Chapter 931: Horse chestnut

"Qin Shaoxia don't worry, as long as you see your disciples from the Dawei Dynasty, I will notify you as soon as possible."

"The next thing is also, please rest assured Qin Shaoxia."

"Qin Shaoxia is so kind to me, I will definitely take it to heart."

These geniuses all said with their hands.

As soon as the two parties came in, they experienced life and death together. There was not much competition between them, but they became extremely harmonious.

After all, there are many dangers in the heavenly demon secret realm, and there are many treasures, and one more person will be more safe. No one wants to come here, the treasure is not obtained, and instead died here. "Thank you very much, then." Qin Chen said again, and then said to Meng Zhanyuan: "There are so many women in the land of a hundred dynasties, why should Brother Zhan Yuan have such a rubbish? If Brother Zhan Yuan can trust Qin. , Let's leave this person, with Brother Zhan Yuan's talent, why not find it in the future

A woman who really loves you? "

After speaking, Qin Chen didn't wait for any answer from Meng Zhanyuan, and disappeared into the forest in an instant after shaking his figure.

Meng Zhanyuan stood there blankly, obviously still thinking about Qin Chen's words.

On the side, Nie Shuangshuang's expression became difficult to look. He looked at the place where Qin Chen had disappeared bitterly, and said angrily: "Brother Meng, this * still wants to separate us. You have also seen that this person has a poisonous heart, why did you before We also need to tell him the information our Daxing Dynasty knows."

Nie Shuangshuang yelled at Qin Chen endlessly, as ugly as they were.

"enough."

Meng Zhanyuan suddenly shouted coldly.

"Brother Meng, you..." Nie Shuangshuang was stunned, and then angrily pointed to Meng Zhanyuan's nose and said, "Meng Zhanyuan, what did you say to me just now? Kneel down and explain clearly."

Meng Zhanyuan arched his hands to the people around him, and said with a stern face: "Everyone, Meng has left."

The figure flickered, and he also left here.

"Meng Zhanyuan, you..." Seeing Meng Zhanyuan ignored her and left alone, Nie Shuangshuang was trembling with anger, but soon she became scared. The mysterious realm is so dangerous that she must walk alone. Much more dangerous.

"Everyone." She quickly looked at the others on the court.

But after a sneer, other people also left here.

Nie Shuangshuang's face turned pale, he stomped his feet, and left here in a hurry.

After Qin Chen left the mountains and forests, he flew at high speed in this heavenly demon secret realm.

With anxiety in his heart, he quickly swept across a large amount of black land. Along the way, he also encountered several warriors, but the other party was very vigilant when facing his questioning, and said that he had not seen the warriors of his mighty dynasty. .

In the blink of an eye for a long time, Qin Chen didn't even find anyone.

"No, it's not a way to find it like this."

Stopping, Qin Chen frowned. Everyone was too scattered. There were a few black slaves. He wasn't worried. Without King Martial, even if he met the half-step Martial King of the Dagan Dynasty, there would be a lifesaver. strength.

The only thing he worried about was his grandfather Qin Batian and the others.

"Unfortunately, the communication jade slip can only leave the breath after entering the heavenly demon secret realm. Give it in advance. After entering through the spatial transmission channel, the communication jade slip will lose its function, otherwise there is no need to be so troublesome."

Qin Chen shook his head. "After Grandpa and the others came in, they would definitely think of ways to go deep, looking for breakthrough opportunities. I have been searching around here. The first one was a waste of time, and the second one is of little use. If I can breakthrough to Tier 7 as soon as possible. King Wu, if you want to find them, naturally there will be many ways,

It's also much simpler. "

His eyes flashed, Qin Chen calmed down.

And since they chose to enter the mysterious realm of the demon, they must bear the risk.

"Wow!"

Qin Chen immediately did not continue to search the periphery, but went all the way towards the inside of the heavenly demon secret realm.

Qin Chen flew by for nearly half a day, but he didn't even see it alone, and at the same time he didn't see any useful materials.

"It is said that there are so many opportunities in this heavenly demon secret realm, why can't you see it at all?"

Qin Chen frowned, and it was rumored that there were a lot of rare elixir growing in the heavenly demon secret realm, but Qin Chen walked now, looking around, there was barren gravel everywhere, according to the evidence, there was no trace of elixir growth.

When Qin Chen was puzzled, he found that a dark shadow appeared on the distant horizon.

Qin Chen quickly flew past. After a while, he found that it turned out to be a green mountain range. He was overjoyed and rushed past even faster.

After an hour, Qin Chen finally broke away from this black world and came to such a green mountain range.

The strong qi hit, making Qin Chen almost groan comfortably. Qin Chen's first thought was not to continue looking for opportunities, but to cultivate directly here, because the heaven and earth zhenqi here is so rich.

"It's amazing, there is such an oasis in this heavenly demon secret realm?"

Qin Chen looked around in disbelief. The area of this oasis was not large, only a few hundred kilometers in radius, but it was particularly eye-catching on this dark wasteland.

Qin Chen was about to search this oasis carefully, but what caught his eye was a long, extremely lush sword grass.

"It's actually a sword grass."

Qin Chen was even more shocked, and hurriedly took the first two steps, and saw that there were more than a hundred sword grasses on the grass, not only a large number of ordinary five-leaf and six-leaf sword grasses, but even a few seven-leaf sword grasses.

Sword grass is a kind of elixir that contains the meaning of sword. If a swordsman can perceive sword grass, he can understand the meaning of sword very quickly.

This kind of elixir, even in the Martial Domain, is extremely rare.

Especially there are seven-leaf sword grass inside. Seven-leaf sword grass is equivalent to a seventh-order king-level elixir, and ordinary swordsmen only need to absorb a few fifth-order sword grasses to master the basic sword intent, and taking the sixth-order sword grass can increase the sword intent. To Dacheng, as for the seventh-order sword grass, the sword intent can be raised to the extreme of the attribute sword intent.

To.

For the current Qin Chen, these sword grasses are too precious, as long as he can fully absorb the sword intent in these sword grasses, then his sword skills can definitely be improved again.

At that time, the lethality of swordsmanship can also be increased by at least several times.

Excited, Qin Chen immediately began to collect these sword grasses. He first collected the seven-leaf sword grass carefully. He was just about to collect the six-leaf sword grass. Suddenly, a few streams of light saw the oasis here, and he was also far away. The place swept over in an instant and landed not far from Qin Chen.

"There are so many sword grasses here?"

"Big brother, our luck is too good, hahaha, we are rich."

"Boy, quickly put down the elixir in your hand." When these people saw the sword grass in front of Qin Chen, they were overjoyed and shouted.

Chapter 932: Kill with one sword

Qin Chen didn't even bother with the cold drink of the two, and directly put all the remaining sword grass into the storage ring.

When the two came to Qin Chen's side, the whole front was empty, and there was no sword grass left.

"Boy, let you stop, do you still dare to collect sword grass and look for death?"

"Hand over all the sword grass you just collected, and dare to pick up the elixir of our two brothers. I think you are going to die."

The two screamed at Qin Chen angrily, their faces were blue, they had already told Qin Chen to stop, but Qin Chen ignored them at all, and his heart suddenly burned with anger.

Qin Chen sneered.

There is such a shameless person in this world, the sword grass here is originally a thing of no owner, whoever picks it, naturally belongs to it.

Too lazy to talk nonsense with the two of them, Qin Chen turned around and left here without even looking at them.

"Good boy, after taking our elixir, you still want to run?"

"Brother, what nonsense with him, since he didn't hand it over, he would kill him directly, hehe, maybe he has other treasures besides sword grass."

Whizzing!

The two smirked, and at the same time flew towards Qin Chen. Without a word, one of them struck Qin Chen directly.

"roll!"

Qin Chen drank coldly, slashed out with a sword, pounced, the sword light flashed, and instantly shattered the sword light that the opponent had cleaved.

"Ben Shao doesn't want to kill him. If you know him, just let Ben Shao go."

Qin Chen looked at the two people coldly. He came here, not to kill, but if the other party doesn't know what is good or bad, he doesn't mind letting the other party come in alive and lie down.

But they didn't see each other. After seeing Qin Chen's appearance, the two yelled in surprise: "It's you?!"

Qin Chen was taken aback, these two people knew himself?

Seeing that the eyes of the two opposing people all shot out a beam of ecstasy, they couldn't help but look at each other. Swish, the two turned into two streams of light, one after the other, instantly surrounding Qin Chen.

"Hey, it's really good luck. I didn't expect to meet this guy here. I really couldn't find a place to go through my iron shoes. It didn't take much effort."

"Big brother, we are really lucky. We met this guy as soon as we left the valley. It seems that God wants us to get the reward from the Dagan Dynasty, hahaha."

The two sneered, slowly walking towards Qin Chen, with greedy and excited expressions in their eyes.

"Dagan Dynasty?"

Qin Chen condensed his eyes, frowned, and said coldly: "Who are you two? What is the relationship with the Dagan Dynasty?"

"You don't need to know who the two of us are. You don't know us, but we do know you, Qin Chen of the Dawei Dynasty, who killed Sikong of the Dagan Dynasty in the ring and saw blood. It's a pity that I will die here today."

"Big Brother, if you don't talk to him, kill him directly, then go to Master Shen to receive the reward."

When the words fell, the thin young man among the two took the lead. Qiang, a blue war sword suddenly appeared in his hand, and the war sword turned into a breeze, and instantly smashed Qin Chen's body.

call out!

Knife off!

Wind blows!

The invisible sword aura enveloped every corner of Qin Chen's body. The breeze was floating, and the light of the sword was extinguished. There was a feeling of nowhere to hide, as if everything in this world was disillusioned under this knife, and life and death were controlled by him. .

"Second brother, don't kill him." The older young man reminded him.

"Don't worry about it, big brother, my cut will only waste his muscles and make him a waste."

The thin young man smiled grimly, and said proudly: "Boy, is there a sense of powerlessness covering your whole body? Hey, my disillusionment sword technique is a territorial martial skill, one shot, like a dream, nowhere to hide, obediently There is still a way to survive, otherwise, die."

When the words fell, the thin young man's war knife had already penetrated Qin Chen's body for several feet. The light enveloped Qin Chen's arms and legs. If this knife hits, Qin Chen's limbs will be broken, and it will be completely A cripple.

Could it be said that this person was ordered by the Dagan Dynasty to attack me?

Qin Chen's eyes dazzled, and a trace of murderous intent appeared in his eyes.

Originally, he didn't bother to kill two people. Unexpectedly, when the other party came up, without saying anything, he would kill himself.

The murderous intent in Qin Chen's heart was instantly aroused.

What's more, the other party, why did the dynasty Shen Gongzi do things.

"dead!"

With a cold shout, the mysterious rust sword on Qin Chen's waist suddenly unsheathed, like an electric light flashing in the void, a dazzling light shining through the entire plain, the right hand trembling, the sword light was misty, like a flexible swimming fish, which was worn instantly. The light of disillusionment that penetrated the opponent's display pierced the opponent's body.

"Puff!"

With blood splashing, the triumphant color on the thin young man's face could not fall down before he watched Qin Chen's long sword pierce his body.

A screaming scream sounded, and a transparent sword hole appeared in the young man's heart. In the sword hole, the heart was twisted into nothingness by the sword energy. The whole person opened his mouth and spouted blood, his eyes widened, and he fell straight. If you continue to die, you can't die anymore.

Just one sword, one person, death!

"Second brother?"

Before the other young man realized what had happened, he saw that the thin young man was beheaded with a sword. The whole person suddenly looked at Qin Chen in fright, with fear and anger in his eyes.

"dead!"

His eyes were frightened, and a sharp long sword suddenly appeared in his hand. On the long sword, the light was shining, and an invisible bloodline power spread out and swept towards Qin Chen.

Wow!

The sword light surged, and the surrounding green grass was pulled by the air machine, swept to the center, and then exploded.

Humph!

Qin Chen snorted coldly, and did not stop after killing one person. His backhand was a sword split, and with a clink, the two swords collided, and the turbulent true power turned into an invisible barrier, exploding between the two.

Under the horrible impact, Qin Chen's figure remained motionless. On the other hand, the black-clothed youth flew upside down ten meters, spouting a mouthful of blood, lowered his head, and a sword appeared on the long sword in his hand. The huge gap, the luster is dim.

"impossible."

The black-clothed youth was filled with fright and anger. The long sword in his hand was a Tier 6 treasure soldier with amazing power. The ordinary treasure soldier could not be compared with it. He did not expect to only touch the long sword in Qin Chen's hand. Almost scrapped.

What level of treasure is the Rust Sword in the opponent's hand?

"Dead!" Too lazy to talk nonsense with the other party, after Qin Chen struck out with a sword, he jumped out with a calm expression, and the rust sword in his hand once again showed an invisible sword light. Although the sword light was not very sharp, it fell on the black-clothed youth. In his eyes, it was mysterious and unpredictable, and there was an urge to kneel down and worship.

Chapter 933: Unexpected news

"How is this kind of sword intent possible?"

The young man in black is also a sword practising person, and he has a deep feeling for sword intent. He was shocked to see Qin Chen stabbing with this sword.

Each of Qin Chen's swords was swayed extremely freely. There was nothing special about it, but it fell in his eyes, but there was a feeling of resistance to the mountain top, and he was depressed and about to vomit blood.

The opponent is just a genius from the original inferior dynasty and the mighty dynasty, how could he have a stronger sense of sword intent than himself?

"not good!"

In the crisis, without time to think about it, the black-clothed disciple gritted his teeth abruptly, spit out a mouthful of blood, the blood burned, and an invisible blood force rose up into the sky, turning into a giant bear phantom, instantly facing Qin Chen Pai fell, trying to stop Qin Chen's attack.

But it's useless.

The giant bear phantom was burning with the power of blood, but under Qin Chen's sword light, it was as fragile as paper paste, and it was torn apart in an instant.

"Wow!"

A mouthful of blood spurted out, and the black-clothed youth looked wilted, and his face was extremely frightened.

At this moment, his heart was full of regret. If he knew that Qin Chen was so strong and killed him, he would not be able to attack Qin Chen, but now, it is too late to regret.

I could only watch the rust sword in Qin Chen's hand, slashing towards his neck like lightning.

"Don't kill me. I have an information about your Dawei Dynasty disciple. As long as you let me go, I will tell you."

At the moment of life and death, the black-clothed youth closed his eyes and shouted loudly with all his might.

call out!

The invisible sword light converged, and an icy cold front stopped at his throat for an instant. He opened his eyes, and his body was so soft that he saw the rusty sword in Qin Chen's hand and stopped at his neck.

"What did you just say? There is information about my Dawei Dynasty disciple? Tell me."

Qin Chen suppressed his inner excitement and said with cold eyes. The black-clothed youth only felt that his robes were soaked in cold sweat. He resisted his composure, gritted his teeth in horror and said: "Yes, I have information about your Dawei Dynasty disciples. They are now in danger. If you are late, they will die, but as long as you let me go, I will

was in danger?

Qin Chen's eyes were cold, and he was murderous, and said sharply: "Say it!"

Responding from the panic, the black-clothed youth gritted his teeth and said: "You promised to let me go, and I said, otherwise, you just wait for them to collect their bodies. They have been surrounded by Lord Shen of the Dagan Dynasty for a long time, saying Maybe if you waste some more time, all you can see is the corpse."

"Do you think I dare not kill you?"

With a cold gaze, Qin Chen's right hand shook, and the cold sword's edge instantly scratched into his neck, a trace of blood flowing down. "Anyway, it's all death. Of course you dare to kill me, but if you kill me, those friends of yours are going to die. By the way, I still remember that there are a few beautiful girls among your friends, one of them seems to be still You have participated in the arena competition together. What is You Qianxue? Master Shen has already said.

After he takes your friend, he will enjoy her. "The young man in black sneered.

"you wanna die!"

Qin Chen's eyes were cold, this guy thought he couldn't help him if he didn't say it?

"The magic cage!"

An invisible spiritual force shot out from Qin Chen's eyebrows, and instantly caught the spirit of the black-clothed youth into his own spiritual world.

In the icy spiritual world, the young man in black was bound by countless icy iron chains, and a chain of iron whips glowing with electric light slapped him severely.

"Where is this place? Let go of me."

The young man in black was beaten by an electric whip and screamed in anger, but no one paid him any attention. Every time the whip fell, a severe pain would spread to the depths of his soul, causing him to tremble and tremble.

This kind of fear transmitted from the depths of his soul made him unable to keep calm at all.

However, in the icy space, he was alone, and there was an electric whip that was thrown away from nowhere.

The whole torture lasted for a while, and the young man in black had been beaten to the point of no human form.

"Huh."

Qin Chen appeared in the spiritual space at this time, and said coldly: "Let's talk about it, where are my friends?"

"I won't tell you."

The young man in black gritted his teeth and said, his eyes angry.

"Hehe, it's hard."

Qin Chen sneered and disappeared.

At the moment he disappeared, in the cold space, electric and optical iron whips appeared again, constantly beating.

After half a stick of incense, Qin Chen appeared again.

"Should I want to talk now?"

"Hahaha, you can kill me, half an hour has passed, and if you waste it, your friends will probably be all dead." "Haha." Qin Chen sneered, "This is my spiritual fantasy. Realm, here, the flow of time is different from that of the outside world. A breath of time outside here lasts at least half an hour. That is to say, you seem to have passed a long time here, but in the outside world, only one breath has passed. You feel

How long can you last? "

When the voice fell, Qin Chen disappeared again without waiting for the other party to answer.

Crackling, countless electric and iron whips lashed down, the painful black-clothed youth screamed frantically, wishing to faint directly, but here, he could not even faint, but the senses were amplified to the maximum, every trace of pain, It was magnified a hundred times.

"I said, I said!"

After half an hour, the black-clothed youth could no longer hold on. Instead of being so painful, it was better to kill him with a single knife.

"Say it."

Qin Chen said with cold eyes as he appeared.

"It's Master Shen, Master Shen of the Dagan Dynasty, and other talented powerhouses of the Dagan Dynasty, who surrounded a dozen people from the Dawei Dynasty in a valley hundreds of miles away to the southwest."

"How are they?" Qin Chen was startled. "I don't know. When I left, Young Master Shen hadn't succeeded, but those from the Dawei Dynasty were already trapped in a formation and won't be able to hold on for long. Young Master Shen still treats us warriors from other dynasties. Said, if anyone can take you over, the Dagan Dynasty will be the devil Shelter him in the secret realm, and there will be big rewards. "

"Dagan Dynasty!"

Qin Chen gritted his teeth, his eyes exuding a terrifying murderous aura.

"Huh!"

The next moment, the two disappeared into the black spiritual space at the same time, and the spirit returned to the body.

"dead!"

The sword light flashed, and the head of the black-clothed youth instantly rose into the sky. Before he died, his eyes stared at Qin Chen, full of regret.

He regrets that he shouldn't be so profitable and offend the other party for the so-called reward, otherwise, where will he end up now.

"Is it a valley hundreds of miles away in the southwest?" Putting away the storage rings of the two of them, Qin Chen shook his figure and disappeared, leaving only a muttering whisper, echoing in this oasis.

Chapter 934: Top ten rookies

When Qin Chen hurried forward.

At this moment, he was in a valley hundreds of miles away from Qin Chen.

More than a dozen disciples of the Dawei Dynasty were trapped in a small area deep in the valley, and more than a dozen powerful men from the Dagan Dynasty stood on the periphery in time.

Outside the more than a dozen disciples of the Dawei Dynasty, a misty white burst of light enveloped everyone, wrapping the black slaves and others inside.

And outside the formation, a group of more than a dozen powerful men of the Dagan Dynasty were frantically attacking the formation in front of them, and there was a violent roar.

"What's the matter, haven't broken the formation yet?"

In front of more than a dozen powerful dynasties, a young man in a white robe looked at the formation indifferently and frowned.

This person seems to be only twenty-four or five years old, but he has reached the realm of half-step martial arts in a whole body, and is one of the few half-step martial arts of the great dynasty on the field.

Dao Dao real power lingered on him, setting off him incomparably, but his eyes gave people the feeling of lewd eagles, which made people look very uncomfortable. "Shen Gongzi, we have attacked with all our strength, but the formation set by the opponent is extremely high. Although it is not a seventh-level king-level formation, it is not much different in power. Moreover, we are attacking. At that time, the people inside them were still defending, so they wanted to break

It will take a while to open. "

A half-step Wu Wang came to the white-clothed youth and explained.

"A king-level formation approaching the seventh level? This mighty dynasty is only an inferior dynasty, and there are such treasures, huh, but what if there are such treasures? I can only stay here and wait for death."

Shen Mengchen sneered.

"The son of Shen said that he wanted to fight against our Daqian dynasty based on the capabilities of the Dawei Dynasty. I thought too much."

Gou Feng, who was in Jinyue Pavilion with Zhou Zhiwei and others, also sneered and said respectfully.

Shen Mengchen.

One of the top geniuses of the Dagan Dynasty. He broke through the fifth rank at the age of sixteen, and broke through the sixth rank at the age of nineteen. He is twenty-four years old this year and is already a half-step martial king.

Is recognized as one of the top ten rookies in the land of a hundred dynasties.

Such a genius, breaking through the seventh-order martial king in the future, is almost a sure thing. The only thing that is not certain is when it will break through the seventh-order mid-stage and whether it will reach the height of the seventh-stage late martial king in the future.

Therefore, although Gou Feng was also the top genius of the Dagan Dynasty, he was already a sixth-tier mid-level martial artist at the age of twenty-three, but compared with Tianjiao like Shen Mengchen, he was still far behind, not above the same level at all.

"Give you half an hour to break this formation. I don't want to waste too much time in this valley."

Shen Mengchen glanced at the formation in front of him indifferently, and said coldly.

"Yes, Lord Shen, don't worry. In half an hour, I will promise to break this formation."

Several other half-step martial arts kings said fiercely that although they are all half-step martial arts kings, they are all around 27 or 28 years old, and some are even close to 30, compared with Shen Mengchen's status in the Dagan Dynasty. , Too much difference.

Before entering the secret realm of the heavenly devil, they had already received the order from the ancestor of the Dagan Dynasty. In the secret realm of the heavenly devil, everything that obeyed Shen Mengchen was looking forward to him.

"Unfortunately, that Qin Chen is not here, otherwise, he must know the consequences of offending my Dagan Dynasty." Gou Feng said depressed. "Huh, don't worry, I have already told the warriors of other dynasties in this valley that as long as anyone can bring that Qin Chen over, he will be rewarded by this young master. The warriors of the major dynasties here have at least one More than a hundred people, so many people spread out, as long as the kid is nearby, soon

You will get news, but I don't want him to come over without breaking the formation. I hope he sees a group of humiliated companions." Shen Mengchen said with squinting eyes, and there was a palpitating cold light in his eyes.

"This makes people feel happy, doesn't it?"

Shen Mengchen laughed coldly, and his handsome face gave people an extremely evil and cold feeling.

"Hey, Son of Shen is right. The Dawei Dynasty thought that he was in favor of the Master of the Medicine King, so my dynasty really didn't dare to touch him? Too naive." "The Master of the Medicine King?" Shen Mengchen sneered. "It's just an old woman. When the ancestors get their adventures in the heavenly demon secret realm and make a breakthrough, the first thing to do is to enslave the Lord of the Medicine King and make her a forbidden dynasty. , Refined daily for my Dagan Dynasty Elixirs. "

"Hehe."

"Hahaha."

The warriors of the Dagan Dynasty around Shen Mengchen all sneered.

They sneered triumphantly, while the black slaves were extremely anxious in the formation.

As soon as they entered the secret realm of the heavenly devil, they encountered the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty. They fought and fled all the way, but broke into such a valley, and there was no way out.

I thought that with the formation, as long as the opponent felt that there was nothing to do, they would leave obediently.

Unexpectedly, as time passed, more and more warriors discovered this valley, including Shen Mengchen, the top genius of the Dagan Dynasty.

In this way, the black slaves immediately fell into danger.

The only good thing is that after the black slave has been with Qin Chen for so long, he has this formation given by Qin Chen. He has a cultivation base and is not weaker than the average half-step martial king, so he can work hard to support it until now. Otherwise, you can rely on You Qianxue. They have long been unable to hold on.

But even so, the black slave knew very well that he could only hold on for half an hour at most, and once more than half an hour, under the tireless attack of the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty, the formation would sooner or later be broken.

"Could it be that we just entered this heavenly demon secret realm, are we going to die here?"

The corners of the mouth were bitter, the black slaves and others looked at each other, and the corners of their eyes were desperate.

However, they are also ready. Once the formation is broken, they will fight out together. There are only a few who can escape. Even if they can't escape, they must fight hard with the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty before they die. Fight, how many can kill.

Now they didn't know that Qin Chen had received the news and was rushing towards this side.

Under Qin Chen's desperate flying by, in less than half an hour, Qin Chen had seen the valley from afar.

"This group of guys from the Dawei Dynasty really persisted, but even if they persisted, it would be useless, especially the women in it. It's strange that Master Shen can let them go..."

"Hehe, blame it, they grabbed the Dagan Dynasty's spot, right? What's the temper of the Dagan Dynasty? The Dawei Dynasty occupied their spot. It's strange if they can bear it."

"It's still too young to think that it's okay if you fawn with the owner of the Medicine King. Although the Dagan Dynasty did not dare to move the owner of the Medicine King, but in this Heavenly Demon Secret Realm, the Dagan Dynasty didn't have to worry about someone who didn't come in at all."

At this time, a group of warriors of the middle dynasty were afraid to offend Shen Mengchen, so they didn't dare to get too close to the valley, but they didn't want to miss such a good show. They all gathered at the gate of the valley and discussed each other.

While they were discussing, one of them looked at the warrior outside the valley, and was suddenly stunned, his eyes staring out of the valley blankly.

"This... he..." He pointed out the valley and said in shock.

Chapter 935: The formation broke

"Xu Gu, what's wrong with you?"

"What is it?"

"What did you see?"

Seeing the expression on Xu Gu's face, the companions around him were puzzled. Xu Gu was so surprised at what he saw, and they all turned their heads, and saw a terrifying streamer in the distance rushing towards them. Come.

This streamer was still far away at first, and fell beside them in the blink of an eye, exuding cold murderous intent.

"Boom!" A mountain-like coercion stunned. In an instant, more than a dozen people at the gate of the valley felt cold all over, as if they were being stared at by some ancient beast. The rich murderous intent, just like Fell on them in essence, under this cold killing intent, their group

People are all dumbfounded, and they dare not even move.

It seems that if you move, you will encounter the disaster of extinction.

"What a terrifying murderous spirit!"

Several geniuses among them felt that their aura was suppressed, and they were just about to break free from the shackles of the killing intent with a cold snort, but as soon as they raised their heads, they saw Qin Chen's cold eyes, and they only felt like a basin of cold water poured over their heads. Next, half a word could not be said for an instant.

Although Qin Chen was far away, he clearly heard their conversation, with an extremely cold face, staring at several people coldly, "Is my disciple of the Dawei Dynasty in this valley?"

"Boy, why should we answer your words, what are you?"

A Wu Zun of the late sixth stage heard Qin Chen's unceremonious words, and suddenly snorted, but before he could finish his words, Qin Chen had already looked at him coldly, and in his deep eyes, there was a shocking The mental power disappeared in a flash.

Flop!

The warrior only felt that he was in a cold ice cellar, instantly as if he fell into the abyss, his blood was solidified, his whole body knelt down with a thump, his whole body was dripping with cold sweat, and he couldn't even move.

As if at this moment, the * of death had already stared at him, as long as he did any move, he would die instantly.

"I'll ask again, are people from my Dawei Dynasty here?" Qin Chen was full of murderous intent, and anyone could feel the cold murderous intent on him. The warrior named Xu Gu was the first to come back. Although he was also shocked, he was more calm than the others. Now Qin Chen asked, he quickly bowed to Qin Chen and said, "Yes Qin Shaoxia, Your friend is in this valley, deep in the southeast, there are more than ten

The powerhouse of the Dagan Dynasty, Young Master Shen is also inside..."

Before Xu Gu had finished speaking, he found that Qin Chen had suddenly disappeared, and he couldn't even react to how he entered the valley.

The cold breath that enveloped everyone also disappeared.

call!

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief, and looked at the place where Qin Chen disappeared in horror, all of them horrified. What a terrifying murderous intent, what a terrible aura. Although Qin Chen's cultivation base is not much higher than them, they can feel that if they dared to show the slightest disrespect, the other party would definitely be able to kill them in one face. Ling Li's murderous intent is even better than the Wu Wang of their respective dynasties

The ancestors seem to be even more terrible.

How could a teenage boy exude such a terrifying killing intent?

A blast of cold wind blew through, and everyone felt sweat dripping from behind, and all the robes on his body were all wet.

"It's terrible, why do I feel that Qin Chen's aura is more terrifying than Young Master Shen?" Xu Gu wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and muttered, "It seems that the Dagan Dynasty is in trouble. Qin Chen is so terrible. There will be a tragic fight in the future."

Before that, Qin Chen was scared to kneel to the ground in late Wu Zun, his face flushed, gritted his teeth and said bitterly: "Only with him, I want to cause trouble to Master Shen? Huh, rushed in stupidly. Send to death."

His eyes were full of spitefulness, obviously because he had lost such a big face before, his heart was very angry.

It's just that no one on the court followed him, each of them shook their bodies, and they all rushed towards the valley interior, unwilling to miss this event.

In the blink of an eye, outside the valley where many warriors had originally gathered, everyone walked clean and empty.

Now in the valley.

The formations arranged by the black slaves are already full of cracks. With the powerful shot of the Dagan Dynasty warriors once again, with a bang, the entire formation is instantly shattered, and the white mask that originally enveloped the black slaves is instantly shattered. , Turned into nothingness.

The furious gaze of the black slaves and others inside was revealed.

"Master Shen, the formation has been broken."

Gou Fenglian came to Shen Mengchen and said with a flattering smile.

"Young Master Ben has already seen it." Shen Mengchen sneered, with an indifferent sneer at the corner of his mouth.

"You run away again, huh, do you think you can't do anything about hiding in the formation? It has cost us so much energy." Several warriors from the Dagan Dynasty slowly began to look on their faces. Surrounded by the black slaves and others, a cold sneer appeared in the eyes.

They waited quietly, watching Shen Mengchen slowly walk up.

"A few ants, wasting this young man's time." Shen Mengchen glanced across the black slaves on the court, and finally fell on You Qianxue.

Looking at You Qianxue with a proud figure and a beautiful face, Shen Mengchen's eyes flashed with a lusty light, and smiled grinningly: "But it's not a waste of time to taste such a beautiful person. The body and face are both good. I don't know how to play with it. How does it taste?"

"Hehe."

"Hahaha!"

"Master Shen really has vision. This woman has the best figure, but the other two are also nice and look less than 20. They are all sixth-order martial arts. If he can, brothers would like to try too. Meat."

The other half-step Martial Kings also laughed grinningly, but their eyes fell on Princess Zi Xun and Qin Ying, and said with a squint.

They all knew that You Qianxue must have been tasted by Young Master Shen, but for the remaining two, as long as Young Master Shen was happy, they might be refreshed, but this was an unexpected gain, and it was not a waste of them wasting so much time. , It took so much energy to break this formation.

"Don't worry, you are indispensable. When this young man has played enough, he will definitely let you taste it." Shen Mengchen said casually.

"Thank you Young Master Shen." Gou Feng and others said excitedly.

"Now, you, come here, and take good care of my son. If you are satisfied with the service, maybe I will leave you a whole body under my mercy."

Shen Mengchen said to You Qianxue wickedly, with that expression as if the emperor was choosing his concubine.

"Go to hell, bah!" You Qianxue spit fiercely.

Chapter 936: Broken bones

Shen Mengchen's mouth outlines a smile: "You have a personality, but do you think you can survive this way? Look around you, you are already surrounded by people from my dynasty, even if you die, what is the use? I'm satisfied with my son, and if my son is happy, I will give you

There is no way to survive, do you say so? "

With the intention of molesting, Young Master Shen even said loudly to the warriors of the other forces in the valley.

"Yeah, beautiful lady, after meeting Master Shen's requirements, there may be a way to survive."

"Hey, Lord Shen is one of my top ten rookies in the land of a hundred dynasties. I don't know how many girl warriors want to serve him."

"It's an idiot if you don't seize such a good opportunity."

Many warriors from other forces in the valley sneered.

You Qianxue and the others had pale expressions, and said angrily: "Get out!"

"Hehe, the temper is still so stinky, it seems that my son must be strong, but unfortunately, my son doesn't like to use strong, so I will give you ten breaths of time to think about it."

Before You Qianxue had time to speak, he heard a cold voice coming from behind: "No, they don't need this ten breath time, but you, need this ten breath time to write a last word, take it well! "

"Who is there to let go."

"Get out of here!"

The warriors of the Dagan Dynasty suddenly became furious, turning their heads one after another, and saw Qin Chen with a face like ice, slowly coming from outside the valley, even dozens of meters away from them.

"It's you?"

They had all met Qin Chen when the Heavenly Demon Secret Realm was opened, and they naturally knew each other, knowing that he was the Qin Chen who had taken their place in the Dagan Dynasty and killed the Qin Chen who saw the blood in Sikong, and they were overjoyed one by one.

While overjoyed, they are also vigilant.

Qin Chen was only tens of meters away from them, but they didn't even feel it before. What kind of hidden skill is this?

And Gou Feng was even more stunned, "You are that Qin Chen, how dare you come over?"

He didn't think that Qin Chen broke in without a doubt. He must have received news if he was able to rush in so quickly, but in that case, this kid dared to come over. How confident is he in himself?

"Little dust..."

The black slaves were also stunned the moment they saw Qin Chen, and immediately showed excitement.

And You Qianxue rushed over desperately, all the fear, anger, and helplessness just disappeared completely. With Qin Chen here, she felt that she was not afraid of anything.

Seeing the excitement of the crowd, Qin Chen couldn't help being excited. He even had some rejoicing in his heart. Fortunately, he came early. If it were later, he didn't know what would happen.

In his previous life, he had no relatives, no friends, and was extremely lonely, just plunged into the ocean of martial arts, refining medicine and blood.

In this life, he has so many friends and relatives, let him feel the happiness that he did not have in the previous life, so it is even more rare.

This is his reverse scale, no one can touch it.

"Sorry, everyone, I'm late."

Qin Chen reproached himself, although he arrived in time, he still blamed himself for not coming earlier, otherwise everyone would not worry about being afraid for so long.

He could feel that when the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty madly attacked the formation, the anger and fear in the black slaves and their hearts, faced with life and death, even if they watched again, they could not calm down.

"Little dust, don't say that, it's fine when you come."

The black slave laughed. At this time, the worry and anger in his eyes had completely disappeared, and some were just calm.

After following Qin Chen for so long, he knew very well that as long as Young Chen came, nothing would be a problem.

Now, it should be the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty who should be afraid. I am afraid they don't know what kind of fate they will face next. Perhaps they still feel that Chen Shao is stupid, and they dare to appear.

Sure enough, as the black slave expected, after hearing Qin Chen's words, all the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty laughed.

"Did you hear that? What did this kid just say?"

"Say he came late? Hahaha, does he think he comes early and the result will be different?"

"Just now this person said that he would let Young Master Shen leave his last words. It was too presumptuous."

"Maybe he thought he would be invincible after killing Sikong and seeing blood."

"Take him down and let him know that he is actually nothing."

The many warriors of the Dagan Dynasty all sneered. One of the martial masters who was the peak of the sixth stage late stage walked out of the crowd without saying a word. He shook his figure and directly killed Qin Chen.

"Brothers, leave this person to me, but I want to see what he can do to dare to speak such arrogant words."

That Wu Zun spoke with a sneer, the true power of the sixth-order peak in his body turned to the extreme, and he slashed with a palm knife.

"Wrong bones and corpses!"

A strong murderous aura burst out from his palm, turning into a black palm shadow.

"Hehe, Zhou Liang displayed his own tricks as soon as he came up, and it seems that he is really angry."

"That kid is dead. Zhou Liang's broken bones and corpse hands have been cultivated to great success, and ordinary half-step martial arts are no opponents." This broken bones and corpse hands is a very insidious hand of the Dagan Dynasty. , The martial arts belonging to the ground level, it is extremely difficult to practice, but once trained, the power is amazing, the violent aura contained in it can quickly annihilate the opponent's bones and sea of energy, and instantly deprive the opponent of life, so it is called the wrong bone split corpse hand.

A disciple of the Dawei Dynasty, although Qin Chen killed Sikong and saw blood in the competition, in the eyes of the top warriors of the Dagan Dynasty, it was still not worth mentioning.

Just when they sneered at the corners of their mouths, ready to see how Zhou Liang would take Qin Chen, Qin Chen, who had not moved, moved suddenly.

Cang!

The mysterious rust sword on his waist suddenly unsheathed, and a sword light flashed away in the void, like a thunder.

Puff!

The next moment, the sky full of palm shadows disappeared, half of his palm flew up, Zhou Liang roared in horror, Qin Chen cut off half of his palm instantly, and blood poured out like a fountain.

"impossible!"

He roared, his eyes furious, and his figure hurriedly backed away.

But how could Qin Chen let him leave, and his figure flickered, and the mysterious rust sword tracked it again, the sword light, like lightning, came to him in the blink of an eye.

A trace of intense fear filled his body.

"not good!"

Zhou Liang roared in horror and backed away frantically.

"stop."

"Boy, you are looking for death!"

The other martial artists of the Dagan Dynasty came back to their senses at this time, and they all screamed in anger, and in a flash, five or six figures rushed.

But it was too late.

Puff!

Qin Chen's sword light was almost at its extreme, and it flashed across Zhou Liang's throat in an instant.

One with his eyes widened and his eyes full of frightened heads instantly rose into the sky.

Boom boom boom boom! At this time, the attacks of the five or six powerful dynasties had already fallen on Qin Chen like oceans, bursting out with a fierce roar.

Chapter 937: What a beautiful sword

Before Qin Chen even had time to react, he was already overwhelmed by the sky's attacks, and even his figure was completely invisible.

The rest of the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty all breathed a sigh of relief when they saw it, and being bombarded by so many attacks, even the half-step martial king powerhouse would undoubtedly die. This kid is only a martial master in the late sixth stage, no matter how high his cultivation base is. May survive.

But what makes them depressed is that Zhou Liang is also dead.

"This kid's sword was so fast just now, it was too late to save it."

"Zhou Liang should be careless, otherwise he wouldn't be beheaded by one sword!"

"This * kid."

A few people shouted angrily. Some of them had a good relationship with Zhou Liang, otherwise they would not come up immediately. Unfortunately, although they were the fastest, they still failed to save Zhou Liang.

One by one looked at You Qianxue and the others with cold eyes, a hideous murderous intent flashed in his eyes, Zhou Liang died, and they were buried with Zhou Liang.

"Be careful!"

But when they were relieved one after another and were about to walk towards You Qianxue and the others, not far away, Shen Mengchen's eyes suddenly condensed and he let out an angry cry.

But it was too late for his reminder. Boom, among the smoke and dust, a figure flew out quickly. It was Qin Chen. His eyes were cold, and he was blasted by the attack of the fifth-sixth-stage and sixth-stage martial arts, and there was nothing at all. , The bright sword light suddenly turned into a gorgeous sword flower and swept out.

In that sword flower, with a trace of sword intent, the eyes of the five or six warriors instantly filled the eyes, as if a ray of sunlight was shining from the horizon.

"What a beautiful sword!"

At this time, the martial artists onlookers only saw the brilliant sword light, and could not see Qin Chen's movements at all, and when the sword light came on, they all couldn't help but sigh.

The only thing that felt unbeautiful was the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty. When they saw that their bodies were filled with brilliant sword light, they felt a strong sense of crisis in their hearts, their whole body was erected, and all the panic madness was about to retreat.

But they found that they couldn't move at all, they could only stare at their horrified eyes, watching the sword light swallow them.

"boom!"

The sword light in the sky completely enveloped these people, and then brought a lot of blood.

When the sword light fell, these people had completely lost their vitality and became a corpse.

One sword, six Wuzun strong men of the Dagan Dynasty, die!

"you....."

At this moment, all the warriors on the field stared at Qin Chen in horror. They couldn't believe that Qin Chen killed seven warriors of the Dagan Dynasty in this short period of time, and he himself was not hurt at all.

Especially just now, he was hit by six martial arts masters, but he did nothing at all, and even his robes were not damaged at all. This Qin Chen is simply too bad, this is really just a sixth-stage martial artist. Respect? Even the average half-step king is not so scary, right?

"Kang Dang!" Qin Chen lifted his foot and kicked the weapons of the five or six Dagan Dynasty martial artists. At the same time, he raised his hand to put away the storage rings of a few people, and then Qin Chen coldly glanced at the sluggish side. The other warriors of the Dagan Dynasty sarcastically said, "Who said that I was going to kill me? Just this point.

, Even the ants can't be killed, so are they worthy of letting go? "The warriors who have gathered in the valley one after another have been completely stunned. Qin Chen finally kicked the weapons of several warriors of the Dagan Dynasty to fly. It was a bit arrogant, but in their opinion, this was not the most arrogant. , The most arrogant thing is the last sentence, which is clearly not Put the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty in your eyes.

If Qin Chen said this at first, others would mock him for being arrogant, but now, no one dares to think so.

How long is this? One-third of the martial artists of the Dagan Dynasty died in the hands of this kid. When he said this, everyone felt like it was a matter of course.

But You Qianxue and the others looked at Qin Chen excitedly, too imposing and domineering.

Wang Qiming was holding the saber, blood boiled all over, full of fighting intent. He wanted to kill the Quartet like Qin Chen, and then said that the other party would let go, but he knew that he could not do it at all, or even far away.

But he believes that as long as he continues to work hard, one day he will reach such a height.

"Okay, okay, kid, you successfully angered me."

Shen Mengchen had an expression of abuse at the corner of his mouth, completely disappeared, and his eyes became extremely cold.

For so many years in his dynasty, he has never dared to speak to himself like this. But today, a teenager who is less than twenty dared to speak to himself like this. This is an unprecedented shame since his debut.

"Master Shen, let me deal with him." A half-step martial arts king said with cold eyes.

"No, leave it to me, this kid, I want to make him feel desperate a little bit, you go and deal with his friends." Shen Mengchen snorted coldly, killing intently.

A hint of sarcasm suddenly appeared in Qin Chen's eyes: "It's up to you?"

When the words fell, he didn't even hesitate, the mysterious rust sword had already been sacrificed, and a splendid sword light swept out in an instant.

If the other half-step Martial Kings of the Dagan Dynasty really did something to You Qianxue and the others, he would be really jealous. If You Qianxue and the others couldn't resist it, it would be of no avail to kill Shen Mengchen, so he wanted to take the initiative first. Let the people of the Dagan Dynasty have no time to deal with his friends.

Shen Mengchen had seen Qin Chen's powerful swordsmanship, so he spoke lightly, but he didn't dare to neglect at all. The moment Qin Chen sacrificed the mysterious rust sword, there was already a silver sword in his hand with densely packed swords. Silver Shaman swept towards Qin Chen.

Shen Mengchen shot with all his strength, the silver sword's power instantly became extremely astonishing, the silver killing mangs that he brought up were piled up one after another, and the whole world was instantly enveloped by endless silver swords, as if before the world, only left Under this blade of light, it fills every corner. Wang Qiming's eyes widened instantly, with a terrifying sword light. At this moment, his heart was even aroused. Shen Mengchen is worthy of being the first genius of the Dagan Dynasty. He is much better than him in the understanding of the sword technique. He has a feeling that if he is to play against each other, I am afraid that even the other

If you can't take all three moves, you have already lost.

This is not only a gap in cultivation, but also a gap in the artistic conception of the sword.

This blow was enough to fight against the general seventh-order Martial King.

Qin Chen's gaze also condensed, this Shen Mengchen is really extraordinary. At such a young age, his sword skills have reached the point where the sword can follow his heart. If an ordinary warrior, I am afraid that it will be swallowed by endless silver light in an instant, but in front of him, it is not enough. Look.

call!

Wind blows! Between the heavens and the earth, a piece of sword light that was more brilliant than the silver knife light was shining. These sword lights, with a light purple color, were layered on top of each other, endless, as if they were spiritual, blocking all of Shen Mengchen's sword light. road.

Chapter 938: Powerless

Jingle bells!

The silver sword light in the sky was like the ocean, and Qin Chen's sword light was like a wall, no matter how Wang Yang slapped it, it still couldn't get in the slightest.

"Your Excellency is capable of this? The top genius of the dignified dynasty is nothing but that."

Qin Chen even sneered while resisting.

"Boy, I want you to die!"

Shen Mengchen roared, and the power of the sword suddenly changed.

The power of an invisible bloodline was blessed on the light of the knife, and the light of the knife was glowing with * flames, and its power was nearly doubled in an instant.

"Blood Flame Sword Technique!"

The sword in his hand suddenly turned into a * silver ocean, annihilating everything like a wave of blood, enveloping Qin Chen with the power of destruction.

Shoo!

Above the ground, the black rock was smashed by the escaping sword energy, and the sword energy spread out, and countless cracks appeared on the ground instantly.

The warriors of the other forces around were retreating crazily at this time, watching this scene in horror, Qiang Qiang, many of them even felt that their sabers trembled, as if they were about to break through the air, one by one. Shocked and hurriedly pressed the saber, his face was shocked.

This is because the knife was accidentally released, and the sword soldiers were all controlled by it.

"Chang!"

The mysterious rust sword trembles, Qin Chen's eyes are like cold stars, the long sword swings, and the dragon screams forever. The bright mysterious rust sword turns into an electric light shadow, and suddenly sinks into the * knife wave.

Dangdang!

A series of explosions sounded, and Shen Mengchen's sword shadow fell apart in an instant, and a thunder and lightning flashed out of the sword shadow, cutting off a piece of his clothes.

Qin Chen followed closely, and the mysterious rust sword turned into a misty halo, sweeping forward like a wave. Shen Mengchen was shocked, Qin Chen's swordsmanship made him feel helpless and unable to resist. How could this be possible? The blood flame sword technique he cultivated was a very powerful high-level sword technique of the Dagan Dynasty, with infinite power, and his silver wolf king sword was even a seventh-rank king.

Soldiers were famous in the Dagan Dynasty.

But in front of Qin Chen, he even felt overwhelmed. How could this be possible?

"If your Excellency only has this ability, then die!"

With a sneer, Qin Chen's sword light changed again.

If Qin Chen's sword light was extremely ethereal and unpredictable before, then at this moment, Qin Chen's sword light has become pervasive, like dense rain, blocking all his escape routes.

Under this sword light, Shen Mengchen even felt a sense of horror as the soul was out of the body.

"not good!"

Shen Mengchen's heart was immediately shocked. While urging his Silver Wolf King Sword with all his strength, he sacrificed a black shield.

In his opinion, even if Qin Chen is at the peak of the half-step Martial King, the killer of the Silver Wolf King's sword will make the opponent jealous, while the black shield can withstand the opponent's strong blow. When that happens, he will be the first time Let other people attack together to kill Qin Chen.

At this moment, he had no idea of fighting alone with Qin Chen, because he had a feeling that if he continued to fight like this, he would most likely be killed by Qin Chen.

Although the battle between him and Qin Chen had just begun, he hadn't seen any clues yet, but he had such a premonition inexplicably.

But Shen Mengchen soon felt that something was wrong. His black shield was sacrificed, but it was slowly flying like a feather in the sky.

At the next moment, he felt his sword light domain shattered every inch, and when he reacted, he found that he was completely under Qin Chen's sword light, his whole body seemed to be plunged into a quagmire, and the true power in his body was also suppressed. The stagnation, the operation is extremely slow.

At this time, Qin Chen's sword light overwhelmed the sky, and Shen Mengchen was suddenly shocked. If this goes on, he will be crushed by the sword light. Shen Mengchen didn't care about anything else. He burned his essence and blood crazily and wanted to escape from Qin Chen's sword light domain. He must have never seen such a terrifying sword light domain. This kind of sword intent was even better than some seventh-order martial kings All swordsmen are terrible, and they must be above his understanding of the sword intent.

, Otherwise it is absolutely impossible to break his sword light so easily.

"Boom boom boom..." A violent roar sounded, and many powerful dynasty experts watching from the side were surprised to find that the silver and blood knives inspired by the silver wolf king knife and the silver wolf king knife in Shen Mengchen's hand were all cut down. A piece of black armor suddenly appeared on Qin Chen's body, which could not cause any harm to Qin Chen.

What armor is this?

Everyone's eyes widened, and with Master Shen's cultivation base and strength, even a general seventh-order martial king would be injured by his sword, but the black armor on Qin Chen's body actually used all of Master Shen's killer moves. It was all blocked, and it didn't even cause him any harm.

Could it be that the boy just relied on this black armor to block the attack of the previous few people?

"Not good!" This group of warriors hadn't guessed the result yet, and suddenly came to their senses. The other party has such a terrible armor, how can Young Master Shen fight the opponent? Young Master Shen's attack can't even break the opponent's defenses, but the opponent can easily hurt Young Master Shen. If you continue to fight like this, you will definitely lose.

Lord Shen.

If there is something wrong with Young Master Shen, then these people will definitely be angry with the ancestors.

"stop!"

"Bold, dare to hurt Young Master Shen, my Da Gan Dynasty will never let you go."

"Stop it for me."

One after another shouted angrily, the remaining nearly ten powerful dynasties flew out at the same time, one by one, they furiously bombarded Qin Chen.

At this moment, after Young Master Shen had burned his essence and blood, he barely broke free of Qin Chen's true power restraint, but was swept up by countless brilliant sword lights without any successor.

Under Qin Chen's sword light, his black shield was easily knocked out and fell to the ground with a bang.

The sword light domain has already taken shape, even if Shen Mengchen has great abilities, he is still unable to return to the sky at this moment.

Shen Mengchen watched his body being torn apart by the brilliant sword light with eyeballs. When the brilliant sword light continued to wreak havoc in his body, he was full of regret.

He regrets that he shouldn't ask Da to fight Qin Chen alone, and regret that he didn't use his full strength as soon as he came up. As a genius that the Dagan Dynasty focused on training, would he not have a life-saving treasure? But because of his support, none of them had time to perform.

Puff puff puff! Countless sword lights penetrated Shen Mengchen inside and out. Since Qin Chen made his move, how could he give the opponent a chance to survive? The true power of the powerful Nine Star God Emperor Jue poured into the opponent's body along with the sword light, together with the soul in the opponent's mind All were killed by Qin Chen, killing him instantly.

As soon as Qin Chen lifted his hand, a ring fell on the palm of his hand and disappeared. The whole person was extremely calm, and he was not agitated at all because of killing Shen Mengchen.

In the eyes of others, Shen Mengchen, who was unattainable and dared not to look upright, seemed to him to be just a young rookie junior. After beheading him, Qin Chen had no pride at all.

Boom boom boom!

At this time, the attacks of the many warriors of the Dagan Dynasty came down, and they blasted Qin Chen one after another, but they were all blocked by Qin Chen's alien demon armor.

The different demon armor can block even the attacks of the seventh-order martial kings. Even the half-step martial kings of the Dagan Dynasty, even if they are extremely talented, they can compete with the general seventh-order martial kings, but they are not real martial kings after all.

Wanting to break through Qin Chen's defense of the alien demon armor is simply nonsense.

He glanced at the many warriors of the Dagan Dynasty on the field, and said coldly: "I'm standing here for you to fight, can you break my defense?"

"This....."

All the people in the valley watched this scene blankly, all of them were stunned, and the remaining Dagan Dynasty warriors also showed horror on their faces, and they were born with cold sweat behind them.

"Is this guy really a genius of the Dawei Dynasty?"

Xu Gu and many of the warriors who stood outside the valley talking before were completely stunned, unable to believe everything in front of them.

As the top genius of the Dagan Dynasty, Shen Mengchen has never been afraid of anyone in this area of the Hundred Dynasties, and because of his status as the top genius of the Dagan dynasty, even some seventh-order martial king experts will sell him three points of face.

In the future, there is even hope to inherit the Dagan Dynasty's orthodoxy.

But such a top genius was still majestic and imposing a moment ago, and he wanted to insult many disciples of the Dawei Dynasty. He was invincible, but after a while, Qin Chen's men had been beheaded with just a few tricks. This was simply too much. Terrible.

And the other party looked so young and unreasonable. The genius who could kill Shen Mengchen so easily could really be cultivated by the Dawei Dynasty?

They were shocked, and the remaining disciples of the Dagan Dynasty were panicked, and even the faces of the half-step martial kings were horrified.

There was no nonsense at all, the group of people turned around and flew away from the valley.

What are you kidding about, even Young Master Shen Mengchen was beheaded by the opponent with a few strokes, and their attack fell on the opponent, and even the defense could not be broken. How could he fight this? There can be no second consequence except death.

For the present plan, only by telling the ancestors and many Master Wu the news as soon as possible, I am afraid that only Master Wu will be able to kill that Qin Chen, right?

As for Shen Gongzi's killing, they will be punished, they can't manage at all now.

At this moment, seeing the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty fleeing, the black slaves were instantly unhappy.

"kill!"

The black demon banner swept out, and without waiting for Qin Chen to speak, the black slave blasted towards the nearest martial artist.

The black sky demon banner was carrying a monstrous black mist, and that Wu Zun had no thoughts at all at this moment, and was instantly enveloped by the black mist, followed by a scream, and was beheaded by the black slave.

"Want to go?"

Qin Chen snorted coldly. Now that he did it, how could he let these guys escape? Naturally, he wanted to leave none.

"Spirit Storm!"

A terrifying mental power swept out like a vast ocean in an instant.

After his spiritual power broke through the seventh rank, Qin Chen's spiritual storm was no longer a bunch at all, but turned into a fan-shaped spiritual storm that filled more than a dozen warriors of the Dagan Dynasty.

These warriors of the Dagan Dynasty, one by one, are only in the late sixth stage, even the strongest five, they are only half the level of the martial king, how can they withstand the attack of Qin Chen's seventh-order mental power, and instantly stagnate, His eyes were dull.

Puff puff puff puff...

The next moment, countless sword lights swallowed them in an instant, a series of screams rang out, and a powerful man from the Dagan Dynasty fell as if cutting wheat, killing him instantly.

In just a few breaths, more than a dozen warriors of the Dagan Dynasty have all fallen, not one left.

In the valley, blood flowed across the valley, and there were stumps and flesh everywhere. It was horrible. A cold wind blew through. The strong * aura caused the remaining nearly 100 strong players on the field to shiver all over, and their eyes were full of fear. .

More than a dozen top martial artists of the Dagan dynasty, including Shen Mengchen's top ten rookies in a land of hundreds of dynasties, were killed by Qin Chen alone, and it seemed almost effortless.

Everyone looked at this scene dumbfounded, one by one dumbfounded.

It's just like a dream, it's incredible.

Even words couldn't describe their inner shock, all of them were stupid. But Qin Chen put away the mysterious rust sword at this time, looked at the other warriors on the field, and said lightly, "You guys just watched here are very wonderful, my disciples of the Dawei Dynasty are killed, you don't need to help. After all, you are not obligated to help, but you stay here

Looking at the lively mind, how about it, is it lively and beautiful? Why don't you all go together now, and this young man will show everyone a lively? "

At this time, the major forces gathered in the valley were close to hundreds of people, but when Qin Chen faced the hundreds of people alone and said that the other party should go together, everyone did not feel the slightest disharmony.

In an instant, all the warriors on the field stirred up, and then I remembered that I just stood here watching the show and offended the opponent, and the opponent killed the people of the Dagan Dynasty. After all, the Dagan Dynasty is the top seven. Dynasty, what if the other party wants to stop talking?

Thinking of this, many people on the court couldn't help but shudder.

Although there are only a dozen disciples from the Dawei Dynasty opposite, and there are eighty or ninety of them, they have no doubt that they really want to fight. Qin Chen alone can make them irresistible, one by one. Wait to die.

Everyone can no longer control their cold sweat, regrets in their hearts, they have nothing to stay here to watch the excitement, especially the martial artist who stood on the side of the Dagan Dynasty, ridiculed, and abused the warrior, is even more cold in heart, and can't wait to take oneself. All of his tongues are cut off.

After being shocked, some of the warriors of the dynasty hurriedly said with a trembling: "Qin Shaoxia, I didn't mean to wait. The Dagan dynasty bullied people, and we have long seen them not pleasing to the eye."

"Really? But why didn't I see this?" Qin Chen sneered.

The other party is really talking nonsense with his eyes open, and it's not pleasing to see the other party a long time ago? Then help each other to speak? Think of yourself as a fool? The cold sweat on the foreheads of those warriors instantly came off, and they hesitated, not knowing what to say.

Chapter 940: King Wu arrives

Although Qin Chen felt cold in his heart, he did not intend to kill these people.

The Tianwu Continent was originally the weak and the strong. The Dagan Dynasty was one of the seven upper-level dynasties in the land of a hundred dynasties. Each dynasty relied on the breath of the seven dynasties. At this time, it was normal to speak for the Dagan dynasty.

And even if he kills these people in front of him, he can't change the fact that Tianwu Continent is weak and strong. Next time there is such a thing, most of the warriors will still stand on the side of the Dagan Dynasty. Moreover, these people on the field are the top geniuses of the major dynasties, and they are all the existences that the major dynasties have tried their best to cultivate. I just destroyed so many people from the Dagan Dynasty, if I kill so many geniuses on the court again, There is no doubt that it will inevitably cause a shock in the entire land of a hundred dynasties

Chendi Pavilion still operates in the Land of Hundred Dynasties, and once it causes resistance from the entire Land of Hundred Dynasties, this is not a good thing.

Even though Qin Chen thought so, the expression on his face was not like this, as if he was really angry, and he could do anything casually.

"Qin Shaoxia, I waited just because I was only forced by the * of the Dagan dynasty. There was no way to do this. You also know the personality of the Dagan dynasty. If it is not as good as their intentions, I am afraid I will be in danger, so..."

"Yes, please also Qin Shaoxia's lesson."

Many geniuses on the field said one after another. At this moment, the black slave suddenly stepped forward and said: "Little dust, this valley was discovered first when I was escaping. When I first entered, there were still many elixir in this valley, many of which were of rank. Very high, most of them were taken away by the warriors of the Dagan Dynasty, and there are some,

It fell into the hands of these people, so they would stand on the side of the Dagan Dynasty. "

Many warriors on the field were already sweating, but now the black slaves turned pale when they said this.

Before Qin Chen could speak, You Qianxue also said, "Qin Chen is right. This was originally a medicine garden. When we fled in, there were elixir everywhere, but later they were picked by the Dagan Dynasty and the people on the field. After leaving, there are even a lot of seventh-order elixir in it."

"Is that so?" Qin Chen said coldly, the murderous intent condensed on his body once again boiled. At this moment, nearly a hundred people in the valley felt that they were under this rich murderous intent, like a boat without roots.

But they didn't dare to resist at all, they were afraid that if they resisted, they would cause Qin Chen to act.

Qin Chen didn't kill them because the land of a hundred dynasties was weak and the flesh was strong, and others were not obliged to help the black slaves, and if these people were treacherous with the Dagan Dynasty for a panacea, then don't blame him for being rude. "Qin Shaoxia calmed down. When I first came in, I did find that there were a lot of elixir here, but at that time the valley was controlled by the people of the Dagan Dynasty. I waited until I was able to get some after fighting with the other party. The right to pick elixir, most of them, are

The people of the Qian Dynasty picked it away. If we knew that this valley was discovered by the disciples of the Dawei Dynasty first, we would definitely not be like this. "

"Yes, if we knew that the elixir here was discovered by the people of the Dawei Dynasty, if we picked the elixir, we would definitely pass several people."

"But it's not too late. We are willing to take out all the elixir we picked before and give it to Qin Shaoxia."

Seeing the murderous intent on Qin Chen's body became more and more prosperous, these people dared not hesitate.

Lian took out the elixir from his body one after another, and handed it up.

"Spirit Mushroom?"

"Heavenly Grass?"

Seeing the elixir taken out by these people, Qin Chen was stunned for an instant. Although he had heard the black slaves say that this was a medicine valley before, he didn't care much at first, but now he saw the elixir taken out by these people. After that, he was stunned instantly.

The spirit marrow mushroom is the main material for refining the spirit marrow pill, and the spirit marrow pill is a terrifying pill that can change the qualifications of the martial artist. Once taken, it can give the martial artist a reborn change, just like washing the hair and cutting the marrow. And Tianmeng Grass is even more remarkable. The Tianmeng Pill refined from it can allow the martial artist to enter a mysterious dream state, and in this dream, the martial artist's perception of the martial art concept will be counted. The increase of fold allows the martial artist to practice any technique and realize any martial arts will.

To promote.

These two kinds of elixir belong to the seventh-order elixir, and they are extremely rare in the Martial Domain, and in terms of their rarity, they are not weaker than the sword grass he obtained before.

In addition to these two elixir, Qin Chen was still in the hands of these people and saw many other rare Tier 6 elixir. Each of these elixir is extremely rare. In the outside world, I am afraid there are only large auctions. , There will be one or two

"Just now, this valley was controlled by the people of the Dagan Dynasty. They can all get these elixir. Then what elixir did the people of the Dagan Dynasty pick?"

Qin Chen was too lazy to search for the storage ring of the martial artist of the Dagan Dynasty, but now he can't wait to open Shen Mengchen's storage ring.

Suddenly a bunch of freshly picked elixir came into Qin Chen's eyes.

Yin and Yang Zhu Guo, Marrow Yuan Flower, Dragon Heart Vine...

Each strain of elixir, each one exudes an astonishing aura, and they are extremely rare elixir from the outside world.

"These elixir have little effect on the Wuwang powerhouse, but their effect on the sixth-order Wuzun is simply against the sky. With these elixir, the black slaves want to break through to the half-step Wuwang without any effort."

Although shocked in his heart, Qin Chen's face quickly calmed down, and said coldly: "Except for these elixir, each of you must tell Ben Shao what your dynasty knows about this heavenly demon secret realm. Otherwise, don't blame Qin. You're welcome."

"Yes."

Hearing Qin Chen's words, these warriors were not angry, but were surprised. They immediately took out the jade slips from their bodies, handed them to Qin Chen's hands, and looked at Qin Chen nervously.

There are also some warriors who don't have jade slips on them. They looked at Qin Chen in fear and said, "Qin Shaoxia, we don't have jade slips on them. If Qin Shaoxia feels unsatisfied, we will find a way to find them."

Qin Chen took the jade slips in these people's hands and said, "Let's do it, because you haven't done anything to our Dawei Dynasty disciples before, so forget it this time."

"Thank you Qin Shaoxia."

Everyone hurriedly said with joy on their faces.

Qin Chen's original purpose was to get some understanding of the heavenly demon secret realm from these people, not how to blackmail them, so after searching for these people, Qin Chen did not hesitate, and left the valley directly with the black slaves and others. .

Now he is ready to find a secret place to refine the pill to improve the cultivation of the black slaves. With the elixir he obtained just now, it is enough to raise the strength of the black slaves by a level, so that they will not be in the secret realm of the heavenly devil. Zhong is so horrified.

In the future, even if you encounter a genius and powerful person like Shen Mengchen again, without him, Qin Chen, you can't fall behind.

Seeing Qin Chen and others leave, the group of people in the valley heaved a sigh of relief, feeling like a survivor.

"There are so many elixir in this valley, maybe there are any treasures, let's look for it again."

Qin Chen snatched the elixir away, and immediately these people were heartbroken and they searched in the valley.

But no matter how they searched, they found nothing and were depressed. Just as everyone was about to leave, a figure suddenly swept into the valley.

"Huh? Mengchen's aura is here, but why aren't people here?" The figure scanned the people in the valley, and the whole body exuded a heart-pounding chill. It turned out to be a powerful King Wu.
