

Versatile 1741

Chapter 1741: The Super Level! Part Two

“Splendid, how impressive of you! You over there, bring... mm, carry him back in your arms,” Zhang Xiaohou ordered a bulky soldier on duty.

“Yes, sir!” the soldier responded obediently. He was around two meters tall. He walked up to Zhao Manyan and hefted up the drunken man in his arms.

Zhang Xiaohou let out a relieved sigh after Zhao Manyan was carried away.

He had never seen anyone with such a low tolerance for alcohol who loved drinking so much. It was fine if he simply lost consciousness after reaching his limit, but unfortunately he was the kind of man who would commit embarrassing acts after he was drunk!

Zhao Manyan was the last person to leave. The people of the Violet Imperial Battalion were rather strict with themselves, and did not drink even a single drop of alcohol. They insisted on escorting Jiang Shaoxu back to their superior first. They did not want to waste any more time on unrelated matters!

A soldier hurried over to Zhang Xiaohou. “Reporting! The fourth floor of a building on the third street is on fire. It’s likely someone has committed arson!”

“Is the situation under control? Are there any casualties?” Zhang Xiaohou asked instantly.

“The fire is under control. There are no casualties,” the soldier replied.

“Why did you say someone has committed arson?” Zhang Xiaohou asked with a confused face. The fourth floor on the third street, wasn’t that where he had arranged Mo Fan and the others to stay for the night? Was someone trying to attack them?

“I’ve asked around for the cause of the fire, but the guy said a bunch of nonsense. He claimed he was trying to drive mosquitos away, but he ended up setting the room on fire because he failed to control his magic. I noticed the person’s cultivation was rather high, but he couldn’t explain himself properly, so I am extremely suspicious of him. General, should we arrest him?” the soldier asked.

“Is the guy called Mo Fan?” Zhang Xiaohou asked tiredly.

“Yes, General! So you already knew!”

Zhang Xiaohou shook his head with a wry smile. He told the soldier, “Calculate the loss and pay the owner accordingly.”

“General, he’s a very dangerous man. He’s surrounded by unstable lightning!”

“Got it, I’ll take a look.”

Zhang Xiaohou saw Mo Fan crouching in front of the building he had burned down after he reached the place.

“Houzi, you came just in time. Are the mosquitoes here the Winged Patrol Beasts’ lackeys or something? Fk me, I only killed a couple of them, but a whole bunch of them came to avenge them!” Mo Fan cursed.

He hated mosquitoes the most. They were seriously brainless. They did not even care if their target was a Mage or what their cultivation level was, they would simply attack when their target was not paying attention!

“Brother Fan, with your cultivation and control, there’s no way you would burn a whole building down just to kill some mosquitoes, right?” Zhang Xiaohou asked helplessly.

“Hehe, I just had a breakthrough, so I wasn’t able to control my magic,” Mo Fan admitted.

“Oh, I see... Huh, what did you just say?” Zhang Xiaohou’s eyes widened all of a sudden.

“I just had a breakthrough!” Mo Fan repeated.

“Super Level?”

“Mm, Super Level!” Mo Fan smiled.

“Holy crap, Brother Fan, that’s insane! You’re most likely the youngest Super Mage I’ve ever met!” Zhang Xiaohou exclaimed.

“Probably the most handsome, too!”

“Of course, Brother Fan! I’ll pay for the building you burned down as a way to congratulate you on reaching the Super Level!”

Mo Fan really had lost control of his magic. His Lightning Galaxy had become a vast Star Ocean containing multitudes of glowing Stars, an awesome and dazzling sight. It had a total of twenty-four hundred and one Stars now!

The feeling Mo Fan had after advancing to the Super Level was nothing like he had felt before. It was similar to expanding a small galaxy into a vast universe. He no longer felt minuscule and helpless... and the difference in control over his magic was the most obvious proof!

Mo Fan’s control of his Elements from the Advanced Level was a fraction of his control now. He ended up burning the building to the ground because he was not yet used to the changes!

He was initially riding a bicycle, and no matter how hard he pedaled, the distance he could cover and the maximum speed he could reach were both limited. But now that he had upgraded his bicycle into a car, and he had crossed the speed limit after he slammed hard on the gas before he realized it.

It was extremely rare for anyone in the world to have a Lightning Element with twelvefold damage amplification, not to mention the insane number of his Stars that had been strengthened. With the additional control of the Super Level, Mo Fan believed he was significantly stronger, even though he had yet to learn the Super Spell!

“Brother Fan, have you decided?” Zhang Xiaohou suddenly asked.

“Decided on what?” Mo Fan asked, confused.

“The Awakening! Did you forget you can Awaken new Elements when you reach the Super Level? According to your Double Innate Elements Trait, you should be able to Awaken two new Elements at the Super Level, too! Have you decided on what Elements to Awaken next?” Zhang Xiaohou blurted out excitedly.

Normally, a Forbidden Mage only had five Elements, but Mo Fan already had eight Elements after reaching the Super Level. How insane was his strength going to be if he had access to so many Elements and spells!?

“Right, the Awakening!” Mo Fan exclaimed.

Most Mages would only Awaken new Elements once or twice in their lives. It took so long for him to reach the Super Level, and he was so overjoyed about the upgrade to his Lightning Element that he completely forgot about the two new Elements he could Awaken at the Super Level!

Mo Fan was even happier now that Zhang Xiaohou reminded him about the new Elements. If he was given more time to grow and perfect all his Elements, who could possibly dare to face him!?

“Elemental Magic? Or White Magic?” Zhang Xiaohou asked.

“Among the White Magicks, I think only the Plant Element is suitable for me. It will feel strange if I Awaken the Psychic Element or the Healing Element!” Mo Fan fell into deep thoughts.

Mo Fan was not interested in becoming a utility Mage; he preferred to keep his aggressive fighting style. Besides, the Psychic Element and the Healing Element would take him a long time to master. He would have to spend a lot more time on them, so the Psychic Element, Blessing Element, and Healing Element were basically useless for him.

“I guess White Magic is out of the picture, then. What about the Dark Magic? Undead, Curse, or Poison?” Zhang Xiaohou prodded him.

“Curse isn’t too bad, so is Poison...” Mo Fan sighed.

“How about Elemental Magic? Wind, Water, Ice, and Light are very strong in the Super Level. I suggest you give the Light Element a try. It can help with your defense too, and the Super Spell of the Light Element is perfect for you, too!” Zhang Xiaohou was getting even more excited the more he spoke, as if he was the one about to Awaken new Elements.

“Light Element... it doesn’t sound too bad either!” Mo Fan nodded.

The Basic Spell of the Light Element was a utility spell that could purify and nullify negative effects that were placed on him. The Intermediate Light Spell was a useful defensive spell, while the Advanced Light Spell was good at both offensive and defensive purposes. As for the Super Light Spell, it was a powerful spell that could kill its target at an instant!

It was good for defense, with outstanding power in the later stages!

Chapter 1742: What Elements Should I Awaken?

“You still have another Element to Awaken! Brother Fan, I’m starting to feel a little jealous of you. We need to cultivate so hard and advance to the next level to Awaken a new Element, but you can still choose a second Element to Awaken after deciding on the first one every level!” Zhang Xiaohou exclaimed.

Mo Fan was extremely pleased, but Zhang Xiaohou added on before he could speak, “But Awakening two Elements at every level is rather troublesome, too. Most people will have to spend a huge sum on their new Elements, whether it’s buying expensive Awakening Stones or hiring talented Awakening Mages. They will have to spend almost all their savings on a new Element, but it’s double the cost for you when you Awaken two new Elements. I heard that the Awakening Stones are the most expensive resources in the world!”

Many Mages spent all their savings just to Awaken the Elements they desired, and they had to spend a lot more on the resources for the Element just to become better than others. It was like raising a kid. If they had the money, they would not just provide them with ordinary education. They would do everything to secure them a head start!

It was the same for a new Element, too. Even though it was a new Element Awakened at a later time, they would have to start cultivating it from the bottom, as these new Elements could be extremely useful if they planned their growth properly from the start!

“How expensive are the Awakening Stones?” Mo Fan had to ask.

“Very! if Brother Fan doesn’t want to spend the money, you can feel your heart race and just wing it. Just go with whatever you end up Awakening. That’s how it was for us, anyway,” Zhang Xiaohou admitted.

The Stone to Awaken new Elements at the Super Level was different. Most Super Mages literally spent all their possessions just to acquire an Awakening Stone. It was almost impossible without the financial support of a formidable faction!

It was also time to change their equipment and artifacts after reaching the Super Level, and all of that cost money, too!

“Forget about Awakening a random new Element. I’m seriously worried about the odds of Awakening the Psychic Element or Healing Element in the end,” Mo Fan admitted.

“Brother Fan, other people desperately want to Awaken the Psychic Element or the Healing Element. The latter, in particular, is like a tree that sheds money... It’s not as bad as you imagine. You have so many Elements, so it’s not a problem for you to become an all-around Mage, either,” Zhang Xiaohou pointed out.

The Psychic Element and the Healing Element were the most popular Elements of White Magic. The renowned clans were constantly competing with one another to get their hands on Mages with those Elements, yet Mo Fan was worried that he might Awaken them! Zhang Xiaohou seriously had no idea what to say.

Being an all-around Mage...

Mo Fan did consider it, but he was well aware of how Mages practiced White Magic. Xinxia was a perfect example. Mo Fan seriously believed his personality was not suitable for that, so the Elements would not be of any use to him, even if he did Awaken them. He would rather increase his firepower to a terrifying level than have some useless Elements!

“Brother Fan, have you made up your mind?” Zhang Xiaohou asked.

“Not yet, I’ll have to think about it first. There’s no need to rush it now,” Mo Fan replied.

Mo Fan had a few options in mind, yet was struggling to make a decision for when he finally had the chance to do so...

— —

Mo Fan moved to another place. An alluring figure suddenly showed up while he was still having troubling thoughts about his new Elements.

Mo Fan was confused, but he still went after her. He saw the alluring figure standing on the roof, staring in the direction of the Qinling Mountains.

“Apas, what are you doing? Do you miss Africa?” Mo Fan asked her.

Apas ignored Mo Fan. Her delicate face had a menacing look, while her eyes had a strong hostile expression!

Mo Fan realized something was not right. He jumped up to the roof and followed Apas’ gaze. However, he was unable to see anything other than the magnificent silhouettes of the Qinling Mountains.

“Don’t just keep quiet, what’s wrong?” Mo Fan asked her firmly.

“Something has caught its spirit! It was supposed to be slowly carried away by the Wind of Sorrow in the Qinling Mountains!” Apas stated.

“Spirit? Whose spirit?” Mo Fan was confused.

“The Flamebird’s!” Apas answered.

Mo Fan opened his mouth, but was lost for words.

The Flamebird’s spirit?

Mo Fan had witnessed the Flamebird’s death. It had become a wandering spirit in the Qinling Mountains that would slowly dissipate in time. Why did Apas say its spirit was caught?

Did the Ox-Head and Horse-Face that were responsible for capturing the wandering souls and bringing them to the underworld really exist?

The Ox-Head and Horse-Face clearly did not exist, but there were some unique phantoms that might specifically hunt for the wandering souls of the deceased to improve their cultivation. However, Mo Fan had no clue what Apas was referring to, or why it had targeted the Flamebird’s spirit specifically.

“Do you know what it is?” Mo Fan asked.

“I don’t, but I will be able to tell when I see it!” Apas responded.

“Oh...”

The spot where the Flamebird had died was extremely far away from them. Mo Fan had no idea how Apas was able to sense something so far away. Perhaps she had left a spiritual mark on the Flamebird’s soul before they left. Either way, it was beyond his capabilities!

Apas seemed to know there was nothing she could do, either. It was unlikely the dead would have any dealings with living creatures. She could only stare in that direction angrily.

“You looked rather imposing just then. I bet your strength has recovered after I reached the Super Level,” Mo Fan patted Apas’ head.

“Humph!” Apas responded with her nose. She went into her room in a bad mood, heading back to bed.

Mo Fan watched her leave before looking at the Qinling Mountains.

For some reason, Mo Fan had a strange feeling about the whole thing. It felt like he was experiencing déjà vu at that particular instant. However, he was unable to recall the details of why it all felt familiar to him.

“Forget it, maybe I had a similar dream before,” Mo Fan shook his head. He did not overthink it. He would eventually recall it if it was really that important. It was meaningless to try recalling something he had forgotten.

He followed Apas into the room. He suddenly thought of something. He casually patted on Apas’ back and said, “By the way, didn’t you ask me to teach you magic? I’m about to Awaken new Elements! I’ll be training from the beginning, too...”

Chapter 1743: Fake Mo Fan?

1

Mo Fan was not in a rush to return to Fanxue Mountain. He decided to go to the Magic City first.

Zhang Xiaohou was still keeping watch at the Qinling Mountains. If the Silver Skyruler ended up becoming the new Emperor of Feathers, he would be very busy for some time.

If the Silver Skyruler was not the new Emperor of Feathers, it would be a lot easier to manage the Qinling Mountains. After all, Xiaohou had been blessed and acknowledged by the Tree of Vows, so most winged beasts that had been around for a long time were respectful of someone like him. He could resolve the potential threats from the Qinling Mountains much more easily.

Zhao Manyan, on the other hand, kept complaining about wanting to go back to the Magic City. He owned a number of luxury suites there. Every property he had represented a ‘canary’ he was hiding, so every time he returned to the Magic City, he would live the life of an ancient emperor, where he had the freedom to flip the token to decide on the woman he was interested in spending the night with.

It had been a while since Mo Fan last visited his two gorgeous housemates, too. He walked past the entrance of the Pearl Institute and saw many young faces around. He subconsciously straightened his chest and lifted his chin.

He remembered how he was only a little Intermediate Mage when he first came here.

He had now reached the Super Level. He was stronger than most of the teachers at the Pearl Institute. He could not help but feel pleased with himself!

“Ah, isn’t that Mo Fan!?”

“Which Mo Fan?”

“The one that won the World College Tournament!” a girl with round glasses glanced at Mo Fan with glittering eyes.

Mo Fan followed the voice and made eye contact with the girl!

Damn, someone finally recognized him in real life! He seriously wondered what was wrong with the people of his homeland. It was like they could not even recognize a celebrity if they were not handsome enough or followed around by a few cameras. Mo Fan had long waited to be recognized in public. Couldn’t they just satisfy his vanity for once!?

1

Finally, someone had recognized him, not to mention that it was an adorable-looking girl. Even though her round eyes made her look a little nerdy, the little ribbon on the side of the frame of her glasses still made her look rather fashionable.

Mo Fan smiled like a celebrity normally did. He calmly waited for the girl to approach him. From a first glance, he roughly estimated her bust size to be C. To think that her cup size was C despite having such a petite figure. Her body ratio could easily make a certain body part bloat!

“It’s really Mo Fan, oh my, I did hear someone mentioning that he had returned to school last month. I didn’t expect to stumble into him here!” a boy who was obviously a new student of the school exclaimed.

“I only enrolled in the Pearl Institute because of Mo Fan. I even gave up on the recommendation of the Imperial College,” another new student said.

Mo Fan stood there and listened to the praise. He was wearing a calm smile, as if he was already used to the praise, yet his heart had already flown to the top of the Oriental Pearl Tower.

Lately, he had been either cultivating, traveling in foreign countries, or contributing to the peace of the world. He rarely strolled in public places like today, hence he was a little surprised to find so many admirers of his at the entrance of the Pearl Institute.

“Juniors, there’s no need to be so excited. I will often come back to school from now on, so please calm down,” a voice at the entrance of the school said.

Mo Fan had already reached the entrance. He was currently standing under a tree.

He was confused about why someone had stolen his lines. He was still smiling proudly in front of his admirers.

Mo Fan followed the voice and discovered that the new students were not even surrounding him. They were running toward another handsome man wearing a shirt with wisteria on it.

“Hey, I’m right here,” Mo Fan said when he saw the girl with round glasses running past him.

The girl turned around and glanced at Mo Fan briefly. He could read the question from the doubtful look in her eyes, Is there something wrong with this guy?

Mo Fan was dumbfounded, too. Most students were running to the entrance excitedly, while those that were calmer stood still and glanced at the man wearing a wisteria shirt from a distance.

“The demon king has now become a symbol of the Pearl Institute. What kind of luck did that Mo Fan have?” an old student blurted out jealously.

Those that called Mo Fan the demon king were most likely from the same batch as him. Mo Fan and his friends had graduated from the school in advance, but the rest were still working hard to graduate from the school.

Mo Fan did not recognize the student. He asked with a confused look, “Brother, do you know who I am?”

“Who are you? why would I know you... huh, you do look a little familiar...” the student observed Mo Fan carefully, but he soon scoffed, “Is there something wrong with you? Mo Fan might be impressive, but there’s no need for you to mimic him by having the same haircut, dressing up the same way, and even having the same skin tone as him. Why don’t you go get plastic surgery instead?”

“Friend, I’m the original. I’m not mimicking anyone, nor did I get plastic surgery. I’m Mo Fan, take a closer look!” Mo Fan pointed at his own face.

The student took a closer look again. His expression finally shifted after some time. “Are you really Mo Fan?”

“Mm, I’m the real one,” Mo Fan nodded.

The student had obviously seen Mo Fan during the welcoming ceremony or somewhere else before. He looked a little surprised. He kept glancing back and forth between Mo Fan and the guy at the entrance.

“To be honest, even though you are the low-spec version, you look more like the real one,” the student admitted.

Mo Fan’s face darkened. Low-spec version?

Damn it, that idiot who was gorgeously dressed and decorating himself like a male prostitute was obviously a fake! Did he really refer to him as the high-spec version? It was more like the coquettish version!

Mo Fan admitted that he was not too fussy about how he dressed, nor was he fond of making himself presentable, but that did not necessarily mean the guy that was wearing colorful clothes and appealing to the eyes was real!

Was someone seriously impersonating him!?

In addition to it, the impersonator had come to the Pearl Institute to trick the beautiful young ladies. How vicious!?

Mo Fan's phone rang when he had the urge to beat someone up.

Mo Fan glanced at the screen and saw the call was from Mui Nujiao. He immediately picked up.

"Someone told me you were recognized at the entrance, and a bunch of juniors have you surrounded?" Mui Nujiao teased.

Mo Fan had not told Mui Nujiao he was back in the Magic City. He was planning a spot-check, Perhaps he might stumble into the two canaries in their underwear. However, Mui Nujiao was obviously referring to the guy at the entrance.

"Even I couldn't believe that someone is fking impersonating me!" Mo Fan grunted, glaring at the handsome man at the entrance of the school.

"Ah? I know many people are mimicking you, but impersonating... that's quite absurd, especially when it's happening right at the school's entrance," Mui Nujiao agreed.

"That idiot does look like me, but are these juniors blind or what? I'm obviously a lot more handsome than him! How did they even recognize the wrong guy!?" Mo Fan was initially in a great mood, but he was now filled with rage because of the impersonator.

"I'm still a distance away from the school. I'll be there soon."

"Mm."

Chapter 1744: Choose an Element

Where did this idiot even get his courage from, daring to impersonate him!?

He was a righteous man who strictly adhered to his responsibilities of protecting every beautiful woman in the world. He was not even willing to lay his hands on so many gorgeous ladies. However, if anyone dared to use his name and preyed on the ladies, he swore he would break all three legs of the impersonator as punishment!

Mo Fan walked up to the crowd and worked his way through the stupid juniors angrily. He pointed at the impersonator standing beside a black vehicle and said, "Who the hell do you think you are?"

Mo Fan's words immediately attracted the attention of the students.

Did someone really just curse in front of Mo Fan? Did he not know that Mo Fan's strength was the most ridiculous in this school?

"Friend, did I offend you in some way?" the young man smiled.

"Oh my, as expected of Senior Mo Fan, he's so well-behaved. Where did this countryman come from? Do you know who you are talking to?" a female student shouted.

"That's right, he must be another jealous dog who can't afford to see someone more impressive, famous, and handsome than him!"

The impersonator retained his smile. The rest of the crowd were already condemning Mo Fan before he could say anything.

"You dare deceive the new students at the Pearl Institute's entrance! You're seriously asking for trouble," Mo Fan said.

"I really don't understand what you're saying. Did we have some kind of conflict before? I'm sorry, I've provoked quite a number of people in the past, so I really can't remember who you are. Why don't you tell me your name?" The impersonator seemed extremely calm.

"That's right, who the hell are you? Just piss off, stop blocking our idol's path!"

"Yeah, go away!"

Mo Fan had always been a hot-tempered man. It would be strange if he was arguing reasonably with a bunch of idiots.

He would never waste his time arguing if using violence was an option. Mo Fan noticed quite a number of students surrounding him, as if they were going to teach him a lesson for messing with the rising star of the Pearl Institute.

"I've never seen anyone so narrow-minded. We won't show any mercy if you don't leave soon!" a student of the Fire School declared.

"Show me mercy?" Mo Fan was amused.

Ever since Mo Fan enrolled in the Pearl Institute, he had beaten the crap out of many of his seniors, let alone the students of the same year as him. Otherwise, where had he earned the title demon king from?

It turned out that his juniors would like to have a piece of the Pearl Institute's special opening ceremony routine, to be beaten up on the first day!

"A bunch of retards!" Mo Fan snapped.

Mo Fan's eyes emitted a sharp silver glow. When it reached the peak of its brilliance, a strong force rippled under his feet!

The force knocked the people surrounding Mo Fan away. Those with a higher cultivation were knocked a few steps back, while the rest were sent flying before falling to the ground under the trees on both sides!

No one had expected the arrogant man to strike first. The students began cursing at Mo Fan after rising to their feet. It seemed like they were going to cast some spells too!

Mo Fan twisted his lips disdainfully when he saw a few Star Patterns rising.

“Go take a breather over there!” Mo Fan casually waved his hand and knocked a student who was drawing an Ice Star Pattern flying.

The wave was enchanted with the Space Element. The student from the Ice School spun through the air and fell into a pond nearby.

“Too slow, how did you even make it to the main campus?” Mo Fan turned around with glittering eyes.

The energy that his gaze contained was simply too overwhelming for the next student. He was sent flying when he had only drawn half of his Star Pattern. He flew into the same pond as the student from the Ice School!

After taking out two students who were planning to attack him so easily, Mo Fan noticed a student from the Fire School holding a fireball in his right hand.

“What is it? You don’t have the guts to fight me?” Mo Fan smiled, staring at the student.

“Why wouldn’t I dare to fight you? I will at most be disciplined for it, but it’s necessary to teach scum like you who don’t know how to respect their seniors a lesson! The rest of you, step aside!” The student of the Fire School obviously had a stronger cultivation. The Fiery Fist he gathered immediately set the path leading to the entrance of the school on fire.

There were many new students that had only enrolled in the school recently, so most of them were at the Basic Level. They quickly dodged to the sides when they saw the Fiery Fist being thrown forward. Some of the girls were screaming.

Mo Fan stood silently. He was showing no intention of dodging the spell.

The Fiery Fist, which was about two meters across, spread like a fan and covered Mo Fan.

Mo Fan raised his hand at a very slow pace.

It was the standard stopping gesture of a policeman. Space shuddered all of a sudden. The others noticed the hurtling Fiery Fist coming to a stop. The spreading flames were being suppressed, too!

The Fiery Fist stopped less than two meters away from Mo Fan’s hand. The flames were flickering wildly, yet they could not advance any further!

The students were absolutely dumbfounded.

How insane was it to stop such a strong Fire Spell traveling at a high speed? He was using the second-tier Fiery Fist, yet this man had stopped it by raising his hand!

“If you have time to waste on admiring a retard like him, you should really spend more time practicing your spells. You couldn’t even hit a normal Warrior-level creature in the wild with that spell!” Mo Fan chuckled. He clenched his hand tightly!

The man-sized Fiery Fist was snuffed instantly. Mo Fan had done it like he was pinching a candle. Everything that was lit up by the flames immediately returned to normal.

The students were no longer able to remain calm after witnessing this. The student of the Fire School was particularly shocked. He had assumed Mo Fan was at most a year or two older than him. The guy most likely had some tricks up in his sleeves if he dared to behave so arrogantly. The student thought he could last a dozen rounds against him, yet his fighting spirit was snuffed like his Fiery Fist, before the fight even started!

“Impersonator, I know you have come to the school to trick the new students just because you have a slight resemblance to me. I have a hundred ways to expose you, but I believe proving it with a fight is the simplest way!” Mo Fan approached the young man that was impersonating him.

The young man began to panic a little.

“Of course, it’s unlikely that you are going to win me. There are seriously not many people around my age that stand a chance against me, so I won’t make it too difficult for you. My Lightning Element, Fire Element, Shadow Element, Summoning Element, or Space Element; you can choose any of them! If you can win against one of my Elements, you can keep the name Mo Fan. I’ll change my name!” Mo Fan proclaimed with his trademark arrogance!

Chapter 1745: Fateful Awakening

The impersonator was stunned. He did not know what to say.

He never expected to stumble into Mo Fan himself when he decided to impersonate him in front of the Pearl Institute!

Didn’t they say Mo Fan was constantly traveling between foreign countries? Why is he here at the Pearl Institute!?

“I...I was just joking!” the impersonator squeaked out with an awkward smile. His forehead was already covered in cold sweat from the enormous pressure emanating from Mo Fan.

“You’re joking?” Mo Fan smiled too. He initially thought the impersonator had some tricks up in his sleeves, but he was merely a coward!

“He’s really an impersonator?”

“Ah? Seriously? He’s so handsome, how is he an impersonator?”

“Are you blind? Why would he be so scared if he was the real Mo Fan? The man is supposed to be the demon king of the Pearl Institute! I think the other guy teaching the juniors a lesson is the real Mo Fan!” an older student called out.

The students who were from the same class as Mo Fan knew the demon king would challenge the schools of other Elements over even minor disagreements, but they dared not accept his challenges!

Mo Fan was about to teach the impersonator a lesson when a stylish red sedan stopped in front of the school. Mui Nujiao, dressed in formal attire, came out of it.

Mui Nujiao was very active at the school, and neither the old or new students would ever mistake her for someone else.

Besides, Mui Nujiao was also a great beauty! Her goddess aura instantly conquered the juniors that had only enrolled in the school recently, while the men were staring with wide eyes.

“It’s Senior Sister Mui!”

“Senior Sister Mui, you came just in time. Not only is this guy impersonating Senior Mo Fan, he dares to use violence on us, too! You must teach him a lesson!” the student whom Mo Fan tossed into the pond came over to protest.

Mui Nujiao observed the soaked student carefully. There was definitely something wrong with this guy’s intelligence. Anyone could tell that the guy whose legs were trembling was the real impersonator!

Mui Nujiao approached Mo Fan and said gently, “This is strange. Let me handle this impersonator.”

“What is it? Why do you sound like he wasn’t the first guy to impersonate me?” Mo Fan asked.

“Mm, it’s pretty strange; there have been many people impersonating you lately. I suggest you give some speeches at the high schools when you’re free, just so the people can recognize you,” Mui Nujiao told him.

“Another time. I’ve been quite busy lately. I need to look for a bunch of Awakening Stones,” Mo Fan rejected immediately.

“Awakening Stones? What do you need them for...” Mui Nujiao had a confused face.

“What do you think?” Mo Fan raised his brows.

“Oh my!” Mui Nujiao screamed, but she immediately realized she was overreacting. She quickly covered her mouth like a panicking little girl. “You’re a Super Mage now?”

Mo Fan nodded with a smile.

1

Mui Nujiao’s eyes widened. She was happy for Mo Fan, but she was still struggling to believe it.

This guy actually reached the Super Level!

“By the way, are there many people impersonating me?” Mo Fan asked again.

“Mm, I first thought they were just a bunch of crazy admirers, but I noticed that the numbers are increasing... How should I describe it... I feel like these impersonators have agreed to do it together,” Mui Nujiao told Mo Fan softly.

“That’s a thing?” Mo Fan exclaimed. He subconsciously glanced at the impersonator, who was now feeling very uneasy.

He thought he had coincidentally stumbled into a guy who was borrowing his reputation to satisfy his vanity. He never thought impersonating him had already become a trend!

“I’m not too sure about the details, but it’s true that it’s been quite a while since you last showed yourself in front of the public in China, and many people are constantly keeping an eye on you, so many impersonators see it as a great opportunity. I really hope that you can show yourself more publicly, so they won’t be able to impersonate you so easily!” Mui Nujiao chided him.

These impersonators were truly disgusting. If they ended up tricking a few young girls into having sex with them, it would be a great loss to his reputation!

No way, he would not forgive these assh* easily!

“Leave this guy to me. There’s no way I’m letting him go since I’ve caught him red-handed!” Mo Fan was a little angry. He stared at the impersonator coldly.

The impersonator began to tremble in fear. Everyone kept saying how Mo Fan was the last person they wanted to mess with, especially since he was bold enough to murder even the disciples of renowned clans as he pleased!

Mo Fan no longer had the mood to fool around with his juniors after getting rid of the impersonator. He went back to his place as soon as he could.

1

Mui Nujiao had been maintaining a close relationship with many magic high schools, so she knew where to get the Awakening and Guiding Stones.

“Guo Liyu is a collector of Guiding Stones. He has some rare Guiding Stones in his possession. I’m very close to his disciple, Xiao Mian. Should I introduce him to you?” Mui Nujiao asked.

“Are you referring to Guo Liyu from the Oriental Pearl Tower? I remember him. He was the one who helped me to Awaken the Shadow Element and Summoning Element when I first came to Shanghai. His disciple... mm, I remember her too,” Mo Fan recalled.

“I guess you two are destined for one another, then. Did you decide on which Elements to Awaken? The Guiding Stones can only increase the odds of Awakening a certain Element. The higher their quality, the higher the odds,” Mui Nujiao said.

“To be honest, I haven’t made up my mind yet, but I have to do it eventually. If the Guiding Stones don’t guarantee that I can Awaken a certain Element, I won’t be too upset over what Element I Awaken, either,” Mo Fan replied.

Mo Fan had been thinking about it for days. He would still spend some money on Guiding Stones to lower the odds of him Awakening an Element of White Magic. As for what exactly it would be, he would leave it for the heavens to decide!

“That’s a great mindset to have. Many people insist on Awakening a certain Element after a breakthrough, but not only do they end up spending all their money, they are extremely disappointed in their new Element too!” Mui Nujiao agreed with him.

“Exactly, giving birth to a son is the same as giving birth to a daughter. A daughter will have offspring too!” Mo Fan nodded.

Mui Nujiao was suddenly lost for words. How did Mo Fan even relate the two topics, even though she had to admit that it did make some sense?

Many people were fond of the Fire and Lightning Elements, yet how many people managed to maximize the potential of those two Elements? In addition, the resources for those two Elements were very costly. As a result, those who Awakened the Light Element and Water Elements stood out more after they reached the higher levels. They would not necessarily be weaker than those with the Lightning and Fire Elements! In addition, the resources they needed were usually half the price of those for Lightning and Fire Mages. They could use their remaining money to improve their other Elements, too!

Chapter 1746: Paying Double

Mo Fan visited the Awakening Room again under Mui Nujiao’s lead.

The Awakening Room was located in the Oriental Pearl Tower, and made up of reputable Awakening Mages. Not only did they have access to many Awakening Stones, they were able to use their unique methods to increase the odds of Awakening specific Elements.

However, these Awakening Mages were also called Forecasters, since the Awakening was similar to a weather forecast: they necessarily happen every time.

Guo Liyu’s female disciple Xiao Mian, wearing her thick glasses, was the one who received them after they arrived at the Awakening Room.

“Sister Mui, why are you here!?” Xiao Mian immediately pounced at Mui Nujiao happily, like a little sparrow.

“I brought my friend here to Awaken new Elements,” Mui Nujiao smiled.

“Oh, him?” Xiao Mian studied Mo Fan.

“I’ve been here before,” Mo Fan smiled at her.

“We should have your information in that case. What’s your name? I’ll go take a look,” Xiao Mian dug her head into a cabinet.

She went to another room. Mui Nujiao was initially planning to wait for her, but Xiao Mian soon returned with an apologetic smile. "I forgot the keys."

Mui Nujiao did not say a word. Xiao Mian ran back to the room, but she soon returned with a blush. She picked up the glasses still on the table.

"Why are you still so clumsy? I'll go with you. Otherwise, it's going to take you half a day to sort it out," Mui Nujiao said.

"Alright!"

—

Xiao Mian led Mui Nujiao into the archive. It was quite dark inside the room. She switched on the table lamp.

"Sister Mui, it's rare to see you here with a man. Is he your boyfriend?" Xiao Mian asked curiously.

"Nope," Mui Nujiao said.

"Oh, is he chasing you, then?" Xiao Mian asked.

"We are just friends. Go look for your stuff and stop asking so many questions!" Mui Nujiao sniffed.

"Oh, oh, his name is Mo Fan, right? I found it," Xiao Mian flipped through Mo Fan's information and realized it was quite simple. It only had the time when Mo Fan last visited the Awakening Room, the time and cost for the Awakening, and the Element he Awakened in the end.

Xiao Mian quickly scanned the information with an intrigued face and said, "He's pretty impressive. He managed to reach the Advanced Level in just a few years after he reached the Intermediate Level. However, Sister Mui is even more impressive in comparison. You are close to reaching the peak of the Advanced Level, right?"

"I still have a long way to go compared to him. Besides, who even said he's only in the Advanced Level?" Mui Nujiao said.

"If he did not just reach the Advanced Level, are you telling me that he's in the Super Level?" Xiao Mian rolled her eyes. She assumed Mui Nujiao was joking with her.

Mui Nujiao did not answer. She only stared at Xiao Mian with a smile.

Xiao Mian realized something after some time. She adjusted her glasses and asked cautiously, "Sister Mui, don't tell me he's really a Super Mage?"

"Mm, he's indeed a Super Mage now," Mui Nujiao confirmed.

Xiao Mian opened her mouth wide. She had only seen a few Super Mages since she started working here, let alone one that was around her age!

"Sister Mu, are you trying to trick me? Is...is he a monster? How did he go from an Intermediate Mage to a Super Mage in such a short time?" Xiao Mian gasped.

Xiao Mian thought it was already impressive that he was able to go from the Intermediate Level to the Advanced Level in a few years. It would be crazy if he actually reached the Super Level!

Mui Nujiao was amused by Xiao Mian's reaction, but did not explain further. She took the file and went outside. Mo Fan was still waiting for them.

—

"Are you smiling at me?" Mo Fan asked curiously when he saw Mui Nujiao's reaction.

"I was discussing something interesting with Xiao Mian. Why would I be smiling at you?" Mui Nujiao replied.

Mui Nujiao pouted after finishing her sentence. Speaking of which, why was she feeling happy after seeing Xiao Mian's reaction after learning that Mo Fan had reached the Super Level? Shouldn't she be reflecting on herself? They had enrolled in the Pearl Institute at the same time; how did her cultivation fall behind?

"Master Guo, Master Guo!"

They suddenly heard Xiao Mian's exaggerated cries.

"What's with the noise? Didn't anyone tell you that people in our field must remain calm at all times!?" Guo Liyu came out of a room, immediately scolding Xiao Mian.

"Master Guo, Master Guo, that...that guy is a Super Mage. He's here for the Super Awakening!" Xiao Mian acted like she had just seen a ghost.

The truth was, it was harder to meet a Super Mage like Mo Fan than seeing a ghost!

"What? Super Level! Him?" Guo Liyu looked at Mo Fan. He did find him a little familiar.

"Yes, him!" Xiao Mian repeated.

Guo Liyu walked up to Mo Fan and lifted his hands in a strange posture. He closed his eyes and probed Mo Fan's Divine Sense with his will.

Mo Fan did not interfere with him, allowing Guo Liyu's Will to study his Lightning Element.

"Star Ocean... it's really the Star Ocean!" Guo Liyu's eyes sprang open. His face was filled with astonishment as he exclaimed, "My Heavens, how did you do it? I only reached the Super Level in my forties, but you have reached it more than ten years earlier than me!"

"Master, didn't you say we should remain calm at all times?" Xiao Mian reminded him.

"Calm my ass, this is absolutely unfair! Right, who's your master? You must be the son of a Forbidden Mage, only that can explain it," Guo Liyu said.

"Uncle Guo, he's Mo Fan, a student of the Pearl Institute," Mui Nujiao said.

"Mo Fan? Oh, you're that Mo Fan... the guy that won the World College Tournament... Hang on, even if you're that Mo Fan, it doesn't make sense for you to achieve the Super Level so soon, too! You must have had some special encounters!" Guo Liyu exclaimed.

It was normal for Mo Fan, who spent most of his time in the wild, to have some special encounters!

"I've come to Awaken new Elements. I came here when I was still an Intermediate Mage and managed to Awaken the Shadow Element, so I believe you can bring me good luck," Mo Fan told him.

"What good luck? It's my skill!" Guo Liyu snarled. However, he soon thought of something. He blurted out, "Didn't you have the Double Innate Elements? Speaking of which, you didn't just Awaken the Shadow Element the last time you were here! What was the other Element, again!?"

"The Summoning Element!" Mo Fan did not keep it a secret. After all, everyone already knew the truth about his Double Innate Elements.

"Right... give it to me!" Guo Liyu said.

"Give what?" Mo Fan was confused, staring at Guo Liyu, who had reached his hand out.

"Money, you've Awakened two Elements, but you still paid the same price for Awakening a single Element. Hurry up and pay what you owe!" Guo Liyu said.

Chapter 1747: A Golden-Brown Element?

Mo Fan always thought he was quite shameless, but now he was surprised to stumble into someone more shameless than him!

"Master, I don't think we have ever charged any customers like that," Xiao Mian said.

Guo Liyu fondled the beard he was quite proud of and admitted, "Mm, you're right..."

"Uncle Guo, stop joking around with my friend. He's still waiting for you to Awaken a powerful Element for him. Time to prepare for it," Mui Nujiao intervened.

Guo Liyu patted his chest and declared proudly, "Prepare? What do I need to prepare? Let's do it right away! I promise to Awaken any Element you want!"

This new Awakening Room was very different from the one Mo Fan was brought to after he had reached the Intermediate Level, obviously a lot classier. Even the stands the Awakening Stones were displayed on looked extremely costly.

"You know the drill, don't you? Tell me what Element you want first. Otherwise, you might think I'm just a genius after the fact," Guo Liyu said.

"Nothing in particular, anything will do," Mo Fan replied.

"Well, you must have a preference?" Guo Liyu asked after a moment of hesitation.

"Mm, the Light Element, then..." Mo Fan answered after a brief pause.

“Are you sure you don’t want to buy a Guiding Stone? I’ll give you a thirty percent discount. I can guarantee you that it will greatly increase the odds of Awakening the Element you are after!” Guo Liyu promised.

“There’s no need for that. Let’s begin. There’s no such thing as a weak Element in this world. It’s only the Mage that is weak,” Mo Fan responded firmly.

“You’re right! Seeing how determined you are, I shall give you another five percent discount. I can’t go any lower!” Guo Liyu said.

“...”

Mo Fan decided not to use a Guiding Stone, mainly because the Guiding Stones for the Super Level were simply too expensive. Mo Fan was fine with any Element, as long as it was not Healing or Psychic!

Mo Fan stood in the center of the room, while Guo Liyu stood opposite him. He placed his hands on the Awakening Stone and said, “I’ll use my Will to help you stabilize the Awakening Stone. It will get rid of the Elemental impurities for you.”

Mo Fan nodded. He closed his eyes after taking a deep breath.

It was his fourth Awakening!

Each Awakening was like a great transformation for Mo Fan. He could not wait to see how strong he would become after gaining eight Elements!

That being said, reaching the Super Level was like reaching the top of a mountain, allowing him to see a clearer sky. In addition to the two new Elements he would be getting, the time he spent on upgrading the rest of his Elements would be worth it, too!

“I gained this Awakening Stone from Mount Dayflame of the Tianshan Mountains. It contains the purest energy of the Light Element, and it also has some unique traits related to the Light Element, too. I’m not being stingy. This thing can easily be sold at an insane price at an auction. Since you are my niece’s friend, I don’t mind giving it to you. You should take good care of it, and don’t you ruin my reputation!” Guo Liyu told him.

Mo Fan did not respond. He was focused on sensing the energy inside the Awakening Stone.

Guo Liyu did not lie to him. Mo Fan immediately felt like he was standing in a spacious valley surrounded by rocks under a bright sun; the strong presence of the Light Element felt like it was purifying him!

His Spiritual World was like a vast black galaxy. The places with Stardust were the furthest points his Will could reach, where the vast darkness was yet to be explored. The Star Ocean’s appearance had shed some light on areas previously covered in darkness.

The Awakening had lit up a new area in his Spiritual World, which was now newly unlocked!

Mo Fan found a faint halo of light in the new area. He was rather confused when he noticed an unfamiliar color.

“Gold?”

If it was golden, it must be the Light Element. Mo Fan was impressed. This Guo Liyu was really something. He did help Awaken the Element he had asked for!

“Strange, it doesn’t look golden, it seems a little darker...” Mo Fan quickly realized something unusual after taking a closer look.

The colors of a Stardust, Nebula, Galaxy, and Star Ocean were not fixed. For example, they might change color when they merged with a new Soul Seed.

However, the initial color of the Elements was usually fixed. The Light Element was golden, but the new Element that Mo Fan had Awakened was not the usual pure gold. It was golden-brown, to be precise!

“What’s going on here?” Mo Fan was dumbfounded.

What Element has the color golden-brown? Is it the Light Element or not!?

The Stardust slowly took shape. The Stars were slowly appearing, too.

One, two, three...when all seven Stars took shape, it meant the Awakening was completed.

Mo Fan still could not identify the Element by its color. He slowly approached the Stardust after all the Stars had appeared.

Mo Fan was shocked when he interacted with the adorable Stars!

It is not Light!

It is not the Light Element!

Guo Liyu remained beside Mo Fan. His eyes never left the Awakening Stone.

His brows were tightly furrowed. He stared at the golden-brown light flickering from the Awakening Stone.

“The Earth Element? Strange, why would the Earth Element have a hint of gold? Could it be that these Awakening Stones didn’t absorb the natural light energy, but have mutated from the energy of the light?” Guo Liyu murmured.

Mo Fan slowly opened his eyes. His pupils emitted a brown glint of light, with a golden ring on the outside!

“The Earth Element!” Mo Fan looked at Guo Liyu and blurted out first.

Guo Liyu sighed. “There’s no guarantee you will Awaken the Element you want. It’s a matter of probability, but I must say that this Awakening Stone had quite a high chance to Awaken the Light Element. Maybe you were just unlucky,” Guo Liyu quickly explained.

“I wouldn’t say I’m unlucky. I’m quite fond of the Earth Element, too! I happen to lack defensive spells!” Mo Fan smiled. He was not disappointed at all that he had Awakened the Earth Element.

There was no reason for him to be disappointed. The Earth Element and Light Element were not too different from one another. The Basic Spell of the Earth Element was very flexible, with many uses. It could boost a target’s speed or restrict its movement, and be used as a trap.

The Intermediate Spell of the Earth Element was more commonly used for defensive purposes, just like the Light Element. The Advanced Spell was the Eyes of the Rock Demon, a powerful control spell!

Mo Fan was not too familiar with the Super Spell of the Earth Element, but he recalled Yan Shi Summoning the enormous back of a dragon to defend him from the Giant Purple Linden's Demon Tree Spikes. That defense was none other than the Super Earth Spell Yan Shi had perfected. It felt like the entire land had become her weapon for both offensive and defensive purposes!

Besides, those spells did not have to be framed so they could only be used for just a defensive or offensive purpose!

With the fine control from being in the Super Level, those with the Earth Element could also choose the path of violence and make the ground tremble!

"Strange, why does your Earth Element have a hint of gold in it?" Guo Liyu asked.

Chapter 1748: Earth Element with Additional Effects

"I have no idea why it's golden-brown, either!" Mo Fan scratched his head. Perhaps it was the blessing of the main protagonist. Even the Earth Element he had Awakened was special!

1

"Try casting a spell and see," Guo Liyu advised him.

Mo Fan blurted out with wide eyes, "Mister, I have just Awakened the new Element. Wouldn't I need some practice?"

"It's obvious that you're just a rookie. You have already reached the Super Level! Do you seriously think you will need a year and a half to learn how to control a few Stars of the Earth Element? Close your eyes and focus on connecting the Stars," Guo Liyu chided him.

Mo Fan was a little doubtful, but he still closed his eyes and began to focus his Will on the golden-brown Stardust.

The golden-brown Stardust only occupied a tiny space; it was almost negligible compared to the other brilliant Star Galaxies and blazing Star Ocean, only emitting a faint glow in the corner.

The seven Stars were all golden-brown in color. As expected of the Earth Element, they were a lot stabler than the Stars of the Fire and Lightning Elements. They calmly obeyed Mo Fan's Will when he started to connect them.

The first and second Stars were connected successfully. Mo Fan was able to use the powerful control of being Super Level to align the first two Stars along the Orbit without any practice.

However, the Star Orbit broke when he tried to connect the third Star, mainly because Mo Fan was still unfamiliar with the traits of the Earth Element.

“It didn’t work!” Mo Fan said after opening his eyes.

“Just try a few more times if it doesn’t work. You should control your bearing when you’re connecting the Stars. They are just a bunch of newborns in your Spiritual World, after all. You might be the ruler, but you should treat them gently, too. You must show them your authority without scaring them. If it’s the Earth Element, you should be gentler, calmer, and more patient. Don’t rush it, just make sure it doesn’t break,” Guo Liyu advised Mo Fan.

Mo Fan nodded. He followed Guo Liyu’s instructions and began controlling the Stars of the Earth Element once again.

Patient, calm, he must let the Stars know that he was in charge of the Spiritual World, yet he could not let them be afraid of him!

Mo Fan had always treated his Stars as little creatures of his Spiritual World. They had their own character and emotions, but many Mages forced the Stars to become their slaves, just so they could control their magic better.

It was unwise to treat your Stars cruelly. Furthermore, Stars of different Elements had different characters. Mo Fan altered the way he was treating the Stars of the Earth Element a little bit, and soon noticed they were a lot more obedient.

One... two... three... four... seven... all connected in a Star Orbit!

The Star Orbit of the Earth Element was quite simple. When the Stars were Aligned, a golden-brown line went through the Stars and turned into a bright glow at the final Star’s position.

The light continued to grow stronger as Mo Fan’s eyes sprang open. His eyes suddenly turned golden-brown, too!

“Rock Fangs!” Mo Fan blurted out words that suddenly crossed his mind.

Mo Fan locked his gaze onto the stands displaying the Awakening Stones. He swung his hand up with great force!

A golden-brown light flickered close to Mo Fan’s palm. A strange movement began to appear close to the stands. A moment later, rocks like the huge fangs of a wild beast sprang up and went through the stand!

The Rock Fang almost reached the ceiling, which was more than five meters tall. Guo Liyu jumped into the air upon seeing it. He had an urge to choke Mo Fan to death! “My stands!” he yelled.

1

Mo Fan saw the Rock Fang reaching up still, but decided to put a stop to it considering he was about to break the ceiling of the biggest Magic Association in the country!

“You asked me to test it!” Mo Fan exclaimed, displaying no guilt.

“Is there something wrong with you? Most people only cast an Earth Wave as the Basic Spell! Can’t you just stand still and cast a few Earth Waves while moving back and forth? Why did you Summon that thing!? Are you purposely destroying my furniture!?” Guo Liyu said angrily.

“I don’t like the usual way people use the Earth Element. I noticed the Stars were coordinating with me when I tried to alter its form, so I decided to turn it into an offensive spell. I didn’t expect it to work on the first attempt! Look at my Rock Fang! Isn’t it impressive? I bet it can kill a Servant-class creature instantly if they don’t dodge it in time!” Mo Fan said proudly, ignoring Guo Liyu’s protests.

Earth Wave?

Mo Fan felt the usual Earth Wave was not very useful to him. Since his control over the Earth Element was so much stronger than a low-level Mage, he could alter the form of the spells by mastering certain tricks behind them!

It was impossible for a low-level Mage to do that, mainly because their control over their magic was not strong enough, and they were still unfamiliar with the traits of their Elements. It was already impressive for a low-level Mage to cast a normal Earth Wave perfectly. There was no way a low-level Mage could cast the Basic Spell on their second attempt after Awakening a new Element, let alone alter the form of their spells!

“Something isn’t right! My stands are built with Iron Brass Wood. Even if you’ve modified the spell, your Rock Fang should be the one breaking into pieces, since you’ve just Awakened the Earth Element. Your golden-brown rock is pretty tough!” Guo Liyu quickly went closer to the pieces of his display stand after a sudden thought crossed his mind.

Mo Fan shared the same doubts. His golden-brown rock was like a steel drill compared to the spells of other Basic and Intermediate Earth Mages. It had destroyed the display stand, which was as sturdy as metal, with ease!

“Could it be an Innate Soul Seed? No, no, you already have an Innate Talent...” Guo Liyu fell into deeper thought.

Innate Soul Seeds were a very impressive Innate Talent; Mu Ningxue was a perfect example. With the right practice, they would be much stronger than Mages with the same Element of the same level!

Normally, if the new Element Awakened did not have its usual color, it was most likely a sign that the person had an Innate Soul Seed. But Mo Fan already had an Innate Talent, so that was no longer a possibility.

“I feel like it’s more of an additional effect,” Mo Fan spoke up.

“Additional effect? You mean like the additional effects some high-level Soul-grade Seeds have?” Guo Liyu asked sharply.

Mo Fan nodded.

It was not a Soul-grade Earth Seed, Mo Fan was confident of that. It felt more like the special ability, the Lightning Tyrant Scars, that the Soul Seed Lightning Tyrant had granted him!

Chapter 1749: The Eighth Element

“What did I say? I told you I’m the best when it comes to Awakening new Elements. Even though you didn’t Awaken the Light Element you wanted, your Earth Element turns out to have an additional effect at the Super Level. Normally, you would have to spend more than ten times the price I offered if you did this somewhere else!” Guo Liyu proclaimed smugly.

The additional effect granted to a new Element had a very low chance of happening while a Mage was Awakening new Elements after reaching the Super Level. It normally depended on the Mage’s cultivation. The more impressive their cultivation, the higher the odds of having additional effects. Similar to using Guiding Stones, it was possible to increase the odds by using certain special substances during the Awakening process. Mo Fan had read some information on it all before.

However, the odds of having additional effects were higher when the Mage was not Awakening the new Element with the help of Guiding Stones. Besides, the more Stars the Mage enhanced, the higher the chance that the new Element would have additional effects!

Mo Fan had read many different opinions on how to acquire additional effects, but he had not expected his Earth Element to be so lucky!

An Enhanced Earth Element was definitely a lot better than the Light Element he had hoped for. Almost ninety-five percent of the Mages in society used their abilities the same way, following the same standard methods of casting their spells, more or less products of the same template. Only those with outstanding control and creativity could manipulate their spells as they pleased. Therefore, things like Innate Talents and Soul Seeds became very important for making a person stand out from others!

This additional effect was like having an extra Innate Talent. It would obviously grant him a great advantage in fights!

A strange glow suddenly lit up in his mind while he was filled with such great joy.

How could he not know what it was after being through the same process for the fourth time?

It was the Awakening of his second new Element!

His second new Element would appear shortly after the first new Element was Awakened. Mo Fan was looking forward to seeing what his eighth Element was after Awakening the Earth Element!

“Strange, where did it go?”

Mo Fan searched in his Spiritual World, but failed to locate his eighth Element.

He had definitely seen the light which indicated the birth of his eighth Element, but now he was having trouble finding the new Stardust. Did the Awakening fail?

He had never heard of anyone above the Basic Level failing an Awakening!

Mo Fan was puzzled. He was about to leave the Spiritual World when he suddenly noticed something glittering in a dark corner.

If the Spiritual World was like a dimly-lit swamp, Mo Fan was now staring at a little whirlpool in the swamp. It was spinning very slowly, and was easy to miss it without looking at it closely!

“So this is where the new Element is? Why do I feel like it has merged into the background? What Element is this? Why is it so vague and mysterious?” Mo Fan was both confused and excited.

Was it the Curse Element, or a Dark Element?

Mo Fan had a feeling that the Element was of the Dark Magic, but it did not seem like the Poison Element, since it resembled the Curse Element more.

He directed his will closer to his eighth Element to communicate with it.

“It’s not the Curse Element!” Mo Fan concluded the moment he made contact with the Stars!

The Stars were colorless, or to be more precise, they were changing colors according to their surroundings. When they were surrounded by void, they were empty, too. However, if he moved them closer to the other Elements, they soon acquired the same color!

“Chaos, it’s the Chaos Element!”

3

Mo Fan was absolutely dumbfounded!

He actually had one Element that he hoped to Awaken the most. It was the most mysterious Element among the Dimensional Magicks, the Chaos Element!

He had first seen how ridiculous the Chaos Element was during the World College Tournament. Zorro’s unmatched Chaos Element allowed him to take on an entire team by himself. If he had not outsmarted Zorro back then, it was hard to tell who would have been the winner in the end!

He then used Heidi’s Chaos Element to stack up his Lightning and amplify its damage in the Pyramid, all in order to defeat a Ruler-level creature that was a lot stronger than them. Ever since then, he had been thinking about how having the Chaos Element would greatly increase his strength. He might be able to defeat certain creatures that were stronger than him!

To his amazement, he had managed to Awaken the Chaos Element as his eighth Element. It would further help him pursue the path of being a violent Mage!

—

Guo Liyu smacked himself on the head when he saw Mo Fan closing his eyes again. “I almost forgot that this kid can Awaken two Elements at every level. Seriously, how is such an insane Innate Talent even a thing!?”

Mo Fan opened his eyes. His pupils reflected the lights nearby before slowly reclaiming their usual color.

“How was it? What Element did you Awaken?” Guo Liyu quickly asked. It was naturally his first time dealing with a customer who was able to Awaken two Elements at once. He seemed even more excited than Mo Fan!

“The Chaos Element,” Mo Fan smiled.

“Oh, that’s a very difficult Element to master!” Guo Liyu exclaimed.

“It’s fine, I already have two Dimensional Magicks. I will practice the Chaos Element until it’s strong enough to handle fights alone, no matter how difficult it is!” Mo Fan swore.

“The Chaos Element is indeed a very powerful Element, but it’s more useful when it’s combined with other Elements. For example, you can play your enemy like a fiddle if you use it with the Shadow Element,” Guo Liyu advised him.

“Shadow Element? I have that, too!” Mo Fan raised his brows.

“Damn it, I totally forgot you are full of Elements! That’s great, the combination of Shadow Element and Chaos Element is pretty insane!” Guo Liyu told him.

Mo Fan’s lips curled upward. He believed the combination of his Chaos Element and Lightning Element was even more unstoppable...

Speaking of which, he remembered stumbling into someone who had both the Shadow Element and the Chaos Element... Bei Jiang!

Didn’t the assassin from the Assassin Palace have both Shadow and Chaos Elements? Mo Fan had even claimed the Darkness Contract from him!

If he had the Chaos Element, wouldn’t his shadow clones be even more unpredictable, allowing him to assassinate his enemy in numerous ways!?

“That’s great, the Chaos Element is the most ideal Element for a Mage with so many Elements like you. Not only is it useful on its own, you can combine it with other Elements in many ways!” Guo Liyu nattered on.

“You are really my lucky star. I always have surprises when I Awaken new Elements here,” Mo Fan said.

The Earth Element with an additional effect! The Chaos Element that could be used simultaneously with other spells!

Mo Fan was very satisfied with his two new Elements!

Lightning, Fire, Shadow, Summoning, Space, Demon, Earth, and Chaos... once he perfected all these Elements, he would truly be unbeatable!

Chapter 1750: A Duel Between Earth Elements

Mo Fan left the Awakening Room. However, he did not bother paying double the fee, as Guo Liyu had babbled about.

Mui Nujiao was waiting patiently outside. She rose to her feet as soon as she saw Mo Fan. She asked with great anticipation, "How was it? What Elements did you Awaken?"

"Earth and Chaos, not bad!" Mo Fan answered happily.

Mui Nujiao was quite happy for Mo Fan, yet when she heard the Elements he had Awakened, she twisted her lips with a gloomy expression, "Those Elements are just not bad for you? I would be dancing around in joy if I were you!"

"Why don't you perform an erotic dance for me to celebrate it?" Mo Fan replied immediately.

"I don't know how!"

"You can learn, the kind that involves slowly taking off your clothes as you dance... ugh, I'm just kidding," Mo Fan stopped talking when he noticed the look in her eyes.

Mo Fan paid the fee. He was about to leave when he suddenly recalled something.

"By the way, I have a little servant girl. Can you help with her Awakening, too?" Mo Fan asked.

"What level is she?" Guo Liyu asked.

"She has never done the Awakening," Mo Fan admitted.

"Oh, I'll do it for free, then. Bring her here. Xiao Mian, I'll leave it to you," Guo Liyu casually assigned his disciple to do the job.

Mo Fan found a remote corner and Summoned Apas.

Apas had sleepy eyes when she showed up in front of Mo Fan. She said unwillingly, "What now? I was sleeping!"

"Didn't you want to learn magic? I've arranged someone to help you with your Awakening," Mo Fan told her firmly.

"For real?" Apas' eyes widened immediately, glittering with anticipation.

"Why would I lie to you? Let's go!"

Apas was extremely happy. Right now, she would not even care if Mo Fan had Summoned her in the men's washroom. She quickly followed behind Mo Fan, as if she was worried that he would regret his decision.

—

Mo Fan brought Apas into the Awakening Room. Mui Nujiao was rather confused. How did Mo Fan bring her here so quickly? Not to mention she was a little beauty...

"Go with her. Xiao Mian, she doesn't know much, so please explain the process thoroughly to her," Mo Fan said loftily.

“Sure thing. Come with me.”

Xiao Mian brought Apas into the Awakening Room, while Mo Fan and Mui Nujiao waited outside. Mui Nujiao was looking at Mo Fan with a weird expression. She was obviously wondering about the relationship between Mo Fan and Apas.

“I was wondering why you were away for so long. It seems like you were having fun with such a little beauty in other countries,” Mui Nujiao grumbled.

“Why does everyone say the same thing? Do I really look like that kind of a guy?” Mo Fan protested.

“Perhaps!” Mui Nujiao giggled.

Xiao Mian brought Apas out from the room while they were talking. Her Awakening did not take long.

“How was it?” Mo Fan asked.

“Not bad, she has Awakened the Plant Element, but her Plant Element is a little... Anyway, it’s the Plant Element!” Xiao Mian informed them.

Apas’ face was full of joy. She had not really thought she could learn magic, and she was quite fond of the Plant Element, too!

“Oh, Jiaojiao, aren’t you an expert of the Plant Element? Why don’t you teach her the basics?” Mo Fan asked on a whim.

“Sure, I’m more or less a teacher too,” Mui Nujiao agreed.

—

By the time they got back to the apartment, Apas managed to melt Mui Nujiao’s heart by constantly calling her sister. She ended up teaching Apas the basics of the Plant Element overnight.

Apas was truly interested in magic. Mui Nujiao decided to bring her to the Pearl Institute’s training grounds to teach her some practical skills.

Mo Fan found himself a training ground to practice his magic, too.

The Chaos Element was indeed a lot harder to control than other Elements. Mo Fan had managed to complete the Star Orbit of the Basic Earth Spell after just two attempts, but he did not make any progress in trying to control the Stars of the Chaos Element for an entire day.

That being said, Mo Fan was not in a rush. He already knew it would take him some time to familiarize himself with the Stars of the Chaos Element. He still needed to practice his Earth Element, and his boosted Lightning Element, too!

His Lightning Element now had twenty-four hundred and one Stars, which had to combine into a magnificent Star Palace. It was a huge project! Luckily, Little Loach had advanced to the next level too, so Mo Fan’s cultivation speed and rate of gaining control over the Stars had multiplied once again. Without Little Loach, he seriously wondered how long it would take for him to control all twenty-four hundred and one Stars.

“Hey, you there, are you interested in a friendly duel?” a voice interrupted Mo Fan’s thoughts.

Mo Fan was currently in a public training area. The place was quite spacious. A few students of the Pearl Institute were practicing their Elemental Magic not far away.

Mo Fan initially thought the person was talking to someone else, so he simply ignored them. However, he realized the person was actually talking to him when he saw a young man with greasy hair approaching him.

“You’re challenging me to a duel?” Mo Fan pointed at himself.

“Is there anybody else here? Yes or no, just say it, stop being a little bch!” the student said impatiently.

“What are the rules?” Mo Fan asked.

“Just a normal duel with our spells. Don’t tell me you have no idea what the rules are, you don’t look like a new student to me!” the student harrumphed.

“I know the rules. Bring it on, then! I would like to try my new Element out too,” Mo Fan nodded.

It was boring and ineffective for him to practice his spells on some dummies. He was glad that someone had volunteered to be his moving punching bag!

“New Element? So you’re an Intermediate Mage... I don’t want to be a bully, either. I’m Zeng Tong from the Fire School. What’s your name? Which school are you in?” Zeng Tong said.

“I...I’m Fan Mo from the Earth School, nice to meet you!” Mo Fan smiled. The sand under his feet began to shake.

The student noticed Mo Fan preparing for the duel. He glanced at the slow-moving sand and said with a disdainful grin, “It seems like you have been slacking a lot. Your Earth Element isn’t that impressive.”

“I only learned it recently,” Mo Fan agreed shamelessly.

“Very well, I shall show you the true strength of the Earth Element, then!” Zeng Tong felt extremely confident, and stomped the ground with his right foot. The sand immediately became restless, and overwhelmed the Earth Wave that Mo Fan was controlling!

Zeng Tong’s primary Element was Fire, his secondary Element was Earth. Mo Fan’s Earth Element was simply too slow and gentle compared to Zeng Tong’s Earth Element. Mo Fan was indeed just a beginner!