

VILLAGE HEAD'S DEBAUCHERY

Chapter 15: Morning bath session (2) (R18)

Orion could already feel his cock throbbing as though it wanted to come while he stared at Greta's huge melons. So, he decided to risk it a little and stroke his dick with her hair while he scooped a bowl of water and poured it on Greta's mature sensual body.

After using her hair to stroke his dick, Orion decided to bathe her properly so he can move up to the main course now that he was all riled up and ready to let his semen explode out of his penis and into her insides.

His hands descended as he splashed on her breast and massaged them for a few seconds before he moved bore to her other breast.

This time, he kept on switching between the two breasts, moulding them without restraints until he released them by pinching her thumb-sized nipples and dragging them forward before he suddenly released them and stared as they clashed back against her chest with a jiggingly force.

At this point, the only thing left for him to do would be to penetrate her pussy and fuck her with everything he has. But knowing the kind of problems such a thing would bring for him, he decided to refrain from it and enjoy what he had managed to procure for himself.

"Alright, aunt Greta. I need you to stand up and face your buttocks towards me" Orion said. He watched as she nodded at his words and faced her ass in the same position as she had done yesterday evening, while her hands tightly gripped the fence.

Orion clasped his hands together at the offering in front of him. And without hesitation, he pushed his dick into her ass. His throbbing cock slid against the friction and filled her up to the brim.

"~~~UHHH" Orion moaned in delight. Once again, the feeling was heavenly. He opened his eyes and glanced at aunt Greta, watching as she curled her toes and dug them deep into the soil beneath them while her waist curved and pushed her protruding ass out, further aiding Orion's conquest of the meal below him.

"Ahh~~" Greta gently moaned out as she felt the intrusion in her butthole. At this point, she felt the sudden urge to exchange Orion's debt for Kushi, but she immediately threw out those thoughts since it would be the same as her insulting and forcefully demanding Kushi from him.

It would have been better if they were in the same age bracket, but sadly, they weren't. So the only thing that she could do, was to wait for him to offer her some fruits for Kushi.

Greta suddenly sighed in defeat. 'That would never happen, especially when he regains his memories' She inwardly shook her head and accepted the fate of a woman with a large protruding behind and equally huge mammaries.

"Pah~~" "Pahh~~"

The sound of flesh clashing against flesh got louder as Orion pounded her ass without restraints. Seeing that she had even let go of the fence and had placed both her hands on her ass cheeks to spread them wide apart, he became even hornier as his scalding cock throbbed with more curiosity to explore.

"Pah~" "Ahh~~" Greta could feel her tongue sticking out of her mouth once more as she struggled to control her 'gasps' and breathe properly.

"Mal.... ~uh~~uyy~~ Sure you clean my asshole properly this time around" Greta moaned and expressed. "I didn't tell you that I still felt some of your cum in my ass yesterday and had woken up to wash them out during the night because I could see the amount of effort and hard work that you had put in your barter. So but I hope you get it correctly this time around ~~Uhh~~"

Although she ended her words with incoherent ramblings, there was still one thing that stuck in Orion's ears, and that was the fact that some of his remains were still in the ass of the mature beauty following the rhythm of his cock even as they went to bed.

'Damn it' Orion cursed within his mind as he felt his dick erupting with a vigorous force. This time, however, he quickly pulled out his cock from her fleshy constricting asshole and spilt his cum all over her back.

Even though Orion had loved to hear that his cum was stuck in her ass throughout the night, he couldn't repeat the same mistake twice since she had complained about it. So, instead of cumming in her asshole again, Orion decided to spill it all over her back in an effort to make it look like he had taken her words seriously.

Though, he also made sure that some of his cum would spill on her asshole since he had already told her previously that cum could also be used to wash out dirt from down there.

Orion sighed deeply. One of the pains of lying is that you would have to keep track of every one of them as even a single one could open up a can of worms that you would have wished to keep hidden.

Abprutly, Orion heard Greta tiredly sighing "You wasted your cum again and poured it on my back this time around" She lamented in defeat.

Orion gazed at her as she straightened her back and turned towards him with her unkempt pussy and motherly breast now in his direction.

He stretched his right hand forward and grabbed her left breast, moulding it into whatever shape he wished as he replied "Sorry, I wanted to use my cum and clean your butthole again, but since you complained about it, I didn't know what to do and spilt it on your back".

Although it was hard to maintain such an innocent expression when his hand was busy playing lego with the motherly breast in front of him, but Orion soon found out that his worries were for nought as Greta suddenly ruffled his hair and assured him not to worry about it.
