Chapter 141: Taking Exams with Summoning Element

Time quickly passed by. When you're busy, time normally goes by in a flash.

From Mo Fan's perspective, he felt as though he had cultivated for several decades. This kind of dry and dull cultivation only made the time feel even longer, not faster!

Everything in Wuxia novels that spoke of cultivating for several years passing in the blink of an eye was a complete lie. He had now personally experienced this and was bored to death. There were many times where he just wanted to go out and let loose, but he ultimately stopped himself from doing so.

Closing his eyes this time allowed Mo Fan to fully experience the vast sea of learning, and Magic without boundaries. Either way, they were both part of the long and slow road of cultivation.

If you don't have the willpower, then you won't be able to do anything!

Either way, Mo Fan had bitterly cultivated throughout this year.

"Come here and have a drumstick. Tomorrow is the great opportunity for you to retake the test! You have to get accepted into a good Magic University... However, I reckon there'll be many famous universities who will want to recruit you due to your Innate Dual Element," Mo Jiaying said as he made a couple of incredible dishes.

"I don't plan on telling them about my Innate Dual Element," Mo Fan told his father.

After careful deliberation, Mo Fan decided that he wanted to lay low.

The way the four people of Dongfang Family died so easily was still fresh in Mo Fan's mind. It made Mo Fan realize that having a good foundation does not mean you are in an invincible position, having a couple of trump cards could never go wrong.

Furthermore, the current Fire and Lightning Elements cultivation basically required him to put effort into drawing their Star Atlas inside himself. The schools weren't necessarily able to help him.

"Then what do you plan on using for the exams?" Mo Jiaying said, confused now.

"The Summoning Element."

"When did you Awaken the Summoning Element?" Mo Jiaying asked, dumbstruck. Xinxia was looking at Mo Fan while blinking in astonishment.

Mo Fan planned on taking the exams for the Pearl Institute. However, he was only going to use one of the Elements, and he chose the Summoning Element.

If Mo Fan remembered correctly, being able to raise your Stardust to the third level would make you quite outstanding. Mu Zhuoyun even specifically set up a huge feast for that b*tch Yu Ang.

Although he had actually never used a spell from the Summoning Element, he had looked out for information about Pearl Institute. If he told the examiner that the Summoning Element was his first, and display that he had genuinely reached the third level of it, then they would make an exception to recruit him!

More frankly, it would be his grades as well as him being one of the minority Elements that would get him recruited.

The possibility of Awakening a Summoning element on their first Awakening was much lower than the Lightning Element. That's why they were a minority, such people were nearly non-existent.

There would be one Lightning Element among a thousand people, but there were hundreds of thousands of students taking the exams in this country. With the reputation and popularity of the Pearl Institute being the best university in the country, the Lightning Element was just so-so per their standards... In the whole country, they may just choose one among a thousand, or ten thousand.

The Pearl Institute gave more attention to specific Elements, namely Black Magic's Curse Element, Dimensional Magic's Void Element, and the Summoning Element.

Originally, Mo Fan planned on using the Shadow Element, which he was more proficient in, to take the exams. However, the standard of the Pearl Institute was far too high. Even if he did reach the third level of Shadow Element's Primary Spell, Evading Shadow, he still wouldn't be guaranteed a spot.

The Magic High Exams were like a huge billowing wave. The entire nation had numerous incredible talents, those with a solid background, and diligent Magicians. Displaying your cultivation and spells were only the very fundamental point of the exams. The most important part was to show an extraordinary skill of yours to impress the examiners.

Mo Fan was not lacking in extraordinary skills, so why did he choose to use Summoning Element for the exams out of all of the skills he had?

First, it was so he could show off on the vast and bright stage called University. Secondly, was the reply he had given to Mo Jiaxing and Xinxia, which was, "Since the Summoning Element would award me more attention at the Pearl Institute, then why would I go through more hard work to take the exams in a different way?"

For other people, the Magic High Exams were the main events of their lives. For Mo Fan, they were only a stepping stone.

Mo Fan didn't walk the regular examination way. Instead, he chose to take the interview exam instead. This was something that also existed in his former world.

The interview was inside of Pearl Institute. Mo Fan had already displayed the abilities of his Summoning Element. After five of the examiners had asked a couple of in-depth questions regarding Magic Knowledge, they allowed Mo Fan to take the test to see the power of his Stardust.

“SSS, this is considered the lowest criteria for our direct recruitment. However, up until today, you have never used a Summoning spell. This makes our decision somewhat difficult. Although the Summoning Element is said to be one that does not need practicing, the difficult part about it is control of the Summoned Beast.” The Magic Professor with thick glasses carefully sized Mo Fan up.

There were relatively few numbers of Summoning Element users. The biggest question for them was whether they would or would not accept this student.

Although his foundation was solid, he did not have any other outstanding areas. There was no way for him to break through to the Intermediate level in a short period of time.

However, there were quite a decent number of Summoning students applying to their Pearl Institute. They didn’t want to make it look like they weren’t able to fill a dormitory!

“Director Lu, they have their eyes on an outstanding Earth Elemental Magician. His usage of the Earth Ripple shows a great creativity, it was able to create an effect similar to quicksand as it entrapped a test beast,” the male examiner with a tie said.

“In that case, we can only accept one out of the two?” the old professor with glasses said.

“Yes.”

“In that case. Student Mo Fan, since you are able to control the seven stars of the Summoning Element, then we will take a look at your first Summoning. We will base who we choose on what kind of creature you Summon.”

Mo Fan thought about it, and he felt like it was only fair.

It just that he had never actually tried the Primary spell of the Summoning Element, Dimensional Summoning.

“We will give you one week to prepare. One week from now, you will come to the training grounds, we will invite the professor of the Summoning Element to evaluate you... Oh right, since it’ll be your first time Summoning, we recommend you use some tools to help you with it. This way, the creature you Summon will be somewhat stronger. We don’t mind if you use any tools to assist you,” the old professor kindly reminded him.

“Okay, thank you teachers.”

After leaving the interview hall, there was a strange expression on Mo Fan’s face.

To be honest, the matter concerning tools for the Summoning Element was something he had never tried to understand. For the past one year, he had put all of his focus into the fundamentals of his cultivation.

If the old professor didn’t remind him that it’d be best if he was to use some tools for his first Summoning, then he would most likely have carelessly done a Summon.

Mo Fan had seen some rough introductions to the process.

The primary spell of the Summoning Element, “Dimensional Summoning”, was the most fluctuating spell amongst all the spells. Furthermore, it mostly relied on one’s luck.

If your luck was good, then you could Summon an incredibly strong creature. Its combat prowess would be even stronger than the Lightning Element.

If your luck was bad, then you could end up Summoning a retarded creature... it wouldn’t even be as intimidating as a dog you had raised yourself!

It just happened that his Summoning this time was his examination for university. Mo Fan was really looking forward to it.

Furthermore, he would definitely have to go find tools to assist him.

Within the Dongfang Oriental Pearl Tower there were Magicians from all across the country with different Elements, there should be someone selling this kind of thing there...

Chapter 142: Dimensional Summoning

Briiiiiing, briiiiiing...

“Ms Tangyue~~!”

“What?!”

“Do you know anything about the Summoning Element?”

“I know a bit...”

“That’s great! I plan on using the Summoning Element to enter the Pearl Institute. Coincidentally, the books regarding Dimensional Magic on the market are quite few in number, and so, I decided to ask my most beloved Ms Tangyue,” Mo Fan said with a smile.

For some reason, Tangyue felt like Mo Fan’s tone exhibited some malicious intent.

However, this wasn’t the important part. Tangyue was more flabbergasted about the fact Mo Fan had Awakened the Summoning Element.

“Where are you?” Tangyue directly asked.

“I am... forget it, I’ll go find you instead, how’s that?” Mo Fan said very directly as well.

“Alright, come to Xihu.”

He lived relatively close to the train station, and so Mo Fan quickly stepped on board as he once again charged toward Hangzhou.

However, as he was sitting on the train toward Xihu, Mo Fan couldn't help but to think for himself. If he was able to successfully summon a proper Summoned Beast, and was able to control it, then wouldn't that mean he'd have a free limousine?

So what if a man's most beloved thing was a BMW, Audi, or a Land Rover? Even if you were to drive a Benz, it still wouldn't be able to measure up to the unrestrained freedom of a Summoned Beast brimming with power.

Mo Fan finally arrived at the location Tangyue gave him. This was a place where in the top grade apartments you'd be able to see the whole of Xihu from your own window.

An apartment like this with its surrounding filled with bright, flourishing flowers... comparing that to his own deserted area... Sigh, being poor is a problem that gets worse by day. Once I get into University, I ought to find a job!

.....

Within a room, Tangyue was looking into the mirror. She was pondering over whether to use the bright colored red lipstick, or the lipstick that seemed tender like water...

Putting on some light make-up was a normal thing. However, the thought of her sitting in the taxi and giving him a breathtaking kiss suddenly appeared within her head. This made her purse her lips as a blush appeared on her face.

What am I doing, I thought I already decided to never meet this guy again!

Although the matter of that was actually a year ago, meeting Mo Fan again made her cheeks really blush.

Forget it, when other people meet their previous boyfriends, they'd be magnanimous. For an adult like me, this kind of thing should just be a small matter...

It just happened that she had been locked in her apartment, cultivating for a long period of time. Having someone take a stroll with me in Xihu wouldn't be a bad thing.

Mo Fan was patiently waiting downstairs, and finally saw Ms Tangyue walking toward him with her exquisite figure. Her unconcealed beauty once more caused a ripple in his heart. He hadn't seen her for a year, but she was still that beautiful.

Tsk tsk, if those classmates of mine in High School knew that Ms Tangyue and I are this close with each other, then they'd definitely die from jealousy...

"Let's take a walk. The matters concerning the Summoning Element are rather complicated, I'll slowly explain them to you," Tangyue said with a shallow smile.

Mo Fan realized that Tangyue's mood was rather good, although he didn't know why.

Mature women have good taste, it was like they were experts. If the girls were too innocent, then it'd be boring.

"Alright, it just happens that I've never taken a look around Hangzhou," Mo Fan agreed quickly.

Mo Fan was a child from a poor family. Before the age of eighteen, he actually hadn't gone anywhere.

They walked along the river of Xihu. There were lots of people from all walks of life out taking a stroll around here. Due to it being summer vacation, there were many who took their children out on their trips.

The weeping willow on the other shore was reflected on the river, the scenery looked as beautiful as a drawing. Ms Tangyue's steps were like a lotus, her figure like a delicate willow. The beautiful girls touring the famous Broken Bridge seemed to be even more beautiful than the location. They looked at the scenery happily, but little did they know that they were actually the best part of the view!

Ms Tangyue's figure was particularly outstanding. A large number of people were turning their heads around to see her, making Mo Fan feel relatively pleased with himself. It was not because everyone was just people... It was because their admiration and jealousy made him feel extremely superior.

The two didn't immediately discuss the most important topic. They talked a little about the recent state of matters, and after discussing a couple of other matters, they finally began to get into the topic of the Summoning Element.

"The Summoning Element is most likely the most unstable Element within all of the various Magicks. If you are able to properly use it, then you will be an invincible existence in your area. If you can't use it, then you're just like a commoner who is taking their dog out for a walk," Ms Tangyue told him.

Mo Fan nodded, this was similar to what the old professor had said before.

Thinking about it, it sounded just about right. In terms of combat prowess, between a Primary Magician and a Minion level Magical Beast, it was natural that a Minion level Magical Beast would be stronger. A Primary Magician would need to form a squad to kill a Magical Beast of that level.

As for Summoners, if they were able to summon a creature whose combat prowess was equal to that of Magical Beasts, then that would mean they would have achieved a combat prowess equal to a squad of Primary Magicians. This was surely more monstrous than the Lightning Element.

"Dimensional Summon is a spell that is full of unknown factors. Once you've used Dimensional Summon, your intent will enter a plane that does not belong to our world, called the Summoned Beast Plane. In that place, your intent will quickly wander around within the Summoned Beast Plane. Furthermore, it will search for the closest creature..." Ms Tangyue continued explaining.

"Enter a different plane?" Mo Fan felt flabbergasted by this.

"There is more than one plane in this world. I've even heard from some old Space Element Magicians that there are many mysterious planes that are parallel to our plane. At a certain time, these planes would align... Telling you this is useless. The most important thing is, the Summoning Beast Plane is a plane which we humans are more familiar with. More accurately speaking, the Summoned Plane is attached to our world." Tangyue continued to explain this topic to Mo Fan.

However, Mo Fan's head was in chaos. After all, he was considered to be someone from a different plane!

“While your intent is wandering within the Summoning Plane, the summoned creatures you encounter will be completely different... and this is also why the Summoning Element is the most unstable Element. When you do your first Summoning, there’s no way to know what kind of Summon you’ll make,” Ms Tangyue said.

“I see, so the Dimensional Summon is similar to going to the zoo blindfolded as you randomly grab something. So grabbing a rat that ends up being a lion is also possible?” Mo Fan asked.

Ms Tangyue gently smiled as she slowly nodded, “That’s about right.”

“That’s interesting!” Mo Fan couldn’t help but to look forward to it.

The Summoning Element’s spells variables were far different than other Magic elements. However, this was just to Mo Fan’s liking. To delve into a Magic Element like this would only make it more interesting.

“With your Intermediate Magician’s intent, you will be able to find relatively strong Summoned Beast,” Ms Tangyue said.

“So this depends on the strength of your intent?”

“Mhm, if you are able to efficiently use the Summoning Element’s primary spell, Dimensional Summon, then it can potentially be even more amazing than Advanced Magic!”

Chapter 143: The Entrance Exams

The content of the Summoning Element was not something that could be explained in a couple of days.

Mo Fan oddly realized that Ms Tangyue was gradually guiding him into a secluded, gloomy forest. He watched as the people in his surroundings decreased, and Tangyue’s curvy, sexy body in the dusk...

Could it be that what happened in the taxi was not enough to fully satisfy her desires? Could this dusky forest have yet another thing happening?

“Alright, there is no one here,” Ms. Tangyue said after surveying the area.

Mo Fan widened his eyes.

No way, it really is happening!

I’m not prepared, but I do like this kind of bluntness!

“What are you looking at, I led you here to use Dimensional Summon!” Tangyue said to Mo Fan, in a bad mood.

“Oh, oh...” Mo Fan awkwardly smiled, it seems like she was afraid that the thing he’d Summon would scare other people.

Summoning Beast... To speak frankly, this was a Magical Beast that could be controlled by humans. When normal people saw Magical Beasts, they’d just pee their pants.

Tangyue didn’t think that the Magic could successfully control the Magical Beast on its first attempt. So she led him to a place where there was no people in case Mo Fan couldn’t control it.

The time given to Mo Fan was a week. During this one week, Mo Fan had been asking for guidance from Ms. Tangyue.

It just so happened that Tangyue was available during this period of time, so she let Mo Fan keep her company as they strolled through Hangzhou.

She told Mo Fan that after she had moved to Hangzhou, she essentially did not wander around the city at all. On one hand, Tangyue was supplying Mo Fan with magic and combat knowledge; while on the other, she had him come along for shopping, sightseeing, and trying the local delicacies.

At this time, Mo Fan was rejoicing over the fact that he lived in a district that was relatively close to Hangzhou. Otherwise, he wouldn’t necessarily have had an opportunity like this, where he could walk with her so intimately.

During this week, not only did Tangyue tell Mo Fan information regarding the Summoning Element, she also imparted her knowledge of cultivating the Fire and Shadow Elements to him.

After going through this baptism, Mo Fan finally understood what it meant to have a Master impart knowledge to the disciple. In the practical classes in the past, Tangyue also gave lectures without hiding anything. However, that was a school after all, there were many things that were rather inappropriate to tell the Magic students at that level.

“I have to go, I will miss you Ms Tangyue.” Mo Fan waved his hands as he was unable to look at Tangyue.

“Be careful in the University,” Tangyue told him repeatedly.

“Careful? What do you mean?” Mo Fan asked while feeling confused.

“University and Magic High School are completely different. The competition in the University is extremely cruel, there are many who will use their clan and background to obtain a couple of resources. The University itself is essentially a contest between the major powers from across the country. The University staffs just turn a blind eye to it...” Tangyue said to Mo Fan sincerely.

From how Tangyue saw it, Mo Fan was a smart person who knew how to survive in this society. However, she also saw that he was actually a rather rash person, and was worried Mo Fan would fall in the struggles within his University.

To speak frankly, Mo Fan came from a common family. He was completely different from those Magicians that had the wealth of their family, or a major background as a shield.

The road of a Magician’s growth was essentially burning money and resources. Mo Fan, who had to rely on himself to establish himself within the University, would have an extremely difficult time.

Even if Mo Fan had already achieved the Intermediate level, the Intermediate level Magicians in University could not be considered peak existences. A famous university like Pearl Institute had numerous monsters.

Mo Fan knows that Ms Tangyue was being considerate of him, and nodded his head quietly. "Ms Tangyue, don't worry. I will control myself."

Tangyue looked at him listening to her advice, she couldn't help but smile, "I'm not asking you to swallow your anger after being bullied by others. If a family does something excessive, you can come and find me. I will support you."

Mo Fan felt a warmth bubble burst forth inside him.

Although he only nodded on the surface, Mo Fan was actually thinking of something else.

If he were to get ravaged by some people in University, and he went whining to find his most beloved teacher, then he really would be just a little brat.

I need to be a man who is responsible. How could I possibly hide under someone else's wing?

Furthermore, Mo Fan was also very clear that he was not a relative nor a friend to Ms. Tangyue. Mo Fan was already feeling extremely emotional about Tangyue providing him with so much knowledge without restraint on his road of growth as a Magician.

The rest was still something where he had to rely on himself!

Pearl University...

An overweight youth stepped out of a black Mercedes-Benz.

The fatty looked around the area, his eyes revealing some disdain. "How annoying, they actually still needed one more week to make a decision!"

"Xiao Song, this is the Pearl Institute of Shanghai, after all. Capable people here not few, and the person who is competing with you is precisely a Summoning Elemental Student. That kind of people could be considered rather rare." The uniformed chauffeur also stepped out, his face bearing a kind smile.

"Old Li, do you really think the Summoning Element is something extraordinary?" Luo Song curled his lip.

"It is indeed nothing much compared to you," the butler called Old Li fawned back.

"Let's go, I want to see just what kind of ability this kid has. He dares to compete with this young master!" Luo Song directly strode toward the designated practice ground.

Butler Old Li quickly followed behind him. "Xiao Song, if they don't accept you, let's go to Imperial. After all, that is where our foundation lies."

"I don't want to, I will let those people who sneered at me see that I am even stronger than them, without relying on my father!" Luo Song didn't conceal the arrogance on his face.

"There's no need for that. You are after all very outstanding, that's why they give you the best resources..."

“Old Li, you don’t need to say anything more. Either way, I have decided on the Pearl Institute of Shanghai, and I will trample down on those who are full of themselves! That’s something fun to do! An example will be the fool who thinks the Summoning Element is amazing!”

“Alright, as long as you don’t attract big trouble to yourself.” Butler Li said nothing else.

After finding the designated training grounds, Luo Song walked in and found the five examiners sitting there.

Other than the five examiners, there was another youth wearing a pitch black shirt, standing out there on the white sands of the training ground.

Telling the family circumstances of a person based on what they’re wearing was usually pretty accurate most of time. After all, fashion was something that required a large amount of money to really keep up with.

Thus, Luo Song was instantly able to give that the guy taking exams an evaluation: a loser!

Chapter 144: Spirit Wolf

“Luo Song, you’re here! Come and sit by the side!” The bald examiner stood up from his place and grinned.

The bald examiner walked up to Luo Song and whispered, “You brat, why did you leisurely come to Pearl Institute, and even want to contend against a Summoning Elemental student?!”

“What’s the matter, Uncle Li, you already know the situation with me!” Luo Song had a carefree expression, it appeared that he was determined to win.

Examiner Li walked back to his place, and glanced at Mo Fan, who was already prepared.

The old professor wearing thick glasses was also judging Mo Fan. When he realized Mo Fan hadn’t brought anything with him, he casually asked, “You didn’t prepare any auxiliary equipment?”

The old professor had deliberately postponed the test for a week later. His intention was to let this student discuss with his family spending some money on equipment for assistance. Such help would greatly increase his acceptance rate.

The old professor would gladly accept Summoning Elemental students, but everything had to be justified.

“It was too expensive, I couldn’t afford it.” Mo Fan straightforwardly replied.

Mo Fan understand this auxiliary equipment's requirements. The costs started at a few hundred thousand yuan and ranged up to millions for the better stuff. Mo Fan only had a Bone Scythe Shield from before, but that was there to save his life.

"Okay, then let us begin!" The old professor didn't say anything further.

On the side, the young master called Luo Song couldn't stop himself from laughing. He said to the butler Li to the side, "Old Li, this person is quite interesting! He doesn't have the money to study the Summoning Element! If he was to study any other Element, it'd still be better than the Summoning Element!"

Regardless of what, Luo Song was still raised in a big place, thus, he knew quite a few things.

The Summoning Element was the element that burned the most money amongst all Elements. The strength between summoned creatures varied greatly. The weak ones couldn't even match up with dogs, and the strong ones could even fight against demons. So where did the strong ones come from? One aspect would be his own cultivation, and another is from burning resources!

"He has already started," Butler Li coughed.

Luo Song no longer said anything. However, he was actually quite confused. Just how poor must a family be if they can't even purchase a supporting item for the entrance exams. Were those things really that expensive?

Mo Fan had already closed his eyes as he began to slowly connect the stars in his Summoning Stardust.

The Summoning Stardust appeared to be transparent, with an occasional moonlight radiance circulating around it. After Mo Fan placed the stars in the interior into an array, the moonlight radiance became increasingly distinct. When seven of the stars were connecting to each other, it looked like a crescent moon.

After the Star Trail appeared, it circled around Mo Fan's body. It looked like the bound radiance of the moon as it slowly ripped open a tunnel leading toward a different plane in the sky.

Mo Fan opened his eyes. They displayed a vast depth as he stood there on the practice ground, his spirit seemed like it had travelled to a different, mysterious plane.

A moon-colored dimensional door was located at the end of a black tunnel. Mo Fan felt as though he had instantly bumped into an incredible Garden of Immortal Peaches through a narrow, pitch black cavern. A completely new continent had emerged in front of him.

It was like a mirage, as what seemed to be right in front of his eyes was actually relatively far away. Like a dream, he felt like a god as he quietly watched the scenery of the dream.

"Don't forget to use your intent to subdue the creature of your choosing," the voice of the old professor suddenly echoed around him, reminding Mo Fan who was still entranced.

Mo Fan was also very clear that the amount of time his intent could remain in this Summoning Plane was very limited. If he didn't quickly lock onto a creature that he wanted to summon, then this summoning would be considered a fail.

As he willed his intent to move, Mo Fan could feel himself flying past the new dreamland. Those creatures that was quickly galloping through the fields was instantly left behind by Mo Fan, so far behind that you could no longer see them on the horizon.

Awuuuuu~

Suddenly, a blue shadow sitting atop a tall, secluded mountain raised its head and howled into the dark skies.

Mo Fan glanced at this Spirit Wolf as his face filled with joy.

It's you!

His intent turned into an incorporeal rope as it fell down on the defenseless Spirit Wolf.

As he reinforced his intent and pulled, the binding rope quickly broke off. However, Mo Fan's Spiritual Print had already begun to crawl into the forehead of the Spirit Wolf. He wanted to leave a communication bridge between the summoned beast and the summoner in that area.

This Spirit Wolf refused in the beginning. However, once the sun rose, there was suddenly an indescribable mental attack toward him.

"You have to be friendly. Remember, you and the summoned creature are not a master and slave. You are using the energy of the Dimensions to request their help from the other planes to come and assist you in your battles. Thus, you need to reach a consensus with the creature, and not a forcible enslaving." The old professor clearly seemed to be a very good teacher. Even if he still hadn't entered the university, he still promptly assisted Mo Fan in the process of subduing the creatures.

Mo Fan realized the old professors intention, thus, he did not excessively force the second spiritual imprint.

Everytime you try to insert a Spiritual Imprint onto a summoned creature, it used up a large amount of magic energy. Even though Mo Fan's current Summoning Stardust was at the third level, he still could not fail the branding too many times.

According to what Ms Tangyue had said, once the Spiritual Imprint successfully appeared on the body of the wandering creature, it meant the summoning was successful!

The first Spiritual Imprint was clearly a failure, probably because Mo Fan had turned his intent into a rope, attempting to abduct the wolf.

The second time, Mo Fan turned his Spiritual Imprint into a gentle radiance as he softly sprinkled it over the body of the Spirit Wolf that was still somewhat resisting him.

As expected, this guy was amenable to coaxing, but not coercion.

A few moments later, the Spiritual Imprint appeared on the forehead of the Spirit Wolf.

This imprint was actually a bridge between the two planes. When Mo Fan was about to finish the last part of the summoning, his intent quickly left this land of half-illusion and half-reality, and quickly returned to the practice ground.

Mo Fan opened his eyes, and realized the bald examiner who had just picked up his tea was actually drinking it now.

One had to understand that when Mo Fan was closing his eyes, the bald examiner was already holding onto the teacup...

His wandering intent felt like it had traveled over an entire world. However, time in the real world had passed much more slowly.

The moonlight Star Trail didn't disappear like the other Elements. It became a crack that split open the space between two planes. The Spirit Wolf marked by Mo Fan's Spiritual Imprint began to vigilantly yet curiously stretch its furry blue head, its vicious teeth enough to make all the observers cautious, out of the crack...

When it saw Mo Fan, it began to relax.

It directly walked out of the moonlight Star Trail to Mo Fan's side, and began to look over its surroundings with keen blue eyes.

"Spirit Wolf?? How could he summon a Spirit Wolf on his first summoning!" the bald examiner blurted out in surprise.

Chapter 145: Spirit Wolf vs Luo Song

Everyone's gaze was fixed on Mo Fan, and then they locked onto his summoned creature. It was clear that this was a Spirit Wolf with an incredibly robust physique!

"Mo Fan, it seems like your intent was even stronger than what we had expected," the old professor pushed his glasses up as a smile appeared on his face.

"This shouldn't be your first time summoning, right? Summoning a Spirit Wolf on your first try should be extremely hard," the female examiner next to him asked, suspecting something.

"It is indeed his first time summoning, I know this for sure... Dean Xiao, our Summoning department wants this student," the Dean Jiang Yunming said.

Luo Song and his caretaker were standing to the side looking at the very live Spirit Wolf standing next to Mo Fan. The expression on his face showed his astonishment.

You're kidding me, right?

I've never heard of someone summoning a Spirit Wolf on their first attempt!

The combat prowess of a creature like Spirit Wolf was comparable to a Minion level Magical Beast. This means that its combat prowess directly passed other Primary Magicians by several times.

He didn't use any auxiliary items, and it was even his first time Awakening... Just what kind of luck does this kid have! And just how stupid can this Spirit Wolf be, being subdued that easily!

“Little Song, it seems like the Dean Jiang Yunming is set to have the summoner,” Butler Li awkwardly told him.

“They want him? Why!?” Luo Song immediately fell into a bad mood.

On the other side, the five examiners began a discussion among themselves.

As the director of Summoning division, Jiang Yunming was very emphatic with wanting to recruit Mo Fan. If his Summoning division did not accept more people, then the entire division would be shut down.

The person called Dean Xiao was precisely the old professor wearing the glasses. It seemed like he had approved of Mo Fan since the very beginning. He was in favor of the suggestion.

The other three people were clearly hesitating, as they were considering whether Mo Fan had the qualifications to enter the Pearl Institution.

“Summoning a Spirit Wolf is nothing impressive. Doesn’t Pearl Institute pay more attention towards their combat prowess? I could single-handedly extinguish this Spirit Wolf,” Luo Song jumped down from the stage without listening to the decision of the examiners.

He was extremely skilled in Earth Ripple. He quickly moved in front of Mo Fan with a single step, borne across the stone.

Luo Song didn’t seem afraid of facing a vicious Spirit Wolf. Instead, he looked at Mo Fan in disdain, “Let me play a little with your Spirit Wolf. Let’s see if he’s just a decoration or not.”

“That’s fine, I was just thinking of how to use him!” Mo Fan displayed a smile.

The main purpose of summoning the Spirit Wolf was to fight a battle. It was Mo Fan’s first time summoning it, yet it was only for examination purposes. This made it a bit difficult for him to explain to the wild Spirit Wolf.

Mo Fan glanced at the Spirit Wolf, and similarly, the Spirit Wolf turned its large, malevolent head to look at him. Its long mouth and its bold, powerful face was right in front of Mo Fan, so close that he could feel its breath blowing onto his face.

In the past, Mo Fan would have definitely been scared to death. However, the Spirit Wolf that he had summoned gave him a different feeling, it was like they were old friends.

Mo Fan patted the head of the big guy as he said, “Since he wants to challenge you, then you should take the challenge,”

The Spirit Wolf immediately turned its head around, fixing its gaze on the bloated figure of Luo Song with a chilling threat. Its eyes displayed fighting spirit and enmity.

“A lousy wolf like you is no different from a dog in my family,” Luo Song ridiculed it.

Mo Fan’s new Wolf companion seemed like it could understand the taunting, its eyes immediately narrowed dangerously!

Awoooooo~~~!

The great jaws filled with fierce teeth opened. The observers could see a turbid energy generating in the depths of the Spirit Wolf's throat.

As the Spirit Wolf exhaled fiercely, its breath instantly turned into what seemed to be a vicious storm swirling the sands of the floor!

Flying Sand Stones!

Mo Fan's face displayed a certain glee!

Recalling how Bai Yang's Spirit Wolf using the Flying Sand Stones to cause incredible pain to his group of Magicians made Mo Fan feel happy. His own Spirit Wolf's aura seemed a bit stronger than Bai Yang's wolf! What his Spirit Wolf breathed out seemed just like a sandstorm, a raging Sand Dragon as it flew toward Luo Song!

Luo Song didn't panic, nor was he impatient. He took a step to the side.

His body instantly moved, and the Flying Sand Stones quickly brushed by him without wounding him.

Within the eyes of the Spirit Wolf a light moved, it looked like he was thinking, This fatty is quite nimble.

After the Spirit Wolf gave up on the Flying Sand Stones, he directly moved forward with his four powerful legs.

His gaze fixed on Luo Song, the Spirit Wolf's back limbs ferociously stomped down. Its body flew out, bursting out at an incredible speed that shocked everyone!

When the four limbs stepped into the sands, it left behind a deep footprint. The incredible force that split open the air in front of it made Mo Fan wonder what kind of feeling it would be like riding on its back?

The Spirit Wolf's eruption of power was extremely dreadful, its speed even faster than the Colossal-eyed Ape Rat. Coordinating the speed with the wave of its claw, it could instantly tear the creature in front of it into two pieces.

Mo Fan, however, wanted to see how this stuck-up fatty was going to deal with the Spirit Wolf's violent claw.

Luo Song was already relatively far away, but he realized the Spirit Wolf had caught up to him with just a couple of steps. His expression displayed a bit of confusion.

"Earth Ripple, Subsidence!" Luo Song quickly finished the Earth Star Path as his two hands heavily smacked onto the ground.

In a split second, the entire practice ground's floor displayed a visible wiggle. The originally solid ground had been turned into a soft layer of mud under the control of Luo Song.

This layer of mud was quickly moving away from him, just like a stream flowing the wrong way.

While the Spirit Wolf was charging, a clear effect was visible. As it entered the area of rippling earth, it was clear that its speed had drastically decreased.

The speed of its charge being slowed due to the influence of the soft mud was one thing, but the ground was also constantly moving the Spirit Wolf backwards.

Luo Song's ability to control the ground was superb. He was able to turn the ground around the Spirit Wolf into a trap. Added to this was the fact he could continually pull the Spirit Wolf toward the center of the effect, making into effectively a large area of quicksand!

The quicksand continuously sank. The Spirit Wolf was constantly being dragged toward the middle of the quicksand.

Faster, faster! Jump!, Mo Fan was standing in the distance, yelling inside frantically.

The quicksand was slow, after all. If the Spirit Wolf increased its speed, it is very possible that it outrun the force of attraction, as the draw would be less than its speed.

Awoooooo~~~

The Spirit Wolf sounded infuriated. It raised its formidable head as it howled.

At that moment, the Spirit Wolf heavily took a step, forcefully pulling its legs out from the shifting ground.

It began to increase its running speed. Its legs were moving faster and faster...

Its legs were soon moving too fast for the naked eye, racing against the quicksand. The quicksand had maintained the same speed as it pulled the Spirit Wolf backwards, but the Spirit Wolf was outrunning it in its fury!

Finally, the quicksand was no longer a hindrance to the Spirit Wolf...

The Spirit Wolf relied on its erupting speed to escape the quicksand trap. Its sturdy body was like an arrow as it flew toward Luo Song!

"Shit... I originally did not want to expose too much. This brute animal and the kid were actually this tactless, I'll let them experience my Intermediate Magic!" Luo Song realized that the little spell he had cast could not force the vicious Spirit Wolf to surrender. Thus, he quickly moved to the other side of the practice ground.

Most likely due to Luo Song being in a hurry, his move this time put him in a more awkward situation... as he fell face first onto the mud.

When he got up, he had a bit of anger displayed on his face, and began to arrange the stars within his Nebula.

The Star Atlas slowly emerged beneath his feet. Luo Song's eyes were filled with disdain and ridicule as he looked at the lowly Spirit Wolf.

Since you dare to fight me, then I will teach you a lesson!

I will turn your first summon into a corpse!

"What, Intermediate Magic?!" The female examiner immediately stood up.

Originally, they wanted to use this fight as an examination as well. This way, they would be able to determine the combat prowess of the two.

However, the expressions on their faces immediately changed after they saw the completion of the Star Atlas!

After the Butler Li saw this scene, he couldn't help but shake his head. He initially thought Young Master Luo Song could rely on his earth magic to enter Pearl Institute, but in the end, he still had to reveal his true power.

"It's Ice element... It's an Intermediate Ice Magic!"

A snowflake-like white Star Atlas emerged beneath Luo Song's feet. The atmosphere in the training grounds felt like it had been condensed into ice. The piercing cold was not something simple clothes could defend against.

The ground was continuously being frozen, and the solid ice began to further spread into its surrounding...

"Ice Lock!"

Luo Song's eyes carried ridicule. When he was chanting the name of his spell, the frozen grounds in front of them had actually been split open by something!

Icy white ice shackles suddenly flew out of the crack in the ice. They let out a sound that was similar to rattling steel chains, and quickly intertwined in front of Luo Song...

The shackles were as thick as a bowl. Each of the floating, ice-cold shackles was capable of locking the Spirit Wolf to death under the command of Luo Song!

"I can only say that you are unfortunate for meeting me, Luo Song! If your summoned beast survives this, then it will be because I was being lenient!" There was not a hint of sympathy in Luo Song's eyes. Those who dared to fight with him had never had a good conclusion!

"Stop, stop!" The examiner with the surname Li yelled out.

However, Luo Song didn't stop. He raised his head to say, "There are no such things as being lenient during a battle. I will teach this guy a lesson, and he will firmly remember it in the future!"

Examiner Li had already charged onto the grounds. Originally, Luo Song thought he came to stop him, however, he realized that he was running toward the boy with the black shirt.

“Student Mo Fan, please calm down, please...” In this moment, the dean surnamed Xiao also stood up as he gently spoke.

Luo Song was completely dumbstruck.

What’s happening?

Are they telling the retarded summoner to stop?

Luo Song’s objective was the Spirit Wolf, so when he turned around to look at Mo Fan, he was so shocked that he couldn’t speak!

Purple...

A magnificent, bright purple Star Atlas had blossomed beneath the feet of Mo Fan ,with countless sparks curling around his bod!

Mo Fan’s finger was pointed toward the sky, and his other hand was pointed at Luo Song’s head!

As Luo Song raised his head, he suddenly discovered a thunder cloud was shrouding the sky. Lightning that looked as though it would fiercely descend at any time was currently writhing inside the cloud.

Luo Song felt as though a shower of cold water had been poured onto him. Cold sweat began to fall from every inch of his body.

Heavens, this is the Intermediate level Lightning Magic - Thunderbolt!

Luo Song had nothing to guard against it. If the Thunderbolt landed on him, then he would be turned into mincemeat!

“If you dare to make a move against my Wolf, I will extinguish you, you god-forsaken pig!” Mo Fan said to Luo Song icily.

Shit, Mo Fan had promised Ms Tangyue to lay low, who would’ve known he would meet such a person before he even entered University!

So what if you use Intermediate Ice? All you did was to force me to use my power!

Mo Fan had always thought that he was already a big showoff. Who would’ve thought that there’d be someone who was a bigger showoff than him, he was unable to endure it!

The entire practice ground immediately turned incredibly tense...

The chins of the Examiners had nearly dropped to the table.

First it was two Primary Magic students comparing their skills, and in the next second, there was two Intermediate spells being drawn!

Examiner Li nearly passed out. He actually knew of the true strength of this Young Master of his family. Within his heart, he had also hoped the Young Master would lay low. Who would’ve thought that he’d meet his demise so quickly! What seemed to be a normal summoner student had actually concealed the monstrous power of an Intermediate Mage!

At this rate, he might as well beat his own face until it was swollen.

How could Luo Song possibly dare to continue the use of his Intermediate Magic? He withdrew the ice shackles as his two legs began to feel weak.

As Mo Fan saw the fatty being a bit more tactful, he decided to not continue dealing with him anymore.

Mo Fan quickly calmed his lightning, and the clouds in sky also slowly dispersed, quickly returning to a clear sunny day.

“Little Wolf, return to me. Your performance was not bad at all!” Mo Fan waved at his own Spirit Wolf.

The Spirit Wolf obediently ran back to. Its eyes, which originally inhibited a lofty indifference, were currently showing new respect for Mo Fan.

The greatest honor for a Summoned Beast was when its owner was stronger than itself!

“Alright, it’s only an exam. There is no need to be angry. Mo Fan, although we don’t understand why a Lightning Magician like you decided to cultivate the Summoning Element, we do respect the choices of the students. From today on, you will be the newest summoner student of Pearl Institute!” Dean Xiao’s face carried a smile.

This Fatty really was something. Being so young yet daring to be so impulsive! There were many gifted people in Pearl Institute. If he showed off here, he’d get hit by lightning sooner or later!

Luo Song walked off the practice ground in disgrace. His face no longer held the belief that he was the number one under the heavens.

“Little Fatty, you’ll also enter the Ice school. You have learned an extremely important lesson at the start of the school, this will be very beneficial for you,” Dean Xiao told him.

“I...” Luo Song’s pride was shattered.

Originally, he could have easily entered the Pearl Institute by showing his true ability. In the end, it seemed like they had accepted him out of pity!

Chapter 147: Entering the Unstable University (1)

Jiang Yunming was very satisfied with Mo Fan, indeed! In the past, he was worried about Mo Fan being in a difficult situation. the Summoning element was Awakened as a Primary Magician’s first Element, especially for a rather poor student, it would seem more like a Trash Element. If they were to nurture that kind of student, the school would have to cough up a lot of resources. Recruiting that kind of student was of very little interest to the Summoning School.

If they were an Intermediate Magician, then it was different.

An Intermediate Magician held a certain strength all by themselves, and with enough capital, they would be able to burn more resources when Summoning a creature. That way, they would be able to nurture their Summoned creature to become even stronger.

“Are you from Bo City?” Dean Xiao slowly took off his glasses as he gazed at Mo Fan.

When he decided on accepting this student, Dean Xiao became aware the student’s record was from Bo City.

The entire nation knew of the calamity that had happened in Bo City. Thus, the entire nation gave special treatment to those who were from Bo City. During the enrollment of Pearl Institute this time, they had accepted one student from Bo City. Comparing him to the students from across the country, he wasn’t considered exceptionally outstanding...

“Yes,” Mo Fan nodded.

“Not bad, I can’t see the weak haze of the destruction on your body.” Dean Xiao smiled slightly and didn’t continue further.

Mo Fan shrugged in reply as he asked, “Can I live in the dorms?”

“Yes you can.”

Xinxia had already been accepted into Zhejiang Institute, and Mo Jiaying was busy with work. Mo Fan also had nowhere to go, so it was better for him to stay in the school and refresh his studies.

Mo Fan didn’t have luggage or bags, so he immediately left to check in.

After Mo Fan left, the Director of the Summoning Element, Jiang Yunming, glanced at Dean Xiao Bingsen.

“This student is quite interesting. Make sure you properly nurture him,” Dean Xiao said with a smile.

Jiang Yunming didn’t quite understand the meaning of Dean Xiao’s words. However, before he could ask about it, Dean Xiao had already left with his hands behind his back.

“The Dean’s cultivation is extremely high. Perhaps he was able to see what other things the student had hidden,” the lady Examiner said as she looked at the departing back of Dean Xiao.

“There are still more hidden things? I personally don’t think that’s possible. It’s merely because Dean Xiao is benevolent, he’s more concerned about those people that survived the destruction...” the bald examiner replied.

The start of the school term was on the first of September, a very unusual day for starting school.<sup>1</sup>

Mo Fan had already been living the dorm for roughly two months. He had a relatively good understanding of the entire Pearl Institute.

The Pearl Institute was divided into two campuses. The Azure Pearl Campus accommodated all the first-year University students and all the old students at Primary level. The Main Pearl Campus was only for those who had stepped into the Intermediate level.

The Main Campus was naturally the genuine core of the Pearl Institute. Gathered in this place were all of their outstanding young Magicians from every part of the nation. At same time, it was also the place with the most ferocious competition.

The Azure Campus could be considered a bit more fair. Gathered in this place were the new students who had entered the Pearl Institute, as well as the old students who had not made the breakthrough to the Intermediate level.

Mo Fan got up to brush his teeth and wash his face first thing in the morning. A relatively handsome man walked into the room.

He had fashionably styled, curly long hair, a face like a fairytale prince, and was wearing simple sportswear. Mo Fan looked at the first dorm mate that arrived with foam all over his mouth. In his heart, he cursed, Shit, this guy's almost as handsome as me!

"Oh, I thought I was the first one to get here! Let me introduce myself, my name is Zhao Manyan, I major in the Light Element..." Zhao Manyan said with a warm smile, looking very friendly.

"I'm called Mo Fan..."

"You should finish brushing your teeth, I'll go tidy up some things... This dorm is a bit dirty," Zhao Manyan chose the bed opposite Mo Fan's, near the balcony. With a glance from the balcony, you could see the scenery outside of the window, as well as the dorm filled with girls.

After Mo Fan finished brushing his teeth, he began to chat with Zhao Manyan.

"You're a Summoner? That means what the senior sister said was correct. We have a mixed Element dorm," Zhao Manyan said helplessly.

A dorm could accommodate six people. Normally, the school would arrange students of the same Element to stay together, to make it easier for them to interact.

However, not every Element had students in multiples of six, and so some dorms would end up with students from different Elements.

"Brother Mo Fan, I made an appointment to have a meal with the senior sister, so I'll take my leave first." Zhao Manyan swung his hair as he elegantly left.

Not too long after Zhao Manyan left, another two people came in.

He didn't know whether they were scared of strangers, or if they just conducted themselves in a rather superior way. These two didn't even greet Mo Fan, who had been in the dormitory for the longest period of time. They quickly started to unpack their things.

When afternoon rolled around, a tall and skinny guy with dyed red hair appeared. This guy didn't want to hide that he was a Fire Elemental student. He walked into the dorm as though he was in charge as he swept his gaze across the room.

"Whose bed is this?" The red haired man pointed at the bed he wanted.

"It's mine." Mo Fan walked over from the balcony.

"What Element are you?" the redhead asked.

"Summoning."

“Oh! Oh...” The redhead stared blankly. It was clear that he didn’t expect Mo Fan to be an extremely uncommon Summoner.

The two dormmates who were in the middle of doing their business couldn’t help but raise their heads to take a glance at Mo Fan.

“What about this bed, what Element?” The redhead man pointed at Zhao Manyan’s bed.

“Light Element,” Mo Fan replied warily.

The redhead nodded as he strode to Zhao Manyan’s bed, and immediately put the big bag he had behind his back on it. He promptly threw Zhao Manyan’s things off to the side, and furthermore raised the corner of his mouth in a sneer as he said, “Now it belongs to the Fire Element. Let me introduce myself, my name is Lu Yunzheng.”

Mo Fan looked at the things that were being thrown to the side as he was dumbstruck.

This Lu Yunzheng seemed to be quite arrogant, he had stolen someone else’s bed just like that...

After finishing his dinner, Mo Fan received a text. He was told to come to his classroom, there was a welcoming party for new students.

After getting to the designated classroom, Mo Fan fantasized meeting a group of beautiful, youthful, and heart-moving female classmates. However, reality was cruel. The spacious classroom had no one in it!

“Did I come too early?” Mo Fan wondered, bored as he waited inside the spacious classroom.

Time passed by, the time for the meeting quickly arrived, and there was still only Mo Fan in the classroom. This made Mo Fan a bit anxious. Had he come to the wrong room by mistake?

When he was about to walk out, Mo Fan turned around and discovered the Summoning Director Jiang Yunming walking in.

When Jiang Yunming was about to say something to Mo Fan, hasty footsteps were heard from outside of the classroom. Six young men hurriedly entered the room together.

From the actions of the six students, it was very clear they were from the same dorm.

Jiang Yunming looked around at the seven people in the classroom as he casually said, “Everyone seemed to get here just in time, I see...”

Boom! Mo Fan’s chin nearly hit the floor.

Shit, everyone is here??

There are only seven new students for this Element???

Just enough to play out the Gourd Eva!²

Chapter 148: Entering the Unstable University

“The Summoning Element can be called the Element that stands out from the rest. The way we conduct our classes are also very different from the others. Basically, it’s just having you guys raise your own beast. Other than a couple of important classes per week, you will be nurturing your own summoned beast. If you really are bored and have nothing to do, then you are allowed to go to other Element’s classes and sit through their lectures,” Director Jiang Yunming said.

Mo Fan opened his mouth in surprise, but than quickly nodded.

This was indeed something he wanted. After all, he was a person who cultivated four different elements, he’d only be able to go through them all if he had a flexible schedule!

“Our Institute has always had a special Welcome Program for the Summoning Element students. That will be the main thing that you will be facing next. The first two to show your exceptional performance will receive a Beast Refinement Blood,” Jiang Yunming continued.

After he mentioned the Beast Refinement Blood, the six Summoners began to get excited, their eyes displayed a radiance of thirst.

“Um, what is a Beast Refinement Blood?” Mo Fan weakly asked the short and small boy next to him.

“You don’t know??” The short and small boy looked at Mo Fan, suspecting something. It was as though he was saying, _Bro, are you in the wrong Element?_

“The Beast Refinement Blood allows your summoned creature to go through a Marrow Cleansing, its strength will substantially increase. This makes it much faster nurturing the beasts compared to using your own Magic energy to slowly help them along. Furthermore, it might allow a Summoned beast at the peak of the Minion level to evolve to the next level. Of course, this possibility is relatively low,” Jiang Yunming explained.

Mo Fan nodded to show that he understood now.

“Mr Jiang, what is this Welcome Program that you mentioned? How do you distribute the Beast Refinement Blood? How about we all summon our beasts and compare whose is the strongest, and you’ll give the blood to the winner?” the boy who sat in the very middle with a glossy hair asked eagerly.

“Hai Dafu, rules are not something that you can change. You will soon find out what the Welcoming Program is. This could possibly make you become the focal point of all of the new students, or make you the laughing stock of the school,” Jiang Yunming displayed a rather mysterious smile. He didn’t explain to everyone about just what this Welcoming Program was really about.

Mo Fan was also very curious. Just what kind of special Welcoming Program did they make for the new Summoning students?

Mo Fan also wanted the Beast Refinement Blood. His own Spirit Wolf’s prowess was actually quite strong, but that was far from enough for Mo Fan. Since there was a blood that could allow it to increase its strength, then he would definitely contend for it!

The main reason for entering the school was to contend for resources!

The majority of the magic resources were in the hands of major powers. If an impoverished Magician like Mo Fan couldn't even fight for the resources in the school, then he would not be able to match up against others.

Mo Fan returned to his dorm of fish and dragons, still puzzled about the Welcoming Program.

He sat down on his chair, still pondering over this problem. At this moment, that Zhao Manyan across from him suddenly laughed as he said, "Brother Mo Fan, I've heard you Summoning Element students are in big trouble."

"Big trouble? What do you mean?" Mo Fan didn't understand him.

"I had heard something from the Senior Sister... It's the Welcoming Program," Zhao Manyan told him.

"I've been puzzled about that, tell me about it," Mo Fan's eyes shone, he hadn't thought that Zhao Manyan would have such information.

"It's like this. In the previous seasons, the Pearl Institute would always conduct a Beast Combat Competition during the Welcoming meeting. All of the students and teachers will sit in the biggest battle arena of our Azure Campus. They will place a monster inside of the cage on the battle arena, and all of the new students are allowed to walk into the cage to battle the creature inside. They'll be demonstrating their strength in front of all the students and teacher of the school," Zhao Manyan said as he filed his nails.

"Battle monsters?" Mo Fan's eyes slowly began to shine.

_This Institute sure is interesting. Not long after school starts, they'll allow others to fight before all students and teachers against a Magical Beast. That's quite provocative!_

"What kind of Magical Beast, then?" Mo Fan asked.

"Who said it was going to be a Magical Beast?" Zhao Manyan raised his eyebrow as he continued, "You'll fight against a beast, they'll be using the Summoned beast of you Summoners."

Mo Fan's mouth instantly turned into an O shape.

The other people in the room also looked over, the expressions on everyone's faces different.

"Shit, isn't the school messing with us Summoners?" Mo Fan immediately cursed.

"Hahaha, you can only blame yourselves for having the most unique Element... I'm actually quite envious of you, you'll be able to display the strength of your Summoned beast in front of the entire school," Zhan Manyan laughed.

Mo Fan scowled miserably.

He finally understood what Jiang Yunming had meant.

The entire school was conducting a ceremony where new students battled beasts, and the beasts were their Summoned beasts. _How fortunate that the school can think of this kind of tactic to examine the students!_

When he heard of battling beasts, Mo Fan was actually feeling very happy. It just so happened that he hadn't fought against a Magical Beast for a long time. However, who knew that it'd be this kind of set up!

_This... this is just irritating, it's simply crazy and ridiculous!_

With this kind of awful Program, Mo Fan felt even more puzzled.

Only the students with good combat prowess were able to enter the Pearl Institute, there were essentially no existences here that'd go weak on seeing a Magical Beast. Although his Spirit Wolf's combat prowess wasn't weak, it couldn't continuously fight against the new students...

It seemed like the Beast Refinement Blood wasn't obtained that easily...

"You'll have to hope for good luck. It's late, I'll go to sleep first," Zhao Manyan patted Mo Fan's shoulders with a gleeful not-smile on his face before climbing into bed.

Mo Fan's answering smile was all bitterness. Just when he was about to climb into bed, he suddenly realized something. He looked at the Zhao Manyan that was already in his bed as he suspiciously said, "What happened to that...that Fire user?"

"He's probably applying for a change of room, nothing important," Zhao Manyan replied indifferently.

Mo Fan looked at the other people in the room and realized each of their expressions were strange. It looked like some of them were even scared of Zhao Manyan, and they didn't seem to want to talk about this matter.

From the expression of the other three roommates, Mo Fan was able to guess that the matter wasn't as simple as Zhao Manyan made it out to be. This rather astonished him. It seemed like this Zhao Manyan wasn't all just looks, he had quite some ability!

Mo Fan didn't continue asking. The biggest complication he had was a question that was giving him a headache.

The other six Summoners didn't seem to be easy to deal with. How could he win against these people and obtain the Beast Refinement Blood?

Furthermore, his own little Wolf sure seemed pitiful at the moment...

Chapter 149: The Warrior Wolf

In the dead of the night, Mo Fan's routine was the same as before. He climbed up to the roof of the building as he began to meditate.

Meditating for the Summoning Element was actually a form of feeding. This Meditation turned his Summoning Stardust's Magic energy into food to feed his Summoned beast. The Summoned beast's strength would be able to increase a lot through the absorption of the Magic Energy that came from the Magician's Stardust.

The speed at which Mo Fan restored his Magic energy was relatively fast. The Little Loach Pendant doubling the speed of his cultivation also signified that Mo Fan's Magic energy replenished at twice the speed of a normal person.

Mo Fan had already reached the third level of the Summoning Stardust, and so the Magic Energy that he supplied to the Spirit Wolf was not small at all.

In the past two months, Mo Fan had been using all of his magic energy to nurture the Spirit Wolf every day. However, he didn't discover any clear changes to the Spirit Wolf.

_Awoooooo~~!_

While Mo Fan was meditating, a sudden howl was transmitted to him through the Pact mark that linked him and the wolf.

It sounded a bit like a provocation!

"This guy is battling again?" Mo Fan murmured, feeling a little stunned.

A Summoned beast was unable to remain in the normal plane for a long time. They resided in the Summoning Plane. In that plane, there also existed many challenges which they had to face.

In what seemed to be an incomparably infertile land for them, each of the creatures were doing their best to survive. Thus, they continuously had deadly fights with other creatures. Many of the times when Mo Fan summoned the Spirit Wolf, it would be riddled with scars...

The past couple of times gave Mo Fan a new insight into the Summoned beasts.

In the past, Mo Fan thought the Summoned creatures would always be in one place. As long as you'd call them, they would appear, and then use all their strength to fight.

In reality, all of the creatures that were called from the different planes had their own lifestyle. The agreement which they had with Magicians had the Magicians providing them with nourishment from their Magic energy, and a bit of strengthening. In return, they would appear and help the Magicians battle when they were called upon.

In the two months Mo Fan had been painstakingly cultivating, the Spirit Wolf had fought on its home plane more than ten times. Essentially, it would go back to finding creatures to fight again once it had recovered.

To be honest, Mo Fan was actually very worried about the Spirit Wolf dying in the Summoning Plane. If that happened, Mo Fan would have to brand yet another Spirit Wolf... that really took a lot of mental energy. Furthermore, the nourishment which it had received for such a long time would also be wasted...

The battles within their plane were not something the Magicians could help with. The only thing they could do is meditate, and guarantee they'd be able to provide the beasts with Magic energy once their battles were over. The Magic energy wasn't just food for their cultivation, but also allowed them to heal up faster.

After a while, the Spirit Wolf's battle finally came to an end.

The mental mark had become quite weak. From this, Mo Fan could tell that the Spirit Wolf was already badly hurt!

“Shit, don’t die on me!” Mo Fan was scared.

_I’ve never seen such a war-like Summoned Beast! Since you’re being taken care of by a Magician, then why can’t you just go find a safe place and be a good Wolf!_

Mo Fan didn’t dare to ponder too much over it. He hastily used the Pact mark to transfer Magic energy to the Spirit Wolf, hoping the energy would drag it back from the edge of death.

The Stardust that was filled with magic energy the color of moonlight quickly darkened. What relieved Mo Fan was the fact the Spirit Wolf’s aura seemed to have recovered a little.

_I’ll Summon you here and bring you to the school infirmary. There’ll be Healing Element teachers who will help you heal up_, Mo Fan sent out to the Spirit Wolf.

Mo Fan was now certain that it had received a serious wound. If it didn’t get treated in time, it would be in a critical situation.

When Mo Fan was about to interlink all of the seven Summoning stars, the Spirit Wolf transferred a rebuff to him through the mental link.

_My Wolf brother, if you just heal yourself, who knows how long that will take. If you meet another creature that is hostile to you at this time, you will definitely die_, Mo Fan sent anxiously.

Not long after, the Spirit Wolf replied, saying he was hiding in a very safe place...

Mo Fan didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

How did he find such a stubborn Spirit Wolf? It was on the verge of death, yet it was still sitting there waiting for its wounds to self heal.

Mo Fan was worried about the Spirit Wolf the entire night. The Spirit Wolf’s aura finally stabilized as the sun rose.

Mo Fan sent all of his Magic Energy that he had just regained out to the Spirit Wolf. The Spirit Wolf was already in a deep sleep, perhaps it wouldn’t wake up for a long period of time...

“As long as it’s alive!” Mo Fan sighed. “It seems like there’s no hope to obtain the Beast Refinement Blood, it won’t be able to battle in this state...”

The wound the Spirit Wolf received this time was far too heavy, it would take a long time to recover.

In this case, Mo Fan could only give up on the Beast Battle Competition.

.....

The day of the Welcoming meet was finally here. It was certainly the most majestic event of the Azure Campus.

The older students who had been in the school for a while would definitely not miss out on this chance to see the new students embarrass themselves. Many of the new students still believed their strength stood out from the others, and were waiting for a good opportunity to take one leap and become the focal point of the entire school.

Perhaps every single one of the students here were the most best of the best in the areas they had come from. However, in Pearl Institute, they were easily submerged within the piles of magic geniuses.

“Did you guys ask around about the Summoned beasts of the seven Summoner students?” Inside the cafeteria, four to five boys was sitting together and looked as though they were secretly discussing a major issue of some other country.

“I’ve asked around. the guy called Hai Dafu has a White Armor Battle Cocoon, its combat prowess won’t lose out against an adult Magical Beast. Zheng Bingxiao has a Rock Demon Soldier, its a Summoned beast with a relatively strong defense and power. And then, there’s a Bone Corpse Demon...” a guy who looked very excited replied quickly.

“Bone Corpse Demon? That kind of thing isn’t something you should provoke!” one guy nearly yelled out.

“If you don’t want to provoke it, then don’t. Either way, there are still some who aren’t too hard to deal with,” the boy who took lead of the discussion said.

“And there’s one more Summoner student called Mo Fan. I have yet to hear about what kind of Summoned Beast he has. It just happens that he’s not in the same room as the other six,” the excited guy said.

“That doesn’t matter, we’ll just find something easy. An individual or team that defeats one of the Summoned Beasts will receive a great reward from the school.”

“Yeah, why else would we go through so much trouble to get intel on the enemy?”

“The reward is not something I, Li Junwei, care about. There’s actually that Lightning kid who dared to contest against me about my Qin Xiaomian.”

“Oh, Li Junwei, you just happen to like this kind of gentle and obedient girl. I’m not the same as you, I like Mu Nujiao...”

“Shit, who doesn’t like Mu Nujiao? Do you know how many people got a nosebleed from seeing her on the first day?”

“Yeah, that is a supreme goddess!”

Chapter 150: Supreme Magic

The most heated topic of the day was naturally the Beast Combat Competition in the afternoon. This event had been the most important thing happening at Pearl Institute Azure Campus during the past couple of years.

There were banners with Summoned beasts displayed on them at all corners of the campus. Furthermore, there were rumors that there were large posters of those who had displayed an incredible performance in the past competitions still in place on the walls of the entrances to the commons. That sounded really cool!

Mo Fan started to sort out his appearance and clothes first thing in the morning. He had to look his best for the lovely ladies...!

Looking at it from a different angle, the Summoner students were also the focal point of the competition this time.

His Spirit Wolf was still sleeping, so Mo Fan thought he had nothing to do here. Originally, this was a chance for him to display his talents and good looks to the entire school, but now he could only show off his incredible handsomeness.

“Brother Mo Fan, since we’re in the same dorm, you should tell me a bit about your Summoned beast. Give us something to work on?” his dorm mate Zhang Pinggu asked with his eyebrows raised.

Beside him was Zhao Manyan, who was also fixing himself up. He turned around as he commented in surprise, “A Spirit Wolf is the favorite beast for Primary Summoners. Furthermore, that thing’s combat prowess is even slightly higher than a Minion level Magical Beast!”

“So it’s a Spirit Wolf... I reckon we wouldn’t be able to win against you even if the entire dorm was to group up,” Zhang Pinggu said with a bitter smile.

“Hehe, don’t use your standard to determine everyone’s prowess!” Su Long, the last one to arrive in the dorm, said with a touch of ridicule.

There were a total of five people in Mo Fan’s dorm, and the one he got along best with was Zhao Manyan, who had the bed opposite him.

Zhang Pinggu was a pretty shameless guy. He didn’t argue with anyone, and was able to banter with anyone.

Su Long was the last person to arrive. This guy seemed full of himself. In the beginning when Zhang Pinggu tried to welcome him, he was given a cold stare in reply, scaring him away.

The other two... Mo Fan still wasn’t able to remember their names. Either way, they’d been doing their own thing since the first day of school. They were relatively quiet, and they didn’t try to talk to others. Only Zhang Pinggu was relatively familiar with those two, Mo Fan and Zhao Manyan just acted as though they didn’t exist.

“Good luck,” After Zhao Manyan tidied himself up, he patted Mo Fan on his shoulder before leaving.

Mo Fan couldn’t do anything else other than silently await the tragic Welcoming Competition.

After arriving at the Azure Battlegrounds, Mo Fan and his dorm mates parted ways.

The Summoner students were the main characters of the competition this time, it was natural that they had to go to the back of the stage to prepare.

The Azure Battlegrounds was a huge construction. Inside the place was a space that was a bit bigger than a soccer field.

Normally, this place was a grand arena, but today, the arena had already been turned into a colossal cage, called the "Beast Battle Cage".

Surrounding the Beast Battle Cage were mat seats in the form of ladders. The mats were placed neatly, and closely. He estimated that accommodating ten thousand people wouldn't be a problem at all. Perhaps only Pearl Institute was able to construct such a battleground of this size.

Students came into the building in succession, the lines starting right after lunch. The tide of people had already started disrupting the grand atmosphere of the building.

After three o'clock in the afternoon, the entire building was filled with students. Faces filled with vitality and pairs of beautiful white thighs filled with youth. Other than a concert or school, where else could you see such a large group of young girls coming in!

"Shit, there's a lot of people. I'm feeling nervous..." Yang Yi said at the back of the stage, his face filled with worry.

As he looked into the arena, there were a multitude of faces they hadn't seen before, and that was only a part of the arena. Seeing this made his heart began to race. When he was in the middle of the arena, and numerous pairs of eyes were looking at him from all directions, it would definitely make him so nervous that he would forget what Element he studied!

"That's not a problem, I like this kind of situation. Today in the common area, cafeteria, and even on the way to the arena, I had heard people talk about our Summoned beasts. There was even a couple of them saying how they'd casually annihilate our Summoned beasts... I laughed. My White Armor Battle Cocoon<sup>1</sup> will let them know the definition of complete annihilation!" Hai Dafu was definitely excited!

Zheng Bingxiao was standing at the side, as calm as always.

The other three people didn't have much of a reaction. However, from the occasional glow of confidence beaming from their eyes, Mo Fan could tell that they were actually extremely excited about this Beast Battle Competition!

The Pearl Institute chose the most elite Magicians from the competitions across the nation. If they were able to distinguish themselves in this kind of place, then wouldn't that be enough to prove themselves?

Who didn't want to be known for their mettle? Who didn't want to bask in glory during University?

As the Ceremony began, the first person to make a speech in front of ten thousands of people was naturally Dean Xiao. "Before I make my speech, I want to confirm one thing with everyone.

“If you aspire to be a Magician who wants to be revered in society, with a high salary, and live a high quality life... then as the person in charge, I am obligated to tell you that you’ve come to the wrong place.

“The Magicians who graduate from Pearl Institute are bound to have the strength to change the world. They are heroes who protect humanity. If any of you pursue the former, then we will give you the certificate of Pearl Institute and a letter of recommendation right now, and you will be able to live that kind of lifestyle. Please don’t take up the precious spots, wealth, and reputation of our Pearl Institute. We don’t lack those things, we only lack an eternal heart that pursues the Supreme Magic!”

Mo Fan was standing at the back of the stage, not too far away from where Dean Xiao was making his speech.

He carefully observed everyone’s reactions toward what Dean Xiao had said. Every single one of them had something flickering in their eyes.

Those words were quite domineering. In a time where everyone was pursuing reputation and wealth, the Dean told the present people that receiving a certificate from Pearl Institute would allow them to obtain all of that. However, the Magic students who had been accepted into this kind of nationally reputable Magic Institution, did they truly only want those things?

In front of the Supreme Magic, all fame and profit was just like floating clouds!
