for why, you can't tell now, you'll know when you turn around." Qin Chen said through sound transmission, but he didn't explain, just thinking along the way.

Ao Lie heard this and knew that Qin Chen had his own ideas, and he who trusted Qin Chen quite a bit, did not continue to ask.

In a moment, they walked out of this area, because there was no whirlwind obstruction, their progress was fast, and they left this area in about half an hour.

Now there are two choices, enter the left or right area?

"Clockwise." desperately said.

Everyone listened, at least the other party had proved that he knew far more about the situation here than others. Of course, no one would completely believe in desperation, a defensive heart is indispensable, let alone the two parties have no understanding. They walked clockwise and entered the second area.

Chapter 2599: Picture poor see

The place was full of earthy yellow halo, as if it had come to a high **** of loess, but on the ground, there was a unique pattern of magic energy, and black runes flashed, very strange.

"go."

They stepped among them, hum, and suddenly everyone sank. Except for the peerless earth sages such as Qin Chen and Ao Lie, everyone else almost fell to the ground.

"Gravity field?"

Everyone was surprised.

Here, everyone is covered with a heavy force, struggling to move.

"Everyone uses their power and unites to fight against gravity and enter the depths."

Desperately reminded.

Everyone used their power one after another. Sure enough, they felt a lot easier. Moreover, everyone's power united to form a larger regular space, and the resistance to gravity became stronger.

It's no wonder that desperate wants to wait for everyone in the main hall without coming in by himself, and relying on him and the soul and fire family two major forces, it is impossible to penetrate the depth of this gravity area.

Even the combination of the other three cities may not be able to do it. It is necessary to pull up Cangxuan City, and none of them can be absent.

Everyone worked hard to move forward, constantly operating the rules, and the Holy Source in the body was constantly consumed.

But there is no alternative.

As everyone advances, this gravity is getting more and more terrifying. In the end, Ao Lie and the others are also shocked. If they hadn't resisted together, they would not be instantly suppressed once they entered this place.

"It is worthy of being at the level of the Lord."

Xue Wudao and the others were shocked, and the gravitational area formed alone could easily kill them, these peerless earth saints, and they were about to fight. How mighty? You can blow them up with a breath, right?

This in turn stimulated everyone's desire for strength.

But in the back, the gravity here is so terrible that everyone can't bear it.

"No, why is the gravity here so terrible? It's far more terrifying than the previous hurricane area. If this continues, can it be reached?"

Everyone was a little nervous, and everyone could see that everyone was exhausted.

"do not worry."

At this moment, Destiny suddenly took out a flag, which was a dark magic flag. It could be seen that the body of the flag was very broken, and it was stained with black magic blood, exuding a sense of misery.

"This is our No Air Organization got a battle flag of the Yama Demon Clan, and it was obtained with the intelligence of this Yama secret realm. It can resist some of the gravity in this area."

He urged the black magic flag, and immediately, an invisible force spread, and the gravity received by everyone was immediately weakened a lot.

"This magic flag..."

Everyone stared at Destiny. They didn't think that at this time, Destiny still had such a treasure. I'm afraid he wouldn't take it out if it wasn't for the last moment. This Wukong organization has an understanding of Yama's secret realm. How many?

"Little friend Qin Chen, there should be a lot of secrets in this desperate body. It always feels wrong. Be careful." Ao Lie communicated to Qin Chen.

"Little Ben knows." Qin Chen said calmly, "However, this desperate thing should also be something that wants to get the central area of the Demon Hall of Life and Death, so let's see who is the devil."

"We can only go one step at a time." Ao Lie nodded.

At this time, naturally there will be no withdrawal.

And Xue Wudao, the three peerless earth saints, seemed to be even more wary of desperation.

But Destiny didn't care, urging the magic flag to lead everyone forward.

This area was originally impossible to cross, but after the demon flag that was desperately taken out, an hour later, everyone came to the end of this area.

Sure enough, there is also a stone monument here.

Everyone wiped their blood, and the oppressive gravitational space around them immediately loosened, and everyone felt extremely relaxed and extremely comfortable.

"Who stayed?"

A group of people looked at each other, and in the end, according to the previous agreement, the five major forces left two of them, but Cangxuancheng remained alone.

The remaining ten people sat cross-legged on the edge of the stele and turned the stele, otherwise the stele would show off again.

Everyone nodded. In fact, those who stay here are the most relaxed and don't have to do anything.

Is it really so?

Qin Chen glanced at Fuming quietly, and saw a sneer flashing deep in Fuming's eyes.

This desperation really hides something.

But Qin Chen has not yet figured out what desperately concealed. He just silently wrote down the lines of these stone tablets, as well as the formation lines of all areas, in his heart, and silently calculated.

Everyone returned the same way, with experience, this time faster, and within half an hour, they started to go to the third area.

Hum!

This area is filled with devilish energy, and in this devilish energy, there is a sharp aura circulating, exuding terrifying power.

Ordinary Earth Sage enters it in the late stage, and it will be crushed instantly.

But this time, everyone teamed up, and it was like the first area, and the power of the teamwork was enough to resist the terrifying aura here.

Boom boom boom!

A sharp aura struck, Xue Wudao and the others kept resisting, but Qin Chen was watching the formation of these black devil qi, silently forming his own way.

The combat experience of every celestial master can give him a huge inspiration and give him an opportunity to perfect his own way. The stronger the opponent, the greater his progress.

This is genius, in battle, will not decline, only become stronger and stronger.

Bang!

Everyone fought hard and finally came to the end of the area, at a stone monument.

This time, there is no need to desperately speak, people from all major forces have experience, and their own people have been left behind.

Then there is the next area.

In this area, the magic flame soared into the sky, and the terrifying flame burst out with endless power, which could easily burn the master of the earth.

"what!"

Qin Chen unexpectedly discovered that he could absorb the power of this demon flame.

He mixed in the crowd, secretly collected these demon flame powers, and collected these demon flames into the jade disc of good fortune in the universe. It can be seen that the little ants and small fires in the jade disc of good fortune in the universe are very excited and devour these magic flame powers.

Two hours later, ten people remained in this area.

In the last area, endless black rain fell, and this rain could corrode all the treasures of the holy gems and melt them into ashes.

This is the most dangerous place.

Destiny once again sacrificed the magic flag, and the magic flag shone out to block the rain, but the magic flag became more broken.

Everyone was very hard, and spent several hours, finally came to the end of the fifth area.

There is also a black stone monument standing.

Everyone's eyes were full of excitement, as long as the stone stele here is also activated, it will be able to open the ultimate treasure of the Lord Yama. At this time, people with ulterior motives should also try to find out.

Chapter 2600: The magic tree appears

Looking at the stele in front of them, everyone's faces showed excitement.

"Let's start!" said desperately, his tone a little excited.

After this array of eyes is activated, it can open the door to the treasures of the Palace of Life and Death, with everything that everyone dreams of.

Everyone had solemn expressions. At this time, anyone who had a ghost in their hearts would almost reveal their true colors.

But at this point, there is naturally no reason to shrink. Everyone looked at each other, cut their fingers one after another, and smeared their own blood.

Boom, the fifth beam of light also rose into the sky.

I saw the five beams of light merge and instantly turned into a thicker beam of light, breaking through the sky.

Rumble!

The endless demonic energy in the sky surged and turned into a black canopy, rotating around the beam of light, extremely gloomy, as if some terrible monster was about to run out of it.

Wow!

A series of demonic energy rose to the sky, as if to inspire a certain imprint, countless tentacles-like black demonic energy lingered in the sky, and then instantly twisted and merged together to form a big tree.

Hum!

The black magic tree bloomed with terrifying magic energy, exuding a palpable breath.

"Is this the Demon Tree of the Ten Thousand Realms mentioned by Destiny?"

Everyone took a breath.

call out! call out! call out! call out! call out! ...

Suddenly, ten sounds of breaking through the air sounded, and they saw black tentacles attacking them, like a snake.

"Not good!" Everyone was shocked, and they hurriedly shot, and the terrible attack fell on the black tentacles. These tentacles were unscathed, and Qin Chen didn't dare to be careless. He drew out the green demon sword, Qiang, Demon. The sword was cut on a tentacle, and that tentacle turned out to be Without moving, the terrifying force blasted Qin Chen away.

"what!"

A scream of screams rang out, and in an instant, six sage martial artists were pierced by black tentacles, and they rolled up into the sky, tightly entangled.

The remaining four black tentacles continued to flicker like lightning.

"Rewind!"

Everyone yelled, but these black tentacles were too fast. Except for Ao Lie and other peerless earth sage masters who could resist, ordinary earth sage martial artists had no time to resist, and they were penetrated almost instantly.

call out!

One of the tentacles threw at Ao Qingling like lightning.

The power of Ao Qingling Di Sage's mid-term exploded, booming, endless rainbow light bloomed, but it could not stop this tentacle at all, and it was about to be penetrated.

"when!"

Qin Chen slashed down with a sword, and instantly deflected the slash away. Under the black tentacles, with a puff, he pierced an old sage elder next to Ao Qingling and swept it into the sky.

"City Lord!"

He yelled in horror, but even with Ao Lie's cultivation base, he couldn't stop him. He could only watch this elder be swept away.

call out!

On the other side, the three black tentacles rushed towards the emptiness organization. But desperate seemed to have been unexpected, and suddenly shot, and immediately, three of the three great cities of the late saint martial arts were suddenly caught by the people from the Wukong organization, and then thrown out quickly, and the black magic tentacles suddenly penetrated the body. , Wrapped tightly, Fly into the sky.

"what--"

In the sky, the ten people in the scroll screamed in pain. They yelled, and blood was vomiting in their mouths, but their bodies were desperately dry, as if they had lost all their blood at once.

"Desperate, what the **** is going on?"

Everyone roared and was shocked, but there was a feeling of expectation.

They always felt that Destiny must have something to hide from them, the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree, how could the other party be so kind and willing to let out the treasure?

Now that the picture is poor, he is showing a fierce look.

Hum!

The black tentacles lifted up with the powerful late-stage earth saint. At the same time, many other human bodies rose from different directions. These people, screamed in pain, everyone was pierced by the tentacles, suffering Scream.

"Sir City Lord, save us, save us..."

These people were shriveled, looking at here in pain, their faces twisted, their faces panicked and desperate. It was the forty late-stage sage powerhouses of the five major forces who stayed on the side of the stone steles in the four major areas before. The most important thing is that not only the people from the three major cities were penetrated, but even the people from the empty space organization and the soul fire family. Pierced by black tentacles, painful struggle.

This horrible magic tree that suddenly appeared was absorbing the blood and life in their bodies.

There are a total of fifty strong masters in the late sacred stage, almost half of the strength on the field, being quickly swallowed by the black magic tree.

"Desperate, what do you mean?"

"In the end what happened?"

"Why are our people like this?"

"Get them down quickly."

Huh!

In an instant, the moments of several major forces separated, staring at each other, all staring at desperation, murderous.

But he stood with his hand in his hand and seemed indifferent. He sneered and said, "How can there be gains if no one sacrifices? You don't know such a simple truth?"

"Destiny, why are the people of my soul fire family swallowed by these devilish tentacles?!" The soul fire family poison Luo Xin looked at desperate in anger, his face extremely ugly.

He had long known that there must be a conspiracy in Destiny, but after all he was in the same group as Destiny, but unexpectedly, Destiny had not let go of his soul-fire family. But desperately smiled faintly: "Without the sacrifices of these people, the Devil Fruit of the Ten Thousand Worlds would not be able to mature. You guys, which one is more important, can you consider it? I haven't seen the people who have no time to organize. Has it been swallowed? The most lost now Small, there should be only one power in Cangxuan City, right? "

He paused: "People who don't want this supreme demon fruit can leave immediately, and this seat will never stop it, but this ten thousand realm demon fruit is not your share."

"Are you willing to leave now, or do you take the magic fruit with this seat?"

He desperately smiled indifferently.

This is really indifference, even his own people under his command didn't know the truth of the matter, and they were smashed. The key to the remaining masters of the no space organization, there was no fluctuation. This organization is simply terrifying.

Ao Lie's heart was also terrified. If it hadn't been for Qin Chen to quit here to threaten his life, I am afraid that at this moment, many elders in Cangxuan City have already fallen.

"father."

Ao Qingling approached Ao Lie in horror. All of this made her, the young lady, suffer an unprecedented shock.

Everyone was terrified.

Ao Lie's eyes were cold, and he said coldly, "If you seek a tiger's skin, you can only eat your own evil results! Who knows what conspiracy is behind you, everyone, everyone has seen the evil of this Wukong organization, should he let him go on for trouble!" "

"Slow!" Xue Wudao waved his hand and stopped Ao Lie.

"Xue Wudao, what do you mean, is this time, your three major cities still have to cooperate with this guy?" Ao Lie stared at Xue Wudao, his color changed suddenly, his heart tightened.
