

Vampire 351

Chapter 351 Marriage Discussion

Three days until marriage.

Royal Castle, Nightingale.

Lith and all of his ladies were sitting around a round table in the pavilion present in the courtyard of the Royal Castle. The decorations and everything was done and now they were currently planning a few things.

Outside the pavilion, there were the Royal Servants standing, ready to do whatever things their madams or sir asked them to do. Along with the two hundred servants, there were three beings who seemed to be out of place.

Among the three, one was a tall and slim man with blue hair and light blue eyes. He was apparently wearing the same outfit as the butlers of the castle and judging from his looks, he didn't seem to be a vampire either.

Another was a light brown hair and eyed lady wearing a simple black and white business outfit and round glasses. She had a tablet in her hand and was sitting on a chair with another person beside her.

That other person was a black-haired, green-eyed lady wearing the same outfit as the light brown haired lady. The two seemed to have matching outfits.

These three, the odd one out among the two hundred Royal Servants were Arbour, Sel, and Rain respectively.

Arbour was the newest addition to the Royal Servants and he was standing outside the pavilion with a few butlers. These butlers were all Emperor Ranks and Arbour was made to join their group.

As for Sel, she was Emilia's secretary and Rain was Arya's. They were here to help their madams and were the only ones sitting around a round table close to the pavilion. The rest of the servants were standing.

The courtyard was very big and there was no problem with having these many people standing here.

The servants were scattered in groups of 3 or 4 all around the pavilion and the group Arbour was with, was the one standing closest to the Vampire Queen.

Lith felt nothing from having so many people around. He was already used to such things since he was royalty and also because he grew up with these many people around him.

Lith was sitting calmly on his seat and was sipping on tea, just hearing the discussion of his ladies and didn't interrupt or speak in between. It was sometimes a good thing to just be a bystander and watch stuff.

Arya was currently talking to Lucy about a few things and Emilia was going through papers present in front of her. Although the marriage was going to be privately done, there were still many things they needed to ensure were proper.

As for Alexandra and Lilith, like Lith, they were also simply listening and didn't interrupt anyone.

As Emilia was reading a paper in front of her, she knitted her brows and looking at Lilith, she said,

"Mother-in-law, what's with this menu?"

"Hmm? What's the matter, Emilia?" Lilith asked while putting her cup down.

Emilia sent the papers to Lilith and said, "Mother-in-law there's—"

Lilith, without looking at Emilia, said while reading the paper, "Emmy, you can just call me mother."

Emilia got interrupted and blushed slightly as she heard that. It was a bit awkward for her to address the revered Vampire Queen as the mother, not to mention she was a Seraphim and her mother-in-law was a Vampire.

Still, Emilia cleared her throat and said, "Mother, the menu has non-vegetarian food. That won't do."

She came to terms with this quickly as she was a mature lady who knew that this would be the norm from now on and didn't dwell much on this.

As for Lilith, it didn't matter to her if her daughter-in-laws called her mother instead of mother-in-law. She just considered the address 'Mother' from them as a short form of 'Mother-in-law' and so was fine with things.

Lilith put down the paper after noticing that it was the food menu of their marriage. She took the teacup back in her hand and asked while taking a sip, "is there a problem with it?"

Emilia nodded. "Angel weddings don't have any non-vegetarian foods. There's only vegetarian foods during angelic weddings as the angels consider it a very auspicious occasion and don't want to harm any beings during this time."

"I see." Lilith nodded and said. She knew about this before but wasn't able to recall it as it wasn't something important. But now that Emilia shed light on it, she remembered about this information.

"Luna, come here." Lilith put her cup down and said while taking the papers in her hand.

Luna was the personal maid of Lilith. She had black hair and brown eyes and was in a maid outfit as she walked close to Lilith.

As she reached close to Lilith, she bowed and said politely, "Yes, Madam?"

"Change the menu and keep everything vegetarian for the Angel style wedding." Lilith handed the paper and instructed.

Luna took the papers and left after bowing once again.

"Anything else?" Lilith asked Emilia with a smile.

Emilia nodded hearing that. "What about the priest?"

Lilith smiled and said, "it's not an issue."

"The priest needs to be an angel..." Emilia said softly.

Lilith nodded. "I know. Look behind me, you can find the right person for this job as well."

Emilia was confused but she did as Lilith asked her to. She looked behind and it didn't even take a few seconds for her to notice the right person.

Just behind Lilith, there were three people standing. One was a red-haired, red-eyed butler, one was a blue-haired, blue-eyed butler, and another was a light-blue haired, silver-eyed butler. These three, all seem to be very powerful in her opinion.

But among the these three, only the light-blue haired butler seemed to be an angel. The red-haired one was a demon and the blue-haired one was a human.

"The light blue hair and silver eyes one?" Emilia asked Lilith.

Lilith nodded. "He's Noman, a Seraphim. He'll be the priest."

"Noman?" Emilia tried to recall who he was. If he was a Seraphim, she should know about him. She tried to think about his identity and as she did, she realized she was having a difficult time recalling it.

Lilith, noticing this, chuckled and said, "you won't be able to recall things so easily. Noman is much older than you and his actions have all been buried in history. Anyway, you can get to know about him later if you want."

Emilia nodded her head. She will do that. There was a Seraphim in this world whom she didn't even know, how surprising was that?

"Anything else?" Lilith asked again.

Emilia shook her head.

Lilith smiled and got back to sipping on tea and being a bystander.

"No, Sister Arya, that doesn't seem right." Lucy shook her head and said.

Arya laughed and asked, "why is that? It seems so fun though."

Lucy had a slight blush on her face and said, "Sister Arya, it's the marriage day. We'll be in our wedding outfits and cosplaying later doesn't seem like a good idea. We'll only get to wear our wedding outfits on that day and not any other day. Cosplay, that we can do anytime."

It took a lot from her to say all these things and was very embarrassing. She wondered how Arya could talk about such a thing in front of so many in the open.

Arya laughed hearing that and the rest of the people present around the table simply smiled.

"Fine, fine. No cosplay then. We'll postpone this to some other day." Arya said while laughing.

Lucy nodded. "That's much better."

Lith's ears perked up as he heard this. "Oh? We are having a cosplay event?"

"Huh? What?" Lucy was surprised.

Lith smiled and said, "didn't just Arya say that the cosplay event will be postponed and you replied with it being better?"

"What? No! No!" Lucy shook her head and said. "I said that in response to having no cosplay thing during wedding day."

Lith chuckled and said, "alright, big sis, no backing out now. There will be a cosplay event later."

Lucy sighed hearing it. She accidentally ended up giving ideas to her brother and now she knew that there was no going back.

"Fine, but no talks on this until the marriage is done." Lucy said.

"Of course." Lith said with a smile and took a sip of his tea.

Hearing this conversation, the Royal Servants felt nothing and nor did they have any thoughts on this. This was just how their minds were trained.

But the newcomer Arbour, he wasn't the same. He was currently thinking to himself, 'What am I even witnessing... The revered Vampire Queen is talking so nicely and freely and this atmosphere seems so wholesome. What's with this? Last time during the Supreme Ranks meeting, she seemed so cold and appeared to be letting out a dangerous aura.'

'I felt so suffocated and threatened last time and also when I met her with Darren in the open, she seemed to appear so dangerous. But what's with the sudden change? Why does it appear that it's all sunshine and roses around her. What's with this?'

'Should I be happy with her having such a mood and that my life isn't in danger, or should I be sad that I'll never get to be out of this place? Sigh...'

'That damn Darren! I have become a servant to the Vampire Queen for life now...'

Though Arbour had such thoughts, the two present beside him had completely contrasting thoughts.

Ruben, the red-haired, red-eyed, Emperor Rank Demon butler, who was tall and lean just like Noman, nudged his elbow to Noman's sides and said, "Someone has an important role in the coming event, heh?"

Noman held Ruben's elbow and said, "Don't talk now, Ruben. There's an important discussion going on. We'll talk later about this."

Though Noman said that, he was internally very happy to have gotten this role. It's just that being how his personality was, he hid it and asked Ruben to shut up politely.

Ruben understood the situation and didn't pester Noman further. He got back to paying attention to the discussion going on in front.

Half an hour of discussing things later, Lith said, "So it's just Emilia that I'll marry and have an Angel style wedding with, right?"

All the ladies nodded their heads.

"Alright. Then, what about the rest? Arya, do you want a dragon style wedding?" Lith asked while looking at Arya.

Arya got thinking about this. She, for one, had no idea how dragon style weddings were. She turned her head to look at Rain and asked, "Rain, what happens in Dragon weddings?"

Rain stood up from her table and bowing, she said, "Replying to Madam, in Dragon Weddings, the bride and the groom usually just pay their respects to their ancestors and elders. They then get their blessings and after putting a ring on each other's fingers, they kiss and seal their vows they have made for each other. That's about it. After that is done, it's usually the celebrations part."

Arya thought about it and said, "Hmm, I see. How are vampire weddings then?"

Rain was about to answer this when Lilith stopped her with a hand gesture and asked her to sit down.

Rain nodded and sat down after bowing to Lilith.

Lilith smiled and explained, "Well, the vampire weddings are like this..."

Chapter 352 Vampire Marriages

Lilith explained to Emilia about how vampire marriages occurred.

Like every other culture in this world, in vampire marriages, one had to pay one's respect to the respective people, which includes: one's ancestors, parents, and the Vampire Queen herself. The couple pays respects and gets their blessings in return.

This is a part that usually happened at the very last when the actual marriage was done.

The marriage has a lot of ceremonies to be done before the vows are made and the groom and bride become husband-wife.

There are a series of ceremonies and its present there because vampires, in the Immemorial Era and before it, were beings who had a very long lifespan. Even though they were mortals, their lifespan was long and so, marriage was something that would become a good memory for them that would last their whole life.

Vampires cherished this day and thus, to make it even more memorable, a lot of ceremonies had been prepared. But of course, as time passed, these ceremonies changed and got adapted to the eras they were in.

Vampire marriages, therefore, were and are the longest ones in this world. The shortest vampire marriage also only ended up getting completed in around 2 weeks and the longest marriage ended up lasting for around ten years straight.

From what Lilith was planning to do, their marriage ceremonies would at least take a month in the least to end. They wouldn't go overboard with the ceremonies and just do enough so that they can cherish it when they look back at it.

A good thing was that, unlike the angelic weddings where only two people could be present at a given time to marry each other, vampire marriages had no such restrictions. There could be any number of people present that are getting married and the ceremony would be the same for all.

After the ceremonies are done, there would be vows and when vows are done, the vampire couple would bite onto each other's neck at the same time and suck in some blood to officially make them husband and wife.

After this part was done, the couples would usually have a kiss together and after doing that, they would seek the blessings and go towards the second last step of marriage, the grand wedding dinner.

After the dinner is done, all the people would be sent back home and the final step of the marriage would commence. Once the final step is done, the marriage is officially completed for the vampires.

The final step was something that the vampire couple does in private. It is intercourse and once the groom and the bride initiate intercourse, the marriage is officially completed.

Hearing about so many steps and things, Emilia was amused as well as surprised. She had never thought that vampire marriages were so complicated.

It wasn't only her that was feeling this. Lith was feeling the same. He had learnt a lot about the vampires as he was of their race now but he never bothered to know about the marriage. It was only now did he get to know about it.

It would definitely take a good amount of time to get married, Lith thought. But it was all worth it since this is a special occasion and shouldn't be rushed. It would become a good memory for all and so, Lith was fine with everything.

"Mother-in-law, you just said that people have to pay respect to the Vampire Queen, right?" Arya, who was also listening to this, asked.

Lilith nodded. "Yes, what about it?"

Arya chuckled and continued, "If that is the case, the Vampire Queen herself is getting married. Who will she pay her respect to?"

"Ooooh, nice question. Yes, who will you pay respect to, mom?" Lucy said with interest.

The rest of the ladies had their ears perked up as they heard this and it wasn't just them, the servants as well the other three people present were the same.

Lilith could tell that everyone was interested in knowing this. She simply smiled and said, "No one."

"What? Really?" Lucy asked.

Lilith nodded. "Let me question you back about this. Why do you pay your respects?"

Lucy thought about it and said, "To seek blessings."

Lilith nodded and looking at Lucy, she asked with a smile, "And why do you seek blessings?"

Lucy fell into deep thoughts and wondered about it.

Noticing this, Lilith said, "No need to think so much, you won't get an answer to it. I haven't told you about this and you haven't read or come across this, I know. I'll answer it for you."

Lucy nodded her head and was all ears now.

Lilith continued, "It's a very simple concept yet has a very deep meaning. You do know that nothing in this universe is constant, right?"

Lucy tilted her head and asked in a bit of confusion, "nothing is?"

Lilith shook her head. "At this stage, you should only know that nothing is. All particles in the universe revolve around something that is much bigger than them in mass. The bigger particle takes responsibility for the smaller one and that's how the law of the universe currently is."

"So the people who pay respect to me or to their ancestors or parents, the main reason for that is to have a form of protection through our blessings. Life becomes much easier when you know that there's some bigger power watching over you constantly, so no matter what you do in life, things will always be for the best."

Lilith stopped after saying so much.

Lith, Lucy, and everyone else who were hearing all of this suddenly felt that they knew nothing about the universe.

Even though Lith was a reincarnated being, these things were still going over his head and he wasn't understanding the concepts related to gods much at all.

Lilith could tell what everyone was thinking and simply chuckled and didn't elaborate on this further.

The most surprised person among everyone who heard this information was none other than Arbour. He didn't know that simply being around the Vampire Queen would let him access to such profound and divine knowledge. It was as if Lilith was speaking the language of gods that all mortals were forbidden to hear.

This new knowledge that he just heard enlightened him a lot and only now was he starting to have a much deeper understanding of everything related to worshipping that people did and being worshipped.

Lucy, who roughly understood a few things, looked at her mother and raised a question. "Mom, if the bigger things take responsibility of the smaller ones, and smaller ones always revolve around bigger things, who is it that you revolve around? There would be someone right? Because you just said that all particles move around and aren't constant."

Lilith chuckled hearing it and said with a smile, "You'll have the answer to that question within a few thousand years, don't worry about it."

Lucy shrugged. It wasn't like there was anything beneficial in knowing this anyway. It was just too much useless info for her.

As for Lith, the same couldn't be said. He was thinking about things on a much deeper level for this. Previously, all things were going above his head but as he pondered over it more, he was starting to understand these things.

Electrons revolve around the nucleus and the speed of it, it's not constant as well. His mother had just said one thing, that is, 'nothing in the universe is constant' and she basically gave a conclusion to years of scientific research on Earth.

Previously, way before Lith was born, it was said that electrons, negatively charged particles, and protons, positively charged particles, all were present in the same place and it was called the plum pudding model. Here the speed of electrons was constant.

Then came the gold foil experiment where electrons were actually discovered and here as well, the speed was constant. Then there was the Bohr's model which also said the speed is constant and the electrons just move around the nucleus in orbits with a constant speed.

However, only during recent research in Quantum Mechanics, Heisenberg came up with the uncertainty equation and it was because of this, the concept that electrons move with constant speed was disapproved.

When one measured the momentum, speed was not accurately calculable and vice versa was true as well. The product of uncertainties in momentum and position of an electron was always greater than or equal to  $h/4\pi$  and thus, it was proved that electrons do not move with a constant speed.

Lilith, Lith's mother basically summarized these years of research with just a single sentence and Lith didn't know if he should commend her or be happy to get such knowledge.

In any case, the more Lith thought about this matter, the more things were getting complicated and at his level, his brain would be fried if thought so much. It was best to let everything go and just relax.

Lith took a deep breath and picked up his teacup back. His mother really did end up triggering his memories of past life and made him remember the things he learnt in his science classes.

He sipped on tea and tried not to dwell much on this.

Lilith could notice her son's stress and she wondered what he just thought to become like that. She was sitting beside him and simply patted his head.

"Don't think too much about whatever I said. It's not something that you should know at this level." Lilith said with a smile.

Lith nodded. Indeed. This was a bit too much.

He continued to sip on some tea and heard the discussion of the ladies.

A few hours passed and the discussion was coming to an end. Sel, Rain, Arbour, all these people were given work and they had left the courtyard. There were only a few servants present now.

Lith looked at his ladies and noticed that Emilia seemed tired of everything. He decided to cheer up his soon to be wife and make her relaxed. He was now in a relationship with her, it was his duty as her husband to look after her.

Lith got up from his chair and walking close to Emilia, he held her hand and said, "come with me."

Emilia wondered what it was about but she didn't question much about it and simply got up and continued to hold Lith's hand.

Lith walked at the edge of the pavilion with Emilia and turning back, he looked at the other ladies and said, "ladies, continue with whatever you are doing, I'll get back to you shortly."

Saying so, he left the courtyard along with Emilia.

Looking at them go, Alexandra knitted her brows and muttered, "why is it not me that darling took?"

Lilith was sitting just beside her. She chuckled and patted her head. "Don't worry, your turn will come soon as well. He has to give equal time to all his wives and he's trying his best."

Arya who was sitting opposite to Lilith, nodded and agreed with her. "Indeed. Don't stress, your turn will come."

Alexandra sighed and hoped that her darling just came faster to her. She got back to doing the marriage work and got herself busy with it soon.

Chapter 353 Spending time with Emilia*

Having his fingers locked with Emilia's and holding her hand, Lith was walking slowly through the large and luxurious hallways of the castle.

Emilia had no idea what suddenly got into Lith to pull her away from something like this, but she didn't complain as she didn't hate this.

Previously, Lith's height was short and it would seem as if a child was walking with his onee-san through the hallways had he done the same thing. But now was different. Lith was now 195 cm tall with a lean and muscular build. He looked very handsome as well and since Emilia was just 187 cm, he definitely looked like her boyfriend/husband.

After silently and slowly walking on the red carpets of the luxurious hallways for a few minutes, Lith finally spoke. He turned his head to look at Emilia and putting out a gentle smile, he asked softly,

"Emmy, are you too tired?"

"Eh?" Emilia was surprised as she heard this. What was with this sudden change of mood from Lith?

Lith stopped walking and getting closer to Emilia, he hugged her shoulders and put her in his embrace. Putting one of his hand over the back of her head and one hand on her back, he said softly again,

"You shouldn't work so much. Taking a break every now and then won't hurt."

Emilia had her hands on Lith's chest and her face on it as well. She had no idea why he was doing such intimate gestures, but getting treated so nicely, Emilia felt happy and warm.

For some reason, she immediately let go of all her worries as she was in his embrace and hugged him back. She buried her head on his chest willingly this time and said in humming tone,

"Hmm... will do..."

Lith smiled hearing this and patted her back. He knew Emilia worked hard everyday and hardly took breaks. She also gets tired and frustrated very frequently due to the academy work and these were all signs of burnout. Of course, none of this was a physical thing and everything was related to mental health.

Beings at a level like Emilia hardly would feel any exhaustion from doing anything physical labour inducing. The same couldn't be said for mental health, however.

Despite being at almost the pinnacle of the world, almost all beings had normal mental conditions. Nobody was an emotionless golem or cold like an iceman. Every being was normal and that was a sign of their good health as well.

Even though they had normal mental strength, it was still way above everyone. It wasn't easy to make an Emperor Rank mentally exhausted and judging from how powerful Emilia was, Lith knew that the tasks she did on a daily basis were something with a decent challenge or had decent problems to tire her out so easily.

In any case, Lith knew that he had to be there for Emilia. He was going to be her future husband and it was his duty to look after his wife's health. He was doing just that right now by coming on a walk with Emilia. It was just the two of them and there was no one else to disturb them.

Now that there were three additional members in the harem, Lith's responsibilities have increased. He had to ensure the well being of everyone and Lith was trying his best to give attention, spend time, and look after everyone.

Emilia didn't budge even slightly from her position and continued to stay hugging Lith like that.

Lith kissed Emilia lightly on her forehead and said, "let's walk a bit, shall we?"

Emilia got out hearing that and nodded her head.

Lith locked his fingers again with her's and held her hand. He started walking through the hallway again and slowly as they walked, they soon reached one of the many rooftops present in the castle.

A good thing about the design of the castle was that whatever rooftop one was on, they were guaranteed to get a good view from it and it was very enjoyable to bask in the everlasting light of the silver-crimson moon of the Vampire Continent.

In front of Lith and Emilia was a lake covered with mist, above which was a shining silver moon. They were both at the edge of a cliff and behind them was the Dark Rose Forest. The dark roses could be seen pretty clearly and appeared very vivid, despite there being darkness all around.

"I haven't visited the Vampire Continent much because I always thought it was dark and gloomy. It also felt like that when I visited it last time but now... now it seems different." Emilia put out her thoughts while looking at the scenery present.

Lith smiled and asked, "what changed?"

Emilia's face had a slight blush on it, but she didn't shy away much and said in a low voice, "now there's you here and it feels warm and cozy..."

Lith chuckled hearing it. He pulled Emilia's hand and bringing her back in his embrace, he made her look up at his face by raising her chin.

"Is it more cozy and warm now?" Lith asked with a smile.

Emilia's cheeks turned a bit more red than before. She was actually embarrassed when she realized that she was getting handled like that by Lith who was much younger than her. But even so, she didn't hate it.

"It is..." Emilia said in a low voice despite being embarrassed. She wasn't a little girl in love, she was an experienced and mature lady. If she wasn't even able to say this much, it would be very shameful for her.

Hearing that, Lith slowly bent forward and touched his lips with Emilia's soft cherry red ones. After giving her a peck, he got back and asked again, this time more softly than before,

"What about now?"

Emilia had no idea what to say and her face was flushed now. Lith didn't even give her a warning before kissing her so suddenly! She was a pure angel, you know!?

Lith just took Emilia's flushed face as an answer. He chuckled again while looking at Emilia's cute embarrassed face. This time, once again without giving her warning or hints, Lith bent forwards and sealed his lips with Emilia's.

Emilia couldn't bear the embarrassment and simply closed her eyes. It took her a few seconds, but soon she got lost into the cozy and warm feeling Lith provided her.

Lith soon poked his tongue and hinted to Emilia to have a passionate kiss with him. Emilia, being the pure being she was, didn't get it and just assumed that Lith's tongue was in the way.

Lith, having no other choice, lightly bit onto Emilia's lips. Emilia was surprised and her mouth opened slightly, giving Lith the chance to enter it.

Lith immediately intertwined his tongue with Emilia's and began a passionate kiss with her. Only now did Emilia understand why Lith bit her so suddenly.

Lith continued to kiss Emilia passionately for a few minutes and now that he was a Rank 9, he didn't have to catch his breath like before. He could go on for weeks, months, years, as long as he wanted and there was no limit now.

Lith didn't feel bored kissing Emilia and same was the case for Emilia.

Lith, after a few minutes, moved his hand down from Emilia's lower back to her butt. She was wearing a white shirt and blue jeans today and her big curves were popping out from everywhere very nicely.

Lith grabbed both of Emilia's peaches and gave them a nice tug with a bit of force.

Emilia's eyes opened as she got surprised again but she soon closed it and got back to enjoying whatever Lith was doing to her. She knew Lith was a responsible young man and wouldn't cross the main line and so she didn't resist his advances.

Lith, after groping Emilia's soft peaches for a while, brought his hand up above and towards her big perky breasts. He used one hand each to press on each of her boobs and noticed that she was wearing a bra and he didn't have better access to them.

While continuing to kiss her, Lith started unbuttoning her shirt from the top and just as he did two, Emilia broke the kiss and buried her face on Lith's chest.

"Not here... someone will see..." Emilia said in a low and slightly embarrassed tone.

Lith chuckled hearing it and replied to Emilia, "Don't worry, the servants are well trained. Nobody will be able to see us if we don't want them to."

After saying so, Lith once again got back to kissing her. Emilia didn't resist and let things go. She decided to trust Lith on this and just braced herself for what was about to come.

Lith unbuttoned her shirt fully and as it opened up, her flat and smooth abdomen was visible along with her two big jugs hidden by a red bra.

Lith unhooked Emilia's bra from behind and it fell down. Out of reflex, Emilia hugged Lith tighter and tried to hide her boobs.

Lith let her stay like that for a while and caressed her back till then. He roamed his hands around her smooth bareback and slowly slid them down inside her jeans.

The jeans were a tight fitting one and so Lith wasn't able to put his hands inside properly and tease her holes. He had to unbutton her pants as well and lower them, revealing Emilia's thick thighs and her big soft yet perky ass cheeks along with a red thong.

Emilia felt good with Lith doing what he was doing with her and so didn't voice out any complaints to him. She simply let everything flow naturally and left herself to Lith's wishes.

Lith had only just begun playing with her and there was a lot more that was about to happen. Emilia waited in anticipation for it while Lith prepared himself for the same.

Chapter 354 Spending time with Emilia (2)*

On one of the many rooftops of the Royal Castle, Lith and Emilia were having a passionate kiss together. It had been like that for a few minutes already.

Lith had broken through many mortal realms and was now at its peak. The next realm would be pseudo-immortal realm and he would become one step closer to being an immortal.

Now reaching the peak of mortal realms, Lith's concept of time was starting to change. A few minutes of passionate kissing just felt like a few seconds to him. He wasn't aware of this, however.

Emilia was currently hugging Lith tightly as he kissed her and was half naked. She had her bare breasts pressed against Lith's chest and had her opened shirt on her. Her jeans were gone and she was only on her thong.

It felt embarrassing to be like this and also out in the open. She tried to ignore that and focused on the warm kiss Lith was having with her.

Lith, after a few seconds of kissing, slid his hands down on her butt and grabbed it. He had one of her big peaches on one hand each and kneaded it to his satisfaction. His hands were starting to leave a print on them as he got rougher with Emilia and in response to this, Emilia was starting to breathe a bit heavily.

Lith, holding both of her butt cheeks, parted them lightly and caused her panties to dig slightly onto her slits.

Feeling this, Emilia broke the kiss and looking Lith in the eyes, she said in a low yet cute voice, "someone will really see us... let's go inside..."

Noticing the blush on Emilia's face, some saliva dripping from the corner of her mouth, her hazy blue eyes and slightly messy blonde hair, Lith's heart got pierced by her cuteness.

This mature little lady in his embrace was so damn cute!

Lith felt as if he should never taint or corrupt her. He kept looking at her face and forgot what he was supposed to do.

Emilia, noticing Lith zone out and stare at her, blushed harder. What was up with him? Why would he stare so intently at her? If he kept doing that then...

Emilia stopped thinking more on this as doing so would cause her body to react in some naughty way and she didn't want that.

Emilia looked Lith in the eyes and poking her finger on his cheek, she asked, "why are you zoned out?"

Lith came back to his senses as he felt Emilia's finger on his cheek.

Hearing her question, he simply chuckled and bringing his face close to her's, he rubbed his nose with her's and said,

"Just wondering why my wife is so cute."

Emilia became embarrassed hearing that but she was internally very happy. She didn't say anything else to Lith and buried her face back on his chest.

Lith chuckled and hugging her, he kissed her forehead and asked, "I like the view here, it feels very romantic. However, we can go inside if you want."

Emilia said in a soft voice, "it's fine..."

"Okay." Lith smiled and hugged Emilia. He didn't say anything else apart from that and just enjoyed her company and warmth for a while.

As these two were hugging each other and were in their own little world, a few thousand meters from them, four ladies sitting on a rooftop were having a discussion together.

"Mother-in-law, your son sure knows how to sweet talk." Arya, looking at Lith and Emilia from far away through her blindfolded eyes, said.

Lilith chuckled and said, "I raised him well, didn't I?"

"You sure did." Arya said and laughed.

"Darling..." Alexandra who was just beside Arya and watching Lith and Emilia through a pair of binoculars, said in an annoyed tone.

Why was it Emilia that was there? Why was it not her? Did her darling not love her anymore?

When the ladies had finished with their discussion, they decided to have a small tea break. Lilith suggested they move to the rooftop as the scenery was very good from above and also very calming.

The ladies agreed and came to the rooftop to have tea. But as they did, Arya was the first to notice that on a rooftop, a bit away from theirs, Lith and Emilia were present and were doing lovey-dovey things together. She couldn't help but look at them and Lucy and Alexandra who couldn't see anything from afar, wondered what Arya was doing.

Lilith had put a small barrier around Lith and Emilia but it wasn't strong enough for Arya's senses to be blocked. Lilith only put a barrier strong enough to not let the servants see the two and this caused Arya to notice them.

Lucy asked what Arya was looking at and Arya said the truth. This made Lucy and Alexandra both want to look and Lilith could only go with their wishes and gave them a pair of binoculars each. These binoculars were equipped with a spell that could let them see through the barrier.

Listening to what Alexandra just said, Lucy, standing beside Alexandra and having binoculars in her hands as well, replied, "Calm yourself down. It's not what you think."

She was of the Legendary Rank bloodline and a vampire at that. She could feel the chaotic emotions of others standing close to her from her own race and figure out what they were thinking. She could tell what might be going on in Alexandra's mind.

"But Your Highness, I can clearly see darling doing things with big sis Emilia." Alexandra turned to look at Lucy and said.

For the whole eight years when Lith was away, this small harem of his was together. They hung out from time to time and got to know each other better because of that.

Alexandra had gone past from looking at Emilia as the principal of the academy to now looking at her as a big sister of her's. And she also ended up becoming closer to Lucy and had it been before, she wouldn't have retorted her as she felt her words to be absolute.

Lilith, Lucy, and Lith had the ability to make any vampire suppressed and submissive, given that they had enough strength. Lucy was a King Rank and it was easy for her to suppress Alexandra. But she never did that as there was no need to do it. Alexandra was her family now and she always ensured to treat her well.

Lucy never cared about what house or family Alexandra was from, even though she knew about it. What mattered to her was how Alexandra was treating Lith. Judging from how much Alexandra loved Lith, she could tell that this girl apparently had a few screws loose and needed much more care than anyone.

Lucy thus took time to talk to Alexandra whenever she could and kept a check on her mental health. This caused the two to become closer and it was almost as if the two were best friends.

Alexandra had become much more free now and she spoke out true thoughts in front of Lucy even though Lucy was Substitute Queen now.

Lucy continued to spy on her own brother and said without looking at Alexandra, "He has to give time to all his ladies equally. Don't worry, he won't neglect you and your turn will come soon as well."

'And so will mine. I can't wait to...' Lucy thought to herself as she finished saying that to Alexandra.

"If you say so..." Alexandra said and got back to looking at Lith through her binoculars. Just as she did...

"Oh my... Darling~..." Alexandra's mouth started drooling as she looked at the shirtless Lith through her binoculars.

Alexandra ended up completely ignoring the half naked Emilia and her full focus was on Lith.

Lith had just removed his shirt and was hugging Emilia. Looking at him like that caused such a reaction from Alexandra who was head over heels for him.

Lilith, sitting a few meters away from Arya, Alexandra and Lucy, took a sip of her tea and thought to herself, 'these girls... I should've put up a stronger barrier I guess. Anyway, I'll wait and see what their reactions are. If it's not good, I'll simply make the barrier stronger.'

Though these people were able to look at Lith, Lith and Emilia weren't able to. Lilith had hid everyone so that it didn't disturb Lith and Emilia's sweet time together.

Lith was currently back to groping Emilia's butt again and their wholesome time together was starting to take on a naughty turn. Emilia was getting aroused and so was Lith.

While kissing her passionately, Lith was back to the same position as before and was playing with her butt again. This time however, he didn't knead them for a long time and instead, he shifted his hands closer to Emilia's secret place.

Reaching close to that place, Lith parted Emilia's plump peaches again, causing her panties to once again sink into her slits.

Lith moved one of his hands closer to her hidden honeypot and kept her ass parted with the other hand. He was about to put his hand inside her panties and rub her dripping cunt when he decided to not do it. Instead, he rubbed her slits from over her panties first and decided to take things slow with her.

"Mhm..." Emilia let out a light moan as she felt Lith's fingers on her. Her pussy drooled in response as well and Lith could feel the spot he was touching to get wet.

Lith soon decided to get to the main thing and breaking off the kiss, he turned Emilia around and hugged her.

Emilia was surprised with such a sudden change in position and before she could voice out any complaints, she felt a breeze and looking down, she realized her bare breasts were exposed and out in the open.

Emilia immediately covered them up with her hand and was about to turn behind when she felt Lith's hand on her waist. She looked down and saw him lowering her panties.

Emilia closed her legs and looking behind, she said feeling embarrassed, "Lith..."

Lith simply smiled and asked, "don't want to do it? I can stop, if you want."

Emilia didn't know what to respond to that. She wanted to do it with him but her embarrassment just wouldn't let her.

Noticing her silence, Lith continued to do what he was doing and ended up taking off her panties.

Emilia was now just wearing a shirt and it was open as well. Lith didn't touch Emilia's private place yet and instead took out a big bean bag and put it behind him.

After ensuring it was in place, Lith fell down along with Emilia.

"Wha—" Emilia let out a surprised shout as she fell. But to her surprise, she fell on something soft and it wasn't the ground.

Emilia was totally defenseless and completely dependent on Lith currently. She thus wasn't able to stop the fall.

Lith chuckled once again, noticing Emilia be so confused. He hugged her waist and lay on the big bean bag.

Lith then started nibbling on Emilia's earlobe and while doing so, he said, "just relax and let me do the work."

Chapter 355 Spending time with Emilia (3)**

Emilia's face was flushed as she realized the condition she was in. Had she not been an experienced person, being how pure she was, she would've already passed out from so much embarrassment.

Angels were all pure and even just a kiss on the forehead or cheek from their partners can cause them to pass out of embarrassment. Emilia was no exception to this but since she was a very strong angel, she didn't pass out and only felt the embarrassment.

After Lith said his words, he slid his naughty hands down towards Emilia's drooling unplucked flower and before fully reaching her slit, he first caressed her hairless region and caused Emilia to shiver and hold Lith's hands for support.

Noticing how tight her grip was, Lith chuckled and said, "I didn't even begin and you're feeling good already, yes wifey?"

Emilia was too flustered to say anything and a lot of thoughts were running in her mind. She soon decided to reply to Lith amidst her chaotic thoughts and ended up saying in an embarrassed voice,

"I am not your wife yet."

Realizing what she ended up saying, Emilia felt like burrowing a hole and hiding herself forever in it.

Lith laughed out loud hearing that and kissed her cheek. "Right, right. Don't worry, a few more days and we'll be married."

Emilia didn't say anything to that and simply lay still. She knew that whatever she would say, she would end up making herself embarrassed even further.

Lith didn't tease his soon to be wife further and having her in his embrace, he slid his hand down further and further until he finally reached her fleshy folds.

"Ah~" Emilia moaned as Lith rubbed his finger on her bare pussy.

This was too much for her and she ended up having a small orgasm. All this teasing that Lith did before had already put her on the edge and now it got released as his fingers touched her.

It was a small orgasm and so Emilia was still fine and in the state to go for more rounds.

Lith felt Emilia's hot juices gush out on his fingers and taking them on his fingers, he licked it.

"No... don't do that..." Emilia said with a flushed face.

"Why? It's my wife's love juices, if I don't have it, who else is supposed to?" Lith smiled and said.

"It's dirty..." Emilia said in a mosquito-like voice.

"It isn't. Now relax again and just enjoy yourself, okay?" Lith kissed her cheek and made her body slump on his.

Emilia took a deep breath and nodded her head slightly. She would do as Lith had asked.

Emilia laid on Lith's body and closed her eyes to not see what was happening.

Lith rubbed his fingers on her pussy slit and then touched her clit with his index finger.

"Ah~ It's sensitive..." Emilia said in a low voice while having her eyes closed.

"Alright, I'll be careful." Lith assured her and touched the region around her clit and didn't rush to it directly.

While doing that, his other hand was kneading her breasts and a few seconds of playing with it, he held her nipple in between his fingers.

'Oh, she's very aroused it seems.' Lith thought to himself as he felt how hard her nipples were.

He stopped rubbing her slit and instead shoved his two fingers inside Emilia's dripping wet pussy.

"Ahh~" Emilia moaned.

Lith slid his fingers in and out of her soft, warm and narrow cave and continued to play with her breasts.

While doing so, he had gotten hard and as Emilia was lying on him, his little brother was being pressed by Emilia's soft butt.

Lith stopped playing with Emilia's breasts and decided to check if things were ready down there for him to push it in. He moved that hand down and reaching Emilia's butthole, he rubbed his index and middle finger on it.

Emilia's body shivered as she felt his fingers on her butthole and she wanted to stop him from doing anything else as that place was dirty, but she knew doing so would not result in anything and Lith would still do as he pleased. Thus, she didn't speak out and tried to enjoy whatever Lith was doing to her.

While having two fingers inside and two fingers rubbing on her butthole, Lith felt that her asshole needed lubrication. He took some juices from her dripping cunt and rubbed it on her asshole. After doing so, he shoved his fingers inside her and caused her to let out a moan again.

Lith didn't waste time and loosened her asshole. If he didn't do that, it would hurt her and also make it difficult for him to penetrate.

A few minutes later, Emilia's butthole was all loosened up and ready to be penetrated.

Lith took off his pants and rubbed his rock hard dick on Emilia's wet pussy.

Emilia could feel something hard and hot rub over her pussy and she knew exactly what it was. She opened her eyes to see it clearly and, noticing how big it was, she became shocked and wondered whether it was this thing that she was able to take in her a few years ago.

After having his shaft coated with Emilia's juices, Lith rubbed his tip on Emilia's back door and said, "relax, okay?"

Lith's gentle words made Emilia relax and she anticipated what he would do next.

Lith raised one of Emilia's legs and put his tip gently into her tight asshole. He was slow and didn't rush it as he knew it had been many years since Emilia last did it with him.

Emilia's love juices leaked out immediately as she felt his tip inside her and they were continuing to gush it even further as he penetrated her.

Lith felt the amazing tightness of Emilia's ass as he shoved it in deeper. He kissed her neck and rubbed her breasts and pubic region to make her feel relaxed.

As he kissed her neck, his vampire instincts were starting to awaken and he had the urge to bite her. But now that he was a Rank 9, he had a better control over his own body and immediately stopped kissing her neck.

'Damn, that was close. I would've almost ended up killing myself had I drunk a Seraphim's blood.' Lith thought to himself.

Lith had heard that angel blood was poisonous to vampires and that they should never drink it. However, what effect would it have on him, the prince, was yet to be known. All the blogs and forums consisted of experiences and deaths of normal vampires and there were hardly only a few noble ones that died due to poison.

Lith could test it out right now but he didn't want to ruin the good atmosphere that was created. He simply shoved this thought aside and decided to test it later.

In the next few seconds, Lith's shaft fully penetrated Emilia's butt and he was balls deep inside her.

Emilia felt a little sting as she wasn't too loosened up but it wasn't something she couldn't endure. Also, the pleasure felt more than the pain to her and so she liked this feeling.

Lith soon started moving his hips and while doing so, he rubbed Emilia's pussy and caused an even greater pleasurable stimulation to her.

Her insides were really very tight and Lith felt that his shaft could get crushed under these soft and warm fleshy walls anytime. But despite this, it caused him great pleasure and he was loving every bit of it.

'Having anal sex with a Seraphim is sure a very nice feeling,' Lith thought to himself.

Emilia moaned constantly while getting pounded in the ass by Lith's shaft. She had let go of all embarrassment and was just trying to enjoy this now. She completely ignored the fact that they were out in the open and also the fact that Lith was much younger than her and her former student.

To Emilia, this situation was just very simple. She considered Lith her husband already and it was him that was penetrating her so deep and making her feel so good.

An hour passed with Lith ramming it constantly in and out of Emilia. The entire rooftop was filled with the sounds of flesh clapping together and Emilia's lovely moans.

Lith was yet to feel tired and the same was for Emilia. Both felt as if this was just the warm up and Emilia wanted to keep going for a long time.

Lith decided to change things a bit and he inserted three fingers inside her pussy to finger fuck her.

"Ahhh~"

"Not one more... Ah~"

Lith made Emilia's face turn to him and sealed her lips with his. His three fingers thrust in and out of her sloppy wet vagina while his thick hard rod pounded her tight and soft anal walls.

While the two went on to do this, a few thousand metres away from them...

"Ahh~... Darling~..."

Chapter 356 Lilith teaches things to Arya and Alexandra**

"Ahh~... Darling~..."

Alexandra moaned while looking through her binoculars as her love juices dripped down on the ground after soaking her panties.

She couldn't control herself anymore as she looked at Lith's hot body and his big shaft that was going in and out of Emilia's butt. She imagined herself in Emilia's place and completely ignored her, fantasizing about everything that Lith was doing to Emilia was with her instead.

Her moans grabbed the attention of everyone present around her.

Arya, Lucy, and Lilith looked at her and everyone couldn't help but smile and chuckle. They could understand the reason why Alexandra was behaving like that.

Lilith looked at her and said, "Alexandra, come here."

Alexandra who had her hands on her panties and her eyes fixed on Lith, suddenly got to her senses as Lilith called out to her. She put down the binoculars and turning to look at Lilith, she found her looking at her with a gentle gaze.

"Yes, Your Majesty?" Alexandra asked, instead of going there. She may be close to Lucy, but she wasn't close enough to Lilith yet.

Lilith smiled and said, "Just call me mother-in-law or mother like everyone else. And come here."

Alexandra wanted to retort what Lilith had just said but she didn't. The queen's orders were absolute and she couldn't just go back against it.

She walked close to Lilith and after she reached there, Lilith snapped her finger and the table and chairs disappeared from their place. She snapped her fingers again and a big bed came into that place.

"Mom?" Lucy asked Lilith with a surprised look. What was her mother trying to do?

Arya also was looking at Lilith with an interested and surprised look.

Lilith simply smiled and said, "look at Arya and Alexandra, both my daughter-in-laws have zero understanding of what sex or things related to them is. Isn't it my duty as their mother-in-law to teach them that?"

"What!?" Lucy said in surprise.

Lilith chuckled. "Less talk, more work. Arya, why are you standing there? Come here."

"Me as well?" Arya pointed a finger to herself and said with surprise.

"Yes." Lilith said and got onto the bed. She then gestured to Alexandra to come on the bed and the same was for Arya.

Lilith was sitting in the middle of the bed and Alexandra and Arya got onto it and sat right in front of her with their backs facing Lilith.

Lilith held them by their waists and brought them closer to herself.

Arya and Alexandra both were surprised to get themselves treated like this by Lilith, but since it was their mother-in-law, they didn't say anything and just quietly went with the flow. They knew she wouldn't do anything bad to them and would only do things in their best interest.

After they got settled, Lilith put her hands over Arya's pants and Alexandra's skirt. She pinched the clothing and pulling it, ripped their clothes apart fully from them and they were now just on their panties.

"Eh?" Alexandra and Arya both were surprised once again.

Lilith chuckled and slid her hands down from her daughter-in-laws waists to their panties. She rubbed her fingers over their wet panties and got their juices on her fingers, she lifted her hands up and rubbing the juices between her fingers, she showed it to the two.

"So wet just from looking at him. Anyway, you both don't know how to pleasure yourselves, do you?" Lilith asked the two.

Alexandra had a slight blush on her face as she heard that. The queen was doing such intimate gestures and then she asked this. It was a bit embarrassing for her.

As for Arya, she was just carefree and didn't mind anything at all. Her shamelessness was on par with Lith's.

Arya laughed lightly and said, "I don't. There was no need to do that."

As for Alexandra, she said in a low voice, "I don't either."

Lilith chuckled. She knew about this. Arya and Alexandra both had one thing in common. They both cultivated diligently all their lives and there was hardly any time for self-pleasure. It was only now that they got together with Lith that they were able to enjoy the bliss.

"No worries. I'll teach you." Lilith said and before starting with things, she snapped her fingers again and in front of Arya and Alexandra appeared a big screen where Lith doing it with Emilia was being displayed.

Lucy, noticing this, wanted to facepalm herself. Just what was her mother upto?

Lilith, not wanting to leave Lucy alone, said to her, "you can join as well, you know?"

Lucy looked at her mother and didn't answer her.

Lilith knew what was going on in Lucy's mind. She simply willed the elements around Lucy and pulled her close.

Lucy was surprised with such a sudden action but before she could know it, she was in the middle of Arya and Alexandra, but she was facing her mother and had her legs at Lilith's sides and hands on her shoulder.

"Mom!?" Lucy exclaimed as she noticed this. Why was her mother like this? Did she not find this embarrassing to do?

Lilith simply chuckled as usual and giving Lucy a peck on her lips, she put her mouth on her neck and said, "You must be thirsty, right? Drink first, talk later."

Lucy couldn't even voice out her complaints as her fangs were already lodged inside Lilith's neck and blood was gushing out and entering her mouth. She gave in to her desires and started drinking the blood quietly like an obedient girl.

Having everyone settled, Lilith hugged Arya and Alexandra's waists again.

"Do you feel hot all over your body when you see Lith?" Lilith asked the two while rubbing her hands over their breasts.

"Yes. It also feels tingly down there for me." Arya was honest and said it.

Alexandra nodded her head and didn't say much.

"Fufufu... it's just your body's natural reaction. You can just pleasure yourself at that time and make this feeling go away. If you don't do it, you'll feel like you're on edge and your mood will worsen. It'll also end up affecting your cultivation." Lilith explained.

Arya and Alexandra didn't know how to masturbate and this was a bad thing. They could only just rub the places where it tingles them too much and that was basically it.

Lilith was teaching them the right practice so that they didn't get frustrated and get problems.

Lilith made the two watch Lith doing it with Emilia and began explaining how they should go about masturbating and pleasuring their own selves.

While this was happening, Lith who was the cause of all these, was still continuing to pound Emilia's tight ass.

"Ahh~ Ahh~ Ahh~" Emilia's cute moans reverberated throughout the rooftop they were in.

To Lith, these moans were like a melody and he loved listening to this. He wanted to see how Emilia's face was while she moaned and so, he decided to change positions.

Lith stopped thrusting and turned Emilia's body immediately and made her face him.

Having the position changed so suddenly and noticing Lith's smiling face, Emilia blushed hard and buried her face on his chest. She didn't even want to look at him as she knew this was very embarrassing.

Lith chuckled noticing this and started thrusting his hips again. He grabbed Emilia's big butt and squeezing it, he continued to ram his big rod into her narrow and slippery cave.

"Mhm~ Mhm~" Emilia let out muffled moans as she felt Lith's thing hit her once again.

Lith moved his hands up and first grabbed her hair and tied them behind her in a ponytail. He then made her look up and looking at her blushing and cute face, he said, "You look so lovely."

Emilia didn't respond to that as she was too flustered. She wanted to hide her face again but then something struck her mind and she grabbed Lith's face and sealed his lips with her own.

Lith reciprocated the kiss and grabbing her butt tightly, he continued to ram his dick into her tight asshole.

A few minutes passed and Emilia couldn't take it anymore.

"Ahh~... I am going to... Ahh~... I am..."

Hearing this, Lith thrust his hips faster and a few more minutes later,

"Ahhhh~"

Spurrrt!

"Ohhhh~"

Emilia's toes curled up, her body shivered intensely but Lith held her in place and had her orgasm fully.

Lith timed his orgasm with Emilia's and shot his load deep inside her. He only let out a small groan as he climaxed.

Emilia slumped fully on Lith and hugged him. Lith hugged her back and without taking his shaft out of her, he made her feel comfortable in his embrace.

A bit away from him.

"Ahh~ I am gonna cum too..." Arya said as she intensely rubbed her pussy.

"Darling~..." Alexandra said while doing the same thing.

The two were watching Lith on the screen and masturbating while Lilith held them by their waists and close to her.

Lucy had gotten up from her place and was behind her mother. She had Lilith hugged and was watching everything while having her chin placed on her mother's shoulder.

Lilith had taught everything there was to masturbation and also showed the two their sweet spots. They were hitting these places constantly and as they were already aroused, it didn't take too long for them to climax as well.

"Ohhh~"

"Darling~ Darli– Ahhh~"

Arya and Alexandra had a shaking orgasm and Lilith had them held firmly in her grasp and didn't let their bodies shake too much.

She smiled noticing this and thought to herself that her baby was so amazing, he didn't just climax with Emilia alone, but ended up causing two more of his ladies to climax.

She looked at the screen in front and put her attention back to what Lith was doing.

A few hours later.

Lith went for a few more rounds with Emilia. He felt that it was enough for today and Emilia was currently resting a bit in Lith's embrace as he caressed her hair.

There were just two more days for their wedding now and he would finally be a married man.

Lith smiled looking at the blonde-haired lady in his embrace and thought how amazing things would be once he was married. He would have lots and lots of freedom to do things.

He kept thinking about this and waited for Emilia to fully rest and recover.

Chapter 357 Marriage

A few days passed.

It was now officially the wedding day.

Everything had been prepared and all that was left was for the groom to marry the brides.

"Where is Lith?" Arya, who was in her usual black pants and white shirt, said while looking around the courtyard, as if she could see through her blindfold.

The angel style wedding would happen first and there was time for Arya's turn, she was thus in her usual clothes.

Lilith, who was right beside Arya, put her hand on her shoulder and said with a smile, "No need to worry. He'll be here on time."

"He better hurry as the auspicious moment is gonna pass soon. Also, where is Emilia?" Arya asked Lilith.

Lilith simply chuckled and pointing in a certain direction, she said, "they're here."

Arya turned her head to see in the direction Lilith was pointing, only to feel surprised and amazed.

Lith was walking while having Emilia's hand locked in with his. He was in a classy blue suit, perfectly fitting his body shape and complimenting his lean muscular figure. His long silver hair was tied in a bun and as he walked, he appeared very handsome, elegant and noble.

Adding onto his already very high charms, there was the beautiful and gorgeous Emilia beside him. She was wearing a long sleeve, strapless white bridal dress that also perfectly fit her and accentuated all her curves.

Her silky blonde hair was tied roughly behind her, revealing her smooth and fair nape and her silver earrings. She also had a small tiara made up of white and green flowers present on her head and all in all, she looked like a perfect bride every man would crave and hope to have.

"Fuiyoooh!" Arya whistled and said as she saw the two walk towards them. They both looked so stunning! Especially her soon-to-be husband!

Emilia had a slight blush on her face as she heard Arya's compliment and Lith only let out a small chuckle.

Walking close to Arya and his mother, Lith asked, "where are the others? And mom, Arya, why are you both not in your wedding dresses?"

"Our wedding is at night, there's time. I don't want to dirty that dress." Arya answered with a smile.

Lilith nodded. "Me too."

Lith stared at them as he heard that. They were Supreme Ranks, you know? What excuse was this? They could simply wear it and avoid getting it dirty.

Anywho, he brushed this thought aside and asked, "and where's Alexandra and big sis?"

"They are at the marriage venue." Lilith answered with a smile.

"Hmm? The marriage is not in the castle?" Lith asked, a bit confused.

Lilith chuckled. "No, silly. Angelic weddings cannot be done in dark places like these. The venue needs to be in a warm and bright atmosphere."

"Ah, I see." Lith nodded, understanding what Lilith was trying to say.

"Let's go then, we were waiting for you only." Lilith said and snapped her fingers, causing everyone present there to vanish from their spots and teleport away.

.....

Unexplored regions, Neutral Continent.

In the middle of an usually silent forest, there was a big clearing present where a lot of people could be seen moving around and doing some work. These people were all in either maid or in a butler outfit with the exception of a few.

There was a calm lake present beside this clearing, and near the edge of it, there were a lot of wooden chairs present that were facing a big stage.

The stage had a huge arch covered in various different kinds of flowers present on it and in the middle of the stage, there was a bright golden ball floating in mid air.

There was a tall and lean light blue-haired and silver-eyed man, standing behind the golden ball. He had a white cloth wrapped around his waist and there was a sash present on his body of the same cloth as well, revealing his well built body.

The man was wearing a white cross necklace and golden anklets on his ankles while standing barefoot. His long light blue hair was flowing naturally and he held a book in his hand.

This man was none other than Noman, the Royal Servant Seraphim who would be acting as the priest for Lith and Emilia's marriage.

There were Lucy and Alexandra present on the stage as well, just behind Noman, ensuring that the last minute touches were all done.

Lucy was wearing a red gown and had the Queen's crown on her head while her hair was flowing down. Meanwhile, Alexandra was wearing a black gown and had her hair tied in a bun. Both the two were dressed a bit more formally than usual.

"Alexandra, check if Noman needs anything." Lucy instructed.

Alexandra nodded her head and went to Noman, the priest.

"I need to work faster, they'll be here anytime." Lucy said softly under her breath as Alexandra left.

Just as she said that, space fluctuated near her and Lith, Emilia, Lilith, and Arya teleported out.

"Ah, they're here already." Lucy said and walked close to them.

Looking at everyone running around and preparing things, and the venue, Lith was amused.

The forest, the lake, the stage, and this whole warm atmosphere, it felt so amazing to him. He could swear that if he wasn't a vampire in this life, he would've definitely loved this atmosphere and found it cozy.

Before he could look around further, he saw his sister walk close to him. He looked at her and smiled.

Lucy, after coming close to Lith, had a good look at him. Her brother definitely looked very handsome today and she wouldn't lie about it. Then there was Emilia present beside him who appeared very gorgeous as well.

"You guys are finally here. Come, let's go or the auspicious time will pass away." Lucy said and holding Lith's hand, she walked towards the stage hurriedly.

Arya and Lilith had nothing to do right now and so they took their seats that were present very close to the stage.

A few moments passed and after ensuring everything was done, everyone took their seats and waited for the marriage to commence.

Lucy walked towards her mother and sat beside her while watching Lith and Emilia on the stage.

Alexandra had joined Lucy and was sitting beside her.

All the royal servants had taken their seats as well and they were watching their prince with great interest and happy smiles.

There was Sel, Emilia's secretary, and Rain, Arya's secretary, sitting in the front row as well.

Sel, sitting beside Arya in a white dress, thought to herself while looking at Emilia, 'Madam looks beautiful in that attire and finally... finally she's getting married and will get a chance to have a break after so many years of hard work. She deserves it.'

Only she knew how hard Emilia worked everyday and how much of a break she deserved. Thus, these were her first thoughts as she saw Emilia in her wedding dress.

Noman, after noticing everyone was seated, made the golden ball in front of him float in between Lith and Emilia and above their heads.

He then looked at Lith and Emilia and asked in his deep voice, "Your Highness, Miss Emilia, shall we begin?"

Chapter 358 Marriage (2)

"...shall we begin?"

Lith and Emilia both nodded hearing that.

"Let's begin, Noman." Lith smiled and answered.

Lith knew Noman was a Seraphim and also an Emperor Rank, but his appearance now made him appear more like a Greek god than an angel. But he didn't say this thing out loud and kept it to himself as he looked at Noman with a smile.

Noman nodded his head and looking at the book floating in front of him, he started chanting a few verses from it.

Emilia held Lith's hands in the front and bowed her head as she heard the chants. Lith followed suit and did the same.

The chants Noman was saying were all directed towards the elemental energy Light and not some particular god or anything. The chants were also prayers that wished Lith and Emilia a prosperous and a happy married life together. They also wished for the well being of the two and that there was peace and harmony always present in their relationship.

The priest Noman, while chanting, waved his hand from time to time and a golden thread from the golden ball above Lith and Emilia's head came out and entered inside the two's Magic Cores. This thread was just a strand of Light elemental energy equipped with the chants from Noman.

Noman's chants had so much power in it that the sky always stayed clear of any clouds. There were also a lot of birds and animals that appeared around the wedding venue, watching Lith and Emilia as well as listening intently to what Noman was saying.

Alexandra and Lucy, these two young girls who were witnessing such a thing for the first time were very amused.

Lucy tugged her mother's gown lightly and whispered, "Mom, look."

Though she was wearing the Queen's crown on her head, in front of the actual Queen, she was no more than a little girl.

Lilith put a finger on her lips and said to Lucy, "Shh. We can discuss this after the ceremonies are over."

"Oh... okay." Lucy nodded her head and sat quietly in her place.

Lilith smiled and patted Lucy's head. Her daughter was really very obedient.

Everyone who was here in the venue, except for Noman, a few other angel servants, and Emilia, nobody had witnessed an angel marriage before and didn't know the things that occurred. It was everyone's first time to witness such things and the people were amazed.

Soon, as Noman continued, more and more animals and birds gathered around the venue and the servants were on high alert due to this. They couldn't let any creature get close to the stage and disturb the thing and so, they were on guard.

Usually, in Angel and Elven weddings, the chants that they did during their ceremonies were all very closely related to nature and life itself. Thus, it was natural for the climate to change as well as birds and animals to come and listen.

It was also said that if there was no such thing happening, then the priest who said the chants wasn't a good one and they would need to get someone better. It was either that, or the marriage was bound to be unsuccessful and one shouldn't marry at that point as it was also considered a bad omen.

An hour later.

"...now, before we enter into the final part of the ritual, I hereby ask you both for your confirmation." Noman looked at the two and said in a calm tone.

Emilia held Lith's hands tightly as she heard that.

Noman turned his head to look at Emilia and asked, "Miss Emilia, do you take His Highness, Lith Evure, as your, Emilia Liwet's husband?"

Emilia nodded her head. "I do."

Noman nodded. He turned to look at Lith. "Your Highness, do you take Emilia Liwet as your, Lith Evure's wife?"

Lith nodded his head. "I do."

Noman nodded once again. He then began chanting the verses from the holy book in his hands once again.

The ball of Light above Lith started shrinking in size as it let out more and more golden threads from it as Noman continued his chants.

Soon, it was left to just a small ping pong ball's size and appeared as if it would vanish at any moment.

Noman was almost done chanting now. All that's left was for him to chant the final verse where the husband and wife were supposed to pay their respects to Light, nature, the King of Angels, their ancestors, and their parents.

Noman made the two stand together and said,

"O divine Light, I, Noman, ask you to bless these children as they venture into their married life from here on."

Noman then gestured from Lith and Emilia to bow to pay their respects and get the blessings of the Light.

The two did and the ball above their heads shrunk even further as more threads came out of it. It was now left to only a small candy's size.

After they were done paying their respect to Light, Noman said,

"O mother nature, I, Noman, ask you to bless these children..."

The same thing happened as before and Lith and Emilia bowed to pay their respects to nature.

The birds and animals also bowed this time as they heard Noman say that.

Lith felt some energy enter him as he paid his respect and he felt warm all over his body. He had no idea what it was but since it wasn't something bad, he didn't dwell much on it.

Noman then said, "O Heavenly Emperor, the King of Angels, I, Noman, ask you to bless these children..."

.....

Heavenly Court, Angel Continent.

A blonde-haired man wearing exquisite royal silver and blue robes was sitting on a throne in a domineering manner in a large and spacious court, looking down at the many Angel Kings present.

He had his hands placed on his sword and his deep blue eyes contained the vast experiences of his long life.

This man was none other than the King of Angels, the Heavenly Emperor, Alex Paladin.

It was an usual day for Alex as he was sitting and governing in the Heavenly Court. But right at this moment, Alex heard Noman's prayers and got distracted.

"Silence." Alex commanded and everyone stopped talking in the Heavenly Court and put their whole attention on Alex.

Alex ignored them and closing his eyes, he looked at who was calling him or looking for him.

Soon, Alex saw Noman's Greek god-like figure and as he noticed Noman, Noman looked at him straight in the eyes and raising one of his fingers, he swirled it around in a circle, gesturing Alex to look around.

Firstly, Alex was shocked to find out that it was Noman who called him and secondly, he was even more shocked to find out that it wasn't just Noman present here, but Emilia as well.

The next shock came to him when he looked around and saw the Vampire Queen, Lilith, already staring at him with a smile, having an expression on her face that read 'you're late'.

Alex soon understood the situation and despite being shocked, he knew he had to do his job and give his blessings to Emilia and Lith.

He quickly sent out his blessings and after he was done, he came back to his senses and opened his eyes to see himself back in the Heavenly Court.

'That was... weird. I have no idea why that girl Emilia would end up marrying someone not from the Angel race, but then, it's the Vampire Prince she is marrying. I guess it's okay. The Vampire Queen didn't even inform me about these things, had she done it, I would've personally attended their marriage or become the priest who would get them married.'

'Emilia is like my own child, I've seen her grow to where she is now. I could've at least done this much for her.'

'But all things aside, I am glad that I at least got to know about it now. Had it been any late, Emilia would've ended up falling from grace and I would've been forced to remove her from the Heavenly Court. Thankfully, she hasn't done anything yet that would make her a fallen.'

'Anyway, I wish you the best and my blessings shall always be with you, Emilia. Take care of yourself.'

Alex, despite getting a lot of shocks, was as calm as a still lake and didn't even budge. Even though he ended up looking at the Vampire Queen so suddenly and directly in her eyes, he had no change in his expression.

Alex soon got back to governing and let go of the thoughts he was having previously.

.....

Unexplored regions, Neutral Continent.

"...married life from here on." Noman had only just finished praying to the King of Angels now.

He ended up looking at the King of Angels and also gesturing to him to judge what was happening and give his blessings to the couple. It was due to him that Alex was notified about Lith and Emilia's marriage.

The blessing of the Heavenly Emperor came in the form of bright rays of Light and entered Lith and Emilia's bodies.

The two were about to bow again to pay their respect, when Noman shook his head and gestured to Lith to not do it.

Noman softly said to Lith from the side that he could thank the King of Angels, but paying respect was something that he shouldn't do. Lith had no idea why Noman just said that but since he was someone experienced, Lith didn't question him and did as he was asked.

As for Emilia, she paid her respects. The King of Angels was someone important to her and so she had to do it, unlike Lith. Noman also didn't stop her from doing so.

Noman then prayed and Emilia ended up paying respect to her ancestors. Lith was once again asked not to do it, but this time it was Lilith who stopped him. Once again, Lith was confused but didn't question. He thought that he'll ask her later about why that was the case.

A few minutes later, Lith and Emilia paid their respects to Emilia's parents and then it was finally time to pay their respects to Lilith.

Noman looked at Lilith and said, "O revered one, I, Noman, pray for you to..."

After Noman finished praying, Lilith got up from her seat and walked on the stage and stopped when she was in front of Lith and Emilia.

She hugged the two and patting their backs, she said, "my blessings and my protection shall always be with you."

Lith and Emilia smiled and so did everyone sitting on their chairs.

After Lilith backed off, Lith and Emilia were about to bow to pay their respects when Lilith stopped them. "No need for that, fufu."

After saying so, Lilith went back to her place and Noman began his final chant.

A while later, he said, "...now, with the Light as witness, I, Noman, hereby declare you, Lith Evure, and you, Emilia Liwet, as husband and wife."

"You both may now kiss."

Clap! Clap! Clap!

"WOOOOHOOO!"

"YAAAYYYYY!"

"HAPPY MARRIED LIFE YOUR HIGHNESSSSSS!!!"

The servants went wild with their cheers as they finally saw Lith and Emilia becoming husband and wife. They cheered and clapped with all their hearts and were very happy for their prince.

"Congratulations, little brother!" Lucy shouted as well.

"Congratulations, babe!" Arya shouted.

"Congrats, darling." Alexandra was not so enthusiastic. Why was it Emilia that got married first and not her? She was kind of salty about this.

"Congratulations, baby." Lilith said softly.

"Congratulations, Madam." Sel too said softly.

Lith, who was holding Emilia's hands, looked at her and smiling, he pulled her close in his embrace.

Lith bent Emilia slightly and bending himself, he looked into her gorgeous blue eyes and said with a smile, "I'll be kissing you in front of so many people. You embarrassed?"

Emilia blushed hearing that. Was there a need to say such a thing? Could he not just kiss her without making her aware of the situation she was in?

"...just kiss already..." Emilia said in a low and shy tone.

Lith chuckled and bent down to seal his lips with Emilia's.

Emilia closed her eyes and hugged Lith. She enjoyed the first kiss of her husband fully to her satisfaction and tried to imprint this memory in her mind to keep it there forever.

Just like that, the marriage was over and Lith and Emilia became husband and wife successfully without any disturbances or problems.

After finishing up with their kiss, they made each other wear their rings on their ring fingers and ended up finishing what little formalities there were present.

All the people present had food and non alcoholic drinks and Noman who was on the stage, sang a song for everyone. The song was wishing Lith and Emilia a happy married life and it was something mandatory to do as the people had food and drinks.

The birds and animals gathered around Noman and a few meters around the stage, there were just these creatures present and they were dancing along to the melody Noman was giving out.

Everyone noticing this laughed and felt nothing much about it. They just let the animals do what they were doing and focused on their own foods and drinks.

Lith ended up feeding Emilia and Emilia did the same to Lith. They finished this formality as well and finally, after a few hours, as it was sunset time, everyone left the venue after watching the sunset and cleaning everything up.

It was dark and now it was time for the second marriage to take place, this time, in the Vampire Style.

Chapter 359 Vampire Marriage

Royal Castle, Nightingale.

The castle was brightly lit in the dark environment of the Vampire Continent. It was decorated beautifully and looked very aesthetically pleasing.

Currently, the maids and butlers were roaming all around the castle to prepare things, with a lot of them still doing some final touches to the ballroom of the castle which was now turned into a marriage hall.

A few hours passed and finally everything was done. The groom, the brides, the hall, and the castle, everything was ready.

In the ballroom, there was a big stage present and in front of the stage were a lot of rows of seats. The maids and butlers were all dressed up in formal clothings, which was similar to what the nobles in the vampire continent wore.

The male clothings were dark colored suits with top hats and the female clothings were different colored layered gowns with various ornaments and accessories attached.

The stage was well decorated and in the middle of it, there was a small square pit where water was present. The water was still and just near the pit, there was Luna, the personal maid of Lilith, sitting cross-legged.

Luna was wearing dark colored priestess robes that were a bit revealing. They were tight fitting and accentuated her curves. Her thighs and cleavage were visible and her breasts seemed as if they would break out of her clothes at any moment.

She was in such clothes not because she wanted, but because these were the vampire traditions. In ancient times, the marriage ceremonies would take too long to finish and people used to get bored after a while and leave. To solve this problem, people started making changes to their ceremonies and one of the changes were the clothings of the priest and priestess.

The priest and priestess would usually be some good looking vampire and they would be made to wear such revealing clothes. Over the years, it thus ended up becoming an unofficial rule to have a sexy priest or priestess.

Though Luna was in such clothes, it didn't matter to her at all and she was as calm as the water in front of her in the square pit. The water was reflecting the silver-crimson moon and was an important part of the ceremonies.

Soon, an announcement was made by the escort servangs as Lith and the ladies entered the ballroom stating their arrival.

Everyone turned to look at them and as they did, they couldn't help but feel amazed.

Lith was wearing a black formal suit, white gloves, and his hair was flowing down his head naturally. It didn't look messy, rather, it perfectly matched his toned body, sharp jawline and his neutral face.

Beside him were his mother and sister having their hands locked with his and walking along with him.

Beside Lilith was Arya having her hands locked with her and beside Arya was Emilia doing the same thing.

At Lucy's side, there was just Alexandra present.

The ladies were all wearing black custom made royal bridal dresses that perfectly fit their bodies and brought out the most of them. These dresses, though had the same color scheme, were all different in appearance than the other and no one was wearing the same type of dress.

They all had a veil attached and there were a lot of accessories and ornaments present on them as well such as their earrings, different colored lipstick on their lips, hairpins, etc.

Lilith had a crown on her head and this was the Queen's crown. Lucy had urged her to wear this today as that would be the only right thing to do. She would've also held a sceptre in her hand but couldn't do as both her hands were occupied. One held Lith and the other was held by Arya.

Arya, like usual, had her black blindfold on her eyes but the different accessories she had today were silver colored earrings that she usually never wears, and a red colored rose in her tied bluish-silver hair, acting as a hairpin.

Emilia was more on the simplistic side and wore a green and white tiara made up of flowers. This was a different tiara than the one she wore in her wedding as the flowers in this one were freshly taken from various places in the Vampire Continent and made. There were also golden earrings she wore and a brown wooden hairpin kept her tied hair intact.

As for Lucy, she wore red colored earrings, perfectly being in contrast with the dark clothes she was wearing and a matching color hairpin was present in her hair. There was a tiara made up of dark roses on her head as well.

Beside her, Alexandra wore metallic white earrings and matching hairpin on her hair. There was also a tiara made up of nine red roses and it matched the color of her pupils as it lay on her head.

These beauties, along with their groom, were walking elegantly and with happy smiles towards the stage. They were very excited to finally get married to their beloved and the same feeling was shared by the groom, Lith as well.

As they walked, Lith knew that all his ladies looked stunning but he hadn't gotten a chance to look at them clearly since they didn't allow him to be in the changing room with them. He only just met them outside of the ballroom and was now walking towards the stage.

But no worries, he had all the time in this world and would take his time to admire them later and appreciate them. These clothes weren't coming off anyway until they reached the nuptial chamber.

Lith, along with his ladies, finally got on stage and sat close to the square pit filled with water. The ladies sat beside him in the same way they were walking while holding him.

The priestess, Luna, after ensuring that everyone was settled, looked at Lith and asked, "Your Highness, shall we begin?"

Lith nodded his head.

Luna nodded as well and taking out a book from who knows where, she started reading it and chanted verses from it.

The vampire marriage ceremonies began by seeking the blessings of the silver-crimson moon.

As Luna continued to chant, the room became darker, the ceiling of the ballroom opened up and the image of the moon in the water became brighter and brighter. Soon, crimson rays of light emerged out of the water and hit Lith and the ladies present.

Nobody tried to evade it or resist it as they knew it was nothing harmful. They simply took the light inside their bodies and felt a cool sensation all over them.

It took a while for the chants to finish and after it was done, Luna said, "Now then, let's begin with the first ceremony."

As she said that, the square pit in front of her changed into a slightly bigger circular pit. The water from inside it was gone, the ceiling was closed and the room was back to being brightly lit.

"Please drop your rings inside the pit." Luna said to everyone sitting.

They all nodded and dropped the wedding rings inside. As they did, the pit soon got filled with a milky white liquid and there was no way one would be able to see through it.

In this ceremony, the rings would be floating inside the liquid and the pit was so big from the inside, there was no way one would be able to fish out a handful of rings from it if they put their hand into it to grab them.

Magic spells were inscribed all around the pit from the inside and it ensured that only luck would come into play when someone puts their hand inside the liquid to grab the rings. There was no way one could see, feel, use their spiritual senses, or do anything that would allow them to cheat.

But of course, that was only for normal people and the ones currently in this ceremony were people who were too powerful. When there was a situation such as this, it was expected of the people getting married to not cheat and nothing else could be done about it.

Luna explained about the ceremony to everyone and said that there are ten rings inside. Five of these rings belong to Lith and were from one bride each. The other five rings were from Lith and belonged to one bride each that Lith is supposed to make them wear.

The groom and the brides are supposed to fish out the correct ring from this liquid and make their partner wear it.

If Lith succeeds in fishing out a ring for the brides, say, Lilith first, Lilith would need to reward Lith with a prize.

But if Lilith took out a ring first and made Lith wear it, Lith would need to give her a prize.

This was the same that would happen with each lady and this game was all a matter of luck. There were no skills or anything involved in this.

After having explained the rules and the things they needed to do, Luna got up from her place and backed away a bit.

The ladies all gathered around the circular pit and everyone placed their hands above the liquid as per Luna's instructions.

"When you hear a gunshot, you can begin." Luna said calmly and took out a small gun from who knows where.

Everyone got ready and looked each other in the eye with a playful smile on their faces.

But, Lith noticed that he couldn't see Arya's eyes. He looked at Luna and said, "One second, Luna."

Luna didn't fire yet and stopped.

The ladies were confused, but Lith turned to look at Arya and said with a smile, "Babe, are you going to keep wearing a blindfold even during the wedding ceremony?"

Hearing this, Arya asked, "Hmm... Should I remove it then?"

Lith shook his head and said, "Not really. I don't mind what you do. I was just asking."

"My dear lover, what do you want me to do? Remove it or keep it? Because both options are fine with me. I'll surely get a headache if I look normally with my eyes, but now I am a Supreme Rank and it'll take many years for such a thing to occur. I wear a blindfold out of habit. It's fine if you want me to remove it." Arya explained with a smile.

"Oh? Then, if it isn't affecting your health, then please remove it. I wanna see your beautiful eyes." Lith said with a smile.

"Sure." Arya smiled back and pulled her blindfold off.

Her bluish-silver silver eyelashes fluttered for a bit and finally, Lith was able to see her dazzling blue eyes. Arya's blue eyes appeared as if the whole sky and ocean was inside it and Lith wouldn't lie, this was definitely something he was missing out majorly on. He should've asked her to remove her blindfold before itself.

Arya blinked a few times and looking at Lith staring at her, she smiled and asked "Can we begin or are you just going to stare?"

Lith chuckled and looking at Luna, he said, "Okay, we can begin now."

Luna nodded and started counting.

"3..."

"...2..."

"...1."

Bang!

Chapter 360 Identify your bride

Bang!

As soon as the gunshot was heard, everyone put their hand in the liquid and swirled it around. They didn't do it intensely but were slow as it was just on the basis of luck that they'll be able to find a ring.

They looked each other in the eyes with a smile as their hands moved in the liquid. Lith, who had his gaze fixed on Arya currently, thought of pranking her and moved his hand inside the liquid to grab hers.

He soon found her hand and grabbing it, he smirked at her and rubbed his middle finger in the middle of her palm to remind her of something.

But to his surprise, Arya had no reaction. 'It didn't work?'

Lith then rubbed his finger faster onto her palm but still there was no reaction from Arya. Also, not only that, Arya was still moving her hand but the one Lith was holding was stationary.

'Ah... I grabbed someone else's hand...' Lith understood the problem.

The liquid had space spells attached to it as well and the position of one's hand wasn't fixed in the certain space and it was chaotic. Thus, it could be anyone's hand that Lith might touch at any given point and it wasn't fixed.

Lith looked around to see whose hand was stationary and whose palm was it that he was rubbing. It didn't take a long time to find out the person as he saw Emilia have a slight blush on her face and her hand to be stationary.

Lith chuckled noticing this and looked Emilia in the eyes.

Emilia looked back and soon found the culprit who was doing naughty things to her in the liquid. 'He... can he not just finish the ceremony normally?'

Lith continued to rub Emilia's palm with his middle finger and Emilia couldn't take it anymore and brushed Lith's hand aside and got out of his grasp.

Lith felt fun doing this and went in search of his next prey. He moved his hand and soon ended up finding another one. He grabbed it and soon fingered the palm again.

This time as he looked around, he saw Alexandra staring at her hand and in the water with a serious expression.

Lith controlled his laughter as he looked at her and continued to finger her palm.

'What is happening...' Alexandra thought to herself as she looked at her hand.

She then looked up to see who had just grabbed her hand and saw Lith trying to control his laugh while looking at her.

Alexandra immediately understood that it was her darling's doing. 'Ah, so it's darling. Hehe, it's fine then. He can play as long as he wants.'

Lith soon let go of Alexandra's hand and decided to seriously fish some rings. But before he could do it...

"Ah, found it." Lucy yelled from his side as she took out a ring.

Everyone's attention was turned to her as they saw her happily jump around with a ring.

But before she could say anything, Arya's sharp gaze fell on the ring and she said to Lucy, "Heh, little sister, you should check the ring before being happy."

Lucy stopped jumping around as she heard that. Arya was right, she should first check it. She didn't do it because she was the first person to find a ring and was very happy due to it.

Lucy opened her palms and looking at the ring, she realized that it indeed wasn't hers. "Ah, it's not mine."

"Whose is it then?" Lith asked.

Lucy looked at Lith and smiling, she said, "why would I tell you?"

She dropped the ring back into the liquid while showing her tongue playfully to Lith.

But just as the ring touched the liquid, a hand grabbed it from submerging fully inside and picked it up.

Everyone noticed it and Lucy, who had just thrown it, said, "hey, hey, mom, that's cheating!"

Lilith, who was the one to grab it, simply chuckled and said, "Is it? I didn't pick it up when it was in the air though. I picked it when it touched the liquid."

Lucy felt silent hearing that and so did everyone.

Lilith laughed noticing their gloomy faces and said, "Don't make such faces, I never said the ring was mine."

"Oh, I see. Phew..." Lucy sighed in relief.

"It's a relief then." Arya nodded and said.

Emilia and Alexandra rejoiced as well as they realized that they still had the chance to be first.

But Lilith didn't let them feel this way for long as she poured a bucket of cold water onto their expectations by saying, "Don't just rejoice, I never said the ring wasn't mine either."

"What!?" Lucy exclaimed. Everyone was shocked, not just her.

Lith chuckled from the side as he saw his mother play with the emotions of his other ladies and said, "Mom, no need to make them so stressed."

"Fufu, you're right. Alright, I'll tell you who this ring belongs to. It belongs too..." Lilith created a bit of suspense and watched their faces for some drama.

Everyone looked at Lilith with curiosity and it wasn't just the ladies, but the servants who were watching were also very curious to know who the ring belonged to.

"...It belongs to me, hehe." Lilith broke the ice and said.

"Tsk." Arya clicked her tongue.

"Sigh." Lucy, Alexandra, and Emilia sighed.

Winning against the Vampire Queen sure was difficult.

"No need to feel so down, I didn't cheat or anything, did I?" Lilith smiled and said.

"That's true..." Emilia said from the side.

Lith, standing beside Lilith, chuckled and clapped and congratulated his mother.

Lilith successfully made Lith wear his ring and as for the prize, Lilith ended up telling Lith in his ears that she'll take her prize from him later when they're alone.

Lith felt excited knowing it was definitely something naughty and he hoped all his ladies just answered with something like this as well.

With a new fire burning in his heart and with great determination, he got back to continuing this ceremony with them.

Lilith was done and she couldn't participate anymore. It was just Lith, Lucy, Alexandra, Arya, and Emilia.

Everyone happily enjoyed the ceremony together and in the end, Lith ended up winning against Arya, and Lucy and lost against Emilia and Alexandra.

After this ceremony was over, Luna immediately announced the commencement of another ceremony.

These ceremonies were more like fun games rather than ceremonies and they were present solely for making the weddings very joyous and entertaining. If they weren't there, the wedding would've been over within an hour or two and there was hardly anything else present in it.

As the ring fishing ceremony got over, the next ceremony was called 'identify your bride'. It was simple, all Lith had to do was figure out who his wife was.

"So I just have to identify them? Nothing else?" Lith asked Luna, a little confused as to why this game was so simple.

Luna nodded. "Yes. There's nothing more to it."

"Fufufu, it's not as easy as it sounds, baby." Lilith, standing beside Lith, said to him.

Lith smiled and replied, "it doesn't matter what form, I'll definitely be able to identify you."

"We'll see about it now." Lilith smiled and said.

Luna clapped her hands twice and all the maids sitting on their chairs in the ballroom got up and went backstage.

The brides went there as well as per Luna's instructions and Lith was made to get off stage.

Soon, the stage was made to disappear and in front of Lith was a big curtain that reached one end of the ballroom to the other and covered its full height as well.

Lith was curious to see what would happen next but instead of him assuming the curtain will open up and he'll see something, right in the next instant there were a lot of holes made in a single horizontal line and out of each hole, there was one leg that came out.

Luna made Lith get closer to the legs and pointing towards them, she said, "Your Highness, you'll move from one end of the curtain to the other and you'll be looking at each person's leg.

"If the person is your bride, then you'll have to say who it is. If you identify correctly, then the bride shall reward you, but if you identify incorrectly, there will be a penalty as well as you'll need to reward them."

"There's two ways you can identify the bride incorrectly. Firstly, the person you just selected isn't any one of your brides. That's a straight wrong. The second way would be, the person you selected is indeed one of your brides, but you didn't guess the name correctly. When this happens, it'll result in a draw and both parties will have to reward each other."

Lith nodded hearing it. Seems simple instructions.

Luna then made Lith stand in front of the first leg coming out of the curtain and gestured to him to identify it, thereby marking the commencement of the event.

Lith looked at the slender and fair leg in front of him but it appeared a bit short. It was definitely not any of his ladies' leg as they all had long legs with thick thighs.

Lith continued to walk and there were a series of either short or too slender legs and he ended up rejecting them.

Finally, after a few minutes, Lith came across the first thick and long leg. He looked at it and turning to look at Luna, he asked, "I am allowed to touch?"

Luna nodded her head. "Yes, Your Highness, it's allowed."

As she said that, she got close to Lith and said softly in his ears, "not only that, you can also move your hands further and insert them inside the curtain hole and touch their private areas. All ladies standing behind the curtain are not wearing their panties."

'Oh damn...' Lith thought to himself. Which genius person had such an idea, Lith wondered. What an amazing game it was!

Lith held Luna's shoulder and got close to her ears. "Why didn't you say so before?"

Luna didn't mind Lith touching her. Lith was her master and he could do anything he wanted with her. She simply smiled and calmly said to Lith, "You didn't ask me this question before, Your Highness."

"Tsk." Lith clicked his tongue. He should've asked this right away when he saw the first leg. How awesome would it be to take full advantage of this situation?

Lith backed off and got back to observing the leg. What was gone was gone and he still had a lot of legs left to examine.

Lith walked close to the leg that appeared as long and thick and he carefully examined it. He then touched it to see if it felt like any of his lady's legs or not. He touched the calf muscles, the hamstrings, and went up and up and up to see how things felt. Lith soon had his hand inside the curtain and his hand touched something soft and mushy.

Lith could definitely tell that it was the lady's pussy who was standing here and as he rubbed it a bit and moved his hand up, his hands felt some rough sensation on them.

'Oh, there's pubic hair. Interesting.'
