

VAMPIRE'S SLICE OF LIFE

Chapter 4 Walk

After knowing and coming to terms with my new identity, the first thing I did was snuggle into my mother's breast and suck her milk out from her beautiful nipples. She seemed a little surprised from my sudden action but didn't say anything and just caressed my hair lovingly.

After a while I started struggling in her arm and tries to wiggle myself downwards.

"What is it dear? Do you wanna go down and walk?" She asked me after noticing me struggle to which I simply nodded.

"You won't be able to walk much my baby and you'll miss out on certain things and also the view up here is very nice and the place up here is also very cozy, do you still wanna go down?" She looked at me playfully and tempted me.

What my mother said did make sense, I being a baby cannot walk much. It has nothing to do with snuggling close to her breasts. Definitely not.

The environment here is very gloomy and dark but now that I seemed to close my eyes and sense it around, I somehow started feeling comfortable around here. I am not a human anymore, I am a vampire, it is only natural for me to feel like this, now that I think about it. Oh wait, will I be afraid of garlic, crosses, sunlight and not get to trespass into other people's property? Ah there are so many weaknesses. But this environment is nice though.

"You like this place dear?"

I look around and see a lake reflecting the beautiful silver crimson moonlight and the lush dark trees and vegetation around it. Indeed it does look good and comforting. It has a weird sense of aesthetic to it. My mother pulled out a mat from who knows where and sat on it with me in her arms. She caressed me and waited for me to answer her.

“Yes. Lith loves mama and this place.” Was my simple reply. I indeed like this setting. Sitting with my loving mother near a lake and doing nothing. It had a weird sense of warmth to it. My mother not expecting me to answer like that hugged me and said

“Night?” Isn’t it night all day long? I said one word and thought the other.

“Yes my baby, even if it is dark, there is a cycle of day and night. Look at the moon. The crimson hue is gone from it and it is silver indicating night time.” She said pointing above me. I craned my neck and looked up and indeed, the crimson hue was gone. I was a bit surprised. Just how many surprises await me?

I came back into my mother’s bedroom with my mother almost instantly after we watched the scenery at lake. She like always removed her breasts and fed me with her pink nipples. I decided to try something new today so I didn’t immediately suck her up. She looked at me looking at her and asked

“What is dear? Do you want something?” In a gentle tone.

“Mama, clothes no, Lith mama warm hug, sleep.” I did the best baby impression I could and asked her to be naked with me. She looked at me surprised but smiled and complied with my demands. In a instant her clothes were gone and she was naked in front of me.

“Happy?” She hugged me closer, smiled and asked me. I nodded and kissed her on the cheek and sucked her and slept. She looked at me lovingly, draped a blanket over and patted me and slept herself too.

The next morning.

I woke up and looked at my mother who was already awake and stroking my head.

“Good morning, my baby.” She kissed my forehead and said.

“Goodmownming mama” I once again did the baby impression and greeted her. After greeting I once again latched onto her pink, tasty nipples and had milk.

Lucy arrived at the room and our mother half naked breastfeeding me and found nothing odd. Mother too, was normal. I found it weird at first how both can be normal but chose to stay ignorant. Well, if no one’s uncomfortable why should I care.

“Big sis Lusshii, hug.” I said while opening my arms. I can’t really say Lucy clearly because of undeveloped vocal cords so I don’t need to imitate a baby voice for her. Which is a little relief.

“Aww my dear, come to big sis here.” She said smiling while holding me and kissing my cheek.

“Goodmorning dear.” Lilith said kissing on Lucy’s forehead.

“Goodmorning mom.”

“Goodmownming big sis.”

“Goodmorning my dear.” Lucy kissed Lith on the cheeks again.

“Big sis, there.” I said pointing at the bookshelf. She takes me there and I point at the book stating basics of magic.

“You want me to read you that book dear?” She asked, little confused as to why a little child would want to read this book. I simply shook my head.

“Then what do you want, dear?”

“Big sis, teach Lith magic.” I made the comment which marked my first step into the realm of magic.
