

Versatile 2841

Chapter 2841: The Real Medusa

The Queen of the Eagle God, Yuri Ellie, let out a sharp cry. She had been hovering close to the abyss.

The Undead sank into the tomb slope. Eagle Witches with sharp claws and vicious eyes flew up from the abyss. At first, there were only a few of them, but soon, countless numbers of them appeared!

The army of Eagle Witches had arrived and was waiting for Khufu's Undead Army.

After giving their orders, the Eagle Witches either hovered or flew down. Every time the Eagle Witches flew down, they would pick up an Undead of the Ancient Capital. Once the Eagle Witches dragged the Corpse Generals, Corpse Officials, Ghost Generals, and Ghost Officials into the air, the other Eagle Witches snatched them away. Their sharp claws tore apart the thick flesh of the Corpse Generals and Corpse Officials.

"Attack his eyes first!" Yuri Ellie hated Mo Fan so much that she ordered the Eagle Witches to charge towards him.

When the Eagle Witches circled the ground, they created a frightening storm. This storm was aimed at Mo Fan. Thousands of Eagle Witches created a formidable storm to blind Mo Fan.

"Well, it seems like you all like sacrificing yourselves." Mo Fan smiled.

Yuri Ellie was a hot-tempered and brainless demon. 'Did she already forget about the Black Dragon Wing?' wondered Mo Fan.

"Fall!" Mo Fan shouted angrily and flew to the sky with the Black Dragon Wing.

When the shadow of the Black Dragon Wing plunged down, the Eagle Witches in the storm suffered. Their flexible and muscular wings could not move at all. They were frozen in mid-air and could not fly.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The Eagle Witches who wanted to charge at Mo Fan all fell one by one and smashed against the white stairs. They were severely injured, and their feathers scattered in the air.

It did not matter whether they were dead or not. Once they fell to the ground, they were practically harmless. The Skeleton Soldiers could kill them easily.

Yuri Ellie was furious. Trishina was on the ground and glared at her sister as if she was an idiot. Despite the presence of Black Dragon Wing, she had sent a group of Eagle Witches! Witches could never win against the Black Dragon Wing.

"Order your daughters to kill those Corpse Generals of the White Tomb Palace," Trishina said to Yuri Ellie.

Yuri Ellie realized that she needed to join forces with Trishina and the Sphinx if she wanted to take down Mo Fan, who had the Black Dragon Soul. Yuri Ellie changed her plan and ordered the Eagle Witches to attack and occupy the White Tomb Palace.

There were many Eagle Witches, and they occupied the sky above the White Tomb Palace. Their feathers were everywhere, and it turned everything chaotic.

The Eagle Witches had learned their lessons and did not dare approach Mo Fan or provoke Mo Fan's Wings of Dusk and Dawn. They bypassed Mo Fan and attacked the White Tomb Palace from the sides and the back.

"Ah!" There was a cry. It was as powerful as the last note of a powerful song.

Mo Fan turned to see Apas bent at her waist. Her face turned to the sky. Her posture made her look as agile as a dancer and like a snake at the same time.

Apas' golden pink eyes had accumulated a kind of energy. A ray of light shot from her eyes as her long cry came to an end, forming a pattern of flowers in the sky.

The light stopped thousands of Eagle Witches. Some were flying low, some downwards, others were trying to attack the White Tomb Palace. Every one of them stopped.

Time itself seemed to have stopped at the area captured by the light. All movements had suddenly stopped, including the scattered eagle feathers. The barbs of a light eagle feather began to harden. After a while, the whole eagle feather turned to stone.

The eagle feathers fell slowly, but when Apas' high-pitched cry echoed around the White Tomb Palace, it suddenly fell at an impossible speed. Finally, it smashed against the ground and shattered into pieces.

The insignificant eagle feather was not the only thing that had undergone such a strange change. In the sky, all the Eagle Witches who had been attacking the White Tomb Palace, and the army of Eagle Witches who stood at stand-by for orders, all became petrified like the eagle feather.

They could not fly after being petrified. The stone eagles slowly fell to the ground and shattered.

The Eagle Witch army that was raging just a moment ago were all petrified by Apas' gaze. The eagle sculptures fell to Apas' side and turned into gravel. That was what remained of the Eagle Witches. There was no blood.

Apas' gaze not only petrified the skin and feathers of those Eagle Witches but also turned every part of their body into stone. Apas had killed them in the sky and their falling sculptures were tragic.

This was how the real Medusa subdued the enemy. She turned them into gravel.

Yuri Ellie was enraged. Apas had wiped out her entire Eagle Witch army.

It happened because of this poor girl she had accidentally let go off. It happened because of this girl with a human bloodline who looked the most useless among the three sisters.

Trishina and her army of scorpions on the ground were not affected. However, when she saw Apas use the stare of Queen Medusa, jealousy hit her. She felt uncomfortable, as if something pricked her whole body.

It was the Eyes of Destruction, the most powerful force of the mother of Medusa.

Once, the mother of Medusa used these eyes to kill a hundred thousand Female Demons. These eyes made her the highest-ranking Female Demon in the world, and all races of Female Demons in Europe and Africa surrendered to her!

'How could such filthy and petty Medusa with a human bloodline inherit such imperial eyes? It was not fair. It was not fair!'

Trishina, the Queen of Scorpion, grimaced. She had fangs, a green face, snake hair, and a scorpion body.

"There is only one Medusa Queen in this world, and that's me!" Trishina shouted.

She wanted to tear Apas apart and transplant her eyes onto her own.

Chapter 2842: The Strongest Form

Trishina rushed toward Apas on the stairs. Behind her was the billowing dust and countless Scorpion Female Demons and Snake Scorpion Medusas.

This group of armies had appeared without warning. They hid under the soil from the beginning. When Trishina gave her order, they all attacked Apas. Unlike the Eagle Witches, Trishina's army came from the dunes, so they were not afraid of Apas' Eyes of Destruction.

Apas hated her two sisters. She had witnessed her two sisters kill her mother and endured the pain of expulsion for many years. Now that she had fully matured, she had inherited the power of the real evil temple from the mother of Medusa, and she had long wanted to trample her two sisters for all the pain they had caused her.

The Evil Snake Shadow appeared and suddenly opened its mouth, revealing two curved and sharp fangs. The bite stopped Trishina. She grabbed the snakes and scorpions around her and used them as shields. Those snakes and scorpions died when they were bitten and became petrified.

Trishina's strong pincers fiercely swept away the corpses in front of her. The crimson, poisonous scorpion tail penetrated a Ghost Lord. The Ghost Lord had very sturdy armor but it turned to sand after the Queen of Scorpion stung it.

The wind blew, and the Ghost Lord was blown away like sands.

Fortunately, the soldiers were all the Undeads, so they were not afraid of dying. Otherwise, they would not have dared to fight after seeing the strong Ghost Lord die so easily.

"Be careful of her tail. You will die if you get stung by it." Apas warned Mo Fan and the Undead of the Ancient Capital, who were guarding the White Tomb Palace on the long stairs.

The Corpse King had taken a few steps back. He stared at Trishina, and the bronze bone spear in his hand vibrated. It was like a copper bell ringing. Suddenly, the Corpse King rushed forward in a straight line, and the bronze bone spear pierced Trishina's chest.

Trishina was heavily built and was almost as tall as a double-decker bus, and the Corpse King was the size of a human. However, the Corpse King was proficient in ancient martial arts. It jumped to Trishina's head with the help of his spear.

The Corpse King smashed Trishina's head with his palm, and an overlapping force overwhelmed her head. Unfortunately, the poisonous snakes on Trishina's head were all alive. They did not let the Corpse King attack Trishina's head. They rushed up and bit the Corpse King.

The Corpse King cast a spell, and many black spears suddenly appeared above him. They fell violently and pierced the poisonous snakes on Trishina's head.

Trishina moved her terrifying scorpion tail that could kill in one attack. The poisonous tail would kill an emperor-level creature if it stabbed it. She had inherited the most terrifying ability of the Queen of Scorpions.

Although it was a deadly weapon, most emperor-level creatures prevented Trishina from using her poisonous tail. Apas' Eyes of Destruction was direct and effective, so it was more intimidating.

The Corpse King stepped firmly, and a wave of air rose. He managed to dodge the fatal attack.

However, the poisonous tail kept the Corpse King at a distance, so he could not get near Trishina. He could only step back from the tail so he could have time to prepare his next attack.

Yuri Ellie hovered in the air and cried sharply. The cry made people's heads hurt. They could hear the resentment and hatred in her heart.

Her target was Apas. Apas had destroyed the army of Eagle Witches that she had worked so hard to train for several years. She wanted to tear Apas apart and use Apas' tender flesh to nourish her skin.

She did not have the strong physique of Trishina's scorpion bloodline, but she was still a formidable threat to the White Tomb Palace. She attacked very fast. Whenever people heard a weird shriek, they would find her dragging some powerful Undeads from the White Tomb Palace to the sky.

Yuri Ellie was very cunning and followed the Sphinx closely. They worked together, so the Skeleton Demon Lord could not withstand the combined attack of these two powerful creatures. The Skeleton Demon Lord was severely injured and could hardly reassemble.

The Sphinx and Yuri Ellie wanted to kill the Red Skeleton of the Dead Kings of the Eight Directions. They rushed forward and killed many skeleton armies. Mo Fan hurriedly used teleportation to protect the Red Skeleton. He took the form of the Flame Demon King, so he would not be afraid of these two demons. Besides, he was wearing Black Dragon Suit.

Mo Fan took the strongest form after changing into the Flame Demon King and wearing the Black Dragon Suit. He combined his elemental magic, so some low-level Elements became more powerful so that Mo Fan could challenge the Sphinx.

He could compete with this Egyptian National Beast due to the Black Dragon Suit. The Flame Demon King had given him the destructive ability close to a Supreme Ruler. Even without the Demon Element, he could cope with the current situation.

"My eyes! My eyes!" Yuri Ellie shouted.

She stared at Mo Fan with her vicious eye. She wanted to get her eyes back. A human snatched the most powerful Eye of Deception of an Eagle Witch. It was a great shame!

She flew at an impossible speed. The light and shadow were intertwined. Mo Fan almost raised the dragon sense to the highest level of concentration before he could barely see the flying path and attack angle of Yuri Ellie.

The terrifying claws were aimed at Mo Fan's heart. It was rumored that Eagle Witches would grab a person's chest when they attacked. They would break the ribs and take the heart out of the shattered sternum. It was cruel.

Yuri Ellie was too fast, but Mo Fan did not have to use the Fire Element. The black dragon pattern on his arm was bright. His arm suddenly turned into a gauntlet and swung at Yuri Ellie.

Yuri Ellie sneered. She knew the ability of humans. With only human power, it was impossible to harm demigods like them.

Chapter 2843: Look into My Eyes

Black Dragon Punch!

The punch caused countless cracks in the space.

The arrogant Yuri Ellie's nose was broken, and her body left a long and deep hollow along the slope like a small meteorite. She bumped into countless mummies along the way, and they flew to the far side of the withered land.

The Sphinx turned its head and glanced, but it could not find where Yuri Ellie had landed. There were only a few drops of blood and a few teeth on the ground.

The cracks in the space were recovering at high speed with a strong backflow of air. It was like a crack under a lake. A fierce suction would suck all the water, and it would not subside until it filled up the lake.

This space went by the same theory. When a powerful force shattered the space, it would generate a backlash that sucked and pulled the surroundings frantically. It would drag every object into it until the cracks were filled and repaired.

Mo Fan rarely used the Black Dragon Punch, so he did not expect it to have such a terrifying effect. The Black Dragon could tear the space, and the soul of the Black Dragon Punch seemed to have inherited this ability.

The Punch of Space Crack did not consume anything and did not need the power of singing. Having such a magical item, Mo Fan now dared to have hand-to-hand combat with the Sphinx, let alone Yuri Ellie, who was so petite.

After wearing the Black Dragon Suit, Mo Fan was not afraid of the brutal power of the Sphinx. When he saw the Sphinx rushing over like a bull, he did not hesitate to hit the stairs with his feet!

Black Dragon Kick!

This kick on the ground caused a terrifying earth wave, which blocked the Sphinx's attack. Mo Fan took this opportunity, and lightning locks surrounded him. In these lightning locks, there were thick dark substances.

Dark Lightning!

The third level of the Lightning Element was the highest level a human could achieve. Such magic could even threaten the Sphinx.

The dark lightning locks flew and tied the Sphinx's unbalanced body, including its head, neck, limbs, and waist. These dark lightning locks tightly bound its body.

"Dark Thunder Meteor!"

Mo Fan was like an ancient mythical giant who used iron chains to fight with ancient Mutated Beasts. He raised his head and screamed. Mo Fan held the Sphinx in place, and a straight black thunderstorm suddenly slammed into it. The thunderstorm kept attacking the Sphinx which was entirely made up of sands.

Mo Fan integrated darkness and lightning together. Darkness had a strong corrosive power on hard substances such as metals, ores, and magic crystals, and lightning had defense penetration. The two integrated together to form a destructive and more effective attack ability.

The self-proclaimed divine body of the Sphinx just had thicker skin than most demons. It was indestructible because of its special gold sand structure, but everything had a limit. The combination of darkness and lightning had broken through that limit.

The Sphinx's golden sand skin rotted. The golden liquid and golden flesh that made its flesh were damaged severely.

The Sphinx was shocked. Its human face revealed its emotions. When it was treacherous and calculating, it maintained a gentle and tricky smile.

The Sphinx had lived for a mysterious number of years and had dealt with countless humans. No matter how strong the top Mages were, only a few Mages could destroy its golden sand skin. It looked down on the magic humans admired and disdained the weak. It claimed to be a demigod, noble and invincible.

However, the Black Dragon had suppressed and hurt it in this battle. The Sphinx was shocked and angry.

Mo Fan had a hidden terrifying power. The Sphinx still remembered the battle in Northern Xinjiang. He had not used it yet, but he could compete with it.

"Are you scared? If you are scared, go back to Egypt and be the watchdog of the pyramids." Mo Fan sneered when he saw the Sphinx's face darken.

"I'm a lion! I'm Pharaoh!" The Sphinx was furious.

'A lion! The symbol of the king! The messenger of God!'

It refused to be treated like a dog. The Sphinx shouted to command the mighty army of mummies.

The white mummies gathered under the White Tomb Palace. Among them, there were many powerful Pharaohs with purple incantations all over their bodies. The Pharaohs held a ghostly wood-long staff and cast evil curses in succession. These curses had little effect on the Undeads but had a terrifying effect on Mo Fan.

A few cursed ghosts appeared under Mo Fan's feet. They stretched out their claws to tear open the muscles on Mo Fan's calf. The pain was unbearable. Mo Fan could not concentrate on using his magic properly.

The Sphinx let out a sharp laugh, finally finding a window of opportunity.

The Sphinx had a body as big as the Mountain Zombie. However, it had a different fighting style.

The Sphinx was treacherous and cunning. When it got the upper hand, it liked to torment the opponent. However, when the opponent was powerful enough to threaten it, it would be careful and choose to watch from the side. It would not make a move until the last minute.

That cautious, cunning, and vicious manner did not match its image. However, this made it a very strong enemy.

There were many strong creatures in this world. Even Khufu, its master, dared not say he was invincible in this world, so the Sphinx must be especially careful.

Some curses could quickly weaken the power of Mo Fan's magic, while some caused direct damage to Mo Fan's body and soul. However, most curses were like an instant outbreak of disease that made Mo Fan feel distressed.

The most important thing was that the Black Dragon Suit had no defensive effect on the curses. The Black Dragon could not withstand the curse of the Egyptian Pharaoh.

"Look into my eyes." Suddenly, Apas' voice was not very far behind.

Mo Fan was confused. He had been cursed but he didn't want to look into Medusa's eyes. It would make his situation worse!

"Quickly look into my eyes!" Apas insisted.

Mo Fan turned his head and looked into Apas' unique Medusa's eyes.

Her eyes were perfect. They were more beautiful than the sea in Miami and the aurora at the North Pole.

For some reason, the chaos in the battlefield felt very far away. When he looked into her eyes, he seemed to be pulled out from the raging battle.

Chapter 2844: Magic Dragon Flame

Although he seemed to be out of the battle, it did not mean he was doing nothing. Instead, he was very confident. He was confident that no matter how tragic the battle was, it would not affect him. He even looked at the battle among the Undeads with an indifferent attitude.

Mo Fan felt that it was a little unreal. Why did he suddenly have such emotions? It was as if he had become evil.

"Look into my eyes." Apas' voice sounded again in Mo Fan's mind.

Mo Fan could not look away. He realized that Apas was giving him psychological suggestions, which could continuously strengthen a person's willpower so that those curses could not find the flaws in his heart and soul.

The pain of the curse on his body was disappearing, and he felt braver. Mo Fan had the power of the gods all over his body and wished he could rush down and kill the dirty and despicable Undeads that belonged to Khufu.

"Did you just bring me courage, or can you stimulate my physical potential, too?" Mo Fan asked.

For some reason, Mo Fan wanted to fight the Sphinx. It was a kind of spiritual morale Apas' eyes provided Mo Fan. However, his rationality told him that it was hard to fight the Sphinx without demonization.

"Why don't you give it a try?" Apas smiled softly.

Without the curses, Mo Fan was not afraid of the Sphinx. Mo Fan felt he was a supreme god who had come down from heaven to restore order. The creatures in the world were all weaklings he could kill at will. If Khufu were present, Mo Fan would even dare to grab his beard and beat him up.

Mo Fan was wearing the Black Dragon Boots, so his speed was not inferior to that of many ruler-level war beasts. He rushed down the high stairs like a black light. When Mo Fan collided with the Sphinx, his body showed the Black Dragon Soul.

Close to the Black Dragon Soul, there was a dark golden shadow of an evil snake swiftly rushing toward the Sphinx. The snake's fangs were long. It almost destroyed the Sphinx's face.

The Sphinx's attention was on Mo Fan's Black Dragon Soul. It did not dare to underestimate the power of the emperor-level soul. It did not expect to see an evil snake above the Black Dragon Soul. This evil snake was equally terrifying as it was not inferior to the Black Dragon Emperor.

The soul and shadow surrounded Mo Fan, making him look even more sinister in the Black Dragon Suit. He had the invincible power of God's presence in the human world. Mo Fan was surprised to see the Sphinx screaming and running like a wild dog that was hit in the face.

The Black Dragon Soul and the Flame Demon King had pushed Mo Fan's strength to the peak of the Super Level. With the addition of the Evil Snake Shadow, he had three powerful and unparalleled forms. This combat power was already comparable to the demonization in Northern Xinjiang in the past. After all, demonization at that time only had four forms.

He lacked the Thunder Demon but had the Black Dragon Soul and Evil Snake Shadow.

"How do you feel now?" Apas' voice was soft.

Mo Fan was overjoyed. He looked at Apas. He thought that Apas had given him the Evil Snake Shadow on her body but found that the noble and elegant Evil Snake Shadow was still there on Apas. She still dominated countless Egyptian Female Demons like the mother of all demons.

'Can it be shared?' Mo Fan realized that Apas was indeed a caring snake demon.

"Black Dragon Electric Claw!"

Mo Fan quickly transformed his gauntlet into claws. The Evil Snake Shadow suddenly slithered forward, adding a ghostly shadow effect on his speeding path. It made Mo Fan rush forward with explosive power and look strange.

The Sphinx was still sorting its face when Mo Fan approached him. The thorns in his claws had Thousand Catties Thunder, which numbed the Sphinx and tore the sturdiest golden sand skin on its chest.

The Sphinx was injured again. It groaned. It madly stepped on the ground with its powerful limbs, trying to stomp on Mo Fan, who was as small as an ant.

The Evil Snake Shadow slithered and avoided the Sphinx's steps. Mo Fan never thought he could move so elegantly and finally understood why he was so confident.

"Chaos change!"

Mo Fan's magic changed very quickly. He suddenly changed the order of gravity in this area while the Sphinx was still in a panic.

The power of inversion made the Sphinx suddenly float into the air, and his limbs did not reach the ground. He seemed to have fallen into a huge pit from the bottom up.

On the ground, Mo Fan's body flashed with silver light. He disappeared and appeared on a deformed stone several hundred meters away.

Mo Fan's Black Dragon Suit glowed with a terrifying black light, which caused a huge space to sag. It was as if a supreme supernatural entity had trampled on the space behind him. Mo Fan, who was dressed in black armor, gradually dissipated into majestic black dragon energy.

Amidst the dragon energy, a black outline appeared, and the red lotus that looked like fireworks and magma was blooming one after another.

"Magic Dragon Flame!"

Asha'ruiya had once asked Mo Fan to explore the hidden power of the Black Dragon Suit.

Mo Fan rarely wore the whole suit. After all, each piece of the Black Dragon Suit was very strong, and Mo Fan liked to save resources in battle. The strongest part of this suit was the Black Dragon Soul summoned by the Black Dragon Suit, which was enough to complete a Dragon Flame Breath!

The most powerful ability of the Black Dragon was the Dragon Flame!

At this moment, Mo Fan consumed all the energy stored in the suit and turned into a Black Dragon, just like the ruthless Dragon Flame that killed Su Lu in the past. He poured his anger and hatred into the Dragon Flames, which violently tumbled and burned in his abdomen and chest. He spewed this Dragon Flame out of his throat!

The Black Dragon seemed to have come in person in the dragon energy, and the Dragon Flame was even more domineering. As the Sphinx floated in the air, Mo Fan spat out the Dragon Flame at a 45-degree angle.

The Dragon Flame instantly lit up the entire evil abyss. Even the Sphinx seemed incomparably small when compared to the Dragon Flame.

Chapter 2845: Deadly Bridge

It was not the Black Dragon Emperor but the soul of the incarnation of the Black Dragon. However, the Dragon Flame was still powerful and burned an Egyptian National Beast like the Sphinx into two pieces.

From the Dragon Flames, two balls of flame fell to the ground. One was the Sphinx's upper body, while the other was the waist and hind legs. They were burnt to crisps!

The vast army froze at this moment as they witnessed the fiasco of Khufu's messenger.

The Sphinx had an undead body. Its whole body was full of flames. The two parts of the body that fell to the ground were still breaking off. Groups of mummies rushed to the Sphinx. They continued to cast Egyptian magic and even used the Pharaoh's Source to reconnect the Sphinx's body.

However, not everyone could touch the Dragon Flame. Those high-level mummies were burning too, and those Pharaohs stood far away by the fire at a loss. The mummy continued to pounce on the Sphinx. Many mummies died to extinguish the Dragon Flame.

The Pharaohs roared, trying to save the Sphinx from disintegration. The mighty army of mummies lost thousands of their own to extinguish the Dragon Flame. Ashes of the burnt mummies filled the sky.

Mo Fan wanted to chase after them, but the number of Khufu's Undeads was too many. He could not get past them and could only watch those mummies trying to assemble the Sphinx at all costs.

Finally, they succeeded in reassembling the Sphinx. The Dragon Flame had burned its body, so it looked miserable. One of its front legs had not been rescued and was destroyed, so it only had three legs now.

After the Sphinx was reassembled, it roared angrily. It was embarrassing. It had been burnt to a pile of dirty rubble by a human! When the Sphinx glanced at its missing leg, his rotten black face scowled.

"You guys continue to attack. I'll go back and report to Hades!" Sphinx said gloomily.

The Pharaohs were dumbfounded. 'How could it run away from the battle? It did not matter if it only had three legs. All the Undeads did not have a complete body.'

Besides, they could not occupy the White Tomb Palace without the Sphinx. Dead Kings of the Eight Directions still had several extremely arrogant and troublesome characters. This army of Khufu undead could not fully obey Trishina and Yuri Ellie.

"Aren't you a lion and a Pharaoh? Why are you acting like a lame dog? Don't hide behind those mummies. Come and fight me!" Mo Fan shouted.

The Sphinx was furious. "You're a stupid human who relies on the Black Dragon Soul. When Hades unifies the underworld, you'll die!"

"When I defeat the Ocean Demons, I'll demolish your temple, draw your blood, dig your bones, and step on your grave. Go back and tell Khufu to stop attacking the Ancient Capital. Otherwise, I'll be sure to visit him next!" said Mo Fan.

Hades, Khufu, was the initiator of the battle in Holy City. Mo Fan would have to settle scores with him sooner or later. However, Mo Fan did not expect Khufu to come to the Dark Abyss. He was thinking of using the Dark Abyss to continue to expand his power.

The Sphinx opened its mouth, as if it was about to bite.

Black dragon energy surrounded Mo Fan once again. When the Sphinx saw this dragon energy, it turned its head and ran in fright. It was lame, but it ran so fast as if it wasn't even injured anymore.

The immortal body meant that its soul would not be gone. There was no immortality in this world. Even an Undead could die.

...

The departure of the Sphinx affected the morale of the entire Undead army, but it was a pity that Trishina and Yuri Ellie did not plan to let Apas go.

Apas had already shown her Medusa's Eyes of Destruction. If they did not get rid of her, Apas would kill the two sisters one day when she grew powerful enough. It was useless even if they had many armies of Female Demons. No Female Demon could withstand the attack of the Eyes of Destruction.

Apas and Mo Fan were bound together. It was not so easy for Trishina and Yuri Ellie to kill Apas. Besides, they also needed to fight with the Undeads of the Ancient Capital, which were guarding the White Tomb Palace.

The Black Dragon Suit gradually dimmed. Mo Fan realized that the energy of the Black Dragon Suit could only support the Black Dragon Flame once. After using the Black Dragon Flame, Mo Fan would lose the effects of the Black Dragon Horn Helmet, Black Dragon Armor, Black Dragon Gauntlet, Wings of Dusk and Dawn, and Black Dragon Boots.

It seemed that he must use this powerful skill only at a critical time. When he wore the Black Dragon Suit, Mo Fan could ensure his safety when fighting with Supreme Rulers, which could kill him.

Mo Fan let out a sigh of relief. He did not expect the Black Dragon Emperor would protect him at this critical time.

The black Dragon was dead, but its soul resided in this Black Dragon Suit. Perhaps this Black Dragon Suit had many other abilities he had never discovered before. As his strengths improved, he would figure out more of the skills.

...

"Mo Fan, I saw something on the Deadly Bridge. I don't know if it is the ancient calling spell you were searching for. I tried to wake it up with some of the king's utensils, but it seemed to need something else to wake it up." The Queen of Nine Serenities' voice came from behind.

Mo Fan glanced at Apas. Apas nodded to Mo Fan. "Go ahead. I can handle it here. Anyway, it's my business."

"Okay. But if they dare bully you, I'll not stay behind," said Mo Fan.

Mo Fan could not stay here for too long. They still needed to set up the rain and make other preparations. The Sphinx had left, so the White Tomb Palace should be safe for the time being.

After entering the White Tomb Palace, Mo Fan followed the familiar road to the Deadly Bridges. There seemed to be some special Undeads living in the White Tomb Palace, or perhaps the White Tomb Palace had its own soul. Every path was clear and smooth, contrary to his past visit.

Mo Fan arrived at the Deadly Bridge. There was nothing on the bridge. The corresponding curse was not there.

"I found the Tomb Palace Spirit. It reminded me that it was here. It said that since it was a bridge, there should be water. If the water is pure enough, we could glimpse the true meaning of this bridge," the Queen of Nine Serenities said to Mo Fan.

Mo Fan looked under the bridge and found that the bottom of the bridge was no longer a dark and terrifying chaotic space. Instead, it became some dry floor tiles with canal-like marks on them. He considered it a while, then he poured the Underground Holy Spring at the bottom of the bridge.

Soon, the spring water became a river. The water passed through nine white arch bridges like a silver ribbon.

The water was clear enough to reflect the incantations at the bottom of the bridge. There were nine rows, like the words on bamboo slips.

Chapter 2846: Help Me Protect This Place

Mo Fan took out his new phone and took a high-resolution photo of the incredible scene.

Mo Fan did not know how to interpret it, so he compared them to each other. The new technology on his new phone allowed him to solve the problem of magic exposure. He could take the photo of the nine-line curse easily. He just needed to show it to the watchman of the city wall, Bin Wei, and let her decode it.

After getting the important curse, Mo Fan stood on the Deadly Bridge and took the Little Loach Pendant out. He pulled the Underground Holy Spring, that had poured at the bottom of the bridge, back into it.

The Underground Holy Spring was too precious. Mo Fan was unwilling to let it stay here and dry up over time. There was another important purpose for the Underground Holy Spring.

"The Underground Holy Spring seems to belong here," said the Queen of Nine Serenities.

"It originated from Sky Observing City. The Ancient King probably started to rule the country and took the Underground Holy Spring and divine walls away from the Sky Observing City," said Mo Fan.

"Well, the king is dead, so you can make up any story. Anyway, everything here is yours after you die," said the Queen of Nine Serenities.

Mo Fan was at a loss for words. The person who wanted Mo Fan to die the most was probably not the Sphinx, Yuri Ellie, Su Lu, or Salan but the Queen of Nine Serenities.

“There are still some things left at the throne. Do you want to take them away? It’s better to use them before you die than to guard them after you die,” the Queen of Nine Serenities said to Mo Fan.

“I’m not dead yet! Besides, when did I promise you that I would reign here after my death? Can’t I die in peace?” Mo Fan asked.

“I can’t help it if that’s what you think.” The Queen of Nine Serenities had already made up her mind.

Mo Fan did not know whether to laugh or cry. He never thought that a female ghost would haunt him. Anyway, he only needed to think of it after his death.

He would take the treasure near the throne when he visited next time. He did not have much time right now. The sun was about to set. He hoped everything had gone well for Mu bai and Zhao Manyan.

Mo Fan was most worried about them and their mission. Their lives were at risk at the Magic City. They might not be able to survive there.

‘In such a situation, how were they going to convince Dean Xiao?’

Dean Xiao was also in a crucial position. ‘Would he leave the Magic City and come here to help them set up the rain?’ His departure would have too much impact.

“I’ll leave it to you then. Please help me protect this place,” Mo Fan said to the Queen of Nine Serenities and left the White Tomb Palace.

The Queen of Nine Serenities could not hold back her laughter. Mo Fan was an interesting man. She could not wait for him to die.

...

As soon as he walked out of the White Tomb Palace, an eagle suddenly smashed down. The silver-gray body fell directly into the high pillar of the palace, with blood on her face and her hair disheveled.

He looked closer and saw that it was Yuri Ellie with a blindfold. Yuri Ellie climbed out of the pillar. When she saw Mo Fan, she let out an evil roar and rushed towards him. She desperately wanted to kill Mo Fan.

“Give me back my eyes! Give me back my eyes!”

Without the Eye of Deception, she could not do many things. She had to rely on Trishina. She hated that the most. She would have been able to do anything if she had the eye.

“Do you want to lose the other eyes, too?” Mo Fan threw a lightning ball toward Yuri Ellie.

The lightning ball flickered and exploded in front of her. The strong electric sparks and thunder violently blew Yuri Ellie hundreds of meters high.

The silver-gray feathers scattered all over the place. Yuri Ellie swirled in the air and screamed for a long time. Finally, she fell straight down towards the abyss.

Mo Fan was a little surprised. ‘When did Yuri Ellie become so weak?’

In the past, Yuri Ellie had not dared to use all her abilities in the Holy City. After all, the angels were there. If she did anything wrong, she would die.

But this was not the Holy City, and her ability was not inferior to Apas. Why did it seem like her ability was far inferior to the Sphinx and Trishina?

'Had she become weak because of the Eye of Deception?' thought Mo Fan.

The greatest threat to the White Tomb Palace was still Trishina. She and her soldiers were comparable to an army of Undeads. She was very persistent and only targeted Apas.

The most important thing for the three Medusas were their eyes. Trishina wanted Apas' eyes, so she could kill Apas today at all costs.

Khufu's army of Undeads could retreat if they wanted to, but her army of Snake Scorpion Female Demon did not intend to retreat at all. Even if all the army died today, it would be worth it if she could get Apas' Eyes of Destruction. Trishina knew what was most valuable.

Mo Fan glanced at Apas and found that Apas' long hair had turned cyan. Her fair skin and red lips were far from her usual appearance of a young girl. She looked more mature, noble, cold and full of demonic energy.

She also did not intend to give up. She wanted revenge on Trishina.

Mo Fan frowned. The battle between the two Medusas might not end soon, but he had to leave because he had no time and he had something important to do.

"Don't worry, we will take care of her for you," Red Skeleton suddenly said.

Mo Fan was taken aback. He did not know the Red Skeleton could speak human language.

"Oh, thank you. How is the injury of the Mountain Zombie? Will it die?" Mo Fan asked.

The Mountain Zombie was a powerful creature, after all. If it were here, the White Tomb Palace would never fall into the hands of Khufu.

"It needs to rest. You drove the Sphinx away and gave it a chance to rest. Maybe it will recover," Red Skeleton said.

While talking to Mo Fan, it used a very subtle blood thread to control the seven Ferris Red Skeletons like a street artist. These seven Ferris Red Skeletons stood under the White Tomb Palace and blocked many mummies from advancing.

The Sphinx was the biggest threat to the Undeads of the Ancient Capital. It was a Supreme Ruler. Only the Mountain Zombie could compete with it.

Trishina was also on the same level. Although the Corpse King was also powerful, it was at a disadvantage.

The arrival of Mo Fan had severely damaged the Sphinx. However, Trishina only focused on Apas.

Apas' Eyes of Destruction instantly wiped-out half of the Female Demon Army, which greatly relieved the pressure on the White Tomb Palace. Apas was strong enough to compete with Trishina.

This provided a window for the Corpse King, Red Skeleton, Queen of Nine Serenities, and Ghost King to compete head-on with those Pharaohs.

The Undeads of the Ancient Capital were not completely incapable of combat. They were powerful. If they could kill some powerful enemies, they would not lose this battle.

Chapter 2847: The Ocean Serpent Demon

The Magic City was shrouded in darkness, adding a sense of lifelessness to the city that was under Black Alert.

The Ocean Demons' roars continued ceaselessly. People hid inside dilapidated buildings and trembled in fear.

For a long time, humans had high confidence in their abilities. When Shao Zheng proposed a crisis strategy for 20,000 kilometers of the coastline, they assumed him to be pessimistic. They believed that the huge reserve of mages would be enough to drive the Ocean Demons away.

Humans refused to believe and acknowledge the impending great danger they faced. They refused to believe that the Magic City would face the end of the world one day.

Yet D-Day had finally arrived!

The sky was riddled with holes. Icy cold sea water from the Pacific Ocean poured down on the Magic City. The sight was terrifying to behold, as if it was really the end of the world.

The sea water continued to pour down on the Magic City from the sky holes even to that moment. The city was soaked in sea water. The streets were hardly visible. Some of the buildings that looked like they would collapse at any time were still around, but they would collapse the moment a strong tide struck them.

The crying continued. They could not tell if the cries came from frightened children, or if they were the imitations by the wicked Ocean Demons. They ignored the wail and let it echo through the streets.

"We can easily mislead the Shark Men by using their sense of smell against them. Fortunately, we're familiar with the Ocean Demons. We can cross over to the neighborhood smoothly," whispered Jiang Shaoxu. He hid behind a rooftop water storage tank.

The rooftop water storage tanks were only available in old buildings. The ground was filled with sea water. It was difficult to walk on the ground. They could still move on the rooftop, at least. But Mu Bai, Zhao Manyan, Jiang Shaoxu, Song Feiyao, and Mr. Bai Mei had to move on the lower, old buildings and use the various sheds, boxes, and built shelves as covers.

The Shark Men, the Stingrays, and the Sword Fishes with special hooks were flying in the sky. They could fly in the sky as long as they created ripples around them.

Walking on top of the skyscrapers was no different from exposing themselves to the Ocean Demons.

Zhao Manyan and his group had walked through many buildings. Mu Bai cast Plant Element magic and used the steel-like rattan to connect one building to the other. By doing so, they could avoid encountering the Ocean Demons in the water while also avoiding their patrol in the sky.

However, it was extremely difficult to walk on the rattan. Even though Zhao Manyan and his group had a high level of cultivation, they moved as if they were treading on thin ice. There were too many high-level Ocean Demons in the city.

Among the Ocean Godly Horde, Servant-level Ocean Demons were hardly considered as demons. They were just snacks to the other powerful Ocean Demons.

Warrior-level Ocean Demons were basically the lowest level Ocean Demons that fought in the war. Even Commander-level Ocean Demons were considered small fries in the Ocean Godly Horde army. However, if they measured their strengths based on the humans' overall strength, the appearance of Commander-level Ocean Demons alone in a small city was tantamount to a disaster.

"The Shark Men are heading toward the gray building. Let's go!" Song Feiyao said while flying toward Zhao Manyan and his group in her Wind Wings.

They quickly moved. They leapt from one street to another commercial street nearby Yan'an Overpass.

The commercial street was composed of high-rise office buildings. The buildings were one or two hundred meters tall with glass curtain walls. There were commercial areas, shopping streets, important cross streets, finance plazas, etc.

Song Feiyao was a Wind Element mage, so she walked before the rest.

When they faced the Ocean Demons, they had to observe every direction. They had to be especially careful with the appearance of Ocean Demons under the muddy water.

Various garbage floated on the water, including office chairs, confetti materials, plastic boards, branches, leaves, etc. The garbage blocked their view from detecting creatures that swam under the muddy water.

Most of the cunning Ocean Demons often used black plastic film as a disguise to approach the mages, pretending as if it was just the black plastic film that floated to the mages' side in the water. They then launched a sudden attack on the mages. They bit the mages and dragged them down into the water.

Aside from the Water and Shadow Element mages who might still stand a chance of breaking themselves free from the Ocean Demons' grasp, the rest of the mages were killed in the water.

Song Feiyao was ahead of the others. She turned to the direction of the finance plaza, but then quickly turned back sideways. She looked troubled. Mu Bai and Zhao Manyan noticed the horror in her eyes.

Song Feiyao shook her head, signaling that they must not go in that direction. They had to skirt around that path. They skirted around a green space. Zhao Manyan was curious. He could not help himself from looking in the direction which had scared Song Feiyao. She looked so frightened.

A brown-gold office building and a deep blue skyscraper towered into the sky. There was a gap between the two buildings.

He caught sight of a serpent's curvy tail drooping down into the water between the gap of the buildings. Its body stretched from the skyscraper all the way to the brown-gold office building dome. If it shrank slightly, it could clash with the two buildings that were over two hundred meters tall.

Zhao Manyan saw several parts of its body between the buildings. It was extremely long, and its body was covered densely with wicked scales that gave off bone-chilling coldness.

It was the Ocean Serpent Demon!

This creature used to exist in ancient literature. Humans hardly captured its true form. There were no pictures or sketches of it.

However, a living Ocean Serpent Demon appeared in the middle of the bustling big city. It patrolled the city as if it was its territory. It looked careless and lazy but radiated a terrifying aura.

It was best to skirt around that path. Zhao Manyan and his group had deliberately suppressed their breaths throughout the way.

If the Ocean Demon Serpent noticed them, they would not only fail to accomplish the important mission given, but they would also perish in the city.

“My sixth sense told me that the Ocean Serpent Demon’s aura is as imposing as the Black Totem Snake,” Zhao Manyan said in fear.

“It could possibly be more powerful than the Black Totem Snake. The Ocean Serpent Demon is rarely seen. The origin of its bloodline is not known. According to the ancient record of the cities destroyed by the Ocean Serpent Demon, it can basically make a city vanish overnight. The foreign news recently reported the sudden bloodbath of the cities along the coast. The Ocean Serpent Demon is mostly likely the main culprit,” whispered Mu Bai.

The foreign countries still had a very low alert for the crisis. They had not been able to inform the residents from the remote cities to migrate to safer places. As a result, tragedies happened. China, on the other hand, had launched the base city plan early so they had avoided many terrible catastrophes.

“The Commander-level and Ruler-level Ocean Demons are everywhere... And now, we have this powerful Ocean Demon here...” Zhao Manyan muttered.

“It’s Black Alert. Did you think they were joking when they called it Black Alert? Black Alert targets all humans, including the Forbidden Mages. Even the Forbidden Mages will get killed, let alone us,” said Mu Bai.

Chapter 2848: Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves

In the past, humans had a wrong impression that everything in the world worked in their favor. The truth was the world in the past had always been riddled with holes.

It was just that they were still very young and weak to understand it. So, they did not pay attention to all this. They had chosen to believe that certain things were beyond their control. Thus, creating a sense of disparity.

The same was true for Zhao Manyan. In the past, he perceived Warrior-level and Commander-level Ocean Demons to be frightening. He was young at that time. Whenever the powerful Ocean Demons appeared, he would flee. He, like the others, had naturally assumed the powerful mages from the Magic Association to take on the demons for them.

When he grew up, he realized he had to shoulder responsibilities. He had to face the crisis independently.

When a great storm came, those who hid inside cozy homes naturally did not feel the severity of the storm. What they felt from the great storm was just the tip of the iceberg. When they grew up, it was their turn to provide for their children. They encountered thunderstorms when making a living. It was only then that they realized the ugly side and hardship in this world that contradicted their original beliefs.

By then, a thought would appear in their minds. 'Why is the world we live in so terrifying?'

In fact, the world has always been terrifying. It was just that somebody else had faced the terrifying situation to provide security and safety.

A few years ago, many Forbidden Mages died during a trip to the Extreme South. Later, a large expanse of glaciers in the Extreme South melted, and the sea level rose...

Someone had already made sacrifices for the stormy world. Some of them had succeeded, while others had failed. The successful ones were soon forgotten and lived peacefully for the rest of their lives. However, those who failed and felt threatened had to personally face the reality. They etched the lessons learned from their life experiences in their hearts forever.

'Were Warrior-level and Commander-level Ocean Demons truly that terrifying?'

Human knowledge was limited to the dry lands, which occupied less than thirty percent of the Earth. As a result, they based their ratings on their limited knowledge. Even though dry lands occupied less than thirty percent of the Earth, humans had not fully explored all the areas. They dared not explore the dark and forbidden areas.

Humans had rated Emperor level as the highest level of all. 'Was the statement true, though?'

If that was the case, how could the Dark King so easily manipulate the Forbidden Mage—Su Lu—and the Black Dragon Emperor. How had he turned them into his pawns? The Lord of the Plane laid his eyes on this world like a hungry wolf. What more disasters awaited humans?

The fact that they did not have a full understanding of all this did not mean that the world had been kind to them in the past.

Zhao Manyan finally understood everything. He had grown up and witnessed the true color of this world.

...

"We're reaching the Bund!" said Jiang Shaoxu.

Huangpu River was stunning. The skyscrapers by the river enhanced the scenery, creating a beautiful landscape with the fusion of tranquility and splendor of the past. The visual impact was simply breathtaking.

However, when they noticed the blasts in the sky and the enormous and wicked Ocean Demons roaming and ravaging the city, they were stunned and speechless. They sank into despair and sorrow.

The turbulent flow of sea water flooded the avenue where people used to admire the scenery. The sight of influencers shooting for their videos and elderly couples taking evening walks were gone. Instead, everything was replaced by the Ocean Demons. They were greedy and brutal. They coveted and murdered anything that stood in their way.

At Bund bay, a wave from the tidal earth rose to the same height as the high-rise building—The Lu Family's Mouth—and was as large as the Sky Gap buildings.

A demon's face appeared in the middle of the towering wave. It had just shown the outline of its face from the water. However, its eyes were frightening, like a large spotlight hung in the prison used to inspect the prisoners. It cast a quick glance at the Magic City that was already trapped in its cage.

The night sky was pitch-black. However, its eyes were like an ice moon in the sky. Its bone-chilling coldness enveloped the entire Magic City and gave off an evil aura.

The Magic City sky was riddled with holes.

The main culprit that poked the sky holes was none other than the demon seen in the towering waves—The Demon Lord.

The Forbidden Curse Association had not seen its true form even today. The towering wave was just a disguise. What kind of creature was it? How did it possess such a terrifying divine ability? Was it a commander of the Ocean Godly Horde?

It was extremely powerful. Even though there were other powerful Ocean Demons around it, it did not require them to act as its backup.

The Demon Lord showed up without a sense of humility in the most prosperous area before humans. It did not stop the powerful Forbidden Mages from coming to it, as if it was waiting for humans to attack it.

And none of the humans could shake it up. Several Forbidden Mages joined forces but still could not break its towering waves to find out its true evil form. It was an act of humiliation towards the Forbidden Mages for the Demon Lord to continue standing in the middle of the humans' sanctuary.

Forbidden Mages were like clowns who continued to perform unimpressive juggling before the Demon Lord. Although the Forbidden Mages were aware that the Demon Lord was the main culprit that caused the sky holes, they were powerless to stop it!

Hong Wu was the president of Dongfang Oriental Tower.

He was flying in mid-air. He was dressed plainly and looked like an ordinary elderly. However, at that moment, he was glowing with five different colors. His sharp gaze was full of divine majesty.

He was the leader in this battle.

In the past, they had to go through several important stages when dealing with the Emperor-level Ocean Demons.

However, at this moment, they did not have time to gauge the Demon Lord's strength. All of them had to give their best, no matter the cost.

The Demon Lord showed up proudly. It allowed humans' most powerful mages to approach and challenge it. Their invasion was just a game to the Demon Lord.

And the rule of this game was simple—to defeat it.

It stood there, allowing humans to try to subdue it. Still, at the end of the day, the battle was never a game.

The Demon Lord was not always so patient. It crushed humans' confidence and turned the place into a hunting ground so that it could wreak havoc.

Meanwhile, defeating the Demon Lord was not the main reason that caused the Forbidden Mages to get so worked up and restless. It was the clear line in the night sky in the direction of Pudong that worried them the most.

The seemingly quiet horizontal line continued to draw closer and separate the night sky in the east. The upper sky turned light black while the lower sky turned pitch black.

Was the dark black shade part of the sky, or was it something else?

Even though they were far away from it, they heard a loud rumble, and the earth shook violently. The air turned suffocating.

How did the waves spread across the horizon and the towering mountain ridges?

It was approaching them.

And it drew closer...

It felt as though half of the sky was collapsing.

The reason the Demon Lord had been so willing, and patient was because it was waiting for the arrival of the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves!

Chapter 2849: Magic Disintegration

'What else would the Magic City be left with if the massive waves struck the base city?'

This was the Demon Lord's terrifying strength. There wasn't much time left for the Magic City.

"Dean Xiao, do you have any idea about what it is? Is it a Water Element Holy Spirit or is it using Prime Waves to disguise itself?" asked President Hong Wu.

If they could not even figure out the enemy's true form, it would be pointless to talk about defeating it.

Undoubtedly, the sky holes that poured the sea water down on the Magic City and the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves were the Demon Lord's masterpieces.

Defeating the Demon Lord would be paramount for a chance to end the battle. Thus, the members of the Forbidden Curse Association focused their attention on it.

"It's a disguise!" Dean Xiao said with great conviction.

“But how should we break the spell? Its Prime Waves are robust and invincible. We must remove that layer of disguise,” said President Hong Wu.

They encountered a great issue. When they cast their magic on the Demon Lord’s Prime Waves, their magic disintegrated suddenly. They had cast Fire, Lightning, and Light Element magic with incredible destructive power, but the Prime Waves disintegrated all of them into less powerful magic energy.

Just like a sword made of sand. The moment they stabbed the water with the sword, the sand dissolved within an instant.

Magic Disintegration!

It was a rare power yet the Emperor-level Ocean Demon possessed it. As a result, the Demon Lord was undefeatable despite facing various Forbidden Mages together.

“I think it is drawing our attention to it.” Dean Xiao did not provide a solution to break its Prime Waves.

The Demon Lord was so confident that it confronted all the powerful Forbidden Mages in the Magic City by itself. How could they possibly find a way to kill it?

If they did manage it somehow, would it help improve the current situation?

The sky above the Magic City was riddled with holes. The sea water flooded the entire city. The powerful Ocean Demons had killed many mages. Meanwhile, the Forbidden Mages were stuck with the Demon Lord...

“I understand what you mean. But look at the skyline above the sea. It will reach here within twenty hours. If the Demon Lord continues to stay so strong without weakening even slightly, all of us will get killed by the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves,” President Hong Wu said helplessly.

Hong Wu was in despair. Even though he was aware of the city’s chaotic situation and his peers’ suffering, he could not turn a blind eye on the Demon Lord.

The Demon Lord was as powerful as the Ocean God. Otherwise, it could not possibly cast such a powerful demonic spell.

Both the Forbidden mages and the Demon Lord were trying to catch each other’s attention.

An Ocean Demon of the Demon Lord’s level could destroy a city effortlessly.

No matter how rampant and brutal the Ocean Demons were, humans could still survive as long as they strived hard by hiding, uniting, or defending themselves.

But if the Demon Lord launched an attack, it would lead to an ultimate destruction. Everyone’s lives, cities, and homes would all come to an end.

The Dongfang Oriental Tower mages could not afford to put the entire city at such a risk.

The Forbidden Curse Association had especially sought help from Dean Xiao, hoping that as a Water Element Forbidden Mage, he could figure out a way to put an end to the Demon Lord’s Prime Waves.

The Forbidden Curse Association strongly believed that all demons were defeatable in this world. However, some of the demons were extremely skillful. Before humans figured out an effective way to kill the demons, the demons were positioned at a godly throne, and nothing could threaten them.

“It disintegrates magic particles. It understands the structure of all magic. It’s familiar with Star Orbit, Star Pattern, Star Constellation, and Star Palace. No matter how complicated a magic is, it is inseparable from its basic formula. It can be decrypted. If the magic contains many intertwines and changes...” said Dean Xiao to Hong Wu.

“Dean Xiao, we’re in great urgency. Stop talking about theoretical things. Hurry up and suggest a solution if you have one!” said the chief of the Eastern Mage—Ling Dong.

“He’s right. Even though the Demon Lord hasn’t taken the initiative to launch a direct attack on us, the sky holes and Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves could inflict severe destruction on the Magic City. We must defeat it!”

“I need help from one of my students. I need his fusion magic to decrypt the Prime Waves,” said Dean Xiao.

“Which student?” asked Ling Dong. “Mo Fan. He’s the only person who possesses fusion magic in this world,” said Dean Xiao.

“Mo Fan? Is he the same young man who helped Commander Hua in killing the Mirage Dragon King Ant Mother? He’s only a Super-level mage. How can he help us despite possessing fusion magic?” Hong Wu was puzzled.

“I’ll need his help to complete the forbidden curse with fusion magic effect. The Ocean Demons understand human civilization very well. Prime Waves target the mages to disintegrate their magic. Therefore, we have to cast a magic that they have no idea about. The magic mustn’t have a fixed formula. It must be varied,” said Dean Xiao.

“Must we use fusion magic? The Magic Association contains various kinds of magic. I am sure we can...” said Ling Dong.

“As far as I’m concerned, fusion magic is the most effective magic to overcome magic disintegration,” said Dean Xiao.

“Dean Xiao, are you absolutely sure you can decrypt the Demon Lord’s spell?” Hong Wu’s eyes lit up.

‘Completing a forbidden curse with the help of a Super-level mage?’ They had never heard of such an ability.

“We can give it a try,” said Dean Xiao.

Hong Wu was willing. After all, they had no choice but to try. It was far better than standing there helplessly waiting for the demons to attack. With each passing minute, thousands of mages in the Magic City were killed.

Regardless of how powerful the Demon Lord was, they must first remove its invincible armor—Prime Waves—before planning anything else.

They had sought help from many Forbidden Mages. Therefore, they might still have a chance of killing the Demon Lord. After all, they were at Dongfang Oriental Tower where most of the powerful mages were gathered.

“Shao Li, do us a favor, please,” said Hong Wu. “Find Mo Fan. Bring him here within eight hours by all means.”

Shao Li was the man with eagle wings. He was a small distance away from the battlefield. Although he was a Forbidden Mage, he could not complete a forbidden curse independently. As such, he was far from being a match for the Demon Lord.

“Noted,” replied Shao Li.

Chapter 2850: Terrifying Serpent Demon

Everything felt eerie. It was almost as if the prey assumed that it had outrun the predator, but the predator was still sneakily observing the prey. When the prey let its guard down in relief, then the predator would lunge.

Zhao Manyan, Mu Bai, Jiang Shaoxu, Song Feiyao, and Bai Mei were the preys, and the hunter was the Ocean Serpent Demon between the two buildings.

The Ocean Serpent Demon was lazy, quiet and in no hurry. It patrolled its territory with patience. Little movements didn't escape its sight. It had discovered the five sneaky humans long ago.

It was different from the other unruly and testy sea beasts that roared and attacked the moment they saw a human.

It silently stared at the five people who thought they were smart enough to avoid its sight by weaving through the buildings below.

The group of stupid, narrow-minded humans seemed to have forgotten that noble beings did not require eyes to keep track of their surroundings.

The deep-sea cold pond scales on the Ocean Serpent Demon were sensitive to all temperature changes in its surroundings. When it opened its eyes, it could see the slow process of those flying insects flapping their wings. When it closed its eyes, it could visualize the five-kilometer radius around it as a temperature map.

The temperature of humans was too easy to identify, so these five humans fell into its trap from the start.

Boom!

As the building collapsed, glass shattered all over the floor. Some desks and chairs slid out of the broken wall in piles and fell on the street.

On the messy street, a golden diamond shield appeared around Zhao Manyan. Jiang Shaoxu and Mr. Bai Mei were within the shield as well.

The head of the Ocean Serpent Demon was still hanging above the high-rise building. Part of its body wrapped around the fallen golden brown office building, and the other part filled the wide street. Its weight cracked the asphalt road.

The golden diamond shield was Zhao Manyan's trump card. However, his defense could only last a few minutes when facing such a terrifying ruler-level demon.

Mu Bai was in the smashed shop at the end of the street, his chest was covered in blood.

He struggled to push himself off the floor. As his body swayed, his legs and limbs trembled violently.

The trembling was not because of fear, but because of the fierce attack by the Ocean Serpent Demon. Some of his bones were already broken.

The Ocean Serpent Demon was still looking in their direction from its position above them. It looked away from Zhao Manyan's golden diamond shield and looked at Mu Bai, who was still alive, with interest.

"Mu Bai, let's run in different directions. We can't all die here!" Zhao Manyan shouted urgently.

Mu Bai turned his palms. Many silkworms appeared on it. They burrowed into Mu Bai's skin and bones and repaired his broken body.

Mu Bai could finally stand on steady feet. His limbs stopped trembling.

The ice pen and snow inkstone had rolled down into the sewer. Mu Bai wanted to summon them, but a long tail stood between Mu Bai and his magical equipment.

The ice pen and snow inkstone could not return because of its terrifying aura. Mu Bai's ice magic would be severely affected if he did not have these two powerful magical equipment.

"You guys run. I'll deal with it." Mu Bai wiped off his blood.

Song Feiyao was unconscious at a distance from Mu Bai. She was the second person the Ocean Serpent Demon had attacked. She had avoided it just in time with her magic shield, but the powerful attack had sent her flying. It would take time for her to regain her consciousness.

"Are you crazy? How can you fight it alone?" Zhao Manyan shouted.

"Nothing is impossible." Mu Bai breathed heavily.

Some strange bee holes appeared all over his body. Those bizarre Star Bugs that once appeared in the Helan Mountain Bug Valley flew out one after another and quickly formed a cloud of bugs.

These bizarre Star Bugs could absorb the power of the soul. It could weaken the powerful creature's magic.

Mu Bai had deliberately brought some worm eggs and cultivated them in the last few days. Unfortunately, he hadn't had enough time to cultivate more of them. If Mu Bai had a month, he could double the number of the Star Bugs. It allowed him to achieve the terrifying suppressing and weakening ability of the Bug Valley.

The bizarre Star Bugs flew. They were small, but they had a strange power of evasion. Soon, these Star Bugs were attached to the tail and body of the Ocean Serpent Demon, and their wings lit up.

The Ocean Serpent Demon tried to drive them away but failed. However, the Ocean Serpent Demon did not panic. It even found Mu Bai's trick very funny.

After all, these Star Bugs were useless if it killed Mu Bai. The Star Bugs feed at a very slow speed. Before they could feed on it enough to weaken its power, the Ocean Serpent Demon would already have killed Mu Bai and the others.

The eyes of the Ocean Serpent Demon revealed its murderous intent. It found the humans boring and wanted to kill them all.

...

In mid-air, a winged shadow passed by very quickly.

The Ocean Serpent Demon shifted its attention to the shadow, and the scales on its whole body shrank. Its aura suddenly became frightening.

The Ocean Serpent Demon lost its cool and became angry and sensitive.

The winged man was Shaoli, who was instructed to look for the person who possessed fusion magic. He happened to pass by and saw the Ocean Serpent Demon attacking the humans.

Eagle-winged Shaoli was helpless. He had a matter of utmost importance to attend to. If he fought the Ocean Serpent Demon, he would be greatly delayed.

He had to make a choice, no matter how cruel it was. He felt sorry for the young Mages on the street.

Eagle-winged Shaoli glanced at the golden diamond shield that surrounded and protected the Mages. In the end, he chose to leave them. He swallowed the helplessness and humiliation he felt.

However, something caught his eyes and stopped him. He flew down avoiding the Ocean Serpent Demon's attacks.

"Shaoxu, what're you doing here?" Eagle-winged Shaoli landed in front of Zhao Manyan.

Jiang Shaoxu was stunned.

"Shaoli." Jiang Shaoxu was so happy that she almost cried.

She had not expected to meet her cousin, Jiang Shaoli here.

"D*rn it!" Eagle-winged Shaoli was about to scold her, but the Ocean Serpent Demon was venting all its killing intent on him.

Eagle-winged Shaoli had not wanted to get involved in this fight.

This place was very close to The Bund and had many powerful Godly Hordes, which surrounded the Demon Lord. It was not a place common people would approach. Jiang Shaoli wondered why Shaoxu was here.

