Chapter 3801: Druid Heart

"This armor is temporarily not used." Qin Chen shook his head.

If Qin Chen didn't get the Haotian Divine Armor, he might still be interested in the inner armor, but he who got the Haotian Divine Armor would naturally look down on this inner armor.

Even the broken Haotian Divine Armor can weaken more than 90% of the attacks of the pinnacle human beings, which is more than ten times stronger than this inner armor, and it is not on the same level.

"If you need it, you can take a shot." Qin Chen said to the sky stabbing sky.

Stabbing Sky Qiong shook his head and said, "Leave these merit points to you, my lord. Besides, our clan does not rely on personal strength, so it can hardly be used."

Suddenly, Qin Chen was right. The Wara clan's offensive relied on collective strength. This single piece of armor was indeed worth buying without enhancing the strength of the entire clan.

It is actually a waste to spend too much merit on this.

When Qin Chen was talking, the first auction had come to an end. In the end, this inner armor was photographed for a merit worth 700 million.

"hiss!"

Gu Limo took a breath of air, which is equivalent to the value of four multi-venerable sacred veins. For an inner armor, these guys are really worth it.

How much can the four multi-venerable sacred veins improve their armies of the Zerg race?

Qin Chen was also slightly confused. He thought he had a lot of treasures on his body. Now, when he saw it, the merit value of nearly 2 billion didn't seem to be a big deal.

After all, even the first warm-up treasure was sold for 700 million yuan.

"Okay, the auction of the first inner armor suit is over, now we are auctioning the second treasure."

"The second treasure is called Hunyuan Gourd..."

Qin Chen didn't know the use of this Hunyuan Gourd, but the woman in red had just uttered the words Hunyuan Gourd, and all the boxes became a little commotion. It was obvious that this thing was extremely remarkable. The red-clothed woman calmly raised her hand and waited for the commotion to calm down a bit before continuing, "I want to come here to participate in the auction. I don't know if there are not many Hunyuan Gourd, or not. Yes, Hunyuan Gourd is A piece of earthly treasure ..."

When Qin Chen heard the words Earth Sovereign Treasure Tool, he took a breath of cold air in his heart. This second warm-up thing was actually promoted to Earth Sovereign Treasure Tool? This is a bit too exaggerated, right?

What is the real treasure? Is it Tianzun's treasure?

Is this black market silly?

This second treasure is so much higher than the first treasure, obviously something is not quite right. Is there anything hidden here?

If the first inner armor is already very precious, then compared to the second earthly treasure, Hunyuan Gourd, there is no light at all.

The red-clothed woman coughed and continued, "Of course, although this Hunyuan gourd is a treasure of the earth, it is partially broken for some reason, and it is no longer a treasure of the earth."

Hearing this, Qin Chen secretly said that it was normal. If there were no broken earth-sovereign treasures to take out, it would indeed be a bit shocking. But even if it is a broken earth treasure, it is not comparable to an ordinary best person.

It wasn't until the woman in red that it was a broken earthly treasure that the commotion was slightly quieted down, but it was still evident that many people wanted to get this broken earthly treasure.

The woman in red did not continue the introduction, she opened a wooden box on the auction table in front of her, and took out an emerald green gourd from the inside, which immediately dissipated, affecting the operation of the world. Knowing that this Hunyuan Gourd is broken, but that powerful aura and Hunyuan's power can still be felt by everyone. When the divine consciousness fell on it, I could immediately feel the trembling of the sea of consciousness. No wonder it is called Hunyuan Gourd.

False pass. Qin Chen's divine sense fell on this Hunyuan gourd, and he found that this Hunyuan gourd carried the aura of chaos. This was obviously a chaotic treasure, but it was a pity that a crack had appeared on the wall of the gourd, this crack. Kind of big and broken

The rate is not low anymore.

"There is no reserve price for this Hunyuan Gourd. The one with the highest price will get the price. Now we will start bidding." The woman in red told everyone to observe the Hunyuan Gourd and immediately put away the Hunyuan Gourd and said.

"Three hundred million merits, plus a holy vein of the Venerable." Someone immediately made an offer.

Although Qin Chen was not interested in this Hunyuan Gourd, he smiled bitterly when someone reported the price for the first time.

The broken Hunyuan Gourd was quoted for the first time. Obviously, the final transaction price was much higher than this, and it might even be several times the first price.

It can be seen that the price of the next treasure will be even more terrifying, even if you fancy a treasure that you like later, it is still a question whether this strength can be taken down. At this moment, he has nearly 2 billion merit points, and several venerable holy veins, which are obtained from the storage space of veteran Jueshan and the masters of the thousand-eyed clan. In addition, he There are a lot of them, but this kind of thing is rooted here

It can't be counted. Buying such treasures, this black market auction house is not like other places, the lowest one has to be the Holy Veins of the Venerable.

Fortunately, Qin Chen still has many divine light fish and alien species in the Nether Star River. If there is something to fancy, every one of them should be exchanged for a lot of merits.

"Five hundred million merit points, plus a holy vein of the Venerable." Someone immediately refreshed the price, and it was not a bit refreshed.

"800 million meritorious service."

The price of Hunyuan Gourd was constantly refreshed, and in the end it was taken away by someone with 1.1 billion merit points and a saint pulse of the Venerable. In this process, Qin Chen did not bid. The woman in red who presided over the auction directly used the teleportation array on the auction stage to send the Hunyuan Gourd to the person who bid 1.1 billion meritorious merits plus a venerable sacred vein, and then took out the third jade box loudly. , "The third item to be sold is more

It is more special, I believe it will rarely appear on the auction floor, but it is a Druid heart of the Druids among the cosmos. "

As soon as the words "Druid Heart" were uttered, it caused even greater commotion on the spot.

Qin Chen was a little puzzled, what is this druid heart?

"My lord, this thing must have been brought out by the Black Gold Zerg." Stabbing Sky Qiong was still listening, and at this moment, the pupil of the eye suddenly burst into light, and said in a deep voice.

"Druid Heart, this Black Gold Zerg is very lucky, right? You got the Druid Heart, no wonder they were able to come in this auction room."

Gu Limo also said solemnly.

"Druid Heart, what is this?"

Qin Chen frowned and asked.

He really didn't know what good thing this druid heart was. At this moment, the woman in red stood on the stage and said, "Perhaps some people don't know what the heart of the druid is. This thing is the treasure of the Druids, and the Druids condense themselves. The treasure formed by power contains unpredictable effects."

Chapter 3802: Nature elves

The woman in red introduced on the high platform: "As everyone knows, the Druids are a special race among the cosmic races. They belong to the Monster Race and are like the Dragon Race. They are born outside the Monster Race and are natural elves. The * of heaven and earth." "The heart of the druid is the treasure of the druids. Only the druids who have the true natural inheritance can be born. Such characters are in the druids. The clan is extremely rare, and any one that appears is a druid

One of the future heirs of the family. "

"It can be said that as long as this person does not fall, he will definitely become one of the kings of the Druids in the future."

"And such a druid heart is from a certain descendant of the druid family."

The woman in red took out a jade box and opened it in full view. Suddenly, a bright green light group appeared in front of everyone, and the entire high platform was shining green.

At the same time, a breath of nature was passed on this auction stage, and the natural charm was flowing between the world and the earth, making everyone as if they were in nature.

"The effect of the Druid's Heart, I'm afraid you don't need to say more. Once this thing is refined, it will be gifted by nature. The most amazing thing is that it will have the Heart of Nature and the Druids. The ability to change nature elves."

"Of course, this is only theoretically. In history, many masters who have received the heart of druids have been gifted by nature, and they have a lot of natural understanding of Taoism, but very few can truly become natural spirits."

"There is no low price for this item. The one with the higher price will get it. Now the auction starts."

After saying all this, the woman in red retreated aside, smiling at everyone on the court.

"I give 300 million merit points."

"I give out three hundred and fifty million."

What puzzled Qin Chen was that the degree of popularity of the Druid Heart auction was much weaker than the previous Hunyuan Gourd, and even the inner armor.

"Druid's heart, feel the rhyme of natural Tao, become a natural spirit?"

Qin Chen questioned. He understands the rhyme of natural Taoism naturally, which is equivalent to the sense of heaven. For masters of the venerable level, ordinary cultivation can no longer improve their strength. Only the more understanding of heaven and earth, the more they are born in the body after they override the rules.

The more and stronger one's own rules and Taoist rhymes are, the stronger the strength naturally becomes.

Rumor has it that a truly top-notch master can even think of the universe.

But what does it mean to be a natural spirit?

However, Gu Limo looked at him with fiery eyes: "The heart of the druid, this is a good thing, it can understand the way of heaven, as for becoming a natural spirit, then don't think about it, it is almost impossible."

"Yes, but if it succeeds, it will be able to evolve natural aura, containing the characteristics of the monster race, and it is not impossible to mix into the monster race camp in the future." "If the heart of the druid can be truly refined, then the evolution The demon aura that comes out is the top power of the demon, and it can't be spied easily, because this is a natural gift. It's rumored that the demon had specifically purchased the heart of a druid, trying to Infiltrated the monster clan and obtained the intelligence of the monster clan and the human alliance, but all failed. "

"Hey, the demon race like the holy demon race can still think about it, we Zer race don't think about it, the characteristics are too obvious, even after getting the heart of the druid and transforming into the demon race, I am afraid that it will be seen through."

"However, among the druid army destroyed by the Black Gold Zerg, there are figures with the heart of druids. No wonder they have been so arrogant recently that they even dared to enter the black market auction."

Several people in Gu Limo talked a lot, one by one was extremely angry.

And Qin Chen also learned from the conversations between Gu Limo and the others about the magic of this thing. The so-called natural spirit incarnation can turn into the body of the demon clan and enter the camp of the demon clan. Person recognition.

This is really scary. Generally speaking, in addition to the holy demon clan, the demon clan uses methods such as soul seizing and other methods to seize the strong from various clan and sneak into each clan. There are few other methods that can truly penetrate each clan. Within the clan, because the body

The breath is too obvious.

Moreover, even if it is the Holy Demon Race, it is not foolproof. It can be concealed from ordinary masters of various races, but after truly facing the giants of each race, the difference in soul will still be noticed.

Especially when entering the sacred place of inheritance of various races, it can be easily identified.

Therefore, nowadays, human race and demons want to infiltrate spies in each other's forces, often the method they use is to win other race masters with profit.

For example, Palace Lord Yaomie.

People are not for themselves, and the earth will die.

Naturally, there are some extremely selfish people among the various races. In order to improve themselves and gain benefits, even if they betray the race, they will not hesitate.

But in this way, it is often easy to be exposed, and the price to pay is a lot, because people's hearts are unpredictable.

However, if the Druid's heart is obtained, all races can be transformed into monster races and directly join the monster race camp, then all the information can be easily obtained, and it will not be recognized at all.

It's no wonder that this druid's heart appeared, and it aroused so many people's amazement. "It's a pity, if the Demon Race didn't start the Druid Heart Project, such a Druid Heart would be enough to capture the heavens, and it might not be inferior to the Supreme Treasure of the Earth. But now, everyone knows that the Demon Race Exhausted methods, no one succeeds

The gong gets a natural incarnation, and the value of the Druid's heart has shrunk by more than half. " Stabbed Sky Qiong sighed.

"This thing is magical. Look at the price. If it's appropriate, you can compete."

Qin Chen squinted his eyes and watched the rising prices on the high platform.

But when it rose to 500 million meritorious value, the price slowed down.

"Three hundred million worth of merit, plus one hundred and fifty a catty of Shenguang fish."

Suddenly, a price was put on the auction table.

As soon as this price came out, it immediately caused a sensation. Many people looked around. Who, actually, directly took out one hundred and fifty Shenguang fish to bid? In the black market, merit points are the least rare, because as long as you kill any race on the battlefield of ten thousand races, you can get merit points, and such merit points can only be exchanged for treasures and treasures in their respective alliances or black markets. Holy Vein, can't Used directly.

And one level higher than merit is the venerable holy vein, which can be directly used to improve the venerable cultivation.

However, there are many venerables who have stayed in their own realm for tens of thousands, 100,000 years, or even longer. It is difficult for ordinary venerable sacred veins to increase their strength. This also caused the Shenguangyu to be above the Venerable's Saint Veins, because even the Venerable who absorbed the Venerable's Saint Veins could not improve his cultivation, but he could improve himself by refining the Shenguangyu.

Chapter 3803: Star Bamboo

Therefore, although to a certain extent, the merit value, the saint vein of the Venerable and the Shenguangyu are equivalent, but in many cases, the seller will choose the Shenguangyu instead of others.

As soon as this price came out, many people were speechless, which meant that they wanted to bid, and obviously they had to take the Shenguang fish.

Might as well keep the next treasure for auction.

"My lord, it's a waste of one hundred and fifty Shenguang fish to take pictures of this stuff? You can just keep taking pictures of other treasures that can perceive Tao Yun. It will be much cheaper and the effect will not be much worse."

After seeing Qin Chen's price, Gu Limo couldn't help being speechless.

This price is really Qin Chen, but Qin Chen just smiled and didn't explain too much. What he was interested in was not the Druid's heart that could perceive Tao Yun, but the incarnation of a natural spirit.

After Qin Chen's price was released, the court was silent, and in the end, no one bid anymore.

It's not that no one has so many sacred light fishes, but sacred light fishes are generally reserved for auction other treasures later, and there is no need to consume them here.

"Okay, congratulations to this friend, please also pay for the handover."

The woman in red smiled slightly. Qin Chen inserted Venerable Jueshan's Black Market Order on the card reader in the box, and the merit value in it was immediately transferred away. Qin Chen replaced the merit of the Thousand Eyes tribe, and transferred 100 million merit points. , Qin Chen was on the teleportation formation in the middle of the box again,

One hundred and fifty Shenguang fish were put on and sent over.

Black market auctions are usually on-site auctions, and deliveries on the spot. Everything is carried out in a box, which is very secretive. Qin Chen is also a little worried about using the black market orders of Venerable Jueshan and the Thousand Eyes to make payments. The black market orders are issued by the black market. Although it is called anonymous, whether each black market order has a number, except for the black market. do not know

After a while, the other party had obviously received the payment, and the teleportation array lit up again, and then the druid heart had appeared in the box.

Qin Chen picked up the Druid's heart, and a burst of natural aura instantly enveloped him, letting the cells of his body relax, and there was a feeling of cheering, even Qin Chen vaguely had an impulse to directly break through the venerable.

It's worth buying.

Even if he couldn't comprehend the incarnation spirit, the natural breath and the sentimental rhyme were enough for Qin Chen.

In the other box, the people of the Black Gold Zerg were also extremely excited.

"Master Kemira, one hundred and fifty sacred light fish, and 200 million merit points, we have made a lot of money this time."

"Haha, whoever is rich, actually bought Druid's Heart directly, although the price is a little lower, but it's not a loss."

Camilla has a smile on his face. With these resources, he will surely make a lot of progress. When the time comes, he will be annexing the Wara tribe and take away the treasures from the Wara tribe. He is afraid of the ranking of the Wara tribe among the Zerg. It is to move forward a lot.

"Everyone, the three warm-up treasures are over. Next, we will auction the ten real lots." The woman in red said with a smile: "The consignor didn't ask for the three treasures before, just bid for merit, but for the remaining ten lots, consignors have some requirements of their own. Therefore, it depends on your luck.

Angry. "

I have to say that after the auction of the three warm-up treasures, the atmosphere of the entire auction hall suddenly became hot.

"This is the first treasure officially auctioned, called Xingkongzhu. I don't think I need to introduce it further below!"

The voice of the woman in red fell, and a bamboo, which was completely dark but shining with the luster of stars, appeared in her hand.

Seeing this starry sky bamboo, the whole auction room became a sensation in an instant.

Qin Chen was equally shocked, what kind of auction was this? Not only are there broken earthly treasures, but the heart of the druids, apparently even the starry sky bamboo comes out. He really knows what it is. It grows in the chaotic starry sky. It is sometimes soft and sometimes hard. It can be used to make weapons and is extremely strong. It is said that the ancient human race has a famous artifact. hit

On the magic whip, there is the material of the star bamboo, which is the top crafting treasure.

In addition, the starry sky bamboo is placed around, you can also feel the Dao Yuan, and even add some top materials, it can also be used to refine the starry sky Dao Dan.

This thing is simply an almighty representative.

No one would have too many such treasures, even if it was a master of the earthly respect, it would be extremely hot.

Qin Chen's eyes lit up, he naturally wanted this starry sky bamboo.

Don't say that Qin Chen wants it, no one does not want this kind of good thing. The woman in red who supported the auction obviously knew the effect of the starry sky bamboo. She raised her hand to calm the commotion, and then continued: "The starry sky bamboo was placed here for auction. The final price was not determined by my black market auction. Fixed while It's the sender who gives the message. If someone can come up with something that makes the sender's heart beat, then Xingkongzhu is his. Xingkongzhu does not have a low price. Now everyone starts quoting. "

Can you still play like this?

When Qin Chen participated in the black market auction for the first time, he knew instantly that the person who took out the starry sky bamboo was in the box here. The black market auctioned on the top, and he decided on the bottom, and he could effectively sell one to his satisfaction. the price of.

This mode is a bit like the trade fair in the sea of void tides, but it is safer than the trade fair because there is no need to take out the things and sell them by themselves.

"I give 500 million merit points, plus two venerable holy veins, fifty divine light fish."

"I have 800 million meritorious service worth, a venerable holy vein, plus a five-jin heavy swordfish."

This price Qin Chen is extremely action, but Xingkongzhu is not his. The King Swordfish is an excellent thing. It is a special fish in the Nether Star River. Its body is like a sharp sword that can cut everything and is infinitely powerful.

If it is a strong sword repairer who refines it, you can feel that the Great King Swordfish cuts the starry sky in the Nether Galaxy and wanders the artistic conception of the Nether River, but it is a pity that Lian Qin Chen did not catch it.

"I give 300 million merit points, plus a false eye!"

There was another price, and this price caused an uproar.

Qin Chen was also very excited, vain eyes, this is also a good thing, can refine the sky eye pill, even if you don't refine the pill, you can refine it into the body, you can cultivate into the fire eye golden eye supernatural power, with infinite power.

These are all good things.

Qin Chen finally knows why the black market is so confident now. The treasures that appear here are all top-notch good things, and there is no difference. Even if the effect of False Fire Eye is not as good as Xingkongzhu, it is not much worse. It often depends on everyone's needs.

Chapter 3804: Millennium Light

"Are there any other offers?" The woman in red also knows that the price is already quite astonishing. The merit value of 300 million is not high, but a false eye definitely prevents a lot of people from raising the price. They came here to participate in the auction. Nothing ordinary

People know that the price they quoted is useless, and no one has a fluke mentality. Just when everyone thought that the starry sky bamboo was the price, a new price appeared on the huge screen above the auction table: "300 million meritorious services, plus a ten catty divine light fish, and a bottle of five containing different five elements. Attribute of the day

Taoist Pill. "

As soon as this price came out, it immediately caused a sensation. Starry Sky Bamboo can make people feel the rhyme of the stars, but the Heavenly Dao Shendan can also make people feel the rhyme of Taoism. The Heavenly Path God Pill is derived from the Heavenly Path God Tree, one of the Ten Great Dao Sources. The Heavenly Path Origin Fruit produced by the Heavenly Path God Tree has the power to perceive the Heavenly Path. A single Heavenly Path Origin Fruit or Heavenly Path God Pill is far inferior to the Star Sky Bamboo, but the other party takes It turned out to be five

A heavenly * pill with different attributes That is to say, the * pill of heaven, wood, water, fire, and earth, and the five element attributes are the most common attributes in the universe, and it is also the basic attribute. Anyone can cultivate these five attributes, so the * pill of the five elements On duty

As far as any venerable one is concerned, it is no trivial matter.

In addition, there is actually a ten-jin Shenguang fish.

In the black market, the sacred light fish is the most common thing. The value of the sacred light fish in twos and threes is not a big deal. Often the sacred light fish weighing more than a catty can interest the masters, but the value is still not Very high.

A Shenguang fish weighing one catty is generally equivalent to one or two million worth of merit, so there are dozens of transactions, hundreds of transactions. But that is only a catty of Shenguang fish. The growth of Shenguang fish is very slow. Once it exceeds two catties, the value of Shenguang fish will increase rapidly. Three catties of Shenguang fish are equivalent to 50 million meritorious services, half There is a holy vein of the Venerable, and one is more than five catties

Heavy Shenguang fish can be sold close to the value of a Venerable Saint Vein.

As for the ten catties Shenguang fish, this is absolutely equivalent to the king of Shenguang fish, and its value is immeasurable.

As soon as these two treasures came out, they immediately caused a sensation.

This price was naturally quoted by Qin Chen. After Qin Chen quoted the price, no one made another offer. He took out a ten catty fish king Shenguang fish at a time, plus five heavenly * pills. Compared with Shenguang fish, the heavenly * pills are only attached. Up.

Even the woman in red who held the auction was a little moved. He didn't understand that the person who offered the price had such a good thing. Why didn't he get it to the auction house to help send the auction?

A ten-jin-heavy Shenguang Fish King can definitely be put in the front warm-up session. Even in this black market, one will only appear in about ten thousand years.

After waiting for a while again, and seeing that there was indeed no one to continue bidding, the last two prices had their own merits, and only the person who owns the starry sky bamboo chose which price.

The auction floor was silent, but everyone on the floor couldn't calm down. Because of the confidentiality measures of the auction floor, the sender and bidder would not reveal their identities, so everyone was waiting silently. In the box, Gu Limo and Qitianqiong looked at Qin Chen with some doubts. They all knew that the price was quoted by Qin Chen. The ten-jin Shenguang fish was almost caught by Qin Chen in the Nether Star River. The second largest of all Shenguang fish,

Only Qin Chen could make this price. After more than a dozen breaths, the woman in red who presided over the auction seemed to have received the message and suddenly said: "The sender of Xingkongzhu chose the offer of 300 million meritorious merits and false eyes. Congratulations to this friend. But he wants to ask. Out at once Shenguangyu's friend, he is willing to exchange something else for this Shenguangyu, do you agree with it or not? "

"Of course, if this friend is willing, my black market auction will also be willing to put this fish king at this auction for an additional lot."

The woman in red said with a smile.

As a staff member of the black market, she did not contact Qin Chen privately, but spoke publicly.

As soon as this statement came out, there was a commotion in each box, because many people were very interested in such a sacred light fish.

Qin Chen didn't even bother to answer, so he directly withdrew his offer.

Seeing that Qin Chen withdrew the offer, the woman in red also knew that Qin Chen disagreed and proceeded to deliver.

"Is this guy from Starry Sky blind? The King of Fish doesn't even know how to choose?"

Seeing that Qin Chen hadn't photographed his own lot, Gu Limo couldn't help cursing, huh, he didn't choose anything for adults, he was really ignorant. Qin Chen is very open to it. Although the star bamboo is a treasure, it is good to be able to photograph it. Even if it is not photographed, Qin Chen will not be upset at all, otherwise he still has so many different species from the Nether Galaxy. Take it out, I'm afraid it won't be shot

To? The woman in red took out another jade box and lifted it up and said: "The second thing in this auction is called Millennium Light. It comes out of a mysterious realm in the void of the universe. The fusion of this Millennium Light can have a certain impact on time and space. Sense, and improve

The flying speed of the warrior can even be transformed into a thousand-year light..."

Millennium light.

Qin Chen's gaze became serious again. This is indeed a good thing. It can have an understanding of time and space. This is one of the first and second, it can increase the flight speed, which is also very attractive to the strong.

In a separate battle, if the battle at the same level is faster and on the front line, it is equivalent to a lot of strength. The faster people are more comfortable and can run if they can't fight.

But what puzzled Qin Chen was that the atmosphere of this thousand years of light was not as strong as the previous starry sky bamboo.

In his opinion, this thousand-year-old light is definitely not inferior to the starry sky bamboo. "Hehe, Thousand-Year Light, I have heard that it should come from an extremely terrifying secret realm in the universe, which contains the profound meaning of time and space. However, the profound meaning of time and space can be easily grasped. At the realm of the nobleman, no one has no understanding of space. When Time rules are not so easy to understand. "Sting Tianqiong shook his head.

"The rules of time are difficult to comprehend, but there are still some special races and individual strong people who can master some of them. Are we adults the masters of the rules of time?"

Gu Limo glanced at Qin Chen. They had seen Qin Chen use the time rule when they were fighting against Venerable Jueshan. "Unfortunately, it's useless to master the rules of time. This Thousand-Year Light is the same as the Heart of Druids. Someone has obtained it before, and they have indeed gained some time and space insights. There has been some improvement in speed, but there is no qualitative change. It is too difficult to grasp the true meaning of time and space by relying on a thousand years of light, let alone incarnation of a thousand years of light."

Chapter 3805: Madness Blade

After listening to Qin Chen for a moment, he also understood. It turned out that this Thousand-Year Light is indeed a good thing, but it is extremely difficult to truly understand, just like the heart of a druid, there are too many people stepping on the pit.

Of course, even so, this thing is still very popular.

In a short time, an extremely astonishing price has been auctioned, equivalent to one billion worth of merit. Several people have also taken out a few extraordinary treasures, but they are a bit worse than the previous Starry Sky Bamboo and False Fire Eye.

"Eight hundred million merit points, plus one eight-jin heavy Shengguang fish and one hundred one-jin Shengguang fish."

At this moment, Qin Chen made an offer, but instead of producing a ten-jin Shengguang fish, he took out a smaller eight-jin Shengguang fish.

"hiss!"

When this price came out, it also caused a shock.

Eight catties heavy Shengguang fish, although not comparable to the king of fish, but it is also not small, by no means ordinary people can catch it.

If the fish king that Qin Chen had come out before hadn't come out, I was afraid that it would cause a greater sensation, so Qin Chen also added a hundred Shengguang fish weighing a pound.

As soon as Qin Chen's price came out, no one immediately made another bid.

The woman in red waited on the auction stage for a while, and then smiled and said: "Congratulations to this friend who bid eight catties of Shengguang fish, the owner of Millennium Light agreed to exchange it." Qin Chen felt joy in his heart, Millennium Light contains the profound meaning of time and space. , Others may not be able to grasp it, but if he grasps the origin of time, he may be able to comprehend more. What's more, Qin Chen's time origin has been improving over the years, and the speed of improvement is very slow.

With this piece of millennium light, maybe the origin of time can become stronger.

After Qin Chen took out many sacred light fishes and paid the 800 million meritorious value in the past, soon this thousand-year light was transmitted over.

Qin Chen touched this thousand-year-old light, and the time origin in his mind immediately conveyed an aura of excitement. Qin Chen did not swallow it for the first time, but incorporated it into his own universe.

Now is not the time for refining.

After the millennium, the woman in red carries on the third item auction.

The third auction item is a flying miracle that survives from ancient times. It can fly across the void and is a top flying treasure. The most powerful thing is that it can shuttle in some dangerous secret realms. Very occult.

If he hadn't received the Millennium Light, Qin Chen might be interested in this flying black boat, but with the Millennium Light, Qin Chen would simply make an offer and resign.

But this thing is not as good as the Millennium Light in Qin Chen's eyes, but it is far above the value of the Millennium Light in the eyes of other powerhouses. The price of the bid has soared, making Qin Chen a little speechless.

In the end, this flying black boat was auctioned for 1.5 billion meritorious service and a void treasure.

Qin Chen could only secretly sigh for the wealth of others. If he hadn't gained a lot in Nether Galaxy, he would have no qualifications to compete on the same stage with these people.

The fourth treasure is a supernatural aura handed down from ancient times. It is rumored that it was left over before the fall of an earth-sovereign peak master, but it has been somewhat broken after the passage of time.

Suddenly, the auction reached its peak, and the supernatural aura that remained before the death of a pinnacle earth-sovereign master, even if it was broken, still caused countless people to fight.

This was crazy, and Qin Chen clearly felt that in this auction, there was definitely a master of the earthly masters involved, which made Qin Chen lose the idea of bidding.

Various treasures are emerging in endlessly. In the end, this thing was photographed by a great power with a merit of 2 billion plus a top treasure.

The top treasure alone is not much worse than the Thousand-Year Light and the Star Bamboo. The woman in red who presided over the auction did not speak much, nor did she forcefully mobilize the atmosphere, but since the auction is now, everything is priceless. It is not surprising to say that it is a sensation in the heavens. The atmosphere of the auction does not require her to deliberately.

The mobilization is already extremely enthusiastic.

Unlike the noisy environment of ordinary auction houses, the auctions here are very restrained, but the fiery atmosphere has been formed.

The woman in red who presided over the auction was also very satisfied with the atmosphere. He took out the fifth treasure and said: "This fifth treasure is not trivial, it is a sword."

With that said, the woman in red had already taken out a war knife and placed it in front of everyone.

As soon as this war knife appeared, it exuded a heart-palpating aura, an ancient aura permeating, this thing is definitely a treasure of some ancient power, bursts of murderous aura soaring to the sky.

It's a pity that everyone also clearly saw that there was a gap in this battle knife, which was obviously broken.

"This sword is called Pojun. I think you should know whose saber is." The woman in red smiled.

Suddenly there was an uproar on the field, breaking the army, isn't this the weapon of the Ancient Human Race Da Neng Demon Blade? The madman sword is also a master of the earth sage level, but he is famous in the hands of the earth sage. In ancient times, his mad sword is infinitely powerful, like a lunatic. After the war between humans and demons broke out, the demons sent him to kill him. A family

The master of, but he was killed by seven princes in a row, and finally besieged by countless masters of the demons and died.

And his saber was also lost in the universe, unexpectedly appeared here today.

This is another tragic figure like Venerable Wanpo.

After Qin Chen heard the deeds of Venerable Mad Demon Blade, he was also very emotional.

The environment on the scene has once again become extremely hot, a Sabre of an Earth Venerable, and a war knife that instilled all the will of this Earth Venerable before his death. The preciousness of this sword is definitely not weaker than that of the previous top powers. .

"1.5 billion meritorious merits, a holy vein of the Venerable." The attractiveness of the Sabre of the Mad Demon Sword Sovereign is indeed extremely hot, and the first quotation is almost the same as the previous transactions. "

"Billions of merit, a chaotic fruit of the beginning of the century."

boom!

The emergence of the Chaos Fruit in the Beginning of the Ages also attracted a lot of people's sensation. This is the Chaos Fruit, which allows people to directly break through the treasures of the Lord.

The reason why Chaos Poison Venerable was able to break through was that he got a Chaos Fruit, but he didn't expect it to be traded out now.

"Two billion meritorious services, a great crystal."

I have to say that this war knife is too hot and has attracted countless people's competition.

Only half of the incense time is not up, and it has surpassed the previous highest price.

Looking at the rising prices, Qin Chen was amazed. These people are really too rich. Fortunately, he owns the mysterious rust sword and is not practicing swordsmanship. Otherwise, he is afraid that he will join the panic buying army.

In the end, this treasure was won with a merit value of 2.8 billion, a top treasure.

Until the final transaction, the atmosphere on the scene is still very hot, and everyone has not been able to relax for a while. Signaling the auction site to be quiet, the woman in red took out the next jade box. Qin Chen's divine consciousness has been paying attention to the red-clothed woman. As soon as the jade box was taken out, even if the red-clothed woman had not spoken, Qin Chen's heart trembled.

The heartbeat accelerated. This treasure is definitely not simple.

Chapter 3806: Void Mirage Bracers

Flutter, Flutter!

Qin Chen felt his heartbeat accelerate rapidly, and was completely attracted by this thing.

"this is....."

Qin Chen was shocked to feel that jade box. What kind of treasure is this that can make his heartbeat so fast?

This was the first time he felt such an impulse. Even when he took out the Thousand-Year Light before, the origin of time in Qin Chen's mind was not as excited as it is now. Obviously, this treasure has a strong attraction to him. force.

However, Qin Chen couldn't even feel what this thing was attracting him.

Wow!

Qin Chen stood up suddenly, staring at the treasure on the auction floor with fiery eyes.

This jade box attracted me so strongly, there must be something to excite me.

"My lord, what's the matter?"

Gu Limo looked at Qin Chen with some doubts.

"It's okay."

Qin Chen shook his head and sat down again, staring at the jade box carefully, lost in thought.

This thing should have nothing to do with one's origin, otherwise, oneself must be able to feel why this thing attracts oneself, but now, there is only a strong attraction, but I don't know where this feeling comes from.

On the high platform, the woman in red raised the jade box and said in a very solemn tone, "The next thing we took out is definitely a top treasure. This is a brace with unpredictable power..."

Even the woman in red on the black market said that this brace had unpredictable power, and it immediately attracted the attention of countless people, which caused an uproar on the court. Under the gaze of everyone, the woman in red opened the jade box, and a simple wrist was immediately presented in front of everyone. This wrist was pitch black and engraved with mysterious runes, but she couldn't feel the terrible breath.

The breath is very simple and gray. If such a treasure appears on the battlefield of ten thousand races, ordinary people will never think it is a great thing. Seeming to understand the doubts in everyone's hearts, the woman in red solemnly said: "This thing was fished from the Nether Star River. The specific origin is unknown to me, but after my black market attempts, once this thing is refined, it can vary in amplitude. A stunning power

, Because the pattern is like an oyster, it was named the Void Mirage Bracer by my black market. "

Void Mirage Bracers?

This caused some uproar in each box, and the amplitude of various shocking powers. Is this amazing?

It should be noted that the so-called shocking power is definitely not ordinary holy yuan, or the power of the nobleman, or even the power of rules, but some special divine power.

For example, the collective attack power of the Oala Zerg, the natural power of the Druids, or the dragon gas of the dragons, and the soul impact of the thousand dreams of the thousand-eyes.

Only this kind of innate and supernatural power can be called a shocking power, and the improvement of this power is often very difficult and requires a lot of energy from all races to improve.

If this thing can really enhance the shocking power of all races, it will definitely attract the crazy pursuit of all races.

"I don't know how much amplitude this thing can achieve, and what restrictions does it have on the cultivation base?"

At this moment, there was a voice of doubt from the auction house, apparently someone was asking.

When he asked these words, the court instantly became quiet, which was obviously the most concerned by everyone present.

For a treasure, the amplitude of light energy is useless. It depends on the level of the amplitude and the restrictions on the cultivation base.

The value of a treasure that can swing ten times and a treasure that doubles in amplitude is absolutely different by tens of thousands of miles. Similarly, a treasure that can only swing amplitude and a treasure that can swing even a Venerable has a price difference of countless Times.

As if knowing that everyone would have such doubts, the woman in red immediately smiled and said: "The amplitude of this thing is not strong. Depending on the cultivation level, it can be about 10% to 30%."

10% to 30%?

As soon as this statement came out, everyone was stunned.

What kind of treasure is this?

10% to 30%, this is too weak, right? The previous inner armor can block 30% of the attacks, and this brace only can amplitude 10% to 30%, and it can only be regarded as very general in terms of efficacy.

Of course, it is not to say that it is completely useless. 10% is really too little, but if the amplitude can reach the maximum 30%, it can still be considered useful in the same level of battle.

But it can't be regarded as a treasure, right? Shouldn't appear in this auction. The red-dressed woman continued: "10% to 30%, indeed not much, but it also depends on the level of cultivation. After our research, this object can increase its power by 30%, and the peak person can also increase it by 30%. Power, the respect of the earth, can vibrate

The power of the frame is 10%, and the respect of the pinnacle is also the power of 10%. There is no obvious difference. "

Wow!

Suddenly, the entire auction site was a complete sensation. From the respect of the person to the respect of the earth, the amplitudes can be between 10% and 30%. It seems that there is a big gap, but in fact, it still belongs to the same level. This makes many people present a little excited, and finally understand why the black market will get the auction. At the meeting

Auctioned.

The amplitude of human respect and earth respect is not much different. What does this show?

It shows that the level of this object is at least the Supreme Treasure of the Earth. Because the human respect can't exert its true power, it can only scale up to 30%, while the respect to the earth can only scale 10% because it doesn't know how to use it.

"Where is the respect that day?"

Someone trembled.

"Tian Zun, there is no amplitude, no effect." The woman in red said solemnly, "However, after identification, this thing should be invalid for Tian Zun because of certain restrictions."

Tianzun has no effect?

This makes many people feel a little disappointed.

But anyway, this brace does have some meaning.

At the same time, everyone vaguely learned some information from the words of the woman in red, that is, behind the black market, there must be Tianzun sitting, but I don't know whether this Tianzun is in this black market.

"There is no reserve price for this item. The highest price will be paid. Now, the auction begins."

After the introduction of the woman in red, she stepped aside.

"Billions of merits."

"One billion merits plus a holy vein."

Suddenly, quotes came out from each box. Although I don't know what it is, even the shocking power that can only make Earth Zun's amplitude 10% is enough to attract a lot of people's pursuit, and even the woman in red is vaguely revealed, even their black market can't figure it out. The origin of this thing, fixed

But it's extraordinary.

Of course, everyone understands at the same time that even the black market cannot figure out the origin of the treasure, even if it is in their hands, they are afraid that it is only the effects introduced by the woman in red.

This also caused the bidding for this brace to be far less fiery than the previous bidding for the Crazy Demon Sword.

"The parts of the Haotian Divine Armor, this is definitely one of the parts of the Haotian Divine Armor." When everyone was bidding, Qin Chen stood in the box where Qin Chen was, his expression full of excitement and excitement.

Chapter 3807: Crazy scramble

When this virtual mirage bracer appeared, Qin Chen felt the Haotian Divine Armor tremble violently.

This is an extremely attractive force.

"It's no wonder I can't feel what is attracting me. It turned out to be the Haotian Divine Armor that attracted me. That's why I was so excited and trembling."

Qin Chen's eyes were fiery.

It must be one of the parts of the Haotian Divine Armor that can have such an attraction to the Haotian Divine Armor, and the woman in red also said that this thing was also fished from the Nether Star River. Is a set.

If it is really a set, it will definitely have a huge amplitude on the Haotian Divine Armor.

Even if there is not much amplitude, it must be obtained, because once a set is collected, some kind of magical change may occur.

This thing, I must get it.

Thinking of this, Qin Chen's heart was completely absorbed.

Fortunately, this Void Mirage Bracer didn't have much effect on the amplitude, so Qin Chen could still fight for it. Otherwise, if it could increase the Master of Earthly Master by more than 50%, or nearly double the combat power, then Qin Chen would probably be suspended.

"1.2 billion merit points, one venerable holy vein, plus one hundred and one catty divine light fish."

"One billion merit points, two venerable holy veins, plus an extraterrestrial meteorite."

"1.2 billion merit points, a venerable holy vein, a heart of the abyss."

Quotations came out one by one, causing Qin Chen to frown.

Even if it is only one to three percent of the power, it still makes a lot of people's hearts and bidding. Among them, there are reasons why the woman in red said this thing is extraordinary, and more, because this thing can amplitude all kinds of shocking. power.

For some special races, the improvement of cultivation base is relatively simple, but it is difficult to improve the talents and supernatural powers.

Especially the talents and supernatural powers that some races are born with, some are almost impossible to improve. If this brace can really improve, for them, it is undoubtedly a power against the sky.

Of course, there are also people who want to auction this wristband back and study it carefully. If the special features of this item can be researched out, and then transformed and developed, or even mass-produced, the pattern of all races will be amazingly changed.

This has also led to the extraordinary popularity of this virtual mirage bracer, and many people are in crazy competition.

"1.3 billion merit points, one venerable holy vein, two hundred divine light fish."

Qin Chen also quoted. Although he was abnormal, there were only three or four hundred Shenguang fish in his body. The purchase of Thousand-Year Light and Druid's Heart had already taken a bit, but once these two hundred were released, there was nothing left. Running out.

Prices have soared all the way, and many people who watched the excitement secretly confessed to themselves. They had never seen the prices quoted by others, let alone owned them.

"I'm afraid that these quotations are some great abilities, many of them are masters of the earth, if one day, my Black Gold Zerg can also have such resources, it will be absolutely easy to annex a force like the Oara clan!"

Camilla exclaimed in the box of the Black Gold Zerg.

He sold the Heart of the Druid, thinking that he was already extremely rich, but now compared with the people who quoted him, he suddenly became a little embarrassed.

That's the great power of others, so he took out two hundred Shenguang Fishes at his fingertips. In comparison, the one hundred and fifty Shenguang Fishes he got here were nothing. "Hmph, the most terrifying thing about my Annihilation race is the power of Nirvana. This has become the top 100 race among the cosmic races. Although this thing can only increase my strength by 10%, it is 10% Power is enough to make me emerge in the clan

Get more voice. "

In a box, a master of the earth, who was covered in hideous armor and covered with spikes, stared coldly at the wristband on the front stand, his eyes cold.

In another box. Instantly Burning Earth Venerable stared at the wrist in front of him, with an interesting taste: "My trip is only for the last treasure auctioned on the black market. Unexpectedly, I can still see such magical things, a 10% increase in shocking power. If it can improve me by a moment Burning gas is a treasure. "

He said lightly, while entering his own price.

The price has skyrocketed. Qin Chen thought that his two hundred Shenguang fish were enough to suppress everything, but he didn't expect that the bidding fever would not diminish, and all kinds of treasures appeared.

Especially some treasures like Wanchu Chaos Fruit, Heavenly Outer Meteorite, etc., these treasures are indeed extraordinary, amazing in value, but for many masters of the earth, they may not have the effect of allowing them to transform enough to enhance their combat effectiveness.

But this Void Mirage Bracer is different, it can directly increase their combat effectiveness, enough to make many people spend a lot of money to fight.

Qin Chen frowned. He knew that if he continued, he was afraid that he would have to take out some special treasures to get back this virtual mirage bracer.

"One billion worth of merit, a ten catty Shenguang fish king, a fifty catty three-color thick-shelled big crab."

When this offer appeared, the auction house's silence hit again, and there was no new offer for a long time.

This Shenguang Fish King unexpectedly appeared again.

Ten catties of Shenguang fish is definitely regarded as the king of fish in the black market. It is of extraordinary value and can be auctioned on its own. Who knew that a fifty catties of three-color thick armored crab appeared.

"I'm not mistaken, right? The price above is really a three-color thick-shelled crab?"

"Is this the overlord in the Nether Star River?" "It is said that a Venerable once caught a three-color thick-armed crab in the Bermuda Death Triangle, but he was not prepared when he caught it. The crab broke his body and died on the spot, leaving only one empty.

The starship floated back. "

"I heard that the three-color thick armor of the three-color thick-armed crab represents Yin and Yang and death, respectively. It is extremely hard and weighs fifty catties. Its armor is extremely tough. After simple refining, it can be made into Top armor."

When Qin Chen reported these two things, many boxes were silent.

This is a different species in the Nether Galaxy, most people have only heard of it, and have never seen it in person. Some people even suspect that this thing was brought out by the black market, but they thought that the virtual mirage wristband itself is a black market thing. The other party wants to ask for the price, and it's ok to bring it out. He asks for such a high price, not for other things. Bidder

Are you scared away?

But apart from the black market, which pervert has these two alien species in the ghost galaxy? Could it be that he has been fishing in the Nether Star River all year round and hasn't left for tens of thousands of years? If anyone knows that Qin Chen has only fished in the Nether Star River for a year, don't they? Know if he will go crazy.

Chapter 3808: Treasure in hand

Qin Chen couldn't help but heaved a sigh of relief when he saw the court quickly calm down after his offer.

The most scared thing is that he made this offer, and there are still many people competing wildly, so he is speechless.

Among the Nether Galaxy alien species in the jade plate of his universe, the Shenguang Fish King and the three-color thick-clad crab are considered the least he needs.

The Shenguang Fish King can improve his body strength after refining, but what Qin Chen wants now is to break through the realm of the nobleman, instead of continuing to increase his body strength, and if he does not break through the nobleman, no matter how many Shenguang fish he refines, it will be useless.

As for the three-color thick armor crab, its function is to refine the body. In addition, the shell can be used to make shields and protective armor.

In terms of body refining, Qin Chen already had six reincarnation sword bodies and a crystal monument of Nirvana, and in terms of armor, Qin Chen already had the Haotian God armor.

That's why Qin Chen produced these two treasures.

In fact, what Qin Chen wanted to bring out was the Rainbow Koi, but the Rainbow Koi had been seen by people from the Black Gold Zerg. There were too many people who knew it. Once it was taken out, it would directly expose his identity, so there was no take it out.

Not to mention that the people who participated in the auction were all shocked, just like the woman in red who presided over the auction, looking at the big screen of the offer.

Everything in the auction this time is incomparably against the sky, and it is not an exaggeration to say that the world is shocked, but she did not expect that the things she brought out would be changed like this, even better than some of the auction items she had brought out before. It's horrible. Some people who deliberately spent the merits to come in to open their eyes felt that this trip was worthwhile. Although I have not seen the three-color thick-clad crab and the Shenguang fish king, but since they reported it, it means that the three-color thick-clad crab is just In this auction

, And then the transaction can be seen.

If it's other treasures, these two alien species can be killed in seconds as soon as they appear, but there are still some people who are reluctant to give up on the Void Mirage Bracer.

The scene was silent for a while, but then a new offer came out, "1.8 billion merits, two holy veins of the Venerable, plus a five-element fruit!"

This immediately caused another sensation, and the Five Elements Tao Fruit is also a good thing.

Qin Chen did not increase the price. He did not think that the price was higher than his offer, unless the person who took out the phantom brace wanted the Five Elements Dao fruit, but the person who took out this thing was in the black market, and he did not believe that the black market would lack it. s things.

On the contrary, the experience in the black market these days made Qin Chen vaguely feel that the reason why the black market turned Shenguang fish into a general-purpose cargo was most likely because the black market particularly needed fish from the Nether Star River.

Obviously, the auction site also believed that this price was higher than Qin Chen's price, so the site was also very quiet.

"Two billion merits, two venerable holy veins, and a three-meter deep sea ghost electric eel."

Suddenly a price appeared again.

The auction was in a complete uproar. If the previous price could not shake Qin Chen, then this price was enough to shake Qin Chen's previous offer.

The deep sea ghost electric eel, which is obviously a different species in the ghost galaxy, is definitely not much weaker than the three-color thick armored crab. Seeing this quotation, Qin Chen's heart sank. He knew that this quotation was definitely more competitive than his quotation, but it was enough to threaten him. Think about it, he is not the only one who can catch the Nether Galaxy Alien Species. appeared

The probability is very small, but over the years, someone can definitely catch it.

If he wants to stabilize, he must bid again.

He didn't want to give up this virtual mirage bracer. After all, it was the same as the Haotian Divine Armor. It would be fine if he hadn't met, but since he had met, he would never give up.

No one knows what effect the fusion of the Void Mirage Bracer and the Haotian Divine Armor will have? But Qin Chen knew that it was definitely not simple.

"1.2 billion merits, a ten catty Shenguang fish king, a fifty catty three-color thick armored crab, and a bottle of ten heavenly * pills with different five element attributes." Qin Chen said again. The price was quoted. This time he added 200 million merit points, plus ten Heavenly Dao Divine Pills. He had already reported this Heavenly Dao Divine Pill before. Everyone will be mentally prepared. This time he added five more to increase Weight,

As for the Nether Galaxy Alien Species, he didn't want to add more to the auction of Void Mirage Bracers.

It's abnormal enough to take out two alien species at once. If you take out three species at once, it's too exaggerated and will definitely be targeted.

Moreover, this price should be far higher than the previous one.

"boom!"

There was a huge noise, even if the auction house was banned, these noises could not be stopped, and many people did not even conceal their breath.

They had prepared five Heavenly Dao Divine Pills before, but now they have added ten more. How could this guy have so many Heavenly Dao Divine Pills?

Although the Heavenly Dao Divine Pill is not comparable to those treasures such as the Chaos Fruit of the Ten Thousand Beginnings, the Five Elements Dao Fruit, but it can't hold up the large number, it's ten, for many forces, this is definitely an extremely rare treasure.

After the noise, no new bids came out on the big screen of the auction, because everyone knew that no one could offer a higher price than this. As long as people on the black market are not fools, they will definitely choose this fish king's offer.

After seeing no one's offer, the woman in red smiled and said to everyone present: "Everyone, wait for the final choice."

The atmosphere on the court suddenly became a little tense.

Qin Chen was also a little nervous. Although he knew that his offer was very advantageous, he was not sure, what if? Just a moment later, I saw the woman in red nodded with a smile, and then smiled at the many boxes present: "We have made a decision. Congratulations to the friend who bid the Shenguang Fish King, this illusion. The wrist is yours, please now Trading. "

"call....."

In the box, Qin Chen breathed a sigh of relief, and finally the auction arrived.

He immediately took out the black market token of the Thousand Eyes tribe and the Meritorious Order of the Wala tribe, first input the merits, and then took out the Shenguang Fish King, the three-color thick-shelled crab and the heaven from the Universe Jade Plate Shen Dan teleported to the front.

When the Shenguang Fish King and the three-color thick-clad crab appeared in the stands, there was a sound of wonder from each box.

After a simple inspection of the goods, the woman in red sent the Void Mirage Bracers out. After seeing the Void Mirage Bracers disappeared, many people in the box sighed.

The master of Jixi Clan had cold eyes, but he was helpless.

Although the Void Mirage Bracer was precious, he couldn't exchange it with some of the treasures he could use. As for other treasures, they couldn't compete with the Shenguang Fish King. In the box, as soon as Qin Chen got the Void Mirage Bracer, the Haotian Divine Armor in his body exuded a strong attraction.

Chapter 3809: Di Zun Da Huan Dan

Whoosh!

I saw the light on the Void Mirage's wristband, and instantly wanted to blend into Qin Chen's body, and wanted to merge with the Haotian Divine Armor.

However, Qin Chen didn't let the bracer fuse successfully. Instead, his eyes flashed, and he threw the virtual mirage bracer into the jade disc of Universe Good Fortune, and began to burn with the fusion flame.

This phantom bracer came from the black market. Who knows if there is any restriction, Qin Chen naturally didn't dare to absorb it rashly.

The billowing flames burned, with a terrifying aura, constantly vomiting this virtual mirage bracer, without discovering any restrictions.

But Qin Chen didn't stop the burning, and even used the power of the world in the jade plate of the universe to perceive the bracer carefully, and still couldn't find the slightest trace of restriction.

After doing all this, Qin Chen suddenly thought about it and threw the virtual mirage bracer into the gloomy lake in the jade plate of the universe.

The Nether Star River is flooded with water in the Nether Star River, and the Nether Star River water can corrode anything, and even the Heavenly Venerable cannot cross it. Even the masters in the black market cannot refine the Nether Star River water.

Qin Chen took out the Void Mirage Bracer once again, and then rinsed it off with Tianjing Water.

Although I don't know if there are any restrictions on this wristband, Qin Chen believes that even if there are restrictions on it, after being soaked in the Nether Star River, it is estimated that they have been completely eliminated.

Whoosh.

As soon as Qin Chen took out this brace, the Haotian Divine Armor exuded a strong attraction. The next moment, this virtual mirage brace appeared on Qin Chen's right hand.

Moreover, Qin Chen felt that he and Haotian Divine Armor had been completely integrated together, and he did not need to deliberately refine it.

"The two are really a pair."

Qin Chen's eyes flashed, and he could not expect to find the brace of the Haotian Divine Armor here, but it was just a wristband. I believe this Haotian Divine Armor had more parts.

Rumble!

Qin Chen's divine consciousness merged into this Void Mirage Bracer, and the whole person's mind was completely attracted by the Void Mirage Bracer. The exquisite structure in it made Qin Chen feel amazed.

And when Qin Chen carefully studied this virtual mirage bracer, the next auction item on the auction floor had already begun.

"The next treasure we will take is a great treasure for the earth!"

The woman in red took out a jade bottle, which instantly triggered the madness of countless warriors in the box.

"Earth Zun Da Huan Dan, it turned out to be such a treasure."

"Hi, this black market auction has even brought out such treasures."

"Crazy, I'm afraid I'm going crazy."

There was an amazing sensation in each box.

Earth Zun Dahuan Pill, in fact, is the legendary Great Return Pill that can heal the dead, and the name of the Earth Zun only represents his effect.

Rumor has it that as long as the warrior does not die on the spot, even if there is only one breath or only a remnant soul, this kind of medicine can be pulled back from the ghost gate.

And the so-called earth-sovereign great return pill, this means that even if the earth-sovereign master is at the juncture of life and death, he can use this great return pill to heal himself. How terrible is this?

In the entire universe, who doesn't want to be able to get such a big reward pill, this is equivalent to having a second life, no matter what dangers are encountered, as long as it is taken out at a critical moment, it can be in a very short time Heal yourself.

What everyone doesn't understand is, why would such a treasure on the black market be willing to put it up for auction?

Is there any hidden facts in it? I heard the woman in red saying faintly: "Everyone, be quiet, this thing is stored by others in our black market for auction. Our black market conducts analysis and research to verify that this pill is indeed a great sacred pill, but it is broken. The land is respected and great is also Dan,

Because the display time is too long, some of the effects have been lost, and only the effect of normal exalting and returning the pill by about 50%, so please pay attention to friends who want to auction. "

When the red-dressed woman's words fell, everyone suddenly felt relieved.

It turned out that it was the broken Earth Sovereign Repaying Pill, no wonder others were willing to take it out. Even the broken Earth Sovereign Repaying Pill still had a strong attraction to the masters of the Earth Sovereign level.

Even in Qin Chen's box, Ci Tianqiong and the others had their eyes widened and looked extremely eager.

Who doesn't want such a treasure?

"Now, everyone starts bidding, and the low price is not limited. The bidding starts." The woman in red announced and stepped aside.

"One billion merits, two holy veins of the Venerable."

"1.2 billion merit points, two venerable holy veins."

"Billion worth of merit, a hundred sacred fish, plus a magic stone."

The sound of various bidding was endless, and it quickly reached a very high price, which completely broke the idea of Stabbing Sky Qiong. As for Qin Chen, he also heard that the earth-zun returned a pill, but he did not bid for it. Even the earth-zun had to compete for this thing. He had already obtained three treasures in this auction. Pieces, will inevitably cause the black market note. The box number of each of them is extremely secret. No one else knows it, but it's just other outsiders. The entire auction floor is built on the black market. Qin Chen believes that the black market definitely knows which boxes were taken. treasure

If it attracts the attention of the black market, then Qin Chen is really dangerous.

Behind the black market auction, in a separate hidden space.

An empty old man is sitting here cross-legged, closing his eyes and resting.

At this moment, a woman in red suddenly appeared in this secret space, walking towards the old man in black step by step.

"My lord." The woman in red stood in front of the old man and said respectfully. If anyone at the auction site sees the woman in red at this moment, they will be surprised, because this person is actually exactly the same as the woman in red at the auction site at this moment, whether it is expression, face, even temperament, and soul.

It's exactly the same, it's a person.

But the woman in red was clearly auctioned at the auction house, so why would she appear here again? "What happened on the auction floor? Need your shadow to take a trip in person?" The emptiness old man opened his eyes and looked at the woman in red. This old man is the real power of the black market auction and is also in this black market. Of the top overlords

One, he is generally invited to come forward only for really huge transactions.

"My lord, the treasure you ordered has been photographed!"

The woman in red said respectfully.

"Isn't this normal? The Void Mirage Bracers are amazingly effective, and they will inevitably attract competition. It has long been expected." The Void Elder said lightly, his expression very calm: "You shouldn't just talk about this when you came here?" My lord, the person who took this treasure away was a phantom bracer that was slapped away with a ten-jin Shenguang fish king, a three-color thick-clad crab, and ten five-element heavenly gods. In addition, he is here. In this auction, a total of three treasures were photographed, and the other two were the Druid's Heart and the Millennium Light."

Chapter 3810: Black market master

"Taking away the heart of the druid, he spent one hundred and fifty sacred light fish, and in the thousand years of light, he took out an eight jin sacred light fish, other than that, his subordinates at least know that he There are at least two hundred Shenguang fish on him."

The woman in red said respectfully.

"Oh? Interesting."

The old man opened his eyes, "But, this is nothing, right? If you spend thousands of years in this black market and get so many sacred fish, some people with amazing talents may not be unable to do it." "If it is a waste Ten thousand years is nothing, but this person came to our black market less than two years ago. Only a year ago, he made a trip to the Nether Milky Way, and I heard some rumors that this person had great luck in catching Shenguang fish. Even rashly Entered the periphery of the Bermuda Death Triangle. "The woman in red said.

"Are you investigating customers in the black market?"

boom!

The eyes of the emptiness old man suddenly burst out of divine rainbows, and immediately, the red-clothed woman knelt down with a puff, trembling under the breath of the old man.

"You know, in my black market, I must never investigate any customers? This is the result of negotiation with all ethnic groups. Otherwise, why do you think all ethnic groups are so relieved to walk in my black market?"

The void old man stared at the woman in red with cold eyes. "The subordinate knows it is wrong, but the subordinate did this not because of other intentions, but because this person can get so many sacred light fish in such a short time, and even the alien species in the Nether Galaxy , That adult, didn't always want

Can you get more of the * light fish and the things in the nether galaxy? If so..." the woman in red trembled.

"Presumptuous." The emptiness screamed, and an invisible force suddenly poured into the body of the woman in red.

"puff!"

At the auction, the woman in red who was presiding over the auction suddenly snorted, a trace of blood spilled from the corner of her mouth, and her face turned pale.

"What happened?" Everyone looked at it in doubt.

"It's okay."

The woman in red wiped the blood from the corners of her mouth and smiled and said: "You are so enthusiastic about your actions, and this girl is a little bit overwhelmed. Congratulations to this friend, you have obtained the Great Reward of the Earth."

The woman in red has a smile on her face, her breath is calm, "Let's take a look at the next lot."

When everyone saw that she was indeed okay, their attention was immediately drawn to the next lot.

In a mysterious space.

The woman in red knelt here in horror.

"Is that an adult that you can arbitrarily argue with?" The empty old man said coldly: "If it weren't for your sake, the old man would definitely punish you."

"Thank you for your mercy," the woman in red tremblingly said.

The Void Elder's eyes flashed and said: "But this time, since you have investigated, it's fine. You said that the talent came to my black market for two years?" "Yes, the subordinate has already consulted before, and this person has just handled it. However, the identity of his subordinates could not be investigated with the number of the other party's black market order. Moreover, when the other party paid the merit value, it also used several other black market orders.

Report to you, my lord. "

"Besides, your lord, look at this heavenly Taoist Pill..."

The woman in red handed a jade bottle.

"What happened to Dao Shen Dan this day?"

The old man frowned.

"But you, sir, look carefully at his Five Elements Heavenly Dao Divine Pill. It is not an ancient Five Elements Heavenly Dao Divine Pill. The breath on it is still very fresh. Subordinates suspect that the time for this Heavenly Dao Divine Pill to be refined is not very long."

"indeed....."

The old man sniffed, his eyes condensed, and he could still distinguish the fresh pill from the ancient pill. "The main material of the Heavenly Path God Pill is the Heavenly Path Origin Fruit. This person must have the Heavenly Path Origin Fruit of the Five Elements attribute, and the Dao Origin Fruit was quite fresh that day, so the vitality is so strong, but as far as the subordinates know, Tiandao Yuanguo is produced from the top ten in heaven

One of the Taoyuan treasures, the Heavenly Path God Tree, if this person has fresh Heavenly Path Origin Fruit, then..."

The woman in red did not go on, but what she meant could not be clearer.

"Ten Dadaoyuan?" The old man's gaze narrowed, but he didn't say anything, just said: "Yes, you can withdraw. As for checking the number of the black market order, even I can't do it, so don't think about it."

"Also, finish your auction well and go on."

"Yes."

The woman in red disappeared out of thin air.

In Pina's secret space, only the old man was left, and the old man frowned slightly, "If these sacred light fish are really caught by this person in a year, at this time, I really need to notify the first time. the host."

His master...

But he is one of the masters in this black market and one of the most terrifying powerhouses in the universe.

Immediately, the old man took out a special summons order and began to interrogate.

The void of the endless universe.

Full of chaotic aura, in this chaotic aura, a looming figure cross-legged here, unable to distinguish the true face.

now.

A message lit up and he suddenly opened his eyes.

"Huh? News from the black market on the battlefield of ten thousand races?"

He felt the message sent, and there was a hint of interest in his eyes.

"Someone photographed the part of the divine armor? And this person has caught a lot of divine light fish from the Nether Star River, even alien species?"

"Interesting, really interesting."

"I don't know how many years, I haven't encountered such an interesting thing in the black market."

The voice said with a chuckle, and the entire chaotic universe undulated under his chuckle, as if trembling.

"However, I am not here. The rules of the black market seem to be a bit lazy!"

In this eye pupil, there was a cold light flashing, and then he was calm again.

In the black market.

Where is the hidden space.

"The master has returned the news."

The emptiness old man suddenly took out the summons order, his eyes were pious and respectful.

He opened the order, and suddenly, a breath that was so weak that he could not be noticed passed out, and the old man's body shook suddenly, poofed, a mouthful of blood spurted out, his soul languished, and his whole person fell heavily to the ground.

On his body, the breath of the sages was dissipating, and it was actually transforming the Tao.

The emptiness old man was horrified, his eyes were shocked, he dared not move, and he didn't even dare to prevent himself from becoming physically.

Fortunately, this process of transforming the Tao only continued for an instant, and then disappeared.

The old man hurriedly got up, looking at the empty summons, panting heavily.

There was endless panic in his eyes.

"Master is warning me."

The Void Elder was shocked, but he didn't dare to have any thoughts anymore.

now.

The auction has also come to an end. After the Great Earth Zun returned the pill, two more treasures appeared, namely a special soul secret method and a top treasure that can reshape the body of the Lord.

At this time, it was finally time for the auction of the last treasure.

"This last treasure is related to Vientiane God Store."

The woman in red said with a smile.

boom! With just one sentence, the entire auction house was completely boiling.
