Chapter 3401: Way of Poison

"Wow!"

This gloomy soul power rushed out of Qin Chen's soul sea, and was about to return to the black withered bone in an instant.

Qin Chen was shocked in his heart. He didn't think that his design was so perfect, but he still failed to completely stop the soul of the soul demon race. The sage of the soul demon race was really terrifying!

Although Qin Chen had swallowed the soul of the venerable soul demon clan using the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree and the mysterious rust sword, only less than one-tenth, or even only one-hundredth of the original amount, was left. Many threats, but even if there is only a trace of remnant soul, once he returns to the dead bones and masters this secret realm again, who knows if he can cause any harm to himself?

Thinking of this, Qin Chen's heart condensed, holding the mysterious rust sword about to shoot.

It was just that before Qin Chen took the shot, the poisonous gas in front of the dry bone quickly boiled, and countless molten fire rose to the sky. A strange and complex formation appeared in front of Qin Chen, wrapping the dry bone in an instant. It stood up, forming an invisible gas barrier.

The remnant soul of the soul demon clan hit the poison gas barrier, and immediately uttered a scream, sneer, the soul of the soul demon clan began to corrode under the poison gas, emitting black blue smoke.

A group of terrifying green flames slowly flowed out from the poisonous gas melting flame, and the melting flame below instantly became cold. It was the Heavenly Fire Heavenly Poison Entropy Fire of the Heavenly Poison Pill.

This day, the poisonous entropy was cremated into a human form, and the withered bones were protected strictly, not giving the remnant soul of the soul demon clan any chance to return here.

"Ah, * it, * it, if the remnant soul of the deity hadn't been swallowed by that kid countless, and only the last trace of strength was left, how could you allow you to be rampant here."

Venerable Remnant Soul of the Soul Demon Race saw this scene, violently fluctuating in anger, and almost went crazy on the spot.

He fought this day of poisonous entropy fire for countless tens of thousands of years, and this day of poisonous entropy fire had never refined him. Unexpectedly, Huluo Plain was deceived by dogs today, and that day of poisonous entropy fire dare to directly target him.

If it were other times, he would definitely let Poison Entropy Fire of this day know about it. Even if he only had this trace of remnant soul left, but he had mastered part of the art of 10,000 poisons, he would not be able to teach Poison Entropy Fire of this day. Yes, but at this time, looking at Qin Chen, who is fast approaching with a mysterious rust sword in his hand, who is gazing from the sidelines, where does the remnant soul of the soul demon clan still have the courage to compete with Sky Poison Entropy Fire?

He let out a stern roar and boom, a terrible soul light flashed suddenly, and the whole cave suddenly seemed to be blown by a gloomy wind. The next moment, the remnant soul of the soul demon clan disappeared directly into the cave. No trace.

"Huh? Where did you go?"

With a swish, Qin Chen landed on the side of the dry bones, holding a mysterious rust sword, and the powerful soul power permeated out, and in the jade disc of good fortune of heaven and earth, the magic tree of ten thousand worlds also moved, searching the entire cave.

It's a pity, empty, the remnant soul of the soul demon clan has never appeared before, and has completely disappeared.

"Qin Chen, I'm afraid this venerable soul demon clan has already escaped."

Su Xiaoxiao's voice came from the jade disc of good fortune in the universe. When Qin Chen fought the remnant soul of the soul demon race, she was so scared to hide. Now that she knew it was safe, she appeared here again. .

It's just that at this moment, she found that Qin Chen was something wrong, a cold power radiated from Qin Chen's body, and his face became extremely pale.

Rumble!

At this moment, in Qin Chen's mind, after the cold force of the mysterious Rust Sword had swallowed the remnant soul of the soul demon clan, he actually started to attack Qin Chen's soul sea.

"Hmph, I knew you wouldn't be so obedient."

Qin Chen snorted and banged, and a powerful force of thunder suddenly burst out of his body. Under the force of this mysterious rust sword, the cold force of this mysterious rust sword suddenly uttered a painful scream, whoosh. At once, he returned to the mysterious rust sword.

Qin Chen's face was as normal as he put the mysterious rust sword into the Universe Fortune Jade Plate, and then he continued to look up at the cave. In the entire cave, the cold and cold aura had been swept away, only the sky poison entropy was quiet. Suspended in front of the dry bones, with a feeling of depression.

Qin Chen sighed slightly in his heart. From this point of view, this withered bone is really the corpse of the Sky Poison Pill Venerable. It is a pity that the soul of the soul demon clan had taken the body to death and sat here to death. He and the soul sea turned into a cage, trapping several venerable soul demons to death.

However, the Sky Poison Entropy Fire has fought against the remnants of the Soul Demon Race within the corpse for countless tens of thousands of years, adhering to the will of the Lord before his life.

At this moment, Qin Chen couldn't help but move slightly.

Although in ancient times, the heavens were divided and broken under the attack of the demons, but for the future of the heavens, countless human experts and masters of various races fought * battles against the demons for the future of the heavens.

Just like the Poison Pill Sovereign on this day, he can definitely survive. As long as he takes refuge in the Demon Race, with his status and status, he will inevitably receive the courtesy of the Demon Race high-level and become a strong person in the Demon Race, but he did not do so. Instead, he used his body as a cage to trap the extremely powerful Soul Demon Clan of the Demon Race to death. This dedication spirit deeply moved Qin Chen's heart.

"Senior, be respected by the younger generation!"

Qin Chen saluted the corpse respectfully. He admired the other person's character and the actions of the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable. Even though he obtained the technique of ten thousand poisons from the Soul Demon Clan, this technique is Heavenly Poison after all. Dan Zun's lifelong fascination back then, he is also considered half the descendant of Sky Poison Dan Zun.

When Qin Chen saluted the corpse, the corpse actually began to glow slightly.

At the same time, an obscure magic formula appeared in Qin Chen's mind. This formula carried the aura of the supreme law, which made Qin Chen's mind roar as if he had seen a vast road.

"The Way of All Poisons?"

Qin Chen was shocked. This magic formula contained the essence of the art of ten thousand poisons, forming the way of ten thousand poisons, and evolving the most terrifying rules of poison in the world.

Before Qin Chen got the poisonous civilization in the Book of Origins in his body after receiving the Poisonous Poisons from the Venerable Soul Demon Race, but at the moment when the Way of Ten Thousand Poisons appeared, the Book of Origins The poisoned civilization once again bloomed, becoming deeper and more rounded.

This tactic is not available in the magic of all poisons taught by the Venerable Soul Demon Race. It contains more profound rules and great avenues, from a skill to a Tao.

This is the inheritance of the true Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable.

Even the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable did not come to an end on this path of ten thousand poisons. What he presented to Qin Chen was just a prototype, the prototype of the avenue of poison, which lightened the road ahead for Qin Chen.

Chapter 3402: Go somewhere

Qin Chen's heart was truly shocked. The venerable soul demon clan thought he had obtained the technique of ten thousand poisons and mastered the inheritance of the Heavenly Poison Pill. As everyone knows, what he got was only the Heavenly Poison Pill, the real poison. He didn't actually master the way.

But it's also right. If the remnant soul of the soul demon race really mastered the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable's ten thousand poison art, how could it not be able to break free from the Sky Poison Pill Venerable's shackles and be suppressed by the Heavenly Poison Entropy Fire? What?

At this moment, it seemed that he knew what was happening here, and this day Poison Pill Venerable finally passed on his inheritance to Qin Chen.

He didn't teach other very complicated things, but just pointed out the way for Qin Chen in the cultivation of poison.

Hum!

And after the way of ten thousand poisons appeared in Qin Chen's mind, the corpse of the Sky Poison Pill Venerable seemed to know that his mission was completed, and turned into a light spot in the sky, slowly dissipating into the void.

"Senior, your last will, the younger generation must uphold and go on."

Qin Chen saluted again, this time, he saluted the teacher's ceremony.

Three people, there must be my teacher.

Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable became his true master on the path of poison.

The Sky Poison Entropy Fire is floating here, full of sadness, feeling the complete disappearance of Sky Poison Pill Venerable, floating there silently.

Qin Chen also ignored the poisonous entropy fire. This fire was the sky fire of the Sky Poison Pill. He had an incomparably deep affection for the Sky Poison Pill Venerable. He waited silently for the Sky Poison Pill Venerable for thousands of years until this moment. The owner completely dissipated without leaving a trace, and the sadness in his heart was so deep.

All things in the heaven and the earth have anims. As one of the most terrifying flames between the heaven and the earth, the sky fire naturally has their spirituality.

Qin Chen just cast his gaze on the stove and the colorful liquid medicine in the stove.

Qin Chen also knew from the remnant soul of the soul demon clan before, what kind of soul demon liquid it was, and he could condense his body. He mainly prepared it for the many masters of his soul demon clan. If this soul demon liquid is true It has the effect of reshaping the body, so it is also a huge help to Qin Chen.

Because in Qin Chen's universe fortune jade disc, there are still many remnants of powerful souls, such as Venerable Skyfire, Venerable Wanling Demon, the Eternal Sword Master, and the seniors of the Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox family.

Their remnants have been nourished in the Devil Tree of the Ten Thousand Worlds, and they will be reborn after their souls recover.

However, Qin Chen has not found a suitable body for them at present. Although Qin Chen has killed many masters, the strongest is only the late-stage holy master. If the souls of Skyfire Venerables and their souls enter these bodies, don't Saying that it would restrict the future achievements of Venerable Skyfire, and it would also cause them great discomfort.

Of course, if there is no other method, Qin Chen can only do this, but now that Qin Chen sees this spirit medicinal liquid, Qin Chen is not excited.

Hum!

Qin Chen touched the blue ancient furnace with his right hand, and instantly felt an extremely strong breath of life from the furnace, and Qin Chen immediately felt thoughtful.

This spirit liquid medicine is indeed a powerful liquid medicine for condensing the physical body, but it is not the only material.

The effect of this spirit liquid medicine is indeed able to make a soul perfectly blend with the body to form a new physical body of its own, but before this, there is still a lack of blind materials in this spirit liquid medicine. Only the material that really condenses the body is With the addition of this material, this spirit medicinal liquid is truly formed.

"It's no wonder that since the remnant soul of the Venerable Soul Demon Race can kill me from that dry bone, he can only choose to take me away, instead of directly condensing the flesh with this spirit liquid medicine. It turns out that there is still a lack of blind materials."

However, Qin Chen was still very excited. This spirit medicinal solution has been successfully refined. What Qin Chen lacks now is the blind material. Compared with the previous lack of clues to find the body, it is better. I don't know how much, anyway, Venerable Skyfire. For the time being, the remnant soul was only repaired in the Demon Tree of the Ten Thousand Worlds, and it had not been fully restored.

And Qin Chen also knew that this flavor material was not fixed, and there were many choices.

For example, that Wanling Demon Lord is a master of the Demon Race, Qin Chen can search for the Demon Race's materials and join them to condense a Demon Race body.

Senior Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox's soul is from the monster race, and you can add materials containing monster energy to condense the body of the monster race.

Of course, there are some non-attribute materials in the heavens, and different bodies can be condensed according to the breath of the soul. With this spirit liquid medicine, all this is fine.

"Senior, this potion of liquid medicine will be accepted by the junior."

Qin Chen raised his hand, and immediately felt his hand sink, as if he had lifted a world.

This pill furnace does not seem to be big, but it is the alchemy furnace of the Sky Poison Pill Venerable. How could a pill furnace be simple? It's like Venerable Skyfire's Zixiao Dousidi Palace, at least it is Venerable's treasure, not to be underestimated.

And Qin Chen got the inheritance of the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable, and he also knew that the pill furnace in front of him, named Wandao Qingjin Divine Furnace, was not weaker than the treasure of the Venerable Zixiao Dousili Palace, but the emphasis of the two was different. , Now Qin Chen has obtained the inheritance of the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable, and has also included this Divine Soul liquid medicine together with the Ten Thousand Dao Qingjin Divine Furnace into the Universe Good Fortune Jade Plate.

The ten thousand azure sacred furnace disappeared, and the entire cave became much calmer in an instant.

Qin Chen glanced at the Sky Poison Entropy Fire, shook his head, and turned away.

This day's poisonous entropy fire is the Heavenly Poison Pill Sovereign's sky fire, and a slight consciousness has been born, and Qin Chen doesn't want to forcibly refine the other party. As for Su Xiaoxiao, the Heavenly Poison Pill Sovereign had one of the top heavenly ones. Supreme Treasure, Qin Chen didn't see any treasures apart from these ten thousand azure gold divine furnaces. The entire cave was empty, and he did not continue searching.

The remnant soul of the Venerable Soul Demon Race still fled here. What Qin Chen needs to do most now is to find Qian Xue and the others to ensure Qian Xue's safety.

Just as Qin Chen was about to leave, the Heavenly Poison Entropy Fire that hadn't moved suddenly floated in front of Qin Chen, blocking his way, and the fluctuations in his path seemed to be conveying some information.

Qin Chen carefully sensed the other party's fluctuations, and said in doubt: "You mean, let me follow you? Are you going to take me to a place?"

That day, the poisonous entropy fire moved, like a nod, fluttered quickly, swept down towards the molten flame.

Although Qin Chen was puzzled, he followed the sky poison entropy fire and swept into the molten flame. This molten flame was extremely deep, as if leading to a certain area of flame. Qin Chen had always thought that the poisonous gas melted heat before. , Because of the sky poison entropy fire, now Qin Chen discovered that the heat in this molten flame was not transmitted by the sky poison entropy fire, but in the depths of this molten flame, it seemed to lead to another piece of void, from that piece of The flames of flames continue to be transmitted in the void.

Chapter 3403: God tree

Is there another place under this melting flame?

Qin Chen frowned. Poisonous Entropy Fire is not trying to take him to another place this day. Although there may be some good things there, but now Qin Chen is most worried about Qianxue. Naturally, it is impossible to drop Qianxue. Go somewhere else.

He was about to speak, but saw that the Entropy Fire of Sky Poison stopped in front of him and fell into a void of space.

In the depths of this molten flame, there is actually an empty space.

As soon as Qin Chen entered this void space, he felt that the heat here instantly disappeared, and the whole person was extremely comfortable, but he didn't know where this comfortable feeling came from, just felt that this void space In the middle, as if something is affecting everything around.

But Qin Chen couldn't see any treasures here.

What is going on here?

Just when Qin Chen was puzzled, there was a sudden wave of excitement in the jade disc of good fortune from heaven and earth. Qin Chen suddenly realized that he had been sleeping in the jade disc of good fortune from heaven and earth and absorbed the world since he was in the Yama Secret Realm. The little ants of the power of the magic tree, the little fire, and the spirit-seeking bug all woke up excitedly, one by one restless, wanting to rush out of the jade plate of the universe.

Qin Chen immediately released the little ants, little fire and spirit-seeking worms from the jade disc of good fortune in the universe.

The little ants and little fires, which have been sleeping in the devil trees and fires of the ten thousand realms, exude an extremely terrifying aura as soon as they appear, and they are constantly evolving in the jade disc of good fortune in the universe, even making Qin Chen feel the slightest palpitations.

Under Qin Chen's cultivation, Little Ant, Little Huo, and Spirit Seeker had become extremely terrifying, which made Qin Chen quite surprised.

What surprised Qin Chen even more was that as soon as these strange spirit insects appeared, they swayed constantly in this void, as if they were looking for some treasure.

"Boss, boss, there is definitely a baby here."

Little ants, Xiaohuo, and spirit-seeking bugs all flew around with excitement, scurrying around in this void. Obviously they were all awakened by the extraordinary treasures in this void, but like Qin Chen, they also discovered Not where the baby is.

Qin Chen was shocked. He naturally knew that Little Ant, Little Huo, and spirit-seeking insects were powerful, and they were even stronger than him when looking for treasures. Before Qin Chen got so many treasures, they did not wake up. Now they are awake, although they may have been sleeping in evolution before, but it is enough to explain the treasures here.

Qin Chen's gaze instantly fell on Sky Poison Entropy Fire, and it must have his purpose to bring himself here.

Sure enough, the Sky Poison Entropy Fire slowly came to a place in the void under Qin Chen's gaze, and then stopped.

Qin Chen brought Xiao Yi and Xiao Huo to this place. Xiao Yi and Xiao Huo took a closer look and said in doubt, "There is nothing here..."

Before they could finish their words, a faint shadow slowly appeared from the virtual to the real. Qin Chen couldn't believe the shadow from the virtual to the real. It was nearly ten The tall tree is very verdant, and there are some colorful fruits sparsely on the top of the tree. There are about a hundred of them.

A refreshing fragrance came, and all of them were refreshed, and Qin Chen even felt that his cultivation level had improved a little for no reason.

Qin Chen was about to say that this fruit tree is so familiar, when he heard Su Xiaoxiao cry out in shock, "The Heavenly Path God Tree, one of the ten sources of heaven!"

"The source of the Ten Great Avenues of Heaven?"

Qin Chen was also quite shocked, he also saw that, although he had never heard of the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree, he saw that the fruits on this tree were actually the Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit.

No wonder he hadn't seen Tiandao Yuanguo before, it turned out that they all grew here.

Qin Chen scanned his divine consciousness and found that there were 108 Origin Fruits of the Heavenly Path here. The key was that each one was different, representing the 108 laws of the Heavenly Realm, containing the power of the unique laws of the Heavenly Realm.

For example, the Space System Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit and the Origin System Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit that Qin Chen had obtained before were never seen here.

There are too many laws in the heavens, known as the Three Thousand Great Way, but that is just an imaginary number. The true law is definitely more than three thousand and far more than that.

And on this heavenly path * tree, there are 108 different types of heavenly path source fruit growing.

How many Heavenly Dao Divine Pills can be refined.

Su Xiaoxiao was also extremely shocked, and said in surprise: "I finally know why the masters of the ancient heavens are looking for the Heavenly Poison Pill to refine the pill. It turns out that he has the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree on his body, which is the top Dao in the heavens. The fruit tree, one of the sources of Taoism, is indeed qualified to be called the supreme treasure."

In the ancient celestial realm, there are a total of ten great sources. The so-called source of cosmos is the supreme principle of the celestial realm, and this sacred tree of heaven is naturally one of them. The fruit it produces is the extremely powerful source of heaven. The Heavenly Dao Divine Pill refined by the source fruit of the Heavenly Dao can make the martial artist transform and perceive the law of the Heavenly Dao.

The results of the Heavenly Path and the Divine Tree are very difficult. The laws of the heaven and the earth in each fruit are different, but each fruit is the only one between heaven and earth.

Once picked, it will take countless years for the * tree of heaven to absorb countless laws before condensing a new source of heavenly fruit.

This is not the most important thing. The most important thing is what fruit is born under the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree. No one knows, not even the owner of the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree.

But even so, once possessing the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree, it is tantamount to having a steady stream of possibilities for cultivating Heavenly Powers.

Qin Chen had seen the source fruit of the heavenly path with his own eyes. At this moment, he looked at the fruit on the heavenly path and the sacred tree before him. He pressed the shock in his heart and walked forward and stroked the heavenly path and sacred tree with his hand.

"Sure enough, it is Tiandao Yuanguo!"

This breath is almost exactly the same as the fruit Qin Chen got.

It is no wonder that there will be the Origin Fruit of the Heavenly Path in this Void Tide Sea Secret Realm, and everyone gets the Origin Fruit of the Heavenly Path one by one, but Qin Chen has directly obtained a Heavenly Path Divine Tree.

This kind of sacred tree, there is only one in the entire heaven.

Moreover, each of these one hundred and eight Heavenly Dao Origin Fruits is a priceless treasure. After Qin Chen obtained the Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit, he had studied the Ten Dao Origin in detail, so he was no stranger to the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree.

"Boss, I know, this Heavenly Dao Divine Tree used to be the treasure of the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable, but now that the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable has fallen, the Heavenly Poison Entropy Fire brought you here, because I want you to take away the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree. "Although Xiaoyi and Xiaohuo have been staying in the jade disc of Universe Good Fortune, they are not ignorant, and they immediately said in surprise.

"Moreover, the Taoist tree of heaven must also recognize you as the boss, otherwise it won't come out."

Xiaoyi and Xiaohuo definitely said that the heaven and the * tree are the treasures of the heavens and the earth, if it weren't for the mind to recognize the Lord, it would definitely not appear.

Qin Chen has the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Worlds, and has also received the inheritance of the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable, and it is normal to be recognized by the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree.

Chapter 3404: Must be the boss woman

Qin Chen agreed with Xiao Yi and Xiao Huo in his heart. The treasures between the heavens and the earth are all spiritual and calculating. The reason why he got the jade disc of Universe Good Fortune at the beginning was also for some reason. The Tianwu Continent took a fancy to him and became Son of the mainland

, The son of luck.

And when the Taoist tree was hidden before, there could be no movement, but this time it suddenly appeared. Who can be sure that this is not because he wants to recognize him as the master? Thinking of this, Qin Chen began to use his mind to communicate with the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree, to send the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree to the Universe Destiny Jade Plate. As soon as his thought was sent out, the Divine Dao Divine Tree automatically entered the Universe Divine Destiny with a hint of joy neutralize

The Devil Trees of the Ten Thousand Worlds are facing away, each occupying a place.

Sure enough, Qin Chen smiled bitterly and used his divine sense to scan the Heavenly Way God Tree in the Universe Fortune Jade Plate. He even suspected that Heavenly Poison Entropy Fire brought him here because of the approval of Heavenly Way God Tree.

Seeing that Qin Chen simply put away the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree without any traces, Su Xiaoxiao immediately understood that what Little Ant and Xiao Huo said was right. The Heavenly Dao Divine Tree really had to hold back, otherwise it would not be so easy. Was taken away.

"The boss is really amazing, and he put away the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree at once. The breath of the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree is so comfortable that we can practice and rest under the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree in the future."

Xiao Yi and Xiao Huo both laughed.

The soul-seeking worm also shook his head in excitement. It was most sensitive to treasures. Obviously, the appearance of the Heavenly Taoist Tree made it extremely excited.

"By the way, it should be extremely difficult for the sacred tree to bear fruit, how come this heavenly path sacred tree bears so many fruits?" Xiaoyi and Xiaohuo asked slightly puzzled after being excited for a while. Qin Chen was also puzzled, but without waiting for him to speak, Su Xiao urinates and said: "The results of the Heavenly Path Divine Tree are indeed difficult. I heard that it only bears a fruit in ten thousand years, but once the fruit on the Heavenly Path Divine Tree is full, Will not continue to increase, The fruit on this tree happens to be 108, which is easy to count all over the sky, indicating that this tree has been here for at least 1.08 million years. "Xiao Yi and Xiao Huo said: "It makes sense. The heavens have been destroyed for so many years. It's normal for the Heavenly Dao and Divine Tree to be full of fruits. Maybe when the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable was alive, the Heavenly Dao and Divine Tree had already grown. A lot of fruits, the number of days changed, also Yes, there is a deficiency in the way of heaven, and heaven and earth will not allow the source of heaven and earth on the tree of heaven and * to grow endlessly. Sister, you are really amazing and you know so much. "

Su Xiaoxiao heard what Xiaoyi and Xiaohuo said, and said triumphantly: "You two don't know how to be discerning?" Xiaohuo suddenly laughed and said, "That is, sister, we are actually amazing. , Little Ant can swallow all the power between heaven and earth, including the Holy Qi, and I am not afraid of fire, no matter how powerful the flame is, it may not be able to burn me, such as this day

It's not easy for the poisonous entropy fire to burn me to death. As for the big brother of the worm, he is most interested in treasures. "

Su Xiaoxiao glanced at them and said, "I can't think that you are quite capable."

"That is." Xiao Huo looked proud, and then asked in doubt: "By the way, sister, what do you have? Know so much, and we have never seen you before... When did you..."

Before Xiao Huo finished speaking, Xiao Huo slapped it on the head with a paw. Xiao Huo suddenly depressed and said, "Little Ant, what are you doing with me?"

"The mouth is so broken, who will you hit if you don't hit? I don't have any eyesight!"

Xiao Huo said depressed: "Why do I have no eyesight?" "Then you ask so much what you are doing, this can't be seen? This sister must be the eldest woman, she is so beautiful, and she is making jade discs in the universe. Among them, it must be the boss's woman. I can't see it. What kind of vision?

Don't say I know you. "The ant said with disdain.

"Huh?" Xiao Huo woke up instantly, and hurriedly said, "Sister, don't be angry, I didn't mean to recognize you."

Su Xiaoxiao's face flushed red, and the little ants and Xiao Huo, who didn't realize they were cute, said with shame, "What nonsense are you talking about?"

"Look at you. People are angry now. Be careful that the boss doesn't want you and throws you away." The little ant said angrily to the small fire: "You still dare to talk nonsense in the future."

Xiao Huo was also anxious, and hurriedly said: "Sister, don't be angry. In fact, the woman who is the boss is very happy. You see so many Tiandao Yuanguo. If you want to eat as many as you want, the boss will definitely not bear with her of."

Su Xiaoxiao was almost speechless, "I am an instrumental spirit, and I don't need to eat the source of heavenly fruit at all."

"Ah? It's okay if you don't eat Tiandao Yuanguo, the weapon is good, the boss is a refiner, and you can refine a lot of holy treasures for you to eat. You don't have to worry about having nothing to eat in the future." Xiao Huo hurriedly said again. .

Su Xiaoxiao was holding his forehead, his chest undulating, almost mad.

Eat, eat, these two little guys know to eat, they are simply foodies.

"Well, what are you talking about here, give me back to the jade disc of good fortune in the universe." Qin Chen was also full of black lines listening to him, so what? With a wave of his hand, he directly collected a few little guys into the Universe Good Fortune Jade Plate, and then he said to the Heavenly Poison Entropy Fire: "Thank you for bringing me here, I have something to do.

To do it, leave first. "

Qin Chen was still anxious to find You Qianxue, naturally there was no time to stay here.

It's just that he was just about to leave, but Sky Poison Entropy Fire quickly came to Qin Chen's side, actively exuding a source of consciousness, actually asking Qin Chen to refine it.

"You are..." Qin Chen was stunned, and said in confusion, "Are you planning to go with me?"

The Sky Poison Entropy Fire fluttered up and down a few times and nodded.

"Well, you go with me too."

Qin Chen thought for a while and nodded. Since the Sky Poison Entropy Fire is ready to follow him, Qin Chen has nothing to refuse. After all, this is the top flame like the Calamity Fire, and it is poisonous. In the inheritance of the Sky Poison Pill Venerable, many places need to be used. To this day poisonous entropy fire

Moreover, the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable has passed away, even if the Heavenly Poison Entropy Fire stays here, it is just a lonely oneself.

Qin Chen immediately displayed the power of the soul, and when the poisonous entropy fire took the initiative, he took the poisonous entropy fire into his body with little effort.

Hum!

Qin Chen instantly felt that his understanding of the Tao of Poison had improved. After doing all this, Qin Chen left this emptiness in an instant and flew towards the place of inheritance before. He could feel that under this molten flame, the deeper part of the emptiness seemed to be connected to a piece of emptiness. A place of flame power, but Qin Chen, who was worried about You Qianxue's safety, planned to find You Qianxue first, and then come here to explore when he has time.

Chapter 3405: When did you find it

And when Qin Chen left the void.

In another place in the land of inheritance, Mo Li was trapped in a void of inheritance space and had been there for a long time.

Since he completed all the inheritance levels, he has been trapped here, inseparable from it, and without any hint, as if imprisoned.

At first Mo Li was patient, thinking it was an assessment, or some other reason, but as time passed, Mo Li gradually felt something was wrong, and he couldn't sit still.

"What the * is going on?" Mo Li frowned in thought. "If I pass the assessment, then I should get the inheritance of this powerful senior alchemy now, and if I fail the assessment, I will either be beheaded by this powerful senior alchemist, or I should be teleported out. I am stuck here to do what? "

The inheritance that Mo Li had accepted was not one or two, and he was quite experienced, but he had never encountered such a situation.

what is this?

Hang him here? To be a xinxing test, even if it is a test, it is not such a test.

Or, what's wrong with this inheritance? For example, someone has inherited a step earlier than himself?

For some reason, Mo Li always felt an extremely uncomfortable feeling in his heart, as if some danger was about to come.

"No, something definitely went wrong, I can't stay here anymore."

Mo Li stood up and was about to find a way to get out of here. Suddenly, in this gloomy space, a cold breath suddenly flashed, and Mo Li's heart instantly shuddered. This is... the breath of the demon race?

Before he thought about it too much, suddenly, a cold voice resounded in the void.

"Young man, congratulations, you have completed all the inheritance tests of this deity."

This voice sounded very cold, but it also carried a trace of strong majesty, and there was a faint wave of fluctuations, which appeared directly in Mo Li's mind.

"This deity Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable is the top pill deity of the ancient human race. It contains the path of all poisons. In the ancient times, the deity fell unexpectedly. I always wanted to find a heir to inherit the deity's supreme magical power. Unfortunately, it has never been paid. As you wish."

"Now, the soul of the deity has completely dissipated, and only the last consciousness is left. Now, this consciousness will also dissipate, and finally let the deity meet you."

Mo Li was pleasantly surprised: "Senior, did you choose me as the heir?" "Yes." The cold voice said: "This time entering the land of inheritance, a total of three people passed the inheritance assessment of the deity, but because This is already the last trace of consciousness of the deity. After this assessment, even the last trace of soul

Dissipated and could not be saved, so the deity considered it a little longer. In the end, the deity chose you. "Although your cultivation is not the strongest among the three, and the realm of the alchemist is not the highest, but the deity sees the shadow of my youth from you, so the deity will choose you. Now, you are open. Heart, the deity will now

The inheritance of my life has been taught to you. "

Mo Li excitedly said: "Senior, what do the younger generation need to do?" "You don't need to do anything, just open your heart. The deity will leave all the inheritance in you, and teach you my great way. Hope. After you get the deity's inheritance, you can uphold the deity's will Yang Guangda. "

This cold voice fell, and a force with a vast heritage, quickly swept towards the magic. Moli immediately opened his heart, that power instantly entered Moli's mind, rumbling, Moli felt it in his mind, the rumbling roar resounded, countless powers about the technique of ten thousand poisons, began Gradually penetrated into

My mind.

Mo Li clearly felt that his understanding of poison and alchemy had improved at an astonishing speed.

But then, along with the entry of the power of the alchemy and the avenue of poison, a cold power slowly penetrated into his mind, and it gradually penetrated into the soul of his demons.

Mo Li said in a little astonishment: "Senior, what is this, why do I feel a cold force seeping into my soul?"

"Quack, it's okay, this is just my power of inheritance. It is improving your soul. When my inheritance is over, your soul will also improve."

This cold force explained.

"So, thank you senior." Mo Li said with a trace of excitement on his face. Because of the excitement, even the soul sea fluctuated. There was even the power of Dao Dao Demon Race, as if he couldn't control his soul. of. The soul of the soul demon clan Venerable Soul was so deceived, and he couldn't help but feel gloomy. He knew that this guy was so deceiving. He should have chosen this guy before. Maybe he had succeeded long ago. Unfortunately, he had coveted that person before. Body

His treasures and talents were actually put together by that guy, and most of his soul and power were lost. What a damn. The soul of the Venerable Soul Demon Race is extremely cold and murderous, does that kid really think that he can leave safely after calculating? After I had seized the boy in front of me, I activated my dark hand in this secret realm.

At that time, everyone here must become their own food. He secretly calculated in his heart, and entered the soul of Moli a little bit quietly. This time he learned well and took advantage of the opportunity of inheritance to enter a little bit, although the speed was a little slower, and he could not control the soul of the other party for the first time. , But wins

In safety.

At this moment, it suddenly heard the devilish voice: "Senior, I was so distracted when taking away me. Isn't it too much of the younger generation's eyes?"

"What robs you of it?"

The Venerable Soul Demon Race woke up in an instant, just about to speak, but immediately made a very angry voice. "I mean, the younger generation waited here for so long. Did you try to seize the others and fail? Then you had to come and seize me? Otherwise, why did you seize my soul so weak?" Mo Li suddenly lifted up

The head and both hands squeezed a hand gesture suddenly, and a magic light suddenly lit up on his body.

"You, you..." The soul demon clan screamed in anger, "You actually created a fake soul. I didn't even notice it. What kind of magic do you cultivate? Are you? When did you find it?" Mo Li said with cold eyes, "Senior, you clearly carry the power of the Demon, and you lied to me that it is the Heavenly Poison Pill of Human Race. You think I am so stupid that I can distinguish between Human Race and Demon Race. Can't it come out?"

Chapter 3406: You are not a demon

"And your soul has just been injured before. Obviously, I don't know where I suffered, and I want to take me away? My devil rose from the lower realm. In the morning, I know that there are no good people in the heavens. You can lie to others. Want to lie to me, don't do it Dream, go to death! "

After Mo Li finished speaking, his body suddenly lit up with magic charms, and loud magic sounds resounded from his body, as if from ancient times, this force quickly penetrated into his mind.

Obviously, he also knew that a trace of the opponent's soul was about to collapse, so he dared to use magic power to create a fake soul body, which would attract the opponent to enter before starting. "Good boy, I didn't expect you to be so insidious. This deity is the Venerable Soul Demon Race. Do you think that a small fake soul can trap me?" The Venerable Soul Demon Race roared and said these words, and a very faint line 'S shadow rushed out of the fake soul body

, Rushed directly into the depths of Mo Li's soul sea. "Hmph, you, as a member of the Demon Race, practicing magic skills, are more suitable for your deity to seize the house than the previous kid. My Soul Demon Race, who devours the Demon Race's soul, does you want to stop me?" The person roared directly, even if he knew the magic

He has seen through his conspiracy and set up a trick, but he is not afraid.

He is the soul demon clan, and it's nothing more than being calculated by a human clan, how can he be calculated by the demon clan? To him, the soul of the Demon Race is a great tonic. Unless it is a master of the same level, the Saint Master of the Demon Race cannot stop him at all.

It was just that he had just entered the depths of Mo Li's soul, and the expression on Mo Li's face suddenly became ugly. "If I was taken away by you, then my Moli would be blind, hahaha, Mozu? You can take a closer look at what kind of race I am?" Moli suddenly took out a dark magic nail, from his own The top of the head pierced fiercely, while sitting

On the ground, the expression became more and more ferocious.

"What? You...you are not a demon, half of your soul breath is actually a human? Half human and half demon, who are you?" A frightened voice sounded in Mo Li's mind: "You this Insidious person." Mo Li sneered and said with a grim face: "Playing with me? My Mo Li has never lost to anyone except that disgusting guy on the mainland in my life, you A remnant soul dare to play scheming with me? Huh, the reason why that guy was able to suppress me back then was because the origin of the mainland chose him as the son of destiny, otherwise I would lose? I came to the heavens, into the devil, and fell. Having experienced so many lives and deaths in the domain of Gods and Demons, it was hard to come Today, how can it be easily taken away by you, I don't believe it, I can't do you a remnant soul that is about to die. "

"Damn it, if that kid hadn't hurt my soul just now, how could the deity fear you and explode me!"

This soul demon clan screamed in Moli's mind, seeing that he was about to be completely refined, and finally blew his soul, and in a short time a weak soul power swept out of Moli's mind and disappeared instantly. .

puff!

In the space of inheritance, Mo Li opened his mouth and spouted a gulp of black blood, his face instantly turned extremely pale, and he looked up at the place where the soul had disappeared with an ugly face. "Unexpectedly, this guy escaped, Venerable Soul Demon Race, this person turned out to be a master of the Soul Demon Race. Fortunately, I was prepared for a long time, plus I was born in the source continent of the Tianwu Continent. Seize the house, otherwise it will be dangerous before

In danger. Mo Li wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, and said coldly: "An inheritance of a soul demon clan, unfortunately, I only got a part of it, and I couldn't swallow the soul of this person, otherwise, the benefits I will get will be even more terrifying. , I don't know the injury before Which master is the soul of this person? Hearing what it means, he should be a master of the human race, but facing a person of the soul demon race, even a peak holy master of the human race can't resist this person's seizure, right? "

Mo Li's eyes flickered, and he was so embarrassed to deal with the soul that had been seriously injured. He really couldn't think of anyone who would be able to repel the soul of the soul demon clan when his soul triumphed. "Hmph, I don't want to. The other party only has a trace of remnant soul left. It should be to take away other people now, otherwise it is definitely impossible to survive, but such a trace of remnant soul, even if it takes away others, it is impossible to recover. Strength, I still * first

It's good to accept the inheritance left by this person, it's not right..." Moli was just about to practice, and suddenly woke up, "Holy Master Fire Demon Pill is probably going to be in danger. Before, the Venerable Soul Demon Race said that it was 'that kid' injury. If he lost his soul, then it must not be the Holy Master of Fire Demon Pill. So, this Soul Demon Race is very promising.

Will be able to seize the fire demon pill saint master, after all, the master is a pure demon planter, and he is the only target that this person can seize now. "

Mo Li looked gloomy, and finally shook his head.

It seems that next time you meet Master, you have to be more careful.

boom! He ran the magic power, and countless magic light power suddenly rose up in his body, and began to absorb the soul power left by the soul of the soul demon clan, and felt his inheritance, and saw the power on the magic Li body quickly The surging is faint

It hit the realm of the mid-term saint master.

And just as Mo Li guessed, after leaving Mo Li's body, the remnant soul of the soul demon clan swiftly flew towards the inheritance space of the Fire Demon Pill.

"En?" The Fire Demon Pill Saint, who was sitting cross-legged in the inheritance space, suddenly seemed to sense something, and suddenly opened his eyes, and then he saw a terrible magic light, which was instantly suppressed.

"Dakun Soul Magic Book!"

boom! This soul power was quickly suppressed. This soul demon clan veteran has no time to waste time with the fire demon pill saint and waste time and effort. After two heavy injuries, he will not take others away. I am afraid that his soul will be lost in a moment. Will dissipate, thoroughly

The fall of the bottom.

So he directly adopted the most violent way.

This Fire Demon Pill Saint also sensed a terrible soul power, which was infiltrating his mind, extremely violent and hasty, and immediately surged with endless soul power to fight against it.

Boom boom boom!

The shocking soul impacted, echoing in the void, and I don't know how long it took.

The Fire Demon Pill Saint uttered a scream, and his eyes dimmed in an instant. The next moment, two groups of cold soul fire burned in the eyes of the Fire Demon Pill Saint.

"puff!"

A mouthful of blood spurted out, and the aura on the Fire Demon Pill Saint fluctuated violently and faltered. "Damn it, even though I have seized this body, my soul power is at least a hundred times weaker than before the seizure, damn, damn!"

Chapter 3407: Detonate instantly

A cold voice came from the mouth of the Fire Demon Pill. It was the sage of the soul demon clan. A faint cold light bloomed in his eyes: "Unexpectedly, in the end, I actually took away this least growthable one. On the plant demon alchemist, nothing

, The kid before, turned out to be a disciple of this Fire Demon Pill Saint, huh, I'm afraid this guy doesn't even know how deep his disciple is hiding, right? "

"But this is a good opportunity. When the deity recovers a little, then use this body's identity to regain the deity's things from that kid."

A cold light burst into the eyes of the "Fire Demon Pill Saint", and a terrifying soul power echoed in the void.

He quickly walked cross-legged, his soul flickering, repairing the soul in his mind.

His top priority is to repair his soul, because his previous injury was too serious. If he doesn't do this, even if he successfully seizes the fire demon pill now, he will be severely injured and he will not be able to restore his previous cultivation level for a lifetime. .

"By the way, as well as the dark hands I left on those testers, it's better to detonate them now, so as not to wait until there will be any accidents. After they kill each other, the deity will go to harvest again, quack."

The 'Fire Demon Pill Sage' smiled coldly, an invisible force flashed in this secret realm, and then suddenly disappeared.

In the valley.

The masters such as You Qianxue are still facing each other. With the passage of time, more and more masters appear here, and each other is becoming more and more impetuous.

"Why hasn't Qin Chen appeared now? There will be no accidents, right?" You Qianxue was secretly anxious. Ever since she knew there was weirdness in this secret realm, she kept praying for Qin Chen silently, but there was no other way, this valley It seems to be a closed space. In today's racial confrontation, she is like

If there is any action, it will immediately attract everyone's attention.

The forces such as the King of War and the Void Bandits gradually became anxious. As many of their masters passed the assessment and continued to come to this valley, the forces of the King of War and other forces gradually had plans to do something.

The Moon Demon Race also frowned, because the Fire Demon Pill Saint and Demon Li stayed in that inheritance space for too long, so there will be no surprises, right? This fire demon pill saint is a master of alchemy that their Moon Demon race has finally won. It is related to the future of their Moon Demon

Clan, and Mo Li also pines their Moon Demon Clan's hope for a higher level of demon race, just in case. What's wrong with people, then he Men Yue Mozu really lost the watermelon and picked up the sesame.

Even if the people in front of them are killed, the rewards are far less than the losses, so they wait patiently for the Fire Demon Pill Saints. "Everyone, I don't think that there will be people from the Demon Race appear in this secret realm. If you continue to wait, it doesn't make much sense. There is an antagonism between the Demon Race and our races. After a while, we will join forces together. How about all the demons beheaded?

Sovereign of the King of War secretly spread the voice.

"The Sovereign of the King of War, naturally there is no problem, but the distribution of benefits at that time." The Dark Bat Holy Master among the Void Bandits said in a gloomy voice. "It depends on each other's ability." The Sovereign of the War King smiled coldly: "Whoever kills more demons will naturally get more benefits. There are demons here. I believe you all know the seriousness of the problem. An intelligence to the top forces in the heavens

, We have a lot of rewards, and this secret realm is currently in our hands. As long as we wait to unite, the greater the benefits will be obtained in the future. At this time, it will not be good for everyone to become dead. "The Sovereign of the King of War is right. We were born in the Void Tide Sea, but don't you still want to be bandits for a lifetime?" Holding this secret realm in my hand, with the passage to the demon race, I can even enter the heavenly realm. Could it be that those celestial realms

What can the top forces say? We are the heroes of the heavens. "

Someone spread the word.

Everyone glanced at each other, it was a tacit understanding, and it was an opportunity for anyone present. "Since everyone agrees, then I will distribute it. You will listen to my orders later. As long as I say to do it, Buyi, you will set up a big battle, trap the demon people first, and kill the others with me. To the enemy, only the strongest

People can stay alive. When the time comes, ask them exactly how they appeared and why they knew this secret realm. "

The Sovereign of the War King said coldly: "At that time, everything will be owned by several of our major forces. As for the demons who beheaded, who is the beheaded, what about this proposal?"

"Okay, just do what the Sect Master said."

"That's it, I'm a Void Bandit who has done too many murders and robbing goods, and today I have robbed the demons."

"Hehehe, Sect Master Zhan Wang, just give the order, I can't wait any longer."

Many people said coldly.

"Very well, wait a minute, you guys will also draw up those casual cultivators and send them for me. After a while, they will consume their casual cultivators. Anyway, they don't belong to our major forces, so we should contribute more."

Sect Master Zhan Wang sneered as he was about to speak. Suddenly, everyone suddenly felt dizziness in their minds, and black auras lingered from their bodies.

"what is this?"

Everyone's complexion changed.

"I'm so dizzy, could it be someone from the Demon Race?"

"No, you look at the people of the Demon Race, it seems that this is also the case!"

"Poisoned, we seem to be poisoned, what kind of poison is this?" At this moment, this black aura lingered on everyone, not only from the people of the King Zong, but even from the Moon Demon Clan. In the middle of the world, this black aura also rose up. As soon as this black aura emerged, everyone felt

When the soul was dizzy, the Saint Yuan in the body was being corroded by it.

The people of the Moon Demon Race were shocked. When this black aura entered their bodies, they didn't even know, and they had a feeling that this black aura was actually very similar to the aura of their Demon Race.

If it weren't for the same kind of problem on the other side of the human race, they even thought they had been calculated by the human race.

The forces like Zhan Wangzong also had the same idea.

"No, the Saint Yuan in my body is weakening, and the soul is beginning to weaken. This black aura is corroding the Saint Yuan and soul in our body. If this continues, we will all be in danger."

The two sides looked at each other with horror in their hearts.

Among all the people, only You Qianxue and Daowang Muzhifeng were not affected by this black aura, but even so, they couldn't help being surprised when they saw this scene.

And this sudden accident instantly detonated the already tense valley.

"Do it!"

The Sovereign of the King of War directly roared, leading many people of the human race, and instantly killed the moon demon race.

boom! In an instant, the battle between the two parties detonated instantly.

Chapter 3408: Too bloody

"Buyee, don't you make an array?"

At the moment of action, the Sovereign of the King of War immediately shouted coldly at the people of the Buyi tribe, and at the same time, the Sovereign of the King of War and the masters of the King of War, turned into battle formations, and killed them towards the people of the Moon Demon Race.

"Jie Jie Jie, you all of us Void Bandits, just wait with me today and take a good devil's life."

A group of masters rushed out from the crowd of Void Bandits instantly, and shot at the people of the Moon Demon Race like lightning.

Although they didn't know what the black aura was, they could feel the dizziness and the corroded Saint Yuan in their minds. While furious in their hearts, they naturally wanted to start the battle early.

Otherwise, once too many Saint Yuan is corroded by this black aura, no one can guarantee that there will be an accident.

In an instant, countless humans and demons fought together instantly.

boom!

Among the demons, several powerful figures came out, lingering in the power of the terrifying demons, and instantly fought with the Sect Master of the Battle King, the Saint Lord of Dark Bat and others.

Boom boom boom!

The forces of the two sides collided, and a weird force of the demon race lingered away, making the attack of the king of the warlord and others instantly fell into the air, as if hitting in the air, it was impossible to attack these demons. Body.

"Huh? What kind of power of the Demon Race is this?" The Sovereign of the Battle King and others were secretly surprised. In order to make a quick battle, he brought the masters of the Battle King Sect to display the Battle King Array as soon as he came up. The purpose was for the first time. Inflicted heavy damage on the opposing demons and gained an advantage, but he did not expect that the strength of the opposing party would have withstood their attack for the first time, which shocked the Zhan Wang Sect Master.

Not only the Sovereign of the War King, but the Dark Bat Holy Master and many other void bandits were also taken aback. In the entire valley, although there are a lot of people of the Demon Race, in fact, they have the absolute upper hand. It is normal. Next, they violently shot, enough to beat each other in a hurry.

But in the end, the opponent seemed to have been prepared. The moment they took action, they formed a terrible defense of devil energy, and the devil energy was transformed into a barrier. These demon energy was like moonlight, and they were extremely soft. The forces' attacks were all resisted.

The demons actually didn't have a single fallen.

"Huh." Where the Moon Demon Clan was located, the leading expert sneered, hum, his body haunted the terrible Moon Demon power, and double horns grew on his head, huh, his body shook silently, instantly He broke into the battle kingzong team, his hands suddenly had monster-like sharp claws deep in his hands, and flesh wings appeared on his back. With a chuckle, he tore apart several disciples of the battle kingzong.

"what!"

In the screaming screams, these disciples of the War King Sect burst open instantly, dripping with blood, and the essence of their bodies was thrown into the void. Their bodies were slammed into their hands by the masters of the demon clan of this month, and they chewed squabblingly. .

He was actually gnawing on the body of the disciple of the King of War, and even some disciples of the King of War before he died, immediately screamed and struggled violently.

This scene is too * and violent.

Fighting in the heavens and refining the origin are actually not a minority, but they are only refining the origin of the holy origin in the opponent's body, as well as the understanding of the rules of heaven, but like the moon demon, it directly eats the flesh and blood. , So many people feel nauseous, and even feel like vomiting.

This is really abnormal.

The actions of the Moon Demon tribe completely angered all the masters of all races, all of them violently attacked, killing the Moon Demon tribe frantically.

But after the master of the moon demon clan hit, he instantly returned to the team and immediately merged into the moon demon formation, booming, countless attacks fell, and the moon demon formation was distorted, but it could not be torn apart.

boom!

It seems that they have suffered too much damage. This Moon Demon Formation burst open, but the lack turned into small formations, led by their respective Moon Demon Clan masters, and confronted with the masters of the major forces. The valley was instantly It's a mess.

"Damn, what kind of demon is this person who will still use formations, * it, otherwise, no matter how strong these demons are, how can they be opponents to so many of us?"

The Sovereign of the King of War became angry from embarrassment. Although they seem to be suppressing the demons at present, they have not made any achievements. If this continues, no one knows what will happen next.

"Buyi, haven't you set up a big formation yet?"

Sovereign of the King of War anxiously spread the voice.

"Please continue to resist for a while, my Buyi will be fine soon."

Bukka, head of the Buyi clan, said in a deep voice.

"Faster."

Sovereign of the King of War lied.

However, the actions of the Buyi tribe also caught the attention of the Moon Demon people at this time. It seemed that they knew that the human race had to set up a large formation here. The leader of the Moon Demon tribe's face sank, and he sternly shouted: "Take hands, never let these human races. Lay down a big array."

Boom boom boom!

The master of the Moon Demon Race who had been defending was immediately killed.

The expressions of the Sovereign of the War King and the others changed. The methods of this Demon Race were extremely strange. Several people could form a formation. It seemed that they merged into a formation. This was difficult to kill. If they really destroy Bouyi If they want to kill these demons, the difficulty will definitely increase greatly.

"Stop them."

Sovereign of the King of War shouted immediately.

There was no need for the Sect Master of the Battle King to speak, all the major forces on the scene went crazy and killed them, and You Qianxue and the Sword King Mu Zhifeng were naturally among them.

At this time, the two of them would naturally not stand idly by.

kill!

You Qianxue's eyes were cold and sharp, and the power of the moonlight lingered in her body, and a sharp sword suddenly appeared in her hand. The sharp sword was like water, slamming towards a master of the moon demon clan.

The master of the Demon Race of that month showed a smirk, and felt the cultivation base of the Holy Master You Qianxue, but he was not panicked at all. He was about to give You Qianxue a backhand, and saw that the sharp sword in You Qianxue's hand unexpectedly Torn the moon demon power of its moon demon clan, slashed into its body abruptly.

"what!"

This month the demon master screamed, and the body was torn apart by You Qianxue's sword. The demon blood spewed out instantly. It suddenly looked at You Qianxue in horror. Obviously, it was unexpected that You Qianxue could tear it apart. The power of the moon demon, in its anger, it was about to turn around and leave in a hurry.

But the sword king Mu Zhifeng on the side has been guarding You Qianxue, how could it be allowed to escape? At the moment it was injured, the sword king Mu Zhifeng roared sharply, and a mighty sword aura was like the sky pillar of the ocean, abruptly splitting down, tearing the master of the moon demon in an instant.

In the void, countless blood of the Demon Race was splashed, and a frightened Demon Race soul rose into the sky, shouting at the other masters of the Moon Demon Race: "Help me!"

Chapter 3409: Power of Yin

At the same time, it was about to flee in horror, but before it could escape, a terrible cold power swept over it, and this cold cold power carried the most terrifying power in the world, directly enveloping the soul. , With a puff, the soul of the master of this month's demon clan was instantly wiped out and turned into nothingness.

"what?"

This sudden scene stunned everyone in the valley in an instant.

The forces such as the Battle King Sect, as well as the masters such as the Moon Demon Race, all looked at You Qianxue and the Blade King Mu Zhifeng in shock and anger.

This is the first person of the Moon Demon Race to fall so far.

"This woman has such a pure aura, what she cultivates is definitely not a normal exercise."

Sect Master Zhanwang's gaze flickered, and a hint of greed appeared in his eyes. He was quite impressed with You Qianxue and Daowang Muzhifeng. Before, he only paid attention to Daowang Muzhifeng, a master of the late saint master, but he did not expect that You Qianxue beside him was unexpectedly. So strong.

Even he could not cause much harm to these demons, but the woman who was only at the mid-term Saint Master's cultivation level actually killed a demons, although it was not the top master of the demons. But it is enough to explain a lot of things.

Suddenly, the Zhanwang Sect Master was ready to move.

"What? Unexpectedly that Wu Danzun is so strong this day?"

Condemning the divine thief, the eagle-falcon man was also shocked. He knew how strong these demons were. Even though he had just broken through the late-stage holy lord, he wanted to kill these demons with extremely high difficulty. Unexpectedly, You Qianxue succeeded.

"Lao San, this is what you call the Tianwu Danpu people, how many people are not afraid of?"

Beside this eagle-falcon man, stood a stalwart black-clothed man. This man had a cold, murderous look and looked at the eagle-falcon man coldly.

Being stared at by his gaze, the falcon man suddenly felt his scalp numb, and his whole body felt a needle prick.

"Big brother, I don't think this person can be a mid-term saint master, so..." the eagle man said in fear.

This black-clothed man is the master who condemns the * thief, and is also a well-known figure among the eighteen thieves in the void. Others don't know the terribleness of this black-clothed man, but as the third master who condemns the * thief, the falcon man's treatment of his elder brother It's terrible, and the understanding is clear.

This person is cruel, not only cruel to others, but also cruel to himself, as long as he is stared at, even the second brother and him will have nightmares.

"So what?" The black-clothed man's eyes were cold: "It's no wonder that the second child and the old man Huang Yun have listened to you and haven't come back yet. In my opinion, I am afraid that the old man and the old man Huang Yun have already been murdered."

The black man said coldly.

"This...impossible, right?"

The eagle-falcon man was shocked: "Although this person is strong, he is only the mid-term saint master. She was able to kill the people of the demon race before, just because her power is extremely special and can break through the people of the demon race. Her devilish defense, the real killer of the demon clan was actually the late-stage saint master swordsman next to her. Second brother and Huang Yunsou were both late-stage saint masters, and with so many people, how could they be attacked by them? After they discovered the strategy, with the strength of the second brother, should he be able to escape?"

"Huh, should? Then tell me, why hasn't the second child appeared yet?" The black man snorted coldly.

"This...maybe, maybe it's not necessarily because the second brother got lost."

After saying this, the falcon man felt cold all over.

"Lost?" The black-clothed man sneered and looked at the eagle-falcon man coldly, "A late-stage holy lord will get lost? Would you believe it for you? Humph, you said before, this person is just next to the alchemist in Tianwu Danpu No matter the person, but even this woman is so strong, how could the alchemist in Wudanpu that day be simple?"

The falcon man was shocked. Indeed, what the eldest brother said made sense.

"Hi, brother, if this is the case, since these two people have appeared here, it means that the alchemist in Wudanpu should have also come to this secret that day. Could it be that that person has entered the passage of inheritance? No, in case. We were passed down by the alchemist in Wudan shop that day, so are we in danger?"

The falcon man suddenly panicked.

The alchemist's alchemy attainments of Tianwu Danpu alchemist, he knows very well, that is the top alchemist who can refine the heavenly * pill, in case he gets the inheritance of the alchemy power here, then...

Unexpectedly, as soon as his voice fell, the black-clothed man sneered and said coldly: "The pharmacist at Wudanpu did enter here that day, but if he had inherited it, it would be impossible!"

"Why is this?" The eagle man was puzzled.

"Idiot, don't you use your brain? I really don't know why I made you the third master of the thief." The man in black snorted coldly, "If you guessed correctly, the black breath on us should be before. Before the test channel was contaminated, I suspected that it might be the means of the demon people, but now that the demon people are also caught in the black atmosphere, then there is only one possibility, that is, the black aura on our body is in It was contaminated during the test of such a secret realm alchemy."

"This thing can poison our souls and corrupt our sacred origin. If I'm not wrong, it must be the powerful means of this ancient alchemy. This person has laid such tricks. Do you really think it is to find a descendant for yourself? I suspect that this mystery is simply the trap of the power of the elixir. We test the channel and are planted with poisonous gas, and the inheritance channel, I don't know what traps we will face. It is estimated that the alchemists who entered the inheritance channel have already The eaten ones don't even have the bones left, and they still want to pass on.

The falcon man suddenly woke up, and what the eldest brother said was indeed reasonable.

I have to say that the master of condemning the thief has strong vision and means. Through clues, he has already analyzed the truth of the matter.

"Big brother, then... what shall we do?" The eagle man panicked.

"What can I do? The cold, the most urgent task is to deal with the demons first. I always think that this demons can come here, it is very problematic." The condemned thief master frowned, "As for this woman, wait for the opportunity to look back. Let's take a look at what this person is like? But don't worry, the people of the King of War Sect are more hypocritical than us, and the old thing of the King of War Sect Master, I am afraid I don't know what the idea is."

At this time, the Sovereign Lord of the War King glanced at You Qianxue greedily, suppressed the greed in his heart, and shouted to everyone present: "Everyone, if you see, this Demon Race can also be killed. You follow me. Kill the enemy together."

boom!

Suddenly, the Sovereign of the King of War brought a lot of masters to kill again.

Among the Moon Demon Clan, Chi Yan couldn't help being frightened when he saw this scene: "I said a long time ago, that guy is a devil's woman, how could it be simple."

Chapter 3410: Don't mess with me

"These Moon Demon Clan people are not good at provoke, and they have to provoke the devil's woman. Isn't this looking for death?"

Chi Yan felt chills in his heart, and sweating all over his body: "Fortunately, I saw the opportunity quickly and did not expose myself. However, now that You Qianxue has killed the people of the Moon Demon Clan, the people of the Moon Demon Clan will definitely not give up. The people of the Moon Demon Clan were killed, and the demon knew about it. Then, isn't it dangerous for me and Demon Li?"

Thinking of You Qianxue's end and the anger of Qin Chen that he was about to face, Chi Yan couldn't help but shudder.

Sure enough, as Chi Yan had expected, seeing his clan members be killed by You Qianxue, the master of the Moon Demon clan was instantly furious.

"Damn it, dare to kill my people from the Moon Demon Race, come up with me and kill these two races, no, I will smash them into pieces and eat them little by little."

Suddenly, a few masters of the Moon Demon clan shouted angrily, leading their subordinates, and furiously killed You Qianxue and Dao Wang Mu Zhifeng.

"Young lady." The sword king Mu Zhifeng's eyes suddenly condensed, and he said nervously. This time, there are two late-stage holy masters in the hands of the Moon Demon Clan master.

You Qianxue's eyes were cold, but she didn't panic at all. In fact, she didn't worry about herself at all, and now she was more worried about Qin Chen.

"Face the enemy."

You Qianxue said coldly, facing the Demon Race, how she could shrink back.

However, before she could take action, she heard a voice from unknown place: "This is dangerous. Get out of here right away, leave the scope of the battle, don't get entangled with the people of the Moon Demon Race, go right away."

This voice, with anxiety, gave You Qianxue a familiar feeling, and it reverberated directly in her mind. When she came back to her senses, the voice had disappeared.

"Huh? Who is it?"

You Qianxue was startled, her eyes flashed across the crowd, searching everywhere.

Who was it, who was letting her go, and this voice gave her a rather familiar feeling. It seemed that she had heard it somewhere before, but no matter how she thought about it, she couldn't remember who it was.

Which voice in the heavenly realm gave her this ancient sense of familiarity?

"Young lady, what's wrong with you?"

Sword King Mu Zhifeng felt that something was wrong with You Qianxue, and hurriedly asked.

"I'm fine. Someone sent us a voice message just now, saying that there is danger here." You Qianxue said solemnly.

"Transferring let us leave? Is it the young master?" The sword king Mu Zhifeng guessed in an instant, but in an instant, he rejected it. If it were the young master, the young lady would not have this expression.

But besides the young master, who else cares about the young lady?

Isn't it a member of the demons?

"Mo zu?" You Qianxue was shocked for an instant. The person called these demon races the moon demon race, but among the major forces, no one knows what race the opposite demon race is, so how does the other party know of.

Could it be...

You Qianxue suddenly raised her head and looked into the demons.

Except for the demons, the major forces here have no idea what race these demons are. Is it true that the demons are reminding themselves? Recalling the feelings before, You Qianxue vaguely felt a hint of cold power in that voice, which seemed to be very similar to the power of the Demon Race.

do not care.

You Qianxue glanced at the chaotic battlefield. At this time, it was obviously impractical for her to find someone who transmitted the sound. Moreover, it was impossible for her to escape, not to mention that she would have to wait for Qin Chen, even if Qin Chen was not there. , In front of this demons, how can she run away directly?

Moreover, this valley is still closed, where can she escape?

"kill!"

Thinking of this, You Qianxue said in a cold voice, and greeted the master who had killed the Moon Demon Race.

"Damn, this dead woman is so stupid, let her run and she won't run, don't mess with me."

Chi Yan hid among the demons. Before You Qianxue's patrolling gaze, he was frightened and scared. He didn't dare to show his head. He thought You Qianxue would leave directly after listening to his warning. Who ever thought that the other party would ignore it. .

"Obviously you are looking for death by yourself, I warned you, there will be problems later, it is best that the demon not trouble me, alas..."

Chi Yan sighed, feeling very depressed, thinking that he was so arrogant and domineering among the demons, how to see this woman is like seeing the nemesis.

Boom!

You Qianxue and the people of the Moon Demon clan fought each other, and the masters of other forces immediately saw it, and they surrounded them. Now You Qianxue can cause harm to the people of the Demon clan, and naturally, You Qianxue cannot easily die.

Suddenly the two sides were in a big battle, and no one could win it in a short time.

While in the battle, You Qianxue still remembered the person's reminder before, letting herself leave the fighting range, saying that it was dangerous, what does this fighting range mean?

The opponent should also know that this valley cannot be left easily. Why did you let yourself leave the combat area?

You Qianxue looked towards the edge of the battlefield.

At this moment, countless Buyi people have surrounded the battlefield, and a mighty array of light bursts out of their bodies. The power of a terrifying array of light began to rise. Those demon people are crazy to attack the Buyi people. , And people from several major forces desperately resisted.

Puff puff!

The blood flew across, in order to resist the people of the Demon Clan and kill the people of the Buyi Clan, several major forces instantly fell a lot of masters.

"Buka, how long will it take you?"

The Sect Master of the Battle King roared, his eyes were already red, and his Battle King Sect had already lost many masters.

"Soon."

The head of the Buyi tribe, Bukka, took the expert of the Buyi tribe. His body continued to shine, a terrifying murderous intent, and then haunted. As soon as this murderous intent appeared, everyone in the valley felt a trace of heartbeat, the killing of the Buyi tribe. The formation is extremely terrifying, and can even pose a huge threat to the late Saint Lord.

"wrong!"

You Qianxue showed a suspicious look in her heart, because she vaguely felt that the aura of this killing array was not aimed at the people of the Demon Race, but the people of several major forces in the valley.

How is this going?

She glanced away, and suddenly saw a disciple of the King of War was killed. The Demon Clan could clearly seize the opportunity to interfere with the Bouyei tribe's formation, but it actually stopped for a while, and then was hit by several major forces. The master stopped it.

Out of combat range...

At the same time, the sound of that person's warning continued to echo in You Qianxue's mind, making You Qianxue agitated and shocked in her heart.

"No, the Buyi people have already taken refuge in the demons, and they can't let them establish the formation."

You Qianxue let out a roar suddenly.

Her words shocked all the major forces present, what? The Buyi tribe has taken refuge in the demons, what is a joke?
