Chapter 741: Lawless

As the sixth-order pinnacle crafting master, Yelu Hongtao had such a vicious eyes. At a glance, he could see the precious soldiers brought out by the black slaves. The materials used were only the most basic first-order material, black profound iron.

However, the aura on this precious soldier was clearly a second-tier precious soldier.

"Unbelievable, really unbelievable, can it be possible to use Tier 1 materials to really refine Tier 2 treasures? Cold fire condensing weapons, this is the real refining technique, terrible, terrible..."

Yelu Hongtao was excited and trembling.

He kept looking at the precious soldier in his hand, his eyes solemn and his face flushed.

In addition to the level of transcendence, Yelu Hongtao also saw many legendary refining techniques on this precious soldier.

"The black black iron is hard in material, but it has poor plasticity. However, this precious soldier has such a complicated pattern engraved on it, which enhances the flexibility of this precious soldier. This is clearly the one hundred revolutions of the ancient refining technique. Alchemy."

"There is also this sword body and blade, all in one go. There is no trace of secondary processing. Is it the legendary one-piece forging technique?"

"What's even more amazing is that the impurities in this black profound iron are almost exhausted by tempering, and the entire sword body is flawless. What tempering technique was used?"

Lightly touching the sword body, Yelu Hongtao's excited heart was about to explode.

He hurriedly bowed his hands in salute to the black slave and Xu Bo, with a pious face on his face, and respectfully said: "The two young masters, I don't know where they are? Please also two referrals so that I can see the master in person and listen to the teachings. "

As a refiner, the reason why Yelu Hongtao was able to get to this point and become the head of the Dawei Dynasty Tool Palace was entirely because he had a very high respect for the art of refinement.

Therefore, after seeing this ordinary Tier 2 soldier, there are so many guards that have been lost even in the legend, his heart is so excited that he can't speak at all. .

I even want to see the young master that the black slave is talking about now, and listen to the other's teachings.

Yelu Hongtao knows very well that over the years, he has been wholeheartedly trying to break through the seventh rank and become a king-level craftsman, but he is struggling to be unable to obtain the promotion method.

The land of hundreds of dynasties is too barren, and he has no big background, and has a strong master to teach.

Over the years, Yelu Hongtao has been groping slowly, but progress has been slow.

But now, seeing so many heaven-defying weapon refining techniques makes him not excited?

As long as he can control these refining techniques, and nothing else, it is possible for him to refine the seventh-tier king soldiers in a very short period of time, and he will enter the seventh in one fell swoop. The ranks of the king-level mixer.

What glory is this?

Seventh-order king-level refining master, in the entire hundred dynasties, there are only a handful of them, and each one has an amazing status.

He is a heaven-defending figure sought after by all dynasties.

For example, the emperor of the Dawei Dynasty, Liu Xuanrui, in order to invite a king-level refiner for the Dawei Dynasty, he even went to the thatched cottage and went out in person to visit the famous ghost and talent refiner Zuoan in the land of hundreds of dynasties.

It's a pity that even so, Master Zuo An still said nothing to Liu Xuanrui, and please leave, and His Majesty the Dawei Dynasty did not even dare to be angry with Master Zuo An.

This is the terrible thing about the king-level refiner.

Once he can break through the seventh-order king level, he will not only be able to call the wind and rain in the Dawei Dynasty, but also enough to shake the entire land of the hundred dynasties and enter a higher area.

Seeing the effect achieved, the black slave sighed: "Hall Master Yelu, it is true that we, the young master, were planning to visit you personally in these two days. However, there was an accident not long ago, so we can only ask The Lord Yelu has been waiting for a while."

"What's the accident?" The Lord Yelu heard this and suddenly panicked.

"That's it. Our young master first came to the Dawei Dynasty, but because of some special reasons, some forces in the imperial city were offended. Now these people are looking for trouble with our young master. Our young master was framed by the other party and couldn't get away. body."

"What the * is going on?" Palace Master Yelu was anxious: "The old man has a lot of contacts in the imperial city. If there is any problem, our Palace will come forward to solve your young master."

"This is not so good, and our young master's offending power is not small."

"What if it's not small, the old man is in the imperial city, and he is quite thin-faced, who is it?"

"Is the Leng Family, one of the three giants in the Imperial City."

"The Leng family?" Yelu Hongtao frowned, "How could your young master offend the Leng family?"

The Leng Family is not a small force in the imperial city, but the head of the three major families, and it is also a family of medicine pills, with an extraordinary status and identity. "Oh, it's a long story. It's mainly the Feng family under the Leng family. They bullied others and wanted to touch our young master's woman. When our young master was furious, we destroyed the Feng family and angered the Leng family. It's fine, our young master is in charge, and we don't care about Leng's revenge, but this Leng's family,

It was too despicable, and even colluded with the City Guard and asked the City Guard to send someone to take our young master away. "Speaking of this, the black slave said depressed: "In fact, our young master doesn't care about the city guard department at all, but the young master is still a master alchemist, and even the master Zhuo Qingfeng of the Dan Pavilion admires it very much. Cause trouble, can only go back with the people of the City Guard, and now he is taken into the City Guard prison. "

"The people from the city security department are very arrogant. They don't even sell Dange's face because of the Leng family. We are now trying to save the young master." "So lawless." Yelu Hongtao had heard of the Leng family. He had some doubts with the City Guards Department, but after hearing that Qin Chen was a legitimate defense and the City Guards Department abused lynching, he suddenly became angry: "This Leng family is so brave, how dare to do such a thing, and The City Guard, as the official institution of the dynasty

, It is too presumptuous to help the gang to abuse. "Yelü Hongtao looked angry. "You two don't worry, the old man really doesn't believe it. This is the place of the Dawei Dynasty. It is the site of the imperial city. It is enough for the Leng family to be arrogant below. At the feet of the emperor, they still want to cover it with only one hand. The sky is not there? This matter was handed over to the old man, he immediately sent someone to the city guard

, Take your young master out, and turn the sky away. "

Yelu Hongtao is the head of the Palace of Tools, and in the imperial city, he is also a great figure.

He sent someone to the City Guard Office to intercede, it was not ordinary oppression. The black slave breathed a sigh of relief when he heard the words and smiled and said: "If the Lord Yelu comes forward, it must be easy to handle. This precious soldier will be given to the Lord Yelu as a souvenir. If our young master really comes out of the city guard, In the next, I will definitely speak nicely for the Lord Yelu, let our young master come to communicate with the Lord Yelu as soon as possible

"Where, your Excellency is too polite. Punish evil and promote good. This is what my generation should do." Yelu Hongtao was overjoyed. He wanted this effect, and he only felt that the black slave was very sensible.

Chapter 742: Geng Deyuan

When the black slave and Xu Bo desperately tried to save Qin Chen.

Dan Court.

After the retreat ended, Pavilion Master Zhuo Qingfeng also heard about Qin Chen, and was immediately frightened.

"What did the * Xu Bo eat? The old man appointed him as the deputy head of the Dange, and he did it for me? How did Master Qin Chen take it away from the city guard?"

Zhuo Qing was trembling all over.

The reason why he closed the door before was just to test Qin Chen's previous answer to the difficult stone wall.

The results of the experiment shocked him.

Qin Chen's answers to every question were flawless, without any omissions at all.

At the same time, he tried Qin Chen's judgment on his body again.

I found that the answer Qin Chen gave was simply a stroke of magic, and it could definitely solve his problems perfectly.

This made him so excited that he almost cried.

But as soon as the result came out, he heard the news that Qin Chen was imprisoned by the City Guard, which made him not angry.

He has worked so hard for so many years and has been unable to solve his problems, unable to break through, and now with great difficulty, he sees a glimmer of hope.

But in a blink of an eye, Qin Chen who could solve the problem was arrested by the city guard.

This is really killing him!

The Leng Family and the City Guards Department did not have trouble with Qin Chen, but clearly had trouble with Zhuo Qingfeng. "Xiao Ya, you take the old man's token and go to the city guard office immediately and ask the city guard department to release people. If the city guard office doesn't let go, you tell them that it is the old man's order. I won't believe it. Pill pavilion master, even the alchemist in my pill pavilion can't keep it. Do you really think that Zhuo Qingfeng is a vegetarian?"

Zhuo Qingfeng called Xiao Ya and said angrily. At this moment, he was really angry.

The black prison area of the City Guard.

The news that Qin Chen enjoyed VIP treatment in the dark prison finally reached the ears of Deputy Commander Geng Deyuan after one night. "You beasts, how dare you to act against the evil? How did the old man send Guan Wei tell you? Let you take good care of this kid. It's better for you to prepare such a place for him? Why, what do you think the leader is? Did you let this kid come to the black jail for vacation?"

With tea, are all pig brains? Do you still want to work in the City Guard? "

Seeing Qin Chen enjoying the emperor's treatment in the black prison area, Geng De was trembling with energy and his lungs exploded.

And the other city guards behind him also had pale and ugly expressions.

In front of Geng Deyuan, several city guards in the black prison area were trembling with fright.

Captain Tian Tan on the side said with a cold face: "Deputy Commander Geng, don't scold them. They are Tian's subordinates, and I, Tian, made them do this."

Tian Dan deserves to be a responsible person, but at this time, he stepped up and took the responsibility, making several of his men grateful.

"Tian Dan, what do you mean? The old man asked you to 'take good care'. That's how you took care of it? Did you misunderstand the meaning of this commander, or do you have to struggle with this commander?" Geng Deyuan's tone was cold.

"Commander Geng, this is my dark prison area, so don't be angry. It's meaningless. I am someone Tian, not your soldier under Deputy Commander Geng, and you can't control me."

Tian Dan said lightly, even in front of the deputy commander Geng Deyuan, he was not afraid.

"Tian Dan, are you deliberately having trouble with Geng? Do you think you are the captain of the City Guard, and this commander can't handle you?" Geng Deyuan looked at Tian Dan in disbelief and was furious.

The surrounding city guards were also stunned.

At first, they thought it was Captain Tian Tan who had misunderstood the meaning of Geng Commander. Now it seems that the other party intended to do so.

Did Captain Tian take the wrong medicine?

"Haha, Deputy Commander Geng, although you are the Deputy Commander of the City Health Department, you are in charge of the streets in the West District of the Imperial City. You can't control my black prison area. The commander of my black prison area is Commander Wei. You are Geng Deyuan."

There is a director of the city health department, three orthodox leaders, and under each orthodox leader, there are five deputy leaders.

In other words, the entire city health department is equivalent to a total of fifteen deputy commanders, and each deputy commander is in charge of different areas.

Under each deputy commander, there are five more brigades, and each brigade is divided into ten squadrons and teams.

It can be described as strict.

According to his rank, the deputy commander of Geng Deyuan must be one level higher than the captain of Tian Tan.

However, the black prison area under the control of Tian Dan is an important department of the City Health Department.

How many criminals are there in the entire black prison area? How many vicious criminals? It's not an ordinary captain at all, it can be suppressed.

The captain who can control the black prison area is definitely one of the top captains of all the city guards.

In addition, Geng Deyuan and Tian Tan do not belong to the same chief supervisor, and they are equivalent to different departments. Tian Tan naturally has the confidence to speak to Geng Deyuan.

"You presumptuous!"

Hearing Tian Dan's words, Geng Deyuan almost went mad.

"Tian Dan, do you know what you are talking about? You are the captain, do you still want to be? Believe it or not, this commander will directly strip you off!"

Geng De vigorously trembled all over, pointing to Tian Dan, extremely angry.

Although Geng Deyuan was only a deputy commander, he also had a background.

It was the path led by his boss Gu.

The ancient commander, among the three leaders of the City Guard, is also one of the most powerful ones.

Moreover, the relationship between the ancient leader and the Leng family was also extraordinary. The reason why he was able to contact the Leng family was because of the introduction of the ancient leader.

In other words, they belong to a group, and their interests are all tied together.

Not to mention, this time, His Royal Highness the Three Princes intervened.

The three princes came forward, not to mention that they were in charge of the ancients, even the director of the city health department had to sell face.

But now, the captain of this Tiantan district dare to bludgeon him so openly, how can he not be angry?

"Haha, Commander Geng, your status is noble and you are naturally omnipotent, but someone from Tian, can't do anything against conscience just because you are one level above me. This team leader has also read Qin Chen's dossier. , There are many unreasonable places, Geng commander insists on letting the captain beat him into a trick Someone in Shutian can't do it. Our city's health department is not a place to hide dirt. "Tian Dan snorted coldly.

Yesterday, after following Qin Chen's method and liquid medicine treatment, the stubborn illness that had troubled Tian Dan really got better, and even Tian Dan had a feeling that within two days, he would be able to recover half of his martial arts cultivation.

At that time, it is not impossible to break through the sixth-order Wuzun. Once he becomes a sixth-order martial artist, his status and status will be greatly different.

Chapter 743: Somehow

"Okay, okay, Tian Dan, you are good enough, this leader has no time to * with you now, come here, bring that kid out of the black prison area, this leader doesn't believe it, leaving the black prison area, the old man is still arrogant No, Qin Chen won't make it."

Seeing that Tian Tan was not showing any drops of water, Geng Deyuan was trembling with anger, but he was helpless for a while, and could only wave his hand to take Qin Chen away.

"Sorry, since this son has been taken to the black prison area, there is my Tian's prisoner. Before the investigation is over, Deputy Commander Geng may not be able to take the person away casually."

Who knows, just when Geng Deyuan's men were about to open the prison door, Tian Dan stepped forward and stopped in front of them, not allowing Geng Deyuan's men to bring Qin Chen out.

"Tian Dan, what do you mean?"

Geng Deyuan's eyes flashed cold, his whole body bloomed with murderous intent, and he said angrily: "This person was sent by the old man to * him. Do you still want to stop me?"

"I'm sorry, even if this person was sent by Deputy Commander Geng, but when he arrived in my dark prison area, there was my prisoner from Tian. How can you allow Commander Geng to lead away when he said he would lead?" Tian Dan looked serious and said. Refused.

"you....."

Geng Deyuan was furious.

Tian Tan had ignored his instructions before, but now he is not even prepared to give it to him. This is clearly the rhythm of preparing to smash to the end with his Geng Deyuan.

His dignified deputy commander, when did he suffer such a loss in front of a captain?

"Tian Dan, do you know what you are doing?" With a cold look, Geng Deyuan looked at Tian Dan coldly, full of murderous aura.

"Tian Dan, don't let me go."

"Dare to offend Commander Geng, do you want to die?"

"Correct your attitude. You are just a captain. How dare you not even listen to Commander Geng's orders? Do you want to commit the following?"

Behind Geng Deyuan, many city guards also looked angry and shouted. Faced with the murderous gazes of everyone, Tian Dan said calmly: "The black jail area is the core area of the City Guard Department. The prisoners are all prisoners who have a major hazard to the imperial city and even the dynasty. As the head of the black jail district, although he is not a high-level person in the city security department, he also knows to be dedicated

How can one make people think of a Cypriot as a Cypriot, or mention a man if they want to mention a Cypriot? "

"If Deputy Commander Geng is dissatisfied with Tian's attitude, even if he goes to the Director General, he wants to take him away today unless he walks on Tian's body." Tian Dan sneered.

"Tian Dan, do you think I dare not touch you?"

Geng Deyuan looked angry, representing the true power of the sixth-order Wuzun, and released it suddenly. "Haha, Deputy Commander Geng, who is your character, would you dare not touch Tian? However, if Deputy Commander Geng you dare to touch a certain hair in Tian today, Tian will definitely write to the head of the bureau, even the royal family, say you Deputy Commander Geng did not follow the rules, rushed into the black prison area, hijacked the prisoner, and tried to rebel.

Knowing this crime, can you bear it, Deputy Commander Geng? "

Tian Dan's expression was cold, and his words were firm.

Geng Deyuan was full of murderous aura, and instantly collapsed, his face pale with anger.

He couldn't bear the charge of forcibly breaking into the black prison area and kidnapping the prisoner. "Okay, okay, okay!" Geng Deyuan yelled three times in a row, with an extremely cold tone. His eyes shot out insidious eyes like snakes and scorpions, and said coldly: "Tian Dan, I don't know why you have to protect this kid today. However, I tell you, you have no respect and humiliation, and the following crimes are already deeply angry.

This commander, this commander can give you one last chance, immediately give way and hand over Qin Chen, this commander can forget the past, otherwise, this commander can tell you clearly that you, the captain of the black prison area, will soon end up. "

Tian Dan sneered coldly, he couldn't rob him, so would he threaten him?

He smiled disdainfully and said: "Sorry, it is absolutely impossible. If Deputy Commander Geng has nothing else to do, please leave the black prison area so as not to cause unnecessary trouble."

A wave of his hand is tantamount to a direct chasing away.

This face was slapped, making Geng Tongling's face flushed like pig liver.

He is a dignified deputy commander, when has he been so humiliated? He was actually driven out of the black prison area by a city guard brigade captain, and passed out, he, the deputy commander, who will be convinced in the future? I'm afraid it will become the laughing stock of the entire city guard.

"Okay, Tian Dan, you have a seed. You wait for this commander. If you don't strip you as a captain this time and kick you out of the city guard office, this commander will not be named Geng. Let's go. "

Trembling with anger, Geng Deyuan didn't want to stay in the black prison area for even one more second, and left with a group of subordinates angrily.

"Tian Dan, you are finished."

"Isn't it."

"I don't know what it is!"

A group of Geng Deyuan's men looked at Tian Dan coldly, snorted coldly, and turned and left.

"Captain, it is really unwise for you to offend Deputy Commander Geng so much. I heard that Deputy Commander Geng is the leader of Gu. If Deputy Commander Geng said something ill of you in front of Commander Gu, I am afraid that he might really be kicked out of the city guard. what!"

As soon as Geng Deyuan left, Tian Dan's men spoke in panic.

They are just ordinary city guards. In their eyes, a captain is as big as the sky, not to mention offending a deputy commander like Geng Commander, and everyone is panicked.

Tian Tan glanced at a few people, and said lightly: "Don't worry, Tian will take care of today's affairs, and it won't involve you."

"Captain, we didn't mean that." "Okay, no need to explain, you guys, don't worry too much, I, Tian, is upright, how can he be threatened so easily, you guys, let me watch Here, we must not let unrelated people take Master Qin away. If you let me know who is behind her back

I'm the secretary, be careful that Tian is rude to him. "

"Captain, don't worry, we must be careful."

Several city guards said quickly.

These people are Tian Dan's confidants, and he is quite trusting. "That's good, you all drank the liquid medicine yesterday, and think about each one of them, who will treat your illnesses and get rid of the evil spirits in your body. Our city guards are all men who stand up to the ground. If Master Qin is a gangster, Tian will naturally have nothing to say, but if someone wants to frame Master Qin , That Tian will never agree. "

"Okay, leave it to me here, you can go down first." Captain Tian waved his hand and sent these guys away.

"Captain Tian, really is unparalleled."

After the city guards left, Qin Chen saw the whole process and said in admiration to Tian Dan in the dark prison.

He did not expect that Tian Dan would dare to confront Geng Deyuan for his own sake. This was a matter of blocking his future. Tian Dan smiled bitterly: "Master Qin, don't laugh at me. Although Tian is not a good man, he still understands the truth of Zhien's report. Master Qin is so kind to Tian, and there is Tian's benefactor. Besides, Tian must not let Master Qin suffer in the black prison area."

Chapter 744: So majestic

"But." Speaking of this, Tian Dan sighed: "Vice Commander Geng has a very deep background. Tian also learned about your case yesterday. This matter is very complicated. It seems that besides Leng's family, I have a friend. Said, it seems that His Royal Highness the Three Princes had also sent a souvenir to Deputy Commander Geng, if so

, Tian did not know how long it would last. "

"The three princes give Geng a souvenir?"

Qin Chen's eyes condensed, but he did not expect that in this matter, the three princes would intervene.

"Are you sure, Master Ben and the three princes in your mouth have no grievances and no grudges, why should he intervene in this matter?"

Tian Tan lightly sighed: "This matter was secretly informed by a friend of Tian who was working under Deputy Geng. There should be nothing wrong with it. As for why the three princes intervened in this matter, Tian did not know, maybe it was. Because of Master Qin's status as a disciple of the Five Nations."

"Five nations status?" "Yes, the third prince is very arrogant, most particular about blood, and disdains some people from remote places. He even proposed to eradicate the slums of Xicheng in the dynasty, but his majesty did not agree. , The three princes are popular candidates for the next monarch of the dynasty, among several princes

The one with the highest voice, if he speaks, our director will probably save face. If Master Qin has a way, please find a way as soon as possible. Tian may not hold on for long. "

Hearing what Tian Tan said, Qin Chen's eyes gradually cooled.

At this moment, he also remembered that these three princes seemed to be the ones who prevented You Qianxue and the others from joining the Emperor Star Academy.

"In that case, the status of the five nations of this young man is still hindering his third prince?"

Qin Chen sneered.

These three princes embarrassed themselves again and again, really thinking that they are clay figurines, don't they have the slightest temper?

It's okay if he doesn't intervene in this matter, if he really intervenes, and he is still in collusion with the Leng family, then he shouldn't blame himself for not giving face. In the future, he will have to fight him hard.

Seeing this, Tian Dan hurriedly said: "Master Qin, you don't think of any way to deal with the third prince, don't be reckless, the third prince is noble, in his eyes, I am just waiting for an ant, and will not let go. In the heart."

"An ant?" Qin Chen smirked: "Very good, what an ant, but if he regards Ben Shao as an ant, I'm afraid Ben Shao will disappoint him."

Qin Chen's eyes were cold: "Is the prince the loudest? I hope he will not make the wrong choice."

Seeing Qin Chen like this, Tian Dan opened his mouth and wanted to say something, but in the end he could only shook his head and sighed slightly.

He is helpless here.

On the other side, Geng Deyuan, who returned to his office, was very angry.

"What a Tian Dan, I'm so tired of life. I dare to confront the leader. This time the leader has to pull him off the horse. Someone..."

"Subordinates are here." A city guard hurried forward.

Geng Deyuan looked gloomy and shouted: "You immediately report to Gutongling, report the matter here, and inform the ancient commander of the third prince's handwritten letter, so that his old man will issue a derogatory letter and directly withdraw this Tian Dan's captain. position."

"Yes, the subordinate will go now."

Geng Deyuan's face was green. Originally, this matter was ordered by the Leng family, and the relationship between the three princes. He didn't want the ancient leader to interfere.

But who would have thought that Tian Dan should be so disrespectful, making him crazy with anger.

If I knew it, Qin Chen would not be sent to the black prison area.

Only now, it's too late to regret.

Fortunately, his immediate superior, Gu Commander, is a high-ranking officer in the City Guard Department. It is absolutely a matter of a sentence to remove a captain.

When the time comes, wait until the derogatory book comes down to see how arrogant Tian Dan is.

At this moment, a knock on the door sounded, and a city guard came in from outside.

"what's up?"

Geng Deyuan was in a bad mood and asked coldly.

The city guard hurriedly knelt down on one knee and said: "Commander Geng, there is a pharmacist named Xiao Ya outside. It is said that he was ordered by the Lord Pill Pavilion and asked our city guard to release Qin Chen immediately. This is the token of their Dange Pavilion Master."

With that, the city guard handed over a token. Geng Deyuan was so angry that he saw the token on the table, threw it out, and yelled: "A little disciple of the Five Kingdoms, what is the elder of the Dange, and what is the owner of the Dange, these Dange Are all the people full and have nothing to do? Go and tell the people, this Qin Chen is our city guard

Dan Ge is not qualified to intervene with the city's main offender, and ask the other party to leave quickly! "

"Yes!"

The city guard immediately turned and left.

"It's no wonder that the kid is very confident. It turned out to have climbed the path of Dan Pavilion. Huh, Dan Pavilion has no reputation at all in my Dawei dynasty. It does not even have half of the market share of Leng's family. He is also arrogant in front of the old man. Stuff."

Geng Deyuan sneered, showing disdain.

Before the words were over, the city guards who had gone out hurriedly walked back.

"Didn't you let you drive away? Why did you come back?" Geng Deyuan frowned.

"Leader Geng, there is another person asking for a meeting outside."

"Someone else? Who is it?"

"It's a deacon from the Hall of Instruments. It is said that he was ordered by the Hallmaster of the Hall of Artifacts to ask our city guard to release that Qin Chen." The city guard company said.

"Tool Palace? It's also for Qin Chen? What's the matter?"

Geng Deyuan was depressed.

I couldn't help but angrily said: "Just say that Qin Chen is the main offender of our city's security department and must be severely punished. No one can intercede."

Geng Deyuan sneered.

Although the Palace of Equipment is very strong, in the Dawei Dynasty, the Ding Equipment Pavilion in the strength of the Zongmen really occupied the imperial city weapon market.

He Geng Deyuan didn't need to flatter the Qidian, he was naturally fearless of Qidian.

But just as the city guard left, Geng Deyuan had not had time to rest, and with a creak, the door was opened again.

"Commander Geng, there is another person asking to see you outside!" The city guard was almost crying.

"Someone else?" Geng Deyuan was also going crazy, and said angrily: "Who is it this time?"

"The man said that he was the steward of the Holy Land of Blood, and he came for Qin Chen and asked the people of our city guard to release them immediately." The city guard said tremblingly.

"The steward of Bloodline Holy Land? Also begging for Qin Chen?"

Geng Deyuan stood up suddenly, his face changed.

Geng Deyuan leaned on the Leng family, naturally he didn't care about the Pill Pavilion, he didn't have much need for the device hall, and he was fearless, but he couldn't care less about the Holy Land of Bloodline. He frowned, and said solemnly: "You said that I am not here and I don't see you. As for letting go? Just say that Qin Chen is the dynasty's criminal. How can we let it go? Our city guard department obeys the order of the dynasty. Naturally, people should not be released directly because of the intercession of the Holy Land of Blood. This is not to the dynasty.

responsibility. "

Geng Deyuan didn't dare to say too harshly about the management of Bloodline Holy Land.

"This Qin Chen, how can he even take the path to the Holy Land of Bloodline?"

After the city guards left, Geng Deyuan's face was extremely gloomy.

As he was thinking about it, he heard the noise coming from outside. A middle-aged man with a gloomy face and wearing a bloodline sanctuary steward stepped in.

In front of him, several city guards tried to persuade them, but they couldn't stop each other.

"Your Excellency, a deputy commander of the City Health Department, so majestic!" Chen Xiang said coldly as he walked into Geng Deyuan's office arrogantly.

Chapter 745: Angry Zhuo Qingfeng

This time, Chen Xiang received an order from the president of Nangongli, the holy place of his blood, to rescue Qin Chen.

He originally thought that after coming to the city guard office, as long as he spoke, the other party would surely send Qin Chen out obediently.

But who ever thought that the other party would not see him at all and would send him away.

How does this make Chen Xiang not angry?

Don't look at Chen Xiang in front of Nangong Li, uneasy, trembling, as if he had no status.

That's because of the identity of the president of Nangong Li Bloodline Holy Land.

In the outside world, when he was in charge of the dignified sacred place, when was he treated so lightly?

What's more, Nangongli's order from the president is very clear, that is to rescue Qin Chen from the prison of the city guard department. If the president's order is not fulfilled, how can Chen Xiang go back for business?

In anger, Chen Xiang broke into the city guard office directly and asked Geng Deyuan for an explanation.

"Deputy Commander Geng, didn't your subordinates just said that you were not here? Why are you sitting here right now, are they playing me?"

When he came to Geng Deyuan, Chen Xiang said directly with a mocking sneer.

"It turned out to be in charge of the Bloodline Holy Land, hehe, rare customers, rare customers, the system is indeed not before the leader, and just returned to the office, so Deputy Commander Geng may have misunderstood."

Seeing Chen Xiang being so arrogant, Geng Deyuan was annoyed, but still said with a smile.

It is better for people in the Holy Land of Blood to not sin or not to sin. "Humph." Chen Xiang snorted. He didn't know what Geng Deyuan was thinking. He waved his hand and snorted coldly: "Deputy Commander Geng, I won't talk nonsense with you. Since you are here, the old man just said it. , Your city guards captured a young man named Qin Chen yesterday. This person is my sanctuary south

The friend of the president of Gongli also asked Deputy Commander Geng to quickly hand over the people and let the old man take them back, so that they could deal with the president of Nangongli. "

Chen Xiang snorted directly.

He was in charge of the dignified sacred place of blood, but he did not pay attention to Geng Deyuan, the deputy commander of the city guard.

"The people in this bloodline holy land are too arrogant!" Seeing Chen Xiang's arrogance and asking him for someone as soon as he came up, Geng Deyuan was very angry.

The Holy Land of Bloodline is strong, but when can a manager arbitrarily intervene in the affairs of his city guard?

Return Nangong's friend from the chairman!

Geng Deyuan sneered, what is Qin Chen's status, a member of the Five Nations, I heard that he is a pharmacist, and he has a relationship with the Dan Pavilion, but it is normal. When did Qin Chen become a friend of the president of the Holy Land Nangong Li Up?

Without thinking about it, Geng Deyuan guessed that it must be the Dange people who invited Chen Xiang, the Holy Land of Blood, and asked the other party to use the name of the president of Nangongli to come to his city security department. Angrily, he coldly snorted: "Guan Shi, then Qin Chen is the main offender of our city security department. This person is extremely vicious and murderous in the imperial city. He is a dynasty repeat offender. How can you say that you take it away? In this way, where is the law of the dynasty placed? As Guanshi Chen said, I would not have heard it before.

, Also ask Chen Guanshi to respect himself. "

Chen Xiang was taken aback. He didn't expect Geng Deyuan to be so arrogant in front of him.

He suddenly narrowed his eyes and looked at Geng Deyuan coldly, "Deputy Commander Geng, you can hear clearly, that Qin Chen is a guest of the president of Nangongli, the holy land of my blood, have you ever considered the consequences?"

"Consequence? What are the consequences? Our city's security department is acting impartially. How can we allow anyone to intervene wantonly. In this way, where should our city's security department be placed? If it is for this matter, then Geng can only I'm sorry, come and see off guests, Geng is very busy, so I won't entertain Chen in charge!"

Two city guards immediately stepped forward to invite Chen Xiang out. "What, let go!" Shaking the hands of the two city guards, Chen Xiang looked at Geng Deyuan and said angrily: "Geng Deyuan, don't talk about those high-sounding words, Qin Chen wiped out the Feng family's affairs, Chen also It's not that I don't understand, it's just a matter of defensiveness.

, Otherwise my blood sanctuary will definitely accompany you to the end. "

At this moment, Chen Xiang was really angry.

It's too arrogant for a small deputy commander of the City Guards Department to dare to drive himself away like this. "Guanshi Chen, are you threatening Geng? You broke the law of the dynasty when you broke into our city's guard station before, and now you dare to threaten the dynasty's commander. Do you dare not arrest you for this command?" Geng Deyuan waved his hand and said to the two city guards on the side: "What are you two still doing?

This is the center of the city's security department, and there are people waiting for it. "

"Yes!"

The two city guards immediately came to Chen Xiang and said coldly: "Guan Shi, please, otherwise don't blame us for not giving face."

"Okay, okay, Geng Deyuan, you have a kind, let me tell you, today this is endless!"

Chen Xiang was trembling with anger, looked at Geng Deyuan angrily, turned and left the city guard office angrily.

"Hmph, a bloodline sacred place in charge, also came to intervene in the affairs of our city guard, really thought that he was a bloodline sacred place, so lawless?"

Seeing Chen Xiang leaving behind, Geng Deyuan snorted coldly.

If he hadn't given the instructions of His Highness the Three Princes, he would really not dare to treat the people of the Holy Land like this, but now, what he obeyed was the orders of His Highness the Three Princes.

His Royal Highness the Three Princes is the most hopeful one of the many princes to enthroned. As long as he manages things properly, when the Three Princes become the monarch of the Dawei Dynasty in the future, will he care about the attitude of the Holy Land of Blood?

Geng Deyuan couldn't help being excited when he thought that he was about to become the third prince.

Dan Court.

"What are you talking about?" Pavilion Master Zhuo Qingfeng stood up suddenly, his expression furious: "The City Guard Department, so arrogant? Dare to throw away the token of the Pavilion Master directly, and dare to speak insultingly?"

"Yes, the other party simply ignored the Lord's orders, and even kicked out the subordinates without letting in the gate of the City Guard Department."

Xiao Ya was starting, gritted her teeth and said, her expression angry.

"Okay, okay." Zhuo Qing was so angry that he had a terrifying murderous intent to release, and said in a cold voice: "That Geng Deyuan, so courageous, the deputy commander of a city security department is so arrogant. If you don't put my Dange in your eyes, who gave him the courage?" Xiao Ya said with a gloomy expression: "This person must have thought that he had colluded with the Leng family, so I shouldn't put my Dange in his eyes. Moreover, I heard that this person is the ancient commander of the City Guards Department. The ancient commander is one of the three chiefs of the City Guards Department. It is said that he has great power and colluded with the Leng family and ignored us.

Ge, it is also normal. "

Leng's family and Dange both operate the pill business. In recent years, the power of the Leng family's pill, even far surpassed the pill pavilion, and it was not without reason that the other party could indulge in the Leng family and dare to ignore his pill pavilion.

Chapter 746: Something big

"Okay, okay, it's all the fault of the old man. Over the years, I have been in retreat, but I have never managed the Dange or put the Leng family in his eyes. Unexpectedly, the Leng family was so arrogant and even raised a dog. I dare to ignore my Dange, and even humiliate the old man's token. I, Zhuo Qingfeng, if I don't give it right

Look at it with a little bit of color, isn't it telling the imperial city that my Dange is really inferior to the Leng family, and in front of the Leng family, even bowing to the court? "

Angry, Zhuo Qingfeng was really angry.

Originally, he just wanted to rescue Qin Chen, and had no interest in fighting for power.

But now, he is blaming himself and regretting.

Over the years, if he didn't manage the Dan Pavilion properly, it caused the Dan Pavilion's status to fall to such a low level. All of this was the responsibility of Zhuo Qingfeng.

He, the patron, is incompetent.

However, Zhuo Qingfeng knew that now was not the time for him to blame himself, and the top priority was to rescue Qin Chen.

"Since that Geng Deyuan doesn't give face, that's good, the old man would have to see where the courage of this city guard office is against my Dange." After speaking, Zhuo Qingfeng said coldly, "Xiao Ya, immediately pass the order. Convene a meeting of all the elders, the old man will revive the name of the Dan Pavilion this time. Also, our Dan Pavilion should have a pill transaction with the royal family of the Dawei Dynasty, and immediately stop all the pill transactions, some owed accounts and the balance payment. ,limit

The royal family will settle it for me before tomorrow. "

Zhuo Qingfeng was obviously out of anger.

Although the Dange's private market in the Dawei Dynasty was not large, the royal family's supply of pill was always purchased from Dange. Now Zhuo Qingfeng is going to directly cut off the transaction with the royal family.

Xiao Ya was shocked and cut off the deal with the royal family. This was going to happen.

"My Lord, is there anything wrong with this? If so, the royal family becomes angry, cuts off cooperation with our Dange, and directly transfers to Leng's family, then our Dange, won't we have to bear more pressure, then, It may be even more difficult for Shao Chen to save it."

It is against the royal family to directly cut off the transaction with the royal family. Now their Dan Pavilion is no longer as good as the Leng family. If they anger the royal family again, how can they survive?

"You are mistaken about this." Zhuo Qingfeng smiled coldly, confidently: "Do you think our Dange, even if it has a low market share in the drug market, is really inferior to that Leng's family?"

"Our Dan Pavilion is the top hegemonic power in the mainland. It governs the professional appraisal of pharmacists across the mainland. Its background is not comparable to that of the little Leng family."

Zhuo Qingfeng was extremely proud, "The Dawei Royal Family, the reason for cooperating with us is because the Leng Family is a family power of the dynasty. The stronger the threat to the Royal Family, the greater the threat to the Royal Family. Cooperation."

"So, just do it. The small city guard department dares to bully my Dange. Do you really think our Dange is good for bullying!"

Zhuo Qingfeng snorted coldly in a cold tone.

The device hall is located.

"What?" Yelu Hongtao thought his ears had misheard: "You say it again!"

Below, a deacon of Qidian was crying and angrily said: "Hall Master, which deputy commander of the City Guard Department, is so powerful that his subordinates can't even see him, so he was driven out of the City Guard Department by the other party."

"Didn't you tell the other party that it was the order of the main hall?" Yelu Hongtao said with suppressed anger.

Yelu Hongtao couldn't believe that the deacon of Tangqidian was kicked out of the city guard office.

Is the other party so bold? "The subordinate said, but the other party didn't pay any attention at all. They also said that their city health department handled the case and no one could intercede. This is obviously not giving you face. The subordinate knows that you are very concerned about this matter. Li struggled for a few words, who knew that the people from the City Health Department directly blasted his subordinates out

, Didn't put my tool hall in the eyes at all, they still said..."

Speaking of this, the deacon of Qidian was so angry that he couldn't speak.

"What else?" Yelu Hongtao said angrily. "After the subordinates left, they heard the mumbles of the city guards, saying that our weapon hall is a gadget. One of the ironsmiths also came to the city guard to install garlic. They also said that the weapons of their city guard were all purchased by the dynasty. Dingqi Pavilion is customized. We also want to intervene in the case of their City Guards Department.

It's a personal thing. "The deacon said with an angry look.

"Asshole, beast, too arrogant!" Yelu Hongtao smashed his fist, and the chair in front of him smashed into pieces, blowing his beard and staring with anger. The whole person was going crazy: "This city guard department is so brave."

Qidian, in the Dawei Dynasty, is indeed a bit special.

Because almost everyone in the entire imperial city knew that in the Dawei Dynasty, the strongest pill power was the wealthy and unpopular, while the strongest weapon power was the Dingqi Pavilion among the sect forces.

Ding Qi Pavilion, one of the three giants in the sect, rarely involved in the fights among the major forces. It can be described as pure-hearted and low-spirited, but its strength is terrible.

In particular, the Dingqi Pavilion has cooperated with the dynasty and the royal family all the year round. The official strengths of the Dawei Dynasty, including the weapons in the military, are all built by the Dingqi Pavilion.

Under the light of the Ding Qi Pavilion, the Qi Temple naturally appeared dim and no one cared.

But what no one knows is that the reason why the Ding Qi Pavilion has grown so large is that there is the support of the Ding Qi Pavilion behind it.

"What a city security department, a small deputy commander, dare to despise our palace like this. Okay, very good. The director of his city security department dare not use this tone to speak to the old man. The little deputy commander can also climb on top of my weapon hall?"

"It seems that for so many years of supporting the Dingqi Pavilion, the entire Dawei Dynasty has forgotten our Temple, thinking that it is a force that anyone can step on?" "That paper and pen." The deacon gave an order, and Yelu Hongtao's eyes were cold, and he said coldly: "I am going to fix a book, and you will send it to Dingqi Pavilion. It is my old man who said that Dingqi Pavilion will immediately cancel cooperation with the royal treasure. , All the official business of the Dawei Dynasty is temporarily

Stop. "

The deacon was taken aback, and said in surprise: "Hall Master, will this Ding Qi Pavilion agree?" Yelu Hongtao said coldly: "Ding Qi Pavilion, there are 50% of the shares in our Ding Qi Pavilion, he dare not agree? If so? He disagrees. You tell him that from now on, Ding Qi Pavilion will never want to get any help and support from the Qi Palace. For all the raw materials for refining, let Ding Qi Pavilion find a way by itself.

For technical support, our device will be cancelled directly. "

No one knows that Dingqi Pavilion was just a small sect of the Dawei Dynasty decades ago.

However, Qidian was unable to directly monopolize the business of treasure soldiers of the Dawei Dynasty due to the rules.

Therefore, Qidian thought of a compromise and secretly supported the development of Dingqi Pavilion. With material channels and technical support, Dingqige holds 50% of the shares.

Chapter 747: Something bad

In this way, the Dingqi Pavilion could become one of the top three most powerful sect forces in the Dawei Dynasty in just a few decades.

But in fact, half of the credit for the entire Ding Qi Pavilion actually belongs to the Qi Palace.

Without the refining materials operated from all over the place of the Hundred Dynasties, and the top forging technical support from the superior equipment hall, how can the Dingqi Pavilion stand out and soar into the sky?

Today, Yelu Hongtao was furious and immediately banned the entire official weapon trade of the Dawei Dynasty.

What a terrifying event is this?

The entire Dawei Dynasty, all over the border, in the army, how many weapons need to be consumed.

If this transaction ceases, I am afraid that the entire Dawei dynasty will be in danger and cause the dynasty to shake.

"Yes." After the deacon heard this, he was suddenly excited, holding the letter, and hurried to the Dingqi Pavilion.

It is true that he was too angry at the City Guard Office today. I am afraid that he will never forget the humiliation he suffered today.

When Yelu Hongtao was furious and ordered Dingqige to target the royal family.

Nangong Li was also extremely angry with the Holy Land of Blood.

"President, that Geng Deyuan is too arrogant, you didn't see it, the subordinates passed by, and the other party's attitude did not put the subordinates in their eyes, and the Holy Land of my blood."

Chen Xiang returned to the Holy Land of Blood, and after seeing Nangong Li, his stomach was constantly pouring.

His face was blue and his whole body was shaking, showing how much anger Geng Deyuan gave him.

"He is a deputy commander, dare you say that?"

Opposite Chen Xiang, Nangong Li's face was blue and his eyes were cold.

"My lord, do your subordinates dare to deceive you? Don't you know that if they didn't leave in a dingy manner, then Geng Deyuan would all be taken to prison."

Chen Xiang's chest rose and fell, thinking of the previous scene, he was very angry.

He is in charge of the Holy Land of Blood, and he is usually majestic. When did he say such insults? Not to mention a deputy commander, even if it is an orthodox commander of the City Guard, what is it? Seeing him is not to be called a master, but today, what happened to him, I feel angry even thinking about it.

"good very good."

Nangongli said in a cold tone, "A small deputy commander dares to arrest the steward of my bloodline holy land, and the people who touch my bloodline holy land dare to blast out the stewardship of my bloodline holy land. It seems that the city's health department has soared. ."

Anyone who knows Nangong Li knows that Nangong Li is really angry.

Geng Deyuan hit not only Chen Xiang's face, but also his blood sanctuary's face, his Nangongli face, if he could be calm, he himself would look down on himself.

"A little deputy commander, how dare to speak like this, this person is relying on the Leng family, there must be someone behind him, otherwise it won't be the case. It seems that the city's defense department is determined to fight the old man." Well, if this is the case, the old man will accompany them for fun. You stay in the Holy Land of Blood. The old man has to go to the palace in person and ask if this great dynasty does not need our Holy Land of Blood to be stationed here. If not, As soon as possible, it's not uncommon for our bloodline holy land to be established here

Division. "

Nangong Li was furious, and before he could finish speaking, he went directly to the Holy Land of Bloodline and went straight into the palace.

Unanimously, the measures taken by these three companies were all directed at the Dawei dynasty royal family, not at the city guard.

In their eyes, the City Guard Department was just a department under the Dawei Dynasty, and it was not worthy of their targeting.

Royal palace.

Conference hall.

A burly middle-aged man is at his desk in the memorial, working hard to review.

"Your Majesty, you have worked hard for five hours, so why not take a rest?"

An old * walked up and said distressedly.

"Oh, recently, my Dawei Dynasty has been in the autumn for a long time. The surrounding forces, such as the Great Zhou Dynasty, have been staring at me with great power, and I feel anxious in my heart."

The emperor of the Dawei Dynasty, named Liu Xuanrui, is only in his early forties this year.

This age can be said to be an upright and strong man, not to mention Liu Xuanrui's talent in martial arts is extremely high, more than forty years old, but already a half-step martial arts master, a domineering exudes, quite heroic style.

He just raised his head, but he could see that Liu Xuanrui's black hair was already mixed with mottled white hair.

In recent years, the Dawei Dynasty has not been smooth sailing. Outside, there are dynasties such as the Great Zhou Dynasty looking forward to it. Internally, conflicts between some sects often occur. The forces are complicated and internally fighting each other, which consumes the power of the Dawei Dynasty, making Liu Xuanrui almost * Broken heart. The old * had been following Liu Xuanrui for many years. Seeing Liu Xuanrui so tired, he immediately felt distressed and persuaded: "Your Majesty, although you are busy with political affairs, you should also pay attention to your body and take care of your dragon's body. The minion asked the Imperial Dining Room to cook bird's nest soup for your Majesty. Your Majesty, let's eat a little first, so that you have enough energy.

To serve the dynasty, we have to rely on your majesty as a powerful dynasty. "

Liu Xuanrui rubbed his eyebrows a little tiredly, and sighed, "Also, Huang Huan, you still feel sorry for me."

The old * knelt down and said excitedly: "It is an honor for the old slave to serve your majesty."

With that said, when the bird's nest soup was about to be served, Liu Xuanrui had not had time to eat a few bites.

"Your Majesty, the big thing is not good."

An anxious voice came from outside the Yeejeong Hall.

When the old * saw someone interrupting your majesty's rest, he was furious, and he was about to scold him. After seeing the person outside, he immediately took it back.

The visitor was an old man with gray beard and robes of a medicine alchemist. He was the chief of the palace alchemist, Master Fei Leng.

Master Fei Leng was the leader of the imperial pharmacist of the Dawei Dynasty. He was at the peak of the late sixth rank and was also an early sixth-rank alchemist. In the palace, his status was not low.

"It turned out to be Master Fei. I don't know what happened that made Master Fei so panicked?"

Seeing the anxious expression on Fei Leng's face, Liu Xuanrui was shocked and hurriedly put down the bird's nest soup and asked in a deep voice.

Fei Lengping, who devoted himself to studying pharmacists, served in the dynasty for decades. It can be said that this was the first time that Liu Xuanrui saw such anxious expression on Fei Leng's face. "Your Majesty, the veteran came here. It is indeed something important. I don't know what happened just now. Dan Pavilion suddenly sent someone to find the old man and told him that all transactions between Dan Pavilion and our royal Dan Pavilion will be cancelled. Moreover, let us Before tomorrow, settle all the arrears of the previous pill. This

Waiting for major events, the old man can't be the master, so he rushed to ask your majesty. "

Fei Leng said anxiously.

"What, Dan Pavilion wants to cancel the transaction with our royal family, what's going on?" Liu Xuanrui was taken aback, his eyes gradually became serious, and frowned.

Chapter 748: Big trouble

The royal family of the Dawei Dynasty, although there were also court pharmacists led by Master Fei Leng, but the number was not large, mainly for Liu Xuanrui and other important royal officials.

As for the entire royal family, there are many people, and the amount of medicine consumed every day is an astronomical number.

Therefore, many other members of the imperial palace actually purchase the medicine through the Dange.

Even the high-level pill that Liu Xuanrui and other royal officials needed could not be refined by the palace alchemist, but they were also customized through the pill pavilion.

This cooperation has been going on for many years, and there has never been a mistake. How did such a thing happen suddenly?

"The veteran doesn't know either. The people from Dan Pavilion came over today and told the veteran directly about the situation. The veteran wanted to ask more, but the other party ignored it and didn't give him a chance.

Fei Leng said depressed.

Liu Xuanrui's eyes became solemn, Dan Pavilion's behavior was too abnormal, it seemed that something happened, otherwise, Dan Pavilion would not be able to do such a thing.

Immediately frowned, and asked in doubt: "Did your palace alchemists offend the pill pavilion?"

Fei Leng said with a bitter face: "Your Majesty, you know me, is it possible?"

"That's true."

Liu Xuanrui nodded.

Although Fei Leng is the chief of the palace alchemist, he himself is a citizen of the Dawei Dynasty and has served in the Dan Pavilion for a period of time.

Moreover, Dan Pavilion's previous appointment as the head of the pavilion was optimistic about Fei Leng's opportunities when he was young, and he had pointed out Fei Leng for a long time. It can be said that Fei Leng and Dan Ge have a mentor and apprenticeship.

If someone else offends Pill Pavilion, Liu Xuanrui still believes that if Fei Leng will offend Pill Pavilion, it is impossible to kill him. "The Zhuo Qingfeng pavilion master of the Dan Pavilion, I have also seen him twice. He comes from the Dan Pavilion in the Northern Heaven Region. Therefore, I despise our Dawei Dynasty and seem a little arrogant, but he is not bad, not to mention, no matter how strong he is, now He also served in my Dawei dynasty. It's impossible not to care about the attitude of our dynasty. If he It is obviously impossible to target us for no reason. It is very likely that we have offended them in some places. "

"In this way, Master Fei, you and Dange have a good relationship. You can talk to the master Zhuo Qingfeng about this matter. If there is something offended, you should communicate, apologize, and do not engage in arrogance. . "

"Of course, if Dan Pavilion is there to make troubles unreasonably, there is nothing to trouble our dynasty, our Dawei dynasty is not a fish to be slaughtered."

Liu Xuanrui said in a deep voice.

"Well, with your majesty's instructions, the old official will have a bottom in his heart, and the old official will leave first."

Fei Leng also calmed down, arched his hands, just about to turn around and leave.

"Your Majesty, the big thing is not good."

At this moment, there was another anxious voice outside the hall door.

"Who is making noise outside?"

The old * raised his brows and screamed angrily.

What's going on today, all come to disturb your majesty to rest, are you tired of living?

"Return to Chief Huang, Master Qi of the Ministry of Industry urgently asked to see your Majesty."

A little * hurriedly walked in and said in fear.

"Master Qi?"

Liu Xuanrui frowned and said, "Xuan!"

Qi Heng was the head of the Ministry of Industry of the Dawei Dynasty and was in charge of the affairs of the entire Dawei Dynasty.

The Ministry of Industry, mainly in charge of the Dawei Dynasty army and royal weapons and other items, can be said to be an extremely important part.

Generally, those who can serve as the head of the Ministry of Industry are the most trusted people of the monarch. This Qi Heng, also promoted by Liu Xuanrui himself, is his confidant.

Therefore, Liu Xuanrui knows Qiheng very well, knowing that this person has always been conscientious and rarely enters the palace to disturb him. This time he came in such a hurry, something urgent must have happened.

Sure enough, after a middle-aged man with a mustache came in, he hurriedly knelt down in front of Liu Xuanrui.

"The veteran dare to disturb your majesty, please forgive your majesty."

As soon as he entered, Qi Heng kowtowed his head and apologized.

"No ceremony, Qi Heng, what are you going to call me today?"

"Oh, your Majesty, it stands to reason that the old minister shouldn't come to complain to you, but this incident is too sudden and too serious. The old minister has to enter the palace and ask your majesty to show the old minister a clear way." Qi As soon as Heng opened his mouth, his face was sad, and he almost shed tears.

"What the * is it?" Liu Xuanrui said solemnly. It was the first time he saw Qi Heng so nervous.

Fei Leng, who was planning to leave, couldn't help but stop, looking curiously. "Your Majesty, just now, our Ministry of Industry received a letter from Dingqi Pavilion. A disciple of Dingqi Pavilion said that at the order of their pavilion master, he would inform the old minister that the weapon trade between Dingqi Pavilion and our dynasty was temporarily suspended. All previous businesses were also stopped directly. From now on, Dingqige will no longer be

Our Dawei dynasty provides precious soldiers, and the old ministers are confused for a while, and can only attack to see your majesty. "

"What? Dingqige stopped trading treasures with our dynasty?"

Liu Xuanrui stood up suddenly, and the memorial in front of him was knocked to the ground instantly, but he didn't realize it, only a shocked expression appeared on his face.

Dingqi Pavilion has cooperated with the Dawei Dynasty for so many years. It can be said that the weapons in the hands of various departments of the entire dynasty, such as the city guards, the imperial forest army, and even the local garrisons and border troops, are almost all made by the Dingqi Pavilion.

With such a large order, Talent Dingqi Pavilion can squeeze into the top three of the sect's power with a family of military sects.

But now, the other party actually wants to cut off the cooperation with the Dawei Dynasty directly, which makes the Dawei Dynasty look for such a large military sect in the future?

Especially now that the border is extremely unstable. Once a war breaks out and the support of Dingqige is lost, should they let the soldiers on the border of the Dawei Dynasty confront the enemy dynasty with bare hands?

"What exactly is going on?"

If the pill pavilion stopped supplying pills, it only shocked Liu Xuanrui, then Dingqi pavilion stopped the supply of precious soldiers, and Liu Xuanrui, the monarch of the mighty dynasty, immediately panicked.

"It's definitely not a question of money, but something that happened that we don't know."

As the monarch of the Dawei Dynasty, Liu Xuanrui's mind was very keen. He frowned and immediately felt something wrong.

"Dan Pavilion and Ding Qi Pavilion have cooperated with us for so many years. Everyone is very happy. There has been no conflict. Why in one day, the two major forces have both fell out with our Dawei Dynasty and the royal family? Qi Aiqing, that Ding Qi Pavilion Disciple, did you say anything?"

"The veteran also asked. The other party only said that this was an order from the Ding Qi Pavilion to the Ding Qi Pavilion. If the veteran wanted to ask anything else, the other side simply ignored his subordinates and left."

"The order of the palace?"

Liu Xuanrui frowned, and Dingqi Pavilion was supported by Qidian. The entire dynasty didn't know much about this news, but he, the monarch of the mighty dynasty, did.

In that case, the problem lies in the device hall?

However, Qidian has always been indifferent to fame and fortune. This is from the fact that he would rather support Ding Qi Pavilion to become one of the three sects, but he is willing to stay behind in silence. It can be seen that Qidian is not a force that likes to fight for power.

How come all of a sudden, he fell out with his Dawei Dynasty directly, without any signs? This can be troublesome.

Chapter 749: can not wait anymore

At this time, Liu Xuanrui's heart was also in a mess, without the slightest clue.

The only thing I can know is that this time, the actions of these two powers are probably not accidents, but what happened to the royal family of his powerful dynasty, which offended these two giants.

Even this offense is not an ordinary offense, otherwise the other party would not be able to act in this way and directly fall out with their Dawei Dynasty.

To put it bluntly, what do these two powers do? Do you want to get mixed up in the Dawei Dynasty in the future? "Master Fei, Qi Aiqing, I have a feeling that the matter between your two families is actually just one thing. I now give you an order. You two must find each other as soon as possible to communicate with each other, and understand how the Dawei Dynasty offended me. These two powers are now, let these two parties have such a Mad? "

If it's other forces, Liu Xuanrui doesn't need to look at others' faces at all.

However, whether it is the Pill Pavilion or the Qidian, the top forces in the mainland are the branches of their Dawei Dynasty. The Dawei Dynasty wants to show the opponent's face, but it is not qualified.

At best, everyone ignores each other and does not interfere with each other. It's just that the other party can ignore his Dawei Dynasty, but their Dawei Dynasty can't help but buy each other's account. It's not just that the Dawei Dynasty has a deal with these two powers, it just offends the news of Dan Pavilion and Qidian. By spreading it out, the Dawei Dynasty can become very embarrassed in the entire hundred dynasties.

embarrassed.

"You two, you must make things clear as soon as possible." Liu Xuanrui waved his hand and directly gave the order to die.

While discussing it, suddenly a little * hurried in.

"Your Majesty, the big thing is not good..."

"What's the matter? I didn't see that your majesty was dealing with important tasks, who let you in? Excuse your majesty, can you afford it?" The old * next to Liu Xuanrui was depressed. Seeing a little * so ignorant, he rushed in. Entering the hall, suddenly furious.

"Manager Huang calms down..."

With a puff, the old eunuch's angry shout directly made the little eunuch's face pale, he knelt down with a puff, and kept kowtow.

"Don't be afraid, what's the matter, let's talk!" Liu Xuanrui waved his hand and said rather tiredly. "Your Majesty, the president of Nangong Li, the Holy Land of Blood, came to the palace and asked to see your Majesty. The villain stopped him and said that you are dealing with important tasks. I want him to wait for a while and let the villain report to him. Who knows Nangong Li? Without a word, the chairman shook his face and left, and said that since the Dawei Dynasty

He is not welcome to settle in the Holy Land of Bloodline, and he will not stay here, let the subordinates tell your Majesty that his Holy Land of Bloodline will immediately ask the Bloodline Holy Land Branch of the higher level to revoke the Bloodline Holy Land Branch of the Dawei Dynasty and transfer him. Go to another dynasty. "

The little * said tremblingly.

"what?"

Liu Xuanrui felt that his eyes were dark, and one of them was unstable and almost fell to the ground.

"Your Majesty." The old * panicked and hurriedly stepped forward to support Liu Xuanrui.

"Your Majesty is okay, it's just that I'm frightened, and I'll be fine after a short rest." Fei Leng even came up directly, and after diagnosis for Liu Xuanrui, he said with a sigh of relief.

It's just the expressions on everyone's faces, but none of them are relaxed.

The sacred place of blood, Nangongli, the president even wants to evacuate the sacred place of blood from the Dawei Dynasty. What a terrible event is this?

It even made everyone feel that the heaven of this mighty dynasty seemed to change.

"Where is the president of Nangong Li?"

When he woke up, Liu Xuanrui said anxiously the first thing.

"Go...go!" The little * hesitated.

"Asshole thing, won't you bring the other person in directly?" Liu Xuanrui has always been called Mingjun, and rarely angers the palace eunuch, but this time, he lost his attitude.

"Your Majesty, the slave also wants to bring Nangong Li Guild Leader in directly, but Nangong Li Guild Leader did not give a chance at all. After a few words, he left angrily. The servant can only ask your Majesty for the first time. Your Majesty calms down. Calm down!"

The little * turned pale with fright and almost passed out.

"Well, you go down, it's not your fault."

Waved his hand feebly, Liu Xuanrui seemed to be ten years old instantly.

This pile of things happened one after another, leaving Liu Xuanrui, the monarch of the mighty dynasty, unable to breathe.

Pill Pavilion, Vessel Hall, Bloodline Holy Land, any one of them is taken out, it is a famous force in the mainland, and his powerful dynasty will be fond of others.

But now, in just a short period of time, the three major forces attacked at the same time, and even withdrew from the Dawei Dynasty.

What does this show?

It shows that in the imperial city, something major has definitely happened, but he, the monarch of the mighty dynasty, has no news at all.

This makes him not furious.

An unprecedented sense of crisis weighed on Liu Xuanrui's head. Seeing that the director of the Ministry of Industry Qi Heng seemed to want to say something, Liu Xuanrui waved his hand and said with an ugly face: "Don't say anything now. These three forces are attacking at the same time. There must be a reason. I hope you will go to Dange and Qidian, figure out what happened, here in the Holy Land of Blood,

I will personally send someone to investigate. I hope that within today, both of you will be able to investigate the cause of the matter, and don't let down the high hopes I have placed on you. "

"Your Majesty, even if the minister is dead, he will not disappoint your majesty's expectations." Fei Leng and Qi Heng said solemnly.

"Okay, it's not too late. You must hurry up. You can set off right away."

Liu Xuanrui solemnly ordered.

At this time, in the residence of the Three Princes.

"Patriarch Leng, it's been two days, when will you be able to fulfill the things you promised to the temple?"

The third prince Liu Yuanxin said coldly.

Before him, Leng Jia Leng Feihua gave a wry smile: "His Royal Highness, you don't know what Qin Chen has gone, and he actually got on the relationship with Dan Pavilion. Now those five disciples, In the pill pavilion, even if the people of the city security department are arrogant, they dare not go to the pill pavilion to arrest people." "Furthermore, Leng also heard that people in the pill pavilion, device hall and blood sacred place have visited Geng Deyuan. Captain Tian Dan in the black prison area didn't know what demon he was in. He actually dared not to obey Geng Deyuan's orders, causing that Qin Chen was still locked in the black prison area and could not force a confession. Now Geng Deyuan is right.

After thinking of a way to take Tian Dan's position, only after we got the boy's confession first, we went to Dange to get people, it was justified and it would not make it difficult for the City Guards Department. "

The third prince condensed his eyes: "Didn't you say that the kid is only related to Dan Pavilion? Why did the Artifact Hall and the Holy Land of Bloodline also go to ask for someone?"

Leng Feihua said depressed: "The old man doesn't know what's going on, but I think it should be the personal relationship that Na Dange Xu Bo found. I want to put pressure on Geng Deyuan through the Hall of Art and Bloodline Holy Land." "Personal relationship?" The prince's expression eased a little, and then he coldly snorted: "When that kid confessed, I will send a message to the City Guard and ask them to go directly to the Dan Pavilion to get people. Hmph, although Dan Pavilion is noble, but This is the Dawei Dynasty, since it is in my Dawei Dynasty

During this period, I must accept the laws of my Dawei Dynasty. Is it because it is a Dan Pavilion that I can stay out of the law? "The third prince said coldly, thinking of You Qianxue's tall figure and beautiful face, only felt that a fire was rising in the lower abdomen, and I couldn't wait.

Chapter 750: Action by all parties

Leng Feihua was overjoyed immediately: "Then wait for the good news from His Highness the Three Princes."

Although the Leng family had an influence in the City Guard, it was still a bit difficult to get the City Guard to come forward to get people from Dange.

But as long as the three princes order, everything will be much easier.

"But I also ask Patriarch Leng to remember that, for other things, the main hall does not care, but Patriarch Leng promised to fulfill it as soon as possible." The third prince said coldly.

Leng Feihua laughed: "Your Royal Highness can rest assured, as long as you bring those few untouchables from the Five Kingdoms out of the Dan Pavilion, Leng will take those people to your Royal Highness's mansion as soon as possible, and give them to your Royal Highness. satisfaction."

"That's good!"

The third prince and Leng Feifan looked at each other, and they all laughed.

Black prison area.

"Master Qin Chen, the news that Tian has already intervened in the Third Prince has sent it out for you, Master."

Tian Dan stood in front of Qin Chen and said respectfully.

In the past two days, with the help of Qin Chen, he not only returned to the half-step martial arts realm, but even after Qin Chen gave him some points, he actually had a vague impulse to directly break through to the sixth-order realm.

This made Tian Tan completely surrender to Qin Chen.

Since knowing this and the three princes intervened in it, Tian Tan said that he would continue to serve in the City Guards Department in the future, and had hardly reported any hope. He had already prepared for removal.

And under Qin Chen's guidance, if he could really break through to the sixth-order martial master, even if he left the city guard, he would be enough to go to any other place without being underestimated.

And when he went to the Dan Pavilion to deliver the letter today, Tian Dan also felt Qin Chen's position in the Dan Pavilion. It turned out that Zhuo Qingfeng, the owner of the Dan Pavilion, personally received him and asked Qin Chen carefully.

Let him understand that what Qin Chen said about the relationship with Dan Pavilion before was definitely not a mess.

"Very well, there is nothing wrong with you here, Captain Tian, you can rest."

Knowing that the news had spread, Qin Chen couldn't help nodding.

Although he is in a dark prison, he is very clear that Elder Xu Bo and Pavilion Master Zhuo Qingfeng must be trying to save themselves, but if the factor of the three princes is not included, the rescue operation will easily fail.

This is what Qin Chen didn't want to see.

After receiving the news from Qin Chen, Zhuo Qingfeng and others' eyes became cold.

It's no wonder that the people in the city guard department are so arrogant and don't put them in the eyes at all, the third prince, are they strong?

If he is not the prince, he has dared to treat these forces so contemptuously. If he is enthroned in the future, will they still have good fruits?

I am afraid that the third prince Liu Yuanxin could not have imagined that this action of himself would provoke such strong hostility from Zhuo Qingfeng and the others.

When Zhuo Qingfeng was angry, Fei Cooling had already arrived at Dan Pavilion.

"Elder Xu Bo, please tell me a few words in front of Pavilion Master Zhuo, saying that Fei wants to see you."

Fei Leng's posture was very low, and he respectfully said to Zhuo Qingfeng, that attitude was like the person in charge of a pharmacist at the court of the Dawei Dynasty, but like a pharmacist.

"Master Fei Leng wait a minute, let the old man go and report it." Xu Bo glanced at Fei Leng, knowing why he came, and immediately went to report it without rush.

"This powerful dynasty, has action so quickly? The speed is quite fast."

After receiving the news that Fei Leng asked to see him, Zhuo Qingfeng couldn't help but sneered.

He had anticipated this a long time ago.

With the current situation of the royal family, it is absolutely impossible to really break the deal with his Dan Pavilion.

"Pavilion Master, Fei Leng's coming must have something to do with the actions of the Pavilion Master. Should your subordinates bring him in? Master Fei Leng is here, maybe you can rescue Shao Chen from the city guard." Elder Xu Bo looked hopeful.

"Wait." Zhuo Qingfeng waved his hand and snorted coldly: "Although Fei Leng is the person in charge of the palace alchemist, he is not sociable and has nothing to do with the city guard department. Now that we know that there are three princes in the city guard department intervening, Even if Fei Leng really came forward, the City Guard Department would probably not give in. He said that the old man still wants

To deal with the matter, let him dry for a while. "

"Subordinates understand."

After receiving Zhuo Qingfeng's order, Xu Bo immediately returned to the reception room.

"Elder Xu Bo, what did Pavilion Master Zhuo say?"

Seeing that only Xu Bo came back, Fei Leng was shocked and asked nervously.

Xu Bo frowned and said: "Master Fei, I'm really sorry, Lord Pavilion still has important matters to deal with now, I'm afraid I won't be able to see Master Fei."

"This..." Fei Leng was startled. He didn't expect that Zhuo Qingfeng wouldn't even want to see him. This problem is very serious.

"Elder Xu Bo, you have a few words to the old man. This kindness, the old man will never forget it in the future." Fei Leng said anxiously, with a very low posture.

"I'm really sorry, Lord President, for these two days, because some things are so busy, I really don't have the time to see Master Fei, please go back, Master Fei." Waved his hand, Xu Bo coldly snorted.

Knowing that it was the third prince who was making trouble from it, Xu Bo felt angry with the royal family, and naturally did not look good at Fei Leng, the chief alchemist of the palace.

"Don't, don't, Elder Xu Bo, there is some friendship between you and me. I don't know what went wrong between Pill Pavilion and my palace alchemist? Please explain." Fei Leng is like a hot pot. Ants on the ground.

"Forgive me, I have no comment, and, if you don't tell me, if you are a subordinate, how can you say nonsense and say goodbye."

As soon as he waved his hand, Xu Bo turned and left.

"Elder Xu Bo, since Pavilion Master Zhuo is busy, the old man is waiting here. The old man has time. I would also like to ask Elder Xu Bo to report it. I am very grateful."

If it was someone else who dared to give him such a face, Fei Leng would have turned around and left, but now, with such a big incident, how could Fei Leng dare to leave without seeing Zhuo Qingfeng.

Especially even Xu Bo gave him such a face, letting Fei Leng know that Dan Ge was indeed extremely angry with them.

Before he figured out the ins and outs of the matter, how could he leave again.

"Since Master Fei insists on waiting, I have nothing to say. Master Fei's request will be discussed with the president in the next meeting. I just can't guarantee when the president will be free."

After speaking, Xu Bo turned and left, leaving Fei Leng depressed in the reception room, waiting patiently.

Fei Leng sat on the cold bench here, waiting speculatively.

the other side.

Qi Heng, the head of the Ministry of Industry, met the Lord Yelu Hongtao smoothly.

"Lao Qi, if it weren't for the fact that there was still a friendship before you and me, you worked with colleagues in the device hall back then, and you also helped the old man. Today, the old man would not let you in." In the Hall of Arms, Yelu Hongtao said bitterly after letting Qi Heng be brought in.
