

Vampire 311

Chapter 311 Faith

Emilia didn't hesitate and had a taste of the stew from the saucer Lith was holding.

After she was done taking a taste, Lith asked her how it was and Emilia thought for a bit and answered, "even though very little ingredients are used, it still tastes amazing. The salt and pepper content is proper and I don't think there's any problem."

Lith smiled hearing that. Emilia sure was learning very fast.

He had a taste from the same saucer Emilia had without any hesitation and after analyzing the stew, he nodded and said, "everything is indeed as you said. It seems you're learning very fast, Miss Emilia."

Emilia nodded. She was happy that Lith felt she was learning fast.

The stew got fully cooked after a while and Lith poured in a bowl for Emilia and himself. He gave Emilia's bowl to her and also gave her a piece of bread and had one for himself.

Emilia dipped the bread into the stew and as it softened, she had it.

"Mhm." Emilia hummed in satisfaction.

Lith smiled looking at Emilia feeling so content with the food he made. He too dipped the bread into the stew and bit onto it.

A bit of stew dripped down from the corner of Lith's mouth as he bit onto it and Emilia noticed it.

She looked at Lith and Lith looked back at her, a bit confused as to why she was looking at him.

Emilia didn't say anything and simply bent forward and wiped the stew off of Lith's face. The stew was on her hand and she simply sucked on her fingers and ate it.

Lith was dumbfounded noticing this. 'What in the world is she doing? Did she perhaps not understand that this is an intimate gesture? Or is she perhaps interested in me?'

Lith couldn't figure out what it was. This gesture was sending mixed signals to him.

Meanwhile Emilia, who had just tasted the stew, suddenly realized what she did. A slight blush appeared on her face but since she was in front of Lith, she didn't want to show it to him as he may tease her for it.

'Why did I do that... Don't tell me... I like— no. I did that because food shouldn't be wasted. But then... it dripped down from his lips... No! No! It was just me trying to not waste food! That's it! I don't like him or anything!'

Emilia had an internal debate with herself. Though she may not admit it, subconsciously she had started liking him. The only thing that made her not admit it openly was that she felt that the age gap was too much between them and she was a Seraphim whereas Lith was a vampire.

Their love wouldn't work because if she did 'that' thing with Lith, she would fall from grace and would become a fallen angel. She would have a pair of black wings among the many pairs of bright colored wings on her back and that would signify that she wasn't someone who had complete faith in Light.

This thing would make all the devotees who worshipped her lose faith and in the worst case scenario, many would go mad and become irrational monsters.

Faith was a much more powerful thing in this world than Lith could even think of. Faith acted as an anchor to keep every being stable.

The weak worshipped the strong and the strong worshipped the elements, that's how this world worked.

As for the strongest, they had no need of an anchor. They were stable themselves and because of their habits of worshipping elements when they were weak, they too, in some cases, worshipped the elements despite becoming the strongest.

Alex was a good example of this. There's no need for him to worship Light but he still does that because old habits are hard to die.

Emilia becoming a fallen would be devastating news for many and Emilia knew about this. Thus, subconsciously she rejected any thoughts of being with Lith, even though her heart said something else to her.

Lith could see that Emilia was zoned out for some reason. But he chose to not disturb her. He instead had his fill of stew and after he was done, he noticed that Emilia had finished her bowl of stew as well.

"Want some more?" Lith asked with a smile.

Emilia looked at Lith and blushed slightly. Only she knew what was going on in her mind to have such a reaction. But hiding it, she nodded and gave her bowl to Lith.

Lith poured in more stew to her and Emilia finished it as well within a few minutes.

Lith parted his ways with her after they were done eating and cleaning up the surroundings.

He teleported back to his room in the Shadow River Sect and when night descended, he, like before, slept with Alexandra soundly.

.....

Lucas's dorm, Abalax World Academy.

Lucas was looking out through the window of his dorm and had his brows knitted and a frown on his face.

"Why, just why didn't I get any call from the Shadow River Sect regarding this thing? I gave them such good news and they didn't even reply? What happened?"

"The maid, from what I heard, was given a secret technique of the sect and many cultivation resources. She, after cultivating diligently for years went on to become a King Rank and lived her life lavishly from then on."

"I had no need for the resources but I needed that technique. It was something which, even till my... let's say, death, was something that was available only to the sect members and not present anywhere else in the world."

"Just what the hell happened to the sect officials? Are they stupid or something?"

"System, do you know why there's a delay in my reward?"

[Analyzing host's question... answering...]

[No.]

"Tsk. Fucking useless." Lucas thought and got back to sit on his table.

He worked for a bit there but he became restless for some reason. Thus, for that, he went outside to take a stroll to calm himself.

.....

Lenz City, Espat.

Lucas teleported in an alley and walked out of it to take a stroll in Lenz City.

He was in the suburbs of the city and was roaming around the streets, looking at many things present here.

It had not been even a few minutes since he started walking when an old man walked towards him.

The old man had cheap black clothes wrapped around his body and he had a long white beard. He was carrying a flag with him that was black in color with one word written in white on it—Destiny.

The old man walked towards Lucas and said to him,

"Young man, there's a fateful encounter waiting for you."

Chapter 312 Fateful Encounter

"Young man, there's a fateful encounter waiting for you."

Lucas stopped in his tracks and looked at the old man. For some reason, this old man looked very familiar. Lucas felt as if he had met this man before.

"...you are?" Lucas asked, feeling a bit suspicious of the old man.

"I am just a mere astrologer, going to places where the wind takes me. So, young man, do you wish to know the fateful encounter? It'll only cost you 1 silver coin." The old man replied in a calm manner.

Lucas nodded and gave the man a coin. He felt the man was suspicious but since the price wasn't too much, it was worth trying.

The old man took the coin from Lucas and said to him, "in the desert, near an oasis with three palm trees, when the sun sets, a newborn shall hatch."

Lucas thought about what the old man had just said and not understanding what it was, he was about to ask the old man again about it when he saw the old man had vanished.

"What!? Where the hell did he go!?" Lucas said in surprise.

'System, where is the old man?' Lucas called out in his mind.

[Cannot answer.]

"What the fuck do you mean can't answer? This means you have an answer but can't tell me?"

[Yes.]

"Why!?"

[Cannot answer.]

"Ugh." Lucas was now starting to think that system was just a piece of crap attached to him by those shitty gods in their last breath and nothing else. They were on their...

[Emotions of host are unstable. Applying a calming potion...]

[Applying a sleeping potion...]

[Teleporting host back to the academy...]

With space fluctuating around Lucas, he got sucked into a vortex and vanished from his spot.

The spot he had just vanished, the old man from before came back and stood on it.

He stared into the empty space in front of him and muttered softly, "if I don't want to be seen, then no one in this world can find me."

The old man then turned his head towards a certain direction and muttered softly again,

"...except that one person that I hate from the bottom of my heart."

.....

Below a certain mountain peak.

Lilith was playing chess with Mayzin. The two were still going on with their match and it had not even been a hundred rounds that they played together.

While Lilith was waiting for Mayzin to make a move, she suddenly felt a gaze on her. She looked in the direction she felt the gaze was coming from.

Her eyes turned a blood red for a second as she focused in that direction and returned back to her gem-like amethyst color.

Lilith had a small smirk on her face and she thought to herself, 'no matter how many petty moves you make, I'll always be the one to benefit from it.'

'You may be a player who can move pieces on the chessboard as you want, but don't forget about the one who has the power to flip the board and ruin everything.'

Lilith then turned her head to look at the mountain peak and saw Arya meditating inside a storm of elemental energy.

Lilith smiled and said softly, "soon."

.....

The next day.

Shadow River Sect, Redstone City.

Lith woke up and after having breakfast together with Alexandra, he practiced the secret technique. After practice, he once again decided to go tease Emilia because he had nothing better to do.

Emilia, as he thought, came to him again and he averted the crisis this time by opening a steaming hot chicken fried rice that he cooked before praying to her.

The two had chatted over food and Lith came back to his room again.

Lith may not know it but the thing he was doing for fun, was leading him to a place he didn't think he would be able to enter.

The place was Emilia's heart.

Food is one of the languages of love and it was a universal law everywhere. If you want to win someone's heart, win over their stomach first. This was true for Emilia's case and Lith unknowingly was making a spot for himself in her heart through his actions.

Sure Emilia felt irked about having the thoughts of dating someone younger than her and also someone not from her own race, but love was something that knew no boundaries.

Love makes a person selfish, even gods themselves.

How was Emilia going to be an exception then? She was just a pure, innocent, and a very humble being. She always thought in the best interests of everyone and was so religious that she hadn't done anything sinful in her entire life.

Though she was an Angel of War, she had never once used her weapon for selfish reasons. Whenever she used it, it was to protect the divine law of Light and to ensure that the proper code of conduct of nature wasn't in danger.

If nature was threatened, then all beings would be threatened as well.

Emilia was thus very kind of a good nature. But people like Emilia, they were also prone to give in to love and become blind by it, thereby becoming selfish.

Emilia was, day by day, wavering in her decision to not date Lith and was thinking of choosing him as a life partner, even though it meant she would fall from grace and many would suffer.

At this stage, if Lith did something that may tick off Emilia, he would forever lose his chance to be in her heart as once Emilia stops being blinded by love and becomes self-conscious of what things she was getting into, she would steel herself even further and not fall for such things again.

However, Lith wasn't aware of the tumultuous waves of emotions he was making Emilia go through and was in his own world, following a monotonous routine everyday consisting of cultivating, teasing Emilia, and taking care of Alexandra and spending time with her.

.....

Days passed.

It was almost a month since Lith was out of the academy.

He was continuing his monotonous routine today as well and was out on a stroll when suddenly...

RUMBLE! RUMBLE! RUMBLE!

The sky turned dark and thunder rumbled in the sky.

Drip! Drop! Drip! Drop!

A few drops of water fell down from the sky but soon, within a matter of a few seconds, it started raining heavily.

Thankfully, there was magic in this world and people could be dry despite heavy rains and Lith was no exception to that. He casted a wind barrier around himself and looked at the sky, wondering why it started raining out of nowhere.

He kept looking but wasn't able to figure out why it was raining. Thinking it wasn't anything important, Lith got back to doing what he was doing.

.....

Days passed.

It kept raining but Lith didn't stop the routine he was following. Neither he nor anyone else stopped their activities. Rain was a trivial thing in this world of magic and people did their daily things without any problems.

Emilia was almost in love with Lith now. She just needed one small push and it was a done deal.

Lith was starting to get aware that Emilia was having romantic feelings for him. He had no idea how that happened but since it wasn't a bad thing, he just continued doing what he was doing and was waiting to see how things would turn out later.

.....

Human Continent.

Ancestor's Palace, Raizen.

The Human Ancestor, Darren Whitter, was sitting on his throne and was staring at empty space in front of him.

At this time, Eric, sitting a few tens meter away from Darren, got up from his seat and after respectfully bowing and greeting him, he said,

"Ancestor, the dragons will soon have their third Supreme if this continues. Are we just going to sit and watch?"

Darren turned his gaze to look at Eric and knitted his brows. Eric had already given him so much trouble and had him suffer so much humiliation. Now he was asking this?

"Eric, it's in your, and everyone's best interest that you keep your mouth shut and not speak unless asked to."

Darren wasn't happy with Eric in the slightest and said so.

Eric felt a shiver down his spine as he heard that. 'What did I even do...' He thought to himself and sat back on his seat after apologizing to Darren.

Graham, who was sitting close to Darren, got up from his seat and said bowing to Darren, "Ancestor, I think you should talk to the other Supremes about this matter and first see what they are thinking. Of course, by others, I simply mean just three people."

Arbour, sitting close to Darren as well, was simply listening and wasn't saying anything on this matter. He did not understand the situation properly and so, he decided to not act on it.

Previously, on impulse, he attacked this world and became a big fool in front of everyone. He wouldn't do such a thing again.

Darren nodded his head as Graham finished speaking. He then said,

"I understand all of that, but Graham, you should take some rest and not work. I can understand that you may be going through the grief of losing your son. Take some rest, don't come to the meetings for a while."

Graham was a very trustworthy person and was also the one that Darren placed a lot of importance on. He would obviously think in the best interest of Graham for that reason.

Graham looked at Darren with a stern gaze and said, "don't think of me as some weak mortal who would have grievance over losing a son, Ancestor. I am not impotent, I can have another son if I want."

Immortals were like that. Losing a child may not make them feel much as they could make another one anytime they wanted. They had a never ending lifespan and it was no problem to them.

Of course, not everyone was the same and many would suffer through grief for many years for losing a child and would suffer a major trauma for it.

But Graham was one of those who didn't care even if he lost a child.

Darren nodded his head and said, "alright then. I'll go talk to the Supremes."

Chapter 313 Darren meets the three Supremes

The Neutral Continent.

Lenz Tower, Espat.

At the top most floor of the Lenz Tower, four people were sitting around a round table, all wearing exquisite robes of their own culture.

One was a lady wearing a black pointy hat and a strapless purple gown. The upper half of the gown was tight fitting and it appeared as if her big breasts would pop out of the gown at any moment's notice.

The man next to her wore a black cardigan and had shoulder length dark blue hair. He had a very lean fit and was also tall.

The person next to the dark blue haired man was a lean and handsome blonde-haired man wearing blue and white robes. He had a dignified look on his face, but the most notable feature was his hair tied into a messy rough man bun.

The last person, sitting beside the blonde-haired man, was a man that appeared to be in his later 40s and was in deep blue daoist robes.

They were none other than the four Supreme Ranks of four main races.

The one with a pointy hat was The Witch Queen Mother Florencia Rain, the one with dark blue hair was The Werewolf King Anderson Fenrir, next to him was The Heavenly Emperor Alex Paladin, and the last one in daoist robes was none other than The Human Ancestor Darren Whitter.

Florencia, Anderson, and Alex were currently staring at Darren with a neutral expression on their face and were wondering what the point of this meeting was and why did he call them on such a short notice.

Darren cleared his throat and without any further ado, he said, "you can see the changes happening, right?"

The three nodded. They weren't idiots.

"Then, what do you feel about the Dragons getting a third Supreme Rank?" Darren got straight to the point so as to not waste time of the other Supremes.

Florencia crossed her legs and holding her teacup in hand, she took a sip and said in a calm tone, "do you feel threatened?"

Darren raised his eyebrows in surprise as he heard that while the other two Supremes had a small smile on their faces.

Florencia had a venomous tongue and the three were aware of it. But it still surprised them when she spoke.

Darren knew it was easy for Florencia to provoke someone and he was thus calm despite her speaking like that. He nodded his head and said honestly,

"Yes. One race having three Supreme Ranks threatens the well-being of the other races. It's not just the Human race that will be threatened if they get a new Supreme Rank but each and every other race present in this world."

Florencia took a sip again and said, "you don't have to worry about the well-being of my race."

What Florencia said was a formal way of asking Darren to mind his own business and think of his own race itself.

Darren knitted his brows and said, "Florencia, are you witches capable of handling the brunt of three Supremes attacking you?"

Tap! Tap!

Alex tapped the table and interrupted the two this time. If he let them speak, then they would continue to bicker like little kids.

Florencia, Anderson, and Darren turned to look at Alex as he interrupted them.

"Darren, what makes you think the Dragons would attack?" Alex asked calmly.

Darren sighed and said, "Alex, you do know how hot-blooded they are, right? What if they one day decide to go on a rampage? Who will stop them then?"

Alex shook his head and said, "they may be hot-blooded but they aren't fools who would attack anyone on a whim without any particular reason. You are overthinking things."

"You clearly aren't able to think of the far future it seems. Let me make it this way to you. What would you do if your race had three such beings and the rest of the races only had one? Would you not take advantage of your strength and attack?" Darren explained.

Alex shook his head. "Why would I attack anyone? What do I or my race lack? The Angels are and will always be a peace loving race, we won't attack anyone unless absolutely necessary."

Darren knitted his brows and said clicking his tongue, "tsk. Did you forget what one of your Angel King did with one of my Emperor Ranks? Emilia attacked Eric without any solid proof."

Alex sighed as he heard that. He had asked Darren previously as well to drop the case of doubting Emilia but he still hasn't done that it seems.

Alex took out a token from his spatial ring and presented it to Darren. "Have a look at that and tell me what it is and who it belongs to."

Darren picked up the token and examining it, he frowned. This token had slight traces of spiritual power and Darren could figure out who it belonged to.

"This—"

"Yes. It belongs to Eric. Emilia found this on the tournament grounds. Is this not enough proof or do you need more?" Alex said calmly.

"He may have accidentally dropped it there. This doesn't say anything." Darren frowned and said.

Alex tapped the table in front and said, "then care to explain why he would even go to the tournament grounds? As far as I know, there's a designated team to conduct the tournament and the inspection of it is done by another team which consists of five Half Emperor Ranks. There was nothing there that would require Eric's assistance."

Darren rubbed his temples as he heard that. He didn't doubt the information Alex gave and contemplated things.

Soon, a bit of anger built up in him when he realized that this damn Eric made him suffer humiliation again. He finally understood that Emilia didn't attack Eric out of thin air and had a solid reason to be angry.

Darren put the token in his pocket and said, "I apologize for doubting Emilia."

He then cleared his throat and said, "Coming back to the topic, the angels being an exception, anyone else would definitely attack the other races as it would bring in a lot of benefits. Florencia there would agree on this statement. From how greedy she is, it wouldn't be a wonder that she would attack if given the means to."

Florencia put her cup down and said, "come to the main point of this meeting and stop wasting our time. Don't make situations and twist things."

Darren sighed and said, "fine. I'll say it straight. I am against them having three Supremes. I am going to stop the person from ascending. Just tell me if you're going to join me or not."

Sigh.

Florencia and Alex both sighed hearing that. They knew what was coming but still, hearing it, it made them sigh. They couldn't fathom the stupidity of Darren by any means. He was a Supreme Rank and a being almost a million years old. He should know better on how to handle things and not act like a senior old man.

Looking at the two sigh, Darren gave up any hopes of roping them in. He thus turned to look at Anderson and asked,

"You've been very quiet for a while, Anderson. Why don't you say anything?"

Anderson shook his head and said, "I won't speak anything until I have a clear view of the entire situation. I can't just join you to blindly attack someone. What if Dagassi and Mayzin are currently protecting that person? What will you do then?"

"There's no problem with that since I have a Supreme Rank with me as well. There's Arbour there. You and me can hold Dagassi and Mayzin and Arbour can go do an assassination and stop the ascension."

Anderson shook his head. "No, I won't be coming unless I have a clear view of the entire situation. What you are saying are just your assumptions. From what I can see, you clearly don't know either about what's happening at that place."

Florencia took a sip of tea and said, "I feel generous today and for that reason, I'll give you a bit of information for free. The person currently undergoing an ascension is not only a good friend of the Dragon Empress, but she is also the former teacher of the Vampire Prince."

Alex and Anderson both raised their eyebrows in surprise as they heard that. They didn't know about this info before at all.

"I obviously know about it." Darren knew about it since it was due to Arya that Mayzin invaded his palace.

Alex got up from his chair and looking at the three sitting, he said, "I have decided to not take part in any of this. My advice to you all would be to opt for non-violence as much as you can. I'll take my leave now."

Alex vanished from his spot after saying so. He was obviously not going to take part in whatever Darren was planning as he was a person who preferred peace but now that Florencia gave this information, he now knew it was pointless to stay and talk as that would simply mean wasting time.

There was only one answer to that meeting, it was to not stop the ascension.

Alex was a firm believer of that but now that Florencia said that info, Alex felt that he had spoken enough and it was up to the others to do what they wanted to do. He wouldn't convince or stop them anymore.

Anything even closely related to the Vampire Royal Clan was hot stuff which shouldn't ever be touched. Alex knew about this and thus walked away. If Darren wanted to have a conflict with the former teacher of the Vampire Prince, then he was free to do so, Alex wouldn't convince him anymore to stop.

"I'll take my leave as well." Florencia said and vanished. She also didn't want to take part in this thing Darren was planning.

Darren sighed. "They clearly don't think about the far future. Now then Anderson, what are your plans?"

Anderson shook his head and said, "I am not going to take part in this as well. I don't want to offend the Royal Clan of the Vampire's even indirectly."

Anderson vanished as well after saying so.

BAM!

Darren smashed the table in front of him as he saw everyone leave. "Fools! Do you not know what will happen if that fucking dragon ascends!"

Chapter 314 Arya Ascends

After failing to get the help of the other Supremes, Darren decided to simply take Arbour with him and go stop Arya from her ascension. He was prepared to fight with Mayzin and as for Dagassi, he got to know from his intel that he was in the Dragon Continent, governing things.

Darren thus went without giving a care to anything to where Arya was along with Arbour.

They used artifacts to reach as close as they could to that place and after artifacts stopped working, they flew.

In just a few hours, they could see a mountain where there was a colorful energy storm raging violently.

"We're here." Darren said and increased his pace.

A few minutes later, they reached the base of the mountain and just as Darren was preparing himself for a clash with Mayzin, he suddenly felt a chill down his spine and all his hair stood, making him feel extreme danger.

Such an exaggerated reaction occurred because Darren someone he least expected to be here.

The Vampire Queen!

Even Arbour was in the same condition as Darren. He had personally seen Lilith before and knew how terrified the others were of her.

Lilith looked at Darren and Arbour and sipping her cup of tea, she said in a calm and indifferent tone, "I'll give you five seconds to leave this place and pretend that you never came here."

Darren felt his ego hurt as Lilith said that. She dared to say such a thing to him, a Supreme Rank? Did she forget that they were both equals?

"5." Lilith counted down the time.

Darren felt extremely angry and felt very humiliated as Lilith did that. He wanted to do nothing but rip her apart right now, but...

Darren was fully aware of his capabilities and knew that no matter how angry he got, he wouldn't be able to even touch a single hair of Lilith. She was just that powerful.

"4."

Darren's still had goosebumps and he knew he had to rush right now.

He quickly turned around and ran away.

As for Arbour, he had previously taken a determination to not make an enemy out of Lilith but this damn Darren brought him together and now Arbour unknowingly ended up having a conflict with Lilith.

"3."

Lilith kept counting and didn't stop. She was about to stop now as Darren had already fled but looking at Arbour still standing there and staring at her, she felt slightly surprised.

He had the guts to still stand in front of her despite the warning? Lilith thought to herself.

Arbour knew he had to explain himself quickly or things would be bad.

He quickly bowed and said hurriedly, "Respected Vampire Queen, please know, I have become a subordinate of Darren and was just doing what he ordered me to. I, in no way, had any intentions of having a conflict with you, or people related to you. Please forgive me and have no animosity with me."

Lilith felt surprised once again she heard this. Wasn't the guy in front a Supreme Rank? Where was his self-respect?

But despite all that, she liked this attitude.

This was a smart move to make and he was doing nothing wrong.

Lilith looked at Arbour and said in a neutral tone, "you'll join the Royal servants and work for me now. Go to the Royal Castle in Nightingale and meet Luna, she'll brief you with everything."

Arbour was stupefied hearing it. Did she just ask him to work without even giving a single care of what he thought? Was this how the life of a person who committed one single mistake was?

Arbour had done just one wrong thing in his life. He went on a rampage in this world because he thought he was the strongest and nobody could stop him. He cultivated hard in a secret dimension and when he broke through, he thought he was the strongest and went on a rampage after coming out of this dimension.

But he was utterly wrong in that aspect and with cumulative work on Darren, Alex, and Agalea, he ended up becoming a subordinate to Darren and had to listen to all his commands.

But now, Lilith just treated him as if he was some slave on the street. She didn't even give two shits about his current employer Darren and made the decision for him.

Darren sighed and could only accept his fate. He knew he had no other choice.

He now had to become a slave of the Vampire Queen and would need to work for her. Such was his life going to be. He also couldn't defy her by any means since he knew she was strong. Very very strong infact.

Arbour bowed and said, "understood, respected Vampire Queen."

"You can call me Madam from now on." Lilith said and got back to sipping tea and hanging out with Mayzin.

Lucy was the one doing the job the Vampire Queen and because she wasn't a Supreme Rank yet, her title was still just Substitute Queen. But Lilith considered her the Queen and so every royal servant followed that changed their way of speaking to Lilith.

They now called her Madam and Lucy as Her Majesty.

Arbour nodded and excused himself. He didn't want to stay in this place anymore as doing so would simply make him suffer even further.

He ran away as soon as he could and while on his way to Nightingale, he cursed the nine generations of Darren and swore to take his revenge on him someday. It was because of this asshole that he had now become a slave of the Vampire Queen.

A few days passed after the drama with Darren ended.

Lilith and Mayzin were still at the base of the mountain but now they didn't need to wait much as Arya would ascend at any given moment now.

Lith in this time was following the same monotonous routine and his relationship with both Alexandra and Emilia had improved.

He ended up kissing Alexandra and with Emilia... well... they simply held hands together and Emilia, this one time, she licked Lith's face when she saw juice dripping down from the corner of his mouth.

That was about it that happened.

A few more days passed and finally...

Arya finally opened her eyes after weeks of comprehending the laws and meditating.

Her blue eyes only saw a colorful storm in front of them and Arya walked into the storm without thinking anything else.

Lilith looked at her from below and smiled. Arya's ascension was almost done now.

Arya channeled the entire energy storm into her Magic Core and its area expanded rapidly. After she was done, Arya tried making her connection with the world and doing so caused various changes in the whole world.

Some people experienced out of season rains, some people experienced extreme droughts, while some experienced lush green healthy crops. There were tides, earthquakes, and lots of other natural things constantly happening as Arya went through her ascension.

The world was shocked as such a thing happened. The sky above their head took on a dark color and everyone everywhere could feel the Death, Dark, Destruction, Space, Time, and Water elemental energy rising.

The places close to Arya experienced more rise in these energies and the places far away from her didn't experience much rise.

The vicinity where Arya was, a dense pool of these pure elemental energies was formed and the surrounding few hundred kilometres become zones rich in these energies.

Arya's ascension shocked the world and many who did know why such a thing was happening were slightly happy as it meant there was going to be a new Supreme Rank but many who didn't know about it felt that the heaven's had become furious and was going to punish them at any moment.

A few days passed with these changes continuously happening.

Lith who was in the Shadow River Sect was still following the same routine as before. However now he was a bit happy knowing that Arya was finally going to ascend.

But before he could celebrate her happiness, Alexandra had pulled Lith in her room and locked the door.

She pushed Lith on the bed and crawling above him, she looked at him and said seductively, "darling, I can't wait anymore. Let's do that."

Alexandra was given a lot of affection by Lith and because of how Lith's nature was, he ended up teasing her as well along with Emilia and Alexandra had now reached a point where she couldn't control herself anymore.

She wanted to do nothing but be one with her beloved and that was her only goal currently. The rest of things could wait till then.

Lith smiled looking at Alexandra and shook his head with a helpless smile. He shouldn't have put her so much on edge that she now had to resort to force herself onto him.

'Alright then, no more teasing now. I should get straight into action.' Lith thought to himself took his clothes off.

Alexandra also did the same without feeling too embarrassed and crawled on top of Lith again.

She kissed him on his lips and Lith reciprocated it while also groping her perky and smooth peaches.

The two had a passionate kiss for a while and they were about to get on with the main thing when...

Space fluctuated around them and out of thin air, a beautiful blonde-haired lady wearing an apron and holding a tray appeared out.

"Lith, look at what I made..." Emilia's voice trailed off as she looked at what was happening in front of her.

Her face flushed and she was about to run away from this place when...

Space fluctuated again and out of thin air appeared a bluish silver-haired lady wearing a blindfold and blue daoist robes.

"Yooooohooo! How's my love— Hmm? What's going on..."

Chapter 315 Yandere Alexandra

Looking at Emilia and Arya arrive in their bedroom while they were just about to do it for the first time, Alexandra frowned and became annoyed.

She looked at Lith and pointing towards Arya and Emilia, she asked, "darling, who are they and why are they here?"

She didn't care if both were naked right now. All she wanted was answers.

Before Lith could speak, Arya, who roughly understood the situation, chuckled and said, "I am his lover, and this lady beside me... hmm... I think she's also his lover now."

Hearing that, Emilia froze on the spot. She immediately shook her hands and head and said,

"Wha— No. No, no, no, I am not. My apologizes for disturbing. I'll take my leave now."

Emilia was about to teleport away when Arya blocked the Space elements in the room and held Emilia by her waist.

Arya chuckled and said, "Where are you going, Emmy-chan? Hahaha, I didn't know he ended up scoring you and that girl as well while I was out. My lover's skills are indeed amazing."

Emilia blushed hearing that. "I am not his lover..."

Emilia said in a very low voice. She did love Lith, but they weren't lovers, yet.

Hearing all of that Alexandra finally understood what was going on. She frowned and getting up from bed, she took out her double bladed sword and said pointing it towards them,

"I don't care who you are, darling is mine, and I am not sharing him. Nobody comes between me and my darling."

"Oh?" Arya said with a smile.

Emilia was too embarrassed to think or do anything and she didn't hear what Alexandra said.

Lith on the other hand sighed. 'Having a harem is a bit difficult, isn't it?'

Hanging out with Alexandra for so long, he knew that this was bound to occur. The reason was,

Alexandra was a Yandere!

That's right, Alexandra was a yandere, a very violent one.

She wasn't violent towards Lith but towards others and when it came to Lith, her personality would flip completely. She would become a submissive girl who wanted nothing but cuddles and kisses.

Of course, submissive didn't mean she wouldn't speak what was on her mind. If she was angry with Lith for some reason, she would show it, if she was dissatisfied with something, she would show it.

Just a few days ago, Lith participated in a small event occurring in the sect. Due to that, and also because of the previous fight with Alexandra in the tournament, he became very popular. This caused a lot of disciples to fawn over him and surround him when he got out of the event.

Alexandra was in the audience but when she saw Lith being surrounded by girls, she became very angry and descended towards him. She then threatened each and every disciple to watch themselves or she won't be polite.

Many disciples were shocked to see her react like that and some disciples felt jealous of her because she had someone as handsome and strong as Lith as her boyfriend. They thus didn't keep their ego in check and still tried to force themselves onto Lith.

This resulted in Alexandra getting seriously violent with them and had Lith not intervened, she would've ended up killing a good population of inner and outer disciples of the sect.

Lith controlled Alexandra well and gave her assurance that she didn't need to feel so insecure. He was always there for her and she shouldn't worry too much.

The elders of the sect also managed to come on time and controlled the situation. But still, the damage was done by Alexandra and it was anything but something less. A lot of disciples suffered due to her.

Alexandra was, in the truest sense, a sadist when she was dealing with people other than Lith. She was a very aggressive person and had her appearance not given away her identity as a vampire, everybody would've thought of her as someone from the war dragon tribe.

Currently, Alexandra was naked but she had a serious expression on her face and was in a battle ready state. She didn't care if the people in front of her were stronger than her or not and what she had in mind was that the people in front of her were here to steal Lith from her.

Arya was surprised with Alexandra's attitude and Emilia was struggling to get away from Arya's grasp.

As for Lith, he got up from the bed and walked towards Alexandra.

"Calm down, dear. They are not your enemies." Lith patted her head and said.

He took her sword away from her and hugged her, making her bury her face on his chest.

"B-but darling... they are here to take you away from me...I don't wanna lose you..." Alexandra said in a sad tone.

She had already lost her parents once, she didn't want to lose Lith either.

Lith patted her back and said, "silly, I told you, didn't I? We are never going to be separated. You'll always be with me."

"Ara, Ara, such cute romance. I feel jealous." Arya chuckled and said.

Lith chuckled as well and said, "why are you standing there holding Miss Emilia, come here. It's been so long."

Arya chuckled and went towards Lith while dragging Emilia with her.

"Hey! Hey! Let me go!" Emilia cried out.

"Emmy, you need to learn to be honest with yourself, fufu." Arya said.

She reached towards where Lith was hugging Alexandra.

Lith turned Alexandra a bit to the side and hugged her with one hand, freeing his other half of the body.

He hugged Arya with the other half and Arya too did the same.

Her one half hugged Lith and the other was holding Emilia.

"Go away." Alexandra knitted her brows and said to Arya.

Lith kissed Alexandra's forehead and said, "no need to be so guarded against her, dear. She's not an enemy, but your sister now."

Harmony was very much needed in a harem. It would be for the best if every person treated the other member as a sister and not an enemy or any other thing.

"Oh? I have a sister now? Interesting." Arya chuckled and said.

"Yup. Also, why are you dragging Miss Emilia with you?" Lith asked, looking at Emilia struggling to get out of Arya's grasp.

"Can you not see? She clearly loves you." Arya said with a smile.

"Wha— who, what, no. I don't love him." Emilia said with a flushed face.

"Ah, Emmy, you need to learn to be honest with yourself or people like me and this girl here would end up stealing your lover from you." Arya said with a chuckle again.

Emilia blushed as she heard Arya calling Lith her lover. Sure she loved him, but you know... he was a vampire and she was an angel... things wouldn't work out well.

"I am not stealing darling, he is and will always be mine." Alexandra said in a possessive manner while hugging Lith tightly.

Arya smiled and said, "surely he is. But he's also mine and now, hers as well. We all need to share him."

Emilia became embarrassed again as Arya called her out.

Lith chuckled this time and said, "ladies, no need to fight over such trivial things. Come, let's first celebrate Arya's ascension and we can then talk about everything else."

"Yes, yes, indeed. Let's go to bed and celebrate." Arya nodded and said in a cheerful tone.

Lith smirked and said, "sure."

"C-can I go, please?" Emilia asked in a low voice, clearly not very confident and embarrassed.

"Emmy, from what I can see, in this room today, there will be three flowers that my lover is gonna pluck. One of the flowers is you and I don't think you can leave. C'mon, you've been a virgin for far too long, you need to let loose for a while." Arya said as she dragged Emilia towards the bed.

"Hey, hey, I don't do things without consent." Lith said as he got on the bed along with Alexandra.

"C'mon, can you not see it? She clearly wants it. Did you not see how cheerfully she arrived here to see you? The food was just an excuse." Arya explained.

Emilia this time interrupted the two and said with a flushed face, "b-but, I can't do it. I'll... I'll fall from grace..."

Hearing this, Lith and Arya both turned silent.

Both completely forgot that doing it with Emilia meant she would fall from grace and things would be too harmful for her from then on.

"Emmy, but what about your happiness? You love Lith right? If you don't do it now, I mean, if you don't get into a relationship with him, I am pretty sure you're gonna regret it too much later." Arya said.

She had been with Emilia for a long time and she knew her pretty well. Though she wasn't there when Lith and Emilia's relationship was getting developed, she could, from this small interaction, make out that Emilia was in love with Lith.

She was a Supreme Rank now and the brain and critical thinking skills of a Supreme Rank worked in a much different way than anyone else. Supreme Rank was just a few steps closer to becoming omniscient and omnipotent.

"Is there no solution for this? Will you fall from grace simply for loving a vampire?" Lith asked Emilia.

Emilia sighed and said, "This is my fate. I can't do anything about it."

Hearing that, Arya said, "Hmm, no, that's not it. Lith, call your mother and ask her about this. Surely she has an idea on how to make Emilia not fall."

Chapter 316 Solution

"Yes, baby?" Lilith asked on the phone.

Lith had called her when Arya asked him. His mother was very knowledgeable and knew a lot of things. She was sure to know a solution to this.

Lith explained to Lilith on call about what the things were and Lilith listened carefully. After Lith was done speaking, she said:

"Fufufu... just this? It's not a problem. Give the phone to Emilia, I'll give her the solution to this." Lilith said.

Lith wondered why she didn't want to say the solution to him but he didn't question her about this. He gave the phone to Emilia and watched her reaction.

"Greetings, Your Majesty, the Vampire Queen." Emilia greeted Lilith with respect.

The strong respected the strong and she was no exception to this.

"Fufufu, no need to call me with such respect. Call me mother-in-law or big sister like Arya." Lilith said from the other side.

Emilia blushed hearing that. "Uhm... I'll see."

Lilith then got to the point and said, "Well, I can assume you are worried about falling from grace and becoming a fallen angel right?"

"That's right." Emilia nodded and said.

"Well, you don't have to worry about falling from grace as that completely depends on Alex. It's him that decides who will and who will not fall from grace. I'll talk to him and you'll retain your position in the heavenly court." Lilith explained.

"Oh. Alright." Emilia smiled and said.

"As for the other problem, well... You can only avoid that by marrying my son. There's only one other alternative to it and that is to... well... not lose your virginity." Lilith said.

Emilie sighed and became sad hearing that. So in the end the two could never be lovers without her becoming a fallen angel.

"But..."

Emilia's ears perked up as she heard this. There was a but? An exception?

"But?" Emilia asked.

"But, yes. You can still have sex with him. All you need to do is ensure you only go for anal. Don't take it in the front or you will end up having a pair of black wings and become a fallen." Lilith said with a light chuckle.

"Oh..." Emilia's face flushed hearing that. She had no words to say anymore.

"You can take it in the front if you marry my son though. The marriage needs to be the one of the angel culture and you need to take the heaven, the earth, and the King of Angels as witnesses."

"I understand. Thank you for your time, Your Majesty." Emilia said in a low voice with a blush still being present on her face.

She hung up after finishing talking to her and gave Lith's phone back to him.

Lith, Alexandra, and Arya were watching Emilia while she was speaking. Lith and Alexandra didn't know what she spoke about but Arya did.

Lith and Alexandra just saw Emilia blush and they wondered what Lilith was saying from the other side.

As for Arya, she had a smirk on her face. She heard the solution fully and knew about it.

Lith asked Emilia, "so, what's the solution?"

Emilia's face flushed and she said in a mosquito-like voice, "m-marry me..."

"Oh." Lith said.

"Hahahahaha!" Arya laughed as she heard that.

Out of all things Emilia could say, she ended up saying this? It was too funny.

Lith was confused when he saw Arya laugh and Alexandra was raging after hearing Emilia's response.

"Stay away from darling." Alexandra said with a murderous glint in her eyes.

Lith was a bit confused with the reactions and also was wondering about a few things related to Emilia. Was marrying her the only option? Well, he didn't hate that but there was still a bit of time for him to be of the marriage age.

Also, he knew that he couldn't just marry her alone as that would be unfair to the other ladies.

Arya, when her laughter subdued, she hugged Emilia by her neck and pulling her close, she said, "now, tell him the solution or I'll do it myself. Trust me, when I say it, it'll be much more embarrassing. Also, I think it's time for you to confess your love. You can love him and be with him without worries, can't you?"

Emilia blushed hearing that. It was true, she could openly love Lith now. She wouldn't become a fallen or fall from grace for being in a relationship with him. But... confessing... that felt really very embarrassing.

"Arya, you shouldn't force Miss Emilia like that. Let her go along with her pace." Lith said calmly.

Arya shook her head and said, "I can't do that. If we let things be, Emilia will never do anything and your relationship will get nowhere."

Lith was amused hearing it. He wondered why his lover was acting like a wingman for him.

Emilia coughed to grab Lith's attention. She tried to cover up the blush on her face and said, "Arya is right. So anyway, Lith..."

Emilia looked Lith in the eyes. When she did, she blushed again and felt too shy to speak up. How can she say she loves him right in front of him and also there were two other people present here. This was too embarrassing!

Lith smiled and said, "Miss Emilia, you can take your time if you—"

"No." Emilia shook her head. She was an Angel King, not a little girl. She wouldn't shy away too much and confess what was in her heart right at this moment and not wait. It had been far too long that she had suppressed her feelings. She wanted to be honest with herself like what Arya had said and do things she liked.

Emilia continued, "also, just call me Emilia, not Miss Emilia. Or Emmy would do too, like how this stinky lizard here says."

Lith and Arya chuckled hearing that and Alexandra had her face buried on Lith's chest and ignored the two other ladies.

She had no one else other than Lith on her mind and now that there were two more people that she had to share him with, she was trying to be with him as much as she could.

Emilia took a deep breath and steeled her resolved. She would be honest from now on and say what was on her mind and not shy away. 'You can do it, Emilia. Go on.'

Emilia looked at Lith and said, "Lith, I love you."

Her face flushed after saying so. Now that she said it, she realized that it was super cringe and embarrassing. Reality was far different than what was in her head when she thought of this.

Lith smiled and said, "I am honoured. Thank you."

Emilia flashed a small smile hearing that.

Arya cleared her throat as she heard this and said, "now that your formalities are over, I can assume you both are in a relationship now, right?"

Lith nodded and said, "well, from my side, I can say so. But, it's totally up to Mis— I mean, Emilia on what she thinks."

"Ehm, it's a yes from my side too." Emilia said in a low voice.

Arya smiled widely hearing that. She clapped her hand once and said,

"Great. Now let's have sex then."

"Eh!?" Emilia was dumbfounded hearing that.

Arya dragged Emilia towards Lith and lay beside him while holding Emilia on the side.

"My dear lover, it's time now. When are you gonna start?" Arya asked.

Lith smiled and said, "still waiting for Emilia's consent."

Emilia's face flushed again.

"Ah, yes. Right, speaking of that, Emmy, you didn't say the solution yet. Do you want me to say it instead?" Arya asked with a smirk.

"n-no..." Emilia said in a low voice.

"Then hurry up and say it." Arya urged Emilia.

Lith was interested in knowing the solution too and his ears perked up.

Emilia closed her eyes and bit her lips to hide away the embarrassment she was feeling and become a bit bold to say it. While thinking of this, she also wished that she could be sometimes like Arya and be shameless and bold enough to say things.

A few seconds passed and Emilia took a deep breath and said while having her eyes closed,

"I won't become a fallen if you... if you... if you do me... i-in the other place."

Emilia's face became tomato red after she finished. If she was in an anime right now, then there would be steam coming out of her head. It was simply too embarrassing.

Lith and Arya both chuckled hearing that. The solution was that simple!

"Alright, now she gave you the consent as well. Come let's do it." Arya said and ripped her own as well as Emilia's clothes off.

Chapter 317 Alexandra has sisters

"Kyaaaah!" Emilia shrieked and put her hand on her private parts to cover them up.

"Wh-What are you doing!?" Emilia said with a flushed face and in a slightly angry tone.

Arya ignored her and looking at Lith, she asked, "who are you going to do it with first?"

Lith didn't need to think of the answer. He already knew about it.

He looked down at the black-haired lady hugging him and caressing her hair, he said, "Alexandra, can we do it now?"

Alexandra was a bit angry with Lith since he wasn't solely hers now. But she knew that her darling was a great person and he was bound to have beauties around him. Still, she didn't like sharing him.

But now that he spoke in such a soft tone to her, her heart melted and looking him in the eyes, she nodded her head and gave her approval.

Lith smiled and kissed Alexandra.

Arya and Emilia both looked at them and felt as if both were watching a romance movie.

But Emilia soon became conscious of the current situation and realized that all four people were naked here, including herself. She became embarrassed once again.

Lith put Alexandra down on the bed while kissing her and lay on top of her. He soon broke the kiss and looking at her, he said, "It'll hurt a bit, but if it's too much, do let me know, okay?"

"Mhm." Alexandra nodded her head and said.

Lith's shamelessness had no bound. There were two beauties beside him, both naked as well, but he felt no shame or embarrassment at all and spoke normally in a gentle tone to Alexandra present below him.

Lith then turned his head to look at the flustered Emilia and the bold Arya. He smirked and extended his hand out.

"Come, witness Alexandra's first time. You all are sisters now and you should be there for each other through thick and thin."

Arya chuckled and said, "indeed."

Emilia was too shy to say anything and she didn't agree or disagree.

Arya knew Emilia would not say anything so she grabbed her hand and gave it to Lith.

Lith pulled Emilia after grabbing her hand.

"Kyaah!" Emilia let out a surprised shout again.

Lith hugged Emilia by her waist and Emilia had her boobs pressed onto Lith's side.

Lith didn't wait for Emilia to speak or say anything and sealed her lips by his own. He kissed her for the first time and tasted her sweet and divine flavor.

Emilia struggled for a bit but soon gave in as she felt too powerless and weak. She hugged Lith back and soon went into a zone where she felt only Lith and her were present. She then kissed Lith back.

Lith felt happy knowing Emilia wasn't shying away too much.

Lith then extended his other hand out and Arya grabbed it and came to his other side. She hugged Lith as well but since he was busy with Emilia, she put her head on his shoulder and looked at Alexandra lying down.

Lith soon broke the kiss and said to Emilia with a smile, "now, I need to give Alexandra a bit of attention. Watch carefully."

Emilia blushed but nodded her head. She was a mature lady and understood a fact that she would have to share Lith at all times and couldn't have him for herself fully. She didn't hate this at all though and didn't mind it.

Strong beings usually had a harem around them and everyone in this world was aware of this. It was kind of a normal thing for people to come to term with this and their mentality was thus much more different than the ones from Earth, the place where Lith was in his previous life.

Lith looked at Alexandra and asked her to part her legs a bit so that he can have an easy access to her pussy.

Alexandra did as she was asked and spreading her legs, she gave way to Lith's little brother to enter. She didn't feel shy in doing so at all even though there were two other people present in the room beside Lith and her.

Lith then went a bit forwards and tried to shove his shaft into her. But he failed to do so as both his hands were busy holding Emilia and Arya.

Arya and Emilia noticed this and Arya decided to help Lith.

She grabbed Lith's shaft and put it in front of Alexandra's dripping vaginal hole.

Emilia blushed again looking at this scene. How can Arya do something so embarrassing so easily? She wondered.

Lith smiled noticing how understanding Arya was. He gave her a kiss on her lips and said, "thanks, babe."

Arya smiled and said, "No problem. Now hurry up, I've been waiting for far too long and need it in me as well."

"Yes, yes." Lith nodded.

He then pushed his shaft in Alexandra and since her insides were wet, he felt no friction and it went in easily.

Lith soon felt her warm insides as the tip of his cock went in Alexandra's pussy. He soon felt a resistance and knew it was her hymen.

Lith looked at Alexandra and said, "it'll hurt now."

Alexandra nodded her head and extended her hands out. "Hold my hands while you put it deep in me."

Lith nodded. He could fulfill her this wish at least. He let go of Emilia and Arya's waist and held both of her hands.

Emilia and Arya were hugging Lith from the side and they continued to do so even without him holding them back. They looked at Lith's dick going inside Alexandra's pussy curiously and waited to see how it looked.

Lith, after holding Alexandra's hands, pushed his shaft slowly inside her.

Alexandra's hymen soon broke and just as she lost her virginity, a blood bond formed between her and Lith. A connection was formed between the two right away and she could feel Lith's emotions and hear some of his thoughts.

'Alexandra, I love you.' This was the first thought of Lith she heard and felt warm in her heart.

'I love you too, Lith, my darling.' Lith heard Alexandra's thought.

They both smiled looking at each other and Alexandra, though she felt a lot of pain while losing her virginity, she ignored it totally.

The stronger one was, the stronger would be the pain they would feel when losing their virginity. The hymen of strong beings was too tough to break but with enough force, it could be broken easily.

It was stinging really badly for Alexandra but she controlled herself and had a small smile on her face while blood dripped down her pussy that was spread by Lith's cock.

Arya and Emilia both felt amazed as they looked at Lith shoving his cock fully inside Alexandra. They still wondered how such a big thing could fit inside such a small place and unconsciously, both touched their own selves and put two of their fingers in to see if their hole was small or big.

"Are you okay?" Lith asked Alexandra.

"Yes. You can move anytime you want, darling." Alexandra said with a small smile on her face.

Lith nodded. He was about to start moving when,

"One second."

Arya stopped him.

Lith looked at her and wondered why she did so and Alexandra and Emilia were no exception to this either.

Arya smiled and put her finger near Alexandra's pussy. She cast a cleaning spell and cleaned all the blood present on the outside as well as inside and on Lith's cock.

Arya didn't want to see the scene become a bloody mess and so she did that.

Lith, Alexandra, and Emilia understood Arya's intention and commended her for this.

Alexandra did hate Arya and Emilia but now that she saw Arya being nice and considerate, she felt a bit warm in her heart and didn't hate her as much. F

Lith thanked Arya by giving her a kiss and saying it to her. He then got back to thrusting it inside Alexandra.

Alexandra's insides loosened up a bit and Lith was able to thrust his shaft without feeling any friction. He moved his hips back and forth and spread Alexandra's pussy while hitting her deep inside.

"Ahh~" Alexandra let out her first moan as Lith hit her sweet spot.

Arya and Emilia both felt amazed and Emilia was still in disbelief knowing how such a thing could fit inside such a narrow place fully.

Lith moved his hips continuously and Alexandra moaned with every thrust of Lith. Lith was also holding her hand and this made her feel even better.

Arya and Emilia both were absorbed into watching Lith fuck Alexandra and totally ignored everything else.

After a few minutes of getting fucked by Lith, Alexandra felt weak and her legs gave in.

Noticing this, Arya supported one of her legs by holding it via her thigh and she asked Emilia to do the same thing.

Emilia did become flustered but she did it in the end.

Lith continued thrusting his shaft deep inside Alexandra's dripping wet pussy and since Alexandra's hand gave in as well, he put his hands on the side and held Arya and Emilia's big buttocks.

Arya smiled noticing this and with her free hand, she turned Lith's face towards her and kissed him.

As for Emilia, it was her usual and nothing else happened.

Lith soon put his tongue inside Arya's mouth and both started a tongue battle together.

He was now having a passionate kiss with Arya while kneading hers as well as Emilia's ass cheeks while also fucking Alexandra's pussy.

'What an amazing feeling.' Lith thought to himself.

Soon, Lith broke the kiss with Arya and turned his head to do it with Emilia.

Emilia knew what Lith wanted to do and simply closed her eyes to let him do as he pleased.

Lith kissed her as well and soon started a passionate kiss with her.

A few minutes later, Lith shifted his hands from Arya and Emilia's butt to their dripping pussies.

He rubbed his middle and ring finger on their pink slits and made them wet.

Emilia's body shook as she felt something foreign for the first time touch her intimate areas.

Arya felt good feeling Lith's fingers and she unknowingly started grinding her pussy on Lith's fingers.

Lith soon put his two fingers inside their pussies and fingered them slightly to loosen it up. It was better to loosen up a bit at the start or it would pain too much later.

A few more minutes passed and Lith felt Alexandra's inside tighten more. He knew that she was close to cumming now.

Lith broke the kiss with Emilia and fingering her and Arya.

He held Alexandra's waist and focused fully on ensuring she had a good orgasm. It was her first and it was his duty to ensure it was a good one.

Alexandra let out loud moans as Lith increased pace and also force with which he rammed his dick in her pussy. The sound of flesh slapping and squelching sound resonated throughout the room.

Arya and Emilia both could see the blissful face of Alexandra and could make out that she was indeed feeling very good. They were soon thinking of when it would be their turn to feel the same.

"Ahhh~ Ahhh~ Ahhh~" Alexandra let out her tongue and moaned continuously as saliva dripped down from the corner of her mouth.

Lith bent down while thrusting his shaft in her and sucked one of her boobs. He sucked it hard and swirled his tongue around her nipple. With the other hand, he kneaded her other boob and also pinched and pulled her nipple, causing Alexandra to moan even more loudly.

Alexandra felt too good with so many of her pleasure points being stimulated. She couldn't stop herself from moaning loudly at all due to this.

Lith soon switched places with the other boob and sucked on it.

A few minutes later, Alexandra's insides tightened even further and Lith's cock bulged more as well. Both were close to cumming now.

He stopped sucking her boobs and pulled himself back. He then positioned her legs into an M shape and put his hands on her knees and continued to fuck her.

Lith suddenly got an idea and he held Arya and Emilia's hands.

They both wondered why he did that when Lith took their hands close to Alexandra's boobs.

"Ladies, please help your sister feel more good." Lith said to the two as he put their hands on Alexandra's boobs and got back to putting his own on her knees.

It felt a bit weird for Emilia to touch some other woman's boobs like that but now that she was in a relationship with Lith and Alexandra was like her little sister now, she decided to do what he asked her to.

As for Arya, she felt no hesitation and got to doing what Lith asked.

Then both kneaded Alexandra's boobs and then pinched, twisted, and pulled her nipples to make her feel pleased. Since both were ladies, they knew what to do make a woman feel pleased via her nipples.

Alexandra moaned once again loudly and she was almost close to climaxing.

Lith increased his pace again and with one hand, he rubbed Alexandra's erect clit.

"Ahhhhhh~" Alexandra moaned loudly as Lith touched her clit. It was too sensitive and she couldn't help but moan so loud.

A few minutes later...

"Ahhhh~ Ahhhh~ Dar... Darling... I am cumming... I am cumming..." Alexandra said in between her moans.

Spurrrt!

"Ohhhhhh~"

"Hngh."

Alexandra's cum gushed out like a tide as she climaxed and Lith too climaxed at the same time. His load shot deep into Alexandra and she had another small orgasm due to it.

Alexandra's body jerked intensely and her toes curled up.

Arya and Emilia had to ensure that she was okay and so they held her down to stop her from shaking too much.

They both had seen her cum and they both could see the pure ecstatic expression on her face. They could tell that it felt too amazing and they once again wondered when it would be their turn.

Lith, after shooting everything in Alexandra, lay beside her and put her on top of him. His shaft was still inside and he caressed her back and let her enjoy her post orgasm bliss.

Arya and Emilia didn't disturb him and both lay beside him.

A few minutes later, Lith kissed Alexandra's forehead and said, "it's your sister's turn now, okay?"

Alexandra reluctantly nodded her head. She tried to be as understanding and reasonable as she could.

Lith gave her a kiss on her lips and put her gently to the side.

He then pulled his shaft out and cum started dripping down Alexandra's pussy.

Lith then went over to Arya's side and parting her legs, he asked, "are you ready, babe?"

Arya smirked and said, "I've been waiting for far too long. Put it in quickly, will you?"

Chapter 318 Arya's First Time

Lith parted Arya's legs and had a look at her pussy for the very first time. He wouldn't lie, her labias seemed of the right consistency, neither too thick nor too thin. Her pussy really seemed perfect and after appreciating it a bit, Lith put his fingers on it and rubbed lightly along her slit.

Arya shivered a bit as she felt Lith's finger on her. Her pussy drooled in happiness as her lover was now touching her.

Lith took his fingers back and put them in his mouth while looking Arya in the eyes.

Arya looked back at him and smiled while watching him suck her own juices.

Arya's cum tasted sweet with a bit of saltiness in it. It was a good taste and an amazing experience and Lith wanted to eat her out right then and there.

However, he couldn't do so as he needed to pluck Arya's flower first. She had been waiting for far too long and making her wait more didn't seem like a good idea to him.

Lith positioned himself between her legs and rubbed his shaft along her slits to lube it well. After he was done, he put the tip in first and waited to see how Arya was going to react to this.

Arya had a smile on her face and was looking at Lith. She had no other reaction.

Lith held her thighs and thrust his cock deep in her. He felt resistance but he broke through it and made his shaft fully enter her in one single thrust.

Arya ended up letting out a low moan when her hymen broke. Blood trickled down her pussy and this time it was Lith who cleaned it for her.

Lith waited for a few seconds inside her to let her insides adjust to his size and for Arya to recover. Hymen breaking was painful to many and she wasn't any exception despite becoming a Supreme Rank.

Alexandra had turned to the side to look at what her darling was doing and looking at Arya just losing her virginity, she had mixed feelings. On one hand she didn't want any other woman to be with Lith but on the other hand, Arya didn't seem like someone bad to be around with. There was also her becoming a sister of hers now and so Alexandra had no idea how to feel.

As for Emilia, she was sitting on the bed with her back supported by the bed rest. She was watching Lith and Arya do it and now that she had a good look at Arya's flower being plucked, she became a bit nervous as it would be her turn next. But then, she soon rejoiced as she now had something to make fun of Arya. She would just tell Arya how she moaned like a person in heat and tease her.

"You can move now." Arya said, looking Lith in the eyes. She knew he was waiting for her insides to adjust so that it doesn't pain her much, but well... She was a Supreme Rank and apart from her hymen breaking, the rest of the pain was too less in intensity.

Lith nodded and started moving. As he did so, he felt Arya's insides wrap and massage around his little brother and the tightness felt too perfect and good for his size.

Lith also noticed that his entire length was able to go deep inside her and it just barely touched her womb and only a little bit of the tip penetrated through her cervix. This amused him and Lith realized that he wasn't having sex with a vampire now, but a dragon.

She was not a vampire, but a dragon, and therefore the anatomy of dragons was a bit different as well. In any case, the changes weren't anything too major and were just a few minor ones.

Lith's shaft kissed the entrance of her womb and his tip penetrated just a bit into the cervix. If it were Alexandra here right now, she would be moaning her lungs out if Lith ended up penetrating this deep in her womb.

But still, having suppressed her cultivation to match Lith's level, when Arya felt Lith's shaft touch her, she let out a satisfied and pleased moan.

Alexandra and Emilia both saw this expression from the side and Alexandra just bit her lips and controlled herself from wanting to kill Arya and have Lith fully to herself. As For Emilia, she had a blush like usual and wondered whether it really felt this good or was it just her imagination.

Lith rammed his cock in Arya's pussy constantly and spread it wide to shape it according to his size. He also followed the same approach he did in Alexandra and bent down to play with her tits.

Arya had never felt such pleasure before and it was her first time. She had a small orgasm immediately as Lith broke hymen and penetrated her deep. This caused her to tighten up and made her little sister drool.

Lith didn't know about it as Arya was good at hiding it. She didn't want to say it out loud as it would be a bit embarrassing to say that she orgasmed just from a single thrust. She loved Lith a lot and that caused her to feel this way as well, but still, what was embarrassing was embarrassing and it couldn't be changed. There were two other ladies beside her and letting them know this would be bringing trouble to herself.

After having a good taste of her boobs, Lith gave Arya a peck on her lips and pulled back. He continued to do her in the missionary style and turning his head to the side, he saw his two other lovers lying idle.

He knew he had to look after them as well and couldn't leave them idle like this. They were his lovers and it was his responsibility to make sure they all had a good time now. Having a harem was a lot of work but just knowing the fact that they loved him so much that they were even ready to share him with others, it was worth it to have one.

Also the fact that he could do one beauty while still having the luxury to see the nude bodies of other beauties right at the same time was something Lith thought he would never get bored of and was the best perk of having a harem.

Lith gestured for Alexandra and Emilia to come close to him and as they did, he made them hug him from the side like before and put his hands on their ass and started groping them again.

Alexandra was not used to this and felt a bit shy and awkward, but Emilia on the other hand, by this time, had already experienced more than this and didn't feel too embarrassed. She and Alexandra almost had the same reaction when Lith played with their butt while doing Arya in missionary.

Lith fingered Alexandra and Emilia and pounded Arya's pussy for a good while and when he felt Arya's warm inside spasm, he knew she close to climaxing and he made Alexandra and Emilia to stimulate her nipples and he bent down to kiss her and played with her clit with one hand while still continuing to pound her.

There was a lot going on and Arya wasn't able to bear much of this for long since she had her cultivation suppressed. She moaned loudly and soon ended up cumming and having a large orgasm. A lot of her love juices squirted out and it made his shaft get coated with it.

Lith on the other hand had his second orgasm for the day and he ended up shooting it inside Arya as well. Even though it was the second time for today, there was still so much load that it ended up pouring out of Arya's wet pussy.

Lith gave Arya a kiss on her lips and let her enjoy the post orgasm bliss that she was feeling. He couldn't hug her and cuddle her right now as he had Emilia left. She was dripping too much and it was even visible without even touching her and feeling the wetness.

Lith decided that he would cuddle together with Arya after he was done with Emilia and so he simply gave her a kiss and made Emilia take her position.

Like the other two, Emilia thought that they were doing missionary as well and lied down on her back.

Looking at her, Lith shook his head and said, "Emilia, we aren't doing it missionary. We'll be doing it doggy style instead."

Chapter 319 Emilia's First Time*

"Wh-What..." Emilia was confused as she didn't know what that meant.

Lith smiled and instead of explaining, he turned her and raised her butt up by holding her waist.

Emilia became flustered and her head fell down on the bed. She supported herself with her hands and looking back, she saw the position she was in and now somewhat had an idea about what position Lith was talking about.

Still, it was a very embarrassing position and she wondered why it was only her getting such special treatment.

Lith now had a good look at Emilia's cute pink puckered buttohole and her beautiful labias covering her slits. One look at them didn't feel enough so he continued to stare at it for a few seconds.

Emilia was embarrassed as is but now that he stared at her intimate areas, all her courage and confidence left her body and she now wanted to do nothing but hide in a hole.

Lith stopped staring after he felt satisfied looking at it. He positioned himself behind her and holding her hips, he asked, "Can I start now?"

Emilia's face flushed again. Start? What even was this question!? What did he position herself like this for if it weren't to start!?

She had many things to say but she was too shy to do anything and simply looked at him and nodded her head.

Looking at her cute expression, Lith smiled. He too nodded and brought out a bottle of lube from his ring.

He poured a bit of lube on her asshole and rubbed his fingers over it.

"Hiii!" Emilia let out a surprised shriek as she felt something cold touch her butthole for the first time.

But soon, she realized how she shrieked and felt ashamed of herself. She took the pillow in front of her and buried her head in it to not look at Lith, Alexandra, or Arya.

Arya chuckled watching Emilia's reaction and Alexandra wondered whether she would let out the same reaction as well or not if Lith did the same thing to her.

Lith rubbed his fingers on her butthole and ensured that the lube was spread everywhere well. If it wasn't then Emilia and him both would have a bad experience and Lith didn't want to ruin Emilia's first time having sex.

Though it would have been for the best if it wasn't anal that she was going through for the first time, but it is what it is and now Lith was determined to give her a good time.

Lith put one of his fingers inside Emilia and her body jerked because of the sudden surprise she felt. She had her head buried in a pillow and so only a muffled surprised voice was heard to the three present.

Lith didn't have to worry about anal being dirty. Immortals didn't need to eat and when they channeled the elemental energies through them, it would cleanse them fully.

Lith could thus do anal anytime and anywhere he wanted with his ladies as everyone was above Rank 6.

Before Rank 6, people needed to have food, and after Rank 6, they didn't need to. The ones above Rank 6 were thus not dirty back there and could do it whenever they wanted.

Lith put lube on his shaft and rubbed it over Emilia's butthole to perfectly lube it everywhere. In just a few seconds, it was covered completely.

It was now time for anal!

Before starting, Lith first bent down and kissed Emilia on the neck. He then said softly in her ears, "I am starting, okay?"

Emilia didn't take her face out of the pillow and simply nodded. Lith could see how embarrassed she was just from the color of her ears which were cherry red now.

Lith got back up and positioned himself behind her once again. He finally positioned his shaft and touched her lubed butthole with his tip.

Lith pushed it in slowly inside and it was met with a lot of resistance. Lith could tell that Emilia wasn't relaxed and was tense. He had to ensure she wasn't in such a state or it would be too tight to even enter her.

Lith hugged her waist and fell down to the side, causing her to leave the pillow and let out a surprise shout again.

Emilia was looking at darkness as she had her eyes closed but when Lith suddenly turned her to the side and she opened her eyes, she saw Alexandra and Arya both staring at her.

Lith was hugging Emilia by her waist and he simply whispered in her ears, "close your eyes and relax."

Emilia shut her eyes quickly as she couldn't look Alexandra or Arya in the eyes. It was too shameful. Everything was too shameful.

Lith caressed her hair and kissed her neck to calm her down and make her feel relaxed. He then started nibbling on her ears and while he was at it, he looked at Alexandra and gave her a wink, making her blush slightly.

Lith's shaft was slowly sliding in Emilia and it wouldn't take too long for him to fully enter inside. He didn't rush it and was taking it easy.

In just a few minutes, Emilia relaxed and Lith's shaft went in fully. He was now balls deep in Emilia's asshole and successfully took her anal virginity.

Emilia felt full on the inside and it was something she had never felt before. She didn't hate this, but it was indeed very foreign to her. But then again, the warm and hard thing inside her made her feel good so she didn't complain about anything or say anything per se.

Lith soon slowly started pulling his shaft out and Emilia shivered as she felt that. He took half of it out and soon shoved it back in.

"Mhm~" Emilia couldn't help but let out a moan as Lith's thing hit her deep inside.

Lith felt great tightness around him and this was bound to happen since he didn't loosen her up beforehand and directly shoved it in. But, it wasn't a bad feeling and it felt really good.

Lith slowly pounded Emilia's ass and he ensured that he was gentle with her and not too rough. He planted kisses on her and held her tight in his embrace while doing her.

Arya and Alexandra were looking at the two while resting. Since they had long lifespans, the concept of time was different for them and waiting for their turn felt nothing to the two. Alexandra was, however, jealous of Emilia getting kisses and attention from Lith and Arya on the other hand was ensuring that she inscribed this scene well in her memory so that she could tease Emilia later.

Lith increased his pace and while doing so, he moved his hands and grabbed Emilia's big boobs. He kneaded them to his wishes and played with her nipples as his hips slapped onto Emilia's plump butt and the sound of flesh slapping resonated throughout the room.

"Ahh~ Ah– Omf... Mffhm..." Emilia put her hand on her mouth and tried to suppress her moans. Her eyes were closed but she knew Alexandra and Arya were still here.

Lith grabbed her hand and lowering it, he whispered gently in her ears, "let them out, it's natural. Your moans are soothing melodies for me, don't suppress them."

Emilia felt ashamed of herself but because Lith liked her moans, she didn't try to suppress them anymore and relaxed.

Lith then felt that everything was good enough now and so he changed position again. The two got back to doing doggy style and now that he was in a comfortable position, Lith thrust his rod deep in Emilia with each thrust and caused her to let out continuous moans.

While doing Emilia from behind, Lith thought of ways to make Emilia feel more pleased and since he was behind her, he couldn't do many things to her as her upper body was away from his own.

Every position has its pros and cons. But, Lith didn't worry. He turned his head to look at Arya's pussy and saw it to still be dripping. He shifted his gaze to Arya and said,

"Arya, let Emilia clean you. Get to the front."

Arya smiled and did as Lith asked without hesitation. It was nice having Lith take commands like this and she liked such an attitude from him.

Lith then turned to look at Alexandra and said, "come here, Alexandra."

Alexandra happily got up and made her way towards Lith. As she did, Lith's cum dripped down her pussy and noticing this, Arya, who had changed position and was now lying and having her honeypot in front of Emilia's mouth, pulled Alexandra close to her and said with a smile, "clean yourself up a bit before going there."

She did this for two reasons. One was to not waste Lith's seeds like that and the other was to tell the innocent Emilia what Lith meant by cleaning up.

Alexandra had no idea what Arya meant but since it was something good for her and Lith also didn't stop her, she moved towards Arya.

Arya made Alexandra get on top of her and positioned her pussy right in front of her mouth. She extended her tongue out and put it inside Alexandra's pussy, causing the latter to shiver.

"Wh-what!?" Alexandra was shocked.

Arya gulped Lith's semen down her throat and said looking at Alexandra with a smile, "are you just going to let our lover, I mean, our darling's cum go to waste? No, right? It's better this way."

Arya was a bold lady, she felt no hesitation or shame when she said that.

Alexandra stared at Arya for a good few seconds and didn't say anything. Her mind was still processing what she just said. She was, in the end, a girl who just got her virginity taken and was very inexperienced.

As for Emilia, when she realized what cleaning up meant, she blushed heavily and became speechless. Only now did she understand why Arya was in such a position in front of her.

The room fell silent and the only noise that was audible was the sound of flesh clapping together.

Lith hadn't stopped his pounding despite the room being so silent like that. He had a smile on his face and was internally laughing knowing what a scene he just created. It felt fun to tease these virgin ladies like that and he had to give credits to Arya for this perfect execution.

A few seconds later, Alexandra nodded her head and said, "okay, makes sense."

Everything related to Lith was precious for her and her opinion aligned with what Arya just said. His seeds shouldn't be wasted was the conclusion she arrived at.

As for Emilia, she hesitated a bit like Alexandra as well but then arrived at a similar conclusion and felt it was okay to lick Arya's pussy and have Lith's semen. She wouldn't have done such a thing had it not been for Arya that was in front of her.

Arya and her both had the same lover and also only loved Lith. They were now his harem members and since that was the case, it now made them sisters. Taking this into account, Emilia made up her mind to lick Arya's intimate areas.

Arya licked Alexandra's pussy clean and then licked her thighs that had cum on them. After she was done, she sent him to Lith.

Lith didn't want to leave the ladies waiting and since they all were in one harem, he was alright with them playing with each other.

Lith's motive was to finger Arya and Alexandra and didn't leave them waiting like that. But, there was his cum in their pussies and it would be all over his fingers if he put it in. His first thought was to use a cleaning spell and clean the two and finger them but then he suddenly got the idea of making these ladies bond well together and he made Arya get cleaned by Emilia.

He wanted to start slow so he only thought of improving Arya's and Emilia's bond first. They both were close and it wouldn't take much time to make them realize that they were sisters now. However, it was out of his expectations that Arya would rope in Alexandra in this as well.

In any case, he got what he wanted and Alexandra was now just beside him. He started a passionate kiss with her while continuing to ram his rod into Emilia's tight asshole and also inserted his two fingers into her pussy from the front.

At Lith's front, Emilia had mustered up all her courage and was now licking Arya's pussy clean. She didn't want to do it at first and had to force herself. But when she had the taste of Lith's cum for the first time, she couldn't stop herself from continuously licking it off of Arya. It had a rosy and sweet taste and to her it felt as if she was having a taste of the divine nectar of the legends.

Arya was amazed looking at how easily Emilia was doing it. She thought she would need to push her again to do it but turns out it wasn't needed.

After Emilia finished licking off Arya, Arya got up from her place and went to Lith's side.

Lith fingered her as well from the front and kissed her passionately.

A few more minutes passed and finally Emilia couldn't hold in any longer and was about to cum.

Lith stopped fingering Alexandra and Arya and focused completely on Emilia. He held her hips and rammed his shaft as fast and hard he could inside her asshole.

"Ahhh~ Ahhh~ Tha-at's the spot... harder..."

Emilia didn't know what she was saying in between her moans as he mind was on cloude nine right now.

"Yes! Yes... Ahhh~ Ahhh~"

Clap! Clap!

Clap! Clap!

"Ahhh... Ahhh... I am cumming... I am..."

Spurrrt!

"Ohhhhh~"

Emilia's mind turned blank as she had her first orgasm. She fell down on the bed with her tongue out of her mouth while her love juices gushed out of her pussy like a waterfall.

Lith had her supported by holding her hips and because of that, a lot of her juices were squirted onto him.

He had become a pro at timing his ejaculation and this time was not exception either. But despite having shot it off already, he was still going strong as he wasn't a weak Rank 1 anymore but he was now a Rank 3. He could go on for many rounds even now.

After Lith's load was fully inside Emilia and he stopped ejaculating, he gently placed her down and turned her to lay on her back. After doing so, he took his shaft out and a gush of his semen dripped out of Emilia's asshole.

Arya and Alexandra noticed this and were about to go gulp it down when Lith stopped them.

Lith looked at the two and said with a smile, "she's too sensitive right now, I don't think it's a good idea to touch her there."

The two nodded in understanding.

Lith then smiled and pointed at his lower region that had Emilia's juices over him and a bit of his own cum mix in it. "You can clean this in the meanwhile."

Chapter 320 For aet all shame*

"Mhm~"

Lith let out a satisfied moan and caressed Alexandra and Arya's heads.

At first Alexandra and Arya licked Lith's cock and cleaned it, but then one thing led to another and they were now giving him a fellatio, right in front of Emilia.

Lith's shaft was sealed by Alexandra's mouth and his balls were being sucked by Arya. Alexandra was an inexperienced girl but so was Arya. Still, they both did their best and Lith found great pleasure despite their amateurish movements.

After a few minutes, Arya asked Alexandra to swap with her. She wanted to have a taste of Lith as well. Alexandra reluctantly agreed and they both got to work again.

"Mhm, close." Lith said after a while and subconsciously thrust his hips deep into Arya's throat.

Arya skillfully took it all in without gagging and gave a deepthroat blowjob to him.

Lith came in just a matter of a few minutes and filled Arya's mouth with it. She gulped down the excess and the remaining was in her mouth.

Her cheeks looked a bit puffed and there was a bit of semen flowing down from the corner of her mouth.

Alexandra noticed it and licked Lith's semen off of Arya's face. Getting the taste of his fresh semen, she felt it wasn't enough. So, she kissed Arya and stole some of Lith's semen from her mouth.

Lith, Arya, and Emilia, all three were surprised by such an action from her. But Lith and Arya got over their initial shock pretty quickly and Arya kissed Alexandra back and gave her a good amount of Lith's semen.

After Arya was done sharing it with Alexandra, she went ahead and did the same thing with Emilia as well. Emilia was reluctant to kiss Arya but after having a taste of Lith's semen, she couldn't help but want more.

The first round was over and Lith did it with all three. He decided to take a small break now and continue again after it.

Lith lay beside Emilia and pulled her in his embrace from one side. From the other side he hugged Arya and got her in his embrace as well.

Alexandra was made to lie on top of Lith and now, Lith had three beauties in his embrace, all naked.

Lith kissed Emilia's forehead and rubbing his finger along her pink slit, he said to her, "don't worry, this place won't be left alone for too long."

Emilia blushed and buried her head on Lith's chest, not replying to him about this.

Lith hugged the three and rested for a bit. After he was done, he grabbed Alexandra's hips and thrust his shaft in her pussy.

He moved her body up and down on him and looking at the side, he asked Arya to clean Emilia this time.

Arya went to Emilia's side and started cleaning her buttohole by gulping down all of Lith's semen present there. While her buttohole was getting cleaned, Lith kissed Emilia and battled her tongue.

This went on for a good few minutes and Alexandra fell on Lith's body as he increased his pace and made her feel weak. He held her ass tightly and didn't stop fucking her pussy.

Alexandra felt her mind go blank after a while and orgasmed, squirting her cum all over Lith's lower body again.

After Alexandra was done, Lith changed positions and Arya was the one riding his dick now while Emilia's pussy was on top of his mouth.

"Th-this... feels very shameful..." Emilia said in a low voice.

Lith chuckled and said, "you'll soon forget all shame."

Emilia didn't know what to reply to that and she also didn't have a chance to as Lith inserted his tongue in her vagina and made her moan.

Emilia's pussy tasted sweet and it was dripping down love juices due to Lith making her feel so good and aroused with his tongue.

Lith gulped down everything and didn't waste even a single drop of her juice. He continued to lick her pussy while his rod rammed into Arya's vagina repeatedly.

Alexandra came to her senses after a few minutes and Lith made her go behind Arya and pinch her nipples and play with them.

A few more minutes later, Arya climaxed but Lith didn't yet. He changed positions and put his thing into Emilia's butthole.

Emilia was lying on the bed and Lith holding her legs. They were doing missionary.

Emilia hid her face with her hands and tried not to see Lith directly in the eyes.

Lith let her do as she wanted and he did his own thing. His shaft was massaged by Emilia's tight and soft walls and he felt like cumming any moment. However, he stopped himself from doing so and bent down to suck on Emilia's boobs.

The sound of flesh slapping each other resonated throughout the room along with Emilia's moans.

This continued for a while and Lith finally orgasmed along with Emilia. He slumped down and lay in Emilia's embrace with his cock still inside her asshole.

Emilia caressed his hair and let him lie down on her.

After feeling energetic again, Lith went ahead and did it for a few more rounds with the three.

A few hours later, Lith felt exhausted and stopped. He was sleeping in the middle of Alexandra and Arya and Emilia was beside Arya.

The next morning.

Lith woke up to feel something soft and cushiony on his face and back. He opened his eyes and saw Arya hugging him and burying his face in her boobs.

Lith took his face out of it and looked behind and saw there to be Alexandra hugging him. He turned his gaze and saw Emilia sleeping beside Arya. She was hugging Arya as she slept.

Looking at everyone sleeping, Lith went back to his position and slept as well.

He woke up after a few hours and saw Arya and Alexandra to be staring at him.

Lith smiled as he saw them staring. He kissed Alexandra's lips and said, "good morning, Alexandra."

Alexandra made a happy smile and said, "good morning, darling~."

Lith then kissed Arya and said, "good morning, Arya."

Arya chuckled and greeted back, saying, "good morning, my lover."

Lith then kissed Emilia and greeted her as well.

Emilia had a slight blush but after everything they did yesterday, there was hardly anything that would make her feel ashamed. She smiled and greeted Lith back.

After their morning greetings, Lith got up from the bed and looking at the three beauties still lying on it, he said, "I am going to go take a shower. Anyone interested in joining?"

Before the three could reply, Arya and Emilia's phone buzzed and interrupted them. They checked their phones and saw something important from the academy to have popped up.

Emilia put the phone in her ring and became serious about work. She got up from the bed and walking towards Lith, she gave him a kiss on his lips and said, "something important has come up, I need to leave. I'll see you after a while."

Lith nodded and greeted her goodbye.

Arya was the same and something important came up for her as well. She left after giving Lith a kiss.

Lith was now with Alexandra alone. He looked at her and asked with a smirk, "coming?"

Alexandra nodded her head. That was not even a question.

The two went to the bath and turning on the shower, the water made both of them wet.

Lith made Alexandra face him and hug him. He opened his mouth, revealing his sharp fangs and bit onto Alexandra's neck to suck her blood.

Alexandra shivered from excitement and her love juices immediately dripped out. She bit onto Lith's neck as well and the two sucked each other's blood.

Lith made Alexandra stop drinking his blood after a while as he knew she would feel weak and sleep. They had to finish their shower first.

Lith rubbed Alexandra's back and cleaned it. He made his way down and reaching her ass, he massaged the two plump peaches and after a few minutes of doing so, he inserted two of his fingers in Alexandra's tight butthole.

"Darling..." Alexandra looked Lith in the eyes and said softly.

Lith knew she wanted a kiss and so he gave her one. The two started a passionate kiss shortly after.

Lith cleaned Alexandra's butthole and then moved his fingers to her pussy. He cleaned it as well and after he was done, he broke his kiss and looked Alexandra in the eyes.

Lith pressed his fingers softly on Alexandra's labias and looking at her, he asked, "does this ache too much?"

Alexandra felt when she saw Lith show much concern. She smiled and shaking her head, she said, "it doesn't ache at all."

Lith smiled and asked, "then, do you want to go for a few more rounds?*

Alexandra smiled and kissed Lith on his lips. "Is that even a question, darling?"

Lith chuckled and rubbed his shaft on Alexandra's pussy from the front.

"As you wish, honey." Lith said and slid his shaft in.

"Mhm~" Alexandra let out a satisfied moan after feeling the entire thing of Lith go in.

Lith kissed her and the sound of flesh slapping each other resonated throughout the room once again, along with the satisfied muffled moans of Alexandra.
