

Valkyrie 5431

Chapter 5431: Are you double detached?

This is inevitable, the aura of the great emperor is supreme, when Emperor Shimei was suppressed by the main hall, he was accidentally attacked by Jialuo Mingzu, sacrificed the four quasi-emperors and many detached powerhouses were bound under the four-element spirit formation.

For these years, she tried her best to get out of trouble day and night. Although her mind and soul are damaged, she cannot be restrained easily. The endless surge of imperial energy shakes all directions and destroys the world.

bang! The big formation rumbled, and the four quasi-emperor treasures trembled continuously. They were firmly suppressed by this great emperor's aura, and the light on the surface of the treasures dimmed instantly, like a candle in the wind, flickering and flickering, no longer the grandeur and domineeringness before.

As if it was about to burst at any moment.

creak! In the void, there was an ear-piercing roar. Emperor Shimei grasped the black chain of order wrapped around himself with his slender hands, and pulled it hard with his jade-like fingers, and the black chain of order made a tooth-piercing piercing roar.

, triggering endless avenues and power.

boom!

Her arm is as white as jade, obviously extremely weak and slender, and has strands of translucent scales, exuding a strange brilliance and charm, but when she pulls it, the power that erupts is enough to move mountains and seas, pick stars and moons.

"Not good!" There was a bang, and amidst the terrifying aura, the faces of Wulong Guizu and others changed drastically, and they retreated one after another. While their faces were flushed, the formation flag they controlled was shaking violently, like a small boat in a stormy sea. ready to shatter

"snort."

But at this moment, Qin Chen snorted coldly, and the mysterious rusty sword suddenly appeared in his hand, and it was raised towards the sky above the hall like lightning.

"Condensation!"

hum!

Accompanied by Qin Chen's stern shout, a terrifying murderous sword aura surged into the sky, flooding into the sky of the hall in an instant.

What is he going to do? There was a hint of doubt in everyone's mind, and they all looked up in horror. The next moment, under the incredible eyes of everyone, the sword energy in Qin Chen's hand resonated instantly with the secret pattern restriction of the entire hall up.

In the sky above the main hall, countless secret pattern restrictions were lit up one after another, and a terrifying aura instantly lingered around the entire hall, as if a **** descended, instantly suppressing everyone.

"boom!"

After the endless coercion was suppressed, Emperor Shimei let out a coquettish snort, his face changed drastically, he looked up at the sky above the hall, his eyes revealed disbelief.

"How can it be?"

She murmured, her small cherry mouth opened and closed, filled with endless shock: "You actually... triggered the secret pattern restriction in this hall?"

incredible.

She has been trapped in this place for hundreds of millions of years, and she has continuously comprehended the restriction of the secret lines here. Over the years, she has gained a lot of experience, otherwise it is impossible to get rid of the suppression of the four-element spirit formation. But even so, she can only say that she has only a half-knowledge of the secret pattern restriction in this place, but at this moment, Qin Chen actually triggered the secret pattern restriction above the hall, which means that the other party's comprehension of the secret pattern restriction, even in her superior.

How long has this talent been here?

At least the last round of the Dead Sea forbidden area was opened, and Qin Chen was definitely not among the crowd. How could he have such a terrible understanding of the secret pattern prohibition here in this short period of time?

At this moment, Emperor Shi Mei's heart was disturbed.

boom! Suppressed by the terrifying aura, the four-element spirit formation that had been trembling violently stabilized quickly. Under the aura restricted by the secret pattern, it was as strong as Emperor Shimei, and he was powerless to break free.

Get up.

"This son... is extraordinary. This is not going to work. We must restore our strength as soon as possible." Emperor Shimei looked at Qin Chen's eyes with "resentment". The hall's secret pattern prohibits stronger suppression, the most urgent task is to restore strength

If her cultivation returns to its full strength, how can she be suppressed like this?

boom!

Abnormal divine light flowed all over her body, her long snake tail hovered, and endless strange aura bloomed, frantically devouring hundreds of powers that transcended the original source and the power of Jia Luo Mingzu.

"ah!"

Jialuo Mingzu screamed, his whole body was slowly drying up, the source was quickly absorbed, and he was powerless to resist, as if he was caught in a urn.

"Want to restore your cultivation?"

Qin Chen narrowed his eyes slightly, and said with a sneer, "I have been planning for so long, how can I allow you to take advantage of it?"

The voice fell.

Qin Chen suddenly raised his hand.

boom!

A vast breath of ghost beasts appeared between the sky and the earth in an instant. When this breath appeared between the heavens and the earth, the entire hall was filled with a strong dead sea breath.

Sea God's Fountain.

This thing is exactly the Sea God's Spring that Qin Chen obtained from the ancestral land of the Wraith Beast Clan.

At this moment, around the Sea God's Spring, there are still terrifying killing intent crystals scattered all over, which are exactly the killing intent crystal mines obtained by Qin Chen.

After doing all this, Qin Chen sat cross-legged in the Sea God's Fountain, and began to quickly absorb the power of the Sea God's Fountain and the Dead Sea spar.

But that's not enough.

In the Sea God's Spring, Qin Chen activated the four quasi-emperor treasures, and suddenly activated the entire formation. With a bang, Qin Chen slowly introduced the hundreds of detached powers in the formation into his own body. in the body.

boom!

Qin Chen's aura quickly became mellow and perfect.

These hundreds of detached powers are left by the masters of many restricted areas who have been beheaded by Jialuo Mingzu for countless years, and they contain the power of many rules of the road that these masters of restricted areas have mastered.

The power of these avenues and rules is of great benefit to Qin Chen in perfecting his own power of the three thousand avenues of the underworld. At this time, Qin Chen was very grateful that before he entered the forbidden area of the Dead Sea, in order to break through, he transferred part of the power of the Sea God's Spring and the power of the killing intent crystal mine from the chaotic world to his body, otherwise even if he wanted to break through at this moment

, I am afraid that there is not enough strength.

Without the Seagod's Spring and the Killing Intent Crystal Mine, he simply wouldn't have enough strength to break through.

At the moment when a lot of power poured into Qin Chen's body, a terrifying breath shot up from Qin Chen's body instantly, lingering in the void of the entire hall.

boom!

The aura on Qin Chen's body rose rapidly under the watchful eyes of everyone.

A misty phantom quickly condensed behind Qin Chen.

This phantom is extremely majestic, like a god, with a pair of icy eyes staring at everyone present, giving them a strong sense of oppression.

"Vientiane Phantom... Isn't this... the Vientiane Phantom?"

"What's going on? Brother Mingzhu is making a breakthrough? But the aura on his body..."

At this moment, everyone was dumbfounded.

The weakest one present is also the master of the restricted area of the triple detachment level, and he can't understand the power of the myriad of gods very well. The towering phantom behind Qin Chen is clearly the power of the double detachment of the myriad of gods.

But now Qin Chen wants to break through, what is he going to do with his phantom?

"You... you... actually just transcended the double myriad phenomena realm?"

But at this moment, Emperor Shimei looked at Qin Chen in shock, his mouth suddenly opened into an O shape, and there was endless horror in his eyes.

She could tell at a glance that although the aura on Qin Chen's body was terrifying, it was only in the second stage of the Vientiane Divine Appearance realm, not even the triple eternal order realm.

The breakthrough Qin Chen is making now is to break through from the second stage of the Myriad God Realm to the third stage of the Eternal Order Realm.

"Double Myriad Phenomena Divine Aspect Realm? Isn't Brother Master Ming beyond the triple eternal order realm?"

"No, Brother Ming clearly used the Order Realm before, how could he not be in the Eternal Order Realm?"

"What's the matter?"

Hearing the words of Emperor Shimei, all the masters of the restricted area were also stunned.

How can this be?

They shook their heads crazily, even if they were killed, they couldn't believe that Qin Chen was just a detachment of the second-level Myriad God Realm.

It should be noted that transcending the three heavens, the one heaven and the earth. No matter how strong a double transcendence is, it is impossible to be an opponent of a triple transcendence, and Qin Chen not only defeated all the masters of the restricted area on the field before, even the quasi-emperor powerhouse like Jialuo Mingzu was defeated by him, how could only

Is it the realm of double myriad phenomena?

If Qin Chen was only at the second level of detachment, what would the tomb master of the death god, the ancestor of the shadow devil and other strong people who died in his hands think?

But the scene in front of them at this moment, as well as the double aura emanating from Qin Chen's body, made them have to believe that Qin Chen was really just a double myriad of gods.

After all, with the respect of the Great Emperor Shimei, how could he misunderstand his cultivation?

"Oh My God..."

"Double detachment, Brother Ming is only a double detachment."

"hiss!"

All kinds of sounds of falling to the ground were heard endlessly. At this moment, the shock in everyone's hearts was even stronger than seeing the trapped Emperor Shimei for the first time.

Such a strong impact made everyone's minds go blank, and they were about to go crazy for a while.

And the most shocked person in the crowd was Jialuo Mingzu.

He was firmly imprisoned there, his eyes glazed over, as if his soul had been sucked away.

"Hmph, what do you know?"

Suddenly, a triumphant cold snort resounded through the world.

But it is the ancestor of the myriad bones. "What is the identity of Lord Underworld? He is the most supreme existence in this world. He came to save the entire underworld. It is easy to kill triple transcendence with a second-level cultivation base, let alone triple transcendence.

If the lord reveals his identity, even the emperor and the strong will bow their heads and bow their heads, kowtow on their knees. "Wangu Mingzu turned his head to look at Emperor Shimei, and said proudly: "Emperor Shimei, this ancestor gives you a piece of advice as the confidant of Emperor Youming, now there is still time to kneel down and submit to Lord Mingzhu, otherwise you will know Offend the Lord of the Underworld

What a stupid thing people can be. "

"Emperor Youming's confidant?"

Emperor Shimei looked at Wangu Mingzu, his pupils shrank slightly.

She didn't care about Wangu Mingzu before, but at this moment, Wangu Mingzu's words made her heart tremble.

And when she was in palpitations.

boom!

The aura on Qin Chen's body rose rapidly, and an endless aura of order swept across his body. Countless powers of order and rules flowed out of Qin Chen's body.

Chapter 5432: core way

boom!

After devouring the power of many order rules, Qin Chen finally broke through to the triple detachment realm.

A terrifying aura of order frantically condensed in his body.

"Triple detachment, really triple detachment."

"Master Underworld is really breaking through the triple eternal order realm."

"It's unbelievable. Before I waited, I was always suppressed and beaten by a double detachment of the Vientiane God Realm..."

"A monstrous evildoer in the world, as ancient as it is today, rare in the world..."

At this moment, all the strong men who felt Qin Chen's aura turned pale, their hearts trembled, and turbulent waves rolled up in their hearts.

The underworld is vast, and there are many monsters. In fact, it is not that there are genius monsters who used the second level of transcendence to fight against the third level of eternal order.

But these evildoers are only fighting against each other, and they can be called perverted if they are undefeated by the triple detachment of their abilities.

Extremely rare.

Of course, there are also some monstrous evildoers, which are hard to see in billions of years. With a second level of cultivation, they can beat the triple transcendence, and even kill the triple transcendence.

Only a few of these geniuses will appear in almost an era.

The appearance of such a monstrosity would cause the entire underworld to vibrate, and they would often be called the seeds of the great emperor. They were the outstanding ones who emerged in an era, and they were expected to hit the realm of the great emperor in the future.

but...

It's just hopeful.

In fact, great emperors are rare, not to mention one era, even several eras may not be able to appear one. And the reason why there are so many great emperors in the underworld is because the history of the underworld is too long and vast. In the long river of time, even if there is only a few epochs apart to give birth to a great emperor, these many epochs can also emerge.

Come out a lot.

Every great emperor is the most stunning existence of an era.

And someone like Qin Chen who can kill the peak triple transcendence with the second level of the myriad phenomena, and even rival the quasi-emperor-level powerhouse, let alone have never seen it, or even heard of it.

How could there be such a monster in this world?

boom!

At this moment, a terrifying aura surged from Qin Chen's body, and an inexplicable power of order and detachment quickly shot up from Qin Chen's body, forming a unique domain aura.

This is the eternal domain that condenses the triple eternal order realm.

The most obvious feature of the breakthrough from the double detachment to the triple detachment is the formation of the field of order.

Once the power of eternal order is successfully condensed and formed into the field of order, it can be called triple detachment.

And now Qin Chen is condensing his power of eternal order.

However, what puzzled everyone was that as Qin Chen's aura continued to rise, the power of order around him did not appear for a long time.

Even, all kinds of forces are constantly circulating, just like watching flowers on horseback, and they have never stabilized.

"My lord, what... is this... what are you doing?"

Some strong men frowned, showing suspicion.

Guilong Guizu and the others were also at a loss.

All the people present here are the masters of the restricted zone of the triple transcendence level, and those who can survive until now are all the best in the triple transcendence. Naturally, they are all very familiar with how to break through the triple transcendence.

In their view, with Qin Chen's strength, combined with the power of many rules he had exerted before at this moment, it should be easy to step into the triple detachment, but why does Qin Chen seem to be stuck now and suddenly stop?

Shouldn't it?

According to Qin Chen's previously exposed strength, he should choose any kind of strength, which is enough to step into triple detachment!

boom!

But at this moment, in the endless breath of order, Qin Chen was hesitating.

"Among the many powers under my control at this moment, there are not a few that can form the power of eternal order, but what power should I use to make it the foundation for me to step into the triple detachment?"

Qin Chen frowned.

Ordinary detached powerhouses only cultivate one kind of original power, so there is no hesitation or consideration at all. They only need to combine the original rules they have cultivated with the power of myriad phenomena to evolve an eternal order.

But Qin Chen was different.

He has too many powers under his control, and each of them is extremely terrifying.

"Emperor Miekong's original power is based on space and can form a space field. It is also the most proficient power I have controlled so far."

The first thing Qin Chen thought of was the power of space.

Because the power of space has always been one of the top forces controlled by Qin Chen, and its core is obtained from the origin of Emperor Miekong combined with the heart of space.

Moreover, in terms of space, Qin Chen himself has already controlled the space maze in a similar field. As long as he is willing, he can naturally step into the triple detachment state without any hindrance.

"But in addition to the way of space, the power of the **** emperor's totem of the ancient emperor's predecessors is also extremely suitable."

Then, Qin Chen thought of the power of the God Emperor's totem.

In his current life, the basic skill of cultivation is the Nine-Star God Emperor Jue, with the Nine-Star God Emperor Jue as the foundation, and the power of the ancient emperor's God Emperor totem as a template, it is easy to step into the triple transcendence.

Moreover, the cultivation of the ancient emperor of the ancient **** clan is as high as the sky, and he has reached the end of the Great Emperor's Road. Such a force can not only support him to step into the triple detachment realm, but there will not be too many obstacles in the future when he walks into the Great Emperor's path. "In addition, this place is the underworld. The power of the underworld of the Nether Emperor is also a great choice. The four great emperors are famous in the ancient underworld. It's a matter of course.

"Of course, there is also the method of killing that I have mastered in this Dead Sea cage."

"Using the righteous way of killing to form the realm of killing, combined with the mysterious rust sword and the vast killing intent in the forbidden area of the Dead Sea, this force is definitely not inferior to any emperor-level powerhouse."

Qin Chen's eyes flashed.

The rules of the way of killing are also very suitable for him now. This dead sea cage is so terrifying that even Emperor Shimei can suppress it. The four great emperors in ancient times did not dare to force their way into it. This is definitely a top-level path.

Not to mention that he is currently in the forbidden area of the Dead Sea, and entering the Dao with killing intent, the suppression and obstacles he receives will inevitably be greatly reduced.

Thinking about it, it will be easier to break through.

Thoughts flashed through Qin Chen's mind one after another, causing him quite a headache.

It is already extremely difficult for him to choose these top avenue rules alone, not to mention that in addition to these top avenues, such as the Ten Thousand Bone Domain of the Myriad Bone Nether Ancestor, the Death God Domain of the Death God Tomb Master, and the Ghost Qi Domain, Underworld Fire field...

It can be said that if Qin Chen is willing, he is enough to step into the realm of eternal order at the level of hundreds of rules.

For myself, which breakthrough should I use?

space?

totem?

Ghost?

kill?

...

All kinds of thoughts flickered, but amidst the chaotic rules, Qin Chen suddenly calmed down.

Since it is a breakthrough, you must use your core strength, the most suitable strength.

And myself, what is the real core strength?

boom!

A flash of light suddenly lit up in Qin Chen's mind.

At this moment, his mind seemed to return to the moment when he was reborn in Tianwu Continent.

That was the starting point of his life in this life, and also the foundation of his journey.

That morning.

On the arena of the Star Academy.

Under the attention of all the people, Qin Chen's body was full of thunder, shining dazzlingly, and someone outside the picture shouted: Qin Chen, the blood of Thunder!

yes!

At this moment, in the breath of the realm of endless order, Qin Chen smiled at the corner of his mouth.

For a long time, isn't the most fundamental thing for me, the power of Thunder blood in my body?

Enter the Tao with thunder, and smash all treacherous evils in the world.

This is his core philosophy.

He wants to be the guardian of this world, and use his most scorching thunder power to annihilate all existences that break the rules.

This is his way and also his core.

crackle!

suddenly.

A series of dark lightning arcs appeared around Qin Chen's body. When these lightning arcs appeared, everyone in the entire hall felt an extremely terrifying suppressing force.

boom! Guilong Guizu and the others showed horror on their faces, and knelt down one after another, looking in horror at Qin Chen who was suspended above the formation. field of mines , spread out in an instant.

Thor!

At this moment, Qin Chen is like a **** of death and thunder, in charge of the thunder that destroys the world, standing tall and invincible.

What kind of power of order is this?

Soul-devouring ghost worm, ancestor of stone ghost, master of black prison, ancestor of **** soul...

Almost all the strong men were deeply shocked by Qin Chen's aura, and felt endless fear deep in their hearts.

In the center of the formation.

Jialuo Mingzu was also trembling and raised his head in horror.

In the past, he claimed to be the most monstrous existence in this abandoned land, and regarded the other restricted area masters in the abandoned land as clowns.

Because he boasted that he was very likely to become an emperor-level powerhouse, one of the giants of the underworld in the future.

can now.

In front of Qin Chen at this moment.

He actually felt a little small.

It is an insurmountable feeling like an ant looking up at a dragon.

Tom.

Jialuo Mingzu directly knelt down in the center of the formation, with endless fear and trembling in the depths of his soul.

"This force..."

Above the main hall, Emperor Shimei also looked at Qin Chen in the void, his eyes widened and his heart shook.

At this moment, the dark thunderous aura emanating from Qin Chen's body even made her feel a little terrified.

"Impossible, I am the body of the great emperor. No matter how strong the rules and avenues this son cultivates, how can I make the emperor feel fear? There is no such terrifying power in this world."

Emperor Shi Mei was frightened and angry, his towering chest heaved and he couldn't calm down in his heart.

"No, if I really let this kid break through, I will definitely be in trouble."

At this moment, a trace of fear emerged in Emperor Shimei's heart. She had a feeling that if Qin Chen was allowed to break through, her plan for hundreds of millions of years might fail.

This is an instinctive intuition derived from the power of the Great Emperor.

For the first time, she, a powerful emperor, was actually afraid of a triple detachment, fearing that he would grow up. This is something she has never encountered in her life, even when she was trapped here by Jia Luo Mingzu back then, she didn't feel this way.

Chapter 5433: world of mortals refining heart

At this moment, Emperor Shi Mei was startled in his heart.

"The way of heaven is running, the emperor's heart, my intuition will never be wrong, I must stop him."

Emperor Shimei's eyes were fixed.

boom!

Emperor Shimei, who was still competing with Qin Chen for the hundreds of powers beyond the original source, suddenly made a move, because she knew that if she continued like this, she might really be in trouble if she was still in a weak state, and she had to stop Qin Chen's breakthrough.

"The world of mortals refines the heart!"

A low shout resounded through the world, like a loud voice, directly echoing in everyone's ears.

boom!

Facing this frightening scene, while Qin Chen was condensing the rules of order, Emperor Shimei instantly ignited his soul. The emperor's soul was burning, and a terrifying force powerful enough to suppress everything in the world swept across. All the masters of the restricted area felt as if a mountain was smashed down, severely suppressing their souls, and suppressed them one by one.

Wanting to vomit blood, huge waves rolled up in the sea of souls.

Under the eyes of everyone, a seven-color divine light bloomed between the eyebrows of Emperor Shimei, turning into a terrifying power of the soul, like a sharp arrow, darting towards Qin Chen's soul sea.

"My lord, be careful."

Wangu Mingzu and others looked pale, and hurriedly changed their colors and roared loudly to remind Qin Chen. But it was useless at all, the power of the soul was so fast, it contained the original soul breath of Emperor Shimei, instantly penetrated the endless void, and when Qin Chen's dark thunder field had not yet formed, it directly submerged into his soul sea middle.

boom!

A terrifying will of the soul suddenly came to Qin Chen's sea of soul.

This time, it is more than a hundred times stronger than the previous soul attack?

This divine soul power contains the original soul power of Emperor Shimei, unlike before, it was just a charming impact, the invisible power of the emperor's divine soul silently enveloped Qin Chen's entire soul sea.

Moisten things silently. Emperor Shimei was well aware of the horror of the Ten Tribulations Palace in Qin Chen's soul sea. This time, the method she adopted was not to attack forcefully, but to transform into invisible soul power, like spring wind and rain, moistening things silently, quietly, no responsibility

He's attacking breath merged with Qin Chen's soul sea.

The world of mortals refines the heart! This is by no means an ordinary soul attack, but a process of assimilation, like a gentle village, combined with the terrifying attributes and pervasiveness of the emperor's soul, and even failed to disturb the Ten Tribulations Hall, the power of the soul of Shimei Emperor has been completely exhausted.

It merged into Qin Chen's soul sea.

boom!

The two forces merged, and the breath in Qin Chen's soul sea rapidly expanded and became stronger.

The soul of Emperor Shimei is nourishing and strengthening Qin Chen's soul sea. This is a kind of nourishment, a kind of improvement, and a kind of help.

How powerful is the emperor's soul? Words cannot describe it at all.

If the soul of the peak transcendence is a group of mounds, then the soul of the emperor is a mountain.

If the soul of the peak transcendence is a river, then the soul of the emperor is a vast ocean.

No matter how powerful Qin Chen's soul sea is, when a ray of soul power from Emperor Shimei merged into Qin Chen's soul sea, Qin Chen's soul sea was greatly nourished and swelled up instantly.

boom!

The turbulent waves rolled up the waves.

Qin Chen's soul sea expanded rapidly, but it was extremely dangerous.

Kill!

On the surface, this method of Emperor Shimei is to expand your soul sea, but it is actually an invasion.

A drop of ink dropped into a bucket of water is helping you improve, because the bucket of water can purify the drop of ink, and in the end it is the bucket of water.

But if a bucket of ink is poured into a drop of water, this is not an improvement at all, but an assimilation. After the fusion, there will be no such drop of water in this world, only the bucket of ink.

At this moment, Emperor Shimei is using this method.

How can the great emperor's soul, the sea of detached souls, contain it?

In just a split second, Qin Chen's soul sea was completely polluted by Emperor Shimei's aura.

boom!

In the endless consciousness, Qin Chen felt as if he had fallen into a land of tenderness.

Surrounded by a room covered with soft cotton, Qin Chen was naked and smooth, and all around him, Emperor Shimei appeared in different postures and shapes.

These Shimei great emperors have different postures, some are charming, some are arrogant, some are pure, some are cute...all dressed in snow-white gauze, with a smile on their lips, they walk towards Qin Chen step by step.

And in the process of walking over, the gauze clothes on her body were taken off one by one, and she became naked in an instant, and all kinds of white and graceful bodies appeared in front of Qin Chen.

Beauty Township!

Each Emperor Shimei has a different posture. With a chuckle, he lay on Qin Chen like an octopus. The warm body was close to Qin Chen, full of elasticity, which made Qin Chen tremble all over.

"My lord, I want to..."

One after another of charming voices came, and the red lips of many Shimei Emperors with different expressions approached Qin Chen, and on Qin Chen's face, neck, and body, they asked and kissed everywhere.

Moreover, the weak and boneless slender jade hand also reached out, wandering crazily on Qin Chen's body.

boom!

Qin Chen trembled all over and his scalp was numb.

This is Qin Chen's soul sea, which is being invaded by Emperor Shimei's soul.

How can a normal person get rid of it?

outside world.

Above the main hall, Emperor Shimei floated there, his face blushed, his breathing was short of breath, goosebumps appeared all over his body, his long snake body hovered, and fine beads of sweat came out of his body.

She herself fell into a certain special state.

Because, her first charm attack on Qin Chen can only be regarded as an illusion. With the power of the emperor, she uses illusion to evolve various illusions. In that illusion, she is the body in charge of everything.

Everything is fabricated and evolved by her, it is not real, she is like a high god, watching with cold eyes, not participating in it, just creating all kinds of illusions to target the opponent.

But now, her mortal heart is a source of her own soul that invades Qin Chen's universe.

Although everything is not real from the outside, it is actually the fusion of two souls, and that feeling will be clearly transmitted to the main body, which is the true embodiment of the main body.

It can be said that Emperor Shimei's own senses and soul are clearly experiencing everything in the illusion.

"hateful!"

Emperor Shimei snorted coquettishly, biting his lip, his eyes blurred. If she hadn't been trapped here for so many years, her soul was seriously damaged, and her strength was less than one percent of her peak, why would she take such a big risk? Attack Qin Chen with his own soul? to experience the shame

Scenes, making these actions and behaviors that make her hard to say?

If it were her heyday, a simple attack of her mind and soul would be enough to easily suppress a peak transcendent.

But now...

In the illusion, Emperor Shimei continued to perform various actions to seduce Qin Chen and make him sink.

"boom!"

In the endless void, Qin Chen was suspended there, with faint thunder flickering all over his body, but the breath on his body was slowly weakening.

"not good!"

In the distance, Wangu Mingzu and others were in a state of anxiety.

He could tell at a glance that Young Master Chen had fallen into the soul attack of Emperor Shi Mei.

Emperor Shimei was famous for her charm in ancient times. Her charm method is extremely terrifying. Once she uses it, even the strong emperor must be vigilant. No matter how talented Chen Shao is, how can she stop it?

But in the face of such an attack, they had no choice but to pray anxiously that Qin Chen would not be under control.

In the dreamland of gentleness, Qin Chen gradually sank.

Don't want to wake up!

Everything outside is too tiring.

Along the way, countless battles, countless fights to the death, as if there is no future, who would not want to have a gentle place to lie down, and just be so chic for the rest of his life?

Can lie flat, who is willing to work hard?

Red sleeves add fragrance all day long, sensual and sensual, isn't it?

"Master Underworld, come, let the servants come to serve you, and let you know, what is the fairyland of the underworld!"

Emperor Shimei kissed Qin Chen's earlobe lightly, and said in a soft voice, his breath went straight into Qin Chen's ear, it was crisp and numb, unable to extricate himself. "This underworld is too bitter! People have experienced three disasters and nine disasters in this life, and they are already so tired, but after death, they have to come to this underworld for reincarnation. In the next life, they will continue to be cows and horses, or they will be in the river of death. Struggling to get rid of reincarnation fate.

But even if he jumped out of the river of death and became a ghost cultivator in the underworld, he would still be enslaved by the strong and linger on. "

"Too tired!"

"Too bitter!"

"Instead of constantly fighting against fate, and ultimately not being able to change the outcome, why not just be happy with the slave family and never have any troubles."

Emperor Shimei pressed close to Qin Chen and said softly.

"yes!"

Qin Chen's eyes gradually blurred, and his soul sea began to be assimilated by Emperor Shimei, polluted by her, invaded by her, and became a part of the source of Emperor Shimei's soul.

"I came to this underworld, what are you doing so hard for?"

Qin Chen murmured in his soul.

Gradually sink.

No!

wrong!

But suddenly, Qin Chen was shocked, as if something flashed in his mind.

"Why did I come to this underworld?"

Qin Chen murmured, his brows were tightly frowned, the brows were full of pain, and he was struggling to wake up.

Because he remembered that he had a very important purpose in coming to the underworld, a purpose that he could never forget.

what is it

"Um?"

Above the main hall, Emperor Shi Mei's expression changed slightly.

Under her invasion, did Qin Chen seem to wake up?

How can this be? How can the supernatural soul get rid of the invasion of her soul origin? Under her supernatural power of the great emperor, Qin Chen's soul sea, whether it was the chaotic Qinglianhuo or the Palace of Ten Tribulations, was dead silent and had never been activated.

Moreover, she also saw an ancient pagoda in the depths of Qin Chen's soul sea, floating there, exuding a misty aura, but it was also not activated.

With Qin Chen's own strength alone, how could he break free from her soul invasion?

boom!

Emperor Shimei stepped up his body invasion. The pain in Qin Chen's eyebrows suddenly became more intense.

Chapter 5434: Delay

At this time, Emperor Shimei couldn't help being shocked by Qin Chen's terrifying soul will.

For a guy who is not even triple transcendent, to rely on the power of his body and soul to fight against such an emperor's soul as himself, no matter how you look at it, it seems like a fantasy.

"I...why did I come here?"

At this time, deep in Qin Chen's soul, a voice murmured, asking deeply.

This was Qin Chen's original intention, and he was questioning himself.

He came to this underworld with an extremely important purpose, a purpose that cannot be forgotten.

What exactly is it?

Amidst the murmurs, Qin Chen suddenly trembled.

"I... remembered."

A ray of light shines from the depths of his soul, like a candle in the endless darkness, instantly illuminating the surrounding void.

Although this ray of light is not strong, it is like a kindling in the night, bringing hope.

Qin Chen's sanity, which was originally sinking, instantly sobered up.

boom!

Qin Chen, who was forcibly wrapped by the power of Emperor Shimei's soul, suddenly opened his eyes. In his eyes, two sharp lights shot up into the sky, like a long sword piercing the sky, trying to pierce the sky.

"Sisi!"

"I'm here to save Sisi!"

Qin Chen roared in his heart, and suddenly woke up, and the sea of dead souls boiled instantly.

boom!

The sea of endless souls surged.

"roll!"

Qin Chen yelled sharply, and a terrifying breath erupted from his soul sea, and in an instant, many Shimei emperors who were lying on him were sent flying away, and their delicate bodies were exposed, lying on the ground.

"you..."

Emperor Shimei snorted, his face was ashamed and angry.

"This son actually resisted the invasion of the emperor's charm, it's abominable."

She was frightened and angry in her heart, and said with horror, "Since the charm is not enough, then force it."

Swish Swish Swish!

In an instant, countless Shimei Great Emperors forcibly rushed towards Qin Chen, wanting to wrap him up again.

"presumptuous..."

Qin Chen shouted loudly, his eyes were like the scorching sun, and his eyes were full of divine light:
"You... get out of here!"

boom!

Two terrifying thunderbolts suddenly burst out from Qin Chen's eyes.

The next moment, in Qin Chen's soul sea, a terrifying thunder light rose up.

It is the Judgment God Thunder.

Boom!

The endless azure blue lightning instantly spread across Qin Chen's sea of souls, turning into an endless sea of thunder, impacting in all directions.

"This power..."

Emperor Shimei's eyes widened in shock and anger.

puff!

The vast thunder light directly annihilated her body, tearing apart the many soul clones she had rushed into Qin Chen's body in an instant, turning them into the purest source of soul.

outside world.

The figure of Emperor Shimei in the hall suddenly shook, as if he had been hit hard by a giant hammer. With a puff, a mouthful of blood spewed out on the spot, trembling all over, and looked at Qin Chen in front of him in horror.

boom!

The endless dark thunder field surged around Qin Chen, and the breath diffused, making it difficult for everyone present to breathe. Under such a breath, it seemed as if his body would explode and die on the spot.

"Triple Detachment!"

Wangu Mingzu said excitedly.

Chen Shao finally broke through the triple detachment.

Compared with the others who were shocked by Qin Chen's breath, Wangu Mingzu was shocked by Qin Chen's breakthrough speed. He was the only one present who knew that Qin Chen was only a first-level detachment before he came to the underworld not long ago.

How much time has passed, and now Qin Chen has broken through the triple detachment.

This kind of cultivation speed.

The Great... Is it still far away?

All right.

Wangu Mingzu had self-knowledge, and the realm of the Great Emperor was far from being able to compare with the realm of transcendence.

now.

After breaking through the triple detachment, Qin Chen's aura didn't stop, and was still climbing rapidly, entering the late stage of the triple detachment.

Crackling! The terrifying dark thunder aura that enveloped the surroundings continued to surge and expand, causing everyone present to feel a trace of fear from the bottom of their hearts. Such a breath of domain, even the peak detachment of the Stone Statue Ghost Ancestor, was a bit overwhelming.

Trembling with fear, I was so overwhelmed that I couldn't breathe.

It is also triple detachment, why is there such a big gap between everyone? When everyone was shocked, Qin Chen was still improving crazily. In his soul sea, after the vast thunder light annihilated the soul of Emperor Shimei, it quickly refined many soul origins left by Emperor Shimei. Soul book

The original breath was quickly swallowed by Qin Chen, and the sea of souls in his mind continued to expand.

double.

three times.

ten times...

How terrifying is the origin of the emperor's soul? Even if it was only a part of Emperor Shimei, it was far beyond the realm of detachment. It was not until Qin Chen's soul sea expanded to ten times that of the original that he finally calmed down.

I don't know how long it has been.

In the void, Qin Chen opened his eyes, like a god, the endless thunder light quickly swam around him, the powerful aura made everyone present surrender.

The late stage of triple detachment.

As soon as Qin Chen broke through, he entered the late stage of triple detachment, which made people shocked.

In the main hall, Emperor Shi Mei was full of emperor aura, with a dignified face, staring at Qin Chen.

hateful.

If she hadn't been trapped in the past, lost and damaged the original source of spirit and soul these years, and had no strength left, how could she be defeated so easily by Qin Chen and fall into such a situation?

"My lord is mighty."

At this time, a loud roar sounded, it was the ancestor of the virtual crocodile, who couldn't help roaring excitedly, his expression excited.

Depend on.

Wangu Mingzu was dissatisfied. Looking at the past, the ancestor of the virtual crocodile is too good at stealing the limelight, right?

"Chen Shao is invincible."

With this in mind, Wan Gu Ming Zu eagerly shouted, not to be outdone.

in the crowd.

The others also looked ecstatic.

Qin Chen has now become the savior of everyone present. Only when Qin Chen becomes stronger can they have the hope of surviving, so seeing Qin Chen's breakthrough, everyone is very excited.

"snort."

Only Emperor Shimei bit his lip lightly with a livid face.

boom!

Her power of the great emperor and Qin Chen's dark thunder field firmly confronted each other, and ear-piercing roars erupted from each other, blocking Qin Chen's dark thunder field from herself.

At the same time, she stimulated the remaining origin in her body, and the terrifying aura of the emperor surged, forming a firm protection around her, suppressing Qin Chen's power.

Seeing this, Qin Chen frowned slightly, glanced at Emperor Shimei, and with a flick of his mind, a terrifying light of dark thunder suddenly diffused towards Emperor Shimei.

Emperor Shimei yelled angrily: "Presumptuous." She pressed out with a palm, and an invisible power of the emperor was born. With a bang, this invisible power of the emperor and Qin Chen's dark thunder suddenly The light collided suddenly, and two terrifying forces intertwined to form a terrifying

The terrifying storm rushed in all directions in an instant.

Pooh!

Around the main hall, Nailong Guizu and others let out a muffled groan, and they all took a step back under the impact, with blood spilling from the corners of their mouths.

On the other hand, Qin Chen and Emperor Shi Mei let the shock blow their clothes and remained motionless.

"The power of the emperor..."

Qin Chen murmured, his eyes narrowed slightly. I have to say that the Great Emperor's cultivation is indeed terrifying, far beyond the realm of transcendence. Even though he has broken through the triple transcendence, comprehended the field of dark thunder, and his strength has increased several times, he can still feel the power of Emperor Shimei.

This is a kind of suppression at the level of life, and it cannot be offset by an easy breakthrough in the realm.

"Hmph, boy, do you think you will be invincible after breaking through the triple transcendence?" Emperor Shimei sneered, "In the eyes of this emperor, no matter how much you improve, you are nothing more than an ant."

Even though she said that, she was terrified in her heart. The power from Qin Chen's dark thunder field had broken through her emperor's power. far from being able to do.

"Damn it, this kid is so strong after breaking through, it's troublesome now."

Emperor Shimei was startled and angry.

Although Qin Chen's sprinting to the triple level of detachment earlier brought her a little threat, she actually didn't take it to heart. No matter how strong the order domain of the detachment level is, how can it resist her aura of the emperor?

But now...

She squinted her eyes: "Now my strength is greatly weakened, and in addition, the dark thunder field can break through the emperor's aura of the emperor, combined with this terrifying formation..."

Emperor Shi Mei was startled, and his face became even more ugly.

"If this son really wants to use a large formation to suppress me later, then this emperor will have no choice but to fight to the death."

Emperor Shimei's face was ugly, and he was already ready to fight to the death. She was hurt too badly by the Four Elephants Spirit Formation, and even if she died this time, she didn't want to live the days when she was suppressed by the formation.

It's a big deal, it's all about ending together.

However, after Qin Chen glanced at Emperor Shimei, he didn't make a move, but took a step forward, directly to the top of the hall, and reached out to directly touch the secret pattern prohibition above the hall.

boom!

A series of secret pattern restrictions lit up in an instant, and the lines flowed, meeting Qin Chen's eyes. He actually began to study the secret pattern restrictions above it, completely ignoring the situation of Emperor Shimei.

what's the situation?

Everyone was startled.

"There is little dust."

Seeing this, Wangu Mingzu hurriedly spoke, and at the same time glanced at Emperor Shimei.

The ancestor of the virtual crocodile and others also said: "Master Mingzhu."

Now Emperor Shimei is weak, if she is not taken in time, it will be troublesome when she recovers.

Even Emperor Shimei himself was a little surprised, frowned and said: "You...don't do anything to this emperor?"

Delay?

"Hands on you?"

Qin Chen glanced at Emperor Shimei below, "Why did you do anything to you?"

Emperor Shi Mei was taken aback.

Qin Chen sneered: "The most urgent thing now is to find a way to leave this prison of the Dead Sea. You have been trapped for so many years and have not found a way to leave. I can leave now if I kill you?"

Emperor Shi Mei shook his head: "Of course not."

"That's all right?" Qin Chen said lightly, "Since it's useless to kill you, why did I kill you? I'm not like the abolished Jia Luo Mingzu, who wants to devour your soul and original source." This Breakthrough Emperor, besides, even if Ben Shaozhen devours you, I'm afraid

If you can't break through the Great Emperor, why don't you kill me? Is it fun? "

"This..." Emperor Shimei was a little confused, she was a little confused whether this was Qin Chen's real idea or a plan to delay the attack.

Chapter 5435: finally someone came

After saying this, Qin Chen didn't even bother to pay attention to the Emperor Shimei, and turned his head to continue staring at the secret pattern restriction in front of him.

"this..."

Seeing Qin Chen's actions, Emperor Shi Mei's face suddenly became ugly.

How could he be so contemptuous of himself as a powerful emperor?

There is no reason for this.

She looked at Qin Chen coldly, wanting to see if that kid really didn't bother to pay attention to her. After a long while, she finally gave in, completely believing that Qin Chen really ignored her.

Oh shit!

Are you so unattractive?

Emperor Shimei's face turned ashen. I think back when I was in the underworld, it was known as a flower in the underworld. Who wouldn't take a high look at me?

He looked at himself with double dog eyes.

But what about Qin Chen in front of him?

Concentrate on it!

Only paying attention to the secret pattern restriction in front of him immediately made Emperor Shimei feel a strong sense of frustration.

Are you not beautiful?

"Hmph, brat, you're just supernatural, yet you dare to ignore this emperor. Just wait, when this emperor recovers his cultivation, you will surely regret it."

Emperor Shimei rubbed his teeth, cursing secretly, immersed in healing, and quickly healed his own injuries.

She must heal herself as soon as possible, so that the kid will know and ignore her fate.

now.

On the side, the others were also dumbfounded.

Awesome!

They had completely convinced Qin Chen.

Although Emperor Shimei is now suppressed by the secret pattern, he is not powerless. Once he is freed, he will definitely set off a turbulent wave.

But when Qin Chen said he ignored it, he ignored it, and everyone couldn't help but be impressed by his tolerance.

Thinking in another way, they would definitely not be able to do what Qin Chen did, probably because they wanted to solve the problem as soon as possible.

As expected of Lord Underworld.

boom!

At this time, Qin Chen kept deducing the secret pattern restriction in front of him, completely immersed in it, streams of light circulated, his brows were wrinkled, thoughtful.

From these secret pattern restrictions, he saw something that he didn't pay attention to before.

"really..."

He turned his head and looked at the surrounding walls, as if he had some insight.

After staying in this mysterious palace for so long, Qin Chen didn't believe that the purpose of this palace standing here was just to trap a group of them.

If you want to trap them, the Dead Sea cage in the outside world is enough, why do you need this palace again?

But now, after seeing the most core secret pattern restriction above Emperor Shimei, Qin Chen finally saw something that he didn't care about before.

"As expected...I found it..." Qin Chen's spiritual consciousness continued to seep into the secret pattern restriction in front of him, and now he has broken through the late stage of triple detachment, both the soul and the spiritual consciousness are more than ten times stronger than before. In an instant, his consciousness poured into the secret pattern restriction,

Some guesses in his heart were found and verified.

"These secret pattern restrictions are all connected. All the secret pattern restrictions in the entire palace hall are not used to trap people, but... a special internal structure of the palace. These secret pattern restrictions can be refined."

Qin Chen suddenly raised his head, his eyes shocked.

At this time, he finally saw that all the secret pattern restrictions in front of him were actually the control structure of this palace.

It is equivalent to a heavy treasure, there must be a restriction structure inside, and once the restriction inside the heavy treasure is refined, the heavy treasure can be controlled.

The same is true for the four weeks of the secret pattern restriction.

"That is to say, as long as I can refine the secret patterns in this palace hall, I can completely control this palace hall..."

Qin Chen was shocked.

The boundless and majestic palace hall in front of me is actually a treasure.

"In this way, if you want to leave this palace, the only way is to refine all the secret pattern restrictions here, and control this palace, so that you can get rid of the suppression of the palace..."

Qin Chen murmured: "I just don't know, after taking control of the palace, can I leave the Dead Sea cage directly, or will I still be trapped inside the Dead Sea?"

Even though he thought so in his heart, Qin Chen's soul had penetrated into the restriction of the secret lines in front of him.

"I can't manage that much anymore..."

boom!

Qin Chen tried his best to stimulate the power of his soul to penetrate into the secret pattern restriction in front of him.

No matter whether he can leave the dead sea cage or not, he must control these secret pattern restrictions, because this palace hall is continuously releasing the power of devouring souls, devouring the souls of everyone present.

If he doesn't control it, then in the end everyone present, including himself, will eventually perish due to the passing of the soul.

"This secret pattern restriction is a restriction structure in the yang world. No matter how strong the cultivation base of ghosts in the underworld is, it is impossible for a powerful emperor like Emperor Shimei to control it, but I am different..."

Qin Chen's eyes were bright, and his spirit power was like a sharp cone, frantically pouring into the depths of the secret pattern restriction, trying to leave a brand on it.

The moment his soul power entered the depths of the secret pattern restriction...

boom!

A strange force of colorful space suddenly enveloped him. This force of space was extremely terrifying, with a strong pulling force, even as strong as Qin Chen could not resist the attraction of this force of space.

"Master Underworld Lord."

Wangu Mingzu and the others were also shocked by the power of the colorful space, they all exclaimed and hurried forward.

But they were shocked to find that under the power of this colorful space, they couldn't even move, and the space in the entire hall seemed to be forbidden. Not only them, but Emperor Shimei's eyes also showed excitement and panic. Shocked, he hurried forward, but was also imprisoned there. As the emperor, she was helpless, watching this colorful space

Qin Chen was enveloped by the force, but she couldn't do anything.

With a buzzing sound, under the watchful eyes of everyone, Qin Chen above the hall was wrapped in the sudden majestic power of space, and disappeared instantly.

Only an empty void remains.

The countless shining restrictions also slowly calmed down at this moment.

"What just happened?"

"Young Master Chen, he disappeared?"

"My lord...where did you go?"

After Qin Chen disappeared, the power of the colorful space dissipated, and the imprisoned bodies of Wangu Mingzu and the others resumed their activities again, with horrified faces.

Whoosh!

Wangu Mingzu flickered, and went straight to Qin Chen's previous place, but it was empty, and there was nothing left.

His face suddenly became a little ugly.

boom!

The Great Emperor Shimei below looked anxious and wanted to move forward, but as soon as she moved, countless formation patterns combined with secret pattern restrictions lit up one after another, firmly imprisoning her there.

It's the array flags mobilized by Guilong Guizu and the others, and the secret pattern restriction in this hall, which are still locking her.

"You bunch of idiots, that kid has probably already left this hall, what are you still doing trapping this emperor? Hurry up and let go of the formation and let this emperor go out." Emperor Shimei said angrily.

Guilong Guizu and the others hesitated for a moment.

"No."

Wangu Mingzu immediately yelled: "Young Master Chen, he will never leave alone. He must be looking for a way to let me leave, and continue to trap Emperor Shimei, otherwise, once she escapes, we will be in danger." ."

boom!

After he finished speaking, he came directly to the formation and presided over the formation.

"Damn it." Emperor Shimei yelled angrily, with an anxious expression on his face: "Didn't you see it? That kid has most likely found a way to leave this place. Are you going to let him leave alone? Let go of this emperor soon! , if the emperor finds

If there is no way to leave, I will let you all leave together. "

Whoops, whoops!

Many people's breathing became short of breath.

Indeed, Qin Chen's sudden disappearance earlier made everyone extremely nervous.

Lord Underworld, have you really left?

"Fart, if Master Chen has a way to leave, he will definitely take me and others to leave together."

Wangu Mingzu yelled: "My soul and I have contact with Young Master Chen. I can be sure that Young Master Chen is still in this palace and has never left. If you don't believe me, you can ask Xuangui Laomo and them."

The old ghost Xuangui and the soul-eating ghost worm looked at each other, nodded and said: "Master Ming Lord is indeed still here."

They were all controlled by Qin Chen. Although they couldn't perceive where Qin Chen was, they all had a feeling that Qin Chen hadn't left.

"Hehe, do you believe them?" Emperor Shi Mei sneered and said, "They are the supporters of that kid, and they will defend him for him."

The expressions of Patriarch Yan Hun and others changed slightly, it is indeed possible.

The expectation of hundreds of millions of years really made them unable to calm down. Wangu Mingzu's expression remained unchanged, and he sneered: "Everyone, use your brains to think about it, is it necessary for me to lie to you? Ruochen Shao really went out, so what's the benefit of me continuing to lie to you? Could it be that Benzu didn't want to go out,

Want to be stuck here forever? "

Everyone was startled.

It really is...

Wangu Mingzu and the others were also left here, doesn't it mean he doesn't want to go out?

"What's more, if you let Emperor Shimei leave, can you leave?" Wangu Mingzu sneered, and looked at Emperor Shimei with disdain: "Your Excellency has been trapped here for so many years, and you can't even break these secret patterns. As soon as Chen Shao came, he controlled so many secret pattern restrictions, and he can break it if you let you go

? Whimsical! "

Wangu Mingzu looked at the crowd: "Everyone, I can assure you that if there is someone in this world who can take everyone away, it can only be Chen Shao. It is not the pretentious Emperor Shimei."

"You..." Emperor Shi Mei was so angry that his chest heaved in anger.

In the hall, other people were also thoughtful.

Indeed, Emperor Shimei has been trapped here for so many years without any progress, but Lord Mingzhu has undergone such a change since his arrival. Obviously, if everyone wants to go out, they can only rely on Lord Mingzhu, not Emperor Shimei.

And at this time.

Qin Chen, who was sucked in by the tunnel, heard a majestic voice directly in his ears. "After so many years, someone finally came."

Chapter 5436: Light and shadow exist

boom!

Qin Chen felt an endless force of attraction pulling him into a colorful passage, and a magnificent whisper sounded in his mind.

"who is it?"

Qin Chen was shocked.

There are people here?

The next moment, with a bang, the power of the mysterious space suddenly dissipated.

Qin Chen fell down quickly, turned over immediately, and fell to the ground quickly. At the same time, the mysterious rust sword appeared in his hand, and he was extremely vigilant.

"This is..."

Qin Chen looked around for the first time. This is a vast and mysterious void. In all directions of this void, there are pitch-black pillars that reach the sky. Each pillar is tens of thousands of miles high. There are strange and powerful runes flowing on it, like support Created a whole void. And in the endless void, one after another strange secret pattern prohibition flickers and floats, each of these secret pattern prohibitions exudes a terrifying aura, like huge stars in the dark night, blooming with endless light and energy interest.

boom!

When the terrifying aura was suppressed, Qin Chen felt as if his whole body was being tightly suppressed by mountains, and the circulation of the original source in his body became extremely difficult.

Ka Ka Ka!

The mysterious rusty sword in Qin Chen's hand seemed to be attracted by the atmosphere around him, and it trembled violently at this moment.

"What a terrifying coercion, my body can't bear it?"

Qin Chen changed color.

It should be known that his current strength has already reached an extremely terrifying level, and the general quasi-emperor powerhouse is no match for him, and he can even confront a seriously injured emperor powerhouse like Emperor Shimei.

But in this void, he actually had a feeling of being tightly suppressed, and his physical body in this world was like a piece of porcelain, which seemed to be broken at any time when he was suppressed, how could he not be surprised .

As soon as he broke through, how the **** did he become a younger brother again?

What exactly is this place?

Qin Chen suddenly looked up.

Also, what about the person who spoke the voice before?

Qin Chen searched around.

"That is..."

Suddenly, Qin Chen suddenly raised his head. I saw that in the endless void, a light and shadow was slowly condensing out. This figure didn't look tall, but when Qin Chen saw him for a moment, an infinite coercion came from the body of the light and shadow. spread out, this is

The coercion that makes people shudder and involuntarily surrender.

boom!

In an instant, Qin Chen felt as if he saw a star that was exploding, and an endless and terrifying killing intent filled the air. This killing intent was more terrifying than all the strong men Qin Chen had ever seen. Bitter.

Before Qin Chen's eyes, everything seemed to disappear, only this light and shadow remained, standing in the endless void, bursting out with a suffocating breath.

This coercion was like an endless world, and Qin Chen's soul seemed to be shattered in an instant.

"Unexpectedly, after so many years, someone can actually enter the world of this seat." A calm voice came from the mouth of this figure.

boom!

When the figure opened his mouth, the endless killing intent was like a vast ocean, quickly filling the void. Under such a killing intent, Qin Chen felt like a small boat on a sea, ready to be shattered at any time .

"Could this person be the legendary sea god?" Qin Chen was startled in his heart, "It's such a terrifying coercion, this aura is much stronger than the Nether Emperor, and it can even be compared with the ancient emperors I have seen. "

Qin Chen was shocked.

Senior Ancient Emperor, that is a strong man who has reached the end of the Great Emperor. Could it be that the person in front of him is also a strong man who has reached the end of the Great Emperor? Qin Chen had guessed before that the Sea God mentioned by the Wraith Beasts is very likely to be the person who fought against the God of the Underworld in the legend. than

My own guess is much more terrifying.

Qin Chen saluted immediately.

Qin Chen knew very well that if his guess was true, the strength of the person in front of him would be absolutely terrifying.

In front of this terrifying existence, he is like an ant, with no power to resist.

Moreover, if he wanted to leave this forbidden area of the Dead Sea, he had to obtain the consent of this senior.

"Well, young man, you are very polite!"

Seeing Qin Chen salute him respectfully, the majestic figure nodded slightly.

Um?

Very polite?

For some reason, Qin Chen suddenly felt that the senior spoke strangely.

Moreover, Qin Chen felt that this person's gaze was falling on the mysterious rusty sword in his hand, as if there was some kind of special emotional fluctuation.

"Unexpectedly, after so many years, I can see my own weapons again." The light and shadow suddenly sighed, with a vicissitudes of voice, filled with endless sadness and emotion.

"Own weapon?"

Qin Chen lowered his head to look at the mysterious Rusty Sword, and immediately remembered the Sea God's Sword that the Wraith Beasts and the others had mentioned.

"Senior, could it be the legendary Lord Sea God?" Qin Chen even asked in shock.

"Sea God?"

The light and shadow were stunned for a moment, and then sighed: "Unexpectedly, after so many years, the title of this seat is still circulated in this underworld. Yes, this seat is the sea **** in your mouth."

The light and shadow looked at Qin Chen as if admiring a junior, then pointed to the side and said, "Sit!"

This existence full of powerful and ancient aura said gently.

"Yes." Qin Chen immediately sat cross-legged in the void. . "Are you full of doubts in your heart?" This great and ancient light and shadow existence looked down at Qin Chen, "I wonder why the weapon in your hand resonates after you enter this world, and there is a strong attraction and summoning, and I also doubt it.

Confused, why is there a rule of the cosmic sea instead of the rules of the underworld for the restriction of the secret pattern between the heaven and the earth? "

Qin Chen was secretly startled.

This light and shadow actually understood many things that happened to him.

"Please forgive me, senior." Qin Chen said respectfully.

"Your Excellency should not be this creature of the underworld, but a creature from the cosmic sea. In fact, I have been waiting for you for too long." The existence of light and shadow sighed, "Actually, this seat is also from the cosmic sea, not this creature of the underworld. Back then, I broke into this underworld because I wanted to do one thing, but I never wanted to provoke the enemy in the underworld.

It is said that invincible exists. In the great battle that year, this seat also fell here unexpectedly, and the weapons were also damaged and scattered, leaving only this will. "I originally thought that before my will completely dissipated, I would never see my weapons from back then, and I would never see the creatures of the universe sea again. But who would have thought that Your Excellency would bring the divine soldiers here, and that Your Excellency would

From the universe sea, perhaps, this is the legendary providence. "

"Senior's magical weapon." Qin Chen looked at the mysterious rusted sword in his hand in surprise.

Although he had been prepared for a long time, when he actually heard it, he was unavoidably surprised. "That's right, this sword is called the Reverse Killing Sword. It was the weapon used by me to cross the universe. Outsiders also call it the Sword of Killing God. It contains the ultimate killing intent. It can break everything in the world. It is invincible and invincible." The light and shadow sighed

"The Sword of Killing God? Isn't it the Sword of the Sea God?" Qin Chen asked suspiciously.

"Huh?" The existence of light and shadow was also taken aback, and then he smiled wryly: "Sword of Killing God and Sword of Sea God actually have the same meaning, but it's just a name, because I have had too many titles back then. kill **** for me, someone else Call me Seagod, the name is just a symbol, the real core is the weapon itself. "

Qin Chen nodded.

Indeed, the name is just a symbol, and it has different titles in different places. "Young man, I know the purpose of your coming here. After I fell, this world became a forbidden place." Light and Shadow Existence said: "You all came here by accident. What you are pursuing is nothing more than leaving this place." Fang Tiandi

, yes or no? "

Qin Chen didn't expect the sea **** to say it so directly, and hurriedly said respectfully: "Senior, this junior is indeed trapped in this dead sea cage. If you want to leave this place, please do so."

"If those creatures from the underworld say they want to leave, I won't agree, but you are a creature from the sea of the universe, not to mention that you have brought the magic weapon that I lost back then, so I am naturally willing to help you, but..."

Guangying sighed: "Young man, I only have one will left now, and I am actually trapped in these endless years. If I want to let you go, I still need your own help."

Qin Chen asked, "How can the junior help you, senior?" "My will is now trapped in this small palace. This thing is another treasure of my seat back then, but it's a pity that it has been damaged." "The light and shadow existence sighed: "You should be able to feel the void around you, but in fact there are Incomplete, this is because the treasure of this seat has been damaged. "

"This seat can show it to you, and you will be able to see the damage of the foundation of this void."

The voice of this light and shadow existence fell, and with a bang, countless pitch-black divine pillars lit up one after another.

Qin Chen looked up, and suddenly, his pupils shrank, "Senior, I saw..." I saw that the top positions of the countless divine pillars in the surrounding area had collapsed a lot, showing some broken walls and broken secret lines . But Qin Chen couldn't see clearly because the divine pillar penetrated into the dark void, so he didn't Discovering that the light and shadow activated the divine pillar at this moment, Qin Chen immediately noticed the clue.

"If you want me to send you away, you have to repair the broken pillars here. If you haven't repaired these broken secret lines, I can send you away from this place."

"But the junior's cultivation base is too low, how can we repair these secret pattern restrictions?" "It's very simple." Light and Shadow said: "The anti-killing sword in your hand is the magic weapon of this seat back then, you can use this sword as a foundation , and with the power of the soul, you can repair these secret pattern restrictions, once successful, this seat will not only send you away, but even this thing will become your treasure."

Chapter 5437: Hades blood

Use the power of the soul to repair these pillars?

Qin Chen looked up and frowned slightly, remembering the soul-devouring power in the hall before.

For some reason, he always felt that what the light and shadow said was weird, and there seemed to be something wrong.

"Senior, can this junior have a look at those divine pillars?" Qin Chen looked at the existence of light and shadow.

"random."

Guangying smiled very freely: "If you want to restore this treasure in this seat, you must also go and have a look."

Qin Chen nodded and flew up in an instant.

All the divine pillars were towering, and Qin Chen flew for a while before coming to one of the divine pillars. The sacred pillar is extremely majestic and huge. From a distance, it is just a pillar, but when Qin Chen comes close, the whole sacred pillar is like a collapsed mountain. the power of the torn

It opened, forming a terrifying ruined wall, with countless ravines and hills, spreading to the depths of the endless void.

Qin Chen gasped.

Standing in front of the section of the divine pillar, Qin Chen was like an ant standing in front of an extremely huge skyscraper.

Where is this a pillar? It is clearly a majestic plain, but it is just a vast plain formed by some special metal.

"That's..." Suddenly, Qin Chen looked into the depths of the plain, and saw patches of dark brown blood in a certain valley deep in the platform of the broken divine pillar. Become blurred and dry, but still have Exuding a palpitating divinity.

"Don't look at the blood."

At this moment, the light and shadow existence suddenly exclaimed, trying to stop Qin Chen.

But it was too late, Qin Chen's eyes had already landed on the pool of blood.

boom!

The moment that smear of brown blood came into Qin Chen's eyes, an endless and terrifying breath of death rushed directly into Qin Chen's mind. The horror of this breath was like a black tsunami hitting, hundreds of millions of volcanoes erupted together, the terrifying impact made Qin Chen's mind shake wildly, and he fell into the ice cellar in an instant, his whole body was chilled, and his thinking stagnated in an instant. just like fell into an endless abyss.

You can't see your fingers!

"Those who offend me in the underworld, die..." A rumbling roar resounded in Qin Chen's mind. This sound was terrifying, like a giant roaring. Qin Chen's mind exploded, as if his whole body was about to explode, his headache was about to split, the vast The sea of souls is like boiling water,

All of a sudden, they boiled together.

boom!

The soul boils and burns directly. In a trance, Qin Chen seemed to see a towering black figure that reaches the sky, fighting another terrifying existence. The towering figure that reaches the sky is full of endless death breath, which is hundreds of times stronger than the Nether Emperor

, raised his hand, and directly tore open a sword-like treasure that reached the sky. With a bang, the sky fell apart, as if the end was coming.

"ah..."

Qin Chen was in severe pain, screaming, and sweating all over his body.

It was just a picture, but when he saw this picture, Qin Chen couldn't resist the terrifying artistic conception conveyed in it, and the sea of souls began to slowly collapse.

"not good."

In the outside world, the face of the light and shadow existence changed drastically.

"Trouble, trouble."

The existence of this light and shadow had an ugly expression on its face, and it violently attracted the surrounding world.

With a bang, a terrifying murderous aura shot up into the sky, directly permeating around Qin Chen's body, trying to resist the invasion of this terrifying force.

But it didn't work.

The strength of this divine power of death caused Qin Chen's breath of life to wither quickly, even stronger than this terrifying breath of killing intent, which could not be stopped.

Seeing that Qin Chen's soul was about to collapse under this will, suddenly, a terrifying thunder light surged out from the depths of Qin Chen's soul sea, and with a bang, the azure blue thunder light quickly enveloped Qin Chen's soul sea.

The horror of this thunder light directly stabilized Qin Chen's soul sea, but that breath of death continued to seep in, trying to destroy the power of the ruling **** thunder in Qin Chen's soul sea.

boom!

The God of Judgment was furious, and was about to fight against it—suddenly, with a buzzing sound, an ancient book suddenly appeared in the depths of Qin Chen's mind. When I flipped through a certain page, I stopped suddenly, boom! The terrifying power of death that invaded Qin Chen's mind and wanted to shatter Qin Chen's soul was instantly swallowed up by the ancient book, leaving nothing behind.

An astonishing devouring force escaped from the ancient book.

Just close up and slowly disappear.

At this time, Qin Chen's soul sea had completely calmed down.

In the outside world, the light and shadow that seized this opportunity quickly stimulated the killing intent around, blocking this breath of death from Qin Chen's body.

boom!

The screen is broken.

Only then did Qin Chen wake up from that scene. His face was pale, and he was panting heavily, like a person who was almost drowned being rescued, dripping with cold sweat and drenched all over.

"so close."

Qin Chen was terrified in his heart, and he didn't dare to look at the bloodstain again.

With his vigilance, in fact, he had been prepared earlier, but he never thought that the power contained in this dried blood would be so terrifying that he fell directly without any resistance.

If he hadn't secretly stimulated the power of the Judgment God Thunder in his body, coupled with the existence of the mysterious ancient book, he would have almost disappeared just now.

Coming all the way from the Tianwu Continent, Qin Chen had never felt such a dangerous scene. Just looking at the dried blood stains made his soul almost collapse, and his body disappeared.

Whose blood is this?

Qin Chen had doubts in his heart, but at the same time, an answer appeared in his mind.

"Damn it, kid, you almost scared me to death just now, you know that?"

At this time, a voice sounded with anger.

"Senior, you..."

Qin Chen turned his head to look at Guangying.

At this moment, from the existence of light and shadow, Qin Chen actually felt a lingering emotion, but soon, this emotion was hidden in the other party.

Qin Chen pretended not to care, but said in horror: "Senior, whose blood is this? Why is it so terrifying?" Forget it, I might as well tell you that it was the supreme **** of the underworld who fought against me back then, and this person is truly invincible in the underworld.

Existence, and this trace of blood is the wound left by me when I fought with the **** of the underworld. "

"Of course, this seat is also broken because of this..."

"Senior broke?" Qin Chen was taken aback.

The existence of light and shadow was stunned, and he said: "I made a mistake at the moment, this treasure of this seat was broken, alas... this thing, which accompanied this seat for countless years, is one with this seat, just like this seat's own body Average." The existence of light and shadow is full of emotion: "Okay, let's not talk nonsense, if you want to leave, quickly use the sword of reverse killing in your hand, and urge your soul power to repair the restriction of this cross-sectional secret pattern. Your understanding of this secret pattern restriction, Bu

It may not be possible to install a new one, but if it is just a few repairs, it should not be a problem. "

"yes!"

Qin Chen picked up the mysterious rust sword and immediately activated the power of his soul.

boom! A terrifying soul breath permeated directly, and slowly penetrated into those secret pattern restrictions. With Qin Chen's understanding of these secret pattern restrictions, he could see at a glance that the existence of light and shadow was true. rust

The sword can indeed restrain and restore some of these secret patterns.

Seeing that Qin Chen's soul power was about to fall on the restriction of those secret lines, Qin Chen suddenly turned his head and said with some doubts: "Senior, can you see those people in the palace outside?"

The existence of light and shadow was originally waiting for Qin Chen to restore it. Seeing Qin Chen stop at this moment, he could only nod and said: "These people are all among the treasures of this seat, and this seat can naturally see them."

"But as far as this junior knows, countless ghost cultivators from the underworld have come here over the years, why didn't senior let them try to repair these divine pillars?" Qin Chen wondered. The existence of light and shadow sighed: "Didn't I tell you before? These ghost cultivators are people from the underworld. Only people from the universe sea can repair the secret patterns here, and the power of ghost cultivators in the underworld lacks the power of the universe sea rules." force, root

This cannot be repaired. "

Qin Chen wondered: "But since the power of these ghost cultivators can't repair seniors, what is the purpose of seniors absorbing their souls? Is it to erase the blood of the underworld god?" Light and shadow shook his head, "young man, why are you so angry?" What a problem? The strongest of these ghost cultivators is the Emperor Shimei. How can this level of strength be compared with the **** of the underworld? The reason why I absorb their souls is because it

Although they can't repair the secret pattern restriction, their spirit power can stabilize this world. Although the creatures of the underworld and the sea creatures of the universe are different, they also have something in common in essence. "

"The junior understands."

Qin Chen nodded.

"Do you have any questions?" Light and Shadow said speechlessly: "If you have any questions, ask them together, so as to save you a meal."

"No more." Qin Chen shook his head, then looked up at the light and shadow existence: "So, senior is not actually senior Seagod, but this treasure spirit?"

The existence of light and shadow was stunned: "You...what did you say?"

Qin Chen's expression became more and more certain: "The junior said that the senior is not the sea god, but the spirit of this treasure. Over the years, the senior has been maintaining the operation of this palace, right?"

"What treasure spirit..."

The existence of light and shadow was a little angry, boom, a terrifying killing intent swept out from its body, as soon as this breath came out, Qin Chen suddenly felt difficult to breathe, as if being suppressed by hundreds of millions of peaks, unable to move. But Qin Chen didn't show any panic on his face: "Senior, don't act any more. If you wanted to kill me, you would have done it long ago. Why wait until now? Besides, you won't stop the blood of the **** of the underworld before."

Chapter 5438: died once

"you you..."

The existence of light and shadow was extremely angry: "How did you know, how did you know?"

Accompanied by his anger, one after another of terrifying breaths rushed out, but as Qin Chen said, they did not hurt Qin Chen. "Actually, it's very simple." Qin Chen looked at the light and shadow in front of him: "Senior has slipped his tongue several times before, as if he couldn't tell the difference between himself and this palace hall. I deliberately confused him in my previous inquiry, but senior not in time found that this is not normal. "

"Have it?"

Light and Shadow was startled.

Thinking back carefully, he was indeed deceived several times before.

For example, Qin Chen once said that the palace hall continuously absorbs the power of many spirits and souls in order to restore the existence of light and shadow, but no clues to the existence of light and shadow have been found.

For another example, the existence of this light and shadow once said that the war that year broke it, and it was obviously the palace that broke, but the light and shadow said that it was it that broke.

These small language problems made Qin Chen guess.

"Is it so obvious?"

The existence of light and shadow suddenly felt a little sluggish, and at this moment, it obviously recalled those previous words.

"But why do you affirm that I am the spirit of the treasure here? Couldn't it be that I have been here for so many years and my mind is confused?"

The existence of light and shadow said angrily.

"I'm not sure." Qin Chen shook his head.

"What?" Light and Shadow was stunned.

"The junior just tested the senior before, but your behavior is equivalent to admitting it directly." Qin Chen said: "So the junior is sure."

grass!

The existence of light and shadow is a bit ignorant, did you admit it?

In retrospect, it seemed that the boy had said that directly before, and his actions seemed to admit it.

"Sly boy, sly boy!"

The light and shadow existence said angrily.

The more Qin Chen explained, it only felt that its IQ was lower.

Qin Chen shook his head and said, "Senior, it's not that the junior is cunning, but that the junior has experienced too much. If the junior is not careful, it is impossible for the junior to live to this day. Moreover, what the senior said earlier has too many loopholes, so... " angry.

Too many loopholes?

The existence of light and shadow couldn't help but be angry. Isn't this still saying it is stupid?

At this time, Qin Chen looked at the existence of light and shadow, and respectfully said: "Your junior can feel it. Senior has no malice towards this junior, but what is the purpose of senior pretending to be senior sea god? No..." Qin Chen shook his head slightly, "Sea **** is just the dead sea." The name of the Wraith Beast clan in the book to the senior, when the junior called the senior the Sea God, the senior was stunned for a moment, but later explained that he had too many titles, and the junior was a little suspicious at that time.

No doubt, now the junior is sure that Sea God is definitely not the title of the senior back then. "

"However, this is still unexplainable. Why did the senior ask the junior to repair the secret pattern restriction? What is the purpose?"

Qin Chen looked up at the broken pillar in front of him, frowning slightly.

He trusted his intuition very much, and he didn't feel any hostility from the existence of light and shadow, but what the other party said earlier had too many loopholes, so it was inevitable that Qin Chen would not be suspicious.

"I..." The light and shadow existence was just about to speak, when suddenly, a voice sounded in the void: "It just doesn't trust you." Qin Chen was startled, the voice came from behind him, Qin Chen hurriedly Turning around, he saw behind him not far away, at some point standing a middle-aged man wearing a black robe with an extremely stern and stalwart expression man.

This person's eyes are deep, like an endless void. As soon as Qin Chen and the other party's eyes met, he felt that he saw a bottomless pool, and his entire soul would be swallowed into it, becoming a dark funeral .

"you..."

Qin Chen was startled, he didn't even notice when this person came here. At this moment, the black-robed man's eyes fell on the mysterious rusty sword in Qin Chen's hand, and being fixed by this man's gaze, the mysterious rusty sword in Qin Chen's hand suddenly trembled with a buzzing sound, and the next moment, the mysterious rusty sword swished From Qin Chen

Soaring up into the sky, he actually arrived in front of the black-robed middle-aged man in an instant.

Buzz buzz!

The mysterious rusty sword trembled slightly, as if he was very excited when he saw an acquaintance, and an inexplicable emotion bloomed.

The mysterious Rusty Sword, which was originally full of killing intent and extremely fierce, was as excited as a child in front of this black-robed middle-aged man.

In the distant void, the light and shadow existence hastily saluted the black-robed middle-aged man, and said in a respectful tone, "Master."

"Owner?"

Qin Chen's pupils shrank.

This existence of light and shadow is the most precious spirit of this palace hall, so the middle-aged man in black robe who is its owner in front of him, isn't it the existence who fought against the **** of the underworld back then, and is also the real owner of the forbidden area of the Dead Sea.

"senior."

Qin Chen immediately bowed and saluted.

"You don't have to be polite."

The middle-aged man in the black robe said lightly, his tone was calm, but it contained an inexplicable and convincing power, which made Qin Chen straighten up involuntarily.

The middle-aged man in black robe stretched out his right hand, and suddenly, the mysterious rusty sword came to the top of his palm, trembling slightly.

"Old friend, we meet again."

The middle-aged man in black looked at the mysterious rusty sword in front of him tenderly. The mysterious rusty sword trembled and fell into his hand, but the two did not really touch, as if separated by endless void.

At this moment, Qin Chen realized that the middle-aged man in black robe was not a real entity, but just a phantom. The nihilistic palm of the middle-aged man in black robe gently stroked the sword body, with endless emotion and nostalgia in his eyes, "I'm sorry, old friend, you were injured in that battle back then, and half of you was broken here ,it's me

I hurt you..."

"If it wasn't because I wanted to come to the underworld, you wouldn't have suffered such serious injuries back then..."

The middle-aged man in the black robe had deep eyes, looking at the mysterious Rusty Sword, as if looking at a closest comrade in arms.

The mysterious rusty sword trembled slightly, also responding to him.

"Fortunately, you are still intact now, I don't know what happened to the injury you suffered back then..."

There was worry in the eyes of the middle-aged man in black robe, and the hand touching the blade seemed to be sensing something.

"Um?"

Suddenly, he stared blankly, looking at the mysterious Rusty Sword, a shocking light burst out from his pupils.

"this..."

The black middle-aged man couldn't help but make a sound in shock.

The voice fell, and with a bang, Qin Chen instantly felt as if the sky and the earth collapsed. He saw countless stars destroyed before his eyes, and a boundless rain of blood fell in the sky. Looking around, there were mountains of corpses and seas of blood everywhere, rolling heads. .

That terrifying and frightening scene was really like the end of the world.

wheeze.

Panting heavily, Qin Chen looked at the middle-aged man in black robe in front of him in horror. The middle-aged man in the black robe appeared here quietly before, and he couldn't feel the fierce aura on his body, but when he changed color, it really seemed that the world had lost its color, as if there was only one person left in the whole world.

A piece of endless killing in general.

What a terrifying aura.

Qin Chen was horrified in his heart. This person deserves to be the one who fought against the **** of the underworld back then. For some reason, Qin Chen even felt that the opponent's majesty was even higher than that of the ancient emperor's predecessors, which made him feel it from the bottom of his heart. throbbing.

At this moment, the middle-aged man in black robe suddenly raised his head, and looked at Qin Chen suddenly, with extremely shocked emotions in his eyes.

"This sword has been modified by someone?"

The middle-aged man in the black robe looked at Qin Chen and said in a deep voice, as if examining Qin Chen. Deep in his eyes, Qin Chen vaguely felt a trace of shock.

"Remodeled?"

Qin Chen was stunned, and suddenly remembered that when his mother was in the heaven, she had indeed modified this sword, suppressed the killing intent in this sword, and let it be used by him.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but nodded.

"Which existence transformed this sword?"

The middle-aged man in the black robe frowned, and couldn't help saying.

Qin Chen hesitated for a while, and said: "It's my mother. In order to let the younger generation better control this sword, I modified it a little bit. Senior...my mother didn't mean it..."

The middle-aged man in black robe took a deep breath, "Your mother?"

He looked Qin Chen up and down. This time, his gaze was extremely deep. Before this gaze, Qin Chen felt as if he was completely transparent, and everything was impossible to hide in front of this person.

"you..."

The pupils of the middle-aged man in the black robe shrank suddenly, and he appeared in front of Qin Chen in an instant, looking at Qin Chen with incomparable horror.

"You... have died once, it's impossible, how is this possible? How can a person who has died once be still alive? Even if he is fished out of the river of necromancers, he is still a creature of the underworld, how could he be a creature of the world."

The middle-aged man in black robe looked at Qin Chen as if he was looking at a monster.

"Have you ever died?"

The middle-aged man in black robe said in shock, his expression extremely excited.

"I..."

Under the gaze of the middle-aged man in black robe, Qin Chen couldn't help but think of his past life. If counting the past life, he...had indeed died once.

Thinking of this, he nodded and said: "Senior, this junior did die once, but this junior's soul was rescued by this junior's father before entering the underworld, so he never entered the river of necromancers, so naturally he is not a necromancer."

"No...not right!"

The middle-aged man in the black robe kept shaking his head: "Once the cosmic sea creatures fall, even if they don't enter the underworld, they will be restrained by the power of reincarnation and have the breath of death, but your soul..."

The middle-aged man in the black robe murmured, and the empty palm suddenly fell on Qin Chen.

boom!

In an instant, a terrifying force of reversing killing poured into Qin Chen's body. Under this force, Qin Chen was unable to move at all, and all the treasures in his body fell silent, completely out of Qin Chen's control.

fear.

At this moment, Qin Chen had only one thought in his mind, and that was terror.

In front of this black-robed middle-aged man, all the power in Qin Chen's body was suppressed, unable to move an inch.

As strong as the power of the **** emperor's totem, it is also completely motionless.

"This power..."

The middle-aged man in black robe looked horrified. He saw the power of judgment.

Chapter 5439: listen to a story

In Qin Chen's soul sea, the thunder power of the ruling **** was not suppressed by the black-robed middle-aged man, and the faint thunder light slowly circulated in Qin Chen's soul, resisting the prying power of the black-robed middle-aged man.

"This power, could it be, let me see..."

The pupils of the middle-aged man in black shrank, and he raised his head suddenly. It seemed that there were two vast rivers flowing in his pupils.

It is the long river of fate.

At his level of existence, through the cause and effect of a person, one can trace back to the past and future, and see a person's fate.

And now, he was calculating Qin Chen's past and future.

But what shocked him was that Qin Chen's past and future were blurred in front of him. He was so powerful that he couldn't see Qin Chen's fate clearly.

"Impossible, with my strength, who can block my prying eyes on the future? Could this power be..."

The middle-aged man in black robe thought of a possibility and was shocked.

"Understood, I understand."

The middle-aged man in black murmured. He turned his head and looked at Qin Chen again, but at this moment, there was a hint of shock, horror, fear, and surprise in his gaze.

Simple words cannot describe the emotion in this person's eyes.

The light and shadow were nervous and said: "Master, what's wrong with you?"

After following the master for so many years, it was the first time he saw such an expression from the master.

"Xiaosha, I'm fine."

The expression of the middle-aged man in black robe gradually calmed down. He looked at Qin Chen with something inexplicable and inexplicable in his eyes.

"I really didn't expect that I could see such an arrangement in my lifetime. It's amazing, it's really amazing, I'm not as good as..."

The middle-aged man in black robe looked at Qin Chen with amazed eyes and shook his head repeatedly.

Being looked at by this person, Qin Chen was puzzled. He always felt that there was something in the other person's words, and there seemed to be some secret hidden in him. Seeing Qin Chen's expression, the middle-aged man in black said calmly: "Do you have many doubts in your heart? For example, why did I come to the underworld? For example, what happened back then? What's going on here? Another example is Xiaosha previously

What is it all about? "

He looked at Qin Chen with deep eyes, as if he had seen through Qin Chen, directly saw the ancient Yu tower in Qin Chen's mind, saw the chaotic world in the ancient Yu tower, and saw everything in the chaotic world.

A trace of pity flashed in his eyes.

"Senior, please clarify your doubts." Qin Chen saluted respectfully.

The middle-aged black-robed man turned around and looked at the endless void. After a long time, he said softly, "Would you like to hear a story? After you finish listening to this story, you will understand something."

story?

Qin Chen said repeatedly: "Senior, please tell me." The middle-aged man in black robe pondered for a moment, and then said: "A long time ago, there was a boy who was born in a small mountain village. Both his parents died very early, and only one The younger sister who depended on each other, and although they had a very happy life

They are poor, but they live happily, because the people in the village are very kind to their brothers and sisters. They grew up eating a lot of food, and it can be said that the whole village raised them. "But the world is very chaotic, and everyone's life is precarious. His parents were killed by horse bandits when they went out, so the young man devoted himself to martial arts and wanted to become a strong man when he grew up, so that he could protect his sister. Protect the village.

"But, where can a young man with no connections go to practice martial arts?" He can only grow up a little bit ordinary, but the young man is not willing to be so ordinary all his life, so he goes deep into the mountains everywhere, because he heard people say that there are immortals in the mountains, but Get the chance to become a fairy. "

The middle-aged man in black robe spoke very softly, as if he had fallen into memory.

Qin Chen glanced at the middle-aged man in the black robe, and said, "And then?" The middle-aged man in the black robe looked deep into the void, "The young man didn't find the immortal, but maybe his determination moved the heavens. The young man was outside, he heard the roar of the sky, and saw the collapse of the mountain peak in the distance, and there was a glow lofty. He approached it out of fear and curiosity, and finally rescued an old man in the ravine. ""This old man is a well-known sect master in that continent. Because he was attacked by someone, he was seriously injured and passed out there, but he was accidentally rescued by a young man. The young man took him home to recuperate and served him day and night. After the old man woke up, the young man Begged the old man to accept him as an apprentice. The old man appraised the boy's bones, but found that the boy was actually a legendary waste body, even if he set foot on the road of cultivation, he would not achieve any achievements. "

Speaking of this, the middle-aged man in black robe suddenly glanced at Qin Chen: "Do you know how sad that young man was when he heard this?"

Qin Chen was silent.

A person who has worked so hard to embark on the path of cultivation, finally finds that he is a waste body when the opportunity comes, this kind of blow is certainly self-evident for a young man.

"It would be good if the story ended here, but it's a pity..." The black-robed middle-aged man paused and sighed, "The old man only stayed at the boy's house for one day after waking up, and when he left, the old man Seeing the younger sister of the young man, a look of surprise flashed in the eyes of the old man, and he left directly

. ""The boy was extremely disappointed, but before he recovered from the blow, one night three days later, the boy's village was attacked and killed by horse bandits, and more than 300 people in the whole village were slaughtered by horse bandits. exhausted, blood flowed into rivers, dead bodies everywhere. However, the boy and his sister escaped unharmed by going out. When they came back, they saw the corpses all over the ground, and the boy almost collapsed. "The villagers raised the boy and his younger sister. They are not relatives, but they are better than relatives. The boy is crazy and wants to fight the horse bandits, but his sister stops him. Looking at the younger sister's immature face, the boy hesitates. He knows If he goes this way, his sister will definitely become an orphan, how can he let his sister become a helpless orphan? And just when the boy was about to collapse, the old man came back and brought back a magic pill, a pill that can change the body.

Quality pill. "It turns out that the old man didn't forget the kindness of the young man. He just went to find the pill for the young man. When he came back, the village was gone. The old man blamed himself very much. He told the young man that it would be great if he hadn't left, and the village would be gone too." no you won't suffer

To the attack of the horse bandits, but it is too late to say anything now. ""The young man cried and asked the old man to avenge the villagers. The old man agreed. He took the young man and his sister to find the horse bandit's den, killed everyone in the village, and brought the young man and his sister back to the village. door, personally accept two only. "The middle-aged man in the black robe paused for a moment, and continued: "In the sect, the young man and his younger sister are highly valued, because they are direct disciples of the sect head, and they have a group of senior brothers and sisters to support them. Even the young man's younger sister has been promoted. dot, start practiced. The two gradually forgot their troubles, and forgot the killing and blood flow in the village that day. "

"The young man practiced martial arts very hard. He upholds the heart of justice. He wants to make this world no longer evil, so that there will be no more horse bandits in this world. Every time he goes down the mountain to practice, he has to ask if there are horse bandits in the training place, and fight alone. Bandit." "A few years have passed, the young man has grown into a genius and strong man in the sect by virtue of his hard work, and his sister has also stepped into the fairyland with the promotion of a lot of resources, and even obtained more resources than anyone else. more disciples

. After the boy grew up, many female disciples in the sect admired him, but he only liked the senior sisters under his master, because when he first came to the sect, it was his senior sisters who took care of their brothers and sisters. "

Speaking of this, there were endless memories in the eyes of the middle-aged man in black robe.

Qin Chen didn't ask any questions, but just listened quietly. After a while, the middle-aged man in the black robe continued: "After repeated experiences, the young senior sister also gradually understood the young man's affection for him. On the night when he was going down the mountain to practice, the young senior sister took the initiative to find the young man and express to him love. The teenager was so excited that he couldn't believe it, he was ecstatic. "The middle-aged man in the black robe slowly closed his eyes: "Actually, for so many years, the boy has never forgotten the mountain village back then, and the night when the blood flowed into the river. The confession of the senior sister made him feel happy for the first time. That night

The two of them are together. "

"But..." The eyes of the middle-aged man in the black robe gradually turned cold: "The next morning, when the joyful young man woke up, he saw that the senior sister lying on his bed had turned into a corpse, with blood flowing all over the floor. And what killed the senior sister was a sword

, a juvenile saber. ""The young man was brought back to the sect. Everyone firmly believed that the young man killed the senior sister, and angrily wanted to execute him to pay for the senior sister's life. Among all the people, only his sister pleaded for him, begged bitterly, and cried bitterly. brother must not will be the murderer. "But no one believed the boy, and everyone demanded that the boy be executed immediately and his body be torn into pieces. They didn't even want to listen to the boy's explanation, they didn't want to investigate, and they didn't want to wait for a result, as if they just wanted to kill the boy ,everything

The evil is gone, as for the real murderer, no one cares. "

Having said that, the middle-aged man in black robe suddenly turned his head to look at Qin Chen, "Do you know how evil this human nature is?"

Qin Chen was silent. The middle-aged man in the black robe said coldly: "Human nature is hypocritical. When people are superior and see the weak, they will not hesitate to bestow their 'kindness' on the weak, because this will make them feel superior.

But when the weak in their eyes suddenly became the same as them, even taller and more successful than them, their evil came out. ""The young man grows up too fast, and he is even expected to become the eldest son of the sect and inherit the mantle of the sect. When he is correct, everyone praises him, follows him, and worships him, but when he shows his flaws, everyone It's all starting to get worse... a lot of people are like this, he wants you to live well, but he doesn't want you to live better than him. "

Chapter 5440: Live well

"Because in the hearts of all the disciples of the sect, how can a waste material from a mountain village be qualified to become the eldest son and stand on their heads? Giving him the opportunity to join the sect and serve the sect is the greatest kindness. still want

How can it be possible to get rid of cattle and horses and become the eldest son? ""The teenagers in the past didn't make mistakes, so they didn't have the chance to make trouble, they could only chase after him, but when they saw the opportunity for the teenager to fall into the abyss, everyone stepped up to step on it instead of pulling it. look

It is enough to say a few words of regret when the young man is thrown into the abyss. "

The eyes of the middle-aged man in the black robe were full of coldness, and he slowly closed his eyes again: "Only the younger sister..." "She knelt in front of everyone, weeping and begging, believing that her brother had been wronged. Yes, I hope everyone will give the young man a chance to investigate the truth, but no one agrees, because no one cares about the truth. What they want is the young man's death, verbal criticism, being reviled by thousands of people, and never turning over. After all, watching a genius fall, What an exciting thing is this? Those former brothers and sisters have all become vicious at this moment beasts, beasts that want to eat people. "The middle-aged man in the black robe paused for a while, as if he had calmed down, and then continued: "Seeing that the boy was about to be executed, the boy's younger sister suddenly stood up and begged the sect to let her go to the fire trial, It was an extremely cruel ordeal in the sect, ten deaths and no survivors, no one has ever survived, and the passer-by can make a reasonable request to the sect. The young sister's request is not to execute her brother directly, but to give her brother a chance to find the truth.

Chance. "Why are you willing to give the boy a chance to stand up?" Almost everyone opposed the request, but at this time, the master who was the suzerain came forward to persuade everyone and agreed to the young sister's request. The boy cried, he would rather

Even if she dies, she doesn't want her younger sister to go to her death, but the younger sister looked at her brother with a smile and said firmly: "Brother, you must live well..."

Live well!

Qin Chen glanced at the middle-aged man in black robe, and murmured, "What happened next?"

"later?"

The middle-aged man in the black robe opened his eyes, and there were tears in his eyes: "After finishing speaking, the young sister jumped straight into the Fire Demon Cave, the sect's trial place, and was instantly wiped out."

Qin Chen's heart instantly became extremely heavy.

This story is too sad. The boy lost the person he liked, was framed, and lost his sister. How desperate and collapsed was he at that time?

The middle-aged man in the black robe paused, looking at the void in the distance, while Qin Chen stood aside. He didn't finish speaking this time, but just listened quietly. The middle-aged man in the black robe was silent for a long time this time before continuing: "The young man looked at the ugly faces of the brothers and sisters of the sect, and his heart was ashamed. He wanted to die and accompany his sister, but before he died, he thought of his sister's

He said, 'live well', and in the end he gave up on dying, but gritted his teeth and survived. "

"It's too easy to die, but it's hard to live." The black-robed middle-aged man slowly closed his eyes: "After this incident, the young man is like a mouse crossing the street in the sect. Everyone beats and scolds him, but he The master who has been supporting him silently has allowed him to survive on his last breath.

In his heart, his master is already his last light in the dark night, he is his closest relative, he regards him as his father. But the young man who survived has only one thought in his mind, and that is to find out the real culprit and prove himself. ""Year after year, the young man has become stronger and stronger, and his strength has gradually reached the top level in that continent. forest, wind

It must be destroyed, many evils come from jealousy. "However, the young man never found the real culprit until one day, the young man saw an old beggar in a city. This beggar was actually one of the horse bandits who slaughtered his village back then.

I heard a shocking secret..." The middle-aged man in the black robe slowly opened his eyes, his voice had become extremely gloomy, and he said coldly: "The reason why the horse bandits slaughtered the village back then was because an old man came to the village to find their leader , made a deal with their leader

Yi, let them slaughter the village, leaving only a young man and his sister, and from the description of the beggar, the young man knew that the old man was actually his master. "

"Naturally, the young man didn't believe it. He killed the beggar and refined his spirit, but he saw the scene from his spirit. The man who traded with the horse bandits in the cottage was actually his master."

"Why?"

The middle-aged man in the black robe was completely immersed in his memories, he gritted his teeth, his eyes became more and more gloomy, like a dark night, chillingly dark. "The young man didn't understand. He returned to the sect like a madman, broke into the master's retreat, and wanted to question the master, but he couldn't find anyone, but found a hidden secret room in the master's retreat. The young man was puzzled. into it, Unexpectedly, countless imprisoned souls were found in that secret room. These souls have been tempered day and night, and they have already turned into resentful souls, and the core soul among them belongs to the young sister. "

"The young sister's soul has been imprisoned and sacrificed continuously for a long time, and she has become extremely powerful."

"At this time, the young master came back, and when he saw the young man, he immediately laughed and said: My good apprentice seems to know it all."

"The young man almost went crazy, crying and questioning him why... that is the dearest teacher in his life." "The old man smiled and began to tell everything... It turns out that the reason why the old man left back then was not to repay the young man's kindness , but fell in love with the boy's younger sister, his younger sister actually possessed the most special physique in the world—big Dao soul body! The soul possessed by this body is extremely pure. After being cultivated, it can be forcibly extracted and deprived, and swallowed after it is completed, it can aspire to the supreme state of the mainland. "Speaking of this, the middle-aged man in the black robe suddenly laughed, but his smile made people feel distressed and chilled, "It was not until that moment that the young man realized that the reason why his master brought him and his sister back to the sect was because because he wanted his sister's Dao soul body. ""And... the boy's master colluded with horse bandits and slaughtered more than 300 people in the entire village in order to make the boy and his sister give up their hearts. Moreover, the boy's senior sister was also deliberately sent by him to get close to the boy in order to frame him. let His sister voluntarily jumped into the fire demon cave, burned her body, and let him refine her soul. "

"Liars, all liars..."

Speaking of this, the middle-aged man in black robe suddenly laughed.

"Owner."

In the distance, the existence of light and shadow whispered silently.

Amidst the desolate laughter, the middle-aged man in black robe was full of tears. He suddenly turned his head to look at Qin Chen: "You know, why didn't his master kill the boy after the younger sister died?"

Qin Chen was silent and shook his head slightly. The eyes of the middle-aged man in the black robe suddenly turned cold: "That's because, if you want to develop a Dao soul body, you must survive the will, and you must maintain your heart in the endless torture. Soul solution. So

The young master told the young sister that if her soul dies, the young man will die and suffer from torture for life after life. "

"This is how the young sister can maintain her true heart in the endless torture, and never become a resentful soul, because even if she turns into a soul, she is still guarding, silently guarding her only brother."

"But what about his brother?"

The middle-aged man in the black robe said angrily: "What did he do? He recognized the thief as his father!" The opponent was beaten to death, but the young master did not kill the boy, but

It was in front of the young man that he forcibly devoured his sister's soul, trying to achieve the supreme soul body. "

Speaking of this, the middle-aged black-robed man was full of tears: "Even at this moment, that villain is still using the young man, threatening his sister to be devoured by him, otherwise he will kill his brother on the spot."

"brute!"

"It's not a beast, what is it?"

The middle-aged man in black robe said coldly.

Qin Chen glanced at the man in black robe, remained silent, and listened quietly. The middle-aged man in the black robe took a deep breath and closed his eyes. After a long time, his expression gradually calmed down a little, and then he opened his eyes again, and said coldly: "But the young master underestimated the determination of the young sister, Swallow Dao Soul Body

s consequence. ""The younger sister knew very well that once she was devoured, the boy would definitely die, so she cooperated extremely during the devouring process, but at the last moment, she blew her soul. Under the resistance of the young sister, the young master was counterattacked on the spot, and

The young man also seized the opportunity, desperately cast the secret technique, and took the opportunity to kill the villain. "

The middle-aged man in the black robe said slowly: "But the younger sister died in the end. When her soul was gone, the younger sister said that sentence to the boy again: Brother, live well!"

Live well!

The middle-aged man in black robe closed his eyes, two lines of clear tears slipped from the corners of his eyes.

Qin Chen glanced at the middle-aged man in black robe. He couldn't imagine how much pain the young man endured at that time. The middle-aged man in black robe was silent for a long time this time before continuing: "The young man left the sect and set up a tomb for his younger sister in the small mountain village back then, and then he returned to the sect alone, each with a sword , Tu Thirty-five thousand four hundred and sixty-three people in the entire sect were wiped out, regardless of whether they were old or weak, women or children. "

"A total of more than three hundred people died in the small mountain village back then, and he wanted the sect to pay it back a hundred times!" As he spoke, the middle-aged man in black robe slowly raised his head and said with a sneer, "Since then, the boy has had a family in that continent." Name, God of Death!"
