

Village Head 66

Chapter 66 Proposal (R18)

"Pah~~" Orion relished his mother's pitiful state, as she slowly fell into ecstasy. He gently swept her hair away from his face, then carefully removed his scorching dick from her wet vagina. With a deep breath, he gathered his strength and thrust it inside once more, determined to bring her the most intense pleasurable that he was sure, she had never experienced before.

"Ahhhh~~" Celeste's heart-steering screams echoed through the room once more, her eyes filling with a misty haze as she locked her gaze on her two daughters, who looked at her with bewildered expressions, unable to grasp the depth of their mother's emotions and the sweet sensation, each thrust from Orion's hardened penis gave her.

Gina was transfixed, her eyes locked on her mother's wet dribbling vagina as her brother's stiffened penis made contact with each thrust. Never before had she witnessed something so intense. Her mother's moans filled the room, a visceral mix of pleasure and pain that left Gina unsure of how to react. Despite the ambiguity of her mother's cries, Gina couldn't look away, captivated by the bizarre exhibition.

Nonetheless, as Gina watched her mother's eyes become cloudy and dazed, and saw her slowly matching her brother's movement, bouncing her protruding buttocks up and down on his stiffened penis, she couldn't help but feel that her mother was enjoying the intense moment.

Meanwhile, Reena couldn't help but stare wide-eyed at the scene in front of her. She had seen various people perform kushi with one another, but she had never witnessed an instance as intense as this.

"aHH~~ aHHH~~ aH~~" Each moan sent a shiver down Reena's spine, letting her know that the pleasure expressed in front of her was as authentic as it could get. Unknowingly, her lips below began to moisten as she watched the fluids from her mother and brother Kushi stain the ground before them. Reena gulped nervously as one of the fluids landed on her cheek, sending a shock of sensation through her body.

Orion, however, was revelling in the pleasure as he drilled his mother's hole with powerful thrusts.

"PAH~~ PAH~~ PAH~~~"

Initially, he was the sole initiator of the movement, but as time passed, his mother began to join in and initiate the collision on her own. Now, his hands were positioned in her front, passionately grabbing and pressing her enormous motherly breasts with passion and desire. The rhythmic clapping of their flesh against each other soon became the dominant sound in their hut, with the only thing attempting to compete being his mother's moans.

"UUHH~~ AHHH~~" "PAH~ ~PAH~~"

And, of course, Orion loved every moment of it. Feeling his pulsing cock throb with more force, Orion yelled out, "I'm about to cum!" Within seconds of the warning, Celeste's eyes shot open as she felt her son's burning semen make its way towards her womb. "AAHHHHHHH~~" Without even giving his mother a moment to prepare herself, she could only scream out with undiluted pleasure as the intense burning sensation dissipated, settling deep within her stomach.

At this point, Celeste was certain that all her neighbours would hear her voice, but she couldn't bring herself to care if they were disturbed or not. All that mattered at this moment was how her son made her body shiver with an unknown pleasurable sensation that she had never before experienced or even knew existed.

"Haaaa... Haaaaa..." Celeste gasped for air as she collapsed onto her son's chest, trying desperately to regain her bearings. As her vision slowly cleared and the haze dissipated, Celeste saw her two daughters staring at her with a dazed, astonished expressions. She wanted to smile at their expressions because she knew she would have had the same look on her face if she had not been the one experiencing it. But since she had just experienced the most pleasant tingling sensation that she knew she could never put into words, she settled for these words, "Don't worry, I'm okay... your brother—" Before she could finish her sentence, Orion's hand suddenly gripped her face and turned it backwards, his lips locking onto hers in a passionate kiss.

Celeste's eyes widened in shock once more as she let out a muffled refusal, trying to break the kiss with an "mmmhhh...mmh." However, all her attempts were in vain as Orion wrapped his other arm around her, pulling her tightly against his body. His other hand still firmly held her jaw as they continued to kiss passionately.

Once they were done, and Orion pulled away from his mother's succulent lips, he watched as her face was filled with shock, disbelief, and uncertainty. Although Orion had anticipated her reaction, he still felt that it was a bit extreme.

With a raised eyebrow, he began to ask, "Mo..." but before he could finish, Gina's sudden outburst interrupted him, her voice laced with disbelief, "You kissed Mother?" Orion turned to his younger sister, only to see her utterly shocked expression, mirroring his mother's own. Seeking confirmation, he then glanced over at Reena, who wore the same perplexed look. With suspicion now creeping in, he redirected his gaze towards their mother, trying to decipher the truth from her expression.

Orion stared at his mother, who instantly locked her eyes with him. Slowly, he watched as her lips parted and she said, "You kissed me." His heart raced as he tried to read her expression, wondering if she was angry or pleased with the unexpected kiss.

As his semen leaked slowly down his mother's ravaged pussy, as she rode him firmly with her buttocks onto his penis, Orion couldn't help but feel a sense of unease. 'Did I mess up?' he asked himself, as he rode the wave of anticipation towards his goal of securing Kushi from his mother and sisters for only himself. He couldn't afford any missteps that might derail his plan. All he could do now was hope that his actions thus far had not been in vain.

Celeste's heart raced as she looked at her son, unsure of how to approach the situation. But despite her apprehension, she knew it was her duty as a mother to guide him through what he had just done. Taking a deep breath, she began to speak, "When a man tries to kiss a woman during Kushi, it's a sign that he wants to propose to her and be her partner. The same goes for women who do the same thing." Celeste hoped her explanation would help her son understand the gravity of his actions and the significance behind them.
