

Valkyrie 4491

Chapter 4491: The Demon Lord Descends

"The devil's top holy artifact."

At this moment, the great ancestor dragon and the blood river saint ancestor were shocked in their hearts.

This Ten Thousand Worlds Demon Tree is indeed extraordinary, it is not even the Supreme Rank, the breath that escapes, even they feel the heart palpitations, how terrible?

boom!

A large amount of the power of the magic source madly poured into the magic tree of the ten thousand realms.

"Not enough, not enough!"

In the demon source formation, Qin Chen's eyes were crazy, because he felt that although the Ten Thousand Realm Demon Tree had a terrifying aura, it was still far from breaking through to the supreme level.

It is not enough to rely on the power of the Chaos God Demon Sea Demon Origin that is constantly absorbed in this Demon Origin Array, unless one can enter the depths of the Dark Pool.

"Om!"

In the chaotic world, the Demon Tree of Ten Thousand Realms instinctively surged to the deeper part of the Chaos God Demon Sea.

boom!

The branches and leaves were surging in the sky, and a terrible magic tree power spread out. At this moment, the entire supreme magic source array seemed to be aroused.

A demon source power that was countless times more refined than before, instantly entered the power of the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree.

The supreme aura permeated, and the aura on the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree suddenly skyrocketed.

"not good!"

However, seeing this scene, Qin Chen's eyes suddenly showed a look of astonishment.

Because, at this moment, the entire Supreme Demon Formation was inexplicably mobilized.

The power in the entire Demon Origin Array rushed to him, booming, terrifying power constantly impacting the Ten Thousand Realm Demon Tree in Qin Chen's chaotic world.

"Lord of Abyss Demon, Primordial Ancestral Dragon, Holy Ancestor of Blood River, you guide this force."

Qin Chen yelled sharply.

At this moment, he can't control so much, this is an opportunity.

An excellent opportunity for the magic tree of all worlds to break through.

boom!

The billowing power crazily poured into his body, not only the Devil Tree of the Ten Thousand Realms, but also the Lord of Abyss Demon, a terrifying aura erupted in his body, which continued to grow under this force.

How powerful is the power of Chaos God and Demon Sea that has gathered for hundreds of millions of years? Absolutely terrible to amazing.

Boom!

The terrifying power entered Qin Chen's body uncontrollably.

And when Qin Chen was in the deep sea and devoured the power of this supreme demon source madly.
now.

In the deepest part of the sea of chaos, gods and demons, there is an ancient island.

This island is majestic, like a continent, suspended in the center of this chaotic sea of gods and demons.

And in the depths of this vast island, there is a dark and deep place, and in the depths of this dark and deep place, there is a mysterious existence.

This is a dark ocean, deep in the secret realm, exuding a palpable vastness.

It is the place of the legendary dark pool.

The Dark Pool, located on the core island of the Sea of Chaos, is a place controlled by the Lord of the Sea of Chaos. Here, the terrifying dark aura that the entire chaos and demon sea has gathered for hundreds of millions of years, the origin of the demon race, and the aura of death, the pool is as dark as ink, exuding a palpable aura, just the power that bursts out, it shocks the surroundings. Void shock.

And around this dark pool, there is a vast rune formation, the runes flicker, bursting out a breath that shocks the universe.

now.

The surface of this originally calm dark pool suddenly burst into a billowing aura, rumbling, and the entire surface of the dark pool surging crazily.

A series of runes lit up and penetrated the void.

"what happened?"

Whoosh whoosh!

Outside the dark pool, a number of silhouettes appeared, and these silhouettes exuded a terrible aura, and they were all top-level Heavenly Experts. At this moment, they looked at the constantly surging dark pool water surface with shocked light in their eyes.

The dark pool was boiling, and strands of terrible aura were quickly dissipating from the dark pool.

"This speed... the aura in the dark pool is constantly dissipating, what is going on?" "Impossible, the power in the dark pool is collected by Lord Demon Lord over hundreds of millions of years from the sea of chaos and demon. Coming, it is the key to the destruction plan that Master Mozu has customized for hundreds of millions of years. It is about to take shape now, and we must not let any of it

The power disappears. "

"Regardless of the reason, suppress it first, or Master Demon Ancestor will be furious, and I won't be able to escape death."

These top powerhouses yelled and slammed, and the eyes burst into the rainbow. In the body, a terrible aura suddenly surged out, and with a bang, each of the big hands pressed down one after another.

With their pressing, complex lines and luster suddenly appeared in the void, turning into a vast array, directly covering the dark pool below.

Cang Dang!

The dark pool surged directly, and the dense array patterns flickered, trying to calm the dark pool and restrain the power in it.

However, what made them all change color was that no matter how they acted, the power in this dark pool was still fading rapidly, and the dark pool was still boiling violently and surging more and more.

"impossible!"

These powerhouses were shocked one by one, their faces pale.

Under their joint efforts, they were unable to suppress this dark pool. How could this be possible?

Just when they were frightened and anxious.

Boom!

In the void, a terrible aura suddenly descended, and I saw that the surface of the tens of millions of miles of void suddenly dimmed, and a strong man exuding a dark and cold aura suddenly appeared in the sky above the dark pool.

As soon as this powerful man appeared, the entire void seemed to be under his control, and the heavenly ways of the demon world were suppressed under his feet, as if being suppressed.

"Master Demon Lord."

Seeing the visitors, the many powerful people present all changed their colors and hurriedly saluted.

The person who came was no one else, but the demon master of this chaotic **** and demon sea.

"what's happening?"

The Demon Lord appeared, his eyes fell on the dark pool below, and he saw the power surging in the dark pool, violently boiling, and the power in it was slowly dissipating.

Suddenly, the face of the demon master also changed.

"Master Hui Demon Lord, I don't know how to wait. I don't know why, the power in this dark pool suddenly raged just now, and it seems to be fading."

The leader of the strong, trembling, said in horror.

"Huh?" The eyes of the demon master suddenly showed shock, he stepped out, and instantly came to the sky above the dark pool, with his big hand sticking out, he saw a huge dark palm, which was directly suppressed like a sky. Countless magic lines, flashing instantly

, The entire dark pool array is roaring.

The demon master is suppressing the dark pool to prevent the power in it from continuing to flow away, and also sealing off the surrounding void.

However, what changed him was that although he had confined the void around him, the power in this dark pool was still fading and could not be stopped at all.

"How is it possible?" The demon master showed a shocked expression.

Chapter 4492: Just a little bit

He is one of the masters of this supreme demon source formation. It is easy to block this supreme demon source formation. At the same time, he also confines the void within hundreds of millions of miles around him.

It can be said that no one can take away the power in this dark pool under his nose.

But the scene before him surprised him.

The power in this dark pool is still fading.

"Master Demon Lord, I also urged this imprisonment formation before, but it was useless. The power in this demon source formation was still fading and couldn't stop it at all."

Around, the rest of the powerful hurriedly said respectfully,

"The imprisonment of the void and the big formation can't stop the flow of power?"

The demon Lord's expression flickered cold, hum, and he saw a terrible magic light blooming above his eyebrows. Wow, in the horrified eyes of everyone, there was a dark magic eye at the center of the demon Lord's brows with a fuzzy face Appeared instantly.

boom!

As soon as this demon eye appeared, the many demon masters present all seemed to be in a dark purgatory. The whole figure seemed to have come to a mysterious space, and the soul was shocked, unable to move at all, as if the soul was scattered on the spot. .

"It's the supreme demon eye of Lord Demon Lord."

These strong men sucked in air-conditioning, as if their throats were contained, it was difficult to breathe.

They are also strong at the late Tianzun level, but in front of this demon master, they are like quails, and they have no resistance.

boom!

The magic eye bloomed with magic light and instantly merged with the dark pool below.

In the next moment, a divine rainbow suddenly burst out of the eyes of the demon lord.

"It's the magic source channel."

At this moment, under his terrifying demon eyes, all power was invisible. He clearly saw that the power in this dark pool was fading out quickly along the surrounding demon source channels.

"Magic source channel?"

The other powerhouses all recovered from the purgatory-like space at this moment, with expressions of astonishment one by one.

This.....

It's really possible.

Previously, Lord Demon Lord had confined the void and controlled the large formation in the dark pool, but the power in the dark pool was still fading, so there is only one possibility, that is, the power in the dark pool is along its original passage disappeared, otherwise it would not be able to hide it from them, and it would pass under the palm of Lord Demon Lord.

However, the magic source passage in this dark pool clearly leads to the eight islands of the eight devil kings, and the eight islands of the eight devil kings can continuously provide energy to it, why is the power in the dark pool now along the formations in the eight islands of the devil kings The pattern channel is disappearing?

This makes everyone wonder.

Could it be...

Someone came to pass through the magic source passage of the Eight Demon Kings Island, devouring the power in the dark pool.

When this thought came out, everyone shook their heads, feeling unbelievable.

This is impossible.

The Supreme Demon Origin Array in the Dark Pool is a one-way absorption array, and this array is still a Supreme-level array, which was set up by Lord Demon Ancestor himself. Who in the Demon Realm can destroy the great Demon Ancestor's deployment? Array, swallow the power in it.

It's impossible to think about it.

There is no such a master of formation in this world.

Before their thoughts fell, they heard a cold snort from the demon master, and cold murderous intent bloomed in their eyes.

"So courageous, someone dared to come to my sea of chaos, gods and demons, but the owner wants to see who it is.

boom!

The demon Lord looked furious, and saw his whole body suddenly sinking into the dark pool.

The next moment, the billowing dark aura burst out of his body instantly, rushing forward quickly along the formation channel at the bottom of the dark pool.

A terrifying force swept the entire chaotic sea of gods and demons in an instant.

Rumble!

The power of the demon lord, following the passage of the demon source formation, instantly burst into all directions, rushing to the eight magic islands.

"not good!"

Qin Chen, who was located at the confluence of the tributaries of the Eight Devil Islands, suddenly showed a warning sign in his heart. His pupils suddenly shrank and he raised his head to look forward.

Vaguely, he saw that there seemed to be a terrifying power that was rapidly sweeping from the depths of the chaotic sea of gods and demons.

"Is that the demon lord?"

Qin Chen's heart suddenly shuddered.

This power is extremely terrifying, like a vast ocean, sweeping over, vaguely exuding a terrifying breath of supremacy.

This is definitely a supreme-level powerhouse.

And what shocked Qin Chen even more was that this person's supreme aura was extremely terrifying, and it absolutely must surpass ordinary supreme ones like Xiao Wujin and Giant King.

Moreover, the power of this person perfectly blends with this supreme magic source channel, and it quickly strikes along the channel.

Except for the demon lord of this chaotic **** and demon sea, Qin Chen could not think of any other possibilities.

"No, never let him discover himself."

Qin Chen frowned, looking at the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree, which had already stepped into the half-step supreme in the chaotic world, and was only one step away from the supreme realm, he could only sigh.

"Come!"

Boom!

Qin Chen converged the aura of the chaotic world, forcibly causing the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree to converge.

At the same time, Qin Chen's figure shook and suddenly disappeared here.

He did not return to the Eternal Demon Island along the passage, but entered the depths of the Chaos Gods and Demon Seas, and swept towards the deepest parts of the Chaos Gods and Demon Seas.

"Damn it, only a little bit short."

Qin Chen felt the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Realms in the Chaos World, and felt depressed in his heart.

He could feel that the Ten Thousand Worlds Demon Tree could break through to the Supreme by only a little bit, but it was just this little bit, but it was delayed.

It seems to be just a trace, but in fact, I don't know how long it will take to absorb it.

"How can this breakthrough of the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Realms be so difficult?"

Qin Chen was speechless.

"Hehe, supreme realm, if it breaks so well, it won't be the most terrifying realm in this universe."

Honghuang Zulong said silently: "Supreme, what is supreme? That is the limit of the nobleman. Even the origin of the universe can't be easily suppressed. It can compete with the origin of the universe for power. Do you think it's so easy to break through?"

Upon hearing this, Qin Chen also nodded.

Indeed, if the supreme made such a breakthrough, it would not be the top realm in this universe.

Not only did the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree fail to break through the Supreme, but also the Lord of the Abyss, who had already reached the half-step Supreme realm, also did not break through.

At that step, I couldn't make it, as if there was a huge threshold.

"Unfortunately, if the Lord of the Ten Thousand Realms Demon Tree and the Abyssal Demon breaks through the supreme level, then Ben Shao doesn't have to hide so hard. Even if this Demon Lord is strong, Ben Shao can compete with him in general, but now..."

Qin Chen shook his head.

It wasn't that he was afraid of this chaotic god, demon, sea demon master.

With his current strength, the supreme-level powerhouse is not incapable of fighting, but he has the Devil Tree of Ten Thousand Worlds, once its breath is sensed by the demon master, it will surely cause the demon world to shake, and even notify the demon ancestor in the first time.

Chapter 4493: Can't take risks

If you can't kill the opponent in a short time, or escape from the opponent's tracking, then you must be in danger.

Today's Qin Chen can't take this risk.

"Hmph, after the Ten Thousand Realm Demon Tree and the Lord of Abyss Demon both break through, Ben Shao will come to compete with you again."

Qin Chen felt cold in his heart.

As long as the Ten Thousand Realm Demon Tree and the Lord of Abyss Demon both break through, then, with the particularity of the sacred object of the Ten Thousand Realm Demon Tree and the Lord of the Abyss, Qin Chen has a certainty against any supreme demon clan. Grasp the battle with each other.

And Qin Chen could feel that the breakthrough between the two should be fast.

Thinking of this in his heart, Qin Chen's figure also kept swept toward the depths of the Chaos Gods and Demon Sea.

However, Qin Chen just left the magic source channel.

suddenly.

"Huh? It's weird here."

The demon master snorted coldly, and a divine rainbow suddenly burst out of his pupils. He immediately felt that there was a vacuum zone at the intersection of the passages where Qin Chen had been previously.

And, there seems to be a breath left here.

It's just that now it's empty and has left.

"Can the other party enter and exit this magic source array?"

The demon's eyes condensed.

Because, in this passage, he couldn't even feel the other side's figure.

Did the other party leave the magic source array?

"impossible."

The demon's eyes were cold, his figure shook, and he slammed along the passage directly towards the place where Qin Chen had been before.

"Magic Shadow Technique!"

And as he swept, his body was surging with devilish energy, instantly transforming into eight demon shadows, and swiftly traveled to the core of the eight magic islands along the eight passages.

In his opinion, this supreme demon source formation is easily impossible to enter and exit, and the only place that may be destroyed is the core of the Demon Island where the Eight Demon Kings are located, which is the weaker place of this great formation.

It is the only place where other people can get in and out.

It was seen that the array of lights flickered, and the eight magic shadow clones of the demon master quickly flew across the formation channel, blasting towards the eight major magic islands.

Eternal Magic Island.

The magic source in the depths of the island is located.

The eternal demon is waiting here nervously.

It has been quite a while since the master entered this passage, but now there is no news at all, making the eternal devil's heart anxious.

And just when he was waiting anxiously.

suddenly!

Boom!

The demon source array in front of me suddenly burst out with a terrifying aura, and I saw the demon energy billowing above the demon source array in front of me, and a terrifying aura came in an instant.

This breath escaped from the demon source array, turned into a vague face, and appeared in front of the eternal demon king.

It is a magical shadow of this demon lord.

It's just that this demon shadow is only suspended above the demon source formation, and never left the formation. Obviously, this power can only be presented here by the demon source formation. Otherwise, it is impossible to rely on the demon master alone. Instantly manifested his power to every corner of the vast and chaotic sea of gods and demons.

"Master Demon Lord."

Seeing this demon shadow, the Eternal Demon King's expression changed drastically, and he hurriedly saluted respectfully, his heart pounding wildly, and he was very nervous.

"Ok?"

"Eternal Demon King, why are you outside of this magic source?"

The demon lord's eyes condensed and said coldly.

The heart of the Eternal Demon King was palpitating, but his expression was not surprised. He even respectfully said: "Master Hui Demon Lord, the subordinates seemed to have sensed something unusual in this Demon Origin Formation before, and thought something was wrong, so I came to prepare immediately. Inquire about the specific situation, but whoever thought it was Lord Demon, you will come in person, and your subordinates will welcome your late arrival, and please forgive your sins."

The Eternal Demon King hurriedly knelt down on one knee, looked respectful, and tremblingly said, as if shocked by the majesty of the Demon Lord.

"That's it."

The demon master said in a deep voice: "Then you were in this formation before, but did you find any abnormalities, for example, did you see a strong person leaving this demon formation?"

"Someone left the magic source array?"

The eyes of the Eternal Demon King suddenly appeared shocked, and he looked up in panic, and said in amazement: "Master Demon Lord, is there an enemy who has broken into the demon source formation of my Chaos God Demon Sea?"

"how can that be?"

"My Chaos God Demon Sea Demon Origin Formation is a great formation of the Supreme Demon Ancestor personally arranged by Lord Demon Ancestor. Who can break into it in the entire world?"

The Eternal Demon said in shock, the shock in his eyes could not be concealed.

"Could it be... those guys from the Righteous Path Army? Or is there someone in my Demon Realm who tried to destroy Master Demon Ancestor's plan and prepare to frame Master Demon Lord?"

The Eternal Demon King seemed to be meditating, constantly guessing, and then he even said in a deep voice: "Master Demon Lord, if this is the case, you must not be careless. Your subordinates think that this matter must be notified to Master Demon Ancestor and let Master Demon Ancestor Come to investigate in person, find out the truth, and see who dared to be wild in my sea of chaos, gods and demons."

"Otherwise, if there is an accident in my chaotic God Demon Sea, which destroys Master Demon Ancestor's plan, Master Demon Ancestor will definitely be dissatisfied, and you will be..."

The eternal demon looked anxious, said hurriedly, and suddenly said a lot of crackling.

"All right."

The Demon Lord frowned and said in a deep voice: "You just need to say, did you ever feel the slightest change in your Eternal Demon Island before? Or whether there was anything abnormal in this Demon Origin Formation, you don't need to worry about anything else."

"This..." The Eternal Demon Lord was silent for a while, as if he was thinking, then shook his head and said, "My Lord, there is no change."

"The previous demon source formation had just fluctuated, and the subordinates hurriedly came to investigate, and then saw you, Lord Demon Lord, appeared in person, and the rest...nothing was discovered."

The eternal demon affirmed.

"Isn't it this eternal magic island?"

The demon murmured.

Suddenly, he frowned and looked at the Eternal Demon King, "How come you are here on the Eternal Demon Island, you are alone in the Demon Origin Array? What about the others?"

The Eternal Demon King's face suddenly showed a trace of trepidation, and said: "My Lord Hui Demon, the last few days were the day of my Eternal Demon Island Conference. Many of my Eternal Demon Island's powerful people have just attended the conference. The subordinates are going to take them to the Demon Island of Chaos for the baptism in the Dark Pool. All... let them relax a bit, and by the way, let them inspect whether there is any problem with the other Demon Island."

Flop!

The Eternal Demon King hurriedly knelt down on his knees: "Damn your subordinates, and I hope Lord Demon will punish you."

"Humph!"

Above the formation channel, the demon master gave a cold snort, boom, and the terrifying force impacted on the eternal demon king, causing him to muffle and spit out blood in an instant.

But the Eternal Demon didn't even dare to raise his head, but bowed his head tremblingly, with a panic expression.

The demon master snorted coldly: "If you turn around in this matter, you will be cured, and you will immediately summon all the strong men under your command to search the waters where the Eternal Demon Island is located. If you find anything abnormal, you will be notified as soon as possible."

"Yes, Lord Demon Lord, your subordinates will do it right away." The Eternal Demon King hurriedly said.

boom!

At the next moment, the face of the demon master on the passage suddenly disappeared and collapsed directly.

Chapter 4494: Demon Eye Chaser

call!

The eternal devil breathed a sigh of relief with cold sweat on his forehead.

Fortunately, I was deceived.

But where did the adults go?

He was nervous in his heart, but he kept moving, and immediately summoned many powerful men under his command.

Whoosh whoosh!

A famous demon guard of Tianzun appeared here one after another, feeling the aura of the demon lord remaining here, his face suddenly changed slightly.

"grown ups."

They all looked at the Eternal Demon in horror.

The Eternal Demon King's eyes were cold, and he said solemnly: "The clone of the Lord Demon Lord came through the Demon Source Formation before, and when you saw that you were not there, I was almost furious, but this king has already passed it for you. All the powerhouses on the Eternal Magic Island search the seas where they are located, and if they see anything unusual or suspicious, they will quickly report back to this king."

"The first demon king has been dispatched by this king, you should also set out immediately, together with the other great demon kings, investigate the major devil heart islands, there must be no omissions. Have you heard?"

The Eternal Demon shouted loudly.

"Yes, I will follow the orders of Lord Demon King."

These strong demon guards bowed and saluted.

Whoosh whoosh!

Immediately afterwards, many demon guards flew up and swept in all directions.

"Master, don't have anything to do with you."

The eternal demon is worried.

Not only the Eternal Magic Island.

now.

Where the other seven magic islands are located, the magical shadow of the demon lord descended together, alarming many demon kings.

However, after the Demon Lord inspected the Eight Demon Kings Island, he found that none of the eyes on which the Eight Demon Kings Island was located was damaged.

Therefore, he directly ordered many demon kings to investigate the area where they were located, and when they encountered anomalies, they reported it as soon as possible.

The Eight Great Demon Kings immediately ordered his subordinates to investigate, and the Eight Demon Shadows of the Demon Lord instantly returned to his body.

"boom!"

The eight demon shadows condensed into the body, and the aura of the demon master instantly surged.

He stared at the eagle, a terrible light.

"Where did this person go?"

At this moment, the demon lord stood proudly in the place where Qin Chen had been before. With Qin Chen's disappearance, the area where the passages converge was originally vacuumed, instantly being flooded with countless demon energy.

"The Eight Demon Kings Island, there is no accident, and after my investigation, at the time when the Eight Demon Kings Island is located, there is indeed no trace of anyone entering or leaving during the time when the Demon Lord is pursuing it, so look at it. Come, the guy before, really doesn't seem to have left from the Eight Demon Kings Island!"

The devil squinted his eyes.

The eight great demon kings were appointed by him personally, and they had all entered the core dark source pool, so he trusted the eight great demon kings extremely.

There was no doubt that the Eight Demon Kings would lie to him.

"If so, the greatest possibility for this person is to leave this world."

The devil looked out of this passage.

boom!

The demon lord's figure shook, directly urging the demon source formation to spread out a channel, and went straight to the deep sea of this chaotic **** and demon sea.

"If this person leaves from here, then it is very likely that he hasn't left far."

The demon master sat cross-legged, and a cold gaze suddenly bloomed in the pupils of his eyes.

"In the Chaos God Demon Sea, I also want to escape the demon lord's tracking, it's ridiculous."

At the center of the demon master's eyebrows, the demon eyes opened again.

boom!

A terrifying cold force quickly spread from him.

"The magic eye chases the soul, find it out for me!"

boom!

The terrible breath swept out in an instant, and the speed was so fast that it was impossible to capture it at all.

Ten thousand miles.

One hundred thousand miles.

Million miles.

Thousands of miles!

This force continues to spread, centering on the demon master, and frantically covering all parts of the chaos and demon sea.

After scouring hundreds of millions of miles in the depths of the Chaos Gods and Demon Seas, and after jumping across a piece of space, Qin Chen had already arrived at the deepest part of the Chaos Gods and Demon Seas.

Here is the deep sea area of the Sea of Chaos Gods and Demon Sea, and there is a dark deep sea space everywhere, exuding a heart-palpating breath.

General chaotic gods, demon sea and demon clan powerhouses cannot easily enter this world at all. If they enter rashly, they will be directly strangled by the power of the terrible space in this deep sea. Those who can come here are some deep sea demon clan. And Deep Sea Warcraft.

It can be said that it is safe to escape here.

But for some reason, even if he flew so far, Qin Chen still felt a palpating feeling in his heart, as if there was some danger still tracking him.

"Kid Qin Chen, it seems that you are about to be targeted."

In the chaotic world, Honghuang Zulong suddenly said solemnly.

"Do you feel that way too?"

Qin Chen frowned and his heart burst.

If only he felt this way, it might be an accident, but now even the great ancestor dragon also felt this way, then it is very likely that he was really not out of danger.

With the cultivation base of the ancient ancestor dragon, the perception must be extremely keen, and it is easy to make mistakes.

"Master, it should be the demon master who used some special means to track me and so on. This feels... it seems a bit like my demon clan's soul-chasing technique." The master of the abyss demon said solemnly.

"Soul chasing?" Qin Chen frowned.

"This is an extremely powerful tracking method for my demons. Many demons have them. However, different demons have different soul-chasing techniques. But in general, this magical power uses special soul power to track. It can cover an endless range."

"The most important thing is that this magical power does not require that you see the other party's existence. As long as you pass the other party, there will be a feeling of immersion and lock the other party."

The Lord of Abyss Demon explained.

"There is such a magical power?"

Qin Chen narrowed his eyes.

"Do you lock the other person through your secret perception?"

Qin Chen sneered.

Whoosh!

He shook his body and suddenly continued to enter the depths of the Chaos Gods and Demon Sea.

After a while, Qin Chen had already arrived in a chaotic place in the deepest part of the Chaos God and Demon Sea.

Here, located in the extreme depths of the Chaos God and Demon Sea, the terrible pressure caused space debris everywhere.

Some chaotic seabed gravels are scattered here.

These stones and fragments all exude a terrifying atmosphere of space, torn by the force of space all the year round, naturally with a unique atmosphere of space in the depths of the chaotic gods and demon sea.

"Chaos World, attached!"

Qin Chen was about to turn the chaotic world in his body into a small dust, which was attached to one of the broken stones, and at the same time, Qin Chen shook his body and hid in the chaotic world.

Under Qin Chen's control, this tiny dust turned into an infinitely small space, and then drifted away in the space debris along with the broken stones.

Qin Chen already understood that this tracking technique seemed to be based on the soul.

Then, as long as oneself hides in the chaotic world and condenses the soul aura, then the other party will not be able to detect oneself.

And not long after Qin Chen hid in the chaotic world.

Hum!

An invisible force has already swept across the entire sea.

Chapter 4495: Again

This vacant wave quickly searched this sea area, and in an instant, it enveloped the entire space, enveloping all the places in this sea area in an instant.

The gravel where Qin Chen was was naturally also examined.

In the chaotic world, Qin Chen naturally also felt this power, but his expression was calm, the chaotic world was urged to the extreme by him, and all the power was completely reduced.

Unless the supreme powerhouse is in front of him with his own eyes, he may be able to snoop out the slightest. Only through this perception, no one can believe that there is a huge chaotic world in this tiny piece of space debris.

Hum!

Therefore, after this invisible force has probed the void, although it has swept over this rubble, it has not noticed the slightest abnormality at all, but instantly diffuses out, continues forward, and sweeps deeper. In the deep sea.

"The soul-chasing technique is really extraordinary."

In the chaotic world, perceiving the disappearance of this force, Qin Chen exclaimed.

At this moment, he also understood the technique of this tracking technique, using special soul supernatural powers to cover hundreds of millions of miles in an instant. Such a technique was indeed extraordinary.

This should be the talent of the Demon Race, at least among the human supreme, there are very few strong people with such methods.

It's a pity that these soul tracking techniques also have shortcomings. Although they cover a wide range, they are only interested in souls. This way, people like Qin Chen will naturally seize the loopholes. Once Qin Chen enters the chaotic world and converges his soul aura, no matter how strong the opponent's supernatural powers are, even if he feels abnormal, he will only feel that the space on this piece of rubble is a little weird, and he can't imagine that there will be something contained in this piece of rubble. Panic

Terrible world, and there will be many powerful people hidden in the world.

Of course, this is only because Qin Chen owns the Chaos World. If he is another person, no matter what he changes to or where he hides, as long as his soul is still there, he will be locked by this tracking technique.

It can be said that such tracking methods are almost abnormal.

"Master, the tracking force has left. I wait, do I need to leave immediately?"

The Lord of Abyss Demon asked in a deep voice at this moment.

"Not in a hurry."

Qin Chen squinted his eyes, but shook his head slightly.

"This person has meticulous methods and shouldn't let me wait easily, so wait."

In Qin Chen's view, now is not a good time to leave.

If the opponent searches for the second time, he will definitely be discovered. Now that he knows the tracking method of the opponent, it is better to be quiet than to move.

At the moment, outside the intersection of the passage.

The power of the devil's body is still spreading.

The range of hundreds of millions of miles quickly spread. In an instant, the Demon Lord had almost enveloped one percent of the entire Chaos God Demon Sea. With him as the center, one percent of the entire Chaos God Demon Sea was already covered. Shrouded by him.

What a vast area is this?

It should be noted that the Chaos God Demon Sea is a powerful region in the Demon Realm, with a vast area and an unknown extent.

Among them, countless spaces are folded, there are many secrets, and small spaces can be described as endless. Even with the supreme cultivation base of the demon lord, it is extremely terrifying to be able to cover 1% of the range with a single thought. This is because this person has been operating in the chaos and demon sea for many years and can control the countless supreme that is located throughout this chaos and demon sea. For the sake of the magic source

But even so, he still couldn't perceive the existence of the thief.

This made the eyes of the demon lord suddenly shrink, revealing disbelief.

"impossible!"

He opened his eyes, there was disbelief in them.

"If that guy did escape from this place, he must still be nearby, even the Supreme, it is impossible for him to fly so far away in one thought, leaving the area of the Chaos Gods and Demon Sea."

The devil's mind was shaken.

Supreme, the flying speed is fast, but it is not possible to reach all places with a single thought. Even at his speed, it is impossible to escape so far in such a short time.

His speed is definitely not faster than the speed of his magic eye chase.

No matter how fast it flies, can it be faster than the dissipation of the soul between thoughts?

Totally impossible!

"So, there are only two possibilities."

The demon squinted his eyes.

"First, the other party did not escape from this place."

The demon master took a deep breath. Although the intersection of the formation channels had the strongest breath, it didn't mean that the opponent was fleeing from here. There are many ways to make the true air here the strongest.

"But, if you didn't escape from here, where did the other party escape from?"

The devil frowned. Because, he has already investigated the formation channels of the Eight Demon Kings Island before, and those channels have indeed not been forcibly destroyed. What's more, if the opponent moves forward and leaves this channel, as the master of the formation, he Sure to feel

To volatility.

"In other words, the probability of the opponent leaving from here is still extremely high."

"But if the other party really leaves from here, why, my magic eye will not be able to sense the other party?"

The demon's eyes bloomed with cold light.

"Unless, the other party has some kind of top treasure that can shield this seat's perception."

He couldn't help but look cold.

This is the second possibility he guessed.

Moreover, this may be even greater.

"Huh, do you use the treasure to escape the demon lord's tracking? This demon lord can't do it. You will be motionless. As long as you move, you will definitely show your feet."

boom!

The demon master squinted his eyes, and at the center of his eyebrows, in the dark magic eyes, a terrible magic light broke out again, and he performed the soul-chasing technique again.

Hum!

This time, the magic light on his body surged, rumbling, and the entire Supreme Demon Source Array was rumbling, bursting out a terrifying magic light.

A terrifying dark aura and the power of the demon source quickly entered the body of the demon master.

This time, he directly used the Supreme Demon Source Formation and relied on the Supreme Demon Source Formation to strengthen his perception.

boom!

The terrible magic light once again diffused out, instantly covering the endless void of hundreds of millions of miles.

"Again."

In this space crack zone, Qin Chen, who was located in the chaotic world on the gravel, sensed this power and couldn't help but sneered.

"Kid Qin Chen, isn't this guy too idiot? Obviously he can't perceive us, and he continues to perform this soul-chasing technique. It's ridiculous. Do you think you can perceive this chaotic world by performing it a second time?"

Honghuang Zulong sneered.

Where is the chaotic world? Even the top world that he could hide from the ancient chaotic creatures could not be called the most terrifying little world in this world if he could snoop through it so easily. It can be said that the chaotic world can no longer be simply said to be a small world. Once it grows up, it will be a brand new world.

Chapter 4496: Identify changes

"He did this not to perceive us."

At this moment Qin Chen said in a deep voice.

"Not to perceive us?" Honghuang Zulong frowned: "What do you mean?"

"He is carrying out two coverage tracking in a short period of time, looking for differences from some details, and then identifying whether someone is hiding." Qin Chen explained again.

"This....."

"How to identify?"

Honghuang Zulong frowned, but he still didn't understand.

But this time, Qin Chen did not explain, but frowned slightly.

The Demon Lord of the Chaos God Demon Sea is obviously extremely savvy, and he really used the method he thought of, which shows that the other party is not an ordinary person, at least his brain is very good.

It is always very happy to have such teammates, but if it is an enemy, it is not so happy.

"However, this is not the most troublesome."

Qin Chen murmured.

Two identifications are not too troublesome. The most feared thing is that the other party has other actions during the two identifications, which is troublesome.

Hope, the other party is not decisive enough.

Qin Chen's heart was very serious, because he knew that he had not completely escaped the danger at this moment.

"Kid Qin Chen, how do you tell if you speak?"

On the other side, seeing that Qin Chen ignored him, Honghuang Zulong suddenly became anxious. This kid, half-talking, did it deliberately?

"Senior Ancestral Dragon, the master's meaning is very simple. This chaotic **** demon sea demon master wants to use the difference between the two investigations to identify any different changes in this sea area." The master of the abyss demon saw this, immediately explained on the side.

"Identify changes?"

"That's right." The Lord of the Abyssal Demon nodded, "Senior Honghuang Ancestral Dragon, think about it, if an ordinary person is the owner, what will he do after the other party's investigation has been conducted before and the other party's investigation has disappeared?"

Honghuang Zulong frowned: "What do you do? Leave directly?"

"Not bad." The Master of Abyss Demon said, "But at this time, this chaotic God Demon Sea Demon Master's second investigation suddenly struck again. What would you do if you were the master?"

"Explore again, it is natural to hide in the chaotic world again, can he still find out?"

Honghuang Zulong was speechless.

What kind of problem is this, do you treat him as an idiot? Idiots know how to answer.

"This is the purpose of the other party. If you do this, Senior Ancestral Dragon, then there is a high probability that you will have been discovered." The Lord of Abyss Demon shook his head.

Honghuang Zulong stared wide-eyed: "How is it possible that I have been hiding in the chaotic world, how can his soul tracking find out?" "This is what the average person thinks." The master of the deep demon said in a deep voice, "Although it was checked twice. Tan, the other party could not perceive the existence of the chaotic world, but between the two times, the owner has moved, so that it will definitely be left in the space.

Traces, this space will also change, but this trace cannot be concealed by the chaotic world. "The Lord of the Abyssal Demon flashed his eyes and said: "In this way, although the other party did not perceive the chaotic world, he could perceive from the traces of space that someone had appeared in this world, if he could directly perceive who passed by. Fortunately, for example, it is obvious that some marine monsters passed by, so suspicion can be eliminated naturally. But if there is no one between the traces of this space, then as long as the other party is more sensitive, he can surely guess that there must be something that can evade his perception.

I've been here. "Speaking of this, the Lord of Abyss Demon glanced at Qin Chen, with a hint of exclamation in his eyes: "At that time, as long as the other party completely seals the world with his soul, the owner will not be able to move anymore, and the other party only needs to come here. Come personally, Under careful perception, we are afraid that there will be a great possibility of exposure..."

Although the chaotic world is terrifying, it is not invincible after all. If the supreme-level powerhouse comes in person and perceives this world with powerful spiritual knowledge and power, the possibility of the chaotic world exposed at that time will be increased tenfold and a hundredfold.

At that time, it was over.

At this moment, the Lord of Yuanmo admired Qin Chen incomparably, not only because Qin Chen was his master, but also because of Qin Chen's meticulous thoughts.

He hadn't thought of this before. If it was him, he might not be able to resist not seizing the opportunity of the other party to investigate and leave and want to escape from this place, but if he did so, even if it had already been exposed.

"by!"

Hearing this, Hong Huang Zulong suddenly opened his eyes wide, and couldn't help being dumbfounded.

Is it so complicated?

If it hadn't been explained by the Lord of Abyss Demon, he hadn't even figured out what Qin Chen said earlier.

In other words, it was him who came to control the chaotic world. He has been exposed now?

The corners of Honghuang Zulong's mouth twitched, and his mood instantly became bad.

"Are you all perverts? You can think of this way? Isn't it too insidious?"

Hong Huang Zulong cursed.

The previous explanation by the Lord of Abyss had set him off like a fool, which was too shameful.

"Huh, your human race and demons are too complicated. If you want me to say, just do it, whoever has the biggest fist is the boss, think so much, don't you be afraid of insomnia?"

The great ancestor dragon disdain.

He is still more straightforward, and he doesn't have much trouble.

And when the ancestor dragon was speechless.

boom!

The terrible perception spread out in an instant, covering this sea area again at this moment.

Where the formations meet, the demon lord's brows are slightly frowned.

Because he still couldn't sense the other party's existence.

"Strange, didn't the other party move?"

The devil's face is ugly.

As long as the opponent has the slightest movement, even if the opponent has treasures that can cover his perception, a hint will inevitably be revealed.

But just now, he instantly analyzed the difference between the two investigations, only to find that there was nothing in this world that made him noteworthy, and the only doubtful place had been eliminated by him one by one.

This makes the devil's face ugly.

Is it really necessary to notify Lord Demon Ancestor as the Eternal Demon King said?

Do not!

The devil took a deep breath.

Sitting in the Chaos God Demon Sea is a task assigned to him by Master Demon Ancestor, and it is also a test of Master Demon Ancestor to him. Now, there have been some changes in the Dark Pool, but he can't even find the instigator. He can only inform Lord Demon Ancestor. Then his status in the eyes of Lord Demon Ancestor will fall by a huge margin, and he may even feel that he is not suitable for chaos at all. Gods and demons

Such an important place as the sea.

In this way, his status will definitely be challenged.

Don't even think of him as a supreme powerhouse, but in the Demon Realm, he is under great pressure. It is not an easy task to continue to follow the footsteps of Lord Demon Ancestor if he wants to become stronger.

But now, there is no trace of the other party, what should I do?

Give up? Or do you continue to look elsewhere?

Chapter 4497: In trouble

No way.

The demon master shook his head slightly.

If you go to find it elsewhere, it will really fall short.

He had already rushed here for the first time, but he still couldn't find the opponent's method of escaping the formation channel, which shows that the opponent's method is extremely unusual.

Moreover, two investigations by himself failed to find the trace of the other party.

Now that I tracked him down, I wasted a lot of time and gave the other party enough time to escape.

Going to other places to investigate now will only fall short and completely lose the trace of the other party.

Only continue to sit here.

bet!

Bet that the other party is in this area, it's just that he escaped his tracking.

If you bet it is right, you can naturally lock the opponent, so that the opponent has nowhere to hide.

If you make a wrong bet, the worst result is just to lose track of the other party as it is now.

"Come here."

Thinking of this, the demon lord immediately gave a cold cry, boom, a terrifying message, and instantly walked along this passage to instantly reach the Chaos God and Demon Island where the Dark Pool was located.

"It's Lord Demon Lord who is calling."

Suddenly, the many powerful demon clan experts located on the Demon God and Demon Island were alarmed one after another. On the Demon God and Demon Island, a famous expert flew out instantly, whoosh, and quickly rushed to the place of the demon lord. .

"Master Demon Lord!"

After a while, this group of strong men arrived in the deep sea area at the intersection of the big formation where the demon master was, and respectfully saluted the demon master.

"Ma uploaded the Lord's order to block the Chaos Gods and Demon Sea. During this time, anyone is forbidden to enter and leave the Chaos Gods and Demon Sea at will. If you violate it, you will kill you without mercy." The Demon Lord said sharply.

"Yes!" Many powerful demons shouted. "Besides, you mobilize many powerful people on the island of Chaos Gods and Demon Islands, and comprehensively search for hundreds of millions of miles in the sea area centered on this demon master. Remember, check every inch and don't miss any corners. To some weird place, Notify the demon master as soon as possible. "

"This demon master wants to see how this person escaped the demon master's exploration, could it be that he disappeared out of thin air!"

The demon's voice was cold and his eyes were cold.

"Yes."

Suddenly, this group of strong men obeyed the command of the demon lord and left one after another. After an instant, they disappeared completely.

At the intersection of the formations, the demon master sits cross-legged with cold eyes. His body is fused with this supreme demon source formation, using the power of the supreme demon source formation to maintain his own demon eye chasing soul. Surgery, monitor this world.

In the dark demon energy rising, the eyes of the demon lord were cold.

"This demon Lord doesn't believe it. In such a short time, where can this person escape? As long as he escapes from this place of formation, this demon Lord doesn't believe that he can escape my palm."

"Hmph, dare to destroy the Chaos God Demon Sea that this demon master is in charge of, no matter who this person is, there is no escape."

The sound of murderous intent reverberated in the hall, and a black sharp light suddenly shot out from the eyes of the demon master, and with a crackle, the void in front was split into a spatial crack, and the murderous intent was diffused.

He is betting that the other party is still in this sea, as long as the other party is still there, he can't escape his lock.

And after a stick of incense ordered by the demon master.

Whoosh whoosh!

From the Island of Chaos Gods and Demon, a powerful demon clan who wore demon guard armor flew out one after another, and the number was as large as a locust.

"From now on, this sea area will be completely sealed off, and no one will be allowed to enter or leave rashly. Once any suspicious person is found, they can be captured. If the opponent resists, kill him, understand?"

"understand!"

"Okay, let's go!"

Many powerful demon guards, like a celestial lady scattered flowers, flew in all directions and quickly disappeared into the sky.

Not only the Demon Island of Chaos God, but all the powerhouses of the Demon Race in this sea area have been dispatched one after another at this moment. They went to every area of this sea area, dived into the deep sea and searched everywhere.

Rumble!

These powerful men urged their own spiritual consciousness and devilish energy, searched everywhere, and stirred every inch of the void a little bit.

For hundreds of millions of years, how many powerhouses have been born in Chaos God Demon Sea?

Countless.

Under this search by countless demon powerhouses, the entire chaos and demon sea was immediately upset.

In addition to this sea area, the entire Chaos Gods and Demon Sea, including the island of the Eight Demon Kings. After receiving the orders of the Demon Lord, the Eight Demon Kings also led many powerful men and began to search in their own waters for clues.

Suddenly, the entire sea of chaos and demon was rumbling, and the undercurrent surging.

"Hmph, as long as you are still in this sea area, this demon master wants to see how you hide."

The demon master sits in a large array, his perception is always locked in this sea area, and the corner of his mouth outlines an icy murderous intent.

These powerful demons are his eyes, searching every inch of the sea for him, and if he finds any abnormality, he can rush to him personally to capture the enemy.

He is confident, as long as the opponent is still there, he can't escape his tracking.

now.

In this deep sea space, Qin Chen in the chaotic world above the gravel, also felt the power of investigating everywhere in the sea of chaos and demon in the distance.

not good!

At this moment, Qin Chen's expression suddenly changed.

"Master, this is in trouble."

The face of the Lord of the Abyss also showed an ugly look, and his expression became tense.

After two investigations, the demon master didn't give up. He actually sent countless powerful men to search this sea area. Is the other party so sure that they must be here?

At this time Qin Chen's heart sank completely.

The worst possibility still happened.

This was the worst possible Qin Chen thought of. He had a fluke before, but who had thought that the other party actually did this.

Too decisive.

This made Qin Chen understand that this demon master is definitely an extremely difficult opponent.

Because the other party did this, it was almost equivalent to giving up the search in other sea areas, and only identified this one percent of the chaotic sea area of the God Demon Sea. If Qin Chen and the others were in another sea area at this moment, then the demon master would completely lose the ability to find them. opportunity.

But this demon lord is extremely decisive, in such a disadvantaged situation before, there is actually such a decisive decision.

If only this one percent of the sea area is recognized, it will be upset here.

This is by no means a decision that ordinary people can make.

"Master, what shall we do now?"

The Lord of Abyss Demon took a deep breath, his expression cold.

After searching like this, those strong demon guards will definitely find this place after spending enough time. By then, with the strength of these demon guards, it may not be impossible to find them.

After all, although the world of chaos is hidden, something will inevitably be exposed under the bombardment of the devilish energy of the strong Tianzun.

It would be fine if there were only these strong Heavenly Venerates, this fluctuation might not be able to conceal their perception.

But now, the Demon Lord's soul-chasing technique has been locked in this sea area. With that demon master's shrewdness and power, the possibility of discovering the chaotic world will be extremely great.

Chapter 4498: It's done

In the chaotic world, Qin Chen took a deep breath.

"Prepare for a battle."

Qin Chen's eyes were cold.

It was too late to make any decisions now, and Qin Chen had no chance to leave with the complete lock of the demon master.

And as long as Qin Chen and the others acted, they would be discovered in an instant, and would even be exposed earlier.

But now Qin Chen can only bet.

Bet that the other party can't find yourself.

If the bet is lost, there is only one battle.

A terrible chill bloomed in Qin Chen's eyes, and his fighting spirit rose to the sky.

It's just a big deal, who is afraid of who.

"Kid Qin Chen, my ancestor said it a long time ago. You can just go straight up. It's just a demon supreme. What are you afraid of."

Honghuang Zulong said proudly, with a look of disdain.

Qin Chen glanced at Honghuang Zulong, and didn't bother to pay attention to him.

Since this guy regained his strength, he was already arrogant.

What Qin Chen was afraid of was not the Demon Lord, but the Yuan Demon ancestor of the Yuan Demon Clan.

"wait."

At this moment, Qin Chen directly sat down cross-legged in this chaotic world, his eyes cold.

If you can escape, it's good, if you can't escape, it's nothing more than a battle.

call!

In Qin Chen's body, the surging power surged, waiting for the other party to discover himself, and he was ready to violently attack.

And when Qin Chen and the others waited silently.

In the deep sea not far from another Demon King Island, which is hundreds of thousands of miles away.

Whoosh whoosh!

Two figures suddenly appeared here, silently, like a ghost.

"Lord Luohu Demon Ancestor, the Demon Origin Array in this Chaos Gods and Demon Sea is really so powerful? As long as you swallow the power in it, you can restore your previous cultivation level?"

A demon strong man who was completely covered in a cloak said in doubt.

This was a person of the Demon Race who looked rather young, covered in terrible magic armor, only revealed a cold face, and exuded a terrible breath.

That breath is extremely strange, and the roads seem to merge with the heavens and the earth, surging silently on his body, as if the heavens are devouring this demon world all the time.

If Qin Chen was here, he would be surprised.

Because this person is not someone else, it turned out to be the magic power that soared to the heavens from the Tianwu Continent with him. Since the Vientiane God hides away, Moli has quietly returned to the Demon Realm. Now Moli's body is filled with a horrible Demon Race aura surging, and his cultivation level has not yet reached the realm of the Peak Heavenly Sovereign. , Even, faintly Even stronger.

This is the aura that half-step supreme can almost touch.

And beside Moli, there is a enchanting body exuding a terrible smell of magic fire. This person is wearing armor and is completely covered by that hideous and terrifying magic armor, but even this kind of magic armor still cannot cover her. That enchanting posture.

It is Chiyan Demon Lord.

In addition to these two people, in front of Moli, there is also a cold demon soul figure. This figure is only suspended here, and it has a feeling of suppressing the eternal demon way, as if the heavenly way of the demon world was suppressed by him. .

This person is no one else, but the Demon Ancestor Luohu, one of the ancestors of the Demon Race brought out from the Vientiane God Store by Demon Li and Chiyan Demon Lord.

The Demon Ancestor of Luohu was one of the top gods and demons among the 3000 Chaos Gods and Demons that year.

When it was in the Vientiane God Treasure, there was only one soul left, but now, over the past few years, Luohu Demon Ancestor exudes a terrifying breath of supremacy.

Moreover, this supreme aura is extremely solid, not the pressure escaping from his soul, but the true supreme power.

In these short years, this Demon Ancestor Luohu has actually recovered his supreme cultivation base.

If Qin Chen saw it, he would be surprised. Because, in order to restore the original cultivation base of the ancestral dragon, they absorbed a lot of fortune in the ancient tower, and entered the real dragon ancestor land, absorbed all the power of the original dragon blood pool of the ancestor of the real dragon. Zulong barely recovered

Restored most of the power of the previous life.

As for the Blood River Saint Ancestor, apart from the soul, the strength of the physical body is still only half a step back to the supreme level.

But this Demon Ancestor Luohu, without knowing it, has already recovered to the supreme cultivation base. Although it is weaker than the restoration of the Primordial Ancestral Dragon, it is also surprising. In this demon world, this person is bound to be amazing. Adventure.

Otherwise, it would be impossible to recover so quickly. After listening to Demon Li and Chiyan Demon Lord's question, Luohu Demon Ancestor sneered: "Hmph, you shouldn't be able to feel it. This Demon

Ancestor has already investigated. In this chaotic God Demon Sea's Demon Origin Formation, there is Countless strong men over the entire Chaos God Demon Sea for hundreds of millions of years

In addition to the power of the fallen demon source, it also contains the special dark power of the dark race overseas in the universe. "Even, there is another special aura in it. It is very likely that it is another top-level original power. If you can absorb the power, let alone the original ancestor's restoration of the previous life, even you can directly cross it. Into the Supreme Realm

Without any obstacles. "

Luohu Mozu sneered.

"Hi, so powerful?"

Red Flame Demon Lord took a deep breath, "Master Luohu Demon Ancestor, this... is too abnormal?" There was also incredible in the demon eyes on the side, frowning: "Master Luohu Demon Ancestor, I have been waiting for these years The Ten Thousand Races Battlefield and the Demon Realm secretly killed so many powerful Demon Races. In addition, they also unconsciously unified the Meteor Demon Realm and swallowed up several top-level relics in the Meteor Demon Realm. My lord, your cultivation base was barely restored to the supreme level. As far as I know, this Chaos God Demon Sea may not be much stronger than the Meteor Demon Realm in the ancient times, and even a little bit weaker.

Such as....."

"How many years have you been in the almanac?"

Luohu Demon Ancestor said silently: "Okay, don't talk nonsense, my ancestor has already investigated, this demon source formation is now established by the ancestors of the demon clan and the powerful ancestors of the dark clan and the ancestor of the dark clan. It is related to Yuan. There is nothing wrong with the secret of the devil ancestor."

"So, when I can absorb, I have to be more careful, don't disturb the demon master in this chaotic sea of gods and demons. This person is the ancestor of the deep demon who personally arranged to sit here, and he has an extraordinary cultivation base."

"If it were the ancient times, I could easily kill the ancestors, but now my ancestors only recover a small part of my cultivation. Once trapped by this person, it will be troublesome." "Therefore, I will be quiet after a while. Break through this large array of magic source, use the channel of this large array to swallow the power in it, then you can absorb the power of the escaped magic source and improve yourself. The most important thing is that once you are discovered, you must not love to fight.

Leave for the first time. "

Luohu Mozu warned.

"I'll see it later."

Mo Li nodded, a trace of determination flashed in his eyes.

As long as he can improve his strength, he cares who set up this magic source formation, and what effect does it have?

It's all done.

However, for some reason, there was a hint of anxiety in Mo Li's heart at this time, as if something bad would happen next.

This feeling is very similar to the feeling when he was pitted by Qin Chen every time.

"No way?"

Mo Li shook his head. This is the Demon Realm. That damned fellow can't escape and come into this Demon Realm?

Just kidding, the ancestors of the deep demon are chasing him, if he dares to appear in the demon world, he will certainly not escape to death.

"Li'er, what's the matter with you?"

At this moment, Red Flame Demon Lord felt the changes in Mo Li's body, and he couldn't help but look at it and asked in confusion.

She was very familiar with Moli and felt Moli's emotions extremely keenly.

"It's okay, I think too much."

Mo Li smiled.

"Hurry up and assist Master Luohu Demon Ancestor."

Moli's eyes were cold and sharp, "If I can break through the supreme realm with this, then this world, I will go wherever I wait."

Mo Li's eyes were fiery, and his expression excited. Chiyan Demon Lord gently stepped forward, the slender Su grabbed Moli, and whispered softly: "Li'er, we will definitely become stronger. At that time, you and I will no longer pay attention to the disputes in this world. Find a quiet corner in the universe, one

This is a corner that belongs only to us, what a happy moment to spend my life happily. "

Mo Li stroked the icy face of Demon Lord Chiyan covered with magic armor, and said: "Yes, Lord Chiyan, there must be such a day. When that happens, you and I will live in seclusion in this world and never come out again."

"The Tianwu Continent, the human race, the celestial realm, the demon realm, and the universe can't compare to the fact that we can stay together quietly."

Mo Li said softly.

The two looked at each other with affection.

"Okay, that's enough, don't be here for you and me. The demon lord of this chaotic sea of gods and demon sea is not a good match. If you waste time, once it is detected, I will be in trouble."

Not far away, Demon Ancestor Luohu just felt a little unbearable. He already knew the original appearance of Demon Chiyan. For some reason, looking at the affectionate style of Demon Li and Chiyan Demon, he felt something in his heart. Guilty of nausea.

Are we in this era?

Is it too open?

Don't understand.

Old, old, he, this old fellow, can't understand it a little. It's obvious that his soul is two big men, and it's a little disgusting to think about it.

Thinking of this, Luohu Demon Ancestor couldn't help but shudder.

"Yes, Master Luohu Demon Ancestor."

At this moment Mo Li and Chi Yan Demon Lord also recovered, and were not immersed in their love for each other.

Boom, the terrible aura bloomed on both of them, blending into the body of Demon Ancestor Luohu, strengthening his power.

A terrifying aura surged in Luohu Demon Ancestor's body, and the auras of the top demons from the ancient times filled the world.

However, Luohu Demon Ancestor controlled it very well, this force only dissipated in a small area, and did not spread out directly, so as not to alarm other people.

"Sure."

Luohu Demon Ancestor felt the aura on his body and showed joy.

Today, although it has recovered its supreme cultivation base, its physical body has not been fully recovered. Therefore, it must be blessed with magical power to exert its full strength.

"Do it."

boom! Luohu Demon Ancestor's eyes condensed, a terrifying aura surging instantly.

Chapter 4499: what happened

boom!

Before coming to this large array quietly, Luohu Demon Ancestor immediately began to urge the large array.

Buzzing...

On his body, magic lights suddenly surging out, these magic lights turned into strange runes, and quickly entered the branches of the demon source formation in front of him.

Suddenly, a dazzling bright light appeared on the demon source formation, and then, the invisible demon qi thread in the body of the demon ancestor Luohu filled out, and instantly entangled the demon source formation.

The demon source array gleamed slightly, but it was not alarmed. At the same time, the countless threads of Luohu Demon Ancestor's body had quietly entangled in this demon source array.

I saw that in the large formation in front of me, a trace of pure magic source power slowly diffused out, lingering on the body of Luohu Demon Ancestor.

Moreover, a trace of the power of the demon source quietly escaped to the places of Demon Li and Demon Lord Chiyen at the same time.

If Qin Chen were here at this moment, he would be surprised. The reason why he was able to break through the big formation was by perceiving the runes of this big formation, using the power of the magic tree of the ten thousand worlds to suppress the formation, thoroughly comprehending the big formation, and breaking the restrictions in it, using upright methods. Method, comprehend the big array, consume

It took him a lot of time.

This will control this big formation.

But this Demon Ancestor Luohu did not break the big formation, but these invisible threads on his body did not trigger a reaction from the big formation when it penetrated into the demon source formation.

If Qin Chen sees this method, he will definitely be shocked and have a sense of it.

Although Luohu Demon Ancestor's method is not upright and upright compared to himself, and it is also a lot worse. It can be regarded as stealing the power of the Demon Source Great Array through a certain method, but being able to do this shows that Luohu Demon Ancestor is extraordinary.

Worthy of being an ancient Chaos God and Demon, one of the ancestors of the Demon Race.

Boom!

At this moment, the magic source array glowed slightly, and a trace of pure magic source power escaped, entered the bodies of the magic powers, and was absorbed and swallowed by them.

"What a pure magic source power."

"Successful?"

A trace of excitement was instantly revealed in the eyes of Demon Li and Demon Chiyen.

After absorbing the power of these demon sources, sure enough, the power in their bodies had a slight increase, showing the purity of their demon sources.

However, they were pleasantly surprised, but Luohu Demon Ancestor frowned slightly.

"Huh? Why isn't the power in this Demon Origin Array as pure as when I was investigating it before?"

Luohu Demon Ancestor was puzzled.

This is... so weird.

During his previous investigations, the power of the demon source was much more refined than it is now, but now, although the power of the demon source is not weak, it seems to be much weaker than before.

strange.

Doubtful in his heart, the Demon Ancestor Luo's expression did not move, hum, he quietly urged his energy, and began to slowly devour the power of the magic source in it. Because he knows that recently, it was when the Eight Great Demon Kings of Chaos God Demon Sea were conducting the Demon Island Conference, and it was also the easiest time to swallow the power of this Demon Origin. In normal times, these Eight Demon Lords would patrol their Demon Origin Formation territory. ,very

It is easy to find anomalies.

boom!

Immediately, the Demon Ancestor Luohu increased his swallowing, and the power of the rolling magic source quickly entered his body, continuously strengthening his power.

At this time, in the deepest part of the Chaos God and Demon Sea.

The intersection of formations.

The demon master kept performing the magic eye chasing technique, his eyes were cold and his brows were slightly frowned.

Under his investigation, the entire area of the sea was all the powerful under his command, investigating inch by inch.

So far, many strong men have explored almost half of the territory he perceives in the sea.

But so far, nothing has been achieved.

"Could it be that the other party is really not here?"

The demon Lord's face was green, his eyes became colder, and his heart was gloomy.

"There is half of the sea."

He took a deep breath.

At present, it is only half of the investigation, and there is the other half, which may not be hopeless.

"Ok?"

And at this moment.

The demon lord's brows suddenly jumped slightly, strange...

A trace of his soul power instantly melted into this demon source formation, and vaguely felt that there seemed to be a slight change in the passage of the demon source power in this demon source formation.

what happened?

His eyes sank, could it be that what happened to the Demon Origin Array again?

Hum!

A trace of his soul power instantly passed along where the abnormal movement had come from, and quickly passed away.

now.

The space in the depths of the Chaos God and Demon Sea is turbulent.

The people of Qin Chen in the chaotic world were looking around with solemn expressions. In the waters tens of thousands of miles away around them, some powerful demon guards had arrived and began to search around.

They searched very carefully, and hardly missed a single cent.

This made Qin Chen frowned slightly.

"Master, it looks like you can't hide it." The Lord of the Abyss said with an ugly expression.

Qin Chen also took a deep breath, his eyes cold.

The other party's exploration was too careful. A group of Tianzun-level demon guards attacked every inch of the void, with almost no dead ends.

From this point of view, at most there will be half an hour before the other party will find out here.

At that time, as long as any strong Tianzun strikes a punch at the rubble where the chaotic world is located, the space rubble will surely be shattered, and the chaotic world will definitely be exposed.

"Get ready to fight."

The power in Qin Chen's body circulated in an instant.

In the pupils of his eyes, there was a surge of cold murderous intent.

In the distance, the group of strong demon guards quickly approached.

Thirty thousand miles.

Ten thousand miles.

Five thousand miles.

Three thousand miles.

A thousand miles.

A thousand miles away, for a Celestial Venerable, it can be reached in the blink of an eye, and one of the Demon Guardian Celestial Venerables has already come beyond the gravel where Qin Chen's chaotic world is.

boom!

A terrible devilish energy rose from his body, just when he was about to take a shot at the void where Qin Chen was, Qin Chen mentioned it in his heart and prepared to fight back at the first time.

suddenly.....

boom!

There was a roar of fright at the location of the demon master.

"Your Excellency is so courageous, you dare to run wild in front of this demon lord."

"court death!"

Boom!

The demon master located at the intersection of the formations made a deafening roar, and with a bang, a blast of demonic energy filled the sky, quickly moved away from this place, and madly killed a certain place in the sea of chaos and demon.

I saw the entire surface of the Chaos Gods and Demon Sea, suddenly roaring, the demon energy between the heaven and the earth was rising, rolling out, and murderous aura boiled.

"go!"

"Quickly, Lord Demon Lord has found the person who sneaked."

Boom!

The powerhouses who were searching everywhere in this sea area also turned around one by one, and rushed directly in the direction where the demon master had left.

Suddenly, in this sea area, countless strong men rushed away one after another, and disappeared completely in the blink of an eye.

In the chaotic world.

Qin Chen, who was about to shoot, was stunned. This... what happened?

Chapter 4500: Stop them

At this moment, Qin Chen was a little confused.

The Lord of Abyss Demon was also stunned.

The great ancestor dragon, the ancestor of the blood river, they are also dumbfounded.

They almost had to make preparations for exposure, but suddenly, everyone disappeared completely, and they all ran towards one place. This...

Surprise joy!

"Master, what shall we do now?"

In an instant, everyone looked at Qin Chen one after another, and the Lord of Yuanmo asked in a deep voice. "Stay steady, don't waver, I think the other party should be playing mystery. The demon master must have felt that we can't be found, so he withdrew his troops intentionally, just to make us feel safe, and then take the initiative to expose, um, it must be the case.

Honghuang Zulong said proudly, looking through everything: "If we moved rashly, we fell into the other party's trap."

His tone was affirmative, with a strategizing look, and proudly said.

Humph, it must be so.

The other party wanted to deceive him into the wild ancestor dragon, it was not so easy.

While holding it, Honghuang Ancestral Dragon looked at Qin Chen and the Lord of Yuanmo triumphantly, wanting to be praised by them.

This time, he didn't act as the demon lord. He was not only a reckless ancestor, but also a clever dragon who could use his brain.

"Kid Qin Chen, say something."

Seeing Qin Chen not speaking, Hong Huang Zulong couldn't help being speechless.

Seeing through the conspiracy of the demon lord, is this not to praise him?

However, Qin Chen didn't say a word, as if he hadn't heard the words of Honghuang Zulong, just frowned.

"There should be something wrong."

At this moment, Qin Chen said in a deep voice, with a cold light flickering in his eyes.

"No? Little Qin Chen, are you making a mistake?"

Honghuang Zulong frowned and was stunned.

Pretend to be forced, pretended to be broken?

No, no, kid Qin Chen must be testing himself.

"Kid Qin Chen, what can happen, don't be fooled by that demon lord." Honghuang Zulong hurriedly said.

"Master Honghuang Zulong, feel it yourself."

The Lord of Abyss Demon said.

"Huh?" Honghuang Zulong was still a little dazed. "All the powerful demon in this sea area have left, and the demon lord's soul-seeking technique has also been put away, and his whole person has left the original place, and the breath is getting farther and farther away from us. , Even staying away from chaos

The sea, it shouldn't look like a fake. "

The Lord of Abyss Demon explained.

"Hahaha."

On the side, the Blood River Saint Ancestor laughed loudly when he heard the words.

"Old thing, let you pretend to be forced, pretending to be bald, right?" Blood River Saint Ancestor laughed from ear to ear.

This old thing, the Honghuang Zulong, is so funny.

"Blood River, you old fellow, go away."

Hong Huang Zulong said angrily, his face flushed, damn, is he really wrong?

"the host."

At this moment, the Lord of Yuanmo spoke again and looked at Qin Chen.

Now is the best chance to leave.

Although I don't know why the Demon Lord left, what happened in this Chaos Gods and Demon Sea, as long as you leave now and leave from the opposite direction, it is almost impossible for the Chaos Gods and Demon Sea Demon Lords to find them again.

"Wait a minute."

Qin Chen squinted his eyes, his eyes flickering, and he didn't seem to be anxious.

This made the Lord of Abyss Demon's look startled, he could see that the master seemed to have other plans.

now.

Qin Chen's perception has quietly diffused out. In order not to disturb the demon master, he just perceives it from a distance, very secretive.

Qin Chen felt that in the entire sea of chaos, gods and demons, the countless powerhouses who were still searching frantically here are now frantically rushing towards a distant sea area, densely packed like locusts.

They are fast.

The devil is faster.

Above the vast ocean of the Chaos Gods and Demon Seas, a huge shadow that resembles the magic sun is towering over there, with an angry expression, and directly hits a certain area in the distant Chaos Gods and Demon Seas with a fierce palm. The shot fell.

boom!

Above the surface of the entire Chaos God Demon Sea, a terrible magic light suddenly rose up, and the infinite power instantly penetrated into the seabed.

In the bottom of the sea.

Luohu Demon Ancestor's eyes suddenly rounded.

by!

How did he get discovered by the demon master of this chaotic **** and demon sea?

boom!

He didn't care about thinking too much, and a terrible demon energy suddenly burst out of his body, and the demon energy like a vast ocean rose into the sky, turning into a majestic sky, and instantly blocking him in front of him. As soon as I heard a bang, this piece of Chaos Gods and Demon Seas instantly boiled, two terrifying forces collided, and the amazing power swept out, and the entire Chaos Gods and Demon Seas burst directly. In this sea area, there are countless sea races. Warcraft in this shock

Under the force, it shattered instantly, leaving no bones.

Boom boom boom!

The power of the demon lord swept out heavily, and the figure of the Demon Ancestor Luohu retreated wildly, and went back thousands of miles before stopping the figure.

"Master Luohu Demon Ancestor, what happened?"

Mo Li and Chi Yan Demon Sovereign awakened one after another, and even said in amazement.

"Damn it, let the demon master discover it, **** it, the ancestor's actions are very careful, logically, it is impossible for the demon master to find out, why?"

Luohu Demon Ancestor looked frightened. For this day, Luohu Demon Ancestor has rehearsed many times. In his plan, the means he absorbs is extremely clever, unless the spirit of the demon lord of the chaotic **** demon sea is completely concentrated on this demon source supreme passage. It is possible to find out, no

It would never be possible to discover his actions.

But now, he hadn't absorbed it long before, and he was discovered by the other party, which made him look frightened and couldn't believe it.

"go!"

Demon Ancestor Luohu was frightened, and he didn't care about continuing to absorb it. Since he was discovered, his plan was a failure and he must leave as soon as possible, otherwise he would be surrounded by the demon master and it would be troublesome.

Mo Li and Chi Yan Demon Lord also understood the danger of the matter at this moment.

Boom!

Both of them burst out of terrible magic energy, turned into two streams of light, escaped into the void, and were about to leave here for the first time.

"Want to leave? You are strayed in my chaotic sea of gods and demons, and you still want to leave. How can it be so easy to leave to this demon master."

boom!

The demon master roared and pressed down directly with a palm. Suddenly, the void vibrated. Above this sea area, a rolling array of rays of light rose into the sky, turning into a terrible magic light, and instantly sealed this void.

"Stop them for me."

At the same time, the demon master shouted angrily, and in an instant, some strong demon guards nearby had already arrived first.

"Looking for death." Mo Li and Chi Yan Demon Lord fell out of the void with a bang under the pressure of the demon lord's breath, their faces were frightened, and when they saw many demon guards surrounding them, their faces suddenly appeared. A trace of hideous color, with a boom, in Mo Li's body, a

A terrible devouring magic power quickly diffused out.

"Ah!" Suddenly, the powerful demon clan experts who approached quickly uttered a scream. Under the aura of the magic power, their bodies instantly cracked, and the magic source in the body was fading quickly and was swallowed by the magic power. .
