

Valkyrie 3441

Chapter 3441: Ten Thousand Poison Spirit Array

boom!

The blood-colored spear burst into the sky with blood. This scene was too shocking and caused an uproar, causing a great earthquake in the heavens.

This method is disgusting, but it is also frightening. How can the precious weapon of the Venerable be able to stop it?

It gathers power, and the **** halo covers the sky and the sun, as if the world is weeping blood.

"what!"

Before the magic spear was pierced out, Qin Chen felt an endless wave of murderous intent, and his body was about to burst open, being firmly locked.

He had a feeling that if he only relied on the origin of time this time, he would probably not be able to dodge it.

"Do you really think there is no means? You want to kill me, and be prepared to die."

Qin Chen yelled, and he said madly, knowing that it is not a way to continue to avoid it. Sooner or later, he will be killed. He has to resist to gain a ray of life. The killing intent on his body is unprecedentedly strong. After arriving in the heavens, he is still number one. It was so miserable this time.

He no longer dodges, standing proudly on the edge of the virtual sea, with indifferent eyes, and is about to explode the most gorgeous counterattack.

"What is he saying?"

In the picture, people can see that Qin Chen stopped his fleeing figure, roaring, and the voice rang out, causing an uproar.

"He wants to resist? God, don't run at this time and wait for death?"

Everyone was crazy and couldn't understand, looking at the picture, they sighed.

I have to say that at this time, they felt the same way. Qin Chen, a holy lord of the human race Tianjiao, was chased and killed by a demon lord, so desperate, the other party even urged the lord's treasure, thinking in empathy, everyone's heart anger.

This is too bullying.

But even if you are angry again, at this time, running away is the only option. Staying and resisting is the act of looking for death. Doesn't this guy understand?

Many people were yelling, letting Qin Chen escape, don't resist, there might be a glimmer of life, many people from all over the heavens were praying for Qin Chen.

It's a pity that their voices can't be transmitted, and their strength can't be transmitted. They can only watch Qin Chen as a child, roaring at a giant.

"Huh? Want to resist and prepare me to die? Are you worthy?"

The demon veteran smiled, his blood-colored eyes with indifference, no trace of emotion, as if looking at a dead person, no, it should be said that he was looking at a dead person. In his eyes, Qin Chen was already dead.

"The origin of time!"

"All Souls Poison Array!"

Suddenly, Qin Chen roared and buzzed, and endless chains of order suddenly surged between the heavens and the earth. Under the feet of the Demon Race Demon Venerable, strange and cold arrays of light suddenly lit up. These arrays of light were diffused from nowhere. , Like a nebula, instantly enveloping this square of heaven and earth, blooming with brilliant divine light.

"what is that?"

"Great formation, when did this person set up a great formation here?"

The picture passed by the lens is very vague, but everyone vaguely saw the endless void on the Void Sea, and the lights under the Demon Lord's feet lit up. These lights were complicated and obscure, with the glory of the avenue, soaring into the sky. Up.

This made everyone horrified and felt inexplicable. When is there a big formation in this world?

boom!

The runes of the avenue rise like a waterfall. This formation is too vast, covering the sky and the sun, concealing the brilliance of the Demon Venerable Demon Race, the terrifying array of light lingers around the world, this large formation looks like the naked eye. , Can feel the vastness of it, it is very powerful.

"Later Saint Main Formation, even stronger!"

Someone exclaimed, from the rune Daoguang rising from this formation, they could see the clues, understand the level of this big formation, could not help but exclaim.

"Hey, where did the great formation come from?"

Everyone was puzzled, how could there be a big formation on the Xuhai Sea, if there was one, they would have known it long ago.

"No, it's the holy lord of the human race, who was walking around in this world before, and it turned out to be a big formation."

Suddenly, someone exclaimed, and everyone was shocked. Indeed, when Qin Chen was chased and killed, he kept walking around the virtual beach. Many people were puzzled. I don't know why Qin Chen didn't escape. Now I want to come. , It turns out that the opponent is setting up a large array in secret.

hiss!

Everyone fainted and felt that their brains were not enough. Is this kid crazy? At this time, even thinking of arranging an array to target the Demon Race Demon Venerable, but that Demon Race Demon Venerable and all those who watched in the heavens were not aware of it. This method is against the sky.

In such a short period of time, a top-level holy master array was arranged. This method shocked everyone. This is simply... the supreme array master, who is this person? Is it some heir to Tian's work? Or is it a secret descendant of a certain top refining power or formation power?

People couldn't calm down anymore and talked about it, and the inner shock was beyond words.

At the same time, they are also anxious. Although they don't know who this young holy lord is,... it's too reckless. If you don't escape at this time, they are actually setting up a formation, are they afraid that they will not die fast enough?

The saint master formation is indeed terrible. As a bloom, the vastness can even be wiped out by the later saint masters, but who is the opponent? Demon Race Demon Venerable, although this large formation is terrifying, how can it kill a Demon Venerable Master? Sovereign, transcend the way of heaven, it is impossible for this great formation to bring them a lore.

boom!

In the large array, countless arrays of light lingered into murderous intent, swept over the Demon Race Demon Sovereign, and contained terrible poisonous lights in it. This is a poison array. Qin Chen displayed the Heavenly Poison Pill Sovereign Inheritance. One of the top poison arrays in it must target the opponent.

"Huh? Unexpectedly, you are still a master of formation, huh? This formation is also poisonous. If the deity didn't guess wrong, it was the formation of the Poison Pill that day, your kid actually got the ancient Sky Poison Pill. Inheritance, God helped me, it seems to kill you, this time the reward is greater than I thought."

The figure of this Demon Race Demon Lord floats and sinks in the formation, and the endless poisonous light lingers, but it can't break his defense at all. The Lord, the law of detachment, is it so easy to be trapped and poisoned?

His body shook, and the boundless devilish energy soared into the sky, and the entire large formation burst open, making a crackling sound, like a spider web, fragile, to be torn, and powerfully escaped.

"Who said I wanted to kill you?"

Qin Chen's gaze was fierce, a terrifying divine rainbow burst into his pupils, and a soul eye opened at the center of his eyebrows. At this critical moment, a fierce soul impact was shot.

"Heaven Soul Forbidden Technique!"

At the moment when the Demon Lord of the Demon Race was struggling, Qin Chen used the Heavenly Soul Forbidden Technique, and the origin of time and the magical powers of space were activated at the same time. The moment the world was stagnant in time and space, it was instantly submerged in the body of the Demon Venerable Demon Race.

Hum!

After the soul power entered the body of the Demon Race Demon Venerable, it exploded directly, and a violent roar resounded in the Demon Venerable Demon Race's mind.

Chapter 3442: Black matter

These shocks were extremely terrifying, and instantly caused the Demon Race Demon Venerable's mind to stagnate. At this moment, in Qin Chen's body, the sky-filling hammer suddenly glowed, and the sky-filling technique was operating.

"burst!"

With a stern shout, the Wanling Poison Array at the feet of the Demon Race Demon Venerable suddenly exploded, and a terrifying large array of fluctuations spread in an instant, erupting endless murderous intent.

Rumble!

The endless void tide sea is violent and violent, and the void is vanished. How terrible is the power of a top-level Holy Master to explode? Everyone in the heavens really saw it this time, enough to destroy the world.

"Want to explode the formation and kill the deity? You think too much!"

In just a moment, the Demon Sovereign of the Demon Race came to his senses, roaring fiercely, booming, his body shook wildly, endless explosions swept across his body, it turned out to be only the devilish energy that shook his body, and it was impossible to hurt him. To his physical body.

This is too strong. These explosions turned out to be just the demonic energy that shook his body surface. It was too frightening. Many people were desperate and deeply felt terrible.

Is this the Lord?

Venerable and strong, many ordinary people in the celestial realm have never seen one in their entire life, but now that they see it, they have unprecedented despair.

Everyone has seen Qin Chen's efforts, but the result has caused everyone to lose. With so much effort, they have not been able to cause any trouble to this demon clan demon lord. The difference between the lord and the holy lord is real. Is it really big?

"No, this Demon Qin Chen is very cunning. It is impossible for him to do this. He definitely has his purpose."

In a hidden place in the Void Tide Sea, two black figures lurked there, and they also saw the picture on the Void Sea through a certain way. It was Mo Li and Chi Yan Demon Lord.

When Qin Chen saw that Qin Chen didn't even have any effect on the explosion, Mo Li suddenly frowned and murmured.

Sure enough, as soon as his voice fell, he saw that in the picture, the Demon Race Demon Venerable faced the endless explosion, without any harm, stepped out in one step. When he was about to shoot, he saw the void around him, because of this The explosion of Fa directly collapsed, forming a whole piece of void cracks.

What is even more shocking is that when this void crack was spreading, it actually penetrated into the virtual sea on the side and connected with the virtual sea.

Hum!

Suddenly, in the void, a misty black substance penetrated out, along the cracks, into the collapse of this void, and permeated the demon demon.

"what?"

Everyone was shocked when they saw this scene. The black matter in the virtual sea was permeated, and everyone had scalp tingling. Is this intentional or unintentional?

"you....."

The face of the Demon Sovereign of the Demon Race also changed, and Xu Hai was unknown. He naturally knew that even among their Demon Race, there was a prestigious place, so how could he dare to touch it rashly.

boom!

He lingered around the demon light, and wanted to step out in one step to escape the collapse of the void, but the black matter diffused too fast. In an instant, he entered the collapse and swept toward the demon demon, as if there was life. Like.

"roll!"

The Demon Race Demon Lord roared and boomed, and released a terrible demon energy all over his body. He wanted to repel the black matter and resist the other side's haunting. But what shocked him was that his demon energy had no effect on the black matter, and the black matter was permeated. Going out, like a cloud of smoke, is ethereal and invisible, directly enveloping the Demon Race Demon Venerable, filling the entire void and collapse.

In the heavens, everyone was stunned, staring at this scene in a daze, their eyes widened, wanting to see what the consequences of that Demon Venerable Demon Venerable would have.

The Demon Race Demon Sovereign was also furious, stepped out of the void and collapsed in one step, and the blood-colored pupils burst into divine rainbows, scanning the body, the infinite demonic energy in the body rioted, like stars exploding in the body, terrible power rushed out, trying to get Rejected the black matter contaminated on the body, terrifying inexplicable.

However, there was no movement, and the black matter seemed harmless. After it fell on the Demon Race Demon Venerable, it quickly dissipated without leaving any traces, like the smoke disappeared, and it was born without any consequences.

There has never been an unknown.

"It's okay?"

Everyone in the heavens was stunned. The Void Sea was spread so terribly that everyone thought that after the Demon Race Demon Venerable was haunted by the Void Sea matter, what would happen is unknown, but now everyone understands that there is a little black matter. How could it hurt a master of the devil's rank?

This is the demon veteran, who transcends the existence of heaven. If it is obliterated by these black substances, it will be terrifying.

Moreover, everyone also wakes up. Although some of the top humans of the human race's top powers fell in the Void Sea, there are also Venerables who walked out of the Void Sea alive. It was only in their later years that they were unknown and died inexplicably. It can be seen that this Void Sea was not it will fall upon entering, but for another reason.

"It's a pity, the young Holy Lord will eventually die."

Everyone sighed, and countless people shook their heads. Qin Chen actually smashed the Demon Race Demon Venerable. Everyone was amazed. However, the ending still cannot be changed. In the face of absolute strength, any conspiracy and tricks are of no use.

Qin Chen was also disappointed. The horrible Xuhai in the rumor was useless? His eyes were very eagle and bird, and he was crazy.

"you wanna die!"

boom!

Although the black matter of Xuhai never killed the Demon Race Demon Venerable, he was very angry because he was frightened. The blood-colored eyes burst out with endless rays of anger, and the blood-colored spear in his hand pierced instantly. .

The terrifying void directly cracked a blood-colored crack. The magic spear was too fast, and it appeared in front of Qin Chen in an instant. He wanted to pierce him, penetrate directly here, and shatter it on the spot.

"Wan Dao Qingjin God Furnace!"

Qin Chen roared. At the critical moment, he urged the ten thousand azure sacred furnace, operated the Nine Star God Emperor Art, used the technique of patching the sky, originated the magical powers, and urged the ten thousand sacred azure furnace to the extreme, a palm-sized pill. The furnace appeared in the heavens and the earth. It was small at first, but under the urging of Qin Chen's Nine Star God Emperor Jue, a mighty blue light broke out, infinite runes flashed, and the heavenly poison entropy fire merged into the ten thousand azure gold furnace, urging it. To the extreme.

boom!

The magic spear was nailed to the ten thousand azure-gold sacred furnace, and it erupted with a piercing explosion. With a ding, the void exploded directly. The ten thousand azure-gold sacred furnace was blasted into the air. With a pop, Qin Chen's body was everywhere. Spouting blood, it flew upside down like a scarecrow, and flew over to the Xuhai Sea, almost rushing into the Xuhai.

He had broken bones all over his body, it was too miserable, and his body was about to burst on the spot.

In his body, the Immortal Eucharist, the Desolate Ancient Eucharist, the Empty Thunder Sword Body, the Moonlight Divine Body, the Wild Aura, etc., are constantly intertwined with various physiques and strengths to stabilize his body. Otherwise, it will be straightforward. It exploded and turned into powder.

Chapter 3443: Imaginary sea figure

Even so, Qin Chen was seriously injured, covered in blood, and could no longer withstand the second blow.

"Ahem!"

Qin Chen was coughing up blood, and all the internal organs in his body had been shattered. If it weren't for the suppression of many treasures in his Five Secrets, he would have been crushed by this blow, and nothing would be left.

But in the end, he still resisted, the power of origin was running, and his body stabilized and never burst.

However, his state is very bad, he can no longer bear any attacks, otherwise, he doesn't know what the consequences will be.

In the heavens, everyone saw this scene, they were all stunned, their chins were about to fall, and they trembled inexplicably, unable to believe what they saw.

That young holy master actually blocked it?

In the heavens, everyone is going crazy. A holy lord actually resisted the powerful attack of a venerable urging the venerable treasure. This kind of scene is so shocking that people's thinking is stagnated for an instant. I don't know what to do. How to express.

Is that human being?

Then, many people focused their attention on the blue pill furnace in front of Qin Chen. This pill furnace, which seems not to be large, is very ordinary floating in the lonely universe, but it haunts the blue light. It seemed that the sound of the Great Dao sang in the Brahma, and under the blow of that **** magic spear, he was unharmed, not even scarred.

Is that, the precious weapon? Except for the treasures of the Venerable, everyone could not think of any possibility that this cyan pill furnace could be safe and sound under the attack of the **** magic spear of the Demon Clan Demon Venerable. The ordinary Holy Lord Saint Soldier, under such a terrible attack, would have been long ago. It exploded.

Many people sucked in air-conditioning.

This young holy lord also has a precious treasure on his body? And it still looks like Dan furnace? He is a holy lord, where did he get his precious treasure?

"Well, this deity has forgotten. You got the inheritance of the Heavenly Poison Pill, and naturally you also got his precious treasure. This should be the Heavenly Poison Pill Zun's Ten Thousand Dao Qingjin Pill Furnace, known as the smelting of heaven and earth. , Can be considered quite famous, but this thing belongs to the deity today."

This Demon Clan Demon Lord stared at Qin Chen with **** eyes, first angry, but then sneered.

"Venerable treasure, with your current strength, you can't move it at all. I think you can resist it a few times."

The **** magic spear in the hands of the demon clan demon lord glowed again, and the blood was shining, as if dripping blood, it made people feel depressed, and the soul would be penetrated.

Many forces in the heavens shook and sighed. This person is still going to die. Although he has created countless miracles, he has led the Demon Race Demon Venerable into the Void Sea, planted a top-level formation, entrapped the opponent, displayed the Venerable weapon, and resisted the inevitable. Kill a blow.

However, these are just struggles before dying, and they can only make him live for a while. In the final analysis, he still wants to die.

The heroes end and the meteors fall, which is a pity.

"If you want to kill me, come on!"

Qin Chen's eyes were fierce and completely mad. At this moment, he knew that he could no longer keep it. At this moment, he could no longer withstand the previous blow.

In order not to expose himself before, Qin Chen didn't even use Zixiao's Dust Palace, and the Ten Thousand Worlds Demon Tree was even hidden, because he knew that once he was exposed, he would face the tracking of the entire heaven. But now, face it. Qin Chen no longer hides the mortal ending.

Hum!

Among the jade discs of good fortune in the universe, the magic tree of the ten thousand worlds began to bloom with infinite magic light, the mysterious rust sword was also buzzing, and the purple sky and the many sky fires were surging to the extreme. To show it all out.

Although Qin Chen didn't know whether these treasures could keep him alive, Qin Chen knew that if he kept hiding, he would die in the next moment and become some ashes in the universe.

"Qianxue, after a while, I will block the Demon Race Demon Venerable Moment. You take the Universe Good Fortune Jade Disc into the Void Sea and run right away." Qin Chen said to You Qianxue in the Universe Good Fortune Jade Disc.

"No, dust, I won't go."

You Qianxue said in fright, Boom, her body was shocked, and she was about to rush out of the Universe Good Fortune Jade Disk, but found that she could not go out at all, Qin Chen had already sealed the Universe Good Fortune Jade Disk.

You Qianxue's face suddenly changed, "Dust, what are you doing?"

"Qianxue, I'm sorry. Over the years, following me, you have suffered. I hope you live well. I'm sorry, I failed you." Qin Chen muttered, his voice calm, but with a sense of determination.

"No, Chen, let me out, I will fight with you, Chen, don't abandon me."

Qian Xue burst into tears and roared, she urged the water of Nine Extremes to rush out of the universe for good fortune jade disc, but under Qin Chen's blockade, she could not rush out at all and could only cry in pain.

"Boy, go to hell."

The Demon Clan Demon Sovereign sneered and moved again, rushing towards Qin Chen.

Qin Chen's eyes were cold and stern, the Ten Thousand Worlds Demon Tree was surging, and the power in his body was urged to the extreme by him, and he was about to fight to the death. He knew that he was bound to die for a high probability, but he had to find a chance for Qian Xue and the others.

However, just as Qin Chen surged all the power in his body, the Nine Star God Emperor Jue urged to the extreme, and when he was about to burn his life, a panic happened.

A strange wave appeared in the virtual sea, breaking the ancient tranquility, like ripples spreading out, suddenly spreading over a million miles, sweeping all the people here on the edge of the virtual sea.

"What's the situation? My soul... is going to explode!"

"What is this? There seems to be something moving in the virtual sea."

"God, what did I see?"

In the distance, I was waiting and watching. They used magic skills and captured them. Then they broadcasted it to the masters of all races in the heavens. They were inexplicably horrified and shivered inexplicably, as if they had suddenly come to the netherworld. , As if an inexplicable horror was about to be born.

The Demon Race Demon Sovereign and Qin Chen were also horrified. They were the closest to Xuhai, and felt that their souls were about to collapse. It was too terrifying. A terrible aura was surging, spreading, and enveloped the place.

In the dark void sea, a mighty totem faintly emerged. This totem is shining with divine light, and in the totem, a figure rises silently, inexplicably strange, this person is completely misty, unable to distinguish his body shape, even to see No male or female, unusually weird, terrifying, with breathtaking energy.

Perhaps, it's not energy fluctuations, it's more like a movement technique, very regular, alternating light and dark along the weird totem, and when it resounds in the hearts of everyone, it's like a thunder and thunder bombarding the holy lord's mouth and nose. Bleeding!

Finally, it came out!

This is a misty figure, with his back facing everyone, standing on a vast totem, running the totem magic by himself, emerging from the dark and undetectable virtual sea, and coming to the virtual sea.

Chapter 3445: Gray palm

It didn't turn around, as if it had no special consciousness, and didn't pay attention to the people here at all, it was just puffing up all kinds of free energy in the universe.

All over its body, black matter is surging, and under the dimming of the totem, it is swallowing these black matter, and it is constantly coming in and out of the body. The scene is too scary. No one knows who this person is. How it appeared.

"This kind of exercise...Why do I feel similar to the Nine Star God Emperor Art I practiced?"

On the Xuhai Beach, Qin Chen shook wildly, because he felt that he and this figure seemed to have some resonance. The totem was extremely strange, with unpredictable power above the law, which made Qin Chen take a look and think. There is a road roaring in the middle.

What made Qin Chen feel even more terrifying was that Qin Chen felt the aura on this figure actually resonated with the Nine Star God Emperor Art he had cultivated, as if from the same source.

how can that be?

Qin Chen's eyes widened. It was rumored that it was a forbidden place in the heavens. In the void sea that even the venerable could not break into, a figure soared out of it, cultivating a certain totem technique. This was terrifying and unbelievable.

"What kind of exercise is this? Who is this person and how can he be in the void?"

In the distance, many masters of all races who observed here were about to explode their scalp, and they got goosebumps all over their bodies. They didn't even dare to breathe, all of them were inexplicably frightened.

These people were shocked, their minds were trembling, and their bodies were trembling.

It was too shocked. They struggled to escape and left this dangerous area, but found that they could not escape, as if they were imprisoned in this void and suppressed inexplicably.

Moreover, they were all vomiting blood, trembling all over, uncontrollable, resonating and trembling in the totem rhythm of the vague figure.

That totem was extinguished, it seemed to arouse the roar of the avenue of heaven, and even the avenue of heaven was being affected and changed by it.

This is horrible.

"How can there be a living person in the Void Sea? This is the Jedi of Life, the top forbidden land in the heavens. How can there be a figure? Who is this?"

Through the screen spread to all parts of the heavens, the heavens, countless people were shocked, unbelievable,

The Void Sea has always been a restricted area of life. Since the exploration of the top human races and the fall of many venerable masters, no one dared to enter it anymore. Everyone believed that it was a restricted area of life. , Nothing, but now, there is actually a figure emerging, and it is vomiting black matter in the virtual sea.

This scene is so amazing that the whole heaven is about to explode.

Many top-level powers were stunned and muttered to themselves, especially some of the powers that knew the terrible sea of the void were even more shocked and couldn't help trembling. They had a feeling that the world seemed to be undergoing a major change.

"Who is this? Venerable? No, Venerable does not seem to have such a terrible aura, and why is the aura so similar to the Nine Star God Emperor Jue!"

Qin Chen was throbbing, excited, and shaking. What he practiced was the Nine Star God Emperor Art, which he had obtained in the forbidden land of the gods. This kind of technique also shines in the heavens, but the heavens fight, Most of the people inciting the law, but now, he actually saw someone in the virtual sea practising this kind of exercise, and formed a terrible totem war pattern.

How is this done?

The same is the Nine Star God Emperor Art, but Qin Chen feels that the opponent's skill is much deeper than his own body. This person has already integrated this skill into himself, grasping the most profound and mysterious essence of it.

He was also shocked, who on earth is this, why did he practice the Nine Star God Emperor Jue, and what is the connection with the technique he obtained? Did you also go to Tianwu Continent back then? Then why are you living in the void now?

It is a pity that this person is located in the Void Sea, too far away, and too vague. Its figure is covered by countless Chaos Qi, and the black matter floats and sinks. Only a humanoid creature can be seen with its back facing them.

He even didn't even know if the opponent was a human race.

At first, Qin Chen was also very uncomfortable. Not only did his seven orifices bleed, but his body was cracking, and he was about to collapse. He was horrified by the figure's strength, it was terrifying, it was simply unmatched power!

It is much more terrifying than the demon demon.

Then, as he ran the Nine-Star Divine Emperor Art and maintained that rhythm, Qin Chen found that his pressure was instantly reduced. Although his body was still uncomfortable, he was able to support it and could act. Moreover, at this time, The scene of that totem surfaced in his mind, floating and sinking, imprinted in his mind, although it was still vague, it really appeared.

Could it be that the nine-star **** emperor totem would appear at the end of the cultivation?

Qin Chen was shocked!

boom!

He felt his road roar and his soul was condensing, and the body that had been damaged and split before was repaired a little bit under this rhythm, which was amazing.

It should be understood that this is the wound that the Venerable blasted out. It is not simple to repair it. It must be done after a long period of time to wear away the power in it, and then repair it little by little. It even requires various sacred objects to replenish the body. The damage can be.

Just as the third master who condemned the thief broke through the late stage saint master in the secret realm and failed to be damaged, he could not be healed easily. Instead, he needed the Heavenly Dao Divine Pill of origin, which is also the case now in Qin Chen.

But now, his physical body is slowly healing under this kind of breath, although the speed is not fast, it still scares Qin Chen.

Moreover, Qin Chen saw that the Demon Race Demon Venerable was surging under the totem breath of the vague figure of Xu Hai. It seemed that he was also being suppressed, and he was shocked.

In fact, the Demon Venerable Demon Race's heart was shaking at this moment. After this fuzzy figure appeared, he opened his blood-colored pupils, and his blood-moon-like pupils bloomed with divine light. Unclear.

He only saw that in the endless black matter floating and sinking, the broken robes were revealed, which seemed to originate from the antiquity, too old, that decadent aura made him also horrified, but the aura that burst out was very strange. Shock eternal.

This is not right!

His eyes were cold, and he always felt that the figure in the Void Sea was a bit weird. If it were other times, he might enter the Void Sea to find out, and even find out the true face of the other party. But at this moment, he has been exposed for a long time, the top human race. The sage of the forces is already on the road, and it is the command of Lord Demon Ancestor to kill this young race, and he dare not rebel.

"dead!"

He exploded and shot the **** magic spear at Qin Chen, booming, the **** magic spear exploded and shot endless murderous intent, like a **** meteor, bursting out, to crush Qin Chen, complete the task, and leave here.

Chapter 3446: Was blown up

"God, what happened? The Demon Venerable Demon Race into the Void Sea and fight the mysterious powerhouse."

In the heavens, everyone was shocked, their eyes palpitated and surprised.

The creatures in the Void Sea do not distinguish between reality and reality, and are very ethereal, but before, they suddenly shot and captured the **** demon spear of the Demon Venerable Demon Race, triggering a battle. Is the opponent really here for that Demon Venerable?

Everyone was horrified and looked at the picture. At this time, the picture became very blurred due to the violent fluctuations, but everyone could still see that the terrible coercion was shining all over the universe, and the demon's demon was like a rainbow. Cracking the sky, the posture is too domineering.

At this moment, the martial artists of the whole heaven opened their eyes wide, not daring to blink, watching this peerless battle, especially the figure in the void sea, too mysterious, no one knew it, and they all wanted to know from that mysterious forbidden place Who is it that came out, and why can it appear in the virtual sea.

Virtual overseas.

The Demon Lord of the Demon Race furiously shot, his body towering towering, becoming extremely large, forming a tens of thousands of feet of law body, like a towering demon shadow towering in the sky, covering invincible.

He shot, trembling in the void.

boom!

That kind of breath is like the bursting of the cosmic sea, and the strongest energy is surging. You can see that the meteorites in Xuhai are very small compared with his body.

For example, when he opened his eyes, the blood-colored eyes would compare many meteorites, not only the light, but also the volume and energy, far surpassing them.

"Death to the deity!"

The Demon Race Demon Sovereign shot, shouted loudly, and dropped his palms, as if a black sky was collapsed. This kind of scene was too scary, and the black breath exploded, making many people horrified and unable to move their bodies.

In addition, he urged the devilish energy in his body to provoke the **** magic spear that was taken away by the fuzzy figure. This is his treasure, so powerful that he can't die. Otherwise, he will lose a big assassin.

The **** magic spear bloomed with blood. It was really magnificent. The **** light skyrocketed like a blood-colored sky pillar. It appeared in the void sea, trembling violently, trying to break free from the palm of the blurry figure in the void sea Pierce through.

boom!

Finally, the black palm fell, but the next moment, everyone was shocked and their expressions changed drastically, because the black palm like a sky curtain fell on that side of the virtual sea, facing the blurred figure, but at the critical moment, The power of the totem around the fuzzy figure suddenly glowed, like a Hetu Luoshu, blooming light, directly blocking the attack of the devil.

boom!

The endless magical energy boiled and exploded in the virtual sea, but it couldn't fall. The light of the totem did not move, standing forever, easily resisting everything.

Moreover, the fuzzy figure raised its head, and everyone only saw a pair of godless eyes appearing in the black matter, lifeless, staring at the Demon Venerable Demon Race. What kind of eyes are these? I couldn't see any life fluctuations, but it contained the general destruction of the universe. There was a terrible force surging. The figure squeezed the palm of the hand and made a bang. The magic spear that was originally bursting with blood suddenly made a cracking sound, above the blood spear. The runes quickly shattered, and the sound was very harsh.

what?

Everyone was shocked and unbelievable. Facing the demon lord's shot, this person didn't do anything, but the demon lord's attack did not cause it any harm.

The Demon Sovereign of the Demon Race was also shocked, and he felt an irresistible force on the body of this fuzzy figure.

not good!

He was shocked, and at the same time he felt that his precious treasure was cracking and disintegrating... It was terrible!

"Click!"

A dazzling blood burst, illuminating the central area of the virtual sea. People saw that the fuzzy figure smashed the blood-colored magic spear and grabbed a small blood-colored metal block from it. It was magic gold, which was shrinking sharply and fell into the blur. In the palm of the figure.

"what!"

The demons of the demon race were furious, his precious treasure was destroyed, and the loss was too great. This is his most treasure, a treasure he has sacrificed for many years. But now, the blood spear treasure is destroyed and the magic gold is seized. go.

"God, the precious treasure of the Demon Race Demon Sovereign was squeezed out, hiss, who is this fuzzy figure?"

Outside, everyone was stunned. It was a treasure of the Venerable, a treasure of the Demon Venerable, which was directly squeezed. The picture was so amazing that everyone could not believe their eyes. They were all trembling, and their hearts were chilling. Big things are going to happen.

"Who would have thought that there should be such a terrifying figure in the virtual sea?"

"Why did he appear? Does it have anything to do with the previous Human Race Tianjiao? Otherwise, why do you want to make a move?"

"Oh my God, why, isn't there no life in the virtual sea, it is known as the top forbidden land in the heavens, how can a strong person rush out today and directly squeeze the treasure of the demon demon!"

In the heavens, the major forces are clamoring, everyone is trembling, and the crowd is silent.

Everyone knows that the Demon Venerable Demon Venerable is bigger, and the other party can easily squeeze his treasure. It is definitely not an ordinary person, and it must be a character above the ordinary Demon Venerable.

That Demon Race Demon Venerable is in big trouble, and most of it will suffer.

Sure enough, shocking happened.

When the Demon Race Demon Lord roared, he was also retreating. Even if he was too reckless earlier, but now he understands everything. This vague figure is far stronger than he imagined, and it is not something he can deal with. The forbidden land of the heavens, virtual The sea is really terrible.

He lost the scarlet magic spear treasure, but he retreated faster, because he felt a crisis in his heart and wanted to flee here.

However, when it was late, the fuzzy figure rushed out of the virtual sea like a **** emperor soaring, and came towards him with a large swath of brilliant black light.

Huh!

The black matter blooms, like the roar of the virtual sea, sweeping out large swaths of black matter, stirring the night sky of the universe and the chaotic darkness.

boom!

The blurred figure shot, still unable to see his face, slapped a palm to the demon venerable, punched through the void, and made the universe tremble!

This is responding to each other.

puff!

Magic light splashed, and terrifying energy burst out!

At this time, a group of masters rushed to the periphery of Xuhai. These people took more powerful holy treasures to capture the pictures, and the clearer pictures spread out, shocking the warriors of all races in the heavens.

The main reason is that the Demon Sovereign of the Demon Race is standing on top of the sky, the body is too large, and the fuzzy figure surrounds the mighty totem, and the breath soars. At this time, it is also very tall and towering in the sky.

Therefore, even if they are far apart, they can still be captured.

Even so, there are still many mirror sacred treasures that exploded directly in the process of capturing the picture, even if the most powerful array pattern protects the mirror, they are still shaken by the aftermath.

"Oh my God, what did I see, the Demon Race Demon Venerable's chest was sunken and one arm was directly blown out?!"

People were shocked to find that the Demon Sovereign's body twisted as he struggled, and a star-like palm exploded directly, turning into endless blood and scattered. At the same time, his chest was sunken, deformed, and blurred by that. The figure slammed into nothing with one blow.

Chapter 3447: Dog chain

This scene is too horrible and makes people scalp numb, and a powerful demon is directly blown up, which is too shocking.

"what....."

The Demon Race Demon Lord roared, his body was tattered, and the rotten part was pierced by the palm of the fuzzy figure, bringing out the black blood that was unique to the Demon Race and splashing the starry sky.

"This is a powerful person who is above the realm of heaven. It is so tragic and strong. It is too terrible to be easily penetrated by people." The strong people all over the world were shocked.

Qin Chen, who was fleeing in secret, was stunned. It was unbelievable. The strength of this vague figure was terrifying and evil. It was not a majestic body. The body was sprayed with black matter, and even his face could not be seen clearly, but his strength was so rebellious. day!

Especially the totem power of his body was so terrifying that Qin Chen was shocked, and the power of the Nine Star God Emperor Art could still be used like this.

To everyone in the heavens, it was regrettable that this vague figure was always surrounded by a layer of mist, unable to see the true meaning, and even the race was not clear!

Moreover, after all, this place is near the Void Sea, where various mysterious rays and weird powers float, which are still very serious, blocking many images captured by the mirror holy treasure, which is very blurry.

"Damn it!"

The demon demon lord of the demon race retreated violently, with a frightened expression. He no longer had the arrogance and domineering at first, like a frightened quail, retreating frantically, his body shook violently, and he was running away.

But it's useless...

The fuzzy figure came straight up, the speed was too fast. In this world, the Demon Race Demon Venerable could not avoid him from chasing and killing him. In a flash, he came to him, and his gray palm came out. To pinch the head of the demon.

This posture is too wild and unacceptable.

"you wanna die!"

The Demon Lord roared, completely furious, and boomed. A terrifying aura suddenly rose in his body. A terrifying black power that was different from the power of the heavens rose up, surrounding the body of the Demon Lord, letting his breath It skyrocketed in an instant.

boom!

The black power surged, reflecting the stars of the universe.

"That is, the power of darkness!"

"The power of darkness possessed by the demons!"

"Damn it!"

Seeing this black power, everyone in the heavens was furious, and raised their heads in horror. As soon as this power appeared, the heavens and the earth were furious, and the heavens roared and wanted to reject each other.

Back then, it was precisely because of the fascination of this dark power that the demons betrayed the heavens and launched a war, which directly caused the heavens to be broken. Everyone in the heavens hated this power extremely.

"The deity will kill you."

The power of darkness lingered around his body, and this demon demon exalted roared and banged, slamming a punch under the entanglement of black power, the endless demon law in the blood-colored pupils surged, and it was about to fight back.

"Ok?"

After seeing the power of darkness, the fuzzy figure reacted for the first time since it appeared until now. It seemed to be a soft snort, which made people feel that he was alive.

boom!

This figure fell, the world burst, and the words were followed. The heavens roared and burst directly under his snort. His whole body was surrounded by the infinite totem, which was suddenly suppressed, and the black matter collided with the power of darkness. , Blasted a punch.

"what....."

People heard a tragic roar, even if they displayed the power of darkness, this demon demon was not the opponent of the opponent, and was beaten by the opponent, and the blood spurted wildly.

The Venerable Demon Race was finally completely frightened, backed frantically, and wanted to escape from here, but he could not escape at all. The infinite black matter blooming all over the fuzzy figure enveloped him and trapped his actions, making waves. After coming out, the Demon Race Demon Sovereign was punched through the body by that fuzzy figure ten times, and finally penetrated by a chain, and then dragged into the void sea, letting out a frightened and angry roar, this was his last long howl.

People saw that although the fuzzy figure was holding a chain, his body seemed to have a chain linking the virtual sea, as if trapped in the virtual sea, unable to go too far.

"It's so terrifying, the demon veteran was dragged into the void sea!"

"God, what did I see? A demon veteran was dragged away like a dog, God."

"Void Sea Monster, where did this come out?"

"Have you seen it? There seems to be a chain under the fuzzy figure. Could it be an ancient powerhouse imprisoned in the void?"

Many people are frightened and can't calm down, let alone them, but Moli is shrinking his neck and his lips are shaking, which does not match his usual style.

All of this happened between lightning and stone fire, and the battle ended abruptly. Everyone hadn't reacted yet, it was too fast!

puff!

In the Void Sea, black light rose up, and the fuzzy figure was holding the chain in his hands, dragging the Demon Venerable Demon Race in like a dog. He struggled painfully and screamed, but to no avail, the eyes of the Demon Venerable Demon were wide open. , But it is very empty, sinking into the virtual sea.

A generation of powerful demons was dragged into the virtual sea so quietly, shaking the heavens!

Although everyone has never seen his fate, everyone knows that being dragged into the void like this will definitely end in a miserable manner, and there will be no good results.

This is a Venerable Demon Race, he was so arrogant and overbearing before, but now he was beaten to death like this and dragged in directly.

Everything was too fast, the battle was over before everyone reacted!

Everyone from all over the heavens watched this scene in shock, not knowing what they were feeling, their scalp was numb, and their body was soft.

Although it should be exciting to see Venerable Demon Race being blown up, but now many people feel a little unnatural, because this is terrible. Rumor has it that the power of darkness of Demon Race is extremely terrifying. Extremely difficult to target.

But now, being directly suppressed by the opponent and dragged into the virtual sea, is the figure in the forbidden ground of the heaven so terrifying?

The news spread at an astonishing speed, and all parts of the heavens were boiled and noisy.

The East Heaven Realm, a hidden void.

A majestic figure was surrounded by terrible auras, the laws of the heavens appeared in the heavens and the earth, but he stepped under his feet and was above them. A series of inexplicable coercion swept away, suppressed so that the heavens could not be approached!

If Qin Chen was here, he would definitely know that this person was his arch enemy in the Eastern Heaven Realm, Palace Master Yaomie.

But at this moment, Palace Master Yaomie's eyes were horrified, looking at the picture in front of him, his heart was shaking.

"The ancestor of the devil corpse, unexpectedly died..."

His body was shocked, his face was very ugly, his heart was frightened, and he was very restless.

"Trouble now..."

Palace Master Yaomie frowned, "This ancestor of the demon corpse informed me that it was released in the Eastern Heaven Realm. It is rumored that he has taken the order of the top power of the Demon Race to come to the Void Tide Sea to do business. I did not expect to hunt down a human race. Tianjiao, who would have thought that he actually died here, how can I explain to the demons?"

Palace Master Yaomie had cold eyes, his whole body was surrounded by cold and cold power, and his eyes were fierce.

Chapter 3448: Had been expected

The fall of a Venerable Demon Race will definitely affect his position in the Demon Race. Of course, what shocked him even more was the scene in the Void Sea. The mighty scene gave him a strong shock.

"A powerful demon clan has fallen like this, so what is a half-step venerable me?"

His eyes were gloomy and cold, and he felt the vastness of the heavens and the mighty universe.

However, a more vigorous fighting spirit surged from him, venerable, just his starting point.

"Let's start with me stepping into the realm of the venerable. As for the demon race, huh, this time the demon prince appeared in the void tide sea, I am afraid that I have to deal with the inquiries of some top powers in the heavens. Knowing that it's the leak on my side, it's troublesome, but fortunately, the Demon Lord has fallen, and I've been prepared for it. It's almost impossible for the human race to find out that it's my leak. ."

Palace Master Yao Mie let out a cold snort and squinted.

"Recently, my Eastern Celestial Realm is not at peace. Even my Yaomie Mansion has killed many holy masters. It is very strange to ask Hantian and other forces. My Yaomie Mansion has been unable to gnaw off a bunch of trash. It seems that this seat has broken through to the deity. After you reach the realm, you can do it yourself. It won't be long before you can break through. Then you have to see how deep the water in the cold sky is..."

"And the Human Race Tianjiao who was chased by the Demon Venerable, why do I have a sense of fate? Time supernatural power? Is there anything to do with the source continent where the lower realm suddenly disappeared and it is rumored to have the origin of time?"

Palace Master Yaomie frowned, pondered for a long time, and shook his head slightly: "There should be no contact. The identity of this person is not clear to the ancestor of the demon corpse. It is rumored that the top existence in the demon clan ordered the killing. Even if the person in front of you is from the Source Continent, it is not enough to attract the attention of the top demon clan's existence. I should be careless."

Palace Master Yao Mie thought of this, and fell completely silent, just looking at the virtual sea in the picture, his heart couldn't keep calm.

At this time, not only Palace Master Yaomie was shocked, but all the warriors in the heavens were shocked looking at everything in the picture. The fuzzy figure was too powerful, and it was so clean and clean, directly killing a demon demon. Become famous!

The whole universe is quiet.

The universe is vast and the universe is boundless. Relatively speaking, it is too vast. Now, as long as the information can be transmitted to the life zone where the live broadcast can be received, all the strong are resonating.

They witnessed a strong and unmatched battle. A Demon Lord broke into the Void Tide Sea to chase and kill the Tianjiao of the Human Race. This was originally a disaster, which could arouse the anger of the Celestial Human Race, but now everyone is shocked. , Trembling.

In the picture, beyond the blur, the endless demonic energy is still floating, which means that there used to be an extremely powerful master of the Venerable level. But now, the demonic blood here is falling, the heaven is sensational, and there is no breath of life left. Seeing in the virtual sea, a vague figure with a chain, with the power of a magnificent totem, holding a corpse, slowly stepping into the depths of the virtual sea.

In the heavens, there are countless races, not just the human races. I have seen this scene at this moment. Whether they are strong or weak, all races today have a kind of icy bitterness and feel that life is too fragile, even the masters of the noble state. If you say that you are killed by personality, what else is safe?

"A murderer, people will kill them all. This Demon Clan has broken into the Void Tidal Sea and chased and killed the Tianjiao of the Clan. How overbearing, especially the Demon Clan has grown in the battlefield of ten thousand races over the years, and has mastered a large area of the heaven Territory, my subordinates don't know how many masters they have surrendered, order the world, don't dare to do it, destroy other races at will, destroy the life zone. It's a pity that now I have finally encountered the hard bones."

After the silence, it was naturally boiling.

Various places are discussing, guessing the identity of the vague figure. Such a posture is too domineering and suppresses a demon. Some people speculate that this strong man is definitely the top group of existence in the heavens.

It's a pity that this person is in the void sea, and some of the pictures taken by the mirror holy treasure are hazy.

The whole world is talking.

Who is this person? Is it a prehistoric ancestor? There are also people who speculate as to why this person appeared in the Void Sea, could it be that a certain top powerhouse once fell in the Void Sea, but why his body was dragged by the chain, as if suppressed here.

What is in the void?

No one can keep calm. The former Void Sea was only a restricted area in the heavens. Many people didn't know its horror. But now everyone is terrified. After this battle, I am afraid that no one will dare to step into the Void Sea again. It's too terrible, even the venerable can swallow it, let alone them?

In the darkness on the Xuhai Sea, Qin Chen fled far away. Suddenly, if he felt something, he stopped and looked at the Xuhai because he felt a gaze and looked at himself.

It is the fuzzy figure in the virtual sea.

Others can't see clearly, but he sees it really. This is a very vicissitudes of life. From the other side he saw endless loneliness, no longer the previous domineering, like a lonely strong man, always accompanied by loneliness, his eyes look With sadness in it.

At this moment, he was staring at Qin Chen, making Qin Chen's heart throb, making him very uneasy, and then he was in a trance.

boom!

The fog on his body dissipated a little, and Qin Chen saw the terrifying power of totem more clearly. It was clearly distinguished and imprinted in his mind, as if it resonated with the nine-star God Emperor Art in Qin Chen's body. Qin Chen's body was re-engraved with a force of inheritance, making Qin Chen's severely injured body even brighter.

"God, the vague figure stopped, staring at the chased Human Race Tianjiao?"

"Who is that young Tianjiao? Could it be that the figure in the virtual sea appeared because of him?"

"God, who is he? The two are actually looking at each other, and the clan Tianjiao didn't scream at all that day. Is this Xuhai figure slaying that demon lord to stand up for this Human Race Tianjiao?"

Many experts from the periphery of the virtual sea haven't dispersed yet. They have been staring at this place to capture the picture. At this moment, the figure of Qin Chen is captured, and it can be seen that the two figures are facing each other, staring at each other.

Moreover, that Xuhai figure didn't even make a move. It was unusually calm and made people feel extraordinary.

"Oh my God, this Human Race Tianjiao turned out to be the culprit. No wonder he wants to bring the opponent here, does he know this Xuhai figure?"

"Who is he? God, who can tell me?"

"This is... a murder. The other party has been premeditated to bring the opponent here and kill the Demon Venerable. The opponent has long expected it."

A group of people all over the heavens exclaimed for brain supplementation.

Chapter 3449: Venerable Star Destroyer

Because this picture is too harmonious, the body of the Demon Race Demon Venerable is still being carried by the fuzzy figure, but at this moment, the other party is very peaceful and did not act on the Human Race Tianjiao, which is very unusual.

Many people have scalp numbness. At first, they thought the appearance of this virtual sea figure was just an accident, but now they suspect that this may not be a coincidence, but a premeditated plan.

Qin Chen didn't know what was going on. He couldn't wait to leave, but the Nine Star God Emperor Art in this strong man made him familiar, so he was hesitating.

"Senior, I don't intend to interrupt, but I have doubts in my heart and want to ask you for advice."

He didn't dare to be presumptuous, because he could see that the fuzzy figure had hollow eyes, very lonely and desolate.

However, the figure in Xuhai ignored and responded to him, just glanced at Qin Chen, Gu Jing Wubo's eye pupils seemed to move slightly, but immediately fell into silence and turned into dead ashes, dragging the Demon Venerable. Hobble away.

This time, Qin Chen could see clearly that there was indeed a chain on the opponent's ankle. Under the mist, clanging, and above the **** chain, the order runes flickered, which was terrifying. Every path suppressed the eternal blue sky. Chen Chen's rune attainments can't even understand a rune.

Gradually, this vague figure sank into the sea of void, stepping into the dark and lonely life restricted zone, desolate and lonely.

Qin Chen decisively left without staying.

Although he knew that this person had cultivated the Nine-Star God Emperor Jue and might have entered the Lower Realm or had contact with the Tianwu Continent, but he did not dare to be too casual.

He got the Nine Star God Emperor Jue, but he didn't know this fuzzy figure. If he annoyed him, he would probably be slapped to death.

Whoosh!

Qin Chen immersed in the void directly, urging the rules of time and space, his figure disappeared, and suddenly disappeared.

"Zhi, the Human Race Tianjiao ran away. What about those who are broadcasting? Hurry up and catch up."

"Have you seen it? The guy was communicating with the existence in the virtual sea before, and he seems to be saying something, but unfortunately, I can't hear it."

"Do they really know each other? Hey, what kind of power does this guy come from? Is it the power against the sky in the ancient heavens?"

Many people were shocked and going crazy, and urged many warriors who were observing the periphery of the virtual sea to track them up.

In fact, without the other party's urging, those masters were unwilling to miss this big news, and they followed it up for the first time, trying to figure out Qin Chen's identity.

However, Qin Chen's speed is too fast. Under the condition of urging the time and space rules, unless there is a master here, even the pinnacle holy master cannot track it up, and can only watch Qin Chen disappear. In the vast sea of void tides, there is no trace at all.

However, this group of people was still unwilling to leave. They still stayed here, trying to capture something. In the heavens, countless people are also watching with open eyes.

Boom!

Just here, a violent roar suddenly sounded, and in the endless void, a colorful changhong appeared. This colorful changhong seemed to straddle the endless starry sky, straddling from the end of the distant void tide sea. Coming, it seems to have penetrated the entire void of the tide sea, directly descending on the periphery of the void.

"Boom!"

Immediately afterwards, from the colorful changhong, a towering figure appeared, like a god, stepping out, this is an old man with a terrible aura lingering all over his body, once appeared here, the whole avenue of void tide sea. Then it vibrated and fluctuated violently, suppressing the laws of the heavens.

"Hey, there is another nobleman?"

Seeing this scene, countless masters in the heavens widened their eyes, revealing a look of horror. This old man was surrounded by a terrifying aura, raising his hands, as dazzling as the scorching sun, even if it was separated from the screen, it made the hearts of countless seniors in the heavens palpitations.

"It's Venerable Yeguang who works in heaven!"

"Venerable Yeguang? That's the real tycoon among the top forces in the heavens, he actually appeared."

"I must have received the news and came here as soon as possible."

All parts of the heavens shook, and one after another spoke.

And their discussion has not fallen yet...

boom!

In the endless pitch black void tide sea, a flash of pitch black portal suddenly appeared. The portal opened, and a black hole-like whirlpool appeared, and a figure in a black robe also walked out of the black hole.

"Hey, isn't this the Venerable Star Destroyer of the top power in the heavens, Star God Palace?"

As soon as this black robe figure appeared, many top forces in the heavens were shocked and uttered shocked sounds, including City Lord Dongguang and others, who also breathed a sigh of relief.

These two masters are the powerhouses of Tianjiao and Star God Palace, the top power in the heavens, and Tianjiao and Star God Palace are the closest to the Eastern Heaven Realm. Because of the things in the Eastern Heaven Realm before, there are already top masters, so they came here the first time.

"Miexing, are you here too?" Venerable Yeguang said solemnly after seeing Venerable Miexing.

"Ye Guang, you came really fast. I felt more relieved if you were there. By the way, didn't the Demon Race Demon Venerable appear here? Why didn't you see a trace?"

As soon as the two of them appeared, the pupils that burst out of the rainbow stared at the surroundings, revealing a suspicious look.

They received the news that a demon veteran appeared in the Void Tide Sea and rushed there immediately. The two rushed all the way frantically without even having time to check the news, so they did not know what had happened here before.

"Huh? There is indeed the breath of Demon Venerable here, so terrible Demon Venerable aura, this aura seems to be the breath of the ancestor of the Demon Corpse Demon Clan on the battlefield of ten thousand races."

Venerable Yeguang and Venerable Star Destroyer came to the battlefield of Xukaiwai in an instant, felt the terrifying power of darkness here, and couldn't help changing their colors.

However, their spirits swept around, but they never saw the trace of the ancestor of the devil corpse.

"Where did the ancestor of the devil corpse go? Also, there seems to be traces of fighting here, who is the young human race? Can he fight the ancestor of the demon corpse?"

Venerable Star Destroyer frowned and said, his eyes solemn.

"Puff!"

The naive behavior of the two makes all the masters of the heavens who are watching through the screen laugh.

Is this the Venerable Human Race? I just ran over and didn't even know what happened. This... is too speechless.

At this moment, the communicators on the two people also started to light up. The two of them picked up the communicators and sensed the information inside. They immediately knew the ins and outs of the matter, and their eyes suddenly showed shock.

Whoosh!

The two retreated quickly, as if they were frightened, watching Xu Hai vigilantly, dripping with cold sweat.

What did they see? There is a top powerhouse in this virtual sea, directly beheading the devil corpse ancestor? They looked at the image transmitted by the communicator, their eyes were horrified and their scalp numb.

Chapter 3450: give a thumbs up

The strength of that fuzzy figure made them feel terrible, even a sense of fear.

"The devil corpse ancestor actually died."

The two murmured and looked at each other with unprecedented fear in their hearts.

Both of them are Venerable Powers, but at this time, there was fear in their hearts.

Suddenly, the two of them saw the scene of these people tracking Qin Chen before, and their eyes flashed together.

"The young man from the human race just left here not long ago."

The eyes of the two shot Divine Rainbow, and the next moment, their bodies shook and disappeared into the void, and they quickly followed Qin Chen in the direction where he left.

After Qin Chen left the Void Sea, he continued to use the rules of time and space, and quickly arranged a transmission array, using the space to transmit a large array, and quickly left the void.

Although the Demon Lord of the Demon Race had fallen, Qin Chen didn't think he was safe.

There are too many secrets in him. The news of the Venerable Demon Race appearing in the Void Tide Sea will definitely be transmitted to the top human race forces in the first time, and at that time, the top human race forces will definitely send the master masters in front of the first time. Come.

And there are too many secrets in him. The Demon Venerable Demon Race can appear in this void tide sea. It is very strange in itself. Qin Chen naturally does not dare to neglect. Once he is targeted by the Venerable Human Race's top power, he will definitely be very trouble.

Therefore, Qin Chen continuously promoted the transmission of the large formation, and quickly flew across the void tide sea, but Qin Chen knew that his light was gone so far, and if he really wanted a venerable to come, he would definitely be able to find it based on the traces he left. For himself, if the Venerable-level powerhouse was so easy to deceive, he would have escaped the pursuit of that Demon Race Demon Venerable long ago.

What's more, he is seriously injured now, and it is impossible to escape forever.

How to do?

Just when Qin Chen was nervous, suddenly, a series of meteors flew in the distance. This is a very common flying meteorite in the Void Tide Sea. Like a meteor, it swept through the Void Tide Sea day and night. I don't know where their destination will be.

"I thought of a way."

Qin Chen's eyes brightened, and he flew across the meteorite group and landed on a meteorite, and then went directly into the universe jade dish, let the universe make the jade dish fall on the meteorite, let the meteorite carry it. He swept toward the depths of the endless void tide sea.

The meteor turned into a meteor quickly left, and the void quickly returned to calm.

Buzzing!

Two figures suddenly appeared directly in this void, it was the Venerable Yeguang of Heavenly Work and the Venerable Star Destroyer of the Star God Palace.

"Strange, this person's breath seems to disappear suddenly after arriving here?"

After the two of them searched around, there was a look of doubt in their eyes.

"Is it hidden somewhere?"

Venerable Star Destroyer and Venerable Yeguang looked around carefully. According to the information they received before, the young human race chased by the demon corpse ancestor did not know the origin, but he seemed to have countless secrets in him, so naturally he couldn't wait to think about it. To find this person, ask for their true identity.

It's a pity that the two of them searched for a long time, but in the end they couldn't find Qin Chen's figure. Qin Chen seemed to have disappeared out of thin air.

Although Qin Chen had turned the crisis into peace, and the ancestor of the demon corpse had fallen into the void sea, but the entire celestial realm did not calm down because of this, but fell into a panic.

A Venerable Demon Race appeared out of thin air in the Void Tide Sea. The seriousness of this matter made many forces in the heavens vigilant.

Suddenly, the entire heavenly realm was screaming, and many top forces in the heavenly realm began to quickly investigate the situation in the great heavenly realms. Some border cities in the celestial realm were also sealed off, and the entire heavenly realm was waiting in full battle.

In addition, many top forces in the heavens also dispatched masters to search for Qin Chen's traces in this void and tidal sea, and to investigate Qin Chen's origins. For a while, the whole heaven was in a precarious situation.

But Qin Chen, the initiator of the matter, was still in the meteorite, entering the Universe Jade Plate to heal and practice.

"Qin Chen, you are too much!"

The moment Qin Chen entered the Universe Good Fortune Jade Plate, he saw a pair of angry eyes with tears, and it was You Qianxue, looking at Qin Chen extremely angry.

"Qianxue..."

"Don't say anything." Qianxue looked at Qin Chen with tears, tears falling like broken beads.

When Qin Chen was chased by the Demon Venerable before, she thought that Qin Chen was about to die. How much she wanted to fight with Qin Chen and live and die together, but Qin Chen wanted to exile her directly. The anger in her heart can be imagined. And know.

"Qianxue, listen to my explanation." Qin Chen said with a wry smile.

"I do not want to hear."

You Qianxue was wronged and angry in her heart.

"cough!"

At this moment, Qin Chen snorted suddenly, a trace of blood spilled from the corner of his mouth, and his body shook.

The original angry look on You Qianxue's face instantly disappeared, and she hurriedly came to Qin Chen, supported him, and said anxiously: "Dust, what's wrong with you?"

"My injury is not healed."

Qin Chen said bitterly, his face pale.

"What should I do?" You Qianxue suddenly became anxious, and the nine poles of water lingered out, enveloping Qin Chen and said, "I'll heal you."

"It's okay, you can help me to the bottom of the heavenly **** tree, I just practice a little bit, you can control the universe jade disc for me."

Qin Chen's expression was a little bit painful. With You Qianxue's support, he came to the bottom of the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree and hurriedly sat cross-legged, with terrifying powers of the Heavenly Dao lingering around him, and the Nine Star Divine Emperor Art in his body also began to work. Get up and resonate with your body.

You Qianxue looked at Qin Chen worriedly, her hands clenched tightly, her expression full of worry.

"Madam, you see that you can't solve the problem by staying here. Let the young master be quiet. Now the young master needs your understanding most, and in this small world, the young master can only rest assured that you can control it. You might as well control it for the young master. It can be regarded as reducing a lot of burden for the young master."

The sword king Mu Zhifeng hurried forward.

"Okay, then you are looking at Chen here. Tell me what is going on right away." You Qianxue looked back at Qin Chen step by step, and finally went to control the direction of Universe Good Fortune Jade Plate.

Seeing You Qianxue leaving, his face was a little pale, as if falling asleep Qin Chen opened his eyes, and then he let out a long sigh of relief, and gave a thumbs up to the sword king Mu Zhifeng.

Qin Chen's original injury was indeed extremely serious, and his body was about to be shattered when he left.

But when he was operating the Nine Star God Emperor Art, the totem of the Void Sea figure and the whole body gradually appeared in his mind, operating in accordance with the opponent's breath and techniques, allowing his body to be repaired at an astonishing speed. , Although he was still seriously injured at this moment, his life was no longer a serious problem.
