

Versatile 2751

Chapter 2751: Rats, Cats, and Snakes

Mo Fan had stood in front of the Thundercat statue many times. He recognized the face and posture of the Eldest Granny. It seemed as though the ancient statue had come to life. It was like a guardian of the moonless night that was vigilant and hostile to all foreign things. When it looked down at people, its majestic warning sounded in their minds even though it did not open its mouth.

The cry that Mo Fan heard was the same as well. The cry sounded in his mind clearly, and it touched the deepest part of his soul. He got goosebumps all over. The cat's meow had frightened his very soul.

1

Mo Fan took a few steps back.

"Meow!"

Eldest Granny's appearance changed. She was a woman, but she was growing a silver beard. Her chin became pointy, and her ears grew longer.

'Could this be the secret about how the ancient statues protected Mingwu Ancient City?' thought Mo Fan.

However, he was not a rat or an insect. So, why did he feel such fear in front of the Thundercat statue? He didn't even know he feared cats! He felt a terror in the depths of his soul. Was this his natural enemy?

"Mo Fan." Apas's voice sounded distant.

Mo Fan felt cold, and he woke up from that terrible feeling. When he focused his mind again, he realized that the Eldest Granny was standing right there. She looked normal. No white beard, her chin was the same, her ears were the normal length...

Was it a hallucination? Or a trick to capture souls?

Mo Fan looked at Apas beside him. She frowned. Her eyes were razor-sharp, and she was leaning forwards, almost baring her fangs. Most snake demons were in this posture when they were in danger.

"What happened?" Mo Fan asked.

"It was not a hallucination. I can't explain it to you clearly. Let me handle this," Apas said with a solemn look.

Mo Fan's overall strength had increased, so Apas's cultivation should be very close to the level she used to have in Egypt. She was the Medusa Queen that could compete with the Queen of Nine Serenities. If she was flustered, then Eldest Granny wasn't just using parlor tricks.

Mo Fan recalled the fear he felt. He had felt trapped like a rat facing a lethal cat. He shook his head again to dislodge the feeling.

1

Mingwu Ancient City's ancient statues seemed to possess a divine power that transcended racial boundaries. Even if he had the protection of Black Dragon Horn Helmet and Dragon Deterrence, he still could not break the suppression caused by his natural enemy.

Apas and Eldest Granny looked at each other, and their pupils changed. Apas's golden pink snake eyes showed aggression. It showed the ferocity of a snake which was about to attack.

Eldest Granny's vertical cat eyes were constantly deterring. Sometimes she concentrated on finding flaws, and other times, she slyly and calmly dealt with Apas.

The people of Licheng Afterglow Island were confused. When Eldest Granny and Apas stared at each other, everyone could feel the confrontation of their spiritual power even though they both appeared motionless.

There was no wind at all. Beasts and mountain birds did not make any sound. The mountain villa was inexplicably silent.

Mo Fan and Apas had a telepathic connection. He could feel the intense fight between them. A cat had met a snake. The cat's movements were sly and swift, while the snake was lithe and ruthless. Both refused to back down.

Suddenly, Eldest Granny doubled over and spat a lot of blood. Other people were shocked. They supported Eldest Granny.

Eldest Granny's pupils began to dim, and fear appeared in her eyes. She held the wooden cane in one hand and pointed at Apas with the other.

Apas' golden pink pupils slowly returned to normal. She smiled radiantly but it appeared very cold at the same time.

"What happened?" Mo Fan asked Apas.

"Fortunately, you brought me with you. Otherwise, you would have been ambushed by the group while being suppressed by your natural enemy: the cat. You would have been restricted. It is the power and deterrence of the Thundercat statue, which makes the monsters and demons in the wetlands around the Mingwu Ancient City dare not step into the city itself," Apas explained to Mo Fan.

"I thought with my Dragon Sense and Dragon Deterrence, there would be very few people who could suppress me mentally." Mo Fan let out a long sigh. He had almost failed. The Thundercat statue was so powerful.

"This world is big. The dragons are not the only ones of ancient and powerful bloodline. Otherwise, Wan Dragon Valley wouldn't have the Mound of Dead Beast," Apas said.

Dragons were ancient and powerful, but the real Medusa might not be afraid of them. Dragons were the most prestigious of races, but only when compared with average spirits.

Tiandi Holy Spirit, the descendant of a supernatural entity, the ancestor of the ancient beast, the thousand-year-old demon vein, the Epic Human King... Which one of them was inferior to the western dragons?

“You’re right. They were known as the two great hidden clans with the Underground Holy Spring, so they must obviously have their trump card,” said Mo Fan, coming to a new understanding.

“You should be careful. Don’t expose too much of your abilities. Don’t forget the Green East Sea God we saw at the cliff edge that day. It is probably the earliest ancient statue the people of Licheng Afterglow Island brought to this island, which has a higher ability than the Thundercat statue. If we fight with it, I might not be able to help you,” Apas said earnestly.

“I push them step-by-step because I want to see the Green East Sea God,” Mo Fan said.

Although Mo Fan was not entirely sure, it probably was the Totem he had been looking for.

If what Apas said was correct, the Green East Sea God was the first ancient statue the people of Licheng Afterglow Island brought back, which caused God’s condemnation. Apas had suppressed the Thundercat statue. It was likely that the Green East Sea God would appear soon.

However, Mo Fan was still very confused. He had thought that despite their holy power the ancient statues were just statues. It was strange that the Thundercat statue had to rely on Eldest Granny through possession. But the last he had seen the Green East Sea God, it had looked very much alive with its own body.

He could only expose Licheng Afterglow Island’s secrets by attacking them.

“Little Flame Belle, you don’t have to hold back anymore,” Mo Fan raised his head and said to the Goddess of Flame Belle that was blazing in the sky.

“Do you think you alone can overturn the entire Licheng Afterglow Island? Having a Great Ruler-level Flame Holy Spirit doesn’t mean you can do whatever you want.” A man in bird-like clothes appeared behind Eldest Granny.

The man was cold and dignified. He looked like an imposing man. He seemed to be in his thirties, but his hair was entirely white. His age didn’t match his body.

“Eldest Grandpa!”

The men and women of Licheng Afterglow Island cried out excitedly, as if he was the savior and hero of Licheng Afterglow Island.

Chapter 2752: I Will Punish You Instead of God’s Condemnation

The cultivation of the man in bird-like clothes was much higher than other grandpas and grannies. Mo Fan wondered why he was only appearing now.

Grandpa Queyi walked over and checked Eldest Granny’s injuries. After confirming that it wasn’t fatal, he walked forwards.

The mountain villa was a mess. The fight had broken the lychee trees planted in front of the courtyard. Lychees were all over the ground, and the people had squashed some of them.

Grandpa Queyi did not step on these fruits. He picked up one of the plump ones and gently peeled off its skin.

“Look at this lychee. It has ugly skin. Its skin is not as smooth as an apple or as bright as a pear. But when you peel it off, it’s sweeter and juicier than any other fruit.” Grandpa Queyi did not show any hostility.

He put the lychee in his mouth, tasted it slowly, and chewed it while savoring the taste.

“I’ll let you have as many as you want.” Mo Fan’s expression changed suddenly. His pupils suddenly became deep and vast, like an endless night sky with countless stars.

The lychees all over the ground shook and flew up under the control of Mo Fan’s mind. The skin peeled off by itself, revealing the delicious white lychee flesh. When Mo Fan waved his hand, all the white lychees flew toward Grandpa Queyi like bullets.

Grandpa Queyi frowned. Mo Fan attacked.

The white lychees had soft fleshed but hard seeds. If they were propelled at an impossible speed, it could shoot through a mountain.

They had built the mountain villa on a cliff. The mountain villa barely looked as clean and regal as it had when he arrived. When Mo Fan let the lychees fly, the cliff and villa collapsed.

Grandpa Queyi looked angry. He had spent years taking care of the mountain villa and the lychee trees.

“You wanted to compare Licheng Afterglow Island to lychees. Oh please! These lychees are honest, they hide nothing. In my opinion, you people are like fruit flies that pesticides cannot kill. When you climb into the flesh of lychees, you feel that you have become superior. The entire Licheng Afterglow Island is a dirty, disgusting, and greedy parasite. You didn’t encounter God’s condemnation for your actions, but I’ll punish you instead!” Mo Fan sneered at Grandpa Queyi.

“Little Flame Belle, set fire to the mountain villa.”

Little Flame Belle loved setting fire to things. She was delighted at the prospect. She flew into the sky and came to a stop at the highest place. Suddenly, a fire gauze covered the entirety of the Licheng Afterglow Island.

“Little Flame Belle,” called Mo Fan. “We don’t have to involve the innocent people of the island yet.”

The Goddess of Flame Belle reduced her Heaven Fire and gradually narrowed the scope to the mountain villa and the mountains around them.

“Ring!”

With a long groan, the Heavenly Tribulation Flame rolled down from the clouds and fell onto the mountain villa.

Grandpa Queyi and the people of Licheng Afterglow Island were furious. They wanted to kill Mo Fan.

“We’ll never forgive you!” said Grandpa Queyi angrily.

On the mountains were many stone statues of ancestors worshiped by Licheng Afterglow Island’s hidden clan. They regarded these statues as godly. It was a great sin if even dust fell on them. However, Mo Fan burned all of them.

Ruan Feiyan felt dizzy, and she almost fainted again.

'I'll take away the Underground Holy Spring, defeat the grandpas and grannies, destroy your ancestors' statues, and drown the Licheng Afterglow Island.' Ruan Feiyan recalled Mo Fan's words.

He had already completed three of those things. 'Will he really drown all of the Licheng Afterglow Island? Oh my god! Why did it turn out like this? Why had they not abided by their agreement? It's all my fault,' thought Ruan Feiyan.

...

Grandpa Queyi wanted to extinguish the fire, but Mo Fan had attacked him again. Something must be preventing the Green East Sea God from appearing. Mo Fan was too lazy to bother about anything else. He decided to defeat Grandpa Queyi first.

"Hurry up and stop the fire. We must protect the statues!" Grandpa Queyi shouted.

Grandpa Queyi had been driven crazy by Mo Fan, and he did not have the calm and elegant look he had when he arrived. He wished to strangle Mo Fan to death.

"Eldest Grandpa, if he doesn't have the summoned beast, his other magic may not be that strong. We'll keep the Flame Holy Spirit busy. You can deal with him," Seventh Granny said with hatred.

"What are his two other elements?" Grandpa Queyi asked.

"It's Lightning Element and Shadow Element," Shu Xiaohua said hurriedly.

"He used Lightning Element when he came up the mountain, and his ability is stronger than Du Wanjun. Eldest Grandpa, you must be careful," Du Mei warned.

"His Shadow Element is a little strange," said Grandpa Ye.

Grandpa Queyi nodded. Although other people could not defend themselves from the powerful creature summoned by this outsider, at least they forced him to show his other abilities.

"I'll cut your corpse into pieces and use them as fertilizer for the new lychee trees in the coming year," Grandpa Queyi said furiously.

He raised his hands, and the chaotic ground suddenly had many big cracks. Some powerful clay monsters moved beneath the ground. The rocks broke and the soil was displaced.

The thick and long arms waved under the soil. The ground where Mo Fan stood collapsed, and he fell to the foothills.

There was a landslide on the mountain, and a big, long root that looked like an earth dragon and giant earthworm slashed the mountain fiercely. Mo Fan jumped from the landslide to another mountain to find his footing.

When he looked down, giant greenish-black vines were coiling up like a thousand-year-old python at the bottom of the peak. The forked part of its end was sharp and lashed like a devil's fork.

Mo Fan hurriedly jumped onto the rock wall of the mountain. But the mountain suddenly cracked. A giant long tail cut through the mountain like an electric drill. Mo Fan used the rocks as a wave and ran along like a surfer. The terrifying long tail that could cut through the mountain was chasing behind him.

He did not know what kind of magic this was, but it made Mo Fan feel that places with mountains and soil were dangerous.

Chapter 2753: The Fifth Element

He used his mind to fly into the sky quickly. Mo Fan could see the mountains and forests below him. It was a frightening scene. A giant monster broke out of those mountains and smashed everything into pieces.

This monster had dozens of tails. Each of them were different. Some were like evil earthworms that could move freely through the rock mountains; some were full of sharp teeth and had hard scales covering them; some were like octopus tentacles that could wriggle, shrink, and embalm things with mucus; some were like poisonous tail of a scorpion...

When Mo Fan thought Grandpa Queyi had summoned a powerful and evil beast. But when he looked closely, he saw that it was Grandpa Queyi who had risen from the ground in this form. The tails grew from his back!

An ancient wooden armor wrapped Grandpa Queyi. The wooden armor puffed, intertwined, and piled up to form a shocking Wooden Armored Tree Man. The Wooden Armored Tree Man was as tall as a mountain. Grandpa Queyi was in the middle of the chest of the Wooden Armored Tree Man. The hollowed-out skin of the Wooden Armored Tree Man showed that Grandpa Queyi's arms and legs almost integrated with the creature. .com

Grandpa Queyi sat in the body of the majestic wooden armored giant. He inserted the dozens of tails behind his back into the Wooden Armored Tree Man's body like blood vessels. This manifested into different types of giant tails from the creature's back and moved viciously.

"You're just an insignificant insect in front of me. The Licheng Afterglow Island belongs to me, and my descendants will become famous powerhouses of the world. For thousands of years, many of my clan members have made history. You're just a little firefly that radiates a little light for a while in the jungle. Do you think that people care about you?" Grandpa Queyi had a ferocious look on his face. He looked like a servant possessed by the devil. .com

"You people are a small clan who barely survive by killing other people. How shameless of you to wish to be immortal! The only people similar to you in history are probably traitors who betray their country for their own greed. You caused the death of countless people from Licheng City for your own selfishness." Mo Fan scoffed at the words of Grandpa Queyi.

"You have no right to judge us. You won't survive today. It's up to us who survived to decide what happened at Licheng City," Grandpa Queyi shouted angrily.

Those strange, lethal tails rushed toward the sky as the Wooden Armored Tree Man rotated.

One of the tails was like an ancient tree that grew at an impossible speed. It had no crown but only trunks and sharp branches. It kept forking and growing around Mo Fan. After dodging it a few times, he noticed that a large tree branch had grown around him. It was as though he was in a strange, diseased forest.

The sharp branches prevented Mo Fan from moving freely. He heard a sound of fierce collision and realized that other tails had come his way to kill him.

“Don’t let the spirit that can blow fire get close,” shouted Grandpa Queyi to the others. He seemed confident about getting rid of Mo Fan. He did not want the Flame Holy Spirit to make trouble.

Mo Fan shuttled through the forests. Suddenly, the scorpion-like tail attacked. As Mo Fan turned his head, all he saw was the scorpion-like tail’s cold poisonous light. The tail would have smashed his face if his dark vein hadn’t warned him.

Mo Fan cared about his appearance a lot. He was a vain person, after all. Always trying to win the favor of beautiful women by his appearance. He clenched his fists in anger when he realized that Grandpa Queyi was trying to disfigure him.

“Divine Bird Fist!”

There was the sound of a phoenix flying.

Mo Fan’s fist became a flame in the form of a Divine Phoenix. Its whole body was burning with fire.

The Divine Phoenix flew to the mountain and forests. When it spread its wings, the fire extended to several kilometers. It fell down slowly. Everything ignited, and the forests vanished. It did not take long for the mountain to turn into ashes.

The flame burned all the sharp branches to ashes, and the space around Mo Fan suddenly cleared up. The Divine Phoenix hit a mountain and razed it to the ground. This terrifying power was already flying next to Grandpa Queyi’s Wooden Armored Tree Man.

Although the Wooden Armored Tree Man was as tall as a mountain, the Divine Phoenix could destroy it in seconds. If the Divine Phoenix hit the Wooden Armored Tree Man, it would burn it to a crisp.

“Didn’t I tell you guys not to let the Flame Holy Spirit get close?” Grandpa Queyi shouted at the others angrily.

When he turned to look at them, he realized that the others were still fighting near the sea of the Lichen Afterglow Island. They did not want the Goddess of Flame Belle to interfere in his fight with Mo Fan, so Eldest Granny deliberately led the Goddess of Flame Belle to Ninghai Lake.

‘Then where did the strong and intimidating flame come from?’ wondered Grandpa Queyi.

“Swish. Swish. Swish.”

Suddenly, many lavas fell like waterfalls from the sky. They were red-hot. This lava waterfall terrified the people of the mountain villa. The speed of the Divine Phoenix had been too fast for them to notice that it was only his punch. But they realized that the red-hot lava in the sky that Mo Fan used was Super Level Fire Elemental magic.

The lava waterfall was magnificent and terrifying. The magma poured into the mountain and forests of Licheng Afterglow Island destroying everything in its path. The pristine mountain streams, valleys and forests were all reduced to ashes. Ruan Feiyan, Le Nan, Shu Xiaohua, and others were stunned as they watched their homes turn into a sea of fire around the villa.

1

Grandpa Queyi's shout came from the nearby forest. "Why can he use Fire Element magic?"

Fire Element!

Shu Xiaohua and Du Mei recalled the magic elements used by Mo Fan. They had Lightning Element, Shadow Element, Space Element, and Summoning Element so far. Where did the Fire Element come from, if they had already identified the four elements?

They wanted to know why Mo Fan could use Fire Element magic. No one could use five elements of magic, besides Forbidden Mages.

1

Wood was afraid of fire. Grandpa Queyi's Wooden Armored Tree Man was his trump card. He had held back because of the appearance of Little Flame Belle's Heavenly Tribulation Flame.

However, Mo Fan's attack had been equally strong! His cultivation of Fire Element was not inferior to his powerful Contracted Beast!

Chapter 2754: The Green East Sea God And The Black Phoenix

"Most dazzling star ever in Historical Long River, my foot! I'll burn the Licheng Afterglow Island for three days and three nights consecutively so that your future generations will always remember this."

"You don't bother to help each other in times of crisis. This will only make you a bunch of dirty rats even if you stay alive. You're expecting your future generations to bring glory to you, huh? You must be kidding me! You're all a bunch of wicked people who refuse to repent from your ways. Your future generation will end up as rotten as you anyway."

Mo Fan was floating above the lava waterfall. His Chongming Divine Fire was a great Heaven Seed that could burn everything in its path, even make liquids evaporate.

The Wooden Armor Tree Man stood in the middle of the flying lava and burned quickly. The seemingly strong wooden armor soon turned into ordinary black charcoal.

The bizarre tails protected the Wooden Armor Tree Man's chest area where Grandpa Queyi was seated. But the hot lava was gradually burning those tails, too.

"Taste my lightning fire!" Mo Fan said viciously.

The fusion gloves appeared on Mo Fan's hand. On the first half of the punching gloves were two distinctly different Elements. When Mo Fan held these two in his hand, his Lightning and Fire Elements fused together. The power grew as Mo Fan continued rubbing his palms.

"Now I shall deliver God's condemnation on you!"

Mo Fan fused his Lightning and Fire Elements together. There was a change of color in heaven and earth. Mo Fan set a clear boundary with his figure. Half of the sky behind him had transformed into a purple color, while the other half turned red.

The purple and red sky gradually fused to form an enormous celestial diagram, covering the sky above Licheng Afterglow Island.

Mo Fan's Fire Element had a great Heaven Seed, and the level of cultivation was at the second grade of the Super Level.

Even though his Lightning Element did not have a Heaven Seed, the Blessing of the God's Seal and Darkness Source had pushed the power of the Lightning Tyrant to the level of a Heaven Seed, multiplying the effect of mortal lightning by a massive amount!

The increase in power of a Heaven Seed was more than tenfold than that of a Mortal Seed.

The Lightning Tyrant was a Soul Seed. Although it did not have the additional effects of the heaven-level or the Absolute Forbidden Realm and other strengthening fields, its direct destructive power was equivalent to that of heaven-level lightning. Moreover, Mo Fan had achieved the third grade of the Super Level in his Lightning Element.

Right then, he fused his Lightning Element with the Chongming Divine Fire all while possessing the Darkness Source. He wondered what kind of destructive power would come out of the fusion of the two.

It was not an exaggeration for Mo Fan to call it God's condemnation. He believed his super destructive power was almost on par with the lightning pillar that had nearly destroyed the entire city.

Mo Fan roared. He had finished accumulating power for the Tyrant Divine Fire Diagram. Thousands of purple-red lightning and firestorms befell the island. The sight was terrifyingly beautiful and destructive.

Meanwhile, even though Grandpa Queyi was covered in wooden armor, he could not evade the lightning firestorm. Mo Fan's Tyrant Divine Fire Diagram was enormous. If not for Grandpa Queyi blocking the lightning firestorm, it would have crushed the entire mountain villa!

But Grandpa Queyi could not hold back the lightning firestorm forever. The soil, mountains, and rocks surrounding him were evaporating. Although his Magical Wooden Armor was as broad as a mountain, it was burning in the lightning firestorm. His bizarre tails had turned into ash before he could use their power.

Grandpa Queyi fell in a cloud of ash and dust. He looked up in disbelief at the tiny figure in the sky.

The tiny figure was glowing as bright as a sun and exuded an imposing aura. Grandpa Queyi, on the other hand, had been an ignorant fly who struggled up the sky because he thought he could fight against Mo Fan.

Grandpa Queyi suffered in agony and was humiliated. He even found it hard to help himself up. He had never expected such a young outsider to overthrow the entire Licheng Licheng Afterglow Island in an instant. He felt it had been worthless to guard the Underground Holy Spring for generations if they couldn't even fight against one outsider. What was the point of treating the Underground Holy Spring as the most supreme of all spiritual treasures if they were so easily defeated by a lone man?

“God’s condemnation...”

“Is it true that God is condemning the island?”

“He is God’s condemnation. He defeated all the elders by himself...”

The islanders stared at the once beautiful forest that had been burnt beyond recognition.

Not long ago, Licheng Afterglow Island had been as gorgeous and holy as a paradise. But the island was now devoured by a blazing fire and the earth was filled with charcoal. They were aware that Mo Fan had no intention of slaughtering all the people on the island. Otherwise, Mo Fan would have cast his terrifying spells to wipe them out long ago.

Licheng Afterglow Island was gone. The hidden clan on the island had perished. Ruan Feiyan, Shu Xiaohua, Du Mei, Pu Ling, and the rest were in tears. Their pride had been crushed.

They grew up on the island and rarely interacted with anyone from outside. They had lived here their whole lives. They had never even thought that perhaps they were the ignorant ones.

What they had been told was fake. Licheng Afterglow Island was not superior. Even when they had owned and used the Underground Holy Spring for so long and lived in such lush land, they were weak when compared to the outsiders.

...

Soon, Little Flame Belle finished her war with the other elders. Although seven elders worked hand-in-hand to fight Little Flame Belle, they were no match for her. They were all burned and bruised.

Just like Mo Fan, Little Flame Belle had shown mercy and spared their lives.

“Don’t worry, we still have the Green East Sea God. He can’t possibly defeat it,” Seventh Granny said ruthlessly.

The moment she brought up the Green East Sea God, the elders felt a gleam of hope where there was only despair.

Licheng Afterglow Island was not a place where Mo Fan could do as he pleased! Even if what he said was true and this was just a bubble, they preferred to live inside their own dream bubble, unbothered by anyone else!

“Green East Sea God! Green East Sea God!” Grandpa Queyi shouted at the top of his lungs. He lay paralyzed on the ground.

A domineering eagle’s cry rang throughout the sky in the direction of Licheng Afterglow Island. Its voice echoed across the island, reigniting the islanders’ hope and fighting spirit.

“Mo Fan, call Little Flame Belle back,” Apas’s expression changed.

She then quickly returned to Mo Fan’s side. Mo Fan had to face the Green East Sea God in the form of Flame Demon King.

Even so, Mo Fan might not win the fight. Even if the Green East Sea God was not a supreme ruler, it was at the same level as Black Totem Snake and Mountain Zombie. Mo Fan sucked in a deep breath. He cast a glance at the people whose confidence had been completely crushed.

He noticed something. There were only eight elders in front of him. One granny was missing.

Strong wind blew. The Green East Sea God with lightning chains appeared. Mo Fan stood on top of the bare mountain and watched it appar. A woman was standing on the Green East Sea God's massive wing bow.

She wore black conical hat, black slanted placket crop top, black headscarf, and black long pants. She radiated an icy-cold aura in elegance.

"Black Phoenix Garment..."

"It's her!"

Chapter 2755: True Atonement

"It's Song Feiyao! When did she return?!" Grandpa Queyi and the rest were shocked.

Song Feiyao was the traitor who had left the island. She wore black phoenix garment and was standing on the Green East Sea God's back. She could clearly see the entire Licheng Afterglow Island below her. The lightning chains which were used to imprison the Green East Sea God kept unraveling and falling. The heavy lightning chains smashed onto the island's street, and lightning flashed terrifyingly.

After the Green East Sea God broke itself free of these chains, it regained its imposing aura that belonged to the totem beast. It flew in the sky and looked down at the islanders like an ancient holy beast staring down at a weak and small horde. The bone-chilling light in its gaze thunderstruck the islanders.

Mo Fan fixed his gaze at the woman in the black phoenix garment. He found her familiar. She was the woman he had met in the temple.

'Could this woman be the final elder that had been missing?' Mo Fan had never expected an elder of the island to be so young and beautiful. She was completely different from the wicked and old elders he had fought till now.

The woman was dressed in all black. Black color usually suggested death, silence, and seriousness. Mo Fan wondered about the meaning behind her attire.

"In this case, black doesn't represent an elder's identity. All the ladies on the island, including some ladies in Licheng City inherited the custom of wearing black. However, they usually wear black garments on specific days, such as worship festivals," Apas explained to Mo Fan. She had learnt about the black garment from Feiyan's memory.

Meanwhile, Mo Fan had no interest in customs. He was staring at his formidable enemies—The Green East Sea God and the woman in black phoenix garment.

Mo Fan expected these two to avenge Licheng Afterglow Island. When the Green East Sea God flew by, a strong gust of wind blew against him. It then flew toward the lake and away from Licheng Afterglow Island.

Mo Fan was puzzled. 'So, she wasn't here to fight me?'

He wondered why they had just flown away even seeing that he had turned the island upside down. As an elder and a very strong one at that who could even command the Green east Sea God, shouldn't she be fighting to save her home? Mo fan had even thought of fleeing if things got out of hand, but he had not expected her to just... leave.

"It's over! We're finished! The Green East Sea God left us. Song Feiyao took the Green East Sea God away..." Seventh Granny cried out at her wits' end.

The rest of them felt the same as the Seventh Granny. The Green East Sea God had been their last hope. But the Green East Sea God had not helped them during the great disaster, instead it left the island with Song Feiyao.

Without the Green East Sea God, Licheng Afterglow Island's tranquil boundary would weaken by half. Even with the combination of the Thundercat statue and other ancient statues, their powers were inferior to the Green East Sea God. Sooner or later, the Ocean Demons would discover Licheng Afterglow Island and launch a massive attack on the islanders.

Grandpa Queyi and the rest were in a daze, as if their souls had been sucked away. Even if their fury drove them to push Mo Fan out of the island, they could not ensure the island's safety anymore.

While they had been fighting to save their island, Song Feiyao had taken advantage of the opportunity. She unlocked the chains of atonement on the Green East Sea God. She had achieved her purpose.

"Black phoenix garment suggests atonement of sin. When the islander's ancestors first triggered the God's condemnation of the lightning disaster, they shifted all the blame to the Green East Sea God. In order to atone for their sin, they wore black phoenix garments. At that time, many experts from Licheng City came to seek revenge on the Green East Sea God, and it was severely wounded. When they were about to kill it, a woman in black phoenix garment told them that she would find a way to control the Green East Sea God."

"The ancestors of the island used lightning chains to imprison the Green East Sea God. It inhabited a place somewhere near the island. They assigned a lady from the hidden clan to look after the Green East Sea God every year. Those who were chosen wore black phoenix garment. The islanders hold a traditional atonement festival every year on the day when the lightning disaster happened in order to atone for their sins," Apas explained.

They held the annual Black Phoenix Garment festival for atonement. While the outsiders had thought they did this to seek God's forgiveness on behalf of the Green East Sea God, they were, in fact, seeking some comfort for the despicable, greedy, and ugly deeds their ancestors had committed. Moreover, they even attempted to control the Green East Sea God against its will.

The last elder did not share the same mentality as the other islanders. Mo Fan wondered if she had found out about the truth while looking after the Green East Sea God hence deciding to turn against her own people in the end.

There was at least someone with some common sense on Licheng Afterglow Island, after all.

“Both of you are in this together! Both of you have worked together! When did that b*tch hook up with you?!” Eldest Granny charged at Mo Fan and screamed at him.

Mo Fan swung a punch at the old bat without hesitation. She then saw a frightening lava river flowing past her less than half a meter away. Eldest Granny stood there motionlessly.

“I don’t mind fulfilling your death wish, if you’re asking for one. But I find that the punishment is too light if I just kill you here for all the things you have done,” Mo Fan said disdainfully.

“What exactly do you want?!”

Without the Underground Holy Spring and the Green East Sea God, the ideology of the dream island had been crushed to pieces. Licheng Afterglow Island would never be the same again. The islanders had never thought they would usher in an endless darkness at the end of dusk instead of greeting a gorgeous and beautiful sunset.

“I’ll inform the people at the fortress that the actual residents and nobles of Licheng City are those who rather fight with the Ocean Demons instead of migrating to the safest base city. Then I’ll leave them to deal with you. Here’s a friendly reminder for you. Before the people from the fortress come to raise the charge, you’d better take the initiative to return the Mingwu Ancient City’s statues. Tell them the truth about God’s condemnation that happened today and in the past. Return the Green East Sea God where it belongs,” said Mo Fan to the elders.

Mo Fan left with the holy spring essence in his hand. The Green East Sea God was a totem beast. It was an orthodox totem beast that the ancestors of Licheng Afterglow Island had imprisoned for many years in order to take all the blame for their misdeeds. Mo Fan had to find Song Feiyao to end the search for this totem beast.

As for the people of Licheng Afterglow Island, regardless of whether they wanted to continue staying on the island or go to the fortress to atone for their sins, it was entirely up to them. Mo Fan had crushed their ideology. Even though the islanders were safe, their arrogance had been crushed.

Besides, not everyone on the island was aware of the truth. They were shown that their elders weren’t as virtuous and powerful as they had imagined but were greedy and heinous. Could Licheng Afterglow Island still survive?

Chapter 2756: Licheng’s Divine Eagle

The Green East Sea God flew thousand meters away from Licheng Afterglow Island in the clear blue sky, as if it was its first taste of freedom in forever. It flew swiftly past unknown small islands, remote sea bays, and sea cliffs. The sight of islands, bays, and cliffs soon looked like tiny dots and lines between the land and the sea.

“You’ve finally regained your freedom. I promised you that I would help you break free of them. I finally did it!” Song Feiyao smiled.

She had been protesting against the elders for some time. But there was no progress... until now. Little did they know that Ruan Feiyan and Shu Xiaohua’s cunning scheming had caused Licheng Afterglow Island such a huge trouble.

Song Feiyao had never expected the guy to be so strong. She had underestimated him at the temple back then.

She recalled him with only a small injury when the lightning had struck. He was indeed strong! He had done her a huge favor!

If it had not been for him crushing the Licheng Afterglow Island so completely, she would have had a hard time doing away with the chains on the Green East Sea God because Grandpa Queyi always kept a close eye on it.

Suddenly, the Green East Sea God made a sound, as if it sensed an incoming threat behind it.

Song Feiyao turned her around and saw a winged figure following behind them. That figure flew at a breakneck speed and almost caught up with the Green East Sea God.

‘How did he do that?’ Song Feiyao was puzzled.

There was hardly any creature in this world whose speed was comparable to the Green East Sea God, let alone a mage. Song Feiyao had never expected the man who had overthrown Licheng Afterglow Island to catch up with them.

“Stop at the sea area over there. We’ll see what he’s up to,” Song Feiyao said to the Green East Sea God.

The Green East Sea God dove toward the sea area. It spread its wings as it approached a lone sea rock, then dove at full speed toward it before landing on it gracefully.

Soon, Mo Fan caught up with them. His Black Dragon Wing had a unique layer of dragon shadow that covered the sky of the sea area. The sea creatures were so terrified that they quickly swam away.

“Why are you hunting us down? Can’t you understand? If not for me taking the Green East Sea God away, you couldn’t possibly have won against the Licheng Afterglow Island,” Song Feiyao questioned Mo Fan.

“The reason I came to Licheng City is to look for that,” Mo Fan said solemnly while pointing at the Green East Sea God

“If it’s your target, forget it! It has just regained its freedom, and it won’t be enslaved to anyone anymore!” Song Feiyao said.

“Do you know what that is?” asked Mo Fan.

“It’s the Green East Sea God, Licheng City’s Divine Eagle,” said Song Feiyao.

“Are you aware of what it truly was before Licheng City was even built?” Mo Fan asked again.

Song Feiyao frowned. She did not understand what Mo Fan was trying to tell her. She remained alerted. She stared at Mo Fan with hostility.

Mo Fan sensed that Song Feiyao had a high level of cultivation. To his surprise, her cultivation was even stronger than the eight elders at Licheng Afterglow Island. Besides, she radiated a familiar aura. He realized that she was a mage who often cultivated at the Underground Holy Spring.

If that was the case, Licheng Afterglow Island had indeed brought up an expert with its Underground Holy Spring. When Song Feiyao discovered the Green East Sea God's truth, as well as her ancestors' stupidity and greed, she decided to leave them. As a result, the islanders branded her a traitor.

Song Feiyao had betrayed the islanders and broken the lightning chains on the Green East Sea God. Otherwise, the islanders would not have given in easily. She had done Mo Fan a huge favor.

"Hmph! You stole the holy spring essence, and I haven't settled the account with you. How dare you come after us?! Do you really think I'll be afraid of you?!" Song Feiyao glared at him.

For a moment, the sea below the rock began to swirl. As Song Feiyao's imposing aura grew stronger, the sea formed an enormous whirlpool. The whirlpool contained layers of turbulent waves. Even the giant whales would have difficulty swimming out of it once they got sucked into the whirlpool.

"I'm not afraid of you either. The Green East Sea God neither belongs to Licheng Afterglow Island, nor does it belong to you. It is an ancient totem beast. My friends and I are looking for totem beasts..." said Mo Fan.

Mo Fan took out the sketches of the mysterious Sacred Totem Beast's feather, Moon Moth Phoenix, and Chongming Divine Bird, then rolled them into a shaft before tossing it to Song Feiyao.

Song Feiyao caught it and unrolled them in puzzlement.

"Study carefully and see if the Green East Sea God's feather pattern under its wing has a missing piece. It is one of the four Sacred Totem Beasts as well as one of the feathered totem beasts. I need its complete feather pattern and incredible totem beast power," said Mo Fan to Song Feiyao.

"You are laying your eyes on the Green East Sea God's power!" It was clear that Song Feiyao was sensitive toward everything related to the Green East Sea God.

The Green East Sea God had regained its freedom after a long time. It was no longer chained with the heavy lightning chains. Song Feiyao was its most trusted person.

Song Feiyao showed hostility toward Mo Fan. Likewise, the Green East Sea God stared at Mo Fan with its razor-sharp gaze.

"I hope you won't be as stubborn as the people at Licheng Afterglow Island. You can come with me to meet other totem beasts to determine if I am speaking the truth. The Ocean Demons are strong and powerful. We are still unaware of many of their abilities. Thousand years ago, the Ocean Godly Horde invaded the eastern coast, and many totem beasts had fallen fighting them. As a result, the surviving totem beasts are fewer than they used to be. Before Licheng Afterglow Island shifted all the blame and enslaved the Green East Sea God, it was a part of the feathered totem beasts. Without the totem beasts protecting Licheng City, our ancestors would have long been killed by the Ocean Godly Horde in the last battle.”

“Totem beasts are independent. They continued generations after generations. When the older totem beasts died, the new generation of totem beasts that received the inheritance were born in this world. If the Green East Sea God died because of bearing the fault of your people, there will be no more Green East Sea God in this world. The hidden clan of Licheng Afterglow Island will have committed a sin they can never wash off!”

“You know nothing about the Green East Sea God,” said Mo Fan. “If you insist on taking it away, I believe we will never find the remaining long-lost totem beasts in this world ever again.”

Totem beasts were connected to one another. Like missing jigsaw puzzles, each totem beast represented one of the pieces.

Even though they found the mysterious totem beast feather at Lan Yang City and had made up a large part of the blank space on the totem beast scroll, they required other totem beasts’ sketches in order to look for clues for the next totem beast.

The sketches they had were still insufficient to deduce other totem beasts. They needed more totem beasts, especially those that were still alive so that they could communicate with other totem beasts to find them out.

Chapter 2757: The Moon Moth Phoenix And The Green East Sea God

“I’m different from them,” Song Feiyao emphasized her words.

“Then, try to act like it. Let the Green East Sea God come with me. We need to find other totem beasts through it,” said Mo Fan.

Song Feiyao hesitated. She was unsure if she could trust the man before her. But he did sound like he had a better understanding about the Green East Sea God than her.

“Show me the way,” said Song Feiyao. “I am not handing the Green East Sea God to you until you can prove that I can trust you with it.”

“Of course, I’ll prove to you that you can trust me.”

...

Mo Fan led the way. With the help of the magical tool—Black Dragon Wings, Mo Fan flew several thousands of kilometers within a short period of time.

It was midnight. Bone-chilling breeze continued to blow from the sea area to the dry land. Regardless of whether it was summer or spring, it always seemed like winter was around the corner. They felt freezingly cold. Ice began to form even in the warmest part of the abandoned city.

Mo Fan noticed on his way that most of the city was in such a state. The situation was dire. He wondered if Commander Hua had made any substantial progress and inflicted severe damage to the Ocean Godly Horde. He believed the end of the days on the east was the day the Ocean Godly Horde army surged to the east coast.

Mo Fan led Song Feiyao toward Flying Bird Base City. By midnight, they reached Yu Shishi's Spirit Moth Mountain Forest. The mountain forest still hadn't regenerated from the damage it had taken in the war not so long ago. Some areas were still bare.

The Green East Sea God made a sound. Some dim light glowed visibly in the middle of the dark blue mountain forest under the reflection of moonlight. The dim light was everywhere, like the mountain forest leaves. The light gradually appeared from the trees and jungles, forming a dimly lit Galaxia in the middle of the dark sea of mountain forest. It was serene and beautiful, like a fairyland night view.

Song Feiyao, on the other hand, frowned. She felt that it was more like a trap set up to besiege her. However, the Green East Sea God did not show any hints of suspicion. It continued to make sounds toward the gorgeous Spirit Moths.

A soft response rang out in return. The dazzling Moon Moth Phoenix gradually flew up to the sky from the Galaxia. Moon Moth Phoenix was responding to the Green East Sea God. It fluttered its illuminating wings and flew toward the Green East Sea God with surprise and curiosity.

"Mo Fan, what's happening?" Just then, a woman with a pair of moth wings flew to the sky like a night elf. She saw both the Green East Sea God and Mo Fan.

"It's a totem beast, the Green East Sea God. It belongs to the same lineage as the Moon Moth Phoenix," explained Mo Fan to Yu Shishi.

Yu Shishi's eyes lit up. She jumped onto the Moon Moth Phoenix's back and flew up to the sky.

The Green East Sea God was majestic and magnificent. Each of its feathers gave off a striking lightning power. It contradicted greatly with the Moon Moth Phoenix's gentleness. However, when these two totem beasts appeared in the night sky, the Green East Sea God's majesty and Moon Moth Phoenix's holiness matched perfectly. There was no sign of discrepancies in their bloodlines.

The Moon Moth Phoenix had grown up. It was no longer as frail and tiny as it was a few years ago. If all of its totem beast power was awakened, it could draw closer to other totem beasts.

"Are you a Totem Guardian, too?" asked Yu Shishi after she noticed Song Feiyao.

"I-I..." Song Feiyao was at a loss for words.

"Yu Shishi, let's go to the West Lake. I've informed the rest to gather there," Mo Fan said.

"Okay." Yu Shishi nodded. She believed Mo Fan and trusted him in his endeavor to find the rest of the totem beasts.

The Moon Moth Phoenix was a friendly totem beast. Its gentleness soon made the Green East Sea God let down its guard.

The Green East Sea God had been enslaved and chained for many years. Even though it had regained its freedom, it was filled with anger and hatred. If not for the fact that Song Feiyao had come from Licheng Afterglow Island with it, it would have crushed the entire island in its resentment.

The Green East Sea God met with the Moon Moth Phoenix. The Moon Moth Phoenix's serene aura gradually dissolved the Green East Sea God's resentment. Most of the totem beasts were spiritual creatures. They understood one another.

When Song Feiyao noticed the Moon Moth Phoenix's unique spirit rhyme, she also began to let down her guard. After all, the fact that the Moon Moth Phoenix could relieve the Green East Sea God's hatred showed that the Moon Moth Phoenix was trustworthy.

Moreover, the Green East Sea God and the Moon Moth Phoenix communicated in a very special way. They whispered to each other. Even though they had never seen each other, they communicated like close friends.

The Moon Moth Phoenix was happy. It flipped its crystal-clear wings and flew around the Green East Sea God. It left shiny frost with its tail over the area it brushed past. It took several seconds for the shiny frosts to disappear from the air.

The Little Spirit Moths sensed the Moon Moth Phoenix's happiness. They flipped their wings and flew out of the jungles. The Little Spirit Moths flew gracefully like glowing leaves. They flew around the Moon Moth Phoenix and the Green East Sea God in the night sky, as if putting on a starry night veil for the night sky. The view was simply breathtaking.

"We're leaving soon. Go to rest now... Oh, I forgot! You are night creatures. Go on, then." Mo Fan waved his hand and bade farewell to the Little Spirit Moths.

Mo Fan continued to lead the way while the Green East Sea God and the Moon Moth Phoenix flew together side by side. The two totem beasts were practically entwined with each other, as if they had known each other since birth. Whenever Mo Fan turned his head around, he felt a sense of discomfort while being reminded that he was still single.

3

"Don't get too close with each other. Based on the analysis of the sacred totem beasts, there's a high probability that both of you are siblings," Mo Fan said to the Moon Moth Phoenix and the Green East Sea God.

Yu Shishi rolled her eyes at him.

...

When they arrived at Hang Zhou, Mo Fan asked the Green East Sea God and the Moon Moth Phoenix to suppress their imposing totem beast aura to prevent disturbing the citizens. They carefully flew past Hang Zhou. Still, Mo Fan sensed someone was watching him from the city.

They were in the war era. The existence of two powerful creatures in the sky above Hang Zhou would certainly alarm some old mages. There was a chance that some of these old mages might be Forbidden Mages, and the Magic Association kept their identities a secret.

The Forbidden Mages were present in every base city in case the Ocean Demons launched sudden attacks. There were many common citizens around, hence the Forbidden Mages tried not to reveal too much of themselves. They would not simply show up and fight unless it was an emergency.

Chapter 2758: The Three Greatest Totem Beasts Reunited

When they arrived at the sky of the West Lake, Mo Fan asked the Green East Sea God if it had any transformational skills. It would be eye-catching if such an enormous creature appeared in the West Lake suddenly.

Unfortunately, the Green East Sea God did not have any. Moon Moth Phoenix transformed into a small moth and stood on Mo Fan's shoulder.

Mo Fan was out of solutions. So, he let the Green East Sea God land tentatively on the Su Causeway.

The Green East Sea God's claws were as big as the willow at the Su Causeway. Having it land on the Su Causeway was like having a whale swim in a pond.

Splash!

The lake water shook. An enormous black figure from the Three Pools Mirroring the Moon was swimming toward them at a breakneck speed. The water splashed out of the lake and sprayed all over the Su Causeway. Even the toughest willow almost broke with the force.

The Su Causeway was almost submerged. The Green East Sea God's claws were soaked in the water. It did not fly away. Instead, its eyes flashed with lightning and focused on the lake water.

Song Feiyao sucked in a deep breath. There was something huge inside that lake. It radiated a frightening and threatening aura by swimming towards them alone.

Its aura was not inferior to that of the Green East Sea God. In fact, it felt even more imposing than the Green East Sea God. Green East Sea God had been chained with lightning chains for many years, and its soul energy was still weak.

"Big guy don't scare them. This is the Green East Sea God, it shares the same lineage as the Moon Moth Phoenix," Mo Fan said, facing the moving lake water.

The huge ripples in the lake water gradually spread on both sides. The creature that had been moving aggressively under the water slowed down and swam toward the Su Causeway much more gently.

An enormous snake head appeared from the lake water and slowly rose to the Green East Sea God's eye level.

Unlike Apas, the Black Totem Snake was not afraid of the Green East Sea God at all. The Black Totem Snake had only shown its head and neck, and it was already the same height as the Green East Sea God. The Black Totem Snake was still half submerged under water. Its body was long and curled terrifyingly in the reflection.

"What is it...?"

A bird's shadow slid across the water surface before landing on the Black Totem Snake's head. A black figure revealed itself.

It was a woman in a rose trench coat. She looked elegant and dignified. She wore the Enforcement Union's leather uniform under her trench coat.

“Ms. Ms. Tangyue, it’s been a while. I’ve brought you a living totem beast. Its Totem Guardian seldom ventures outside, and she doesn’t quite trust my words,” said Mo Fan with a smile. “Besides, I hope we can discuss the current totem beasts in order to search for the next Sacred Totem Beast.”

“I-I’m not a Totem Guardian.” Song Feiyao said quickly.

“Regardless, the Green East Sea God trusts you alone. You have formed a bond with it,” said Mo Fan. “I don’t think it will follow anyone else except you. You can get to know Ms. Tangyue. She’s nice.”

Since ancient times, women’s holiness and compassion easily attracted totem beasts. The Moon Moth Phoenix, the Green East Sea God, and the Black Totem Snake’s guardians were all women.

Of course, not all totem beasts chose women as their guardians. For instance, Zhao Manyan was the Totem Guardian for the Black Totem Turtle.

The three women introduced themselves to one another. Song Feiyao seemed to be less suspicious of everything now. She turned to Mo Fan. “Are you also a Totem Guardian?”

“I am not very sure,” said Mo Fan. “My totem beast lives here.” He pointed to his chest.

The Chongming Divine Bird could be reborn from ashes. It was a rare immortal totem beast in this world. However, it turned into Mo Fan’s heart in order to save his life.

The totem beast lived within Mo Fan’s heart. Perhaps the Chongming Divine Bird would transform into a red stone and wait for its next rebirth after he died.

“When the King Skeleton attacked Shanghai Base City, Mo Fan killed the King Skeleton with the help of the Chongming Divine Bird...” Ms. Tangyue explained to Song Feiyao.

Song Feiyao had left Licheng Afterglow Island a long time ago. But she only wandered around the Licheng City area and was unaware of the happenings of the world.

‘So, he is the one who killed the King Skeleton?’ thought Song Feiyao, looking at Mo Fan in a completely new way. No wonder he could overthrow the whole of Licheng Afterglow Island alone.

“The Chongming Divine Bird...” Song Feiyao mumbled to herself. She had never seen other totem beasts in her life until now. She realized that Mo Fan was telling the truth.

She knew nothing about the totem beasts. She felt fortunate to have saved the Green East Sea God. He had been nearly destroyed by her elders.

“The Black Totem Snake, Black Totem Turtle, Moon Moth Phoenix, Green East Sea God, Chongming Divine Bird, Heavenly Scar Sacred Tiger, Aofu, Divine Deer... Also, Jiang Shaojun has collected the remnants of extinct totem beasts—The Seal of Totem Beast. I wonder if all these are sufficient to fill up the entire totem beast blueprint to find the next one,” Mo Fan said.

How many totem beasts were still alive in this world? How did the totem beasts defeat the powerful Ocean Godly Horde back then? They still had a very long way to go to find out.

Even though the Black Totem Snake, Black Totem Turtle, and Green East Sea God were of the level of the Supreme Ruler and were able to face the war by themselves, the Emperor-level Ocean Demons were the ones that caused the whole country on the East Coastline to struggle.

Mo Fan had once witnessed the mastermind behind the war—The Black Claw Emperor. Even the Black Snake Totem, Black Totem Turtle, Green East Sea God, and other similar totem beasts were no match for it.

They had to find one of the Sacred Totem Beasts. Otherwise, they could not possibly improve their current desperate situation.

Even Aofu, one of the Dark Tortoise lineage totem beasts, had its remains left under the sea. It would be difficult to expect the appearance of another Dark Tortoise totem beast this soon.

White Tiger totem beast was the rarest. Mo Fan and his group dared not enter Kunlun Ancestor Tiger. Finding a complete White Tiger totem beast was a major concern for them.

If the mysterious feather belonged to a Sacred Totem Beast, did that mean that the Maple Leave Divine Feather scattered at Lan Yang City suggested that it had died long ago, or did it mean it was still alive in some other way in some part of the world? They were still missing a piece related to the mysterious sacred totem beast feather of this lineage.

There was also the Cloud Ancestor Snake that overrode the Black Totem Snake. What were the other totem beasts that were related to the Cloud Ancestor Snake?

1

“Mo Fan, do you plan to find one of the Sacred Totem Beasts?” Ms. Tangyue was aware of Mo Fan’s purpose of gathering the totem beasts together.

“Without the Sacred Totem Beasts, we can’t change anything in the war against the Ocean Godly Horde,” said Mo Fan.

Chapter 2759: Rescue Commander Hua

“If we can find a living Sacred Holy Totem, we still stand a chance in the fight against the Ocean Godly Horde,” Ms. Ms. Tangyue said.

1

Song Feiyao stared at Mo Fan. She finally understood his true intention. He wanted to improve the East Coastline’s dire situation. The Ocean Demons were too powerful. Even a common Ruler-level demon was capable of threatening mages of the same level. Meanwhile, the totem beasts were far more powerful than the common demons on the dry land. If they wanted to fight the Ocean Demons, the totem beasts played key roles in the battle.

Whenever Song Feiyao recalled how the Licheng Afterglow Islanders sacrificed the people in the fortress for the sake of protecting themselves in the middle of the war against the Ocean Demons, she hated the islanders even more. She was ashamed to be a part of Licheng Afterglow Island. In the middle of such a disaster, everyone should have been contributing to help each other.

“If you need any help from me, please don’t hesitate to let me know,” Song Feiyao said solemnly to Mo Fan. She felt like she could trust him now.

“It’s fine as long as you know where you stand and understand the truth and importance of the Green East Sea God,” said Mo Fan.

Ms. Tangyue smiled. She was going to ask some questions to know more about the Green East Sea God, but her phone rang.

Ms. Tangyue answered the call. The person on the other end of the line talked briefly, but Ms. Tangyue had a serious look on her face.

“Mo Fan, the Elder of the Magic Court summons me back. It must be something urgent,” said Ms. Tangyue.

“Is it from the Lingyin Enforcement Union?” Mo Fan looked up at Lingyin Mountain.

“The Elder of the Magic Court asked me to bring you with me,” said Ms. Ms. Tangyue.

“Tang Zhong asked me to come along with you?” Mo Fan was puzzled.

...

They let the three greatest totem beasts play in the West Lake while Mo Fan, Ms. Tangyue, and Song Feiyao headed toward Lingyin Mountain.

The bamboo grove inside the Lingyin Mountain was the entrance to the Lingyin Enforcement Union. When the trio arrived at the destination, Tang Zhong stood in the grove waiting for them. It was clear that he did not intend to let them enter the Lingyin Enforcement Union any further.

Tang Zhong pointed at one corner of the grove. “Let’s go over there.”

He looked depressed and worried. As an experienced Elder of the Magic Court, he seldom looked so restless. Something big must have happened.

“Who is she?” Tang Zhong was alarmed when he saw Song Feiyao.

“She’s the Totem Guardian of the Green East Sea God. She came from Licheng Afterglow Island,” explained Mo Fan. “Mr. Tang, what’s the matter? Tell us. Are we still not worthy of your trust?”

“It’s my own problem. I’m a bit too nervous. I intended to ask Ms. Ms. Tangyue and her Black Totem Snake to help me with something. But since you’re around, I think it’s best to let you handle it,” said Tang Zhong.

“What exactly is going on?” Mo Fan frowned.

“A VIP has been paying attention to you since you were in Pearl Institution. He looked after you well...” said Tang Zhong.

“Has something happened to Commander Hua?” Mo Fan cried out in shock.

When they were at Emperor Qin Island, Commander Hua had admitted that he was the “VIP” who had been looking after Mo Fan. After the great disaster at the Ancient Capital, he allowed Mo Fan to join the Ancient Capital Institute through his own connections.

Commander Hua was the one who had highly recommended Shao Zheng to be the Totem Emissary.

The moment Tang Zhong mentioned a VIP who had looked after him, Mo Fan knew it was Commander Hua.

Tang Zhong coughed. His face reddened. “It’s not as bad as that. But he has most likely fallen.”

Mo Fan’s jaw dropped. Mo Fan remembered Commander Hua calmly eating squid skewers and talking with them. He didn’t want to lose him.

“I thought Commander Hua was just gauging the Emperor’s strength?” asked Mo Fan. “How did he die?”

“Commander Hua is not dead yet!” Ms. Tangyue rolled her eyes.

“I’m not very clear about his exact situation. Commander Hua’s nature is somewhat... elusive,” said Tang Zhong. “All I know is that he is in a complicated state. I guessed he is trapped somewhere near Hawaii and is severely wounded.”

“That is no different than waiting for death,” said Mo Fan.

Hawaii had long become one of the army’s fortresses. It served as one of the important strategic war zones for the Americans to gain a deeper understanding of their enemy lines.

The Ocean Demons had harmed the Americans, especially at San Francisco. All of their blockbuster movies about monsters and disasters had come to fruition.

Not long ago, Mo Fan learned that the Americans had basically retreated from Hawaii. Hawaii was located in the middle of the Pacific Ocean. The situation there was dire. It was no different than being like a lone island in the middle of the Ocean Demons’ nest.

If Commander Hua was trapped inside and severely wounded, the mastermind behind the war—The Black Claw Emperor— would certainly summon powerful creatures and besiege Hawaii. It would go to any length to get rid of the person who had continuously got in its way of attacking the East Chinese Coastline.

“Shut up, Mo Fan!” Tang Zhong glared at Mo Fan. “The situation is extremely urgent. But there’s still hope that we can rescue him.”

“I’m all ears,” said Mo Fan.

“The Black Claw Emperor is severely injured, too. Commander Hua and the Black Claw Emperor are recuperating somewhere nearby the Pacific Ocean. We must rescue Commander Hua before the Black Claw Emperor gathers its subordinates to kill him,” said Tang Zhong.

“Reaching the center of the Pacific Ocean is an arduous task,” said Mo Fan.

“Yes. Our army has had great difficulty even to cross half of the Pacific Ocean. According to the Enforcement Union’s investigation, other forces have interfered in Commander Hua’s mission against the Black Claw Emperor,” Tang Zhong said solemnly.

“Other forces?” Mo Fan noticed something else in Tang Zhong’s face.

“For now, we won’t inform the public, the government, the army, Magic Association, Hunter Union, and Family Union. We need to undertake our rescue mission in secret,” said Tang Zhong.

“Is it because of the Godly Horde Prophets?” Mo Fan asked gravely.

It was clear that Tang Zhong did not want everyone to learn about Commander Hua’s injury. Mo Fan didn’t understand why the information needed to be hidden.

Commander Hua’s exact location was critical. Once the Ocean Godly Horde found out his location, Commander Hua would be isolated in the Pacific Ocean.

The Godly Horde Prophet could manipulate humans’ minds. There was a high possibility that the Godly Horde Prophet’s puppets were hiding among the army, government, Magic Association, and other organizations. Once, the South Emperor manipulated an Ice Element Forbidden Mage’s mind and learnt about major plans.

In the past, the demons on the dry land would fight on a large scale instead of planning their move. But the demons had evolved...

Chapter 2760: Bring Along The Three Greatest Totem Beasts

“The Godly Horde Prophets must have known about Commander Hua’s plan. It’s no surprise that they are now using their puppets—humans— to look frantically for Commander Hua,” said Tang Zhong.

Commander Hua was the most important man in the East Coastline battle. The Ocean Godly Horde had targeted him and would attempt to kill him as much as possible.

He was severely wounded and weakened. If the Black Claw Emperor used the Godly Horde Prophet’s ability to manipulate humans’ minds and search for him, Commander Hua would be in serious trouble.

The army could not possibly cross half of the Pacific Ocean to reach Hawaii. The Godly Horde Prophets kept a close watch on humans. If humans made a large scale of movement, Commander Hua’s exact location would be exposed. Once the Ocean Demons learned about it, they would find Commander Hua ahead of any of them and kill him.

This was why Tang Zhong had been so vigilant. He did not exercise his power in the Enforcement Union and had instead summoned Ms. Tangyue and Mo Fan. Tang Zhong was wary that some of his men within the Enforcement Union had become the Godly Horde Prophet’s puppets. It was a very serious issue. Even though the Enforcement Union was known for its strictness, there was the Black Vatican before this. The Godly Horde Prophet’s power in manipulating the puppets was unrivaled.

“I’ll go to Hawaii.” Mo Fan said quickly.

This was a matter of national crisis. If Commander Hua was killed in the Pacific Ocean, the East Coastline would practically collapse. Many people would die unless they could evacuate the coastline and move to safety very quickly. Even if the people were to retreat to the central and western region, the weather there was cold, and resources were scarce.

Besides, the path from east to central and western regions were fraught with demons and monsters. It would be a bloodbath.

“We’ll find Commander Hua.” Ms. Tangyue said with determination.

“No, Ms. Tangyue, you must stay here,” said Tang Zhong. “Mo Fan will go alone.”

Mo Fan was puzzled. But he nodded. “No problem. I can go alone but I will need to take the Black Totem Snake with me. My power will not be enough.”

Ms. Tangyue was stunned. “How can you ask Mo Fan to make the journey alone?!” she said. “He can’t risk his life...”

Mo Fan patted her shoulders. “Ms. Tangyue, don’t worry. You can stay at Hang Zhou. Mr. Tang might need your help.”

“What else is more critical than Commander Hua’s life?” said Ms. Tangyue. “Mo Fan, do you think I will slow you down if I go with you?”

Ms. Tangyue had three Super Level elements. Her cultivation was even higher than Mo Fan’s. In fact, she was the one who had taught him the Fire and Shadow elements! He would not dare to look down on her.

“Of course not, Ms. Tangyue! Your presence would be enough to win this. But right now, I think you have greater matters to attend to,” said Mo Fan with a smile. “I will talk to the totem beasts before departing.”

The matter was very urgent. He could not waste his time talking. Ms. Tangyue watched Mo Fan leave with disappointment. But she knew Mo Fan. He had become very strong and could handle it.

As Mo Fan vanished out of sight, Ms. Tangyue recalled the day Mo Fan had first sought her out to teach him Fire element magical power at Tianlan Magic High School. She remembered his desire to learn the Shadow element magical power. He had grown from an innocent high school student to an expert within the blink of an eye. Ms. Tangyue could not help but feel very proud of him. After all, she was his teacher.

“Ms. Tangyue, the reason I didn’t allow you to go with him is not because of your lack of ability. I know there is no one here who can surpass you.” Tang Zhong interrupted Ms. Tangyue’s train of thought.

“I understand. I won’t take it personally,” said Ms. Tangyue.

“I thought you would have figured out what I needed for you to do next,” Tang Zhong said solemnly.

Ms. Tangyue looked at him in surprise. Realization hit her suddenly. “So, you want me to...”

“The Godly Horde Prophet’s puppets within the East Coastline fortress are like cancerous tumors. They will continue to expand and affect us. Mo Fan is not a member of the union, so he is least likely to be manipulated. Therefore, he is the most suitable person to go on this rescue mission,” said Tang Zhong.

“Regardless of whether he can accomplish his mission or not, he is the most trustworthy person to be given this mission. As for you...” Tang Zhong’s eyes gleamed with murderous intent. “I would like you to take care of the traitors here.”

Tang Zhong really lived up to his reputation as an experienced Elder of the Magic Court. Ms. Tangyue realized there was more to Tang Zhong than met the eye. Apart from being powerful, strategy mattered the most.

There was no need for her to go along with Mo Fan. Mo Fan would likely succeed with her Black Totem Snake with him.

She, on the other hand, could take advantage of the opportunity to find out and get rid of the puppets. If she succeeded, she could blind the Ocean Godly Horde’s prying eyes on humans momentarily.

This was going to be a long war. Regardless of whether Commander Hua could survive the calamity or not, the war would continue. It was of utmost importance to get rid of the Godly Horde Prophet.

“I’ll do my best.” Ms. Tangyue was firm. Her heart filled with resolve.

“I know you won’t disappoint.” Tang Zhong nodded. His creased brows smoothed a little.

...

Mo Fan and Song Feiyao returned to the West Lake. The three totem beasts were still there.

As usual, the Moon Moth Phoenix was very close with the Green East Sea God. They whispered to each other.

Meanwhile, the Black Totem Snake was laid-back. It laid its enormous head on the Su Causeway, as if it was going to sleep until the next morning.

Yu Shishi strolled on the Su Causeway. She was not interested in matters surrounding the Enforcement Union. Besides, she hated the Magic Association’s members who used to bully her.

The Black Totem Snake opened its eyes when Mo Fan and Song Feiyao approached.

“Big guy, do you want to take a walk with me in the Pacific Ocean?” said Mo Fan to the Black Totem Snake.

The Black Totem Snake’s yellowish eyes lit up. It was bored of staying at West Lake. It raised its head and was ready to depart at a moment’s notice.

“Yu Shishi, stay at Hang Zhou with the Moon Moth Phoenix for a few days. We’ll discuss the Sacred Totem Beast issue after I come back,” said Mo Fan.

They needed help from Lingling and Jiang Shaoxu in finding clues for the Sacred Totem Beast, now that the Green East Sea God was around to provide them with further clues. Lingling and Jiang Shaoxu would arrive soon.

“Do you plan to go alone?” Song Feiyao stared at Mo Fan.

Mo Fan pointed at the Black Totem Snake. “Well... I have that.”

“Maybe I can come along,” said Song Feiyao. “The Green East Sea God never misses a target.”

“Um...” Mo Fan hesitated.

“If she’s going, take the Moon Moth Phoenix with you as well. It looks like you’re heading to a dangerous place,” said Yu Shishi.

The three greatest totem beasts together on this journey? Mo Fan’s army was complete. Besides, Commander Hua was in danger, he would need every help he could get. After all, they might most likely face demons of the King Skeleton’s level.