Chapter 96 Malaia's Other Hole (R18)

As Orion looked on, his breathing grew heavy with anticipation as Malaia delicately scooped up his precum, spreading it around his foreskin before plunging her finger into her mouth. He couldn't help but watch as she curiously examined his erect penis before focusing on his face and posing the question, "Do you want some help so it doesn't go to waste?" Malaia gestured towards another wave of precum, staining Orion's foreskin like a miniature fountain. Understanding the value of what was in front of her, Malaia eagerly offered her assistance in cleaning it up, knowing that she couldn't simply wipe it away. Not to mention, she was eager to savour the taste once more, as it was one of the few things she had experienced other than the Kalna and Lipry fruits.

Orion's mind jolted in response to Malaia's question, his memory flooding back with the realization that Sura and Ursa were with him. He exerted a little force to turn his head to the side and widened his eyes at the sight that greeted him. 'Why am I surprised? I should have expected this,' he thought to himself as he watched with the other half of his face planted in the grassy soil. To his amazement, Ursa and Sura were meticulously picking up the dry, fallen leaves from the soil and tossing them aside, only casting a few glances at him and Malaia who was currently riding him with her pronounced buttocks as though it was nothing at all. Their nonchalant attitude only increased Orion's hunger for more as he boldly stretched his hand and latched onto Malaia's bare, generous bottom.

Malaia couldn't help but notice Orion's lack of response to her offer, assuming that he had rejected her kind gesture. A deep sigh of disappointment escaped her lips, and she slowly attempted to get back on her feet, gradually regaining control of her lower body. But before she could do so, Orion abruptly latched his left hand onto her protrusive, left butt cheek. Confusion shrouded Malaia's face as she started to speak, "Don't w..." but her words were instantly cut off. "Then, if you don't mind, could you help me clean this off and make sure it doesn't go to waste?" Orion said, massaging Malaia's yellow-skinned ass with his hands, moulding and shaping it to his liking.

While her buttocks may not have been as large as Greta's or Grandma Celia's, there was still a certain allure that drew Orion towards them. Perhaps it was the unique hue of her skin or the tantalizing thought of being pleased by a species that was both a woman and yet not quite one in some way. Regardless, he found himself entranced by the curves of her backside, unable to resist the temptation to touch and explore.

Despite her surprise at Orion's sudden change of heart, Malaia didn't dwell on it for too long. Instead, she immediately nodded her head in agreement and drew her eyes towards his throbbing penis, eager to savour another round of his semen. Realizing that she couldn't simply rub the last remnants of semen off with her fingers without wasting some of it, she deftly gathered her hair behind her head before bending down to engulf half of Orion's gritty, veiny member in her mouth. Her lips and tongue worked in perfect harmony, massaging every inch of him as she skillfully brought him closer and closer to the brink of ecstasy.

"Uhhhh~" Orion couldn't help but moan loudly as he watched Malaia work her magic on his engorged manhood. He felt her warm, wet tongue swirl around his foreskin and mixed with his own precum as she licked him clean. As he squeezed and kneaded her juicy ass cheeks with his fingers, he knew he was rapidly approaching the point of no return. Suddenly, his manhood throbbed with an intense force, causing him to let out a primal scream as he finally gave in to his overwhelming desire and released a stream of hot, sticky semen into Malaia's waiting mouth.

While Malaia was almost done cleaning Orion's penis, she suddenly shot her eyes wide open as Orion held her head down with his right hand, shoving her head onto his member without any warning. As his veiny member plunged into her throat, Malaia gagged and reflexed, feeling his throbbing penis pumping a fountain of semen into her mouth. She struggled to keep up with the sudden surge of fluids and tried to swallow as much as she could, feeling overwhelmed by the sudden turn of events.

While observing the excess semen spilling from her mouth, Malaia made a deliberate move and pushed her head down, allowing Orion's member to pump the remaining semen directly into her throat, the constriction of which intensified the sensation. She could feel the warmth of his cum as it trickled down her throat, and she relished the feeling of drinking up the overflowing semen from his penis.

"Damn it!" Orion cursed under his breath, feeling a mixture of ecstasy and bliss at the intense pleasure he was currently experiencing. This was undoubtedly the most mind-blowing blowjob he had ever received, and as he looked down at Malaia, he couldn't help but admire the way his hot sperm had spilt out of her mouth and stained her lips. But what truly surprised him was the way she eagerly took him in, not even flinching as she gagged on his engorged penis and swallowed every last drop of his remaining semen. Despite the intensity of the moment, Malaia showed no signs of being disturbed, as if swallowing his semen was as natural as breathing.

As his orgasmic bliss began to subside, Orion's mind wandered to a curious thought: what would it be like to be intimate with a tree nymph like Malaia? Her incredible skill with her mouth had left him wondering if her entire body was capable of such extraordinary sensations, far beyond anything he had experienced back on Earth. As he gazed at her, he couldn't help but imagine the feel of her smooth skin against his, the way her supple curves would mould to his touch, and the unique pleasures that her mystical body might bring. The idea was both tantalizing and surreal, but the mere thought of it lit a burning flame within him.
