Chapter 65 Kushi With Mother (3) (R18)

From the very beginning, Orion was determined to make the most of the situation he had put himself in, and so he began to grind his scorching penis against her half-covered buttocks with purpose. With each fluid motion, he hiked up his tulga, gradually drawing it closer to his waist until the hardened shaft suddenly grazed against her nude buttocks. The subtle shudder that rippled through her body did not escape his notice, but she brushed it aside, as she always did, repositioning his throbbing penis to nestle between the centre of her backside, before adjusting her asscheeks on it.

'Damn,' Orion cursed inwardly as his mother's bold move resulted in her tulga being pulled over her back. Despite her unintentional gesture and her lack of awareness about its inappropriateness by holding his erect shaft and placing it in between her asscheeks, Orion couldn't help but stretch his hand backwards, firmly pressing them on the floor behind him, as he continued to grind his bare hips against his mother's nude wide hips, all within the presence of his sisters.

At that moment, Orion felt his pulsing cock threatening to burst as he touched a slick, slippery spot with the tip of his cock. Recognizing what it was, he couldn't help but smile as he grasped his mother's waist with his right hand and suggested, "Hey Mom, let's have Kushi before we go to sleep?" The sudden interruption of Celeste's conversation with his siblings caused them to turn and look at him with raised eyebrows, curious about the abrupt change of topic.

Celeste turned her head towards Orion and scolded, "Didn't I say that there won't be any Kushi for you until after your awakening ceremony?"

Orion, who had been anticipating her response, quickly retorted, "But don't you remember that I scored perfect points today? And besides, what is wrong with me wanting to experience what your insides feel like?"

As she listened to her brother's words, Reena couldn't help but let her head droop in defeat. Her eyes immediately focused on his erect penis, which was rubbing against their mother's wet vagina, and she let out a small sigh. While she knew that there was nothing wrong with Orion asking their mother for Kushi since she was the first woman in his life and the one that gave birth to him, the fact that he hadn't asked her left her feeling a twinge of jealousy.

Celeste responded cautiously, "Are you sure?" Since Orion had demonstrated his capability by receiving a perfect score on his first day, she wanted to clarify his intentions. While it was not uncommon for sons to request Kushi from their mothers without having to barter for it, requesting it in a manner of bartering as a grown man was viewed as a sign of maturity.

But since she knew that her son had already become more mature than others in his age group, Celeste couldn't help but wonder if there were other reasons why he wanted to have Kushi with her. That was what she wanted to know.

Orion's response was confident and unapologetic. "Of course I am. Do you really think I would pass up the chance to have Kushi with someone as beautiful as you, especially when I don't have to barter for it?"

Celeste was stunned by her son's words, and she took a moment to process them. As she absorbed the full weight of his meaning, she felt her heart begin to race.

As Orion took in his mother's stunned expression, he couldn't help but feel a sense of satisfaction. Since arriving in this world over a week ago, he had seen the need to set two goals for himself. The first was to ensure that his sisters and mother never had to barter for Kushi or share it with anyone else but him.

He had a feeling that his elder sister wouldn't be against this idea, but he still planned on discussing it with her directly. However, just in case something doesn't go right, he wanted to first cement the idea in his mother's mind so that she could help him persuade his junior and senior sisters when the time came.

Orion knew that this would be a delicate topic, but he was confident in his ability to navigate it, especially with his past experience and knowledge. He was determined to protect his family from any foreign cock that wasn't his and ensure both theirs and his happiness, no matter what it took.

Of course, he enjoys the thrill of fucking new pussies and experiencing the pleasure that comes with it, but that doesn't mean the ones around him are up for grabs. Therefore, when his mother began to stutter, unable to produce a coherent sentence from her lips, Orion placed his hand over her vagina lips and gently parted it open with two of his fingers. Before he slowly began to slide his scorching hard cock inside her.

And lastly, his second goal was to explore this world and experience everything it had to offer.

"uH~~" Celeste unconsciously moaned out loudly as she felt the intrusion in her vagina. In her dazed state, she hadn't felt Orion's hand wrapping around it, and only noticed when he was already inside. Witnessing her son's sincerity, she shook her head with a bitter smile, which gradually transformed into a sweet smile that illuminated her face.

'How can I possibly refuse such a sweet son?' Celeste thought. As the tingling sensations travelled from her inner walls all the way through her body, she couldn't help but respond, "If you truly want Kushi that much, then let me get into a better position first so that we can start." She attempted to stand up but was immediately held down once more by Orion's firm grip.

"I'm fine just like this," Orion stated, but his words were barely out of his mouth before he thrust his hand forward with as much force as he could muster. His penis plunged balls deep into his mother's inner walls, forcing her enormous bare buttocks to collide against his waist, rippling with the force of Orion's thrust.

"Haahhhhhhhh~~~" Celeste let out a piercing scream in response to the sudden thrust, causing her body to jolt upwards before being forcefully pressed back down onto her son's hardened penis. The sensation was so intense that it elicited another cry from her lips, leaving her breathless and trembling with pleasure.

"AHHHHHHHHHH~~~" Her legs, which were positioned to stand and were divided by Orion's hands, suddenly collapsed onto his outstretched legs, causing her back to fall against Orion's chest. As a result, her hair brushed against his face, and she let out a gasp of surprise mixed with pleasure at the sensation of being so intimately intertwined with her son.
