

Village Head 63

Chapter 63 Kushi With Mother (R18)

After bidding our farewells, we walked past the open plots of land, which were now nearly deserted with only a few villagers toiling away. Within a matter of minutes, we arrived at the towering wooden gates, which we promptly pushed open, and stepped out of the farm, past the two vigilant guards, and onto the reddish clay road.

Fiona announced that we could proceed home from that point, while also reminding us to arrive early the next day, particularly those who had not yet performed with their partners. With that, the group began to disperse, each departing from the crowds as they turned onto the roads that led to their respective huts.

"I'll see you both tomorrow," I said to Ursa and Sura, giving Sura's bare ass a tight squeeze before hugging them both goodbye and doing the same to Ursa. "Take care, Orion," they responded with smiles on their faces.

I also waved goodbye to Gorg before making my way back home. Once I arrived, I didn't see Reena, but I knew she would return soon. So, I decided to share the fruits I had gathered with Gina. We happily munched on them until my mother arrived home with a clay pot on her head, indicating that she had gone to fetch water from the well.

Unwilling to accept any help from me, my mother insisted that I rest while she went to fetch water. I watched as her hips swayed from side to side while she walked to the back of the house to pour the water into the clay tank before returning inside.

As she settled down next to me and Gina, she picked up a Lipry fruit and asked, "Let me guess, is this what you earned today?" My mother looked at me curiously.

I nodded my head in response, still chewing on the fruit in my hand.

With a proud grin, she sank her teeth into the succulent fruit, savouring its juicy sweetness before finally swallowing it down. As she glanced at me, my mother asked, "Have you had a chance to freshen up yet?" I shook my head, and she nodded in understanding before continuing, "Well then, let's hurry and finish our meal so we can both enjoy a refreshing shower. You can fill me in on all the details of your day while we're at it." Her body was in a sweaty mess, with her glistening skin and clingy crop top which stuck to her large breast, showing her thumb-sized nipples and a fairly enjoyable portion of her side boobs.

My penis eagerly started to harden in anticipation as I replied with an "Okay."

While Gina had already taken her bath and stayed behind, I walked to the backyard with my mother. We waited until the clay pot filled up before beginning to remove our tulgas, and stood naked in each other's presence.

As her hands deftly scooped and poured water over her body, I stood behind her, washing her back with my hand. My erect penis poking her large, curvy buttocks added to the excitement.

"So, how did your first day go," My mother asked as she poured another water over her chest to wash her breast. Her question interrupted the steamy moment, but I was happy to share my experiences.

"Nothing much, I was just able to demonstrate how to perform Kushi perfectly to others and earn a perfect score. And we also went to the farm to accomplish some tasks." As I described my day, I placed my hardened shaft in between her asscheeks and gently moved my waist up and down, enjoying the sensation of her buttocks compressing and massaging my throbbing penis, as it scrubs through them.

"I can't believe you think that's nothing," she exclaimed, playfully slapping my bare buttocks with one hand. "You did an amazing job by getting a perfect score on your first day. And on top of that, I knew you would make me proud, so I had already spoken to Kyla's mother and she happily accepted our agreement!"

Due to the unexpected slap, my body reacted on pure instinct as I thrust my waist forward, propelling my throbbing penis deep inside her protruding asscheeks. As the tip of my shaft grazed against her butthole, a sensation unlike any other overwhelmed me and I moaned out quietly in pleasure as her rectum clung tightly around it.

"Ahh~~Who's Kyla?" I asked as I continued to wash her buttocks, with my veiny penis thrusting in and out of her butt hole with an increasing rhythm. With each thrust, I felt her other hole pulsating against my dick, driving me to explore deeper.

"Mhh~~ Hhh~" My mother let out a silent moan as she explained, "Kyla is one the most beautiful girls in the village, and the girl whom I promised you Kushi with if you performed well in the awakening ceremony." As she bent down to scoop up more water, her actions inadvertently widened her butthole, providing me with an opportunity to explore further inside with my pulsing shaft.

Suddenly, my mother turned her head back towards me, her expression seemed to betray her annoyance. "I can't remain like this forever, so hurry up if you want to clean my butthole," she grumbled.

"Don't worry, I'm just taking my time to ensure that I perfectly remove every dirt," I assured her with a nod. As I continued to thrust in and out, "Okay, ~~Uhhh, just be quick, so that I can help you watch yours" She responded, her response and short moans made me increase the force of my strokes.

"Pah~~ Pah~~~ Pah~~~"

"Hhhh~~ aHHHH~~" My mother soon repeatedly moaned out loudly as I repeated my actions several times, causing her to gasp for breath. I let her asshole massage my penis, just as it had done for hers. Apart from the delightful elasticity and wonderful sensation her asshole provided, I planned to ravage her vagina tonight and empty my balls before going to sleep, just like I did with Fiona before.
