

Vampire 341

Chapter 341 18 years old

Two years passed.

Lith was now 18 years old. For two years, he had been cultivating hard and when he used to take breaks in between, he was given information about whatever that was happening in the outside world.

Today was a day for his break again. He had stopped because he felt that he would in just a few more days to Rank 8.

Lith got up from the pedestal and his lush silver hair fluttered lightly. They had become longer and fell on his shoulders. He was wearing a white daoist robe and so his build wasn't visible but he had become taller. Previously he was 172 cm tall and now he's 186 cm tall.

It wasn't just the physical growth. His aura and demeanor had changed as well. The childish nature from his face was starting to disappear and he was looking like someone experienced and seasoned.

But, despite the growth, when he walked close to Lilith, his mother, who was standing a few meters away from him, he still found himself to be a head shorter than her. He still had to turn his head up to look at his mother.

When he reached close to her, he looked up at her and said while holding her face with both his hands, "Mom, even though I've grown taller, why do you still look so tall?"

Lilith chuckled and bent down to kiss Lith's forehead. "It's because I am your mama."

Lith rolled his eyes. He knew his mother answered silly questions with silly answers. He shoved aside his question and took out the bed from his ring. He held his mother's hand and took her to it.

Like before, he and Lilith lay on the bed. Lith was beside Lilith and held her in his embrace.

Lith looked Lilith in the eyes and bringing his face close to her's, he sealed her lips with his. He gave her a long and sweet kiss and after breaking it off, he said, "It's been too long since we last had a kiss, right?"

Lilith chuckled and ruffled Lith's hair. "It's not as long as you think. To me, it just feels as if a few moments have passed. To your big sis, it would feel a few months, etc. The feeling of passage of time is different for everyone."

"It's good if it's like that. To me personally, it felt as if an eternity had passed. I've been in seclusion and away from big sis, Arya, Emmy, and Alexandra. Though thankfully there's you here to keep me company or I would've been bored to death." Lith put out his thoughts.

Lilith smiled and kissed Lith's forehead. She caressed his hair and said, "Mama will always be there for you, baby."

Lith smiled and hugged her. He put his head on her soft and big milkers and enjoyed the warmth of her embrace.

'I am a vampire who should feel good when it's cold, but I am currently enjoying mom's warmth. So weird...' Lith thought to himself.

Lilith patted Lith's back as he slept on her and placed her chin on his head.

Lith, he just couldn't sleep today for some reason. His mind was wandering and so were his hands. His hand caressed his mother's back and went all the way down. It soon reached her butt and he grabbed those soft and perky peaches from over her clothes.

Lilith was wearing a white shirt and blue pants today. Completely different from her usual gown she wears. Lith unbuttoned her shirt and pulling her bra down, he latched onto his mother's big milkers.

Lilith's pink nipple was in Lith's mouth and he was suckling on it. A lot of milk gushed out and he got busy trying to drink it. He also unbuttoned her pants and lowered them, revealing her fair and smooth ass and thighs. Her thighs and ass both were thick enough to make everyone dream of getting crushed in between them, Lith was no exception to it.

But, he was currently busy playing with her boobs and didn't have the luxury to put his face in between her legs. He instead placed his hand over her ass cheeks and groped them hard, making his hand prints be present on them.

Lilith simply smiled and let Lith do whatever he wanted. She kept caressing his hair and looked at him lovingly.

Lith held one of Lilith's butt cheeks and parted it slightly to the side, revealing his mother's pussy and asshole covered with her panties. He parted her panties with his other hand and soon shoved his two fingers inside her cunt.

It was warm and tight in there, so tight that it felt as if it was some virgin's pussy. Lith shoved his fingers deeper and soon hit her g spot, causing her pussy to drip out some love juices.

He brought his fingers out and taking the juices on them, he rubbed it on her pussy lips, making them wet. He let go of her butt and freed one of his hands. One hand was close to her pussy and one was free now.

Lith shoved his fingers back inside her pussy and started fingering his mother. With his other hand, he brought it in front and bringing it close to her, slapped her pussy lightly with it.

"Mhm." Lilith let out a satisfied moan as Lith did that. It was a new experience for her. She had never been slapped like that on her pussy and what's more, Lith was still sucking onto her breasts while fingering her.

Lith soon felt that he shouldn't leave the other breast alone and so he moved to Lilith's other side and latched onto it again. He had his fingers inside her and they hadn't moved. Lith started sucking her nipples once again while fingering her and his other hand played with her clit.

A while later, Lilith climaxed and scooping her love juices, Lith brought his fingers close to his mouth and sucked on them while looking his mother in the eyes.

Lilith chuckled noticing this and asked, "is it good?"

Lith gulped down everything and taking his fingers out, he said, "It's the best."

After saying so, he sealed his lips with her again and soon started a passionate kiss. His hands groped her boobs and after he was done kissing her, he stopped his naughty actions and bit Lilith's neck.

He sucked on her blood and after drinking a good amount of it, he slept on her bare breasts while enjoying his mother's gentle pat on his back.

Chapter 342 History of the world

A few days passed.

Lith's ascension to Rank 8 had begun. He was still sitting on the same pedestal as before and was meditating.

Lith was back to recalling the tale of the First Immortal.

The tale of the First Immortal was not something secret. It was available to everyone and was taught in all academies and houses. The experience and hardships that the First Immortal went through in all his life, it was written into a book by him. This book also became the first inheritance in this world and it was available to everyone.

Lith had read the book fully a lot of times but he wasn't able to figure out things from it. The book was too sophisticated and complex, even though it was just the experiences of the First Immortal.

Only now when Lith was undergoing ascensions, he was starting to realize the meaning behind the things written in that book.

The experiences of the First Immortal were compiled in a book by himself and it was literally just called 'The Tale of the First Immortal'.

Many things may have vanished and washed away with time, but this book was the only thing that was a proof that the first sentient beings came into existence much before the Immemorial Era and also the ascension to immortality of the first sentient being.

Speaking of sentient beings coming into existence, the world had a vast and rich history.

The first known era was the Immemorial Era. It ended one trillion years ago but this was the era that lasted for the longest while.

It lasted for a 100 trillion years and the sentient beings learnt to cultivate in this time. The First Immortal was born much before the Immemorial Era and that time period was called 'The Beginning of Times'.

Nobody knew how long that era was but one thing was sure and it was that the first sentient beings came into existence during this period. Though when they came into existence, it was much later in that period and it was almost close to the Immemorial Era.

After the Immemorial Era ended a trillion years ago, it was the Early Chaotic Era that started.

In this era, sentient beings started becoming immortals all due to the First Immortal leaving behind his inheritance and opening a path for everybody.

The beings became more powerful than the monsters in the surroundings and soon civilizations started forming and people became hungry for power.

The Early Chaotic Era was the time when people were preparing themselves. It lasted for a total of 900 billion years and it ended a 100 billion years ago.

Just as it ended, the world entered into the Chaotic Era. Wars and bloodshed became a common occurrence and fight for survival soon started. It was a very cruel period to live in and this lasted for 50 billion years and ended 50 billion years ago as well.

Just as it ended, the world entered into the Late Chaotic Era. This was the period where nobody rested and the bloodshed that was already occurring, increased in intensity by many times.

People became cannibals because there was no food available to eat. The world was almost grazed down to oblivion because of the constant war and in this era, people's mind was filled with nothing but to war.

This suffering and war lasted for 10 billion years and ended 40 billion years ago.

Only after this period ended was there a little peace. But, there were hardly any beings present in the world to enjoy this peace.

Almost everything was destroyed and there was nothing present in this world. Sentient beings, irrational monsters, vegetations, rivers, oceans, everything was almost gone. There was just hardly anything left in the world.

In this world, all beings were on their last strand and were surviving with what little there was left. Only when everything was lost, did the beings realize that such bloodshed that happened was totally unnecessary.

Everyone could've lived well had they not been greedy and hungry for power. Everything could've been sorted had people sat down and did discussions. But, nothing could've been changed even though people had great regrets.

The era these beings were living in, it was called the Desolate Era. It lasted for 40 billion years and ended a billion years ago.

Vegetation was back in the world, the elemental energies were in abundance once again and everything was back to normal.

The world entered into a prosperous and peaceful era after the Desolate Era ended. All beings knew that war was not something they should do and it was still fresh in everyone's minds. Whatever had happened in the Chaotic Era was something that should never happen again.

Thus, to prevent this, a lot of precautions were taken and many teachings were passed down. All thanks to these things, there was no war.

The peaceful and prosperous era that came after the Desolate Era ended was the Early Tranquility Era. It lasted for 500 million years and also ended 500 million years ago.

After it ended came the Mediaeval Tranquility Era. In this era, the beings started becoming powerful again. But this time, it was done in a controlled manner and a lot of things were taken into consideration to ensure that there wasn't another Chaotic Era that would come.

The Mediaeval Tranquility Era lasted for 400 million years and it has only been a 100 million years since it ended.

The world was currently living in the Tranquility Era and it had been a 100 million years ever since it had begun.

After recalling all such things about the history of the world, Lith soon tried to summarize it.

The history was like this:

The Beginning of Times

(100 trillion years ago)

Immemorial Era

(1 trillion years ago)

Early Chaotic Era

(100 billion years ago)

Chaotic Era

(50 billion years ago)

Late Chaotic Era

(40 billion years ago)

Desolate Era

(1 billion years ago)

Ancient Tranquility Era

(500 million years ago)

Mediaeval Tranquility Era

(100 million years ago)

Tranquility Era

(current era)

Lith, after finishing up with the history of the world, he started understanding the chapter 1 of 'The Tale of the First Immortal' once again.

Chapter 343 Rank 8

The first chapter of the <Tale of the First Immortal> talks about the selfishness and greed of mankind. There were two people in the first chapter who were talking. First was the elemental energy, Fire, and the second was a normal mortal called Lu Wen, who was none other than the First Immortal.

The First Immortal Lu Wen, he tells everyone in the first chapter that even though everything has been taken from you, you should continue to strive to move forward without stopping. When you are at your lowest point in life, you have nothing to lose, and so you can take risks and turn everything over.

Lu Wen took the risk of accepting the offer of Fire and walked on the path of immortality. Even though it meant that he would need to suffer a lot of hardships, he still took the risk and moved forwards.

After understanding this much, Lith started recalling the times when he had taken a risk in life. The thing that he could remember was the time when he was in the Jingmei Guild and talking to the Vice Guildmaster without any form of respect.

As soon as Lith was finished going through his own experiences, his aura became chaotic and his ascension started.

Lilith looked at him with a smile and thought, 'that was fast.'

She knew of everything that Lith did, except for his thought process. She had no idea what he thought and what was on his mind. It was due to Lith's own thought process that he ended up ascending so quickly.

A few days passed.

Lith's chaotic aura successfully stabilized and he became a Rank 8. Like how it happened during his ascension to Rank 7, there was nothing much that occurred during Rank 8 as well.

Lith's core color changed completely and he successfully became a Rank 8.

Life formed in his Magic Core and it was still a very primitive form of it. Life didn't venture out of water yet and there were no signs of plants forming anywhere. There were just terrains present and it was still pretty much empty.

Lith took a few more days to successfully consolidate his cultivation and after he was done, he once again started meditating and didn't take a break.

He was just one rank away from being Rank 9 and he wanted to do it quickly.

A few months passed.

Lith was isolated from the worldly affairs but that didn't mean the world had stopped doing things. Things were peaceful but there were still a lot of undercurrents happening.

The Senzal and Kenzal clans had called for allies from all around the world and even though they tried to keep it a secret, the Shadow River Sect still found out about it.

But, despite such a thing happening, the Shadow River Sect wasn't worried at all. Luck was on the Shadow River Sect's side and they had found a mysterious backer for themselves. The backer provided things to the Shadow River Sect in exchange for a few things and those things weren't something the sect couldn't afford.

The Shadow River Sect was growing stronger as days were passing. Though that was the case, they still didn't stop from slowing down the two clans from amassing power.

Just a few days ago, there was a discussion in the Shadow River Sect and they ended up releasing the scandalous deeds video of the Senzal Clan to the public. The video was released on one of the most popular porn sites in the world and in just a few days, it already got 100 million views.

There were mixed reactions from everybody on this thing.

Many were aware of a new Conflict Zone forming in the Neutral Continent and they were up to date on this topic. Thus, the porn video became viral quickly.

The reactions in it were as follows:

"Fuck! This is simply fucking disgusting!"

"Ikr! Incest ewwwwwwwww"

"This is simply fucking gross!"

"Holy shit that's some good shit!"

"It indeed is my guy (👉🏻👉🏻👉🏻)"

"Damn it! Now I want my wife to get fucked by my son and nephew! Fuuuuuuck why did I watch this video!!?!"

"What the fuck!? Dude, are you fucking sick or what? Holy shit!"

"Ugh. I was watching it for some incest and this bloody cuck in the comments ruined it for me."

"Tch. You stupid guys don't know how amazing it is watch your woman get double penetrated with two dudes. Not to mention, it would be even more amazing if it's your own son and nephew."

"OMG! THIS GUY'S A REAL CUCK!"

"My expectations were low when reading your comment but holy shit!

That's a new fucking low!"

"Damn, the thread above my comment is wilding lmfao."

"My message to all the kids who are watching would be to not get inspired by this."

"Kids!? Mfer wha—"

"HOT :wet: :wet: :wet:"

" :ThirstEmoji: :eggplant: :waterdrop:"

" :Eggplant: I am lonely. Call xxxxx to hook up with me."

"Ik you're a bot, but that won't stop me from calling on that number."

"Hah! Stupid! Do you think I'll fall for that?"

*Calls immediately on that number*

"What video have I stumbled onto..."

"You don't need holy water, you need God itself to clean you of these sins."

"OH DAMNNNNN ISN'T THAT THE CHIEF PATRIACH CLAN HEAD WHATEVER THE FUCK IT IS HEAD'S DUDE!? HOLYYYYYY"

"Clan head..."

"Ah yes! What a nice fap it was. Honestly, loved it. I hope there are more such hot videos like these."

"The people in this video, except for that one middle aged guy, all are dead. So you're basically busting one for the dead."

"..."

"What have I done..."

"Still hot tho..."

"I wonder who that madlad was who took this video. Fucking mad respect to that guy! :Salute:"

"Respect!"

"Mad respect my g! :ChestThump:"

Out of all the comments present on that video, the reactions could be summed up that the public was happy to get such a video, the public was also disgusted, but even more so, they wanted more of it.

The Shadow River Sect did not care about what the people thought. Their motive was just to make the two clans' allies rethink their decision of supporting the two.

Apart from this, there was nothing else that was happening. The two clans refused to speak on this matter and prepared themselves even further with full force.

.....

A/N: RI is one of my all time favourites. I am greatly inspired by it and took a concept from it and am currently implementing it into my own novel.

Do let me know what your thoughts are on this. If it's something that I shouldn't do, then I won't continue this concept from here on and leave it as it is.

Also, even though I tried to make the replies so fancy, I don't know how it'll work on app or web. If it's bad and is not working well, I'll think of something else.

Chapter 344 21 years old

Three years passed.

Lith was now 21 years old. After three long years of cultivating, assassinating, and meditating, he was finally going to ascend to Rank 9. He was very excited for this as he knew his hard work had finally paid off.

He could feel his ascension nearing and he was about to cultivate even further and break through when he felt that it wasn't a good idea. He thought of taking a break for a few days and he could continue after that.

Lith opened his eyes and his amethyst purple eyes had a completely different look in it than before. His face was the same and so was his demeanor. All the childishness was gone from his face, his jawline became sharper and there was not even an ounce of baby fat on his face left. He now looked like a serious, cold, and emotionless guy.

Lith got up from the pedestal and stretched his neck as he did so. His silver hair had become longer and it now almost reached his waist. He had also grown taller and was now at a whopping 195 cm.

Though that was the case, as Lilith, his mother, walked closer to him, he noticed that she was still taller than him.

Lilith looked at Lith's face and chuckled. She could tell what he was thinking. "Still thinking of why mama is taller?"

Lith turned his head slightly up and said, "Yes."

His voice had become deeper and in no way did he sound like his previous self. Puberty hit Lith like a truck and he had grown into a fully fledged handsome man. He was so handsome that if he called himself as the 2nd most handsome person in the world, there would not be anyone daring enough to call themselves as 1st.

Lilith closed in on Lith and gave him a big hug. She placed his head on her chest and put her chin on his head.

"Can you tell why?"

Lith had no idea.

"No." He said in his deep voice.

"Fufufu, it's because mama wants to be tall enough to hug you like this and be the bigger spoon while cuddling. It's also because I don't want my kids to fight for a spot to hug their mama. There's plenty of space for you two to hug me, that's why mama is so tall." Lilith explained.

Hearing this, Lith was a bit dumbfounded. He rolled his eyes and thought that his mother's thinking sure was a bit different than others.

The revered Vampire Queen was 200 cm tall just because she wanted to be big enough to hug both her kids. What logic was this? People would laugh when they would hear this; given that they did not care about their lives.

Letting aside all such thoughts, Lith hugged Lilith back. It's been a while since he felt her warmth. He had been running around, doing assassinations and what not and when he was back in the cave, he just meditated. There was no rest in between.

Lilith kissed Lith's head from above and caressed his back.

Noticing his mother's caresses, Lith realized that she was still treating him like a small baby. He was about to say to her that he wasn't a small baby like before but then he realized that saying this to his mother would make him appear immature.

He knew he had to take a different approach to make his mother realize that he was a man now. But on another thought, it wasn't bad to get spoiled like this. He only had one person in this world who could spoil him like this, it was his mother. If he took away this thing from her, he would end up having no one to spoil him.

'I definitely am a man, I don't need to prove this to anyone. But more than being a man, I am a man of culture— ahem, I mean, I am a man who got his priorities straight. Fuck the people who think getting spoiled by your own mother despite being grown up is a shitty thing.'

'My mother is the Vampire Queen, a being who rules over billions of people and a big chunk of land in this world. She only has two people to spoil, one is my sister and the other is me. I am not going to take this right away from her.'

Lith soon got into his thoughts again and zoned out.

Lilith noticed this and sighed. It seems her baby's habit of overthinking hasn't gone despite her and Lucy telling him so many times to not do that. But whatever, she let him be in his embrace and patted his back.

A while later, Lith snapped out of his thoughts and the first thing he saw was his mother's beautiful neck. Without thinking of anything, he bit onto it and sucked her blood.

Lilith was surprised to see him do that but she smiled and kept patting his back.

Lith fell asleep after drinking a good amount of his mother's blood. He was asleep while hugging her and Lilith chuckled, noticing this. She took out a big bed from her ring and slept with Lith on it.

While Lith was busy sleeping, the underworld was in shock. They were shocked to find out that there were two assassins with a success rate of 100%. It meant that whatever missions they took, they were always completed to perfection.

The missions these two assassins took weren't of low level either. They were all very high level ones in which the targets were always above Saint Rank.

There sure were a lot of assassins who could do such a thing but the records of these two assassins made the people understand that the two assassins were both new and just starting. They were definitely around Rank 9 or Half Saint Rank.

The records suggested that the assassin named Ray must be a mere Rank 7 when starting and now, he was definitely at Half Saint or Rank 9. The speed at which Ray broke through was astonishing to everybody and people became wary of him.

The other assassin was someone called Hope. It was rumoured that whenever this assassin went for the kill, they would end up making a very grotesque and deadly mess of their targets.

The people had no idea whether it was a male or female assassin and simply guessed who it could be.

While the underworld was discussing things...

Nine Roses Hotel, Nightingale.

A black-haired, red-eyed lady that appeared in her early 20s, walked inside the 100 storey tall hotel.

The lady was wearing light armoured clothes and had just a bit of her skin above her cleavage exposed. She was holding a double bladed sword in one of her hands as she walked inside. There was blood dripping down her sword as she walked in.

As soon as she got inside, the receptionist immediately hurried towards her and bowing, she said, "Miss Hope, please, this way."

Chapter 345 I am already an adult

Nine Roses Hotel, Nightingale.

At the 100th floor.

The lady in a light armoured suit, called Hope, walked into a luxurious and spacious office. Just as she did that...

"Yaaaa~ Hope-chaaan~ you did a good job again today, hahahaha!" A bluish-silver haired lady wearing a formal white shirt and black pants, and a blindfold on her eyes said while hugging the so-called 'Hope'.

The lady struggled and tried to get out of the blindfolded lady's embrace.

"Sister Arya, you'll end up suffocating Alexandra if you hold her so tight." A silver-haired, purple-eyed lady appearing to be in her early 20s and wearing an exquisite gown and a crown on her head said while looking at Arya.

"Hahaha! Lucy-chan, you worry too much. This is the usual." Arya said and continued to hug Alexandra.

She walked close towards Lucy while holding Alexandra. After she reached, she sat on the sofa along with Alexandra and finally let go of her.

Alexandra looked at Arya with a serious look and said, "Big sis, I am 28 years old now. I am a grown up, you shouldn't hug me like that."

Hearing this, Arya laughed out loud and Lucy on the side let out a small giggle as well.

Soon, Lucy cleared her throat and covered her giggles and said, "Alexandra, according to Vampire Society standards, you are still an infant. You need to be at least 100 years old to even be called a teenager here and 500 years old to be called an adult."

Alexandra fell silent hearing this. She then said, "Your Highness, that's just Vampire Society. According to the rest of the world, I am already an adult."

Lucy smiled and replied, "but aren't you a vampire?"

Alexandra fell silent again hearing this. She then said after a few seconds, "That's true as well, I guess..."

"But anyway, big sis, stop hugging me so much. What will people think?" Alexandra said to Arya.

In the past eight years that Lith was away, his ladies had all gotten to know each other better. They had formed a good bond among themselves and considered each other as family, sisters basically.

Though Alexandra was a bit different. She couldn't get herself to call Lucy as sister and could only call her with respect. Lucy tried to change it and asked her to not be so formal with her but Alexandra wasn't able to do it. Lucy soon gave up and so did Arya who was looking after Alexandra.

Arya left the academy and was working full time as Alexandra's guardian and the owner of the underworld's number one organization, Scelestus. Her entire day would be spent teaching her things or solving work related problems.

While acting as Alexandra's guardian, she became much closer to her. She also realized the stuff Alexandra went through and wanted to go wipe out the Valentine Clan, but she stopped herself from doing so as Lith had put out conditions for Alexandra.

Arya didn't want to defy Lith's words and so she worked to make Alexandra stronger. She was the one who made her become an assassin as well and gave the alias 'Hope' to her.

"Oh yes, by the way, Sister Arya, why does Alexandra have the name 'Hope'? Why not something else?" Lucy soon found a topic to talk on and asked Arya.

Arya looked at Lucy and started laughing out loud again. "Hahahaha! Don't ask me that, don't ask me! Hahahaha!"

Lucy was confused and Alexandra had a slightly flushed face hearing that. She became a bit embarrassed and cursed Arya, her big sis, for giving her such an alias.

"Why are you laughing?" Lucy asked, not understanding what was the reason.

Arya soon stopped laughing and said, "Haha, sorry, sorry, it was too funny. Anyway, I'll tell you."

She continued, "I gave Alexandra such an alias because Lith's alias is 'Ray'. Can you understand something from this?"

Lucy thought about it but had no idea. "Don't know." She said

Arya smiled and said, "Basically, I wanted to have something to joke about. So I found this. I'll frame it better. Imagine we all ladies are in a room and Lith and Alexandra are going to leave. What will we say?"

Lucy thought about it but couldn't come up with an answer whereas Alexandra on the other hand had a slight blush on her face. She knew the answer and it was too embarrassing.

"No idea." Lucy gave up and said, shaking her head.

Arya smiled and said, "when they leave, we'll say, 'Oh look, there goes our Ray of Hope.'
HAHAHAHAHA!"

Arya started laughing at her own joke after saying so.

Lucy, finally understanding the joke, started giggling as well.

Alexandra simply took deep breaths to calm herself down and tried not to think about killing her own sister for this lame joke.

After having a few more rounds of laughter, Lucy soon got to the main topic.

"Alright jokes apart, I have a message from mom."

Arya and Alexandra's ears perked up as they heard this. "Oh? Do tell."

Lucy made a proud smile and said, "little brother is going to ascend to Rank 9 soon. Soon as in, in just a few days or weeks. Mom asked us all to be present there to witness it."

"YAY!~" Arya cheered while Alexandra became fired up as well.

Lucy then said, "we'll meet up with Sister Emilia and go together."

Arya nodded. "Let's hurry up then. Come, I'll take you two to Emilia."

Arya held Lucy and Alexandra both by their waists and soon teleported to Emilia's office.

.....

Principal's office, Abalax World Academy.

Emilia was working on papers like usual and Sel was sitting on the couch that was present a few meters away from her.

A few seconds of peacefully working later, Emilia soon felt Space fluctuate a few meters away from her. She knitted her brows and put her guard up. She had no idea who was going to intrude here.

Soon, the fluctuations stopped and Arya appeared holding Lucy and Alexandra.

"Emmy, no time for talk. Let's go." Arya took a step forward and reached behind Emilia immediately, grabbing her waist.

"Wha—" Before Emilia could say anything, she vanished from her spot along with Arya, Alexandra, and Lucy.

Looking at her madam taken away so suddenly, Sel flashed a rare small smile and said while nudging her glasses, "It seems Madam finally found friends."

Chapter 346 Inside the Astral World Again

The Seclusion Cave.

Lith was back to sitting on the pedestal and was meditating. It had been a few days since he began his ascension.

By the time Arya, Alexandra, Emilia, and Lucy reached the cave, Lith had already begun meditating and didn't see them here.

The whole family was here right now and everyone was watching Lith with great interest and pride.

Alexandra could be said to be the proudest of all. She became a Rank 9 just two years ago when she was 26 and here Lith was, already on his way to be a Rank 9 at the young age of 21. She took great pride in knowing how amazing her darling was and was also very happy knowing she was in a relationship with such a man.

Lith was currently comprehending the Lightning laws. He was just a few bits short of comprehending it fully and ascending. There were golden lightning sparks all around him and everyone who was watching could feel it.

Except for Arya in the cave, everyone had lightning affinity. But, Arya was a Supreme Rank and could feel it as well, so there were no problems.

The lightning stopped crackling around Lith after a while and it started revolving around Lith's body. Soon, a storm started forming and in no time, Lith's entire body got covered by this storm.

The storm was a lightning storm and Lith was in the center of it. Bolts of lightning went to and from Lith's body and it burnt his clothes.

A few hours later, Lith's aura became chaotic again but this time it was very violent. It was so violent that when it got out of his body and rippled around, it caused the walls of the cave and the ground to crack.

Snap!

Lilith snapped her finger and cast a barrier around her and the other ladies. She also ensured to strengthen the walls and ground of the cave so that it doesn't blow up.

Lith wasn't aware of any of this. He was meditating and simply trying to better his understanding of the Lightning laws.

Time passed.

It had been a few days and the storm had gone from around Lith. It had been absorbed fully by him and there was lightning pulsing in his body through his veins.

Lith, who was meditating, suddenly found himself getting sucked into something and before he could realize what was happening, he soon saw everything around him turning to gray.

'I am in the Astral World again?' Lith thought as he looked around.

There was nothing but a gray forest all around him and he was currently standing in the middle of a lake filled with water, which appeared gray as well.

'I am not in the same meditative position as before but standing?' Lith thought and tried to move.

As he tried to take a step ahead, he realized he was able to move. The situation wasn't the same as before this time he could move.

Lith walked and as he reached the shore of the lake, he found himself unable to take a step further.

He became confused and tried to force himself but wasn't able to. He took a step back and realized he can indeed move.

He tried this thing a few times and understood that he couldn't go past the water in the lake. He could move wherever this water was.

Lith then got an idea after wandering on the water and he once again went to the shore. There he used his spiritual power and tried to make the water flow out.

The water did and Lith tried to walk on this water and he was able to cross the boundary.

Once again, Lith understood that the water needs to be present and he could basically move anywhere he wanted.

Lith used his spiritual energy and tried to make all of the water in the lake move according to his wishes. He was a Rank 8 currently and it was easy to do.

Just as he used his spiritual energy and shook all the water in the lake for a bit, everything started shaking a golden beam of light shot out from the center of the lake.

Lith, who was trying to walk out, got sucked into this golden beam and he traveled into the sky along with the beam.

Lith had no idea what was happening and before he could figure it out, he stopped floating up and stopped when he was in the center of the golden beam.

The golden beam soon started entering inside his body bit by bit and Lith's mind started turning blank.

In no time, Lith's mind blanked and he soon could see, hear, or feel nothing. There was just the golden beam entering him.

Inside a dark majestic palace.

A handsome lean man wearing red robes was sitting on a throne and looking at the people below him with a sharp gaze. His attitude was very serious.

"Your Majesty, the demons are still trying to infiltrate our world." A person standing in the middle of the grand hall said in a respectful manner.

The handsome man nodded lightly and before he could say anything to that, he soon frowned and knitted his brows.

He leaned back on his throne and gazed in a certain direction.

He soon saw a golden beam of light and noticed a person in the middle of it.

The handsome man immediately stood up and let out a thunderous roar.

"INSOLENCE!"

The people in the room all shivered in fear as they heard the man say that. Some people almost pissed themselves despite having high cultivation.

The handsome man immediately broke the golden spear locket he was wearing around his neck and holding it in his hand, he imbued his mana into it.

The small locket soon turned into a gigantic golden spear and the silver streaks of lightning crackled around it.

The handsome man bent backwards and aiming it towards the golden beam, he sent the spear with full force.

BOOM!

The spear was sent with lightning fast speed and it broke through all barriers of the castle. It was sent with such momentum that it caused the platform the throne was on to get half destroyed.

The people in the room shivered once again in terror. They all knew what had happened last time right here in this place.

From the rumours they knew that the King was angered by the people in this room and he ended up killing all of them and grazing the whole place down.

They wondered if such a thing had happened again and whether they were going to die right now or not. They also wondered what wrong they did to anger him or to have such an exaggerated reaction from him.

As for the King himself, he thought to himself while looking at the golden beam in Astral World with a serious gaze and knitted brows,

'I'll not forget what happened last time...'

Chapter 347 Red Streaks appear again

In the middle of a battle area, a burly man was practicing his martial skills. He was performing some arts and soon, he felt something and gazed in a certain direction.

"Again? Amazing. What rank is your ascension now? Hmm, why not just test it?" The burly man said and laughed out loud.

The man then hit the ground with great amount of force and CRACK!

The ground cracked and out of it came three swords. All three appeared ordinary metal swords and the man held one in his hand out the other two on the ground.

He slashed the sword in the air and, performing a few steps, he soon sent the sword flying towards the golden beam he was looking at.

He did the same thing with the other swords as well and continued to watch them fly towards the golden beam.

"Haha! Now what response will you have, genius? Will it be like last time or will it be even more powerful? I am waiting!" The burly man laughed and cracked his neck, awaiting the response.

.....

Astral World.

Lith whose mind was blank currently, soon felt a threat. Out of instinct, his hair stood out on their ends and he entered in a berserk state.

It was his body's way of handling a flight or fight situation. His body knew that he couldn't run away and fight was the only option. Thus, it prepared itself for it and used everything there was.

Lith's eyes turned bright and his hair started floating all stood up and waved in the air. His veins pulsed with lightning in them and his wings opened up as well.

Lith raised both his hands up and in one hand, there was a dark sword formed out of pure Dark energy and on the other hand, there was a Destruction sword.

Lith prepared to fight the thing coming towards him in this berserk state.

Fuuuusssshhhhh...

Three swords and one golden spear closed in on Lith.

CLANG! CLANG! CLANG!

But before the weapons could reach Lith, like before, the weapons were weakened to a degree that Lith would be able to handle in his berserk state by a mysterious red streak containing pure Destruction energy.

CLANG!

The weapons were a bit weakened and they clashed with Lith.

Lith used everything he had and fought against these. It was challenging but he soon got the upper hand in it and a few hours of fighting later, he ended up absorbing all the energies from the weapons.

BOOM!

As Lith finished absorbing the energies from it, his aura immediately exploded and his spiritual energy violently fluctuated in his body. It was not just in the Astral World, but this phenomenon happened in the outside world as well.

Lith had no idea what was happening with his body and aura as he was not conscious about it. His mind was blank and he felt himself to be present in the middle of an everlasting expanse of darkness.

While he was there, the red streak of Destruction energy traversed through all barriers present and soon broke out of the Astral World and entered the real world.

The first person it shot towards was the burly man who sent three weapons.

The burly man, who was training in the battle arena, smiled, noticing three red streaks of absolutely violent nature coming close to him.

"HAHAHAHA! SIMPLY AMAZING!" He laughed and vanished from his spot, going in the air.

BOOM!

Just as he arrived above, he got hit up one streak on his chest and a hole was made in it.

"Ptui!" The man spat out a mouthful of blood. Though such a thing happened to him, he wasn't worried at all and was standing strong in the air.

"So what if one ended up hitting me?" The man said and laughed.

Soon, two more red streaks closed in on him and the man took out a giant hammer from out of nowhere and hit one of the red streaks.

BOOOOM!

There was so much momentum in this clash that the man ended up getting sent flying. He also hit the red streak so hard that it was weakened to a very high degree.

BOOM!

The other red streak wasn't damaged in the slightest and it ended up hitting the man's body again.

Boom!

The weakened red streak hit the man as well and caused light injuries on him.

BOOOM!

Another explosion occurred and this time it was due to the sound of the man falling from a great height and crashing on the ground.

A lot of dust accumulated everywhere and a few minutes passed with nothing happening. Soon, the dust cleared up and out of the crater formed, the man's bloody hand was visible.

The burly man, with one hole in chest and one in his stomach, got out of the crater. He had wounds all over his body and was bleeding from many places. His hair was messy and face and body was covered in dust.

The man, after getting out, looked back at the crater for a few seconds.

Soon...

"Ha... Ha... HAAAAAAAAAAAAHA! AMAZING! THAT WAS SO AMAZING! FUCKING LOVED IT!"

"I COULDN'T STOP IT EVEN WITH 30% OF MY POWER!"

"WOOOOOOOOO!"

"I CAN'T WAIT TO SEE YOU IN REAL LIFE, GENIUS!"

The man yelled on top of his lungs. It had been a good while since he was reduced to such a state. Not only that, he was injured to this degree even without the person giving him an audience.

He was very excited to meet the person who sent this. He assumed that this person was the one in the golden beam of light.

Inside a majestic dark palace.

A handsome man wearing red robes was sitting on his throne. He had dismissed everybody as soon as he sent the spear out because he knew that something would definitely come in response to that. He was prepared for it today.

The handsome man soon saw the thing he was waiting for.

He saw three red streaks of some violent energy close in on him.

"Not today." The man said and charged forward with a spear in his hand.

Coming in the air, he was about to clash with the first red streak when,

BOOM!

A fourth red streak from nowhere hit him on his back and created a hole.

"Sneak attack..." The man said and wiped the blood coming from the corner of his mouth.

He didn't waste time thinking about this and immediately turned to clash with the red streak closing in on him.

He first dodged the streak and then hit it with his spear. While he was doing so, the hole in his chest closed up immediately due to his superior regeneration abilities. He didn't even need to use his mana to heal himself.

The man ended up using a good 60% of his strength and finally stopped all three red streaks from causing havoc in his place. Only one streak managed to hit him and it was in the start, due to his negligence.

The handsome man in red robes, after finishing his task, went down to his palace and sat down on the throne. As he did, he looked at the golden beam and muttered,

"Just wait until I find you. Once I do, I'll ensure I properly strangle you to— blergh!"

The man spat out a mouthful of something dark.

Sizzle!

As soon as the dark vomit the man spat out hit the ground, it sizzled and burned the ground.

The man soon felt all of the inside of his body melting and sizzling. He knitted his brows and cursed,

"Damn it! I was too careless! This is definitely dark magic!"

"You damn bastard! I'll definitely kill you once I find you for the atrocities you have done."

The man's body worked in full force to combat the magic and the man knew it was not possible to rely on his own body. He needed external help.

The man soon ran to the treasury of his palace in search of healing potions and only after drinking the highest grade potions available did he find some relief.

The man, feeling relieved finally, looked at the golden beam of light and said with a serious and dangerous glint in his eyes,

"I'll remember this..."

Chapter 348 Rank 9

Darkness.

It was absolute darkness all around Lith and wherever he looked, he just found it to be dark.

Lith wondered what place this was. He tried to walk and found that he could do that. He tried to jump and realized he could.

Lith could basically do anything he wanted here apart from using magic. Though everything was dark, he wasn't restricted by anything.

Soon, having nothing to do, he started walking in a random direction, hoping that something would change.

His efforts weren't in vain as after who knows how long of walking, he saw a few bright and colourful spots.

Lith walked closer to these spots and soon, from a distance, he saw 11 colored balls revolve around a transparent ball. The colorful light from the other balls were passing through this transparent ball and it appeared as if the transparent ball had a color of its own.

Lith soon tried to understand what the thing was and tried to get closer to have a better look at it.

But, he was stopped by some barrier and couldn't take a step further. He found this strange and having no other choice, he looked at the colorful balls and tried to understand what they were.

It didn't take him long to understand that and he soon made out what each ball revolving around the transparent ball represented.

The ball having reddish-orange color was definitely the one representing the Fire element.

The one having blue would be Water.

Green was Wind.

Brown — Earth.

Purple — Lightning.

Dark Cyan — Space.

Silver — Time.

Golden — Light.

Black — Dark.

Gray — Death.

Magenta Red — Destruction.

Though he understood the colors and the elements, he had no idea why they were revolving around the transparent ball.

Lith kept thinking for a while and soon it clicked.

"Oh yes! That's definitely an Im—"

BOOM!

Lith's aura exploded again violently and he was sent out of the darkness he was looking at.

Lith opened his eyes and soon found himself in the middle of the golden beam of light in Astral World.

Before he could think further, the golden beam of light immediately rushed inside his Magic Core and within seconds, it was gone and Lith expelled out of the Astral World.

Lith felt darkness once again but in the next moment, he tried to open his eyes and saw himself sitting in on the pedestal, inside the seclusion cave he was in.

He looked around and saw the ground and walls to have cracked slightly.

Lith closed his eyes again and tried to see if something had went wrong or was wrong with him. He soon found his core color to have changed completely to a shade of Red and found a few shrubs and plants growing near the waters in his Magic Core.

'What the fuck... That was so strange...'

Lith thought to himself as he recalled the anomaly that happened with him. Everything was so strange today. From getting sucked into the Astral World, then into the dark world and then having a look at...

'Hmm? I can't recall what I looked at in that dark world? What...'

He soon noticed another anomaly. He racked his brain and tried his hardest to understand what he saw there but even after a few minutes, he found nothing.

Lith sighed realizing this. Why were such weird things happening to him, he wondered. Was he some sort of protagonist of a shounen or Xianxia something? Why was he having so many strange stuff occurring during normal ascensions? Why can't they be normal...

Lith soon stopped thinking and looked inside his core to see what things had changed. He soon found the area to have increased again. It was obvious and a given.

The thing that changed the most would definitely be the growth of plants. From what knowledge he had, after plants would be the creatures who would be born. It would range from small bugs to irrational monsters to finally fully sentient humans.

Lith wondered when the day would come when some humans would be born in his Magic Core.

After he was done having a look in his core, he started meditating and consolidating his cultivation. While doing so, there was a smile on his face the entire time.

He was finally a Rank 9!

Finally, after 6-8 years of hardwork, he was finally Rank 9!

The best thing of all was that, Lith knew that he was definitely the youngest person to have ever broken through to this realm in such an age. Even his mother Lucy weren't able to break through to Rank 9 at 21 years of age.

From what he knew from his mother, she broke through to Rank 9 when she was 23 and Lucy broke when she was 24. Lith was far faster than the two and he didn't know that he apparently might have underestimated his monstrous potential and talent.

With happiness in his heart, a sense of accomplishment swelled up. He soon realized that the feeling of breaking through was amazing and that he should work hard to break through as fast as he could to higher realms.

A week passed.

Lith was done consolidating his cultivation and he opened his eyes again. This time when he did, he couldn't help but break out into a big smile.

The scene in front of him was too lovely.

All five of his ladies were standing in front of him and were staring at him with love in their eyes.

"Congratulations!" Everyone said in unison.

"Thank you." Lith said softly and got up to greet them.

As Lith got up, the ladies saw his divine lean figure. They couldn't help but stare at him and out of the five, Arya couldn't help but whistle and say, "Damn, what figure is that!"

Lith's long, waist length silver hair, his amethyst purple eyes, his muscular and lean, perfectly sculpted body, tall 195 cm figure and most of all, his handsome face was not less than a feast for the eyes of these five world class beauties.

Though they were the pinnacle of the world's beauty standards, they still couldn't help themselves from admiring Lith. He definitely was the most handsome man alive out there.

Lilith was the most proud of them all. She was proud about the fact that she was the one who made him. Even to her it was slightly unbelievable that she would end up giving birth to such a handsome boy who would end up becoming a lady killer with just his looks and charisma.

Lith, looking at the faces of the five ladies in front, thought that they were drooling while looking at him. He squinted his eyes to see clearly whether he was dreaming or if everything was real and soon found that Alexandra, Arya, and his mother literally were drooling and Lucy and Emilia had just a slight bit of come out from the corner of their mouths.

He wondered why they were having such a reaction when taking a step forward, his gaze fell on his legs. He soon realized that he was standing naked in front of the five and his whole body was revealed to them.

'Oh.' Lith understood the reason and thought to himself. So it was due to his body. But then, he wondered whether he was so handsome to have them drool like that or they were just drooling because they wanted to do something naughty with him.

It had been a good few years since he last had sex with any of them and he wouldn't be surprised if that was the case.

Lith cleared his throat to grab the attention of the ladies, noticing that they hadn't stopped staring yet.

"Ladies, are you just going to stare like that or come here and give me a hug?"

Chapter 349 Handsome Lith

"Ladies, are you just going to stare like that or come here and give me a hug?"

Hearing this, all five ladies walked towards Lith and hugged him. It was not possible for everyone to hug him all together. Alexandra hugged Lith from the front, Lilith and Lucy from the sides, Arya was at the back and Emilia, she just squeezed herself in beside Arya and hugged Lith in whatever way she could.

A while later, Lith, being in the middle of his five beautiful women, said, "alright, you can let go now."

Everyone broke the hug and backed away a bit.

Lith then said, "It's been what, seven to eight years? Eight years since we last saw each other. How have you all been all this while?"

Arya chuckled hearing it and said, "are you going to talk to us in that condition? You should first freshen up, we'll talk after that."

"Daughter-in-law is right, baby. Freshen up first, we'll talk then." Lilith nodded and agreed with Arya.

"Hmm? What condi..." Lith was about to ask this question when he realized he was standing naked in front of the five ladies. His clothes were all gone for some reason.

"Ah, I see." He nodded in understanding. He wasn't embarrassed or anything even though he was standing naked. He had no insecurities regarding his body and judging from how shameless he had gotten while being around his mother and Arya, this thing wasn't enough to get even a slight embarrassment from him.

Lilith snapped her finger after noticing Lith was ready to move out from this cave. Her one snap caused everyone in the cave to vanish from their spots and teleport away.

Soon, all six people teleported out in a brightly lit room.

Looking around, Lith noticed that he was in his mother's bedroom and was back in the Royal Castle in Nightingale.

Lith took a deep breath of the air present here and said, "Such a nostalgic smell."

It had been a very long time since he was in the castle. This was his home and after finally being back here eight years later, a warm feeling swelled up in Lith's heart.

This feeling was the same as the one he used to experience back on Earth. He was away from his home for studies and used to only go back six to eight months later. The feeling he used to have when he reached home was just indescribable and something very nice.

The same feeling he was experiencing now and felt warm in his heart.

Lilith, Lucy, and Alexandra could feel what Lith was feeling. They were close to him and had a blood bond with him. The three felt happy to see Lith being happy and continued to watch over him.

Lith soon shoved aside these thoughts and went to the bathroom to freshen up.

A few minutes later, Lith walked out of the bathroom wearing a red towel.

"Fuiyoooooh~" Arya exclaimed looking at the divine figure of Lith.

His perfectly sculpted body, his toned abs, his wet silver hair that had water dripping down from its end, his perfect chiseled face and his amethyst-like purple eyes were a sight to see for her.

She could swear that she had seen a lot of people, men and women alike, but none came close to looking as good as Lith. Just a simple piece of clothing was enough to bring out all of his handsomeness.

Who would've thought that the pretty boy from eight years ago would end up becoming the hottest man in the world as puberty hit him!

Lilith whistled while looking at Lith and turning to her side, she said to the other ladies, "You like what you see? I made that, fufufu."

It was a bit embarrassing for Lucy to hear her mother compliment herself like that but then again, she couldn't blame her. Her little brother was indeed very hot.

Emilia had a slight blush on her face as she looked at Lith. She was of course very happy to know that she was now dating someone so handsome, but the thing that caused her to blush was the naughty thoughts in her mind.

This innocent and cute angel had been corrupted by Lith and Arya and the thoughts she had now were of her being in bed with Lith. She was imagining herself lying on the bed and Lith, with his divine figure, was on top of her and looking at her with love filled eyes.

They were about to...

'No, No, No! What am I even thinking...' Emilia panicked internally and stopped herself from thinking anything more.

As for Alexandra, she was already wet just from looking at Lith.

Alexandra felt tingle down there and she had to control herself to the fullest to not just give in to her desires and pounce on Lith.

Noticing all of their reactions, Lith raised an eyebrow in surprise. From Alexandra's thoughts, he could figure out that they were having such reactions just by looking at him. He had no idea he was that handsome.

To understand the situation better and to see why they were acting like that, Lith decided to see himself in a body mirror. He walked towards the one present just a few meters from the bed and as he looked in it, he was shocked!

"Oh damn!" Lith exclaimed out loud as he saw himself in the mirror.

He couldn't help but say that as he was very much surprised to see a Greek God like figure in the mirror. He never expected that he would turn out to be this handsome.

'Puberty sure hit me like a truck. Just how handsome have I become?' Lith thought to himself. 'Oh wait, what am I even thinking... I am no narcissist, I shouldn't think like that. But holy hell... my body is indeed very amazing.'

After a few more seconds of admiring himself, Lith turned to look at his ladies and said, "You all seem like hungry beasts, ready to pounce onto me at any moment."

Arya nodded. "Yes, that's true. My panties are already wet and only I know how difficult it is to control myself."

Lilith chuckled hearing this and Lucy giggled as well.

Alexandra was too busy trying to control herself and she didn't listen to Arya.

As for Emilia, well... she was trying to hide the blush from her face because it was not just Arya and Alexandra who had their panties wet...

Lith chuckled and said, "Alright, my pledge of abstaining from sex is over. I can now do it with all of you if I want. But..."

"But? Why is there a condition type thing now?" Arya asked.

Lilith nodded and agreed with Arya's question.

"Hear me out first, babe." Lith chuckled again and said.

Arya stopped from speaking and just listened.

Noticing everyone listening attentively, Lith cleared his throat and said, "So I was saying, I can do it with all of you right now if I want, but I won't be doing it."

"All the years of cultivating alone, I've come to realize that I haven't spent a lot of time with all of you individually. I want to give time to everyone and now that I am a Rank 9, I'll be getting married to all of you as well. So there's two options that I'd like to put out."

"First, get married first and then go on dates or second, go on dates first and get married later. What do you guys think is the best one? Do let me know."

Lith said and after finishing, he walked towards the dining table present in the bedroom and sat on a chair near it.

Everyone was silent and pondering over these things and Lith let them be and didn't disturb them.

Lith didn't just want to have a relationship where he simply had sex with everyone. He loved all of them and while cultivating, he understood that he had been neglecting them. He thus decided to take these measures and thought more about their happiness rather than his.

A few minutes of thinking later, like usual, Arya was the one to make up her mind and spoke first.

"I am fine with both options and I am sure mother-in-law, Lucy, and Alexandra are fine with it as well. But look at Emmy there, can you see the internal struggle she is having?" Arya smiled at the end of her sentence while pointing towards Emilia.

"Eh?" Feeling called out so suddenly, Emilia let out a surprised shout.

She was busy currently with thinking of the options Lith gave her. If he went on date with her first without marrying her, he could only do a limited amount of things with her. But if he married her and then they went on date...

Emilia couldn't think more about this as it was something naughty and too lewd for her innocent self. Thus she had a hard time thinking about how she would put out her thoughts.

But Arya, who knew Emilia for a long time, could figure out her troubles and told Lith about her.

Looking at Emilia's flushed face, Lith could understand her troubles. He knew that if they went on a date, they wouldn't be able to have sex if they weren't married.

"Arya, I understand what you're getting at. But it's completely fine for me to be honest. I can just have a normal date with Emmy and have a fun time as well. Even without doing anything naughty, things can be good." Lith put out his thoughts.

Hearing this, Emilia was surprised and so was Arya.

"You sure can have a fun time, no doubt. But let's first hear from Emmy herself what she wants. Emmy, don't shy away, we are all family here and he is your soon to be husband. You can speak your mind without worries." Arya said in a calm tone.

Emilia was flustered hearing all of this and also embarrassed to have so much attention. But being the experienced lady she was, she took a deep breath and calmed herself down.

"I am fine with any of the two options. But, but..." Emilia's voice became softer as she continued and her blush was starting to come back.

Emilia became conscious of this and took a deep breath again. She looked at Lith and trying her best to put on a neutral face, she said calmly, "But I would prefer the option where marriage is first and date later more. If the others want to go on a date first, I am fine with it as well..."

Emilia's voice once again became softer as she said that.

Lith nodded. He understood her troubles. Looking at the other ladies, he asked, "So does anyone have any objections with having marriage as the first thing and date as the second?"

Everyone shook their heads.

Lith smiled and getting up, he clapped his hands. "Great! Let's get married then!"

Chapter 350 Marriage Preparations

"Wait, one second. You'll marry mama and Lucy too?" Lilith looked at Lith and asked with a bit of surprise.

Lith nodded. "Obviously, why would I leave you two alone?"

Lilith fell silent as she heard that.

Noticing this, Lith asked, "what is it mom, is there some problem?"

Lilith shook her head. "Not really, it was just surprising. I thought you didn't have any such plans."

Lucy, from the side, added, "Yes, me too. I thought he would just leave us alone."

Lith chuckled and said, "How is that possible? Anyway, let's get going. There's a lot of things to do. The marriage will be a week later. How do you guys want it to be? Something grand or something that will be super private, consisting of nobody else other than us?"

The ladies fell silent and pondered over it. Soon, Emilia finished collecting her thoughts and came up with an answer first.

"I do have my parents, but it's fine. It'll be too much of a shock for them to see me get married to a vampire and also someone so young. So, my preference would be to have a marriage in private with no one else being there other than us in this room."

Arya, being supportive of Emilia's decision, said, "I'll go with Emmy's preference."

Lith nodded hearing it. He then looked at Alexandra and asked, "what about you, honey?"

Alexandra looked at Emilia and Arya and said, "I do have my parents as well, but I don't want to bring them to the Vampire Continent yet. Only after vengeance is taken will they set foot on this continent. So I agree with big sis Arya and Emilia's decision."

Lith nodded. "Understood. Mom, big sis, what about you two?"

Lucy shook her head and said, "I don't want it to be grand. The less people the better. The idea of doing it in private with just us feels better to me."

"Got it. What about you, mom?"

Lilith smiled and said, "If all are thinking of the same thing, I have no problem with that. Let's go with doing it privately."

Lith clapped his hand and said, "then, it's decided. We'll have just us in the marriage and since it's only us, what better place to get married will it be than in the Royal Castle itself? The courtyard, the ballroom, all the places have been quite lonely and collecting dust for a long time. They'll finally have a use for them, haha!"

Everyone smiled hearing it and Emilia and Lucy giggled.

"Now that everything is cleared up, are you guys going to stay in the castle until then or go away and do some work?" Lith asked.

"I have work to do..." Emilia said in a low voice.

Being the principal of the world's number one academy, she had a lot of things to do. One mistake from her could affect the lives of the children present in the academy and that would in turn become a huge problem.

Let's say a child just got punished by an instructor or the child just suffered due to the failure of the management of the academy, the child would always remember this and keep it buried in his heart. This thing would later make him seek trouble with the academy and affect his future as well.

The thing may become a heart demon or something that would hold him back in his future cultivation and this would be very problematic. The academy was strict with its rules and also with its management. But, everything was there for the betterment of the children present in it.

The academy's goal was to prepare the students for the world when they graduate and not to create problems for them. Thus, Emilia had a lot of responsibilities on herself. If she messes up, the lives of the students will be chaotic.

Thus, she always ensured that she didn't slack and if she wanted breaks, she had to prepare for it beforehand.

The marriage thing was too sudden and she had to take care of a few things to have herself get holidays for a few days to a week. She couldn't just leave everything to Sel, her secretary.

"Can you not skip it for a week or two?" Lith asked.

Emilia shook her head. "I can't, but I'll try to wind it up as soon as I can and come back here."

Lith nodded. "I understand, do your best."

Lith then looked at Arya for an answer and Arya simply shook her head. "I've got work to do as well and so does Alexandra. We'll be back in the Royal Castle in 2 days."

"Okay. Mom, big sis, you two don't have work as well, do you?" Lith then asked Lilith and Lucy with a smile.

Lucy looked at Lith and said with a smile, "I do have work, but it can be delayed by a week or two, it's not a problem."

Hearing this, Lilith turned to look at Lucy and said, "Ara, is the Queen slacking on her work?"

Lucy became slightly embarrassed hearing this. Of course she was slacking but there was no need for her mother to call her out like this.

Lucy shook her head and coughing lightly, she said, "It's not like that, mom. And also, I am not the Queen, you are."

Lilith smiled and patted Lucy's head. "You will soon be. Mama wants to retire as the Vampire Queen and play with her babies all day. Become stronger fast and free mama of this position."

Lucy took out her tongue and said, "That's no possible. It's too much of a headache to be the Queen. You can handle it yourself, I wanna spend time with little brother."

The ladies in the room smiled hearing this. This scenario, it felt very wholesome to everyone present.

If word got out that the Vampire Queen and the Substitute Queen were having a banter like this, they would definitely not believe this. But despite that, it would become a very hot topic almost instantly.

The whole world kept themselves updated with things related to the Vampire Royal Clan. The reason was that it was the only clan in the world consisting of three members. All other clans had a bare minimum of at least ten or more or they wouldn't be called a clan.

Another thing was that just these three people were the sole rulers of billions of people present in one of the only nine continents of the world. It was an amazing feat and something which couldn't be achieved by anyone.

There was also the unofficial declaration of the Vampire Queen being the strongest and so, the people kept themselves updated with them.

After the talks were over, Arya, Alexandra, and Emilia left the Royal Castle.

Lith got dressed and saying goodbye to his mother and sister, he went to make preparations for the marriage.

A few days passed.

The marriage preparations were going on in full swing. All 200 servants were present in the Royal Castle currently and were doing their best to decorate and prepare the castle.

The dark Royal Castle had a lot of colorful and bright decorations done on it from the outside. These decorations made the appearance of the castle even better and something very extravagant and exquisite to look at.

The colorful decorations complimented the darkness of the castle and around a thousand kilometres in radius, a lot of barriers were set up.

These barriers ensured that nobody was able to spy on the castle from the outside or from far away and also to ensure the castle wasn't visible to anyone. The barriers hid the castle very well from the rest of the world.

This was done to ensure that there were no stupid news or topics that would go on in the world. If given any small thing about the Royal Clan to the news outlets or to the internet, they would make a mountain out of a molehill.

The people would also make a lot of conspiracy theories regarding the same and all in all, it would become a controversial and hot topic for nothing. This would just end up tarnishing/ruining the image of the Royal Clan and nobody wanted that to happen.

After the barrier was ensured to be put up, the decorations of the inside of the castles went on. All the rooms, all the halls, everything was decorated nicely and it gave off a very warm feeling to everyone who looked at these things.

Finally, just 3 days prior to the marriage, all the decorations were done and completed. Only a few more things were needed to be done and Lith could finally get married.
