Chapter 2741: Stop It, Little Loach

The noise certainly sounded hungry. The holy spring essence from the Underground Holy Spring surged, transforming into a thick vortex and flowed into Little Loach's mouth.

"Little Loach, stop it!" Mo Fan cried out in shock.

Unfortunately, his cries were of no use. Of course, Little Loach was a gloat and would want to suck the essence. But what surprised Mo Fan the most was that the holy spring essence willingly flowed into Little Loach's mouth as it had been waiting for it all this time.

While Little Loach waited to devour the essences, the holy spring seemed like it wanted to be devoured. So, nobody could stop it from happening.

Little Loach consumed the holy spring essence. This was a sign of a growing soul cultivation magical equipment. Little Loach must have confirmed the place to be safe and before sucking the spring water with eagerness!

Little Loach was definitely more decisive than Mo Fan. It decided to take the things it found beneficial regardless of external factors.

It would then rely on its endless pit of a stomach to digest the food. If Little Loach had not taken the initiative to suck the holy spring essence, things might have gone wrong sooner or later.

The anchor-tailed sea lion's eyes almost popped out when it saw this.

The anchor-tailed sea lion had sneaked into the Underground Holy Spring to suck only a few mouthfuls of the holy spring essence every now and then. It acted very carefully for fear of being discovered by the demons from Licheng Afterglow Island. It had never even once thought of drinking the holy spring essence in a single gulp.

But the human it saw gulped the holy spring essence as soon as he arrived at the Underground Holy Spring, as if he did not intend to leave a single drop for the people on this island!

The anchor-tailed sea lion was sad. If it had known that the holy spring essence was going to get devoured like this, it would have drunk a little more of it.

The anchor-tailed sea lion drooled yet it dared not act recklessly. It had recently regrown its head, it did not want its head to be smashed again, especially after it had witnessed Little Flame Belle's power. It realized that Mo Fan might even be stronger than Little Flame belle. He did not dare to go against him.

As for Ruan Feiyan, her eyes were wide open in shock. If she was a demon, she would have lunged at Mo Fan and killed him. The sacred pool meant everything to Licheng Afterglow Island! This wicked man had sucked the holy spring essence dry, Ruan Feiyan felt like she would go insane. Anyone from Licheng Afterglow Island would go insane if they saw this!

Mo Fan sighed. "To be honest, I..."

Ruan Feiyan had passed out. But she remained upright. Mo Fan had tied her very tight. She looked as though her soul had been sucked away. "You can't blame me. If you had only fulfilled your contract, I might have stopped Little Loach from doing something like this."

Even though Little Loach was only the size of a pendant, it was no different from any ordinary creature. After gulping the holy spring essence, its abdomen bulged. It had transformed into a round ball-shaped pendant from a slim and curvy ring. It had become so round that Mo Fan could hardly recognize it.

Little Loach had no intention of leaving even a drop behind. It was like Mo Fan who spared no one when he fought his enemies.

Little Loach burped. Mo Fan was already used to it. He sat down and began to cultivate. He was only a step away from achieving third grade for his Lightning Element. Whenever Little Loach absorbed spiritual treasures, it would provide Mo Fan with immense power, allowing him to break through solid barriers.

Mo Fan had a total of eight elements. He had to depend on Little Loach to reach the peak of magic.

Mo Fan was excited. But he was also solemn as he abrobed himself in his star sea world. The star sea world had transformed into a vast and dazzling world of star signs. The stars flashed and illuminated everything.

However, it was clear that the 2401 star sons refused to be let alone in such a narrow space. They were eager to explore a wider and mysterious world. They were filled with a desire to explore, like humans when they first learned of civilization. The pitch-black and empty zones were illuminated by the star sons' bright light.

Little Loach transported a cloud of stardust energy mist. The stardust energy mist enabled the star sons to break through the barrier and were fired to the unknown zones.

The stars kept flashing, and the star sea continued to expand. The previously dark and cold zones had been absorbed into the purple star kingdom. Even though the distance between the star sons were far, they were closely connected to one another. A gorgeous purple light flashed and rotated among the 2401 star sons. A magnificent star palace loomed above the star seas.

Mo Fan had achieved Super Level third grade!

Mo Fan had assumed that he had a lot to do before he was able to achieve peak cultivation. He had not expected to achieve peak realm in his lightning element without even realizing it.

According to international standards, they achieved their cultivation once they achieved third grade, except for forbidden curse which was impossible to improve further.

A forbidden mage had to abide by international conventions. They must not interfere in secular fights. Even after they cast a forbidden curse, they had to write a divine sentiment to the Magic Association.

The forbidden curse was beyond ordinary magic cultivation. Commander Hua had once said that the forbidden curse was against the nature of all laws.

Anyhow, Mo Fan had achieved the peak in one of his elements. He didn't have anyone to fear now. Anyone who did not address him with the respect he deserved would be sent flying.

Mo Fan opened his eyes and relaxed. He looked at Little Loach. It never used to look full no matter what it devoured. Even when it swallowed spiritual treasures, it would wriggle and squirm as though it was still dissatisfied. But now, it was quiet. It looked comfortable and content and slept soundly on Mo Fan's chest.

Mo Fan, seeing it so full and satisfied, smiled to himself. It looked like Little Loach was about to advance to the next level once again. He wondered which realm it would achieve next. He also wondered if he would no longer require any auxiliary means for his awakened element.

Without the barriers, Mo Fan's cultivation was like a convergence of streams and rivers. The water flowed vigorously. It would not stop and dry up. Instead, it would continue to accumulate and transform into a big river that gushed out into the sea.

Once Little Loach digested all the energy it had devoured, Mo Fan's Chaos and Earth elements would surge up with the rest of the elements. It was only a matter of time before all his eight elements were completed, or at their peaks. By then, everyone, including the beasts would be intimidated by his aura!

Chapter 2742: Exposing One's Malicious Intention

"Ahhh!" Ruan Feiyan awoke screaming. She was drenched in sweat. It felt like she had had a nightmare.

When she saw Mo Fan and the pool that was now dried up, she wished she was back in her nightmare.

And Ruan Feiyan almost passed out again.

"Given that you've provided me with the information about the precious Underground Holy Spring, I'll be quick when executing you, lest you suffer," said Mo fan calmly.

Ruan Feiyan could not breathe. She fainted once more. She became slack but remained upright bound by Mo Fan's thorns of shadows.

Mo Fan sighed. "She had such a low level of resilience."

People should frequently venture out and fight through setbacks to toughen themselves. Otherwise, they would end up like Ruan Faiyan, who fainted so easily at minor inconveniences.

Ruan Feiyan had wanted to stall Mo Fan for at least a time until she could alert the others. She had wanted to charm him and slow him down. But Mo Fan had dried up the pool at once.

"Let's go. We've had enough of the holy spring essence. It's time to settle accounts with the people on this island." Mo Fan patted his chest as he walked out of the big stone door.

Mo Fan had taken away the most precious thing on the island. There was no need to continue to stay. As for Ruan Feiyan, she was going to go crazy. He left her in the Underground Holy Spring to fend for herself.

As soon as he stepped out of the door, the guard outside had changed shifts. The previous lady with a silvery voice was replaced by a man in a diagonally buttoned brocade coat.

The stone door closed, and the man had no idea that Ruan Feiyan was still inside.

“W-Who are you? Where did you come from? You can’t come here without permission. Aren’t you afraid of being punished by the grannies?” The man in the brocade coat questioned Mo Fan.

The man was more surprised than angry. Outsiders did not pay a visit to Lichen Afterglow Island. As a result, people were very laid back. People would only grow weaker if they continued to stay within their comfort zone!

Mo Fan recognized him to be the same man who had previously invited his female junior to stroll on the streets or to “work out” with him. Mo Fan raised his eyebrow and looked at the man.

“How long have you been “strolling on the street” with your junior?” Mo Fan asked.

It had taken Mo Fan thirty minutes since he had entered the Underground Holy Spring, sucked the spring dry, imprisoned Ruan Feiyan, cultivated a breakthrough through the barrier and achieved third grade in his Lightning Element.

“Half an hour... Who exactly are you? Why are you here? I’ve never seen you before. Are you new here? Or...” The man in the brocade coat finally sensed something was wrong. It certainly took him a while to realize that Mo Fan was an intruder.

“You appear just in time. You will lead me to those who rule this island,” Mo Fan said.

“Who do you think you are?!” The man in the brocade coat shouted angrily!

Dong! Dong! Dong!

The stone door behind them opened. Ruan Feiyan staggered out supporting herself on the wall. She looked pale and exhausted.

When the man in the brocade coat saw Ruan Feiyan in that state, he was enraged. She was his goddess!

“Scum! You scum! I’m going to slaughter you!” The man in the brocade coat then came up with a wind element star constellation.

The man in the brocade coat cast an advance-level wind element magic—Wind Wings. Countless silver-bladed wings-like wind appeared behind his back. He then pointed them at Mo Fan, and the silver blades flew forwards.

Mo Fan took a step and vanished, leaving a film of bright diamond star dust on the ground. He then appeared behind the man and patted his shoulder. Lightning flashed through the man’s body as though tiny electrified snakes were crawling over his body. The man in the brocade coat twitched violently, foaming at his mouth.

“Y-You... I’m going to kill you! I’m going to kill you!” Ruan Feiyan was furious. Her scarf and conical hat come off. She charged at Mo Fan with hair flying.

“It’s best if you show me the way. After all, I’m not close to this guy. By the way, do you know him? I saw him sleeping with your junior who previously cultivated at the Underground Holy Spring. I suppose they only spent about five minutes or so...” Mo Fan said to Ruan Feiyan.

Ruan Feiyan was no match for Mo Fan. Mo Fan played tricks on her using his Chaos element, and she nearly went insane. He insulted her verbally to provoke her even more. The paralyzed man on the ground was now spitting blood.

“Don’t ever think that you can leave Licheng Afterglow Island in one piece! You have no idea how powerful our grannies are. You are an idiotic invader! You’ll be torn to shreds! Grannies will tear your stomach open and redeem the holy spring essence!” Ruan Feiyan screamed at him.

“To my ancestors, please forgive me for running into such a filthy and despicable man. Never, ever spare him, even if he dies!” Ruan Feiyan cursed him.

Mo Fan scratched his ears. He sighed. Even her curses were weak and annoying.

“Obtaining the holy spring essence is just the first step, and you’re already hysterical. What will you do when I defeat your grannies, destroy the ancient statues and sink your island?”

Ruan Feiyan fainted again. Mo Fan sighed. ‘I spit out my first sentence and you are already on the ground...’

1

After leaving the Licheng Afterglow Island spiritual realm, Mo Fan took to the streets. Meanwhile, Ruan Feiyan awoke once again as a soft breeze blew on her.

A sweet-looking young woman was walking the street eating her tanghulu happily. The moment she noticed the man walking in front of her, the tanghulu tasted repulsive.

Chapter 2743: Taking Instead of Robbing

“Hi cutie, we meet again,” said Mo Fan as he placed Ruan Feiyan’s weak form on the street in front of Shu Xiaohua. “Look, your Big Sister Ruan fainted. Could you help her out?”

Shu Xiaohua spit out her tanghulu, looking disgusted at Mo Fan.

“Be good and show me the way. I would like to meet up with your grannies. After all, you’re nothing to me. I don’t want to waste my time killing you in my wasted fit of anger.” The corners of Mo Fan’s mouth curled up into an annoying smile.

Shu Xiaohua was a scheming and cunning woman. But she wasn’t stupid. She knew she was no match for Mo Fan. She did what Mo Fan told her to. She led him to Granny’s Mountain villa.

“I used to enjoy devouring b*tches like you.” Unbeknownst to them, Apas had sneaked out from her Contracted Space. She glared at Shu Xiaohua.

Apas was Medusa, and most Medusas were of demonic bloodline. They ate young ladies to maintain their youthfulness. When Mo Fan first saw her at the ruins, some corpses and bones were scattered around the pitiful Apas.

Apas herself had half human bloodline so she did not consume young women, but she did not stop her handmaiden, who was also a Medusa, from having her fill.

Shu Xiaohua was definitely the handmaiden's cup of tea. Those who were b*tchy, fragrant and wicked but pretended to be naïve and sweet tasted delicious.

"Hiss! Hiss!" Apas flicked her tongue out, revealing her fangs and forked tongue. She bared her fangs as she sized Shu Xiaohua up.

1

Shu Xiaohua had assumed Apas was just an ordinary woman. She was shocked and scared to see that Apas was actually a snake-haired creature. Shu Xiaohua feared snakes. She had been plotting how to drive Mo Fan to death, but when Apas appeared, her mind went blank.

"Are you aware that Medusas are a type of marrow-sucking snakes? Our fangs are like syringes. We can suck a creature's blood, fats, and bone marrows without hurting their skins. It's similar to you humans drinking coconut water. Once you finish the coconut water, you coat the outer layer with antiseptic herbs and hang it inside the wardrobe, don't you? Likewise, my older sister loves to do that. She has endless young lady skins to change throughout the year," Apas whispered in Shu Xiaohua's ear.

Shu Xiaohua seldom ventured outside. So, she did not have the slightest knowledge about skinning. But listening to Apas made it seem too painful and real that she almost fainted.

Mo Fan was very satisfied with Apas's intervention.

In the past, Apas used to do this to scare Lingling. However, Shu Xiaohua wasn't as intelligent and experienced as Lingling. Lingling wasn't unaware of morbid and bizarre things. Lingling had read many books on ancient curses and rituals. Whenever Apas used to whisper something gory to Lingling, she would turn right back and narrate something macabre at Apas without flinching.

...

Mo Fan threatened the two ladies and headed towards Licheng Afterglow Mountain villa. He saw some men and women in strange clothes along the way. He did not care. Mo Fan ignored them if they did not ask for trouble.

"Have you heard of the Underground Holy Spring?" Mo Fan asked.

Shu Xiaohua lowered her head. Her face darkened. She remained silent.

Mo Fan chuckled. He then signaled Apas to apply soul-searching technique. Apas's snake pupils flashed. Shu Xiaohua became petrified and stood frozen in her place.

"Suit yourself," Apas said bewitchingly while tidying her elegant long hair.

Mo Fan asked Shu Xiaohua about the island. It turned out that she understood Licheng Afterglow Island's past quite well.

A hundred years ago, there were two famous hidden clans in Licheng City who had inherited powerful ancient magic. They were called Afterglow Island and Mingwu Ancient City. Those who came from the two greatest hidden clans were basically dragons among men.

However, the hidden clan from Afterglow Island had offended the ruler of that time. As a result, the ruler lured out the people from Afterglow Island and killed all of them, leaving not even a single soul behind. Since then, no one knew how to find the ruins of the Afterglow Island.

In order to stay out of trouble, people from Mingwu Ancient City began to recruit outsiders, transforming Mingwu Ancient City into a normal city in Licheng City instead of a place purely for hidden clans.

After the ruler died, the foreign population had assimilated with the people from Mingwu Ancient City. The minority hidden clan in Mingwu Ancient City refused to let the two greatest hidden clans from their past to just disappear. They decided to look for Afterglow Island and get out of the Mingwu Ancient City.

They were aware that Afterglow Island contained the Underground Holy Spring. If they managed to discover that blessed land, they could revive the glory of the two hidden clans.

The ancient statues had the most value in Mingwu Ancient City. Moving the statues to the secretive Afterglow Island was tantamount to combining the two greatest hidden clans. By doing so, they could protect themselves in the middle of chaos while nurturing experts!

They soon discovered the Underground Holy Spring at the Afterglow Island. The hidden clan from Mingwu Ancient City migrated to the Afterglow Island. They carried the most important ancient statue away from Mingwu Ancient City when they went to settle down on the island.

Little did they expect that carrying the ancient statue would lead to an immense lightning disaster. The lightning storm struck Licheng City rampantly, causing the people in Licheng City to suffer tremendously.

They were afraid that the destructive disaster would befall them once more. Hence, they shifted all the blame to the totem, and wiped them all out before escaping to the Afterglow Island.

An enormous ancient statue from Mingwu Ancient City alone was sufficient to ensure their safety at Afterglow Island, after all. They lived there for many years and did not bother with the other statues in the Mingwu Ancient City for others

However, when they noticed a rise of sea levels and an increasing number of ferocious and powerful Ocean Godly Horde and Hunter Dirty Demons lurking near the Afterglow Island, they knew that the powerful Ocean Demons had laid their eyes on the land.

In order to gain wider protection, they decided to take the remaining ancient statues from Mingwu Ancient City back to Licheng Afterglow Island. By doing so, they could ensure their safety regardless of how long the war with the demons lasted.

‘So, it looks like the two hidden clans are connected to the Weiju clan from Ancient Capital. The descendants of the Ancient King are scattered in many places, keeping an eye on an ancient holy relic. But most of them have assimilated with other commoners. No one knows who owns the ancient holy relics. The sacred Underground Holy Spring is considered to be in good hands at Licheng Afterglow Island.’ Mo Fan now understood the entire story.

Well, he was at least half of the Ancient King’s disciples, so he had not actually robbed the holy spring essence.

Chapter 2744: Living Under the Rock

“H—How did you find us here?” stammered Du Mei, as she pointed at Mo Fan. “Big Sister Ruan! Shu Xiaohua!” she exclaimed.

There was a long green bamboo road that went to the mountain villa. It snaked and twisted and led all the way up. Many men and women carrying bamboo baskets were walking along it. Some went up while others were descending. Most looked numb.

Du Mei walked with a tall and handsome man. They had been talking happily like a couple in love.

“Who is he?” The tall and handsome man frowned.

At Licheng Afterglow Island, men and women had a pretty straightforward relationship. When they encountered their lover’s rival, they beat them up without hesitation. Only the strongest had the right to stay with their significant other.

Unlike those foreign guys that ended up marrying ladies from Licheng Afterglow Island, Du Wanjun was an authentic descendant from the hidden clan. He was one of the few powerful men among the female-dominated Licheng Afterglow Island.

Men from Licheng Afterglow Island were highly sought after. They were free to choose any woman they preferred in Licheng Afterglow Island. Du Wanjun had his eyes on Du Mei. This was because he was envious. She had told him of her adventure from outside the island. She had mentioned a certain Seven-star Hunter Master whose strength was as good as Du Wanjun. Du Wanjun felt his position was threatened and put in more effort to court Du Mei. He was about to succeed when...

“He’s the Seven-star Hunter Master that I told you about. He’s really great! But...” Du Mei was confused when she saw Ruan Feiyan and Shu Xiaohua.

‘So, Ruan Feiyan and Shu Xiao did not lie to him. They really brought him here,’ thought Du Mei.

Even though this was against the rules, Du Mei felt that it was the right thing to do. If they didn’t fulfill their promise, it made her feel guilty as part of the team.

“Eh, I heard Granny say that the outsiders’ strength is only average. It’s a chance hard to come by to have a visitor in Licheng Afterglow Island. I can’t wait to spar with you. None of the young men on the island are a match for me,” said Du Wanjun proudly.

“Wanjun, he’s truly very powerful. He can summon a ruler-level beast...” Du Mei was naive. She still had not figured out what Mo Fan was doing on the island.

Du Wanjun frowned. Was Du Mei stupid? Or did she have feelings for this man from outside the island? Was she aware how insensitive it was to praise an outsider before him?!

“Then I have all the more reason to get to know you!” Du Wanjun walked up to Mo Fan.

“So, is this your cousin?” Mo Fan asked Du Mei.

“Yes, he is. He’s the strongest man in Licheng Afterglow Island,” Du Mei said.

Du Mei sensed something was strange. Ruan Feiyan looked exhausted while Shu Xiaohua looked terrified. Du Mei was alarmed as she finally understood. "You barged into our island?!"

"We should frequently venture outside to see the world. Otherwise, we will end up living under the rock. Du Mei, there are plenty of men like him out there." Mo Fan ignored Du Mei. He continued towards Licheng Afterglow Island Mountain villa.

There was no need to be calculative with Du Mei. After all, Du Mei was not so cunning. She was the most gullible out of the group. Her expression revealed all of her thoughts.

"What do you mean? Stop!" Du Wanjun screamed at him.

Mo Fan ignored him and continued heading towards the mountain villa with Ruan Feiyan and Shu Xiaohua. Apas had applied the soul-searching technique on both. They were in a daze and walked beside Apas in a daze.

"Bastard! I said stop ! Didn't you hear what I said?!" Du Wanjun flew into a rage.

A silver glow appeared around Du Wanjun. He coalesced mercury particles in his hand. He took a step forward and fired. Strong breeze shook the bamboo trees on both sides of the road, causing even the hardest of bamboos to bend to the ground.

Du Wanjun held a Silver Sea Water long blade. When he swung his blade, the tip of the blade arched across the sky. He slashed at Mo Fan's back.

"Wanjun, don't...!" Du Mei shouted.

"This proud bastard is the one who started it!" Du Wanjun said angrily.

Mo Fan turned around, and his eyes sparkled with silver light. His pupils lit up, sparkling with special divine energy, as if declaring his sovereignty over everything around him!

Du Wanjun's Silver Sea Water long blade stopped in mid-air. It was only less than half a meter from Mo Fan's forehead. No matter how hard Du Wanjun tried, he could not slash at Mo Fan.

"Get lost!" Mo Fan shouted furiously.

The thick bamboo smashed onto the ground. It was a terrifying sight to behold.

Du Wanjun was sent flying backward, as if a running beast had run into his chest ruthlessly. He fell from the mountain side.

There were more than ten hectares of green bamboo and mountain pines along the mountainside. Du Wanjun crashed into them as he fell.

Du Wanjun spit out blood. His chest bones were shattered. He glared at the tiny black dot with wrathful eyes. He hated Mo Fan.

"W-Wanjun!" Du Mei was so shocked that she turned very pale. She rushed down the hill.

Bam!

Suddenly, lightning struck the Licheng Afterglow Island. It was a straight bolt of lightning that hit straight on the land.

A scorched, bottomless pit appeared. The lightning happened in a flash. It was so fast that the people had not even had the time to react. But when they came to their senses and saw the dim lightning still crackling, they were filled with terror.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

Dozens of identical lightning bolts rained down. appeared. The lightning bolts were like purple heavenly swords. Each lightning was as powerful as the first. Du Wanjun stayed paralyzed at the foot of the mountain, watching each of the fatal lightning bolts brush past him. Fear overcame him.

“Wanjun! Wanjun!” Du Mei rushed to him anxiously.

The lightning had been terrifying, like God’s condemnation. Luckily, none had struck Du Wanjun.

When Du Mei drew close to Du Wanjun, she smelled something strange. She saw that Du Wanjun’s crotch was wet and straw-yellow colored urine was gushing out on his thighs and knees.

Chapter 2745: I’ve Besieged Licheng Afterglow Island

“Space element, Lightning element. He once mentioned that the Summoning Element wasn’t his strongest power yet. But the hunter’s information from the hall has stated that he was still a Super Level novice! How could this be....” Du Mei stared at Mo Fan in awe and fear as he disappeared into the grove again.

Right then, Shu Xiaohua and Ruan Feiyan awoke from their state, and they saw Mo Fan walking towards the mountain villa.

The Licheng Afterglow Island Mountain villa was situated at the highest point of the island. Seven grannies and two grandpas lived in the villa. The nine of them were powerful elders from the hidden clan. Each of them was of unfathomable strength.

Their biggest advantage compared to the younger generation was they had absorbed the holy spring essence for at least one or two decades. The people on the island could focus their cultivation without worrying about being disturbed. If they trained their talented young people in this way, they could nurture forbidden mages!

There were lychee trees in front of the mountain villa. The yellow lychee gave out a rich fragrance, adding a tinge of gracefulness and beauty to the light-peach colored mountain villa.

“Someone down the hill has applied a Lightning element magical power. Could that bitch have returned?! Hmph! How dare she come back to cause a fuss?! We’ve gone through great lengths to nurture her to become the greatest mage in Licheng Afterglow Island. We expected her to become a forbidden mage soon and lead us to redeem hidden clan’s glory once again. She betrayed us! Damn that girl! Did she truly think that she is invincible?! We will show her mercy no more. We will kill her and offer her as a tribute to our ancestors!” The woman, dressed all in dark green, shouted furiously.

“We should not have told Song Feiyao about the Green East Sea God,” said a short-sleeved old man smoking a cigarette.

“Who told her? Damn it! If only she focused her cultivation in the sacred pool, a talented lady like her would have become a forbidden mage soon. How can she wipe away our years of effort in nurturing her because of something that was long forgotten? Are we going to stay here for generations and allow the outsiders to mistreat us?!” said the woman, in dark green, angrily.

The elders of Licheng Afterglow Island had placed such high hopes on Song Feiyao. Even though Le Nan was talented and worked very hard just like Song Feiyao, Le Nan was too young. She would have to train for at least seven or eight years before she could become an expert and take on the responsibility on her own.

Ocean Demons and other demons had already laid their eyes on the people of Licheng Afterglow Island like hungry wolves. Even the ancient statues would not ensure the island’s complete safety. At the end of the day, the island’s fate would still depend on the experts. Having a forbidden mage and not having one made a significant difference!

“Granny! Granny! Something bad happened!” Le Nan rushed over to them anxiously.

“Why are you so panicked? Nothing can be worse than the b*tchy Song Feiyao coming home! Did she seriously think that she has the right to go against us after training for only two years outside?! She’s all by herself now!” Seventh Granny said

“It’s not her, it’s an outsider. I don’t know how he discovered Licheng Afterglow Island. He’s holding Shu Xiaohua and Ruan Feiyan hostage to settle an account with us!” Le Nan said.

“Hmph! Nonsense! We’ve never done anything to him. How dare he come to make a fuss on this island?! Does he really think he can simply invade our island?!” Seventh Granny stormed.

“Is he alone or are there other outsiders with him?” asked the old man with cigarettes.

“He came alone!”

“There’s nothing to fear, then.”

Seventh Granny walked outside. When she reached the lychee orchard, she saw Mo Fan standing on the long cobblestone path. A group of young people besieged him, but none of them dared to lay their hands on him.

“You’re the first in decades to come to the island to ask for trouble! I hope you have other requests other than asking for a death wish!” said Seventh Granny, pointing at Mo Fan.

“I’m not really in a hurry though. I’ll give you a day to enjoy all you want. By dusk tomorrow, the Licheng Afterglow Island will disappear from this world.” Mo Fan scratched his ear.

Mo Fan spoke with such confidence that the crowd around him cursed him.

“Let go of Ruan Feiyan and Shu Xiaohua. If you lose, I’ll at the very least spare your life. Then, I’ll cut your limbs, hang you as a punching bag in front of the courtyard. I’ll let go of you after a year of beating,” Seventh Granny said ruthlessly.

Mo Fan studied her carefully. He realized that Seventh Granny was the same woman he had seen in his vision. She had tried to seduce the young fisherman. She looked so much older. More than a decade must have passed after the incident. But she was as wicked as always.

Mo Fan glared at Shu Xiaohua and Ruan Feiyan.

'This old coot assumes I'm holding these two as hostages,' Mo Fan thought, amused. 'What a joke!' Mo Fan was strong enough to ravage this island to the ground. He had no need for hostages.

Mo Fan ignored her, but he let Shu Xiaohua and Ruan Feiyan go. These two could do nothing to threaten him, after all.

"Granny! Granny! He has drained the holy spring essence from our sacred pool. There's not even a single drop left!" Ruan Feiyan told the grannies in tears.

The crowd boiled with anger. The young men and women had dared not to confront Mo Fan. But now they wanted to kill him, or at least try.

"Get out of the way. You're no match for him. I'll skin him alive, tear his stomach open, and filter his blood in the sacred pool!" Seventh Granny's expression was frightening to behold.

"I've also broken through the barrier and advanced by one grade. The holy spring essence is a jewel in the crown. It's pure and holy. Filthy and evil-hearted people like you shouldn't pollute such a holy spring. So, it's best for me to keep it," said Mo Fan.

Seventh Granny could not find any words to express her endless fury. She flashed, leaving black and silver dust in the place. She then made several leaps before appearing before Mo Fan.

She was a Space element mage!

She was very skillful. She must have a high level of cultivation.

When she drew close to Mo Fan, her gaze transformed into thousands of silver needles and pierced Mo Fan from every direction. If Mo Fan failed to withstand her attack, his body would be riddled with holes!

A handsome creature covered in star-patterned fur lunged and shattered Seventh Granny's silver needles with its glowing star patterns. It then charged at Seventh Granny and bit her. The effect was so strong that even the grove shook.

Chapter 2746: Let Raiju Take Over

Seventh Granny's dark green pant legs tore open. Several drops of blood spilled out.

She reacted fast and moved backwards in a flash. Otherwise, the Royal Pattern Wolf would have ripped her stomach open.

"Savage beast! How dare you hurt me?!" Seventh Granny cried in rage. She laced her hands together. Countless thick roots erupted upwards from the lychee orchard surrounding them.

The lychee roots grew rapidly and covered the entire courtyard. It was now a fortress made up of roots entirely trapping Royal Pattern Wolf inside.

“Howl!” The Royal Pattern Wolf howled. Its hackles rose. Countless blazing star bugs flew everywhere from under its smooth fur.

The blazing star bugs stuck on the lychee roots. The crimson star bugs then released a blazing-hot light energy. The red-light energy surrounded the lychee roots and devoured them.

The thick and sturdy roots withered easily. They were turned to ash as the crimson star bugs sucked out their vitality instantly.

Puff! Puff! Puff!

After the crimson star bugs sucked all the vitality, they became blazing hot, and returned under the Royal Pattern Wolf’s fur. The Royal Pattern Wolf’s fur glowed. The Royal Pattern Wolf looked as if it was armored with scorching patterns. Its limbs grew stronger.

Swish! Swish!

The Royal Pattern Wolf slashed the roots with its claws as if they were just weeds. The lychee roots were sent flying in the air. The Royal Pattern Wolf then split into nine afterimage and moved at a breakneck speed.

Nine Shadow Slitting Throat!

Nine Shadow Slitting Throat was the Royal Pattern Wolf’s killing move. It could only perform such explosive power and aggression under the reinforcement of destructive scorching patterns.

Seventh Granny was so terrified that her face turned pale.

The Royal Pattern Wolf was an orthodox ruler-level beast. When its star bugs performed at their best and all its wolf patterns revealed themselves, the Royal Pattern Wolf’s combat power improved by multiple folds. Even though Seventh Granny had a high level of cultivation, she found it difficult to take on the ever-changing Royal Pattern Wolf on her own.

Seventh Granny tried to keep as far away as possible from the Royal Pattern Wolf. It was necessary to keep a distance when confronting a ruler-level beast as dangerous as this. However, the Royal Pattern Wolf moved as quickly as lightning under the nine afterimages. It slashed at Seventh Granny’s throat with its terrifying claws.

Seventh Granny hurriedly summoned her magical shield mountain equipment. Although the magical shield mountain equipment was huge and strong, the Royal Pattern shattered it in a single swipe. Seventh Granny spat blood and fell onto the ground with her shattered pieces of magical shield mountain equipment.

“Granny!” Le Nan cried out in shock. She quickly dashed forward to stop the Royal Pattern Wolf from biting Seventh Granny. A wolf shadow light appeared surrounding the Royal Pattern Wolf and Le Nan was sent flying.

“Savage beast!” An icy cold voice thundered.

A dark blue figure flashed by. It was the middle-aged woman who was always clad in dark blue. She glowed with a bronze liquid. The liquid transformed into a heavy bell.

The bronze water bell flashed. When the Royal Pattern Wolf banged against it, it made a loud resounding noise. A small part of the Royal Pattern Wolf's sharp claws broke.

Even though the woman in dark blue clothes was just using Water element magical power, the bell was as hard as bronze. Her power was rare. Mo Fan's mouth twitched. He stood at the side and watched the match.

Although the Royal Pattern Wolf's claws broke, it had not lost its combat power. The star bugs danced around once again. The star bugs flew to the surrounding pine grove and bamboo. The plants instantly withered. Even the animals around were reduced to their bones.

The Royal Pattern Wolf's bleeding claws fell off and regrew at an impossible speed. The bruises and scratches on its body healed. After sucking the life force, the Royal Pattern Wolf's combat efficiency increased once again.

The Royal Pattern Wolf was in a situation where it would only grow stronger as the battle progressed. This would grant him sufficient time to accumulate destructive scorching patterns, unyielding star patterns, and vitality-sucking patterns before advancing from ruler-level category.

Of course, the Royal Pattern Wolf's biggest weakness was ambush and direct destructive power.

"Get behind me and treat your wounds. I'll fight it," said Granny Lan to Seventh Granny.

"You have to rip him apart. Redeem our holy spring essence!" Seventh Granny screamed.

"Don't worry. No one can leave this island alive with our holy spring essence," said Granny Lan.

Her body was still covered with bronze liquid, like an invertebrate creature that had thousands of lives. The liquid could transform into whatever shape Granny Lan wanted.

It was Granny Lan's turn to counterattack the Royal Pattern Wolf. The bronze liquid transformed into a long whip covered with thorns.

"Howl! Howl! Howl!"

Granny Lan swung her bronze water whip skillfully. She sometimes made it spin above her head and swung it like a snake. She turned the whip on Royal Pattern Wolf and struck it.

'Her supernatural power looks interesting.' Mo Fan watched her attentively.

The bronze liquid was part of the Water element supernatural power. It had several special effects including transformation power, solidification, and the ability to become as hard as bronze and stone. If the power was fully mastered and combined with other elements, it would have a strong effect.

It was clear that Granny Lan was an expert. She was a Wind element mage, too. With such powerful magical equipment in her hand, she wasn't concerned even if something as strong as Royal Pattern Wolf was near her.

Granny Lan used her bronze water whip to attack and defend herself. Regardless of how fast the Royal Pattern Wolf was, it could not escape her ubiquitous ruthless whip.

Snap!

A loud snapping sound cut across the air. It was louder than firecrackers. Granny Lan stored her power before she struck. Her bronze water whip unwound with tremendous force, causing an explosive blast in the air.

The Royal Pattern Wolf was sent flying a few hundred meters away and fell next to Mo Fan. Its forehead was injured. The blood flowed down to its ears and eyes.

“You’re no match for her. Let Raiju take over it,” said Mo Fan to Royal Pattern Wolf.

Granny Lan’s strength was many times stronger than Seventh Granny. Mo Fan could not underestimate her.

Chapter 2747: Overthrowing All of You

Mo Fan applied Fusion magic and fused Summoning magic with his Lightning magic. The ancient magic portal opened. The portal led him to the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower. Mo Fan summoned the mighty lightning general below the Elf King’s throne, Raiju. It was standing on top of clouds.

“Granny Lan, stop him from summoning his elf. He can summon Raiju!” Ruan Feiyan shouted.

Raiju was more powerful than the Royal Pattern Wolf. Although the Royal Pattern Wolf could become stronger as the battle progressed, it required sufficient time to collect various royal patterns. Raiju, on the other hand, could inflict direct damage with its average ruler-level power. In fact, Raiju could kill a Super Level mage with ease!

“He won’t have a chance.”

While Mo Fan was focusing on opening the ancient magic portal, an old man appeared suddenly from the tangled pine grove. The old man held a flaming red spear. He used bizarre Wind element power and appeared behind Mo Fan.

His flaming red spear was imbued with the power of a whirlwind electric drill. When Mo Fan turned around, the old man’s flaming red spear transformed into a life-threatening fire dragon. The fire dragon lunged at Mo Fan ferociously.

“Kill him! Kill him!”

The crowd, just moments ago, had wondered why Grandpa Ye wasn’t joining the fight. Grandpa Ye was very close to Seventh Granny. He had been waiting...

A Summoning element mage not only had to pay full attention when casting the spell, but he also had to act swiftly in finding his targeted summoning creature. While the Summoning element mage was under these circumstances, he certainly could not observe his surroundings.

Grandpa Ye took advantage of this opportunity to attack Mo Fan!

Grandpa Ye was one of the oldest elders. The organization structure in Licheng Afterglow Island was straightforward. The seven grannies and two grandpas had the final say in everything.

They determined “Grannies” and “Grandpas” based on an annual competition instead of the level of seniority. The strongest nine would be given the title Grannies and Grandpas.

Apart from Song Feiyao being the youngest among the Grannies and Grandpas, the rest of them were from the older generation. After all, they had cultivated in the Underground Holy Spring for many years.

Grandpa Ye had a high respect among them. He was very strong. No outsiders on this island were a match for Grandpa Ye.

Grandpa Ye appeared with his flaming red spear. He stabbed Mo Fan through the chest. Grandpa Ye sneered.

‘So, you think Licheng Afterglow Island is a cheap fortress where you can just hop on and make a fuss, huh?’ thought Grandpa Ye.

But to his surprise, Mo Fan met his gaze unwaveringly. Most of the time, when Grandpa Ye used his power, he moved at such breakneck speed that nobody could see him. But Mo Fan met his gaze and smirked.

Grandpa Ye was stunned. ‘What’s so funny? I just penetrated your body with my spear!’

Mo Fan’s grin vanished and so did he. There was only a wisp of smoke where he had stood moments before. Grandpa Ye’s spear only hit smoke. There was no flesh, no blood, and definitely no human body being ripped apart.

The smoke skirted around Grandpa Ye’s powerful flaming red spear before converging once again. The smoky Mo Fan became solid again and smiled mockingly at him.

Grandpa Ye was shocked. He had never expected Mo Fan to be a Shadow Element expert. Mo Fan had reacted extremely fast. His ability to transform was inexplicable. If Mo Fan continued to turn into smoke every time they attacked him, how are they supposed to kill him?

“Lightning, Summoning, Space, and Shadow elements,” Shu Xiaohua blurted out, noticing the types of magic he had used.

“You’ve already shown us four elements of yours. You don’t have much elemental magic power left. And we haven’t shown you all our experts yet! You’re going to die! You’ll die!” Ruan Feiyan said angrily.

“Kid, you’re quite strong indeed. Although we might not be a match for you in this one-on-one combat, we haven’t started a war of attrition with you yet!” Grandpa Ye said.

He casually took out a cigarette from the pocket on his shirt and smoked it in leisure. Several figures appeared on the mountain path at the other end of the villa. Their outfits were different from others who were younger. They dressed in the same hue from head to toe as if representing a special identity in the Licheng Afterglow Island.

“Grandma!”

When Shu Xiaohua saw an old woman in purple, she looked as though she had found her pillar of strength. She cried and pointed at Mo Fan.

“Grandma, save him just a single breath, I want to make him regret offending me!”

Eldest Granny was quite old. Her skin was parched and wrinkled. She held a walking stick made of lychee wood, adorned with a brilliant pearl. One would have thought Eldest Granny was a frail old woman at a glance, but she exuded the most intimidating aura than all of the others combined. Her powerful aura was much stronger than Grandma Lan and Grandpa Ye!

“Young man, do we have any bad blood between us?” Eldest Granny approached Mo Fan with her walking stick. Her gaze was razor sharp.

“Ask your girl.” Mo Fan chuckled.

“Tell me the truth.” Eldest Granny looked at Shu Xiaohua.

Shu Xiaohua told her everything that had happened when they met Mo Fan. She told him how they had fooled him and broke their contract.

“I see,” said Eldest Granny. “Young man, if you return the holy spring essence to us, I’ll allow you to cultivate it for a month. After a month, you can leave the island freely. But you must swear with your spiritual soul that you will never reveal the secret of this island.” Eldest Granny raised her hand, gesturing for others to be quiet.

“I’m very sorry. I do not have room for negotiation with the people of this island anymore. I prefer to keep the essence for myself, thank you very much. I am not proud of being so greedy but seeing that everyone here is selfish trash, I don’t feel much bad about it,” said Mo Fan.

“Did he lose his mind?!”

“Rip him apart!”

“Eldest Granny, don’t let him defile our ancestral land. We should behead him and use it for our ancestral ritual this year!” The crowd intoned.

Eldest Granny raised her hand once more and the crowd fell silent. Eldest Granny was patient. She did not act recklessly.

“You can’t possibly expect to defeat us all. The Green East Sea God is an apex among the ruler-level beasts. I could have summoned it to kill you, but I didn’t because the fact remains that our young ladies have cheated and offended you. However, we cannot really give the essence to you. Therefore, we cannot give in. Look at the sea level. you still have time before dusk.” Eldest Granny pointed at the sea.

The sea surface reflected the sunset beautifully. The reddish sunset had sunk beneath the water’s surface.

“Are you aware that the lightning disaster almost destroyed the fortress?” asked Mo Fan.

“Yes, I am. But we’re just protecting ourselves in the middle of this chaotic world. If you are here to enforce your version of justice, then I don’t think there’s room for discussion,” Eldest Granny said in an icy cold tone.

“I came to overthrow scumbags like you!” Mo Fan craned his neck and stretched it to relieve the tension on his neck. He stared at the old rulers of the island.

“Old people shouldn’t get out of touch with things in the outside world. Otherwise, you won’t even know that you’ve offended people whom you can’t afford to offend. Everyone in the south is aware of my bad temper, EVERYONE except the Ocean Demons and, of course, you people on this island.”

Chapter 2748: Silver Thunder Titan

To say such things with arrogance, a person either had to be powerful or massively ignorant.

The magic novices of Licheng Afterglow Island were here. Although many of these people had never stepped into the outside world, the nine elderly seniors always told them that they were superior to the outsiders.

Those who had a chance to go outside to train had come back with great confidence. They always said that the strength and cultivation of people in the outside world could not compare with those in Licheng Afterglow Island.

However, what made an outsider to be so audacious as to stand here and boast without shame? It was as if he wanted to humiliate all of Licheng Afterglow Island.

“You’re asking for trouble. I have nothing else to say to you.” Eldest Granny held her special lychee cane tightly in both hands.

She drilled the end of the cane into the soil. With a slight twist, a warped soil pattern appeared on the ground and expanded towards Mo Fan’s feet.

Splat!

The soil and stones flew everywhere, and a plant-like thing slithered out with green stripes all over its body. The antlers on its raised head looked as if a dozen elks’ antlers were meshed together.

Its head resembled that of a python. When it opened its maw, it only showed a deep hole with numerous sharp wooden teeth. It had a long and thick body, and as many legs as a centipede. They weren’t just legs; they were razor-sharp claws.

The Wooden Centipede Python was terrifying. If it stood up, it was as high as a skyscraper. The wild aura emanating from the Wooden Centipede Python was more powerful than that of the Centipede Dragon at Cult Fiction.

Strange lights appeared when it moved its claws. It was as if the evening sky behind the Wooden Centipede Python was full of strange and terrifying evil spells that were cast to oppress Mo Fan’s soul!

Mo Fan took a few steps back, and quickly completed the final part of the ancient magic portal.

He knew that Raiju was far smaller compared to this creature and it would have a difficult time fighting something as huge as that. So, Mo Fan changed his mind at the last minute and summoned another creature from the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower.

He still combined it with the Lightning Element. The apex of the third level of the Lightning Element allowed Mo Fan to summon a higher-level creature than Raiju.

Above the clouds was the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower, and still above it were some magnificent palaces. The place was snow-white, and those palaces were shining with silver light. Compared to the common spirits under the Summoned Beast Plane, the creatures that lived here were as mighty and sacred as gods.

“Silver Thunder Titan!”

A giant figure stepped out of the ancient magic portal, and the whole mountain village trembled. It aimed a giant sword made of lightning bolts at the evening sky. The sky was brightly illuminated due to the sword’s light. Even the clouds gained a silver lining.

The Silver Thunder Titan had Silverstone Skin, and it was glowing. It was wearing a huge trench coat and holding a terrifying Giant Lightning Curved Sword. Its strong and domineering aura, and giant body spread fear.

“How does he manage to summon a stronger creature each time?” Ruan Feiyan and Shu Xiaohua were speechless.

Raiju was already a powerful creature in the Door of Summoning. Grandpa Ye had tried his best to distract Mo Fan to stop him from summoning Raiju, an ancient Lightning Element spirit and yet...

Mo Fan’s strength once again surpassed the limit of their knowledge.

Did he really just become a Super Level Mage in the Summoning Element? Why did the ancient spirits, that even some top-level summoners might not be able to summon, submit to him?

The Silver Thunder Titan had the same temper as Mo Fan. It did not like to see that terrifying thing moving in front of it.

The Silver Thunder Titan found its target right after Mo Fan summoned it. It threw its Giant Lightning Curved Sword. The sword slowly fell, appearing solemn and mighty. The people of the island were afraid that it would destroy everything.

With its free hands, it immediately grabbed the bottom half of the Wooden Centipede Python, and the Silver Thunder Titan threw it on the ground with force, just like how Granny Lan had lashed her Bronze Water Whip.

Boom!

Its attack immediately split the mountain village in half. The top of the mountain cracked, and a terrifying ravine appeared.

The Wooden Centipede Python became dizzy after the attack, but it still managed to break free from the Silver Thunder Titan with its flexible body.

The Wooden Centipede Python flew to the sky. Its long body could fly freely in the air. After a few swings of its tail, it had already flown hundreds of meters into the air. It did not fly very high, but at least it did not need to be engaged in melee combat with the Silver Thunder Titan.

The Silver Thunder Titan seemed to have seen through the Wooden Centipede Python's strategy. Although its body was big and powerful, it wasn't slow. It jumped to the top of the mountain.

The Giant Lightning Curved Sword he threw in the air was absorbing the Lightning Element of the earth. It had recharged its energy, and the Silver Thunder Titan jumped and took back its sword.

Clank!

It skillfully held the sword above its head and swung it without hesitation. Suddenly, dense lightning chains became a large white canopy.

The Giant Lightning Curved Sword slashed at the Wooden Centipede Python. The bottom half of the creature exploded, and lightning chains wrapped itself on the remaining parts of its body. When they returned to the n area of the mountain villa, the Wooden Centipede Python was burnt.

The Silver Thunder Titan did not plan to let the Wooden Centipede Python live. With its ancient wisdom, it knew the creature could regrow if it was allowed to burrow back into the ground and devour dirt and minerals.

The Silver Thunder Titan chased after the Wooden Centipede Python to the forest, and it used the uncharged Giant Lightning Curved Sword to pierce through the long body of the Wooden Centipede Python. Then, the Silver Thunder Titan sat on its head and beat it violently.

The Wooden Centipede Python resisted by spraying concentrated corrosive venom. It waved its sharp claws and tried to strangle the Silver Thunder Titan's neck using its body.

The Silver Thunder Titan had Silverstone Skin, so it was not afraid of the concentrated corrosive venom and claws. However, the Wooden Centipede Python's body trying to strangle its neck was troublesome. It not only hindered Silver Thunder Titan's beating, but it also rendered the Silver Thunder Titan unable to use its spells.

But it was clear that the Wooden Centipede Python was struggling. Eldest Granny watched indifferently.

She was surprised at how easily the Silver Thunder Titan had beaten her Wooden Centipede Python. The Wooden Centipede Python did not even have the chance to hurt the arrogant Mo Fan.

Chapter 2749: A Crazy Move

"Sh*t!" Grandpa Ye cursed. He drew a Flaming Cogwheel with the Flaming Red Spear. The cogwheel grew big and spun with impossible speed. It then dashed against the Silver Thunder Titan.

The Silver Thunder Titan tilted to one side after being hit by the Flaming Cogwheel. The Wooden Centipede Python suddenly sprayed venom as thick as tar. It was sticky and slippery.

The Wooden Centipede Python was mad now. It did not care for the part of its body that it might lose. It forcibly pulled its body out of the Giant Lightning Curved Sword. The Wooden Centipede Python swayed its bloody waist and used its body to attract the surrounding fires.

The weird venom that was like tar quickly ignited. It had sprayed the venom on the Silver Thunder Titan when it was fighting. The raging fire devoured both Wooden Centipede Python and Silver Thunder Titan. The spectacular flaming oil balls even rolled towards the mountains and forests!

The Silverstone Skin of the Silver Thunder Titan cracked after being burned. The Wooden Centipede Python was not a fire-resistant creature, either. The fact that it was made of wood made it even more flammable.

The Wooden Centipede Python let the fire burn its body, and it entangled itself with the Silver Thunder Titan. It would not let the Silver Thunder Titan break free.

Mo Fan was surprised by its crazy move. It knew it could not win against the Silver Thunder Titan, so it decided to die together with it.

The Silver Thunder Titan screamed. It also did not expect the Wooden Centipede Python would use such a cruel method. The Wooden Centipede Python would die first, but the Silver Thunder Titan would also be severely injured.

Mo Fan stared at the old woman in purple clothes. She looked indifferent and seemed to admire the Wooden Centipede Python's self-sacrificing action. It seemed like she was satisfied to see a summoned beast who could not win against the opponent use such a method to kill the enemy even if it meant that it would also die. She almost looked proud of it.

"Come back." Mo Fan suddenly opened the ancient magic portal and returned the Silver Thunder Titan to the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower.

The flame ignited by the weird oil was still following through its body. After it went to the Forbidden Realm of the ancient magic portal, the flames were blocked outside. The Silver Thunder Titan, whose body cracked after being burned, was extremely angry.

As an ancient god of war, it hated such a vicious creature. Even if he had to die together with the Wooden Centipede Python, it would not give in. However, Mo Fan couldn't watch it burn to death. Many summoners did not care about the creatures they summoned from the Dimensional Summoning, but Mo Fan did..

The Summoned Beast Plane was a world in another dimension. The lives of creatures there were precious. Since the beasts and Mo Fan had reached a consensus to help each other out, they were his employees in a manner of speaking. He could not let them die so brutally. He refused to use them as cannon fodders.

"Hahaha, you aren't even able to maintain the ancient magic portal for a short period. How do you expect to fight us?" Seventh Granny in dark-green clothes laughed.

Mo Fan opened his Door of Contract. The blazing fire illuminated his face and showed his confident smile.

"Little Flame Belle," he called. "It seems like they love using fire. Could you show them what a real fire looks like?"

The Door of Contract opened, and palm-sized fire maple leaves fluttered out from inside. They covered the entire mountain in a few seconds like a fiery carpet.

At a glance, they looked bright and beautiful. But when a willowy and noble flame-witch stepped out of the Contracted Space, the fiery blanket began burning ferociously.

The sun had just set, and darkness fell. But the Goddess of Flame Belle fell on the island like a rising sun. The fire clouds and fire maple leaves on the ground made the Licheng Afterglow Island burn brighter than the sun. The vast sky and the boundless sea were dyed fiery red.

“C-Contract Summoning?” Le Nan, Du Mei, Shu Xiaohua, and the others were all flabbergasted.

They had never seen Mo Fan use Contract Summoning. Everyone had assumed that the Royal Pattern Wolf was his Contracted Beast. They realized now that his actual Contracted Beast was the Goddess of Flame Belle herself.

She was the strongest Heaven Fire in the world. There were many kinds of elemental elves in the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower. One of them was the Fire Elf King. The strength of the Goddess of Flame Belle was not far behind the Fire Elf King. Mo Fan did not need to summon her through the ancient magic portal.

“Your Wooden Centipede Python seems to like fire, so let my Little Flame Belle help it.” Mo Fan smiled.

The Wooden Centipede Python had stopped secreting the weird oil venom after the Silver Thunder Titan returned to the ancient magic portal and was using the soil to extinguish the fire around its body.

However, Mo Fan did not plan to let it go that easily. Goddess of Flame Belle extended her slender arm and pointed at the flames on the Wooden Centipede Python that had not extinguished yet.

Suddenly, the fire maple leaves all over the mountain flew up into the sky like butterflies. They whooshed towards the Wooden Centipede Python and wrapped around it.

The fire ignited and burned. The fire maple leaves glowed with an even hotter Heaven Fire, and they devoured the Wooden Centipede Python’s body.

The Wooden Centipede Python was tortured by the fire just moments ago. But that was nothing compared to what it went through now.

The screams of the Wooden Centipede Python reverberated around Licheng Afterglow Island’s Mountain villa. It turned into a large flaming thing and rolled from the top of the mountain to the bottom. Eventually, it reached the valley.

There was a river in the valley, and the water there was icy. The Wooden Centipede Python lived in this cold and humid place. It wanted to use the icy water to put out flames on its body. However, the Heaven Fire did not give in to the icy water.

The fire was unyielding. The fire burrowed through the Wooden Centipede Python’s cracked, festering armor and began to burn its vital organs. It did not take long for the fire to fill its body. The Wooden Centipede Python could no longer scream in agony. It began to curl up into a ball instinctively.

The fire was unrelenting. Even the river dried up with the heat. There was a charred wooden screw thread at the source of the river. It was what was left of the Wooden Centipede Python. After being burned, it was no different from charcoal.

Eldest Granny's face twitched. She thought the Wooden Centipede Python's ruthlessness could kill Mo Fan's summoned beast. However, she had not expected him to summon a stronger creature to burn the Wooden Centipede Python to a crisp.

The Wooden Centipede Python was Eldest Granny's Contracted Beast. Its death also had an impact on her soul. Eldest Granny had felt the pain the Wooden Centipede Python experienced before it died. She had experienced the feeling of being burned by fire, too.

Chapter 2750: Invincible Little Flame Belle

"All of you are so weak." Mo Fan shook his head with a look of contempt.

The residents of the Licheng Afterglow Island including the grannies, and the grandpas looked very angry.

Although they were angry, most of them were not powerful enough to approach Little Flame Belle. Everyone could see that Little Flame Belle had the ability of the Great Ruler. However, they wondered why such a powerful creature was the Contracted Beast of a young mage.

"Where are the others? Why are they not here yet?" Eldest Granny asked Granny Lan angrily.

"They seem to have encountered some trouble."

"What trouble is more important than being attacked by the enemy at the front gate?" Eldest Granny was furious.

Mo Fan was in no hurry. They could call all the masters of the Licheng Afterglow Island if they wanted to. Today, he intended to beat up the elders in front of those ungrateful girls who had lied to him.

There were only five grandpas and grannies here, which meant that the other four hadn't arrived yet. Mo Fan waited patiently.

He did not think these people had the strength to force him to use abilities other than the Summoning Element. If he could get rid of Licheng Afterglow Island with just his Summoning Element, then he would actually be disappointed. They had the Underground Holy Spring for all these years and couldn't produce a decently powerful mage?

They expected to survive the Ocean Demons with this lackluster strength. People in the Licheng Afterglow Island must have vastly underestimated the destruction the Ocean Demons could cause.

"You guys are so weak. Someone like me has to keep a low profile in the outside world, and still, I can bully you so easily. I wonder where you got your sense of superiority from. You think your hidden clan is so brilliant," Mo Fan sighed. "The world is constantly changing. People need to open their minds. The thing that will destroy you will be your closed-mindedness."

The residents of the Licheng Afterglow Island gathered near the mountain villa. When facing Mo Fan's overpowering strength, they could do nothing but watch.

The Underground Holy Spring was still in his hands. He had made it clear that he did not intend to give it back unless they could defeat him. He didn't use trickery and deceit. His capabilities spoke for him.

The Licheng Afterglow Island was famous for being powerful. But in reality, it was weak and powerless like an infant in front of him.

The residents doubted everything. Could it be that what grandpas and grannies had told them was untrue?

Maybe the outside world was not as terrible and ignorant as they had made it out to be. Maybe they were the ones who were weak, so they lived in seclusion. Otherwise, how could this young mage challenge the entire Licheng Afterglow Island on his own? He did not seem daunted by the grandpas and grannies at all.

"Hmph, do you think we're just a group of country bumpkins who are inexperienced and ignorant? Granted that you aren't an ordinary mage because you can summon a Great Ruler-level creature. We have to admit we are meeting a master this time. But that doesn't mean you can sashay in and taint the Licheng Afterglow Island," Eldest Granny snapped.

Her cane hit the ground hard, and an intimidating aura raged like a storm. Most of the maple leaves all over the mountain suddenly extinguished. Eldest Granny had other skills other than the Summoning Element. She had another more powerful magic, but she only wanted to use that when other masters arrived at the scene.

Mo Fan was not surprised. But he wasn't daunted either. With Little Flame Belle by his side, he could easily fight the five of them alone

The grandpas and grannies were powerful and had high cultivation levels. However, their actual combat skills were not as good as most people with similar cultivation levels. One of the grannies who dressed in red did not even cultivate supernatural power.

As a third-grade Super Level mage who did not have any supernatural power, she did not practice and use the various skills she had mastered.

The grandpas and grannies did not have the strength to defeat Little Flame Belle. The extinguished fire maple leaves ignited again, and Granny Lan and Seventh Granny suffered varying degrees of burn.

The Goddess of Flame Belle was as strong as the sun. It shocked everyone on Licheng Afterglow Island. They witnessed how weak the grandpas and grannies were. It shook their faith in the elders.

The group of girls who had traveled with Mo Fan were the ones shaken the most. Mo Fan constantly surprised them. If they knew about his strength, they would have never mentioned Licheng Afterglow Island.

"Bang!"

With a loud bang, Grandpa Ye fell from the air directly into the mountain villa that split in half.

Another burst of flames bloomed in the sky, and the incomparably splendid sparks fell on the tranquil sea outside Licheng Afterglow Island in an arc. Suddenly, clumps of fire burned on the surface of the calm sea water without a sign of going out.

Granny Lan fell into the sea. The flame would have burnt her to ashes if she had not coated herself with the special bronze liquid. She was severely injured but still endured it and returned to the mountain villa. It seemed that she would fight till the end.

The Goddess of Flame Belle flowed down. She was as proud and noble as a queen. She stood beside Mo Fan, making him look all formidable and regal.

The corners of Mo Fan's mouth curled up. He looked at the grandpas and grannies who had failed miserably. "It seems like you people do not have other powerful skills. I have something to ask you. If you answer me honestly, I may not destroy Licheng Afterglow Island."

He wondered when he had taken control of Lingchen's Afterglow Islands survival. The grandpas and grannies trembled in rage, but they knew they couldn't go against the Goddess of Flame Belle.

"Do you think this is the only thing we are capable of? Young man, don't be too full of yourself." Eldest Granny had not made a move till now. She whispered something occasionally in a language no one understood as though she was trying to wake something sinister.

She stared at Mo Fan sternly, and her aura increased. Mo Fan watched her and noticed that her pupils were changing. Her round pupils slowly turned vertical. They glowed eerily. They had the indispensable power of capturing the soul.

"She has a lot of demonic energy on her body. Something is possessing her," Apas whispered to him. She did not join in the fight.

If this group could not even win against Little Flame Belle, there was no need for Apas to join in.

"Her eyes look like..." Mo Fan tried to recall where he had seen it before.

"Meow!"

Suddenly, Eldest Granny let out an evil cry. It was as though a wild cat had suddenly come out of a shadow at night with a strange foreshadowing of death!
