Chapter 2871: Vengeance Ocean

The Black Totem Snake understood what the Black Totem Turtle wanted.

In the past, the Black Totem Snake usually released poisonous fog on a large area to incapacitate every creature within range so they could not move. However, the Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor would notice it. Therefore, the Black Totem Snake released poison less noticeably.

It peeled off some of its scales which turned into water snakes when they touched the seawater. The snakes swimming in the river glowed with blue light. Some people might even mistake them for discarded plastics or leathers.

They targeted a group of Giant Lizard Dragons and entered their bodies secretly. The Giant Lizard Dragons did not notice the poisonous water snakes. Soon, the poisonous snakes began to spread poison from an artery to their whole bodies.

The poison would not take effect immediately. It would first eat away at the organs by assimilating into the blood. But it would not touch the heart and the head so the demons would not die.

High-level creatures could self-examine and find deadly poisons in their bodies. They could make their bodies secrete antidotes to keep themselves alive.

The poison of the Black Totem Snake was more advanced than crude, deadly poisons. It would leave the brain and heart of the creature untouched so that the creature would assume that its body functioned normally and would not notice it until it was too late. When its body slowly decayed because of the poison, it would be too late for the creature to secrete antidotes to save itself. Those Giant Lizard Dragons would not notice the water snakes eating away at their organs very slowly.

The Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor would be fooled into eating these Giant Lizard Dragons when it needed to regenerate, thereby poisoning itself.

As they expected, the Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor devoured the Giant Lizard Dragons again. It was like a hungry beast and ate every Giant Lizard Dragon around it. After eating three Giant Lizard Dragons in a row, the spinnerets at its back began to grow and spit out ghost silks on the surroundings.

The Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor let out a cry as though it was laughing. It sounded terrifying. It was happy because it could now create ghost silks again so it wouldn't take long for it to be fully armed and metamorphose into White Iron Spider Emperor.

Unless it fought head-to-head, no emperor-level creature could defeat it when it was in this form!

More white ghost silks came out of the recovered spinnerets. They were sticky and could wrap many creatures and buildings in the surroundings at a time. White spider silks covered Hongkou District.

A white nest appeared in the city again. Suddenly, the body of the Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor twitched. Its claws scratched on the ground, as if its chest was burning.

The ghost silks it secreted softened for some reason. As they softened, they became liquid like ice cream, making Hongkou District look like it had been splattered with paint.

The Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor seemed to have grown older, and its middle claw suddenly fell off. The hard armor, muscles, sharp tentacles, and sturdy claws became corrupted and fell off as well.

The Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor was furious. It finally realized that it was poisoned!

The White Spider Emperor was a venomous creature. It was not tortured to death by the poison in its body. It began to stab into its own body with its front claws, releasing all the poisonous blood.

The White Spider Emperor drank a lot of river water to make up for the lost blood in its body. However, it hurriedly stopped drinking when it found out that the river was full of poisonous water snakes. It stared at the Black Totem Snake, and its hatred was palpable.

The Black Totem Snake would not let the vicious Ocean Demons go. When the Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor was poisoned, the Black Totem Snake attacked it. The flickering holy scales all over its body acted as an indestructible armor, so it wasn't afraid of hand-to-hand combat.

The Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor and Lan Dragon Demon began to rely on each other. The Lan Dragon Demon tried to use the Deep-Sea Dragon Empire in Hongkou District to block the attacks of the Black Totem Snake and Black Totem Turtle. However, the Super-level Union attacked right after the Deep-Sea Lizard Demon Dragon Troop gathered.

There were hundreds of people above the Hongkou District, and most of them were masters from renowned families. The Super-Level magic, jointly chanted, hovered and superimposed in the sky. A magical storm shaped like a black hole formed over the Hongkou District and the other side of the river.

The Lizard Demon Dragon Troop suffered heavy losses. The Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor and Lan Dragon Demon were injured to varying degrees in the attack.

The Black Totem Snake and Black Totem Turtle were affected as well. The magical storm could not distinguish the target and attack everyone equally. The Black Totem Snake and Black Totem Turtle endured with the Scale Pattern of Sacred Totem Beast. Even though the magical storm would injure them, they could not let the two emperor-level creatures flee.

The Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor and Lan Dragon Demon could recover at a high speed. Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor's body released snake poison just as quickly as the Lan Dragon Demon's tail grew. To kill them, they would have to pay the price.

"Keep on attacking. The two Totems can hold their own," said Zhao Manyan.

Zhao Manyan rode on the Black Totem Turtle elegantly. He had become the spiritual leader of the union of renowned families. If they could kill the two powerful emperor-level creatures, it could boost the morale of the Magic City.

"I'm here to help!" The Fire God appeared.

He flew in the sky with a powerful Forbidden Curse. A red Sky Pool floated above the Fire God. When he shouted, the red Sky Pool slowly tilted and poured down the Fire of Sky Pool toward the ocean on the other side of the river.

The Fire of Sky Pool was an extremely powerful Forbidden Curse, almost comparable to the joint magic of Super-Level Mages. It was hard to imagine that a single person's power could surpass that of many top Mages. He was a true Forbidden Mage!

The Fire of Sky Pool had killed many Lizard Demon Dragons. The furnace of the gods rolled down on the world, and the two emperor-level Ocean Demons could only struggle to survive in the Fire of Sky Pool.

If they were in a good condition, had evil dragon skin, or had a white iron body, they would have sustained minor injuries. However, they were already injured so the Fire of Sky Pool dealt them a fatal blow.

Chapter 2872: Battle in Hongkou District

"Attack! The two emperor-level creatures are dying!" Zhao Manyan shouted excitedly.

He had never expected that he would be chasing and defeating an emperor-level creature ever in his life. Zhao Manyan was thrilled. He was not as crazy during the battle in Andeas.

After all, he grew up in the Magic City and was fond of this place. Also, the Zhao family had many businesses in the city.

Zhao Manyan would kill anyone that destroyed his family's business, even an emperor-level creature would be no match!

Everyone was willing to obey the person who could order the Black Totem Turtle. Even the Fire God of the Forbidden Curse Association talked to Zhao Manyan with respect.

"There are too many Salamanders across the river. If we attack rashly, we might fall into a trap. Please order Black Totem Turtle to open a way for us," said the Fire God.

The Black Totem Turtle was indeed ferocious. It could even deal with the invincible emperor-level creature alone.

The Black Totem Turtle was also a marine creature. Its roar could make any Ocean Demon's demonic spells ineffective. If the Black Totem Turtle could take the lead, other people would be at ease.

"Attack! It's no longer a defensive battle! We want revenge on the Pacific Ocean!" Zhao Manyan shouted.

Although it was a bit of an exaggeration, they were in need of such inspiring words in the battle. Zhao Manyan took out the Wooden Fish Containers and Water Buddha Beads.

His cultivation was not as high as those of Superordinate Mages and apex-grade Mages. However, the Wooden Fish Container was associated with the Black Totem Turtle. After the Black Totem Turtle received the radiance of the Sacred Totem Beast, the Wooden Fish Container stimulated to infinite potential. Every magic was four times sturdier and as powerful. When combined with the Blessing of the God's Seal, a Super-Level defensive barrier could be eight times thicker than the barrier of a normal Super-Level Mage.

The Water Buddha Beads were powerful water equipment. Wu Ku was sinful, but the Water Buddha Beads left behind seemed to have inherited most of his abilities as a Water Element victim. Because of this, Zhao Manyan's control over Water Element was almost the same as Semi-Water Element Forbidden Mages.

Water Element had absolute suppression over Ocean Demons. Zhao Manyan could not deal with emperor-level Lan Dragon Demon and Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor, but he was a great threat to the Deep-Sea Dragon Empire.

The irritable Black Totem Snake broke free from the Lizard Demon Dragon Troop after it heard the voice.

A woman wearing a light red uniform of the Enforcement Union jumped onto the crown of the Black Totem Snake. She patted its head affectionately.

"Ms. Tang Yue, you came at the right time. Let's cross the river with the Black Totem Snake. We can't let the Lan Dragon Demon and Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor recover and flee." Zhao Manyan's eyes lit up when he saw Tang Yue.

Tang Yue was the Head of the Magic Court of Nanxi Mountain. She had just arrived at the scene.

The other Judges and Deputy Judges also landed on the head of the Black Totem Snake. They stood in an orderly line.

Two Totem Guardians appeared one after another. If they were here, the Super-Level Union could communicate and cooperate with the two Sacred Totem Beasts perfectly. This was crucial for Mages, who lacked frontal resistance!

There were not many Summoning Element Mages in the Magic City, so many Ocean Demons disrupted the formation of the Mages. After they made a sturdy formation, the destructive power and lethality caused by it would be even more powerful than that of the demons.

The body of the Black Totem Turtle was the most reliable. When it stood in front of them, it was like a natural barrier. Its shell acted as a protective wall, and it gave the Super-Level Mages time to cast magic spells however they wanted.

Unlike the Black Totem Turtle, the Black Totem Snake was a pair of sharp fangs. It could tear apart, attack, bite, and poison the enemy.

Its defensive power was far inferior to the Black Totem Turtle, but its aggressiveness was far superior. Its arrival threatened the lives of the Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor and Lan Dragon Demon.

The existence of the two Sacred Totem Beasts stabilized the battle in Hongkou District. Hongkou District could win if they killed the two emperor-level creatures!

More than half of the pattern had lit up.

The Dragon Wall was formed again, and the Ocean Demons below ruler-level could not jump over the tail of the Azure Dragon no matter how numerous they were. Even if a ruler-level creature broke into the Dragon Wall, its demonic spells would be restricted by the Azure Dragon, and its strength would reduce radically.

“Mo Fan, you have to be extra careful since the Black Totem Snake is not here,” Eagle-winged Shaoli said to Mo Fan.

“Don’t worry. I’m not weak. The Green East Sea God is blocking the Giant Shark Beasts in the sky. If they attack, the formation formed by me and Dean Xiao will be destroyed, so you should go and help the Green East Sea God,” Mo Fan said to Eagle-winged Shaoli.

Shaoli looked up. There were many big creatures eyeing them in the sky. They were all Chief Sharks and Giant Shark Beasts. There were about twenty of them.

At first, there were more than fifty of them, and each of them had reached the ruler-level of the Shark Horde in Lan Yang City. The Green East Sea God had killed thirty of them, but it had no time to kill the remaining twenty.

They were here to destroy the Medium Formation.

Their strategy was easy. They would use their bodies to smash the People’s Park into a hole. Then, the Medium Formation would not have any support on the earth so it could not absorb the elements of this world.

“All right. Take care,” said Eagle-winged Shaoli.

Mo Fan’s body was full of fire, and he stared at an Evil Tyrant Crocodile that had been annoying him.

The Moon Moth Phoenix flew. Its figure was almost invisible in the dark under the clouds.

Unlike other Sacred Totem Beasts, the Moon Moth Phoenix did not join the battle. Lingling and Leng Qing both laid on its back and as it flew toward the Pudong ocean area.

After flying for about ten kilometers, they saw many Ocean Demons moving toward the Magic City. Some even swam in the ocean. Even if they could not see their faces, they could guess that the creatures were tyrant-level demons.

The Moon Moth Phoenix hid. Even if it were exposed, it would be fine since it could use the charm of the Moon Moth. If it didn’t attack the Ocean demons, they would pass by it without attacking back.

“Grandpa!”

“Are you sure he is down there? I can only see the corpses of Salamanders,” Qing Leng asked.

There were piles of corpses of Salamanders. They wondered what kind of a person had delayed the arrival of the White Disastrous Clouds.

“He is down there,” Lingling said with conviction.

“Wait. Let those tyrants pass by first,” Qing Leng said calmly.

Chapter 2873: Rise of A New Evil—The Ocean Undead

Leng Qing's focus was on the red Ocean Demons.

The red Ocean Demons were different from the others. They did not have skin or flesh. They were all bones.

Fish bones were sharp and spiky. The Ocean Demons in red fish bones roaming on the water surface created an odd and terrifying sight. The sea water where they passed by turned red, as if it was infected. Even the plants under the water died.

"Over there!" Lingling discovered something and cried out urgently.

The Moon Moth Phoenix dived down and landed on top of a pile of Shell Demons and Salamanders' carcasses.

The Moon Moth Phoenix flapped its wings and stirred up a strong wind. The wind blew off their armors—which were as hard as granite—layer by layer. Hundreds and thousands of Salamanders and Shell Demons' carcasses were swept away.

Finally, an elderly man was revealed from under the pile of carcasses. He laid in the middle of a Salamander's golden armor while he faced the sky. He looked as if he was laying on a large golden rocking chair.

"Grandpa!" Lingling and Leng Qing quickly dashed over to him.

The Moon Moth Phoenix flew to him. It spat out a drop of crystal-clear dew. The dew fell on Song Qiming's forehead. At that moment, the blood vessels all over his body lit up, and the speed of blood flow, which was very slow before that, increased.

After some time, Song Qiming opened his eyes. He stared at Leng Qing and Lingling, and a strained smile appeared on his exhausted face.

"A-Am I still not dead?" Song Qiming asked.

Before he had collapsed, he was already exhausted. The Salamander Emperor had laid its eyes on him like a hungry wolf. It would have devoured him without doubt.

'Did something happen that made the Salamander Emperor stop wasting its time on an elderly man?' Song Qiming wondered.

"Do you really think you're still in your thirties or forties?! You're old.! Why can't you just stay home and enjoy your retirement?!" Lingling was so upset that her eyes welled up with tears.

Fortunately, Lingling had prepared a gift for Old Bao during his grand birthday. The gift would enable her to locate him no matter where he was. That was how she had found him today.

"I feel more at peace knowing that I can contribute to this fight." Song Qiming smiled wryly.

He slowly got up and tried to look at his Star Universe, only to find that his Star Universe had crumbled. The Star Son within was chaotic and out of order. It was completely out of control. Song Qiming felt bitter and helpless.

His cultivation base had collapsed. It could be either because he was severely wounded in the battle, or his aged body could no longer support the massive Star Universe.

"We can't stay here any longer. We have to leave now." Leng Qing helped Song Qiming onto the Moon Moth Phoenix's back.

Song Qiming could barely move on his own. He was paralyzed. He considered himself fortunate to have survived.

"Wait!" Song Qiming cried out. Immediately, he was seized by a coughing fit. He had used up too much energy.

His cough was bad. It sounded as though he was going to die soon. Even so, he grabbed Leng Qing and Lingling's wrists tightly. He insisted that they listen to him carefully.

Leng Qing and Lingling were puzzled. 'Why was he pushing himself even though he was already in such a terrible state?'

If they could get him home in time, he could survive and regain his health with proper treatment. 'Why was he trying to die in this place? Did he truly find this to be something honorable and worthy? Had he ever thought about his two granddaughters?'

"Help me down," Song Qiming said firmly.

"Grandpa..."

"Help me down!" he insisted.

Lingling and Leng Qing had no choice but to help him to get down to the pile of Salamander carcasses.

Song Qiming had Leng Qing to turn over some of the carcasses. He then asked her to approach the seawater that had turned red.

Lingling had no idea why he had to do all this. When things became a little clearer, her expression changed.

Song Qiming, having found his answer, looked pale. "This is the reason why I'm not dead yet! Such cunning Ocean Demons!"

"We have to go back and inform the rest," Lingling said urgently.

"It's pointless. The two of you will take me back to the hunter agency. We must rely on him to take on the powerful Ocean army," said Song Qiming solemnly.

"Grandpa, who are you referring to?" Lingling was puzzled.

"I've seen many evil forces and have been searching for the Red Demon to avenge your father. But the Red Demon is very well-hidden. I've found its doppelganger several times. It wasn't an entirely fruitless journey. I've frozen them in a bottle using the Evil Bead Sublimation method," said Song Qiming.

"The Evil Bead Sublimation method... then Mo Fan..." Lingling and Leng Qing's eyes lit up.

"Yes. It's sufficient for one time use," Song Qiming nodded.

“Let’s delay no more...”

Creek!

Leng Qing was about to say something when she heard an unusual sound coming from the piles of Ocean Demon carcasses.

They stopped talking. They looked at the piles of carcasses as it emitted eerie red light. Something was writhing within the pile of carcasses, as if a fast-growing magic bud was trying to break through the soil.

Creek!

The sound grew and rang across the Pudong sea area. The carcasses floating above the sea twitched oddly. They seemed to be coming back to life.

The three of them jumped onto Moon Moth Phoenix’s back.

“They’ve awakened. Hurry up!” said Song Qiming.

The Moon Moth Phoenix flapped its wings and shot into the sky. The Pudong sea area turned eerie red. Massive whirlpool ripples appeared on the red sea. The whirlpool consumed all the carcasses, and the dead creatures came back to life!

Most of them became crimson red skeletons. They were razor-sharp with exaggerated bones covering their bodies. They looked as if they were put together from a mountain of fish bones in the dead sea. They turned into demonic evil creatures!

The Moon Moth Phoenix flew high in the sky. The Undead’s evil aura was close to slamming it down. The Pudong sea area had transformed into a shocking demonic cave. Countless Ocean Undead crawled up from the ocean silt and mud. They did not have flesh on their bodies. They were covered in crimson red bones.

The reason Song Qiming was not killed was because the Salamander Emperor had planned to sacrifice him to the Ocean Undead.

The demons struggling in the middle of carcasses harbored a strong lifeless force, resentment, and evil aura. If Song Qiming hadn’t been rescued, he would have become a source of life force for the Undead.

Chapter 2874: The Ocean Queen (1)

At the People’s Square, the earth pattern had lit up and turned into a complete Seal Formation. The three elements—Lightning, Water, and Light had coalesced into three different colored beads, and they surrounded Dean Xiao.

The three beads contained the Forbidden Curse’s powerful spell. Dean Xiao ascended into the sky and stopped at the highest point in the battlefield. The beads with three different elements glowed in purple, blue, and gold around him. The lights arched across the sky and charged at the Cold Moon Demon Lord’s Prime Waves.

As soon as the three beads came in contact with the Prime Waves, they unleashed their true powers.

The bead with the Lightning element could unleash Sky Lightning. Lightning surged. Each lightning bolt was so bright that it illuminated the pitch-black Magic City. These bolts were capable of creating a sea of fire. Such lightning covered the sky including the southeast and northwest parts, and they gathered in the sky above the Bund.

The sound of the lightning storm was deafening. There were multiple Sky Lightnings. Thousands of lightning struck the Prime Waves within a few seconds. The light was so bright that even blazing sunlight paled in comparison. The world looked as if it had been set on fire by the flaming lightning.

But this was only a part of the fused Forbidden Curse. When the Sky Lightning struck the world, the gold Sacred Chant descended like the wrath of God. The Sacred Chant glowed in radiant gold and descended with splendor. It scorched and “cleansed” the land.

After the two extreme Forbidden Curse “cleansed” the Prime Waves, the blue bead seemed to have disappeared into thin air. But the blue Forbidden Curse bead had already burrowed into the Prime Waves and neutralized the magic.

The Lightning and Light Forbidden Curses had been neutralized and had no effect on the Prime Waves. However, the blue Forbidden Curse bead acted as a catalyst to break down the fortress. After the bead released its magnificent power, the fortress began to crack. At first, the crack was barely visible, but it soon spread to the entire Prime Waves Fortress before collapsing.

“It worked! It truly worked!” President Hong Wu was so excited that he was almost incoherent.

They finally neutralized the Prime Waves Fortress. The terrifying Lightning and Light Forbidden Curses intertwined and shone brightly on the Cold Moon Demon Lord. The creature remained in its place, but its eyes were filled with resentment and hatred!

Dean Xiao had mentioned that the Prime Waves was the Cold Moon Demon Lord itself in disguise.

He was right. The Prime Waves Fortress was not the Cold Moon Demon Lord’s real body. It floated in the sky. When the Prime Waves Fortress collapsed and turned into a pool of water, the Cold Moon Demon Lord revealed its true form.

It was not as terrifying and hideous as expected. It did not look strange and grotesque. It floated above the Huangpu River. It looked like an icy cold human from afar.

Only its eyes, tail, and crown horn set it apart from appearing perfectly human. Still, all this did not affect its throne as the most devilish Ocean Demon Lord.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord resembled the evil Trench Demon that proclaimed itself as the Ocean Godly Prophet.

They did not see the Cold Moon Demon Lord’s legs. Instead, it had countless whiskers that served as its “lower body”. When its whiskers gathered close, they resembled a woman’s long dress, except without a sense of aesthetic beauty.

It had a tail. There were two large whiskers under its whisker-like “lower body”. Those served as its tail. When it lifted its tail, it almost reached its crown horn.

What terrified them the most was that the end of its tail was not the shape of a thorn or a fin. Instead, it was a round, cold, silver eyeball! The eyeball shone in the cold moonlight. It looked noble even in its evil countenance.

Its Cold Moon Eye did not grow on its face. It grew at the end of its tail. I was no wonder it could move its eyeball at incredible angles and keep track of everything.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord's body resembled a human. It had a torso, arms, neck, head, and orifices. But its Cold Moon Eye on its tail radiated only wickedness.

"The Eye of the Tide! The Eye of the Ocean!" Dean Xiao could not stop himself from blurting out the words as he stared at the bizarre and evil Demon Lord.

The members from the Forbidden Curse Association had heard of the legends surrounding the Eye of the Tide and the Eye of the Ocean. At that moment, they finally understood why the Demon Lord could cast such a powerful, divine spell that spanned across the ocean and land!

The Eye of the Tide had summoned the waves that surged to the skyline in the Pudong sea area. The waves were likened to a destructive tsunami that could drown the entire Magic City

The Eye of the Ocean was the source that created countless holes in the sky, thus allowing icy cold water to pour onto the city. If there was an ocean nearby, it could cast endless spells!

After the Prime Waves collapsed, the Cold Moon Demon Lord remained in the sky. Its skin was blue. Even without the Prime Waves as its disguise, the Cold Moon Demon Lord maintained its arrogance. It looked down at the human's world, as if it only saw a low-level, dirty civilization below him.

The Ocean Prophets were its pawns and thus, it could control them. The Cold Moon Demon Lord was proficient in human language, but it did not bother to speak. Its demeanor and gaze implied only inevitable destruction.

It wanted to wipe out the Magic City and construct civilization that belonged to the ocean creatures only. It wanted the Ocean Godly Horde to conquer the world!

Boom!

While they were staring at the Cold Moon Demon Lord in shock, a loud sound rang out from Pudong. A red, evil tide charged at them rapidly.

It looked like a tumbling red desert from afar. Each grain of sand represented an evil spirit. The red tide had covered the entire Pudong. Even the large number of Salamanders and Shell Demons paled in comparison to the tide.

The tide looked aggressive and lifeless and filled both sides of Huangpu River. The Ocean Demons trembled in fear upon sensing the imposing aura. So did the humans.

"It's the Ocean Undead! They have infiltrated our sea area!" Dean Xiao stared at the red Ocean Undead. There was no luster in their eyes.

"Dean Xiao, does this have anything to do with her?" Mo Fan asked in shock.

“She warned us before. Even if we’re aware of the issue now, we can’t do anything.” Dean Xiao heaved a weary sigh.

‘How did Ding Yumian turn into an Undead? How did she gather such a large number of Undead within such a short period of time?’

She was not the primary perpetrator. She was one of the victims. The war by the sea had led to many deaths over the years. Mountains of carcasses and corpses had filled the bottom of the ocean. The blood remained in the seawater by the bay for months. All this served as a fertile ground for the Undead!

But the humans had not explored much about the Ocean Undead. In theory, the Ocean Undead were much more powerful than the Undead of the land. After all, the amount of biological waste deposited in the ocean far exceeded the land surface!

Chapter 2875: The Ocean Queen (2)

What was bound to come had arrived.

After Ding Yumian had vanished, the faded Ocean Undead were assumed to make a comeback. People had lived in dread for this day.

The true queen of the Ocean Undead was someone else. The evil spirit in Ding Yumian was just one of the many insignificant conquerors.

The incoming red desert looked as if it could destroy everything.

The sound of weeping, whimpering, and roaring rang. The Undead’s roar was torture. The Magic City was already severely damaged, it couldn’t face another wave of Undead army. Even if they managed to defeat all the enemies, could the Magic City recover from this?

The place where the Undead had trampled became lifeless. The Magic City’s source of life was water. It had a flat and fertile land. But the ocean had flooded the city. The Undead wanted to invade the land.

The people of Magic City had not seen the ultimate judgment day. They were scared.

In the middle of the red desert, the skeletons covered in red, long veils traversed in the air and approached the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

One of the skeletons was cloaked in white veil. Its white veil was covered by cobwebs, but the red skeletons appeared noble in it. The female skeleton laughed like a woman, but its laughter was shrill and eerie.

It was as if she had already taken down the Magic City. Humans were meant to be defeated in this war from the beginning.

If humans could not defend the war by the coastline that spanned up 20,000 kilometers, it would be the same as surrendering the city, filled with resources, to the enemy. The Ocean Godly Horde would then expand the resources rapidly and become the world’s ruler.

If the humans fought back, there would be an increased number of deaths. Carcasses, corpses, and blood served as the Undead's breeding ground. The Ocean Godly Horde had granted the Ocean Undead a noble status. The Ocean Demon would no longer wander under the dark ocean.

The Royal Skeleton Queen rose to the same height as the Cold Moon Demon Lord. Its Undead army had reached the Lu Family's Mouth. The difference between the Ocean Undead and the Ocean Demons was that all the Ocean Undead were covered in bones, without any flesh. They were mostly made up of fish bones and the sharp parts from the demonic beasts such as their claws, sharp tail, sword fin bones, external and internal teeth, etc.

These were what made up the Ocean Undead army. Hence, the Ocean Undead army looked like an empire made of blades. They looked like red live weapons. There were too many of them. It was horrific.

"We have more enemies." President Hong Wu was exhausted. So were the other members of the Forbidden Curse Association.

They had given their all in fighting the powerful Ocean Demons. The Azure Dragon and the five totem beasts had slightly made a difference in the outcome of the battle in their favor.

But in the end, the Ocean Demon army they had been fighting was just part of the Ocean Godly Horde. The Ocean Undead Empire was far more powerful. The Salamanders and Shell Demons were scrawny compared to them!

Pudong was flooded with the red Undead army. The humans had been fighting the Ocean Demons over the years. The carcasses and corpses in the past battles had become the fuel with which the Royal Skeleton Queen made its Undead army.

"Why do you have to fight back so hard? You will still end up dead and defeated before me." The Royal Skeleton Queen let out a shrill laugh.

It had been living under the ocean for countless years. All the living creatures in the world would end up becoming skeletons sooner or later. Hence, it did not have to summon a single soldier or cast an Undead spell. After all, the fact of the matter was that living creatures died at one point and then they would belong to the Royal Skeleton Queen.

Thus, the Royal Skeleton Queen did not bother playing tricks in a war.

If need be, it would show its true power and unleash its massive army on the idiotic humans who assumed they were the ruler of the world.

"President Hong Wu, what's its level?" the chief of the Eastern Mage asked.

The emperor-level Ocean Demons consisted of the Multicolored Demon King, Lan Demon Dragon, Demonic Ruins White Spider Emperor, the Lord of the Shark Man, the Salamander Emperor, and lots more. Still, none of them exuded a more imposing aura than the female Undead leader.

The female Undead was comparable to the Cold Moon Demon Lord. Perhaps it, too, was an evil spirit. If that was the case, this was a one-sided war. The Magic City would be utterly destroyed.

No one had ever survived in the Undead's presence. The Undead were very sensitive toward the living. They were obsessed with transforming the living beings into their own kind!

“The Lord of Shara, the Extreme South Emperor, and the Bermudian Devil are the world’s three greatest emperors. There are ten emperors who have the power to dominate the world, and the Ocean Queen is one of them,” said Hong Wu.

The Ocean Queen had been a myth for a long time. But the Forbidden Curse Association members were aware of it and its group’s existence.

They lived in the depth of the ocean. They required a completely different living environment. Therefore, they were basically not considered much of a threat to humans. However, the Ocean Godly Horde had been in a Pacific War over the years, and this had strengthened the Ocean Undead. Moreover, their habitat had gradually expanded to the continents.

If only the humans knew that the Ocean Godly Horde had allied with the Ocean Undead, they would not have fought back. They would have saved their resources and moved to other places.

The powerful enemy appeared from the ocean one after another. The humans had just regained their confidence, only to fall into despair again. It was impossible to retreat.

“They can’t stay inside the refuge any longer. Have the officers transfer all the citizens inside the refuge to the Ding City,” said Councilman Gu in disappointment.

“There are still many Ocean Demons inside the city. The transfer process could...” Another councilman hesitated.

“The Undead itself is a virus. It can infect all the citizens within a very short period of time. Enough of questions and doubts. Do you want all the citizens of the Magic City to end up becoming the Ocean Undead?” said Councilman Gu.

“Got it.”

They could no longer stay in the city. The refuge with waterproof barrier, Forbidden Isolation, and hidden systems could not stop the Undead’s infection. The people inside the refuge would become Undeads sooner or later. If the Undead attacked the living humans, it would lead to casualties which couldn’t be cured. They would slowly turn into Undead themselves.

The Magic City was severely destroyed. The arrival of the Ocean Queen had further intensified the frightening aura.

Migration was the wisest decision. They had to abandon the city and flee.

Chapter 2876: Total Warfare

There were many Ocean Demons roaming in the Magic City. If they were to transfer the people from the refuge to other places at that moment, it would undoubtedly lead to a huge crisis.

But the Magic Association had no other choice. Evacuating the people out of the city was much better than leaving them all here to die.

“What about us?” asked one of the Apex-grade mages.

If they were to start evacuating people from the refuge, it would certainly be a challenging ordeal. But what about the mages? Should they retreat with the people or stay and fight?

“We have no way back,” said President Hong Wu.

When they had established the base city in the Magic City, they built a refuge. There was an emergency exit inside the refuge. The refugees stood a chance of leaving the Magic City alive. If the Mages fought the Ocean Demons and kept them busy, the people could survive. But there was no way out for the Mages.

The Ocean Demons gathered. Likewise, the humans assembled. They had shifted the important battle to Huangpu River. Most of the Ocean Demon army and Undead army were temporarily blocked at the Huangpu River barrier.

The Ocean Demons descended on the Magic City through the sky holes. The Ocean Demons in Pudong outnumbered the large Ocean Demon Kingdoms drastically.

Regardless of the outcome of the battle at Huangpu River, the people in the refuge had to leave. The Mages had to stall for time to give the citizens sufficient time to migrate to other places.

If the Ocean Undead were not present, they could buy more time. The Mages below Super level could destroy roaming Ocean Demons to enable a safer evacuation process and less fatality.

But the current situation was completely different. If they continued to stay, the dead people would become a part of the Ocean Undead and infect the living endlessly.

The refuge was crowded with people. The infection would bring immediate fatality and spread uncontrollably.

They were already defeated the moment Councilman Gu made the evacuation announcement. What was left now was to flee for their lives and strive to survive.

If the Mages could hold the battle for a while, more people could leave the city.

It was only after all the people in the refuge had left that the Magic Association would give the Mages an evacuation signal. Would any of them still be alive by then?

“I smell your fear. Here’s my suggestion, pick up the shattered pieces all around you and stab your poor little hearts!” The Royal Skeleton Queen spoke loudly. It sounded like it was reading a victory speech.

“Regardless of whether you continue to fight back or commit suicide, you’ll still end up becoming my people. Those who heed my order, I’ll perceive you as showing me your fidelity.”

The Ocean Queen stirred the people’s minds. It flaunted its massive Undead army and mocked the Mages.

Meanwhile, the Cold Moon Demon Lord swung its two tails gracefully. It remained as cold as ice. The Eye of the Tide and the Eye of the Ocean on its tail carried a hint of scorn.

It remained quiet, but the way it carried itself was evident that it believed it would win this war.

It had its hands on the Magic City.

The only thing that piqued its interest was the process of the war. It would either conquer the Magic City according to its will and orders, or it would encounter some plot twist and changes as it occupied and trample the city. Either one, it would still lead to the same result. It preferred the latter.

And the appearance of the Azure Dragon was a change in the process! At that moment, it rested its Cold Moon Eyes on the Azure Dragon.

“Kill them!” said the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

It spat out a very strange language, but the humans interpreted its message in their minds.

It was the Godly Evil Mind ability!

The Demon Lord was a godly level creature that could manipulate any creature’s minds. It could communicate with all kinds of races. It could unite the Pacific Ocean and give orders to the Godly Prophet and instigate more wars!

After it gave its order, the Ocean Demons in the city became ferocious and restless. They crossed the river barrier and charged at the mages. They launched a full-scale massacre.

At the same time, the Ocean Undead swarmed the Mages. Their red and razor-sharp skeletal bodies looked like a meat grinder in the war.

Multicolored lights arched across the sky. The Mages’ elemental glow formed elemental rainstorms simultaneously. They felt humiliated and angry.

They unleashed a massive fire meteor formed from slurry blaze, a rain of heaven and earth crystal spears that pierced the lands, and a dense swirl of wind blades.

A Whale Crocodile covered in bone vertebrae appeared from the tumbling river. It crushed a group of Super-level mages from the Hunter Union by landing on them from above.

Two people died from the group. They were pierced by the Whale Crocodile’s terrifying bones. The evil Whale Crocodile then dragged them a few hundred kilometers. The Mages were disfigured and died miserably.

But the Bone Vertebrae Whale Crocodile soon met its own fate. Its rampage caused it to fall into a Forbidden Mage’s trap. Enormous knife and axe struck it. In the blink of an eye, the Bone Vertebrae Whale Crocodile died a tragic death within the cursed knife and axe formation. It had been torn apart to the size of screws and parts.

Several Chief Sharks broke through the yellow scorching light barrier and tried to destroy a group of powerful Light Element Mages. Just then, a razor-sharp green wing swung at them and cut the Chief Shark into pieces.

It was the Green East Sea God that had attacked them. Its power had increased tremendously, and the Chief Sharks were no longer its match. However, the Green East Sea God was soon surrounded by many Shark Men and beasts in the sky.

A zirconia Chief Shark whose power was clearly superior to other Ruler-level Ocean Demons almost broke the Green East Sea God’s wing bones.

Roar!

The Azure Dragon roared, and the space in the sky shook. A green afterimage that resembled a dragon danced and intertwined in the sky. It later formed a terrifying and powerful hurricane above the Huangpu River and crushed thousands of crimson red Undead.

The hurricane formed from the dragon dance continued to expand. When it expanded to the extreme, it transformed into nine hurricanes that resembled dragon shadow and charged towards Pudong along nine straight lines. It crushed the Ocean Demon army and the Undead army. The densely packed evil spirits were killed within a split second under the nine lengthy hurricanes.

Tens and thousands of Ocean Demons and Ocean Undead died. The Azure Dragon looked as majestic as ever. It had undoubtedly strengthened the humans' faith in the middle of their hopelessness!

They felt that there was no reason for them to despair. With the Azure Dragon in the sky, and on their side, the Magic City had hope yet.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord glanced at the Azure Dragon. And the Azure Dragon unflinchingly met its eyes.

Just a while ago, the Cold Moon Demon Lord had the Prime Waves to neutralize various magic, thus allowing it to chant its evil spell without any distraction. But now the Cold Moon Demon Lord had lost its protection.

A glimpse of contempt appeared in the Azure Dragon's eyes as it looked at the demonic creature.

The Azure Dragon stopped wasting its time on the insignificant Ocean Demons. It roared and charged at the Demon Lord to kill the leader of the Ocean Godly Horde once and for all!

Chapter 2877: The Azure Dragon's Might

The Cold Moon Demon Lord had not expected the Azure Dragon to be so hot-tempered.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord moved back a little. Just then, the Ocean Queen stood up and glared at the sacred totem Azure Dragon with its red-amber eyes.

The Azure Dragon's body was majestic and towering. It moved in the sky and almost covered it. Meanwhile, the Royal Skeleton Queen was the size of a human. The Azure Dragon saw it only as a small red grain of sand!

The Ocean Queen sneered. It raised its red head and let out a long shrill, like a woman singing in a high-pitched voice.

Bam!

One hundred thousand of Undead on the land disintegrated. They transformed into razor-sharp and terrifying weapons made of bones under the Ocean Queen's chant. They formed an evil skeletal domain of a two-kilometer radius around the Ocean Queen!

The appearance of one hundred thousand bones was frightening. They floated above the Magic City like a red storm of disaster. The Ocean Queen used half of them to form a Red Bone Palace to protect itself, then transformed the other half into sharp weapons and aimed at the sacred totem Azure Dragon!

Striking a target with ten thousand arrows was a bloodcurdling sight. Having razor-sharp bones made up of fifty thousand Ocean Undead aimed at the target was unimaginable. If the razor-sharp weapons were aimed at a large city, the buildings, skyscrapers, and streets in that city would be riddled with holes.

The Super-level Union trembled in horror upon witnessing its incredible demonic power. The members of the Forbidden Curse Association broke out in cold sweat. This was just one of the Ocean Queen's random undead spells!

The Azure Dragon was in the sky. The razor-sharp bones swarmed it. While everyone thought the Azure Dragon was bound to be injured, it charged headfirst toward the rain of scary red bones.

The red rain of bones swallowed its green silhouette. Even so, it still glowed in sacred totem light. The bone spears, bone spikes, and spinal bone tips of evil spirits shattered into pieces or were turned into dust the moment they clashed with the Azure Dragon.

The Azure Dragon was fearless. It continued to charge toward the Ocean Queen and the Cold Moon Demon Lord. It stretched out its front claws and lunged at the Red Bone Palace which held the Ocean Queen!

The Azure Dragon crushed the Red Bone Palace into pieces in a single claw. The shocking and terrifying claw mark lingered in the space. The Ocean Queen's palace made up of bones collapsed.

The Ocean Queen unleashed one hundred thousand Undead bones to attack the Azure Dragon again. Half of them shattered into pieces the moment they met the Azure Dragon's divine light while the other half collapsed with a single swing from its claw. While the humans suffered with hopelessness, the Azure Dragon beat the demons effortlessly.

The humans felt hopeful. Fury flashed in the Ocean Queen's red-amber eyes.

It slowly raised its hand. Its long palm looked like a withered branch, and it pulled the clouds from the sky.

The clouds changed color. They turned as black as ink. Flashes of red lightning struck the earth. A withered bone claw gradually appeared from the sky under the terrifying light and grabbed the Azure Dragon by its neck.

The sacred totem Azure Dragon sensed it. It moved and dodged the scary withered bone claw.

The Ocean Queen continued to transfer its evil power to the clouds. Multiple withered bone claws appeared in the sky. In the middle of the red lightning storm, the withered bone claws were so large that it could crush a huge mountain range!

The Azure Dragon moved its body. It swung its tail at the pitch-black sky at an incredible angle. When it struck with its tail, ripples appeared in the sky. The dark clouds scattered, and the multiple withered bone claws disappeared.

The Azure Dragon coiled up in the sky. It drew the Ocean Queen and the Cold Moon Demon Lord into its coil. When the people looked up, they saw that the Azure Dragon's body resembled a sacred dragon palace in midair. Under the sacred totem light, it appeared divine!

The Cold Moon Demon Lord and the Ocean Queen were trapped within the sacred dragon palace. They were the leaders of two greatest hordes. As a result, many kingdoms and hordes were affected. The demonic auras in the city because of the Ocean Demons and evil spirits gradually diminished.

"The divinity of the Azure Dragon!" someone shouted. The Mages along the river cheered.

No matter how dark and violent the storm was, there was always a trace of light. The sacred totem Azure Dragon's light was the Magic City's ray of hope to continue with their fight!

The Ocean Queen's Undead chant was no longer audible. The Undead army lost its order and crashed onto one another. There was a pause in their attack.

"Most of the Undead don't have their own thoughts." Councilman Gu's eyes lit up.

Councilman Gu was a Soul Element mage. Even though he had not reached Super-level, he had an exceptionally good understanding about the Soul Element creatures. He noticed the subtle difference in the Undead groups.

"These Undead were born not long ago. Some were forced to grow mature through certain undead demonic spells. Regardless of their levels, they don't have minds of their own. They are like puppets. They will act only when someone pulls their strings," Dean Xiao affirmed.

"Does this mean the Undead will scatter and lose their direction if we sever their mental connection with the Ocean Queen?" asked the chief of the Eastern Mage.

"It's possible. The Ocean Undead live in the depth of the ocean. They can hardly survive on land and shallow sea areas. Most of the Undead army here are recent byproducts from the Pacific Ocean near China continental shelf. Most of them are still newborn. This type of Undead are simple-minded and can be manipulated with ease. This is why the Ocean Queen barged into our territory without hesitation."

The Mages from the Forbidden Curse Association were knowledgeable. They had a wealth of experience, and they were aware of the powerful hordes' many weaknesses.

If the mages made clever use of their weaknesses, they might be able to significantly reduce the pressure before them!

"Do we have Psychic Element or Soul Element Forbidden Mages in the country?" asked Dean Xiao.

President Hong Wu frowned. They did not have a Psychic Element or Soul Element Forbidden Mage. Those Forbidden Mages were available only in foreign countries.

'But would they be willing to be involved in this battle?' President Hong Wu wondered. They might not risk their lives for the sake of another country.

"President Hong Wu, Lingyin Monk is a Psychic Forbidden Mage," said Councilman Gu. A thought sprang up in his mind as he spoke with a deep sense of urgency.

The crowd's eyes lit up. They had unexpectedly summoned two powerful Forbidden Mages through the rally order. The old lady and the old monk were Forbidden Mages.

They came out of nowhere. It was as if they had disappeared and were long forgotten. However, this time, they came forward to help during the Magic City's calamity!

Chapter 2878: The Demonic Ocean Skeleton

"If we cut the connection between the Ocean Demon with the Undead from China's continental shelf, we can significantly reduce the threat," said the Chief of the Eastern Mage.

"Theoretically, it works. We'll do it according to your suggestion. Councilman Gu, Chief Zhu, you two will assist Lingyin Monk. Get rid of the Undead's hostile energy as soon as possible!" said President Hong Wu.

Chief Zhu and Councilman Gu nodded. They looked up at the higher ground and realized the Cold Moon Demon Lord was casting an evil spell with extreme coldness that froze the Azure Dragon's Sacred Dragon palace.

The Azure Dragon turned to ice. It could not maintain that posture for long. It shook its body and flung the polar ice away.

It was through the Azure Dragon's minor movement that the Cold Moon Demon Lord and the Ocean Queen broke free of its grasp. They flew toward the Pudong sea area.

The Azure Dragon was about to chase after them when the Lord of the Shark Men and a Demonic Ocean Skeleton appeared. They stood in the Azure Dragon's way!

The Demonic Ocean Skeleton was covered in blood red tide. Through its translucent liquid skin, it could be seen that its body was covered in whale ocean beast and shark ocean beast's vertebrae. Compared to the King Skeleton rampaging through the Pudong sea area, the Demonic Ocean Skeleton was the true warrior of the Ocean Skeleton!

The Demonic Ocean Skeleton was the ruler of the Ocean Skeleton! When the aloof Undead Red Bone Demon appeared, nine King Skeletons appeared from among the Undead army.

The King Skeletons were made up of red-brown tides. Their bones were made up of numerous rusty demonic bone structures. When they traversed through the middle of the Undead army, they stood out like giants.

They exuded an obvious demonic aura. The nine King Skeletons were not as great as the one Mo Fan had killed.

The one Mo Fan had killed had a fossil of the powerful Chongming Divine Bird on its spine, after all. With the fossil, the King Skeleton could restore itself through the black sea water. Its regeneration ability had caused tremendous trouble and damage to the army at the Pudong battle.

It was a wise decision that the Forbidden Mage had not fought it at that moment. The Mirage Dragon King Ant Mother would have killed the Forbidden Mage together with the Apex-grade experts in a single sweep.

The Demonic Ocean Skeleton's body size was at the same level as the Mountain Zombie. When it stood up, its backbone faced the sky. Numerous red cartilages sprang up from its backbone. The cartilages were long and thick. They wrapped around the flying Azure Dragon.

The Azure Dragon was focused on the Cold Moon Demon Lord and the Ocean Queen. There were many ice remnants around its limbs. The remnants froze its dragon bones and slowed down its movement.

When the red cartilage cords shot at the Azure Dragon, several hundred cartilage cords wrapped around its midsection.

Roar!

The Demonic Ocean Skeleton roared. The nine red-brown King Skeletons gathered. They grabbed the cartilage cords and attempted to drag the Azure Dragon down from the sky.

How could those few decayed skeletons bring down the Azure Dragon with ease? The Azure Dragon soared up into the sky and broke the cartilage cords. It lifted the Demonic Ocean Skeleton and nine King Skeletons up from the land.

The Demonic Ocean Skeleton was caught by surprise. It had planned to drag the Azure Dragon down to the land, only to end up being flung into the sky.

When the Ocean Queen saw this, evil light glinted in its red-amber eyes. When it glanced across the Pudong sea area, the Undead army covering the sea water surged in numbers.

The Undeads marched toward the direction of the Demonic Ocean Skeleton. They grabbed the Demonic Ocean Skeleton and its cartilage cords with their claws, tails, and boney arms.

There were hundreds and thousands of Undeads. They united and attempted to drag the Azure Dragon down from the sky!

The Undeads had more strength than most demons. A large number of Undeads moved in unison and tried to pull the cartilage cords down.

Snap! Snap! Snap!

The cartilage cords broke. The Undeads' arms began to collapse as well due to the extreme force. The red Undead army's bones shattered. Many powerful Undeads were killed in the middle of direct combat with the Azure Dragon.

The Azure Dragon was pulled downward slowly. Even though its body was majestic and as huge as a mountain range, it could not withstand the massive Undeads' strong pull.

The Azure Dragon's body resembled a mountain range. It smashed onto the red Undeads and stirred up a wave of bones that stretched up to dozens of kilometers. When the Azure Dragon fell, it glided into tens and thousands of Ocean Undeads and crushed them. It was a shocking and horrific sight.

"The Azure Dragon is surrounded by the Undeads."

"Should we go and help it? What should we do?!"

When the Azure Dragon fell into the middle of the Undead chaos, people panicked.

The Azure Dragon passed by Huangpu River. Huangpu River was protected by many barriers. The Ferris Fortress Barrier had protected the skyscrapers. It could provide the Mages with a certain level of protection and stop the Ocean Demon army for a while.

The human army had made use of the Huangpu River to fight the Ocean Demons and Undeads. It was impossible to cross the Huangpu River and help the Azure Dragon even if they wanted to.

The Azure Dragon fought alone above the Pudong sea area. When it landed, it was surrounded by countless powerful Ocean Demons and brutal Undeads. The cartilage cords wrapped around its body restricted its movement.

Out of desperation, the Azure Dragon fought the endless army on the land. It killed a large number of the Ocean Demons and Undeads in every attack. Thousands of demons were pulverized.

However, the number of the Ocean Demons and Undeads only reduced slightly. As the battle raged, various Ocean Demon hordes and empires united. Unless they could inflict severe damage to the Emperor-level Ocean Demons, the Ocean Demons from the East Ocean and Pacific Ocean would continue to invade the city.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

A strong, massive wind struck the Magic City. The black skyline was visible. It looked as though the skyline was only a few kilometers away from the Magic City.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord's Eye of the Tide rolled. It continued to manipulate the tides and the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves.

The Royal Skeleton Queen obstructed the Azure Dragon from interfering with the Cold Moon Demon Lord. The Royal Skeleton Queen had made the Azure Dragon fall into the middle of the Undeads. The Azure Dragon was forced to fight the endless Undead army without any assistance.

The Ocean Queen let out an ear-piercing laugh once again.

With the Demonic Ocean Skeleton and the Undead army continuing to hold back the Azure Dragon, the Magic City was certain to drown in the ocean!

Chapter 2879: Demon's Endless Splendor

"Mo Fan, you can't go there. The other side of the river is hell!" Dean Xiao stopped Mo Fan.

"It's not like I've never been to hell," said Mo Fan.

"The Forbidden Curse Association has invited Lingyin Monk to cast spells. I believe the Undead Army will soon be rid of the control of the Ocean Queen. Those Undeads and Ocean Demons can't kill the Azure Dragon. However, you'll die if you break in," said Dean Xiao.

Mo Fan looked up and found that Councilman Gu and Chief Zhu had flown toward the Ocean Queen along with a few Forbidden Mages.

They were going to deal with the Ocean Queen to buy some time for the Azure Dragon. The demonic spells of the Ocean Queen were too powerful and might severely injure the Azure Dragon.

However, they wondered if they could fight against the Ocean Queen.

They wanted to cut off the connection between the Ocean Queen and the Ocean Undeads, but the process was extremely complicated. If they failed, the Azure Dragon would be trapped in the Pudong ocean area.

Besides, the Cold Moon Demon Lord would not miss such a good opportunity. It would instruct the army of demons to attack the Azure Dragon while it was down.

Humans were isolated from the army of Ocean Demons and the Undead. Only a few powerful Forbidden Mages could fly in the air to attack. However, if the Cold Moon Demon Lord and Ocean Queen joined forces, the situation would be dire.

“We can’t defend ourselves like this. How can we cross the river?” Eagle-winged Shaoli asked.

They must face the truth. The Mages had been relying on the previous barriers, formations, buildings, and fortresses to defend themselves. They would lose if they crossed the river and fought with the Ocean Demons head-on.

However, the results would be the same if the Azure Dragon was suppressed and could not stop the Cold Moon Demon Lord from summoning the Sky Tide.

Mo Fan moved. Other people’s decisions were not important to him. He would not let the Azure Dragon be trapped and attacked by the other demons.

The Azure Dragon had set up a wall to protect him. He could not stand by and do nothing while it was in danger.

“Mo Fan! Mo Fan!”

A familiar voice came from behind him. Mo Fan turned around thinking that someone intended to stop him.

Mo Fan was not impulsive. The Azure Dragon was locked by cartilages. What he wanted to do was to break those cartilages. Once the Azure Dragon broke free from those cartilages, it would not be afraid of those demons.

“Mo Fan, wait. I’ve something for you,” said the voice again.

Mo Fan looked over and saw Moon Moth Phoenix flying toward him. Lingling and Leng Qing were on its back. Mo Fan stopped at the river.

“Why did you run? You can’t solve everything on your own. Take this.” Lingling got down and extended an arm to hand him something.

Mo Fan was puzzled. He did not know why Lingling gave him a glass bead. “Is this a corpse locator? If I’m killed, I doubt you will find my corpse in one piece.”

Lingling was so angry that she kicked Mo Fan’s leg. “This is the power of the Evil Bead Sublimation that grandpa collected when he tracked the Red Demon.”

Mo Fan was stunned. He quickly put the glass bead together with the Evil Bead Sublimation on his waist.

An icy evil energy poured into the Evil Bead Sublimation, filling the missing energy in the bead! After a while, the Evil Bead Sublimation shone brightly once again. Mo Fan was so excited that he gave Lingling a hug and a kiss on her cheek.

“Lingling, you’re my little angel!” Mo Fan was overjoyed.

“There are several sections of seawall with the same stones as the Ancient Great Wall. If you can wake them up, it should be able to enhance the strength of the Azure Dragon. I’ll find Zhao Manyan, Mu Bai, and the others after you cross the river and ask them to help me find those sections of the Ancient City Wall and seawall near the Magic City,” Lingling said to Mo Fan.

“All right. I’ll leave it in your hands.” Mo Fan nodded.

There should still be some water from the Underground Holy Spring in Zhao Manyan’s Water Buddha Beads. The spring water could awaken the Ancient City Wall of the Magic City’s seawall.

Having been attacked by many Ocean Demons, the Azure Dragon needed some new Ancient City Walls to recover fully.

After watching Lingling on the back of the Moon Moth Phoenix, Mo Fan turned in the direction of Pudong and looked across the river.

The Ocean Demons stood like dense high-rise buildings on the other side of the river. There were countless little demons at the feet of those powerful demons, and they crawled like swarms of ants over the ruins of a submerged city.

Behind this horrific horde of demons was a red rolling desert of skeletons of the Undeads. Each Undead looked like a grain of sand, and the high-level Undeads were like sandbags and dunes.

The bustling city on the other side of the river differed sharply from the demon-infested land. No one knew which side was the most realistic.

It was no wonder that people felt despair when they saw the Azure Dragon fall on the other side of the river. Hell was truly on the opposite side of the river.

He crossed the river not because he had extraordinary courage but because Little Loach was Mo Fan’s other half. It struggled and grew in the quagmire to turn into a dragon and fly in the sky. It had become the Azure Dragon. Mo Fan couldn’t leave his other half behind.

In the battle in Northern Xinjiang, Mo Fan had realized that a demon was living in his body. The demon was himself, who was eager to kill and fight.

Now that the Evil Bead Sublimation was filled again, Mo Fan’s body no longer trembled because of the powerful army of demons.

His blood was boiling with excitement!

The demon had appeared again!

...

“Someone is crossing the river. What is that guy doing? Is he crazy?”

“Isn't that Mo Fan?”

“Oh my God! What is he doing? Is he planning to rescue the Azure Dragon alone?”

Several people from renowned families knew Mo Fan, including the Lu family, the Bai family, the Mu family, and the Dongfang family.

They saw Mo Fan step across the river and Ferris Fortress Barrier, where people appeared alone among the monsters.

Most of the demons gathered near Lu Family's Mouth were of the ruler-level. Even if he had reached the peak of the Super Level, he could not survive in the middle of such a chaotic group of demons. Mo Fan wondered how he would deal with the Undead army if he couldn't even defeat a few groups of demons.

When viewed from the opposite side of the city, Mo Fan's figure appeared too small compared with the surging river and the groups of demons.

Even if the fire on his body raged when he took a step forward, he only looked like a tiny firefly on the other side of the river, where the demonic energy hung like a cloud.

But for some reason, this firefly still shone brightly. The flames flushed the river where Mo Fan stood and reflected the hideous figure of the giant demons ahead.

At first, the brilliance on his body was ordinary. Then, it became dazzling.

Chapter 2880: Reassemble and Trample

People were surprised.

It was not a brilliance that an ordinary Mage could radiate. A red sun seemed to have fallen and dyed the river red. Even the Ocean Demons, on the other side of the river, were stunned.

The divine fire was getting more intense and formed a magnificent soul shadow comparable to a god behind Mo Fan's tiny back. The Divine Flaming Snake King followed Mo Fan and moved forward majestically. Its terrifying divine fire and divine body rushed toward the demons on the other side of the river.

The demons had trampled on ashes, dust, ruins, and flowery skyscrapers. As Mo Fan stepped on the shore, the ashes, dust, and ruins fluttered like yellow sand. They rearranged, recondensed, and recast over Lu Family's Mouth. Soon, a golden palace made of sand appeared in that spot. It was spectacular and unbelievable, like an incredible mirage.

However, the golden sand palace was not an illusion. It floated in the sky and moved synchronously with Mo Fan.

The Kingdom of Sand in the air was not a real place, it was the huge Earth Element power contained in Mo Fan's demon bloodline. When Mo Fan did not need it, it became a palace and floated in the air.

The demons rushed forward, and a dozen giant Ocean Beasts blocked Mo Fan's way. The Cold Moon Demon Lord had controlled them, so they could not sense danger.

Mo Fan looked at the Kingdom of Sand in the air and slowly raised his hand. The golden Kingdom of Sand Palace instantly transformed into an Ash Sword.

The sword was comparable to the Oriental Pearl Tower, but it was in Mo Fan's hand this time.

"Die!" The Ash Sword immediately slashed down.

The Ash Sword of the Kingdom of Sand had divided the overflowing sea water, vast land, and infinite demons into two.

It was almost as if the Ash Sword had divided a deep black river. The river was parallel to the Huangpu River and converged on the Bund!

Most people who gathered on the riverbank were Super Level Mages, but they could not believe what they saw.

'Was that person really the Mo Fan they knew? How did his power instantly surpass all the powerful demons? How could the Earth Element magic he cast achieve such a shocking effect?'

"Even an Earth Element Forbidden Mage couldn't do that." The Fire God of the Forbidden Curse Association was shocked.

"Dean Xiao, your student is..." President Hong Wu said eagerly.

Although Dean Xiao knew Mo Fan had this ability, this was his first time seeing it in reality. The Demon Element was a research area that the Magic Association had abolished. The experimental subjects had all become demons and monsters with infinite power, short lifespans, and always caused trouble.

However, Mo Fan did not have these traits, as if the demon's power was born within him. He was neither devoured nor manipulated by the demons but gained their powers instead.

Dean Xiao could not answer President Hong Wu. Now that the Magic City had the Azure Dragon, five Sacred Totem Beast, and a real demon to protect this precarious territory, people could finally stop despairing.

When Mo Fan killed King Skeleton in the past, many Mages in the Magic City had acknowledged him. It was even more shocking now that he had crossed the river alone and shown his demon form to others.

It turned out that the power of a person might be able to make a difference!

The deep black river was full of the corpses of the demons, and it took some time for the water to fill the river.

The Ash Sword disintegrated into countless minute ash particles and condensed into larger golden stones.

The stones were like armor, and they gathered in front of Mo Fan. At first, it formed a big yellow sand armor. Then, it slowly became an ancient warrior that stood among the demons.

This Yellow Sand Giant Warrior stepped forward in step with Mo Fan.

However, Mo Fan's speed was faster than the Yellow Sand Giant's. When the demons gathered, Mo Fan's small figure overlapped with the Yellow Sand Giant.

"The earth equipment of the Kingdom of Sand!"

Unlike Dubai, Magic City did not have deserts. However, the city had countless ruins of buildings destroyed by the demons.

Every stone, every inch of soil, and every tile at the ruins had turned into the power of Mo Fan's Kingdom of Sand. The ruins in the Magic City had been summoned by the earth and reassembled to fuel its power.

The reassembled demon that walked in the ruins of the city could even compete with the Black Dragon. The ocean overlords, rulers, and heroes in front of them became weak and vulnerable and died under Mo Fan's attacks.

Mo Fan wore the earth equipment and threw the Ash Sword far away to a quagmire filled with Undead and Ocean Demons.

The sword was as straight as a skyscraper. The sword trembled slightly, and the blazing sand suddenly swept in all directions. The yellow shock waves of hundreds of meters high swallowed countless evil spirits like a sandstorm.

Sandstorm Sword!

The attack made the area full of demons an empty and barren land. Mo Fan's reassembled body, which was five or six kilometers away, suddenly crumbled into dust.

The sands and dust surrounded the upright sword, and a powerful arm quickly condensed at the hilt.

More sand and dust assembled to form arms, shoulders, chest, and head. A tall figure appeared where the sword was. Mo Fan, who had reassembled with the sand and dust, towered as if the Ash Sword was his real soul.

On the other side of the river was the nest of demons. The place was full of demons, and it was difficult for Forbidden Mages to move.

Helping the Azure Dragon was supposedly an impossible task, but Mo Fan had already crossed nearly ten kilometers.

He was getting closer to the Azure Dragon.

The Azure Dragon was indeed huge. Even though the Undead Army was as huge and boundless as the red desert, the Azure Dragon was like a lonely blue mountain among them. Its claws, tail, and body were killing evil spirits without a stop.

The Azure Dragon turned around and saw Mo Fan.

Mo Fan was in the terrifying quagmire formed by the evil spirit armies. However, he walked forward even then.

The Azure Dragon roared angrily. Tens and thousands of undead were shaken into the sky like rain.

“Little Loach, here I come!”
