Chapter 3291: Be penetrated

"Everyone, now the old man has reduced his aura. What everyone feels is the breath of the black beard dragon, but the black beard is in an inactive state. You can feel this. The softness of the armor."

The Sleeping Dream fairy displayed his body on the high platform, and suddenly, the scales on the black armor of the flat dragon seemed to be alive, and there was a feeling of water surging.

Everyone was shocked.

This benlong black armor looks very heavy, but in fact it is extremely light and agile. The Sleeping Dreamer stretches his posture on the stage and is also extremely flexible. Not to mention the joints are not affected by the slightest, but like a gentle dancer. There is no restriction.

However, everyone can see clearly at this time. When the scales are circulating, whenever they reach the position of the heart, there will be some stagnation, as if a part is missing, it is very rigid, and even a small gap and gap are left. The vacancy, and the position behind the Sleeping Dream Immortal's heart, also felt this way, and it was even more obvious. From time to time, the range of about a fist was vacated, and the gaps were uneven.

That was not the design of Bao Jia itself, but it gave people a feeling of being missing. It seemed that the Bao Jia had encountered a very strong attack, and the piece of armor in his heart was missing.

"Now everyone feels the activation state of this Panlong Black Yujia."

As the words fell, an amazing breath suddenly filled the Immortal Sleeping Dream, roaring, there seemed to be a dragon roar resounding in the auction room, and the Immortal Sleeping Dream turned into a flat dragon, but this time I saw it more clearly, that The position of Panlong's heart seemed to be penetrated by someone.

Condensing his breath, stopping his figure, the fairy sleeping dream said: "Presumably you can also see that this benlong black jade armor is originally a set, but it is a pity that my heart has been damaged. It seems to be the owner of this treasure in the past. When people were fighting, they were pierced with sharp weapons, causing the scales here to be damaged and beyond repair."

Everyone came to understand why the Sleeping Dream fairy said that the armor was flawed, it was more than a flaw, it could already be described as broken.

Don't look at it just missing such a little bit, it seems that there is no problem, but the strong fight against each other, the difference is this little bit. In case someone launches an attack through this broken heart position, then this expensive Panlong Heiyu Jia It's almost a display.

"This A is missing so badly, is it still useful?" someone asked?

Sleeping Dream fairy smiled and said: "The methods of the ancient crafting masters are beyond my imagination. Don't worry, don't look at this armor missing a key position, but it's not completely ineffective. Even the defensive power of the missing part still retains most of it. Of course, although this treasure armor is still the grade of the middle-grade peak saint master, some parts can only exert the defensive power of ordinary middle-grade treasure armor. Please see..."

The Sleeping Dream fairy spoke and suddenly gave a soft sigh. The black armor that was draped on his body made a clicking sound, and then flew off from him. Pieces of it were suspended in the air, recondensing the appearance of a treasure.

The Sleeping Dream fairy stretched out his hand, and a stream of light emerged on his fingers, exuding an amazing breath.

"Everyone, this is the power of the ordinary mid-term peak saint master level, everyone is optimistic."
call out!

The streamer in the hands of the Sleeping Dreamer suddenly burst out, booming, the terrible streamer split into thousands and thousands of paths in the void, spinning and circling, with amazing power, and the surging power made many people change their color. No one doubted it. If such a terrifying attack falls on an unsuspecting mid-term peak saint master, I am afraid that the opponent will be injured in an instant, and ordinary mid-term saint masters will be killed in an instant.

"Boom boom!"

However, countless streamers fell on the armor like a torrential rain, and I heard a roar of rumbling, the precious armor was radiant, and the surface was flowing with pitch-black black luster, and the runes flickered, and it was intact.

However, when the attack fell on the position of the heart, everyone could still feel that a lot of the power of the streamer penetrated the position of the heart and entered the battle armor, unable to defend them all.

The Sleeping Dreamer stopped his shot and said loudly: "You have also seen it, and the old man has identified that this treasure is made from the scales of the ancient adult beetle dragon. The beetle dragon is also extremely powerful in the ancient monster race. , Has always been known for its defenses, so with the precious armor refined from its body's scale armor, its defense power is not comparable to ordinary mid-level peak armor."

"This treasure armor, the old man finally identified, the broken part should only be close to the defense level of the mid-level peak Holy Master, and the rest of the parts are full of the mid-level peak Holy Master's defense. The power is amazing, and the old man also identified that if this thing can be Activated by the aura of the true dragon, the power will be stronger. The old man estimates that if it is in its heyday, even with the defense of the late saint master, this treasure can be life-saving at the critical moment.

"The period of victory is close to the defense of the late Saint Lord?"

"hiss!"

"This thing was originally made from adult beetle scales, no wonder!"

"Furthermore, the activation power of true dragon qi will be stronger. Blessed are some experts who cultivate true dragon true qi. Unfortunately, our human race has many experts who cultivate true dragon true qi, but there are very few who can truly evolve true dragon qi. Very few, I have heard that the Dragon King Island Lord, one of the top forces in Guangyuetian, has the blood of a true dragon. If this thing is obtained by such a character, it can truly exert its power."

"It's really a pity, if this treasure armor is not damaged, it is estimated that even the later Saint Lord will pay attention to it."

"Indeed, the general late-stage holy master may not have the armor of the middle-grade peak holy master, but it is a pity that there is fatal damage."

"I don't know the price? Anyway, I don't have to think about this treasure."

"Look at the reserve price!"

There was a hustle and bustle underneath, and the Sleeping Dream fairy waited for a moment before he said: "The black dragon and black jade armor, the low-priced ten low-grade holy veins, the increase is free, everyone please!"

As soon as he spoke, a cold breath sounded.

Ten low-grade holy veins will be quoted as soon as it comes up. It should be noted that the previous Shenliu Caiyi, if it is fully urged, will also have the defense of the mid-level peak holy master, and the final transaction price is only ten low-grade holy veins.

But now this Panlong Heiyujia actually starts bidding for ten low-grade holy veins. One can imagine how terrifying the final transaction price will be. The starting price alone makes ninety-nine percent of people want to bid .

However, the Shenliu Caiyi and Benlong Heiyujia are indeed not comparable. Although the peak defense sounds similar, the Benlong Heiyujia is indeed more terrifying, not to mention that the Shenliu Caiyi can only be used with the star world. Power or secret method to urge, normal as far as the defense of the early holy master, and this benlong black jade armor, although broken, but also close to the mid-term peak of the holy master's defense, the degree of cherishment suddenly increased.

Chapter 3292: No place to spend

For a time, those mid-term holy masters and mid-term peak holy masters who are well prepared are ready to move. Although there are many sacred veins of the ten low-grade peaks, the test of the Sleeping Dream Immortal also made everyone see that this A is not afraid of the strong mid-term holy masters. Attack, with this treasure in the body, a mid-term saint master can even face the mid-term peak saint master without fear, and can deal with one or two, as long as it does not get hit.

Even if it weren't because it was broken, and even Sleeping Dream Fairy and other late-stage holy masters would compete, then they would have no place at all.

Everyone is very active, and no one wants to miss such a good thing, I am afraid that the competition will be fierce.

In the box where Qin Chen was in, You Qianxue was also excited: "Dust, this armor seems to suit you well."

She knew very well that after killing the Dragon King Island Master, Qin Chen also got his true dragon bloodline, absorbed Qin Chen from the true dragon spirit pond, and was hopeful that he would motivate the Panlong Hei Yu Jia, and the fairy Sleeping Dream said In the heyday of this Jia, even close to the realm of the late Saint Lord, if Qin Chen can shoot it, his defense will definitely be of great help.

"Young master, the old slave also thinks this thing is very suitable for the young master." Xing Tianya flatly said: "Apart from the young master, who is eligible to use this armor?"

Qin Chen smiled, and his heart moved slightly.

If this armor is intact, it will be enough to attract the attention of the late saint master. If there is a later saint master shot, Qin Chen may not be able to take it. But now, because the key position of this armor is damaged, it is impossible for the later saint master to shoot. Their level, this flaw can be infinitely magnified by them, so it is impossible to take action.

But Qin Chen is different. He has an ancient sacred body, amazing defenses, and a true dragon bloodline, which can be fully activated. The most important thing is that he is a descendant of Patching Heaven.

"Although this benlong black armor is broken, in fact, the scale armor at the heart's mouth hasn't dropped much, and it may not be impossible to repair it. As long as it is repaired, then..."

Qin Chen's heart moved, once he could repair it, his defense would definitely be greatly improved.

He raised his head, and at this moment, the whole auction house was quiet.

No one wants to be such a bird, they want to see the situation, and for a while, the auction venue is very calm.

Sleeping Dream Fairy stood on the auction stage with a smile on his face and without urging. He hosted auctions many times. He also knew what kind of psychology these people have. Even if there are some flaws, Panlong Heiyujia is a rare treasure. It will pass.

Quiet but no more than ten breaths of effort, suddenly a voice sounded: "Twenty low-grade holy veins!"

Those mid-term saint masters and mid-term peak saint masters who were still watching the changes were startled and looked towards the direction of the sound source.

One of the boxes in the middle of the second floor was the guy who had been photographed with great success.

In an instant, many people's expressions changed. Judging from the fact that Qin Chen spent ten low-grade holy veins for a sacred attire, this person is definitely a wealthy master, and he can make a desperate offer for what he wants.

This can be seen from the first offer.

Sleeping Dream Fairy offered only ten low-grade Saint Master's Saint Veins, and you suddenly increased the price to twenty. What does this mean? Is there nowhere to spend more money? Could it be that the city lord's mansion arranged it?

Many auctions have such people, who will constantly drive up the prices of auction items, mobilize their emotions, and allow the auctioneers below to spend more money on the auction items.

If it hadn't been for Qin Chen to have taken a few things before, everyone would really think so.

Although my heart is depressed, someone has already quoted, and there is a warrior who is tempted by Panlong Heiyujia, and naturally it is impossible to give up.

"Twenty-five low-grade holy veins."

Someone snorted coldly and added five at once.

"A medium-grade Saint Lord's line."

As soon as the person's voice fell, Qin Chen spoke again, and directly added a middle-grade holy vein.

by!

Everyone shook wildly again, almost crazy.

Whether this kid can increase the price can depend on the spectrum, from the low-rank Saint Master's Saint Vein to the middle-rank Saint Master's Saint Vein all at once.

This is the mid-level Saint Master's Saint Vein. There is almost only one power in a mid-level Saint Master. Qin Chen's bid made many mid-level Saint Masters look bitter, because Qin Chen directly blocked their bid. may.

If it is a low-grade Saint Master's Saint Veins, no matter how much it is, they can still find a way to collect them, but the middle-rank Saint Master's Saint Veins, many of them are treasures of the major powers, how can they be easily taken out.

"Who is your excellency? Too rich, right?"

"Listening to your voice, it seems very unfamiliar. Can you report your name?"

Many mid-term saint masters and mid-term peak saint masters snorted coldly, their faces were blue, and they even had terrible spiritual consciousness, they wanted to break through the restrictions of the box and spy on Qin Chen.

Since Qin Chen had a middle-grade Saint Master Saint Vein, they would have to bid like this next, and each one was heartbroken.

"If you can't afford the price, don't come to the auction. Haw, is it interesting? Senior Sleeping Dream fairy, if no one bids, can you drop the hammer?" Qin Chen said coldly.

Sleeping Dream fairy wrinkled and said: "Everyone, this is the auction of Dongguang City City Lord's Mansion. If you can't afford the price, please leave. Don't interfere with the auction process."

An invisible aura permeated out, and I heard the place where the mid-term peak powerhouse trying to spy on Qin Chen's box was located, and a low muffled hum suddenly came out. All the masters instantly became quiet, and they didn't dare to do anything. Times

Sleeping Dream Immortal is one of the vice-lords of Dongguang City, the figure of the late saint master, and he has achieved the highest level of cultivation. Even the city owner of Dongguang City is afraid of one or two, and this person has a perverted personality and angered him. I am afraid that he will really be in Dongguang. The city had difficulty moving and was driven out of the auction house.

"One medium-grade holy master vein, ten low-grade holy veins." A strong man in a box snorted coldly.

"Two middle-grade holy master's holy veins!" Qin Chen said lightly.

"Puff..." The old man almost didn't spit out blood, his face was extremely ugly.

The others were also fainted.

Is there such a price increase? Add directly from one to two, do you have a lot of holy veins and nowhere to spend?

Originally, there was one middle-grade Saint Master Saint Vein, plus some low-grade Saint Master Saint veins. It was good to be able to photograph this benlong black jade armor, but now Qin Chen has increased the price to two middle-grade Saint Master Saint veins. The masters of the pinnacle holy master all began to retreat.

After all, this Panlong Heiyu Jia is broken.

At this time, everyone had completely eliminated Qin Chen's suspicion that Qin Chen was a trustee. Wherever the trustee would increase the price like this, if it fell into his own hands, wouldn't it be a big loss.

"Two medium-grade holy veins plus ten low-grade holy veins!"

After ten breaths, someone made a new offer with difficulty.

"Three middle-grade holy veins!" Qin Chen immediately followed.

"..."

At this time, the audience was completely speechless, and everyone could see that the young guy in the box was a lunatic.

Moreover, the origin of this person must be terrible.

After all, the three middle-grade holy master veins can't be taken out casually.

For a while, there was no sound on the court.

Chapter 3293: Mending the sky hammer

A sigh suddenly came out from a box, and soon there were more sighs, but no more bids. A top-tier mid-level peak defensive saint master treasure can basically be worth three ordinary mid-level saint master sacred veins, and after being driven to the extreme, the black jade armor like this is comparable to the treasure of the late saint master defense. Value is even higher, even

In order to sell to five or even more holy veins.

However, because of the damage of the benlong black armor, in value, it is between the middle-grade holy master treasure and the pinnacle holy master treasure.

The two middle-grade holy master sacred veins are already the limit that many people have come up with, but now Qin Chen bid for three middle-grade holy master sacred veins at once, instantly leaving everyone without the thought of competition. There are three middle-grade holy veins. This guy is simply a lunatic. When the time comes to continue bidding, maybe the price will be higher. With such a price, they can buy a similar defense treasure from other channels. ,only

But it takes a lot of time and it depends on luck.

Such a huge wealth can't be obtained by anyone.

The main reason is that the benlong black armor is damaged, otherwise the saint master will also participate in the competition in the later stage, which is far more than this price.

After Qin Chen reported this guy, he was almost certain that the three middle-ranking Saint Master's sacred veins could already be concluded.

In fact it is true.

Sleeping Mengxian waited and watched for a while, and felt that no one would bid any more, and immediately said loudly: "Banlong Heiyujia, the three middle-grade holy veins once, twice, and three times! Good, congratulations to this friend."

But I couldn't help feeling a strange feeling in my heart. These treasures should have been killed very tragically. Those top mid-term holy masters and mid-level peak holy masters should fight you to life and death. It's hard to separate, and it's hard to separate. The dust settles

, But didn't want to be slashed by this person, so he shot away after several price increases.

Most of the people who were going to participate did not even have time to make a quote, and it was over after watching the excitement. Having hosted many auctions, it was the first time that Fairy Sleeping had encountered such a situation, but it made him curious about the bidding Qin Chen. When did such a young talent come to Dongguang City? And he is very strange, obviously

Of course it is not the younger generation among those top forces.

Sleeping Dream Fairy also thought this way, and started the auction of the next item.

Qin Chen threw out a storage holy treasure and said, "Xing Tianya, you go and hand over that Panlong Hei Yu Jia!"

The three middle-rank Saint Master's Saint Veins were also a huge expense for Qin Chen, and the middle-rank Saint Master's Saint Veins instantly disappeared.

I hope that Panlong Heiyujia can satisfy himself.

After a while, Xing Tianya returned to the box, already holding the Panlong Hei Yu Jia. After receiving the black armor of the dragon, Qin Chen opened it, and a dragon aura lingered out instantly. The entire box was wrapped by this strong force, and Qin Chen's right hand rested on the black armor of the dragon, suddenly A gracious feeling lingers, this is

The dragon qi in the black jade armor of Panlong resonated with the real dragon blood in Qin Chen's body. Qin Chen didn't refine the black armor of the beon dragon for the first time, but infiltrated the divine consciousness into it, and analyzed a little bit of the prohibition in the black armor of the beon dragon. This kind of treasure, some very inauthentic chambers of commerce could not tell Put some restrictions, if you rush to refine

, Once not found, it is easy to be controlled by others.

Qin Chen used the technique of patching up the sky, and the various restrictions and formations in the black jade armor of the beast dragon were clearly presented in Qin Chen's mind in an instant.

Qin Chen was dazzled by the dense bans and formation patterns, showing the high level of this Panlong Hei Yujia.

If it weren't for the art of patching the sky, it would take a long time for another master refiner to come, just to figure out the restrictions.

"What's the problem with the black armor of the flat dragon? It seems that the auction of Dongguang City is relatively fair." Qin Chen slowly penetrated the true dragon qi in his body into the black armor of the flat dragon, suddenly The whole set of battle armor uttered a deep dragon chant, and Qin Chen's soul power began to slowly imprint on the black armor of the beast dragon, and there was no trace of it.

Hinder.

In just a short time, Qin Chen had already refined the black beautite armor, huh, and countless scales flew up and turned into a stream of water, covering Qin Chen's body.

In an instant, Qin Chen felt that he was covered by a thin layer of power, and the whole person seemed to be completely integrated with the black jade armor of the Panlong, and even the blood of the real dragon in his body was surging quickly.

"Good baby!"

Qin Chen was excited, the effect of this Panlong Hei Yujia was better than he had imagined, and it complemented the ridiculous body in his body, and the two perfectly combined.

Only the position of the back and heart throbbed slightly, obviously because of the damage, Qin Chen felt a little uncomfortable.

"It's no wonder that these treasures, the Sleeping Dream Fairy and others are not tempted at all."

Qin Chen frowned. On the surface, it seemed that the damage was not big and did not affect the defense, but in fact, this kind of damage was a problem that could not be ignored for the later Saint Master.

Originally, if the benlong black armor was intact, Qin Chen even felt that his defense could be close to the realm of the late saint master, facing the later saint master, he would not be quickly beheaded. But after he really put on the beaulieu black jade armor, Qin Chen knew the seriousness of the problem. If he really faced a late-stage divine lord at this time, under the opponent's strong shot, there would be no place to vent the terrifying power. Quickly gathered to Pan

Where the dragon black armor is damaged, it is equivalent to this ben dragon black armor completely useless.

In other words, because of the damage of the benlong black armor, it has almost no defensive effect against the saint master in the later stage, so its value is greatly reduced.

Of course, Qin Chen didn't lose money when he sold it at the price of the three middle-grade holy veins, but he didn't make so much.

"If I can repair the black benson armor, it will make a lot of money. But, even if I have the sky patching technique, it will take a lot of effort and time to repair it."

Qin Chen shook his head bitterly.

But at this moment, Om... Qin Chen's thought of repairing the Black Yujia of the Panlong just came out, and a terrible force suddenly surged out of his body's Five Secrets, and then Qin Chen saw that in himself Among the Five Secrets, the Heaven-Mending Palace Supreme Treasure Heaven-Mending Hammer suddenly lit up.

The dazzling runes, followed by these obscure and esoteric runes, quickly merged into Qin Chen's body of the dragon black jade armor. Then Qin Chen was shocked to see that the originally damaged place on the Panlong black jade armor was shining brightly, and it was repairing at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Chapter 3294: Monster Race Treasure

"Dust, this Panlong Hei Yujia is repairing."

Qianxue said in amazement that only a momentary effort, the original damaged place in the heart of Panlong Heiyujia's heart was restored, and there was no trace of damage, and even the damaged place before was completely invisible.

Wow!

In an instant, Qin Chen's whole body was covered by this armor, like a fierce real dragon.

At the same time, Qin Chen was also shocked to feel that this beaulieu black jade armor was restored to perfection in an instant, without any flaws.

"Sky Patching Hammer!"

Qin Chen felt the Sky Mending Hammer in shock. Although he didn't know what the power infiltrated from the Sky Mending Hammer was, his ability to easily repair such treasures as the Panlong Hei Yujia was completely beyond his understanding.

At this moment, Qin Chen came to understand how terrifying the legendary Patching Palace was.

Qin Chen looked at this benlong black jade once again, the more he looked at it, the more he liked it, and the more he looked at it, the more excited it became.

The intact Beaulieu Black Yujia completely protected all of Qin Chen's place, without any flaws, and even gave Qin Chen an unprecedented sense of security.

"Good, good!"

The more Qin Chen watched, the happier he was. This unexpected joy made him a huge profit in this auction.

The three middle-grade holy veins are also a fortune for Qin Chen, but in the face of this restored black jade dragon armor, Qin Chen has the feeling of picking up a treasure in vain.

The repaired benlong black jade armor, not to mention the three middle-grade holy veins, even ten, it may not be available for purchase.

When Qin Chen raised his head again, many treasures had already been sold on the auction stage.

"The Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit that hasn't reached the finale yet?" The Panlong Hei Yujia on Qin Chen's body instantly disappeared into his body, and he couldn't help but raise his head to ask.

Xing Tianya shook his head: "Master, there seems to be a lot of auction items this time, but it should be soon."

Qin Chen nodded slightly, stopped speaking, and cast his eyes on the high platform. On that high platform, the sleepy sleepiness on the face of the Sleeping Dream fairy has disappeared a lot, and a mysterious smile appeared again. He looked around and said loudly: "The auction items to be displayed next are not trivial, and they are also extremely rare. It is not this. One of the items prepared for bidding at an auction was temporarily submitted by a friend of my Dongguang City. Although it was a bit of a bad rule, the Lord Lord's appraisal showed that this item was extremely precious and enough to be used as the finale, so it was granted. auction

Now, hey, if you have any friends who have practiced illusion or spiritual supernatural powers, please pay attention. "

He said this, gestured backwards, and immediately a plump young woman walked onto the high platform with a black jade box in both hands.

In the auction room, countless warriors looked at the black jade box, curious, especially those warriors who had practiced illusion and spiritual skills, and they were really interested. The black jade box looked like a kind of ancient sacred treasure. It was shining with bursts of black forbidden light, and the ancient aura diffused out, and it even shed a faint demon power, occasionally a tadpole-sized blood talisman. Wen Zai

It's erratic and flexible.

Most of the warriors present had extraordinary eyesight, and naturally, it was not the black jade box that was going to be auctioned, but the contents of the jade box.

"It's such a strong demon power, I don't know what the seal is inside this jade box." Xing Tianya said in surprise, and paid close attention to it.

Qin Chen frowned when the black jade box appeared.

I don't know why, he always feels the aura escaping from the black jade box, he is very familiar with it, has a feeling that he has seen before, and even has a connection with Qin Chen's mind.

Just in Qin Chen's doubts, he felt that under the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Worlds in the Universe Good Fortune Jade Disk, a remnant soul was throbbing and anxious, but it was the remnant soul of the senior nine-tailed fairy fox.

However, the power of the remnant soul of the nine-tailed fairy fox is very weak, although it is faintly agitated, it can't convey any breath.

"No wonder this breath is so familiar!" Qin Chen woke up instantly. The demon power aura on this black jade box was very similar to the demon power aura of the predecessor of the nine-tailed fairy fox. No wonder it made him so familiar and throbbing. Could it be that black jade? The seal in the box is a treasure of the nine-tailed fairy fox family

Qin Chen released his spiritual thoughts to investigate, but he couldn't break through the power of restraint and investigate the internal situation clearly, so he didn't dare to use it. Can only frown constantly.

"Dust, do you know what's inside?" You Qianxue asked with some doubt when Qin Chen looked wrong.

"It seems to be a treasure related to the nine-tailed fairy fox clan." Qin Chen said lowly, staring at the black jade sign.

What kind of treasure it was that made the remnant soul of the predecessor of the nine-tailed fairy fox agitated. At this moment, the fairy Sleeping Dream on the high platform has already begun to explain: "This auction item was deposited by a friend of my city lord's mansion for auction. This item was obtained by accident in a secret realm in this void tide sea, and he practiced The exercises, also

It is against this thing, so he had to reluctantly give up his love, otherwise, he would not take it out. "

"Sleeping Meng Xianren, you don't want to sell it anymore, this is not in line with your character." The impatient powerhouse urged. The Sleeping Dream fairy laughed for a while, and nodded: "Yes, the little old man is impatient, and it's really not suitable for being so slow, but I still have to say, everyone has also felt it, this thing contains a strong demon power, obviously Of the Yaozu Treasure, and after being identified, the old man suspected that it was a treasure of the fox clan among the monsters. As for how powerful it is, even the old man could not fully understand it. "

Everyone was shocked when he said this, and even the Sleeping Dream fairy could not snoop it out? Could it be that treasures that surpassed the level of the late saint master are not available? Is it the treasure of the venerable?

hiss!

As soon as this thought came out, everyone breathed in air. But immediately, everyone felt that something was wrong again. If it is really a treasure of the Venerable, it is impossible to get it for auction here, and trade it to the top power of the human race, I am afraid it is of higher value. After all, there are very few Venerables in the entire Eastern Heaven Realm. haunt,

Almost all of these powerhouses are in the battlefield of humans and demons, or among some of the top secret realms and major forces in the heavens, and will not appear in the heavens.

"Senior Sleeping Meng Xianren, even you have not been able to see through it. Is this a precious weapon of the Venerable?" The warrior underneath heard Xing Meng Xianren say that, and couldn't help but guess with excitement.

There are not a few people who think this way. In an instant, many strong men were breathing fast, staring fiercely at the black jade medal. The Sleeping Dream fairy sneered: "Venerable Treasure? You dare to think that if it is a Venerable Treasure, let alone put it out for auction, the old man will just run away."

Chapter 3295: Scarlet Nine Tails

"Hahaha!"

When the fairy sleepy said this, everyone laughed.

"However, although this thing is not a treasure of the venerable, the old man can't determine its true rank. I can only say that this thing should be some kind of special thing, and it is not simply classified by rank. treasure."

As soon as this statement came out, everyone became curious, what kind of treasure is it?

"Furthermore, the old man has to remind you that this thing should be the treasure of the monster race. Although the monster race and my human race are on the same front, if anyone attracts the hostility of the monster race because of the auction, it is not mine. It is within the responsibility of Dongguang City, so I invite you to auction it carefully."

This makes everyone more curious.

"Senior Sleeping Dream Fairy, just show the treasure."

Someone shouted anxiously.

"Well, I will let you see what the auction item is this time."

While talking, he pinched Lingjue with his hand and hit the black jade card continuously. Along with the flickering of the prohibition on the black jade card, a clear whimper suddenly came from the jade card, and then, a pure white Light lased from it.

There was a hum.

On that high platform, there suddenly appeared a fox about one foot tall and pure white, but with blood-colored eyes. This fox was full of fairy spirit, looked very immature and pure, and there was a trace in his eyes. The red light was surging.

Moreover, the breath emanating from its body is also extraordinary, and it has reached the level of the mid-term peak holy master. The hair on the body is white and pure, like the purest thing in the world, making people feel pure.

It grinned and stared at everyone present, with a stubborn, angry and unyielding voice in its voice. The nine tails behind it kept shaking, stirring the void.

"What a beautiful little fox!" someone exclaimed.

"Nine-tailed fairy fox."

In the second-story box, Qin Chen stood up and said in shock.

"Young Master?" Xing Tianya looked at Qin Chen with a weird face, wondering why he suddenly had such a big reaction.

Seeing that Qin Chen's face was uncertain, but his heart was shocked. It is no wonder that the remnant soul of the predecessor of the nine-tailed fairy fox on the jade disc of good fortune in the universe is so restless that it is unexpected to be a nine-tailed fairy.

The line of the nine-tailed fairy foxes was a very powerful line of the demon clan in ancient times, but later fell into the decline in the war against the demon clan. For example, the number of nine-tailed fairy foxes surviving in the world today is very rare, and Qin Chen also I didn't expect that I would see the treasure of the nine-tailed fairy fox in this auction.

Although this nine-tailed fairy fox is alive and real, Qin Chen can see that this is not a real nine-tailed fairy fox, but a kind of weapon spirit.

This thing must be very important in the nine-tailed fairy fox clan, otherwise the senior nine-tailed fairy fox would not be so excited.

Thinking of the help Senior Nine Tails Fairy Fox had done to him, if it were not for her and the Eternal Sword Master, Sisi would have fallen into the dead soul realm, and even himself would be killed by the Lord of the Desolate God, Qin Chen naturally couldn't just watch. The things of the nine-tailed fairy fox continued to flow down.

Moreover, such a lovely spirit...

Qin Chen was faintly disturbed.

And the remnant soul of the nine-tailed fairy fox in the jade disc of good fortune in the universe fluctuated violently after feeling the breath on the stage, and a force faintly escaped from Qin Chen.

The nine-tailed fairy fox on the high platform also seemed to be aware of it. A pair of pitiful red eyes looked into the box where Qin Chen was, and the whimper in his mouth became clearer and clearer. Its figure shook, and it flew towards Qin Chen. .

Seeing this, Immortal Sleeping Dream only changed his hand, and a series of seals flashed and appeared, like a chain-like restriction, directly restraining its body, causing it to fall heavily.

"Stop!" Qin Chen couldn't help roaring when he saw this.

However, as soon as he spoke, he knew that he was acting a bit too reckless. Although this nine-tailed fairy fox had a connection with him, it had been acquired and put into the auction house and became an auction item.

He has no position at all to let the Sleeping Dream Fairy show mercy to Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox's subordinates, and maybe it will make people see if he is too obvious.

At this point, he took a deep breath and said lightly: "Sir, please be more careful. I am very interested in this spirit, please don't hurt it."

Immortal Sleeping Meng has a good temper. Hearing this, he glanced at the box where Qin Chen was, and said with a smile: "Don't worry, the old man takes his own measures and will never really hurt him. Well, you guys have seen it too. The second auction is the spirit of the nine-tailed fairy fox family. It is not an ordinary spirit. It has already activated its spiritual intelligence, and its spiritual intelligence is not low. If it can be absorbed or integrated into its own holy treasure, it is definitely useful. As for the status of the Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox Clan in the Monster Race, I don't think I need to repeat it."

In fact, there is no need to explain from the Sleeping Dream Fairy, the audience has already exploded into an uproar.

Nine-tailed fairy fox, there are many foxes in the monster clan, but the nine-tailed fairy fox clan is definitely the top race in the fox clan. If it hadn't been because of the war between humans and demons that led to the fragmentation of the nine-tailed fairy fox clan, how could it turn around? When they compete for the treasures of the change, I am afraid that the top power of the human race will not dare to auction it out like this, right?

In the box, Qin Chen sat back on the chair with a gloomy expression.

The nine-tailed fairy fox clan is kind to himself, and Qin Chen naturally wouldn't let it fall into the hands of others.

But in the current situation, if he wants to take this treasure back, he can only use bidding, or he has the strength of the peak saint master in the later stage, and can ignore the countless masters on the scene and * the nine-tailed fairy fox with powerful force. .

The latter method is obviously impossible. Although Qin Chen is powerful now, if he dares to act here, it is tantamount to seeking a dead end.

But if you want to bid through the auction, the resources that will be consumed are so huge that even Qin Chen himself may not be sure.

For a moment, he frowned.

You Qianxue seemed to have some clues, and whispered to Qin Chen: "Dust, do you have any relationship with that tool spirit...?"

Qin Chen nodded and said: "Qianxue, this nine-tailed fairy fox line was once the benefactor of me and Sisi, so this treasure, so I can't let the nine-tailed fairy fox line fall into the hands of others."

"You mean, this is the treasure that saved you and Sisi's monster race back then?"

Qianxue also heard this slightly, and couldn't help but said in surprise, "If this is the case, we really have to photograph this thing."

"This is necessary, but I don't have many mid-level Saint Master Saint Veins, so I'm afraid that I may not be able to win the many strong people present." Qin Chen frowned, he was already secretly circling, he should take himself something from him was mortgaged.

Perhaps... you can take out some treasures, there are still many treasures on your body, such as the treasures of the Sage Master and the others, but once these treasures are taken out, they are very likely to be exposed and cause more trouble.

Chapter 3296: Linguistic Form

"Dust, since the Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox Clan is our benefactor, then we must not let this spirit fall out." You Qianxue said with a serious face.

"Yes, young master, there are still some holy veins in the old slave. If you need it, young master can take them all out for auction." Xing Tianya took out a storage space from his body.

Qin Chen glanced, and there was a middle-grade Saint Master Saint Vein inside, and there were many lower-grade Saint Master Saint Veins.

After all, the middle-grade holy veins are too precious. Although Xingtianya is the ancestor of the sea of martial souls, he will not stay with him. After all, in the storage space, the holy veins cannot absorb the holy energy from the heavens. The energy supplement can only be placed in the territory.

Small worlds like Qin Chen Qiankun's good fortune jade discs are very rare after all.

Although a middle-grade holy vein is rare, it is better than nothing.

Qin Chen calculated carefully, although he beheaded and killed the Sage Master, Jiuyou Sacred Lord, Wild Sage Lord, Dragon King Island Lord and others, and also searched all the wealth of the three top forces of Guangyuetian, except in addition to being swallowed by my own practice, as well as the holy veins arranged in the jade plate of the universe to nourish the magic tree and the small world, the remaining middle-grade holy veins plus the one from Xingtianya, there are a total of seven remaining. .

Three of them were used to photograph the Black Yujia of the Beaulieu, and only four remained.

Although the four middle-grade heavenly sacred veins are not too many, they may not be impossible to photograph. What's more, there are many low-grade holy veins on Qin Chen's body.

"The spirit aura of this nine-tailed fairy fox itself is close to the mid-term peak of the holy master, so there are many people who look at it, but after all, this is the treasure of the monster race, and if you want to refine this treasure, I am afraid it will cost more. Many resources should be about the same as the value of Panlong Heiyujia."

Qin Chen silently speculated that if this were the case, he did have some hope to be able to shoot, of course, other exceptions were not ruled out.

While Qin Chen's thoughts were changing, the fairy Sleeping Dream smiled on the high platform and continued: "This tool spirit is a treasure of the nine-tailed fairy fox clan, so if you photograph it, you will most likely encounter the hostility of the monster clan. Moreover, although this spirit possesses the aura of the mid-level peak saint master, it does not have much combat power. If you want to use this treasure to use it against the enemy, you will be disappointed."

"However, the most powerful of the nine-tailed fairy fox line is the charm technique. The charm power displayed by this tool spirit can even affect the masters of the middle-grade peak holy master level, so if any master If you are ready to auction to assist yourself, you will undoubtedly get a powerful helper. Think about it. When you are fighting a strong enemy, this spirit will use charm to affect the enemy, which is enough to increase your chances of winning. "

The fairy Sleeping Meng who listened to boasted on the stage, Qin Chen's face was so gloomy, and he kept cursing in his heart, wishing to rush to the stage to seal the mouth of the fairy Sleeping Dream.

The more he explained the nine-tailed fairy fox, the more enthusiastic the people at the auction will be. This is not good news for Qin Chen.

Sure enough, many people in the audience were whispering.

"In addition, this tool spirit...hehe, there is another function, that is transformation...As we all know, the fox race is the most beautiful race among the monster races, and the women they evolved are all...

"Sleeping Meng Xianren showed a hey smile, squeezing his hands with both hands, and immediately the seals fell on the nine-tailed fairy fox.

The nine-tailed fairy fox spirit made a painful sob, and immediately under the eyes of everyone, it changed, and turned into a little girl wearing a group of pure white loli with pure white fox ears on her head. White foxtail.

Although the appearance of the nine-tailed fairy fox is the appearance of a little girl, the development is extremely mature, with a childlike appearance and a graceful figure, which is reverie.

Especially because of his pitiful appearance, many men feel loving, wanting to hold them in their arms and want to love them.

"hiss!"

"This supreme weapon spirit can transform into a human form."

"Nine-tailed fairy foxes, the royal family of the ancient monster clan, may not be able to be served by this clan?"

"If you can become the master of this spirit, wouldn't it be so cool?"

"Although this little girl has evolved from the spirit of the weapon, she is no different from a real person. This is almost out of the scope of the spirit of the weapon. She is about to become a real monster race. I don't know how such a spirit feels to the touch?"

When the many powerful men underneath saw the nine-tailed fairy fox showing a human appearance, they suddenly became uncomfortable and shouted.

Nine-tailed fairy fox spirit standing on the high platform, with a fragile expression and a look that no one would enter, but she is full of coquettishness. Together with her figure, appearance, and age, she adds an unprecedented beauty. Feeling that, under the glance of Phoenix Eyes, many male powerhouses howled again and again.

Especially at this moment, the other party was bound by the seal, which made his plump figure more concavity and convexity, and some people with ulterior motives were already dazzled.

Qin Chen couldn't help sighing as he looked at this poor young girl, but his heart grew deeper.

This is troublesome.

Xing Tianya was originally watching from the side, but his eyes widened at this time. The spirit of such an appearance is far more seductive than the appearance of a plump beauty and a nine-tailed fairy fox.

"You all have seen that this tool spirit can not only be a very powerful helper, but it is also very face-to-face when it is usually carried around. Such a little beauty follows and calls you master. Hey, if it is not an old man, Maybe I will compete with you."

The Sleeping Dream fairy smiled, "Well, there is enough nonsense, one nine-tailed fairy fox, with a reserve price of ten low-grade holy veins, and each increase in price must not be less than one, please, everyone!"

The starting price of the nine-tailed fairy fox spirit is surprisingly the same as that of the Panlong Hei Yujia, which made Qin Chen frown, and a bad premonition surged in his heart.

Sure enough, the voice of the Sleeping Dream fairy fell, and there was no quietness when the Panlong Hei Yujia was auctioned, and the sound of one after another bidding sounded instantly below.

The reserve price of the ten low-grade holy veins broke through to thirty in just ten breaths.

"A medium-grade holy vein!" Suddenly, a clear voice came from a certain box on the third floor, shocking everyone, and the master of the third floor box also shot, and every opening was a medium. It seems that this time the competition is going to be fierce.

The third floor of the auction hall was able to enter, and each one was extraordinary. It was just that when Xing Tianya came as the mid-term Heavenly Sage, it was only arranged in the second floor box.

Chapter 3297: Ghost Array Master

Those who can enter the third level are at least a master at the mid-level peak saint master level, or someone with a big background behind them, or even a strong chamber of commerce from other heavens.

"It seems that this time the auction is going to be fierce!"

"Hey, big people's preferences seem to be the same."

"We are out of play, but unfortunately, otherwise I would like to try the taste of this nine-tailed fairy fox. This is the top race in the monster race."

"Just you? Thinking too much."

Many people below started talking, and when the three-tiered big shots spoke, many people knew that they had no hope at all.

Qin Chen's heart also burst when he heard someone asking for a price for a middle-grade Saint Lord Saint Vein. The speed of this price increase was beyond his imagination.

Moreover, judging from the tone of the other party's opening, but the majestic voice, this person is definitely a master.

The other party is rich and powerful, and directly bid for a Heavenly Saint Middle Grade Saint Master Saint Vein. Obviously, he wants to scare away those masters who just ask casually so that they can really enter the hot link of auction.

Seeing this, Qin Chen had no choice but to make a move, and said loudly: "Two middle-grade holy veins."

Wow!

Qin Chen rose to two at once, the purpose was also to scare off many people, but his voice fell, and it really caused a violent sensation.

"The two middle-grade Saint Master Saint Veins directly increased by one, God, is this price too harsh?"

"It was the young man who photographed Benlong Hei Yujia before, but he did not expect to shoot again."

"Hey, this young man must be interested in girls."

"It seems that this time there is a good show. This person is also a rich man."

After Qin Chen's voice sounded from the box, the beautiful nine-tailed fairy fox girl who had been standing on the high platform showing pain couldn't help but tremble. She looked at the box Qin Chen was in, and she felt it. This voice came from before. She is very familiar with the box where she feels.

Although the previous breath was very cryptic, she was naturally very sensitive and familiar as the spirit of the nine-tailed fairy fox clan, and that breath was somewhat similar to that of her former master.

Is her master here?

Tears slipped from the corner of the nine-tailed fairy fox girl's eyes. She clearly knew that the owner of her previous life should no longer be in this world.

Why is it painful? Just keep smiling.

The nine-tailed fairy fox girl stared blankly at the box, pitifully.

This gesture provokes the madness of countless men.

"Two fierce guys are bidding, it's interesting now, such a pitiful little fox, I don't know who will end up in it."

"Then it depends on who has more holy veins."

Qin Chen raised the price from one medium-grade Saint Master Saint Vein to two in one breath, just like the person before that, just to scare away potential buyers.

In the three-story box, a lean and capable man, who seemed to be about forty years old, couldn't help but frown, and his spirit burst into a beam and swept towards Qin Chen's box below.

Although these boxes have prohibitions to isolate general divine detection, but because they are temporarily arranged, naturally there will be no too strong prohibitions. The thin man's divine consciousness suddenly broke the prohibition and directly pressed it. Qin Chen's body.

"Humph!" Xing Tianya immediately snorted, raised his head, his eyes burst out with cold light, and a powerful spirit swept out.

boom!

The two divine thoughts collided, and an invisible roar suddenly erupted.

The power of Xingtianya's Divine Sense was actually unable to resist the opponent's divine Sense, and the opponent's power forced the breath of Kai Xing Tianya's Divine Sense to fall on Qin Chen and You Qianxue.

Qin Chen snorted coldly, and as soon as his soul power turned, he was safe and sound.

"Late Saint Lord!!"

Qin Chen's heart sank, the previous divine thought was extremely terrifying, with a trace of cold power, even above Xingtianya, he was actually a master of the late saint master.

"No, this divine power seems to be lacking. This person seems... not a late-stage Holy Master, it seems to be incomplete!"

For a while, Qin Chen couldn't figure it out, because the other party's divine mind seemed to have been severely injured. The breath passed from it was clearly a master of the late saint master, but it was not as terrifying as Qin Chen imagined. Of course, compared to Xingtianya still had to be scary a lot, which made him quite confused.

"Xiahouzun!" On the high stage, the fairy Sleeping Dream, as the host of the auction, naturally cannot allow the strong to oppress the weak. Seeing this, his eyes are cold: "Stop!"

boom!

A terrible spiritual thought swept over, and directly shook the man's spiritual thought away.

He broke the thin man's name, obviously he had known the identity of the other party a long time ago.

Then Xia Hou Zun heard the words and said with a chuckle: "The Vice-City Master doesn't need to be nervous, he didn't do anything next, just look at them."

The fairy sleepy brows cold, and he said coldly: "Xiahouzun, you were also a late saint master character. I don't care how arrogant you were when you were in the Southern Heaven Realm, but here is Dongguang City, if your Excellency continues to be arrogant in my Dongguang City, I'm not going to blame the old man for being polite and driving your Excellency out. Your Excellency is also a distinguished guest of Dongguang City, so you should know the rules of the auction."

"Sleeping Meng Xianren too shameless, right?" This person named Xiahouzun snorted coldly, his voice seemed rather unpleasant.

"Face, what kind of face does your excellency have? You broke the rules of my auction house by not giving face to the old man? Why do you still want the old man to respect you? Just this time, and the next time, I should not blame the old man for being merciless. Now." The Sleeping Dream fairy snorted coldly.

"Humph!"

There was another cold snort in the three-story box, but although the tone was unhappy, he didn't say anything.

"Xiahouzun, is this person Xiahouzun, the ghost formation master of the Southern Heaven Realm? The ghost formation holy lord?"

"Unexpectedly, he was in my Dongguang City!"

"He's right. The fairy Sleeping Dream said that this person is from the Southern Heaven Realm. Among the famous figures in the Southern Heaven Realm, there is no second Xia Hou Zun, which is a coincidence."

"The ghost array holy master turned out to be him. It is rumored that this person was once a master of the late holy master and has a prestigious reputation in the southern celestial realm. Unfortunately, in order to break through the late holy master, he secretly slaughtered several great forces and plundered these great forces. The top sacred vein in the South Heaven Realm was madly pursued and killed by many forces in the Southern Heaven Realm. Who knows that this person did not know to converge, but secretly planted a ghost formation and almost killed many of the top forces in the Southern Heaven Realm. Later, it was the Zhuge family of the Southern Heaven Realm. , Defeating this person's ghost formation with the magic of fate, and then seriously injured him."

"In that battle, the ghost array master just broke through the late stage holy lord, he was injured by the Zhuge family and fled in embarrassment. Eventually, the cultivation base that just broke through fell. It is said that he hurt the origin, and the Southern Heaven Realm can no longer be mixed. Just came to my Eastern Heaven Realm."

"Although this person's realm has fallen, but combined with the ghost formation, even if it is an ordinary late-stage holy master, he does not dare to fight with him? It is also the Senior Sleeping Meng Xianren who dares to scold this person in this way and does not sell his face at all."

"There is a good show to watch now."

The crowd was in an uproar.

Chapter 3298: Gilt fort

"Master Ghost Formation? Once the realm fell, the top master of the Southern Heaven Realm?"

Listening to the discussion around him, Qin Chen was thoughtful. No wonder this person's divine knowledge is far above the mid-level peak saint masters like Xingtianya, but the aura he gives is not much different.

However, other people were afraid of this person's identity as a ghost formation, and Qin Chen didn't care. He was not weak in terms of formation, and he had the inheritance of Tiangong in his body, which was the ancestor of formation inheritance.

On the high platform, the Sleeping Dream fairy said lightly: "The auction continues, this friend has already bid for two mid-level peak Saint Master Saint Veins, is there any higher bid?"

After Sleeping Dream fairy asked this question, the ghost formation master Xia Houzun had not yet spoken. In a box close to him on the third floor, a crisp voice suddenly came from a loud laugh, "My son is bidding for three middle-grade holy masters. pulse."

The arrogance of laughter was extremely arrogant, as if it didn't put people in the eyes at all, giving people a feeling of extremely arrogance.

Xia Houzun's face became cold and he snorted, what's going on today? Hearing his name, what kind of cat and dog dare to challenge himself? The fairy sleeping dream warned himself, and he endured it, but now that his name has been revealed, there are people who dare to stop halfway and look for death?

"Your Excellency? Who dare to compete with this seat?"

Xia Houzun snorted coldly.

"Why? Old man Xiahou, can't I wait for the auction if you bid? Others are afraid of you, this son is terrifying you, you can change your name or your surname, this son Liuhuobao Muhuo son, how can you drop me?"

This arrogant voice sneered, and the arrogance contained in it made people very uncomfortable and felt extremely hateful.

It's just that as soon as this name came out, there was another uproar on the court.

"The Gilt Fort, is it the Gilt Fort in the Void Tide Sea?"

"Besides this gilt-fire fort, are there other gilt-fire fort?"

"Master Mu Huo, is that the son of the Lord of the Fire Fort? It is rumored that the Lord of the Fire Fort has seven sons, and each son is extremely extraordinary. This Master Mu Huo is one of the best. In the mid-term Saint Lord realm, he is a well-known young Tianjiao in the sea of void tides."

"This Lord Muhuo is okay, the character of the mid-term Saint Lord, I am afraid that he still dare not challenge the ghost formation holy master Xia Houzun, but the strongest is the gilt fire Saint Lord of the gilt fort. It is rumored that this person depends on himself. Power, in these 100,000 years, Leng has created a top strength in the sea of void tides."

"It is rumored that the Lord of the Fire Fortress broke through the realm of the late-stage holy master tens of thousands of years ago. I am afraid that it is already close to the realm of the late-stage peak holy master. These characters are a giant of a party. No wonder this Lord Muhuo is not afraid of ghost formations. Holy Lord."

"Huh, the forces established in the Void Tide Sea are all people who lick blood on the edge of the knife. I don't know what fear is. Moreover, this Young Master Muhuo is one of the young castle masters of the Fire Fort. Experts, naturally they are not afraid of others."

The crowd was in an uproar and talked again.

Unexpectedly, the spirit of the nine-tailed fairy fox clan exploded these two great figures.

Such characters, no matter where they are, are people who are against the sky, and they are definitely not ordinary people who can offend them.

"It turns out to be the Young Castle Master of Liuhuobao? Hmph, relying on his father's power, he is clamoring here, who is the old man? Even if my father sees me, he dare not be so arrogant." Xiahou Dun coldly snorted.

"Lao Xiahou, this is how you put gold on your face. Your Ghost Array Saint Lord is indeed powerful, but it's just a mid-term peak Saint Lord, just a mourning dog who was driven out of the Southern Heaven Realm, and is worthy of being on par with my father? If it weren't for my father who hadn't come to Dongguang City this time, he would have killed you when he raised his hand, and let you know how powerful my fire extinguisher is."

Young Master Mu Huo sneered and said, "This Void Tide Sea is not your Southern Heaven Realm. This Young Master advises you to keep a low profile. It's too high profile. It will be deadly."

While advising others to keep a low profile, he himself is extremely high-profile and extremely arrogant.

For a moment, Xia Houzun's face was completely gloomy, and the chill bloomed.

"Haha, this son has already bid for three middle-grade holy veins. Is there any higher one? If there is no higher, this weapon will belong to this son."

That Muhuo son laughed loudly, arrogantly.

In that box, an old man frowned and said softly: "Young castle master, the three middle-grade holy veins purchase a nine-tailed fairy fox spirit, and it is not worthwhile to offend this ghost array holy master? You? What you practice is not the charm of charm, nor has you ever practiced the secret arts of the monster race, what do you buy back? If this matter is let the castle master know, I am afraid..."

"What do you know!" Opposite the old man, a handsome young man with red lips and white teeth, dressed up, smiled faintly, and said: "This young man does not practice the magic technique, nor the power of the demon race, but I heard that this nine-tailed fairy fox is one of the most beautiful races of the monster race. In ancient times, who would not want to be accompanied by such a beautiful person, this son is the young master of the gilded castle. If you can take a picture of this spirit and play with it, I am afraid that the reputation in this Void Tide Sea will be completely blown out. Hey, as for the father... It's a big deal that my son has played it before, so I will send him to play."

Hearing the words, the old man sighed and shook his head.

He knew that his son likes female sex, especially the young loli. The image of the spirit is naturally in line with the son's appetite.

It's just that he never expected that the son would take the photo back, and the father and son would be on the court together. It was too heavy for the taste.

"Four middle-grade holy veins!"

Qin Chen said coldly.

He naturally couldn't let this nine-tailed fairy fox spirit fall into the hands of others.

It's just that the four middle-grade holy veins are already his ultimate, no matter how high the price is, he can only find a way to * some treasures.

"Boy, you are looking for death!"

As soon as Qin Chen's bid was exited, the young man dressed up as the young man stood up and sternly shouted: "Do you dare to * what this young man is interested in? Are you trying to fight my gilt fire castle? This young man has five middle grades. Holy Vein of the Lord!"

hiss!

There was an uproar on the field, this has risen to five middle-grade Saint Master Saint Veins?

Qin Chen's expression also changed. The price had already exceeded his limit.

"How about the gilt-fire castle? A stinky little kid is also here to pretend to be a big head. If you are here, this seat may still sell his face, and this tool will give up. As for you...huh , What a thing, five middle-grade holy veins of the Holy Master plus 20 low-grade holy veins."

In the next box, the Holy Master of the Ghost Array said with a sneer and bid again.

Chapter 3299: Source Fruit Auction

"Old man in the ghost formation, you can't die? Believe it or not, I ordered Liuhuobao to want you in the Void Tide Sea, making you hard to move." Young Master Mu Huo shouted angrily.

"It's hard to move an inch, what a big tone? This seat was originally in the Southern Heaven Realm, and the entire Southern Heaven Realm couldn't take the old man. What is your gilt castle, don't bring harm to yourself." The ghost array holy master said coldly.

"Young castle master, this is Dongguang City after all, not Liuhuo Fort. This ghost formation holy master is not easy to provoke, or... forget it?" The old man continued to persuade.

He has a strong aura, and he turned out to be a top master close to the late-stage holy master. Although his cultivation is in the mid-stage peak holy master realm, he has already haunted a trace of the late-stage holy master's law.

"Forget it? How can it be counted? This son can't swallow this breath, dare to look down on this son, okay, let's see who has more holy veins, dare to compare financial resources with this son, it is almost a dead end!"

Young Master Mu Huo looked mad, and he opened his mouth and shouted: "Six middle-grade holy veins!"

"Six middle-grade holy veins, plus 20 low-grade holy veins."

"Seven middle-grade holy veins of the holy master, old man of the ghost array, follow you if there is a kind."

Young Master Mu Huo rushed angrily.

Qin Chen couldn't help but shook his head, his eyes sank, he never thought that these guys would be so crazy for the spirit of the nine-tailed fairy fox.

There are only four middle-grade Saint Master Saint Veins in his body. Even if the low-grade Saint Master Saint Veins are added, it will not be worth so much, unless he really takes out some treasures to pledge.

However, the treasures of the Holy Master are too precious, he dare not easily show others, so as not to get into any trouble, and even if he uses the mortgage now, I am afraid it is too late.

"dust!"

You Qianxue looked over and shook Qin Chen's hand. She also knew that Qin Chen's body should not have enough middle-grade Saint Master Saint Veins.

"It's okay." Qin Chen said with gloomy eyes, coldly: "No matter who takes the photo, these things will be ours sooner or later."

"What do you mean?" You Qianxue was startled.

Xing Tianya's eyes lit up, and he coldly snorted, "You should be a little good looking at you if you dare to grab something with Young Master."

"Qianxue, stare at the auction house to see who bought it."

As Qin Chen's voice fell, the divine sense had already penetrated into the jade disc of good fortune from the universe, and some materials quickly flew up in the jade disc of good fortune from the universe, and then began to condense into roots under the control of Qin Chen's divine sense. The array flag.

In the palace of Zi Xiaodou, the flames burst out, and the refining began frantically.

Now that he was ready to face the enemy, Qin Chen didn't plan to have any relief. He immediately began to refine, and he quickly beaten the bans into these flags. He knew what was next. The right enemy will be very scary, so it is natural to be fully prepared.

In the auction room, Master Ghost Array and Young Master Mu Huo naturally didn't know that no matter which one of them photographed the spirit of the nine-tailed fairy fox, they would be targeted by Qin Chen, and the two were still increasing each other's prices.

At this point in the auction, no one could see that there was a bit of anger in the auction this time. Although this ghost array master has strong financial resources, he is a casual cultivator after all. He did not know how much resources were spent to break through. After fled to the Eastern Celestial Realm in embarrassment, the savings in his body were not as large as that of Young Master Mu Huo, a mid-term Saint Lord.

So when the price was called for the eight middle-grade holy veins, his face was completely gloomy.

The consumption of eight middle-grade Saint Master Saint Veins for one instrument spirit has exceeded his expectations for him. If he continues, I am afraid that people will be laughed at.

In the end, when Young Master Mu Huo called out the price of the eight middle-grade Saint Master Saint Veins plus ten low-grade Saint Master Saint veins, Xia Hou Zun fell silent.

"Hahaha, what ghost array holy lord, it's just a broken and scattered repair, and he is worthy to grab things with my son, and he doesn't take a * to take pictures of his own virtues, and he has never missed anything he likes." Mu Huo The son sneered loudly.

He also held a stomach of fire in his heart. The three or five middle-grade Saint Master's holy veins could be photographed, but he abruptly fired up to eight. The anger in his heart almost depleted his savings.

"My son, you have to be forgiving and forgiving, alas, these sacred veins were originally made by the master of the castle, and now..." The old man smiled bitterly and shook his head.

"What are you afraid of? If this old thing doesn't put this young man in his eyes, does he want him to flatter him? I don't look at what he is, thinking that this is still the Southern Heaven Realm? When you get to the Void Tide Sea, you have to clip your tail and behave. If he doesn't understand, then the son will teach him how to be a man."

Young Master Mu Huo sneered and said, thinking that he had photographed the Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox, but he felt proud.

The old man sighed, and he couldn't continue to say anything.

"Master Muhuo bid eight middle-grade Saint Master Saint veins plus ten low-grade Saint Master Saint veins. Is there a higher one? Master Muhuo bid once, twice, three times, okay, this nine-tailed fairy fox weapon will return. Mr. Muhuo owns it, please bring the Holy Vein to deliver."

Even with the sky-high prices of eight middle-grade Saint Master Saints, the fairy Sleeping Dream still looks distressed, as if he didn't care about it at all.

After the auction ended, the fairy Sleeping Dream looked solemn and said solemnly: "The auction conference is now nearing its end. I think everyone has heard about the next auction item. Well, I won't repeat it. Now, please submit the auction items."

When the words were over, there was a beautiful young woman who walked up with the jade pan immediately.

As soon as this auction item came up, everyone's eyes became hot, because on the tray, there was a crystal clear fruit, which was the source of heaven that many people had already known in the previous propaganda. Time has attracted countless people staring at them, desperately looking up.

Many powerhouses have never seen Tiandao Yuanguo in their entire lives. At this moment, even knowing that they are hopeless in bidding, they craned their necks and watched desperately.

And many of the masters in this auction came for the source of this heavenly Tao. In the previous auctions, many masters in the three-story box had never made any shots before, even Panlong Hei Yu Jia and None of them participated in the appearance of the nine-tailed fairy fox spirit.

The purpose of their coming here to participate in the auction meeting is naturally this top-level source of heaven and other top treasures!

One Heavenly Path Origin Fruit can refine a furnace of pill. If you are lucky, you can refine up to twelve pill, but most alchemists can only produce between three and six pill. Even so, it is enough to make a few. A Holy Master level powerhouse.

This is no small temptation for any force.

Chapter 3300: Space Origin Fruit

Moreover, even if this Heavenly Dao Divine Pill is given to the mid-term peak holy master, or even in the later period, it has no small effect. There is a certain probability that it will be able to master the laws contained in a Heavenly Dao Divine Pill, which is very scary.

And this auction is also destined to be a fierce, very fierce competition between the powers of the major families.

"Senior Immortal Sleeping Dream, what kind of attributes does this Heavenly Dao Yuan Guo have?"

"Yeah, it's so crystal clear, I've never seen it before, but unfortunately there is a seal on it, and I can't tell what attribute it is!"

"No matter what attribute it is, it can make people crazy. This is the source fruit of the heavenly path. As long as it is refined into the heavenly path * pill, it will allow a big power to directly produce several holy master masters. This is for the top forces in the heavens. Not a small temptation."

"Yes, the more the top power, the more geniuses under its command, and the greater the desire for the source fruit of the heavenly path, otherwise, the recent heavenly trial will not be as popular." It's better. It's just that people can break through to the overlord realm of the late Heavenly Sage. It's just that this time the treasure of Venerable Heavenly Fire has appeared, so many of the geniuses who entered the trial of the Heavenly Realm this time, many have directly entered the realm of the Holy Lord. , As far as I know, in the four great celestial realms, southeast, northwest, many tianjiao who have entered the celestial realm trial, have mastered the light of the holy lord, if these characters can swallow this celestial pill and break through the holy lord It's easy, even

To be able to step into the realm of the early peak of the Holy Lord in one fell swoop. "

"With the resources and inheritance of the top powers in the heavens, as long as the sooner you break through the holy master, the greater the potential of these holy arrogances will be. It will be inaccurate, and several top-level late master masters will be born. A giant."

"Look at it, this auction is definitely a battle, the hottest."

At the auction stage, many powerful people are talking about it.

Especially the tens of thousands of powerhouses located on the first floor, most of them are completely ineligible to participate in the competition for the source of the heavens, but it does not hinder their inner passion and excitement.

At this time, everyone's eyes were condensed on the high platform, wanting to know what attributes this Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit was. "It seems that everyone in the room can't wait, so the old man won't buy the pass. The old man can only say that this heavenly source of fruit, even the old man is very interested, but because this thing is handed over to my city lord mansion by a certain top chamber of commerce It's auctioned, I naturally don't

I can swallow it, haha. "

The Sleeping Dreamer laughed, and when he raised his hand, a series of hand tactics swept out, and the seal on the source fruit of the Heavenly Dao was instantly opened. The moment the seal was opened, a strong breath instantly permeated.

Everyone saw that the space around this Heavenly Dao Yuanguo seemed to be distorted, forming a unique field.

"Spatial attributes!"

"It turned out to be a spatial attribute."

"Hey, this is one of the most terrifying attributes. Such a powerful source of Heavenly Dao Yuanguo is actually sold for auction. Which chamber of commerce is so proud?"

"Oh my God!"

There was a sudden uproar on the field, like an exploded pot, there was a tumult, everyone was boiling, almost exploding.

Spatial attributes, this is a spatial attribute.

In the heavens, there are many laws and various attributes, and it is called the Three Thousand Great Way, but in fact, the real law is only a lot more than the Three Thousand Way.

All kinds of fire, water, killing, gold, etc... and the law of space is definitely one of the most terrifying and terrifying of all the laws. The power of space, whether in battle, escape, or exploration Has huge applications, a holy lord who has mastered the laws of space, in the same

Among the levels, it is absolutely invincible. If the source fruit of the heavenly path in this space is refined into the heavenly path * pill, wouldn't it be possible to give birth to a few sage masters of the space system? Although it is the law of space controlled by the Heavenly Dao Divine Pill, it may not be so subtle, but with such a method in battle, it can definitely be

The young talents of the power are a higher level than the talents of other top powers.

Innately invincible.

boom!

So when the Tiandao Origin Fruit of this space system appeared, the entire auction room seemed to be boiling.

"Space-based?" Even Qin Chen, who was refining the formation flag in the box and arranging the prohibition, was attracted by the space atmosphere on the high platform. His eyes were fiery, and he himself was the master of the laws of space. If he could Obtain this Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit will definitely make him

The law of space tends to become great, mastering unpredictable power.

Moreover, he himself is an alchemist, has obtained the inheritance of Venerable Skyfire, and possesses alchemy artifacts such as Zixiao Dousiligong, which can be refined by himself without bothering others.

This day Dao Yuan Guo is simply tailor-made for him.

"Dust belongs to the space system."

You Qianxue also looked at Qin Chen excitedly.

"I saw it." Qin Chen nodded, his eyes fiery.

But soon there was a wry smile. Because he knew that he could only look at this Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit at most. The rarity of this thing was enough to arouse the attention of all the top forces present. Qin Chen's wealth was considered good at the level of the mid-term peak Saint Lord. , That's better than that

As far as the top powers of the late Holy Master level are concerned, they are still far behind.

Among other things, just the Sleeping Dream fairy who wants to make a move by the late master masters, he is completely out of his place.

Qin Chen shook his head, not too disappointed.

The so-called fortunately, I lost my life.

It's impossible for all the treasures in this world to belong to you. Qin Chen is already very happy to be able to find the Panlong Heiyu Jia this time. Moreover, his current thoughts are no longer on the auction floor, but in the nine-tailed fairy fox. The spirit body. Tiandao Yuanguo may have a lot of attraction to others. After all, this thing is mainly used by the major forces to train master masters, but Qin Chen owns the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Realms, and can train master masters on his own, at most Can improve his spatial law

The attainments can be ignored by Qin Chen.

He also doesn't have the financial resources to participate in the auction.

He silently sensed the position of the nine-tailed fairy fox spirit. Although the boxes here are all prohibited and isolated, the remnant soul of the predecessor of the nine-tailed fairy fox in the Universe Jade Plate has a weak connection with the spirit energy of the instrument, which makes Qin Chen feel that the spirit of the nine-tailed fairy fox is minimal, but As long as he calms down,

Still feel it.

Since the nine-tailed fairy fox spirit cannot be clearly contested with strong financial resources at the auction, it can only be snatched secretly. Fortunately, the spirit of the nine-tailed fairy fox was finally bid away by the young castle owner of the gilt fire fort, and Qin Chen secretly asked Xing Tianya to investigate the gilt fire fort. The gilt fire fort rose up in the sea of void tides. On the surface it is an ordinary top power, but secretly, it is actually doing house robbery and void tide pirate bandits.
