Chapter 2771: Deputy Royal Guard

The silver river flowed to the center of the city through steep mountain rocks. The water flowed gently down. It was so clean that one could clearly see the bottom of the bank that had been scrubbed smooth by the flow of water.

Ye Mei stood at the top of the waterfall. The fog had dispersed. There was less movement now in the city below her.

Even though Pang Lai had given his order, Ye Mei could not stop herself from heading toward the city.

The Squid King was a powerful Ruler-level Ocean Demon. Even the powerful Night Rakshasa was no match for it. Ye Mei did not want any of her team members to die, including the young mage whom they had met halfway through.

Two crimson figures flashed by the jagged edges of the waterfall. Ye Mei noticed some movement from the corner of her eye, including the moving vines after the breeze blew past, the splashing of water, the falling of leaves...

Ye Mei saw that everything was back to normal. She wondered if her mind had been playing tricks on her.

As an Apex-grade mage, Ye Mei would not overlook even a single misconception.

She fixed her gaze at the area where the leaves had fallen. A piece of shell-like rock was stuck between the steep slope, as if it could roll down with the slow flow of the waterfall at any moment.

“Splash!”

Suddenly, a crimson rat-like figure sprang up from the area where the waterfall met the ground. The figure looked as if it had become invisible under the shade.

Most people could not detect its presence with their usual sensory organs. They would have mistaken it for a splash of water. They could not identify it because there was no sound or vibration in the air. They could not see it with their naked eyes. They only became aware of it when they felt the dampness and the coldness.

Ye Mei turned around and stared at the Ocean Demon. She held a flower vine and flung it at the crimson figure. The flower vine produced more thorns as it darted at the crimson figure and fired its thorns like a rainstorm.

The crimson figure reversed its direction in the mid-air to escape. However, the flower vines densely covered with thorns struck it. The thorns pierced its body. It looked like a rotten persimmon before falling to the ground.

Ye Mei heard another strange cry. She looked up and saw a crimson Hunter Dirty Demon appear at the position of the Aquarius Magic Formation.

She frowned. She was about to return to the bottom of the Aquarius Magic Formation when several crimson Hunter Dirty Demons appeared on both sides of the trees. They were aware that they were no match for Ye Mei, hence they swarmed at her to stall for time.

“Shifting flowers for wood!” Ye Mei shouted.

When the crimson Hunter Dirty Demons charged at Ye Mei, her tall and slim figure transformed into a slender flower vine. When she came in contact with the Hunter Dirty Demons, the flower vine encircled them and produced flower blades, forming a razor-sharp storm.

The four Hunter Dirty Demons were killed in the blink of an eye. Their blood splashed in the blue-silver river.

The flower vine on top of the waterfall transformed into a human again. Then, she began to walk towards the waterfall.

“Go to hell!” Ye Mei returned to the highest point of the waterfall. Her palm had transformed into a blade and she stabbed at the Ruler-level Hunter Dirty Demon that attempted to destroy the Aquarius Magic Formation.

Countless vines entwined her arms as they extended from her palm and transformed into a long spear.

She pierced the Ruler-level Hunter Dirty Demon’s head with her sharp spear. The cunning Hunter Dirty Demon was terrifying. Even though its head had been penetrated by Ye Mei’s spear, it kept attacking her. It spread its claws and tried to attack her chest, going for her heart!

Ye Mei remained indifferent. She moved her finger slightly. Many long and sharp thorns grew rapidly from other parts of the spear and pierced the Ruler-level Hunter Dirty Demon...

Even so, the Hunter Dirty Demon still approached her with its claws. Ye Mei glowed in white light, and she was protected in a pure white Ice Armor. A piercing sound was heard before Ye Mei retreated dozens of meters away, making a big splash in the river above the waterfall.

The Ruler-level Hunter Dirty Demon was terrifying. Even though its head and body had been severely injured, it continued to attack brutally. It decided to perish together with its enemy. Ye Mei had never expected to confront such a pesky Ruler-level Hunter Dirty Demon where she was forced to use her magical equipment to defend herself.

Even a low-level Ruler Hunter Dirty Demon was that wicked, let alone the strongest Ruler-level Hunter Dirty Demon. Ye Mei had used her power—Shifting flowers for wood. Even if she rushed to the city center, she would not be able to return on time if another Hunter Dirty Demon tried to destroy the Aquarius Magic Formation.

‘That’s weird, where’s the Squid King?’ Ye Mei noticed there was not much movement in the city below her. The Squid King was enormous, it could not possibly be so quiet.

Ye Mei carefully scanned her surroundings, still she did not see the Squid King. Instead, she saw Night Rakshasa leaping on top of the buildings. Whenever there was a flash of bone-chilling light, a gush of blood splashed on the building walls.

Ye Mei was puzzled. She noticed a figure moving quickly and soon appeared before her from the slope of the waterfall.

“Why did you come here?” Ye Mei asked coolly.

“I saw a bunch of Hunter Dirty Demons heading here. I’m afraid you can’t take on them alone. After all, you’re the key in this Aquarius Magic Formation and the Ocean Demons seemed to have noticed this,” Mo Fan said calmly as he stared at the strict and not-so-friendly older sister before him.

He noticed many Hunter Dirty Demons carcasses on the ground. One of them was Ruler level. Mo Fan was surprised.

He had taken only a short time to reach here. Even though there was no Commander-level Hunter Dirty Demon, the fact that Ye Mei could slaughter all the Hunter Dirty Demons including a low-level Ruler meant that she was very powerful.

Ye Mei found Mo Fan’s words hilarious. ‘I can’t take them on alone?’

She was a Deputy Royal Guard, as well as a top-notch mage at the Imperial Capital. Why would she need a young mage’s help?

“Ask Jiang Yu and Night Rakshasa to remain on their guards,” said Ye Mei as she walked away.

“Where are you going?” Mo Fan asked.

“I’m going to kill the Squid King,” said Ye Mei.

“Nonsense! Do you really think the Squid King is a useless Ocean Demon that simply bluffs about its strength?” said Ye Mei.

“Look! It’s freshly roasted and it’s still hot. Do you want to take a bite?” said Mo Fan as he extended a huge roasted piece of meat towards her.

He had saved that piece for the Green East Sea God.

Chapter 2772: Not Because the Royal Mages Are Weak

Ye Mei had assumed Mo Fan was just another bratty young mage who was full of himself. But now, she carefully looked at the large piece of squid meat he held out to her. Her face looked slightly less strict, even surprised.

It was truly the Squid King! ‘How did the powerful Ruler-level Ocean Demon die?’

Even if Pang Lai were the one who fought it, he could not possibly kill it in such a short period of time.

‘What exactly happened in that bizarre fog?’ she wondered. She had heard a commotion and was worried that Mo Fan and Jiang Yu were going to die. So, she had rushed into the city.

“Ye Mei, the Stingray King flew into the magic formation and it’s charging towards you. We’ve been caught up with the Blue-Haired Female Demon Legion.” A voice rang out.

It must have come from a certain Sound element magical equipment.

Mo Fan looked up at the entrance of the valley. The Stingray King covered in metallic black filled with an evil aura flew past the valley sky. It flew lower as it charged toward them aggressively.

He noticed the glow of demonic eyes surrounding them. They were staring at him and Ye Mei.

The number of crimson figures grew. The Hunter Dirty Demons were creatures with a strange type of movement. They and the other Ocean Demons had skirted around the fortress defended by the mages to reach the back.

The Hunter Dirty Demons were of higher levels. They were at least at Commander level. Also, there were many Ruler levels among them.

Among the vast Ocean Demon hordes, the Commander-level Ocean Demons were the elite. However, they were not the rulers. In fact, the mastermind behind the army—The Black Claw Emperor— was the one that ruled the kingdom. Therefore, it was not surprising to find thousands of Commander-level Ocean Demons among them.

The Pacific Ocean was a vast ocean. When the powerful Ocean Demons gathered together, they could inflict severe damage to any cities on the dry lands.

“You take on the Hunter Dirty Demons while I’ll take on the Stingray King,” both of them said together. They stared at each other.

Ye Mei scoffed. “The Stingray King could be more powerful than the Squid King. Mages like you can’t even get close to it!”

“I believe you’ve misunderstood me. You are aware that the country assigned several rescue teams, and your team represents the Royal Mages. Meanwhile, I represented the Enforcement Union. I alone represent the team, and there must surely be a reason for it,” Mo Fan blurted out.

Jiang Yu rushed over as he overheard Mo Fan’s words. He sighed. ‘Mo Fan’s skills have definitely improved a great deal, but can’t he be a little humble?’

Ye Mei was so angry at his arrogance that she almost wanted to strike him across his cheeky little face. ‘Does he mean he is stronger than the Royal Mages combined?’

“Please don’t misunderstand me,” said Mo Fan, thinking it was not such a good idea to offend Ye Mei. “I do not mean you are weak. I wouldn’t dare. All I am saying is... I... um...”

Ye Mei’s anger did not subside. Jiang Yu wanted to cry. ‘Mo Fan, stop being dumb.’

The Black Totem Snake was very powerful. But the Stingray King was not as stupid as the Squid King to fall into Mo Fan’s trap. Apart from the Stingray King, there were several other high-level Rulers outside the magic formation. The Royal Mages and Pang Lai had stopped them outside for now. However, if the Royal Mages and Pang Lai collapsed, a single Black Totem Snake could not do much to stop the Ocean Demon elite from devouring the humans.

“Fine. I’ll just stay here!” Ye Mei said indifferently. She had better use her time and energy elsewhere than to argue with a brat.

“Ms. Ye, don’t worry. He hasn’t revealed his trump card yet. He won’t die easily,” Jiang Yu said.

Ye Mei thought about the Squid King and looked at Mo Fan carefully. She did not say anything. She merely stared at Mo Fan as if he was a specimen at her dissecting table. Her stare seemed to be saying, “fine then, prove yourself.”

The Stingray King had arrived in the city. Its enormous body floated at less than a hundred meters above them.

The Stingray King’s wings had silver inner surfaces with flat air holes. There were plenty of tiny stingrays burrowing out of its wings. The massive number of the tiny stingrays covered half of the Silver-Blue Valley City. They flew low and swarmed into the city like locusts.

Mo Fan returned to the city area. The city was the Aquarius’s body. It was more spacious. Thus, it would serve as the magical array battlefield. The waterfall was at the very bottom of the magic formation.

The entrance of the Aquarius was narrow; hence the other Ocean Demon hordes were unable to barge in. The Stingray King was extremely cunning. It had sucked its Stingray Legion into its air holes. If the Stingray King squeezed its way into the Aquarius entrance, it could bring along its Stingray Legion...

There were plenty of tiny stingrays. Some of them were as tiny as bats, while some of them were as big as a small airplane. Meanwhile, the Stingray King was as massive as a gigantic cargo ship. The moment the Stingray King arrived at its destination; it released all its tiny stingrays for battle.

Ye Mei was worried when she saw the large number of stingrays filling the magic formation. The Stingray King was as powerful as the Squid King. Moreover, it took advantage of its strength by bringing in its Stingray Legion.

If this type of Ocean Demon appeared in the cities, she wondered how humans would fight them. The appearance of the Ocean Demons thus far had only been the tip of an iceberg.

“You stay here,” she said to Jiang Yu. Ye Mei could not bear to watch this anymore.

Night Rakshasa was a Great Ruler level, and Jiang Yu possessed other elements of magical power. With that, Ye Mei believed they could guard the axis of the magic formation and take on the Hunter Dirty Demons.

“Ms. Ye, to be frank, Mo Fan brought along the guardian of Hang Zhou with him. The Black Totem Snake is the one that severely wounded the Squid King before Master Pang killed it with a single slash,” said Jiang Yu.

“Guardian of Hang Zhou?”

“Yes, the Black Totem Snake is a totem beast. Even the Stingray King is no match for the Black Totem Snake...” Before Jiang Yu finished speaking, he noticed something above the Silver-Blue Valley City. Mo Fan had summoned a creature with the Holy Spirit, and it glowed in the moonlight.

“Is the guardian of Hang Zhou a... moth?” Ye Mei pointed at the sacred Moon Moth Phoenix that appeared beside Mo Fan.

The Moon Moth Phoenix glowed radiantly. It looked mysterious and divine. It shone brightly over the Silver-Blue Valley City and overwhelmed the black Stingray Legion.

“W-What is this...?” Jiang Yu was dumbfounded.

‘Where’s the snake? Why is there another totem beast?!’

Chapter 2773: Moon Moth Phoenix vs Stingray King

The glow of Moon Moth Phoenix slowly spread to the surroundings. Soon, it lit up the top of Silver-Blue Valley City and changed. A pair of wings, a slender body, and an antenna appeared.

Stingrays had occupied the city and caused it to have a foul atmosphere. With the increasing number of flying, shapeshifting spirits, the stingray army that occupied the sky above the city began to retreat.

Those spirits were the Little Spirit Moths that always accompanied the Moon Moth Phoenix. These Spirit Moths were significantly more massive than the Guardian Spirit Moths in Fanxue Mountain. Their wings were thin and soft, but at the critical moment, they would turn into blades that could cut through the enemy. The glow on their bodies was like an armor made by moonlight that fully protected them. They were Combat Spirit Moths.

The Spirit Moths reproduced quickly. With the blessing of the Queen—Moon Moth Phoenix—Spirit Moths had grown significantly in Fanxue Mountain. There were spirit moths of various abilities. Some spread pollen; some collected information; some worked hard; and some nourished plants.

They were like a mini country of their own. When a country owned land and had workers, it naturally possessed an army.

Compared with those black stingrays, Armed Spirit Moths looked much weaker. However, Armed Spirit Moths were skilled at using spells. They could fight against the arrogant and powerful stingrays with their special skills.

The glow from the Armed Spirit Moths grew stronger and brighter. From the ground, it looked like a giant butterfly bursting with divine energy. It covered Silver-Blue Valley City with its body and blocked the invasion of the Stingray Legion.

It became difficult for the Stingray Legion to go further. Right then, the Stingray King sent out a vibration like a sound wave from its position up high in the sky. The stingrays which were flying everywhere then formed an orderly queue.

The shape they made together looked like a huge diamond. When they flew in mid-air in such a uniform formation, they were comparable to a large and spectacular honor guard. They flew under the Stingray King like a military parade.

There was a buzzing sound. The stingrays flew densely and built a black fortress in the air. The fins of all stingrays produced a strange tremor which culminated into a terrifying shock wave.

The shock wave produced by the fins continued to build. It changed from a tremor to a terrifying sweep of destruction toward Armed Spirit Moths and Silver-Blue Valley City.

The buildings of Silver-Blue Valley City were of different heights. Although the buildings were not in order, they were still organized. The streets were also planned to be laid out in an orderly fashion. It was rare to have such a resort town where modernity and tranquility coexisted. After the shock wave produced by the fins attacked the well-preserved Silver-Blue Valley City, those buildings turned into powder in an instant.

The sound waves of the stingrays' fins rose above everything. The moths who heard it felt a tingling pain in their heads and could not hear any other sound. The place turned into dust.

The shock wave also attacked the Armed Moth Army of the Moon Moth Phoenix. They wore the Sacred Moonlight Armor, which made them impregnable. Many of them together looked very majestic. But after the shock wave produced by the fins struck, the Sacred Moonlight Armor on the Armed Spirit Moths shattered. Their bodies became as thin as paper scattered.

The Stingray King proudly circled above the Moon Moth Phoenix as if amused.

The Moon Moth Phoenix was indifferent. Its bright and light body flew in the air and left many afterimages.

The Stingray Legion did not care about the afterimages at first, but when the Moon Moth Phoenix flapped its wings, all the afterimages of the Moon Moth Phoenix flew fiercely to the Stingray Legion that formed the fortress.

The fortress formed by stingrays was sturdy. If these afterimages focused on attacking a small area, it would do no damage at all. If they spread out and attacked the entire fortress, they would not be able to injure and kill every stingray. However, the Moon Moth Phoenix did not want to kill the stingrays that formed a fortress. Its target was the tails of these stingrays. A stingray's tail was long and looked like a curved kite string.

The afterimages flew past and cut many of the stingrays' tails. These tails fell from the sky like rain.

The tailless stingrays could not balance themselves in the air. They had been able to produce such a terrifying wave of destruction because they matched the frequency of the vibration of their tail and their wings. To maintain such a consistent frequency, they flew orderly and densely to transmit the vibration to ensure that all the stingrays were at the same pace. Without the tails, the stingrays could not fly in balance, so they could not receive the frequency of the vibration of other companions' wings.

So, the terrifying shock wave weakened. It was so weak that it could not even destroy the greenbelt of Silver-Blue Valley City.

The Stingray King was no longer proudly hovering in the sky. It looked down at the Moon Moth Phoenix. Although it was impossible to see its face clearly, its metallic black body exuded a cold and angry aura.

Moon Moth Phoenix was not afraid at all. Its scattering Armed Spirit Moths quickly returned to make a Star Formation. The Moon Moth Phoenix was like the bright moon in the midsummer night sky. Stars all over the sky surrounded it, and the bright and holy light illuminated the whole sky and earth.

The Stingray King was like thick, dark, and dense clouds. The clouds tried to completely cover the stars and moonlight, plunging the entire world into darkness as cold and silent as the bottom of an abyss.

Finally, the Armed Spirit Moth and Stingray Legion were mixed. The white Spirit Moths and black stingrays were distinctively different in colors. The only common color between them was the color of blood, a shockingly bright red.

The Moon Moth Phoenix and the Stingray King fought. Moon Moth Phoenix's strength had become as equal as its previous generations. When it fully matured, it could easily fight a demon like Black Totem Snake.

Ye Mei looked in awe as she saw the Moon Moth Phoenix intercept the terrifying army of Stingray King above the Silver-Blue Valley City. If it were an army of mages, it would be difficult to resist the power of the Stingray King.

She remembered what Mo Fan had said. One person was equivalent to a rescue team. It seemed like he was not bragging.

Chapter 2774: Eight-Headed Serpent

There was a rumble.

The earth trembled violently and caused the whole Aquarius to shake. Ye Mei stood on the waterfall and almost slipped down the slope. As she gained her footing, she turned to see what was causing it. A chill went down her back.

Behind her was an undulating mountain range. Several heads higher than the mountain were swaying in the light blue sky. All she could see were their necks. The mountain had blocked the rest of their bodies.

More heads stuck out from under the mountains, and each of them was ferocious and mighty as the other. They possessed the wildness and arrogance of ancient demons and a bit of the divinity among monsters. They came from an unknown world, and it was enough to make a land tremble. Those were the heads of a snake.

There were eight of them in total. Those heads swayed in the air. Huge beasts and demonic evil spirits were nothing in front of its demonic aura. It slithered slowly. The choice for them was to either surrender or let it tear them into pieces.

'It's the big snake in that volcano!' Ye Mei's back was drenched with cold sweat as she looked at the creature.

Even when she had seen that snake before, she had felt terrified of it. But now it had crossed the mountain and slithered to the Silver-Blue Valley City like a cruel tyrant. It had only one goal: to kill as many people as possible.

Mo Fan also felt the intense aura. When he found the source, the big snake in the volcano had already reached the bottom of the bottle.

Across the Aquarius' wall, its eight heads stretched out at the same time. Sixteen fierce eyes of different colors looked down at Mo Fan, Ye Mei, and Jiang Yu at the bottom of the bottle!

Jiang Yu was the first to fall on the ground, his legs trembling. Ye Mei and Mo Fan remained standing, but they could feel goosebumps all over their bodies.

When facing the vast army of Ocean Demons, the sturdiness of Aquarius had provided them with hope and relief. However, when they faced this eight-headed snake, they felt as though the Aquarius was fragile and this snake could easily break it and tear them apart.

“T-This...” Mo Fan looked at the body of the demon. All eight heads grew from one body!

They had thought that it slithered across the mountain towards them, but the body was in the mountain. Its body was big enough to fill eight hills and eight valleys. Some areas on its back had large brown armor; some areas had moss and trees; some areas had cooled magma with white smoke on them.

It also had eight tails. When it dragged its tails, the mountains and valleys rumbled. Mo Fan understood what Pang Lai had meant.

It was not a few volcanic snakes as Mo Fan had assumed but all of them grew from a single body. This demon had eight giant heads and tails!

“Eight-Headed Serpent!” Pang Lai was in the center of Aquarius. When he saw the demon nearby, horror filled his eyes.

The Royal Great Mages panicked. No matter how many Ocean Demons there were, they were better than such a terrifying demon. It was worrying to think just how long Aquarius could hold under the attacks of such a mighty creature.

The three heads of the Eight-Headed Serpent with the smell of magma opened their mouths, and dense blood vessels appeared on their necks. Red-hot magma filled the blood vessels and gathered at their throats.

Boom!

It was like three volcanoes had erupted at the same time. The Eight-Headed Serpent attacked the side of the Aquarius. The three heads spat magma continuously. Their attacks were so strong that even the bottom and mouth of the bottle were affected.

Silver-Blue Valley City appeared to be submerged in magma within ten seconds. If it were not for the protection of the Aquarius, it would have melted into a puddle.

Hot air came drifted in from outside the Aquarius Magic Formation. Many areas could not withstand such a high temperature and began to burn.

In the city, the Stingray King saw the Eight-Headed Serpent spitting fire, so it decisively sucked all the Stingray Legion back into its gills and left the Aquarius.

The Moon Moth Phoenix did not want its Armed Spirit Moths to die in the sea of fire. It shook its body and turned all the Armed Spirit Moths into the shining lights around which fused with it. It returned to Mo Fan's side.

"Can the Aquarius withstand the attacks?" Mo Fan asked with an uneasiness.

"For the time being, yes," Ye Mei replied.

A raging flame turned the Silver-Blue Valley City into a red mess. Even though the Aquarius Magic Formation had blocked most of the fire spewed by the Eight-Headed Serpent, they still felt hot and uncomfortable, as if they were in a furnace. If they faced the fire directly, most of them would not be able to withstand it.

After the Eight-Headed Serpent finished spraying the magma, everyone thought they would have a little time to prepare. However, another head raised again. The body connected to this head was like an iceberg.

As the Eight-Headed Serpent's icy head began to attack, an ice storm appeared.

"Wow!"

The icy head sprayed a terrifying white ice tide. It was as though the Eight-Headed Serpent had eaten an iceberg and spat it violently.

The magma had just scorched the Aquarius, and the ice tide was beating it again. A crack immediately appeared on the bottle wall.

The cold air entered Silver-Blue Valley City through the cracks. The valley changed from a warm summer to severe winter. Rivers, cities, mountains, forests, and even the low-level Ocean Demons were frozen!

"Oh no!" Ye Mei grimaced as she watched the water in the Silver-Blue River.

The flow of the river was important to maintain the Aquarius Magic Formation. It would deliver the energy of the barrier to every position of the Aquarius. If the river turned stagnant, other parts of the Aquarius would also become rigid and could not receive energy. Frozen things lost their toughness and broke easily on impact.

Silver-Blue River was frozen, which meant that the entire Aquarius Magic Formation was frozen!

"Get together! The Aquarius is breaking!" Ye Mei shouted.

The bottom of the bottle was already cracked, let alone the fragile bottleneck. The Eight-Headed Serpent smashed the Aquarius with its huge body.

Chapter 2775: Lizard Demon Dragon Troop

The big Aquarius Magic Formation shattered under the trampling of the Eight-Headed Serpent. Even the mountain valley almost sank to the deeper ground under its terrifying power.

Boom!

It was another full-blown stomping. The body of the Eight-Headed Serpent was like a giant mountain. It was not slender like its heads and necks. Its destructive power was comparable to that of the ancient demons. It could make the earth sink, as if the Eight-Headed Serpent was born for destruction!

The crowd gathered together. They looked so small in front of the Eight-Headed Serpent.

Pang Lai looked solemn. He was trying to think of a solution which would let all of them escape to safety. He doubted they could win against the creature. They would have died without the Aquarius Magic Formation, but this was even worse.

There were countless enemies in all directions, and everyone seemed to be on a fragile reef. Tides of demons came from every direction.

“Chief, Deputy Chief, you bring the others out from the valley entrance. The four of us will start the Wind Tribulation!” Bei Shou, one of the Guards of the Four Directions, said firmly.

“You all go. I’ll start the Wind Tribulation.” Pang Lai made his decision.

“Chief, if we work together...” a middle-aged Great Mage said.

“I have decided. The Eight-Headed Serpent is an ancient demon. no one here can compete with it. While there is still a little residual energy in the Aquarius, you guys get out through the valley entrance. I’ll hold the Eight-Headed Serpent off and open the way for you,” said Pang Lai.

“How about I hold the Eight-Headed Serpent off, and you all escape?” Mo Fan hesitated.

Mo Fan did not want Pang Lai to die. He respected Pang Lai and he couldn’t bear to see him in danger.

“Just because I stay back doesn’t mean I might die, Mo Fan,” said Pang Lai with a smile. “You don’t have to think so much. Listen to me. I know you still have some cards in your hand, but we haven’t even found Commander Hua. If we use it for our safety and escape, what is the point of us coming here?”

“But that creature is scary.” Mo Fan glanced at the Eight-Headed Serpent above his head.

The Eight-Headed Serpent had already crushed the valley and the city. All of them gathered together and used the remaining position of the bottle mouth to protect themselves.

“Mo Fan, let the Totem out. We’ll escape first,” Pang Lai said again.

“Chief, even with that Moon Moth Phoenix Totem, it would be difficult for us to get rid of the Ocean Demons army. Everyone should work together...” Ye Mei said.

“Stop talking nonsense. Do it!” Pang Lai ordered.

Pang Lai had made up his mind, so the others could not disobey. They all focused on the entrance of the valley positioned at the mouth of the bottle.

The Ocean Demons seemed to know that the Aquarius Magic Formation was about to break, so they approached from all directions of the valley. The Eight-Headed Serpent did not trample recklessly anymore in fear that the Ocean Demons’ army dared not approach this group of humans.

If the Aquarius Magic Formation broke, these humans were no different from the dead.

Finally, the mouth of the Aquarius broke. Mo Fan also knew this was not the time for doubts. He touched the Totem Orb and released the Black Totem Snake.

The poisonous fog filled the air first. In less than a minute, the green poisonous fog of the Black Totem Snake had filled the valley entrance.

After eating the highly poisonous Squid King, the Black Totem Snake seemed to have become even more poisonous. The color of the poisonous fog was so intense that it almost looked black. As the poisonous fog spread, groups of Ocean Demons became numb and fell to the ground, paralyzed.

Ye Mei, Guards of Four Directions, three Great Mages in similar attire, and other Royal Mages were happy. The poisonous fog seemed to be very effective against Ocean Demons. Even Commander-Level creatures were avoiding the fog.

“Hey, help us open a way,” Mo Fan said to the Black Totem Snake.

The Black Totem Snake was powerful. It stretched out its body and almost occupied half of the valley entrance. It was very fast, too. When it moved, its contact shattered the rocks and mountain walls.

The army blocking the valley entrance was the Seaweed-Haired Female Demon and the Deep-Sea Lizard Demon Dragon Troop. The ordinary Lizard Demon Dragon were hybrid dragons. They inherited the terrifying reproduction ability of the deep-sea lizards. Every spring, some isolated Pacific islands would have countless eggs of deep-sea lizards.

The number of creatures with dragon blood would gradually decrease due to the massive reproduction. The purer the bloodline, the greater the influence.

The Lizard Demon Dragon had made up for the shortcomings of most of the Hybrid Dragons, Pseudo-Dragons, and Sub-Dragons. Due to the strong physical advantage of dragon blood, the Lizard Demon Dragon Empire was formed in the middle of the Pacific Ocean!

The IQ of the Lizard Demon Dragon was not high, but there was a creature that formed a mutually beneficial symbiosis with them. It was the Seaweed-Haired Female Demons. Many marine countries hated these sinister and vicious women in the deep sea. Not only were they cruel, but they were also obsessed with attacking things and places.

Every Seaweed-Haired Female Demon was equivalent to the leader of a Lizard Demon Dragon Troop. The Seaweed-Haired Female Demons would endlessly wage war against every creature other than their race, and they particularly liked cities with humans. Most of the coastal cities in foreign countries vanished overnight, thanks to these Seaweed-Haired Female demons and Deep-Sea Lizard Demon Dragon.

They seemed to be created for war. They even relied on war to reduce their terrifying ability of over-breeding and gave other Deep-Sea Lizard Demon Dragons a stable living space.

Seaweed-Haired Female Demon led the Deep-Sea Lizard Demon Dragon Troop of their own level of strength and power.

A Purple-Haired Female Demon blocked the valley entrance. It led a thousand Lizard Demon Dragon Troop of ten Blue-Haired Female Demons. It also had an elite Lizard Demon Dragon Troop composed entirely of Commander-level Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragons and ruler-level Giant Lizard Dragons.

Tens and thousands of large Lizard Demon Dragons filled the valley and the area outside. It was terrifying to see.

The greenish-black poisonous fog spread along the narrow valley, and the Black Totem Snake remained in the fog. It did not reveal all of itself at once.

It carried a poisonous fog and shrouded the valley entrance that had tens and thousands of Deep-Sea Lizard Demon Dragon Troops. Groups of Lizard Demon Dragon fell and almost filled the lake with corpses.

The Lizard Demon Dragon Troop was going forward bravely, but they had to retreat in the face of sudden mass death.

Chapter 2776: Divine Wind Sickle

A Blue-Haired Female Demon's Thousand Lizard Demon Dragon Troop blocked the Black Totem Snake from moving forward. The Black Totem Snake suddenly flipped forward and slapped its huge tail on the Thousand Lizard Demon Dragon Troop.

The Lizard Demon Dragons died. The strength of the tail was something these low-level Ocean Demons could not bear at all. Even if they had hard skin with dragon blood, they still could not withstand the attack.

The Black Totem Snake took a deep breath, and its abdomen and neck expanded slightly. Suddenly, it opened its mouth and spat. A giant green light shot out in a straight line. The spitting of Green Snake Light had no destructive power on rocks and plants, and it looked like a light that swept across harmlessly. However, the Lizard Demon Dragons melted.

Their bodies, including their bones, melted and turned into puddles. All that remained was the skin of the Lizard Demon Dragons.

The Green Snake Light spread over a wide area, and the Lizard Demon Dragon Troop suffered heavy casualties. The mighty army was dying.

Ye Mei, Guards of Four Directions, Great Mages, and the Royal Mages were shocked when they saw the Black Totem Snake clear the way.

Ye Mei thought Mo Fan would summon the Moon Moth Phoenix that blocked the stingrays previously to assist everyone in the fight. She had expected that to help them clear a way. However, Mo Fan had summoned a Supreme Ruler. The destructive power of the Black Totem Snake was many times higher than the power of the Moon Moth Phoenix. The Black Totem Snake used the poisonous fog and powerful strength to kill most of the Lizard Demon Dragon Troop.

The Black Totem Snake was powerful. The Lizard Demon Dragon Troop was a relatively powerful and ferocious combat troop, too. However, it still could not withstand the attack of the Black Totem Snake.

The Eight-Headed Serpent at the back of the valley turned all its heads toward the valley's entrance because of the destructive aura. Some of its necks had gills, and they were all open, as if they had encountered something that could threaten the powerful existence of a demon like itself. The Eight-Headed Serpent seemed to be getting serious in this fight now!

The Black Totem Snake turned around. It used its tail to sweep away the small obstacles in front and raised its head to stare at the Eight-Headed Serpent.

The eight heads of the Eight-Headed Serpent made a sound like thunder and rushed toward the Black Totem Snake. When its huge body moved, it looked as if eight terrifying and ferocious heads were dragging one mountain behind it. The small city could not stand such devastation.

“Nine Realms of Wind Tribulation.”

After the Eight-Headed Serpent broke into Silver-Blue Valley City, Pang Lai's solemn voice suddenly overwhelmed everything.

Pang Lai in white robes was suspended in the middle of the valley. The light on his body was bright enough to illuminate the entire place. He looked like a god!

The wind from different dimensions raged in the sky and filled up the vast world at a stretch. Their silhouettes were clear. They were Divine Wind Sickles and were cutting this plane!

The power of the Divine Wind Sickles was infinite. Even the destroyer, the Eight-Headed Serpent, dared not easily step into the nine realms cut by the Divine Wind Sickles. In the Nine Realms of Wind Tribulation, all creatures would be cut by the terrifying wind sickle continuously.

The Eight-Headed Serpent was not afraid of the Black Totem Snake and rushed to it fiercely. However, it was scary when facing Pang Lai's Nine Realms of Wind Tribulation.

It tried to use some relatively solid parts to break away the Nine Realms of Wind Tribulation, but the Divine Wind Sickles cut them off easily. A large piece of its body fell to the ground!

It made the Eight-Headed Serpent even angrier. It wanted to shred the Black Totem Snake, but a mere human's powerful Nine Realms of Wind Tribulation blocked its way.

Suddenly, the Eight-Headed Serpent transferred all his anger to Pang Lai in the middle of the valley. Pang Lai was alone. Even if his cultivation was extremely high, standing in front of the demon was the same as courting death.

The Eight-Headed Serpent was hovering at a place the Divine Wind Sickles could not reach. It knew that the old human man would not dare to swing the Divine Wind Sickles too much as it would only expose the Divine Wind Sickles to the attacks of all demons.

Pang Lai used the Nine Realms of Wind Tribulation to block the attacks. He also used the killing trajectory of the Divine Wind Sickles to protect himself and prevent the powerful demons from approaching.

“Hey, ignore that demon. Help us out first,” Mo Fan said to the Black Totem Snake.

Not many creatures in this world dared to provoke the Black Totem Snake. The Eight-Headed Serpent was an ancient demon and a natural destroyer, but the Black Totem Snake was not an ordinary creature. For thousands of years, the black snake had always been the ancestor of snakes. The Eight-Headed Serpent was not as pure in its bloodline as the Black Totem Snake.

The Black Totem Snake was rational. It did not rush into a fight. They were in Hawaii. Sooner or later, the fight would come to it, anyway.

The Seaweed-Haired Female Demon and Lizard Demon Dragon Troop realized that there was a Supreme Ruler snake in the poisonous fog, so they immediately summoned the commander-level Lizard Demon Dragons and Giant Lizard Dragons.

There were seven Giant Lizard Dragons, all of which were ruler-level creatures. They lined up in a row and stood in front of the Lizard Demon Dragon Troop. Around the Giant Lizard Dragons, there was a circle of commander-level Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragons with equally robust and ferocious bodies. There were more than a hundred of them. They were a lot taller than the Lizard Demon Dragons.

However, they were just lizards to the Black Totem Snake.

The seven ruler-level Giant Lizard Dragons were larger lizards, while more than a hundred commander-level Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragons were smaller lizards. The vast Lizard Demon Dragon Troop behind them was nothing but small fleas.

When the Black Totem Snake was quiet, it was a lazy and noble water snake in the West Lake. It was harmless to humans and animals and as docile as a pet. However, it showed a completely different temperament when it was killing and fighting. Its terrifying and cold aura was strong enough to traumatize anyone.

The seven ruler-level Giant Lizard Dragons stood closely together, but none of them dared to attack first. The Black Totem Snake opened its mouth to bite a ruler-level Giant Lizard Dragon. Then, it threw it to slam against several other Giant Lizard Dragons.

Other Giant Lizard Dragons roared. A Purple-Haired Female Demon sang a strange song, they all glowed with red light and rushed to the Black Totem Snake together.

Chapter 2777: Jiang Yu's Summons

The Black Totem Snake would not wait for these timid large Lizard Demon Dragon to make a move. It straightened its body, and the scales all over its body shone bright green.

It crashed into the seven Giant Lizard Dragons, and its scales bloomed intensely. It was like wearing invincible armor. When it hit those Giant Lizard Dragons, they could hear the ruler-level Giant Lizard Dragons' bones cracking.

The Royal Mages wanted to join the battle as there were too many enemies. But they didn't need to. The seven powerful ruler-level Giant Lizard Dragons could not win against the Black Totem Snake. After they fought for a few rounds, every Giant Lizard Dragon was severely injured after the Black Totem Snake bit them.

“We’ll take care of the ones behind and fight them in the poisonous fog of the Black Totem Snake so that they won’t besiege us,” Mo Fan suggested.

“O-Okay.” Ye Mei and the other Royal Mages came back to their senses.

The strength of the Royal Great Mages was equally astonishing. Each of them had reached the peak of cultivation. The differences were just the magic control, evolution, supernatural power, and Elemental Seed. It was no exaggeration to say that they represented the most powerful mages in the human realm.

The Guards of Four Directions cooperated quite tactfully. They used the four abilities of wind, lightning, plants, and space to form a standard Quadrilateral Formation and tore apart the defense wall of the Lizard Demon Dragon Troop.

“Take care of them!” Ye Mei rushed to Lizard Demon Dragon Troop. It turned out she was a fighting machine.

Mo Fan nodded and glanced at the three Royal Mages beside him. He did not know why Ye Mei wanted him to take care of the three of them. Perhaps they were important people. They could be useful to Commander Hua. He stood up and went to the front.

“The two of you come nearer to me. The Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragon is strong and has the armor of the Skeleton Dragon all over its body. If we scatter, it will be difficult for us to ensure your safety,” said Wang Ping, the Royal Mage.

“We’ll follow the Guards of the Four Directions’ Dash Formation,” said the Royal Mage Li Que.

The other person was stern and looked like someone who didn’t enjoy small conversations. He inadvertently stood beside Mo Fan and Jiang Yu and watched vigilantly in a protective posture.

Although these three people had not yet reached the level of Royal Great Mage, they were first-class masters in the big city. Their attention was on the commander-level Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragon. A group of Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragons secretly bypassed the battlefield of the Black Totem Snake and attacked them.

Mo Fan was astonished. He found that the three Royal Mages were in their respective positions and just realized Ye Mei had been referring to Mo Fan and Jiang Yu to be taken care of.

After all, Mo Fan and Jiang Yu were not even thirty years old, and their appearances were not much different from those of fresh graduates of magic. In a magical force like the Forbidden City, it would recruit some of the most outstanding magicians from colleges and universities across the country to intern in their department.

However, very few interns could stay put. A star-level mage from the National Institute like Jiang Yu was a special case.

“I didn’t expect you to be the Totem Guardian. There are too few ancient creatures like Totems living in this world, so it’s lucky to have a Totem. No wonder you can stand out from the World College Tournament,” Li Que, the Royal Mage, said to Mo Fan.

Mo Fan felt uncomfortable. Was it possible that someone in China was deliberately messing with him? Otherwise, how was it possible that him defeating Zhao Jing was known to nobody? Everybody thought he couldn't match up to their strengths.

Having Totem beasts was special, but Mo Fan thought he himself wasn't weak either. Was it possible that Li Que did not like him, so he intentionally attributed all his abilities to the Totem Guardian?

Mo Fan thought the latter was more likely.

"Brother Li, I have Night Rakshasa by my side, so nothing will happen. Besides, I think I can help you," Jiang Yu said.

Jiang Yu was a mage who was addicted to the Summoning Element. He mostly used his skills in other elements for self-protection, and they were not very effective.

He put one hand on the bracelet of his right hand and turned it gently. "It's all a bunch of hybrid dragons and pseudo-dragons. Hmph, I'll summon a Sub-Dragon to kill them!" Jiang Yu's voice was serious and confident.

"Can you open Wan Dragon Valley?" Mo Fan asked in surprise.

Jiang Yu smiled. His white bracelet appeared to have a significant effect on his spiritual power. His aura changed, and his eyes became bright. He stared at an ancient magic portal slowly opening in the air.

It was slightly different from Mo Fan's ancient magic portal. His ancient magic portal was full of ancient dragon patterns in claw-shaped, horn-shaped, wing-shaped, and eye-shaped. It seemed that each dragon pattern represented a different dragon race, and there were hundreds and thousands of such dragon patterns on the ancient magic portal.

Wan Dragon Valley!

The portal was an ancient magic portal that Mo Fan had not been able to open. Many giant dragons have long since disappeared from this plane, and there were even demon dragons and divine dragons in the portal which didn't exist in their world. Only the ability of the Summoning Element could make them come to this world for a short period of time.

Jiang Yu seemed to know the Wan Dragon Valley very well. He slowly turned the white bracelet. Mo Fan noticed many hollows on his bracelet fused and formed into dragon patterns. Light shot out from the bracelet, and the reflected dragon pattern corresponded to the dragon pattern on the ancient magic portal.

"Skeleton Dragon!"

Jiang Yu shouted. A lot of death aura spread around the ancient magic portal. Although they were not pure gas, they could quickly fade everything around them.

A giant dragon with bones suddenly appeared. Its wings stretched out, and countless bones fell like spears. They were sharp and terrifying. Its back was full of huge bones. When it moved, it made a sound like a giant clockwork machine!

For a moment, Mo Fan thought it was the Skeleton Dragon, one of the Dead King of Eight Directions. However, it was clear that they belonged to the same species.

This Skeleton Dragon's physique and aura were slightly inferior to that of the Dead King of Eight Directions. However, it was unique among the group of Hybrid Dragons and Pseudo-Dragons. It stood out from the crowd.

Chapter 2778: Open Another Magic Portal

During the fight between Skeleton Dragon and those commander-level Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragons, it was clear that the difference in their strength was that of heaven and earth.

Its sharp bone could easily pierce the hard skin of Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragons. Their hard skin was their most strong aspect, but they didn't stand a chance against the Skeleton Dragon.

Although more than a dozen Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragons bypassed the Black Totem Snake, they ended up just as miserable. The Skeleton Dragon's killing breath could even corrupt their corpses and turn them into a bunch of Pseudo-Dragons' bones.

The Skeleton Dragon attacked like a war machine. During the attack, it would continuously drop some broken bones and attract the fresh Pseudo-Dragons' bones to its body like a magnet to fill the fallen and broken 'components'.

"Amazing!" Mo Fan gave Jiang Yu a thumbs up.

Li Que, Wang Ping, and Su Guangyu were also impressed. It was what one would expect from a disciple of Pang Lai. He already possessed such strength at a young age.

The Skeleton Dragon should have the strength of an average ruler. Some of the Royal Mages had reached the third level of the Super Level, but none of them could fight against an average ruler alone, let alone a Great Ruler.

Night Rakshasa was resting in the Contract Space. If Jiang Yu summoned it after it got enough rest, it would be difficult to say who needed the protection.

Jiang Yu did not much respond to the admiring gazes of the three Royal Mages, but Mo Fan's compliment made him particularly happy.

'Damn it! I finally got Mo Fan to compliment me,' Jiang Yu thought. It had never happened in the past.

The road of cultivation was long, and he had to endure boredom and loneliness. He worked hard for change and improvement. If he could get the recognition and praise of his old classmate, everything would be worth it!

"Although my Skeleton Dragon is incomparable with your Totem, it is practical at critical times. I have been a little lazy this year. If I work harder, I may be able to open the Kingdom of the Fallen Beasts or Flame Dragon," Jiang Yu said.

The Skeleton Dragon had cleared the surrounding threats, so they were safe for the time being. It was the perk of being a Summoning Mage. If they were bold enough to summon a dangerous creature, they could buy time to recuperate even on the battlefield.

"I can only open the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower." Mo Fan saw that the three Royal Mages had already dealt with the Hunter Dirty Demons on their right, so he did not rush to fight.

Mo Fan was still looking forward to Wan Dragon Valley. The dragon pattern he had just seen should be the key to locking a dragon in Wan Dragon Valley. He would ask for Jiang Yu's advice in the future.

"Has your Summoning Element advanced to Super Level? That's amazing! After all, you have so many elements. Can you open the ancient magic portal? Such Summoned Beasts are much fiercer than us. What kind of spirit can you summon? You should summon it now. Otherwise, you won't have time to cast spells if the Lizard Demon Dragons surround us," said Jiang Yu.

Mo Fan nodded. He was right. There was no use saving so much Summoning Element's magic energy. Contracted beasts and dimensional beasts did not consume any magic energy. It was the Summoned Beasts and the ancient magic portal that consumed the most energy.

Mo Fan began to integrate the Lightning Element. His Lightning Element had the highest cultivation. If there was no accident, he could continue to summon the Silver Thunder Titan. Its strength would not be inferior to that of the Skeleton Dragon, so it would have no trouble dealing with the Tyrant Lizard Demon Dragons.

'Huh? Did I fail?' Mo Fan wondered. He opened his eyes to find that the Silver Thunder Titan in the ancient magic portal was unwilling to fight.

Summoning a beast was not always successful. It depended on the mage's spiritual realm and the beast's mood.

"You don't know the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower well enough. Many elemental elves have their preferences and lives. If you didn't find the right time to summon them, you would fail to summon lower level elves. If you ask them to fight too much in this period, they will have psychological repellency. After all, they only work for you, unlike the semi-enslavement of dimensional beasts." Jiang Yu explained.

A similar situation happened in some of Mo Fan's previous attempts. He had to ask those average ruler elves to fight, and the success rate was less than thirty percent. At that time, he successfully summoned those Contracted Beasts because Little Loach had obtained the Holy Spring. It gave him some boost.

The opening of the ancient magic portal consumed one-third of the summoning magic energy, so Mo Fan felt a headache incoming.

He might not have been able to summon every elf even after consuming all the summoning magic energy. He needed more practice. Success was not easy.

"You should summon Little Flame Belle." Jiang Yu suggested.

In other words, he meant Mo Fan was bad at it. The construction of the ancient magic portal was too slow, the timing of spiritual penetration was not right, and the communication was not good. It was no wonder he failed.

Mo Fan was not intentionally hiding it. His level of Summoning Element was supposed to have advanced to Super Level.

"I'll try again. You protect me," Mo Fan said with disbelief.

“Make sure to concentrate. The construction of the ancient magic portal is too slow. You have to practice those 2401 stars... When you release the ability of Summoning Element, can you stop other elements’ magic? How can you use two elements at the same time?” Jiang Yu continued to scold Mo Fan.

If Mo Fan did not integrate other elements, the level of elves that Mo Fan could summon would be too low. Under the same consumption, the higher the level of summoning, the better creatures he could summon. If he failed, he could do nothing.

This time, Mo Fan did not integrate the Lightning Element. He added the Shadow Element to his fusion magic. The Shadow Element was not weaker than his Lightning Element and Fire Element.

When the Shadow Element merged with the ancient magic portal, terrifying death patterns emerged. Inscriptions and smears like blood covered the ancient portal.

“Oh my god, Mo Fan, what kind of door are you opening? It is not the ancient magic portal. Don’t take the wrong path. It might pull you into an unknown world and then you will become a Summoned Beast for other species. There is a high probability you can’t ever come back.” Jiang Yu was taken aback. He hurried to stop Mo Fan.

Mo Fan did not stop. At first, he was a little scared. After integrating a lot of Shadow Element energy, he opened a door filled with a lot of darkness and death. It was not leading to the Thousand Tribe Elf Tower.

Mo Fan understood Jiang Yu’s warning. He would have closed it immediately but he sensed a familiar atmosphere behind the new magic portal.

He had stayed in it for a whole year. The dullness and depression were the most common feelings in the Dark Land. At first, he was a little uncomfortable, but soon it became familiar.

Mo Fan had no idea that he had opened a Dark Plane instead of a Summoned Beast Plane!

Chapter 2779: Summoning The Lycoris Sorceress Queen

To Mo Fan’s amazement, he entered the Dark Plane in spirit form. The demon cave, ghost mountain, corpse valley, dark forest, and dead land were like a part of a scroll. The scroll unfolded swiftly and revealed the sprawling world. Mo Fan saw various creatures inhabiting the Dark Plane.

‘Does this mean I can summon creatures from the Dark Plane?’ Mo Fan asked himself with delight.

“Mo Fan, hurry up. Sh*t! Our team is scattered. D*mn it! Night Rakshasa, come out now!” Mo Fan heard Jiang Yu’s voice.

Mo Fan ignored him. He believed Jiang Yu could protect himself. It had not been easy to open a new ancient magic portal. Mo Fan did not want to return to his world empty-handed.

The scroll of the world was still being unfolded. There were plenty of Dark Creatures roaming in the Dark Plane. Mo Fan noticed a familiar creature. He saw the guard of the King of Darkness—Dark Sword Master.

Dark Sword Master was within Mo Fan's list of summoning creatures. He was tempted to summon it. But Dark Sword Master was a low-level Ruler. Thus, it might have difficulty coping with the battle.

Mo Fan continued his search. He crossed a tall, dark mountain and found a palace with a dozen Dark Sword Masters standing guard. The palace was pale white, and it looked eerie and scary. The isolated palace on top of the mountain gave off a mysterious feel.

Mo Fan's spirit stayed at this place. He wondered who owned the black palace and who the Dark Sword Masters were guarding. A woman walked out of the palace from between its majestic pillars.

The woman's black mermaid dress covered her long legs. Mo Fan could not figure out how she actually walked. However, beautiful flowers bloomed under her feet as she moved, but withered rapidly as she passed.

Those flowers were lycoris! They were stunning and left an unforgettable impression. Mo Fan stared at the woman in the black mermaid dress in the middle of the lycoris. He was awed by her elegance and beauty. But he found her to be familiar.

She was the Lycoris Sorceress Queen!

She was the same powerful sorceress queen who had become the King of Darkness's pawn in the past, just like Mo Fan. She had survived the game and had slightly transformed. Her appearance was no longer just a cloud of black mist. Instead, she was three-dimensional now.

The Lycoris Sorceress Queen stood in front of the palace. She raised her head and stared at Mo Fan's spirit. She recognized him. However, she was puzzled to see him in such a form. He looked like a spirit shadow reflected from another plane. She saw him but could not touch him. He lacked the life force of the creatures in this realm.

"Mo Fan, you scum! I might not be able to cover for you much longer!" Jiang Yu shouted.

A large group of Lizard Demon Dragons had surrounded him. Besides, the Hunter Dirty Demon and Blue-scaled Skin Beasts were swarming them. There were many high-level Ocean Demons among them, and the Ocean Demons had broken his and the other Royal Mages' formation.

Two of the three Royal Mages had reunited with the Guards of the Four Directions. However, Li Que was trapped in a basin five hundred meters away from them. Jiang Yu and Mo Fan were surrounded by Ocean Demons. Night Rakshasa and the Skeleton Dragon were slaughtering the Ocean Demons, but they could not keep up with the growing number of the creatures that charged towards them.

Jiang Yu cursed at Mo Fan. However, he did not leave him. With Night Rakshasa around, he could hold out for a little longer. But if they did not move and catch up with the rest, they could die trapped within the Ocean Demon troop. Regardless of how strong Night Rakshasa was, it could not possibly kill all the Ocean Demons by itself.

"Help me! Save me! Hurry up!"

Jiang Yu heard Li Que's cry for help among the chaos. Jiang Yu wanted to help him, but he was powerless.

“Big Brother Li, hold on for a while longer. Hold on!” Jiang Yu shouted back at him.

“I’ve broken my leg. I don’t think I can hold much longer. You have to help me!” Li Que sobbed. He was terrified.

The Lycoris Sorceress Queen flattened the mountain. She wiped out everything whenever she passed by. There was nothing that she could not destroy.

2

When Jiang Yu realized that Li Que could die, he gritted his teeth. He gave his all to pave a path to him and saved Li Que from the basin.

“Night Rakshasa, hurry up!”

Night Rakshasa killed the Ocean Demons to pave a path towards Li Que. However, the Ocean Demons soon swarmed and covered the path.

The Skeleton Dragon stood between Mo Fan and Jiang Yu. It was covered with Lizard Demon Dragons. Whenever the Skeleton Dragon shook its body, it flung most of the Lizard Demon Dragons away from it. However, a dozen skeletal bones dropped simultaneously from its body.

The Skeleton Dragon was no longer as domineering as it had been in the beginning under the endless Ocean Demons’ siege. It could disintegrate anytime if it continued to exhaust its energy.

Jiang Yu bit the bullet to protect Mo Fan. He assigned Night Rakshasa to save Li Que. They were caught up in a desperate situation...

Mo Fan finally opened his eyes. His eyes looked a little eccentric.

“D*mn it! You finally awaken. We are so dead!” Jiang Yu cried out.

The Black Totem Snake had left them far behind. Even though the Supreme Ruler could wipe out everything, it could not possibly get back to them past the vast Ocean Demons army at such a short notice. Besides, the Purple-haired Female Demon kept it busy.

The Guards of the Four Direction, Deputy Royal Guard, and the Royal Great Mages were ahead of them. They almost found a way out as they brutally fought the Ocean Demons.

Mo Fan opened the ancient magic portal. A group of Blue-scaled Skin Beasts charged at them and trapped them in place. All of them were now scattered. Mo Fan had taken much longer time in summoning his creature.

“Don’t panic. I’ve summoned a great helper.” Mo Fan gave Jiang Yu a smile.

Jiang Yu was a loyal friend. He had refused to abandon Mo Fan even in such a desperate situation.

“Yeah right! Not unless you can come up with another totem beast!” said Jiang Yu.

Mo Fan just smiled. The ancient magic portal opened once again. Instead of various strange, dark characters on top of the portal, it was covered with slender dark vines. Lycoris bloomed radiantly in red as the vines spread, radiating a dark and ice-cold beauty.

The flowers spread like a red carpet to welcome the queen.

The Lycoris Sorceress Queen entered regally. Her legs were hidden from view. However, she glided on the lycoris petals like a spirit with an air of elegance and nobility suited to a Dark Creature. The Lycoris Sorceress Queen's terrifying aura flooded the chaotic battlefield like a rainstorm!

Chapter 2780: Mo Fan, This Is Just The Tip of An Iceberg

She was consuming the lives of the Ocean Demons!

After the swirling of the black rainstorm, hundreds and thousands of the Lizard Demon Dragons began to wither like flowers. They aged rapidly, and their bodies dried up. Even their bones were hardening.

Soon, the Lizard Demon Dragons became dried up carcasses on the ground and looked as though their life was sucked out of them. Their death was frightening to behold.

After the Lizard Demon Dragons died, the lycoris spread radiantly on the ground. They glowed red and were bewitching.

The Lycoris Sorceress Queen continued to march forward. The beguiling lycoris bloomed at the arrival of the queen. Meanwhile, the Lizard Demon Dragons that had surrounded the area dried up as the Lycoris Sorceress Queen passed them.

"S-She was the sorceress queen of the Dark Plane!" Jiang Yu watched in disbelief.

The Lycoris Sorceress Queen was close to being a Supreme Ruler. 'Was Mo Fan her illegitimate child from the past? How did he summon the aloof demonic woman from the Dark Plane?!' wondered Jiang Yu. 'It's remarkable!'

The Lycoris Sorceress Queen showed no mercy. She was like Anubis that came from the underworld to take their lives away.

Soon, several thousands of the Lizard Demon Dragon were killed. Jiang Yu had no time to catch his breath since he was surrounded by the Lizard Demon Dragon Legion. When the Lycoris Sorceress Queen passed by and the demons shriveled up, he heaved a sigh of relief.

Jiang Yu turned to Mo Fan and looked at him strangely. 'How did he do that?'

He couldn't believe it. How could Mo Fan summon someone as strong as the Lycoris Sorceress Queen? She was not an ordinary elf; she was the Dark Elf Queen!

Jiang Yu had not been able to see an elf queen, let alone summon one! So, how did Mo Fan do that?

Jiang Yu had been very proud of himself after summoning the Skeleton Dragon. He thought his Summoning element's magical power exceeded Mo Fan's. However, after witnessing the Lycoris Sorceress Queen, Jiang Yu felt as if he was drying up like the rest of the Ocean Demons...

"I'm barely acquainted with her. She reluctantly agreed to help me this time," Mo Fan comforted Jiang Yu and patted his shoulder after he noticed him getting upset.

"I won't show off my ability before you anymore in the future, lest I feel even more disappointed." Jiang Yu smiled bitterly.

While they talked, Mo Fan saw Night Rakshasa leap agilely over the Lizard Demon Dragons' head. Whenever it stepped on any of the Lizard Demon Dragons' heads, it crushed their skulls.

Even though Night Rakshasa was powerful, it could not inflict direct damage to its enemy. The Lizard Demon Dragon could not harm it easily, but Night Rakshasa could not kill all the Lizard Demon Dragons at once. Meanwhile, the Lycoris Sorceress Queen was different from Night Rakshasa. She was born to fight in battle.

She used the Lizard Demon Dragons' lives to sustain her flowers while her flowers ate away at them. What seemed like a bloody and chaotic battle turned out to be a simple art of death to her.

"Meow!"

Night Rakshasa moved as fast as lightning. It snapped dozens of the Lizard Demon Dragon's tendons with its claws. It pulled their tendons like threading needles and landed before Mo Fan and Jiang Yu.

"Where's Li Que?" Jiang Yu asked nervously.

Night Rakshasa pulled the lengthy strings of the Lizard Demon Dragons' tendons. The person at the end of the string of tendons was yanked. He fell to the ground next to Night Rakshasa.

It was Li Que. His leg was heavily wounded. His kneecap was exposed, and he was in agony.

"Take this medicine." Mo Fan handed him healing miracle pills from Parthenon Temple.

"What's the point of curing my wound? We can't leave this place alive, anyway." Li Que was gloomy and furious at his agonizing pain.

"I'll leave it here, anyway," said Mo Fan.

"Big Brother Li, don't give up! Look at the sorceress queen ahead of us. Mo Fan summoned her and she's a great help. She has paved a path for us," Jiang Yu pointed at the Lycoris Sorceress Queen.

Li Que looked in the direction he pointed and saw thousands of dead Lizard Demon Dragons. The ground was filled with their carcasses. The piled-up carcasses looked like a massive cemetery. Even so, there was still an abundance of Lizard Demon Dragons which continued to drop dead, including the more powerful Blue-scaled Skin Beasts. These Ocean Demons were no match for the Lycoris Sorceress Queen.

"You summoned her?" Li Que looked in disbelief.

The Black Totem Snake could wipe out its enemy on a large scale. Li Que thought Mo Fan only had the Black Totem Snake to rely on...

"Say no more. Jiang Yu, take him to safety and catch him up with the recent developments," said Mo Fan.

"What do you mean? Aren't you coming with us? The Deputy Royal Mage and the Guard of the Four Directions are very powerful. They can pave a path for us. Don't act alone! Even though you have a powerful Summoning beast and a totem beast, the number of our enemies is still growing..." said Jiang Yu.

“Don’t be silly! I’m going back to help Pang Lai.” Mo Fan turned around and glanced at the mountain valley.

Although they had come out of the mountain valley and were still surrounded by the Ocean Demons, Pang Lai’s situation was far worse. Pang Lai could die fighting the Nine-headed Serpent alone!

“I want to go back and help Master Pang Lai, too. But I’m afraid I will only be a burden for him. He might get distracted just to take care of me,” said Jiang Yu sadly. He was still weak, so he could not do anything to help Pang Lai.

“Don’t worry. I won’t let Pang Lai die here. You have the Lycoris Sorceress Queen to pave the path for you. Hurry and leave this place. The Black Totem Snake and I will go and help Pang Lai,” said Mo Fan.

“Mo Fan, I am so sorry to trouble you. Thank you for your help.”

“Don’t mention it. You protected me from the demons, didn’t you? Thank you for that.”

That was Mo Fan’s first time opening the Dark Plane. The summoning process was complicated. If it had not been Jiang Yu covering up for him, he would have died. Jiang Yu was left behind because of him.

“You have to be careful,” warned Jiang Yu.

Mo Fan nodded. He then charged toward the mountain valley. As he rushed to his destination, his body gradually burned in flames. It did not take long before he glowed in two types of powerful flames, and a powerful divine flaming soul shadow appeared...

Jiang Yu stared at Mo Fan. He could not help but feel a little disappointed and envious when he saw Mo Fan easily pave a path for himself past the Hunter Dirty Demon troops.

Mo Fan had no fear in battle even without the help of the Lycoris Sorceress Queen and the Black Totem Snake.

Jiang Yu had been working hard in his cultivation over the years. He thought he had achieved some massive results. However, Mo Fan was reminding him of how weak he still was.

Mo Fan, on the other hand, had become stronger.

He was so powerful that all the magic he had just displayed was only the tip of the iceberg!
