

VAMPIRE'S SLICE OF LIFE

Chapter 16 Three years

Time passed. Three years went by.

In these past three years, Lith did nothing but practice sword. His body was growing so he had to adapt accordingly to his movements. It may take him two or three more years to fully master the sword and he can start with the other weapons then. After practicing sword, he had bath with his big sister and their mother used to join too.

Later at night, Lith would suck his mother's blood and he couldn't do it for more than a few seconds. He could barely make it to drink his mother's milk and used to sleep due to exhaustion. One day, he asked his mother why he feels full after drinking her blood for only a few seconds, to which she simply said "Mother is very strong." and made a smug look while striking a double bicep pose like a macho man. I didn't ask anymore because I understood.

She is a supreme rank, so her blood would definitely be very powerful and I am no more than a small Vampire who hasn't even begun his magic journey. After so much effort I found her pleasure point and I couldn't even stay awake. Okay, I agree, I didn't put any effort and found it accidentally but still, I couldn't even stay awake to look at her expression. After trying and enduring very hard everyday, I finally found a trick.

Even though the blood tastes so heavenly, I stop drinking it after just a second. I then pause a bit and drink again for a second. So, drink, stop, pause, repeat. This was the routine I did and I could feel full after a long while later and also I could stay awake for longer and have my time playing with her boobs. Everyday, without even glancing at the naked body of my beautiful mother and sleeping due to exhaustion was a big sin. Only an idiot would do that. So, I had to improvise and adapt. Mother didn't mind it either. I asked her if she felt any pain while me biting her, she simply chuckled a little and bit me on my neck. I thought it would pain but when she sucked my blood a little from me, it felt....heavenly!

It felt so good and I can only describe it as probably having a big orgasm? I don't know, I was only a nineteen year old virgin back in my previous life. But yes, somewhere along those line. It didn't hurt at all and it just feels tingly when mother bit me. I now understand, she also likes it when I bite her on the neck.

So, three years passed just like that. I trained, sucked my mother's blood and slept and repeated the routine daily. Of course we also had a lot of kisses and I played with her boobs everyday and anytime, anywhere I could. I even shamelessly used to play with my big sister's boobs when she used to carry me to the training arena. She was a little embarrassed at first but then got used to my touches. So, I could now play with both my mother's and my sister's breast to my heart's content.

During these years, at night, my big sister used to come and sleep with us occasionally and in the morning when I used to get up and have my fill of milk, mother used to force big sis to drink her milk too. She used to struggle at first but then she got used to it. This became a habit of her. I didn't mind it either because I got another pair of breasts which belonged to my big sister to play while drinking milk from the beautiful big breasts of my mother. While drinking milk from mother, I used to remove Lucy's boobs out of her dress and kneaded them into whatever shape I desired. At first, it wasn't easy because my hands were small and so I could only play with one of her breast but mother being the crazy lady she is, she put me on her stomach and nearer to Lucy so I can play well with her. I was very surprised but happy too. I gave my mother a kiss on her lips as a thankyou for it. Lucy liked it when I played with her breasts too or else she would've struggled or atleast put up some resistance to my advances.

Currently, we were drinking milk from the breasts of our dear mother and I was also fondling my big sister's boobs. My hand now could reach her easily. I didn't get too tall in these three years or is it that my mother and sister are just too tall that my growth seems insignificant? I do not know. I could now finally reach my mother's buttocks if I grab her from behind. It was just barely enough to have my face stuffed in her back and to get a sniff of her pink slit. Of course to test my height, I purposefully hugged her from behind during bath in the morning when we both were naked. She smelled really good. She had a very light yet very fragrant scent of roses. It smelled a little sweet too.

I even hugged my big sister during bath after training so I could differentiate the scent and compare them a little. My big sister smelled like roses too but it was on the stronger and more fragrant side unlike my mother. This strong smell was very suitable for warriors who do tough battle. Well, it suits my big sister, because she's a battle maniac. I've seen her sparring with the maids and knights of the castle. At first, I was shocked to find out that the maids in the castle being so strong. Heck, the maid who was driving the carriage for us to the merchant district was on par with my sister! A goddamn king rank is a mere maid here! I don't know if king ranks are so easy to find or if it's just my mother but I realised one thing very well and that is, only the strongest can have such treatment.

After sucking milk from mother and playing with my big sister's boobs to my heart's content, I got up and kissed mother on the lips and also gave my big sister a kiss on her lips. Mother after kissing me, kissed big sister on her lips. I got down from bed and came in front of a body mirror. The mirror was very big. I removed my clothes and threw it away and looked at myself in the mirror. I had no sense of shame in front of my mother and big sister. It felt very normal. I think I got this from my mother. She, after breastfeeding us, would get up and hold both us by our waist and carry us to the bath. She was naked the whole time. After bath too, she would dry us up first, then get herself dried and then would walk naked to the wardrobe as if it were a trivial thing.

I looked at myself in the mirror and find that I have a lot of baby fat on me but it doesn't make me look fat or puffy instead it just feels like a child who plays around a lot. I do not have well developed muscles yet nor is chiseled. It is just toned a little, that's it. I too like my mother and big sister have silver hair and purple eyes. It's definitely a family thing I think.

Lilith looked at Lith looking himself in the mirror naked and felt a little amused. She got up and walked over to him, of course, naked.

One child, on lady were looking themselves in the mirror. Both having silver hair and purple eyes. They definitely looked like a mother son pair. The lady then carried the child in her arms and it would have felt very wholesome if it weren't for the fact that they were naked.

Lucy looking at her little brother and mother, who were looking at the mirror naked was trying very hard to make a decision of ,to join them or not. After no more than a second later, her clothes were now on the ground and she walked near them, naked.

Now, two ladies and one child in one of the lady's arms were looking at the mirror, all three of them in their birthday suits. All three of them had silver hair and purple eyes and looked very similar to each other. The young lady who looked in her early 20s looked like a younger version of the lady in her early 30s and the child, he looked like a male, child version of the older lady. The young lady's breast also looked a lot similar to that of the older lady but just a little less in size. Her curves and her body too was similar and she was a little smaller as a whole as compared to the older lady. She looked like a mini younger version of the older lady.

“Mom, we look so similar.” Lucy said smiling.

“Yes, dear. After all you both were born from me. You know from where you came out of me right? Or do you want mom to point it out for you?” Lilith smiled and teased Lucy again. She won’t let go of any chance to see the cute reaction of her daughter.

And like Lilith expected, Lucy got embarrassed and hugged Lilith from the side and covered her red face in her mother’s bosoms. Lilith hugged her daughter by the waist while carrying her son in her arms and giggled after looking at her reaction. Lith was used to his mother’s antics and didn’t find it surprising any more. He simply giggled along with her.

His mother and big sister didn’t change in these six years at all. Only he was growing little by little.

Chapter 17 Wings

Lilith, Lucy and Lith were walking towards the arena. Lith as usual was in Lucy’s arms during their walk to the arena. His mother and sister got in tacit consensus that Lith will be carried by Lucy everyday to the arena in her arms. Lilith could have him to herself later at any time.

Lith, like usual, was fondling his sister’s boobs while they were walking to the arena. He’s gotten a little stronger due to all that training. Him pinching, twisting and pulling her nipples had gotten a little stronger. If it were any normal lady in her stead, she would’ve been moaning because of this now but alas, who was Lucy? She was the daughter of the strongest being. This much amount of effort was nothing to her. Heck, she didn’t even feel a tickle because of it. It didn't stop Lith though. He was enjoying himself. Looking at Lith smiling and enjoying his time playing with her breasts, Lucy was happy too. She enjoyed looking at her little brother's happy expression. She too, like her mother, never misses any opportunity of spoiling him.

The arrived at the arena and this time Lilith didn't go and sit aside. She was standing here too with Lucy. I looked at her, clearly confused.

"Today we'll be helping you open up your wings, dear." Lilith looked at Lith and said smiling, after looking at his confused face.

Wings? What do you mean open up? Isn't this done automatically? Since when did it become a manual thing?

"Yes, today I ll be cheering for you and mother will be doing your training." Lucy nodded and said as a matter of factly.

I won't lie, I was a little excited. It's not everyday that you get training from such a strong being. My big sister said she'll train me first, so I didn't get a chance to ask my mother for it. If she didn't say anything, I would've asked mother for it. Well, I am not strong and I went whatever my sister had in store for me. I believe in her and my mother also didn't stop her, she was qualified enough to teach me. Actually, she was overqualified.

I've been surfing the internet and I read how hard life is for people here in the world with no strong background. Some commoners who got super strong even made blogs and posts giving tips and tricks to the people who were just starting their magical journey. There were many books available to read too. The no.1 book about magic for rank 1 mages was "Magic for dummies" by an author called YourDaddy. The name had been very controversial but after going through the book the newbies worshipped the author like a read dad. YourDaddy had written a guide book upto saint rank and the books were free to read upto rank 6. The other ones could be purchased.

There was digital currency available too and people could transfer money from bank to bank. Robbing was also interesting here.

I read a comment in the comment section of a video titled “Rob anyone in 60 seconds” which was about a troll and goblin teaching how to sneak and steal stuff from people in a forest, the comment went along the line

“These two are the bastards who robbed me! They stole my clothes and spatial ring while I was bathing near the pond and threatened me, saying that they’ll bring around a bunch of boys and girls and have them take my nude pictures and post it on the internet! This is cyber bullying! I had to transfer 5 fucking gold coins just for my normal clothes! These were all my savings and bastards didn’t even give me my spatial ring and left! I ll kill you, if I meet you next time!” It was by a guy named zehram zin who had the profile picture of a tree. The replies to his comment went as follows:

“Lolololol, what an idiot! Who comments such a thing, hahahahahaha!”

“Bwahahahahaha, this idiot, XDDDD”

“The next time you come across such bullies, please make sure to politely decline them with giving money because you didn’t consent it. Please say no to bullies.”

“I wonder what was in this dude’s mind when he made this comment.”

“I think it’s an elf who doesn’t understand society well enough. Instead of making fun of him we should be helping him and giving tips. Let us come together and make the world a better place.”

“Shut up, party pooper.”

“We should spread kindness. #NoHate #MakePeaceNotWar #OnlyLove #Peace ”

The comments sure were interesting.

What? It'll hurt? Alright I'll brace myself then.

I simply nodded. She gave me a long kiss and stood up and went behind me. She put her hand on my back and looked at me worriedly and asked "Ready?"

I nodded.

Something started happening. I could feel something on my back. It was tingling, it was burning, it was cold but it wasn't something unbearable. All these feelings, they started to get amplified. It started hurting me now. I gritted my teeth and coped up with the pain. It really hurt a lot. I started sweating.

On the side of Lilith, she was looking at her dear son with a very worried face. She would stop if her son showed even the slightest discomfort but looking at him bearing the pain and allowing his mother to do what she wanted to, she didn't have the heart to stop the process. Lucy was looking very worried at this moment too. She very much wanted to go in and help but she knew that her mother was more than enough. Still, she was also in pain looking at her brother's pained face.

The back of Lith started wriggling, the tingling sensation that Lith felt also intensified to a very high degree. Gradually, black dots started appearing on his back perpendicular to his spine and below his scapula. Two dots were beside Lilith's two fingers which were on Lith's back. They kept growing and growing until they started taking shapes of a wing. A bat wing to be precise. Lith was almost at his limit now. His body was shaking due to him feeling a myriad of sensations on his back.

"Hold on dear, just a little bit more and we are done." Lilith's soothing and gentle voice came into Lith's ear. He was already at his very limit but he still tried to control himself.

The wings kept growing and all of a sudden...

BOOM!

“AHHHHHHHHH!”

Lith's wing grew out to its maximum potential when Lilith tapped Lith's back with her two fingers. He screamed on top of its lung due to the unbearable pain given by Lilith's tap and his wings grew 10 meters long and 3 meters wide and went out of control. They started flapping on their own and created a sonic explosion due to the sheer immensity of them flapping.

Lilith quickly released a little bit of her aura and restrained Lith on the spot. The explosion created a crater around where Lith was standing. Lith after feeling unbearable pain suddenly found a soothing and cool sensation flowing in his body from his back. It felt as if the pain never existed. He tried to turn around and look for his mother but he realised he couldn't move.

Lilith's aura which she released not only restrained Lith but also helped him cope up with the pain. She was teary after she heard her child's pained cry but she still did her best to help him. She now put her palm in the center of Lith's wings and helped him in stabilizing it.

The wings which were flapping at a very fast rate gradually slowed down. After a while they stopped flapping and started getting retracted back into Lith's back.

A few minutes later Lith's back was back to being normal. It was as if no change took place.

Lilith after stabilizing Lith's wing quickly went on her knees and hugged Lith.

“Mama is very sorry dear.” Lilith said sniffing and holding her tears.

Lith knew that his overprotective mother felt that it was her fault for giving him so much pain and she felt guilty because of it. He felt really warm in his heart. His mother truly loved him very much. She was very hard on herself. He too was about to tear up but he held it in. He held his mother's face with both of his hands and wiped the tear which was threatening to leak out from her eyes and gave her a long and loving kiss on her lips. He then hugged her and said while patting her back “Mama, don’t cry, it was not your fault. The pain was only for a moment and I felt better very quickly all thanks to you. I actually instinctively yelled because I panicked a little. I am sorry for causing you so much pain.”

Lilith, with red eyes, pulled herself back from the hug and looked at her son and gave him a kiss on his forehead and said “Don’t worry dear, this won’t happen again. Mama will make sure that this never repeats.”

I simply shook my head and said “mama this is inevitable. I’ll have to feel pain in the future too. These are all experiences I’ll need to have. This’ll only make me stronger. Please don’t be so hard on yourself.” I gave her another kiss on her lips and hugged her, hoping she would calm down.

Lilith knew that her son had to experience pain and he needs to go through these things but she still couldn’t help it. When she heard her son’s painful cry she felt a stabbing pain in her heart. She eventually calmed down after hearing her son’s own heartfelt words.

Lucy who was watching on the other side also felt pained after hearing her dear brother’s cry. She wanted to help him but stopped herself from doing so because she trusted her mother very much. It took a lot of willpower for her to not just rush down there and help him. Tears were leaking out of her eyes but she didn’t go. She then watched her mother stabilizing him and him comforting his mother instead of her doing it. She smiled looking at her brother’s behavior. He was right. She was too overprotective and thus very hard on herself.

She remembered that once, to train, she went into the wilderness of the Dragon continent where there were a lot of ferocious beasts roaming.

The Dragon continent had the most ferocious beasts out of all the continents due to them emitting their natural dragon aura and the wildlife there absorbing and benefiting from it. This continent had the most number of beasts who gained sentience every year. Lucy was beaten by a beast almost to half death but somehow managed to survive.

She, for one, didn't know what to do, so she activated her emergency teleportation scroll and went to her mother. Her mother after looking at her condition was enraged. She was so angry that she released her aura in full power causing almost all the people in the castle to die. Fortunately the Queen's district was very big and empty or else more death would've occurred.

Lilith after taking care of her daughter directly rushed to the place where Lucy was injured. She didn't think even once and wiped out an area of 100,000 km² in rage. She was very enraged and would've wiped out the whole Dragon continent out of the world's map if it weren't for Lucy's timely arrival and asking her to calm down. The castle maids knew of their Queen's anger, so they quickly persuaded Lucy and asked her to help them stop her. Lucy quickly went over to her mother and calmed her down.

The Dragons unknowingly brought upon a calamity on themselves and luckily evaded it. After some people reported that a huge area of land was destroyed along with all the living creatures in it, an investigation was done by Dragon authorities and they found out that it was done by the Vampire Queen. It was reported to the higher ups and the authorities quickly got a notice that the case was to be closed immediately and all evidences were to be destroyed and no information should leak out about this. It was an order from the Dragon Emperor and Empress themselves and the authorities panicked and quickly got to work.

The higher ups of the Dragon continent knew to never to mess even the slightest with the Vampire Queen. They could offend their ancestors and the whole world if needed but never her. They were relieved to find out that she withdrew from the worldly affairs 10,000 years ago but never thought that she had a daughter whom she was looking after and that she could wipe out such a big piece of land by without even working a little bit.

A decree was passed that nobody is to mess with the people of Clan Evure of the Vampires at all costs. This was spread to every higher ups of every race in the world. The exception being the Vampires themselves.

The world was in little chaos once again due to just one move of the strongest Vampire in history!

Chapter 18 Wings (2)

Lucy after finding that her mother had calmed down and her brother was stable too, went to them.

Lith looked at his big sister coming towards them with swollen red eyes and dried up tears on her face. It was apparent that she too cried a lot. He felt pained. If he knew that their reaction would be this exaggerated and they would feel so much pain because of his little yell, he never would've done it. He swore to himself to never make his mother or big sister feel such kind of pain ever again.

Lucy came to her mother and brother's side and went on her knees and hugged both of them. Lith gave Lucy a loving kiss on her cheek and also to Lilith once again. They stayed like that for few mins, enjoying the warmth of each other.

Lucy pulled back first and smiled and looked at Lith and said “Dear why don’t you show mom and me your wings and do a little test flight?”

I kissed mother on her lips and pulled back from her hug. She would never let go if I don’t separate myself. I look at big sis and nodded.

I got a little away from mother and started to feel the wings on my back. It was actually not complicated. It felt as natural to me as moving my arms or fingers. Well, of course it was natural because wings are a part of my body in the end. The flight was a little messy and the take off and landing weren’t good either due to me not understanding proper aerodynamics. I somehow did my first flight and during landing I would’ve fell butt down by Lucy caught me in her arms in time. I thanked her and retracted my wings.

I look at my big sister and said “Big sis, I want to see your wings too.”

She smiled and said “Alright dear but this place is too small, come let’s go outside.”

Before we could go out, mother grabbed both me and big sis by our waist and vanished into thin air. The arena was now empty without any signs of life.

Lilith with her two children in her arms came into mid air above the Royal Castle.

“Alright dear, you can show him here.” Lilith said smiling and kissed Lucy on her lips and let her go.

Lucy after being let go by her mother didn’t really fall down. She just walked away a little from her mother and brother and stood still on the air. It was as if it wasn’t air but ground. Walking in air was as natural as walking on ground for Lucy.

Lith was bewildered. One second before he was in the arena and he knew he was talking to his sister but then he felt darkness all around his eyes and the next thing he knew, he was in his mother's arm, who was currently standing in mid air as if it was ground. He looked down and felt that he could fall at any time. He grabbed his mother's neck tightly and stuffed his head into her bosoms.

Lith trusted his mother 100% in anything and everything so he calmed down and let go of her neck and looked at his sister, clearly not wanting to look down. He was actually a little afraid of heights due to being killed once at very high height.

Lucy noticing that two pairs of purple eyes were looking at her smiled and Fuuuuuuusssshhhhhh...

The wings extended out of Lucy and swept the air around creating a breezing sound of wind passing.

Lith eyes went wide as he looked at his sister's wings in shock. It was huge! Her wings extended who knows how long and wide but they were huge! He looked at his side and at Lucy's backside but he couldn't all there was were darkness. It was caused due to Lucy's wings. He looked down and up but it was still covered with Lucy's wings. There was only the gap formed due to the diverging wings extending out of Lucy's back.

Lucy then retracted her wings and then extended again but this time they weren't so huge. They were only 5 meters long and 2 meters wide. They looked good on her. She looked even more beautiful with her wings extended.

"How was it dear? Did you like it?" She asked smiling.

"Yes big sis, it was very amazing. You look very beautiful with your wings out big sis."

Lucy felt happy hearing her little brother's praise. She flew towards him and gave him a kiss on his lips.

“Mama, can you show me your wings too? The same way big sis showed just now.” I asked my mother and said the last sentence clearly hoping she didn’t just show me a small version of her wings.

“Anything for you, my baby.” Mother said giving me a kiss on my lips and then handing me over to big sis carefully.

Lucy brought Lith on the roof of the castle.

Lith looked at her and said “why are we here big sis?”

“Dear you cannot have a good look at her wings if you stand in front of her.” She said smiling.

I nodded and looked up, waiting for my mother to unfold her wings. She went up above in the air and extended her wings.

Lith’s jaw dropped, he was shocked senseless looking at his mother or to be precise her wings. He couldn’t even describe what they were. If Lucy’s wings were huge then these couldn’t be described with words anymore. The whole sky was covered by darkness. It was dark all the time in the Vampire continent but he knew that this darkness was due to his mother’s wings. His mother’s wings looked the purest of black. It was beautiful beyond belief. He did not know till where they extended, how wide and long they were but he knew that they definitely were way bigger than Lucy’s.

The people in the Vampire continent were panicking due to finding out that the silver-crimson moon had been blocked and the whole sky was covered in darkness which was darker than they have ever seen before.

“HOLY SHIT WHAT THE HELL HAPPEND IN EVERNIGHT??!!”

“IKR! the moon is gone!”

“THE MOON IS GONE!”

“Shut up idiots! The moon isn’t gone, it is just covered due to her majesty opening her wings.”

“WAAAAAH!”

“Her majesty is really amazing!!!”

“I didn’t know that anyone’s wings would be this big!”

“I’ll work harder to make my wings look like her majesty too!!!”

“Dream on dumbass! Nobody can be as majestic as her majesty!”

“LONG LIVE HER MAJESTY!”

“LONG LIVE HER MAJESTY!”

The Vampire forums online went crazy in just minutes. They had never seen such a scene before. An Image had started to circulate and it was clearly taken from the sky. It showed two gigantic pair of bat wings extending outwards from the center of the Vampire continent and towards the Belial and Treant ocean! It was very majestic!

Lith on the other hand had no idea how big the wings really were and just thought that they were very big and bigger than his big sister’s for sure. Lilith retracted her wings and made them smaller and came down and stood in front of her daughter and son.

“You look very pretty and beautiful with your wings out mama.” Lith said extending his hands outward asking for a hug. Lilith walked over and took him from Lucy and kissed him on his lips and said smiling

“Mom everytime you show your wings, I am mesmerized. I love seeing your wings.” Lucy said excitedly like a fangirl.

“Thankyou, dear.” Lilith kissed Lucy on her lips too and said smiling. She once again held Lucy’s waist and with Lith her arms vanished from the spot.

Chapter 19 Bath

Lilith, Lucy and Lith arrived in Lilith’s bedroom.

Lilith let go of her daughter and put down her son. “Let’s go in for a bath, shall we?” Lilith said smiling and removed her own clothes followed by Lith’s and then Lucy’s.

“Hey you didn’t even consider our opinion” Lucy said pouting, clearly displeased with her mother stripping her naked in an instant.

“Fufufu... since when did the great Vampire Queen need to bother about anyone’s opinion? My subjects, let’s go.” Lilith chuckled and played the Queen card and dragged her children in for a bath.

We arrived at the familiar bathroom. It was the same as before. Big and spacious. There was small pond and there were green flowers around it. It had bamboo trees around too. It looked like a typical Japanese onsen back from Earth and at the edge of it, there were showerheads and small stools to sit on. The shampoo and soap were present near the showerheads. There was a shower room too next to it which could easily fit 3-5 people. Mother held our arms and dragged us in. Clearly with more enthusiasm than before today. She probably must be feeling happy about me successful obtaining my wings.

Lucy sat on a small stool with Lith in her lap. Lith’s butt was on Lucy’s hairless pink slit and his face in between her two soft mounds. This was a common thing now. They’ve had a lot of bath and this wasn’t anything new for her.

Lilith was washing Lucy’s back like usual and Lith turned sideways and started playing with Lucy’s boobs. He sucked on one of her nipple and pinched, twisted and pulled the other one. He swirled his tongue around the nipple in his mouth and sucked and bit on it. He kneaded both the breasts into whatever shape he desired and played with her boobs until his mother finished washing his sister's back.

Lucy all this time was caressing her brother's hair and didn't do anything much. His mother finished the back and then came in front to wash her front. She squatted down and was now at the level of her daughter. Lith's eye level was at his mother's neck and turning down he could see her hairless beautiful pink slit which was spread slightly due to her squatting. He would've had an erection if he weren't a child and also this was a common occurrence to him.

He got up from his sister's lap and came in front of his mother and started sucking milk from her breasts and played with the other one with his hand. She washed Lucy's neck, collar, boobs and stomach. She then held Lucy's ass in her hand and did an upward gesture by pressing her palms on her ass upwards. Lucy got the signal and got up and came a walked a little near Lilith. Lith who was busy sucking milk with his mother's boobs could feel Lucy walking closer. He turned sideways to have a glance at her sister's beautiful hairless pussy getting washed by his mother's hand.

She first washed Lucy's inner thighs and then went up and washed her pubic region where there was supposed to be hair and then cleaned her outer folds. She then massaged slightly and inserted her two fingers into her pussy and swirled it around causing little a moan to leak out of Lucy. This was a common occurrence again and as she was about to pull her fingers out, something unexpected happend.

"Mom, please don't stop." Lucy closed her eyes and gathered all her courage to say this. Lilith could feel her daughter's inside tightening around her fingers when she said that. She looked at her daughter, a little surprised at how bold she had gotten but then smiled and said “We can continue later dear but let’s wash both of you first.”

Lith was a little dumbfounded because he didn’t know his sister would be this crazy and ask something like that to her own mother. Is my family crazy or are vampires just like this?

What Lith didn’t know was that having an incestuous relationship was very common in the Vampire, Werewolves, Dragons and Demon race. People in these four races weren’t disgusted by such fact in any way. It was a common occurrence because firstly, some people liked to keep their bloodlines pure, secondly, it was to have a feeling of taboo which would spice things up in the long lives of creatures of these races, thirdly, it was because some really loved each other. The rest of the races disliked and loathed such practices and the people who had such relationships in other races, either used to come and settle down in these four countries or go to the neutral continent.

Lilith washed Lucy’s pussy and then turned her around. Lucy obediently bent over and lifted her ass up while putting her hands on the small stool for support. She spread her legs a little to give way for her mother to wash her. Lucy was clearly very resistant to the practice of her mother cleaning her buttocks up for the first few months but couldn’t really say no to her mother no matter how much embarrassed she got. Why would she say no in the first place? She really had no reason to do so. Even Lith was a little resistant to it but then he realised he’s a baby and he shouldn’t be putting meaningless struggle and let her mother do as she pleases. It was as a matter of fact, good for him. No useless things were needed.

Lith at first when he saw his mother and sister had the thought to bed them because they looked really beautiful. But as time went on he actually started loving them as a family and his desire to bed both of them grew even more. He didn’t really know how he could actually do it but as time went on, he realised that both his mother and big sister are crazy just like him! It made things a lot easier for him. He didn't even need to say anything more to keep having his mother naked around him at night nor did he have to say anything to suck her or his sister's boobs anytime, anywhere. He could even suck his sister's boobs in front of his mother if he wanted. They both were very open and loving. He could for sure say that he had the best family.

Lilith looking at her daughter obediently bending over, smiled knowing that she wanted all of this to be over quickly so she could get down to the main business. She put her hand forward and spread her ass cheeks. Lith broke his baby form and kept staring at his sister's beautiful pink puckered butthole. He hadn't really seen it before because he used to either sit next to his sister or he used to get washed first and then sent to the bathtub or that she was never present to bath together. He forgot to look away and kept staring at it.

Lilith looked at her son looking at her daughter's butthole and smirked and didn't directly start cleaning her. She waited for him to turn around. She even spread her daughter's ass cheeks a little more and then freed her one hand and used it to spread her pussy lips. After a while, while finding no finger inside her Lucy turned around and saw that her dear brother was looking at he, or to be precise, at her ass. She got embarrassed and wanted to turn around but on second thought turned around and let him look as he pleased. Her thoughts went the along like 'He's already seen my everything, what's more that is left?' And also the fact that she loved him very dearly and so let him do as he pleased.

After a while, Lilith cleared her throat and asked half teasing, half smiling to Lith "Looked enough dear? Can I start cleaning her now?"

Lith was embarrassed, he didn't know for how long was he staring. He was about to turn away at first after having a little look but then his mother spread it even more, giving him a clear view so he didn't look away and was mesmerized with the view he now had. One should know, he was nothing but a mere nineteen year old virgin even in his first life and this was his first time seeing it so clearly. Thus, he was dazed.

“Sorry.” Lith said and turned around.

Lucy turned around after hearing her mother’s gentle and sweet voice and looked at her first and then at Lith and nodded and quickly turned away. Clearly, embarrassed.

Lith was again dumbfounded but it was a good thing for him.

Lilith spread her daughter’s ass cheeks again and this time she wetted her finger with water and put it in her daughter. Her insides were tightened due to embarrassment and clearly didn’t give way for her mother’s invading fingers.

“Dear, go sit there and wait for your turn, mama has to clean your big sis first.” Lilith looked at Lith, smiled and said. Lith let go of her boobs and obediently went and sat to the side and was watching how his mother cleaned his sister.

Lilith stood up and went behind Lucy. She bent forward and gently caressed her boobs and whispered in her ear “Relax, no need to be so nervous and embarrassed in front of mama.”

Lucy, after hearing her mother call herself “mama” instead of “mom” knew that she was currently treating her as a little kid, same like how she treats Lith. Nothing can be done about it. She relaxed herself and became an obedient child.

Lilith after finding her daughter’s resistance gone and her finger going inside easily, laughed internally. She knew her daughter very much liked to be pampered by her and also getting treated like a little kid and thus laughed knowing she did a good job. She knew her kids well. She swirled her finger inside and then brought he back out. She wetted it and put it back again. She then massaged the insides of her daughter and let her loosen up a little. She then put in a second finger after finding it loose enough and did the same thing.

Lucy felt good with what her mother was doing but she didn't moan. Her mother clearly didn't do anything more than cleaning her and it didn't arouse her much.

Lilith finished cleaning her daughter and gave her one final wash. She then spanked her ass lightly causing a slap to be heard loud enough to Lith too and said "go in the bathtub now." Lucy complied.

Lilith then came over to Lith and washed him up good from the back. She came at front and squatted and then directly made him stand up. She cleaned him up from head to his stomach and then got down to the area near his dick. She gently held it and tried to pull the foreskin back. It didn't come back much. This was a daily routine for her. She does this so she can know, if she needed to get his inner parts cleaned or not and also to have a check at it's growth. It was increasing day by day. To an old Vampire like her with a never ending lifespan, these six years felt very short and she could see her son growing well. It was like watching a timelapse for her. She made sure she to check his everything growing and didn't miss out on anything.

She then turned him around and he too bent down. She put one finger in and it went inside. She knew he was relaxed and she felt happy that he was in such a way around her. She cleaned him and then gave him one final wash and asked him to go the bathtub. She then went on to wash herself.

Lith walked over towards Lucy and Lucy looking at him approach her opened her arms with a smile. Lith went in for a hug. She took him in and now Lith wrapped his arms around her neck, his legs dangling on her sides and his face in between her boobs. He looked at her and she, noticing his gaze looked at him and bent her head down knowing fully well what wanted. She gave him a deep, loving kiss. Lith then started sucking on her boobs and played with the other one. It went on for a while and he exchanged the nipple with the other one in the middle and continued playing with her boobs until their mother arrived.

“Ara sweetie, you’ll steal my baby if you keep letting him play like that. Fufufu.” Lilith arrived in the bathtub and joked.

“Mama’s boobies are the best.” Lith said and changed party quickly when his mother arrived. Lucy wanted to retort but couldn’t because she too knew her mother’s breasts were the best. She had firsthand experience!

“Fufufu. Thankyou, baby.” Lilith kissed Lith on his lips and then let him suck on her big mommy milkers.

“Mom...” Lucy said with a red face on the side, clearly, very embarrassed to continue.

“Being hasty, are we? Fufufu...don’t worry dear, mama knows what you want.” Lilith said chuckling a little.

Lith at this point, knew one thing very well. If he wanted to, he could just ask his mother and sister to sleep with him. There wasn’t anything much needed to be done to bed both of them. They loved him very much and would be very happy to get much closer and intimate with him. He too loved them the same as they did to him and really wanted to be more intimate with them. Damn, this child body!

Lilith extended her arms and Lucy got in her embrace. Both her and Lith were now sucking milk from her boobs. She looked at them lovingly and caressed their hair. She too loved it when her children sucked on her nipples. Their sucking, swirling and biting actions aroused her and gave her a very good sensation. She didn't start masturbating right away before was because she wanted to be normal with them. She soon realised that, her children were as crazy as her. They craved her touch just like how she craved theirs.

She couldn't hold it in much longer, she then touched her pink lips and started stroking them. Up, down, circles and just when she was about to put her fingers in, she felt someone else's hand coming in her way.

"L-I-let m-me mom" Lucy said with a tomato red face. She didn't even have the courage to look at her.

"Fufufu.... you sure sweetie? Mama is very high maintenance and won't be satisfied if you do it half heartedly." Lilith chuckled and joked. She then kissed her daughter's forehead. She knew full well that even if her daughter, who was very inexperienced, caressed her secret garden, she'll feel good anyway because she loved her and craved for her touch and it was even better than her touching herself. So what if it is an inexperienced hand?

Lucy didn't say anything and started stroking her mother's pussy lips. She went up, down and circles for a while and then put her two fingers in.

"Mhm sweetie....go on, go in further." Lilith moaned.

Lith looked at his mother's face which was now of pure bliss. It had a tinge of red on her pale face and he was very amused by it. He had never seen such a face before. He nevertheless continued sucking and playing with his sister's boobs with his free hand.

Lucy shoved her fingers deeper into her mother's pussy. She was wet herself because she had never done such deeds before and it was very exciting to her. She continued putting it deep in and once her whole fingers were inside she started moving them and massaging her mother's insides. She then pulled it back and then shoved it in. She, after finding it easy to slide in and out started doing a to and fro motion.

“Mmhmm...ahh...ahh...yes y-yes..just like that...” she arched her back a little and moaned.

“Mama are you okay?” Lith put on a concerned face and asked her. He couldn’t help it. He was really enjoying watching her mother’s face full of ecstasy but he had to ask because he was a six year old child. Children shouldn’t know such stuff.

“Hmm...yes baby mother is okay. She is just having a little fun with big sis...mhm..ah...come here, give mama a kiss.”

My mother really is a crazy women. She could still be sane and make such bold requests. I complied with her requests.

She gave me a deep kiss on my lips but as I was about to pull back, I found something soft poking at my lips. I knew it was my mother’s tongue invading in. I’ve always wanted her to do it because I clearly couldn’t as I had no reasons to do so. I let her in and do whatever she wanted. Her tongue invaded my mouth and she started licking my insides hungrily. I tried to move my tongue but found her tongue doing a one sided battle with mine. I moved it and tried to battle with her experienced and strong tongue but alas she didn’t let me do as I please and took the lead into doing this.

Lucy meanwhile was sucking and fingering her mother. She felt a hand grab her ass. Lith too felt a hand grab his ass but he knew it was his mother. He let her do as she wanted because he didn’t have the strength to resist anyway. He broke the passionate kiss with his mother. A string of saliva made a bridge between their lips.

Lilith arched her back and moaned loudly and climaxed. She was driven to climax by her daughter's finger!

Lilith's haggard breath stabilized and she pulled Lucy in for a passionate kiss. Lith was sort of jealous now. Damn this child body!
