

Versatile 821

Versatile Mage

Chapter 821: Wind Disc Trap

“Killing Note: Explode!”

Nanyu heard a Jagged-Paw Green Demon trying to ambush her from behind without turning around.

The Jagged-Paw Green Demon leapt into the air, raising its jagged paws high as if it was swinging two axes!

Nanyu blew a note into the face of the creature. The glowing note landed accurately on the Jagged-Paw Green Demon’s chest and exploded. The blast ruptured the Jagged-Paw Green Demon’s thick chest and left a bloody hole behind!

The explosion was quite shocking, and almost killed the Warrior-level creature instantly.

The explosion produced strong gusts of wind, sweeping in all directions. Another Jagged-Paw Green Demon that had just reached the roof was caught right in the middle of the gusts. Its face started bleeding.

The sonic energy was able to ignore a creature’s defenses and penetrate its inner organs and head. If the creature did not brace itself, it would suffer serious internal damage!

Nanyu’s attack was directed at a Jagged-Paw Green Demon around four meters tall. The sonic explosion had blown its chest open, but its ally nearby also suffered a serious internal injury... this power was what made the Sound Element so remarkable.

“Mu Ningxue, a group of Jagged-Paw Green Demons has appeared close to you!” Nanyu’s ears captured some movement. She quickly contacted Mu Ningxue through the communication device.

Mu Ningxue was on a building across the street. She was all by herself, and it seemed like she was surrounded by a few Jagged-Paw Green Demons.

The building was covered in frost. The roof even had a thin layer of ice. There was basically no channeling or pause when Mu Ningxue was casting Basic Spells. She could easily spread the frost with a single thought, and its coverage and thickness was stronger than the frost summoned by other Ice Magicians!

After hearing Nanyu’s heads-up, Mu Ningxue stomped her heel on the ice. It cracked into pieces and quickly turned into ice chains under her control.

“Bone Husk!” Mu Ningxue controlled the ice chains to lunge forward before the Jagged-Paw Green Demons even showed up.

A slightly bigger Jagged-Paw Green Demon did not have the chance to take a look at Mu Ningxue’s face before a few ice chains were flying right into its face.

The Jagged-Paw Green Demon was quick to react, too. It kicked the wall strongly, trying to dodge the ice chains, but the ice chains were impossible to evade under Mu Ningxue's control. She purposely altered their tracks in the process. The Jagged-Paw Green Demon was relieved with how quick it was able to react, yet the ice chains simply rose up and dragged it back down.

The other ice chains quickly wrapped around its limbs and tightened!

The strength of the chains was not to be underestimated. A creature like the Jagged-Paw Green Demons had no chance against the ice chains that were further strengthened by Mu Ningxue's magic.

The frost froze the Jagged-Paw Green Demon rapidly. Its bones quickly turned rigid, and when it finally lost its force to resist the pressure of the chains, the fragile bones were easily crushed to pieces!

Mu Ningxue's cold eyes flashed, further improving the strength of the ice chains. The body of the Jagged-Paw Green Demon was contorted out of shape as the ice chains twisted around it...

When Mu Ningxue loosened the chains, the Jagged-Paw Green Demon had already turned into a stiffened, heavily contorted corpse. The other Jagged-Paw Green Demons that had climbed up to the roof inhaled deeply when they saw the corpse.

Initially, they were planning to flank Mu Ningxue and kill her when they saw her standing far away from her teammates. After all, the woman looked like she was too weak to even stand up to the wind. To their surprise, she had instantly killed one of their strongest comrades!

One of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons seemed to be the leader among the creatures, at around five meters tall. It let out a furious roar, trying to drive the fear out of its subordinates' hearts.

The leader of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons was the first to bear the brunt. It utilized its shocking jumping ability and landed in front of Mu Ningxue, swiping its jagged paws at her head.

Mu Ningxue stepped onto a gust of wind. Her slender figure floated aside, dodging the heavy blow from the leader of the group of Jagged-Paw Green Demons.

The Jagged-Paw Green Demon was quick, too. After missing its first attack, it pulled its paws up from the ground and crouched...

Mu Ningxue had a bad feeling when she saw the creature acting strangely. She immediately prepared herself and used the Wind Track to move to her right, leaving a trail of gust behind.

As she thought, the Jagged-Paw Green Demon was not messing around. It was crouching to gather its strength, before launching itself forward head-first, trying to attack with the urchin spikes on its head.

Mu Ningxue clearly remembered that Jiang Yu had mentioned the paralyzing effect of the spikes on the sea monsters' heads. It would impair her movements if the spikes hit her.

The Jagged-Paw Green Demon's speed was remarkable. She would have fallen for it if she had not prepared herself beforehand.

In such a high-intensity fight, being paralyzed for a few seconds was more than enough to give the Jagged-Paw Green Demon a chance to rip her into pieces. Their jagged paws were the best tool to dismember their target!

“Freeze!” Mu Ningxue sprinkled some frost powder with her palm after dodging the attack. The sprinkles of frost immediately formed thick layers of ice on the creature!

The creature reacted by taking a leap back to prevent the frost from attaching to its body. Only its legs were touched by the sprinkles.

Its lower limbs were frozen almost instantly, attaching it to the ice on the ground. It temporarily stopped the Jagged-Paw Green Demon from moving. The creature swung its arms around and roared, signaling its fellows to attack and get rid of the Magician!

The other four Jagged-Paw Green Demons were already prepared to engage. Two Jagged-Paw Green Demons leapt into the air and pounced at Mu Ningxue at different times, while the other two Jagged-Paw Green Demons flanked her from both sides, swinging their jagged paws wildly, planning to slash Mu Ningxue in half!

“Wind!” Mu Ningxue did not try to dodge the incoming attacks, and stood still.

The four Jagged-Paw Green Demons were attacking simultaneously, which basically sealed off her escape routes. However, her secondary Wind Element was not useless at all.

The truth was, after dodging the attack executed by the creatures’ leader, Mu Ningxue had started setting up a Wind Disc trap around her.

The Wind Disc trap was constructed with Wind Disc: Sky Snare. A Magician would temporarily compress the strong energy of a Wind Disc: Sky Snare under their feet. Once the enemy started attacking, the Magician would release the trap, turning the Wind Disc: Sky Snare into a strong wind wall around themselves, blowing the approaching enemy away!

Versatile Mage

Chapter 822: Relapse of the Deadly Poison

Mu Ningxue did not come up with the idea of using the Wind Disc as a trap herself. She saw Okamoto using it during the duel between him and Guan Yu at the West Guardian Tower.

However, Guan Yu was just too fast. He managed to stab Okamoto before he could activate the trap. Okamoto lost the duel, yet Mu Ningxue was intrigued by his move.

Not every person or demon creature was as fast as Guan Yu; the Wind Disc trap was a very practical way to use the Wind Spell without a doubt. Since then, Mu Ningxue had spent some time figuring out how Okamoto had done it, and discovered that she could cast a Wind Disc beforehand and suppress it to right below the point of release. When something moved closer to the trap, disrupting the airflow, it would trigger the Wind Disc, producing a strong wind surrounding Mu Ningxue like a wall and blowing the creatures that tried to approach her away!

The Jagged-Paw Green Demons were ocean creatures. They were sensitive to moisture, but they were unable to sense any strange airflows. They assumed they could easily cut the female Magician into pieces by flanking her simultaneously, but to their surprise, Mu Ningxue stayed still and used the Wind Disc trap perfectly!

The strong wind howled fiercely and formed a tornado with Mu Ningxue at its center.

Both the leaping Jagged-Paw Green Demons leaping and those attacking her on the ground were tossed into the air by the strong wind barrier. Two of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons slammed into one another and stabbed each other's faces with the spikes on their heads.

The paralyzing effect soon took hold, the two Jagged-Paw Green Demons suffering facial nerve paralysis. The flesh on their faces hung loosely, as if they had turned into two extremely aged demon creatures. They looked rather comical.

The leader of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons was infuriated. Its four idiotic subordinates had missed a great opportunity, wasting the effort that it had put in!

It had no choice but to settle the fight itself. The Jagged-Paw Green Demon broke free from the ice entrapping its legs. Its throat shuddered, seeing Mu Ningxue had her back to it.

The creature fired a long, thin water beam at Mu Ningxue's slender back.

Mu Ningxue had her ice chain wrap around her waist. It dragged her to the side, barely dodging the surprise attack. The water beam struck a balcony and punctured it!

The leader of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons had perfectly demonstrated that it was possible to puncture rock with water. Unfortunately for it, Mu Ningxue would never lower her guard in a fight!

"I'm here to help!" Guan Yu glided across the sky with a Wind Track and landed beside Mu Ningxue.

Guan Yu's offensive capabilities were quite outstanding, especially the unique arm gauntlet he was wearing. If he was given the chance, he basically could kill Warrior-level creatures like the Jagged-Paw Green Demons with a single blow.

The truth was, even if Guan Yu did not show up, Mu Ningxue had no problem looking after herself. She was an Ice Magician. The Ice Element was not known for its ability to end fights in a short period of time, but for the advantages it had in a prolonged fight.

Mu Ningxue's frost never stopped spreading. The Jagged-Paw Green Demons felt their skin turning numb and their bones turning stiff. They did not realize that they were actually getting slower.

The frost would fully penetrate the creatures' muscles, bones, hearts, and blood with enough time. As such, in just a few more minutes, Mu Ningxue would not even need to waste her energy on the Jagged-Paw Green Demons; they would simply lose their ability to fight due to the frost, and be shattered by Mu Ningxue's ice chains!

Guan Yu basically enjoyed the fruits of Mu Ningxue's work. Using his agility and speed, his claw gauntlet rapidly stabbed the weak points of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons slowed down by the frost and took two of them out in an instant.

The leader of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons decisively turned around and ran away. It was obvious that the creature had finally realized it was slowing down.

The leader and the two Jagged-Paw Green Demons split up and fled for their lives, escaping into the warm sea water. However, Mu Ningxue managed to intercept one of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons that had suffered facial paralysis.

Guan Yu broke the lower half of the Jagged-Paw Green Demon's body into ice cubes with a kick, and stabbed its heart with the claw gauntlet...

It turned out that most of the creature's body was already frozen. Guan Yu did not see any blood flowing out when he stabbed the creature.

"Stay with me, you haven't fully recovered yet. I'm worried that something might happen to you." Guan Yu was an arrogant young master of a renowned family in front of the others, yet he would somehow turn into a considerate man around Mu Ningxue. Even his tone was a lot gentler.

Mu Ningxue hated to be interrupted during her fighting. If Guan Yu had not shown up, there was no chance she would have let the leader of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons escape.

However, she knew it was useless to reject the man's offer. Guan Yu had realized how effective the shameless tactic was from Mo Fan, so he began to use the same method to stay close to her!

"Stay closer to where Nanyu is, I'm worried about Nan Rongni still," said Mu Ningxue.

"Err... alright, I will definitely protect your friend," Guan Yu hesitated for a moment before nodding. He believed it was reasonable to win the favor of Mu Ningxue's bestie to earn her affection.

After Mu Ningxue intelligently drove Guan Yu away, she stared at the surging currents around the building.

The current had risen by another meter, and seemed like it was still rising. It was not a good sign for the team. The rising water would significantly limit the space available to the Magicians. Even Magicians who were experts at fighting underwater would not dare to jump into the water now!

The loud cry of an infant came from below. Mu Ningxue looked into the direction of the cry and recognized the White Sobbing Demon that had severely injured Nan Rongni. It was still alive, and currently floating on the surface of the water with one of its tentacles raised high into the air. Half of the other tentacle had already regrown even though it was chopped off not long ago. It seemed like a new stinger would soon reform from the severed end.

"Such remarkable regeneration!" Mu Ningxue exclaimed in surprise.

Mu Ningxue had a strong feeling that the White Sobbing Demon was a tougher opponent than the team had assumed. Otherwise, Nan Rongni would have easily recovered from the injuries she suffered with a few drops of Healing Liquid, yet she still had trouble standing on her own.

"Crap!" Nanyu's voice shouted in the communication device. Everyone panicked slightly after hearing her voice, as it was rare to see her in shock.

"What happened?" Ai Jiangtu's deep voice spoke into the communication device.

"Nan Rongni is poisoned, and it looks deadly!"

“Not only didn’t the wound on her leg recover, it has begun to fester... the veins on her leg are visible, and they have all turned white!” Her voice had more than a hint of anxiety.

Chapter 823: In a Pinch After Being Surrounded

Zhao Manyan’s heart was burning with anxiety when he saw the painful expression on Nan Rongni’s sweat-covered face!

Nan Rongni was a Healer, but it was difficult for a Healer to diagnose herself. She was totally unaware of the deadly poison that was spreading inside her body.

“Zu Jiming, Zu Jiming, come here at once!” yelled Zhao Manyan, when he recalled that Zu Jiming was a Poison Magician.

“There’s no need to summon me[ I can cast poison, or drive poison away, but I can’t treat anyone that is poisoned. Didn’t we bring all kinds of antidotes? Are you telling me that none of them works?” said Zu Jiming.

“We have to bring her away from the battlefield. The poison is too strong, her life might be at risk!” declared Zhao Manyan.

Zhao Manyan and Nan Rongni were fully focused on the fight against the Jagged-Paw Green Demon, and did not realize that Nan Rongni was in so much pain that she could no longer make any noise. When they finally went to check up on her, they realized that the poison had spread all across her leg, and was moving toward her waist and upper body.

There was still a chance to save her if the poison reached her liver and stomach, but if it reached her heart, even the Heavens could not save her!

“Can’t do, we’re being surrounded by sea monsters. Trying to break out from the surround would only split the team further, not to mention how dangerous it is when carrying an injured member,” said Ai Jiangtu.

The number of sea monsters rapidly increased as the tide rose higher. It was impractical to break out of the surround with an injured member. They had no choice but to hold their ground defensively. If anyone left their position, the whole group might be overrun!

“The White Sobbing Demon is a rare species. Even I wasn’t aware that its tentacles are poisonous. No one can guarantee that we can find the antidote to the poison even if we brought her to the safe zone. In my opinion, we should send someone to ask the other teams, and see if they know how to cure the poison,” said Jiang Yu.

The number of the sea monsters was increasing when a member of the team was injured, not to mention that the member was the Healer on the team. The whole team was suddenly in a panic.

It was difficult to come to a verdict when there were many people on a team. As such, when there were conflicting opinions, the team members would feel even more agitated.

"I have some herbs that can keep her alive longer. I'll take care of her, don't let the Jagged-Paw Green Demons come any closer," Zhao Manyan told Nanyu.

Nanyu nodded and tried her best to calm down and listen to the movements of the surrounding creatures.

Ai Jiangtu was already making his way to where the other teams were. He was the only person that could still move around freely with his Space Element.

--

The team did not dare to lower their guard after realizing Nan Rongni was poisoned.

The sea monsters were scarier and more cunning than they had imagined. The tide continued to rise, with endless sea monsters jumping out of the water. Most of the sea monsters in their area were melee types, like the Jagged-Paw Green Demons, but the kinds that could cast powerful magic had already appeared in other zones. The situation looked extremely grim for the humans.

Ai Jiangtu cast Blink continuously as he wove through the streets towards the zone master.

As soon as Ai Jiangtu landed on a building, he immediately saw a huge wave crushing the buildings nearby like a gigantic beast!

"Watch out!" Ai Jiangtu heard the voice of a mature woman amid the blast. He quickly glanced in her direction and drew a Star Pattern, vanishing into thin air.

The huge wave came down, instantly crushing five buildings into pieces in a shocking manner!

The woman only saw Ai Jiangtu being devoured by the wave, yet did not notice a person had appeared behind her out of nowhere. She was about to let out a sigh when Ai Jiangtu tapped her on her shoulder.

"You... how are you behind me..." The woman was surprised, but she was able to recover fairly quickly.

"I have the Space Element," answered Ai Jiangtu.

"No wonder, that explains it... I remember you, you're the captain of the seventh team. Why have you come to the second team, we are all Advanced Magicians here? ...oh, you're an Advanced Magician too, but you should be looking after your zone. Otherwise, it's going to increase the burden of the other teams. The sea monsters aren't really the merciful kind," blurted out the woman.

"Someone on our team is poisoned. It was the White Sobbing Demon," Ai Jiangtu was not in the mood to chit-chat with the woman. He immediately told her why he had come.

"White Sobbing Demon? Why would your team encounter something like that... don't tell me you've escorted the injured away?" The woman seemed to be surprised. Her eyes were also showing a hint of fear at the mention of the White Sobbing Demon.

"Not yet," said Ai Jiangtu.

"That's a relief! Don't take the injured away, it will only make the poison spread faster inside her. Even if you brought her to the Magic Association in Tokyo, I believe there's no antidote there, either. The antidote to the White Sobbing Demon's poison is quite special, it can't be stored in any container..."

“What’s the antidote?”

“If you’ve seen the White Sobbing Demon, you must have noticed the white meat lump on its head that has a smooth and shiny surface, like the head of an infant. The antidote is inside the lump. Once the liquid leaves the lump, it will turn into powder within an hour. If anyone is poisoned by the White Sobbing Demon, you must not let the White Sobbing Demon run away, or else it’s going to be impossible to deal with the poison... did your team capture or kill the White Sobbing Demon?” asked the woman.

“It ran away...” Ai Jiangtu’s expression sank.

“Then what are you doing here still, go find it quick! The White Sobbing Demon’s poison is exclusive, only the White Sobbing Demon that poisoned your teammate has the antidote. It’s a very rare species, your team is very unlucky to stumble onto one!” added the woman.

Ai Jiangtu immediately took out his communication device and relayed the information about the antidote to the team.

Everyone was still clueless about what to do after learning how to acquire the antidote, since no one knew where the White Sobbing Demon was.

They were also heavily surrounded by the Jagged-Paw Green Demon. It was impossible to search for the White Sobbing Demon without killing all the creatures surrounding them.

“What do we do now?” asked Zhou Xu.

“What choice do you think we have? Let’s get rid of these Jagged-Paw Green Demons, the White Sobbing Demon has fled into the water; God knows where the creature is now.”

“Damn it, why did she have to put herself in danger like that when she’s the Healer? She should have asked someone else to check the cry of the infant out...” someone on the team started grumbling.

Everyone was already in a pinch trying to protect themselves from the Jagged-Paw Green Demons. How could they possibly spare anyone to look for the White Sobbing Demon?

“Mu Ningxue... strange, did anyone see Mu Ningxue?”

“I saw her heading for the nineteenth street...”

“She’s going after the White Sobbing Demon on her own.”

“Don’t panic, stay where you are!” Nanyu’s voice suddenly said in everyone’s ear. Her voice was incredibly loud, which left their ears buzzing. It also helped everyone to calm down.

Nanyu was trying to warn the team. She had just heard lots of Jagged-Paw Green Demons approaching them.

“We...we’re being surrounded...” Nanyu’s voice was suddenly extremely heavy.

Versatile Mage

Chapter 824: The Power of the Magic Cat!

Creatures with lumpy green skin leapt out from the water and landed on the roofs occupied by the humans using their outstanding jumping ability. Their jagged paws were clashing with ear-splitting crackles.

Their eyes were staring at the humans scattered across the roofs, full of frenzied savagery.

Sea monsters were usually more intelligent than most demon creatures, especially those with high lineage.

For some reason, killing humans had become a glorious achievement for the sea monsters of the Pacific Ocean. Some would even leave markings on their scales to count the number of humans they had killed, like the medals and badges worn by a soldier or a general!

The previous Jagged-Paw Green Demons were only sent here as scouts, to learn how many humans the area had. Once the scouts were done with their job, the rest of the army immediately advanced, to wipe out the teams of Magicians!

Guan Yu also noticed that the captain of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons whose limbs and body had been frozen by Mu Ningxue among the sea monsters!

More elite sea monsters had shown up. The Magicians could pick them out from among the sea monsters based on their size and the color of their skin. These elite monsters were normally stronger than most Warrior-level creatures, since the species of Jagged-Paw Green Demons was infamous for its expertise in fighting!

“So many, how many are there!?”

“Nan Rongni will die from the poison if we have to wait until we kill every single one of them!” exclaimed Zhao Manyan worriedly.

He had the urge to change all his Elements and become a powerful Magician with destructive spells, just so he could eliminate the Jagged-Paw Green Demons as quickly as possible. However, all he could do right now was to stop the demon creatures from getting closer and defend against their attacks.

“Mu Ningxue is on her own. She might be in danger too. She hasn’t fully recovered!” said Jiang Shaoxu nervously.

Jiang Shaoxu had learned from her mistake. She quickly jumped to the roof where Zhao Manyan, Nanyu, and Nan Rongni were. As a Psychic Magician, she needed protection from a defensive Magician like Zhao Manyan the most, since she was the least capable of killing the sea monsters on the team!

“We can’t break out from the surround, either!” noticed Zhou Xu.

“Jiang Yu, is your Night Rakshasa able to escape the surround?” Ai Jiangtu was worried about Mu Ningxue since she was on her own. She had used the Ice Crystal Bow that was beyond her limits recently, so she must still be weak.

“Not a problem!” Jiang Yu nodded.

“Send your Night Rakshasa after Mu Ningxue, we must find that White Sobbing Demon!” said Ai Jiangtu sternly.

The team was in the most dangerous situation they had been in since they embarked on the journey to train themselves. Ai Jiangtu had already maximized the potential of his Curse Element. As an Advanced Magician, he had no trouble killing the Warrior-level creatures, but there were simply too many of them. If he left the team to search for Mu Ningxue, he was worried that the others would not hold on!

“Feifei, go find her, and protect her at all cost. Do you understand?” Jiang Yu immediately ordered his Contracted Beast.

The Night Rakshasa seemed unwilling, yet she still headed in the direction that Mu Ningxue had gone.

The Night Rakshasa was only a meter tall. Her petite figure resembled a slender girl around the age of ten. Her front limbs barely touched the ground as she moved, like a nimble cat sprinting in the shadows.

When she dashed forward at full speed, her slender figure turned into a black line of shadows weaving past the clumsy Jagged-Paw Green Demons. The creatures finally reacted after some time.

The captain of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons from before let out a weird shriek after it saw something trying to escape from their envelopment. It immediately sent its minions over to hunt the little creature down.

The cry immediately caught the attention of eight Jagged-Paw Green Demons. They were initially climbing along the walls and hiding in the corners. They showed themselves after being summoned by their captain, staring at the Night Rakshasa greedily!

“Meow!” The Night Rakshasa’s cry was filled with a hint of disdain. She ran to the edge of the building and jumped across to the other building... and a Jagged-Paw Green Demon suddenly jumped up after it. It was trying to cut the Night Rakshasa in half in mid-air!

The Night Rakshasa was incredibly agile. She evaded the attack in the air and kicked the eye of the Jagged-Paw Green Demon to launch herself higher into the air with a front flip...

Her claws reached ahead, and the spinning Night Rakshasa turned into a whirling razor, slicing across a Jagged-Paw Green Demon as she landed on the opposite building!

The Jagged-Paw Green Demon was cut in two. The whirling Night Rakshasa rapidly flew across the gap between the two halves of the body and proceeded on her way without turning her head.

She was just too quick. The rest of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons were immediately left behind.

It had all happened within a breath. The members of the team were startled after witnessing it.

-Isn’t Jiang Yu’s little cat a bit too strong? The Warrior-level Jagged-Paw Green Demons were tricked around like dumb donkeys! They simply have no chance of stopping her!-

“She will take care of Mu Ningxue. Let’s focus on the trouble in front of us,” Jiang Yu said to Ai Jiangtu.

“Mmm!” Ai Jiangtu summoned a Cursed Evil Spider. It spat out red spider silk to entrap three of the Jagged-Paw Green Demons, and slowly drained away the energy of their souls.

Jiang Yu no longer had his Contract Beast around, but he proceeded to swipe a lunar-white arc through the air to cast Dimensional Summoning.

His Summoned Beast was fairly strong too, but there was still a great difference in strength compared to his Night Rakshasa!

—

The East Maritime Fortress was covered in a mist, greatly reducing the visible range.

The water continued to rise. It had been a while since the East Maritime Fortress had experienced such a great tide and tough battle.

The air was full of water vapor. The outline of a slender figure was floating in the air. Her wet silver hair was sticking to her pale-white face.

“Nan Rongni, hang in there!”

Mu Ningxue searched aimlessly in the mist. She only knew the direction the White Sobbing Demon was moving in, but she had no idea where to start.

Only the White Sobbing Demon that injured Nan Rongni could save her life. The East Maritime Fortress was in total chaos, and the chance of finding the White Sobbing Demon was just too low.

However, despite the uncertainties, there was no way Mu Ningxue would watch Nan Rongni die like that.

She wouldn't give up on finding the creature! There's no way she would let the filthy, despicable sea monster take away Nan Rongni's kind, sacred life!

Versatile Mage

Chapter 825: A Monster with Disguise

“Meow!” Mu Ningxue heard a familiar cry in the mist.

She turned around and saw an intelligent cat-like beast shrouded in the darkness standing on the building less than fifty meters away. The creature's glittering eyes were staring right back at her through the mist.

Mu Ningxue was overjoyed. Wasn't that Jiang Yu's Night Rakshasa?

Mu Ningxue had turned off the communication device. The others on the team kept saying useless things. She preferred not to waste her time arguing with them, so she had no idea that Jiang Yu had sent his Contracted Beast over to help her.

“Meow!” the intelligent Night Rakshasa suddenly screeched. She quickened her pace and dashed toward Mu Ningxue like a black meteorite flying close to the ground.

Mu Ningxue was startled. Why was the creature lunging at her?

The Night Rakshasa was using Shadow Dance, allowing her to move rapidly through the shadow without touching the ground.

When the Night Rakshasa arrived in front of Mu Ningxue, she jumped up and waved her claws rapidly in the air.

Mu Ningxue finally realized there were lots of white silks around her. She was completely surrounded by the white silks without even noticing them. The mist had prevented her from noticing them.

The Night Rakshasa slashed the white silks with her claws. She lifted her sharp gaze and stared at a tall building ten meters away!

The building seemed to be taller than the rest of the buildings nearby. Mu Ningxue did not notice it at first, but as the Night Rakshasa fixed her gaze onto the building, she realized that it was not because the building was taller, but there was a monster sitting on top of it, the one that had spat out the silks!

The monster was able to change its color! It was currently gray-white, the exact same color of the buildings, allowing it to blend perfectly with the building it was sitting on. It was almost impossible to notice its presence without taking a closer look.

Mu Ningxue's heart started pounding heavily. The sea monsters had extraordinary capabilities and were extremely cunning. Humans would easily become the food in their stomach if they weren't careful enough!

"Feifei, let's focus on finding the White Sobbing Demon. Don't bother fighting it," Mu Ningxue chose.

Mu Ningxue was unable to take a clear look at the creature that had disguised itself as part of the building, yet she knew that the creature was tough! It would be a waste of time to fight the creature now...

Judging from the Night Rakshasa's reaction, Mu Ningxue could easily tell that the Night Rakshasa was treating the creature as a worthy opponent.

Mu Ningxue decisively summoned a gust of wind and proceeded to search for the White Sobbing Demon when she saw the creature did not continue attacking them.

"Meow!"

The Night Rakshasa stopped Mu Ningxue when she was about to leave.

The Night Rakshasa stood on her feet and pointed her paw in a completely opposite direction.

"Are you telling me to go that way?" speculated Mu Ningxue.

"Meow!"

"Do you know where the White Sobbing Demon is?" asked Mu Ningxue excitedly.

Mu Ningxue suddenly remembered that the Night Rakshasa was the one that had injured the White Sobbing Demon. She was sniffing at her claws that had slashed the White Sobbing Demon's chest open. It seemed like the claws had caught the scent of the White Sobbing Demon's blood.

The Night Rakshasa ignored the creature on the roof and led Mu Ningxue in the direction of the nineteenth zone.

As soon as Mu Ningxue left the place, she vaguely heard someone cursing; they seemed to be mentioning something about a dog.

The voice, the tone, and the way he cursed reminded Mu Ningxue of someone.

However, as a new wave splashed across the building, Mu Ningxue was unsure if she had heard it wrong.

“Meow!” the Night Rakshasa cried out, signaling Mu Ningxue to keep pace with her.

Mu Ningxue did not think too much. She cast a Wind Track and followed closely behind the Night Rakshasa. She was feeling uneasier as more time passed. It felt like she could still hear Nan Rongni’s painful groans coming from the communication device that was still turned off...

— —

“Can you stop cursing!” Mochizuki Chihaya was not a fan of Mo Fan’s habits.

-Where are his manners? How did someone like him get selected to represent the national team? Is China really running short on talents?-

“Damn, I was cursing in Chinese, how did you understand that?” Mo Fan was surprised.

“Anyway, don’t let me hear it again! I have heard enough of the curses you Chinese let go in Japan,” Mochizuki Chihaya retorted angrily.

“You’re crazy, I didn’t come to Japan to serve the mistress of a renowned clan like you. That thing was disguising itself as a building. I didn’t kill it because I’m in a rush, why can’t I curse it? Are you telling me to be polite toward demon creatures? It’s pretty obvious that the creature wasn’t being polite in the first place. White and slimy, how disgusting!” Mo Fan did not stop complaining.

Mochizuki Chihaya simply rolled her eyes. She was embarrassed to team up with a man like him.

The sea monster had only disguised itself and set up some white silk waiting for its prey to step into the trap, yet Mo Fan ended up scolding its family up to its ancestors. Was there any meaning to it?

“Stop talking, the communication device finally has a signal,” said Mo Fan.

Mochizuki Chihaya blushed angrily. Asshole, was she even talking? It was him scolding the concealed monster all along!

The communication device implied that they were very close to the twentieth zone. Mo Fan heard serious voices communicating in the channel. He did not hear any meaningless chat. It was obvious that the team was currently in the middle of a fight. Mo Fan felt uneasy to interrupt all of a sudden.

“Err... is Mu Ningxue there?” Mo Fan turned on the communication device and asked softly.

“Didn’t Mu Ningxue go after the White Sobbing Demon? Which idiot is asking... damn, Mo Fan, you traitor, you finally came back... Nanyu, Nanyu, their captain is behind you! Jiang Shaoxu, interrupt its channeling, don’t let it spit the water!” yelled Zhao Manyan.

“Mo Fan, Mu Ningxue is on her own. She should be heading toward the nineteenth zone. Go look for her!”

“Are you guys alright? I feel like you’re in a pinch too,” asked Mo Fan, being kind for once.

“Nan Rongni is dying from a deadly poison. We can still hold on for a little longer. Go and find Mu Ningxue, and keep an eye for a white creature that cries like an infant. You have to hunt it down. It’s the White Sobbing Demon, the only creature that has the antidote to the poison,” someone immediately explained to Mo Fan.

Mo Fan was astounded. Nan Rongni was poisoned, and her life was in danger!?

“Chihaya, go help them. I’ll go look for Mu Ningxue,” Mo Fan realized how grave the situation was. He no longer had the mood to joke around.

“What happened?”

“Nan Rongni is the Healer on our team. She is poisoned, and the others are surrounded by sea monsters. Their lives are in danger, too!” Mo Fan told her.

Versatile Mage

Chapter 826: Fierce Shark Demon

-Nineteenth zone, nineteenth zone, where the Hell is the nineteenth zone?-

The whole place was a vast expanse of whiteness because of the mist, and Mo Fan couldn’t find the right direction. He never stopped cursing under his breath.

The Swift Star Wolf was a terrestrial creature. His fur was soaking wet from the moisture, looking like a drowning dog. It felt like the creature had lost his dignity as a wolf after losing his handsome fur. He was low-spirited, and the raw briney smell was hindering his nose, too.

“Hey, buddy, is this the right way to the nineteenth zone?” Mo Fan quickly ran forward and asked when he saw a person standing on a roof.

Only a weirdo like Mo Fan would ask for directions in the middle of a battle.

The man turned around and spoke with a deep voice. Mo Fan could not tell what language it was.

“I can’t hear you, can you speak louder... f**k me!” cursed Mo Fan, who quickly dodged aside.

A poisonous tongue flew right at him with outstanding force. He could feel the strong airflow as it went by. The tongue would likely smash the bones in his face to pieces if it landed!

No wonder Mo Fan was cursing non-stop, these sea monsters were just too cunning! He had already stumbled into a creature that disguised itself as a building while spitting out white silk, and now, another one was disguising itself as a human in the mist.

The creature's silhouette resembled a human, but its body was covered in scales. Its joints had bones like shark fins. It had a flat mouth, similar to a shark, taking up two-thirds of its face, housing that poisonous tongue!

Mo Fan grimaced in disgust knowing that he had stumbled into a sea monster while only asking for directions.

The Fierce Shark Demon was ranked highly in terms of savagery among the sea monsters. Normally, Mo Fan would have the urge to pluck all its fangs and used them for decoration purposes, yet he was not in the mood today!

The Fierce Shark Demon's mouth was full of blood. Mo Fan caught a glimpse of a torn garment between the gap of its teeth. It seemed like the creature had just enjoyed a pleasant meal. Not a single bone was left, he was wondering which Magician had fallen victim to it...

"I'm not going to beat you up, so you better not trouble me, let's mind our own business," Mo Fan stared at the Fierce Shark Demon alertly. His instincts were telling him that the creature was not an easy opponent.

Mo Fan slowly navigated around the creature to proceed on his way.

The Fierce Shark Demon was watching Mo Fan. Judging from the twitch of its facial muscles, it seemed to be grinning. The grin was just as its name suggested, scarily fierce!

"Eat this!" Mo Fan made his move, taking the initiative to attack without waiting for the Fierce Shark Demon's response. He did not need to summon the flames before the attack, as his fist simply erupted in flames as he was swinging his arm through the air!

Mo Fan would be out of his mind if he believed the creature would let him go easily. The blazing flame on his right hand was as strong as usual despite the moisture in the air. The sparks immediately spread into their surroundings and set the area on fire.

The Fierce Shark Demon was totally unprepared, and was blasted a great distance away. It slammed into the building on the other side of the street and fell into the water.

Lucky for the creature, the street was flooded by the tide. Otherwise, it would have suffered greatly from the prolonged burning of the Rose Flame!

Mo Fan immediately continued on his way after taking care of the obstruction.

The whole place was surrounded by sea monsters. Heavens knew if the creature would return with its tribe to get revenge!

--

Mo Fan had made a smart decision. Not long after he left, a few shark heads popped out of the water, exposing their grinding fangs above the surface of the water.

They glanced around, searching for the shameless Magician, yet the man was already long gone. They had no choice but to snap their jaws at the buildings to vent their frustration.

Mo Fan was feeling nervous. How had the sea monsters invaded the East Maritime Fortress so quickly? The whole place was already full of them!

How many sea monsters did the huge tide bring to the fortress? He had no idea how much time they would need to slay all the sea monsters.

“Please tell me I’m moving the right way?” Mo Fan had totally lost his directions. His surroundings were covered in the mist. The visible range was only two hundred meters.

The buildings on every street looked incredibly similar without any landmark that stood out among them. Mo Fan was afraid to be told that he was in the twenty-first zone when he finally saw a human.

“It seems like there’s someone ahead...” Mo Fan finally saw some light produced by spells in the mist.

There was no way the figure was a sea monster, since it was visibly casting spells. Mo Fan immediately quickened his pace and went after the light.

The buildings shook underneath him. Mo Fan felt uneasy as soon as he started running toward the light. As he proceeded further, he realized that the mist was not as strong in the area, most likely because the Light Magicians were trying to drive the mist away...

Mo Fan immediately went over to where the people were after the visibility improved.

— —

Loud vibrations were buzzing in the ears. Mu Ningxue knelt down and hid inside a building.

The building was basically empty, there was no windows or doors. She was able to see the street easily, and a monster with four spiky arms moving along it.

The main street was a lot wider, the buildings on both sides were up to a hundred meters apart, but there were not many Magicians around, as a Commander-level creature had appeared!

Blue Valley Ferocious Beast!

Mu Ningxue recognized the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast. It was one of the two that the team encountered before in the nineteenth zone.

Likewise, the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast had also recognized Mu Ningxue. Five minutes ago, Mu Ningxue had finally found the trail of the White Sobbing Demon, but when she turned a corner, the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was inches from her face. Luckily, the Night Rakshasa reacted in time and scratched out the single eye on the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast’s face. Otherwise, Mu Ningxue’s life would have been in danger.

The Night Rakshasa was injured after it was hit by the spikes on one of the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast arms. There was a clear bleeding cut on the Night Rakshasa’s chest.

“Are you alright?” Mu Ningxue blamed herself. If she wasn’t so occupied with the White Sobbing Demon, she would have avoided stumbling into the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast had obviously sniffed her out. It was waiting for her so it could get its revenge.

The first appearance of the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was here in the nineteenth zone, but it had now appeared in the same zone once again. It was hard to tell what the creature was up to...

“Meow!”

The Night Rakshasa licked her paw, before placing it on the cut. Soon, the cut stopped bleeding.

“That’s a relief!” Mu Ningxue let out a relieved sigh after seeing that the little cat demon was fine.

Versatile Mage

Chapter 827: Chased by the Ferocious Beast!

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast snorted hard, knocking the water vapor of the mist down like raindrops.

Mu Ningxue was hiding in the building, yet she could still feel the cold, wet air flowing in her direction.

Both she and the Night Rakshasa were holding their breath, as they were afraid that even the slightest gasp would attract the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast’s attention. They were no match against the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast, not to mention the group of creatures sticking close to it that had mouths like sharks and sharp bones on their joints. Their size was similar to humans, and they even had legs like humans. The only difference was their feet were like swim fins, allowing them to move freely both in the water and on land.

The Fierce Shark Demons had deep voices. They were basically illegible if one were not listening to them carefully.

The Night Rakshasa stuck close to the wall and raised its black, furry ears, like the ears of a fairy, elegant and beautiful.

“Meow~” The Night Rakshasa let out a soft cry and pointed in two directions, signaling to Mu Ningxue that two Fierce Shark Demons were approaching the building.

“We must leave at once,” agreed Mu Ningxue.

The White Sobbing Demon was in the area, too. Any minute they wasted would increase the risk to Nan Rongni’s life.

However, it was impossible for her to use the Ice Crystal Bow in her current state. Otherwise, she would not hesitate to use it, regardless of the price she had to pay!

“Meow~Meow Meow~” The Night Rakshasa’s eyes flickered intelligently as she told Mu Ningxue her plan.

“Are you telling me to lure those creatures away, and you’ll hunt the White Sobbing Demon down?” asked Mu Ningxue.

The Night Rakshasa nodded.

It was impractical to fight the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast. All they needed to do was hunt the White Sobbing Demon and leave. It was the only option left.

The Night Rakshasa was indeed a highly intelligent creature. She knew Mu Ningxue had stepped on the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast's tail before, thus the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast would not let her leave easily. As such, the only way was to use Mu Ningxue as bait to lure the monsters away, so the Night Rakshasa could hunt the White Sobbing Demon as quickly as possible.

"Alright... but, once you kill the White Sobbing Demon, don't come back here. Regroup with the team instead and hand the antidote to your master. The antidote will dry up into powder in a short amount of time, if we're stuck here..." Mu Ningxue agreed with a nod.

The Night Rakshasa left to track the White Sobbing Demon down. She utilized her Shadow spells, avoided the two Fierce Shark Demons patrolling the building, and waited for her chance.

However, the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was a Commander-level creature, and its senses were a lot sharper. The Night Rakshasa was unable to escape its watch, and it needed Mu Ningxue to lure the creature away.

Mu Ningxue took a deep breath when she saw the Night Rakshasa was in position.

It was fortunate that Jiang Yu had sent his intelligent Contracted Beast to lend her a hand. Otherwise, she would be roaming aimlessly through the East Maritime Fortress, like a headless fly.

However... Mu Ningxue had no idea how long she could last if the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast chased after her.

The Ice Crystal Bow was unavailable, and she still had not fully recovered from her injuries. It would be difficult to flee from a Commander-level creature.

The wind started blowing. Mu Ningxue suppressed the air around her without gathering the attention of the two Fierce Shark Demons close to her.

Mu Ningxue suddenly made her move. She summoned an icy breeze and sprinted in the other direction. The Fierce Shark Demons trying to entrap her were stunned, before crying out in deep voices to signal their comrades and king that they had found the woman!

Every Fierce Shark Demon started crying simultaneously. Most creatures from the shark tribe had gathered at the main street, and their deep, resonating cries soon echoed around the area.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast immediately turned around and followed the cries to where the woman was spotted. Half of its body was submerged; it was half-running, half-swimming toward Mu Ningxue!

The creature did not forget the pain it suffered from her arrow. It had noticed that Mu Ningxue's aura was not as strong as it was during their first encounter. These savage sea monsters were vengeful creatures. Even the slightest grudge could only be resolved through death. As such, its hatred for Mu Ningxue far more than any other Magician in the nineteenth zone.

It was difficult to stop a Commander-level creature who was determined to run away. However, considering the pressure they were currently under, those around could not help but wish that someone was able to lure the Commander-level creature away.

--

“Why is the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast leaving?” asked an aged Magician observing the main street.

“It seems to be heading toward where Hirose is.”

“Hirose, Hirose, watch out for the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast, it’s heading your way, avoid contact with the creature!”

The people in the nineteenth zone had their own communication channel, allowing them to share the information on the Commander-level creature easily.

“Got it... oh, the creature is chasing after a woman... silver hair... it’s her!” The first half of the sentence was Hirose talking to his team, but the second half was him mumbling to himself.

Unlike the other Magicians, Hirose was standing on an almost destroyed small wooden boat. It felt like the boat would sink in any second, yet Hirose was wearing a long coat and would not simply allow the tide to torture him like a water lily.

He was perfectly stable. With a closer look, it turned out that he was not just standing on the boat, but on the surging current.

Hirose was initially planning to run away. However, he was startled when he saw the slender figure being chased by the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast.

Silver hair, possibly the most unique color for a person’s hair that anyone could wish for. Even though the mist was preventing him from seeing her face clearly, he was confident that it was the gorgeous woman he had stumbled into before.

Hirose clenched his teeth. He controlled the tide and moved toward the silver-haired woman’s position.

“This way!”

Hirose jumped onto a building with the momentum of the tide and yelled at Mu Ningxue, who was running around aimlessly.

Mu Ningxue immediately changed direction when she heard the voice.

A few flickers came rapidly from behind. Mu Ningxue did not forget the powerful water beams that the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast could fire. There was no way she could reach the buildings in time, and she immediately jumped into the water.

“Hirose, don’t go, you don’t have any backup!” his teammates were shouting into the communication device.

Hirose stood still with a blank face. The sturdy buildings in front of him collapsed entirely after they were struck by the water beams. The space before him opened up, allowing him to see the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast’s face. His heart began to pound heavily...

For some reason, one eye on the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast's face was empty, with blood pouring out from the socket!

Versatile Mage

Chapter 828: The Bewitching Evil Voice

"Monster, don't you dare hurt her!" yelled Hirose.

However, apart from Sound Magicians, the shouts of a human were as weak as the squeaks of a little mouse to the sea demons, almost negligible considering how soft they were, and their poor hearing in the air.

Hirose immediately controlled the water around him when he saw the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast almost catching up to Mu Ningxue.

The water turned into a huge wave under Hirose's control, pouring down fiercely like a waterfall.

The attack did not inflict any damage on the savage Blue Valley Ferocious Beast, but it successfully infuriated the creature.

The remaining eyes of the creature almost poked out of their sockets, glaring at Hirose, who was like a clown in its eyes.

The creature raised one of its sharp legs and stabbed it at Hirose with great force. He could not even see the attack, but the huge crack across the building was telling him a deadly attack was coming right at him!

The sharp leg pierced through the spell that Hirose cast, penetrated the building in front of him and hit his right shoulder with its sharpest point.

The attack was initially aimed at Hirose's heart. Although the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast looked enormous and fierce, it was incredibly precise with its attack, planning to stab and kill Hirose instantly with its sharp leg.

Hirose barely reacted by dodging aside when the sharp leg landed on his shoulder. As the creature pulled its leg back, blood poured out from the cut and scattered over the debris on the ground...

Hirose clenched his teeth. He did not make any noise despite the enormous pain.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast's attack was simply too fast. Hirose did not even have time to summon his armor.

"Run away, quick!" Hirose pressed his hand on the cut, yet it did not stop the blood from pouring out between his fingers.

Mu Ningxue did not notice Hirose until now, but she did not respond to his shout.

Run away? Didn't he see she was already trying her best to run away?!

The problem was, the creature was a lot faster than a Wind Magician. It was impossible to escape from the creature unless she was able to fly into the air with a pair of Wind Wings.

“Freeze!”

Mu Ningxue saw half of the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast’s body was still submerged. She drew close to the surface of the water and tapped the surging current softly with her foot.

The splashing waves turned into ice. The surging current calmed down suddenly as a layer of frost gradually covered the surface...

The frost spread further into the water. The layer of ice was almost instantly half a meter deep.

The ice continued to spread rapidly. It first covered an area within a few dozen meters, but it soon spread more than a hundred meters away.

The mist covering the area was a result of the water vapor from the continuous splashing of the waves, and it gradually turned into snow falling from the sky.

The snow fell densely and the water was frozen into ice. Mu Ningxue had utilized her Domain. Only the power of a Domain was able to freeze the whole place in such a short amount of time.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was initially slightly intimidated when it saw the thick layer of frost approaching it.

During their last encounter, it was turned into an ice statue by an arrow after it had underestimated the power of the Magician. It had yet to fully recover from the injuries, and now the strong frosty aura had appeared once again. It was afraid that the Magician would fire the same arrow at it.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast stood two hundred meters away and took some time observing the area. Only Commander-level creatures would act so cautiously.

A while later, the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast finally dared to move forward after realizing that the aura of the Magician was not as strong as it was before.

The thick layer of ice did slow it down, yet it only needed to smash its way through the ice. It was nothing difficult for it.

Meanwhile, as the ice grew thicker, the Fierce Shark Demons’ movements were greatly limited by the frost. The Ice Domain restricted their ability to control water, and would even freeze them into ice if they were careless.

—

“Phew...” Mu Ningxue panted heavily, vapor coming out of her mouth.

Normally, she would be able to spread the Ice Domain further and increase its coverage, just like how she froze the water between the islands when fighting against the Scarlet Soaring Demons. She managed to turn the entire sea close to the Scarlet Soaring Demons’ nest into an island of ice.

However, the arrow she fired not long ago had drained away too much of her energy. Even though she was able to unleash her Ice Domain, its effects had been greatly reduced. She could not help but feel worried.

“This is a great chance for you, isn’t it?”

Mu Ningxue was frowning when a strange voice entered her ears.

The voice was very clear, as if it was speaking right beside her ears. Even the furious roar of the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast and the sound of everything freezing nearby failed to cover it.

Mu Ningxue looked around, but she did not see anything nearby.

“After Japan, one of you will eventually be replaced, and it’s most likely going to be you!”

The same voice spoke again. It was impossible to identify if the person was a male or a female. After hearing it again, Mu Ningxue realized that the voice was not talking into her ears, but it was right inside her mind.

It was similar to the transmission of a Psychic Magician, delivering a message into her mind without actually talking.

“Who are you, why are you talking to me!?” Mu Ningxue was instantly wary.

“Look at the creature in front of you, do you really stand a chance? If you force yourself further, you might die, and even if you manage to survive, you’ll still be kicked out of the team. Are you seriously going to accept that? No one knows the pain you’ve endured, and no one has ever feel compassionate toward your condition...”

“This is a great opportunity for you. The girl is poisoned, it’s not bad news, it’s a blessing from the Heavens for you.

“If you do nothing and withdraw your petty Domain, I can let the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast chase after the cat demon that took its eye instead. You’ve tried your best, she was just being unlucky, that’s all.”

The voice was soft and gentle, like a mother whispering her child to sleep. There was no need to think or do anything, but close the eyes and fall asleep.

Mu Ningxue felt dizzy. A strong hint of fatigue struck her like the huge tide that had swamped the East Maritime Fortress.

– No, no way...–

“What exactly are you!? Stop saying those disgusting words, and you better hope I don’t find where you’re hiding. I’ll let you vanish from the world!” yelled Mu Ningxue furiously.

The yell seemed to have shattered the strange, evil voice immediately, allowing Mu Ningxue to reclaim her thoughts mind.

The voice had taken her by surprise. The frost that took Mu Ningxue a great effort to produce had weakened significantly. Meanwhile, the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was also running toward her after realizing that Mu Ningxue was unable to fire the arrow that had frozen it before!

Versatile Mage

Chapter 829: Attracting Lightning by Oneself

“This shitty orb is letting out an eerie glow, it better not stir some mess again.”

Mo Fan took out the Essence Orb wrapped inside the silver cloth. The bad feeling he had toward the orb grew stronger. He had the urge to get rid of it as quickly as possible.

After settling the matter on hand, he would immediately chuck it to Mochizuki Chihaya. She could get rid of it however she wanted. Bringing the orb around felt like he was carrying a time bomb. Maybe he would end up possessed by the orb and become violent, evil, and vicious...

“Strange, why is it so cold here!” Mo Fan mumbled to himself, before he realized the water vapor in the air had turned into snow and fallen to the ground.

Mo Fan jumped onto a higher building to locate the source of the cold. He discovered the area around five hundred meters away was now covered in frost. The snow was stacking up on the buildings, and falling into the water. As he took a closer look, he realized that the water had frozen too!

“It must be her!” Mo Fan was overjoyed, as he was familiar with the frosty aura.

It seemed like he had taken the right direction. Luckily, Mu Ningxue had used her Domain, turning the water vapor into snow and spreading a layer of frost across the place. Otherwise, he would have had trouble finding her in the chaotic battlefield.

Mo Fan headed for the area and saw the Fierce Shark Demons scattered on the ice. Some were hiding in the buildings and heading for the center of the Domain.

Mo Fan moved between the tall buildings. He finally saw some ice sabers circling a relatively spacious area like a tornado. The wind was blowing a few dozen meters into the sky. The ice sabers looked like some kind of broken ice chains, serving as deadly weapons as they spun around, slaughtering the Fierce Shark Demons...

The level of the Fierce Shark Demons here felt a bit lower, unlike those that he had stumbled into when he was asking for directions.

They were clustered around in the nearby buildings, layers of ice, and in the waves waiting for the perfect time to strike. However, they were least of Mo Fan’s concerns, as his attention was attracted by a creature over ten meters tall. It was waving its spiked arms, slamming at the center of the tornado as it tried to smash the Magician casting the spell. Its overwhelming presence was rather intimidating.

“Commander-level...” Mo Fan did not hesitate when he realized how bad the situation was. He sprinted across the rooftops!

“Mu Ningxue!”

Mo Fan finally saw her. Her silver hair was eye-catching as always when the whole area was covered in frost. More shockingly, her clothes were stained red, and a puddle of blood was on the ice nearby. Mo Fan felt like he was about to explode after seeing it!

“F**k off!”

Mo Fan jumped into the sky from the building. A scorching, purple-black lightning bolt burst out of his body as he reached the highest point!

The lightning bolt descended at an angle. The infuriated Mo Fan simply used his body as a conductor to direct the Thunderbolt right at the creature.

The lightning flickered in the air, followed by a resonating rumble. It landed directly on the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast’s sharp-tipped leg.

“Lightning Disaster!” Mo Fan roared. The wild lightning strikes intertwined and struck the ground rapidly, forming a lightning web in an instant. Each flash generated a thunderous explosion!

The power of the fourth-tier Thunderbolt easily outmatched the rest of the Elemental Magic around. Even a Commander-level creature would suffer a great shock at the center of a Lightning Disaster. Its thick scales were unable to protect it from the lightning fully!

Standing in the middle of the lightning strikes, Mo Fan felt the Lightning Nebula in his Spiritual World shaking hard, as if the little Nebula was unable to endure Mo Fan’s bold move of attracting lightning using his own body.

Mo Fan was too busy to notice the change of the Lightning Nebula. His only thought was to chop the creature in front of him into pieces!

“You are no match for it...” a strange voice spoke in Mo Fan’s mind. “If you don’t want the creature to hurt her, have a taste of my power. The sea monster is nothing worth mentioning against my power!”

The voice sounded enticing, and was particularly clear when a person’s emotions were at their limit.

“Piss off!” cursed Mo Fan.

Mo Fan was not in the mood to chat with the voice that appeared out of nowhere. He knew that the Lightning Disaster was nowhere enough to defeat the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast. He totally ignored the voice trying to entice him, as he clearly knew it was from the evil orb wrapped in the silver cloth, even if he was using his ass to think!

“Telekinesis!” Mo Fan’s eyes glowed silver. He clenched his hands into claws, grabbing at the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast paralyzed by the Lightning Disaster.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast’s temporarily unable to move. The illusionary claws forcibly lifted it into the air.

As Mo Fan shoved his hands, the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was tossed away in a roll before slamming heavily into the buildings lined up nearby. The ice covering the buildings was completely shattered!

Not far away, the injured Hirose was dumbfounded as he watched.

-How violent is that Magician? Did he seriously throw the ten-meter-tall Blue Valley Ferocious Beast away with just his hands?

-No, that doesn't sound right, that's the power of the Space Element!-

It was impossible for a Magician to possess such strength, but it was possible for a Space Magician to cast Telekinesis on the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast and forcibly toss it!

Hirose was shocked. He had recently bumped into a Space Magician, and he had stumbled into one again today. That being said, the Space Magician in front of him was rather wild with his approach!

“Mo...Mo Fan?”

Mu Ningxue withdrew the wind around herself and stared at the man covered in lightning in bewilderment.

The Space Element!

The spell that Mo Fan cast was clearly the Space Element! Silver glow, it was the same move that Ai Jiangtu always used!

“Little Flame Belle!” Mo Fan was in a violent rage. He had no intention of concealing his strength. He immediately summoned Little Flame Belle to lend him a hand!

Little Flame Belle immediately engulfed her petite figure in fierce flames as she came out from the Contracted Space, turning herself into a giant fireball. She directly rammed into the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast before it managed to rise to its feet!

The fireball was at least four meters wide. Their collision resulted in a great explosion. Its light filled up the entire main street, and the ice began to melt from the overwhelming heat.

“Black Snake Armor! Blood Tabi!”

Mo Fan was clearly in a frenzy. He summoned his equipment and acted as if he was going to brawl with the monster!

Versatile Mage

Chapter 830: Void Slash

The Blood Tabi on Mo Fan's feet instantly strengthened his legs. He directly charged at the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast as the Black Snake Armor appeared.

Under the current conditions, Mo Fan's speed was rather impressive. He was basically a blur. He made his way to the building across the street within an instant once he reached the shadows.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was rising from the ground. Its body was still burning from the residue of the flames, but its thick scales were able to ignore the damage. The creature was only infuriated when it felt the scorching heat on its scales.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast uttered a roar when it saw the bold human charging at him. It started swinging its four spiked arms wildly, each with a force strong enough to break the ice and produce a huge spray of water!

A huge mist lingered in the air. Mo Fan proceeded forward despite the reduced visibility. He jumped to the debris of a building holding a few Shadow Spikes between his fingers...

He split into two shadows when he saw the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast's arm waving in his direction, and vanished into thin air.

Mo Fan slowly reappeared under the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast's enormous shadow. The furious Mo Fan leapt onto the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast's back with a kick. The Giant Shadow Spikes between his fingers split into six in total before stabbing at the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast's joints between its arms and body.

A single Giant Shadow Spike could impair the movement of a Warrior-level creature if it landed accurately, yet when fighting against a Commander-level creature, the Giant Shadow Spikes could at most restrict the movement of a few body parts.

Mo Fan was targeting the creature's lethal arms. The spikes on them simply posed too great a threat when the creature was swinging them wildly.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast noticed someone on its back. It instinctively tried to pull Mo Fan down, yet its arms were hindered by the black energy. Its upper limbs suddenly felt incredibly heavy. It could no longer lift its arms!

"Ice Lock!" Mu Ningxue did not just stand there and watch. She immediately unleashed a frosty aura when she saw Mo Fan engaging the creature so courageously.

The ice chains produced in an Ice Domain were a lot stronger than the usual ice chains. One crystalline ice chain after another appeared under Mu Ningxue's control before flying at the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast.

The ice chains moved like icy ribbons, aiming for the six sharp-toed legs of the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast. The creature's legs were incredibly sharp and agile. Not only could the creature stab its target with its legs, it could also slice the target from any angle, especially with the two front limbs. They were basically a pair of sharp blades!

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was shockingly flexible with its legs. It managed to curl them up, trying to stab Mo Fan on its back, even though he was in a blind spot.

Mu Ningxue saw the creature's intentions and immediately reacted. The ice chains lunged forward and wrapped around the creature's lower limbs.

It did not matter if a single ice chain was broken, as there were around eight of them in total. It would take the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast some time to break them all!

"Eat this!" Mo Fan threw a Meteorite Fist at the creature's waist at extremely close distance, breaking the thick scales protecting the creature. He even heard the sound of bones cracking.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast's waist had clearly sunken in. The chains tying its legs prevented it from stabilizing itself. It slammed hard into the ice and debris!

The sharp limbs of the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast granted it an overwhelming offense, yet it also meant that the creature's body was not as sturdy as other Commander-level creatures. If it tried to stand up, its limbs might snap in half!

The flames spread rapidly on the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast's back. Mo Fan did not greedily follow up with another attack. He knew being patient was crucial when fighting against a deadly creature. He immediately jumped to the shadows nearby and relocated himself...

A sharp leg suddenly twisted and swept in Mo Fan's direction without any warning!

Mo Fan was shocked too. The sharp tip of the leg barely missed his chest!

He was currently hiding in a shadow, so it was fairly difficult for the creature to land its attack. Luckily, he did not lose his calm after landing his first attack. Otherwise, even if the counterattack from the beast did not slice him in half, it would still have knocked him flying dozens of meters away...

The creature's sharp leg swept past and produced a metallic screech as it scratched the Black Snake Armor. Mo Fan immediately quickly backed off in the shadow, increasing the distance between him and the creature.

Lowering his head, Mo Fan saw a clear scratch on his Black Snake Armor. The fact that a random scratch was enough to leave a mark on his high-tier armor clearly implied how powerful the creature's attack was!

"This shrimp-like monster with sharp legs can even twist them in the opposite direction. Such a weirdo!"

Most Commander-level creatures had evolved to a stage where they were incredibly strong and difficult to kill. Mo Fan had landed a series of attacks on the Blue Valley Ferocious Beast and slammed it to the ground with a strong blast, yet it had failed to inflict any serious damage to it!

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was perfectly unharmed apart from a few pieces of broken scales on its waist.

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast rose to its feet once again. It stuck its sharp legs into the thick ice, while its remaining pair of eyes emitted an eerie red glow!

"It's casting a spell!" blurted out Hirose.

The spells of sea creatures did not necessarily have to be of the Water Element. Since they had a variety of species and most of the sea monsters were mixed-bloods, it was impossible to tell what spells they could cast despite their identical looks. The sea monsters would inherit the spells from both their parents, yet their appearance would only resemble one of them!

The Blue Valley Ferocious Beast was a mixed-blood, without a doubt. Its eyes had a red glow while its body was emitting a dark glow. Its sharp white legs were suddenly dyed crimson red...

The creature lifted its leg before swiping the air. The swing launched a sharp, red flicker of light, slashing forward at lightning speed!

The ice was cut in half. The debris was sliced apart. The red flicker was so fast that it was impossible for a human to react.

Mo Fan was staring blankly at the slash.

He suddenly felt his chest burning, as if his body was being sliced in half even with the Black Snake Armor protecting him...

Mo Fan skidded across the ice. A huge red line was visible on the Black Snake Armor, from which blood was pouring out. The mark of the slash was visible among the combination of ice powder and water vapor close to Mo Fan.

The slash had penetrated the Black Snake Armor despite its outstanding defense. Mo Fan clenched his teeth as he felt the burning pain from his chest and stomach!