

Village Head 25

Chapter 25 Indifferent Pleasure (R18)

With a deft hand, Orion expertly raised her open slitted dress and hung it on her large behind, before stepping back to admire his handiwork. As she stood there, exposed to the world, he couldn't help but feel a sense of power and exhilaration.

Orion couldn't resist the temptation to feast his eyes on the alluring sight before him. He took in every curve and contour of her naked behind, lost in the beauty of the moment. And as he savoured the view, he knew exactly what he needed to do next.

Although Grandma Celia looked puzzled about the young man's actions, she still let it be and bent down to sweep the area. She also noticed Orion pumping his penis, but she thought that the young boy had gone to just playing by himself while he waited for her to be done.

Maybe, after this, she should just let him know that he can use her hole as a practice for Kushi before he does the real one with his chosen partner since kushi with her wouldn't count as she was old enough to birth him more than three times.

With a satisfied smile, Grandma Celia surveyed her handiwork, taking a moment to appreciate the sparkling cleanliness of her humble abode. Finally, after 10 minutes of diligent effort, she allowed herself to sink down onto the mat in the centre of the room, letting out a contented sigh as she closed her eyes to rest.

As Grandma Celia lay down to rest, Orion stood by her side, transfixed by the seductive view before him. The gentle rise and fall of her motherly chest, the soft curves of her body, and the rhythmic sound of her breathing all combined to create a hypnotic spell that he couldn't resist. He drank in the sight, savouring every moment of this intimate experience.

Grandma Celia soon opened her eyes and saw Orion's expression. She noticed his quietness and thought that Orion was too shy to ashamed to ask an old and unattractive woman like her for her body to play with when she should be the one making the offer. Doing the proper thing, she briefly exhaled and said "Alright, alright, here you go". She then widened her legs and raised the front of her long-slitted dress up and kept it on her stomach.

At long last, Orion could finally see the full view of her pussy with her banging body and indifferent face that seemed as though this was nothing but an ordinary uneventful occurrence.

Orion couldn't help but grin as he observed Grandma Celia's indifferent expression. To him, it was a sign that, unlike Aunt Greta who still held some kind of boundaries, she viewed her own body as nothing more than a disposable object, like a plastic water bottle carelessly thrown aside. This realization gave him the freedom to indulge in all his deepest, darkest sexual fantasies with her body, without fear of judgment or reproach.

"I hope you don't mind if I use my penis to see what an aged vagina feels like" Nonetheless, he didn't forget to ask, at least to know what was in her mind.

"Sure, go ahead" Grandma Celia said with a wave of her hand. "I'll just lie here and let my old bones rest after such a task". Orion couldn't help but be amused by her candour. "Normally, Grandma Derry was supposed to help, but she always sneaks off and won't come back until sunset. I suppose she just wants it to look like she did something before the others come back home." The old woman let out a tired sigh. "Honestly, I don't know how she's managed to live this long."

Orion's eyebrows shot up in surprise as he listened to the old woman speak. He knew that other older women were living in the hut, but from what he just heard, they seemed to have quite the personalities. However, he could only hope that they saw their bodies in the same way as Grandma Celia did, as nothing more than a tool for his own personal pleasure. After all, he wanted a personal cum dump where he could walk in at any time and fuck whoever was available.

He removed his tulga and threw it by the side before he knelt on the ground and positioned his veiny cock in between her pussy. As for the preparations, he decided to just go in like that to test how extreme was extreme in this world.

Grandma Celia showed a look of surprise at the bulging veiny cock in front of her, but once more, she sighed, wondering what would have happened if she received his cock into her vagina when she was young.

Suddenly, without making a sound, Orion plunged his dick into her pussy.

"Ahh~~~" He moaned out in pleasure. Never would he have thought that the first pussy he would be getting in this world would belong to a gulf, and a hefty packaged one at that.

"Ah! Be careful" Grandma Celia moaned out with an indifferent expression that Orion never thought was possible before she warned him "Because I didn't use my hole when I was young, it is very narrow... Just take your time and let it get loose first before you continue".

Orion nodded with an indifferent expression that was hard to maintain.

Regardless, he still propelled his veiny shaft in and out of her, increasing the speed with each passing minute.

"Pah~~ " "Pah~~" "Pah~~"

The sound and rippling of flesh sounded in the hut as Orion ponded Grandma Celia, thrusting deep into her with each thrust. And although, it was dry at first, he could feel her pussy juice slowly wrapping around his dick and aiding in his bombardment.

'Fuck!' Orio internally cursed. This was much more enjoyable than he had imagined it in his mind.

Also, at this point, Grandma Celia's face morphed strangely, and her eyes suddenly became cloudy, showing that she was enjoying the pounding as faint moans escaped from her lips.
