

Vampir Lord: Erotic RPG Chapter 19

I was sitting on the sofa looking through the documents Emura had left for me, saying they were important. 'So the humans have allied with the elves and dwarves?' My fingers tapped on the table, even though this should have made me feel worried and anxious. Instead, I only felt the joy at the possibility of war.

The candle flickered with a gust of wind. 'Someone just entered the mansion... This scent' I took in the fresh scent of blood added to the atmosphere. 'Ah, it's Carmilla... Why is she sneaking?'

My body's first reaction was to prepare for combat. I turned my head and saw Carmilla wearing a sexy low cut crimson dress sneaking past the furniture. She then peered at me from the top of a box. Her cute gold eyes fluttering with her cheeks puffed out.

'Let's go along with her little game...' I thought.

She slowly approached me from the shadows. I continued playing along, able to see her reflection in a silver spoon in my hand. Her hand slowly reached for me from behind as a cheeky smile filled her delicate face. Just as she was about to grab my shoulder, I grasped her wrist and flung her over my shoulder, pinning her down onto the large 3 person sofa. Her body sank slightly into the leaver with a thump.

"Ah!?" she exclaimed.

I stared deeply into her golden eyes as her long eyelashes fluttered and she pouted her lips. Before she could speak, I covered her eyes with my left hand. She offered no resistance, as I could feel her lashes stroking against my palm with her flickering eyes.

'Will she really not resist? What a cute creature you are, Carmilla.'

My body leant against hers. The feeling of her soft flesh was beyond divine. I could feel the movement of her chest becoming stronger with her more intense breathing.

I brought my face close to hers. The hot breath blew from her mouth against my cheeks. Her breath had the scent of cherries. They were her favourite snack, even though we didn't need to eat. Every vampire had different habits.

My lips pressed against hers. Their soft jelly like texture felt amazing. I couldn't help desire more opening my mouth, seeking to feel her more deeply. Her little mouth opened in response as our kiss escalated. She grasped my back with her arms, holding me tightly as I felt her eyes closing tightly.

"Mmmmmnph~"

Neither of us had a lot of experience. We both stumbled around, getting more familiar with each other's tastes. I slide my tongue into her warm mouth, filled with her sweet saliva.

Her body jolted upon feeling my tongue entering her mouth. She then slowly extended her tongue to rub against mine. At first, she stroked against my tongue with quick, shy little licks.

"Mmmnnnph!~"

I felt her actions cute and entangled our tongues more intensely so she couldn't escape as easily. Her little fingernails dug into my back as her nose exhaled her hot sighs of air.

"L-lucian! Mmmmmn~"

She rubbed her body against me. Her dress shifted as her E cup breasts gained their freedom, pressing against me with her stiffening nipple sliding across my muscular chest. This sensation caused her to let out sighs of warm breath from her mouth. That caused our kiss to become more passionate as her tongue coiled around mine as she tried to drink all of my saliva.

"Mmmch... Mmmn... Lucian... You taste so... sweet... Like.. Cherries! Mmmnnnph~."

Our kiss escalated as our bodies fell to the ground from our rough movements. The fire was only a few metres from our bodies, causing a great heat to fill us. I pulled my tongue from her mouth as she continued to try sucking it with her pursed lips, trying to stop it from escaping. A string of silver, glistening saliva dangled from our mouths.

"You are so beautiful Carmilla." I said. As I stared into her golden eyes.

Her face filled with a pink hue as she turned her head to the side with a pout. I knew she wasn't furious because her hands were affectionately stroking my back. She looked towards me from the corner of her eyes, then snapped away upon seeing me look.

"Hmph! Bad guy! You probably say that to all the women in your mansion!" She said in a light, angry tone, kicking her legs out.

"Maybe..."

I replied to her, but didn't give her time to respond as my mouth opened and surrounded her pink erect nipple and kissed it. Then stroking my tongue along its tip before circling around its sides. I then started placing kisses on her pretty pink areola.

"Mmmmmmn.. Mean... Ahhhhhhn S-stop! No, L-Lucian behave!"

Her body trembled when she felt my actions. She grasped my head and tried pushing it away. But after a few moments, she stopped pushing me away instead, pressed my face against her harder and guiding my free hand towards her other breast as she made my hand grasp her roughly and squeeze her nipple between my finger and thumb.

“Ahhhhhhnnn w-what is this.... Something... Is coming!”

She coiled around my body, her hands were stroking through my hair and clutching my hand as I continued to suck on her nipples. I felt her body have small spasms that gradually became more intense as her grip on my head also grew stronger in time with them.

I felt her body tremble wildly for several moments as her mouth only let out a loud whimpering and deep breaths. Her hands, that were clinging to me, released me. She then resumed stroking me with a gentle, affectionate touch.

* Carmilla PoV ****

My body was currently being carried like a princess towards Lucian's room. I was slowly recovering from the intense pleasure he gave to me. When we were kissing, I could feel his hard cock rubbing against my thighs... I only came to tease him before leaving for my ancestral home, as we'd be parted for almost three months.

“Lucian... I love you!” I pressed my face against his solid chest in shyness.

He kissed me! It felt so good, different from before. His taste has become just like my favourite snack. I couldn't stop myself from drinking as much of his saliva as possible. The door to his room opened as he skilfully removed his pants before gently placing me onto his bed. My dress slid to the floor. 'Did he do that on purpose? Is this really his first time!!'. His pillows are so soft! It completely wiped my previous jealous thoughts out.

“Haha, Carmilla you're so adorable.” His hands stroked by back gently. The large palms made me feel secure.

Lucian slowly walked closer as burning lust filled his eyes. Although his face was empty, I could tell he wanted to devour me whole, leaving nothing remaining. My eyes lowered down onto his perfectly muscular body. It wasn't too bulky or thin. His body was my ideal. His pale skin shone in the moonlight. Where I finally saw his penis in the flesh.

“Yaaa! It's so b-big!” I covered my face with my hands, peeking through the gaps.

It was long and thick, filled with many throbbing veins. I felt a little taken back at first. It had a strange scent, a little addictive. He moved closer towards me as it swayed from side to side with its dominant presence. My legs parted as if in a trance. There was an embarrassing sound from my pussy, from how wet it was. 'How embarrassing! I didn't wear underwear! Lucian won't think I was trying to seduce him on purpose, right? It was simply bed time.. Y-yes! That's It!

The moment his fingers slid along my slit. I felt electric jolting through my body and stunning my mind. My thighs closed tightly, but his powerful hand held them open as his finger explored my vagina. His thumb caused me to lose my thoughts as it rubbed against my helpless clitoris. He massaged my thighs with his spare hand, which helped me feel more relaxed as his long, thick fingers stroked my unexplored entrance.

"Be gentle... Lucian," I whispered gently, tilting my head to the side. His large rod approached my entrance. Excitement and anticipation were all that filled my mind.

* Third Person POV ****

He pressed his tip against her tiny opening. She swayed her hips in embarrassment as he looked at her pussy with lust. His cock's tip was gradually filled with her sticky fluids that she constantly produced. He felt it okay to not have her suck his cock, as she was so drenched. When he pressed his hips forward, his cock stretched her small opening. Carmilla had a slight grimace on her face, but it faded slowly as her flesh tunnel adapted to his girth.

"Unnnnmph..."

Lucian entered her pussy with around a third of his length. Her soggy, wet insides squeezed against him. It felt like her insides were giving his tip a warm, sticky massage. When he tried to push further, there was a small resistance.

He looked up at her dishevelled face and gave a gentle smile. Her hands were grasping the quilt as she endured with deep breaths. She knew the pain was coming with his next push and wanted to let him feel at ease doing so.

"It's okay... Lucian! Make me yours. Eternally mark my body!" Carmilla said after she closed her eyes and wrapped her legs around him and pulled him closer.

'It's so thick... It hurts... It's harder than a rock.' She thought to herself.

He thrust with all his strength, wanting to make her initial pain over as quickly as possible. His cock was too oversized as it impacted her cervix, causing a jolt of pain through Carmilla's entire lower body.

"AHHHH! It hurts..." Carmilla shouted small tears dripped down her face.

Lucian didn't move any further. He could feel her tight pussy adapt to his thickness. Her insides were desperately trying to produce more fluids to lubricate her vagina. He leant over the slight movement, causing her to feel a burning pain.

“Nnnnnn...”

His hands wiped away her tears gently. He couldn't feel anything but the desire to feed on her. But his mind could remember seeing what actions normal people had taken in this situation as he leant down and gently kissed her cheek and lips.

“Mmmnnph”

Carmilla felt his affectionate kiss and clung to him like a koala. She kissed him deeply to deal with her current pain. She extended her tongue with more skill. Her tongue entangled his, which caused a wet kissing sound to fill the room.

“You can move... Lucian.. Mmmph! Chupa”

Squelch

Her insides made a dirty noise when her body adjusted. The pain was still there, but it was not as bad as she continued to kiss him with passion. She felt his rod plunging deep into her, causing a strange sense of oppression that felt good. His cock would then make her feel it was dragging out her insides as he pulled out. The different feelings made her virgin body overwhelmed. ‘This sense of oppression... It feels so good. More! Dominate me more...’

PahPahPah

“Lucian! Ahhhhn... That's There! Ummmmph.”

His hips slapped against her thighs, causing them to jiggle. He then felt her pussy seemed to adjust more. Her sticky little hole made filthy squelching and fluid noises. His hand grasped one of her legs and rose it towards her chest. The change of position made a part of her pussy change a little, becoming tighter.

“Ooooooh! There! Mmmn Sho deep~.”

The sensation of her insides trying to milk the sperm from his cock drove Lucian's lust a level further as he lifted her other leg into the air as Carmilla was now in an “L” shape. Her large ass would shudder with his powerful thrusts as their bubbly mixed fluids drooled down her crack.

“Mmmn Mnnph Ahhhhn! Lucian!!”

He noticed her insides squeezed him more often. When he looked to her face now turned to the side, he saw not only pain but pleasure was taking hold of her. His hands gripped onto her ass, leaving deep imprints as he slammed against her harder, teasing her shallow areas, which caused her hips to raise and flutter.

Lucian felt his limit approaching. This was his first time having sex, so it was not strange. Her warm sticky cave was far too pleasuring for him to hold on any longer. He leant forward, pressing her legs against her shoulders 'Wow... She suddenly tightened further!' His fangs extended as he pressed them into her neck and drank her blood as his orgasm neared.

"What!?"

(Carmilla PoV)

The moment my pleasure skyrocketed as he pressed my legs against my chest, I felt my own pussy tightening and tried to control that action with my mind. I felt the entire shape of his cock in body and mind. His thick cock stroked deeply, rubbing against my cervix that no longer only caused pain. I felt a sense of pleasure. 'Yes, deeper, just like that, don't stop! Ahh yes, the shallow parts feel good too! Fuck me harder Lucian!'

"Ahhhhhn~"

I couldn't hold back my vulgar moans and the noise from my pussy. The fluids from my cunt were now drooling down my ass, making it sticky, which was a little strange. His head approached. I thought it was for a kiss, but he bit into my neck.

At that moment, the world changed.

(Carmilla PoV end)

"Ahhhhhhhhhhhn~ Yes! Don't stop fuck me harder! Lucian Lucian!"

He felt her body begin to spasm as her insides contracted around his rod, almost ripping it apart. His body felt intense pleasure as her insides became even more soaked as the fluids swirled around him. Her insides were twisting around his rod, then contracting as his hips continued to slam into her.

"Mmmmm, it's so hot! I love you Nnnmph!"

Before he was ready, his hot load fired into her depths and didn't stop. Carmilla had retaliated and bit into his shoulder. The pleasure he felt from her drinking his blood was so strong he climaxed, endlessly filling her tiny womb with his seed.

Slurp

She was also enduring a pleasure that almost made her lose consciousness: her orgasms were flowing one after the other as her pussy squirted. Her body was desperate in trying to ease the pleasure of her climax. Large red hearts filled her golden eyes as she continued to suck on Lucian's neck. Her body was now completely weak and only able to shudder as she felt his cock throbbing endlessly, filling her pussy with his thick, white semen.

It took the pair many hours to end their feast. Neither had been told that bloodsucking during sex was dangerous as both ended up climaxing over a dozen times. Lucian felt his entire body was light as he rested on his bed too tired to clean Carmilla's mess.

"Nnnmm, Lucian love Zzzzzzzz."

Her head lay on his chest as she was dozing with a satisfied face. She was grasping Lucian with her like a koala, as he was still inside her. He had to control himself to not lose control again.

"It was a great first time. Thank you Carmilla for being my woman."

She nuzzled into his chest further, seeming to hear his words, even in her dreams. Lucian looked towards the window. The moon was now slowly fading as morning arrived.

He didn't notice, but there was a small smile upon his emotionless face as he stroked Carmilla's blonde hair with his gentle touch.
