Chapter 5311: real body

boom!

The God of Death's avatar fell, and the endless source of death instantly filled the entire world. In the void of the Dead Sea spring, there was an astonishing breath of death everywhere in an instant.

This is the original power of death that drifted away after the * of death fell.

Although it was only a clone of the * of death that descended before, even a clone of the * of death still possesses extremely terrifying power.

As soon as Qin Chen raised his hand, the endless source of death in an instant was like a long river, which was collected by Qin Chen into the chaotic world, and disappeared in an instant.

A triple detached powerhouse origin, this is a great tonic, how could Qin Chen be willing to waste it. Mingyan Tomb General and others stared blankly at the * of death who had turned into endless breath of death. Abandoned area range

I have never been afraid of anyone.

They have followed Lord Reaper for so many years, and they have never seen Lord Reaper eat up, but now, one of Lord Reaper's avatars was directly killed here, which is simply too terrifying.

Forest Ghost King!

Could it be the Forest Ghost King here? Underworld Tomb General and the others raised their heads in horror, and they also heard the horrified and angry words of Lord Reaper before the avatar was shattered. Could it be

The Ghost King of Forest Underworld came in person.

If it was the ghost king of the forest underworld who came in person, then everything would make sense.

However, when they raised their heads, they saw the endless ghostly aura of the underworld dissipated in an instant, and a pitch-black skull crystal head floated down from the sky and came to the young ghost cultivator in front of them.

"Hey, Young Master Chen, how is your subordinate acting? Does it look similar? Hey!"

Wangu Mingzu smiled at Qin Chen.

The endless dark breath exuding before that was actually released by this skull crystal.

Not far away, the Underworld Tomb General and others were all stunned. Didn't it mean that the Forest Underworld Ghost King made the move? Why is it the skull crystal that swallowed his own treasure before? What exactly is going on?

At this time, the Tomb General of Mingyan was about to lose his mind. Could it be that the ghost king of the Forest Ghost who attacked before was pretended by the skull crystal in front of him? But if it was the skull crystal pretending to be, with the strength of Lord Reaper, how could he not recognize it?

Or is this skull crystal the Forest Ghost King?

But when they were wondering, Qin Chen put away the mysterious rusty sword at this time, glanced at Wangu Mingzu lightly, and said, "Let's be so-so!"

"So-so?" Wangu Mingzu jumped up immediately: "Young Master Chen, it's not my subordinate. I said that this subordinate absorbed part of the spiritual power of the Forest Ghost King before, and pretended to be the Forest Ghost King with his subordinate strength. Then It's an easy thing, don't say it's just that What a clone of Death God, even if he came personally, it is absolutely impossible to recognize it. "

"Oh? So powerful?" "That's natural." Wangu Mingzu said proudly: "Young Master Chen, later on, you will assign the original source of that Broken Death God to some of your subordinates, and your subordinates promise to pretend to be that Broken Death God next time." , these guys have been in this abandoned place all year round, their

The source power is actually relatively close, and it contains the unique atmosphere of the abandoned land, which is easy to pretend. Young Master Chen, you don't know that when I was under the command of the Great Emperor in the ancient times, my subordinate, I was the young man with thousands of faces known as the underworld..."

A thousand-faced young gentleman?

"puff!"

Behind Qin Chen, the little girl burst out laughing.

"What do you mean? Doesn't this seat look like it?" Wan Gu Mingzu said angrily.

"Okay, don't waste time." Qin Chen gave Wangu Mingzu a white look, then looked around, frowned and said: "Hurry up and clean up the battlefield, leave here, what was annihilated before was a clone of the * of death, his body must be Knowing everything that happened here, waiting for his body

It will be troublesome when you arrive..."

"Young Master Chen, what are you afraid of? With subordinates around, even if the main body of that * of death arrives, the subordinates will definitely let him..."

Wangu Mingzu didn't finish his sentence, when he saw Qin Chen's cold eyes looking over, he suddenly became excited: "Your subordinate, don't worry, this Tomb of Mingyan will be handed over to your subordinates, and I promise to clean it up for you." Submissive."

After the words fell, Wangu Mingzu rushed directly towards the Tomb General of Mingyan.

"boom!"

Representing the aura of triple peak detachment, it was suppressed in an instant.

this breath...

The faces of General Mingyan Tomb and the others changed drastically, and they hurriedly wanted to escape from here, but even the avatar of Death God couldn't break free from the shackles of this place, how could they escape?

General Mingyan Tomb and the others were terrified. The aura emanating from the Myriad Bone Mingzu in front of them gave them the feeling that it was even more terrifying than Lord Death.

And when General Mingyan Tomb and others were unable to move, Qin Chen raised his hand, and the power of the chaotic world bloomed directly, swallowing General Mingyan Tomb and others in an instant.

In the entire Dead Sea spring, everyone disappeared in an instant, leaving only Qin Chen and the dead sea water remaining outside.

"Take it!" Qin Chen quickly absorbed the remaining Dead Sea water. The Dead Sea water is extremely precious, and Qin Chen naturally won't waste any of it. In addition, he will also put away all the countless restrictions that Qin Chen has placed before. can't stay

The slightest clue.

And when Qin Chen quickly cleaned the battlefield.

at this time.

The cemetery of the * of death hundreds of millions of miles away from here is located.

"boom!"

A terrifying aura soared into the sky from this winding graveyard, and at the same time, a majestic figure was directly projected onto the vast, pitch-black sky.

This figure was billions of feet tall, with a hazy figure, and his eyes were like two dark stars, bursting out with an expression of endless anger.

"Sen Ming Ghost King, how dare you destroy a clone of this seat, this seat and you are irreconcilable."

An endless angry voice resounded crazily between the heaven and the earth, where the entire cemetery of the * of death below was located, many peaks collapsed directly, the earth directly opened up, and countless strong men in the cemetery of the * of death crawled down in horror, trembling.

Lord Death, what happened? Could it be that one of his clones was destroyed by the Forest Ghost King?

Before the thoughts in their minds fell, the magnificent figure of the * of death above the sky suddenly stepped forward, and immediately escaped into the endless void, and the power of countless spaces was stirred up, and the * of death disappeared instantly.

Down below, countless strong men from the Death God's cemetery were still terrified, afraid to stand up, and terrified long after the Death God had left.

Dead Sea Springs.

Qin Chen had already collected the last drop of Dead Sea water, and when all the Dead Sea water disappeared, there was a bang, and the entire Dead Sea spring was directly annihilated, including the previous space channel, which quickly disappeared without a trace.

Immediately afterwards, Qin Chen put away all the restrictions, and after thoroughly cleaning the place, he directly activated the power of space, and suddenly disappeared in place.

Not long after Qin Chen left the dead sea spring.

boom! Above the endless sky in the distance, a terrifying aura quickly swept over, and after a while, it landed on the location of the Dead Sea spring. When this figure fell, the entire void where the Dead Sea spring was located was boiling directly. When he got up, it was like the beginning of boiling, bursting out with endless violent breath.

Chapter 5312: death tracker

This pitch-black figure was the God of Death's body who came from the God of Death's cemetery.

As soon as the * of death came, he looked around with a livid face. With his cultivation base, he could tell at a glance that there was no breath of death here, and no one existed at all.

With a flash of his figure, he came straight to the place where the Dead Sea spring was before, and his pupils shrank suddenly.

"The Dead Sea spring is definitely the Dead Sea spring. It seems that the message sent back by my avatar is not wrong, but what about those people just now? And this Dead Sea spring?"

Reaper's face was livid.

In his capacity, it was not the first time he had seen the Dead Sea spring.

The Dead Sea spring is extremely special. Once it appears, it cannot be shaken at all, and there are many dangers in it. Even the master of the restricted area like him dare not rush in, and can only let the Dead Sea spring dissipate automatically. "According to the law of the Abandoned Lands, once a Dead Sea spring appears, it will not disappear easily in a short period of time. Only at a certain time, the Dead Sea spring will disappear on its own, and every time the Dead Sea spring disappears, where it disappears

They will dissipate astonishing power of space, as if they have entered a special space plane. "

After the words fell, the God of Death's figure flashed, and suddenly appeared in the depths of the Dead Sea spring.

"Sure enough, there is a breath of space passage..."

Death's eyes were gloomy: "In this way, it is not wrong to say that there was a Dead Sea spring here just now, but why did the Dead Sea spring disappear? And there is no trace left?"

He can't understand.

"Is it the Forest Ghost King?"

The Grim Reaper looked gloomy.

When he came to the scene, he faintly felt that this matter did not seem to be that simple.

If it was really the Forest Ghost King, why did the opponent fight him for so long? With the opponent's strength, if he shot with all his strength, it wouldn't take that long to destroy one of his clones, and he wouldn't be given so many opportunities to perceive.

But he had clearly sensed before that the descending power belonged to the Forest Ghost King, and there was no one else except the Forest Ghost King who cultivated the Forest Spirit Qi in this abandoned place and could reach this level.

Or is it that the Ghost King of the Underworld is deliberately confusing the public?

"Hmph, whether it's the Forest Ghost King or not, this matter has nothing to do with him."

The * of death stared at Sen Han, "Do you really think you'll be fine if you leave? In front of this seat, even if you run to the ends of the earth, you will not be able to escape the lock of this seat."

As soon as the words fell, a terrifying breath of death suddenly permeated the Death God.

boom! Above his head, a vast river of death appeared. This river of death flowed, and many deep auras evolved in it. At the same time, a black compass suddenly appeared in his hand.

Refined from special bones, the dim light flickers. The * of death stretched out his big hand, captured something directly in the void, and then directly drove the power of nothingness into the compass. Immediately afterwards, the long river of death above the * of death suddenly stirred up, and there were one after another terrifying waves of death.

With a breath, he instantly entered the compass of dim light.

hum!

On the entire compass, a strange ray of light suddenly lit up, and this ray of light kept rhythmizing in the void, and soon, the light faintly pointed to a certain Fang Xiang.

"Hmph, this seat is practicing the Way of Death. Anyone who kills this seat's clone will leave a mark of death on this seat. Even if you escape to the ends of the world, you will not be able to hide it and eliminate it."

After the words fell, the * of death looked in the direction that the light was pointing at, and with a flicker of his figure, he suddenly disappeared into the world. The * of death did not give up. He quickly chased Qin Chen along the place where Qin Chen fled. Now he is not only looking for revenge, but because the dead sea springs disappeared too strangely, and the other party was able to control the dead sea water.

Killing intent, the other party definitely has a big secret.

In the endless void.

Qin Chen was flying quickly. After leaving the Dead Sea spring, he flew wildly, constantly traveling through the void, but at this moment, he suddenly felt a faint sense of crisis in his heart.

Qin Chen's heart sank immediately.

He believed in his own perception too much. Although this faint sense of crisis was vague, it was very likely that he was being targeted by some existence.

"grim Reaper."

Qin Chen's eyes were indifferent, and there would be no other possibility except him. It's just that I have already left the Dead Sea spring for the first time, eliminating all clues and evidence. Moreover, I don't know how far away from the Dead Sea spring, and the other party can still perceive my existence, which is a bit weird up.

swish.

Stopping, Qin Chen's eyes were gloomy. If he didn't find out the troubles in his body, no matter where he escaped, the other party could lock him, then it would be completely meaningless for him to blame the Forest Ghost King.

"Myriad Bone Ghost Ancestor."

Qin Chen gave a low drink.

"The subordinates are here."

Wangu Mingzu appeared next to Qin Chen in an instant, and beside Qin Chen, the little girl also appeared again.

Qin Chen immediately told Wan Gu Ming Zu how he felt.

"Young Master Chen, are you being watched?"

Wangu Mingzu squinted his eyes and asked doubtfully, "Could it be that the * of death has left any mark on you, Young Master Chen?"

Without careful inspection, he couldn't be sure for a while.

"It's not a mark!"

At this moment, the little girl suddenly spoke.

Everyone was startled and looked at her.

"It's the breath of death." The little girl said to Qin Chen: "The * of death should have entered the Tao through the way of death and achieved eternal order, so he dared to call himself the * of death, and the person who controls the way of death has a special method that can sense death in anyone breath. "Big brother, if you destroyed this person's avatar earlier, there will naturally be a death breath of the other party left on your body. This breath is not a mark, but a remnant of the Dao, which ordinary people can't perceive at all, but with the eternal death

The strength of the order realm can perceive this faint breath of death, and follow the breath of death to find it. "

Breath of death?

Qin Chen lowered his head and looked at himself thoughtfully.

"The master of the way of death, there is indeed such a possibility." Wangu Mingzu also suddenly realized.

"Then how to get rid of this death breath?"

Qin Chen said in a deep voice.

"It's hard." The little girl shook her head: "The breath of death can't be eliminated, it's like a way of cause and effect. And that * of death is a strong man with a triple detachment level, and his control of the avenue has reached the realm of eternal order, the avenue of death eternal breath

, even a strong person of the same level cannot eliminate it, unless it is a strong person who is above the opponent's cultivation base, there is the possibility of forcibly eliminating it. "

A strong person above the opponent's cultivation level?

Qin Chen's heart sank. The God of Death is already a triple transcendent powerhouse in the Eternal Order Realm. So, if you want to eliminate this breath of death, can it be eliminated by a powerhouse at the emperor level?

The little girl seemed to know what Qin Chen was thinking, and continued: "But although the breath of death cannot be easily eliminated, it can be assimilated."

"Assimilation?" Qin Chen was taken aback.

"Yes." The little girl nodded: "The so-called assimilation, or it can be said to be a part of yourself, if you can control the death avenue, big brother, you can gradually eliminate the death breath on your body and completely turn it into your own body." the power of this

In this way, no matter how strong the cultivation base is, the * of death will not be able to perceive you, big brother. "It's as if the breath of death is a drop of water that cannot evaporate. No matter how you hide it, you can't hide it. But if you blend it into a big river, you can't find it at all." "

Chapter 5313: understand

Qin Chen was thoughtful when he heard the words.

What the little girl meant was that as long as she could control this breath of death and completely integrate it into herself, she could completely cover it up. At that time, the * of death would naturally not be able to track him down.

"Young Master Chen, this is indeed a good way." Hearing this, the eyes of Wangu Mingzu lit up, and hurriedly said: "Young Master Chen, you have obtained the original inheritance of the Great Emperor. Others may not be able to control the death breath of this * of death, but you Definitely no problem. In fact, this subordinate also wanted to tell you this One, but was snatched up by Xiaoxiao. "

Wangu Mingzu expressed eagerly.

"yes?"

Qin Chen glanced suspiciously at Wangu Mingzu, this guy is too much an afterthought, right?

"Smile, don't you and Gouwa come from a small village? How do you know so much?"

At this moment, Qin Chen looked at the little girl with a flash in his eyes.

Along the way, the ability shown by the little girl is too special. If the yin and yang eye of life and death is her own special talent, if it is innate, how does the little girl know about the breath of death and other things?

This kind of knowledge, I am afraid that ordinary detached strong people will not know it easily, right?

Wan Gu Ming Zu was startled, and hastily turned to look at the little girl. The little girl was stunned, her brows were slightly frowned, and a hint of doubt gradually appeared in her eyes, "Big brother, I don't know how I know, when you asked me just now, big brother, these things were naturally in my hands.

It came to my mind, and I said it instinctively, Xiaoxiao didn't know where I heard it from. "

The little girl tried her best to think about it, but no matter how much she thought about it, she couldn't recall it. Instead, she felt a sharp pain in her mind, and with a cry of pain, she couldn't help squatting down and hugging her head.

There was a trace of pain on her face, her face was as pale as paper, without any blood, as if she had endured pain that ordinary people could not bear, and she was carrying many things that the world did not know.

"Young Master Chen, this girl is definitely not simple. There must be some secrets about her."

Wangu Mingzu came to Qin Chen's side and said softly.

Qin Chen gave him a blank look.

Can't see it?

Whether it's the mysterious rusty sword before, the killing intent in the dead sea, or the yin and yang eyes of life and death, etc., you can see that Xiaoxiao is not easy.

It's just that so far, Qin Chen still doesn't know the origin of Xiaoxiao, because no matter how Qin Chen perceives it, Xiaoxiao is very ordinary, and there is nothing weird about him, but this is the most unusual part of Xiaoxiao.

A little girl from an ordinary mountain village in the underworld, who can trigger the mysterious rusty sword and the sea water of the Dead Sea, but is not hurt by its terrifying killing intent?

But what is certain is that Xiaoxiao shouldn't have any malice towards him, otherwise he would definitely perceive it, and Qin Chen still believes in his sense of God.

"Okay, smile."

Qin Chen stepped forward and hugged the little girl with some distress, "If you can't figure it out, don't worry about it. Big brother believes in you. One day, you will remember it."

The little girl nodded and leaned weakly on Qin Chen's shoulder. Those * eyes were soft and bright, as if they were the most clear and flawless things in the world. "Myriad Bone Ming Patriarch, you continue on your way. I remember that the dangerous Guikuling Ridge in the Abandoned Land is near here. You go here immediately. I will first enter the chaotic world to subdue the General of the Tomb of Ming Yan and others, and try to break through as soon as possible to control this road." die breath. Before that, you must not let the * of death track you down. "

After the words fell, Qin Chen took the little girl and disappeared instantly, entered the chaotic world, and then attached the chaotic world to Wangu Mingzu, leaving Wangu Mingzu alone in the outside world.

To control this breath of death, Qin Chen must break through the double detachment, otherwise, with his current cultivation base, it is absolutely impossible to completely cover up this breath of death.

Wangu Mingzu looked at himself who was the only one left in the endless void, with a speechless expression on his face.

"Yes, this subordinate takes orders!" Wan Gu Ming Zu said bitterly.

The next moment, he turned into a stream of black light and suddenly disappeared between heaven and earth.

At this time, in the chaotic world.

puff!

Mingyan Tomb General was covered in blood, and flew upside down, his whole body in a state of embarrassment.

Beside him, there are Shagui, Mingdao, Tianyin God Venerable, Liujue Mingnu and other detached powerhouses, looking at him indifferently.

And behind the Tomb General of Mingyan, there are six transcendent powerhouses including the first level of peak transcendence brought by him. At this time, they all looked at the Shagui and the others angrily, trembling in terror, each of them with injuries. In terms of cultivation, this group of people has the Lord of the Tomb of the Underworld, and they are clearly far above the ghosts, but what they can't understand is that no matter how they attack, their attacks seem to be infinitely weakened , only Unleashed less than one percent of the combat power, but was firmly suppressed by Sha Gui and others.

"Sha Gui, what exactly is this place? Also, when did you betray Lord Death..."

That level of peak detachment said in shock and anger, looking around with horror in his expression. There was a sneer at the corner of Shagui's mouth, he didn't bother to pay attention to him at all, he just looked at Tomb General Mingyan, and said indifferently: "Master Tomb General Mingyan, don't waste your time, in the master's world, you have nowhere to escape, why don't you go with me?" I wait for the same vote

Relying on the master and receiving the protection of the master's glory, he will surely be able to stand on the top of the underworld in the future and become the top powerhouse in the underworld. "" Sha Gui, are you out of your mind? "That level of peak detachment shouted angrily: "Becoming the top strongman in the underworld is ridiculous. You don't know how terrible the consequences of betraying Lord Death God are. Lord Death God is the top strong man in this abandoned place. The earth can even prove the way of the great emperor and become one of the top powerhouses in the entire underworld. What you annihilated before was just a clone of him. Once the Lord Death God comes, all you have Everyone will die in the hands of Lord Death, and they will live forever and never be reborn. "

"Noisy."

Snapped!

In the void, a icy knife energy surged, and directly chopped at the body of that peak peak detachment, leaving a * wound on his body. It was Ming Dao who made the move. At this time, Ming Dao did not hide his cultivation, and the aura of transcendence at the peak of the first level continued to flow. In Qin Chen's chaotic world, although the opponent was the same as him at the peak of the first level, when fighting, the opponent root

Ben couldn't resist his attack.

That level of peak detachment let out a pained snort, but looked at Ming Dao angrily, his cold eyes were like the blade of a blade, wishing to tear Ming Dao apart directly. "You still dare to look at me with such eyes?" Ming Dao's face sank, and he snorted coldly: "You ignorant ant, you don't even know how powerful the master is, so what is the * of death? Even a finger of the master No head can compare, Lord Talent is the supreme existence of this underworld. "

Ming Dao snorted coldly, took a step forward, and was just about to make a move.

at this time.

boom!

An invisible force descended, and Qin Chen directly appeared in the chaotic world.

"Owner."

Seeing Qin Chen's arrival, Mingdao, Shagui and others all had solemn expressions, all of them extremely respectful, and knelt down instantly, looking at Qin Chen devoutly.

"Get up."

As soon as Qin Chen raised his hand, an invisible force immediately supported Ming Dao and the others, lifting them up instantly.

"Thank you, master."

Ming Dao and the others stood up, their eyes extremely wild. This is the master, the existence they swear to follow, and the destined master of the underworld in the future.

At this time, Mingyan Tomb General looked at Qin Chen solemnly and swallowed.

This one is the one who killed Lord Reaper's clone. He is not an ordinary person, so he naturally knows how terrifying a clone of Lord Reaper is. Even a single clone is enough to easily kill their double peak detachment.

And the person in front of him has the ability to kill the avatars of the Lord God, but he didn't kill them, but brought them into this strange world. What exactly is he trying to do?

The General of the Underworld Tomb was terrified, but suppressed his fear, and said in a deep voice: "Who is your Excellency? With your strength, you can kill us. If that's the case, what are you going to do if you leave me waiting?" Gritting his teeth: "Do you know that if you killed Lord Reaper's avatar, the Lord Reaper must have known it already. It only takes a moment to come here with the strength of Lord Reaper, and you will definitely pay the price when the time comes. The current plan

, you can only let me go, and then admit your mistake to Lord Death God, with me standing aside to speak for you, if Lord Death God is happy, maybe he will spare your life. "

Qin Chen smiled.

Looking at the General of the Tomb of Mingyan: "I dare to destroy the avatar of the God of Death, am I still afraid of his real body?" The general of the Tomb of the Mingyan gritted his teeth: "Don't be too arrogant, the power of the God of Death is by no means as simple as you imagined. That avatar is not even one percent of Lord Reaper's strength. I know that your backstage is the Forest Ghost King, but Sen

Although the Underworld Ghost King is also the master of the restricted area, he is no match for Lord Reaper at all! "

"That's right, boy, I advise you to let me go quickly, otherwise you will die when Lord Death God comes."

That level of peak detachment also shouted in panic.

The masters of the restricted area also have strengths and weaknesses. Reaper is definitely the most powerful group of masters of the restricted area, but the Forest Ghost King is weaker than Reaper.

Qin Chen looked at the two of them with a smile: "Who said my backstage is the Forest Ghost King?"

Mingyan Tomb General and others were startled, and looked at Qin Chen in horror, what do you mean?

Qin Chen smiled brightly: "What's wrong?"

"You...what do you mean?" Qin Chen said with a smile: "The aura of the dark forest in this seat is obtained by destroying a spiritual consciousness of the ghost king of the dark forest. Oh, by the way, this spiritual consciousness is still from his son Mingxu Come on, that Mingxu is the son of the Forest Ghost King, you should have heard pass? "

"Ming...Ming Xu?"

The tomb of Mingyan will show a look of panic.

Qin Chen smiled brightly: "Do you understand?"

Mingyan Tomb General and others turned pale in horror!

understood!

This guy is not under the command of the Forest Ghost King at all. No wonder they didn't see the Forest Ghost King before, but only saw the skull crystal.

To be able to pretend to be the ghost king of the underworld, but not be recognized by Lord Reaper, what kind of strength does the other party have?

Mingyan Tomb General's expression became more and more complicated, "You... are so courageous!"
crazy!

This is an enemy of the two restricted areas!

He quickly looked at Sha Gui and the others, and hurriedly said, "Sha Gui, are you crazy too?"

This evil ghost is just an ordinary ghost cultivator, relying on his own background, he offended not only the Death God, but also the Forest Ghost King, what is it?

Is the restricted area so easy to provoke? The ghost suddenly sneered and said: "We are not crazy! The tomb general of Mingyan is a hero who knows the time and affairs. You don't know how powerful the master is. The master is the reincarnation of the universe. He controls the two major rules of yang and yin and yang. This place belongs to the master." in vivo World, if we rely on our master, we will be able to obtain the power of the yang world. With this help, it is not impossible for us to reach the level of the God of Death in the future, so why be afraid? "

All of this made Mingyan Tomb General and others horrified.

impossible!

Cosmic reincarnation?

He doesn't believe it! The General of the Underworld Flame Tomb said in shock: "You are crazy, cosmic reincarnation, how is this possible! Only the sun can produce cosmic reincarnation, and even if the other party is a cosmic reincarnation, so what? The so-called cosmic reincarnation is just leading an initial cosmic detachment After reincarnation, enter the existence of the cosmic sea. They do have the power of the sun, but they can't give you too much, because in the cosmic sea, although the cosmic reincarnation is rare, it is not impossible to meet.

Even many cosmic reincarnations have fallen in the process of growth, and not all cosmic reincarnations can become giants. "

Mingyan Tomb will suddenly discover that Shagui and the others have been deceived.

A bunch of idiots, these guys don't understand anything!

Do you think that those who reincarnate in the universe must be very strong?

"Also, you guys still say that this place is the inner world of the other party, you idiots, what do you know?" The Tomb General of Underworld Flame shouted angrily: "The reincarnation of the universe just merged with the existence of the original universe where they are, and they can indeed protect themselves. Creatures in the original universe go through the cycle of the universe and enter the cosmic sea, but the roots of the original universe

It cannot be brought to the underworld. Moreover, once a person in the yang world enters the underworld, he will be monitored by the master who controls the life and death of the underworld, and he will definitely be killed. How can he enter this abandoned place? "

The Tomb of Mingyan said anxiously.

These idiots were all deceived.

Sha Gui and the others looked at Mingyan Tomb General with pity.

sad.

The real idiot is the Tomb General of Mingyan, right?

It's so pathetic.

After all, they are all transcendent powerhouses. Could it be that they can't even distinguish between the power of the sun and the world inside their bodies?

"Mingyan Tomb General, this world is the inner world of the master, can't you see it?" Sha Gui sneered.

Here, it looks a bit like it.

"Okay, let's stop talking nonsense." Qin Chen looked at Mingyan Tomb General indifferently, he had no time to waste with this group of people. "Give you a chance to immediately integrate with the laws of heaven and earth in this world, integrate your own strength into this world, and become a member of this young man's internal world, and you will have a chance to survive, otherwise, you will die." Qin Chen said indifferently.

"Integrate this world? Huh, what are you planning." The peak detachment snorted coldly: "Master Mingyan has seen through your plot before, and with the strength of Lord Death God, I am afraid that it will come immediately. I advise you to let me go, and then catch me without a fight, begging death Forgiveness from others, otherwise, you will surely die. "

"Noisy."

Qin Chen took a cold look at that level of peak detachment. This person has been very arrogant from outside the eyes of the Dead Sea Spring, and now he is still so arrogant in this chaotic world under his own control.

Do you really think you dare not kill him?

Killing intent in the heart together.

boom! A huge pitch-black palm suddenly appeared between the heavens and the earth. This pitch-black palm contained endless killing intent, and it crushed this person blatantly.

But he couldn't move, and under his horrified gaze, his whole body was instantly covered by the black giant hand.

With a puff, this level of peak detachment was like a chicken, which was crushed and exploded in an instant amidst the screams, and turned into an endless source and scattered.

These origins are directly integrated into the chaotic world, which makes the chaotic world slightly stronger, and the heaven above the head becomes deeper and more magnificent.

It's just a first-level peak detachment, and if you kill it, you will kill it. Today, Qin Chen has a lot of detachment, so there is no need to care about a first-level peak detachment.

Among the group of people in front of him, the most important person is General Mingyan Tomb.

"Okay, it's your turn."

Qin Chen looked at General Mingyan and the others indifferently.

A series of invisible killing intents surged up in the world, directly enveloping General Mingyan and the others.

"The rules of heaven are really the rules of heaven."

But at this moment, Tomb General of Mingyan looked at the primordial dao of the chaotic world above his head in amazement. He could clearly feel that what emerged around him was a unique origin of the dao of the world, which was completely different from the dao of the underworld.

Could it be that this place is really the inner world of the guy in front of him?

"Ok?"

Seeing that the Tomb General of Mingyan hadn't moved yet, Qin Chen's eyes sank, and invisible killing intents penetrated into the Tomb General of Mingyan's body.

Mingyan Tomb's expression changed, he hesitated, and finally gritted his teeth.

boom!

The origin of his avenue directly merged with the origin of the heavenly dao in the chaotic world above his head in an instant.

In the face of life and death, he can't control so much.

And behind him, the other six transcendent beings are also terrified at the moment, each of them connecting their own origin with the chaotic world of heaven.

When these seven detached origins are connected to the chaotic world.

boom!

The entire chaotic world suddenly trembled.

How powerful is the origin of a double peak detached powerhouse?

For today's chaotic world, it is definitely a great supplement.

What's more, the tomb general of Mingyan is not an ordinary double peak detachment, he is even a strong man who has faintly touched the triple detachment realm.

In an instant, the entire chaotic world began a unique transformation.

At this time, while the chaotic world was transforming, Qin Chen also felt all these changes, and a unique perception flooded into his heart in an instant.

In an instant, Qin Chen's Vientiane Power, which was still somewhat vague and not fully formed, began to condense completely.

A complete double detached feeling completely emerged from him.

"Huh? Chen Shao, he..."

At this time, in the outside world, Wangu Mingzu, who was avoiding the pursuit of the * of death, suddenly seemed to feel something, and even looked at the chaotic world attached to him. He could feel that some special changes were taking place in the chaotic world.

Chapter 5314: Guikuling

Chen Shao is breaking through the double detachment?

Sensing the changes in the chaotic world, Wangu Mingzu was overjoyed.

Others don't know, but he knows very well that Chen Shao has been only a first-level transcendence before. Although he has controlled part of the second-level transcendence power, he has not really stepped into the second-level transcendence state.

But Chen Shao needed too much power to break through, so he was stuck at this threshold.

Now, is Young Master Chen finally about to break through?

Wangu Mingzu was excited.

It must be known that he is just a remnant soul now, although he has been arrogant and domineering all the way, but if he really has to face those masters of the restricted area who have surpassed the triple level in a life-and-death battle, Wangumingzu is quite afraid in his heart.

Although he may not be inferior to those people, but if he really wants to make a real fire, unless he burns this trace of the source of the remnant soul, otherwise in terms of the level of power he can induce, he is still unable to compare with those masters of the restricted area.

But once Chen Shao breaks through, there is no need to worry. With Qin Chen's previously demonstrated strength, once he truly enters the second level of detachment, his strength will improve by leaps and bounds. Even if he is not the opponent of the * of death, the master of the restricted area, he does not have to worry about his safety at all.

up.

Even if he can't beat him, with Chen Shao's various means, it's still no problem to escape. "With little background in the dust, the movement caused by breaking through the double detachment must be extremely huge. You can't break through here rashly, otherwise it will be easy to be caught by other forbidden zone masters. At that time, it will be troublesome if other forbidden zone masters come to destroy it.

, no wonder Master Chen asked me to go to Ghost Crying Ridge, it turned out that he had already prepared. "

During the flyby, Wangu Mingzu's mind moved, and with a swish, he instantly disappeared into the sky as a stream of light, and rushed towards Ghost Crying Ridge after finding the right direction.

Ghost Crying Ridge is the closest dangerous place to this place. It is full of grievances, and most people don't want to enter it. However, this kind of place is the most suitable place for Qin Chen to break through.

At this time in the chaotic world.

Mingyan Tomb General and others have completely integrated themselves into the chaotic world.

Rumble!

The entire chaotic world sent out an astonishing roar. With the tomb of Mingyan integrating this double peak detachment, the rules of the underworld integrated into the chaotic world became more and more terrifying, and the power of its rules became more and more amazing.

"This is me..." After merging with the chaotic world, Mingyan Tomb instantly felt an astonishing yang energy entering his body, and when this yang energy entered his body, his cultivation base was unexpectedly become more and more solid

When he got up, a feeling of perfection lingered in his heart.

At this time, the Mingyan Tomb will have a feeling that although his cultivation has not broken through because of this, his strength has definitely increased several times compared to before.

"This is, the power of the sun, it is really the power of the sun..."

The tomb of Mingyan shook his mind. At the moment when he merged into the rules of the yang world, he vaguely saw the most supreme order in the world, the vastness in the world, eternal and immortal.

This is the breath beyond the realm of the third eternal order. In the past, he was always stuck in the realm of transcendence at the second level, unable to touch the realm of eternal order at the third level, but at this moment, after he integrated into the rules of the yang world, he seemed to feel the third level of detachment from the third level.

The breath of eternal order.

Mingyan Tomb will have a feeling that if he is given enough time and resources, it will not be difficult for him to step into the third level of eternal order in the future. Not only him, but behind him, the other six detached powerhouses also erupted with astonishing auras. They were originally only detached from the first level, and each of them stepped into the peak of the first level.

It is close to the second stage of the Vientiane God Realm.

There are three people who faintly exude the aura of the double myriad of gods.

"How? I didn't lie to you. Hmph, the master is a truly unrivaled person. Being able to follow the master and walk under the master's account is the blessing you have cultivated in this life, and the most glorious thing in this life."

Ming Dao said proudly.

Ahead, the Tomb of Mingyan and others raised their heads. At this time, they looked at Qin Chen again, as if they were looking at a towering * that reached into the sky, and awe emerged from the depths of their hearts.

They had a feeling that as long as Qin Chen was willing, a single thought could easily kill them.

"What are you doing in a daze, why haven't you met your master yet?"

Ming Dao snorted coldly.

Immediately, the body of Mingyan Tomb General and others shook, and hurriedly knelt down and said: "I'm waiting, I have seen the master!"

"Let's retreat first!"

Qin Chen sat there cross-legged with his eyes closed. At this moment, an astonishing original aura surged in his body.

After the Mingyan Tomb was merged into the chaotic world, his gains were astonishing. At this moment, he had a feeling that as long as he wanted, he could step into the second stage of the Myriad God Realm at any time.

But this is not the place, we have to wait for a while.

One source after another kept surging and growing in his body, merging with the chaotic world, making Qin Chen's aura stronger and more irresistible.

After several hours.

Wangu Mingzu finally saw a pitch-black world in the distance, where Guikuling is. Without any hesitation, he directly led the chaotic world into a jet of black streamer, and swept into the depths of Guikuling in an instant.

Guikuling.

Stretching for hundreds of millions of miles, there are pitch-black hills and winds everywhere. According to legend, a few epochs ago, many giants in the abandoned land fought for the control of the abandoned land, and a great war took place here.

Ridge decisive battle.

After that battle, the sky over Ghost Crying Ridge was pitch black. Tens of billions of powerful souls died here, and the hills here were also formed by the accumulation of the remains of the strong.

Afterwards, although the heaven and earth have a good atmosphere and there are many spirit herbs of the underworld, there are very few strong people in the abandoned land who come here. Because the death aura of Ghost Crying Ridge is too heavy, ordinary creatures from the underworld cannot block this terrible death aura at all, and it contains the killing intent, resentment, anger, and death aura of countless dead underworld powerhouses. luck

The Qi is good, and some high-level dark grasses can be collected, but in the end, the killing intent will infiltrate the body, and eventually become obsessed and die during cultivation.

Even the general detached masters cannot resist this terrifying death and resentment.

Therefore, Ghost Crying Ridge is one of the most terrifying forbidden places in the abandoned land. Ordinary people seldom come here, and there are no top-level detached powerhouses to establish a restricted area here.

As soon as Wangu Mingzu entered Guikuling Ridge, countless evil winds and dead energy swept over him, hitting his skull crystal with a clanging sound.

The moment Wan Gu Ming Zu entered Ghost Crying Ridge, Qin Chen already sensed the changes in the outside world, and he suddenly appeared beside Wan Gu Ming Zu.

"There is little dust."

Wangu Mingzu hastily saluted respectfully.

"Ghost Crying Ridge?"

Qin Chen looked at the dark and vast world in front of him, with countless sinister winds sweeping across the hills, and felt waves of murderous winds hitting his body. These killing intents were like sharp knives constantly cutting his body.

"very good."

Qin Chen showed satisfaction, this place is really suitable for him to break through. The deadly killing intent here is too heavy, and ordinary strong people in the abandoned land can't bear it at all, but Qin Chen understands part of the killing intent of the Dead Sea, and also has the origin of Emperor Youming, so he is not afraid of the killing intent and Yin Qi here. ,on the contrary Countless powerful people had died here, and the powerful underworld power left behind was actually a great supplement to him.

Even so, Qin Chen still felt bursts of killing intent, wanting to break through his physical barrier and enter his body, wanting to invade his soul all the time.

"This place is still on the outskirts of Ghost Crying Ridge, let's go deeper first."

Qin Chen didn't pause, unfolded his body and headed to the depths of Xiangguikuling again. The deeper he went, the stronger his killing intent became, and the less crowded he became, the safer he would be to break through.

Two hours later, when the killing intent that attacked his body had already made Qin Chen feel shivering, Qin Chen stopped moving forward.

At this time, the Wangu Mingzu on the side was also terrified, he was just a remnant soul, and the threat of this kind of killing intent to him was absolutely terrifying.

Qin Chen stopped, looked around, and nodded. Although he hadn't entered the deepest place yet, it was enough for him to break through.

All around, waves of murderous intent rushed towards him like tidal waves, but Qin Chen didn't care at all. He quickly threw out a series of prohibition banners, which quickly fell between the surrounding heaven and earth.

In addition to setting up a prohibition formation to isolate the outside world, Qin Chen also needs to set up a Yin-gathering formation here. The origin absorbed by his break through the double detachment is absolutely terrifying, and the yin energy that is naturally condensed is definitely not enough. At the same time, he pulled out a vein that exudes an amazing dark energy. This is Qin Chen. from Mingyan

The ore veins obtained from Tomb General and others contain amazing power of the underworld, which can bring a little benefit to his breakthrough.

And after Qin Chen had just finished arranging these.

boom!

The countless killing intent and death aura around him had frantically gathered towards him, Qin Chen could not suppress his cultivation at all at this moment, the countless killing intent and death aura around him had entered his body like a tide.

The countless accumulations made Qin Chen naturally transform towards the double detachment at this moment, and the longer he suppressed it, the more terrifying the eruption of this power would be.

In an instant, countless killing intent and death aura gathered uncontrollably within a million miles of Guikuling Ridge. It was as if ghosts were crying and gods were howling in the entire Guikuling Ridge. The sobbing sound seemed to be shaking the world.

This was because Qin Chen had set up a restraint formation around him. If Qin Chen hadn't set up a restraint formation, the movement caused would definitely have attracted the countless murderous auras from Guikuling.

"My dear..."

At this time, Wangu Mingzu looked at the vision caused by Qin Chen in front of him, his eyes were rounded, his mouth was wide open, like a fool.

Young Master Chen just broke through to the second level of detachment. Is there any need for such an exaggeration?

Transcendence triple realm, although one level, one day, but after all, it is a leap in transcendence realm, in fact, although many times it will cause the phantom of all phenomena, but it will not cause such a huge change in Guikuling, right?

At this moment, the movement of Qin Chen in front of him even made Wangu Mingzu a little confused. Is this really just breaking through the double detachment?

Chapter 5315: unprecedented breakthrough

at this time.

The killing intent in the entire Ghost Cry Ridge seemed to be aroused.

Countless killing intent and death aura surged like tides and poured into Qin Chen's body. The void at the place of the shock trembled continuously, and the sound of howling ghosts and gods wailed and reverberated continuously between heaven and earth.

The countless innocent souls in Guikuling Ridge seemed to wake up at this moment, howling in pain.

"Oh my god, it's really a little creepy." Wangu Mingzu shook his body, and looked around with his dark pupils. At this moment, the whole Guikuling Ridge seemed to come alive, and countless pairs of eyes full of murderous intent and resentment were directed here. Staring at it, this feeling is really hair-raising creepy.

However, Qin Chen turned a deaf ear to the screams of countless innocent souls around him. In his body, the power of death rules was condensed, and some new insights continued to emerge.

"Is this the Vientiane Divine Aspect Realm?"

"Using rules to condense the gods is a projection display of the origin of its own rules."

In his perception, countless inspirations clearly burst out in Qin Chen's mind.

All phenomena.

Transcending the second of the three realms.

This state means that the power of the rules controlled by oneself has been controlled to a certain extreme, and can use the power of rules to condense into a second dharma body, forming a huge rule * to fight.

Rules should be intangible and intangible, just like the avenue of rules between heaven and earth, they only represent the way of operation between heaven and earth.

And wanting to evolve the power of the rules into a substantive god-like power, and even use it in battle, this means that this person has reached a peak state in the way of the rules, and needs to understand the power of the rules to the extreme.

The stronger the rules, the stronger the comprehension, and the stronger the control, the stronger the Myriad Phrases will naturally be.

This is also the reason why Qin Chen almost stepped into the double detachment state immediately after merging with the origin of the heaven. The heaven itself is a small natural world that bred the human race and is the place where all races ascend. The power of the heavenly way contained in its origin is extremely terrifying in itself, similar to a small universe, and once Qin Chen merges with the heavenly realm, he can naturally feel all the operating rules of the heavenly realm, the avenue of heaven and earth, and the highest order in the universe, so

Only after he merged with the origin of the heavens will he reveal the power of everything. "It's no wonder that cosmic reincarnations are so popular in the universe. An initial universe itself has the rules of heaven, and it is a complete small universe. The so-called cosmic reincarnations are all fused with the origin of the original universe.

The beginning of the universe was freed from the cycle of epochs and brought into existence in the universe. "

"In the process of integrating the origin of the original universe, they will naturally have an extremely deep understanding of the operation of the rules of the original universe, and even to a certain extent, they can incarnate the original universe." "Although the original universe is big and small, There are strong and weak, but no matter how small or weak the initial universe is, it still has a complete rule of heaven. It can be said that the reincarnation of the universe is born at a certain height, perhaps at a superhuman level.

It doesn't show anything special when it is out of the first level, but once it sprints to escape the second level, the probability of the cosmic reincarnation is at least several times higher than that of the ordinary universe sea first level. "

At this moment, countless insights emerged, and Qin Chen suddenly came to his senses after being completely exposed to the power of the myriad phenomena.

At this moment, he finally understood why the dark clan wanted to invade the original universe, and let the best young generation of the dark royal family integrate with the origin of the original universe.

Because, once successfully merged, what will be born will not only be a first level detachment, but a future double detachment.

As long as a cosmic reincarnation person does not fall into the long river of time, the probability of achieving the second stage of the Myriad of Gods is almost as high as 90%.

This is also the fundamental reason why cosmic reincarnators are popular in the universe sea.

In most places in the universe sea, a double detachment is enough to establish a superpower like the Dark Clan, the Tuoba Family, and the Anyoufu.

boom!

The power of the entire Ghost Crying Ridge is converging towards Qin Chen, and with the converging of these forces, one after another of the power that condenses the power of all phenomena is constantly stirring on Qin Chen's body.

"The me now, merging with the heavens, has actually touched a threshold of the Myriad of Gods. Breaking through by force is not impossible, on the contrary, it should be a matter of course."

"But this is not enough..."

After understanding the essence of the dual myriad phenomena realm, Qin Chen was not in a hurry.

"In the initial universe, there are strong and weak, and the rules of the Dao also have strong and weak, so the power of the dharma condensed by transcending the double realm also has strong and weak."

Inspiration kept flickering in Qin Chen's heart.

"Today, I control the origin of the heavens, own the chaotic world, and can comprehend the power of the original rules of many double detached powerhouses."

"Controlling the origin of the heavenly world means that I have understood the operation of the rules of the heavenly way in a small universe, and owning the chaotic world means that I not only understand the operation of the heavenly way in the universe, but can even build a natural universe by myself."

"Those two items have allowed me to surpass the ordinary double detachment, but just surpassing the ordinary detachment double is not enough..."

Qin Chen's heart was extremely calm, and his mind was unprecedentedly clear. The purpose of his coming to the underworld is to save Sisi, and the underworld is full of dangers, and it is absolutely impossible for ordinary people to save Sisi; and the invasion of the abyss force requires him to constantly resist; let him

I understand that what I will face is definitely not easy.

You can only deal with everything if you are strong enough.

"The more and stronger the comprehension of the power of the rules, the stronger the form of the Myriad Gods will be."

Qin Chen's will gradually became firmer.

At this moment, the original power in his body was frantically condensed, and the power of rules quickly bloomed out one after another.

boom!

Between heaven and earth, a blurry phantom slowly emerged behind Qin Chen. Qin Chen's phantom was still a little blurry before, but at this moment, Qin Chen's phantom became more and more solid.

This is a figure like a god, covered in endless darkness, and terrifying death energy blooms from the phantom, standing in the sky and the earth.

And on this pitch-black phantom, countless powers of the avenue of the underworld are crazily stirring. In addition to the rules controlled by Qin Chen himself, it also contains the powers of rules of strong men such as Ming Dao. The number is jaw-dropping.

"here we go again."

Not far away from Qin Chen, Wangu Mingzu raised his head, staring in horror at the towering phantom behind Qin Chen. He had seen Qin Chen's dharma body condensed in the underworld. The endless darkness and breath of death had shocked Wangu Mingzu once. The condensed Dharma body,

It is completely different from the breath that Qin Chen condensed in the original universe.

The phantom of the gods condensed by Qin Chen in the original universe is majestic, domineering, and vast, but at this moment, the dark figure behind Qin Chen is gloomy, like a * of death who has walked out of purgatory.

"This should be the Vientiane Dharma Body that Chen Shao condensed in the underworld."

Wangu Mingzu condensed far away.

As one of the former generals under the command of Emperor Youming, a strong man with triple peak detachment, Wangu Mingzu has extensive knowledge, but everything Qin Chen showed in front of him has far exceeded his imagination.

Let him also be an eye-opener.

"This... should be the Vientiane Dharma Body condensed in my underworld."

Qin Chen could sense the changes behind him.

At the beginning, after absorbing the regular power of Ming Dao and Sha Gui, his Vientiane Dharma Body was already extremely condensed, but now, after incorporating the regular power of Ming Yan Tomb General and others, the phantom figure behind Qin Chen Even more terrifying.

On that pitch-black god, the endless breath of death surged, and many rules of the underworld vibrated, and the most powerful among them was the origin of the rules contained in Qin Chen himself. "The rules of the underworld under my own control are the main ones, supplemented by the transcendent rules of the underworld such as the tomb generals of the underworld, evil ghosts, underworld swords, Liujue underworld women, and Tianyin gods, plus countless underworld creatures such as Gouwa. The Ancestral Blood Rules Contained in the Body

Based on this, the phantom of the gods I condense will be one of the phantoms that contain the most rules and avenues in the entire underworld. "

Qin Chen was very confident.

His expression was firm, and the power of countless rules surged wildly on him, constantly condensing together.

After all the power of rules is condensed together.

Rumble!

The entire Ghost Cry Ridge erupted with endless roars, like a major earthquake.

"It's not enough, though."

"There is also the regular avenue of the Forest Ghost King."

After condensing the rule power of General Mingyan Tomb and everyone else, Qin Chen did not stop concentrating.

In his body, in the chaotic world, a force representing the endless forest breath surged.

This is the rule power of the Sen Ming Ghost King, the master of the restricted area of the Ghost King Palace in the Abandoned Land.

The power of triple detachment.

boom!

Qin Chen quickly integrated this power of forest rules into his phantom.

Immediately, a terrifying aura of darkness bloomed from the ghostly figure behind Qin Chen. This breath was so powerful that it far surpassed the breath of the tomb general of Mingyan, making the ghostly figure behind Qin Chen The shadows were frenzied and agitated.

"This guy, how many rules do you need to condense?"

In the distance, Wangu Mingzu watched this scene, his mind was shaken. Generally, the Vientiane dharma formed by the double detachment is the revelation of its own rules, but what about Qin Chen? It not only integrates its own rules into the Vientiane Dharma, but also integrates the power of rules of all underworld creatures in the chaotic world,

That's all, and now even the rules of triple detachment, such as the Sen Ming Ghost King, have also been incorporated into it.

What is this for?

Having lived for so long, Wan Gu Ming Zu has never seen someone do such a crazy thing.

at this time.

Heiyun Mountain is located extremely far away from here.

A majestic and terrifying figure looked at the ruined Heiyun Mountain below, with cold anger in his eyes. Behind him, there are a number of powerful figures floating, each with fearful eyes and lowered heads.

"It's here, someone killed my son Mingxu, and destroyed one of my divine senses, who is it?"

boom!

A terrifying breath swept away from this majestic figure, and in an instant, the earth within a radius of ten thousand miles sank directly, and the faces of many strong men behind him were also pale, with blood overflowing from the corners of their mouths.

But they didn't dare to move, they forcibly endured the impact, their heads drooping.

This person is none other than the Sen Ming Ghost King who had driven back from the Dead Sea to the Ghost King Hall.

In order to investigate the cause of Mingxu's death, he personally came to Heiyun Mountain to find out everything.

However, Black Cloud Mountain had already been turned into ruins, and with the passage of time, no matter how much he searched, he could not find any valuable clues.

This made him extremely angry.

It is a trivial matter for a spiritual consciousness to be destroyed. After all, the spiritual consciousness is just the condensed power of a random divine soul, and it does not need to condense the original source of the physical body. It is much simpler than condensing a clone.

But the destruction of the divine consciousness was originally a provocation, a provocation to him, the Forest Ghost King, and its symbolic significance was greater than anything else.

"All of you, let me investigate the surroundings immediately, and I must investigate the truth. I will make that brave person lose his soul and never be reborn forever." The Forest Ghost King sternly shouted at many of his subordinates behind him.

"Yes, Lord Ghost King."

Swish Swish Swish!

These subordinates hurriedly saluted, and shot in all directions in an instant, looking for clues.

Only the Forest Ghost King was left standing here, staring at the ruins below.

"Ok?"

Suddenly, Sen Ming Ghost King seemed to feel something, turned his head and looked in a certain direction in the distance.

In his heart, there was an inexplicable sense of shock, as if there was some kind of power condensing in that direction, which made him extremely familiar.

"what happened?"

The Forest Ghost King frowned.

At his level, this throbbing of the blessed soul will not appear easily, there must be some special reason.

"What's in that place?"

The Forest Ghost King stared at the far end of the void, frowning.

The next moment, he took a step forward, and his figure suddenly disappeared into the endless void.

No matter what, as long as you go to find out, you will know.

Guikuling.

At this moment behind Qin Chen, the phantom of the gods became more and more condensed, and a terrifying aura surged, powerful and messy.

The power of the Mori Ming rules comes from the Mori Ming Ghost King, the master of the restricted area, so it is naturally extremely terrifying.

"The power of the Forest Ghost King is really strong, but it's not enough."

However, Qin Chen did not stop concentrating.

boom!

In the chaotic world.

The original power of the * of death avatar absorbed by Qin Chen surged rapidly.

A terrifying breath of death bloomed from Qin Chen's body, and directly merged into the phantom of the * behind him.

After condensing the power of the Forest Ghost King, Qin Chen once again integrated the original power of the * of death into his phantom.

A terrifying breath of death bloomed, making the breath of the phantom figure more condensed.

at this time.

Somewhere in the void far away from here.

The Grim Reaper who was following Qin Chen suddenly stopped in his tracks.

"That is..."

He suddenly raised his head, looked in a certain direction in the distance, and frowned.

"Why is there a familiar force somewhere in that direction?"

Death's heart skipped a beat.

"Hmph, go and see what the * it is."

Reaper stepped forward, and his figure also disappeared suddenly.

Guikuling.

At this moment, Wangu Mingzu stared blankly at the phantom figure with endless forest and death breath surging behind Qin Chen, his face twitched.

Damn.

Master Chen actually integrated the power of the rules of the Forest Ghost King and the God of Death into his phantom?

Is this still human?

Wangu Mingzu didn't know what to say anymore, after living for such a long time, today's shock was more than that of his previous half life.

However, before the shock in his heart subsided.

boom!

Another terrifying regular aura emerged from the phantom figure behind Qin Chen.

"Hey, why is this breath so familiar?"

Wangu Mingzu showed surprise.

The moment this power of rules emerged, he actually felt quite familiar, but it also made his whole body creepy.

How is this going?

Wangu Mingzu was stunned for a moment, but the next moment, he suddenly woke up.

Depend on.

Oh shit.

Fuck!

Isn't this the original power of my own rules?

my day...

If it weren't for his lack of a physical body, Wangu Mingzu would have goose bumps all over his body.

At this moment, Qin Chen's condensed aura turned out to be the rule power of his Wangu Mingzu.

Seeing the phantom of Qin Chen exuding a familiar aura, Wangu Mingzu was about to go crazy.

What made him even more insane was yet to come.

After his regular aura bloomed, the aura of Qin Chen's phantom image changed again. This time, an aura that made Wangu Mingzu shudder and terror emerged in an instant.

The horror of this aura is ten times, even a hundred times more terrifying than his power of rules. The moment this power appeared, Wangu Mingzu felt as if his spirit and soul were about to condense.

"It's the emperor."

"It is the original breath of the great emperor."

After a moment of trance, Wangu Mingzu woke up with a start. What Qin Chen condensed turned out to be the original breath of Emperor Youming.

lean on...

Wangu Mingzu is going crazy.

The emperor's rules should not be inexplicable. Most people would collapse at the first glance, but Qin Chen actually condensed the original breath of the emperor's rules. This is simply a fantasy.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, Wangu Mingzu would not have believed that someone above him could condense the power of the emperor's rules in the second level of detachment.

"Is this the original rule of the Nether Emperor?"

At this moment, Qin Chen's mind was also shaking.

Others cannot comprehend the origin of the Great Emperor's rules, but he has received the original inheritance of the Nether Emperor, so it is not difficult to achieve it.

And the moment he was allowed to condense the origin of the Nether Emperor, he finally understood what a Great Emperor is.

Even if it is just the original prototype of the Nether Emperor, it completely surpasses all the power of rules that he has condensed before.

However, after condensing the rules of Emperor Youming, Qin Chen frowned.

Because he found that he hadn't completely stepped into the second level of detachment.

"What's going on?" Qin Chen's face was ugly. Theoretically, he should be able to step into the second level of transcendence at any time, and even after condensing so many rules, the power of his * figure phantom should surpass all the second level of transcendence. But why is it still like missing what?

Is there something wrong?

Qin Chen frowned as he sensed the phantom figure behind him that hadn't fully formed yet.

Is the power of rules not enough?

If the phantom of the gods has not been fully formed, then he is not considered to have truly entered the realm of the myriad gods.

But Emperor Youming is already the most powerful rule he can evolve. If the rules of Emperor Youming are not enough, then what rules are enough?

Killing intent!

Qin Chen's heart skipped a beat.

If you ask what underworld power is in his body now, which can be compared with the rule power of the Nether Emperor, there is only one, the killing intent rule from the Dead Sea.

The Dead Sea is vast, and the entire abandoned land is sealed off. Even the master of the restricted zone of the triple peak transcendence level cannot cross it. Such a force is definitely above the triple transcendence, and it is very likely that it is the emperor level.

Thinking of this, Qin Chen's thoughts moved, and directly attracted the endless dead sea water in the mysterious rusty sword in his body. In an instant, a terrifying murderous aura erupted from Qin Chen's body. This killing intent swept across, and the whole Ghost Cry Ridge trembled, and the aura of countless innocent souls trembled.

He fell down, trembling.

And when this killing intent rule appeared, the most powerful nether rule in Shenxiang Xuying's body was instantly suppressed, completely suppressed and unable to move.

This...

Qin Chen was shocked.

Although he knew that the rules of Dead Sea Killing Intent were extremely terrifying, and it was very likely that they were at the emperor level, but he never thought that this power would be so terrifying that it could easily suppress the power of the rules of the Nether Emperor.

This is definitely a force far above the Nether Emperor.

But Emperor Youming was already one of the four great emperors of the underworld in ancient times, what power could be more terrifying than Emperor Youming?

How did the Dead Sea in this abandoned land form?

Qin Chen's heart was shaken.

Boom boom boom!

The terrifying dead sea killing intent was condensed on the phantom of the gods, that strong force kept impacting Qin Chen's physical body, and Qin Chen's physical body shook violently, unable to bear such a force at all.

Because the current Qin Chen is not a real double detachment, he has a feeling that if he allows this terrifying killing intent to continue to attack, his physical body will collapse soon.

Unless he can immediately step into the double detachment.

But the next moment, Qin Chen's face became ugly again.

Because, even after condensing the killing intent of the Dead Sea, his phantom image still hasn't changed, and he is still a step away from the real Myriad God image.

what happened?

Why can't I step into the second level of detachment even though I have condensed the rules of killing intent in the Dead Sea?

What is missing? At this time, Qin Chen became a little anxious. He never thought that breaking through the double detachment would cause so many twists and turns.

What is missing?

What is missing?

Although Qin Chen was anxious in his heart, his mind was clearer than ever.

Anxiety at this time can't solve any problems at all.

He kept exploring, trying to find the problem.

"Wan Gu, do you know if there is something missing in my phantom?" At the same time, he immediately asked Wan Gu Mingzu.

Wangu Mingzu is a powerhouse of the triple peak detachment level, maybe he knows something.

"Ah? What's missing? Mr. Chen, is there something missing from such a terrifying phantom?"

Wangu Mingzu suddenly woke up from the shock, and said in astonishment.

"Then why can't my phantom image be completely condensed?" Qin Chen said in a deep voice.

"Can't be condensed into shape? How is this possible?" Wangu Mingzu was shocked and looked at the phantom of the gods behind Qin Chen. The vast phantom of the gods even made him feel a little terrified. How could there be something lacking? They are all lacking something, so the phantoms of other people are not even garbage.

Not as good?

"Look carefully!"

Qin Chen said in a deep voice. "Young Master Chen, this phantom of yours has condensed countless rules of the underworld. It is more terrifying and terrifying than any phantom of yours that this subordinate knows. In my underworld, this subordinate has never seen a ghost behind you than Chen Shao. This Vientiane phantom is even more terrifying Here, there is nothing missing at all? "

Wangu Mingzu was about to cry.

He is very familiar with the Mystical Vision Realm. The ghost image behind Qin Chen is already extremely perfect. It can be said that he has seen the most powerful ghost image in history. How could there be something missing?

"Is it the most powerful phantom in the underworld?"

The words of Wangu Mingzu immediately moved Qin Chen's heart.

In the middle of nowhere, he had a flash of inspiration, as if he had grasped something, but it was like a thin film separated him, preventing him from prying into the essence.

"what exactly is it?"

Qin Chen was anxious.

boom! At this moment, the phantom of the gods behind him constantly oscillated with terrifying killing intent, and a terrifying killing intent instantly permeated Qin Chen's body. In an instant, Qin Chen's body made a cracking sound, and his body body surface

Cracks were heard from above, and the physical body slowly collapsed under this terrifying killing intent.

Qin Chen's expression changed suddenly. He is almost unable to resist the power of the phantom of the gods behind him. If he can't step into the realm of the myriad gods and merge with the phantom of the gods behind him, his body will collapse directly under the phantom of the gods if he continues Come on, soul fly soul scattered.

By that time, Qin Chen would probably become the first detached person in the universe to be annihilated by the power of his * figure phantom.

As a matter of fact, even if a double-level detached powerhouse fails to break through successfully, they will not be injured by the power of their own god-like phantom. After all, the power of god-like power comes from themselves and will not override themselves.

But Qin Chen is different. The power of his divine appearance and phantom has condensed the power of countless strong men in the underworld, far exceeding the limit that Qin Chen can control now.

Unless it breaks through, it is really possible that it will be torn apart by the power of its own god.

"Damn it, I can't go on like this!" Qin Chen's eyes sank, he had no choice but to forcibly wake up Emperor Youming. With the identity and strength of Emperor Youming, he might know something.

"Young Master Chen, you might as well ask Xiaoxiao, maybe Xiaoxiao knows something."

At this moment, Wan Gu Ming Zu hurriedly spoke.

Seeing the continuous cracks in Qin Chen's body, Wan Guming went to the doctor in a hurry.

"Smile?"

Qin Chen was startled, this is really a solution.

Although Xiaoxiao's cultivation base is extremely weak, the knowledge she showed before surpasses the ancestor of the Myriad Bone Netherworld, which cannot be judged by common sense.

With a thought in his mind, Qin Chen's spiritual thoughts penetrated deep into the chaotic world, only to see a spatial fluctuation flash, and the little girl suddenly appeared in front of Qin Chen.

"Xiaoxiao, hurry up and see if there is something missing in Chen Shao's phantom?" Seeing the little girl appearing, Wan Gu Ming Zu hurriedly said.

And the moment she appeared, the horrifying killing intent burst out of the phantom of the god's figure passed through her body in an instant, brushing off her dress, but it did not cause her the slightest harm.

"Phantom shadow?"

The little girl said suspiciously.

"It's the majestic figure behind Young Master Chen." Wan Gu Ming Zu even said.

The little girl's * eyes looked at the phantom behind Qin Chen. When she saw this, she suddenly frowned and said, "Big brother, why is the phantom behind you so lifeless?"

"Deadly?" "Yes." The little girl nodded, and Tong Zhen said: "When I looked at my big brother with a smile, I could feel that his body was full of warmth, as if it would emit light, blooming with radiance, and the world of the underworld. Everyone else is different

, let Xiaoxiao feel very kind. But big brother, the phantom behind you is lifeless, no different from other people in this underworld. In Xiaoxiao's eyes, big brother is not like this. "

boom!

The little girl's words fell into Qin Chen's mind, and it was like a thunderclap, resounding in Qin Chen's mind.

"lifeless!"

"Wonderful light!"

Qin Chen's body shook, and combined with the previous words of Wangu Mingzu, it was like a divine enlightenment in his mind, and a spiritual light instantly lit up.

"I get it, I finally get it."

Qin Chen murmured, looked at the little girl, and said excitedly, "Xiaoxiao, thank you."

"Big brother, you don't have to thank me. Xiaoxiao just expressed his feelings, but if he can help big brother, Xiaoxiao will be very happy." The little girl smiled, her smile was extremely bright and clean.

"Smile, you go back first."

As soon as Qin Chen raised his hand, the little girl disappeared instantly and returned to the chaotic world.

After the little girl disappeared, Qin Chen raised his head and looked at the phantom figure behind him, his eyes were calm, no longer anxious and nervous as before.

"Chen... Chen Shao, what do you understand? What's going on?" Wan Gu Mingzu asked with a confused expression.

The little girl didn't say anything before.

"Yin and Yang fusion."

Qin Chen spat out four words.

"What do you mean?"

Wangu Mingzu scratched his head, still a little confused.

"With your IQ, it's hard to explain for a while."

Qin Chen said something indifferently, and then stopped talking.

At this time, he already understood why he was still unable to step into the second level of detachment.

Because he comes from the cosmic sea, what he possesses is the physical body and power of the yang world, but the phantoms of his gods are all evolved according to the power of the rules of the underworld.

How can the phantom of the gods in the underworld completely merge with the physical body in the yang world?

"Yin and yang must be integrated, so that he can truly step into the realm of the myriad of gods."

Thinking of this, without any hesitation, Qin Chen released the original source of the sea in his body in an instant.

boom!

A terrifying aura of the yang world suddenly permeated the Guikuling Ridge.

In order to hide himself before, Qin Chen has been hiding his origin in the yang world since he came to the underworld. All he shows is the power of the underworld under his control.

At this moment, Qin Chen completely released his yang power without hesitation.

"Young Master Chen, what are you doing?"

Seeing this, Wangu Mingzu hurriedly said anxiously: "Your Yang power is too powerful. If you do this, you will attract the power of the underworld." It is like lighting a torch in the darkness where you can't see your fingers, it will definitely illuminate the dark night, and is loved by countless people in the dark night.

See.

No, I have to cover up for Chen Shao.

Wangu Mingzu hurriedly flew over the endless void of Shangguikuling.

"Eternal Night Comes!"

boom! A terrifying aura of dark death permeated Wangu Mingzu's body in an instant, like a dark sky, sweeping away, covering the void within a million miles, and directly covering the world where Qin Chen was located, Guikuling.

covered up.

Chi Chi Chi!

Wisps of yang power shone on Wangu Mingzu's body, and there was a scorching sound of burning, and wisps of black smoke rose up, and endless pain came from Wangu Mingzu's soul.

"Damn it, stop it for me." Wangu Mingzu roared, although the waves of pain continued to pass through his soul, causing his soul to convulse and tremble, but he did not flinch, and kept releasing it. With the power of his remnant soul, amazing death

The power of death turned into the endless Eternal Night Domain, covering the void within a million miles, covering Qin Chen's blooming aura of the sun.

Notice. Now they are being tracked by Reaper, the lord of the restricted area in Reaper's Cemetery. Such a strong atmosphere of the world will definitely be perceived by a strong person like Reaper, and Chen Shao is now at the critical moment of breakthrough.

If they arrive at the breaking point, it will inevitably cause danger to Chen Shao.

"It's a good thing that this is Ghost Cry Ridge, and there are endless grievances. Coupled with my cover, Chen Shao's yang energy will not escape too much, otherwise it will be troublesome."

Looking at the large number of resentful souls around him, Wangu Mingzu heaved a sigh of relief.

Guikuling contains the terrifying aura of wronged souls, which can cover most of Qin Chen's aura of the underworld, and he only needs to resist this young master.

Of course, Wangu Mingzu is even more fortunate that this is an abandoned place. If Chen Shao did this in another place in the underworld, it might alarm the emperor-level powerhouse, and everything would be over by then.

In the dark, there seems to be a certain destiny that made Qin Chen come to the abandoned land, avoiding the perception of all the great emperors and powerhouses.

boom!

Below, in Ghost Cry Ridge.

Qin Chen is unscrupulously releasing his own origin in the yang world.

Rumble! The scorching breath caused countless souls in Guikuling to howl in pain, but amidst the pain, there was a trace of relief, a trace of relief. The countless souls within a radius of ten thousand miles were illuminated by Qin Chen's yang power arrive

After that, it disappeared in an instant and disappeared into the void one after another.

Before dissipating, these resentful souls looked at Qin Chen devoutly, showing endless gratitude, and saluted Qin Chen slightly.

They are countless underworld creatures who fell in the past. After death, their souls turned into unjust souls and remained here, and they will never be reborn.

But now, Qin Chen's power has freed them from this endless torture and pain, allowing them to return to heaven and earth, and to the origin of the underworld.

It is tantamount to the grace of regeneration.

When these resentful souls dissipated, the remaining strands of resentful souls lingered from all directions, turned into silk threads, and slowly entered Qin Chen's body, strengthening Qin Chen's strength.

But Qin Chen turned a deaf ear to it, with a solemn expression on his face, while trying his best to mobilize the power of the yang world, the power of all phenomena formed by fusing himself with the origin of the heavens was suddenly aroused.

hum!

An unbelievable scene happened to Wangu Mingzu. Behind Qin Chen, another phantom figure appeared.

This phantom of the gods, majestic, domineering, and vast, blooming with endless light, formed a completely different and sharp contrast with the phantom of the dark gods released by Qin Chen before.

"Two shadows of gods, what the hell..."

Wangu Mingzu couldn't help but spit out a dirty word.

After living for most of his life, all the shocks in his previous life were not as much as today.

How could it be possible for a person to have two phantom shadows.

But now, he saw it.

One represents the phantom of the gods, and the other represents the phantom of the underworld. The two phantoms stand tall in the sky and the earth, shining their own light.

And the phantom of the gods in the underworld is obviously taller than the phantom of the gods in the yang world.

Qin Chen looked at the phantom of the two expressions with calm eyes.

In the original universe and the underworld, he had condensed two different phantoms of dharma. The two phantoms represented one yin and one yang, represented the universe sea and the underworld, and they were completely different forces.

"If I want to really step into the double detachment and condense into a phantom of all phenomena, I must fuse the two yin and yang."

Qin Chen's eyes were firm, and he suddenly made up his mind.

"The fusion of yin and yang, the appearance of everything."

Qin Chen gritted his teeth and shouted angrily. With his will, the dark phantom and the radiant phantom collided with each other.

boom!

A soundless, but shocking invisible roar resounded through the entire world in an instant.

At this moment, time seemed to stop, space seemed to freeze, and even thinking was imprisoned for an instant.

Everything in the world is black at first, and then endless white. Everything seems to disappear at this moment.

I don't know how long it took, maybe it was a moment, maybe it was an era, or even a century.

Rumble!

The fusion of pitch-black light and scorching light represented the frenzied fusion of the two forces of yin and yang, and a shocking aura and power permeated the world in an instant.

Boom!

Between heaven and earth, bursts of thunder roared.

The whole abandoned land seemed to shake.

"This is..." Myriad Bone Nether Ancestor was also blown away by such a force. The endless eternal night domain he formed was instantly torn apart, and the void within a million miles was directly shattered into an endless black hole. , under the terrifying shock wave, his Cracks even appeared on the skull crystal, as if it was about to shatter.

"Did you make it?"

Wangu Mingzu struggled to stabilize his figure in the space storm, and looked down excitedly. At the bottom, half of the two phantoms have merged, but the phantom of the underworld is obviously larger than the phantom of the yang, so when the two merge, the phantom of the yang is constantly annihilated, while the phantom of the underworld is constant collision

The two cannot reach a perfect balance.

puff!

Below, Qin Chen's face was pale, he opened his mouth to spit out a mouthful of blood, his body swayed, his face was like gold paper.

The two forces of yin and yang bombarded him, blasting out countless cracks in his body, shattering little by little at a speed visible to the naked eye.

"not good."

Wangu Mingzu was shocked.

Although he didn't know what happened, he could tell that Qin Chen was in great danger now.

"Yin and Yang are out of balance, so they cannot fuse."

While his body was being shattered, Qin Chen raised his head and looked at the two phantom figures that were constantly collapsing.

The fusion of yin and yang, if one side's power is too strong, accidents will happen.

"The phantom of the gods of the underworld that I condensed is much stronger than the phantom of the original universe."

"The gods and shadows of the underworld, I have integrated the countless rules of the underworld of Gouwa and others. In addition, there are four powerful ghost kings, the tomb master of the death god, the ancestor of the myriad bones, the emperor of the nether world, and the killing intent of the dead sea. strength."

Qin Chen's eyes flickered. "Among them, the powers of the Forest Ghost King, the Tomb Master of the Death God, and the Myriad Bone Ancestor don't need to worry about them. Although they are all three-level powerhouses who have transcended the eternal order realm, they are at least acceptable. However, Dead Sea Killing Intent and Nether Emperor are at least at the Emperor level. the power of ."

"Especially the killing intent in the Dead Sea is far superior to the Nether Emperor." "And the phantom of the gods in Yangjian is only integrated with the power of the heavenly source. The heavenly source is similar to the underworld's source, at most similar to the underworld. The power of the rules, but the two powers of the Nether Emperor and the Dead Sea's killing intent are missing, resulting in the yin and yang conflicts.

The phantoms of the gods and spirits cannot achieve balance and are out of balance with each other. "

"If we continue to forcibly merge, in the end, the phantom of the underworld will swallow the phantom of the yang world, and then I will be completely destroyed."

At this juncture of life and death, Qin Chen didn't feel any panic in his heart, but was extremely calm.

"The power of the two must be brought close together in order to truly fully integrate..."

Qin Chen's eyes flashed.

next moment.

A terrifying power of space suddenly swept out from his body.

"The origin of space!"

boom!

This is the nemesis of Emperor Youming of the Universe Sea, the original power of Emperor Miekong was instantly activated by Qin Chen, and directly merged into the phantom of the gods in the Yang world.

This force is enough to neutralize the original power of the Nether Emperor.

Immediately afterwards.

"boom!"

Another terrifying aura of the underworld bloomed from Qin Chen's body.

I saw the terrifying totem power of the * emperor lingering around Qin Chen's body. Driven by Qin Chen, they merged into the phantom of the gods in the sun.

This is the power of the ancient emperor of the Void Tidal Sea. Such a power was used by Qin Chen to fight against the killing intent of the Dead Sea.

boom!

With the addition of these two forces, Qin Chen's aura of yang power soared in an instant, reaching the point where it was extremely close to the power of the underworld.

In an instant, the originally lost balance stabilized in an instant.

However, even though the two forces have stabilized, they are still fighting with each other. If they want to compete for the main position, it is obvious that no one will accept the other.

"Damn, it seems that if you don't suppress it, it won't work."

Qin Chen's eyes were grim.

These two forces of yin and yang can fight each other for a long time without any problems, but my physical body can't bear it for such a long time. If I don't fuse the two as soon as possible, I'm afraid that my physical body will be annihilated in a short time.

The two forces must be suppressed and their fusion accelerated.

"In that case..."

A trace of anger flashed in Qin Chen's eyes.

"Judgment God Thunder!"

boom!

Endless thunder light burst out from Qin Chen's body in an instant, covering the phantoms of the two gods in an instant.

It was the power of Qin Chen's thunder blood.

The power of his thunder bloodline neither joins the phantom of the gods in the yang world, nor joins the phantom of the gods in the underworld, but acts as an external force to forcibly suppress both.

Under Qin Chen's judgment, the two originally rebellious forces calmed down instantly, like two obedient children, merging seriously.

"Wouldn't it be better to do this earlier?"

Qin Chen spat out a mouthful of blood, with blood hanging from the corner of his mouth, and said with a grin.

He tried his best to mobilize the origin, so that the two forces frantically merged together.

Ka Ka Ka!

Qin Chen's physical body continued to collapse, and finally, at the moment when Qin Chen's physical body was about to completely collapse, the two myriad phenomenal powers were completely fused together.

boom!

An indescribably terrifying aura pervaded the air, and the phantoms of the two gods merged completely, and an unpretentious phantom appeared behind Qin Chen.

This phantom looks ordinary, but it looks like a * of death coming out of hell, or a * coming out of the light, giving people a sense of elusive horror.

He is like a master, standing aloft and in charge of everything in the world.

boom!

At the same time, Qin Chen was suspended.

The power in the entire Ghost Crying Ridge boiled, and countless forces entered Qin Chen's body like a vast ocean.

"Ka Ka..." There was an almost inaudible crack, and Qin Chen felt his whole body lighten up, and the power of the underworld that emerged spread out in an instant. It was as if the ocean, already full of water, broke through the dam in an instant and rushed into a larger wider space.

Qin Chen knew that at that moment just now, he had naturally stepped into the second level of detachment, and the aura on his body was still improving crazily after breaking through the second level of detachment. Qin Chen felt that his cultivation base had been crazily improved, a terrifying power surged that was at least dozens or hundreds of times stronger than the first-level peak detachment, and this power was still rising, even his soul. also open began to spread wildly.

This feeling of rapidly increasing strength made Qin Chen almost think he was in a dream.

He has been promoted many times, and has also experienced many times of strength improvement, but he has never felt so crazy and so clear this time.

This feeling is even worse than his stepping from the Supreme Realm to the Transcendence Realm.

However, one is a big-level breakthrough from the supreme to transcendence, and the other is a small-level breakthrough from the first level of transcendence to the second level of transcendence. Why is there such an amazing transformation and change?

But at this moment, Qin Chen couldn't control so much anymore.

The continuous breath of the underworld did not dissipate immediately after smashing Qin Chen's double transcendence barrier, but hit Qin Chen's body and soul again.

The torn meridians healed at an astonishing speed, and the body that was almost shattered before also quickly recovered, and the strength of Qin Chen's body increased rapidly.

What shocked Qin Chen the most was that after he controlled the power of all phenomena, ripples formed around his body, and then an elusive aura slowly spread out to the periphery. When this aura pervaded certain places, Qin Chen suddenly felt that he could control everything in that world, and everything there was under his complete control, and he could destroy everything there with just one thought

"This is... the domain of order, how is this possible?"

Qin Chen was shocked instantly, what is going on?

The power of the field can only form a unique battle space after breaking through the triple detachment and stepping into the third eternal order realm of detachment, using the power of eternal order.

This is also the most powerful means of the Eternal Order Realm.

In this battle space, unless the strong players of the same level use the domain to eliminate each other's influence, anyone who enters it will be out of the control of the other party.

This is the most terrifying place of triple detachment.

But now I have only broken through the double myriad of gods, why did I form the realm of order?

What exactly is going on?

Qin Chen was stunned.

While Qin Chen was shocked, the aura on his body continued to spread. At this moment, his domain not only expanded several times again, but also began to improve. Endless breath poured into Qin Chen's body continuously, and the entire Ghost Crying Ridge turned into Qin Chen's dojo, where hundreds of millions of years of wronged souls and the breath of the underworld were condensed, but at this moment it became the nourishment for Qin Chen to improve his cultivation. become

He strengthens his own foundation.

Countless storms surged in Guikuling, and Qin Chen just absorbed it, as if he would never be satisfied with it.

I don't know how long it took, but the storm in Guikuling Ridge finally calmed down slowly.

Ghost Crying Ridge, which was originally filled with endless spiritual energy of the underworld and the energy of wronged souls, has become noticeably thinner at this moment, leaving only less than one-third of the previous concentration.

You must know that this is the forbidden land Guikuling that has been gathered for countless years in the abandoned land. The savings of hundreds of millions of years have dissipated most of it in one day.

When Guikuling gradually calmed down.

Qin Chen felt the soft sound of his body again, and the next moment, a more powerful feeling came. Qin Chen clenched his fists and fell slowly from the void.

At this time, his black hair was dancing, like a * king, standing proudly in the world, dominating everything in the world. He lowered his head, moved his body lightly, and there was a sonic crackling sound all over his body. Qin Chen knew that when his realm broke through, his body and spirit also had amazing breakthroughs, and his cultivation base broke through to the second level of detachment. ,

It also took this opportunity to step into the later stage of double detachment.

A powerful feeling that could destroy everything rose from Qin Chen's body.

Qin Chen turned around slowly, and punched lightly in front of him.

"Boom, Ka Ka Ka..."

Hearing one after another piercing roars, the void of the underworld within ten thousand miles in front of Qin Chen shattered like porcelain. The entire void could not bear Qin Chen's punch, and was directly annihilated into powder.

Even the void of the underworld couldn't bear Qin Chen's power.

Immediately afterwards, Qin Chen looked up at Wan Gu Ming Zu.

At this moment, Qin Chen has a feeling that he is enough to destroy everything he sees in front of him.

Being stared at by Qin Chen, Wangu Mingzu shuddered, and a trace of fear emerged from his whole body inexplicably, as if being stared at by some devil, fear emerged from the depths of his heart.

"Wangu, come, fight with me!"

Qin Chen said indifferently.

Now he urgently needs to know how strong his strength is and how much he has improved.

The words fell.

Before Wangu Mingzu could answer, Qin Chen's figure had suddenly soared into the sky. For him now, the only one who could verify his strength was Wangu Mingzu in front of him.

"No, Shao Chen, I have something to say, wait... ah!"

Before Wangu Mingzu could finish speaking, there was a bang, and a shrill scream resounded through the heaven and earth.

While Qin Chen was familiar with his own strength.

In a void hundreds of millions of miles away from Ghost Cry Ridge.

A figure exuding an endless forest aura appeared in the world.

"That's the direction of Ghost Crying Ridge."

This majestic and terrifying figure looked at Guikuling in the distance, frowning slightly.

It was the Forest Ghost King who came from Heiyun Mountain. "Ghost Crying Ridge is one of the forbidden areas of the Abandoned Land. It is rarely visited by people, and ordinary detached people dare not rush into it, for fear that they will be invaded by the aura of wronged souls. Why did the familiar aura before come from the direction of Guikuling Ridge?

from? "

The Forest Ghost King had doubts in his eyes.

And in the process of rushing, he faintly felt a special power coming from the direction of Guikuling, but at this moment, the familiar aura had completely disappeared.

"Hmph, pretending to be a ghost."

The Forest Ghost King snorted coldly, "No matter what it is, in front of me, don't even think about doing anything stupid."

After the Forest Ghost King's voice fell, he took a step forward and disappeared instantly. Generally detached people are afraid of Ghost Crying Ridge, but for the master of the restricted area like Sen Ming Ghost King, a triple detached powerhouse, there is almost no place in this abandoned place that he cannot go to.

Chapter 5316: this is baby

Guikuling!

One after another screams kept ringing out, Wan Gu Mingzu was like a ball, being bombarded by Qin Chen constantly, screaming.

Qin Chen's speed was like a flash of lightning, and he could easily catch up with the figure of Wangu Mingzu.

No matter how Wangu Mingzu evaded, he couldn't escape Qin Chen's attack.

"Myriad Bone Netherworld Ancestor, is this your strength? Why are you so weak?"

After a while, Qin Chen stopped and looked at Wan Gu Ming Zu with a frown.

This Myriad Bone Nether Ancestor is too weak, he can't resist his own attack at all.

How can you verify your own strength? Wangu Mingzu stopped his figure, and saw that his skull crystal was filthy from Qin Chen's bombardment, and his soul was extremely shaken. He looked at Qin Chen in horror, and was so wronged that he was about to cry: "Chen Little, this subordinate is just a remnant soul,

You are old in your prime, so how can you be your old opponent. "

"Is that so?" Qin Chen frowned: "But this young master just broke through the second level of transcendence. Didn't you have the triple peak level of transcendence back then? Even if it's just a remnant soul, it should be easy to resist this young master's attack, right?"

The Eternal Order Realm is a powerhouse far above the Vientiane God Realm, and the gap between the two is as big as the sun and the moon.

Even a remnant soul shouldn't be so weak.

"My day..."

Hearing this, Wangu Mingzu almost spat out a mouthful of old blood.

Are you just double detached? Chen Shao really has the face to say, grandma, is there a double detachment like you in the world?

Whether it is the previously condensed myriad appearances, or the physical body, spirit, etc. displayed at this moment, they are by no means possessed by the double detachment.

At this time, Wangu Mingzu looked at Qin Chen as if he was looking at a flawless diamond, and he had nowhere to start.

How does this make him fight?

"never mind."

Qin Chen stood in the void, stopped his hands, and put his hands behind his back.

"Wan Gu, you directly use your most powerful attack to attack me." Qin Chen said lightly.

Since I can't verify my strength by taking action against Wangu Mingzu, it would be better not to make a move, and directly bear the attack of Wangu Mingzu.

"Attack on you?"

Qin Chen nodded, "Use your strongest strength, don't hold back, I want to know what the triple detachment attack is like."

"Chen Shao, isn't this good?"

"There's nothing wrong with it, if you're told to do it, do it." Qin Chen frowned.

Seeing Qin Chen frowning, Wangu Mingzu was startled, and hurriedly said, "Okay, you should be careful, Mr. Chen." Wangu Mingzu looked serious, and his whole body was suspended quickly. When the light came on, the endless power of rules instantly condensed like a storm, turning into a huge palm between heaven and earth, and ruthlessly towards Qin Chen.

Slapped hard and went away.

boom!

This huge palm contained terrifying regular power. The moment it fell, the entire void exploded, like fragile ice, being crushed and burst.

"There is less dust, be careful."

The terrifying palm came to the top of Qin Chen's head in an instant, but Qin Chen did not resist, but used his body to harden the attack of Wangu Mingzu.

"not good."

Seeing this, Wangu Mingzu's expression changed drastically.

Chen Shao, is this crazy?

No matter how conceited he is, he must at least resist his own attack, right? Isn't such a hard connection courting death?

But at this moment, his attack has fallen, and he can't take it back at all. Under the horrified eyes of Wangu Mingzu, his huge palm directly hit Qin Chen.

boom!

A shocking roar resounded through the heaven and earth, centering on the point where the palm fell, a terrifying shock wave instantly diffused, forming a huge pit, annihilating all tangible and intangible matter.

"I... killed Young Master Chen?"

Wangu Mingzu had a dull expression on his face, and his mouth grew wide.

But before the thoughts in his mind fell, his eyeballs suddenly widened.

I saw the endless smoke and dust dissipate, and in the deep pit, a figure slowly appeared, with robes fluttering and dancing in the wind, it was Qin Chen.

At this time, Qin Chen's body was covered with dust, but apart from that, there was no injury at all.

"Fuck..."

Wangu Mingzu opened his mouth even wider, as if he was stupid.

"Wan Gu, this is your attack, why is it like tickling?"

On the opposite side, Qin Chen frowned and said suspiciously.

The Wangu Mingzu's attack is too weak, right? The condensed power of rules is indeed powerful, but when it falls on him, he can't even tear apart his own defense. Is this the power of triple detachment?

"I... Chen Shao, my subordinate is just a remnant soul. The previous blow was actually less than one percent, no, one thousandth... no, no, one ten thousandth of the attack of the subordinate's heyday."

Wangu Mingzu hastily explained.

Damn.

This is too embarrassing.

Fortunately, Wangu Mingzu is hidden in the skull crystal, otherwise he would be able to find a crack in the ground and get in with a blushing face.

"yes?"

Qin Chen frowned and looked at Wangu Mingzu: "You are one of the generals under the command of the Nether Emperor, the detachment of the triple peak, can't you only have this strength? Come on, show your real strength, and let this young master take care of you." have a look."

Qin Chen looked serious. "It's not necessary, is it? Between you and me, there is no need to fight to the death. You say yes, let's pack up quickly and leave here first. There is such a big commotion here just now, maybe someone will find out, so hurry up first." Leave Open as well. "Wan Gu Ming Zu hurriedly stammered.

"Stop talking nonsense, show your true strength." Qin Chen said in a deep voice.

"This..." Wangu Mingzu stammered.

Qin Chen glanced suspiciously at Wangu Mingzu: "Wangu, could that be your full strength just now, right? With that little attack, you were really a triple peak transcendent, a general under the command of the Nether Emperor?"

"I..."

Wangu Mingzu's face flushed red.

Oh shit.

Young Master Chen was actually doubting his identity and strength.

This...

It's just unbearable.

boom!

A terrifying breath erupted from Wangu Mingzu. He looked at Qin Chen seriously: "Young Master Chen, this subordinate was only worried about hurting you with a full attack, so I didn't contribute. How could that be all my strength just now? The strength of this subordinate is by no means as simple as you imagined. .

"yes?"

Qin Chen was suspicious.

Wangu Mingzu's face turned red, and he said angrily: "Since Young Master Chen insists on fighting with his subordinates, then his subordinates can't be cowardly either."

boom!

As the words fell, terrifying black streamers of light burst out from the skull crystal, and in the depths of the crystal, it seemed that some kind of unique power was circulating, and a breath that made the world tremble emerged.

"Young Master Chen, you look good."

As Wangu Mingzu's voice fell, a unique domain power pervaded, instantly covering the void within a radius of ten thousand miles, and at the same time completely enveloping Qin Chen in it.

Ka Ka Ka!

Within the range covered by this domain breath, the void in all directions made piercing shattering sounds, like frozen water flow, and Qin Chen, who was surrounded by this force, felt his body sinking suddenly and his breathing became heavy .

"Young Master Chen, this is the Immortal Bone Domain of your subordinates, and it is also the domain condensed by the eternal order controlled by your subordinates. What do you think?"

Wangu Mingzu said proudly.

field of order.

It is the unique field of triple detachment, and it is also the most powerful fighting method of triple detachment. In such a field, general double detachment has no means of resistance at all.

Since Chen Shao doubts his own strength, he will let Chen Shao see how powerful he is in the field of order.

This is also the most powerful means by which the Wangu Mingzu, who is a remnant soul, can restrain Qin Chen.

Although using the Domain of Order would consume the few origins of his remnant soul, but for the sake of dignity, Wangu Mingzu didn't care so much.

Otherwise, Young Master Chen really thought that his former triple peak detachment was not worth mentioning!

"Immortal Bone Domain?"

Qin Chen felt the power of terrifying rules surging from all around, and this force suppressed him like billions of stars, giving him extremely strong oppression.

Ka Ka Ka!

The surrounding void is solidified, even the power of rules is frozen, making it impossible to use it easily, and the power of this order domain directly acts on the origin of the rule level.

"This is the realm of order of the triple detachment? If so..."

"Vientiane Divine Appearance."

With a move of Qin Chen's mind, he directly displayed his power of myriad phenomena, and a majestic figure instantly appeared between the heaven and the earth, booming, stirring up endless and terrifying breaths.

The majestic figure towered behind Qin Chen, and the godlike aura emanating from it collided wildly with this field of order. "It's useless if you are less dusty. The triple detached order domain directly acts on the level of rules and order, while the double detached Vientiane God Appearance evolves from the rules, so in front of the subordinate order domain, Chen Shao, your * appearance force fundamental There is no resistance at all. "

Wangu Mingzu said proudly. Myriad phenomena are transformed by the rules of the double detachment, but the order domain of the triple detachment directly acts on the rule level. Normally, the double detachment dares to release the omnipresent demeanor in front of the triple detachment. This is simply holding a lantern.

Going to the latrine—the rhythm of looking for shit.

really. When Qin Chen's Vientiane God Aspect was released, Qin Chen immediately felt a terrifying oppressive force suppressing his Vientiane God Aspect, this force was even more terrifying than suppressing his body. direct effect on

Above the original core of the phantom of all phenomena.

From the level of rules, the phantom of the gods is suppressed.

Ka Ka Ka!

The void trembled, and the phantom of all phenomena behind Qin Chen kept shaking, and the mouth of Wangu Mingzu on the opposite side was smiling, as if he saw the scene of Qin Chen's phantom being shattered.

However, with the passage of time, the phantom of Qin Chen's face just trembled, never shattered, but took a step forward.

boom!

The terrifying power of divine appearance swept out, shaking the void and continuously seething.

"what happened?"

Wangu Mingzu was stunned for a moment.

Under the pressure of such terrifying order rules, the phantom of the gods formed by the ordinary double detachment should have been shattered long ago.

How could Ke Chenshao's phantom figure be safe and sound?

"Wan Gu, what's wrong with you Immortal Bone Domain?" Qin Chen said with a smile.

"I... Chen Shao, you wait, the subordinates haven't exerted their full strength yet."

Wangu Mingzu became angry with embarrassment, gritted his teeth, and frantically activated his immortal bone domain, and the atmosphere of the order domain around him continued to increase.

Boom boom boom!

However, a series of domains of order kept bombarding the phantom of the * behind Qin Chen, but they still couldn't completely defeat him.

Qin Chen carefully sensed the impact of the order field of Wangu Mingzu, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth. Sure enough, I guessed right, the general Vientiane Divine Aspects Power is indeed unable to withstand the impact of the field of order, but my Vientiane Divine Aspects Power is a fusion of two forces of Yin and Yang, and there are so many rules contained in it, it can be called Shocking.

It would be foolish to want to simply use the field of order to smash the phantom of one's own appearance.

and...

Qin Chen thought about it.

A terrifying aura of killing intent suddenly permeated from Wanxiang Shenxiang.

With a bang, two terrifying domain breaths collided, Qin Chen's killing intent domain was like a pot of boiling oil, poured directly into a basin of water, and crazily collided with the immortal bone domain of Wangu Mingzu. annihilation.

Under the aura of Qin Chen's killing intent domain, Wangu Mingzu's order domain was torn apart little by little, and then slowly shattered.

"Young Master Chen, you..."

Wangu Mingzu uttered in horror, and the next moment the immortal bone domain he formed was instantly shattered, and the whole person retreated suddenly, his soul was shaken, and he was almost injured by the original source. He looked up at Qin Chen in horror.

And at the moment when the order domain of Wangu Mingzu was destroyed, Qin Chen also directly withdrew his killing intent domain, and at the same time withdrew the power of all phenomena.

almost.

Qin Chen fought against Wangu Mingzu just to verify his own strength. After the previous fight, although Wangu Mingzu was just a remnant soul, Qin Chen already had a general understanding of his own strength.

In the future, when encountering a strong person with triple detachment level, at least he won't panic for a short time.

"Young Master Chen, what you just cast was the Domain of Order, how is this possible?"

With a whoosh, Myriad Bone Nether Ancestor flew in front of Qin Chen, looked at Qin Chen in incredible shock and said, his eyes filled with endless horror.

"Hehe, nothing is impossible in this world, and what I just displayed was not the domain of order." Qin Chen said with a smile.

"But that was obviously the breath of the domain just now..." Wangu Mingzu wanted to say something, but was interrupted by Qin Chen waving his hand.

When he broke through before, Qin Chen was also taken aback, thinking that he had condensed the realm of order with his double detached cultivation.

But this fight made Qin Chen instantly understand that there is an essential difference between the domain of killing intent he formed and the domain of immortal bones of the ancestor of the myriad bones.

His killing intent domain is actually some kind of world power, based on the operation of the world rules in the chaotic world, supplemented by the killing intent rules contained in the dead sea water, the world projection formed by diffusing the world in his body.

In other words, Qin Chen is a reincarnation of the universe and has a world inside his body. He uses his understanding of the rules of the world to project the power of myriad phenomena to the outside world, forming a small field similar to the outer universe around him.

In this extracorporeal universe, Qin Chen is the master of this world, who can dominate everything. This effect is actually similar to that in the field of order.

But the essence is quite different.

"Okay, now that we have broken through, it's time for us to leave Ghost Crying Ridge."

Qin Chen smiled, and was about to say something, when suddenly his eyes flashed and he looked in the direction of Heiyun Mountain.

"Someone is coming!" Qin Chen said in a deep voice.

Wan Gu Ming Zu was taken aback when he saw this, and turned his head to look in the direction of Qin Chen's gaze. When he saw this, he immediately felt a faint aura in the distance, which was rapidly approaching.

He was shocked immediately.

how is this possible? Young master Chen actually sensed the breath in the distance before him?

"Young Master Chen, this breath seems familiar, could it be..."

Wan Gu Ming Zu didn't care about being shocked, when he sensed the attribute of this aura, he was startled suddenly and his face changed slightly.

"That's right, it's the Forest Ghost King."

Qin Chen sneered, and immediately frowned slightly: "It's strange, why did the Forest Ghost King appear here? Could it be that he was attracted by my previous movements?"

"Since even the Ghost King of the Underworld can be attracted, then the Lord of the Tomb of the Death God..."

With a thought in Qin Chen's mind, an eye suddenly opened above the center of his eyebrows, and the eye of creation instantly looked at the void around him in the distance.

hum!

After breaking through the double detachment, the power of Qin Chen's eye of creation has been increased by more than several times. In an instant, Qin Chen can clearly perceive all the movements in the void within a radius of hundreds of millions of miles.

"There..."

Qin Chen's eyes focused on a certain direction, and in the distance, there was a terrifying death aura that was approaching rapidly.

"Sure enough, the owner of the death tomb is also nearby. Judging from the distance, it should be only a little later than the ghost king of the underworld." Qin Chen's eyes flashed.

Hearing this, Wan Gu Mingzu's heart sank, and his face suddenly became anxious.

"Young Master Chen, the Ghost King of the Underworld and the Master of the Tomb of the Death God are both veteran masters of the restricted area, triple transcendent powerhouses, we must leave this place immediately, otherwise we will be in trouble if we are surrounded by them."

Wangu Mingzu said hastily.

He was afraid that Qin Chen would be in trouble if he were to fight against the two of them.

Although Qin Chen's strength is indeed strong, he has just broken through after all, and he is just a remnant soul. Chen Shao was able to resist him before, but it does not mean that he can fight the real triple transcendence.

"Don't worry, this young master is not arrogant enough to fight the two masters of the restricted area."

Qin Chen smiled, he naturally knew what Wan Gu Ming Zu was worried about.

"However, since the two of them have rushed forward, then..."

Qin Chen's eyes flashed, and a thought flashed through his mind.

"Yes."

Qin Chen suddenly laughed.

Swish!

With a flash of his figure, he suddenly appeared in the chaotic world.

Rumble! When Qin Chen appeared in the chaotic world, the entire chaotic world was still undergoing amazing transformations. As the master of the chaotic world, Qin Chen broke through to the late stage of double detachment, and the improvement of the entire chaotic world was also amazing of.

The chaotic world is constantly expanding, it is already ten times the size of before, and it is still expanding.

Not only the chaotic world, when the chaotic world expanded, Ming Dao and others in the chaotic world also received huge benefits, and their aura continued to skyrocket.

I saw a series of powerful aura descending, and they knelt down in front of Qin Chen. It was Mingyan Tomb General and others. At this moment, the Tomb General of Ming Yan and others are much stronger than before Qin Chen's breakthrough. Among them, Sha Gui and Ming Dao directly crossed the shackles of the double-level Myriad Divine Aspect Realm because of Qin Chen's breakthrough, and endless waves surged out of their bodies. vientiane Divine power.

If it wasn't for being in the chaotic world and being suppressed by the chaotic world, the surge of myriad divine power one after another, as long as the few people appeared outside, they would probably be able to enter the double detachment state at any time.

Not only them.

The power surging from the Tomb General of Underworld Flame is even more terrifying.

The previous Mingyan Tomb general had already reached the peak of the second level of transcendence, and was only a little short of the triple transcendence. After the chaotic world absorbed the avatar origin of the tomb master of the death god, coupled with the breakthrough of Qin Chen's cultivation base, the triple detachment aura on the general of the tomb of the underworld flame has gone a step further.

Step triple detached feeling.

As long as the tomb of the underworld is brought to the outside world and is baptized by the rules of the underworld, there will be a huge improvement.

And all of this was brought to them by Qin Chen.

"Meet the master."

At this moment, this group of people knelt down in front of Qin Chen excitedly, with ecstasy and excitement in their eyes.

One person attains the Tao, and the chicken and dog ascend to heaven.

If it weren't for Qin Chen, how could they have made such an astonishing breakthrough in such a short period of time, directly entering the realm they had dreamed of for countless thousands of years.

"Get up, everyone."

As soon as Qin Chen raised his hand, General Mingyan Tomb and others were lifted up one after another.

"Tomb General Mingyan, I have something for you to do now." Qin Chen looked at Tomb General Mingyan.

Mingyan Tomb General's eyes were frenzied: "This subordinate is willing to go through fire and water for the master, and he will do whatever he wants."

"You are under the command of the Lord of the Death God's Tomb, and the Forest Ghost King of the Ghost King Palace is coming quickly. I need you to go out and pretend to be the person who killed Mingxu, and then like this..."

Qin Chen looked at Mingyan Tomb General and told him his plan.

"Young Master Chen, are you going to let the Ghost King of the Underworld and the Master of the Tomb of the Death God fight to the death?" Wan Gu Mingzu's eyes widened: "The two of them won't be fooled, right?"

Both the Lord of Death's Tomb and the Forest Ghost King are the masters of the restricted area, and they are not idiots. How could they be plotted against by Qin Chen's little trick?

"If it was just the Tomb General of Mingyan, he would not believe it, but if you were there, it would be easy..." Qin Chen smiled and looked at Wangu Mingzu.

"Me?" Wangu Mingzu was stunned.

"That's right, you're just a remnant soul now, pretending to be the clone of the Lord of the Death God's tomb, but no one is more like you..."

"You mean..."

Wangu Mingzu's eyes widened.

"good."

Qin Chen smiled slightly.

In the next moment, his figure flickered, and he disappeared into the chaotic world together with General Mingyan Tomb and Myriad Bone Mingzu.

At this time, ghosts are crying in the ridge.

Swish!

Three figures suddenly appeared here.

boom! The moment the Tomb of the Underworld appeared, a shocking aura surged out from the General of the Tomb of the Underworld. This aura instantly merged with the rules of the underworld above Guikuling, creating a powerful half-step triple detachment. Breath Congming

The tomb of flames will escape.

Immediately, the breath above the Guikuling Ridge swept across like a vast ocean, surging in all directions.

Previously, the Tomb of Mingyan would stay in the chaotic world and be suppressed in cultivation, but now that it came to the abandoned land, it would naturally make a breakthrough immediately. And when the breath of the Tomb of Mingyan continued to rise, and when he stepped into the half-step triple detachment realm, Qin Chen was not idle, but quickly arranged the surroundings of Guikuling, erasing many traces of his previous breakthrough, and then cloth

Put some things down.

"almost."

Looking up into the distance, Qin Chen smiled slightly, his figure swayed, and disappeared suddenly with the chaotic world, leaving only the Tomb General of Mingyan who had made a breakthrough in his cultivation.

at this time.

Ghosts cry outside the ridge.

A pitch-black figure descended suddenly and looked towards Guikuling.

"That aura appeared again? Is this...someone breaking through?"

The Senming Ghost King looked at the abnormal movement in the depths of Guikuling, his eyes fixed.

Above the sky deep in Guikuling Ridge, there is a billowing aura of detachment surging. This force is so strong that it is definitely not something ordinary people can break through.

"The strength of this force has a faint taste of eternal order. Could it be that someone is breaking through the triple detachment?"

The Forest Ghost King's expression changed.

The triple detachment is the level of the master of the restricted area, and any one of them will have a certain impact on the pattern of the abandoned land.

However, the Abandoned Land is a place forgotten by the underworld. The rules here are extremely special. It is extremely difficult to break through here, even surpassing the outside world. Who is breaking through here?

Ghost King Senming was suspicious, stepped forward with one step, disappeared suddenly, and swept towards the depths of Guikuling.

With the deepening of the Forest Ghost King, he became more and more shocked.

Ghost Cry Ridge is one of the forbidden places in the Abandoned Land, where there are many dangers, there are ghosts wandering everywhere, and the terrifying Yin Qi is enough to annihilate the general detached strong, so it has become one of the forbidden places in the Abandoned Land. But this time when he entered Guikuling Ridge, the Senming Ghost King was shocked to find that there were far fewer resentful spirits in Guikuling Ridge, and it was rare to see resentful spirits here, and not only resentful spirits, but also the yin energy around Guikuling Ridge. a little less

Much, as if completely dissipated.

"What's going on? Why did the Qi of wronged souls and Yin Qi in Guikuling Ridge dissipate so much?" Ghost King Sen Ming was shocked.

Such changes are by no means naturally formed.

He became more and more curious, and his speed increased instantly.

With the strength of the Sen Ming Ghost King, after a while, he had already descended into the depths of Guikuling Ridge.

"That's..." Senming Ghost King's eyes widened. He saw a huge deep pit in the depths of Guikuling Ridge, as if some kind of huge explosion had occurred, destroying the depths of Guikuling Ridge. In the pit, a figure sits cross-legged

, One after another astonishing aura surged around this person.

"Mingyan Tomb General, one of the four Tomb Generals in the Death God Cemetery?!" The Ghost King Sen Ming recognized him at a glance.

As the four subordinates of the Death God Cemetery, General Mingyan Tomb is quite famous in the Forsaken Land, and the Forest Ghost King has naturally heard of it.

"It turned out that he is breaking through the triple transcendence?" The ghost king of the forest underworld flashed his eyes. The cemetery of the * of death is already the top forbidden area in the abandoned land. A statue of triple detachment, afraid of the tomb of the * of death

The land will become one of the leading forces in the abandoned land in one fell swoop, and its power will become even stronger.

While shocked, the Forest Ghost King looked around instantly.

If there is such a big thing as a detachment under his command, the tomb master of the death * will most likely stare around and protect him.

"Huh? The owner of the death tomb is not here?"

Just looking at it, the Forest Ghost King frowned, he didn't even find the trace of the tomb owner of the death god.

This should not be ah.

"Could it be that this person broke through in private?"

Thinking of an idea, Ghost King Sen Ming's eyes flashed.

It's very possible.

Triple detachment is a giant-level figure in the abandoned land. Once Mingyan Tomb enters the triple detachment, although the strength may not be as strong as the tomb master of the death god, he can also establish a restricted area and sit on an equal footing with the tomb master of the death god.

After all, who is willing to give up?

Moreover, since the Tomb General of Mingyan was able to break through the triple detachment in the abandoned land, he must have obtained some kind of adventure, or even some kind of top treasure, otherwise how could there be such a breakthrough?

And once this level of adventure is known to the owner of the Tomb of the Death God, it will definitely be coveted, so under normal circumstances, the probability that the Tomb of the Underworld will hide the information from the owner of the Tomb of the Death God is also extremely high.

"Let me see, what kind of adventure allowed him to make a breakthrough in the abandoned land."

The Forest Ghost King didn't feel that the tomb owner of the death * was around, so he immediately felt relieved and opened his eyes wide to look over. I saw pitch-black rings surging around the general of the Tomb of the Underworld, and the rings were pitch-black. At first glance, the Forest Ghost King hadn't felt it yet. Now that he stared carefully, he was shocked to find that this is where what circle ring? It turned out to be the dark water of the Dead Sea.

"What? This is Dead Sea water? What's going on here?"

The Forest Ghost King was shocked.

The dead sea water is something that the masters of the restricted area like them can't control easily. How can this be possible that the general of the Tomb of the Underworld Flames has the dead sea water by his side?

When the Forest Ghost King was shocked, he saw General Ming Yan Tomb, who was sitting cross-legged, suddenly opened his eyes and raised his hand abruptly.

boom!

In front of him, a series of pitch-black spheres suddenly appeared. These spheres are actually the source of the source, and each sphere contains a terrifying source of power.

Under the impact of the dead sea water, these pitch-black * immediately released a series of unique and regular powers from the powerful original power contained in them, which merged into the body of Tomb General Underworld Flame, strengthening his power.

"Is this...the top-level source power? Where does this Mingyan Tomb come from such a powerful source power?"

The Ghost King of Forest Underworld was startled again, and at this moment, his eyes suddenly fell on one of the balls, and the breath on that ball gave him an extremely familiar feeling,

"This... this... this..."

The face of the Forest Ghost King suddenly became extremely angry and gloomy, and a dazzling cold light burst out from his eyes.

Because he recognized it, the original power emanating from these spheres turned out to be a series of terrifying dark auras, and this dark aura was extremely close to his original power.

No, it can even be said to be exactly the same.

That familiar feeling made the Forest Ghost King instantly understand that the original rules contained in this pitch-black ball are definitely his own rules.

"It's this son..."

A strong murderous intent suddenly burst out from the eyes of the Forest Ghost King, at this moment he woke up suddenly, the Tomb of the Underworld in front of him was most likely the murderer who killed his son.

"It must be him, there is nothing wrong with it."

The Forest Ghost King gritted his teeth.

Otherwise, where does the original power of the forest in this person come from?

"In this way, the divine consciousness of this seat should also be destroyed by this person. This source must have been refined after this person annihilated the divine consciousness of this seat."

Thinking of this, the Forest Ghost King couldn't hold back any longer, and suddenly turned into a stream of light and shot towards the Tomb of the Underworld with a bang.

Killing his own son, destroying his own spiritual consciousness, even refined their origin to improve himself.

At this moment, the anger in the Forest Ghost King's heart was like a volcanic eruption, which could not be suppressed at all.

"Shuzi, court death!"

boom! Between the endless world, a terrifying aura of forest and darkness swept out instantly, turning into a pitch-black sky and descending instantly. At the same time, in the endless sky, a pitch-black figure appeared. This pitch-black figure

As if Yan Luo walked out of the dark forest, he couldn't see his face at all, and directly slammed his palm down on the Tomb of Mingyan below.

Rumble!

The huge sky-reaching palm fell from the void, and a rune of Dao Senleng surged on the palm. Each rune was like a giant planet, with the power to destroy everything, it suddenly came to the head of the tomb general of Mingyan. The Underworld Tomb, which was breaking through below, was shocked for an instant. He looked at the huge palm above his head in fright and anger, and boom, endless pitch-black underworld fire burst out from him in an instant, and the whole world instantly burned. huge palm

It just burned through.

At the same time, a shout of shock and anger resounded through the world.

"Who? Dare to destroy this seat's breakthrough?"

boom! The endless flames collided with the pitch-black sky-reaching palms, and the flames that seemed to destroy the world in an instant were quickly annihilated, as if they encountered something that could not be burned, and quickly extinguished, like duckweed in the wind, without roots drift. A terrifying coercion instantly suppressed the Tomb General of the Underworld Flame through the endless flames. With a click, countless cracks appeared on the General of the Tomb of the Underworld Flame. When he opened his mouth, a mouthful of pitch-black blood spurted out, and his soul swayed.

. The Tomb General of Mingyan's face suddenly turned pale, he looked at the top of his head in shock and anger, and roared: "Which master of the restricted area is secretly attacking, this seat is one of the four generals of the Tomb of Mingyan under the command of the Master of the Tomb of the God of Death, Your Excellency To have a relationship with the Master of the Tomb of the God of Death Enemy? "

"An enemy of the tomb master of the death god? Hmph, if you dare to touch my son and destroy my spiritual consciousness, aren't you afraid of becoming an enemy of me?" A cold voice resounded in the world, like thunder , rumbled, and at the same time, an even more terrifying forest atmosphere enveloped the air, quickly turning into an endless ocean, sealing off the void within a million miles

"Move your son? Destroy your divine consciousness? This spirit of darkness...you...are you the ghost king of darkness?"

Hearing the rumbling sound in the sky, Tomb General Mingyan seemed to have thought of something, his face changed suddenly, and he couldn't help blurting out.

"Okay, it really is you who destroyed this seat's consciousness."

An angry voice came out from the sky, the Forest Ghost King's figure was condensed, his eyes were cold and angry looking at the Tomb General of Mingyan, the endless forest aura directly enveloped the surrounding world, and suppressed the Tomb General of Mingyan with a bang.

The huge pitch-black palm annihilated the endless flames, and it grabbed and grabbed the general of the Mingyan tomb.

"I... I don't know what you're talking about."

The Tomb of Mingyan will change color, struggle violently, and at the same time said in shock and anger: "Sen Ming Ghost King, if you dare to touch me, Lord Death will never let you go."

He roared angrily, and his whole body turned into an endless flame of fire, frantically resisting.

But in terms of cultivation, the Tomb General of Underworld Flame is only half-step triple transcendence at most, how can he resist the attack of the Forest Underworld Ghost King? Under the power of the Forest Ghost King, the Tomb of Mingyan will be like a trapped animal, and can only struggle hard.

"Hmph, Lord of the Death God's Tomb? Even if he comes in person? I am not afraid at all, dare to destroy my spiritual consciousness, no matter what your background is, this place is your cemetery."

The Forest Ghost King snorted coldly, his face was cold and ferocious, and he didn't hold back at all.

"you..."

Seeing that he was trapped little by little, a determination suddenly appeared in the pupils of Mingyan Tomb General.

"burst!"

boom! A terrifying breath of flame suddenly erupted from his body. At this moment, the Tomb General of the Underworld Flame directly detonated his own source of detachment. Come

"Huh? Actually detonated your own original power?"

The face of the Ghost King of Forest Darkness changed. This Mingyan Tomb General has a very ruthless temperament. Once the power of the source is detonated, the damage to the source will be extremely huge, and it will cause irreparable losses.

How terrifying is the detonation of a half-step triple detachment from the source? The heavy original aura surged out, and immediately slightly shocked the attack of the Forest Underworld Ghost King.

But the Forest Ghost King sneered: "It's ridiculous, mere ants, so what if you blew yourself up? If I want you to die today, you won't survive tomorrow."

Rumble!

The terrifying spirit of the forest skyrocketed again.

"Sun Ming Ghost King, I will fight with you, go." In the endless explosion, a desperate roar sounded, and the next moment, from the endless burning billowing pitch-black fire, a long black river suddenly emerged, splashing, This long river is like a sharp sword, and it strikes fiercely in an instant

On the huge palm of the ghost king of the forest underworld.

The Ghost King of Forest Underworld sneered, showing no fear at all. He is just a tomb general who has never even stepped into the triple transcendence. No matter what attack he uses, it is impossible to cause substantial damage to himself. The ghost king of the dark ghost hadn't finished thinking, when suddenly there was a burst of severe pain on his palm, and after the dark river hit his palm, there was a chi-chi sound, and his condensed huge palm of this long river

However, it was quickly corroded.

"Dead Sea water!"

The Forest Ghost King's expression changed drastically.

Only then did he realize that what emerged was actually a stream of dead sea water, and the terrifying killing intent contained in the dead sea water directly tore a gap in his huge palm.

Moreover, the terrifying killing intent contained in the dead sea water rushed directly to his soul along his palm.

"not good."

The Ghost King of the Dark Forest yelled angrily. Knowing the killing intent of the Dead Sea, he didn't dare to be careless. He directly clung to his soul, and activated the amazing spirit of the Dark Forest, directly wrapping the dead sea water in his domain breath.

boom!

The killing intent contained in the water of the Dead Sea impacted on his soul, causing his soul to shake slightly.

"Explosion!" And at this moment, a familiar roar sounded, and an astonishing explosion suddenly came from the place where the General of the Tomb of the Underworld Flames was located. Taking advantage of the ghost king's carelessness, he was killed

The moment the sea water hit, it broke through the absolute domain of the Forest Ghost King and rushed to all directions of Guikuling.

"Looking for death, let me destroy it."

The Ghost King of the Underworld yelled angrily, and the field of order suddenly swept across, boom, boom, boom... I saw countless jets of ghost fires extinguished one after another, one of which was the fastest, and shot thousands of miles away in the blink of an eye.

"Hmph, I found you, I will die for this seat."

A huge palm appeared across the sky, and it grabbed the ball of * fire from a distance.

"Lord Reaper, help me."

There was a fright and anger in the group of dark flames asking for help.

"Om!" At the next moment, a terrifying breath of death surged out from the underworld fire in an instant, boom, this breath of death was so strong that it collided with the huge palm of the Forest Ghost King, and the two The power exploded with a shocking bang

Ming, in an instant continue to impact each other, quickly collapsed into nothingness.

Whoosh!

But at this time, with the help of this death breath, the ghost fire had escaped into the void and disappeared suddenly.

"Death consciousness?"

Above Guikuling, Senming Ghost King snorted coldly. The strength of the breath of death just now is definitely at the level of triple transcendence, and in essence, even in the triple transcendence, it is also at the top level. Except for the owner of the death tomb of the death god, the ghost king of the forest ghost can't think of anything else.

can.

But thinking about it, I have left a divine sense on my son Mingxu, and the master of the tomb of the death * left a divine sense on the general of the Mingyan tomb, which can be explained clearly.

"Hmph, just want to stop me with a divine sense?"

The Forest Ghost King snorted coldly.

If the Lord of the Tomb of the Death God came, he might still be a little bit afraid of the ghost king of the dark forest. Why would he be afraid of an existence that was annihilated directly by him, not even a clone?

However, the Forest Ghost King was not in a hurry to hunt down the Tomb General of Mingyan. A mere guy who was not even a triple transcendence could not escape from his palm at all. The most urgent thing he cared about was the sea water of the Dead Sea.

The Forest Ghost King stared at the long river of the Dead Sea in front of him, and his eyes suddenly showed fanaticism.

Dead Sea water! This is baby!

Chapter 5317: Battle of the Forbidden Lords

At this moment, the Ghost King Senming looked excitedly at the Dead Sea water in front of him.

The dead sea water is extremely terrifying, and the killing intent contained in it is enough to destroy the world, but it cannot be refined. This is the axiom of the abandoned place. Even if someone has lived in the Dead Sea all year round and tried to comprehend the killing intent in it, they have indeed refined some killing intent on the periphery of the Dead Sea and have a certain resistance to it, but that is only a superficial understanding of the Dead Sea water.

It's just a feeling, not a real understanding of the essence of the Dead Sea.

In the Abandoned Land, there are only three possibilities to truly understand part of the Dead Sea's killing intent. One is to obtain the world-shattering medicine and treasure conceived in the Dead Sea. That kind of great medicine has been conceived in the Dead Sea for thousands of years, capturing the essence of heaven and earth. Amazing

The power of transformation.

If one can obtain such a top-level medicine and refine it into an elixir, or refine it directly, there will be a certain probability of comprehending part of the power of killing intent and increasing the resistance to the killing intent of the Dead Sea.

And the second one is to kill the wraith beast in the sea, get the source of the wraith in its body, and refine it. The ghost beast is a ghost beast that grows in the Dead Sea. It has been immersed in the Dead Sea all year round. The body naturally condenses the power of the dead sea killing intent. With the growth of the ghost beast, the original dead sea killing intent in its body will also be getting stronger and stronger.

And this kind of killing intent has become much milder after hundreds of millions of years of integration by ghost beasts, and it is definitely possible to refine it and integrate it into its own perception.

These two methods are to indirectly comprehend the killing intent of the Dead Sea.

There is the last way, which is also the most direct way, and that is to find the Dead Sea spring. The power of the Dead Sea water in the eyes of the Dead Sea Spring is extremely special. It not only has the terrifying killing intent in the core sea water of the Dead Sea, but also can be enlightened and detached by the creatures of the underworld to a certain extent. This is the most direct way to feel the killing intent of the Dead Sea.

. However, Dead Sea springs are extremely rare. For hundreds of millions of years, in the vast history of the birth of this abandoned place, there are not many opportunities for Dead Sea springs to appear in total, and the time for each appearance is limited. Over the years, it really

There are only a handful of strong people who are feeling the murderous intent in the eyes of the Dead Sea Spring. But now, the Ghost King of the Underworld looked at the dead sea water in front of him. He, who had been fighting and beating in the dead sea all year round, recognized it at a glance.

The power of his body is so violent, this is definitely the Dead Sea water born from the eyes of the Dead Sea Spring.

If he can control this piece of Dead Sea water, then in the competition for the number of places in the Dead Sea forbidden area, he will definitely surpass other restricted area masters.

This has an irresistible attraction to him.

"Hmph, let your boy escape for a while, and wait for me to control the water of the Dead Sea, and then I will destroy you."

Seeing the direction in which the Mingyan Tomb was about to disappear, the Senming Ghost King snorted coldly, sat cross-legged, and began refining the Dead Sea water in front of his avatar.

At this moment, the destruction of consciousness and the killing of his son are insignificant, and they are not as important as the dead sea water in front of him.

Rumble!

In an instant, the terrifying forest realm was formed, turning into a cage, covering the dead sea water in front of you with the force of the sky, trying to forcibly refine it.

And when the Forest Ghost King tried to refine this dead sea water.

In the distance, there is a hidden void outside Guikuling Ridge.

boom!

A mass of dark fire suddenly appeared, recondensing into the figure of Tomb General of Mingyan, and the Tomb General of Mingyan spit out a mouthful of blood before he could stand still after appearing.

"Cough cough."

Mingyan Tomb will cough violently, and the breath on his body is no longer one-fifth of what it was in its heyday, and he is in a mess.

"Mingyan Tomb General, you did a good job."

Qin Chen suddenly appeared beside Mingyan Tomb General, and said with a smile on the corner of his mouth.

"It is an honor to be able to serve the master..."

Mingyan Tomb General paled and said weakly.

The damage to his original source caused his aura to drop drastically, and the half-step triple transcendence that was almost solid before has also dropped a lot at this moment.

However, Qin Chen didn't care. As soon as he raised his hand, the figure of the Tomb General of Mingyan disappeared suddenly, and he returned to the chaotic world.

"Boom!" When the tomb of the underworld will return to the chaotic world, the rules of heaven in the chaotic world will immediately start to operate, and the tumbling original power of the heavenly way will be integrated into the body of the general of the tomb of the underworld, and it will quickly nourish the tomb of the underworld. the source of will, he

The original aura that had lost a huge amount was recovering rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye.

This is the benefit of the Mingyan Tomb's fusion of the chaotic world. Damage to the original source is outside, and it is an extremely irreparable injury on anyone. Once the original source is damaged, it will even affect the achievements of a lifetime. However, after merging the chaotic world, the Tomb of the Underworld will be regarded as half of the chaotic world.

Creatures, any injury can be repaired as long as the chaotic world has enough energy without leaving sequelae. Beside Qin Chen, the ancestor of the myriad bones appeared, and looked at Qin Chen suspiciously: "Master Chen, if you let the general of the Mingyan tomb do this, will the ghost king of the forest ghost be fooled? Moreover, you left a dead sea water, in order to let the general of the tomb of the underworld do this. Nasen Ming ghost king is believed to be Mingyan

The tomb general killed his son and destroyed his consciousness. Isn't the loss too great? "

The dead sea water is extremely precious. Even if Qin Chen took over the entire dead sea spring, that dead sea water is less than one ten-thousandth of all the sea water in the dead sea spring's eye, but it is still very precious.

"Hehe, if you don't leave some good things behind, how can the Forest Ghost King be easily attracted? Do you believe it completely?"

Qin Chen looked up to the depths of Ghost Crying Ridge, and then looked at the terrifying death aura coming from a distance, and said with a smile: "Look, the owner of the death tomb is on the way, and the fun is about to begin."

"What Chen Shao means is that the tomb owner of the Death God and the Forest Ghost King will fight?"

Qin Chen smiled and said, "What's the point of fighting? I'm afraid the two will continue to fight to the death."

"Is this... possible?" Wangu Mingzu was suspicious, shaking his head and said: "Although what we have shown is that the ghost king of the forest ghost killed the clone of the tomb owner of the death * in the dead sea spring, and the tomb general of the tomb of the death * It also destroyed the consciousness of the Forest Ghost King, and the difference between the two

There is indeed a deep hatred between them. But all of this is faked by us. As long as the two parties communicate patiently, doubts will inevitably be discovered. At that time, all the arrangements will be in vain, and instead, the other party will be left with dead sea water. "Qin Chen smiled, "You said you should communicate patiently, do you think the two of them will communicate patiently?" Perhaps, when there is no conflict of interest, it will be, but Ben Shao left behind a piece of Dead Sea water, and that Dead Sea water is the first prize, and the two peaches killed each other.

The 'two peaches' of the three scholars, as long as they exist, there will never be any possibility of relaxation between them. "

A smile was drawn at the corner of Qin Chen's mouth: "The sea water of the Dead Sea is a lottery. Without a lottery, this scene will not look good, it won't be exciting, do you understand?"

Wangu Mingzu was stunned, although he didn't say anything more, there was still a hint of suspicion in his eyes.

Will the situation really be as Chen Shao expected?

Is Young Master Chen thinking too naively?

"Okay, let's hide it quickly, otherwise if we find out that there are outsiders, this good show will be lost."

Qin Chen glanced at Wangu Mingzu with a smile, his figure flickered, and suddenly disappeared into the void, as if nothing existed just now.

At this time, in the distant void outside Guikuling Ridge.

A majestic figure with endless breath of death suddenly appeared, it was the owner of the tomb of the * of death.

"Huh? The breath just now disappeared suddenly? What's going on? Could it be that the other party left?"

The face of the tomb master of death changed slightly.

He stepped forward, his figure suddenly disappeared, and the endless space passed behind him, and his speed accelerated again.

at this time.

In Ghost Cry Ridge.

Boom boom boom!

The Ghost King of the Underworld is frantically refining that stream of dead sea water.

A heavy wave of killing intent from the Dead Sea surged in, causing the Forest Domain formed by the Forest Ghost King to tremble continuously, with cracks constantly appearing in the crackling sound, as if it was about to collapse at any moment.

"The killing intent of the Dead Sea is really terrifying. It's just this long river, and it can't even trap my Forest Domain easily."

The Forest Ghost King revealed a look of amazement.

The long river of the Dead Sea in front of him is only a hundred miles away, and he is about to be unable to suppress it. How terrifying is the real Dead Sea? Simply unimaginable. Moreover, the killing intent contained in it is extremely terrifying. Even with the current cultivation base of the Forest Underworld Ghost King, it is not easy to simply control the Dead Sea water in a radius of a hundred miles. The heavy killing intent constantly impacts his soul, as if nothing Endless general.

"Such a terrifying dead sea river, how did the Tomb of the Underworld control it?" At this moment, the Ghost King of the Underworld suddenly frowned. He felt that he wanted to refine the long river in front of him, and it was extremely difficult to do it in a short time. However, when the Tomb of the Underworld General was cultivating, the picture of the Dead Sea and the long river surrounded by it was once again.

It clearly appeared in the mind of Sen Ming Ghost King.

"Could it be that there is something special about the Mingyan Tomb? Or did you get some kind of adventure?"

The Forest Ghost King's eyes flashed, and various speculations emerged in his heart. He raised his head and looked at the annihilated but not completely dissipated fire breath around him, and suddenly raised his hand.

boom!

In an instant, the endless forest realm was formed, and in the surrounding world, the power of the ghost fire scattered by the self-explosion of the tomb of the ghost fire was quickly gathered together by the forest ghost king.

In an instant, a cloud of dark underworld fire appeared in the palm of the Forest Underworld Ghost King, jumping continuously.

"There is some kind of unique rule power in this underworld fire breath? It doesn't seem to exist in the underworld, what's going on?" Just a glance, the Sen Ming ghost king was shocked to find that the underworld tomb general's breath contained There is a regular breath that does not belong to the underworld. This regular breath contains amazing scorching power, and it is this scorching power that

The damage dealt to him by the Dead Sea Killing Intent dropped a bit, and the attack by the Dead Sea Killing Intent immediately became much milder.

"What kind of rule power is this?"

The Forest Ghost King was shocked.

It is simply unheard of to be able to neutralize the killing intent in the Dead Sea.

"It's no wonder that the Tomb of the Underworld was able to control the killing intent of the Dead Sea with a cultivation level that could not be transcended at the third level. It is the power of this rule!"

The rainbow burst out from the pupils of the Forest Ghost King, as if it was about to tear the void in front of it.

At this time, the Ghost King of the Underworld had already regretted letting go of Tomb General Mingyan. It is possible that the secrets contained in Tomb General Mingyan were even more terrifying than he had imagined.

"However, as long as I can refine the Dead Sea water as soon as possible, then the Tomb of the Underworld Flame will definitely not be able to escape my control."

The Ghost King of Forest Darkness focused his eyes, and without hesitation, he directly began to refine the source of the fire of the Mingyan Tomb General in front of him.

boom! When the unique power of rules contained in it entered the body, the Senming Ghost King suddenly felt warm all over his body, as if he was in a stove, but this kind of warmth was not uncomfortable for the Senming Ghost King. yes

It made the dark origin in his body eager to try, as if he was extremely eager for such a breath.

This is something that the Forest Ghost King, who cultivates the forest breath, has never felt before.

And after merging this part of the regular breath, the Ghost King of the Underworld found that his resistance to the Dead Sea water around him had obviously increased a little, and the Dead Sea sea water, under his perception, slowly surged.

"It's done."

The Forest Ghost King showed ecstasy.

I actually refined this dead sea water.

Although it is just a simple control, it is undoubtedly a huge gain for the Forest Ghost King.

Just when the Ghost King of the Underworld took control of the seawater of the Dead Sea.

In Ghost Cry Ridge, the owner of Death God's Tomb has already entered it.

After feeling the changes in Guikuling Ridge, the owner of the Tomb of the Death God was also terrified. Without hesitation, he went directly to the direction where the terrifying breath came from the depths of Guikuling Ridge. In just a moment, the owner of the tomb of the death * had come to the depths of Guikuling, and then he saw the terrifying forest aura emanating from the ghost king of the forest ghost in the distance, and the forest in the forest atmosphere that was frantically refining the water of the Dead Sea.

The Ghost King of the Underworld, and the source of the Underworld Fire of the Tomb General of the Underworld Flames slowly lingering around him and gradually dissipating.

"Is it the source of the fire from the Tomb of the Underworld?"

The face of the Tomb Master of the Death God changed, and he could see at a glance that the aura of the underworld fire around the Forest Ghost King was extremely terrifying. The aura of underworld fire at this level must be formed after the source of the Tomb General of the Underworld Flame exploded.

"Okay, the person who was in the eyes of Dead Sea Spring was indeed the man of the Forest Ghost King, and judging by the aura of the underworld fire, the tomb of the underworld fire is probably in danger."

The tomb owner of Death God's face was livid, and a murderous intent shot out from his eyes.

"That is..."

Immediately afterwards, the tomb owner of the death * saw the dead sea water beside the ghost king of the underworld, and a look of shock and anger burst out of his pupils. The Dead Sea water comes from the eyes of the Dead Sea Spring, and to the shock of the tomb owner of the Death God, the Sen Ming Ghost King in front of him actually manipulated the Dead Sea water around him, slowly attracting it, and that posture was already

Take control of the dead sea water.

"how is this possible?"

The owner of the tomb of the * of death was shocked. The dead sea water is extremely difficult to control, even the dead sea water in the eyes of the dead sea spring. Over the years, he has never heard of any forbidden zone master directly controlling the dead sea water. At most, he understands part of the dead sea water.

I just mean it.

But the ghost king of the dark forest in front of him... Moreover, it has not been long since his avatar was destroyed before, to the disappearance of the springs of the Dead Sea, and then the ghost king of the dark forest in front of him controlled the water of the dead sea. Does Pluto King have what secret?

At this moment, the owner of the Tomb of the God of Death was shocked, angry and happy.

What surprised me was that the ghost king of the dark forest was able to refine the water of the Dead Sea, and was angry that the other party dared to send someone to destroy his clone, but I was happy that as long as I killed the ghost king of the dark forest, I would definitely get the secret to control the sea water of the dead sea.

If the owner of the tomb of the God of Death still had doubts about what happened in the eyes of the Dead Sea Spring before, then seeing the scene in front of him, he no longer has any doubts in his heart.

Apart from the Forest Ghost King, there is no other possibility.

"Sen Ming Ghost King, if you dare to touch people in this seat, don't blame this seat for being rude." A icy murderous intent burst out from the eyes of the tomb master of the death god, and he did not shoot rashly. The shape disappeared without a sound, and an invisible breath of death quickly expanded, surging from all directions to the

The Forest Ghost King in the middle of the deep pit.

at this time.

In the pit.

The Forest Ghost King, who had been cross-legged, suddenly stood up, and when he raised his hand, the dead sea water was actually taken into his portable space, and excitement suddenly appeared in his eyes.

"This seat, actually really controls the water of the Dead Sea."

The Ghost King of the Underworld's eyes flickered, excited, "The following is to track down the general of the Tomb of the Underworld." A cold light bloomed, and the Ghost King of the Underworld couldn't wait to capture the General of the Tomb of the Underworld. The power of the rules made the Sen Ming Ghost King very curious, there must be something ulterior and shocking about the other party.

big secret.

He had a feeling that as long as he could obtain this secret, he might be able to achieve an incredible level of terror, and even become the most powerful master of the restricted area in the entire abandoned land in one fell swoop.

"Walk!"

The Forest Ghost King couldn't help the throbbing in his heart, put away the Forest Domain, and suddenly lifted into the air, about to rush towards the void in the distance.

And at the moment when the Forest Ghost King put away his Forest Domain and was about to leave here—

boom! An invisible breath of death descended in an instant, and the originally pitch-black Ghost Crying Ridge suddenly became gloomy, as if it had come to Senluo Hell. The endless breath of death was like a waterfall, enveloping the Ghost King of the Underworld in an instant.

middle.

Boom boom boom!

Seeing all around, the endless and terrifying breath of death surged, and the heaven and earth flowed, and the whole figure of the Forest Ghost King seemed to have come to another world in an instant.

"not good."

The Forest Ghost King was startled, who is it that ambushed him here?

Because he tried his best to refine the seawater of the Dead Sea before, and was in ecstasy and excitement, he didn't even notice it for a while. At the same time that the ghost king of the forest underworld was shocked, countless dark death spears suddenly appeared in the surrounding world. Each of these death spears condensed a shocking power of death, which was condensed by the terrifying death rules. become,

A terrifying death rune shone on each spear.

With a shock of the spear, it blasted the void directly. Its power was so terrifying that any spear could pierce through a whole world and sweep through the nine heavens of purgatory.

At this moment, numerous goosebumps appeared all over his body, and a strong sense of crisis suddenly rose from his mind, and he kept sending out terrifying warnings.

"Damn it, who is sneaking up?"

Senming Ghost King's face changed drastically, but he is also the Lord of the Ghost King Palace after all, how rich is his combat experience? He has been fighting in the Dead Sea all year round. In the crisis, he has already instinctively released his forest realm.

Boom! As soon as his forest domain was released, it seemed that he had fallen into an endless quagmire instantly, and was directly suppressed by a terrifying force. The forest domain that had been released freely became extremely viscous and solidified at this moment stand up , can only cover the void in a radius of ten thousand miles, and it has been suppressed to the point of making a violent cracking sound.

"The realm of death...it's you, the master of the tomb of the death god!" The ghost king of Sen Ming was furious. Before he knew it, he was already deep in the death domain of the master of the death god's tomb. Above him, because his Forest Domain is a latecomer, and the other party has already

If he was prepared, he couldn't break through the opponent's shackles for a while, making him fall into a disadvantage in an instant. In the midst of the crisis, the Ghost King of the Dark Forest didn't care about other things. A pitch-black diamond-shaped shield instantly appeared in front of him. As soon as this black diamond-shaped shield appeared, it immediately burst into a misty black light, evolving into a blurred appearance.

The phantom of the shield quickly wrapped the Forest Underworld Ghost King in it.

hum!

The shield emitted a misty light, and countless runes flowed wildly on it, covering all directions of the Forest Ghost King.

And at the moment when the shield was just formed, there was a bang, and countless death spears slammed onto the shield. Suddenly, a terrifying roar resounded throughout the world, and the sonic boom formed directly blasted the surrounding void away. Come. With a click, the black rhombic shield excited by the ghost king of the underworld in a hurry made a cracking sound, and it burst instantly under the bombardment of countless black death-rule spears, and was pierced into countless pieces, and these black deaths

After the spear pierced through the dark treasure of the dark ghost king's shield, it also lost most of its power, and bombarded the terrifying flesh of the dark ghost king one after another.

boom! Countless terrifying breaths of death were about to pierce into the body of the Forest Underworld Ghost King, when the Forest Underworld Ghost King roared, his body rapidly grew in size, and with a bang, a ferocious evil ghost with three heads and six hands appeared between the heavens and the earth. cover with one hand

God, forcibly resisted these death spears. But even so, being impacted by so much power of death, the terrifying death impact that rushed into the body of the Forest Underworld Ghost King still caused his body to shatter, and his body shook wildly under this force, with a puff open mouth

It was a mouthful of pitch-black blood spurting out.

"Tomb Master of Death God, what do you mean!"

The ghost king of the dark forest raised his head to the sky and roared furiously, the terrifying ghostly aura of the dark forest swept away, and finally seized the opportunity, the amazing domain of the dark forest spread around his body, forming a unique defensive space for one side.

"Hmph, what do you mean? Ghost King Morimi, you have the nerve to ask."

However, as soon as the voice of the Forest Ghost King fell, a terrifying force of death descended instantly.

Buzzing buzzing buzzing... Countless spooky aura reappeared in the surrounding void, and the surrounding world suddenly changed, as if entering an endless * from an abandoned land in an instant, and ghosts and crying gods came from the sky and the earth Howl, these ghosts

The sound of crying gods and howling was accompanied by a depressing sound, as if countless dead souls were madly rushing into his mind, descending directly into his sea of souls.

boom!

The sea of souls of the Forest Ghost King directly vibrated, amidst the sounds of howling ghosts and howling gods, there was a sharp pain in his mind, and countless dead ghosts rushed wildly in his sea of souls, trying to tear his sea of souls apart open.

Soul attack!

Those death rule spears at the beginning were just superficial attacks by the tomb master of the death god, but the soul attack of the power of death is the real means of the tomb master of the death god.

"Sen Ming Ghost King, you snatched the eyes of the Dead Sea Spring from me, and killed my subordinates. Today, I want to see where your Ghost King Hall has the courage to challenge the majesty of the God of Death."

boom!

The rumbling roar resounded like thunder and tremors, causing the surroundings to tremble, the surrounding fields collapsed, and everything in the world was swept away.

A series of attacks poured directly into the mind of the Forest Ghost King.

"you..."

The Forest Ghost King was frightened and furious, at this moment he didn't even bother to open his mouth, the heavy impact was like a vast ocean, directly impacting his spirit and continuously boiling it, which shocked his whole heart.

One step behind, one step behind.

At this moment, the Forest Ghost King has a feeling that if he cannot get out of this kind of battle in time, he is very likely to be trapped here, or even perish here.

"Damn it, forest secret art - ghost king's horror!"

boom! The Forest Ghost King gritted his teeth. At this time, he could no longer care about other things, and directly activated his own soul secret technique. In an instant, his sea of souls boiled, and countless souls surged violently. One after another, pitch-black souls Light

The awns gathered quickly, forming a huge grimace pattern in the sky above his soul sea.

That grimace was extremely ferocious, with seven eyes, and each eye represented an evil emotion. The seven eyes opened suddenly, and greed, anger, ignorance, anger, evil... all kinds of evil breaths rushed to the sky in an instant. rise.

boom! boom! boom!

Countless evil lights shot up into the sky, forming a terrifying storm in the mind of the Forest Underworld Ghost King, which directly shattered the countless soul attacks, and quickly restored calm in his mind.

puff!

A mouthful of blood spewed out. Although the Forest Underworld Ghost King repelled the attack of the tomb owner of the death god, he still spit out blood.

The blow just now was performed by him after burning the source of his soul. The so-called damage to one thousand enemies means self-injury to eight hundred. The impact of the original burning of the soul on a strong man in the underworld is even more terrifying than the original burning of the rule. ,breath Great reduction.

"Master of the Tomb of the Death God, you have something to say." Repelling the attack of the Master of the Tomb of the Death God with one blow, the Forest Ghost King soared into the sky. Underworld soldiers have knives, spears, swords, halberds, life wheels,

The soul banner... A mighty attack soared into the sky, crashing on the domain of order of the tomb owner of the death god, trying to tear apart the domain of order of the tomb owner of the death god. The Sen Ming Ghost King is extremely rich in combat experience. He is very clear that he has fallen into the trap of the tomb master of the death * at this moment.

Downwind, being tightly suppressed.

Ghosts cry outside the ridge.

In the endless void, at this moment, a figure emerged.

This figure, surrounded by the power of space, is completely integrated with the surrounding void, and there is no clue at all.

Between his brows, a pair of vast eyes opened, and an invisible light bloomed in them, staring at the battle in Guikuling, diving into the void without causing any fluctuations.

"Hehe, this Forest Ghost King is really a good method. At this time, he can still break free from the attack of the tomb owner of the death god. He is worthy of being the master of the restricted area of the abandoned land and the powerhouse of the eternal order."

Qin Chen chuckled and couldn't help admiring.

Previously, the tomb owner of the death * made a secret attack, which can be described as lightning and flint, but this forest ghost king is also ruthless. When he was at a disadvantage first, he fought hard to get injured, and directly broke free from the ultimate move of the tomb owner of the death god.

Qin Chen was quite surprised. "Young Master Chen, the Forest Underworld Ghost King had previously burned the source of his soul to avoid the ultimate move of the tomb master of the death god. The source of the soul is extremely important and cannot be easily damaged. also lead to Damage to the soul may have some impact on future cultivation, which is actually unwise. "

On the side, Wangu Mingzu commented.

"Oh?" Qin Chen smiled and glanced at Wangu Mingzu: "So, if you are in the position of the Forest Ghost King, is there another good way?"

"Me?" Wangu Mingzu was stunned, and then said disdainfully: "Young Master Chen, you underestimate me too much. If you were a subordinate, you would never be ambushed by the tomb master of the death god."

Qin Chen: "... " Wangu Mingzu saw Qin Chen's expression and thought that Qin Chen didn't believe it, so he said proudly: "Young Master Chen, don't believe it, and, even if the subordinate is really ambushed, the subordinate's cultivation base can directly Release the Immortal Bone Domain, which can directly tear the death tomb

How could the master's domain of death give the tomb master of the death * a chance to unleash a soul attack? "

"In the end, even if the master of the tomb of the death * releases the soul attack, with the strength of the subordinate's soul, the soul attack of the master of the death god's tomb can't hurt his subordinates at all, so why burn the source of the soul?" Wan Gu Mingzu Full of confidence and arrogance, he finally looked at the movement in the depths of Ghost Cry Ridge and said with disdain: "The main reason is that the ghost king of the forest ghost has never seen the world. After all, he is also a giant and strong man in this abandoned land.

The power of water affected the mind, and it was ridiculous not to notice the arrival of the tomb owner of the death god. "

The Myriad Bone Nether Ancestor was suspended there, looking like an unrivaled powerhouse, but his aura was quite strong.

Qin Chen glanced at him: "If it weren't for your previous performance, I might really have believed your nonsense, now, hehe..."

Qin Chen smiled, noncommittal.

nonsense?

Myriad Gu Mingzu's eyes widened.

Damn, Young Master Chen doesn't believe in himself? Was my previous performance that bad?

But when Wangu Mingzu recalled his past performance, he was taken aback for a moment.

It seems, it seems, it's really not that good? If it weren't for the spirit and soul enshrined in the skull crystal, Wangu Mingzu would have blushed extremely, and he immediately changed the subject and said: "Young Master Chen, we still have to be careful. ,

The spiritual sense is extremely sharp. Although we are hiding here, we may be discovered if we are not careful. "

Qin Chen smiled: "Don't worry, there are more than two of us here, even if they find out, nothing will happen."

Wangu Mingzu turned his head to look, and sure enough, there were many other auras appearing indistinctly around Guikuling.

Although Ghost Crying Ridge is a forbidden area of the Abandoned Land and is rarely visited by people, it is not completely deserted. Occasionally, there will still be strong people passing by here, or practicing in Ghost Crying Ridge.

Qin Chen's breakthrough earlier caused such a terrifying vision, but now the battle between the tomb owner of the death * and the ghost king of the underworld naturally attracted some passing strong men nearby.

It's just that these people didn't dare to go deep into Guikuling Ridge. Such a terrifying fighting atmosphere made them recognize at a glance that this was definitely not a battle they could join in, and they just watched from afar.

"That's...the master of the tomb of the * of death in the cemetery of the * of death and the king of ghosts in the palace of the ghost king?"

"How did the two of them do it?" When these people arrived one after another, they saw a scene that shocked them and stunned them. They saw endless hills, peaks, and land within a radius of tens of thousands of miles in the depths of Ghost Crying Ridge. All disappeared, only Wanlifan was left.

The nothingness and dilapidated pit in the surrounding area.

The explosive power of the battle between the two of them pervaded thousands of miles deep in Guikuling Ridge.

This shock wave alone made the strong men who arrived feel terrified. What made them even more astonished was that the spirit of unjust souls in Guikuling Ridge, formerly known as the forbidden area, disappeared and only a faint trace remained, while the Forest Ghost King fighting in the core of Guikuling Ridge was shrouded in the order domain of the tomb owner of the Death God. No

Unceasingly let out a frightened and furious roar, like a trapped beast, completely at a disadvantage.

"Hey, what happened here?"

"crazy."

"The master of the two restricted areas, why did he fight to the death, this, this..."

After such a long time, dozens of experts from the Abandoned Land arrived, and their heads were stunned, because what they saw before them was so crazy.

The masters of the restricted area are all masters of the triple detachment level, and generally there will be no deadly battles with each other. After all, it is not an easy task for any triple detachment to destroy the opponent.

Even in very large cases, it will result in a lose-lose outcome for both parties, and instead be taken advantage of by others. Moreover, it is rumored that a meeting of the Lords of the Forbidden Area will be held soon, and all the powerhouses of the Abandoned Lands will go to the Forbidden Dead Sea to find a way to leave the Dead Sea.

war, how...

"too crazy."

"Such a terrifying scene, the tomb owner of the death * and the ghost king of the forest ghost are probably really fighting to the death."

"What happened between them?"

This group of people was completely bewildered, and at this time there were strong men coming one after another from a distance, but when they arrived, they were also completely stunned.

"What's going on, why are the Tomb Master of the Death God and the Ghost King of the Underworld fighting to the death?" the strong man who arrived later asked suspiciously.

"Who knows, the master of the forbidden area will not do it easily, and something must have happened that we don't know."

"Everyone, I don't feel very good, let's take a step first." Whoosh! Immediately, a second-level detached strongman came over to take a look, and then left quickly.

joke.

Who can survive in the abandoned land until now, and become a transcendent powerhouse, which one is not extremely shrewd. This is a battle at the master level of the forbidden area. Even Guikuling Ridge was beaten like that, the core area within a radius of tens of thousands of miles was turned into nothingness, and the spirit of wronged souls in Guikuling Ridge disappeared on purpose. These all reveal a Point—now Guikuling Ridge is extremely dangerous! In the battle of the master of the forbidden area, even a slight fluctuation can annihilate them. Although the battle between the two sides is still far away from them and has not yet spread over, the master of the restricted area can move countless distances. If one is not careful

The wave of attack swept over, and these ordinary transcendents had nowhere to escape.

If you are sensible, you will naturally slip away quickly.

The battle of the Lord of the Exclusion Zone is not for everyone to watch.

In the blink of an eye, about half of the people left the scene.

But there are still people around who did not leave, but waited and watched from a distance. After all, it is impossible to easily see the battle of the master of the restricted area.

"boom!"

But at this time, an astonishing roar suddenly came from the depths of Guikuling Ridge, and a terrifying aura suddenly spread around Guikuling Ridge.

"Huh? Are both parties desperate?"

Qin Chen looked over intently.

at this time.

In Ghost Cry Ridge.

The figure of the tomb owner of the death * has appeared in the vast world. His figure is extremely majestic, and his whole body is covered by a long robe. Even his head is covered by a mask, revealing only a pair of cold and indifferent pupils.

How terrifying is this pair of pupils, with endless indifference, as if nothing can move them, just looking indifferently at the Forest Ghost King who is frantically trying to bombard his domain of order.

"Sen Ming Ghost King, don't resist, in front of me, you have no room to resist at all, just accept death obediently."

The Master of the Tomb of the God of Death spoke indifferently, and he stepped forward, the endless breath of death condensed in his hands, and a moment later, a huge pitch-black sickle suddenly appeared in his hands.

boom!

As soon as this scythe appeared, the breath of death in the void instantly surged, and the entire void trembled violently, as if it couldn't bear the power of the scythe at all. This sickle is the most precious death sickle of the tomb owner of the death god. When the death sickle appeared in the void, the void at the edge of the blade was quietly cut with black silk threads. In front of the blade of the death sickle, the abandoned

The emptiness of the ground is as fragile as paper, easily torn apart.

"Death Scythe!"

In the distance, Qin Chen's pupils shrank.

He had fought against the clone of the tomb master of death before, and had also fought against the scythe of death condensed by the clone of the tomb master of death, but at this moment when he really felt the breath of the scythe of death, Qin Chen couldn't help but change color. The aura of the death scythe in front of him was even more terrifying than he had imagined. Even after such a long distance, Qin Chen still felt a strong palpitation, and a trace of cold aura fell on his skin. skin

It was like being pressed against a cold blade.

"This death sickle is not simple."

A cold light bloomed in Qin Chen's eyes.

In Ghost Cry Ridge.

"Om!" As soon as the death sickle appeared, the owner of the tomb of the death * had already lifted it up high, and saw the endless breath of death gathering on the sickle, and the breath of the whole death sickle skyrocketed in an instant. Dao Guang, face down

Fang's Forest Underworld Ghost King blatantly fell down.

Crash! Silently, the void was directly cut into a huge gully. Where the death scythe passed, the void was torn apart like cloth, and a strong sense of crisis permeated. Under the eyes of everyone, the tomb owner of the death die

The divine sickle struck the Forest Ghost King in an instant.

With a puff, a huge gully was cut directly into the body of the Forest Ghost King, from which pitch-black blood spewed out instantly.

"Roar!"

The Ghost King of the Underworld let out a painful roar, and his incomparably powerful physical body was instantly broken in front of the death scythe. ?? Sen? Ghost King, trouble!

Chapter 5318: Dead Sea Source Crystal

"This death scythe..."

Qin Chen's pupils shrank, looking at the death scythe exuding a sharp aura in the distance, a trace of solemnity flashed in his pupils.

Before, he felt that the death sickle was not simple, but he never thought that the death sickle was so powerful that it could tear open the physical defense of the forest ghost king so easily.

It should be noted that the Ghost King of Senming is the master of the Ghost King Palace, a strong man with triple transcendence, and his physical strength is by no means trivial. Under normal circumstances, it would take a huge amount of energy to tear apart a triple transcendent body.

But this death scythe was torn apart so easily, what kind of treasure is this? At this time, Qin Chen's heart was secretly palpitating. When he faced the clone of the tomb owner of the death god, the other party only condensed the phantom of the death sickle.

trouble.

Wangu Mingzu couldn't help but frowned and said: "This death scythe, could it be that treasure..."

Qin Chen turned his head and looked over: "Wan Gu, do you know this death scythe?" Wan Gu Mingzu said suspiciously: "Young Master Chen, this thing is somewhat similar to a treasure I once knew. When my subordinates followed the emperor, I once heard that one of the four great emperors of the underworld, Emperor Yan of the Ten Palaces, once had such a treasure under his command. It was called the Blade of the Ghost King. I never connected it with the death sickle. After all, underworld soldiers of this shape are extremely common in the underworld, but first

The power of this thing is very similar to that of the ghost king's blade, which makes the subordinates have to doubt it. "

"Emperor Yan of the Ten Palaces? The Blade of the Ghost King?"

Qin Chen was thoughtful.

If the underworld weapon in the hands of the tomb master of the death * is really the ghost king's blade, it would be interesting.

While Qin Chen was meditating, in the distance, those detached strongmen who were watching were also gasping for air, and their whole bodies were chilling.

This death scythe can even break through the flesh of the Forest Ghost King, if it hits them, they will be killed in an instant.

In Ghost Cry Ridge.

"Master of Death's Tomb, don't force me."

The Forest Ghost King was struck by the death scythe, his body was covered in blood, and he roared in pain. The wounds on his body were constantly splattering blood, and the whole person was extremely frightened and angry. At this moment, he really felt a strong crisis. Where the torn wounds were located, the breath of the rules of death that made his heart palpitate continued to permeate.

It came through, preventing the restoration of his physical body.

This is erosion at the level of rules. Triple Eternal Order Realm means that you have eternal order. At this level, unless the power of order in the opponent's body is completely destroyed, it is difficult for ordinary attacks to bring them harm.

What hurts is the attack at the rule level.

At this moment, the Death God Tomb Master used his own Death God Scythe to cause damage to the Forest Underworld Ghost King at the rule level.

This has already damaged the origin of the Forest Ghost King.

"Hmph, Ghost King of the Underworld, what methods do you have now, just use them. Since you dare to kill my people and rob me of this opportunity, you must have the consciousness of death."

The master of the tomb of the * of death had cold eyes and remained unmoved.

Now that you have decided to make a move, you must not hold back. Finally, there is such a chance to seriously injure the Forest Ghost King, and if you have a chance to kill him, if you don't take advantage of the victory to pursue, is there any hope for the other party to escape?

boom! The aura of the tomb owner of the Death God was soaring crazily at this moment, and he vigorously waved the Death God Scythe in his hand. The lifeless Death God Scythe turned into a dense network of blades in an instant, wrapping the Forest Underworld Ghost King tightly.

He didn't give Sen Ming Ghost King a chance to relax.

puff! puff! puff! The Ghost King of the Dark Forest retreated crazily, but now under the order field of the tomb master of the death god, he was almost impossible to avoid. He could only sacrifice a series of defensive ghost soldiers in front of him, but how could these defensive ghost soldiers resist Death Scythe

His sharp edges were torn apart in an instant, leaving bloodstains on his body.

The strong power of rules constantly erodes his physical body.

"Master of the Death God's Tomb, it was your people who killed me first and used him to break through, he deserves to die!" Sen Ming Ghost King roared, feeling the source of his constantly damaged body, with an extremely ugly expression on his face.

If this continues, once his physical body is consumed too much, he will definitely collapse on the spot, and by then, he will be even more hopeless.

"Killed your son?"

The master of the tomb of the * of death snorted coldly, will the tomb of the underworld kill the son of the ghost king of the underworld?

It's just that this thought was just a flash, but the owner of the tomb of the death * didn't think about it, he just sneered and said: "Even if the people of this seat kill you, so what? If you kill, you will kill, that is what he should kill!"

At this point, the source of grievances and so on is irrelevant, what is important is what is on the ghost king of the dark forest.

"Hand over what's on you, and I might consider leaving you a whole body."

The Lord of the Tomb of the God of Death is high above, speaking indifferently, but the movements of his hands are unstoppable. Countless lights of knives are falling like waterfalls, cutting the world in all directions, without giving the Forest Ghost King a chance to breathe.

The sickle attack combined with the field of order completely trapped the Forest Ghost King, the more he struggled, the more powerless he became.

"you..."

The Forest Ghost King gritted his teeth, furious in his heart.

If it wasn't for his previous carelessness, how could he have ended up in such a state.

"Okay, don't you want something from me? Then I will give it to you."

As soon as the Ghost King of Forest Underworld finished speaking, he suddenly raised his hand, boom, a long dark river suddenly appeared between the sky and the earth, this long river was only a hundred miles long, but as soon as it appeared, a terrifying murderous intent shot up into the sky. Originally, this area of heaven and earth was completely covered by the breath of death released by the death scythe of the owner of the tomb of the * of death, without a single gap, but when this long black river appeared, the breath of death surging in this area of the world unexpectedly

The terrifying killing intent on the long river was directly scattered away, forming a vacuum.

The two forces confronted each other crazily, sending out a rumbling roar.

"What?"

"Dead Sea... sea water!"

"The tomb owner of the death * and the ghost king of the underworld are fighting over the sea water of the Dead Sea."

Seeing this dark long river and the murderous aura gushing out from the long river, the countless strong men watching from a distance all showed shock.

No wonder the masters of the two forbidden areas are so desperate. The Dead Sea water is the top treasure in the Forsaken Land. Even a drop of it will cause competition. If it is because of this, then everything will be explained.

"You really control the water of the Dead Sea."

Seeing the dead sea water surrounded by the ghost king of the underworld, the master of the tomb of the death * shrank his pupils. Previously, he only saw the ghost king of the underworld running the dead sea water from a distance, but at this moment, the tomb owner of the death * clearly felt that the long river-like sea water of the dead sea was completely controlled by the ghost king of the underworld, surrounding the other party's body, in harmony with himself

Fight against the realm of death that has been released.

It can be seen that the ghost king of the underworld does control the sea water of the dead sea, which makes the owner of the tomb of death very hot.

If this treasure is really obtained by him, with the two great treasures of Dead Sea water and Death God's Scythe, his status in the Forsaken Land will skyrocket, and he will no longer be afraid of anyone.

"Give me my death."

The God of Death's tomb master waved his sickle and cut it straight down.

Wow!

A ten thousand zhang long jet-black sword light burst out instantly, covering the Forest Ghost King.

"snort."

The Ghost King of Forest Underworld snorted coldly, and a hint of ferocity flashed in his eyes. Relying on the killing intent of the Dead Sea, he instantly weakened the pressure that had been suppressed by the Tomb Master of the Death God by half. Taking this opportunity, he directly activated the original energy in his body. force.

"Don't you want this Dead Sea water? I will give it to you."

With an angry shout, the Ghost King of the Underworld immediately sacrificed the dead sea water.

Crash. The pitch-black river is surging and mighty, although it is only a hundred miles long, but when the sea water of the Dead Sea surges out, the momentum formed is like a vast ocean suddenly emerging, and there is a crackling sound in the void where the long river passes.

The killing intent contained in the dead sea water and the sound of the crazy collision of the death field displayed by the tomb owner of the death god.

Under the eyes of everyone, the mighty Dead Sea water collided with the death scythe in an instant.

boom! The sea water exploded, and the black light erupting from the death scythe burst into pieces instantly, and was directly torn apart by the killing intent contained in the dead sea water. one

The long ravine split into two halves in an instant.

"Huh? So easy?"

The owner of the tomb of the * of death was startled. Although the dead sea water in front of him is only a hundred miles in radius, the killing intent contained in it is not so terrifying that it is unacceptable, and his death scythe is an eternal peak-level underworld soldier, but it is not so light by his own death scythe.

Easy to tear apart.

"Explosion!" Surprised in the heart of the tomb owner of the death god, when the dead sea water was split, the ghost king of the forest ghost suddenly roared, and there was a bang, and the half of the dead sea water that was split and rushed towards him fell on the ghost king of the forest ghost. Under the roar, it exploded directly

Cracked.

Boom!

The endless seawater of the Dead Sea turned into a dense curtain of water, which crazily poured down on the tomb owner of the death god.

"Um?"

The owner of the tomb of the death * was startled, what is the ghost king of the underworld going to do?

Although the dead sea water in front of him was terrifying, but with this half of the dead sea sea water curtain alone, even if it hit him, it would only cause him some damage at most, but could not really hurt his core.

It was useless for the Forest Underworld Ghost King to do so. Instead, he lost one of his trump cards.

Doubtful in his heart, but the tomb owner of the Death God kept moving his hands. He snorted coldly and urged the Death God Scythe again. In an instant, the breath of the Death God Scythe rose sharply, and once again surged out the breath of the sword light that reached the sky, chopping towards Sen Ming ghost king. At the same time, the Tomb Master of the God of Death grasped it with his big hand, and boom, a huge pitch-black palm appeared instantly between the sky and the earth. This pitch-black palm was like a sky curtain, and it ruthlessly grabbed the Dead Sea water that was thrown in front of him.

Some of the dead sea water gathered in an instant and was collected in the bag.

"It's at this time..." When the owner of the tomb of the death * grabbed the Dead Sea water and launched an attack on himself at the same time, a hint of ferocity flashed in the eyes of the Forest Ghost King. He directly burned his source, using the remaining half of the Dead Sea water to resist the attack Death's tomb master again

The death sickle fell, and at the same time, a black crystal suddenly appeared in his hand. The whole body of this crystal is pitch black and diamond-shaped. It has a total of 108 sides, and each side is shining with strange and deep rune light. The moment this crystal appeared, the atmosphere of the surrounding underworld immediately boiled up, and there was a wave of terror.

The murderous aura surged out from the inside of the crystal in an instant.

boom!

The void within a million miles seemed to be ignited, and the surrounding dark energy was boiling. Even the order domain of the tomb master of the death * could not stop such a force from spreading.

"Dead Sea Origin Crystal!"

Seeing this black crystal, whether it was the owner of the tomb of the * of death or the detached powerhouses watching from a distance, there was a look of horror in the pupils.

Dead Sea source crystal.

It is a kind of treasure from the depths of the Dead Sea. This kind of treasure is extremely rare, and it has never appeared a few times in the entire history of the abandoned land.

This thing contains an astonishing killing intent, and its terrifying power is almost equivalent to the sum of the origin of a triple detachment. When this object first appeared, everyone believed that it contained the origin of the killing intent in the Dead Sea water, so they studied it one after another, trying to understand the rules of the Dead Sea's killing intent from it, but, for a long time, they couldn't

No one can perceive the origin of the killing intent.

On the contrary, many strong men who tried to comprehend the source crystal of the Dead Sea all fell into a state of madness after a period of time, became a madman who only knew how to kill, lost their own sanity, and eventually exhausted their origin and died of exhaustion. Later, the strong men in the abandoned land discovered that the source of killing intent contained in the source crystal of the Dead Sea was too violent, even more violent than the killing intent in the depths of the Dead Sea, and it was impossible to comprehend it. is forever

After a long time of transcendence in the constant order state, he will become mad and become a madman who only knows how to kill.

Since then, the Dead Sea Origin Crystal has been forgotten by everyone. In addition, it is extremely rare and was only born in the deepest part of the Dead Sea. If you want to get one, even the triple transcendence may fall, and it will naturally disappear in the long river of history.

Until one time, a Dead Sea spring appeared in a hidden place in the Forsaken Land. A second-level peak detached casual cultivator first discovered this Dead Sea spring, and he was ecstatic to realize it. He did have the upper hand, but in the end the news still leaked out, and then many strong men rushed to the abandoned land, and even the masters of the restricted area with triple detachment appeared. These people began to chase after the dead sea spring disappeared.

A detachment of a double peak, trying to deprive this person of his origin, from which he can gain the sense of murderous intent towards the spring of the Dead Sea.

Under the pursuit of many forbidden zone lords, this person was forced into a desperate situation. At the moment of death, he used his perception of the killing intent of the Dead Sea spring to accidentally detonate a Dead Sea source crystal on his body. In an instant, the source crystal of the Dead Sea exploded, and the resulting power instantly swept across a radius of hundreds of millions of miles. This double peak detached died on the spot, his soul was scattered, and his bones were gone, but many strong men who chased him also suffered heavy casualties.

At that time, there were three masters of the restricted area and hundreds of masters who were besieging and competing for him. Most of them were killed or injured on the spot.

Even those three master-level masters of the restricted area were also seriously injured, and the master of the restricted area who rushed to the front was shattered in the terrifying explosion and died on the spot. This battle shocked the entire abandoned land, and people knew that the Dead Sea Source Crystal had such a function. Anyone who had a certain understanding of the Dead Sea's killing intent could detonate the Dead Sea Source Crystal, and the power released was enough to destroy kill three

A super strong man.

Since then, the Dead Sea Origin Crystal has become a strategic treasure of the Forsaken Land. Fortunately, the source crystals of the Dead Sea are extremely rare. First of all, they must be detonated by someone who has a certain understanding of the dead sea's killing intent.

Only those who have a certain understanding of fate can do it.

In addition, once the Dead Sea Origin Crystal is detonated, the person who detonated it will be the first to bear the brunt, and it is very likely that he will die on the spot.

Only in this way did not cause too much impact on the pattern of the abandoned land.

But no matter what, the source crystal of the Dead Sea is still the most terrifying treasure in the abandoned land.

But now, the Ghost King of the Underworld actually took out a Dead Sea Origin Crystal, which surprised everyone present.

"Back quickly."

At the moment when the source crystal from the Dead Sea appeared, the detached powerhouses who had been observing around Guikuling all backed away in horror.

Although they were located at an extremely far distance from the battle, the power of the Dead Sea source crystal explosion was extremely terrifying. Once they were enveloped, they would surely die with their strength, and there was absolutely no reason for them to survive.

The pupils of the tomb owner of the death * shrank.

At such a short distance, once the Dead Sea Origin Crystal explodes, with his strength, even if he does not fall, he will be seriously injured.

The power of the dead sea source crystal explosion is much more terrifying than ordinary dead sea water.

"Ghost King of the Underworld, do you want to detonate this Dead Sea Source Crystal? Are you crazy?" The tomb master of the Death God stabilized his mind, and said sharply: "Once the Dead Sea Source Crystal is detonated, my life and death will be unpredictable for the time being. With your current state, you will be sure." There is no doubt about death."

"Yeah?"

The Forest Ghost King grinned, and there was madness in his eyes: "So, is the Lord of the Tomb of the Death God planning to let me go?"

"Let you go?"

The tomb owner of the * of death has indifferent eyes.

How can this be?

It's all come to this point, because a dead sea source crystal let go of the ghost king of the underworld, what's the joke?

He thought so in his heart, but said in his mouth: "It's not impossible to let you go, but..."

Before he could finish speaking, he saw that the Ghost King of Mori Ming had already thrown the Dead Sea Origin Crystal in his hand.

"Do you think I'm an idiot?" The Forest Ghost King showed a ferocious and crazy look.

next moment.

boom!

The entire Dead Sea source crystal suddenly erupted with glaring black light, and the Dead Sea source crystal containing the endless terrifying breath of death had already exploded... It was as if millions of stars exploded in an instant, a mass of hot black light that seemed to be able to swallow everything. It was born in an instant, this mass of black light condensed by countless black lights contained terrifying energy, a terrifying

The shock wave of the power of death was like a vast ocean, sweeping in all directions in an instant.

The space was instantly transformed into the most basic particle flow by this terrifying force of death and destruction, and the countless space fragments in the interlayer of space also melted into nothingness in this instant.

"Crazy, you crazy."

The owner of the tomb of the * of death roared, "Ghost King of the Underworld, aren't you afraid of death? You can't live if the source crystal of the Dead Sea explodes..."

He never thought that the Ghost King of the Underworld would detonate this Dead Sea source crystal without any hesitation at all. Could he be sure that he could survive the explosion of the Dead Sea source crystal?

"escape!"

"escape!"

"escape!"

While the tomb owner of the death * roared, he roared in his heart, and his figure retreated wildly, wishing that he could leave this world in an instant.

boom! Behind him instantly appeared a huge phantom of death, it was a majestic existence, covered in endless robes, only a pair of eyes were exposed, but those eyes contained endless power of death, to imitate

The Buddha carries the life and death cycle of the whole world. At the same time, the death scythe that was originally slashed at the ghost king of the underworld was directly taken back by the tomb owner of the death god. The pitch-black death scythe turned into countless sword shadows and enveloped him in an instant, and the tomb owner of the death * directly aroused his original power,

The death field is quickly shrunk, directly covering only its own ten thousand zhang radius.

The field of order has shrunk sharply, but its power has risen sharply. At the same time, various defensive treasures appeared in front of the tomb owner of the Death God as if free of money, forming an absolute defense in front of him. Among them, a quaint palace emerged, blooming with various lights, covering the death below.

Lord of the tomb.

Under the terrifying impact of this dead sea source crystal, the owner of the tomb of the * of death has obviously tried his best. He used all the means to save his life in an instant, and he didn't want to fall here.

immediately-

boom!

The endless black light that destroyed the world, so dark that people couldn't see all the light clearly, instantly enveloped the tomb owner of the death god.

"Crazy, the Forest Ghost King is crazy."

"What is he thinking? Doesn't he know that he will die when the source crystal of the Dead Sea explodes?"

In the distance, the countless detached powerhouses outside Ghost Crying Ridge were also terrified and aggrieved, fleeing frantically one by one. Before they even had time to react, the Dead Sea source crystal exploded.

No matter how much they guessed about the previous situation, they couldn't believe that the Forest Ghost King would detonate the Dead Sea Origin Crystal without hesitation.

"Survive, I must survive."

"Damn it, I'm just here for a show, why..." Many detachments roared with grief and anger in their hearts, and ran away crazily, increasing their speed to the maximum. However, although they were extremely far away from the core of the battle, the source of the Dead Sea Crystal's explosion was born in an instant.

pregnancy.

No matter how fast their speed is, how can they surpass the explosion of the Dead Sea source crystal?

Silently.

The pitch-black light with terrifying shock waves spread out instantly, covering all of them.

"Dead Sea Origin Crystal!"

Qin Chen naturally saw this scene in the void in the distance.

But he was much calmer than anyone present.

The first is because his distance is far enough, it is located outside Guikuling Ridge. Although the Dead Sea Origin Crystal is terrifying, the core range of the explosion is limited after all. Outside Guikuling Ridge is already an extremely safe place, and at most it will be attacked by a little aftermath.

Ordinary detachment may feel hopeless, but for Qin Chen now, as long as he is not at the center of the explosion, there will be no big problem.

Second, when the Dead Sea source crystal exploded and the black light swept away, Qin Chen felt a familiar feeling in his heart.

"This is...the killing intent of the Dead Sea..."

Although the power in the Dead Sea source crystal was even more violent, Qin Chen realized in an instant that the power formed after the explosion of the Dead Sea source crystal turned out to be the terrifying killing intent contained in the Dead Sea water.

"I have controlled the spring of the Dead Sea and comprehended part of the rules of killing intent in the water of the Dead Sea. The threat of this shock to me is actually less than one-tenth of the normal detachment."

At this critical moment, Qin Chen's heart suddenly dawned.

An invisible killing intent appeared around him, and the next moment, that dark light also enveloped him.

There was silence between heaven and earth. This dazzling piece of black light covered tens of millions of kilometers, and all mountains, land, and voids were turned into the most basic flow of particles. After a long silence, there was a rumbling explosion, and countless shock waves rushed towards

The impact from all directions directly blasted away the pitch-black peaks in Guikuling Ridge, and tore apart the ground around Guikuling Ridge into deep canyons.

"Crazy, this lunatic, Forest Underworld Ghost King, is doomed, he is doomed this time."

Below the ancient palace, the owner of the Death God's tomb persisted, with a silent roar in his heart. Even under so many defenses, he, who was at the core of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal explosion, still bears the brunt of the terrible impact. His body was washed out with bloodstains in an instant, and the surface of his skin was directly annihilated.

Mie became dust, turned into nothingness and dissipated. Although he has used the Domain of Order and used his strongest defensive means, this is the source crystal of the Dead Sea after all, which can directly annihilate an ordinary horror treasure with triple detachment.

Therefore, apart from the quaint palace and the death scythe above his head, the other defensive treasures were completely torn apart in an instant.

But even so, the tomb owner of the death * lost nearly one-third of his physical body directly.

But he survived.

"I'm fine, haha, I'm fine." The tomb owner of the Death God was ecstatic, and his annihilated body quickly began to recover: "As long as I'm fine, everything belonging to the Forest Ghost King will be mine."

He condensed his body surface again, and looked frantically at the place where the Forest Ghost King was originally in front of him.

The terrifying black light explosion formed by the source crystal of the Dead Sea in front of him had already begun to dissipate mightily, but the place where the Forest Ghost King was originally in front of him was empty, nothing was left, only a piece of broken nothingness remained. People, gone!

Chapter 5319: This time, he must die

"No...impossible!"

The Master of the Tomb of the God of Death looked shocked and angry.

Rumble!

At this time, the terrifying explosion impact between heaven and earth is still sweeping, but its power is weakening little by little.

Although the Tomb Master of the Death God who was the strongest present was located in the center of the Dead Sea source crystal explosion, he was the first to slow down.

As soon as he recovered, his eyes turned to the position of the Forest Ghost King.

In his expectation, the Forest Ghost King was seriously injured, but now even if he survived the explosion of the Dead Sea source crystal, at most he only had a little life left, enough to be beheaded by him.

In the eyes of the master of the tomb of death, the method used by the ghost king of the underworld to detonate the source crystal of the dead sea is actually sending him to death.

However, when the owner of the Death God's tomb looked ecstatically at where the Forest Ghost King was, he was shocked to find that the person of the Forest Ghost King had disappeared.

What about people? The owner of the tomb of the * of death was terrified and angry. Although the source crystal of the dead sea was extremely terrifying, it was equivalent to the power formed by a triple detachment expert detonating his own source, but the Forest Ghost King himself was a master of the triple detachment level. With his strength,

Even if he couldn't bear the impact of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal, there wouldn't be any bones left after the impact, nothing left.

According to the forecast of the owner of the tomb of the * of death, the ghost king of the underworld is most likely to be completely broken, with only his last breath left, and he has lost the ability to resist.

But in front of me...

"Impossible, how could a living person, the Forest Ghost King, disappear?"

Swish!

The owner of Death God's Tomb didn't care that the aftermath was still sweeping, he put the Death God's sickle horizontally in front of him, stepped forward, and in an instant he had arrived at the place where the Forest Ghost King was before.

"It must be hiding somewhere, it must be."

The owner of the tomb of the * of death has a ferocious face, searching frantically in this world.

After a big battle, he was almost seriously injured. If he got nothing in the end, this would be unacceptable to the tomb master of death.

However, the void in front of him has already turned into a vast flow of particles and is slowly recovering. Below is the collapsed earth, pitch-black ravines, and the ruin-like Guikuling Ridge.

Especially at the core of the Dead Sea source crystal explosion, there is a huge gully below, and the terrifying Dead Sea killing intent is still surging.

Can't hide people at all.

But the Forest Ghost King disappeared so strangely.

How can it be?

And when the master of the tomb of the * of death was frantically searching for the ghost king of the forest underworld.

Ghosts cry outside the ridge.

Countless screams and roars of pain gradually resounded after the impact of the explosion weakened, like * in the underworld.

Messy.

Looking around, the world is in a mess. The explosion impact of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal was too strong. Even though it was so far away, the world outside Ghost Cry Ridge still received a terrifying impact. Cracks and cracks spread all over the ground. The rocks, mountains, hills, Dead wood, all turned into ashes.

A belt of ruins radiating tens of millions of kilometers has formed, which is shocking.

"ah!"

Many transcendent experts who had been watching from afar here, although they had fled and retreated frantically for the first time, were still shocked by the terrifying aftermath of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal, and nearly one-third of them died on the spot, soaked in blood.

The rest of the people were even more miserable. Almost all of them were seriously injured, with missing arms and broken legs, and the pain was miserable.

It's so miserable.

It's simply * on earth.

In the void, there was only an inconspicuous corner where a person was hiding. The whole person was unscathed by the explosion of the Dead Sea source crystal, and he looked around in amazement. "This Dead Sea source crystal is indeed condensed by the violent power of the Dead Sea Killing Intent, and it is many times more violent than the normal Dead Sea Killing Intent power, resulting in an instant burst of power, which cannot be easily surpassed by triple transcendence.

Resist, powerful. "

Qin Chen couldn't help showing shock on his face.

When the dead sea source crystal hit him earlier, he could easily feel the terrifying power contained in the explosion. The power was so strong that even at this moment, he was terrified in his heart.

It's just—the power contained in the Dead Sea Origin Crystal is the power of the Dead Sea's killing intent. As Qin Chen who has already controlled part of the Dead Sea's killing intent, such an attack is not unbearable for him. You can live with detachment Come down, with Qin Chen's current cultivation base, although such an impact is strong, it is not enough to justify.

"However, this is also because I am located on the periphery. If I am in the center of the explosion, everything will be difficult to say."

Qin Chen felt emotional.

If he had been at the center of the explosion before, it would not have been so easy to carry him over. Even if he had comprehended the killing intent of the Dead Sea, he would not be as relaxed as he is now.

And when Qin Chen still had time to analyze and understand the power of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal.

On the side, the other detached powerhouses looked terrified and remorseful.

"This Forest Ghost King is really crazy. He actually detonated the Dead Sea Origin Crystal."

"Madman, he is a lunatic."

"Go, leave here immediately, if you don't leave, who knows what will happen later? We are afraid that we will all die here."

The shock wave of the explosion gradually calmed down. At this time, many transcendent people present also faintly saw the scene after the explosion, and they were all miserable and terrified at the same time.

Although they survived the explosion this time, the fear in their hearts did not dissipate because of this, on the contrary, it rose more and more, and they no longer had the mood to stay and watch the excitement.

Who knows what will happen next?

The reason why they survived this time is entirely because they were far enough away. If they were closer, or entered the Ghost Cry Ridge, they would definitely die like the others who were annihilated before. What's more, they can also vaguely see the scene in the depths of Ghost Crying Ridge. The master of the tomb of the death * did not die under the impact, but the master of the ghost king of the forest ghost disappeared mysteriously.

Who dares to stay here?

Once the master of the tomb of the death * became angry, although they came from various major forces, the master of the tomb of the death * dared to kill even the ghost king of the forest underworld, so why would he care about their influence? No one dared to provoke the tomb owner of the * of death under the wrath.

"Walk."

"Hurry up and go."

"With the strength of the Underworld Ghost King, even if it is located in the center of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal, there will be no bones left. It must be that the other party took advantage of the explosion of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal and seized the opportunity to leave here."

"This Forest Ghost King is so ruthless, no wonder he dared to detonate the Dead Sea Origin Crystal."

"Poor us people..."

"Walk!"

Frightened, one after another aura of detachment quickly went away, not daring to stay here any longer.

Not only is he afraid of another big battle, but he is also afraid of the indiscriminate attack from the anger of the tomb owner of the death god. Staying here can only court death.

In the void, only Qin Chen did not leave, he hid in the void, looking at the surrounding world.

Rumble!

At this moment, there is a terrifying aura of detachment surging between the heaven and the earth, and the aura of broken original rules is scattered, forming a series of astonishing visions in the sky above this abandoned land.

This is the original power of those detached powerhouses who fell before.

The power of detachment formed by the death of so many transcendent powerhouses is absolutely astonishing. Although these transcendents are almost dissipated, the original breath will not dissipate so quickly.

This kind of broken avenue is useless to ordinary detachment, but it is full of temptation to Qin Chen.

"The power of these rules is a good thing."

Qin Chen was pleasantly surprised.

Absorbing these Dao sources with his current strength can't actually improve his cultivation much. After all, it was only ordinary detachment that fell before, and their sources have also been torn to pieces and are extremely broken.

But for the chaotic world, it is a great tonic.

If the chaotic world wants to grow up, it needs the fusion support of a large number of different rules and avenues. If the broken original rules of these detached powerhouses are integrated into the chaotic world, it will definitely make the chaotic world have more breakthroughs in the avenue completion.

It's just that the owner of the death tomb is still in Guikuling, Qin Chen can't collect it directly, so he can only carefully hide it aside.

In Ghost Cry Ridge.

The Master of Death's Tomb looked shocked and angry.

Under his search, the Forest Underworld Ghost King disappeared without a trace, as if he had disappeared out of thin air.

"Is this... the fluctuation of the power of space?"

Suddenly, the Tomb Master of the Death God seemed to feel something, and his pupils shrank.

boom!

He reached out with his big hand, and an invisible force surged into his hand, and he felt it carefully, but his face became more and more ugly.

"Madman, this guy is a lunatic."

In the end, the owner of the tomb of the death * concluded that the ghost king of the dark forest left here by using some kind of space secret technique or space treasure at the moment when the dead sea source crystal exploded.

"This guy, isn't he afraid of being engulfed by the turbulent flow of space, and being exiled in the turbulent flow of space forever?" The owner of the death tomb looked shocked.

"Moreover, the power formed by the explosion of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal is extremely terrifying. How could he use space means to escape during the explosion?"

The owner of the tomb of the * of death couldn't figure it out.

Even if he had never been injured, he could only resist the explosion of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal with all his strength. How did the Forest Ghost King do it?

After a lot of hard work, but nothing is left behind, how can this make the owner of the tomb of the death * not angry?

"I don't believe it, where can you escape? If you can escape, can your Ghost King Palace also escape?"

The tomb owner of the death * carefully explored the surrounding area, and after finding out that the ghost king of the underworld was indeed missing, he couldn't help but let out an angry roar, and an astonishing aura swept all directions, shaking the world.

He stepped forward, and his whole body disappeared in an instant, dragging his wounded body, he could directly rush towards the Ghost King Palace.

He is not reconciled.

A hard fight, spent so much, but achieved nothing.

What's more, there are treasures such as dead sea water on the ghost king of the underworld.

With the current state of the Senming Ghost King, the most likely thing to do after being seriously injured is to flee to the Ghost King Hall. If he goes to the Ghost King Hall to intercept him, he might be able to capture him.

In a moment, Guikuling, who was originally murderous, calmed down and returned to tranquility.

"Young Master Chen, the tomb owner of Death God has finally left."

In the void outside Ghost Cry Ridge, Myriad Bone Mingzu quietly appeared.

Beside Wangu Mingzu, Qin Chen's figure also appeared. He looked at the place where the tomb master of death disappeared, his eyes flickered, but he didn't follow him.

Although the owner of the tomb of the death * was injured in the previous battle, it did not hurt the core source, and the previous battle also let Qin Chen understand how strong the tomb owner of the death * and the others are.

There is too much movement here, I am afraid that the news has already spread to all parts of the abandoned land, and maybe many masters of the restricted area have already received the news.

If he took the initiative to kill the Tomb of the God of Death, it would be fine if he succeeded in beheading him, but if he failed and the owner of the Tomb of the God of Death escaped, then all his previous arrangements would be in vain.

"Collect the origin of the rules here first."

Qin Chen turned around and quickly darted towards the fallen detached powerhouses.

"receive!"

Rumble!

The terrifying breath surged, and Qin Chen quickly walked between these broken sources of the avenue, and included the sources of rules in the chaotic world to complete the avenue of the chaotic world.

In order not to cause too many changes, Qin Chen only extracted the power of a rule from among these sources to complement the rules of the chaotic world, instead of absorbing all the broken sources.

After all, these broken origins are too little help to Qin Chen now, and the reason why he wants to absorb them is just to complement the rule of law. When Qin Chen was collecting the source of the rules, Wangu Mingzu looked at the depths of Guiwailing, and couldn't help but exclaimed, "Master Chen, the forest ghost king dared to use the moment of the explosion of the Dead Sea source crystal to open the space channel to escape, really crazy can. "

Compared with other detached powerhouses, Wangu Mingzu has a higher level of cultivation and is located far away. When the previous explosion occurred, although he was also located after the aftermath of the impact, everything was blocked by Qin Chen, and the things he perceived were naturally too far away. Just more. At the moment when the aftermath of the explosion hit him, he faintly felt a spatial fluctuation coming from the place where the source crystal of the Dead Sea exploded. Combined with the scene at this moment, Wangu Mingzu concluded that the reason why the Forest Ghost King disappeared was because profit

He used the explosion of the Dead Sea source crystal and used some kind of special space method to escape.

"Before such a terrifying explosion, the void had already turned into a particle flow. At that time, if you dared to use the space escape method, the Forest Ghost King is also a ruthless person. Aren't you afraid that you will be exiled in the space turbulence?"

Wangu Mingzu shook his head. Space escape means cannot be used at any time. As far as the previous situation is concerned, if one is not careful, the Sen Ming ghost king will be swallowed by the rioting space turbulence and exiled in the space turbulence, even with Sen Ming ghost king

It is difficult for him to survive in the turbulent flow of space if his cultivation base is too low.

This is a means of gambling.

On the side, Qin Chen smiled lightly, and he naturally felt the spatial fluctuations, so he couldn't help but chuckled and said, "In that case, does the Forest Ghost King have a better way to escape?"

Hearing this, Wangu Mingzu nodded.

Indeed, in the previous situation, it was already the best solution for the Forest Ghost King. Wangu Mingzu looked at Qin Chen who was quickly collecting the rules and said with a smile: "Master Chen, if my subordinate guessed correctly, the reason why you set up this game earlier was not only to divert your target, but also to let you Death Tomb Lord and Forest Ghost King

Both sides will suffer, let's see if there is a chance for the mantis to catch the cicada and the oriole to follow. ""It's a pity, now that the ghost king of the underworld has escaped, although the owner of the tomb of the death * was injured, he didn't hurt the root. You and I can't guarantee that we can kill him. Once the kill fails, you will expose yourself and suffer to the abandoned place

"Oh? You can actually guess this?" Qin Chen looked at Wan Gu Ming Zu in surprise, and said with a smile.

"Hehe." Wangu Mingzu proudly said: "Young Master Chen, at least my subordinates were generals under the Emperor's command back then, so I still have some vision." This section of dead sea water has fallen into the hands of the ghost king of the underworld. Once the opponent can survive, his strength will increase greatly, which is equivalent to cultivating a great enemy.

Your plan this time is really bad. "Wangu Mingzu looked ugly, sighed and shook his head. The dead sea water is extremely precious, and any section should not be underestimated. Qin Chen let the general of the Mingyan tomb come forward, and lost a section of Dead Sea water. More importantly, he allowed the forest ghost king to have Chance takes control, only to end up with these common rules

Dao, it must be a loss.

And it was a big loss.

boom!

As soon as Qin Chen raised his hand, he collected the last ruled avenue, and then a flash of light flashed in his eyes and said: "Who said that the Forest Ghost King can survive?"

Wangu Mingzu was taken aback.

What does less dust mean?

Qin Chen looked indifferently, and said lightly: "You are right about everything else, but one thing is wrong, and that is my target, and he is the only one, the Forest Ghost King. This time, he will die."

Qin Chen's eyes burst into a cold light.

"But hasn't he already escaped?" Wan Gu Ming Zu couldn't help but ask.

"escape?"

Qin Chen smiled, "Where can he escape in front of this young master?"

As soon as Qin Chen stretched out his hand, the mysterious Rusty Sword suddenly appeared in his hand. He closed his eyes, directly triggering the astonishing Dead Sea water power in the mysterious Rusty Sword.

boom!

An invisible aura emanates from the mysterious rusty sword. This aura is the core force of the Dead Sea's killing intent, arousing the killing intent in the surrounding world.

And between Qin Chen's brows, an invisible pupil opened, carefully sensing the strong killing intent in the void. He who has the spring of the Dead Sea, and who has comprehended part of the killing intent of the Dead Sea, can easily perceive which direction in this world has the killing intent of the Dead Sea. As long as the Ghost King of the Underworld still has the Dead Sea water on him, he will definitely not be able to escape him.

perception.

Did he really think that he left that section of Dead Sea water just to blame the Forest Ghost King?

Under Qin Chen's crazy perception.

I don't know how long it has been.

boom!

Qin Chen's pupils suddenly opened, and his eyes suddenly looked to a place far to the southwest.

"Yes."

There, he vaguely felt a breath of Dead Sea water.

"Walk!"

The next moment, Qin Chen took a step forward, and suddenly rushed towards the void, disappearing between heaven and earth in an instant.

"this..."

In the void, the Myriad Bone Nether Ancestor who stayed there was completely stunned. Did Young Master Chen find the trail of the Forest Underworld Ghost King?

How can it be?

"It means the sea water of the Dead Sea, could it be that..."

Suddenly, thinking of Qin Chen's previous actions, Wan Gu Mingzu was startled.

Lean on.

Could it be that the sea water of the Dead Sea was deliberately left by Young Master Chen for the Ghost King of the Underworld to track it down at this time? He had already expected the current situation?

This...is too calculated, right?

Wan Gu Ming Zu's eyes widened, and he felt chills all over his body.

"Wan Gu, what are you still doing in a daze? Why don't you get over here?"

In the distance, there was an indifferent voice, full of dissatisfaction.

"I..."

Wangu Mingzu was shocked, and he didn't dare to neglect any more, and hurriedly followed up.

horrible! At this moment, there was only one thought left in his mind.

Chapter 5320: Triple detachment, that's it?

The abandoned land is vast and desolate, full of gloomy air, like a cemetery for the dead.

at this time.

In a certain desolate and hidden world in the Abandoned Land, the void suddenly burst open, and a figure in a state of embarrassment fell out of the void, smashing * the ground, making a dull sound.

puff!

As soon as this figure landed, it opened its mouth to spit out a mouthful of dark blood, its face was pale and weak, and it was almost impossible to move.

"Ahem...Tomb Master of the Death God, you bastard, when I survive this time, I will definitely tear your corpse into pieces."

This embarrassed figure stood up with difficulty, and cursed viciously, as if pouring all the water of the Styx River could not dispel the hatred in his heart.

This figure is none other than the Forest Ghost King who escaped from Guikuling in embarrassment.

Previously, in order to escape, the Forest Ghost King was forced to detonate the source crystal of the dead sea, wounding the tomb owner of the death god, and using the terrifying impact caused by the explosion of the source crystal of the dead sea, seized the opportunity to cast a space talisman, and finally escaped.

"This time, if I hadn't possessed the source crystal of the Dead Sea and the space source talisman I got from the remains of the Dead Sea, I'm afraid I would have fallen on the tomb owner of the death god..."

The Forest Ghost King coughed up two mouthfuls of blood again, his whole body was weak, as if he had a serious illness.

"Of course, the most important thing is that I control the Dead Sea water..."

The Forest Ghost King had a thought.

Crash!

A dark long river emerged beside him, flowing slowly, exuding an astonishing killing intent. Seeing the power of this long river, the Forest Ghost King felt horrified and joyful in his heart.

This is the fundamental reason why he dared to detonate the Dead Sea Origin Crystal. "The source crystal of the Dead Sea contains the violent killing intent in the endless Dead Sea, which is similar to the killing intent contained in the sea water of the Dead Sea. I have guessed for a long time that the two are very likely to come from the same source. Looking at it now Come on, sure enough

The Forest Ghost King was ecstatic and excited.

"If the dead sea water hadn't blocked most of the dead sea source crystal's explosion impact for me, given my condition at the time, I was afraid that I would be seriously injured in an instant, so how could I have a chance to activate the space source talisman?" the ghost king of the underworld said silently.

He was actually betting. How terrible is the source crystal of the Dead Sea? Detonating at such a close distance, he couldn't resist it at all, even if he didn't die, he would definitely be dying. At that time, the tomb owner of the death * didn't suffer too many injuries. With his cultivation base and strength, although the dead sea source crystal was terrifying

, but it is not impossible to withstand the impact of the Dead Sea Origin Crystal.

Once the Tomb Master of the Death God survives, after he has withstood the shock, the Forest Ghost King really can only be slaughtered by the opponent.

"At that time, if I hadn't detonated the Dead Sea Origin Crystal, and continued to fight even though I had been attacked and seriously injured by the tomb owner of the Death God, the ending I faced would definitely be the only way to fall, only this Dead Sea Origin Crystal..."

The Forest Ghost King grinned, the corners of his mouth full of blood. Under the circumstances at that time, he knew that he had to detonate the Dead Sea Source Crystal, and his hole card was the Dead Sea water, both of which came from the power of the Dead Sea.

Explode, and have a chance to activate the space source symbol to leave.

It was his only way at the time.

In the end, he won the bet.

When the terrifying impact formed when the Dead Sea source crystal exploded hit the Dead Sea water that surrounded him, he clearly felt a terrifying resistance, which was the resistance from the same source of power. Taking this opportunity, the Underworld Ghost King directly activates the space source talisman, tears the void directly, and escapes Guikuling, and the aftermath of the Dead Sea source crystal explosion will directly cover up the space fluctuations formed by the void he tore, at least it will

It made it impossible for the owner of the death tomb to find the specific direction of his escape afterwards.

"This time, although I was seriously injured, I got the water from the Dead Sea by accident. In the next trip to the forbidden area of the Dead Sea, I will take advantage of others."

Even though he was covered in blood, and even though he was seriously injured, the Forest Ghost King felt unprecedentedly happy in his heart.

At present, he only controls a part of the Dead Sea water. When he recovers from his injuries and fully controls the Dead Sea water, how far will he be promoted?

At that time, he will have no fear of the masters of all restricted areas in the Forsaken Land.

"This place is not safe yet, we have to change places."

The Forest Ghost King looked around vigilantly, thinking for a while.

"With the ruthlessness of the Lord of the Death God's tomb, he will never let me go easily, and will definitely search around, and even go back to my Ghost King Hall..."

"So, the Ghost King Palace is definitely not allowed to go back." Senming Ghost King is also a cunning and cunning person. Although the Ghost King Palace has a restraining formation he arranged, which is the safest place, he knows very well that the Lord of the Tomb of the God of Death will never let him be safe. Back in the ghost king's hall, maybe he had already ambushed halfway up.

The top priority is to heal the injury.

"Here it is..."

In order to prevent the tomb owner of the death * from finding this place based on some clues, the Forest Ghost King quickly set up some traces here, pretending that he had left here, and then quickly sneaked into the depths of the ground here.

one thousand meters.

Ten thousand meters.

One hundred thousand meters.

The underground of the Abandoned Land is a terrifying melting stone. The deeper you go, the greater the pressure. Even the detached strong can't go too deep. If you are not careful, you will be crushed by the terrifying underground pressure.

But the Ghost King of the Underworld kept going down, and finally found a cave that could accommodate him in a place nearly 100,000 miles underground, entered it, and quickly set up a series of restrictions to hide himself in it.

boom!

The Ghost King Senming first urged the Dead Sea water to wash his whole body, and then sat cross-legged, nodding in satisfaction.

"Hmph, when we get to this place, even if the owner of the tomb of the death * has the means to reach the sky, he will never find his trace again."

The Forest Ghost King smiled coldly, very confident.

Even if he has the imprint of the tomb master of the God of Death on his body, he has been washed away by the killing intent in the Dead Sea water before, so there is no need to worry about being found.

After finishing all this, the Ghost King of Forest Underworld coughed again, with blood overflowing from the corner of his mouth.

His injury was too serious, and he couldn't support his too vigorous movements at all.

"The wound must be healed as soon as possible." The ghost king of Sen Ming had a cold look in his eyes.

"Shua."

Some healing medicines quickly appeared in his hands, and he sat cross-legged, swallowed these healing medicines, and the invisible breath of the medicines surrounded his body, and his whole body was quickly immersed in cultivation and healing.

And when the Forest Ghost King was healing his wounds.

Abandoned land.

The news of the battle between the Ghost King of the Underworld and the Tomb Master of the Death God at Ghost Crying Ridge also spread at an alarming speed, and soon spread back to the core city of the Abandoned Land—The Abandoned City.

The Abandoned City is a city built by the strong in the entire Abandoned Land. It has been built from generation to generation for hundreds of millions of years, and it is the most magnificent city in the entire Abandoned Land.

Here, there are forces stationed in the major restricted areas all year round, used for communication and communication, and it is also a transfer station for all news.

When the news came, the entire abandoned city was instantly shaken.

"What? The Forest Underworld Ghost King fought against the Lord of Death's Tomb, and the Forest Underworld Ghost King was seriously injured, and he detonated the Dead Sea Origin Crystal to escape?"

"Sen Ming Ghost King obtained a stream of water from the Dead Sea spring somehow, and was able to control it. It seems that he has the method to control the power of the Dead Sea?"

"The Yin energy in the forbidden area of Ghost Crying Ridge disappeared mysteriously, and it was almost turned into ruins under the great battle?"

"The Dead Sea source crystal exploded, affecting many transcendents, and nearly twenty transcendents fell in World War I?"

"Check, find out what's going on."

A piece of news quickly spread in the various restricted areas, causing an uproar.

In the abandoned land, there are many restricted areas, and it is normal for them to fight and even kill each other.

After all, the people in the Abandoned Land are all prisoners held here, who is not a lawless person?

But usually the people below fight with each other and grab the territory.

Such a situation where the masters of the two major restricted areas are fighting to the death has almost rarely happened.

Under normal circumstances, at most, there will be some conflicts between the masters of the restricted area in order to compete for treasures in the depths of the Dead Sea.

But only to the point.

This time, the Ghost King of the Underworld actually attracted the source crystal of the Dead Sea. How could people not be shocked by such news.

And the most frightening thing was the strong man who was the first to leave Guikuling at that time.

"Fortunately, I was sensible at the time and left directly."

"The battle of the Lord of the Forbidden Zone, how can I get involved? If I hadn't left at that time, I'm afraid I'd be seriously injured when the source crystal of the Dead Sea exploded."

"fine."

These people patted their chests and felt palpitations.

Fortunately, they ran fast, otherwise even if they didn't die at that time, they might be seriously injured.

In a place like the Forsaken, serious injury is tantamount to putting oneself in danger.

In an instant, the news centered on the Abandoned City and quickly spread throughout the Abandoned Land.

In an ancient palace in the Forsaken Lands.

A figure covered in endless black energy suddenly stood up. As soon as he stood up, the surrounding area was full of dark energy, rushing towards all directions like a vast ocean.

"The Ghost King of the Underworld is suspected of controlling the power of the Dead Sea water? The forbidden area of the Dead Sea is about to open, so we must find out."

boom!

The figure stepped forward, and a terrifying aura shot up from the ancient palace, quickly disappeared, and stormed towards the Ghost King Palace.

In another gloomy canyon, this is where the forbidden zone is located.

"Brother Sen Ming doesn't know whether he is alive or dead? Control the power of the Dead Sea water?"

An old man who also exuded a terrifying aura, with faint flames emanating from his eye sockets, disappeared without a trace.

In the abandoned land, on top of a pitch-black mountain reaching to the sky, this is where the restricted area is called Kongming Mountain.

"Hahaha, the tomb master of the death * and the ghost king of the underworld are fighting to the death? The forbidden area of the Dead Sea is about to open. Is there some secret?"

A resounding loud laugh sounded, and then a ray of magic light soared into the sky, turning into a vast ocean of magic energy that covered the sky and blotted out the sun.

"Congratulations, Old Demon Kongming!"

Among the mountain peaks, countless powerhouses felt this breath, knelt down one after another, and bowed their heads in salute.

In an instant, the entire abandoned land, the masters of many restricted areas were alarmed and rushed to the Ghost King Hall.

Wouldn't it be too boring not to take a look at such a big event?

Of course, not all the masters of the restricted area will go there, and some masters of the restricted area will not be moved. They just send their subordinates to investigate and order that the forest ghost king must be found out.

For a while, the entire abandoned land was searching for the seriously injured Forest Ghost King. After all, he possessed the secret of the Dead Sea, who wouldn't want to know it?

No one knows that at this time, the Forest Ghost King is in the ground of a barren and hidden place in the abandoned land, practicing healing.

After all, the abandoned land is too vast, how difficult is it to find a deliberately hidden master of the restricted area?

And at this time.

Somewhere in the void of the abandoned land, two streamers of light are flying quickly.

It was Qin Chen and Wangu Mingzu.

"Young Master Chen, can you really find the trace of the Forest Ghost King?" Wangu Mingzu couldn't help but raise his head: "Why can't I feel anything in this world?"

"I can't find the Forest Ghost King. Is Master taking you for a walk?" Qin Chen glanced lightly at Wangu Mingzu, his brows and eyes opened, and he kept sensing the position of the dead air ahead.

"Uh..." Myriad Bone Mingzu choked suddenly, and didn't know how to answer. "Wan Gu, don't you only have one remnant soul left? The power that your remnant soul can draw is extremely weak now. When you meet the master of the restricted area, it may be a bit troublesome to save your life in this abandoned place. Don't you want to improve yourself?" At this time, Qin Chen suddenly

Of course.

"Young Master Chen, my subordinates also want to improve themselves, but now there is only one remnant soul left under my subordinates. If I want to recover, it is impossible without top-level ghosts. How can such treasures be so easy to find?" Wangu Mingzu shook his head with a wry smile.

Restoring the remnant soul is extremely difficult. If the emperor is still there, and supplemented by the top-level soul treasure, it may be possible, otherwise, it will be as difficult as reaching the sky.

"What if the Forest Ghost King gave it to you?" Qin Chen asked suddenly.

"Young Master Chen, are you going to give me the soul source of the Forest Ghost King?"

Wangu Mingzu was stunned, pondered for a moment, and said, "The Forest Underworld Ghost King is transcended from the eternal realm. If he can devour the source of his soul, although the remnant souls of his subordinates cannot be completely restored, they should be able to recover almost 10% of their souls. force."

"Just 10%?" Qin Chen frowned. "Young Master Chen, no matter what your subordinates say, he is a former triple peak detached powerhouse, one of the seven top generals under the emperor's command back then. more than one hundred thousand Eight thousand miles, 10% can be recovered, or because the remnant souls of the subordinates have already repaired a lot. "Wangu Mingzu said proudly.

"Ten percent is too little."

Qin Chen shook his head. There are many masters in the restricted area of the Abandoned Land. Next, he will go to the core of the Abandoned Land. He also intends to cultivate the Myriad Bone Nether Ancestor. bring yourself enough enough help.

"What if I give you the body of the Forest Ghost King?" Qin Chen said, "It's too difficult to completely restore your soul. strength?"

"Into the flesh?"

Wangu Mingzu frowned, "Young Master Chen, do you want your subordinates to take over the Forest Underworld Ghost King? No, the Forest Underworld Ghost King is so weak, isn't it a big loss for your subordinates?"

Entering the master's body, if the spirit and soul are perfectly fused, then the body of the Forest Underworld Ghost King will be his body. To be honest, Wan Gu Ming Zu is a little disgusted.

Qin Chen said in a deep voice: "Don't worry, it's not about becoming the master forever. It's just using his soul sea to nourish your soul, and you can use his body to recover a certain amount of combat power. Otherwise, with your current cultivation base... it's too useless." ."

Qin Chen glanced at Wan Gu Ming Zu, very direct.

"I..."

Wangu Mingzu's face turned red, and he almost spat out dirty words.

I was actually despised? Damn, I am also...

The thought in his mind didn't stop, feeling the aura on Qin Chen's body now, Wangu Mingzu suddenly froze.

Indeed, the current him is faintly unattractive, after all, he is just a remnant soul, unable to exert too much strength.

"If you become the master of the Forest Ghost King, give your subordinates time to recover to their peak, and they should have 30% of their combat strength..." Wangu Mingzu thought carefully and came to a conclusion.

"Only 30%?" Qin Chen frowned.

Wangu Mingzu hurriedly said: "Young Master Chen, this subordinate was..."

"Get to the point." Qin Chen interrupted. "Thirty percent of combat strength is already quite a lot." Wangu Mingzu said angrily, "The Mori Underworld Ghost King's cultivation base is too weak, and he was able to recover thirty percent because of the Wanming Glazed Bone. down and death in its prime

There is absolutely no problem in fighting the Lord of the Tomb of God. "

"oh?"

When Qin Chen heard this, he couldn't help but glance at Wan Gu Ming Zu.

If so, then Wangu Mingzu's strength back then was indeed not weak.

It should be noted that the owner of the tomb of the * of death has also reached the late stage of the triple eternal order state, and his own strength in his heyday was not weak.

Only 30% is enough to match it, Wangu Mingzu has indeed reached the peak in the realm of detachment.

"Young Master Chen, do you really want to give the Forest Ghost King to your subordinates?" Wan Gu Ming Zu couldn't help being a little excited at this moment. Although the cultivation level of the ghost king of the forest is not high, it is very uncomfortable to have no physical body for so many years. If he can become the master of the ghost king of the forest and use his spirit to nourish himself, it will have a repairing effect on the remnant soul Absolutely good number

More than double.

"Shut up."

Qin Chen spoke indifferently and directly interrupted Wangu Mingzu.

In his heart, however, divine thoughts surged.

If it can really restore 30%, it is indeed worth a try.

"Hmph, you were the one who said yes, and you were the one who said no. If it's a big deal, don't give it, what's wrong with it!"

Wangu Mingzu let out a groan in his heart.

However, the flying speed increased, and he followed closely, and his figure was much lighter.

After a while.

Swish!

In the void where the Forest Ghost King fell before, two figures suddenly appeared at an unknown time.

The leading figure is a young man with an indifferent face. His whole body is plain and unpretentious. Even if he walks in the underworld, he is not inconspicuous, as if he has blended into the avenue of heaven and earth.

Beside him is a floating crystal skull, surrounded by a dark aura, which can be seen at a glance.

It was Qin Chen and Wangu Mingzu who were following them.

"Young Master Chen, is the Forest Ghost King here?" Wangu Mingzu looked around, became extremely active, and searched quickly. No matter whether Qin Chen would give it or not, he at least had a glimmer of hope.

boom!

A trace of invisible soul breath suddenly diffused out and merged into the void.

After a while, Wangu Mingzu showed a look of surprise: "Young Master Chen, there is really a faint space fluctuation here. Although it is extremely subtle, it is definitely a top-level space fluctuation."

Wangu Mingzu was extremely excited.

The spatial fluctuations in this place are extremely subtle. If Qin Chen hadn't told him first, he would have preconceived and deliberately perceived it, and he might not have been able to perceive the changes here if he just passed by like this.

Less dust, great!

Qin Chen raised his head, felt it carefully, and said in a deep voice: "This place should be the first scene of the Forest Ghost King after he escaped from Guikuling." "The first scene?" Suddenly, his brows frowned: "Young Master Chen, although there are traces of spatial fluctuations here, with the vigilance of the Forest Ghost King, he certainly didn't stay here for too long. Now there are countless

The traces of Tao leaving point to different directions, how to track them? "

In just a moment, Wangu Mingzu sensed several traces of departure, which made his heart sink.

How should this be tracked?

At this time, Wangu Mingzu was very anxious. He already regarded the Forest Ghost King as his own, and he was even more nervous than Qin Chen.

"Several traces in different directions?"

Qin Chen carefully perceives that there are indeed several traces pointing in different directions around here.

"Young Master Chen, each of these traces may be true. It is definitely too late to search for them one by one. Why don't you and I act separately? Send a message when we find it?" Wan Gu Ming Zu anxiously said.

"No hurries?"

Qin Chen snorted coldly, and frowned. Between his brows, a pupil suddenly appeared, staring in all directions.

"Um?"

Suddenly, he seemed to feel something, and suddenly looked at his feet.

"interesting."

The next moment, Qin Chen smiled, and in the depths of the ground, he vaguely felt a faint killing intent from the Dead Sea.

underground.

"Come with me."

With a low shout, Qin Chen's figure flickered, and he suddenly dived into the ground.

Wangu Mingzu also hurriedly followed.

In the depths of the ground, the ghost king of the dark forest is cultivating cross-legged. A trace of power surrounds his body, forming a terrifying aura of dark forest, repairing his body and soul.

But such a force hardly escaped at all, it was all blocked by the dead sea water and the surrounding restraining force, and the outside world couldn't perceive it at all.

It can be said that in the depths of thousands of miles underground, coupled with such isolation, even a strong person at the triple peak detachment level may not be able to perceive the breath of the Forest Ghost King.

However.

At this time, not far away from the Forest Underworld Ghost King, two figures suddenly appeared quietly, and their eyes fell on the Forest Underworld Ghost King in the distance.

"It's really here." Qin Chen smiled, with a cold light in his eyes.

This ghost king of the dark forest is really a good method. He set up a few traces of leaving, but the main body is thousands of miles deep in the ground. If he could not sense the killing intent of the dead sea, he might have escaped by the ghost king of the dark forest.

"Young Master Chen, this kid is really hiding here, and he was almost tricked by this kid."

Wangu Mingzu looked at Qin Chen excitedly, his eyes were sharp, and he said, "Young Master Chen, while the Forest Ghost King is seriously injured, let's go up and destroy him now, and don't give him a chance to recover."

Wangu Mingzu couldn't help but feel excited, he moved his body, and he couldn't wait to kill him.

Now the ghost king of the underworld is healing, the longer it takes, the more disadvantageous it will be.

"Don't worry." Qin Chen glanced at him coldly, "Listen to my orders."

A triple detachment, even if it is seriously injured, who knows what else to do, so it is natural to be careful.

Swish!

Qin Chen sneaked in carefully, and gradually approached the Forest Ghost King.

Hearing the words, Wangu Mingzu could only stop and follow Qin Chen closer.

at this time.

In the cave, the Forest Ghost King really closed his eyes to practice.

A Dao Senming breath poured into his body, constantly repairing various injuries in his body.

"The tomb owner of the death * is really abominable. He injured me so badly. Damn it, really * it."

Sensing the repaired physical body and origin, the ghost king of Sen Ming had a gloomy face, full of resentment in his heart.

This time, his injury was really too serious, not only his physical body was damaged, but his soul also suffered a huge blow, which can be described as full of scars. "If it weren't for the fact that I have accumulated many treasures over the years, some of which contain powerful repairing powers, which are enough to quickly heal my injuries, otherwise I don't know what to do, but even so, I want to completely repair

, at least it will take several months. "

The Forest Ghost King's face was extremely ugly.

After this healing, he already knew his physical condition, the damage to the soul, the damage to the source, and the damage to the physical body, no matter which one it was, it was not easy to heal, and it required a lot of energy.

These are nothing, the key is time.

Now it is less than three months before the opening of the Dead Sea Forbidden Area, if you can't recover from your injuries before the opening of the Dead Sea Forbidden Area, I'm afraid it will be troublesome.

and...

The consciousness of the Forest Ghost King sank into the sea of souls.

Rumble! I saw that the soul sea of the Forest Ghost King was filled with terrifying forest breath, and the rolling sea of souls was surging, but above this sea of souls, there was a breath of death constantly circulating, corroding his soul, and still trying to infiltrate his body.

In the soul.

This is the remnant soul left by the soul attack of the tomb master of the death god's sneak attack. "The power of death of the tomb master of the death * is extremely terrifying. I am afraid that it has touched the extreme of the eternal order. This power remains in my mind and is almost eternal. If I want to completely eliminate it, I am afraid it will be extremely difficult to spend some time. Difficult to do

."

The Forest Ghost King's face was gloomy.

The triple detachment represents the eternal order. The power of rules formed by their attacks exists almost forever and will not be destroyed. It is extremely difficult to clear it.

Except for the soul sea.

There is also a terrifying force of death circulating in the fleshly origin of the Forest Ghost King. Even now, the power that the death scythe penetrated into his body cannot be eliminated easily. "No, if this continues, it will take at least several months to fully recover. By that time, the forbidden area of the Dead Sea may have been opened. We must find a chance to return to the Ghost King Palace, enter the Ghost King Pool, and use the essence in the Ghost King Pool to nourish the flesh.

body, it is possible to fully recover before the Dead Sea restricted area is opened, otherwise..."

The Ghost King of Forest Underworld opened his eyes, a cold light flickered in his pupils.

The forbidden area of the Dead Sea is full of dangers. Only when he recovers his full cultivation can he be confident that he can survive in the depths of the Dead Sea.

"However, the owner of the tomb of the death * will definitely stare at my Ghost King Palace. Once I go back, I will be discovered by him. What should I do?"

The Ghost King of Forest Dark had an ugly expression on his face.

If you don't go back to the Ghost King Hall, you won't be able to fully recover from your injuries, but if you go back to the Ghost King Hall, you will be ambushed by the Lord of the Death God's Tomb, which is a dilemma. "Don't worry about that much, try to repair the injury as much as possible. It really won't work. After I recover most of my cultivation base, I will go to Luohun Valley, find the old devil Xuangui, and go back to the Ghost King Palace together. With my friendship with the old devil Xuangui, Let him help, should Shouldn't be a problem. "

"However, I wish I could give him some benefits."

The Forest Ghost King's thoughts were surging, his eyes were cold.

After so many years in the abandoned land, he naturally has some friends, all of whom are the masters of the restricted area, and they are by no means alone. But the so-called friends are by no means so reliable in the face of absolute interests. If the other party knows that he has controlled the waters of the Dead Sea, he may have to share a piece of the pie.

"Let's repair the injury as much as possible first."

The Forest Ghost King said silently, and slowly closed his eyes.

However, the moment he closed his eyes, suddenly, an inexplicable sense of crisis emerged in his heart.

This hint of crisis, with throbbing, made his heart startled.

At the same time, an invisible force, like a dream bubble, instantly enveloped the endless void around.

What?

The Ghost King Sen Ming was startled, and suddenly opened his eyes.

boom!

A terrifying dark aura surged out of his body like a vast ocean, sweeping out recklessly.

"Forest Domain!"

The first time he felt the crisis, he directly released his forest realm, and quickly wanted to cover the void within a radius of ten thousand miles. However, the moment his Forest Domain was released, he suddenly felt that the void was like a solidified quagmire. The spread of his Forest Domain in the void was like a tortoise crawling, and it made a crackling sound. forward Unprecedented resistance.

Domain coverage?

Could it be that the owner of the tomb of the * of death came?

This time, the Forest Ghost King was so frightened that he almost lost his wits.

I managed to hide here, how did the owner of the tomb of the * of death know his location?

Kakaka.

However, when he carefully perceived the domain aura that enveloped him, the Ghost King of Dark Forest was stunned, because this aura was completely different from the death domain of the tomb master of the death god, and it was another unique domain aura.

"Hehehe, Lord Senming Ghost King is really strong. He is so seriously injured, but he can still perceive Ben Shao's attack. I really admire him!"

A rather young rumbling roar echoed between the heaven and the earth, with teasing and ridicule, and it came from nowhere.

"who?"

The Forest Underworld Ghost King yelled out in fright, and punched directly towards the place where the sound resounded.

boom!

The void directly tore open an astonishing gully, blasting a huge crack in the ground, but the front was empty, there was no one at all.

"Is this how Lord Senming Ghost King greets guests?" A chuckle sounded again, and Senming Ghost King immediately saw a figure slowly emerging not far away. This figure was extremely young, with a stern face, standing quietly in the distance, looking at him with a half-smile, that look, as if

Looking at the lamb waiting to be slaughtered on the cutting board.

That look made Sen Ming Ghost King extremely uncomfortable.

"Who are you?"

Forest Ghost King's pupils shrank, because he had never seen the person in front of him before.

When did such a master appear in the abandoned land? He shouted sharply, but his spiritual sense quickly spread to the surroundings, wanting to see if there were other people around him. Seeing this, he felt a little relieved, because in the depths of the ground, except for the person in front of him, no one else no other traces of breath

At least, there is no breath of the tomb owner of the death god.

"It's not the tomb owner of the Death God."

The breath that was raised in the heart of the Forest Underworld Ghost King fell more than half in an instant.

What he was most worried about was that the owner of the tomb of the * of death came here, and it was not the owner of the tomb of the * of death, so it would be much safer.

"Are you looking for the tomb owner of Death God?"

Seeing the Forest Ghost King looking around, Qin Chen couldn't help but smiled.

"How do you know?" Forest Ghost King was taken aback.

"Don't worry about the Tomb Master of the Death God, he won't find this place." Qin Chen smiled, looking into the eyes of the Forest Underworld Ghost King, revealing a hint of excitement.

A master of the restricted area with triple detachment.

Although he was seriously injured, at least it was more suitable for a confrontation than the Wangu Mingzu who was in the state of the remnant soul before. After finally breaking through the Myriad God Realm, Qin Chen had never really fought against top experts.

"kill!"

With a flicker of his figure, Qin Chen almost didn't hesitate, and rushed directly to the Forest Ghost King.

boom!

A terrifying space-killing punch power, like a wave of heavy waves, smashed layers of underground voids, and instantly came in front of the Forest Ghost King.

"you..."

The Ghost King of Senming didn't expect Qin Chen to do it as soon as he said he would do it, and with a roar, his body suddenly became extremely tall.

Boom, a terrifying ghostly aura shot up from his body. At this time, the ghost king of the dark forest hardly dared to hold back anything. Like a frightened bird, he immediately unleashed his strongest attack .

The astonishing forest energy quickly gathered together, combined with the forest domain around the forest ghost king, turned into a pitch-black fist shadow, and collided with Qin Chen's attack instantly.

boom!

Like a comet hitting the earth, two forces collided in the void, and an indescribably terrifying shock wave turned into circular ripples and swept in all directions.

In an instant, the endless rocks within a radius of thousands of miles were directly turned into powder and shattered, and cracks like baby's mouths appeared in the void.

boom!

The Ghost King of Forest Underworld only felt a terrifying force coming, which made him take a few steps back on the spot, and with a bang, the underground rock behind him was directly shattered.

On the other side, Qin Chen just swayed his body, and despite the terrifying impact of the Forest Ghost King hitting his body, he remained completely motionless.

"This is the strength of triple detachment? Seems like normal?"

Qin Chen showed suspicion.

The attack power of the Forest Ghost King is much weaker than he imagined.

"you..."

The Forest Ghost King looked shocked and angry, and his heart was extremely angry. When will any cat or dog despise him? If he hadn't been seriously injured and hadn't healed, how could he be repelled so easily?

"Who is your Excellency? Between you and me, there is no hatred in the past and no hatred in the present, so why not..."

"It's not as good as you big-headed ghost, who said that we have no grievances in the past and no hatred in the present, come again!"

Before Qin Chen could wait for the Ghost King of the Underworld to finish his sentence, he rushed over again.

Rumble!

Qin Chen didn't use any special means, he just used his physical body and his omnipotent power to confront the enemy and prove the difference between himself and the triple detachment.

"The power of everything?"

On the opposite side, the ghost king Sen Ming also felt the videntane breath from Qin Chen's body, and suddenly trembled with anger.

This guy in front of him actually used the power of everything to deal with him, which is simply an insult to himself.

"you wanna die."

With a roar, the Forest Ghost King turned into a dark afterimage, exploded into the void, and directly greeted him.

Can not be refunded.

When we meet on a narrow road, the brave wins.

The Forest Ghost King knew very well that he couldn't retreat in the current situation. Once he retreated, he would definitely be enveloped by the opponent's aura and fall into crisis instead.

In an instant, the ghost king Sen Ming and Qin Chen turned into two afterimages and collided with each other.

Boom boom boom! Astonishing roars resounded through the heaven and earth, Qin Chen and the Ghost King of the Underworld collided head-on. With one punch, the Ghost King of the Underworld retreated a step. can't hold back

. In an instant, Qin Chen and the Ghost King of the Underworld exchanged hundreds of punches. From the first step back, the Ghost King of the Underworld turned into a cannonball with the last punch. subterranean rock, the Only then did he stabilize his figure.

With a puff, the Forest Ghost King opened his mouth and spit out a mouthful of blood. The countless underground rocks behind him were directly turned into powder under this shock wave, and his face was extremely pale.

"How is it possible, how can your omnipotent power be so terrifying that it can resist the power of this seat's eternal rules... Impossible."

The Forest Ghost King raised his head and looked at Qin Chen in horror, unable to believe his eyes.

He could clearly feel that the power of all phenomena emerging from Qin Chen's body was indeed the power of all phenomena, but his rules of the forest were unable to tear this force of all phenomena, which is simply a fantasy.

"It seems that you are indeed injured enough to be boring."

Qin Chen shook his head.

I thought that the Forest Ghost King had some ability to prove his own strength, but now it seems that Qin Chen is extremely disappointed.

Is this the strength of the Eternal Order Realm?

Qin Chen could only attribute this to the fact that the Forest Ghost King was already seriously injured.

"In this case, there is no need to continue playing."

Qin Chen sneered, and walked towards the Forest Ghost King step by step.

boom!

The terrifying murderous aura instantly swept towards the Forest Underworld Ghost King like a vast ocean.

"How can this killing intent be so terrifying?"

The Forest Ghost King looked terrified, under such a murderous aura, his whole body was like a flat boat on the sea with strong wind and waves, ready to be destroyed at any time.

"Compared to killing intent? Are you better than me?"

The Ghost King of Forest Underworld roared. Up to now, he still has a hole card that he has not used.

"Boom!" Accompanied by his burst of shouting, streaks of jet-black seawater quickly appeared beside him. It was the seawater of the Dead Sea, and the seawater of the Dead Sea surged out directly, turning into a long black river that continuously circled around. tear apart the void

"Break it!"

The terrifying killing intent from the Dead Sea pervaded the air, trying to tear apart the terrifying domain aura that surrounded him.

This is the biggest trump card of the Ghost King of the Underworld. He used this dead sea water to escape from the tomb owner of the death * before.

At this critical moment, he did it again without hesitation.

However, what made him angry was that after the Dead Sea water under his control swept out, he couldn't easily tear apart the opponent's domain aura. It just formed a unique defensive circle around his body, and he couldn't penetrate the power.

"How can it be?"

He was shocked. You know, the horror of killing intent contained in the Dead Sea water is enough to tear apart the Death Domain of the tomb owner of the Death God, but how can the domain formed by this kid in front of him be so terrifying? He didn't even suffer from his dead sea

The influence of killing intent.

"Hehe, is this your hole card?"

Qin Chen chuckled.

"You...Dead Sea water, die!"

The Dark Ghost King's face turned red, and he directly attracted the sea water of the Dead Sea with a ferocious expression. In an instant, the sea water of the Dead Sea exploded and rushed towards Qin Chen in a mighty way.

It was unbelievable to the Ghost King of the Underworld that, facing the impact of his Dead Sea water attack, the guy in front of him did not dodge or dodge, and he let the vast Dead Sea sea water swallow him in an instant.

boom! The endless dead sea water wrapped Qin Chen in an instant and enveloped it directly.
