Chapter 1521: Incarnadine Medusa Lord

“Heidi, Heidi! She’s not dead!”

Mu Bai’s voice suddenly came from the other side of the ravine. The others quickly followed the voice and saw Heidi with Mo Fan. Mo Fan had his arm around her slim waist while they were trying to dodge the attacks from the terrifying female Medusa that was pursuing them!

“She’s not dead? It’s time for us to retreat then,” Zhao Manyan said to Mu Bai quickly.

“I think we are surrounded,” Mu Bai looked around him.

“Fk me, did Heidi purposely lure them to us on purpose!?” Zhao Manyan screamed.

“Stop barking like a useless dog and cast some defensive spells on me. I’m going to freeze them all with my Ice Magic!” Mu Bai said angrily.

He was extremely annoyed by Zhao Manyan’s constant grumbling. How did someone like him even make it onto the national team? His voice was countless times stronger than his actual strength, and eleven out of ten sentences from him contained vulgar words!

“Let me go, I can walk by myself!” Heidi said angrily. Mo Fan was holding her waist so tightly that she felt like she had been injected with an anesthetic.

“Can you be more careful? How are you so inexperienced when it comes to fighting the demon creatures? It doesn’t matter if you have an impressive cultivation. These demon creatures could kill you in an instant!” Mo Fan immediately rebuked her.

Ceylan and Headmistress Perry had asked him to bring Heidi along so she could learn some practical skills. As he expected, Heidi was extremely careless in a messy battle like this. She thought she was safe after moving a distance away from the demon creatures. She even started Channeling her magic...

It was unwise to Channel magic that required a long time without anyone around to protect her!

“How did you know there was a huge female Medusa under me?” Heidi asked him with a confused look.

A Sound Mage’s senses were a lot sharper than other Mages. Heidi had not even heard any noise from the ground, so how did Mo Fan know there was something under it?

“Experience, the area within two kilometers from us is full of these Medusae, but not a single one was at the spot where you landed. Some of the Medusae even avoided it on purpose, meaning that there was a creature there that those little creatures were afraid of nearby! It remained in the same spot without moving, meaning that it was waiting idly for the opportunity to strike!” Mo Fan replied.

Heidi fell into deep thought for a moment. It was indeed as Mo Fan had said: a Sound Mage might be able to pick up the slightest movement, but there was no way she could notice the creature if it remained still.

But how was it possible to keep an eye on little details like that in the middle of an intense fight? Did that mean Mo Fan was constantly observing his surroundings even when he was surrounded by the Lesser Medusae?

“The higher the level of creatures, the higher their intelligence! Most of them are smarter than you... get the Steel-Armored Beast out of here, I’ll handle these big guys,” Mo Fan put Heidi down beside the Steel-Armored Beast.

The Steel-Armored Beast was barely holding onto its last breath. It looked almost dead. Heidi let out a wry smile, looking at the Steel-Armored Beast that had no hope of making it out alive, since it was already poisoned, “Don’t you feel like whatever we are doing is meaningless and dumb?”

The soldiers, merchant, and the people of the European University Institute indeed thought it was very idiotic to try saving a Contracted Beast that had no hope of survival.

“Why would you even worry if something is meaningless or not? Just stick to what your heart is telling you to do! Even if we can’t save it, we can still bring its remains back, or you just want to earn the gratitude of that old mercenary?” Mo Fan shot back.

“I was just taking pity on the beast...” Heidi said.

“That’s a good enough reason,” Mo Fan said.

“Then why are you doing it?”

“Don’t you think I look very handsome this way? Didn’t you notice the girls whose affection Ferrero has won over are looking at me differently now?” Mo Fan replied.

“...” Heidi was completely speechless.

That being said, she could not deny that Mo Fan’s back looked really cool when he stopped the old mercenary and told him that he would save the Contracted Beast on his behalf!

“There are too many Black Medusae, I’m afraid I can’t break through,” Heidi said.

“Head toward Zhao Manyan and Mu Bai, they will clear a path for you,” Mo Fan said.

Heidi headed in the direction that Mo Fan had pointed at, quickly discovering a huge area covered in frost. The Black Medusae in the area had all turned into motionless ice statues.

Heidi was overjoyed. She initially thought the two guys were too afraid to come down here...

Mo Fan kept attracting the female Medusa’s attention.

The Incarnadine Medusa Lord was the leader of the Medusa Mountain. The big male Medusae, little female Medusae, and little male Medusae were all under her command. Mo Fan was well aware of how tough of an opponent it was going to be.

As soon as the Incarnadine Medusa Lord showed up, the rest of the male Medusae immediately pounced at him to show off for her.

There were quite a few big male Medusae. Mo Fan noted there were around seven of them.

The Dark Red Male Medusa had to be the strongest among them. Mo Fan was initially trying to attract the big female Medusa's attention so it would not swallow Heidi again, but as he kept running, he realized that every big male Medusa was chasing after him!

"I didn't fking spray the perfume on me!" Mo Fan cursed them all.

The seven big male Medusae were like war machines. They kept charging forward and smashing anything they came upon in their way, including huge rocks, walls, and sand dunes. Seven huge Medusae were chasing after a tiny figure, their tails slithering across the spacious land. The female Black Medusae started to surround Mo Fan too, limiting the space that was available to him.

The Black Medusae were the little female Medusae. They could easily attract little male Medusae. Their numbers were so overwhelming that they could fill up a pit with a radius of five hundred meters across; it was impossible to kill them all. If only Mo Fan had the Ice Element, he could just freeze them all without having to kill them. It would save him a lot of work!

Mo Fan only had the chance to cast Basic and Intermediate Spells since he was constantly chased around. He hardly had any chance to cast an Advanced Spell.

If he was Possessed by Little Flame Belle, it would be a lot easier to take out these Medusae, but Mo Fan was reluctant to rely on Little Flame Belle all the time. Little Flame Belle had already reached the Advancing Period of the Commander Level, so she would raise Mo Fan's strength close to the Super Level.

The problem was, it would significantly weaken the spells of his other Elements. Mo Fan would really be unbeatable if he could improve his other Elements too!

He insisted on not merging with Little Flame Belle! It was his training of the day!

"I can't get away from them..." Mo Fan felt his head hurting.

Mo Fan did not have the chance to construct a Star Constellation because the big male Medusae were still chasing him, but how could he possibly kill these Commander-level creatures without using Advanced Spells?

"Let's try producing a shadow clone and see if I can trick these creatures..." Mo Fan injected the Dark Material into his body.

Mo Fan could clone his enemy with the Rebellling Shadow, but while doing so he had accidentally discovered that he could clone himself, too...

Chapter 1522: Stormy Hail

The shadow clone was different from the ones that Mo Fan's Dark Noble Mantle could produce. The Rebellling Shadow was obviously a dark shadow stained with Mo Fan's presence. It was impossible to trick a Mage with it, since they could tell that it was only a shadow.

However, it was different for demon creatures. They would mainly set their eyes on things that moved quickly. The Medusae mostly relied on their ability to track their target's presence. If Mo Fan suddenly disappeared and unleashed the Rebellious Shadow, he might be able to lure them away...

Mo Fan jumped down a ridge and landed in a deep pit.

The seven male Medusae were not far from him. They quickly followed him and immediately saw a black figure heading in the opposite direction. The seven Medusae were a little surprised. Since when did the human that only knew to run away have the guts to fool with them and run in the opposite direction?

The male Medusae immediately went after the shadow. Three of them even stacked their bodies around the Rebellious Shadow like walls. It was quite a terrifying sight when they fully extended their bodies!

Mo Fan grinned when he saw the male Medusae taking the bait.

As he thought, these Medusae were very sensitive to their target's auras. He just needed to use the Dark Material to conceal his presence while applying some of it to the Rebellious Shadow, tricking the male Medusae into chasing the shadow instead!

The male Medusae soon surrounded the Rebellious Shadow. The Dark Red male Medusa snapped at Mo Fan's shadow eagerly, but the shadow surprisingly turned into black smoke and dissipated around its fangs!

The male Medusa bit with such great might that it ended up loosening its fangs. It was infuriated when it realized it had been tricked. It immediately turned around and lunged at the pit under the rampart.

"You still dare to come after me? Take this!"

Mo Fan's flames had now filled up the pit. He had been waiting for the Dark Red Male Medusa to lunge at him when it was angered. Mo Fan threw a blazing fist at the creature at the perfect time. A destructive fiery dragon rose from the blazing pit and headed right at the male Medusa!

The fiery dragon was unstoppable. The male Medusa tried to pull itself back when it sensed the terrifying force approaching, but the fiery dragon had already knocked it into the air!

The male Medusa spun in circles as it reached the highest point. A sudden explosion took place. The fiery dragon ignited the creature like a burning cloud, lighting up the ground below with crimson red light. The Dark Red Male Medusa was burned into pieces that scattered and fell from the sky...

The scorched remains of the creature poured down like rain. Its body was beyond recognition; it was absolutely dead!

The other male Medusae were intimidated by the fiery dragon. They no longer dared to get any closer to the blazing pit Mo Fan was in after witnessing the horrible death of their comrade!

Mo Fan did not utilize Little Flame Belle's power with the punch. It was not as easy killing a single male Medusa this way as when all three Soul-grade Flames were used!

The female Medusa in the distance shrieked at the male Medusae.

Its screech was the greatest stimulant to them. Their eyes were infused with rage, as if they had completely forgotten about the Dark Red Male Medusa that had died just a moment ago.

The male Medusae pounced at Mo Fan. The black dust that their bodies swept into the pit rapidly extinguished the flames. Mo Fan decisively fled for his life when he realized that his aura could no longer scare the male Medusae away!

If the male Medusae engaged him one by one, he swore he would pluck all their poisonous fangs off. However, if they all attacked at once, Mo Fan had no choice but to run. He would not have a safe environment to cast his stronger spells!

Luckily, he had the Dark Noble Mantle that could increase the tier of his Fleeing Shadow by two. He could turn into a shadow bird and glide along the ground, sprint on his legs, or Blink away at times. It allowed him to kite those annoying male Medusae around for some time!

“Mo Fan, time to go!” Zhao Manyan’s distorted voice came from the distance.

Mo Fan took a quick glance at them and noticed they had almost reached the ravine.

It was impossible to kill an entire Medusa Mountain. Mo Fan clearly knew that he had almost zero chance of surviving if the female Medusa was chasing after him.

“Give me a hand!” Mo Fan was running out of space. The male Medusae were forcing him to head toward the female Medusa as her prey.

Mo Fan could already see the female Medusa rising into the sky like a skyscraper around five hundred meters away. It was like a noble empress slowly placing a napkin on her lap while sorting out her makeup, waiting for the male Medusae to present a delicious meal to it!

Mo Fan knew it would be suicide to run at her, but the male Medusae, little female Medusae, and little male Medusae had sealed off the area. He could not use Blink all the time. Once he was trapped, he would have no choice but to run in the direction they were forcing him into!

He needed some help. Otherwise, it would only be a matter of time until he ended up as a little grain in the female Medusa’s stomach!

Even though humans did not have much meat, a Mage naturally possessed a huge amount of energy. The reason why demon creatures were so fond of eating humans was because human mages were great nutrients for them!

“Stormy Hail!”

A loud voice appeared around a kilometer away from Mo Fan. Mu Bai was standing on a rather tall sand dune. He had summoned icy hail down upon the area.

The biggest hailstones were around the size of a watermelon, while the smallest was around the size of a thumb. Their sharp vertexes and thin shape made them look like icy daggers. Under Mi Bai’s command, the ice swept down at the Medusae, and the lower-level little male and female Medusae were promptly shredded to pieces!

A strong scent of blood lingered in the air, with remains of the Medusae all over the place. The hail storm was remarkably strong. Most importantly, not a single little male or female Medusa was alive in the five hundred meters between Mo Fan and Mu Bai.

Mo Fan was dumbfounded. He had not expected Mu Bai to possess such terrifying strength. It seemed like he had his own fortunate encounters while he was surviving in the wild!

“Green Tea, clear a path for me!” Mo Fan yelled as loud as he could, worried that Mu Bai could not hear him.

Mu Bai immediately turned away from him.

“Mu Bai, Mu Bai, alright? Hurry up and save me, they have sealed my escape paths. Freeze the guy with the horn, it can see through my shadow,” Mo Fan quickly shouted.

“Still being mouthy on the brink of death!” Mu Bai harrumphed coldly.

Mu Bai looked ahead and studied the remains of the Medusae across the place. They did not look too ghastly, since the place was covered in frost. The blood pouring out was quickly frozen by the ice.

Mu Bai continued forward and soon discovered one of the male Medusae had a horn on its head. Mo Fan’s Shadow Magic was most likely restricted by it, forcing him to flee in a certain direction.

Mu Bai went another two hundred meters forward. A huge bunch of Black Medusae came at him, followed by the smaller male Medusae flowing like a tide behind them.

The little male Medusae were called little, but even the smallest of them was around three meters long and as thick as a human’s arm. These little male Medusae were poisonous, too. The body of a human they bit would stiffen up in ten seconds, and in less than a minute, the poison would spread across their body, paralyzing them!

Mu Bai noticed a pattern: the little male Medusae were only following the little female Medusae around, and would only attack under the little female Medusae’s guidance. Without the little female Medusae, they were nothing but a sheet of loose sand, timid and weak!

Mu Bai targeted the little female Medusae this time. He quickly located the little female Medusae and killed them swiftly!

These smaller female Medusae were not too intelligent, and was quite easy to distinguish them by their larger size. Their bodies were python-like for five to twenty meters, while the part close to their heads resembled the upper body of a woman connected to the fierce head of a snake!

Mu Bai specifically targeted those black Medusae. After they were eliminated, the little male Medusae became extremely timid. They dug into the ground and fled when Mu Bai cast a few Ice Magic spells to scare them away!

“Mo Fan, kill the female Medusae, the male Medusae are taking orders from them!” Mu Bai quickly informed Mo Fan of his discovery.

“Are you kidding me now? The female Medusa in front of me is the ruler of the Medusa Mountain! Just freeze that guy with the horn so I can escape!” Mo Fan screamed back.

Mu Bai glanced at Mo Fan and noticed the female Medusa close to him was indeed the enormous ruler of the Medusa Mountain. It would be extremely difficult to kill the creature, thus his discovery was totally irrelevant to Mo Fan!

Mu Bai reached a spot around five hundred meters away from Mo Fan. He could clearly see the male Medusa with a horn from this distance. The eyes of the Horned Male Medusa were not yellow, but black instead. It did not use its smell to locate its prey, serving as the eyes among the Medusae; its job was to see through illusions and tricks of their enemies...

Mu Bai eliminated the little female Medusae nearby and immediately channeled an Advanced Ice Spell!

Mu Bai could not cast the Stormy Hail for this. The spell was very effective against low-level creatures, but against the male Medusae's thick and sturdy skin, it would only leave a few scratches. It was impossible to kill them quickly.

Against a single target, the Advanced Spell Icebound Coffin was a lot more effective!

The male Medusa had placed all its attention on Mo Fan. After all, it was utterly annoyed by the human that was so good at running away. It swore it would be the one eating him!

Frost slowly accumulated in the sky. The Horned Male Medusa was completely unaware that a coffin made of sturdy ice was aiming right at it from above!

Chapter 1523: Eyes of Vengeance

"Mo Fan, prepare to run!" Mu Bai yelled at Mo Fan when he was almost done Channeling his magic.

As soon as he finished the sentence, an icy flicker appeared in the sky. A heavy Icebound Coffin fell from the sky and landed directly upon the Horned Male Medusa!

The Horned Male Medusa was in mid-slither when the Icebound Coffin landed right in the middle of its body and flattened it with great force!

The Horned Male Medusa cried out in agony. It fiercely twisted its upper body, but the frost began to spread over it. Being crushed was one thing, but being frozen was another! Once the Icebound Coffin suppressed its target, the spell's powerful frost would spread rapidly across the target's body. For a target with a long body, the Icebound Coffin would simply modify its shape accordingly to seal the target in ice!

The Horned Male Medusa was unable to break free, and the ice spread swiftly across its body. If its head was frozen in the ice, it would die to the frost very quickly!

"Well done!" Mo Fan was impressed by Mu Bai's Ice Magic. He had managed to freeze the Commander-level Horned Male Medusa into a huge popsicle. He could not wait to see how the rest of the blind male Medusae were going to surround him now!

Mo Fan activated the Dark Noble Mantle and went invisible. Even the shadow he left behind when he cast Fleeing Shadow was extremely faint.

The Dark Noble Mantle had the ability to conceal its wearer's presence, just like the Dark Material: Fiendish Night, which could even trick the demon creatures and lure them away. The male Medusae thought they were about to present a delicacy to the female Medusa. They were already imagining how they could rub against the female Medusa's body as they pleased, but the little dessert suddenly disappeared in the blink of an eye. The male Medusae were so mad that they flipped in the air and slammed their bodies into the ground!

The proud female Medusa was enraged too. It opened its mouth and screamed at the male Medusae, as if she was complaining about how useless they were. The male Medusae immediately scattered and ran away. They were well aware that the female Medusa would swallow them alive whenever she was not served with delicious food. A single male Medusa was just enough to fill her stomach!

"Quick, we have to go now!" Mo Fan regrouped with Mu Bai and ran straight for the ravine.

Mu Bai had killed all the Lesser Medusae nearby to clear a path. He looked at Mo Fan and saw a few injuries caused by the Medusae's poisonous fangs. He blurted out, "You're poisoned. It's going to paralyze you!"

"It won't, poison is the last thing I'm afraid of. Let's talk later, the female Medusa is coming!" Mo Fan replied.

Mo Fan had guessed right. The female Medusa was infuriated when the male Medusae failed to catch him. It knocked its useless underlings aside and decided it would take matters into its own hands.

The female Medusa had the ability to dive into the ground, like a sea serpent with the sand as its territory. It was able to dive and move freely under the ground!

"Quick, it will catch up to us fast!" Mo Fan said.

Mo Fan had fought some Red Medusae during the battle against the Great Pyramid of Giza. They were extremely quick when moving underground. He had seen them diving into the ground a kilometer away many times, yet they would suddenly spring up from the ground under his feet in just a few seconds!

It was one of the Red Medusae's abilities. Only Medusae that had turned completely red would have the ability. Therefore, Mo Fan subconsciously felt the ground below his feet was unsafe as soon as he saw the female Medusa diving into the ground!

"Old Zhao, Old Zhao, cast your defensive spells on us, quick!" Mo Fan yelled at Zhao Manyan. He could sense the female Medusa was very close to them!

"Aren't you guys safe right now!?" Zhao Manyan asked in confusion.

"Enough talking, hurry up and cast your spells!" Mo Fan grunted.

Zhao Manyan was an Earth Mage. He quickly felt an unusual force approaching rapidly through the ground.

"Baxia's Seal: Plummeting Rays: Light Scale Armor!"

Zhao Manyan was pretty quick at casting his spells. Dots of light poured down like raindrops onto Mo Fan and Mu Bai, forming glittering scaled armor made of light on them!

Even though Plummeting Rays was meant to be an offensive spell, the armor of light that Zhao Manyan modified the spell into had an outstanding defense. It was possible to stack the light, too, so even if the light armor on Mo Fan and Mu Bai looked thin, it was made up of thousands of light rays!

“Are you stupid? It can swallow us whole, this isn’t going to work!” Mo Fan cursed.

“It’s below us!” Mu Bai’s face turned pale. The Medusa was quicker than he had imagined!

“Blink!” Mo Fan did not have the time to scold Zhao Manyan. He quickly constructed a silver Star Constellation.

As soon as his sixth Star Pattern was constructed, the ground began to shake. A pitch-black tunnel opened up like a bottomless chasm, giving Mo Fan no time to finish the last Star Pattern!

“Will Cannon!”

A pleasant voice arose from around three hundred meters away. Heidi’s ash-brown hair drifted in the wind, and her clothes flapped loudly too. A strong energy of the Space Element burst out between her brows.

The Will energy did not have any trajectory, nor did it leave any trace as it crossed three hundred meters, but it struck the back of the female Medusa’s head just as it was about to swallow Mo Fan and Mu Bai whole. The massive force knocked the creature’s head to the ground...

The rest of the female Medusa’s body was still underground as its head and neck were slammed heavily down onto the sand dune after being knocked back by the Will Cannon. Mo Fan and Mu Bai barely escaped death. They stared at the indent on the back of the Red Medusa’s head with blank faces for a long breath!

“That’s insane!” Zhao Manyan turned around and raised his thumb at the lofty Heidi.

On the other hand, Mo Fan and Mu Bai were running as fast as they could as soon as they recovered. They did not dare their heads around!

As they thought, the female Medusa whose head now had a hole in it was not dead yet. It pulled its head out of the sand and slowly moved toward them.

The female Medusa did not chase after them. Its eyes were like spotlights as they glared at Mo Fan, Mu Bai, and Heidi, as if it were trying to imprint their looks into its mind!

Eyes of Vengeance!

For some reason, Mo Fan, Mu Bai, and Heidi were able to see the female Medusa’s eyes staring at them even though they did not turn around. It felt like the world behind them had suddenly turned into a pitch-black icy abyss of death. Their only chance of survival was the narrow path leading them toward a cliff ahead. As they kept running, the narrow cliff would eventually lead them away from the darkness inside the vengeful female Medusa’s stomach!

Chapter 1524 Terrifying Curse

The three ran to the bottom of the ravine and sprinted to safety.

The Medusae seemed to be aware that the human Mages would blast them with spells if they went into the ravine, so did not chase their targets recklessly. However, the mist shrouding Mo Fan, Zhao Manyan, Mu Bai, and Heidi's back was still around. It felt as if their vision was blocked when they turned around. They could only see the eyes of the dominant female Medusa in the darkness.

"You are in great trouble!" the leader of the convoy, Halla, informed them urgently.

"Didn't we already escape from it?" Zhao Manyan gasped in confusion.

"You are Cursed by the Eyes of Vengeance, the scariest ability of the Medusae! Not a single person has survived the Curse of the Eyes of Vengeance. It's been like this for thousands of years!" Old Halla sternly warned Mo Fan and the others.

"It's just a big female Medusa. If there weren't so many male Medusae and Lesser Medusae around her, I would have cooked myself a snake stew by now," Mo Fan spoke up, unimpressed.

"No no no, you shouldn't take it so lightly! The Eyes of Vengeance is a terrifying Curse of the Medusae. It will imprint you with the hatred of their entire species. Even creatures as small as snakes and as huge as snake demon lords will go crazy on their marked enemies!" Halla exclaimed.

"I'm grateful toward you all for saving my Steel-Armored Beast, but please don't underestimate the Eyes of Vengeance. I had a very experienced senior, a powerful Hunter Master. He stole a Medusa's egg close to Bikheris' Pyramid and was marked by the Eyes of Vengeance while he was escaping. The day he came back to New Suez, he sold the egg at an insane price and drank until late at night. I was the one that brought him back to his room.

"The next afternoon, I went to wake him up to grab some lunch together, but when I opened the door, I witnessed something that I will never forget for the rest of my life..." Chad told Mo Fan and the others sternly.

"Was he dead?" Zhao Manyan asked.

"The whole room was full of trails left by snakes. The white bed sheets were splattered a terrifying red. When I flipped the blanket over, there was no sign of my senior. All I found were his scalp, his hair, his torn clothes, his eyeballs, and his toes..." Chad recalled the eerie sight. His eyes were filled with terror.

"Wasn't he in the city? How was he attacked?" Mo Fan asked curiously.

"It's exactly what I was the most confused about. We were in the city center with lots of Hunter Inns nearby. There were many powerful Mages around us, but my senior still died such a horrible death. We did hear from old friends at the bars that we shouldn't mess around with the big female Medusae.

"The army of Medusae with them isn't the scariest thing, it's their eyes! Once the female Medusae set their eyes on you, the only way out is death! I always thought it was just a legend, or perhaps the female Medusae possess some kind of power that we don't understand. They became scary creatures, as people constantly exaggerate their power through rumors, but after witnessing my senior's death..." Chad trailed off.

In comparison to how calm and collected he was when figuring out a way to lure the Medusae away and guarantee the convoy's safety, the man was now like a little kid overwhelmed by fear, as if he was totally clueless about Egypt, the desert, and the Medusae.

"Dying on the bed, that sounds a little..." Zhao Manyan had goosebumps after hearing about the incident.

Mo Fan fell into deep thought, too. How was the man eaten alive if he was in the city? Were the Eyes of Vengeance of the female Medusae really that terrifying?

"I've heard of the Eyes of Vengeance, too. It's the deadliest Curse of the Medusae in Africa. I'm afraid we'll have to excuse ourselves, as we have some other business to attend to," Vani said.

"Sir, are we going to leave just like that? Didn't it all happen because of us?" Zoey said.

Some rumors were terrifying even if people had only heard about them for the first time. It was not scary because of how formidable the enemy was or how cruel and evil the Curse was, but how the victims were no longer safe, even in their own territories!

Imagine dying on the bed in one's own room in a luxurious city; when Mages were awake, they had different ways to fend off demon creatures in the wild as long as they were strong and experienced enough. However, it was impossible to stay alert all the time. The victims of the Curse could not afford to close their eyes before they figured out how the demon creatures were able to sneak into a busy city and reach their room. They could not even have any contact with their close ones, since it might endanger them...it was the most torturous part while they were constantly bothered by the Curse!

"There's nothing we can do to help them. We did lure the Medusae to the convoy, but they were the ones that decided to turn around in the end," Mentor Vani replied firmly.

The people of the European University Institute had obviously heard of the Curse before, and decided to leave without hesitation. Vani also realized he had no hope of winning Heidi's affection, so he was unwilling to waste any further time. It was more important to help his students graduate.

Zoey had no choice but to follow the others. She even apologized to Mo Fan, but Mo Fan did not really mind. They were only strangers brought together by chance. The most he could do was to beat up the male students of the European University Institute the next time he stumbled into them again. It was not much of a big deal.

"I'll stay with you guys. The Curse should only last for a certain period of time," Chad said.

"No, it's fine, we aren't as weak as you think. Curse of the Medusae? Bring it on, I'll let them know that it's a nightmare to mess around with a Mage whose hands have been itching a lot recently!" Mo Fan said.

Mo Fan had gone to slaughter the Medusae partly because he was impressed by the old mercenary's sacrifice. In addition to that, he needed to collect more Soul Remnants and Soul Essences...

He was quite pleased with his recent achievements. His Summoning Gate had broken a hundred after the previous battle. He now had forty-three Enormous White Wolves and fifty-eight White-Marked Wolves! Medusa Mountain, was it? Once he collected enough wolves, he would show them how he was going to let the dogs... let the wolves out!

"I won't disturb you guys, but please let me keep an eye open for you. I will leave once you are safe for a week," Chad said.

"Fine, I guess I can learn more about Cairo from you too!" Mo Fan accepted the kind gesture since the man insisted.

They would be leaving in a week anyway. It would not make any difference.

Chapter 1525 Gentleman's Room

Mo Fan noticed that Cairo was a typical city of war when he entered it. Despite the killings happening all over the city's vicinity and the deaths of the people that stepped out of the city, the residents continued on with their everyday lives inside the safe zone. None of them seemed to be worried about the battle that was taking place.

Not just Mo Fan and the convoy, many other people had also come to the city from different places. Cairo's government strongly advised Mages not to come to the city without permission while the battle was still ongoing. It prohibited people from leaving the city, too, but if anyone managed to make it into the safe zone alive, they would provide them with protection. It was a rather humane city.

Mo Fan would never forget the general that had abandoned them in Peru.

International laws stated that every city guarded by the military must accept those in need into the city. They might not be obliged to leave the city to save them, but once they entered the city, they would be responsible for their safety.

Egypt's Cairo strictly obeyed that rule. That alone made it a good city!

"Let's stay at the city's center, it's the safest." Zhao Manyan was worried about the Eyes of Vengeance. He did not want to stay in the areas closer to the battlefield.

The city's center was at least a few dozen kilometers away from the battlefield. It was unlikely that the Medusae could travel a few dozen kilometers and sneak into their rooms to murder them without alerting anyone, right?

When they reached the city center, the tall buildings, streets, shops, pedestrians, and vehicles gave the Mages that had recently traveled through the wild a sense of security.

"We are staying here!" Zhao Manyan said firmly, pointing at a tall building.

"Do you really have to be so scared?" Mo Fan chuckled.

"I'm not scared, I just think that this hotel is very luxurious. It's been a while since I have had the feeling of looking down at a capital city like an overbearing CEO. I'm completely worn out after living like a savage for the past few days. I just want my normal life back!" Zhao Manyan answered firmly.

“Alright, we’ll be staying here,” Mo Fan agreed.

Chad and his little brother followed them, but they preferred to save some money. They knew it would cost them a few thousand to spend a night in a hotel like this, and decided to share a room.

Zhao Manyan, on the other hand, was rich and imposing. He immediately booked a presidential suite for each of them. He did not even blink when he swiped the card to pay over ten thousand for a single night’s stay.

“Mu Bai, let’s stay in the same room. I would like to discuss Ice Magic with you. I’m thinking of Awakening the Ice Element once I reach the Super Level,” Zhao Manyan said.

“Sure, but ask them for a room with two beds, I’m not used to sharing a bed with someone,” Mu Bai chuckled. He knew what Zhao Manyan was afraid of.

Mu Bai was an Ice Mage, a nemesis of the snakes. It was obvious that Zhao Manyan was really afraid of the Eyes of Vengeance if he chose to stay with Mu Bai instead of Mo Fan...

“Heidi, we’ll stay in the same room just in case,” Mo Fan handed his identification to the clerk. He placed Heidi’s identification together with his.

Heidi glared at Mo Fan and said, “I’m not scared!”

“Miss Heidi, I think you should listen to Brother Mo Fan. The Eyes of Vengeance isn’t a child’s game. You must believe me, it’s a lot safer to stay in pairs!” Chad was very serious. He strongly advised them not to stay alone.

The vengeful Medusae would latch onto every opportunity to get their revenge. If they were paralyzed and hypnotized when they were alone, there was only one possible outcome!

“I will never stay in the same room with this shameless guy!” Heidi said proudly.

“There are different kinds of rooms, such as the kind that is suitable for a gentleman with no ulterior motives. Even though we are in the same suite, the rooms are still separated. Heidi, stop being so stubborn, it’s not like Mo Fan had never seen your...” Zhao Manyan immediately sensed a murderous gaze in the middle of his words, and immediately shut his mouth. He believed he would die at Heidi’s hands before he was killed by the Eyes of Vengeance if he kept going.

Heidi finally agreed to stay in the same suite as Mo Fan after seeing how strongly Chad and the others insisted on it.

To be honest, Mo Fan was hoping that they would be staying in a small room in a small inn. It was very easy to catch fire that way. Everyone had some biological needs. Mo Fan would not believe Heidi was really that pure, with no hidden desires!

Unfortunately, the luxurious hotel in the capital of Egypt was brilliant in every aspect, apart from their spacious rooms. Asking someone to stay in a hotel together was no different than inviting them over to one’s home as guests. They would be sleeping on their own without even the slightest thoughts of unleashing their fervor. Should he consider asking Mu Bai if he still had any of that aphrodisiac left?...

There were two bathrooms and two bedrooms with a huge living room in the middle, stocked with complimentary alcohol and snacks. Mo Fan suddenly realized how insensible that idiotic Zhao Manyan was at times. It was fine if he and Mu Bai stayed in a suite like this, but why did he not get the smallest room possible for him instead? He was not able to get a close look in the cave under the waterfall last time. He was supposed to have a chance to see it in high definition and uncensored this time...

Mo Fan looked over the night view of the city. The luxurious sight reminded him of his beloved Magic City. He was confused about why Cairo looked so clean and clear even though it was so close to the desert, while Magic City was constantly hazy.

"Heidi, where are you from?" Mo Fan laid down on the sofa and asked the woman who had withdrawn back to her territory.

"Heidi? Heidi!" Mo Fan rose to his feet. He quickly headed into Heidi's room.

The Eyes of Vengeance had struck quicker than he had imagined. Old Chad was not lying after all!

Mo Fan was about to pass through the corridor when he suddenly felt an invisible wall in front of him. He almost walked right into it.

Mo Fan was a little shocked. How capable were those Medusae? They could even set up a barrier before killing their target?

"If you dare take another step forward, I'll blast you into pieces!" Heidi's voice came from the room, followed by the sound of her showering.

Heidi was terrified too. She was once again convinced that Mo Fan was a perverted ass*. He was trying to rush into her room... Luckily, she was alert enough to set up a barrier first.

"Holy crap, you scared the crap out of me, I thought you were being attacked by the vengeful Medusae! Can't you just say something if you're fine? I gave Miss Brianca my promise to look after you. It's my job to keep you safe when she's not around!" Mo Fan let out a relieved sigh while peeking through the barrier.

He could barely see the bathroom from his angle. The view was blocked by a thick half-transparent door with patterns on it. Mo Fan was just able to see a blurred outline, slender with elegant curves. Its bust was utterly shocking. He seriously wondered how such a slim body could have such beautiful hemispheres. Look at them shake... even though they were not as round and firm as Brianca's, they were perfect for Heidi's physique!

Foreigners were big indeed, with crazy curves. The perfect ratio of their bodies made them as elegant as artwork. On top of it, both Heidi and Brianca had peachy butts. Mo Fan clearly remembered the sight he had seen in the cave under the waterfall when Heidi had her back to him. He could not forget it even now!

"Isn't it time for you to leave? I'm perfectly fine!" Heidi said angrily when she saw Mo Fan kept swaying in front of the barrier.

"Oh, oh, I was just making sure, I saw a shadow that looks like a snake in the bathroom, I thought it's a snake... but it's your body instead," Mo Fan said.

“I’m going to kill you!”

“I’m going, I’m going, calm down, the world is so wonderful, don’t be so mad,” Mo Fan blurted out.

Mo Fan fell into deep thought when he went back to the living room.

In terms of physique, he believed only Asha’ruiya might stand a chance against Heidi, considering they were both around the same age. In terms of maturity, Brianca clearly had first place. Europeans had a natural advantage over Asians in terms of physique. Their skin was as pale as snow and their body ratio was closer to perfect. Their female features were particularly outstanding, too...

The truth was, Mu Ningxue’s body was stunning too, but Mo Fan was shocked to realize he had never seen her naked after being around her for so long. Her skin might be the most perfect among the women he had met due to her Innate Talent. She perfectly represented the term ‘flesh of ice and bones of jade’. Such a pity; he had met so many women, yet he had never seen his first wife’s body! They might not be as big as these two foreigners, but they were not small, either. He did feel them when he was carrying her in his arms. They were soft and comfortable, and were definitely not small...

“That’s weird, shouldn’t I be worried about the Eyes of Vengeance? Why are my thoughts suddenly filled with these things?” A big question mark suddenly surfaced in Mo Fan’s mind.

Mo Fan cleared his mind of the thoughts that continued to plague him. He moved a chair and sat in front of the French window. He closed his eyes and began to meditate.

Meditating was a way to rest, too. Mo Fan usually meditated instead of sleeping. He would only sleep for two hours a day. Most people would sleep for more than five hours, but Mo Fan had a few extra Elements to look after. He had been spending the time when other people were asleep to cultivate since he was in high school. It eventually turned into a habit of only sleeping for two hours. He had gotten used to resting through meditating.

Mo Fan entered the meditation state fairly quickly. He was imagining things that could give him a nosebleed just a moment ago, but he had perfectly calmed his thoughts.

When Mo Fan entered the Spiritual World, he habitually roamed between the Galaxia. However, a pair of enormous black eyes suddenly appeared in the areas he usually roamed in. It gave him such a fright that he immediately opened his eyes and almost fell from the chair...

Sweat poured down like rain. The eyes of a snake showing up out of nowhere had given Mo Fan a tremendous fright. The eyes were as huge as the dark sky in the Spiritual World, while he was only as small as a dust particle. It was absolutely terrifying!

Mo Fan took a few deep breaths to finally calm himself.

He looked stern as he recalled the sight.

It turned out that he had truly underestimated the Eyes of Vengeance!

Chapter 1526: Cursed

Heidi cautiously set up a barrier, not giving Mo Fan any chance to approach her.

Mo Fan decided not to tell her his discovery, seeing how cautious she was. He casually picked up a book and started reading it.

As soon as Mo Fan started to meditate, he would experience the fear of seeing the enormous eyes in the Spiritual World. Meditating was obviously out of the question. Mo Fan also noticed that when he closed his eyes and tried to sleep, the eyes would appear in his mind. It was a horrible feeling; Mo Fan could not even sleep because of them!

Mo Fan took a sip from a bottle of champagne while reading his book. Not long after, Heidi suddenly let out a scream!

Mo Fan smiled. He rose to his feet and headed toward Heidi's room.

Heidi had taken down the barrier, and ran out of her room wearing just thin sleepwear. Her hair was still wet from the shower, leaving her looking rather alluring.

Her face was quite pale. She did not even pay attention to what she was wearing when she saw Mo Fan.

"Did you see it too?" Mo Fan asked with a smile.

"Assh, why didn't you tell me!?" Heidi yelled angrily.

"If I had, you were just going to call me a pervert again," Mo Fan replied with an innocent face.

Heidi angrily stomped the floor, yet she could not find any words to refute him.

Heidi was planning to meditate just like Mo Fan, since it was part of her usual routine. However, she immediately saw the enormous eyes of a snake when she entered the Spiritual World. It was so terrifying that she forgot about everything and subconsciously ran to the man outside her room.

Heidi no longer dared to go back to her room. She found a bathrobe provided by the hotel and wrapped it around her as she sat in the living room.

She saw the champagne and poured herself a huge glass. She gulped it down right away to suppress the fear she had just experienced.

When she was done, Mo Fan conveniently took a sip from the bottle of champagne too. When Heidi saw him drinking directly from the bottle, her eyes widened. She grunted, "I was going to drink more. Can't you use a glass!?"

"It's how I was drinking it before. I thought you wouldn't mind," Mo Fan answered.

"You...you...you shameless prick!" Heidi was so angry that her body was trembling. She had never seen anyone drinking champagne straight from the bottle. Was he out of his mind!?

"When are you going to stop calling me the same thing? Let's just think about how we can make it through the night," Mo Fan said.

They could not cultivate nor sleep. The old mercenary, Chad was not trying to scare them. The Eyes of Vengeance was indeed a lot scarier than they thought.

Heidi was given a great fright. She was not Mo Fan, who had been through all kinds of situations. He soon returned to normal despite encountering such a terrifying situation. On the other hand, Heidi was completely different. She did not expect this at all. She believed there was no safer place than her Spiritual World. To her surprise, a gigantic snake had appeared out of nowhere. For a second, she had thought she was already dead!

“Aren’t you going to remind them?” Heidi said when she realized Zhao Manyan and Mu Bai were in the same situation as them.

“There’s no way Zhao Manyan is going to cultivate after coming to a new city. As for Mu Bai, if he’s staying in the same room as Zhao Manyan, I doubt he will have the peace to cultivate quietly,” Mo Fan said.

“Why is there someone like you who doesn’t even care about their friends’ safety? Didn’t you see how scary it was!?” Heidi said angrily.

She went out of the room. Zhao Manyan and Mu Bai’s room were right opposite theirs. Heidi believed it was necessary to remind them. She couldn’t let them suffer from the same fright as she did.

“I would think twice about that,” Mo Fan said.

Heidi ignored him. She went to the opposite room and knocked on the door.

Heidi stood in front of the door as she waited. She could hear loud music inside the room. She was a little confused.

A while later, the door opened, but the person was neither Mu Bai nor Zhao Manyan. It was a tanned, sexy, blond woman in a bikini. She swung the door open and said to Heidi, “Are you here to have some fun, too? Come on in, but you have to take off your clothes first, that’s the rule!”

Heidi was stunned. She looked into the room and saw a bunch of women not wearing many clothes dancing under the dim lights while flinging their hair around and twisting their waists. Their private parts were covered with clothes smaller than a person’s palm. In Heidi’s eyes, they were pretty much naked, and yet everyone in the room was dressed in the same fashion.

Swinging, twisting, and pole-dancing, it was Heidi’s first time seeing a striptease party. She quickly slammed the door shut. As she closed the door, she caught a glimpse of Zhao Manyan coming toward her with a bottle of wine, asking who was at the door.

Heidi blushed as she ran back to her room.

She saw Mo Fan sitting on the couch with a mischievous grin.

“Why didn’t you tell me earlier!?” Heidi’s chest was heaving from her heavy breathing.

“Let me tell you, you keep scolding me as to what kind of a jerk I am every day, but Zhao Manyan is the real ass* among us. He can’t even sit still once. He likes being surrounded by bunches of gorgeous ladies.” Mo Fan had long gotten used to it.

“What about Mu Bai?” Heidi believed Mu Bai was a gentleman. He would not mess around like Zhao Manyan.

“He was against it before, but he slowly fell in love with it, too. However, he doesn’t really like foreigners, so if you see any Asian beauties in the room, they are mostly his,” Mo Fan said.

“Perverts!” Heidi cursed.

“See, I’m the actual gentleman among us three. If you don’t believe me, you can ask Miss Brianca about it. She trusts me the most,” Mo Fan said.

“You’re no good either!” Heidi refuted without any hesitation.

Heidi did not stay in the room with Mo Fan. She decided to head out to the hall where the crowd was.

One there, Heidi noticed Mu Bai sitting in a corner under a lamp in the hall. She realized that she had been tricked by Mo Fan again. Mu Bai was indeed not messing around, unlike that pervert Zhao Manyan.

“Here, she’s over here!” Heidi was just about to greet Mu Bai when a familiar voice yelled out at the entrance.

Heidi was very sensitive to sounds. She could tell it was Ferrero’s voice.

Heidi immediately felt disgusted when she glanced at the entrance. In addition to Ferrero, Vani, Zoey, Sofia, and the rest of the students from the European University Institute were here, too. They quickly walked up and surrounded her.

“Damn it, it’s all your fault! Why did you go and provoke the big female Medusa!?” Ferrero was the first to yell angrily. He had completely lost his demeanor of a gentleman.

“What do you mean?” Heidi asked the group of people that had come up to her so menacingly with great patience.

Mu Bai quickly came over to Heidi after seeing what happened. He snorted at them with a cold face, “You still have the guts to come trouble us?”

“It’s your fault in the first place that we are placed under the Curse! Why did you even bother acting like a saint and save a Steel-Armored Beast that was as good as dead? We are all Cursed by the Eyes of Vengeance now!” Ferrero yelled.

Ferrero was utterly terrified. He did not seem to be in his right mind. He did not even bother maintaining his image in a time like this!

“All of you are Cursed by the Eyes of Vengeance?” Heidi asked curiously.

Vani, Zoey, Sofia, and Galba nodded. The fear of seeing the ghastly sight was still lingering in their eyes.

“Your perfume attracted the Medusa Mountain to us in the first place! Their hatred toward you isn’t any weaker than us! It’s not a surprise you are cursed by the Eyes of Vengeance!. Stop putting the blame on us!” Mu Bai was displeased by their attitude.

“None of this would have happened if you hadn’t provoked the big female Medusa! Where are the others? Ask them to come here right now!” Ferrero was the most terrified among them all, and started yelling in the hall.

“Heidi, go get them,” Mu Bai said.

“Alright.”

Mo Fan and Zhao Manyan came down not long after.

Zhao Manyan’s face and body were covered by red lip marks. He smelled like booze, too. Ferrero and Galba were infuriated when they saw the guy still had the mood to indulge in sensual pleasures!

“You must be responsible for this!” Galba said.

“What responsible? If Ferrero hadn’t mucked around with his precious perfume, the Medusa Mountain won’t even have come after us in the first place!” Zhao Manyan seemed extremely angry.

He had tried to sleep when he got to his room, as he was feeling very tired. Since Mu Bai was in the room too, there was nothing he had to worry about. Mu Bai would surely cultivate for the night!

However, as soon as he fell asleep, he was scared shitless by the eyes of the snake. Mu Bai also saw the eyes while he was meditating. Zhao Manyan suggested calling a bunch of strippers over to liven up the mood so he could forget about the fear in his mind. Mu Bai was not interested in that, so he went out to the hall instead.

It was not the reason why Zhao Manyan was mad. He had always been a fan of sexy women with long hair and slim waists. It was a pleasant sight when they twisted their hips around, but he was clearly not in the mood today. The women’s hair kept reminding him of golden snakes while their bodies were like the small female Medusae. He was initially planning to fulfill his desires, yet he was feeling even more absent-minded now!

The Medusae could deprive him of his soul, but he would not allow them to deprive him of his passion for women. Zhao Manyan realized he had no other reason to live if he was afraid of women!

“I can’t sleep, can’t make out with chicks, can’t cultivate... at this rate, we are going to be tortured to death before those snakes show up out of nowhere and eat us!” Zhao Manyan swore.

Not long after, Chad and his brother Benz came to the hall too. They were also wearing unpleasant looks. They did not need to ask what was going on when they saw the people that had gathered in the hall.

“We are all cursed by the Eyes of Vengeance,” Chad sighed with a grim look.

Chapter 1527: Mistaking the Shadow of a Bow in a Cup as a Snake

The group of people sat in the hall of the hotel, grim looks on their faces.

Ferrero still wanted to accuse Mo Fan and the others, but Mentor Vani knew it was meaningless to argue any further. He said, "It's no use blaming one another here. We should find a way to get rid of the Curse as soon as possible. Chad, you're more familiar with things around here, you should know more about the Medusae than us. You're our hope in getting rid of the Curse."

"I don't really know much about it," Chad sighed.

The Medusae were too mysterious. There were even rumors about how the Medusae could speak the human tongue. Their intelligence was on par with humans. The Curse of the eyes of the snakes was a great power that no human had probed into before.

"Tell us what you know. I'm afraid the Curse is only going to worsen from here," Zoey urged him.

"The Mother of Snakes, Medusa, is the mother of every snake in Egypt. Apparently, she was a Curse Mage, but during her time, the Curse Element was not accepted by the public yet. People claimed that the Curse Mages would bring misfortunes upon them, so they offered Medusa to the God of Snakes, Nehebkau. To their surprise, Nehebkau did not kill Medusa, but mated with her instead, giving birth to the Medusae that are stronger than the snake demons and are capable of using magic. The Medusae treated Medusa as their leader, and the God of Snakes became her subordinate instead. Medusa has a strong hatred of humans, and it combined with her ancient Curse Magic, granting her the scariest eyes in the world... it is known as the strongest Psychic Power, the Medusa's Stare!

"Every high-level female snake has inherited the Medusa's eyes. Their vengeful stare possesses Medusa's great power. Once we are marked by it, even killing the creature that placed us under the Curse won't get rid of it! It is why I keep telling you, it's unlikely for anyone to survive the Curse," Chad finished, telling them everything he knew.

"What did you say? Even killing that creature that placed us under the Curse won't get rid of it?" Ferrero started yelling again. It grabbed the attention of the people in the hall.

Mo Fan was stunned too.

Normally, killing the creature responsible for the Curse was enough to lift it. He did not expect the Eyes of Vengeance to be a Curse applied by the whole species. Wouldn't that mean they were forever under the Curse unless they killed the Mother of Snakes, Medusas?

-The Mother of Snakes, Medusa?-

Mo Fan recalled how he had stumbled into a Scorpion Lord Medusa when he was fighting the undead from the Great Pyramid of Giza.

Wasn't the Scorpion Lord Medusa still a level lower than the Mother of Snakes Medusa?

Medusae were snake women, but the Scorpion Lord Medusa from the Gorgons had the lineage of the Scorpion Queen. It should be a level lower than the real Snake Lord Medusae or the Mother of Snakes Medusa.

Either way, Mo Fan did not see the Mother of Snakes Medusa among the undead from the Great Pyramid of Giza. Perhaps Khufu could not even command the Mother of Snakes Medusa, as she might be on the same level as him!

If the Curse originated from the Mother of Snakes Medusa, wasn't that the same as injecting them with a poison that had no antidote, and there was nothing they could do but to wait for their death as the poison fully spread inside their bodies?

"I don't know the way of getting rid of the Curse, but I do know that killing the big female Medusa isn't going to work," Chad stated confidently.

"So we are just waiting to die now?" Vani said helplessly.

"There must be a way, just stay at the hotel for now and don't go anywhere. I heard that someone knows how to deal with the Eyes of Vengeance. I'm not sure if the old man is still alive, but he's here in Cairo," Chad said.

"What are we waiting for then? Go find him now!" Ferrero urged.

"Wait here, I'll go ask," Chad said.

Chad left with his brother Benz. The rest of the group sat on the couch in the hall with grim looks. They all remained silent.

"I didn't expect to be stuck on the same boat as these guys. I seriously don't want to see them around," Zhao Manyan grumbled. It sounded like he was more disgusted by them than the Curse.

"Do you really think we want to see you guys either!?" Galba retorted angrily.

They went from traveling together happily to being disgusted at one another, and now finding themselves like ants stuck on the same robe because of the Eyes of Vengeance...

"I'll get some water for you all," the manager of the hotel came over with a smile and placed some cups on the table. He bent forward and poured some water for Vani.

Vani did not care to stop him, and happened to feel a little thirsty, too. He picked up the cup to drink the water, but he was shocked to see something wriggling in the water like a worm!

"Snake, snake, there's a snake in it!" Vani tossed the cup away as he surged to his feet. He was going to slap the manager in the face.

However, his hand froze in the air. He stared at the water and the broken cup on the ground...

Everyone stared at Vani in shock. Vani shook his head and picked up the broken pieces of the cup.

"There's nothing at all, what the hell are you screaming for?" Zhao Manyan said angrily.

"I swear I saw it... maybe I imagined it. I'm sorry," Mentor Vani slumped into the couch and rubbed his face to wake himself.

"It must be the Curse. We'll imagine stuff and spook ourselves once we lack focus," Mo Fan noted after seeing Vani's reaction.

"This goddamned Curse!"

It was obvious that the symptoms were not restricted to when they closed their eyes to sleep or meditate. As time passed, the Curse would spread to the things around them. Even the grass and the trees would look like snakes to them. They had nowhere to run to...

"Heidi, can you tie your hair up?" Zhao Manyan suddenly asked in a soft voice.

Heidi did not get it at first. However, she helplessly tied her hair up with a rubber band when she saw the terrified and pleading look on Zhao Manyan's face, and held it in place with a hairpin.

"Zhao Manyan, at this rate, you won't even dare to look down when you pee," Mo Fan smiled.

"Bullshit, my thing is like a cannon, there's no way I'll make a mistake of it!" Zhao Manyan immediately retorted.

Even when everyone was sitting together in a circle without moving, they still did not feel safe. It was the weirdest and most torturous Curse that Mo Fan had ever encountered!

Chapter 1528: Tear of Medusa

Chad finally returned as everything inside the hall was about to turn into snakes in the eyes of everyone placed under the curse. However, he had a grim expression.

His first sentence stabbed everyone right in the heart. "He's dead," Chad reported.

"Is there any news worse than this?" Zoey sighed in dismay.

"He died to the Curse of the Eyes of Vengeance," Chad's brother Benz added.

"I was afraid that's exactly what you were referring to..." Mo Fan muttered.

The group immediately fell silent. The atmosphere felt extremely weird.

"This won't do, we can't just sit here and do nothing!" Mentor Vani was the first to run out of patience.

They were currently in the hall of a hotel in a city, yet it felt like they were in a snake's nest instead. He would rather take the initiative to get rid of the Curse rather than lose his mind to the constant fear.

"Let me ask General Fenna, I still have her contact number," Zhao Manyan said.

"What? You were cursed by the eyes of a Medusa?" General Fenna was extremely surprised.

They had agreed to deal with Egypt's undead together, but Mo Fan and his group were already on the verge of getting wiped out just after they had arrived in Cairo. It was the worst start they could hope for!

"Yeah, do you know how to get rid of the Curse? It's too much of a torture; we've already stayed awake for the whole night, we couldn't even get some rest," Zhao Manyan said.

"Where are you guys? I'll send someone over to pick you up," General Fenna said.

“We are at Cairo Hotel...” Zhao Manyan glanced at the students of the European University Institute and after a slight hesitation, added, “You should send another car over. There are some unfortunate guys from the European University Institute that are in the same boat as us.”

“Got it!”

Fenna did not make them wait for too long. She sent four military jeeps to the bustling city centers. The jeeps brought them straight to the military town where high-rank commanders lived.

Cairo was still in the middle of a battle, so there were lots of people and cars along the way. Everyone seemed to be in a hurry.

Fenna had been promoted from a Lieutenant General to a General. She was capable of commanding and leading an army in a battle, and had a reputable status in Cairo now!

“What’s up with you guys? Didn’t I ask you all to stay in New Suez first?” General Fenna asked Mo Fan and Zhao Manyan with a confused look.

Mo Fan had already told General Fenna they were coming before taking the flight to Egypt. General Fenna also knew about the Great Pyramid of Giza showing up in China’s Beijiang. In order to resolve the conflict between the two kingdoms of undead, General Fenna still had to discuss the operation of invading the Pyramid with Mo Fan before making their move. However, before they could get down to business, Mo Fan had already found himself in deep trouble.

“It’s not like we want to be caught in this mess. I didn’t think the Medusae would be so narrow-minded,” Mo Fan said helplessly.

“How about them? Are they cursed by the Eyes of Vengeance too?” General Fenna glanced at the people of the European University Institute.

“Yes,” Vani said.

Vani had set aside the pride of a mentor of the European University Institute in front of General Fenna.

The role of a mentor greatly differed from the role of a general, even if their cultivation was on par with one another. The power and strength of a general clearly surpassed that of a teacher. After all, a general had risen from countless battles, while teachers were safe hiding in the cities...

“Can you tell us how we can get rid of the Curse first!?” Zhao Manyan spoke up quickly.

“The Eyes of Vengeance is a very tricky Curse. Normally, if anyone in our army is placed under the Curse, we will send them to the front line to fight for their glory,” General Fenna said.

“To the front line? Isn’t that basically asking them to die?” Mo Fan said.

“More or less. There are different Curses from the Eyes of Vengeance: the Life-Seizing Curse, the Shadow Curse, and the Enraging Curse!

“The Life-Seizing Curse is the quickest. No matter where you are, deadly snakes that latch on to every opportunity will devour their victim while they are asleep.

“The Shadow Curse is more like a spooky, hallucinating Curse. The victims under it will be very afraid of snakes. If the Curse continues for a long period of time, it will slowly drive the victims mad!

“The Enraging Curse is not as serious. The people under it are safe as long as they avoid encountering snakes, since they infuriate every snake they stumble into. All the snakes within ten kilometers will follow their scent and attack the victims relentlessly...” General Fenna was indeed more familiar with the Eyes of Vengeance than Chad.

“So, what is the Curse we are under? The Shadow Curse?” Zhao Manyan asked.

“It’s a little difficult to distinguish between the Shadow Curse and the Enraging Curse, since being placed under the Enraging Curse will inflict fear on the victims, too. Since you’ve survived the night, it shouldn’t be the Life-Seizing Curse. As for whether it’s the Shadow Curse or Enraging Curse, we’ll have to figure it out,” General Fenna said.

“So we won’t know how to get rid of the Curse until we know what it is?” Mo Fan asked.

“More or less. You have to prescribe the right medicine for an illness, the same goes for a Curse. If you mess it up, it might worsen the Curse... however, there’s something that can get rid of the Curse right away,” General Fenna said.

The middle-aged Lieutenant General beside General Fenna chuckled as soon as she mentioned the cure, “General, don’t tell me you’re suggesting these kids find the Tear of Medusa?”

“Tear of Medusa?” Mo Fan repeated.

“Yes, the Tear of Medusa. The Curse originates from Medusa, and it is said that her tears can get rid of the Curse she applies to humans. Leaving aside the fact that most creatures of a pure lineage of the Medusa are at the Ruler-level, it’s entirely impossible to get a demon creature to shed a tear,” General Fenna said.

“Is the Medusa you mentioned referring to the Mother of Snakes Medusa?” Zhao Manyan asked.

“Of course not, there’s no way we humans stand a chance against Queen Medusa. I’m referring to those that have inherited Queen Medusa’s lineage. The Red Scorpion Gorgons, the Scorpion Lord Medusae, the Brown Ruler Medusae, and the Empress Medusae... these are all creatures with the pure lineage of Queen Medusa. They are her descendants,” General Fenna said.

The Egyptians referred to the first Medusa as the Mother of Snakes, while the military referred to her as Queen Medusa.

Queen Medusa was clearly beyond their reach. Even if they found Queen Medusa, there was no way she would shed a tear for the humans she hated the most. She might even burst out laughing after seeing humans dying to her Curse!

“So you’re saying that if we can find a medusa of the pure lineage of Queen Medusa and obtain its tear, we can get rid of the Curse?” Mo Fan summed it up.

“Yes, but the difficulty in doing so...” General Fenna nodded.

There were people that were placed under the same Curse among the soldiers, but few survived in the end. The Curse had been around in Egypt for ages. It was even referred to as AIDS from the Medusae, since there was no cure for it!

Many Mages would bring some protective charms along to prevent the Curse from befalling them. However, the Curse was beyond complicated. It was only meant to be unleashed through the power of Queen Medusa's lineage, yet for some reason, even the big female Medusae were granted the power!

It was an incurable Curse; many authorities in Egypt had died to it. General Fenna did not expect Mo Fan and the others to hit the devil's jackpot just after they had arrived in Egypt. She did not know if she should be impressed by Mo Fan and his crew's luck!

"Tear of Medusa... as long as we know there's a way to get rid of it. Let's find ourselves a Medusa. If it doesn't want to shed a tear, we'll beat it up until it does!" Mo Fan exclaimed.

"You make it sound so easy, but every creature with the pure lineage of Queen Medusa is at least at the Ruler-level. I think you should spend your time on the things you've always wanted to do before the Curse worsens, so you won't have any regrets," the middle-aged Lieutenant General scoffed.

"Would you mind if I beat you up first?" Mo Fan grunted after hearing the scornful remark from the man.

"Kid, what did you say? Do you know who I am!?" Lieutenant General Punk exclaimed angrily.

A Lieutenant General's rank was just below a General's. In Punk's eyes, they were just a bunch of kids, including the people from the European University Institute!

"That's enough, Punk. Please be more polite to my friends," General Fenna said.

"Humph, I didn't want to waste my time on a bunch of kids. As for your proposal to the superiors... Fenna, I think you shouldn't put too much hope on such a ridiculous plan. Putting aside the Chinese kingdom of undead's true intention behind the invasion, how many rounds do you think China's undead can last against the kingdom of undead of our country? The undead in Egypt has been around for so many years. They are strong enough to destroy an entire continent!" Punk brought his fists together. He had no intention to entertain them any further.

The people of the European University Institute were totally clueless about what Punk was referring to.

General Fenna frowned. She did not expect Punk to be so insensitive. How could he mention something so confidential now? Couldn't he see there were outsiders here!?

"You should really request a different Lieutenant General. This guy is nothing but an idiot, it's only a matter of time before he ruins your career," Mo Fan said, watching Punk take his leave.

"It's not like I can choose my Lieutenant General. I was appointed to take charge of Cairo not long ago. I still have to obey the orders of my superiors," General Fenna said with a wry smile.

She did not mention the war between the kingdoms of undead. It was obviously a very difficult task that needed prolonged planning and discussions. Their priority now was to get rid of the Curse!

"Are there Medusae on the battlefield?" Mo Fan asked.

“Don’t even think about it. The Medusae are constantly followed around by a huge troop of Gorgons and Lamias. Even people like us will have trouble getting close to them, but you are in luck, I saw a Medusa that hasn’t matured yet around three days ago. A young Medusa isn’t as intelligent, so we might have a chance to acquire a teardrop from it...” General Fenna said.

“That’s great!” Vani let out a relieved sigh.

“Yeah, since we can’t take on a mature Medusa, we can pick on the young Medusae instead!” Zhao Manyan exclaimed.

Chapter 1529: Insane Reward Pool

Fenna was a general, so she could only ask an experienced soldier to help Mo Fan and the others search for the young Medusa. They could not afford to allocate more manpower, since Cairo was still in the middle of a battle. They were already short on men.

Heidi wanted to wait for Brianca to return, as it would be safer for them to enter the Medusae’s territory with her around. Even if they stumbled into a mature Medusa, Brianca should still be able to handle it.

Unfortunately, they had not heard from Brianca since she left. She had only told them she would regroup with them in Cairo in a week, but the Curse would surely worsen by then. By the time Brianca arrived, she would be retrieving their corpses instead!

“It seems like we are on our own,” Mo Fan said helplessly.

“It’s not like we can ask anybody for help, either. Who would be willing to risk their lives for us?” Zhao Manyan said.

The people of the European University Institute struggled to make up their minds, but they finally decided to search for the young Medusa, too. It was unlikely they could survive the torture of the Curse long enough to live.

Luckily, Vani was a mentor, indicating that he was at least a Super Mage!

A mentor that was in charge of students who were on an expedition to graduate with excellence was surely a Super Mage. After all, most of the students in the European University Institute had reached the Advanced Level for all their Elements. Their strength was more or less on par with Mo Fan and his crew, thus they might be of some help when the time came.

As a matter of fact, most Mages in the wild formed a balanced team, as different Elements come into handy in different situations. It was not a bad idea to bring these people of the European University Institute along as sacrificial victims!

The Europeans were clearly holding a strong grudge. They were here for their final trial so they could graduate, but their lives were now at stake because of the Curse of the Medusae. The plan to invade the Medusae’s nest to search for the young Medusa was basically a suicide mission!

The group restocked the necessary supplies to travel in the wilds of Egypt. Since they were mainly up against Medusae and Gorgons, antidotes were a must.

However, the antidotes were not useful in every situation. They normally served as an ingredient. There were many kinds of poison, thus they would have to mix the right ingredients according to the situation to produce the right antidote.

“Do we only have one herbalist among us!?” Zhao Manyan asked. He was shocked that the European University Institute did not have a single person that knew how to mix medicines!

Not knowing how to mix medicines meant the lives of the members in the group would be in danger if anyone was poisoned, suffered internal injuries, or was caught by corrosive substances!

“We have no healer and no herbalist, and we are about to invade a place with the deadliest poison in the world. I think it’s better for us to die comfortably in Cairo instead,” Zhao Manyan grumbled.

“I’m one,” Mu Bai said.

“Damn, what use does a hobbyist like you have?” Zhao Manyan said.

“Still better than a useless prick like you who does nothing but complain!” Mu Bai grunted in return.

“I’m a Plant Mage, but I don’t know how to mix medicine,” Sofia said.

“So we must collect as many antidote ingredients as possible. Don’t worry, I’m quite familiar with poisons. I should know how to deal with them, as long as they aren’t like the Curse, but I don’t know how to mix the antidotes either...” Chad said.

Mu Bai was no hobbyist. He was actually an Advanced Herbalist, certified by both the Hunter Union and the Magic Association. The mistake he had made with the aphrodisiac was only an accident...

As the others went to prepare themselves, Mo Fan noticed that he was not that far away from the local Hunter Union. He decided to take a look around.

The title of Hunter Master was applicable throughout the world, so Mo Fan could enjoy the benefits of being a Hunter Master at Cairo’s Hunter Union, too.

The truth was that news from the official channels was slower than the rate of news exchanged among the Hunters. The only downside of the news being spread among Hunters was their credibility.

“Tear of Medusa, has anyone submitted a quest for it?” Mo Fan asked the Hunter Mistress assigned to serve him.

The Hunter Mistress wore a smile at all times. She placed a cup of water in front of Mo Fan and asked, “Are you going to contribute to the reward pool, too?”

“The reward pool?” Mo Fan blurted out in surprise.

“Didn’t you know? The Tear of Medusa has the biggest reward pool in Egypt’s Hunter Union!” the Hunter Mistress said.

A reward pool was a group reward. It was normal for difficult quests that barely anyone could accomplish, yet had high demand. The rewards for those quests would eventually end up in pools.

Many people were asking for the same thing, so the rewards they offered all contributed to the pool. As the rewards continued to stack up, some experts would eventually take on the quest. Sometimes the government even formed a team of experts to complete those quests to earn the rewards!

Mo Fan and Lingling had earned a fortune from completing the quest of the Drowning Curse. His rank went from a few stars to six stars just by completing that quest!

A six-star Hunter Master was quite well-respected. If Mo Fan was tired of his current life of killing demon creatures, he could go to any city and become an authority with his identity of a six-star Hunter Master!

It had been a while since Mo Fan and Lingling had done any high-reward quests, not since the quest of the Drowning Curse. He was thinking of submitting a quest to see if he could acquire the Tear of Medusa with money, but it turned out that he had underestimated its value. There was already a reward pool for the Tear of Medusa in Egypt!

“How much does the reward pool have now?” Mo Fan asked.

“Around three and a half billion,” the Hunter Mistress said.

“Thr...three and a half billion? Is it the biggest reward pool in Cairo now?” Mo Fan was shocked.

The reward for the Drowning Curse was nothing compared to the reward pool of three and a half billion for the Tear of Medusa!

Mo Fan could not help but swallow in awe!

The size of the reward pool was directly proportional to the difficulty of the quest. Otherwise, why would the reward pool keep growing?

“Mm, I believe it’s equivalent to an S-rank quest. The reward pool has grown significantly over the past few years, mainly because the big female Medusae now have the Eyes of Vengeance, too. Many Mages are being tortured by the Curse. On the other hand, the Tear of Medusa can also make a person immune to Petrify, weaken the effects of freezing, and strengthen Psychic Magic. It’s very appealing to many Mages, thus the high reward for it... I believe some of the Senior Hunters are being tempted to take on the quest!” The Hunter Mistress was quite informed, and explained it all thoroughly to Mo Fan.

Mo Fan was utterly shocked. He did not expect the Tear of Medusa to be so precious and useful!

Immune to Petrify!

Wouldn’t that mean the Advanced Spell of the Earth Element, the Eyes of the Rock Demon, was basically useless to those that had the Tear of Medusa? Many Earth Mages treated it as their greatest trump card!

Not only would it make a person immune to Petrify, it could also weaken the effects of freeze, putting Ice Mages at a disadvantage!

It also had the ability to strengthen Psychic Magic, although it was not specified how effective it was. However, the first two effects were already quite insane!

Chapter 1530: The Intel From the Hunter Union

“Take this sum of money from my account and help me collect as much information on the young Medusa as you can and organize it for me. The rest is your reward,” Mo Fan raised a finger and said to the Hunter Mistress called Anna generously.

Anna smiled with a flirtatious wink.

She went to another room and spoke to the clerk at the desk, “Transfer ten million out of this card and collect the information about the young Medusa. Filter out the most reliable information.”

Anna purposely turned around after finishing the sentence. She gave Mo Fan a thoughtful smile before proceeding to organize the information.

Mo Fan remained smiling, but the smile stiffened as soon as Anna left.

-Holy crap, I didn't say ten million, it's already insane to pay a million just to collect information!-

He clearly went too far with the posing.

Even though ten million was not necessarily a huge sum for Mo Fan anymore, only an idiot would spend so much money just to collect some information!

However, Mo Fan was well aware of the price of valuable information. If he went to search for the young Medusa like a headless fly, without spending some money on the information about her, it would be no different than scooping up a needle from the bottom of the ocean. After a brief thought, Mo Fan clenched his teeth and withheld the urge to knock Anna out just to get his money back.

The reward was currently at three and a half billion. He believed his decision of spending a sum that could easily buy a house in Shanghai for the mere information of the young Medusa was going to pay him back handsomely.

Anna was a professional operator in the Hunter Union. Mo Fan noticed a rare badge that indicated her rank as an International Hunter Mistress on her chest. Even though her rank was not high enough to serve Senior Hunters, she would have serviced hundreds, or even a thousand, Hunter Masters by now.

Anna soon returned with a single piece of paper. She had compiled the information into a single page in a very short period of time.

Most Hunters had to collect and analyze information themselves prior to becoming a Hunter Master. Many Hunters would spend more time on organizing information than the actual expeditions, and it was very common for their efforts to be in vain if they ended up collecting false and unreliable information.

It was much less worrisome with a Hunter Mistress' help once they achieved the rank of a Hunter Master.

Mo Fan had Lingling, the all-purpose Little Loli back home. He had never had to rely on a Hunter Mistress, but he definitely needed help when he was in foreign countries. She allowed Mo Fan to learn the information he needed in the shortest time possible!

“You came just in time, a Hunter was temporarily recruited by the military for a mission. He discovered the hair of the young Medusa at the Sunset Valley. What do you think?...” Anna explained to Mo Fan in a serious manner. She was no longer sporting a seductive smile.

“Are you sure it’s the young Medusa’s hair?” Mo Fan asked.

“We normally refer to Medusae’s hair as silken. Many reputable forgemasters like to use it as the padding between pieces of armor around the joints. It gives the armor a high defense while minimizing the restrictions on a Mage’s movement. The Hunter I once served managed to collect some of it, but unfortunately, he wasn’t able to bring it back alive...” Anna said.

“Oh, so he sold the information at the main hall?” Mo Fan asked.

“Yeah, the bid for it went up to seven million, but I bought it with eight million and made it exclusive to you. I also organized bits and pieces of the news that other Hunters have collected. Here is the map for the young Medusa’s activity range that I’ve made...” Anna placed a tablet in front of Mo Fan.

Anna had done everything in a very professional manner. Mo Fan was familiar with the information that the map was providing him. Lingling often did similar analysis to pinpoint where their target might be before confirming it by buying some expensive clues from the Hunter Union. Her accuracy in finding the target was higher than fifty percent, and she could further increase it when provided with more reliable information.

“This is the activity range of a mature Medusa, and this is the activity range of the young Medusa. I’ve tagged them with different colors. According to other news, the mature Medusa seems to be residing at the Sunset Valley, and the young Medusa showed up at the Sunset Shrine a few days ago,” Anna said.

“The Sunset Shrine... how reliable is it?” Mo Fan asked.

“Rumors like these? I would say less than twenty percent, but the information we bought with eight million does fit perfectly with it. I am now seventy percent sure that the young Medusa was at the Sunset Shrine a day ago,” Anna replied while adjusting her spectacles.

“Any other information?” Mo Fan asked.

“Well... not for the time being, I’ve already bought the most valuable information, but there is indeed something I can tell you for free. Before the young Medusae mature, they will molt their hair once every week. There’s a species called the Roving Desert Beetles. They love the hair that Medusae shed, so if you are heading to the Sunset Valley, you can bring some Roving Desert Beetles along. I’ve roughly calculated for you; the information you’ve acquired with eight million indicates that the young Medusa shed its hair around three days ago, which means in the morning on the fourth day from now, if you are within five kilometers of the young Medusa, the Roving Desert Beetles will lead you to the hair that the young Medusa just shed. That way, you should be very close to the young Medusa!” Anna said.

“Roving Desert Beetles? Anna, isn’t a piece of information like that worth a lot?” Mo Fan asked curiously, staring at Anna.

Anna's expression shifted slightly. She lowered her head and said, "I learned it from my previous employer. It cost five million, but my hirer did not make it back alive. As a Hunter Mistress, I'm not allowed to sell the information I've learned..."

"I see... you were in love with your previous boss, right?" Mo Fan speculated, judging from Anna's reaction.

"No, she was my friend, we'd been working together for five years," Anna shook her head. It turned out that her previous boss was a female Hunter Master.

"Oh, oh, thank you for the useful information," Mo Fan said quickly.

"My pleasure. I will keep you updated with the latest news with the Sand Eagles' help. Unfortunately, too many people are interested in the news about the Medusae, so I'm afraid ten million won't be enough to acquire the latest news," Anna said.

"Hold on to my card, use it to buy any information that you think is valuable," Mo Fan said generously.

"Sure, good hunting," Anna smiled, placing the unpleasant memory behind her.

"I'll take this with me," Mo Fan took the piece of paper that had the information Anna had compiled.

The information was extremely useful. General Fenna had only mentioned that someone had seen the young Medusa, but she had no clue where the spotting had occurred. The outskirts of Cairo covered a huge area and had many, many demon creatures roaming around. It would be almost impossible to wander around and look for the young Medusa.

Now that Mo Fan had confirmed where the young Medusa was, things were a lot simpler!

"Mr. Mo, there's something I want to ask you," Anna stopped Mo Fan when he was about to leave.

"Go on," Mo Fan said.

"Did you really complete the quest of the Drowning Curse? I spent quite some years at the Aegean Sea before. I've heard a lot of terrifying rumors about the Drowning Curse. It's like a Curse of the ocean that everyone is scared of, yet you are so young. Oh, I'm not questioning your capabilities, I'm just confused as to how were you able to solve such a great mystery of the ocean when so many Senior Hunters failed to discover the truth?" Anna said. Her eyes displayed a strong desire to learn the truth.

Mo Fan had requested to be matched with a Hunter Mistress as soon as he reached Cairo's Hunter Union. Anna was actually the manager of the Hunter Mistresses in Cairo's Hunter Union, so she had the clearance to quickly discover that Mo Fan had completed the quest of the Drowning Curse!

Every Hunter that had completed a quest with a reward pool was considered a legend. Anna agreed to be matched with Mo Fan, as she was intrigued by the man.

The reward pool for the Drowning Curse came from donations from all over the world, mostly from the families of the victims who did not want anyone to suffer the same misfortune. It was more of a reward pool gathered from charities, so the sum was not noticeably high. Meanwhile, the Tear of Medusa had a great demand, both because of its own value and the fact that many people were suffering from the Curses of the Medusae. In terms of difficulty, it was actually harder to solve the mystery of the Drowning Curse, since there was no clue or information about it at all!

Anna had not revealed her intentions earlier. When she realized Mo Fan was a very approachable man, she decided to ask about it.

How did such a young Hunter Master manage to solve the mystery of the Drowning Curse!?

“It’s quite complicated, maybe we should find somewhere quieter to talk about it after I’m done with this quest?” Mo Fan proposed, raising his brows.

Anna was amused by Mo Fan’s reaction. She replied, “Sure, I await your good news!”

It was not like Mo Fan did not really care about money, but he was impressed by how professional Anna was. The activity map she made, her speed, and decisiveness at acquiring the information he needed were comparable to Lingling’s.

Lingling was not familiar with the situation in Egypt, but Anna was. His chance of completing this quest was a lot higher with the Hunter Mistress’s help!

Mo Fan was only willing to spend money on accurate information. If he had only spent a million, he seriously doubted he would be able to find a single strand of the young Medusa’s leg hair in the end!

Mo Fan was not worried that Anna would spend his money without his permission. A Hunter Mistress that was qualified to serve a six-star Hunter Master was worthy to be appointed the Minister of Finance of a country. They would clearly list out the things that they had spent money on. They would never spend their client’s money on anything useless.

A Hunter Mistress that did waste their client’s money would not be worthy to become a Hunter Master’s advisor. The Hunter Union had many branches across the world, and its management had always been strict on the Hunter Mistress’ ethics. Even though a lot of Hunters saw the Hunter Mistresses as toys, there were still a lot of impressive and professional Hunter Mistresses!

Anna was clearly the professional kind!
