Chapter 91: Returning Home (3)

"If you want to worry about these things, why don't you worry about yourself?" Shen Miao said.

"Me?" Shen Yue became nervous. "What should I be worried about?"

"Do you think your maids can still live after seeing the scene in that room?"

"What?"

"It seems like Second Sister is still very naive." Shen Miao smiled. "How long do you think a servant who knows their master's secret can live?"

Huang Ying and Qing Luan, who were beside Shen Yue, immediately turned pale. They naturally knew that there were plenty of nasty things in rich families. Once they were seen by servants, the servants would only die. Only the dead could keep secrets.

Shen Yue was shocked. Just now, she was so shocked to see what happened to Shen Qing that she forgot her maids were in danger. It was not that she was a sentimental person, but it took a lot of effort to nurture a personal maid. Of course, she was not willing to let her maids die.

"It's not just the two of them." Shen Miao smiled and glanced at Yan Mei, Shui Bi, and Nanny Gui. "None of them can escape."

Nanny Gui and the two maids almost fainted.

Shen Miao turned to leave, but Shen Yue quickly stopped her. "Where are you going?"

"Didn't we come to Wolong Temple to offer incense?" Shen Miao replied indifferently. "I also have a lot of questions to ask Buddha."

With that, she left without looking back, as if whatever happened here didn't concern her in the slightest. Everything was going according to plan. She would sleep for a night, then burn incense and pray for peace.

"Wait!" Shen Yue suddenly said, "Why aren't her two maids here?"

Nanny Gui was also stunned.

When Shen Miao met Shen Yue this morning, she asked Jingzhe and Gu Yu to go to the kitchen to get some food. They hadn't appeared until now, so they didn't know what happened to Shen Qing. Now that Shen Yue thought about it, how could it be such a coincidence? Shen Qing and Shen Yue's maids had both witnessed something ugly and couldn't escape the punishment. However, neither of Shen Miao's maids was around. She was obviously the one who sent them away on purpose.

She already knew that this would happen today. She already knew that something would happen to Shen Qing.

Shen Yue looked back, but Shen Miao was no longer there.

When it was noon, the rain finally stopped.

Xianglan searched the entire mountain but could not find a doctor. Usually, other than the occasional visitors, no one else would come here. When the monks in the temple fell ill, they would just grab some herbs and cook them. Xianglan could not find a doctor, so she could only go to the monk and ask for some calming herbs and medicine for Shen Qing.

The room was filled with the smell of herbs and a strange smell. Even though it had been cleaned, the smell still lingered. The woman on the bed had her eyes closed, and Ren Wanyun was sitting by the window. In just a few hours, she seemed to have aged ten years.

Chapter 92: Returning Home (4)

The maids in the room did not even dare to breathe loudly. After such a big thing happened, there was no guarantee if they could live to see the sun rising tomorrow morning.

While Ren Wanyun was staring at the curtain in a daze, Shen Qing suddenly moved on the bed. She quickly called with worry, "Qing?"

Shen Qing opened her eyes. The moment she saw Ren Wanyun, she looked terrified and reached out to scratch Ren Wanyun's face. "Let go of me. Go away! Help!"

"Qing, I'm your mother! I'm your mother! Don't be afraid. I'm here!" Ren Wanyun felt like her heart was being cut by a knife, but Shen Qing seemed to not recognize her. She just struggled with all her might and stared at the ceiling, shouting crazily.

Xianglan and Caiju quickly went forward to help hold Shen Qing down. Shen Qing seemed to have lost her mind and did not even recognize Ren Wanyun. As she struggled, the medicine that was applied to her body was all messed up. The bloody wounds came into Ren Wanyun's sight, and she immediately cried out in fright.

"Madam." Xianglan and Caiju were shocked and afraid. Ren Wanyun had always been an opinionated person who could handle anything calmly. She had been through a lot over the years, but now she was pushed to this extent. The two girls who had been with Ren Wanyun for many years could not help but be shocked.

"Where is Shen Miao?" Ren Wanyun asked aggressively.

"Fifth Miss... is in the temple," Cai Ju said carefully.

"Take good care of Qing. If anything happens to her, the two of you will die." Ren Wanyun turned around and left in a huff.

In the temple, a huge golden Buddha statue stood tall and looked down at the believers with a benevolent expression.

In front of the statue, Shen Miao knelt on the ground with incense in her hand, thinking about something.

She had been kneeling here for a few hours.

"Miss, get up and take a rest." Jingzhe persuaded her. "Buddha must have already seen your sincerity. What you ask will definitely be answered."

What she asked would be answered? When Shen Miao heard this, the corners of her mouth curled into a bitter smile. What she asked could no longer be answered. Although she had a chance to redo the mistakes of her previous life, those who had passed away would not come back. Would her Wanyu and Fu Ming have a chance to live again as well?

They had probably long become ashes and disappeared from this world.

Moreover, she was not a believer.

Shen Miao looked up at the huge golden Buddha statue. It was just a cold statue, so it was impossible for it to really save all living beings. If the heavens had eyes, how could they let good people die miserably and allow the bad people to continue doing bad things?

She knelt here and kept offering incense, not to Buddha, but to the people who had died because of her.

"Shen Miao!" An aggressive voice suddenly barged in.

Shen Miao smiled. She already expected Ren Wanyun to come after her.

She rubbed her sore knees and stood up. She turned around and looked at Ren Wanyun with a smile. "Second Aunt."

Seeing Shen Miao's smile, Ren Wanyun felt that it was even more ear-piercing. She quickly walked forward and raised her hand to slap Shen Miao.

When Jingzhe and Gu Yu wanted to stop her, it was too late. However, the slapping sound they expected did not appear. Shen Miao grabbed Ren Wanyun's arm and stopped it in mid-air.

"Second Aunt, I don't know why you're so impulsive. Although you can discipline me on behalf of my father and my mother, I'm afraid you need to have a good reason for doing so," she said.

Chapter 93: Returning Home (5)

Ren Wanyun did not expect Shen Miao to stop her slap. The girl in front of her was slender, but her arm hurt a lot when she held it. Her niece, who was originally the most obedient and easiest to coax, had actually grown taller. She could no longer look down on her like when she was young. If she was not careful, she would be schemed against by this little b*tch.

She put down her hand unwillingly and gritted her teeth. "Shen Miao, don't pretend to be stupid. You did it, right?"

Now that Shen Qing was delirious, she had no way of knowing how things ended up like this. However, Ren Wanyun also knew that if she said that this had nothing to do with Shen Miao, she would never believe it. She did not know what method Shen Miao used, but if she touched Shen Qing and made her like this, she would definitely not let her off easily!

"I'm very sorry that First Sister was harmed by someone, but how can Second Aunt suspect me?" Shen Miao smiled. "After all, if I hadn't changed rooms with Eldest Sister, I would have been the one killed today. I can't do such a dangerous thing."

Then I'll be the one killed today!

It would have been better if she didn't say that. As soon as she said that, Ren Wanyun felt her head hurt. She clenched her fists tightly, her eyes like a sinister snake. "That was what you should have endured. You let Qing'er be harmed in your place."

Seeing Ren Wanyun like this, Jingzhe and Gu Yu were shocked and angry. They were shocked that this Second Madam, who had always been kind, would actually fall out with them and be so cruel. They were angry that if not for Shen Miao being vigilant last night, the three of them would have suffered today. However, Ren Wanyun actually blamed them. She was simply shameless!

"Second Aunt, you can't say that. There's still Buddha." Shen Miao chuckled, and her eyes seemed to be filled with a strange light. "Everything in this world is decided by fate. Last night, it was not me, but Eldest Sister. Second Aunt, why do you blame me instead of the heavens?"

Ren Wanyun was almost angered to death by Shen Miao. She sneered. "You're quite sharp-tongued. I underestimated you in the past."

"Oh, so that's how Second Aunt sees me." Shen Miao smiled indifferently.

Ren Wanyun looked at Shen Miao in front of her. The girl in plain clothes had a gentle expression, and her delicate facial features were beginning to fade. At some point, that stupid idiot, Shen Miao, had completely disappeared. The past Shen Miao was no longer in front of this person. She had been playing politics in the back mansion for so many years, and this was the first time she had fallen into the hands of a little girl, and it was at such a painful price. The more elegant Shen Miao was, the more it reminded her of Shen Qing's misery.

"Shen Miao, if you're pretending to be confused, I might as well tell you the truth." Ren Wanyun suddenly smiled sarcastically. Since they had already shed all pretenses of cordiality, there was no need to pretend to be loving. She said, "Do you think this matter is over? Old Madam won't let you off, and your second uncle won't either. That person... won't let you off either. Your ending will definitely be tens of thousands of times worse than Qing'er's. You will definitely... be ridden by thousands of people and forever become a slut!"

"Madam, be careful with your words!" Jingzhe and Gu Yu said in unison. Ren Wanyun was the second madam of the Shen family. After all, Shen Gui was a member of the bureaucracy. Ren Wanyun usually looked friendly and noble, but she actually cursed such a vicious and vulgar person. It was not an exaggeration to say that she was Shen Miao's enemy. Shen Miao was still young, but her ears were already stained by these dirty words.

Chapter 94: Returning Home (6)

Only then did Ren Wanyun seem to notice Jingzhe and Gu Yu. She sneered and said, "You even went to the trouble of protecting two maids. I want to see how long you can protect them!" With that, she glanced at Shen Miao strangely, turned around, and left.

After Ren Wanyun left, Jingzhe and Gu Yu looked at Shen Miao in panic. Gu Yu said worriedly, "Miss, is it really good to fall out with her like this?"

"We'll fall out sooner or later anyway. No matter how well we seem to get along with each other on the surface, she won't show mercy on me when I'm down and out. Why should I keep putting on a show? It's useless," Shen Miao said.

She was not in the mood to play a game with Ren Wanyun. Now that Ren Wanyun had already lost her mind from anger, she would definitely take revenge crazily.

"But... when we return to the mansion, Old Madam will definitely side with them..." Jingzhe whispered. Old Madam Shen favored the second branch the most, not only because Shen Gui was Old Madam Shen's biological son, but also because Ren Wanyun gave birth to two sons for Shen Gui. Needless to say, the eldest son of the second branch, who had taken a post at another place, would also return to the capital at the end of the year. With two grandchildren, Old Madam Shen would definitely favor the second branch.

Moreover, Ren Wanyun had a glib tongue. She could make everyone believe that it was Shen Miao's doing.

"So be it. I didn't expect these people to stand up for me." Shen Miao smiled.

When Gu Yu saw her smile, she felt a lump in her throat and suddenly said, "If that's the case, I'll use this matter to threaten them. If anything happens to Miss, I'll tell the world about it even if I have to risk my life!"

"That's right." Jingzhe also looked serious. "Although it is not the best idea, we definitely won't let them off easy!"

Shen Miao was a little stunned. She didn't expect her maids to be so brave. After a moment of surprise, she smiled. Back then, in order to protect Shen Miao, Gu Yu admitted that she stole a jade artifact from the palace and was sentenced to death by the crown prince of the State of Qin. Jingzhe tried to rope in a powerful official for Shen Miao by using her body and was willing to be his concubine. She was beaten to death by the wife of the powerful official. The two of them were loyal to her to begin with. Unfortunately, in her previous life, she couldn't give them anything.

In this life, she had to protect these girls no matter what.

"No need. I didn't intend to spread this news. Second Aunt won't let it spread either."

“Then doesn’t that mean that this matter has to be kept a secret forever? But it can’t be kept secret forever. If First Miss gets married, the secret will naturally be discovered.” Gu Yu was a little puzzled. Unless Shen Qing stayed single all her life, once she got married, her husband would find out that she was no longer a virgin.

“Therefore, they will definitely find a way to deceive everyone. As for what they want to do to me, they will definitely ask that person for help.”

“That person?” Jingzhe asked, “Who is that person?”

“Of course it’s the person who humiliated First Sister.” Shen Miao chuckled. “Do you really think last night was an accident?”

Jingzhe and Gu Yu trembled. Although they had already vaguely guessed what was going on, they did not want to believe it. They did not believe that someone would harm Shen Miao like this. This method was too vicious. They did not believe that Shen Miao would be able to predict the future, nor did they believe that it was the second branch of the Shen family who did this. Although they knew that the people in the east courtyard were up to no good, they did not expect them to be so vicious as to use such a nasty way to deal with their own family.

Chapter 95: Returning Home (7)

“Miss... was it really Second Madam who set you up?” Gu Yu asked with difficulty.

If it was just an accident, they would feel glad that Shen Miao escaped that night. However, if it was intentional, then the second branch deserved it.

After that, he flashed a fawning smile at the young woman, who stared at him for a moment before releasing his ear.

After regaining his freedom, the young man rubbed his ear and cursed at Wind Lord, who was inside the mirror. He was clenching his teeth as if he had shifted all the blame to Wind Lord for the pain he had suffered.

A moment later, he put on a smile and let out a breath before saying, “It’s said that Dao changes everything, be it for better or for worse. Everything in this world is inconstant, including Humans.”

After he finished speaking, he took a step forward and directly entered the mirror. As a ripple spread across its surface, the young man disappeared from the room. The next moment, he appeared in the hall and stood in front of Wind Lord.

The young man was handsome and his smile appeared harmless. Wind Lord was flabbergasted because from his perspective, the young man appeared too abruptly, as though he just walked out of the Void with no signs prior to that.

Wind Lord narrowed his eyes and stared at the young man warily, given that even with his cultivation, he still wasn’t able to gauge how powerful this young man was. Other than the fact that he himself was in a terrible state currently, it also went to show that the young man before him was truly extraordinary.

Chapter 96: Returning Home (8)

Among the three sons of the Shen family, they all had different personalities. Shen Xin was upright and resolute, but he was too rough and not careful enough. He valued loyalty over anything else. Shen Gui was good at pleasing people, and he was greedy and lecherous in the bureaucracy. In his family, in addition to Ren Wanyun, there were a few concubines. However, Ren Wanyun was very powerful. Although her husband had many concubines, he only had one illegitimate daughter who couldn't be a threat to Ren Wanyun at all. Third Master, Shen Wan, was more talented. Among the three sons, Shen Xin followed the old general's path of a military official, and Shen Gui and Shen Wan followed the path of a civil servant. Compared to his second brother, Shen Wan was more capable.

However, this did not mean that Shen Wan was without flaws. He wasn't interested in beauties and only had Chen Ruoqiu as his legitimate wife, but he took power too seriously and only wanted to climb up the social ladder. For this, he even stepped on his superior.

At this moment, Ren Wanyun was carefully writing invitations. The sun shone through the window and on her. Her facial features were as gentle as a girl's. Shen Gui was adjusting his collar when he saw her. He couldn't help but smile and walk to her side to hug her from behind.

"Ah." Chen Ruoqiu said with reproach, "Master, what are you doing? This letter is completely wasted."

"Let me see." Shen Wan picked up the letter and read it. He commented, "The handwriting is beautiful, just like the one who wrote it. How is it wasted?"

Chen Ruoqiu blushed. When Shen Wan saw this, his heart skipped a beat.

Even after so many years, his wife still had an attractive charm that made him unable to take a liking to other women.

This was why Chen Ruoqiu was actually smart. She was the only one who could make her husband infatuated. She would become whatever woman Shen Wan liked. Her personality could be faked, and her clothes could be changed. As time passed, Shen Wan not only didn't get tired of her, but also he found her even more lovable.

"Second Sister-in-law should be back today." Chen Ruoqiu leaned into Shen Wan's arms. "I wonder if Yue is used to the food in the temple."

Shen Wan laughed. "What are you worried about? Second Sister-in-law won't let Yue starve and freeze." Seeing that Chen Ruoqiu still looked worried, he smiled and said, "You always treat Yue like a child. Yue is already a big girl now. In a few years, she will be old enough to get married. What will you do then?"

"If Yue is getting married, I naturally have to choose a perfect marriage for her. She can't be like Fifth Mother..." She suddenly stopped.

That night, Old Madam Shen said to Ren Wanyun and Chen Ruoqiu that she agreed to give Shen Miao to Prince Yu to get Prince Yu to help the second and third branches of the Shen family. Later, Chen Ruoqiu told her husband about it. Shen Wan naturally agreed. He had been obsessed with power his entire life, but no matter how he climbed up, his power and reputation were not as good as Shen Xin's. He had been jealous of the first branch for many years, and he had no feelings for Shen Miao at all. If Prince Yu got Shen Miao and was happy, he would put in a good word for Shen Wan in the imperial court. As for what would happen to Shen Miao in the future, Shen Wan did not care at all.

"I wonder if Second Sister-in-law has settled this matter." Shen Wan's expression became serious.

Seeing this, Chen Ruoqiu's heart sank slightly. She knew that her husband had always placed power first. She couldn't help but feel sad for Shen Miao.

Chapter 97: Returning Home (9)

"Don't worry." She said softly, "Second Sister-in-law has always been very capable. She won't let anything go wrong."

"I hope so." Shen Gui nodded.

As the two of them were talking, they suddenly saw Shiqing run in with a flustered expression. "Madam, Second Madam is back with the three ladies."

Seeing Shiqing's expression, Chen Ruoqiu was relieved and knew that the matter was probably settled. She smiled and looked at Shen Gui, then asked Shiqing with a concerned expression, "Are the three ladies alright? Do they look tired?"

"No, no," the poet stammered. "First Miss has gone crazy."

Chen Ruoqiu suddenly stopped smiling.

Everything was like a dream. In just a day, the Shen family was in a mess.

Shen Qing went crazy.

Ren Wanyun usually had the aura of a manager of the house. Although she always had a smile on her face, everyone could tell how ruthless she was. The Shen family had never had any problems with her as the manager over the years. Her managing ability was also recognized by everyone.

However, this was the first time this noble woman, who was always smiling, looked tired and crazy in front of the servants. If not for the fact that she was accompanied by maids, people would probably think that she was a crazy woman who had come out of nowhere. The girl in her arms was really crazy. She kept screaming and struggling, and the commotion even alarmed Old Madam Shen.

First daughter of the Shen family had gone crazy, but no one knew how and why. The Shen family was very wary of this matter. Those maids who saw Shen Qing going crazy were all sold. But most likely they were buried in the middle of nowhere.

The two girls beside Shen Qing, the two girls beside Shen Yue, and even Nanny Gui were locked up.

As a result, Shen Miao was the only one who was unharmed.

In Rongjing Hall.

Old Madam Shen sat on the seat, her face tense. She stared at Shen Miao, who was standing in the middle, looking like a poisonous snake.

The one who should've been in trouble wasn't in trouble but the one who shouldn't have been in trouble was in trouble. At the thought of this, Old Madam Shen was so angry that she felt like a rock was stuck in her chest.

Chen Ruoqiu and Shen Wan stood at the side. Shen Yue stood beside Chen Ruoqiu aggrievedly. Her two personal maids had been locked up for no reason. She had heard from Shen Miao that it would probably be very difficult to protect Huang Ying and Qing Luan.

On the other side, Ren Wanyun was kneeling in front of Old Madam Shen. Shen Wan had something on in the imperial court today and had not returned to the mansion yet. The servant who was sent to ask him to come back had not returned yet, so he naturally did not know that something had happened to his daughter.

"Old Madam, you have to help Qing." Ren Wanyun was crying so hard that even Shen Wan was a little surprised because Ren Wanyun had always been arrogant and proud.

Ren Wanyun always abused her power as the manager of the house. Now that her daughter was in trouble, she was still lying on the ground like a dog. Seeing that, Chen Ruoqiu felt delighted.

"Shen Miao, I treat you like my own daughter. Qing also treats you very well. You two are sisters of the same bloodline. How can you be so vicious? Do you know that Qing's life has been ruined by you? You are so heartless!"

Shen Yue told Chen Ruoqiu and Shen Wan about Shen Qing being humiliated by someone. All the servants were asked to leave, so Chen Ruoqiu was not afraid of being heard.

Just as Shen Miao was about to speak, she suddenly heard an angry shout from behind her. "Evil girl, you harmed your sister. Your heart is like a snake and scorpion. You deserve to be sent to jail. You deserve to die!"

Shen Miao smiled coldly and turned around to face the man who was striding over.

Her second uncle, Shen Qing's father, Shen Gui.

Chapter 98: Unharmed (1)

Shen Gui, who was still wearing his official uniform, strode into the hall. He must have rushed over after hearing the news about Shen Qing.

Seeing this, Ren Wanyun immediately cried even more miserably. "Master... Qing..."

The relationship between Ren Wanyun and Shen Gui was not that deep. Otherwise, Shen Gui would not have brought concubines into the house one by one. Even so, Shen Gui and Ren Wanyun still treated each other respectfully. For no other reason than the fact that Ren Wanyun could manage the entire Shen family well and was on good terms with the wives of his fellow officials, Shen Gui was quite satisfied with Ren Wanyun as a wife.

“Shen Miao!” Shen Gui turned his head and glared at the girl in the hall. He knew the reason why Ren Wanyun brought the three daughters of the Shen family to the Wolong Temple this time. Unexpectedly, the one who was humiliated was his daughter, Shen Qing. The servant who came to pass the message secretly told him that it was all Shen Miao’s fault. Although he found it unbelievable, he still had to take his anger out on someone. Since he could not take his anger out on the second branch, he would push all the blame to the first branch.

“You harmed your sisters and are vicious. Today, since my brother is not around, I’ll teach you a lesson on his behalf!” As he spoke, he shouted, “Bring the whip!”

The servant quickly brought over a long wooden box. Shen Yue was still looking at it curiously, but when she saw the box open and the things inside were revealed, she couldn’t help but gasp.

It was a long whip that had been soaked in something for many years. It looked black and shiny, and it was half the thickness of an adult man’s wrist. At a glance, one could tell how strong it was. If one was hit by the whip, they would probably be half dead.

“That’s right.” Old Madam Shen sat even straighter when she saw her son return. When she saw that her granddaughter was in trouble, she was angry. Since Shen Gui had spoken, she naturally had to go with the flow.

“Fifth Miss made a mistake, so it is only right for you to teach her a lesson on behalf of your elder brother. Our Shen family has always relied on rules. If she makes a mistake, we have to punish her. Fifth Miss, you should be glad that your second uncle is kind-hearted and loves you. Otherwise, it won’t be as simple as just punishing you. You will be expelled from the Shen family for good.” At this point, her gaze suddenly changed. That’s right. If she expelled Shen Miao from the Shen family, wouldn’t that be even better?

Seeing Old Madam Shen’s expression, Chen Ruoqiu cursed in her heart. If Shen Miao was expelled from the Shen family, with Shen Xin’s personality, he would definitely leave with her daughter. Although they couldn’t bear to see the first branch doing well, they still had to rely on the first branch for many things. This old woman was really naive and stupid.

Ren Wanyun was stunned when she heard that. She probably guessed what Old Madam Shen was thinking. She didn’t want Shen Miao to be expelled from the Shen family, not because of anything else, but because she couldn’t let Shen Miao off so easily. Now, she wanted to keep Shen Miao in the Shen family. Only then could she have more ways to take revenge on her. Expelling her from the family? The punishment wouldn’t be that simple.

While everyone was thinking, they heard Shen Miao sigh softly and turn to look at Shen Gui.

Chapter 99: Unharmd (2)

Shen Gui was shocked by her strange actions and glared at her. If an ordinary person was glared at by him like that, they would be terrified.

However, Shen Miao did not back off at all. Her expression was calm, making Shen Gui feel that he was the one being looked down at.

Shen Miao said, "Second Uncle is indeed kind-hearted. When First Sister was sick in bed, Second Uncle was in no hurry to check on her condition. Instead, you rushed over to help my father teach me a lesson. I guess Second Uncle loves me more than his daughter."

As soon as she said that, everyone in the room fell silent.

A trace of sarcasm flashed across Chen Ruoqiu's eyes, and Shen Wan frowned. Old Madam Shen's expression changed, and Shen Yue opened her mouth. Ren Wanyun lowered her head and secretly clenched her fists.

Although Shen Xin wasn't there with his daughter all year round, he still truly loved her. Shen Wanzhen loved Chen Ruoqiu, and he also loved Shen Yue like a treasure. However, Shen Gui...

Shen Gui was a greedy and lecherous person to begin with. He never fulfilled his responsibility as a father. He treated his two sons better, but he did not care about his daughter, Shen Qing. In Shen Gui's eyes, it was probably best for Shen Qing to marry into a rich family in the future. The reason why Shen Gui was so angry this time was probably not because he was sad about his daughter's tragic fate, but because his plan was ruined. He was afraid that Prince Yu would be angry when he found out, and he was also angry that his daughter couldn't marry well anymore and bring him benefits.

It was always about benefits.

If a father who truly loved his daughter knew about this, he would definitely go back to see her first. How could he come back just to "discipline". Suddenly, Shen Qing became the one people felt sorry about.

An awkward expression flashed across Shen Gui's face. He couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed. He looked at Ren Wanyun again. As expected, she had already turned her head away from him. Shen Gui was a little surprised. When he looked at Shen Miao again, his gaze was deep. Shen Miao's words were sharp, making the couple fall out with each other. Shen Qing was Ren Wanyun's life, but she was just a tool to Shen Gui. This revelation made the husband and wife, who were originally on the same side, unhappy with each other. Shen Miao's method was clearly like that of an experienced official in the bureaucracy.

The girl in front of him had a delicate face and looked extremely obedient. However, for some reason, she seemed so majestic that people found her too dazzling to look at.

Suppressing the surprise in his heart, Shen Gui said angrily, "Shen Miao, you still don't admit your mistake. In that case, if I don't teach you well today, I'll be ashamed to be your uncle." He reached out to take the whip.

Shen Yue stared at Shen Gui. She was both gloating and nervous. Would Shen Gui really whip Shen Miao?

“Second Uncle, how do you want to teach me? Kill me with this whip?” Shen Miao suddenly asked.

Shen Gui was stunned.

Shen Wan was also stunned. She probably didn't expect Shen Miao to be so vicious. Although Shen Miao had changed over the past few days, everyone had always felt that she was just pretending to be tough. But now, in front of the entire Shen family, she didn't even want to pretend and didn't care about falling out with everyone at all.

“You wicked girl, what are you talking about!” Old Madam Shen was the first to shout angrily, “Are you going to say that your second uncle wants to murder you? This is outrageous!”

Chapter 100: Unharmd (3)

“That's right, Shen Miao. How can you say that?” Chen Ruoqiu finally spoke, but she still calmly fanned the flame. “You harmed Qing, so how can you blame your uncle? Who told you to do that?”

Chen Ruoqiu thought that if both Shen Miao and the second branch suffered losses, then Shen Yue would have more edges in the Shen family. After all, among the three brothers, Shen Wan was the weakest. If she did not use some tricks, she would eventually end up with nothing.

Ren Wanyun cried and kowtowed to Old Madam Shen. “Look at how much Shen Miao hates us. She harmed Qing, but she still doesn't admit it. She even wants to tarnish her uncle's reputation. She's too haughty and disregards us because her father is a general. Could it be that she was taught to do this by his father? How can a little girl like her know so many vicious methods? Someone must have taught her to do this. How can Shen Xin do this to us...”

Ren Wanyun was crying very loudly, putting herself in a weak position. The more unyielding she was usually, the more weak she looked at this moment, and the more believable her words seemed.

Unfortunately, she made a mistake in involving Shen Xin.

Shen Miao would never allow anyone to harm her father.

She glanced at the people of Rongjing Hall. They were eyeing her covetously. They were a family. They could turn black into white and dead into alive. Surrounded by them, she was like a piece of fat meat that landed in the mouth of a hungry wolf.

However, what could they do with their glib tongues? There were so many women in the harem who could have a glib tongue. How many of them lived and how many of them became fertilizer for the trees in the royal garden?

“Second Aunt keeps saying that I harmed First Sister. Then, can I ask you a few questions?”

Ren Wanyun was stunned. When she met Shen Miao's clear eyes, for some reason, she felt a little guilty. However, when she saw the people around her, she was relieved. Everyone here was on her side. What ability did Shen Miao have to turn the tables?

"Ask away." She wiped her tears.

"Alright." Shen Miao smiled. "Let me ask you. That day, Second Aunt lived next to First Sister and was very close to her. If something happened, how could Second Aunt not hear it?"

Ren Wanyun was stunned.

"If First Sister resisted, she would definitely make a sound. That day, First Sister was covered in wounds, so it was obvious that she had struggled and cried for help. Second Aunt was so close, so why didn't you hear it? Could it be that you heard it but didn't come out to help because you were too tired?"

"You..." Ren Wanyun was about to retort when her palms broke out in cold sweat.

"Of course, maybe Second Aunt didn't hear anything at all. Why? Because First Sister didn't call for help at all. Why didn't First Sister call for help? Maybe she knew that person."

"Nonsense!" At this moment, Ren Wanyun could not help but interrupt Shen Miao sharply.

Chen Ruoqiu and Ren Wanyun almost immediately understood what Shen Miao meant. They looked at Shen Miao with fear in their eyes.

Shen Miao's words were terrifying. That day, the room where Ren Wanyun stayed was so close to the one Shen Qing stayed in. If Shen Qing called for help, how could her mother not hear it? If she heard it, why didn't she go and take a look? Could it be that Ren Wanyun did it on purpose? Ren Wanyun naturally wouldn't deliberately harm her daughter, but at that time, it should have been Shen Miao who lived there. Ren Wanyun had no reason to harm her biological daughter, but it wasn't impossible for her to harm her niece.
