

Vampire 281

Chapter 281 Ten million dollars teabag

Lith was done with the class upgrade and was now a C class adventurer. He was walking towards a hotel present in the Lenz Suburbs. It was at the outskirts of the suburbs and was cheap and affordable.

Lith had gotten a few rewards from the guild for making it to C class and doing their mission. They gave him one amethyst coin as well as a guild pass. This pass could be used to access their services which included a bar, spa, hotels, etc., present in various different places.

Lith hadn't used the token the Vice Guildmaster of Jingmei Guild had given him. It was because he didn't want to bring too much attention on him as of now. He was still just a mere Rank 3 and it was better to be cautious in his opinion.

The guild he visited this time in the main city was under construction and only the lobby and a few other areas on the ground floor were made. The rest of the building was under construction and from the looks of how it was shaped, Lith guessed that it would look like a fort of some sort.

Nothing special happened there and Lith was now on his way back. He had been moving without rest for two days now and he knew that if he continued this, his physical health would be impacted. He had to rest now; have a good eight to ten hours of sleep and rejuvenate.

Lith checked his phone to see how far the hotel was and realized it would take him a long time to reach there if he walked at such a moderate pace. .

He browsed through his phone to look for transportation options and saw options for carriages, taxis, teleportation circles, and flying type magic beasts.

Shared carriages were the most cheap while flying type beasts were the most expensive. Lith thought on what type of transportation he should take by then soon remembered that he was given a teleportation token by Emilia which he could use to go anywhere in a continent.

He took the token out and inscribed the coordinates of the place his hotel was at via his spiritual power and vanished from his spot instantly.

Lith teleported out right in front of the gates of a rundown three storey hotel. The lobby looked okayish and not too bad to him and he walked inside to get a room for himself.

The process to get a room was fast and he paid one silver coin for a night. It wasn't too expensive, but in his opinion, it wasn't cheap either.

Resting on the soft mattress of the bed, Lith thought to himself, 'even at the outskirts of the suburbs, the cost is so much for one single night. I paid one silver coin, which would roughly amount to a hundred dollars from Earth. That's so much...'

Previously, Lith didn't keep track of the money he spent because he hardly spent money. It was only on food that he ever spent money on. He lived his whole life in the castle and everything was provided to him by his mother. He didn't know the cost of things but knew that they were definitely very expensive.

This one time, he saw the name of the tea brand on the teabag when he was making some tea for himself and out of curiosity, he searched it online and saw the price of a single teabag to be a whopping ten amethyst coins!

On Earth that would mean a million dollars!

How extravagant and wasteful, Lith thought to himself and asked the people in the castle to replace the expensive tea with cheaper options.

What Lith didn't know at that time was that it was provided for free to him since the owner of that brand was none other than the Royal Clan itself. It wasn't made public that the brand belongs to the Royal Clan and Lith thus didn't know about it from the internet and thought of the tea to be a waste and expensive.

But that was the only time he ever saw the price of a thing in the castle. He didn't know how much the other things cost and to not get a headache, he also didn't bother to see the prices.

Thus, for the most parts of his life, Lith had hardly ever spent money on anything. And now that he was earning, he realized just how expensive things were.

From the Kunlor Forest, he had gotten a few litres of honey from the killer bees but that was about it. He couldn't capture the queen bee and thus his income, after paying for the hotel room, was one gold and four silver coins.

That much amount was made from selling the honey but if taken into account the prize he got from the guild, his current income was one amethyst coin, one gold coin, and four silver coins.

That amounted to $1,010,400 from Earth.

It was a lot of money considering the fact that the majority of the population in Espat only earn around two to five gold coins a month. This amounted to $20,000 to $50,000 but considering how everything was expensive, earning this much amount meant being borderline middle-class.

Everything was expensive in major cities like Lenz City and even if one lived in the outskirts, to survive, they would need at least two or three gold coins a month. Thankfully, there was a concept of minimum wage and thus many didn't sleep hungry in such major cities.

Thinking of it as a necessity, Lith let go of the thought of spending one silver coin on a hotel room and slept in a relaxed manner.

The next day.

Lith woke up after sleeping for twelve hours straight and felt refreshed and rejuvenated.

He got up from the bed and stretched his body and said with a light chuckle, "even though I am a vampire now, I still need to sleep at night to rest and recover."

He was about to go to the washroom to freshen up when his phone's notification chimed. He checked it and saw that there was an email from the Nine Roses Hotel.

He opened it and saw it to be an advertisement of the hotel and it was giving him offers and discounts but when he read in between the lines carefully, he saw that it was alerting him of a mission.

Lith closed the email app and opened the darknet browser on his phone and logged into his account.

He saw a new assassination mission in there and it seemed a bit important as well as would help him in raising his rank as an assassin.

Lith was a gold card holder and it was only natural that the organization would hand out the mission to him first than the rest.

Lith took a look at the mission and it was about...

Chapter 282 Sneaking inside Senzal Clan

The mission message that appeared on Lith's phone screen was:

Mission: Kill the given list of members of Senzal and Kenzal clan.

Reward: Different reward for different kills. Minimum 10 gold coins and maximum 10 low grade magic stones.

Difficult: Ranges from E to B.

Time limit: None. Kill and get the reward.

Extra details of the mission present in the attachment below.

Regards,

Assassin Division, Scelestus.

"Oh nice." Lith said as he read the last line of the message. The organization did maintain formality, despite it having no need to do so..

Lith went through the attachment and as he browsed through the people on the list, he felt that he had heard about this surname somewhere. He tried to recall who and where it was and after a few seconds, he gave up thinking as he wasn't able to recall it.

“So they have a conflict with the employer and it’s because they both have a history together. Alright, doesn’t seem too complicated as to why the employer is hiring assassins. But, the next question is... is the employer a good person or is it the target? I can’t just kill innocent people now, can I?”

Lith paused after he said that. He thought deeply about what he just said and after a few seconds, he sighed and said to himself,

“What innocent? What righteous? Why am I having such sense of justice type thoughts like some 3rd rate protagonist? I am a vampire now, not a human. There’s nothing right or wrong, just benefits. Benefits are what matters in the end.”

“So from now, I’ll do what benefits me, my family, my partners, and my friends the most. No matter how immoral it may be, if the benefits outweigh the morals, I’ll do it. But of course, there are always some exceptions to this statement. But I’ll see about that in future.”

Lith, after finishing speaking to himself, got up and went to the washroom to freshen up. He left the hotel room after he got dressed up and walked to a nearby bakery to grab some breakfast to have on the way to the mission.

He got himself a croissant, an energy bar, and an iced coffee and teleported to the mission site.

Redstone City, Uklov.

Lith teleported out in an alley in Redstone City of Uklov country. This city was known for the different types of red coloured stones it offered. There were many mines present nearby the city and this city was the largest exporter of the world for exporting Roldium.

Roldium was a deep red colored ore that was very dextrous but at the same time very malleable, making it one of the best material for refining weapons and other artifacts.

But Lith was not here for Roldium or for the mines, he was here on a mission to assassinate the Senzal and Kenzal clan members.

The two clans were located in this city and were established many years ago. They had a lot of influence in this city and also owned a lot of land as well as mines.

The two clans were rivals but both these had a common enemy and that was the Shadow River Sect present just opposite to the two clans, attached to a black river that sprouts from the ground and also enters back into the ground after a few hundred meters.

The Shadow River Sect was attached to this river and it was also the foundation of the sect. Once it dries up or moves away, many will lose motivation and suffer cultivation deviation, becoming irrational monsters at the end and would need to get killed.

But that was also what made it so strong and mighty. This sect alone caused great troubles to the two clans and it was due to this sect that the rivals ceased fire and arrived at a truce to defeat a common enemy first.

This was the first time they had worked together for something and also the first time fighting against some power. Before they were local snakes and had no competition but now there was a competitor and their interests were threatened greatly.

They thus came together to defeat the sect but failed to do so and it was the sect that was over bearing and pushing the two clans to ruins.

But now things were calm and it had been a few hundred years since the last war broke out. But despite the calmness, the three parties absolutely hated each other.

It was for this reason that even if there was no war, there could be assassins and many hired such assassins immediately to kill the members of the other party.

The employer name was there in the mission and Lith's employer was the Shadow River Sect.

Lith was thus now a part of them and he would be going against the two other clans.

It was fine, he didn't mind it since he basically didn't care. He was only here for the benefits and what the clans and sects did with each other was none of his concerns.

Lith made his way towards the Senzal Clan first and stood a few kilometres away from the main gate of their palace.

The main gate was a large black metal door and there were walls surrounding the large palace.

Inside the gate, there was a botanical garden, a pond big enough to be called lake in terms of Earth's measure but only a shallow pond in terms of this world.

There were also a lot many things but Lith's first target was the nephew of the clan head of Senzal Clan and the nephew had the habit of strolling through the garden present and Lith was hear to see his pattern and behaviour before he could begin his assassination mission.

He sneaked past the wall with the help of an artifact that he got from Dennis in academy.

Dennis bought it so that he could become like those pervert anime protagonists and peep into the girls bathroom while being sneaky but soon dropped the idea when he realized that he was the heir of a Duke Clan.

Lith used it and reached inside and after coming so, used the dark element and turned himself one with the surrounding and camouflaged himself.

He then went to search for the nephew in a stealthy manner.

Chapter 283 Scandalous Deeds in Senzal Clan

Redstone City, Uklov.

Shadow River Sect.

Inside one of the tall buildings of the sect, a handsome man with long black hair wearing elegant yet simple clothes was sitting on a chair. There was another chair beside him where there was a beautiful woman wearing exquisite yet simple clothes, similar to the man beside

The two were currently busy with managing the affairs of the sect and there were people in the hall, just below them, reporting various things.

An elder wearing black robes stood up from his seat and walked in front of the two people on the raised platform. He bowed and greeted them first and soon got to the point, saying,

“Sect Master Wan, Sect Master Ling, someone has accepted the assassination mission we gave out. We don’t know who the assassin is apart from his name which is ‘Ray’.”

The two Sect Masters on the raised platform, Wan and Ling, felt slightly surprised knowing how fast their request was accepted by someone. They had put up the request just yesterday and today someone had already accepted it.

Sect Master Wan nodded his head slightly and said to the elder below, “is there anything else?”

The elder shook his head and sat back on his seat.

A few more reports were made and the meeting of the elders with the sect masters concluded in less than an hour. .

After the elders had gone, Sect Master Wan looked at his beautiful wife sitting beside him and said with a smile while holding her hand,

“Ling’er, I think luck is on our side this time.”

The lady stared at her husband for a few seconds and tried to see if his optimism was genuine or fake. Realizing it was genuine, she sighed and put her head on his shoulder.

“Wan’er, in the past, weren’t there some over enthusiastic assassins who took this mission and got killed on the first day itself?” She said with a tired tone.

They had issued missions in the past but nobody was able to complete it and they were always left disappointed.

Sect Master Wan kissed his wife, Sect Master Ling on her head and said, “Ling’er, but now is different. The assassin who took the mission isn’t an ordinary assassin of the organization, but a Gold Card holder. There are too few such members present.”

Hearing this, the Sect Master Ling raised her head and looked at her husband. She then said, “how do you know about this? The elder didn’t say anything extra other than the mission getting accepted.”

Wan chuckled and said, “I was curious yesterday when we sent the mission to the organization. And was browsing through a few things and accidentally stumbled upon the list of Gold Card Holders of the organization. The list had been updated just a few weeks ago and there was a new member added there.”

“The new member’s name that was added was ‘Ray’. He was the 1076th official and registered Gold Card Holder of the organization.”

Ling was amused knowing this. She then asked him, “But Wan’er, we don’t know about the prowess of the assassin even though he’s the Gold Card Holder.”

Wan nodded and said, “We don’t. But it doesn’t matter. At least this time, it’s someone important who has taken the mission.”

Ling nodded. “That’s true.”

She put her head back on Wan’s shoulder and said, “I just hope it goes well this time. I want to see those fools suffer.”

Hearing this, Wan, who was in a happy mood, suddenly had a serious expression on his face. He gazed at the empty space in front of him and caressed Ling’s hair.

“Don’t worry, Ling’er. This time they sure will suffer. If the assassin fails this time as well, then...”

A murderous glint appeared in Wan’s black eyes but it went unnoticed by Ling who had fallen asleep on her husband’s shoulder already.

The two had been working non stop for a few days and only now did the two get a break. Ling’s favourite thing to relax was to sleep and she would always fall asleep quickly when her husband caressed her hair. This time was no exception either.

Wan knew his wife had fallen asleep. He didn't move from his place for that reason and let her sleep comfortably on his shoulder. He kept caressing her and gazing into the distance, thinking of some things.

Senzal Clan, Redstone City, Uklov.

Lith was sitting on a tree branch and was waiting for the clan head's nephew to come. It had been a few minutes since he did nothing but sit on the tree branch and wait.

A few more minutes passed with Lith doing nothing and finally saw the nephew arrive near the pond present a few hundred meters ahead.

The nephew of the clan head appeared to be in his adolescence but the look on his face was serious.

He strolled around the pond for a few minutes and sat on the bench present near it. He then did nothing but stare at the water in front of him and lay like that for a good half an hour.

Lith all this while did nothing but watch him and the area around. He tried to look for anything that may be of use or suspicious.

Soon, a few minutes later, two people walked towards the nephew and, reaching close to him, sat beside him on either side.

One was another adolescent guy like the nephew and the other seemed to be a gorgeous middle-aged lady. Despite her look, she had no wrinkles on her face or loose skin and seemed no older than 30 to Lith.

The lady hugged the serious looking nephew of the clan head from the side, squishing his hand in between her big jugs. The lady then kissed the nephew of the clan head on his cheeks and said,

“Hey Vaan, I missed you. Without you, doing it alone with your cousin Eian was no fun. Look, look...”

The lady took Vaan, the nephew of the clan head's hand and put it inside her robe, to make him touch her buttohole.

The lady licked Vaan's ear and said seductively, "look and feel how dry it is. Eian was only able to fill my pussy but my buttohole is so very lonely because of your absence."

Vaan had no change in his expression and he said, "I was busy. And you should stop doing such scandalous deeds, aunt. Doing it with not me, your nephew, but also Eian, your son is very scandalous. If uncle gets wind of it, it won't end well."

Hearing this, the lady chuckled and kissed Vaan on his cheek. She then put her hand inside his robes to hold his shaft and said while stroking it in a seductive tone,

"Oh Vaan~, it seems you don't know your uncle."

Chapter 284 Is it yaoi?

'Hmm? Is that woman the wife of the clan head?' That's the first thing Lith thought of after watching the whole interaction of the three people a few hundred meters from him.

His mind cleared out the useless things and only focused on the important part. The nephew of the clan head, Vaan, called the lady his aunt which definitely meant that the woman was the clan head's wife.

The clan head had only one sister as sibling, so it wasn't too difficult to make out things.

Lith then thought while looking at the woman giving a handjob to Vaan, 'so she's having an affair with her nephew and is cheating on her husband? But from what she said just a few seconds ago, it seems... well... let's just watch and listen instead of making deductions.'

Lith got back to watching the three quietly from his position.

"What do you mean, aunt?" Vaan asked the lady with the same seriousness as before, ignoring the pleasure coming to him from the handjob.

The woman chuckled and instead of answering him, she got close to his ear and whispered, "I'll answer all your questions if you put this thing at the place your fingers are in right now."

Vaan's fingers were inside the lady's puckered pink buttohole and she was talking about him putting his dick inside that.

Vaan nodded his head and said, "okay. I have some more questions anyway. But not here, let's go to the Duram Tea Peak."

The lady nibbled on Vaan's ears and said, "even if I strip you, me, Eian over there and we have a threesome here, nobody's going to say anything to us, Vaan."

Vaan looked at her and said in a neutral tone, "I am not into voyeurism."

The lady chuckled hearing it and got up from the bench. She corrected her robes and tied her hair into a ponytail. She then held Vaan and Eian's hands and had them get up. She corrected Vaan's robes and took out a token from her ring. She activated it and the three vanished from their spots.

Looking at them disappear, Lith knitted his brows. He clicked his tongue and said, "they left just like that? What am I supposed to do now? Follow them and watch them have a threesome? Tch."

Spying was the basics of assassination and Lith didn't have much info about the people he was here to assassinate. He only knew their names, relationships, and one or two of their habits. There were also no pictures of the people that he got.

Lith thought about whether to follow them or not and after pondering for a while, he came to a conclusion that he should. The security was tight in the clan and there was no way Lith would be able to do much.

Three important people of the clan were out and in place of little to no security. The only one who could threaten Lith there would be the clan head's wife. She was a Rank 9 and things would be troublesome if she takes action.

But, she was the only one who could threaten him, and as long as he was at a distance from her, things would be fine.

The place he was at right now was a Saint Rank clan and a lot could go wrong if he wandered here for too long. It was best to be away and watch those three... even if it meant watching them have a threesome.

If there was a chance, Lith would immediately take it and go for the kill. All three were on the list and the reward was also very high for killing the clan head's wife.

Lith took out his phone and searched for Duram Tea Peak and found its coordinates. He inscribed them into the teleportation token given by Emilia and vanished from his spot.

Duram Tea Peak, Redstone City.

Lith was at the base of a mountain peak. This mountain was a tea farm and there were a lot of rows of tea plants growing down its slope.

Lith looked up, down, at the sides, and searched for the three people. He wasn't able to find them and so, he cast a dark spell on himself to become invisible and extended his wings out to fly.

He flew towards the peak and kept searching for any building or their signs.

Soon, halfway towards the peak, he saw a palace present slightly below the peak.

'That should be the place.' Lith thought to himself and flew closer to the building.

Once he reached close to it, he retracted his wings and walked on foot. He walked around the palace in search of the three but from the windows present at the ground floor, nobody seemed to be inside.

He climbed on top of a tree near him and looked at the first and the second floor. But he still didn't find them and so, he climbed higher and looked at the third and the last floor.

There were four large windows at the four sides of the third floor and they were all open with no covering being present there.

Lith could clearly look at the three in the middle of the floor.

The floor had tatami mats laid out and there were many decorations present in the room such as many expensive vases laid out at one side, something written in Japanese was hung at the walls, there were two big futons laid on the ground in the middle and all in all, it definitely looked and was a Japanese themed floor.

Lith got himself sitting in a comfortable position and watched the three people.

It had just been a few minutes but the three had already changed their outfits and were having a threesome already.

The lady was squatting and was in the middle of the two boys, giving them a blowjob and a handjob.

The three were wearing matching blue yukatas and it was open from the front and the lady was currently sucking onto her son, Eian's dick while stroking Vaan's.

Looking at them, Lith thought to himself, 'now that I think about it, if the yukatas are not tied and open from the front, they look more like Hawaiian cloaks.'

He had nothing to do but watch them and it wasn't a wonder that his thoughts would drift and he would have opinions about them. But despite this, his attention was fully on them.

The lady changed shafts and got to sucking Eian's.

'Now that I notice it, I am basically watching live porn. Hmm... will my gaze shifting from the lady and falling on the guys be considered gay?'

'Two guys being together, even though banging one lady... is it yaoi?'

Chapter 285 Shhh, it's an important call.

"Ahh~ Ahh~ Ahh~"

Vaan's aunt moaned as he fucked her from the side and Eian adding onto her pleasure by sucking on her boobs and playing with her other nipple and clit.

“So aunt, the question I had was—”

“Ahh~ Not, Ah, now, Vaan.” The lady said in between her moans.

Vaan kept quiet and didn’t ask her again and continued to spread her lower lips with his thick rod.

Lith watching this from afar clicked his tongue in annoyance and thought, ‘this horny lady needs to be bonked. She’s too horny. For once I thought that there would be something useful coming out, but no, she denied answering him even now.’

He really needed some information if he were to go up against the members of a Saint Rank clan. But watching the scenes unfold in front of him wasn’t helping him in any way.

He also wasn’t getting turned on or anything of such sorts by watching live porn. He had good control over his body and having done it so many times with two of the most beautiful women, and also having seen the most perfect figure, Lith’s standards were very high, and such people won’t get his interest at all.

‘Please, for the love of go— yeah no, no praying. Please, for goodness sake, give me something useful instead of making me want to bonk the fuck out of you.’ He thought while watching them.

“Ahh~ Ahh~ faster! Vaan move faster!” The lady said as she felt her climax being close.

Hearing this, Vaan wrapped his hand around her belly and increased pace.

Eian too got to work by now biting and twisting her nipples and pinching her clit slightly as well from time to time, causing her to let out louder moans..

A few minutes pass and the lady’s body starts shaking.

“Ahhhhhhh~”

Spurrrt!

“Ngh.”

“Ohhhh!”

The lady and Vaan climaxed at the same time and the lady, feeling Vaan’s hot semen inside, had a second smaller orgasm right after.

Eian stopped playing with her boobs and clit and let his mother recover from her orgasm. He hugged her and started kissing her.

Vaan didn’t do much but laid still where he was while having his dick inside his aunt’s warm pussy.

A few minutes pass and the lady gets up from her futon. She looks down at the two boys lying and smirks. “You can’t be done this early, can you? This young lady here hasn’t had enough yet.”

Eian looked at her and said while feeling shy, “y-yes, mom.”

Vaan too nodded in understanding.

The lady chuckled watching their responses, causing her body to shake a bit and the cum inside to flow out and drip down.

She noticed it dripping and instantly put her two fingers below her pussy to have it spread on them. After having a bit of cum on them, she put them in her mouth and savoured the taste of it.

Sucking on her own fingers that had her nephew’s cum, the lady said in satisfaction, “mhmm~ the cum of young boys tastes so good.”

She scooped more cum out of her pussy and finally stopped when her pussy was devoid of any of Vaan’s seeds.

She got back into the same lying position as before while having her back face Vaan and her front to Eian. She turned her head back and grinding her ass on Vaan’s shaft, she said to him with a smile,

“Vaan, aunt wants to get double penetrated like usual. If you’ve any questions, you can ask them while doing me from behind, okay?”

Vaan nodded and held his shaft to put it properly inside her.

The lady then turned to Eian and said, “make sure to match Vaan’s rhythm and if you be a good boy, mommy will reward you by doing any one thing you ask her, okay?”

Eian’s eyes lit up hearing it. He nodded his head repeatedly and gave her a kiss on her lips while trying to shove his shaft inside her pussy.

Looking at the three people, Lith sighed and thought, ‘just how many rounds of torture will I have to go through until this ends?’

But his tired expression soon was replaced by a serious one. He took out a small notepad and pen from his ring and noted a few things down.

‘Just for a few seconds, during their climax, all three were in their most vulnerable state.’

He paid full attention and noticed this important point. Being in their most vulnerable state, it was easy to assassinate them.

But, Lith knew things were far more complicated.

The lady may appear to be vulnerable, but she shouldn’t be too vulnerable like the two boys. She was a Rank 9, there was no way she was having wild incestuous sex out here in the open without having anything to defend herself with.

If someone were to catch wind of this from their own clan or the rival clan or the rival sect, a lot of things could go wrong for the lady and the two boys.

Thus, there was no way this lady was having sex with her own son and nephew out in the open without any safety measures prepared beforehand.

‘Hmm, maybe I should record a video and watch it again later to see if I missed anything or not, or to watch it in more detail.’ Lith thought and took out his phone and started recording the three.

The lady was getting penetrated in both her holes currently by her son and nephew and was enjoying every bit of it. It was getting recorded into Lith’s phone and just a few minutes into it, Lith suddenly thought of something.

‘If I am recording and will watch it anyway later, I don’t really need to pay much attention to the three. In that case...’

Lith stopped the recording for a few seconds and immediately video-called his mother and sister.

At the base of a tall mountain.

Lilith was still playing chess with Mayzin. Their one game of chess would take a lot of hours to finish and it was no wonder they were still playing.

Lilith’s phone rang as she looked at the chessboard in front of her. She took it out from her ring and saw it was calling.

Noticing that it was Lith, a happy smile formed on her face. She immediately picked it up and...

“Ahh~ Ahh~ Yes! Yes! Vaan do aunt harder!”

“Hmm?”

“What!?”

Lilith hummed in confusion while Mayzin expressed her shock when she suddenly heard moans come out of Lilith’s phone.

Lilith’s attention diverted from her phone towards Mayzin as she saw her express shock.

Lilith put her finger on her lips and said to her in a soft voice, “shhh, it’s an important call.”

Mayzin was dumbfounded as she heard this. How were moans and the line that said ‘do aunt harder’ something important? What the hell was going on? She thought but couldn’t understand or come up with an answer for the questions she had.

She kept quiet and just waited to see what Lilith would do next and what the important call was.

Chapter 286 Video Call with Lucy and Lilith

Darkwing Country, Vampire Continent.

The Dracula Castle, Milano.

Beside a fireplace, Lucy was sitting on a couch and discussing things with Duke Reynolds Dracula and his wife, Duchess Fiora Dracula.

Behind Lucy was Freya Woods, her personal maid. She was standing still in a professional manner with a neutral look on her face, ready to heed the commands of her madam at any moment’s notice.

The Duke and Duchess were very respectful as well as careful while talking to Lucy as she was their queen now, even though substitute. The two knew that she had inherited the throne already but there was a title of substitute attached because of her being of a low rank.

But still, it didn’t stop them from being respectful to her.

Lucy, despite being weaker than the two in front, made the two feel suppressed. The suppression wasn’t too intense but it wasn’t too light either and the two knew that it was just a matter of time before Lucy would fully suppress them.

Lucy’s phone rang and their discussion came to a stop for that reason. Lucy took out the phone and looking at who had called her, she didn’t pick it up right away but looked at the Duke and Duchess and said in a neutral tone,

“We’ll discuss this topic again later. Let’s have a small break for now.”

She then turned, took her crown off and waved her hair. And while doing so, she said calmly, “Freya, see Duke Reynolds and Duchess Fiora out.”.

“Yes, Your Majesty.” Freya bowed and said in a subservient manner.

The two got the hint that Lucy wanted to be alone and they guessed that it may be due to the call she got.

The three left the room and Lucy was alone in the big lounge room with a fireplace beside her.

Lucy picked up the video call that Lith was doing to her and just as she did so, she heard,

“Ahh~ Yes! Yes! Harder, Vaan! Faster, Eian!”

“What’s going on...”

Lucy knitted her brows and muttered as she saw a black screen on her phone after picking up the call while moans of some lady kept coming out.

Soon, the black screen disappeared and Lucy saw her little brother and mother on the screen.

With her brows still knitted, she asked Lith, “what was that, dear?”

But before he did so, the moans kept coming again from the screen.

.....

Duram Tea Peak, Redstone City.

The call got connected to both of them but Lith wasn’t able to talk to them properly as the lady a few meters away kept moaning in pleasure.

“One sec.” Lith said on the phone and took out a small box from his ring.

He imbued some of his spiritual energy into the box and it enlarged itself and surrounded Lith. It seemed like Lith was in a cage but thankfully, the box became transparent as it got enlarged.

Lith released the invisibility spell and then said to the two on phone, “alright, I can be more relaxed now.”

Lith couldn’t talk loudly before or he may have gotten noticed by the three people. What he did just now was used an artifact that would make him invisible, same like the dark spell but much better than that. It would also cover all of his magical fluctuations and also hide him from any spiritual sense that is put out.

The person ahead of him was a Rank 9 and if she were to send out her spiritual sense, it would be troublesome for Lith. So to not take any risk, he used an artifact that he took from home when he visited his mother last time.

The lady kept moaning as her son and nephew rammed their shafts into her honeypot and backdoor but her moans were heard in a suppressed form by Lilith and Lucy as Lith enabled background noise cancellation on his phone.

“What and where are you, baby? And what’s with the noise?” Lilith asked from the other side, despite knowing the answer.

Lucy stared at Lith and waited for him to answer. She wanted to know what it was as well.

Lith cleared his throat and said, “well, you see mom, big sis, I am on a mission right now, the reward is good, and it’s also challenging. It’s basically about killing some people from two clans and the place I am currently at, one of the two clan head’s wife is having an affair with her nephew and son and right in front of me, just a few meters away, they’re doing it.”

“The clan head’s wife is a Rank 9 so I haven’t made my move yet, otherwise I would’ve killed the clan head’s nephew and son already.”

Lilith and Lucy got the gist of it and nodded their heads in understanding.

Lucy was curious as to why he would do such a mission and she was also curious as to how much the reward will be. So she asked, “why are you doing such a mission? And what’s the reward?”

Lith smiled and answered, “why did you roam outside, big sis? For the same reason. And the reward for killing the nephew is twenty amethyst coins, for the son it’s ten amethyst coins, and for the Rank 9 lady, it’s fifty amethyst coins.”

“What!?” Lucy exclaimed. “It’s such a low price and you’re risking your life over there for this amount?”

“Calm down, dear. Your brother is sensible enough to not weigh the pros and cons before getting into something. At least hear him out fully first.” Lilith said in her gentle voice.

“Sorry.” Lucy apologized to her mother and brother.

Just a few minutes ago, she was suppressing two Emperor Ranks despite herself being a King Rank. She was just that domineering. But now, she was nothing but a little girl in front of her mother.

Lucy’s nature was like that and it had been the same ever since that day when they went shopping when Lith was just a few years old. All her domineering and overbearingness would go away once she was in front of her mother.

Lilith smiled and wanted to pat Lucy but she couldn’t.

Lith cleared his throat and said, “big sis, the rewards aren’t less, it’s just your sense of money that has become a bit distorted. Anywho, that aside, it’s a good mission since I get good experience from it.”

Lucy knitted her brows as she heard Lith’s reply. She thought to herself, ‘is it really the case? But any assassination of a Rank 9 should at least be a hundred amethyst coins or one low grade magic stone. Why is it just fifty? What’s the matter? Something doesn’t seem right...’

Chapter 287 Video Call with Lucy and Lilith (2)

Lucy realized something and frowned. She looked at Lith and said, “dear, get out of there. Something doesn’t feel right.”

Lith was surprised hearing that and asked, “what is the matter, big sis?”

Lucy shook her head and didn't explain. Instead she said, "just please get out of there."

Lith wondered why she was saying something like that and looked at his mother for a response.

Lilith shrugged and said, "I have no idea why dear is saying that either. Maybe there's danger there and she got a premonition?"

Lith rubbed temples as he heard his mother's reply. He looked at Lucy and said, "Big sis, relax. There's nothing here that could potentially harm me. You know, I have the protective artifact on me at all times which mom gave me last time. I won't really be harmed."

Hearing this, Lucy sighed in relief. She had forgotten that Lith had such an artifact on him and was worrying for nothing.

"Alright then. But let me tell you, to assassinate a Rank 9, at least one low grade magic stone is needed. I don't know how you accepted such a mission despite it offering such a low price."

It clicked only now why his sister reacted that way. 'So she felt that something was off by noticing the price difference. Wow, such a keen observation and attention.'

Lith nodded and said, "don't worry, big sis. I'll manage. But that aside, why are you looking so sexy today?" .

Lith smiled after saying so and Lilith chuckled hearing his response.

Lucy had a slight blush on her face as she heard that. She cleared her throat and said, "stop changing the topic and flirting with me. Focus on your mission."

"Yes, I willz once you answer my question." Lith smiled and said.

"Well, I am visiting the five Duke Clans and having a talk with them. So I am in the substitute queen outfit most of the time." Lucy explained.

“Oh, I see. But if that’s the case, why do you have headphones on instead of the crown?” Lith asked, a bit curious.

Lucy had put on headphones to hear everything better and also to not let others hear moans coming out of her phone. Freya would be back at any moment and she didn’t want her to hear this.

“It’s here.” She took the crown present beside her and showed it to Lith. “I am wearing headphones just for the call.”

Lith nodded in understanding. He then said, “alright, I am gonna get back to doing what I was doing before. You’re not gonna see me on screen anymore.”

“What? You’re disconnecting already?” Lucy asked.

“Baby, you just called mama. It’s not even been ten minutes, are you going to disconnect so fast?” Lilith asked the same thing as well.

Lith chuckled and said, “I am not disconnecting the call, I am changing camera view. I was recording those three have sex so that I can see it later. I am gonna do it again and of course, since we’re on call, you two are going to have to watch it with me. Why should I suffer alone, right? Mwahahaha.”

Lith tried to laugh in the best evil and as sarcastic way as possible.

Lilith and Lucy were slightly dumbfounded as they understood his intentions of calling them. So he was suffering by watching three people have sex and to not suffer alone, he added these two into it.

Lucy knitted her brows and said, “little brother, do you think I have time to deal with these things?”

Lucy was a substitute queen, she had a lot to do already. She was very busy.

“Of course. I wouldn’t call you if you were busy.” Lith smiled and said.

He would call her anytime he wanted and if she was busy, she wouldn’t really pick it up, he knew about it. The fact that she picked it up now meant that she wasn’t really that busy.

And saying he wouldn't call her if she was busy was half the truth from his side. He wouldn't call her the second time if calling for the first time was unsuccessful. That was the whole truth.

Lucy stared at Lith for a good few seconds when she heard this while Lilith just giggled hearing their banter.

Lucy wanted to say something but soon saw three people having a go at each other.

There was one lady in the middle of the two boys and she was getting her pussy spread as well as her buttohole gaped. Lucy blushed slightly as she saw another woman have sex for the first time, not to mention her getting double penetrated.

What she was watching on her screen was definitely porn and since it was her first time, she had many questions and she also felt slightly embarrassed.

Lilith noticed her daughter's cheeks have a slight blush on them. She smiled and said, "what naughty things are you thinking of, dear?"

Lith's attention fell on his sister as he heard his mother say that.

Lucy, getting called out, felt surprised initially but soon her embarrassment intensified a bit as she heard her mother's words.

"N-nothing." She accidentally stuttered. She cleared her throat noticing that and forcefully calmed herself down. She then said to her mother in a neutral tone, "I am just surprised watching this woman on screen get two people to do her at the same time."

Lith and Lilith both felt surprised hearing such a response from Lucy. But then they realized that she probably didn't know the concept of porn and hadn't watched porn before and was only coming across it right now.

Lilith smiled knowing her daughter came across something new and she said, "dear, that's still nothing. Do you know there are certain websites which if you check, you'll find even more freaky and weird women than the one you are currently looking at. The woman in front of Lith is still pretty okay."

Lucy was surprised knowing this and out of curiosity, she asked, “what do you mean by freaky, mom?”

Lilith smirked and said, “for instance, the woman on your screen right now is taking two things in two different places, but some like to get it in one place.”

Gasp!

Lucy gasped as she heard this. Out of instinct, she looked down and touched her soft fleshy folds and thought about what Lilith had just said.

Lilith chuckled and said, “no need to think of something weird like that. You aren’t a nymphomaniac like that woman, dear. Only nymphs would do something like that.”

“Oh.” Lucy understood. She then thought about something and asked, “you said they do more weird stuff, right mom? What are the other examples of it?”

Before Lilith could answer, Lith switched the camera view and got it onto himself. He looked at Lucy and said with a smirk, “you really wanna know, big sis?”

Lucy nodded. “Yeah.”

Lith, with the same smirk on, said to her, “ever heard of scat?”

Chapter 288 Mama doesn't remember teaching you these

“What’s scat?”

Lucy asked on call as Lith mentioned about it to her.

Lith smirked and was just about to say what it was to Lucy and corrupt her, but was interrupted by Lilith’s chuckle.

“Fufufu... There are many kinks and fetishes out there, dear. Some of them are good and tame, like having a S&M kink or foot fetish, but some of them are... well... not so good and tame, like scat or cuckolding.” Lilith said calmly.

She continued, “what mama wants to tell you is, if you haven’t come across these things already, it’s good. Don’t get yourself corrupted and be with such useless additional knowledge.”

With the smile still on her face, she looked at Lith and said, “and you, young man, how do you know of such things? Mama doesn’t remember teaching you these.”

Lith froze on his spot as he heard that. His mother’s smile didn’t seem like a smile at all right now and she seemed rather angry with him.

He was right, Lilith was slightly angry. How did Lith come across these things? She had tried her best to keep him away from the dark side of the world.

Scat was still nothing too horrible, just disgusting, as compared to other fetishes that people had, like the amputee one where people found pleasure for having their limbs cut during sex and craved more of it.

She didn’t want him to know these things as if he gets influenced by any, things would be very bad. Even though she would support him in doing what he liked, wrong things were wrong and her being his mother, it was her duty to correct him and protect him from such things..

Lith had a cold sweat on his back as he got questioned by his mother and made an awkward smile and said, “oh well, you see, mom– no, I mean, mama, you see... this one time I was in my room and–”

Lith tried to avert the crisis by calling Lilith mama as she liked and making an excuse, but it failed as Lilith interrupted him.

She made a scary smile this time and said, “do you think mama will believe your excuses, Lith?”

‘Oh crap! I really messed up, it seems!’ Lith thought to himself as his mother called him by his name instead of she usually called him.

“Little brother, what did you do?” Lucy could tell their mother was angry and asked Lith, a bit curious.

Lilith looked at Lucy on her screen and said with the same scary smile, “Lucy, you won’t think more about this topic from now on, okay?”

Lucy froze like Lith as she heard her name as well. She would have a nervous sweat on her forehead right now, had she not been a vampire and a King Rank. She tried to smile and said,

“U-understood, mo– mama.”

Lilith stopped smiling and sighed looking at her children. She didn’t want to scare them but it was necessary to do so. She had to let them know that if they did something wrong, she would be the first to punish them. This was her duty as a mother, to correct her children and discipline them if they go on a wrong path.

Lilith left the phone from her hands but it stayed still in its place. She extended both her hands out in different directions and they passed through space.

Lith who was hiding on a tree saw a slender arm emerge from the space above him and so did Lucy while sitting on the couch in Duke Dracula’s castle.

Lilith ruffled their heads and said on phone, “my babies, understand this, mama doesn’t want to hurt you. I just want you to be away from these bad things and not get influenced by them.”

Lucy closed her eyes as she felt her mother’s gentle pat on her head while Lith felt relaxed as well.

Lith nodded his head slightly and said, “I understand, mama.”

Hearing this, Lucy nodded as well and added, “me too.”

Lilith smiled and patting the two for one last time, she retracted her hands. She then said, “it’s good if you understand. It makes mama happy.”

Lith then cleared his throat and prepared to change the topic. He said, “Mom, do you think I should stay and keep watching those three do it?”

He was asking whether it was worth his time to watch the three do it and if anything useful would come out of it or not.

Lilith looked at him and said calmly, “change the camera view. Let me see what they are doing.”

Lith nodded and changed the view. He also disabled the noise cancellation and Lilith and Lucy were now back to watching the three do it together.

The clan head’s wife had changed position and was now in a doggy style one. Vaan was behind her and was doing it in her backdoor while Eian was below her and was spreading her fleshy folds while sucking on her nipples.

The lady was in ecstasy and her guard was lowered.

Lilith seriously watched her while Lucy had no interest in doing so but still made herself watch it forcefully.

Lilith, after a few seconds, asked Lith, “well, baby, what are you planning to do with the three?”

Lith was confused as to why she asked him that. Didn’t he already say what he wanted to do?

“Kill them, mom. What else? Kill them after I get information, I mean.” Lith explained again.

Lilith nodded. “So you need information as well, alright.”

Lith didn’t understand where she was getting at and so he asked, “why’d you ask again, mom?”

“Oh nothing really. I just wanted to know if you wanted to kill her or not. But now I realized you need information on top of killing her. If it was just about killing, you can dive right in, right at this moment, since she’s defenseless and so are the two. It’s an easy kill.” Lilith said in a calm tone.

“What!?” Lith almost dropped his phone.

So all his assumptions of her having something to protect herself and her being guard were all wrong!? What Lilith said basically meant that Lith's caution was all for naught and he was worrying for nothing. All this while, he could've just attacked and killed them.

But in just a few seconds, Lith calmed down. He knew that even if he could then now, he needed information. He couldn't kill them without information and so this meant that he would need to continue to waste time.

Lith sighed.

Lilith chuckled and said, "no need to feel disheartened. With the way they are doing it, I assure you, they'll stop just after half an hour."

"Oh?" Lith was amused knowing how his mother gave such an accurate answer. "How do you know, mom?"

Lilith made a smug expression and said, "because I am your mama."

Chapter 289 Will you pay the price?

Lith was dumbfounded hearing his mother's answer to the question. 'I swear that line is a universal one that every mom out there uses every once in a while.'

Lith then kept recording the threesome while talking with his mother and sister, and as Lilith had said, just half an hour later, the three had finished their deeds.

The two boys were drained and the lady didn't want to torture them, so she stopped as well.

The three were lying on the wet futon, not giving any care to the cum present all around them. The boys were at the sides of the lady, sucking their breasts while having their shafts still inside her.

Vaan stopped with the sucking and asked the lady, "So aunt, what is uncle upto?"

"What do you mean?" The lady asked.

“You know, the Shadow River Sect is getting stronger and the Kenzal Clan is also not shying away from causing conflicts to us. They haven’t done a full blow on us yet because they are cautious of the Shadow River Sect. So, what I was asking was, what is uncle doing about this?”

The lady kissed the guy and said, “you don’t need to worry about it. What your uncle is doing is a good thing.”

“But I wanna know...” the guy insisted.

“Fine. Your uncle goes out everyday at 10 am to meet a powerhouse in secret. Who it is, I can’t tell you. The people in the clan are busy with things during the time he is out and so, as I told you, even if we did this in the clan, nothing would’ve happened.” The lady said with a giggle.

The guy then asked a few more questions and in the meanwhile, Eian fell asleep.

The lady kept answering everything while also ensuring she added fillers into it her explanations to make it sexual and naughty and to arouse Vaan again so that he fucked her..

But the serious guy didn’t get aroused by the slightest and their question and answer round went on for about an hour until Vaan’s tired eyes gave up and he fell asleep as well.

Lith got a lot of information but he still couldn’t kill them because they were important for the coming plans that he had already roughly laid out in his mind.

Lith put the coordinates of his hotel room in the teleportation token and vanished from the place after imbuing some spiritual energy into the token.

Reaching the hotel room in the Lenz City suburbs, Lith sat on his bed and continued to talk to his mother and sister on the video call.

Half an hour later, they decided to end the call as they had been talking for too long.

“Big sis, don’t stress too much with politics, okay? And come visit me when you’ve got time. Mom, you should come as well.” Lith said with a smile.

Lilith and Lucy nodded their heads.

Lucy smiled and said, "I'll visit as soon as I am done with work. I need to go now. Take care, little brother. Take care, mom. I love you two."

Lilith smiled and said, "take care, dear. And as baby said, don't stress, okay? Call mama if you need anything. Mama loves you too."

Lucy nodded in understanding. "Yes, mom, I'll definitely do that."

"Take care, big sis. I love you too." Lith said with a smile.

Lucy then hung up the call and Lith looked at Lilith and said, "I am going to sleep, mom. Byebye and take care. I love you as well and I am gonna hang up now."

"Bye, baby. Mama loves you as well." Lilith said with the same smile as before.

Lith hung up and after doing some work, went to sleep as just as he had mentioned.

.....

At the base of a tall mountain.

Lilith put her phone back in the ring and as she looked at Mayzin for the first time in a few hours, she was surprised to see her staring at her with an interested look in her face.

Mayzin, noticing Lilith was back, said to her, "You sure seem very close to your children."

Lilith smiled and said, "of course. It's because I am close to them."

"Yeah... I can see... You were talking to your son and daughter while watching a threesome of some people and also commentating on it. It did feel weird to me at first, but as you continued to talk, I completely forgot about the threesome part." Mayzin put out her thoughts.

Lilith chuckled and said, “and? What do you wanna say about this?”

Mayzin shrugged and said, “why would I say anything about it? It was just a mother talking to her kids. There was nothing wrong in my opinion.”

Lilith nodded.

Mayzin then said, “anyway, now that your call is over, make your move. I’ve already made mine.”

Lilith looked at the chessboard and it didn’t take her even a second to decide what move to make. She simply moved her bishop to E6 and said, “check.”

“How!?” Mayzin slammed the table and said as she got a check for the nth time from Lilith.

Mayzin had tried her hardest to not get a check and with her next move, she was about to push and give a check to Lilith. But all of it failed because of Lilith giving her a check now.

Mayzin sat down on her seat and kept looking at the chessboard to see what move she could make. She was now seriously getting stressed because of how difficult everything was becoming. But she didn’t give up and continued to rack her brains to decide what move she should make next.

Lilith ignored Mayzin after making her move. She turned her head towards the mountain peak and looking at the bluish silver-haired figure meditating seriously, she flashed a small smile.

‘It seems my daughter-in-law will have a breakthrough soon. Good, I am waiting for you. Ascend fast and meet me soon.’

Lilith turned her head back to look at Mayzin and continued to enjoy looking at her stressed expression.

Many might not know it but this dragon in front of Lilith, even though seemed stressed and harmless, was one of the world’s most cruel and dangerous being.

She had a calm nature and spent a lot of her time sleeping. It wasn't everyday that Lilith could see her suffer like this and thus she purposefully was playing seriously with Mayzin and giving her difficult challenges to face.

Lilith looked at Mayzin and asked with a smile, "do you want a small hint on what move to make next?"

Mayzin's attention was turned to Lilith. She thought about it and said, "sure."

"But there's a price for it." Lilith added the condition.

Mayzin rolled her eyes and said, "there sure is. Afterall, there's no free lunch, is there?"

Lilith chuckled and said, "So will you pay the price?"

Mayzin nodded. There was no problem paying, she was the wealthiest person in the whole world afterall. Dragons loved treasures, she wasn't any different. She literally slept on mountains of treasures and just that was enough to give an estimate of how rich she was.

Lilith then asked, "alright, tell me if you're gonna pay the price or not."

Mayzin didn't think much about it and simply said, "I'll pay, no pr9blem. Just give me the hint."

She was too absorbed in the chess game that she wasn't able to think things through and think what loopholes could be there in this statement of Lilith's.

Lilith chuckled and said, "alright, I'll give you the hint and tell you what price it is after. So the hint is..."

Mayzin listened intently and after Lilith was finished speaking, she felt sudden enlightenment and made her move, getting herself out of check while giving a check to Lilith.

"Alright, that was a good move. Now what was the price you were talking about?" Mayzin asked.

Lilith chuckled and said, “it’s nothing much really. You just need to go on a date with Lith.”

Mayzin nodded. “Oh, I see– Huh!? What!?”

“I need to do what!?”

Chapter 290 Cheap food is crap

Mayzin was stupefied hearing Lilith’s demand.

Lilith on the other hand giggled and said, “one should always be careful with what they’re agreeing with.”

Mayzin clicked her tongue and said, “I am not going to do that. He’s just a newborn, I am not going.”

“Oh? So, you’re saying you would’ve gone if he wasn’t young?” Lilith twisted Mayzin’s answer and asked.

Mayzin glared at Lilith and said, “no matter what you say, I am not going.”

Lilith chuckled. Of course she won’t go. She was a prideful dragon, it wasn’t easy to make her do things.

“So is the mighty and domineering Dragon Empress not going to keep her word?” Lilith provoked Mayzin and said playfully.

Mayzin rolled her eyes. Just what was Lilith upto? Why did she want to hook her up with her son?

Mayzin thought about things for a bit and realized that it wouldn’t really hurt to go on a date. She was free and also, going on a date was basically just meeting him and nothing more. There won’t be any problems in doing that.

She looked at Lilith and said, “I’ll go, but on one condition.”

Lilith raised her eyebrows in surprise. She got convinced this easily?

Lilith was surprised but nonetheless didn't show it on her face much and asked, "what is it?"

Mayzin smiled and said, "you won't put me in such situations again in future. Such situations as in making me do things I don't want to."

Lilith nodded her head. It was fair. .

"Alright. I agree to that, but this is valid only till you go and date him. And you'll have to go on a date within the next 100 years. Do you agree?"

Mayzin pondered whether it was a good deal or not. A hundred years was too short. She thought she might extend the time period by a few ten thousand years but now it was shortened to just a hundred.

But something was better than nothing. She nodded her head and said, "alright, we have a deal."

.....

Next morning.

Lenz City suburbs.

Lith woke up, feeling refreshed. He went to freshen up and ordered food for himself. It was a cheap English breakfast.

Lith has had that many times in the castle as well as in the academy. It was nothing new to him.

He sat on the small dining table present at the corner of his room and just as he had the first bite of the sausage, he spit it out.

"Yuck. It tastes disgusting." Lith exclaimed. "It tastes rotten and is also very chewy and greasy."

He had some water and gargled. He spit it out at his side but the water didn't splash down on the ground, instead it floated in mid air and Lith willed the elements to move the water to the sink in the bathroom.

He then tried the beans and it was once again disgusting and repeated the gargling process.

Lith looked at the food in front of him and contemplated whether to eat it or not.

It couldn't be helped, Lith was royalty. Ever since he started having food, he was fed food by the best cooks in the whole world. Even in the academy, the cooks present were top class ones as the academy didn't want their students to be sick and malnourished because of food. It was a top academy, food was given priority as it directly impacted the growth of the students.

But now, Lith had suddenly ordered cheap food for the very first time and had it. It was bound to taste crap. His palate wasn't suitable for such foods but there was also the fact that he ordered food too cheap.

He thought that he shouldn't waste money on food and ended up ordering food from the cheapest place near him. But now that tasted crap and he knew that if he ate that, he was bound to get sick in the long run.

"Sigh... it seems I can't compromise on food. Alright, just for food, I'll use mom's card. Hmm... or maybe..."

Lith suddenly got an idea. He took his phone out and called a certain person.

.....

Darkwing Country, Vampire Continent.

The Dracula Castle, Milano.

Lucy was getting a shoulder massage by Freya, the blonde-haired, green-eyed King Rank maid.

Ringggg!

Freya's phone rang and she stopped her massage and said, "Sorry, Your Majesty. It's a call on my phone."

"It's okay." Lucy didn't mind.

Freya took her phone out from her ring and noticing the caller, she was slightly surprised. However, she picked it up and said,

"Greetings, Your Highness. How may I be of service?"

"Hmm?" Lucy turned to look at Freya.

'Why is little brother calling her?' She wondered.

"Put the call on speaker, Freya." Lucy said.

Freya nodded and did as she was asked. As she did so, Lith's voice rang out saying,

"Greetings. Freya, can you help me out a bit?"

Lith used to call Freya as Miss and with a bit of respect, but she and the other servants asked Lith to not call them like that. They appreciated him for this but they preferred getting called by their names only.

The maids and butlers felt close to Lith when he called them with their names. They felt as if they were his friends and close ones. But when he called them with respect and formally, it just didn't click well with them and thus they asked him that. Freya being no exception to this.

"Yes, Your Highness. Is that even a question? Please tell me what to do, I'll try my best to be of service." Freya said calmly.

Lucy wondered what help it was that Lith needed. Out of curiosity, she interrupted their talk and said,

“What help do you need, little brother? You could’ve called me if you wanted, you know? I am not really busy.”

“Oh? Big sis you’re there? Is Freya with you?” Lith was surprised hearing Lucy’s voice and asked.

“Indeed. She’s with me. Helping me out with this tour.” Lucy said with a smile.

“Ahh, so she’s busy. Well then, I’ll call someone else. I won’t disturb you two.” Lith said in understanding.

“Wait, wait, wait. You’re not really disturbing us. What do you need, tell me.” Lucy said hurriedly.

“Ah well... it’s a bit awkward to tell. But long story short, I ordered food and it was very bad. So I called Freya to ask if it was possible to get food from home and bring it to me.” Lith said it in a way to cover up his cheapskate-ness.

“Oh. So you just wanted some home food?” Lucy asked a rhetorical question.

“Yes.” Lith answered it anyway.

Lucy didn’t answer Lith after and just looked at Freya, gesturing to her to answer Lith.

Freya cleared her throat and said, “It will be done, Your Highness. Not a problem at all. But you would need to allow us to track you.”

“No problem.” Lith agreed without hesitation.

Freya nodded and then said, “Your Highness, just message the word ‘food’ to the castle’s number whenever you need it and they’ll deliver it to you within five minutes.”

“Okay. Thank you, Freya. Good bye, big sis. Love you.” Lith said.

“Love you too.” Lucy said with a smile.

Lith hung up and the call ended. Freya put her phone back in her ring and Lucy got back to her normal position.

Freya got back to massaging her shoulder and thought,

‘It seems His Highness misses home food. Alright, I’ll do my best to get him what he wants. Anything for His Highness.’
