Chapter 3471: Top battleship

The healing sacred medicine and the top armor are the rarest treasures in battle, and this black flame heart lotus can only be regarded as a kind of cultivation treasure, to the level that can afford the black flame heart lotus, the black flame heart lotus alone is not enough. Let everyone's strength improve too much, but the healing sacred fruit can be used to sign up.

"I have a defensive armor here, you can take a look."

Seeing that no one was bidding, a man with a hat said, and then he took out a shield. As soon as the shield was taken out, Qin Chen knew that the shield should be damaged and the flaw was not small.

Sure enough, after the masked man took over the defensive shield, his face was not good, and he hesitated. Obviously, this treasure did not satisfy his wish.

"You also know that the real high-grade saint master-level defensive saint master treasures are rarely traded by ordinary people. Although your black flame heart lotus is a top-notch material, there are not many people who are practical. If you want to exchange it for offensive sacred treasures, there is still hope, but defensive top sacred treasures are not so easy."

The man in the hat said in a deep voice, obviously trying to convince the other party.

Qin Chen hadn't planned to trade this Black Flame Heart Lotus, but when he saw that only one person was willing to exchange it, and what he took out was an extremely broken defensive shield, Qin Chen was immediately moved.

He didn't have the top healing pill, but the Heavenly Dao Shen Pill, but Qin Chen didn't want to take out this pill at will, but he had a lot of defensive sacred treasures.

Whether it is him or You Qianxue, his physique is very terrifying. The general defensive holy treasure is of no use to them. Before, he killed many powerful people in that secret realm, and he also plundered Tiankui's treasures from many powerful people. , There is nothing else on the body, but there are a lot of treasures.

The masked man hesitated for a moment, and finally shook his head and said: "Sorry, although your defensive shield is of the high-grade holy master level, it is a bit broken and it does not meet my requirements."

With that, he returned the defensive shield back.

After the masked man yelled a few words, no one answered. He was a little disappointed and was about to put away the Black Flame Heart Lotus. He heard Qin Chen say, "I have a top-grade armored treasure, this friend, please take a look. "

With that said, Qin Chen took out a piece of armor and handed it to the maid beside him.

The maid quickly came to the masked man with Qin Chen's armor. The masked man picked up Qin Chen's armor and frowned slightly because he found that Qin Chen's armor was also damaged.

However, this piece of armor is much more complete than the previous shield, and in the defensive sacred treasure, the armor type can be worn on the body, and it does not affect the battle at all. Unlike the shield type, it also urges to resist. If one is not aware of it, it is easy to lose the defensive effect.

More importantly, this piece of armor is not too broken, and it can be repaired. You only need to find a master craftsman and consume enough holy veins. It should be repaired intact, but you want to hire a high-grade holy master. The difficulty of repairing the armor is also not small for the master craftsman, but even if you can't find it, it will be effective to put it on directly.

The masked man hesitated, and finally Black Flame Heart Lotus was placed in the hands of the maid sent by Qin Chen, and said: "Change."

Qin Chen was overjoyed. There are a lot of treasures on his body. Those void bandits have plundered all the year round. There is no treasure on his body. For Qin Chen, the broken armor of the holy master is completely useless. Yan Xinlian, with this black Yan Xinlian, the disaster will definitely be able to go further.

Calamity and Netherfire was the inheritance flame of Skyfire Venerable. It is rumored to be the fire of calamity condensed by the disaster supreme of the ancient demon race. However, the power of Calamity and Netherfire has dissipated a lot over the years Recovery, the power must be greatly increased, and Qin Chen will also have an extra assassin.

I exchanged a piece of defensive armor for a Black Flame Heart Lotus. Although Black Flame Heart Lotus was of extremely high level, some people still looked at Qin Chen very puzzled.

The next treasure is a dark starry sky black meteorite iron. This starry sky black meteorite iron is the top crafting material, but it is very difficult to make, but even if it is not used to make a holy treasure, it is just in the hand, it is extremely hard and can even be used as a weapon.

In addition, the black meteorite iron in the starry sky still contains the power of stars, which can be used to perceive the Avenue of Stars.

You know, this kind of black meteorite iron is generally hundreds, or even more, after exploding, the core material of the meteorite is fused for hundreds of millions of years. It is extremely powerful.

Seeing this piece of starry black meteorite, Qin Chen's heart moved once again.

Damn, there are too many treasures in this strange trade fair, no wonder Uncle Ming let him come here before.

Qin Chen thought about refining a warship by himself before, and this starry sky black meteorite iron can be used to refining the outer structure of a warship. The strength of a warship incorporating this material is even a late saint. It cannot be easily broken.

It's just that Qin Chen has already changed one thing at the beginning, even though it is not particularly sought-after, Qin Chen does not want to be too high-profile, because the starry sky black meteorite iron is not particularly rare, and it is easier to find than the black flame heart lotus. Here is the Void Tide Sea. Various meteorites have been fused for hundreds of millions of years. Adventurers who walk in the Void Tide Sea all year round can still occasionally see some.

But such a big one, like a weapon, is still very rare.

Therefore, as soon as this starry sky black meteorite came out, it attracted a lot of quotations. On the contrary, it was much hotter than the black flame heart lotus. The warriors here are basically people who walk in the void tide sea all year round. Few have some mastery, as long as they get this starry sky black meteorite, it will have some help to their cultivation, and they can be used directly as weapons.

Soon, he was exchanged by a master with fifteen middle-grade holy veins and an ancient pill.

The third thing is a battleship. The rank of this battleship is extremely high, but it is a little damaged. It is stored in a storage space and projected to the outside world. Everyone saw that the battleship was completely painted black. , I can't see the original pattern at all, but the tyrannical aura still makes everyone understand that this is a top-notch warship.

Qin Chen's eyes immediately became excited again. Naturally, this battleship is not comparable to the Qingxue family's battleship, but it is only one level inferior to the Qingxue family's battleship, and it is not damaged. Not serious, as long as Qin Chen buys it and repairs it, it can be used as a transport ship for Tianwu Danpu or Chendi Pavilion.

It is obviously much higher than Chendi Pavilion's current transport ship.

Chapter 3472: All good stuff

"Master, you can't buy this thing."

At this time, among the jade disc of good fortune in the universe, the voice of the sword king Mu Zhifeng suddenly came out.

"Master, this thing should be a battleship of a certain top family. The reason why it was painted black is because the shape of the battleship should be unique and easy to be found by the top family, so it was painted like this. , This may be a battleship obtained by a certain void bandit who robbed a caravan of a certain top family. This kind of thing is very common in the void tide sea."

"This kind of warship has many hidden dangers. It often flows between Void Pirates. There are special search methods in it. If you buy it back, remodel it, and use it yourself, it's fine, but if you give it to Tianwu Danpu to transport the medicine Materials, there are many hidden dangers, and the gains outweigh the losses."

After listening to the words of the sword king Mu Zhifeng, Qin Chen understood.

He hadn't had to do this battleship, so he lost his thoughts on the deal.

However, this kind of illicit goods is still very popular at the strange thing fair, and it was quickly traded by others. After all, some large-scale void bandit groups also have trading needs, and some other races do not care about this thing at all. Is it from a human family?

Next, pieces of treasures came up.

The eyes of Qin Chen who looked at were dizzy, and there was nothing in this place that Qin Chen was indifferent. They were all treasures, but the purpose was large or small. It was just that they were all top masters. Some people, Qin Chen was shocked, obviously at the pinnacle sage master level, and Qin Chen believed that this place was very close to Nandou City, and there must be the eyes of the major forces in the Southern Heaven Realm.

Even this strange thing trade fair is very likely to be made by the major forces of the Southern Heaven Realm, so Qin Chen must keep a low profile. Even so, Qin Chen knows how great this strange thing trade will be.

Soon half an hour passed, and seven or eight things had been traded on the court.

At this time, the enchanting woman who was lingering all over the evil spirit suddenly stood up, and took out a piece of blood-colored beautiful jade, "This thing is an extremely special jade of my demon race, the blood jade of the nine immortals, born between heaven and earth. I think you should have heard of it."

"What? Nine Immortals Blood Jade."

"Such treasures have also been taken out."

"Is this guy crazy? It is rumored that the Nine Immortal Blood Jade is a very special understanding among the monsters. It was born in the mysterious forbidden area of the monsters, and it also has a trace of chaos. It has the characteristics of life, but it is not life. The best carrier for the soul of the Yaozu."

"It is rumored that as long as you have the blood jade of the nine immortals, you will have one more life, because even if the body is broken in the battle, as long as a trace of the soul remains, you can enter the blood jade of the nine immortals and reshape the flesh. Hiss, how could she be willing to take out such a treasure?"

As soon as this enchanting demon clan woman took out the Nine Immortal Blood Jade, it immediately drew countless people's shock, and was obviously extremely surprised by this person's decision.

At this moment, Su Xiaoxiao, who was on the Qin Chen Universe Jade Plate, also exclaimed, "Nine Immortals Blood Jade, Qin Chen, you must buy it."

She instantly appeared outside the hosta, her face flushed with excitement.

"This Nine Immortal Blood Jade is really so awesome? Do you need to be so excited?" Qin Chen couldn't help but it was the first time he saw Su Xiaoxiao being so excited.

At this time, Qin Chen felt that the soul aura of Senior Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox, who had been sleeping under the Ten Thousand World Demon Tree, was also instantly excited, and waves of fluctuations were heard.

Su Xiaoxiao said excitedly: "Don't you always want to bring Qingqiu Ziyi back to life? This Nine Immortal Blood Jade is the best carrier of our Monster Race. As long as the soul of Qingqiu Ziyi enters the Nine Immortal Blood Jade, Automatic warming, and you still have the soul medicine liquid. Combining the two, Qingqiu Ziyi can be resurrected for the first time."

Qin Chen's heart was suddenly shocked, this Nine Immortal Blood Jade turned out to be the best carrier? Listening to Su Xiaoxiao's constant explanations, Qin Chen realized that this Nine Immortal Blood Jade can easily shape the body, and it is the top treasure in the monster race itself, and it has life characteristics. If you talk about other carriers, if the soul needs a little bit of shaping after entering, then this Nine Immortal Blood Jade can be directly shaped into any desired state.

Qin Chen has always wanted to resurrect the Eternal Sword Master and Senior Nine-Tailed Fox Qiongxian, but he has never had a carrier, and he did not expect to see one here.

This thing must be obtained. After hearing Su Xiaoxiao's explanation, Qin Chen has made up his mind.

In fact, Qin Chen knew in his heart, who wouldn't like a baby like Nine Immortals Blood Jade? Although this thing is the treasure of the monster race, if the human body is broken, the soul can also be pinned in it, even the demons and other races can be, but the effect is not as good as the monster race.

If the Venerable Soul Demon Race back then saw this Nine Immortal Blood Jade, it would definitely be extremely urgent.

How could the enchanting woman of the demon race be willing to take out such a treasure?

The enchanting woman who took out the Nine Immortal Blood Jade said: "I think everyone knows the function of the Nine Immortal Blood Jade, and even many people know better than me. Indeed, although the Nine Immortal Blood Jade's effect on the monster race is the best, but it also has a huge carrier effect for humans and other races. Even after your physical body is damaged, your cultivation will not fall. As long as your soul is intact, you can return to the peak state in a very short time."

"Okay, I won't overcharge for the effect. I only have one piece of the Nine Immortal Blood Jade. I want to exchange it for a top sacred fruit or a top defensive sacred treasure. If none of these are available, I can take it out. The treasure that satisfies me, Shengmai is the last choice."

When the enchanting woman's voice fell, Qin Chen was already relieved. He didn't have the top defensive sacred treasure, even if he had him, he would not easily take it out, but he did have the top sacred fruit, and he had many more.

He is a man with a tree of heaven and god.

"I am willing to exchange your Nine Immortal Blood Jade with a high-grade defensive ancient bell plus thirty middle-grade holy veins."

A master started quoting immediately after the enchanting woman's voice fell, apparently extremely eager for the Nine Immortal Blood Jade.

Who doesn't want this kind of treasure that can serve as a soul carrier? Everyone may fall in the battle, but as long as there is a soul left behind, this Nine Immortal Blood Jade can restore him to the peak state as quickly as possible. This is a good thing that can't ask for anything.

"I'm willing to exchange a sacred celestial soul fruit plus 20 middle-grade holy veins."

Another voice rang.

The sacred fruit of the heavenly soul is a kind of sacred fruit that can nourish the soul. Once taken, this sacred fruit can improve the soul in a short time. In the heavens, any treasure that can improve the soul is extremely against the sky.

Chapter 3473: Bloodline Tiandao Shendan

"I will give out a Luowu homecoming fruit in exchange for your Nine Immortal Blood Jade."

After hearing that someone was willing to give out the sacred fruit of the Heavenly Soul, the black-faced man with blue scaly on his face and water vapor in the hands of those top masters was faint, and his voice was very low. , As if shaking in the air.

As soon as Luo Wu returned home, the enchanting woman's eyes lit up slightly.

Luo Wu Guixin Fruit is a powerful sacred fruit that can increase the level of the physical body. After taking it, it can transform the physical body and become extremely tyrannical. Even the masters of the later Saint Master level can get a lot of promotion.

However, generally at this level of the sacred fruit, the competition is not the level, but the function and demand.

For example, it is also the Origin Fruit of the Heavenly Path. The three masters who condemned the thief failed to break through the late-stage holy lord at the beginning, and the origin was damaged, which made it impossible to advance in the future. For him, the Origin of the Origin System was the treasure he wanted most. In comparison, no matter how many Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit or Luo Wu Guixin Fruit, in his eyes, they are not as important as an Origin System Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit.

And for a strong person with a damaged soul, the effect of the Holy Fruit of the Heavenly Soul must be far superior to any kind of fruit.

For the monsters, the monsters are generally tyrannical bodies, so many monsters like to constantly strengthen their physical advantages, so the enchanting woman will brighten up when she hears Luo Wu's return to her heart.

But if Qin Chen chooses, he will definitely choose the Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit. His soul does not need to be improved, because he has the Heavenly Soul Forbidden Technique, and his soul power can be improved through cultivation. He is more of a substitute for the nine-tailed fairy fox. Seniors and Venerable Skyfire consider that their souls are very weak, and if they can have a treasure like the Heavenly Soul Holy Fruit, it will be enough to restore their souls a lot.

Powerful people like Venerable Skyfire, even a trace of soul recovery, can make earth-shaking changes in their strength and get huge restoration.

However, this time is not the time to think of the Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit. At this time, there are already seven or eight people bidding one after another. Even if the treasures like the Nine Immortal Blood Jade are not used temporarily, they will use some idle top treasures. Bid to redeem, see if we can get it.

"I am willing to take out a bloodline Heavenly Dao Divine Pill in exchange for the Nine Immortal Blood Jade."

Qin Chen followed and made an offer. After seeing the enchanting woman's eyes brightened, he immediately knew that it was not good.

This kind of occasion is different from an auction. Once the owner of the item thinks that the other party's item is suitable for him, he will immediately start the transaction. After that, even if your bid is higher, what is the use?

So Qin Chen immediately quoted his price, a bloodline heavenly * pill.

After Qin Chen obtained the Heavenly Dao Divine Tree, he had already refined some of the fruits on it into Heavenly Dao Divine Pill.

Although the value of a Heavenly Dao Divine Pill is more powerful than that of the Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit, because the Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit is only a fruit, and the Heavenly Dao Divine Pill is refined by top alchemists, for Qin Chen, there are also a total of There are only one hundred and eight fruits with different rules, and if one is directly traded, Qin Chen will also lose this kind of attribute of Heavenly Origin Fruit.

It can be refined into a Heavenly Dao Divine Pill, even if Qin Chen trades out one, he still has several remaining, so there is no need to worry about it when he needs it.

The enchanting woman's eyes brightened again after hearing Qin Chen's offer. Obviously Qin Chen's offer was already in line with her psychological expectations, because the other people were trading sacred fruit, but Qin Chen trading was a pill , This is undoubtedly an improvement in comparison with other sacred fruits.

Moreover, after Qin Chen knew that the other party was a Monster Race, what he deliberately took out was the Heavenly Dao Divine Pill of bloodline.

Tiandao Yuanguo has a variety of different attributes, and different attributes correspond to masters who practice different rules. For example, the origin type Tiandao Yuanguo is of no use to the Sleeping Dream fairy, and the space auctioned by the Sleeping Dream fairy is the condemnation of the Tiandao Yuan Guo's damage to the origin. The three masters of the thief had no effect.

And this bloodline is the Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit, which can activate the bloodline in the martial artist. This is a holy fruit that can enhance and condense Qi and blood to the extreme. After being refined into a * pill, the effect will be increased to the maximum.

For ordinary human martial artists, the effect of the bloodline Tiandao Origin Fruit is actually quite general, because after the human martial artist reaches the holy realm, the bloodline will be integrated into the rules and become a rule mastered by the martial artist, even if he takes the bloodline. The Heavenly Dao Divine Pill of the Department just made the blood in the martial artist more vigorous, and the rules he mastered were a little bit tyrannical.

But Yaozu is different.

Compared with the human race, the demon race is the most bloodlined, and the bloodline inherited from ancient times is the biggest trump card of the demon race.

In the demon race, the strength of the bloodline represents their status and status. The demon race with high bloodline has a natural deterrent effect on the demon race with low bloodline, which is similar to that of the deep demon race in the demon race. The high-level demon clan of the sacred demon clan, and the high-level demon clan such as the holy demon clan, have a natural suppression to the moon demon clan.

However, unlike the demons, the ancestors of many demons actually have very strong bloodlines, but the bloodlines of the demons will weaken over time and from generation to generation, and eventually they will become very ordinary demons.

But in fact, these ordinary monster races are very likely to be descendants of some kind of ancient fierce beasts or top monster races, but when they are passed on to their generation, their blood has become very thin, resulting in loss of ability.

The Heavenly Dao Divine Pill of this bloodline system is suitable for the monster race, because this kind of medicine can activate the power hidden deep in the bloodline of the monster race, allowing them to gain the power of returning to their ancestors, and even change from a lower monster race to a higher monster in one fell swoop. Clan, how tempting is this to Yao Clan?

Even the more tyrannical monster clan, the more eager for the bloodline Heavenly Dao Divine Pill.

Compared with Luo Wu's return to the heart, the bloodline Heavenly Dao Divine Pill is more attractive to the Monster Race.

Therefore, after hearing Qin Chen's offer, the enchanting demon clan girl immediately glanced at Qin Chen and said solemnly, "Bloodline is the Heavenly Dao Divine Pill? Are you sure that it was the Heavenly Dao Divine Pill refined by Dao Yuan Guo that day?"

"Yes, it is the Heavenly Dao Divine Pill refined from the Heavenly Dao Origin Fruit." Qin Chen said briefly without explaining too much, because he knew that he didn't need much explanation.

Before that, Luo Wu was bidding to return to the heart fruit. He had blue scales on his face and did not hide his face. The man with strong water vapor on his body suddenly snorted, "It is nothing to appear in this void tide sea. God pill is really rare."

Qin Chen glanced at the opponent, and he saw strong hostility in the eyes of the opponent. Obviously that person was very dissatisfied with Qin Chen's offer, because everyone could see that the enchanting woman was almost already when he quoted Luo Wu Guixin Guo. Tempted.

Chapter 3474: Ask for justice

This blue-scaled man is one of the strongest people on the scene. If it is another time, Qin Chen would let him go, but the Nine Immortal Blood Jade is the most important thing to resurrect Senior Qiongxian, and Qin Chen naturally cannot give up. .

The enchanting woman glanced at Qin Chen again after hearing the words of the blue-scaled man. Just as the blue-scaled man said, there are many treasures such as holy fruit and top materials in the void tide sea, because this is a place where the heavens once prospered. There are countless secret realms and treasure lands, which later turned into a void storm and became a void tide sea.

But things like Heavenly Dao Divine Pill are rare, because it not only represents a certain top sacred fruit, but also represents the efforts of a top alchemist.

"I want to see if your bloodline is Heavenly Dao Divine Pill." The enchanting woman said, "If it is true, I agree to exchange."

After speaking, she immediately put the Nine Immortal Blood Jade into the hand of the maid beside him, Qin Chen saw it, and did not hesitate to take out a jade bottle and put it into the hand of the maid.

After just a few breaths, both parties got each other's things. The enchanting woman opened the jade bottle, and the tyrannical demon consciousness instantly poured into it, her face immediately showed excitement and flushing, and she exclaimed: "Sure enough It's the high-grade bloodline of the Heavenly Dao Divine Pill, and that Nine Immortal Blood Jade is yours."

The voice fell, and the enchanting woman quickly put the jade bottle away, and then sat down, still with a trace of excitement on her face.

Because when she smelled the breath of the pill before, the blood of the demon in her body had already begun to surging. If she swallowed the whole pill, how much help would it help her improve her blood?

Holding the Nine Immortal Blood Jade, Qin Chen immediately felt the miracle of the Nine Immortal Blood Jade. It was actually very soft and soft, like life, but not life. It was somewhat similar to what was made after the parasitic seeds of the Chaos Devil's Nest were stripped off. The clone is average.

Qin Chen used the golden parasitic seeds to create Qin Mo, and this Nine Immortal Blood Jade obviously also has such an effect.

"Senior Qiongxian's body carrier finally has it." Qin Chen was excited, and slightly relieved, and directly threw the Nine Immortal Blood Jade into the Universe Jade Plate.

"On the 21st, I will exchange Luo Wu's homecoming fruit plus a sea blue mystery for your Nine Immortal Blood Jade." The blue-scaled man saw Qin Chen and put away the Nine Immortal Blood Jade instantly, his eyes sank slightly. , Said coldly, his eyes fell sharply on Qin Chen.

Many people around were slightly surprised. It seemed that this blue-scaled man really wanted the Nine Immortal Blood Jade, the mystery of the sea blue. This is a top treasure produced in the secluded sea of the heavens. It is the treasure of the water system, which can improve the top powerhouse's water system. The comprehension of the rules, and also has a huge repair effect on women's appearance, is also the top treasure.

Now this person actually wants to exchange the Nine Immortal Blood Jade from Qin Chen with two treasures, which shows that he is also very eager for the Nine Immortal Blood Jade.

Even the enchanting woman who had closed the transaction heard the new offer and couldn't help but feel slightly moved, but she thought that the bloodline she had obtained was Heavenly Dao Divine Pill, but she calmed down again. For her monster master, no matter what His treasures are far from being useful for him.

Qin Chen was still a little jealous of this blue-scaled man. The aura on this person was extremely tyrannical, most likely to be a master of the pinnacle holy master, but when the other party called his seat number 21, he suddenly snorted in his heart. , The other party didn't put himself in the eyes at all, what about the pinnacle holy master? This is the Wonder Fair and the Void Bazaar. You can't fight at all. Even if the Void Bazaar is out, you may not be afraid of the other side.

Qin Chen is so low-key and careful, just to prevent the Zhuge Family and other top forces in the Southern Heaven Realm from being caught.

And Qin Chen also knew that it was not just the Zhuge family that was being found, but also the top powers in the heavens such as the Star God Palace. He even dispatched Venerable Masters, otherwise he would have to be so careful?

"Sorry, I am not going to exchange the Nine Immortals Blood Jade." Qin Chen said lightly, without even looking at the other party.

Qin Chen's words caused many people present to be taken aback, because everyone could see that Qin Chen was just a mid-term peak saint master, so he dared to talk to each other like this? Under normal circumstances, a pinnacle holy master speaks, even if it is a later holy master, even if he is unwilling to trade, he will definitely say a few good things to call his senior, so as not to form an enemy.

"Hmph, don't take your time. This thing is very important to me. I will add a few more holy veins to you at most." The blue-scale man's face became gloomy for an instant, and he said with a cold voice. In his opinion, he had already been before. With the addition of such sacred treasures as the Mystery of the Sea, the other party should be obediently trading, unexpectedly they would not, even the attitude is so bad.

"This Nine Immortal Blood Jade is useful to me, and I won't trade it." Qin Chen's voice fell, and he was too lazy to talk to the other party, but said to the person who had bid for the Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit before: "This friend, just now Hearing that you have the Holy Fruit of the Heavenly Soul, I wonder if you have anything you want to trade?"

The blue-scaled man saw that Qin Chen not only ignored himself, but was trading with others, the blue scales on his face were shaking, buzzing, full of murderous air, he suddenly snorted coldly, said : "Your Excellency is so courageous. This is the Void Bazaar. I don't know which force you represent? I would like to know."

When the voice fell, this cold snort, with a powerful murderous intent, directly landed on Qin Chen's body. Qin Chen felt the divine sense in his body tremble suddenly, and he immediately urged the divine sense to attack, instantly turning this A murderous intention strangled.

The blue-scaled man suddenly glanced at Qin Chen in amazement. He saw that Qin Chen was only a mid-term peak saint master, so he wanted to secretly give him a bitterness, but Qin Chen's divine consciousness seemed to be much stronger than he thought.

Qin Chen's character is that others shouldn't offend him. It's okay to dare to offend him. He will definitely not let him go. Now this blue-scaled man not only threatens him, but also acts on him. A lesson, but to Qin Chen, the other party was obviously a blatant sneak attack.

Qin Chen stood up swiftly, and said to the old man who had started the transaction before: "This senior at the fair, I am here to trade fair according to the rules of the fair, but now someone is open to me at the fair. Sneak attacks, even threats, is it possible to do so without trading what you want? Is this the rules of the fair?"

Qin Chen's words were like a blockbuster falling down, and immediately triggered a whispering discussion in the strange object fair, as if the calm lake caused waves.

A mid-term peak holy master, who was warned by a late peak holy master, even dared to stand up for justice. Isn't this the rhythm of seeking death or something?

Chapter 3475: Playing cards out of order

In the strange things fair, although you can't fight at will, it is common for the strong to teach and warn the weak in secret. As long as the opponent has not done a fire, it will be fine. Obviously, the blue scale man just wanted to give Qin Chen one. Warnings and lessons can be.

But who ever thought that Qin Chen stood up and told the host of the trade fair, this is really hell.

Qin Chen did not play the cards according to the rules.

The old man who hosted the strange things trade fair also gave Qin Chen a surprised look. Obviously this was the first time he had seen him at this time. He coldly said to the man with the scales on his face: "This Konghai clan My friend, if you dare to threaten other guests at the Wonder Fair, you will be expelled from my Wonder Fair, including the Void Bazaar, and you will not be allowed to step in forever."

Hearing the words of the host of the Wonder Fair, the man with blue scales on his face was even more murderous, his eyes were extremely cold, but he also knew that although he was the Peak Lord, he did not dare to be surprised. Arrogant in the trade fair, he immediately glanced at Qin Chen coldly, sat down, and said nothing.

Although the old host of the strange trade fair had a stern tone, after the blue scale man stopped speaking, he did not really take any measures. Obviously, it was just a word on the face. Although the background of the strange trade fair is strong, but Nor would he offend a pinnacle holy master of the Konghai clan for Qin Chen because of this little matter.

If it were not to maintain the reputation and rules of the Wonder Fair, he wouldn't even say the previous sentence.

The storm seems to have subsided, but everyone knows that this is only temporary. The people of the Konghai tribe are a very vicious race in the universe. They live in the secluded sea of the heavens and belong to a race that is not weak. , Now that kid has offended this person, once there is no top power or top master behind this person in this void bazaar, once this person leaves, that's when this person is finished.

Although you can't kill people in the Void Bazaar, once you leave the Void Bazaar, it will be a dangerous void sea of tides. How can the people of the Konghai tribe tolerate a mid-term peak holy master in front of him.

Many people shook their heads secretly in their hearts, feeling that Qin Chen didn't know how to turn around at all. If his attitude was more respectful, maybe he wouldn't make trouble like this.

Qin Chen didn't take this matter to his mind at all. In his opinion, if the other party really needed the Nine Immortal Blood Jade, he would not let him go. Besides, why should he bear it in front of others.

Qin Chen did not continue to ask the old man of the trade fair to hold justice for him, because this was just self-deception. Instead, he said to the man who sold the Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit before: "Don't you want to exchange it?"

Heavenly soul sacred fruit can nourish the soul, and now the Nine Immortal Blood Jade is in hand, once the Heavenly Soul sacred fruit is available, the souls of Senior Nine Tailed Fox and Venerable Skyfire can be upgraded faster.

The man obviously did not expect that Qin Chen was still thinking about his Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit. He frowned and said: "If you have a Yin attribute attacking sacred artifact, or a top healing sacred fruit, I can consider talking to you In exchange, if the value is high, I can still use the middle-grade holy master's holy veins to supplement it."

Qin Chen calmed down in an instant after listening. He has a lot of treasures, unless it is some special ones, he doesn't lack ordinary treasures at all. As for the two kinds that the other party wants, he naturally has them, the Yin attribute attacking holy weapon, yes. It was obtained from the Moon Demon Race in the secret realm of the Heavenly Poison Pill Venerable. As for the healing sacred fruit, he should not have too much medicine.

Thinking of this, Qin Chen began to choose what he wanted to bring out.

"I exchanged a Yinfeng Halberd and a Heavenly Yunguo for your Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit." To everyone's expectation, Qin Chen hasn't made an offer yet. Someone has already made an offer, and the first offer is just now. The blue-scaled man of the Konghai tribe who threatened Qin Chen.

Everyone showed meaningful expressions in an instant. There were some people who were preparing to bid, but they were not mixed up at this time. They all looked at Qin Chen and the blue-scale man. Obviously they didn't want to offend the pinnacle of the Konghai clan casually. Holy Lord, this race is extremely vengeful.

You can see that a peak holy master actually wants to * the sacred fruit of the heavenly soul. Everyone understands that this person is clearly aimed at Qin Chen and prevents him from having any possibility of improving his strength. This shows that this person hates Qin Chen. How much is it?

Qin Chen didn't expect these guys to take out two treasures casually to * them from him, and they all met the requirements of the other party, which shows how many good things these old things have.

Sure enough, after the blue-scaled man made the offer, the eyes of the warrior with the heavenly soul sacred fruit suddenly brightened, and the Yinfeng Halberd and Tian Yun Guo were both in line with his requirements. Tian Yun Guo is a sacred fruit that can repair physical injuries, although Not as powerful as the Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit, but it is also very valuable, not to mention a top-notch Yinfeng Halberd.

Of course, this person even hopes that the blue scale man can take out the Luowu Guixin Fruit to exchange for the Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit, but he knows that this is impossible. The value of a Luowu Guixin Fruit alone is no worse than that of the Heavenly Soul Holy Fruit. Even if this person wanted to attack Qin Chen, it was impossible to make such a loss-making business.

When Qin Chen saw this, he immediately snorted, "I used a Yin Demon Knife and a Flesh Derived Pill to exchange the Heavenly Soul Sacred Fruit. You don't need to replenish the Middle Grade Holy Master's Sacred Veins." Qin Chen said and took out the two directly. The thing was placed on the table in front of him, and then he looked at the man with the heavenly soul sacred fruit.

There was a tumult on the court in an instant, and they all looked at Qin Chen in surprise. It was obvious that Qin Chen had also taken out these two treasures, and there was actually a flesh and blood derivative pill among them.

Flesh-derived pill, which means rebirth from a drop of blood, is actually similar to Tianyun fruit. However, the flesh-derived pill is made from the blood derived fruit similar to Tianyun fruit, and the blood derived fruit is originally the same as Tianyun fruit. The fruit is at a level, and now it is refined into a pill. Compared with the pure Tianyun fruit, the effect is at least twice as good.

Who doesn't want this kind of pill?

Everyone looked at Qin Chen in shock. Before, Qin Chen took out a bloodline Heavenly Dao Divine Pill, and at this time he took out a Flesh Derivative Pill. This kid got a treasure from an ancient pill saint. ? Or is there a certain top alchemy power behind him?

Taking out two top-level pill in succession, this is not something ordinary people can do.

In an instant, everyone's gazes looking at Qin Chen changed instantly, and they became a little flickering and naked. Qin Chen is a mid-term peak holy master, how long is this strange trade fair? He changed several things alone, and it can be seen that Qin Chen's good things are definitely not missing.

Chapter 3476: Kukai

Seeing Qin Chen quoting again, and taking out a good thing like the Flesh Derivative Pill, the blue-scaled man of the Konghai tribe's eyes became more ferocious and fierce, and all kinds of murderous intent surrounded him, if it weren't for this is the strange thing fair. , He might have stretched out his hand to pinch Qin Chen to death.

"Okay, change it!"

There is no need to hesitate at all, the man with the heavenly soul sacred fruit directly placed the heavenly soul sacred fruit in the hands of the maid puppet and exchanged it with Qin Chen.

After the man who had exchanged the heavenly soul sacred fruit got Qin Chen's Flesh Derivative Pill, he stood up directly, and then turned around and left the strange object fair.

You can leave at any time in the strange things fair, but you can't come in again. Many people around after seeing this person leave directly, they all know that this person and Qin Chen have exchanged things, and they have obviously offended the master of the Konghai clan. , Offended a peak saint master with the strength of his late saint master, not much better than Qin Chen, so he left here the first time.

The master of the Konghai clan glanced at the leaving man coldly, snorted, put away his treasure and sat down. Instead of chasing the man who left before, he sneered and stared at Qin Chen, obviously early. Already eyeing Qin Chen.

On the contrary, Qin Chen calmed down at this time. Anyway, he had already offended people, so naturally he would not pay attention to other people, but continue to see what other people have treasures.

After such a small storm, the order of the strange things fair was not affected at all, and soon many people also took out what they wanted to trade.

I have to say that there are simply too many treasures in this strange trade fair, and many of them are extremely rare things, much better than the Dongguang City auction.

Only then did Qin Chen realize that if he wants to get real good things, there will be some at the official auction, but most of the good things are actually traded in such black markets.

Anyway, he had offended people and changed his face, Qin Chen completely let go, as long as he met someone he liked, he would directly make a price.

There are too many treasures on his body. They are all sacred treasures obtained from various void bandits. They do not have much effect on Qin Chen now. On the contrary, these top rare treasures are Qin Chen most. Shortage.

When encountering some strong people who didn't care much about the holy treasure, Qin Chen took out top-notch elixirs to trade. Qin Chen had too many good elixirs, and one pot of elixirs could produce at least six to ten pill. Two, enough for him to exchange many good things.

Of course, Qin Chen didn't do too much. At least some treasures that are not necessary for him, Qin Chen didn't bid, otherwise, he would really offend most of the people present.

But even so, Qin Chen attracted the attention of many people. Many experts stared at Qin Chen with extremely fiery eyes. It was true that Qin Chen had traded too many treasures.

This guy with only the strength of the mid-level peak holy master, the treasures on his body seem to be endless.

About two hours later, Qin Chen watched the trade fair was about to end, so he stood up, and before the end of the trade fair, he walked outside the strange things trade fair.

When many people saw this, there was a greedy look in their eyes, but before someone moved, the Konghai man who had been staring at Qin Chen coldly snorted and stood up at the same time.

Everyone sighed secretly in their hearts, this Konghai clan master has already paid close attention to Qin Chen, Qin Chen really has a lot of good things, and he has also exchanged many top treasures.

Unfortunately, he still has to make wedding dresses for others in the end. In this way, no one is in the early stage. At this time, it makes it clear that they can't get along with the Konghai Clan. The Konghai Clan is a race with extremely hatred. Naturally no one wants to do such a foolish thing.

"Dust, the man from the Konghai Clan has caught up."

Among the jade disc of good fortune in the universe, You Qianxue and the others also knew everything about the trade fair, and immediately said in a deep voice.

"Master, the Konghai tribe is a rather powerful race in the secluded sea of the heavens, and they hold a lot of grudges. It seems that this guy is staring at you. Once we leave the void market, he will definitely do something with us." The sword king Muzhifeng also transmitted voice. Tao.

"Then let him stare."

Qin Chen sneered, and did not leave the Void Bazaar directly, but entered another inn in the Void Bazaar. He naturally knew that he had been targeted by this guy, and even this person might not be the only one who was eyeing him. In this case, Qin Chen naturally had to make some preparations, leaving the Void Bazaar directly, but it would be dangerous.

As for why you didn't go to the inn at the beginning, you were naturally afraid of being noticed by someone with a heart.

After a while, Qin Chen had already arrived in the inn and saw that Qin Chen had actually entered an inn, and a cold chill suddenly appeared in the eyes of the master of the Konghai clan behind Qin Chen.

He originally thought that Qin Chen was so arrogant in the strange things fair. What was the background? He was a person from a certain top power. Who knew that Qin Chen went to an inn in the void market.

If Qin Chen returned to the resident of a certain top power, he would indeed have some trouble targeting Qin Chen, but since he was a casual cultivator, the master of Konghai clan was completely relieved.

After seeing Qin Chen paying the fee, the master of the Konghai clan instantly walked into the inn and asked the guy coldly, "How long has that guy made the deposit before?"

"Who are you?" The inn guy said impatiently, but when he raised his head, he saw that it was the pinnacle saint of the Konghai clan, and his face turned pale with fright. Nono said, "This is the privacy of the guest... "

The Nakonghai tribe directly took out a storage ring, "There is a middle-grade holy vein in it, which is the deposit for this person who lives in your inn. As for the time, just like the previous person, you can choose to collect it, or it can be high-sounding. Reject this seat, but you have to think carefully about the consequences..."

The guy didn't dare to say anything, and hurriedly waved his hand: "This guest, this deposit is too much, and the other party only paid one day's deposit."

"one day?"

This time it was the Konghai tribe's turn to be puzzled. He thought Qin Chen would live here for three to five years. He wanted to spend his patience, but he couldn't think of just staying for one day.

"Huh, pretending to be a fool, I want to see what you are doing here." The master of the Konghai clan snorted coldly. He has made up his mind to guard at the entrance of this inn. He will definitely not wait for Qin Chen. Won't leave the void bazaar.

Three to five years were nothing to him, a peak saint master, and the treasures on Qin Chen's body were worth waiting for so long.

Chapter 3477: Resurrection of Qiongxian

The price of this inn was quite expensive, but the space and environment were excellent. Qin Chen entered his room and saw that there was not only a vast hall but also three rooms inside.

Qin Chen arranged forbidden formations in this room for the first time, one after another, each forbidden formation was to isolate the divine consciousness and prevent all surveillance.

After finishing this, Qin Chen immediately entered the Universe Good Fortune Jade Plate. Although he only had one day in the outside world, the members of the Qingxue family were about to leave, but as the years of Universe Good Fortune Jade Plate accelerated, he at least There are two or three months.

Two or three months is not long for Qin Chen, there are too many things he needs to do.

As soon as Qin Chen entered the Universe Good Fortune Jade Plate, he walked towards the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Realms, and then took out the Nine Immortal Blood Jade.

When this Nine Immortal Blood Jade appeared near the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree, under the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree, Qiongxian's soul of the nine-tailed fairy fox instantly turned into a white light and suspended.

At this time You Qianxue, Sword King Muzhifeng, You Su Xiaoxiao also came nearby excitedly, watching this scene nervously.

"Dust, are you planning to reshape Senior Qiongxian's body?" You Qianxue couldn't help but say.

"That's right." Qin Chen waved his hand, and the Nine Immortal Blood Jade instantly suspended in the air.

"Senior Qiongxian, this is the blood jade of the Nine Immortals of your monster race. It can be used as the body carrier of your monster race. I once promised Senior to bring you back to life. Now I finally found a way to resurrect you. , It's just that only one physical carrier has been found at the moment. Senior Eternal Sword Master, Skyfire Venerable, and Ten Thousand Spirit Demon Venerable. You may have to wait for a while. As long as I find a suitable physical carrier for you, you will definitely Let you reshape your body and resurrect it."

Under the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Realms, the souls of Venerable Skyfire and others seemed to have heard Qin Chen's words, and the souls surged.

The soul of the white nine-tailed fairy fox is constantly flickering, as if extremely excited, and the remnant soul of the Eternal Sword Master still attached to the roots of the Demon Tree of the Ten Thousand Realms also exudes an expression of excitement, obviously for Jiu Tail Xianhu felt excited and happy.

"Senior Qiongxian, don't worry, I have a heavenly soul sacred fruit here, and I will blend into the Ten Thousand Realm Demon Tree to strengthen your strength first."

Qin Chen's voice fell, and he crossed his knees directly under the Demon Tree of Ten Thousand Worlds. At the same time, he took out the Holy Fruit of the Heavenly Soul in his hand. Immediately afterwards, Qin Chen squeezed the Dao Dao Hand Art with both hands, and the Heavenly Soul Forbidden Technique worked, powerful After the power of the soul was integrated into the sacred fruit of the heavenly soul, it was seen that after the sacred fruit of the heavenly soul was in contact with the power of the soul, it turned into a liquid in an instant and merged into the magic tree of the ten thousand realms.

Hum!

A dark soul light flashed on the Ten Thousand Realm Demon Tree, and these rays of light passed through the roots of the Ten Thousand Demon Tree, and quickly supplemented the Venerable Skyfire, the Venerable Spirit Demon, the Eternal Sword Master, and the Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox IV. In the light and shadow of human souls, the soul aura of these four people suddenly rose.

"The Heavenly Soul Saint is indeed a good thing, and this Ten Thousand Realm Demon Tree is even more a good thing."

Qin Chen felt the souls of the four in amazement. In this moment, there was an astonishing improvement, and after being supplemented by souls, the souls of Venerable Skyfire, Venerable Demon of All Souls, and Eternal Sword Master once again Falling into a deep sleep, the light of the soul of the nine-tailed fairy fox slowly rose.

A vague and glamorous woman appeared in front of Qin Chen. She was full of lazy temperament, with endless power of charm, her figure was shrouded in white light, full of the temperament of an intellectual woman, her slender thighs dazzled people's eyes. And there are nine emptiness white fluffy tails behind him, and between a frown and a smile, people are immersed in endless charm.

"I have seen senior nine-tailed fairy fox."

Qin Chen said with joy.

Previously, the nine-tailed fairy fox had only one remnant soul left, and even the soul figure could not be condensed. Unexpectedly, after integrating into the sacred fruit of the heavenly soul, the ghost phantom that has actually been condensed, it seems that the soul of the predecessor of the nine-tailed fairy fox Under the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Realms, much has been restored.

"Unexpectedly, you did your promise to resurrect me. I saw everything you did. Don't call me senior. I am not a senior, just an ordinary monster race. You call me Qingqiu. Purple clothes."

The lazy woman spoke, with endless charm and excitement in her voice.

"Senior, you saved Sisi, and that is my benefactor. It is naturally what I should do to save you." Qin Chen said with a smile.

"Okay, don't talk about the old things, hurry up and reshape the body, long-winded, kid Qin Chen, look at it again, my sister Qingqiu Ziyi is gone." There is Su Xiaoxiaoshi, and do it with a butt. On Qin Chen's head, he covered his eyes and said.

"There is Su Xiaoxiao." Nine-tailed fairy fox sighed and looked at the spirit of Su Xiaoxiao, with endless memories in her eyes. She didn't say any more words of gratitude, and said: "Familiarity, please help me arrange a gathering spirit. It will take me two months to reshape my body after placing the Nine Immortal Blood Jade in the Spirit Gathering Array."

Qin Chen nodded after hearing what the Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox said, and stopped talking nonsense. He immediately raised his hand. In an instant, under the power of the Universe's fortune and jade disc, there was already an array of spirit gatherings. At the same time, Qin Chen raised his hand and placed the Nine Immortal Blood Jade in the middle of the formation. Then, Qin Chen waved his hand again, and the ten thousand azure-gold divine furnace appeared, and the body and soul liquid medicine stored in it flew out in an instant, slowly Scattered in the formation, following the Spirit Gathering Array, it gradually merged into the Nine Immortals Blood Jade.

After doing this, Qin Chen arranged another concealment restriction outside the spirit gathering array. After seeing the Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox's soul, he gave Qin Chen a little blessing, which instantly turned into a white light and entered the blood of the Nine Immortals. Among jade.

Hum!

Suddenly, the terrifying spirit gathering formation started to operate in an instant, and Qin Chen knew that the nine-tailed fairy fox Qingqiu Ziyi had already begun to reshape his body. He did not keep staring at him, but returned to the river of time, and then took out the previous exchange. Here comes the black flame heart lotus.

boom!

After the appearance of the Black Flame Heart Lotus, Qin Chen displayed the Calamity Underworld Fire again. Immediately after the Calamity Underworld Fire felt the breath of the Black Flame Heart Lotus, he quickly swallowed the Black Flame Heart Lotus and saw the disaster. The aura on Minghuo's body quickly rose, and the whole was undergoing restoration and transformation.

When You Qianxue and Dao Wang Muzhifeng saw Qin Chen's hard work in cultivation, they naturally did not dare to neglect, knowing that there might be a fierce battle next, they also went to retreat and practice.

For a whole month, Qin Chen was refining the Black Flame Heart Lotus. A month later, the Calamity Underworld had completely refined the Black Flame Heart Lotus, and a group of tyrannical demon fire was suspended in front of Qin Chen. Even Qin Chen felt a trace of heart palpitations.

Chapter 3478: You thief

Qin Chen was pleasantly surprised. He knew that the calamity underworld fire had once again been astonishingly improved after it had swallowed the Black Flame Heart Lotus. At this moment, the calamity underworld fire was already extremely terrifying, and it could definitely hurt a master of the peak Holy Master level .

Immediately afterwards, Qin Chen did not rest, but began to refine the formation.

The master of the Konghai clan kept staring at him, making Qin Chen extremely unhappy. If he just wanted to escape, the master of the Konghai clan would never be able to keep him, but Qin Chen wanted to do more than just escape. But behead the opponent.

In fact, if confronted head-on, even if Qin Chen didn't refine the formation, he would not be afraid of the Konghai clan master, a peak saint master. Although Qin Chen had not fought against the peak saint master, he was even the ancestor of the demon How can an existence that has never chased and killed be afraid of a peak holy lord?

If he showed enough cards and methods, Qin Chen didn't think he would not be able to win right.

But at the same time, Qin Chen is also very clear that he has made such a big show at the strange things trade fair. It is very likely that he is not just a master of the Konghai clan. If the fight takes too long, once it is caught by others The pinnacle holy master surrounded him, facing many top experts, Qin Chen didn't think he could still take advantage.

What he wants is a quick fight, and at least he can't let himself fall into a hard fight.

In this way, the formation becomes necessary.

Qin Chen's current formation can even reach the masters of Demon Venerable. He really wants to see what the pinnacle holy master of the Konghai clan has.

For a whole month, Qin Chen was refining formation flags and array plates. At this time, Qin Chen had hundreds of formation plates and array flags on his body. Qin Chen stopped refining array flags, and the outside world was fast. In the past, he felt that it was time for him to leave the inn. If he had prepared so much and he could not quickly kill the master of the Konghai clan, he would leave directly, and would never give anyone a chance.

It's just that Qin Chen just stood up, and suddenly, an astonishing wave spread out in the hidden place under the lapse of years.

Hum!

An aura that made Qin Chen's heart palpitating was transmitted from the place where he had arranged the hidden formation before, and Qin Chen's expression immediately changed, because that place was where the nine-tailed fairy fox Qingqiu Ziyi gathered his body.

Is there something wrong with Senior Nine-Tailed Fox's reshaping body?

Qin Chen was shocked at once, if something went wrong with Qingqiu Ziyi, then he would really be ashamed of Senior Eternal Sword Master, thinking that his figure swayed, he immediately arrived in front of the formation anxiously.

This concealment formation was arranged by Qin Chen, not to mention that it was still inside the Universe Fortune Jade Disk. The concealment formation had disappeared when Qin Chen waved his hand, the spirit gathering array behind the formation was shattered, and a thick white mist appeared. Haunted out, with a charm of charm, Qin Chen directly broke into the white mist under the worry in his heart.

Qin Chen felt that he had hit something soft in an instant, and then there was a soft whisper. Qin Chen hurriedly stretched out his hand and instantly felt that he had pulled a soft body with a strong fragrance.

At this time, the white mist dissipated, and Qin Chen was stunned for an instant, because he actually saw an extremely perfect body, this body is very delicate and charming, the exquisitely curvy body is full of mature charm, concave and convex, the skin is white, and She was naked, full of temptation.

"You are..." Qin Chen's mind was stunned for a moment, and he didn't understand why a naked woman appeared here.

"Benevolence." A slightly panicked voice sounded, causing Qin Chen to wake up instantly. This turned out to be Senior Nine-Tailed Fairy Fox.

Qin Chen released his hand in a hurry. Before he could say anything, a figure rushed over quickly. It was Su Xiaoxiao.

"I knew you, a thief, even Qingqiu and Ziyi." Su Xiaoxiao cried out suddenly.

"This is a misunderstanding." Qin Chen gave a wry smile and hurriedly turned his head.

"Hmph, what's the use of turning your head, this is your little world, you can see it when you close your eyes." Su Xiaoxiao said.

Qin Chen was in a cold sweat and was extremely embarrassed. In fact, it was true. In his small world, even if he closed his eyes, he could see everything here.

"Stop talking about Su Xiaoxiao, this is a misunderstanding."

Qingqiu Ziyi's face was flushed with shame at this time, and she wanted to find a place to sew and drill down. After she had condensed into a flesh before, she felt her body again. Under the excitement in her heart, she didn't wear anything and looked obsessively. Her reunited body was filled with infinite emotion, and at the same time she wanted to test her strength, but she did not expect such a thing to happen.

At this time, there was another voice coming from a distance. It was You Qianxue and Daowang Muzhifeng who heard the movement and rushed over. Qingqiu Ziyi immediately waved his hand, and instantly covered with a layer of fluffy coat, becoming dignified and charming.

"Dust, what happened?"

You Qianxue thought that something had happened to Qin Chen's cultivation. After rushing over, she asked anxiously for the first time, but suddenly her voice stopped, looking at the Qingqiu Ziyi in front of him, and said in awe: "Are you Senior Qiongqian? "

"I am Qingqiu Ziyi." The nine-tailed fairy fox Qiongqian said with a smile, as if nothing had happened before: "You don't call my seniors anymore. You saved me, and you will call me sister Ziyi. I call you sister Qianxue, can you?"

"Sister Qianxue, listen to me, your man was broken just now, he..." Seeing You Qianxue coming, Su Xiaoxiao momentarily came to You Qianxue as if he had seen a backer, and said madly, Telling Qin Chen, it's just that before she finished speaking, Qingqiu Ziyi's face blushed slightly when she heard it, and when she hurriedly raised her hand, she saw that Su Xiaoxiao was caught and photographed by an invisible force. His mouth was also covered, and he fell into Qingqiu Ziyi's arms.

"Your cultivation base?"

Su Xiaoxiao stared at Qingqiu Ziyi with wide eyes.

Qin Chen and Dao Wang Muzhifeng also looked at Qingqiu Ziyi in shock. The moment Qingqiu Ziyi took the shot, they all felt a strong deterrent.

"Thanks to your body and soul liquid medicine, my soul has been fully restored. My current strength has been restored a lot, which is equivalent to the peak of your human beings." Qingqiu Ziyi said with a smile.

Qin Chen and You Qianxue looked at each other, and their eyes were shocked. You should know that before Qingqiu Ziyi, there was only a trace of soul power. At first, he almost had to melt away. Later, he repaired it under the magic tree of ten thousand worlds. Right now, as soon as he was resurrected, he had restored the cultivation base of the Peak Saint Master.

Is the spirit medicine so terrible?
