Chapter 2891: The Azure Dragon Vs The Demon Lord

The Ancient Wall flew toward the Azure Dragon and repaired the missing parts on its body. The Sacred Totem Beast Scale was perfected and glowed even more brilliantly after the Ancient Wall repaired the missing parts.

The Azure Dragon's scale radiated a layer of sacred gold ripples. Its scales dazzled. With the addition of the Ancient Wall segment, the Azure Dragon's soul was free. The Ancient Walls, sentry towers, beacon towers, and walls that flew to the Azure Dragon glowed in Sacred Totem Beast Divinity. The Azure Dragon appeared more lifelike and projected an imposing aura!

Mo Fan glanced at Huangpu River. He saw the Black Totem Turtle and the Moon Moth Phoenix. He also spotted Zhao Manyan, Mu Bai, Lingling, Jiang Shaoxu, Zhang Xiaohou, and the others.

It looked like they were the ones who had summoned the sea walls made up of Divine Walls to repair the Azure Dragon's missing parts.

Mo Fan was over the moon. It was the perfect time to replenish the Azure Dragon's health energy.

The Azure Dragon, with sacred ripples, glowed in unique divine light. The poisonous sting on its throat fell off. The poison that had spread through its body was slowly disappearing.

It did not take long before the Azure Dragon recovered its former magnificence. Mo Fan hopped onto its horns and fixed his gaze on the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord was on the back of the Netherbone Dragon. It continued to summon the destructive Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves with the Eye of the Tide.

Time was running out. The Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves would reach the Magic City in less than two hours.

The Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves' terrifying aura could inflict unimaginable damage to the coasts near the East Ocean. They had to stop it while it was still on the high sea.

Roar!

The Azure Dragon was surrounded by sacred ripples. It charged toward the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord opened the eyes on its face. A wicked, bone-chilling light glinted in its eyes. It gave up the Eye of the Ocean that caused the pouring of waterfall onto the Magic City and targeted the Azure Dragon!

For a moment, a frightening Ocean Whirlpool appeared in the sky above Pudong. The whirlpool was massive and looked like a city made up of liquid. The Azure Dragon appeared small before the whirlpool.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord had extensive and powerful evil spells. Each of its spells was capable of inflicting damage that was as severe as the end of the world.

The Azure Dragon tried to break itself free of the Ocean Whirlpool. The sacred ripples surrounded its body. The gold ripples that resembled a swimming dragon flashed and spread throughout its body to shake the Ocean Whirlpool apart!

The Netherbone Dragon hid itself within the Ocean Whirlpool. It raised its head and struck at the Azure Dragon's jaw with the Plague Horn on its forehead.

Mo Fan jumped down from the Azure Dragon's horn. He summoned Black Dragon Kick.

The Soul Shadow on his back transformed into an enormous Black Dragon. It was as huge as a mountain range. He trampled on the Netherbone Dragon with his heavy weight. He crippled the Netherbone Dragon's ambush. His trample was impactful. The poisonous horn on its forehead cracked.

When Mo Fan trampled on the Netherbone Dragon, the Cold Moon Demon Lord floated in the sky. It stretched its body whiskers toward Mo Fan like claws.

Mo Fan focused on it and realized that the Cold Moon Demon Lord's body whiskers flashed with multicolored lightning. When its body whiskers danced in an order, Mo Fan thought he was looking at a kaleidoscope of colorful worlds. They were remarkable!

By the time Mo Fan returned to his senses, the Cold Moon Demon Lord's whiskers that resembled a kaleidoscope were right before him. He felt the necrotic gasses almost suffocate him. He quickly traveled through Space Element to break free and kept a distance from the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord looked disappointed. It had failed to kill Mo Fan yet again.

Meanwhile, the Azure Dragon successfully broke free of the Ocean Whirlpool. It charged at the Cold Moon Demon Lord with its claws. The Cold Moon Demon Lord avoided it like a flying spirit. The multicolored evil whiskers were soft and light like fibers, and it was difficult to grab them. With these whiskers, the Cold Moon Demon Lord moved freely in the sky and avoided attacks effortlessly.

"Azure Dragon, keep a close watch on it. I'll take on the Netherbone Dragon!" said Mo Fan to the Azure Dragon.

Mo Fan was in demon form. He dared not clash head-on with the Cold Moon Demon Lord. This was not his first time being affected by its necrotic gasses. It was best to leave that monster to the Azure Dragon.

It was clear that the Cold Moon Demon Lord did not want to tangle with the Azure Dragon any longer. However, it was left with very few powerful Ocean Demons to fight for it. It had no choice but to confront the Azure Dragon itself.

The Azure Dragon was a Sacred Totem Beast. It was immune to the Cold Moon Demon Lord's Godly Evil Mind attack. The Cold Moon Demon Lord failed to manipulate the Azure Dragon's mentality, thus it found it wasting its time continuing to fight the Azure Dragon to get it tired.

Moreover, with the Azure Dragon's current ability, it could threaten the Cold Moon Demon Lord's life.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord's Eye of the Ocean flashed. It could not cast the evil spell of pouring water onto the Magic City. Therefore, it kept changing its position with the help of its bizarre whiskers. The Azure Dragon, on the other hand, coiled its body around the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

Roar!

The Azure Dragon spat a green dragon hurricane with sacred ripples. The green dragon hurricane moved toward the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord's multicolored and magnificent whiskers spread out like layers of oil paper umbrellas layered on top of each other. When the dragon hurricane struck it, it somehow changed the direction of the wind.

The Azure Dragon tried another attack. It aimed its horns at the Cold Moon Demon Lord. Its horns glowed in sacred light. It became enormous. It charged at the Cold Moon Demon Lord with its dazzling horns.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord twisted its body. It withdrew its multicolored whiskers and vanished suddenly.

A strange coral thorn appeared on the Azure Dragon's back. The Cold Moon Demon Lord appeared on top of the coral thorn. It held the Coral Blood Demonic Thorn with both of its hands. Its arms were so powerful as if it had absorbed the power of thunder. It wrapped around the Azure Dragon's body with its whiskers.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord looked like a dragon slayer. It rode on the Azure Dragon's back and stabbed the Coral Blood Demonic Thorn into the Azure Dragon's back ruthlessly before slashing it all the way to its waist. The Azure Dragon's blood gushed out.

The Azure Dragon shook its body and flung the Cold Moon Demon Lord away.

The wound on the Azure Dragon's back was gruesome. It did not care about its pain and chased after the Cold Moon Demon Lord. It grabbed the Cold Moon Demon Lord with its front claws and tore it apart!

Several of the Cold Moon Demon Lord's whiskers broke. Its blood which gushed out from the wounds were sticky and silvery.

Groan!

The Cold Moon Demon Lord let out a shrill cry. The whiskers that connected to its Eye of the Ocean rose and struck the Azure Dragon's head.

When it struck, the sky was ripped with holes, and endless icy cold sea water gushed out of those holes. It looked as if the other side of the space was a planet of an alternate dimension. When the Cold Moon Demon Lord shattered the alternate dimension wall, the sea water from the planet gushed out at the Azure Dragon!

Chapter 2892: The Eye of The Ocean

Mo Fan fought the Netherbone Dragon at a lower altitude. Little did he know that a massive influx of Seawater Planet gushed toward him from his back. It was hard to imagine there was such a scary spell in this world. It made all living creatures appear like tiny ants before such a spell. They did not stand a chance to fight back.

When the Seawater Planet swept the Azure Dragon to the Pudong sea area, the Azure Dragon wrapped its tail around Mo Fan to protect him.

It was a fierce tide. Even though the Azure Dragon was the size of a mountain range, it, too, was washed into the ocean.

Fortunately, the oriental sacred dragon was different from a common dragon. The oriental sacred dragon could swim in the water. It could swim as fast as it flew in the sky. Manipulating the ocean was one of Azure Dragon's many abilities.

After they were washed up on the East Ocean, the Azure Dragon's fins on its back manipulated the movement of the ocean. It summoned layer upon layer of ocean waves and stacked up a majestic Ocean Mountain. The Ocean Mountain was several thousand meters tall. Its diameter was more than ten kilometers. It looked as if the East Ocean had soared into the sky in a single glance. It was a shocking sight to behold.

The Ocean Mountain finally stopped the Cold Moon Demon Lord's Seawater Planet. Mo Fan hid within the Azure Dragon's tail. He felt dizzy.

It was appalling and confusing just what kind of monster the Cold Moon Demon Lord was. Each evil spell it cast was ten times stronger than a Forbidden Mage's. If it had not been for the fact that the Sacred Totem Azure Dragon protected him, Mo Fan would have died a long time ago.

He was still in demon form. But he was akin to a child before the Cold Moon Demon Lord. It could kill him with ease.

Kawk! Kawk! Kawk!

The Netherbone Dragon was with them wherever they went. It wanted to infect the Azure Dragon with its Plague Curse.

However, since the Azure Dragon was surrounded by sacred ripples, the Netherbone Dragon had difficulty inflicting damage. Hence, it decided to target Mo Fan.

The vast sea area was a hundred kilometers away from Huangpu River and the Magic City. The dark and depressing Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves continued to advance from the far side of the East Ocean. There was a large number of Ocean Demon hordes gathering on the surface of the sea.

The creatures had heads that resembled a lizard, and their bodies resembled a shark. They were covered in blue scales. They were armored. They wielded metal weapons.

Many unknown Ocean Demons had appeared. The grand arrival of the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves would open the frontier. They wanted to celebrate the occasion. They looked forward to it. They would cover the areas where the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves traversed.

Of course, these Ocean Demon hordes were nothing to the Azure Dragon.

With the Azure Dragon's presence in the sea area, the Ocean Demons dared not make a move. They did not want to be affected by the two godly level creatures. They stayed as far as they could and deliberately left a vast sea area for the two to fight each other.

The fight between Mo Fan and the Netherbone Dragon was like a battle between God and the Devil. The Ocean Demon hordes offshore were killed as a result of the fight. Mo Fan cast demon's lightning. His demon's lightning spread all over the sea surface. Thousands of Servant-class and Warrior-level Scarlet Demons were killed. Their corpses floated above the sea.

The Netherbone Dragon was brutal. It released its Black-Patterned Dragonwasps and transformed the Ocean Demon hordes into corpses on the water to absorb more necrotic gasses and increase the level of poisons for each of its poisonous thorns.

This was the difference between demons and humans. Under catastrophic situations, the Mages united and fought back using defensive magic to reduce the level of fatality. Ocean Demons, on the other hand, lacked such conscience. They were killed before they could escape from the mishap.

They were either killed by Mo Fan's fire power in his demon form, the Azure Dragon's Ocean shaking waves, or the Cold Moon Demon Lord's terrifying tumbling ocean.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord was merciless. Each of its evil spells was powerful and boundless. The Azure Dragon and Mo Fan were swept to the east and farther away from the city and the land.

The Azure Dragon was aware that the Cold Moon Demon Lord's Eye of the Ocean was very powerful. The Azure Dragon's ability to control the ocean was inferior to it. The Azure Dragon was exhausted after holding on for some time.

"It wants to sweep us into the East Ocean and drown us," said Mo Fan.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord's spells relied heavily on the ocean. It had powerful control over the ocean. Meanwhile, the Azure Dragon could only summon wind and rain. It could soar into the sky and swim in the ocean. The Cold Moon Ocean Demon used the ocean as its weapon. Each of its attacks was likened to a doomsday catastrophe. The Azure Dragon was forced deeper into the ocean.

Mo Fan and the Azure Dragon had unknowingly left offshore.

Even though they were on China's continental shelf, there was a sea slope. It was an area where the sea level dropped significantly. The seawater was extremely deep.

The Azure Dragon tried to fly into the sky many times. But the Cold Moon Demon Lord's powerful Eye of the Ocean stirred up the ocean surface, causing the ocean to surge and tumble. The Cold Moon Demon Lord made use of each drop of seawater as its weapon to attack the Azure Dragon. As The Azure Dragon's mighty body was restricted by the seawater, as if it could be dragged down into the ocean abyss at any time.

Splash!

The Azure Dragon drowned. Mo Fan was covered by the strong and fierce tide.

Mo Fan found underwater combat to be more difficult. He could only cast Shadow, Space, and Chaos Element magic. If he cast Lightning Element magic, the creatures under the ocean could not sense the Lightning Element magic in the sky, thus the effect of his Lightning Element magic on them would be affected.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord finally forced the Azure Dragon to its territory where the Cold Moon Demon Lord could fight best. The ocean was several hundred kilometers in circumference and had an average depth of five hundred meters. It was a perfect battlefield for the Cold Moon Demon Lord to cast its evil spell!

It laughed. Its laughter transmitted to Mo Fan's head. He felt like it was mocking him.

'It can get us in such a mess by using its Eye of the Ocean alone.' Mo Fan felt helpless.

Even though the Azure Dragon had sacred ripples, it was suppressed when confronting the Cold Moon Ocean Demon.

The Azure Dragon swam in the ocean. A terrifying black hole appeared behind it and tried to suck it in. Only God knew what type of demonic abyssal sea prison was on the other side of the black hole.

"Dive down and go to the bottom of the ocean," Mo fan said to the Azure Dragon.

The Azure Dragon trusted Mo Fan unconditionally. It shook its body and swam like a snake into the depths of the ocean.

The bottom of the ocean and the land in this area sloped downward. As they moved eastward, they went deeper into the ocean before reaching the true deep-sea area.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord and the Netherbone Dragon went after them. They did not intend to forgo the chance to kill the Azure Dragon and Mo Fan. The Cold Moon Demon Lord's evil spell was not affected in the bottom of the icy cold and dark ocean.

Its Eye of the Ocean moved around like a wheel. For a moment, the bottom of the ocean was stirred up. Gravels and mud flew everywhere.

Chapter 2893: Black Flame Magic Armor

"Don't stay inside the water, go deeper. We're going to the rock layer crack at the bottom of the ocean!" Mo Fan said with a great sense of urgency after he noticed the ocean shaking violently.

The Azure Dragon swung its tail vigorously and banged against the big crack at the bottom of the ocean with its indestructible dragon horns.

The Azure Dragon's body was extremely hard. To it, the rock surface was no different than mud. Moreover, it possessed Earth Element magic, so it could easily break the hard rock at the bottom of the ocean.

After they burrowed into the rock stratum, the sea area above them blasted off. Terrifying ocean waves struck them. The rocks under the ocean were shattered into powder.

The Azure Dragon dived deeper. The rocks at the bottom of the ocean were thicker and harder. The Azure Dragon had to slow down its pace. At the very least, they managed to avoid the destructive ocean waves.

“They’re coming after us.” Mo Fan looked up. The world under the ocean was pitch-black. He sensed the necrotic gas and aura of sickness from above. He also sensed the evil aura that belonged to the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

The rock stratum was not completely solid. Some of them resembled a cave. The rock stratum collapsed because of the terrifying and destructive waves.

When they went deeper, the rock stratum became increasingly dense, like hard rocks at the bottom of the ocean. The Azure Dragon had to use more strength to smash the rocks. Moreover, the Cold Moon Demon Lord and the Netherbone Dragon were after them. They brought along seawater and poured it into the depths of the cracked rocks. Spectacular waterfalls appeared in the rocky world under the ocean.

When the icy cold seawater was poured into the rock veins, a large amount of white gas gushed up.

“There it is!” Mo Fan was delighted and quickly turned the Azure Dragon to head toward the area with white gas.

The Azure Dragon crushed the black rocks under the ocean. Extreme heat gushed out of the cracks. They saw flashes of red. The light illuminated the pitch-black rocky world under the ocean.

The next moment, flaming red liquid in high temperature gushed out from the crack. It spread because of the Azure Dragon’s smashing. Red lava flowed like streams and covered the black rock stratum area.

It was a massive volcano under the ocean. It contained lava. The scale of the lava was as large as West Lake in Hang Zhou. This would undoubtedly improve Mo Fan’s strength!

The rock stratum had blocked most of the seawater. Regardless of how fierce the movement of the seawater was, their impact weakened because of the heavy rocks.

Moreover, the rock stratum was connected to the land. It was a sacred place with pure Earth Element. It was Mo Fan and the Azure Dragon’s territory.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord and the Netherbone Dragon had caught up with them. Mo Fan stretched out and bit the back of his hand.

His teeth sank into his blood vessels. His warm demon’s blood flowed out and dropped on the ocean dike. His blood was absorbed as soon as it touched the rocks.

The blood droplets made the rocks glow even more, like a rare metal that had been quenched by a furnace. It dazzled and became scorching hot!

“Wrath of the Earth’s crust: Black Flame Heavy Armor!”

Mo Fan created a covenant with the Earth’s crust with his blood.

The searing hot rock veins shook violently. Mo Fan was wrapped by countless black flame rocks. The rocks were as big as a building. They became his Earth Heavy Armor.

Mo Fan changed from a tiny person to a gigantic figure.

He was transformed into a heavily armored demon empowered by the ocean rock veins. The Earth Heavy Armor was more powerful than when it was under the Kingdom of Sand's influence. The heavy rocks that supported the ocean made him look even more stout and imposing.

He absorbed the underground lava that was as big as West Lake.

The powerful lava under the ocean became a part of Mo Fan's Earth Heavy Armor. Each piece of rock that made up the heavy armor exuded an aura of evil black flame that came from underground!

Black Flame Heavy Armor Demon!

Mo Fan felt the ocean lava flowing in his body. The lava made him invincible. Meanwhile, the ocean rock veins gave him a super powerful demonic body to fight the Emperor-level Ocean Demons.

Roar!

The Azure Dragon seemed to have regained its vitality under the ocean rocky world. It shook its body and charged at the Cold Moon Demon Lord and the Netherbone Dragon with its dragon horns.

Mo Fan had become an enormous God in the underground. He could no longer stand between the Azure Dragon's horns. Hence, he rode on its back.

He raised his hand. He was ablaze in black flame. He wielded a long and huge Blade of the Black Flame. The blade contained the power of the earth and the lava!

The Azure Dragon lunged at the arrogant Netherbone Dragon with its dragon horns and sent it flying backwards. Mo Fan, on the other hand, aimed at the Cold Moon Demon Lord's head with his Blade of the Black Flame. He slashed it with his Earth and Fire Elements magic that had the most destructive effect.

The slash split the bottom of the ocean into a huge gorge. The sea area above his head was split into half.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord did not avoid his attack. A few of its whiskers were cut off.

Mo Fan had targeted the Cold Moon Demon Lord's tail whisker that was connected to its Eye of the Tide. Unfortunately, its tail whisker was much more powerful than its other whiskers.

Mo Fan did not give up. It was a chance hard to come by to be able to inflict severe damage on the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

The Cold Moon Demon had driven Mo Fan and the Azure Dragon to the bottom of the ocean. It had not expected the two to use the ocean rock veins to counterattack. It was slightly nervous as it held off Mo Fan's Blade of the Black Flame.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord did not expect Mo Fan's strength to increase by leaps and bounds. His Black Flame Heavy Armor was so powerful that it threatened the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

"Bite it!" said Mo Fan to the Azure Dragon.

This was a rare opportunity!

The Cold Moon Demon Lord tried to kill the Azure Dragon so that no one could stop it when it ruled the land. Hence, it showed no mercy in chasing after them. Even though Mo Fan and the Azure Dragon were at the bottom of the ocean, the Cold Moon Demon Lord had insisted on pursuing them.

If only the Cold Moon Demon Lord realized the rock stratum and the underground lava were beneficial to Mo Fan and the Azure Dragon, it would have fled without hesitation.

This was the area where the Cold Moon Demon Lord's Eye of the Ocean was suppressed slightly. But once it returned to the ocean, the Azure Dragon would be no match for it.

They had to finish their battle here!

Mo Fan would not allow the Cold Moon Demon Lord to leave the rock veins. He would not allow it to leave the primary underground lava.

The Azure Dragon and Mo Fan understood each other. The Azure Dragon ignored the Netherbone Dragon. It decided to coil up and trap the Cold Moon Demon Lord, instead. Regardless of how much damage the Cold Moon Demon Lord could inflict on it, the Azure Dragon would not let go of it this time!

Mo Fan lifted his blade and aimed at the Cold Moon Demon Lord's tail whisker which held its Eye of the Tide!

He was ablaze in brilliant black flame. It was a symbol of his determination!

Chapter 2894: Break The Tail of The Eye of The Tide

The Cold Moon Demon Lord was illuminated in blue demonic light. Its body and whiskers became as hard as diamonds.

When Mo Fan slashed it with his Blade of the Black Flame, his Earth Heavy Armor shattered and cracked with the impact. He felt his bones aching and becoming numb.

Mo Fan wondered what bizarre demonic spell the Cold Moon Demon Lord had cast on him. Nevertheless, he had no other option.

His Blade of the Black Flame cracked. Mo Fan re-summoned it. Black lava shot out from its crack, making it look as if a dozen volcanoes had erupted simultaneously!

Mo Fan could bring out the best of the Black Flame Heavy Armor in demon form, but he felt that the covenant was not strong enough.

The Earth-Blood covenant.

He would become more powerful by shedding more blood! No matter what, he had to cut off the Cold Moon Demon Lord's Eye of the Tide this time!

He cut his palm with the Blade of the Black Flame, like an ancient martial artist paying his respect in a special way. He used his own blood to show his innermost sincerity.

Blood spilled out of Mo Fan's hand. He activated his dark pulse to speed up the flow of the blood so that the blood reached his arm and poured onto the surface of the ley line through his palm.

The ocean occupied seventy percent of the world. It was as if the ocean was the world's foundation.

The rock stratum was the world's core. The rocks below the surface were unimaginably massive. All living creatures just lived on the rock surface.

At that moment, Mo Fan spilled his blood onto the ley lines that spanned for tens, hundreds, and thousands of kilometers.

The ley lines in the ocean were even vast. Mo Fan was aware that he could only use a very small portion of the ley lines with the Earth-Blood covenant.

As long as he could obtain it, it was capable of destroying everything!

The ley lines in the ocean were all pitch-black and cold.

However, the ley lines boiled and burned. Black flame gushed out from the cracks. The flame grew stronger. They came from Mo Fan's blood of the demon that was filled with fire and arrogance.

The dark ocean world turned into a sky of intense black flames. The dense black flame pistil flew toward Mo Fan and ignited his massive and majestic heavy armor.

The ley lines looked like a black sun, and there was a demon holding the Blade of the Black Flame in the middle of the sun. The "demon" slashed the Cold Moon Demon Lord's icy cold diamond body!

Swoosh!

The Netherbone Dragon was eager to save its master. When it saw Mo Fan slash at the Cold Moon Demon Lord with his Blade of the Black Flame, the Netherbone Dragon flew toward the Cold Moon Demon Lord to defend it.

Mo Fan cut the Netherbone Dragon's jagged bone with his Blade of the Black Flame. His black flame remained strong even in the icy cold world. Irrespective of the Netherbone Dragon's sudden appearance to defend its master, he continued to slash at the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord's blue lights dimmed. Its icy cold diamond body shattered like glass before turning into countless meteors and shooting into the surrounding rocks.

Just then, a terrifying icy cold recoil immediately struck back. Mo Fan was sent flying away. His heavy armor collapsed like a building.

Mo Fan was shocked. He had given his all. He had transformed into ultimate demon form.

He had believed that the Blade of the Black Flame could kill all Emperor-level creatures. To his horror, he had only broken the Cold Moon Demon Lord's defense only to end up being thrown back and injured.

'How powerful is the Cold Moon Demon Lord?!' he wondered.

Roar!

The Azure Dragon roared. It found the falling Cold Moon Demon Lord in the middle of the black flame. The Azure Dragon aggressively bit the Cold Moon Demon Lord's Eye of the Tide!

The Cold Moon Demon Lord had not recovered its senses from Mo Fan's attack. The Azure Dragon approached it suddenly, and it did not have time to cast its demonic spell.

The Azure Dragon was as resolute as Mo Fan!

Even though the Cold Moon Demon Lord's whiskers over its body unleashed destructive light, the Azure Dragon clung to its tail whisker which held the Eye of the Tide!

Slash!

The Azure Dragon bit off the Cold Moon Demon Lord's tail whisker. For a moment, the ocean ley lines, and the ocean itself shook. It was as if the whole world trembled along with the Cold Moon Demon Lord's Eye of the Tide!

Mo Fan's bones shattered because of the recoil. He was in excruciating pain. He couldn't even move a finger. However, he was over the moon after he saw the Azure Dragon bite off the Cold Moon Demon Lord's tail whisker which held its Eye of the Tide!

Kawk! Kawk! Kawk!

The ley lines turned icy cold unexpectedly. The rock surface condensed with cold diamond frost.

Breaking the Cold Moon Demon Lord's tail whisker did not seem to threaten its life. Instead, Mo Fan sensed its unusual aura, and the aura spread profusely.

A bone-chilling evil aura in the ocean rapidly suppressed the dazzling and scorching rocks, as well as the black flame that covered the ley lines.

The Azure Dragon sensed something. It quickly grabbed Mo Fan with its hind claws and fled the ocean.

Dong! Dong! Dong!

A loud bang resounded. The rock surface under the ocean turned into powder, and seawater poured down from above.

Mo Fan hid inside the Azure Dragon's claws. He saw the ocean collapse. An extremely terrifying icy cold destructive force followed behind the Azure Dragon. The areas where the Azure Dragon had passed by were reduced to ashes within seconds.

The Azure Dragon sped up. It passed by the rock surface and reached the ocean. It swam out of the ocean and soared into the sky. It reached the clouds and flew into the space above the sky.

The destructive force that came from the ocean ley lines followed behind it. Mo Fan saw the ocean fall and the light extinguished. The space shattered...

If it had not been for the fact that the Azure Dragon had fled on time, the Sacred Totem Beast would have been killed, too. Mo Fan could not believe there was a creature in this world capable of such devastation.

"Has the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves subsided?" Mo Fan looked toward the east.

The Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves in the east had indeed subsided. It was so tall that it reached the sky signaling the arrival of doomsday. Even though the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves still looked majestic and terrifying, it had weakened.

The Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves had subsided! The Eye of the Tide was the key to this!

Mo Fan heaved a sigh of relief. He and the Azure Dragon risked their lives to break the Cold Moon Demon Lord's tail which held the Eye of the Tide, and it was all worth it.

"Azure Dragon, where are you going? The city is in that direction." Mo Fan noticed the Azure Dragon flying toward the Pacific Ocean.

The Azure Dragon continued in that direction without looking back. It flew further away from China.

It flew extremely fast!

The color in the sky changed. The color of the boundless ocean changed, too.

The sky and the ocean changed to the same color. It was only then that Mo Fan realized they had almost reached the middle of the Pacific Ocean.

"Are you going to throw the Eye of the Tide into the Pacific Ocean? Isn't that the same as returning it to the Cold Moon Demon Lord?" asked Mo Fan, confused.

Chapter 2895: The Mages Evacuate

The middle of the Pacific Ocean blended perfectly with the sky. An ancient, magnificent sacred dragon flew through the sky. The green airflow surged and stretched for dozens of kilometers. The airflow had not subsided even after the Azure Dragon had left.

The ocean below the sky was inky blue. Mo Fan noticed the sea was different from other areas. The density of the seawater in this area was higher, it was deeper compared to other areas.

The Azure Dragon approached the ocean surface and threw the Eye of the Tide into the calm, ink-blue ocean.

Suddenly, the ocean erupted. A terrifying tail flung up high and attempted to pull the Azure Dragon down into the ocean with it.

Mo Fan was shocked. He had not expected a terrifying creature to live under such a calm and still ocean.

The Azure Dragon quickly soared into the sky. The owner of the tail did not reveal its true form. It could not grab the Azure Dragon. It swept away the Eye of the Tide.

A frightening gas ripple appeared on the ocean. It swept the entire Pacific Ocean. The unknown creature hidden under the ocean seemed to have transformed after obtaining the Eye of the Tide. Its aura grew increasingly frightening.

Mo Fan looked down. He felt as if he had been sucked into the deep, calm ocean. Meanwhile, the Azure Dragon did not stay there any longer. It quickly returned to China.

“This is another ruler in the Pacific Ocean. Did you want it to restrain the Cold Moon Demon Lord by giving it the Eye of the Tide?” Mo Fan finally understood.

The Cold Moon Demon Lord was very powerful. It could fight the Azure Dragon easily even though it was in the middle of chanting the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves. After losing its Eye of the Tide, it did not need to chant anymore, so it would be even stronger than before.

The Azure Dragon could not fight it even if it now only had the Eye of the Ocean.

The Azure Dragon knew that biting off its Eye of the Tide would only stop the Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves from engulfing the land. However, it would not stop the Cold Moon Demon Lord from continuing its massacre with fury!

The Cold Moon Demon Lord would vent out its anger to the remaining mages standing guard over the Magic City.

Even though the citizens had been evacuated from the city, the Mages, who were still fighting, would all perish. They were destined to be defeated in the war, but they had to ensure their people’s survival!

The Azure Dragon threw the Eye of the Tide to another Pacific Ocean ruler. The moment the ruler possessed the tide power that belonged to a demon lord, its strength would increase by leaps and bounds. By then, it could fight the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

Hence, the Cold Moon Demon Lord was left with only two options. It could either choose to stay in the Magic City to continue its plan of sinking the land, or it could return to the middle of the Pacific Ocean and grab its Eye of the Tide from the mysterious ruler.

“You’ve made the correct decision. This will buy us more time.” Mo Fan finally understood the Azure Dragon’s intention.

The Azure Dragon flew over the coast. It did not stay in the sky above the Magic City. It continued to fly toward China.

1

The sky was vast. The Azure Dragon’s body gradually petrified and decomposed. It started from its head, claws, then its long body...

The Azure Dragon was exhausted.

It was summoned briefly through the Underground Holy Spring. It relied heavily on the special source to prolong its life. After the source of the Holy Spring drained out, it had to return to the soil in different cities, mountains, and battlefields all over the country.

Mo Fan stared at the wounded and scarred Azure Dragon. Even though it had transformed back into segments of Ancient Walls, the scars were visible. The scars did not just come from this harsh battle, those were accumulated from the rise and fall of the country from thousands of years.

The Azure Dragon was no longer a living being. It was no longer an ancient god either. It was an immortal guardian!

Regardless of how the Azure Dragon formed or disintegrated, Mo Fan stared at the immortal sacred beast in awe. He strongly believed that when the Azure Dragon was at its prime, it certainly had been a Holy Spirit that was more powerful than the Cold Moon Demon Lord and the other ocean rulers. However, the passing of time had expelled it from the list of the Roof of the World.

It made him sad but Mo Fan was aware that the Azure Dragon had done all it could.

The Seal of Azure Dragon that resembled a sky eye on its forehead slowly faded. It left Mo Fan's forehead and transformed into a small pendant again. The pendant floated before him.

The Azure Dragon transformed into a Little Loach pendant and returned to his neck.

This time, Little Loach was green in color. It was no longer black like before. The Sacred Totem Beast companion vessel glowed with extraordinary luster. It was an ancient sacred object.

"If only you had revealed your true form from the beginning, I wouldn't have had to work so hard throughout my cultivation path. But this isn't that bad, too, right?" Mo Fan stroked his pendant.

Mo Fan had learned from Ms. Tangyue that Little Loach was a growing soul cultivation vessel. Indeed, it was in the middle of its growth. Mo Fan was in the middle of growth, too.

Instead of looking forward to something falling into his lap and becoming a superhero within a second to protect the galaxy, Mo Fan preferred to grow slowly. It was only through experience and growth that he could learn to become more practical and stronger. He would be more confident in facing dangerous encounters in the future if he built on his experience.

At the very least, he knew how to grow to become more powerful if he was given sufficient time.

How could a man who was a stranger to his own power be certain that he would not lose himself to an even more powerful force?

...

Mo Fan flew back to the Magic City.

All the citizens in the Magic City had evacuated. The Ocean Demons roaming inside the city lost their backup because the sky holes had ceased to form. As a result, they were gradually eliminated.

The tide subsided in the east. The Heaven-shaking Demonic Waves finally disappeared from the sky. The people felt more at ease.

Ocean Demons' carcasses stacked up by the two sides of Huangpu River. The river was stained red with blood.

The city was in a dilapidated state. Mutilated limbs were everywhere. It all looked bleak.

The Mages were exhausted. Still, they continued to fight the battle. There were Ocean Demon remnants inside the city. They hid inside the underground tunnels and buildings. There were many of them. It was impossible to kill all of them at once.

Swoop!

A white light arched across the sky. When it reached the peak, it transformed into countless white comet tails and scattered in every direction.

All the Mages saw the white meteor flying above them.

It was an evacuation signal from the Magic Association.

The mages could finally leave this hellish place!

All of them began to leave. If the war were to continue, it would go on for days and days. There were several enormous Emperor-level Ocean Demons, Shark Kingdom, Deep-Sea Lizard Demon Dragon Empire, Salamander and Shell Demon Empire, and even more in the direction of Pudong.

The Magic City had lost in the battle. But thankfully, the people were alive.

Chapter 2896: The Barrier Plan

The evacuation location was Ding City.

Ding City was constructed with the purpose of becoming the Elemental Capital. It was part of the plan to designate it as the Magic City's evacuation destination.

After the citizens had successfully evacuated from the Magic City, the Mages left, too. However, the process of evacuation was challenging. The people were scattered in various areas. Many of them were trapped within the ruins. Most of them were blocked by the Ocean Demons, thus they were trapped inside the refuge.

Even though the white meteor had sent the signal to all the Mages to evacuate the city, many stayed behind to help those who were still trapped.

Mo Fan could maintain his demon form for a while longer. When he fought the Cold Moon Demon Lord, the ice recoil had severely wounded him. Mo Fan had absorbed the ley lines lava, but he could not completely recover due to the cold impact he suffered from the Cold Moon Demon Lord.

Fortunately, staying in demon form had strengthened him. He had a stronger life force. After reaching the Magic City, Mo Fan gathered the five great totem beasts and stalled for time for those who had not been able to leave the city.

It was already dark when Chief Zhu found him.

"Where's Councilman Gu?" Mo Fan did not see the powerful Forbidden Mage.

"He wounded the Ocean Queen, but it killed him," said Chief Zhu.

Mo Fan took a deep breath.

This was not his first time receiving the news of death in the battle. The Forbidden Curse Association had suffered great losses in the war.

"If we could have foreseen this and evacuated earlier..." mumbled Mo Fan.

Chief Zhu shook his head. "The Ocean Demons are too strong. If we don't stop them, they won't just harm the Magic City, they will move to the entire country."

The war was inevitable. They were destined to pay a heavy price in exchange for temporary peace for the coastlines across the country.

The preparation for war was hasty. However, the coastline along China was considered well-preserved compared to other countries near the Pacific Ocean.

Mo Fan had been to the Andes. He was aware that certain countries had fallen apart due to the Ocean Demons. The countries were at war. Many people were killed. So many lives lost. They had failed to unite to fight the Ocean Demons.

The Magic City had been defeated. But after a few years, when the people regained their strength, they would take it back. They wouldn't leave an ounce of land for the greedy Ocean Demons.

"Leave with your totem beasts now! We can't afford to suffer any more losses. Besides, the Magic City Barrier Plan has started. When the time comes, the Forbidden Curse Association will need you and the totem beasts to destroy the Ocean Demon Empire within the Magic City ruins," said Chief Zhu to Mo Fan.

Mo Fan nodded.

"Thank you for everything you did for the Magic City," Chief Zhu said with sincerity.

Mo Fan vividly remembered the first time he visited the Eastern Mage Tower to awaken his Third and Fourth Elements. At that time, he was astounded by the Eastern Mage Tower's splendor.

Chief Zhu was the leader of the Eastern Mages. He represented the apex of the Magic Association.

Mo Fan was touched with his words. "Please, don't mention it. I've been staying here and attending school ever since Bo City was destroyed. This is my second home."

Chief Zhu was stunned. "Thank you for not letting us down. The Magic Association surely knew what it was doing when bringing you up!"

Mo Fan smiled.

Chief Zhu also smiled. A long-awaited smile...

...

Meanwhile, no one knew where the Cold Moon Demon Lord had disappeared. Mo Fan thought it would be furious because of the humiliation it endured.

Mo Fan and the Azure Dragon had their hands on its Eye of the Tide. But if they had kept the Eye of the Tide to themselves, the Cold Moon Demon Lord would have surely taken it back by all means.

The Azure Dragon had tried to destroy the Eye of the Tide. But the Eye of the Tide was a sacred object. It was indestructible.

The Azure Dragon had no choice but to throw the Eye of the Tide to another ruler that might possess its power and force the Cold Moon Demon Lord to leave the city. By doing so, the Azure Dragon had saved the Mages in the Magic City. Thankfully, the outcome turned out to be worth it.

They hoped that after the ruler in the Pacific Ocean gained the Eye of the Tide, it would become the Cold Moon Demon Lord's rival. Once the Pacific Ocean was split into two Ocean Demon camps, the Cold Moon Demon Lord would not dare to invade the coasts.

Humans needed more time to make plans. They especially needed time to consider the relocation and evacuation of their people. No matter what, they had to prepare for everything.

When the Ocean Demon army gushed in and the base city failed to hold them back, they had considered transferring the people to China.

They needed sufficient time to make plans.

They needed to make various arrangements when moving so many people from one place to another. They had to clear the roads, provide escorts, and stock up on supplies.

They also needed to give the army more time to open up the wasteland and build a city there.

...

At Ding City...

Bone-chilling coldness filled the air. The clouds condensed in the sky above and made the elemental capital made up of rocks look even colder.

It was day four since they evacuated the Magic City.

The Magic City Barrier Plan had started. Before Chairman Shao Zheng was transferred away, the Barrier Plan was one of the strategies deployed in the event that several base cities were defeated.

In order to prevent the base city from turning into the Ocean Demon's paradise, after the people evacuated the city, the underground refuge was connected to form a steel barrier under the city. This could serve as a stronghold to locate the Ocean Demons at any time.

The Magic City was occupied by several powerful Emperor-level Ocean Demons. However, the powerful Ocean Demon army could not possibly stay in the Magic City all the time.

They would take back the Magic City someday.

The steel barrier under the Magic City was an important stronghold in their plans to take back the city in the future.

After they took back the city, various magic organizations would assign the Mages to the city and rescue the people who were trapped inside. They would slowly kill all the troublesome Ocean Demons.

The steel barrier stronghold plan was a strategy for a long-term battle.

...

"It's so cold. When will the bloody weather clear up?!"

People walked on the streets in Ding City. Many people had moved to Ding City. It was certainly crowded.

Fortunately, everything was in order. The citizens in the Magic City had experienced Black Alert, so they cherished the peace they currently had.

"I heard that the World's Magic Organization gathered experts to fight the Extreme South Emperor. I wonder how the situation is. If they can change the cold weather, we don't have to suffer so much." The patrol officers chatted as they gathered around a communal fireplace to keep warm.

Chapter 2897: Visiting The Totem Beast Hero

Three days ago, rumor had it that the world's experts had fought with the Extreme South Emperor.

The catastrophe that the Cold Moon Demon Lord had stirred up in the Magic City had sent a fearful message to the world. If even the most powerful Magic City in China with many national Magic Associations could not hold back the Ocean Demons' invasion, how many more countries would be destroyed in this era?

Ding City was a busy city. Many news stories spread from across the world. Those who had been dormant, neutral, or hibernating had heard about the Ocean Demons' provocation. They laid their eyes on humans like hungry wolves!

"Why didn't the world's experts fight the Cold Moon Demon Lord? It's wounded. If they kill it, they can eliminate the danger in the Pacific Ocean," said the leader of Ding City Guardian Mage, Wen Xia.

Xie Qinghua wore a big military coat and held a walking stick.

Xie Qinghua had not expected Ding City to be the Magic City's evacuation destination. Ding City was crowded with people in such a short period of time. The officers, army, and volunteers were extremely busy.

Fortunately, Chairman Shao Zheng had personally been here prior to this. They had prepared well for this possible incident. Thus, Ding City did not end up becoming a mess.

The housing issue was not a major problem.

Ding City had many rocks. There were plains around the city. Roads and buildings were built on the plains. Many migrants were allowed to stay on Ding City's plain.

Xie Qinghua stared at the industrialized new city on the plains. He sighed. "Not every country is invaded by the Ocean Demons, but the cold weather across the globe has threatened many countries, especially Europe..."

Wen Xia was puzzled upon hearing his words. On second thought, she understood the message he wanted to convey.

Those countries that had not been threatened by the Ocean Demons ignored the safety of the countries near the coasts.

Every country's leader was self-centered. They only wanted to solve the global coldness issue that had brought them problems but turned a blind eye to countries near the Pacific Ocean. Regardless of how many of the cities were destroyed, or how many people had died, they ignored it because it had nothing to do with them.

"It's difficult to continue to survive if we keep on relying on other people's help. At the end of the day, we must grow strong," said Xie Qinghua.

Wen Xia nodded. "We have powerful creatures in our country. The Azure Dragon is one of them."

"That's right. Our country has existed for around five thousand years. Some of the things are in our heritage. We can't forget them just because time has passed, or things have changed. We should thank the person who found the ancient Sacred Totem Beast. By the way, I learned that they have settled the totem beast team in North Park. I must handle some army-related preparation. Wen Xia, do visit them on my behalf," said Xie Qinghua.

"Of course."

Wen Xia summoned several guards and went to North Park.

The reason North Park was called a park was because there were stone sculptures there. Even the plant decorations were made up of stones of different materials.

There were several houses in North Park. They usually received the ruling leaders in North Park. This time, they assigned the place for the totem beast team.

"Do behave yourself. They are the Magic City heroes, understand?" Wen Xia gave a piece of her mind to her followers when she noticed their playful grins.

Tao Jing and Zhou Donghao were her followers. They took a bus here. After they experienced the battle in Ding City, they decided to stay on for further developments.

Wen Xia had achieved great things, so she was rewarded with a high position. The fledgling Mages under her lead naturally obtained a lot of premium resources because of her. Therefore, their cultivation improved by leaps and bounds, and they were also afforded promising positions.

Strength was very important, but opportunity was even more essential. They might not know the importance of the existence of a broken city made up of stones, but with the development of Earth Elemental Capital and implementation of the policy, Ding City became the second Flying Bird Base City. Furthermore, it had become the Magic City's refuge. It was Magic City's backup. Ding City was no longer what it used to be.

Those who had experienced the battle in Ding City had risen to power. Even though they were just common Mages, they held managerial positions in certain departments.

They were aware that their achievements in Ding City were nothing compared to the totem beast team's great accomplishment.

The totem beast team had found the Azure Dragon!

Without their painstaking search for the Sacred Totem Beast, the people would not have known the existence of such a mythical national beast in their own country!

Knock! Knock! Knock!

Wen Xia straightened her lapel before knocking on the door.

The courtyard door was not actually closed. Even so, Wen Xia dared not simply push open the door. She knocked until someone responded.

“Come in. The door is not closed.” The voice came from the courtyard.

Wen Xia pushed open the door. She walked in a military stride. She held her chin high.

After Zhou Donghao and Tao Jing noticed their superior’s solemnity, they followed suit. They maintained the same pace as hers.

“Eh, isn’t he Mo Fan? He’s one step ahead of us.” Tao Jing was the first to recognize Mo Fan. She looked delighted.

2

Mo Fan had barged into the dark cave alone and saved her life. Tao Jing certainly would not forget him.

Wen Xia was stunned when she saw Mo Fan playing with a group of small animals glowing in spiritual holy light in the courtyard.

A Little White Tiger was covered in mud and happily squirmed toward other small animals.

A flame porcelain doll kept running. Apparently, it preferred to keep itself clean and did not want to be stained by the Little White Tiger.

There was a small Holy Spirit that resembled a butterfly on Mo Fan’s head. It chased and played with the Little White Tiger.

There was an eagle on top of the stone carved wood. It looked divine and aloof. Its gaze never left the noisy small animals.

For a moment, Wen Xia thought she had entered a petting zoo.

Mo Fan sat among the animals. He was stained with mud, but he laughed along.

“How are you? You’ve arrived before us. The totem beasts are playing in the courtyard, will this affect the Totem Beast Heroes from resting?” Wen Xia walked over to him.

“Totem Beast Heroes?” Mo Fan was puzzled.

“We came to pay a visit to the Totem Beast Heroes. As an Honorary Council, we came to welcome them,” Wen Xia said solemnly.

It was only then that Mo Fan understood her words. He burst out in laughter and pointed at the mud-stained totem beasts. He said, “They are the totem beasts, and I’m the person you want to see.”

Wen Xia looked at the small beasts that were playing in the mud and then glanced at Mo Fan, who looked so carefree.

‘Were they really the majestic and magnificent totem beasts and the Totem Guardian from the Magic City war they had heard about?’

Chapter 2898: The Totem Beasts’ Privilege

Wen Xia Tao Jing and Zhou Donghao could not believe it.

The Little White Tiger was very playful. When the Green East Sea God did not pay attention to it, the Little White Tiger threw a handful of mud at its feathers.

The Green East Sea God stood on the wooden statue. It was more mature compared to the other totem beasts; hence it did not bother playing with them. It was furious after the others threw mud at it!

The high and mighty Green East Sea God would not bother to play with mud!

The Green East Sea God was stirred up. Its body expanded. Its green feathers glowed in holy light and occupied the entire courtyard.

Within a few seconds, the Green East Sea God revealed its true form. Its terrifying green wings were so powerful that it could flap North Park away effortlessly.

Wen Xia, Tao Jing, and Zhou Donghao were speechless.

At the same time, the Little White Tiger glowed in holy blue light. It was shrouded in a bone-chilling aura and was covered in spotless white fur.

The playful Little White Tiger transformed into a magnificent Heavenly Scar Sacred Tiger that glowed in holy light. It confronted the Green East Sea God in midair and exuded a terrifying aura.

The trio’s jaws dropped. It was only then that they realized Mo Fan wasn’t bluffing. These “little babies” were truly totem beasts. They had transformed into mini versions. After the three people saw their true forms, they were weak to their knees.

Many video clips had circulated on the internet, but most of the clips were taken from a distance away, including the image of the Azure Dragon coiling up in the sky above the Magic City. When they saw the totem beasts at a close range, it was only then that they realized how powerful they actually were!

“They’re going to fight each other! The Little White Tiger is going to fight the Green East Sea God!” Mo Fan shouted.

Several people ran out of the house.

Wen Xia thought that the Totem Beast Heroes came out to stop the totem beasts from fighting each other. She watched in disbelief when the young people sat on chairs in the courtyard and took out snacks from their pockets and waited for a good show!

The Moon Moth Phoenix flew between the two totem beasts. It quickly calmed the two with its serene and peaceful aura.

Mo Fan thought it was a pity that he could not witness the battle between the Green East Sea God and the Heavenly Scar Sacred Tiger. He wondered which would be more powerful.

“Are you the legendary Totem Beast Heroes?” Wen Xia asked incredulously.

“So, we are being called the Totem Beast Heroes, huh? Not bad. I like it!” Zhao Manyan was all smiles.

People admired and respected him from the bottom of their hearts. Zhao Manyan felt that his life was better now that people respected him for his actions and not for his massive wealth.

He would rather become a wealthy, handsome, and popular man with great achievements than just a rich, spoiled brat.

Aromatic smell wafted out from the kitchen. Yu Shishi and several young ladies had come over with several large plates of delicacies.

“Go wash up and eat your food,” said Yu Shishi. After that, she glared at Mo Fan. “Not you! The food is for them!”

“I’m covered in mud. What’s wrong if I go and wash up? Do you seriously think I’ll fight for food with the totem beasts?” Mo Fan said with a huff.

Yu Shishi smirked.

Mo Fan entered the house. He took a shower and changed his clothes.

Everyone chatted inside the courtyard. Mo Fan came out of the house and noticed that Wen Xia, Zhou Donghao, and Tao Jing looked at him differently now.

“Tell me, how did you summon the Azure Dragon? Everyone is discussing it fervently across the country. Oh, my god! I’m also a friend of the Azure Dragon Guardian. We’ve boarded the same bus and been to the dark cave together... I can’t wait to attend the annual classmate gathering and compare my achievements with theirs!” Zhou Donghao said excitedly.

“The Forbidden Curse Association has sealed the news for us. Don’t tell the rest that we’re the ones who shared the news with you. We haven’t found some of the missing totem beasts, so we’re worried that someone else will hinder our progress or harm us.” Jiang Shaoxu acted vigilantly and warned those who came to visit them.

“Understood. But I suppose those who have the intention of getting you into trouble are aware of the identities of the Totem Guardians, right?” asked Wen Xia.

“Indeed. But at the very least, they won’t recognize us at a single glance wherever we go. The identity of Totem Guardian has to be well-hidden. The totem beasts have to be well-protected,” said Song Feiyao.

“Anyway, we’re aware of the presence of Totem Beast Heroes. I heard that the Forbidden Curse Association will prepare a totem medal for us that will grant us certain power equivalent to that of a councilor. We can even request the military for assistance with that.” Jiang Shaoxu brought up the issue.

“Indeed. Ding City will prepare the totem medals for you. I came here to discuss the issue with you. Also, I would like to spend some time with your totem beasts so that I can create corresponding totem medals for all of you,” said Wen Xia.

“That’s great! The country only supported us from the shadows before, but now it’s supporting us openly!” Zhao Manyan smiled in satisfaction.

“Moreover, some of the researchers and archeological teams will cooperate with you unconditionally. They will provide you with any information, and documents that you need,” added Wen Xia.

“Great! Finally, we don’t have to do everything on our own. Can we find a place to camp and enjoy life while leaving the dirty work to others in our future search for the totem beast? We’ll just have to give them our orders,” Zhao Manyan said happily.

“Dream on! In fact, the country can’t help us much. It has only granted us certain privilege,” said Jiang Shaoxu.

“Not really. President Hong Wu has issued some paperwork to us and helped us collect the legend of totem beasts from various places. I believe we’ll get a lot of important information from there,” said Mo Fan.

The totem beasts had done a remarkable job in the Magic City war. Countless people had witnessed the true totem beasts. The totem beasts had always been in the country. They acted as the guardians of the people. Summoning a vast number of mages could help find the remaining missing totem beast.

Furthermore, this could save the totem beast team some time.

“The Ocean Demons will make a comeback. By then, we won’t be heavily defeated like this time!” Mo Fan said solemnly.

Thankfully, they did not give up looking for the totem beasts’ traces. They were glad that their hard work had paid off. This was the reason why Jiang Shaojun had been willing to dedicate his life to search for the mysterious and ancient totem beasts.

The totem beasts were truly extraordinary Holy Spirits with unique powers!

Chapter 2899: The Complete Ice Crystal Bow

What mattered most now was to increase their strengths.

It was unlikely that they could summon the Azure Dragon again unless they could find another source of Underground Holy Spring.

Unless the Evil Bead Sublimation was replenished, it would be difficult to cast Demon Element magic again.

If the Cold Moon Demon Lord or the Ocean Queen made a comeback, Mo Fan could not contribute much to another war.

Little Loach had transformed into a Little Azure Dragon pendant. The Underground Holy Spring had spilled onto the Ancient Great Walls all over the land. Little Loach was the one that benefited from all of it. It was the one that had summoned the Sacred Totem Beast and unlocked its ancient seal. Little Loach glowed in green luster. The pure energy within itself was as vast as an ocean.

The Nether Ocean within the Little Azure Dragon pendant stirred up tumbling waves. Each wave was capable of improving Mo Fan's cultivation and helping him break through the barrier.

Mo Fan needed sufficient time to improve the strength of each of his magical elements!

He did not have any special plans. He only wanted to focus on his cultivation.

He had to cultivate in a quiet place. With the help of the divine tool, the Little Azure Dragon pendant, his level of cultivation would reach its peak within a very short period.

Although the Sacred Totem Azure Dragon was in deep slumber, it had left behind tremendous treasure for Mo Fan. After the battle at Huangpu River, the Azure Dragon and Mo Fan had harvested numerous Soul Remnants and Soul Essence.

The Soul Remnant and Soul Essence could help to boost Mo Fan's cultivation.

It would be an arduous task to ensure the level of cultivation for eight of his elements to reach their peak. But with the massive resources he owned, Mo Fan could do it.

...

Cultivation was boring. There was no shortcut to improve the level of cultivation for the elements.

Even though Mo Fan had gained much popularity and the people across the country had been discussing the totem beasts and the Azure Dragon fervently, he turned a deaf ear to all this and shut himself inside a small courtyard.

Let the world proclaim his legend to their heart's content!

Mo Fan's Thunder Element had achieved the highest level of cultivation, followed by his Fire Element, Shadow Element, and Space Element.

The level of cultivation for his Summoning Element, Earth Element, and Chaos Element was slightly lower. But he could slowly digest the massive energy within the Little Azure Dragon. He believed the level of cultivation for all of his magical elements would increase by leaps and bounds after this!

Mo Fan did not go anywhere else. He stayed in Ding City, just like the rest.

Like him, Zhao Manyan reaped significant benefits from the war. He followed Mo Fan and practiced his own cultivation, which was a rare sight.

'This jerk hardly cultivates. It seems like after experiencing the power and ability, he decided to become an expert too.'

Not long ago, Zhao Manyan had grabbed some assets from the Zhao family. He exchanged the assets for various magical sources. He finally seemed to have realized that nothing was more important than becoming stronger.

...

The weather was icy cold. The breeze felt like a whip on their bodies.

The trees had dried up. A large area of forest nearby Ding City had withered. Many crops had frozen to death. Even the rivers began to freeze.

After half a month of such a climate, they finally began feeling slightly warmer. But the weather did not last long before the cold wind started again. It began to snow. Even though Ding City was an Earth Element capital, it was covered with snow.

It had been a long time since they experienced this drastic change of seasons. They did not experience any warmth. There was only constant bitter cold.

They transported tons of flints out of the dark caves. The flints served as important heating material for the city.

“The Cave Demons are driven to the corner, and they are desperate. They gave their all to fight us to keep the Fire Magic Stones. Luckily, we have sufficient reserves of Mages when we open up the wasteland, otherwise, it would be another tough battle,” said the officers on the transport vehicle.

“But we can’t go on like this. We don’t have any land to plant crops. The city exhausted a lot of the Magic Stones to generate heat. The monsters inside the dark cave will someday lose their minds due to the cold weather. They will come out and simply kill people.”

“The weather along the coast is warmer. I miss Shanghai. The weather over there was much better than here.”

“Word has come from the underground barriers that an expert deployed from the Imperial Capital has killed the head of the Deep-Sea Lizard Demon Dragon. After that, the Lizard Demon Dragon fled into the ocean.”

“Who is that person? He is so powerful!”

“I heard he’s the youngest Forbidden Mage in the country. He has long gained the insights of the independent forbidden curse method. I’m not sure what his name is, but I heard he’s a Fire Element Forbidden Mage.”

1

“That’s something worth celebrating. The weather over here is too cold. There’s nothing much except the rocks. I hope we can return to the Magic City someday. I would rather fight the Ocean Demons daily than freeze to death here.”

...

At Fanxue Mountain...

Flying Bird Base City and Fanxue Mountain were naturally warmer compared to the mainland since those places were near the sea. The cold air was tempered by the vast Pacific Ocean. The climate was like the usual winter in the south.

Mu Ningxue was draped in a white goose coat. Her hair was as white as snow and fell over the coat's shoulder braces. She walked in the ancient courtyard like a noble lady from the ancient era. She looked regal.

"Got it. I still need to practice my cultivation for a while longer. After I finish my cultivation, I'll return to Fanxue Mountain."

The voice message came from Mo Fan. He was working very hard to practice his cultivation.

He could practice his cultivation at Fanxue Mountain. However, considering that the Flying Bird Base City and Fanxue Mountain were in an eventful period, Mo Fan would most likely be affected by the invasion of the Ocean Demons if he chose to practice his cultivation there. Mu Ningxue also wished he could practice his cultivation somewhere more peaceful so that his level would improve.

"Ningxue, I found the Earth Crystal shattered pieces from the Amazon ruins. We have to pay a fortune if we want to buy it from the top hunters. I suppose you need them, right?" Shao Yu walked to her with a box in her hand.

Mu Ningxue opened the box. When she saw the special crystals that resembled shattered diamonds, she smiled radiantly.

Shao Yu stared at her. Mu Ningxue was truly a natural beauty. When she smiled, her charm attracted even the ladies.

"I suppose this should be enough for me," said Mu Ningxue to Shao Yu.

"Does this mean you almost completed your Ice Crystal Bow?" Shao Yu asked expectantly.

"Yes. I have to speed up my cultivation," Mu Ningxue nodded.

"After you finish practicing your cultivation, I believe not many people in the country will be a match for you."

"You're exaggerating."

"No, I don't exaggerate my words. I've seen you use the Ice Crystal Bow before," Shao Yu said.

Chapter 2900: The Antarctic Recruitment

The Ocean Demons had threatened every base city.

This included the Flying Bird Base City. The traces of the Emperor-level creatures were discovered on the offshore many times.

The Magic City had experienced the Black Alert once. No one knew when it would be the Flying Bird Base City's turn.

Every base city was on guard. They saw the Ocean Demons' true forms from the Magic City battle. The Ocean Demons were much more powerful than they had expected!

The Flying Bird Base City was not fully established like the Magic City. The city lacked foundation and did not have sufficient reserves of powerful Mages. It lacked top combat groups such as the Magic Association, the Forbidden Curse Association, the Super-level Union, and the Advanced Army.

If the Cold Moon Demon Lord and its Ocean Demon army were to sweep away the Flying Bird Base City, the city would not stand a chance.

Perhaps the Cold Moon Demon Lord did not show even the slightest interest in this newly constructed base city. It was aware that the Magic City and Imperial Capital were the important ones.

Even so, the Flying Bird Base City was not peaceful. After all, the number of Ocean Demons that appeared in the South Ocean were as many as in the East Ocean. The Flying Bird Base City was the city hub between the East Ocean and South Ocean.

With the Magic City battle over, the people in the Flying Bird Base City trembled in fear. Without the Magic City's support, could the newly constructed base city truly survive the attack of the Ocean Demons?

Some of the citizens had attempted to migrate to another city. The Ocean Demons devoured human flesh. None of them dared to risk their lives and stay here in the city. Most of the people staying in the Flying Bird Base City were foreigners. They did not feel very attached to this city.

However, some of the people who had migrated decided to return. The condition they had stayed in was poor. The weather was icy and resources were scarce.

The icy coldness had not only affected them, but it also caused the crops to freeze. The river surface was frozen. There were also transportation issues.

Warm places had their advantages. Moreover, the Ocean Demons on the mainland had become ferocious due to the extreme cold. The city was under constant alert.

Regardless of whether they stayed on the mainland or along the coast, they faced the same problem. Those who often migrated realized this issue. The same happened everywhere, including countries overseas.

...

They had been living in fear for several months.

The Flying Bird Base City had been struck heavily several times. Still, it managed to hold back the attack. The Ocean Union officer mentioned that many Ocean Demon hordes appeared and hibernated with the seasonal change.

The following season would cause a certain level of hindrance to the Ocean Demon horde's movement regardless of whether it was the tide or the ocean current. Therefore, they were able to enjoy some peace along the coast in these three months.

The inference was from the experts, but most people did not fully trust their words. The Flying Bird Base City did not let down their guard. The frequency of the Ocean Demon attack had reduced.

Meanwhile, Mo Fan practiced his cultivation behind closed doors.

Likewise, Mu Ningxue focused on her cultivation. The collection of the final pieces of the Ice Crystal Bow was completed. The Soul Power from the shattered pieces could improve her cultivation by leaps and bounds. On top of that, she could finally use her completed Ice Crystal Bow!

She had reached a bottleneck for her cultivation. It would be meaningless if she continued to cultivate further.

She walked to the courtyard and felt that the air in Fanxue Mountain was no longer as icy cold as before. Some unknown wildflowers bloomed into bushes.

If this were the past, the current season would either be summer or spring. However, they had winter throughout these days.

...

When she came to the council hall, it was empty. She saw an envelope. There was a coat of arms woven in gold silk on the surface. It looked familiar, but Mu Ningxue could not recall what the symbol meant.

The envelope had her name on it.

Mu Ningxue opened it and took out a letter. It resembled an invitation card from Queen Elizabeth. It read:

1

[China Fanxue Mountain—Mu Ning Xue

The Intercontinental Magic Association does not simply send out invitations to the Mages. The Five Continents Magic Association Alliance respects every mage, and we trust that they are given freedom.

However, we encountered an unresolved issue in the middle of executing a great plan. We require the help of a unique Ice Element mage like yourself. Please accept our invitation. We hope you share similar concerns as us in this time of global crisis.

Regards, The Five Continents Magic Association Alliance]

Mu Ningxue finally understood. The letter came from the Intercontinental Magic Association and the Five Continents Magic Association Alliance. This suggested that the Five Continents Magic Association Alliance was in the middle of executing a far-reaching plan together but had encountered some obstacles during the process.

Mu Ningxue was puzzled. ‘Why did they choose her?’

The Five Continents Magic Association Alliance was an international alliance. And she was not the only outstanding Ice Element mage in the world. Why her?

“Come in, please. We’ve heard of your stories circulating in our community. We never expected to have such an outstanding mage in the country. You look much younger than we expected,” Mu Linsheng’s voice rose from outside the door.

When he entered, he saw Mu Ningxue on the main seat with the special letter. He looked delighted.

“Have you finished your cultivation?”

“Yes,” Mu Ningxue responded, fixing her gaze on the person Mu Linsheng brought in.

That person wore unique red clothing, adorned with complete accessories. He gave off an imposing aura at a single glance.

Mu Ningxue found the person to be familiar. After Mu Linsheng introduced him to her, she realized that the person was none other than the famous Fire Element Forbidden Mage.

He was Wei Guang, the newly promoted Forbidden Mage.

He was an expert under the Magic City Underground Barrier Plan. He had destroyed the leader of the Deep-Sea Lizard Demon Dragon and had its army flee to the ocean.

He cultivated Fire Element magic and achieved the Forbidden Curse. He quickly comprehended the independent Forbidden Curse principles. Many old Mages had not been able to complete the Forbidden Curse spell independently. Wei Guang’s appearance made them break out in a cold sweat. Still, his presence represented the country’s Forbidden Curse force.

Wei Guang sized Mu Ningxue up. “I supposed you’ve read the letter. The Forbidden Curse Association assigned me to meet with you.”

“But I still don’t understand.” Mu Ningxue was still confused.

“The crusade against the Extreme South Emperor is real. The Five Continents Magic Association Alliance are in the Antarctic Continent. My team and I will escort you there,” said Wei Guang.

“The Antarctic?” Mu Ningxue frowned.
