

Villain 131

Chapter 131: Supporting my Beloved Sister; Wanting to Put on a Show of Might?

[Hum!]

One after another, ancient corpses floated up and down inside the dimly-lit tomb, as if they had crawled out of their graves to absorb the essence of the sun and the moon.

The sight could terrify anyone.

If someone stepped into the tomb at this time, they would be shocked.

Wisps of greenish rays of light kept falling down like a waterfall.

The greenish rays of light merged together under the coercion of the Great Dao Laws and then turned into pitch-black [Great Dao Treasured Bottles] that disappeared into the body of the young man sitting in the center of everything.

His hair and robes fluttered even without wind.

The light in the surroundings gave him a mysterious, deep, and terrifying appearance.

Gu Changge sat there cross-legged.

Right now, his skin appeared as fair as white jade, with a luster that gave it a sense of translucency and mystique. Vortexes appeared behind him and absorbed the rays of light like there was no tomorrow.

There seemed to be countless gods and demons sitting cross-legged behind him, chanting scriptures of the Great Dao.

[Hum!]

Gu Changge's aura rose by the moment, and all kinds of energy appeared to temper and strengthen his body!

Strange and bewitching flowers rooted themselves in the Void, and gave off a sinister feeling even though they were supposed to resemble immortal flowers.

[Bo... Bo... Bo...]

The flowers bloomed and released a mighty essence that Gu Changge absorbed through his nose and mouth.

It was the ability of his Primordial Spirit after it was tempered by a secret technique that contained the perception and understanding of Primordial Spirit Cultivation.

[Hum!]

The Innate God inside his Sea of Consciousness kept on growing stronger and brighter; it resembled a statue made out of immortal gold that received a tempering, and now revealed a faint brilliance.

Before long, the horrifying scene inside the tomb disappeared.

Gu Changge broke through to the Pinnacle of the Heavenly God Realm in one fell swoop.

He opened his eyes and looked at the corpses in front of him — by now, all the corpses had lost all of their divinity and essence, and fallen to the ground like any other shriveled, rotting corpses.

Gu Changge showed a somewhat regretful expression.

He had expected the corpses to help him break through to the God King Realm, but only after he started absorbing their essence did he realize that many of the corpses were from people who died in battle and lost most of their divinity because of that.

'I overestimated the amount of essence I could absorb from these corpses. Although there are two Quasi-Supreme corpses, it's now clear that they were killed in battle, so they have already lost a lot of their essence...what a pity!'

Gu Changge shook his head and stood up; he was in no hurry to leave the tomb, though.

The gathering place of the aboriginal people he chose wasn't all that big, only a few thousand miles in radius, so it was clear that it was only a small tribe of the Ancient Immortal Continent.

It was this fact that made Gu Changge not worry about anyone linking the matter back to him.

No one would notice any abnormality with the ancestral tombs for a while. After all, who in their right mind would come to see if someone had dug up their ancestral tombs or not?

Even if someone did discover the matter, they wouldn't be able to estimate the timing for when it transpired.

After all, he wasn't the only youth wandering around in the territory of the aboriginal people.

What's more? Gu Changge's ultimate goal was the Great Mausoleum, the place that might have actual immortal corpses buried in there.

This tiny mausoleum was merely a place for him to brush up his "ancestral grave-digging skills." By the time someone discovers this matter, he would have already swallowed a few more mausoleums.

Gu Changge had more than enough time and means to pin the blame on Ye Ling's head.

After all, who asked Ye Ling to scam his way into the Ancient Immortal Continent?

By then, even if the people around Ye Ling could testify that he didn't do anything, it wouldn't help him.

Most of the cultivators would believe that the perpetrator was the Successor of the Taboo Inheritance, and since Ye Ling sneaked in, then it was possible that he had accomplices helping him take care of these matters.

Who would carry the blame if not Ye Ling?

Gu Changge's expression showed more and more intrigue as he thought about his future course of actions.

Afterwards, he carefully avoided the formations outside the ancestral tomb, looked at the tomb's entrance, and then 'took care' of the two corpses in front of him

After all, the two were Quasi-Sacred Realm masters, so he didn't feel well wasting them.

Afterwards, the Void in front of Gu Changge blurred and he stepped in it to leave through the route he prepared on his way in.

Leaving was, of course, easier than sneaking in, and no one noticed anything at all.

It didn't take long for Gu Changge's figure to reappear on the mountain outside the ancient ruined city.

"Master!"

Gu Changge's followers came out of their hiding one after another and greeted him.

"Did anything happen in my absence?"

Gu Changge asked, and then took the lead in turning into a brilliant ray of light and leaving the place.

If his guess wasn't wrong, then Gu Xian'er must have suffered quite a bit over the past few days.

Since she offended a major power like the Sea King Palace, no one besides Yue Mingkong would be willing to lend her a helping hand.

After some calculations, Gu Changge concluded that it was about time for him to show up. After all, they had been in the Ancient Immortal Continent for a good while, and he hadn't put on a show of might.

Some in the younger generation might not take him seriously if he didn't put them in their place.

More precisely, his sister was in danger, so it was only natural for him to go and support her as her brother, and people couldn't fault him for putting on a show of might for no reason, right?

It was about time he took the opportunity and beat some sense into the young'uns, lest some people forget their place and get in his way to court death for no reason.

"Reporting to Master, countless battles broke out in different regions over this period of time, since many opportunities surfaced everywhere and triggered competition between the aboriginal creatures and those from the outside world. In addition to that, Miss Xian'er was hunted by the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace, and killed a lot of Young Supremes who tried to capture her...but, things don't seem to be going too well for her right now..."

"I heard that the Sea King Palace used a massive formation to lock down the space in a ten thousand miles radius, and that made it impossible for her to escape."

At the same time, he showed a cautious expression.

He could tell that although his Master always treated Gu Xian'er with indifference, he never missed any news about her, so he was worried that Gu Changge might get angry after listening to the news.

Gu Changge never showed any expressions of joy or rage, so it wasn't easy for him to guess his mood and thoughts.

He quietly retreated after reporting the matter.

'Sure, the Favored Son of Heaven are destined for countless opportunities, but their ability to offend people is also unmatched!'

'This situation, however...it's quite surprising. Not only did the Sea King Palace set up a great formation to trap Gu Xian'er, but they also sent a bunch of Young Supremes to hunt her down.'

'With Gu Xian'er's current strength, she would be able to deal with one or two of them, but more than that should definitely be out of her ability.'

'Even though she's in great danger, I don't think that silly chick's character will let her use any of her trump cards until there's absolutely no way out.'

'That's beyond dumb! Who in their right mind wouldn't use a mighty weapon as soon as they need it, and let others bully them for no reason by putting themselves in a disadvantage?'

'As for this Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace...I am the one always bullying that lass, yet this thing was bold enough to corner my pup — she's courting death!'

Gu Changge couldn't help but narrow his eyes when he heard his follower's report, and an intrigue-filled expression covered his face.

Afterwards, the Void around Gu Changge blurred even more, and he accelerated more and more.

After all, Gu Xian'er was his personal Fortune Value machine, so how could he let others bully her like that?

What dog-shit was that Seventh Princess?

.....

[On a mountain shrouded in white mist right now.]

Lightning flashed and thunder crackled, resembling an ancient giant hammering war drums.

Gu Xian'er stood on the mountain with her dress fluttering in the wind, and looked ahead with a cold expression.

"Aren't you embarrassed to send so many people just to hunt me down?"

She asked.

Right now, although she was a little injured, her aura had already calmed down and returned to normal.

All sorts of creatures from the sea surrounded the mountain — with a few Young Supremes in the Initial to Middle Stages of Conferred King Realm, even.

If Gu Xian'er was made to face only them, she would still be able to come out on top since she had countless plans and methods to defeat them, but once the Seventh Princess joined the fray...

It was going to be a tough battle, and no one saw any possibility of Gu Xian'er triumphing over those who arrived to end her life.

She was only in the Middle Stage of the Conferred Lord Realm, and it wasn't hard for her to fight those above her realm, but dealing with the Young Supremes wasn't easy since the gap between them would be significantly narrowed.

Only those with a mighty talent and terrifying Mystical Abilities could proclaim themselves as Young Supremes, after all.

Gu Xian'er had countless trump cards up her sleeve, but those were prepared by her to deal with Gu Change, or for times when she encountered a powerful opponent that threatened her life.

For now, she didn't want to waste her trump cards in a place like this.

Although everyone thought that she was in a precarious situation, Gu Xian'er still saw a glimmer of hope for her survival.

“Stop talking nonsense! Everyone, kill her!”

Right then, a blond-haired Young Supreme shouted and took the lead in attacking her; his body resembled a big golden fish.

His body appeared to be made out of gold and finely-crafted, bright scales.

The Young Supreme raised his hand and summoned brilliant runes that rushed towards his front like a tide of terrifying stars about to drown everything ahead.

[Boom!]

A bunch of mountain peaks burst open in an instant and turned into powder, including all the greenery and ancient, wood creatures — everything turned to dust by that blow!

“So powerful!”

The disastrous might of the attack caused many youths to show a change in their complexion, and they questioned themselves if they could stop that attack if they were in the same realm as Gu Xian'er?

It was the might of a Young Supreme, and only another Young Supreme could stand their ground against him.

Another Young Supreme from another direction also rushed at Gu Xian'er; she appeared to be from the Shark-Dragon Family, with fish webs on her arms and a small, half fish scale covering her face.

She sent out a burst of sound waves that resembled divine lights of different colors and intertwined in the Void; the waves held the ability to slash through clouds and stones — souls, even.

Gu Xian'er glanced at the people in front of her with a cold and unyielding expression. If it wasn't for her lacking Cultivation Base, she believed that she could easily suppress this bunch of 'so-called' Young Supremes with one hand.

In other words...she held complete confidence in her invincible might, and perhaps, only Gu Change could be her opponent.

She wasn't blindly confident in herself, though, and had a complete understanding of her own strength.

[Hum!]

Rich, multi-colored rays of light covered her figure, and the Dao Bone her body regrew spewed bright, immortal intent.

Immortal rays of light dazzled the onlookers.

It was as if a true immortal sat cross-legged behind her and desired to break its shackles and suppress the entire world.

Right now, Gu Xian'er stepped in the air with a sense of detachment, and slammed a palm towards the two attacking her.

At the same time, when Gu Xian'er raised her hand, a chain of divine light densely packed with Spiritual Qi gave off innumerable divine might.

The incomparably vast divine might spread in the surroundings, and made everyone feel as if it could blast everything in front of it and defeat any and all attacks coming its way.

Gu Xian'er was taught by the old monsters of the Peach Village, so it was obvious that she held great skills. What's more? She was personally trained by the Great Elder of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace as well, so it was impossible for her to not be strong.

Right now, it appeared as if an immortal flower was trying to bloom in the Void.

Terrifying sound waves as gorgeous as fireworks disappeared in front of Gu Xian'er, only a centimeter away.

At the same time, a dazzling peach tree's phantom appeared in her Sea of Consciousness. Every flower on the tree resembled a world, and it released great Primordial Spirit Energy.

It was the Peach Demon's powerful and mysterious Primordial Spirit Cultivation Art which held unmatched might.

The Mystical Ability used by the female Young Supreme of the Shark-Dragon Family disappeared into thin air.

Chapter 132: Applauding her Wit; Directing Hatred at Gu Change!

[Boom!]

Gu Xian'er's eyes turned cold and wings made out of light appeared behind her as she approached her target at breakneck speed.

Her jade-like hands clenched into fists full of astonishing energy, and slammed down without hesitation.

Pale, golden Qi permeated the surroundings like the aura of an unparalleled beast!

“What?!”

The Young Supreme of the Shark-Dragon Family was shocked — she never expected Gu Xian'er to target her so suddenly. Her speed was so frightening that it accelerated her to the point she couldn't see Gu Xian'er in front of her.

[Puff!]

She mobilized her Spiritual Qi in a hurry to defend herself; at the same time, the fish scales on her arms turned into sharp heavenly knives that could cut through anything and countered Gu Xian'er's punch.

Alas! The sound of cracking bones reverberated in the surroundings.

The Young Supreme of the Shark-Dragon Family flew out with a sorrowful scream and a face full of horror.

The arms she raised to resist Gu Xian'er's attack were directly mutilated, and the impact of her fist caused almost half of her body to burst apart.

The cultivators in the distance couldn't help but take in deep breaths when they witnessed the outcome of their exchange. Although the girl in blue appeared thin, her strength was beyond their imagination.

"It won't be easy to handle her."

The other Young Supreme who attacked before showed a frown and took a few steps back. Sure, his Cultivation Base was stronger than Gu Xian'er's, but her defense left no way for him to take advantage of her situation.

This left him shocked and frustrated.

He was a Young Supreme in the Middle Stage of the Conferred King Realm, yet he couldn't do anything against a little girl.

The Young Supreme who joined hands with him even ended up with a gaping hole inside her body and kept spewing blood.

Although Gu Xian'er knocked her assailants back with a single blow, one couldn't see any trace of happiness from her expression. Instead, she grew even more serious as the white mist in her surroundings grew thicker and she couldn't see any end to it.

The mist contained ancient formations arranged by those from the Sea Families', and those formations covered everything in every direction.

For those from the Sea Families', this place had turned into their natural hunting ground.

"What a waste!"

A blue-haired figure riding a golden warhorse proudly stood in the sky and looked at the scene below with an indifferent and contemptuous look.

At the same time, she released an incomparably vast aura.

Although her figure didn't appear all that tall, her aura was far more amazing than those Sea Creatures who resembled hills in the sky.

A long spear with golden light flowing around it could be seen in her hand, and the aura she revealed made it clear that she was at the Pinnacle of the Conferred King Realm!

The Seventh Princess didn't act in person, and only watched the scene from the horizon, like a hunter watching its prey from afar. To her, it was all cat-and-mouse play.

"Get her for me!"

The Seventh Princess commanded again.

The reason she still didn't make a move was because she wanted to torture the other party and make her fall into despair, or she wouldn't be able to calm down the pain she felt after learning of her brother's murder.

She wouldn't be able to quench her thirst for revenge if she didn't murder the bitch in front of her in the most horrible way possible.

"Curse you! How dare you destroy my body?!"

The Shark-Dragon Young Supreme howled in rage and fear; her body was almost obliterated, so she decided to put some distance between her and her foe to heal and reconstruct her body.

She had underestimated Gu Xian'er's strength, and never expected that she wouldn't be able to match her opponent's physical strength, and that's what led her to suffer a massive loss.

Soon, she charged towards Gu Xian'er once more, with an ugly expression.

At the same time, another Young Supreme also manifested his true body with an overwhelming killing intent. Immediately, he turned into a massive fish that shook Heaven and Earth with every turn and wave of its figure.

In an instant, countless brilliant runes merged together to form a blue rune that released thunder, lightning, rain, and fog that covered Gu Xian'er..

The battle resumed and violent turbulences of energy spread everywhere as massive explosions went off.

Many of those from the younger generation couldn't stand the turbulent winds and fluctuations, so they went further back to save themselves.

"She was able to stop two enemies far stronger than her, and even gained the upper hand in their exchange...this girl in blue is too strong! No wonder she was able to slaughter wave after wave of people from the Sea Families." n0Vel*SB.c0mm*

"It's a pity that she offended someone she shouldn't have offended."

The battle in front of them shocked countless young cultivators — some showed expressions of regret, while others showed joy over Gu Xian'er's misfortune.

[Puff!]

Finally, Gu Xian'er's face paled and she spewed a mouthful of blood under the siege of the two Young Supremes and countless other warriors of the Sea Families. At the same time, her slender figure fell towards the mountain behind her like a kite with a broken string.

“Kill!”

“She’s injured! This is our chance!”

All the Sea Families’ powerhouses showed joy, and even the two Young Supremes couldn’t hold back their happiness as they launched their strongest offensives to take down Gu Xian’er.

[Boom!]

A divine flash overwhelmed Heaven and Earth, and the cultivators watching the scene couldn’t help but close their eyes due to the extreme brilliance.

“Now’s the time...”

A glint flashed past Gu Xian’er’s eyes as her fall halted and a golden rune appeared in her hand. Contrary to the thoughts of the attackers who believed she would fall, she released surging fluctuations in response to their offense.

The golden rune in her hand turned into a dazzling sword light that radiated a terrifying killing intent.

Although it wasn’t one of her actual trump cards, it wasn’t any worse. It was a talisman she obtained when she found herself in a precarious situation one time, and a blow from the talisman held the might of a True God Realm powerhouse.

All the Sea Creatures in front of her showed a change of expression when her attack hit them, and many of them collapsed on the ground with their bodies torn in half from the middle.

“You cunning b!tch! Let me see how you escape from me.”

Suddenly, the Seventh Princess snorted from above and her eyes glowed with lightning as she stared at the golden sword talisman in Gu Xian’er’s hand.

“Fall!”

She shot out the golden spear in her hand, and it tore apart the sky and pierced through the void in one fell swoop.

[Puff!]

Gu Xian’er’s complexion changed drastically, and she hurriedly protected herself with a top-tier defensive artifact.

Alas! The attack still shook her very core, and her face turned pale and bloodless.

Even the golden sword talisman in her hand, which she was about to use, shattered.

“Holy! That was just a random blow!”

“She’s too powerful! She can easily slaughter even a True God with that kind of might!”

Everyone in the distance was stunned and terrified by the might held by the Seventh Princess’ attack, so much so that those with a weaker will almost fell to their knees and fainted.

The Sea King Palace was the absolute overlord of the endless sea, and dominated over countless Sea Families.

They had never heard about the Seventh Princess' might, so now that they witnessed it with their own eyes, they understood why the Sea King Palace could stand at the top of the endless sea.

Not just anyone could reach the same level as her; after all, how many of the Young Supremes had broken through to the Pinnacle of the Conferred King Realm yet?

One blow from her contained enough might to obliterate a True God.

Even the Young Master of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, the one known as the reincarnation of a true immortal, couldn't be stronger than this, right?

As a Young Supreme, he was the leader among his peers, but the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace was a leader among leaders of the younger generation.

The slender and thin girl in blue definitely wouldn't be her opponent anymore.

Of course, the situation wasn't fair towards the girl in blue as she wasn't at her peak right now after being hunted by countless warriors from the Sea Families.

No one from the younger generation stepped forward to help her, and she had to face all of the Seventh Princess' followers by herself.

How could this be considered a fight?

It was straight-up bullying!

Countless young men felt pity for the girl in blue.

Her blood-stained beautiful face and icy expression gave birth to sympathy for her in their heart.

Appearance made a great impact on people no matter which world you were in.

"Alas! I am not strong enough. If I was strong enough, I might have stepped forward to save the beauty..."

One of the Young Heavenly Genius couldn't help but shake his head.

"I heard that her surname is also Gu, but it seems that the Young Master of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family won't show up; it's clear that he doesn't want to interfere in this matter."

"I heard that the girl in blue has a complicated relationship with the Young Master of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family — it's as if they hate but don't hate each other. It's because of this that the disciples of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace aren't helping her."

"Yeah, it won't be good for them if they somehow enrage the Young Master of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family by doing something like that."

Countless cultivators discussed the matter on the surrounding mountains. All of them held different opinions, and many couldn't help but sigh.

The girl in blue wasn't weak at all!

She just lacked the time to grow up, otherwise, she wouldn't be in a predicament when facing the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace.

Everyone felt pity for her.

"You are cunning in mind and cruel in methods at such a young age, so there's no way I will let you go!"

The Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace sat on her warhorse and pointed the tip of her spear towards Gu Xian'er after it returned to her hands, and said in an indifferent tone.

Her followers, including the two Young Supremes who stepped forward, returned in shame as they almost got done in by Gu Xian'er's attack.

They would be seriously injured if it weren't for the Seventh Princess' sudden intervention.

Deep feelings of gloom filled their eyes as they thought of this and glared at Gu Xian'er.

Today, they tried to capture a little girl with a Cultivation Base far worse than theirs in front of so many people, yet not only did they fail to capture her, but they almost died in their hands.

This compounded their feelings of humiliation, and flames of rage burned in their hearts.

"Oh! You won't let me go? You talk as if you are better than me, but aren't you just a bully using her superior numbers?"

Gu Xian'er flew into the sky and said with a flat tone.

She stood in the air with her barefoot, snow-like feet; her hair and robes fluttered in the wind, and she resembled a perfect fairy created by the Heavens, with a sort of immortal temperament that gave off the aura of the Great Dao.

She was still young, but she had a beautiful, peerless visage that couldn't be matched by any.

The discussions of the cultivators in the surroundings didn't escape her hearing.

Right now, she seemed unusually calm. Although there was a trace of blood trickling down the corner of her mouth, she didn't show any fear.

She recalled the words of her masters, and all sorts of thoughts went through her mind, and she calmed down.

Since nothing seemed to work, she had no choice but to use those extremely precious artifacts left to her by her masters.

The thought of wasting such treasures made her, a wealth-hoarding, petty girl, feel extreme pain in her heart.

After calculating her gains and losses, Gu Xian'er naturally put all the blame on Gu Changge's head.

"I am a bully? That's interesting."

The Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace stood high above with a calm and satisfied expression as she looked down on Gu Xian'er, and it was clear that she wasn't in a hurry to murder her prey — her eyes showed clear desire to tease and mock Gu Xian'er, and kick her when she was down.

“What would you amount to in front of me if your Cultivation Base wasn't as high as it is?”

Gu Xian'er asked.

“Since my Cultivation Base is higher than yours, then there shouldn't be any problem even if I kill you, right?”

The Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace couldn't help but sneer at her remark, and felt as if she had heard a joke.

“Right, there's no problem, but you better not let me survive and surpass you one day!”

Gu Xian'er looked back at her with a calm gaze.

“You will have no such chance! No one can save you today; little b!tch, did you ever imagine you'd fall into such a predicament when killing my brother?”

The Seventh Princess' eyes turned even frostier as she listened to her words, and she recalled the scenes she witnessed when she searched the souls of the beasts back then.

Her younger brother was brutally murdered by this little wench in front of her eyes, and his body was obliterated, while his screaming Primordial Spirit was wiped from the face of this world.

She was far too ruthless.

“He deserved to die.”

Gu Xian'er said without a change in her tone or expression.

Before, she did regret her impulsive actions for a bit, but now, she was calm.

With a sister like this, a brother with such a character would die at someone's hand sooner or later, after all.

“You are courting death...”

The Seventh Princess' expression turned frostier than ever before, and she glared at Gu Xian'er with gloom-filled eyes and a distorted expression.

Her followers knew full well just how much she doted on her brother.

She brought him to the Ancient Immortal Continent so he could chance upon some opportunity, yet what he chanced upon was eternal damnation!

This compounded the Seventh Princess' fury, and she swore to not let Gu Xian'er die easily — she would torture her to death!

“You chased me for so long, but do you dare to kill me now that I am standing in front of you?”

Gu Xian'er asked with a hint of mockery in her eyes.

“I know your surname is Gu, and I know you are the disciple of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace’s Great Elder, but so what? Who can stop me if I want to kill you?”

The Seventh Princess sneered and looked at Gu Xian’er as if she was looking at an idiot.

At the same time, she wondered what gave Gu Xian’er the confidence to stand in front of her with such calm?

Did she still have some route of escape left?

She was facing the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace, so how could she escape death now?

Murder was justified inside the Ancient Immortal Continent if one wanted someone to pay for someone’s life with their own.

“If you kill me, then my brother, Gu Changge, won’t let you go! You will die a death worse than mine.”

Right then, Gu Xian’er calmed down even more and simply decided to borrow Gu Changge’s tiger skin.

This way, she could shift some hatred towards Gu Changge and also prepare her escape route through a secret talisman that could create a channel through space.

Anyway, she wouldn’t feel the slightest amount of guilt even if everyone turned their blades towards Gu Changge’s throat.

She understood well that Gu Changge didn’t care about her, so she held no expectations towards him now that she had reached this point.

“Gu Changge...”

“Are you really trying to use his name right now?”

The Seventh Princess never expected Gu Xian’er to use Gu Changge’s name right now, so she couldn’t help but sneer.

“Do you think I don’t know about the deep hatred between you and Gu Changge? Why would he care about your life and death? Even if Gu Changge did show up somehow, do you think I am afraid of him? What reincarnation of a True Immortal? That’s nonsense and we will know if it’s true or false, won’t we?”

The Seventh Princess’ eyes froze over, and she immediately saw through Gu Xian’er’s words. If she wasn’t trying to beat Gu Xian’er down into despair, she would never talk so much nonsense with her.

Gu Xian’er sneered when she heard her words, and said with a calm tone, “You are nothing but an outsider, so how can you be confident about my relationship with Gu Changge?”

“If you dare to touch me, my beloved brother will definitely slaughter you! If you don’t believe it, then go ahead and try it; he’s just being held back because of something, or he would have come here already...”

Gu Xian’er couldn’t help but want to applaud her wit.

Chapter 133: Suppressing Her at the Bottom of an Abyss; How Dare You Target My People?!

Gu Xian'er's calm tone and indifferent expression made her words sound quite credible.

Of course, only Gu Xian'er knew the truth, and that filled her heart with a feeling of loss.

She hoped for her words to be the truth, but...she bothered Gu Changge so much that he no longer cared about her.

Moreover, she had no idea about Gu Changge's current whereabouts; the Ancient Immortal Continent was massive, so no one could tell where he might be scrambling for opportunities.

Her life and death meant nothing to him.

Gu Xian'er's heart and expression turned colder and colder as she thought about that, and then she watch the Seventh Princess with a look that said, 'Seventh Princess, you are finished.'

"You are courting death! If Gu Changge finds out you tried to hunt and murder me, all of you here will die without a single one getting away with their life."

"You think you are strong? You are nothing but a Pinnacle Conferred King — that might allow you to bully me, but before my brother, you are no different from an ant; he only needs one slap to obliterate you."

Gu Xian'er still spoke with a calm tone.

Her words seemed to reveal a lot of information, and made everyone think that Gu Changge was indeed mighty beyond measure...

At the same time, her words showed everyone just how much she admired and worshipped Gu Changge as his younger sister...

In reality, however, she prepared to escape using her hidden talisman while directing everyone's hatred towards Gu Changge.

Gu Xian'er wouldn't feel an iota of guilt even if the Seventh Princess put all of her hatred on Gu Changge's head.

She knew Gu Changge was plenty strong and wouldn't have any trouble dealing with the Seventh Princess.

Of course...even still, she was exaggerating her description of his might.

Her words caused a great sensation throughout the region and countless Young Heavenly Geniuses showed surprise and a change of complexion.

The ones showing the greatest surprise were the disciples of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace.

Back in the Palace, they only saw a complicated relationship between Gu Xian'er and Gu Changge, and nothing showed that they were close...

They couldn't tell reality from imagination anymore.

'Are her claims credible? Are they really siblings on good terms?'

Some of the disciples couldn't help but ask themselves with weird feelings.

The way Gu Xian'er spoke made it hard for them to doubt her words.

"I am like an ant in front of him? I would love to see his might then."

The Seventh Princess planned to torture Gu Xian'er before, but now, she didn't care about that at all.

Right now, her eyes showed extreme rage.

She, who walked unhindered since the moment of her birth, was made out to be an ant by Gu Xian'er!

She couldn't bear such naked insult, and wished to tear the calm and collected little wench's mouth to shreds!

"Since you wish to die today, then let me fulfill your desire!"

The Seventh Princess took the initiative to murder Gu Xian'er, and urged her warhorse to rush forward and stomp her under its feet. nove1.usB.c0M

[Boom!]

The golden warhorse trampled the sky underneath its hooves and charged towards Gu Xian'er.

It had a monstrous momentum that made it resemble a cavalry of a thousand warriors rushing towards its prey with boundless killing intent.

The clouds parted, and brilliant runes flickered throughout the formation set up by the Sea King Palace's underlings to create a pathway in the sky for the warhorse.

Golden flames sparked in all directions, and everyone in the surroundings could see the scene without any obstruction.

Golden light shone across the sky.

The Seventh Princess radiated a gallant aura and resembled an invincible goddess of war. She swept her spear in front of her, and it radiated a might that could make the Heavens fall!

[Boom!]

The surroundings boiled and mountains crumbled, and terror struck the hearts of the onlooking cultivators.

They never expected such tyrannical and boundless force of oppression to descend upon them once the Seventh Princess went all out.

"This is not good..."

Gu Xian'er's complexion paled further.

She made her move and used a supreme Mystical Ability that created a giant bell made of immortal aura around her; the bell released an earth-shattering sound that was so loud, it could obliterate anything in its path just with that.

[Boom!]

Immediately, the surroundings exploded and mountains crumbled and turned into dust that obstructed everyone's vision.

"She's too strong! That's the strength of a True God—"

"I don't think any other Young Supreme can rival the Seventh Princess now; with her strength, she can easily sweep through the Ancient Immortal Continent and subdue all her peers."

The exchange stunned everyone in the surroundings while terrifying fluctuations spread everywhere through the void.

"Argh..."

In the next moment, the giant bell crumbled and Gu Xian'er's figure flew out like a kite with a broken string, spilling blood everywhere in the air.

Her Mystical Ability was strong, but the Seventh Princess was far stronger than her.

This was no longer a fight she could stand, especially when the Seventh Princess went all out in rage!

"Die!"

The Seventh Princess still sat atop her warhorse and looked down on Gu Xian'er with a sneer. Instead of diminishing, the brilliance around her spear gave it an even sharper edge.

"I have no more choice..."

Gu Xian'er's face paled even more, and her blood and organs rumbled. A sweetness assaulted her throat, and blood gushed out from countless wounds on her body.

She never expected the Seventh Princess to suddenly go all out with the intent to murder her, and that fact maddened her.

[Boom!]

Right then, the Seventh Princess attacked again.

She glared at Gu Xian'er with a murderous gaze, and said with a tone that could chill the listener's heart, "Go to hell! A scourge like you can't be spared!"

The golden brilliance around her spear intensified, and dazzling runes flashed in the surroundings as the spear filled with murderous aura charged at Gu Xian'er.

[Boom!]

Another large area of a mountain range turned into powder under her blow, and her attack even affected countless cultivators in the distance who couldn't help but spew a mouthful of blood.

Gu Xian'er's face paled to the point of having almost no blood, and she prepared to use her trump card, but just then, she widened her eyes and froze on her spot.

She seemed to be dumbfounded and couldn't believe her eyes as she murmured, “Gu Changge, why are you...”

Gu Xian'er couldn't help but open her eyes wide, and felt that the scene in front of her was nothing short of incredible — it was as if she was in a dream.

High above in the sky in front of her, the void blurred and a youth in white walked out of thin air.

A terrifying tempest raged around him as he looked down on everything with eyes full of indifference, and waves formed by a golden light shot into the sky.

[Boom!]

A huge, powerful, and intimidating golden palm resembling the palm of a god materialized in the sky out of nowhere.

It was an unprecedented Mystical Ability.

The palm was like the palm of the Heavenly Emperor. Although it appeared simple, it was actually the embodiment of the natural laws of the world.

This was the Ancient Immortal Gu Family's famous palm technique, the [Heavenly God's Palm]!

The palm fell with a bang, and made it seem as if the sky was about to fall on everyone's head.

The golden spear trembled in response, and the terrifying pressure that descended contained endless power that could shatter the universe itself. [metaphorically]

Suddenly, the golden warhorse let out a mournful neigh.

[Puff!]

An extremely bright light bloomed in the void.

“How is this possib—”

The Seventh Princess' arm trembled violently, and the terrifying might bearing down on her almost made her arm burst as her face twisted in pain.

If it wasn't for her Rune Bones, her Natural Talent, glowing and protecting her right now, then half of her body would have exploded under the assault.

This made the Seventh Princess show a dramatic change in her expression that now showed horror and disbelief, so much so that...she felt her scalp tingle.

[Boom!]

The golden palm finally fell and golden light burst into the surroundings. Massive craters appeared on the ground as multiple mountains collapsed and smoke and dust rose into the sky.

Many onlookers failed to escape the aftermath of the attack and turned into meat paste.

“How dare you target my people?!”

A low and indifferent voice resounded through Heaven and Earth, and brought pin-drop silence to the surroundings.

All the cultivators stared at the figure walking out of the void with blank expressions, and felt horrified.

Many even felt chills go down their backs as their scalps tingled.

“We pay our respect to the Heir!”

Many disciples of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace on the surrounding mountains showed drastic changes in their expressions, and hurriedly greeted the newcomer with frightened and shocked expressions.

They naturally recognized the young man who suddenly appeared as the Heir of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace.

He was Gu Changge!

The Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace, who was at the Pinnacle of the Conferred King Realm, was severely injured under a single palm attack from him, and even had her warhorse explode.

Her right arm dripped blood, and one couldn't see any signs of blood on her pale face.

It shocked everyone.

Her current appearance formed a strong contrast with her previous aggressive, murderous, and arrogant appearance when she tried to murder Gu Xian'er from high above, and that made the hearts of the cultivators jump to their throats.

In an instant, she was knocked down from Heaven with a single palm — and it was just as Gu Xian'er described — without the slightest resistance.

She was no match for Gu Changge!

This stunned them and they wondered just how strong Gu Changge was?

Was it really as Gu Xian'er said?

Everyone from the Sea Families' showed a drastic change in expression. They rushed from every direction to protect the Seventh Princess and glared at Gu Changge with extreme vigilance.

The fact that he could appear here even with their formation locked down the surroundings showed just how mighty he was.

What's more? The scene they witnessed just now made their heads buzz, and their minds went blank — for a while, they had no idea about how to react.

Their invincible Seventh Princess had never suffered such humiliation, especially when it came at the hands of someone from the same generation.

Gu Changge was far too strong...the rumors they heard about him increased their vigilance.

'Interesting...'

Gu Changge appeared in the sky and looked down at the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace, who showed a fearful expression right now, and said, “This Gu has appeared, so why do you look like that, Seventh Princess?”

“Or is it that you only dare to bully this Gu’s little sister?”

He looked at her with a calm expression, but the deep, cold indifference in his tone deepened the fear in the Seventh Princess’ heart and her complexion showed a drastic change, too.

She had healed her injury, but the pain remained...it was difficult for her to forget that pain.

Although Gu Changge made a move out of nowhere and caught her off guard, it still showed her his might, and this made her frown.

She couldn’t suppress the fear in her heart, and a gloomy expression appeared on her face.

She had investigated and discovered that there were a lot of grudges between Gu Xian’er and Gu Changge, and that the matter even involved a massive secret of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family...yet now, Gu Changge showed up to help Gu Xian’er!

Why was that?

Was it really as Gu Xian’er claimed?

“Gu Changge, I admit that you are strong, but don’t think you are invincible! In a battle of life and death, it won’t be easy to tell who’s weaker and who’s stronger.”

Coldness flashed past the Seventh Princess’ face as she said those words, and then she tightly grasped her spear and golden runes circulated around it once more to give it a peerless edge.

She said through her attitude: ‘if you want to fight, then good, I will fight with you! I am not afraid to fight.’

As a leader among the Young Supremes, she couldn’t shy away from the fight, or it would be a huge blow to her confidence, heart, and face.

In her opinion, it wasn’t a guarantee that she would definitely lose even if Gu Changge was as mighty as he was.

Gu Xian’er, on the other hand, finally reacted and flew up from below with an expression of shock and disbelief.

She never expected that Gu Changge would actually show up, and this made her head buzz, and she didn’t know what to say.

She was bewildered, confused, delighted, excited, happy, and...

All kinds of emotions flooded her heart and made her fall into complicated thoughts.

Still, her expression recovered at a quick pace, even though her mind was turned upside-down.

She believed that Gu Changge didn’t care about her anymore, and wouldn’t give a damn about her life and death, yet right now, he was standing right in front of her.

This made Gu Xian'er feel an inexplicable peace of mind, and her thoughts turned her face somewhat red out of shame.

After all, she said all those words just now before everyone in the world, and tried to direct everyone's hatred towards Gu Changge, so wouldn't Gu Changge have heard her boasting if he was hiding among the crowd?

Gu Changge would probably die of laughter at her words, and then, he would most-likely not let her off easy.

Gu Changge naturally noticed Gu Xian'er behind her, but now wasn't the time for him to deal with her.

In fact, he had been on the scene for a while, but decided to hide in the void and not show up because he was waiting for the right moment.

After all, only when he made his move at the right moment would he be able to achieve the desired effect, or his actions wouldn't mean anything.

Gu Xian'er's calm remarks had stunned even him as he never expected a girl as foolish as her to use tricks to direct everyone's hatred to him.

Although the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace was nothing in his eyes, he still wished to throw Gu Xian'er down an abyss and suppress her there for three to five years.

Gu Changge's Stats

Host: Gu Changge

Halo: Destined Heavenly Villain

Weapon(s): Eight Desolate Demon Halberd

Identity:

Innate Bloodline(s):

Cultivation Base: Late Stage of the Conferred King Realm [Pinnacle Stage of the Heavenly God Realm]

Mystical Abilities:

Destiny Points: 15000

Fortune Value: 0 (Dark)

System Shop: Open

Warehouse:

Cultivation Realms

[CULTIVATION REALMS]

Chapter 134: To Kill or Not to Kill; You Decide!

"How's your injury?"

Gu Changge casually asked Gu Xian'er, who stood behind him, with an expression that didn't show much care for her.

Gu Xian'er, on the other hand, had her mind in a mess, so she responded to him with a snort.

"Huh? What kind of response is that?"

Gu Changge raised his eyebrow and asked.

Of course, he knew that Gu Xian'er only received some minor injuries and her wounds weren't as bad as they looked, but right now, even if she wasn't wounded badly, she had to pretend like she was.

Gu Xian'er wasn't dumb — she understood the meaning behind Gu Changge's words, and even though her voice still held its coldness, she said in a low and aggrieved tone, "The injury is serious; many of my bones shattered, and all of my internal organs were displaced! If you hadn't arrived in time, I would have probably died here alone, without anyone to collect my corpse..."

Gu Xian'er showed a sad expression and almost sobbed as she said those words, and that aroused the desire to weep in the hearts of those who witnessed her condition.

Many young men in the surroundings couldn't help but feel pity for her.

"Your injuries are that bad?! The Sea King Palace has gone too far!"

Gu Changge's expression remained unchanged, but his eyes darkened with every passing moment, and he said, "No one has ever bullied my, Gu Changge's, sister!"

Having said that, he praised the little girl's wit in his heart — she was indeed not stupid and knew to cooperate with him at the moment.

"Tell me, how do you want to die?"

After that, Gu Changge looked at the creatures of the Sea King Palace in front of him and asked with a dreadful tone.

The cultivators in the surroundings shuddered when they heard his words, and couldn't help but panic.

'How do you want to die?'

That sentence containing endless murderous intent sounded so natural when coming from Gu Changge's mouth.

They had a hunch that they would witness a bloody storm in front of them in a while.

The expressions of everyone from the Sea King Palace changed after they listened to his words, and their faces paled. The worst of their bunch were the two Young Supremes who tried to murder Gu Xian'er before — they couldn't help but take a few steps back.

After all, the person in front of them was Gu Changge!

As soon as he made a move, their Seventh Princess was injured and her mount exploded, even.

His strength was outrageous!

Before that, they were told that Gu Changge wouldn't stand up for Gu Xian'er; not just them, even the Seventh Princess never expected something like this.

“Gu Changge, don't go too far! If you insist on backing Gu Xian'er...”

Right then, the Seventh Princess opened her mouth with a gloom-stricken expression.

However, before she could finish her words, Gu Changge interrupted her and said with a playful expression, “Your Sea King Palace tried to hunt and murder my sister, and now you threaten me for helping her? Just what's the meaning behind your actions? Besides, you haven't answered my question, Seventh Princess; I asked, how do you want to die?”

Gu Changge's aggressive attitude irritated the Seventh Princess, and her expression uglified and she said, “Gu Changge, don't act like you can do whatever you want!”

“Aren't you a Young Supreme known as the Reincarnation or a True Immortal, so do you think bullying others suits your image? Do you really think my Sea King Palace is easy to bully?”

In her opinion, Gu Changge was a single person now no matter how strong he might be. Even if he summoned the Disciples of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace, it wouldn't be possible for him to go against the Sea King Palace and come out on top.

Their clash would likely end up in a lose-lose situation for both sides, allowing the rest of the Young Supremes to reap the benefits without putting in any effort, so she didn't want to confront Gu Changge right now.

As for avenging her brother? She would do that after finding another way.

However, what enraged her still was the fact that when Gu Changge arrived here, he didn't ask them why they were trying to kill Gu Xian'er, and directly asked how they wanted to die.

What's more? He repeated those words twice.

His arrogant attitude, contempt, and indifference left a sour taste in the Seventh Princess' mouth as she couldn't bring herself to hold back her rage.

After all, she was the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace who could dominate over countless Young Supremes and Geniuses of the Sea King Palace without much effort, and her identity wasn't any worse than Gu Changge's either, yet even then, Gu Changge held so much confidence and arrogance when talking to her.

How could she, a Young Supreme, endure such humiliating treatment?

“I am bullying you?”

Gu Changge couldn't help but laugh out loud when he heard her words, and said with even more indifference, “Sure, I am bullying you! So what are you going to do about it?”

Gu Xian'er, who was standing behind Gu Changge, felt her heart tremble when she heard his words and lowered her head.

When the people of the Sea King Palace were chasing after her, the Seventh Princess had a tyrannical and domineering attitude — she said that she was stronger than her so she could do whatever she wanted, or something like that.

And now, Gu Changge said similar words in front of all the creatures of the Sea King Palace, and that filled her heart with complex and unspeakable emotions.

Gu Changge standing in front of her...his figure gave her relief, and she felt like she wanted to rely on him even more.

Of course, Gu Xian'er understood that Gu Changge was merely putting on an act in front of the outsiders. The reason he came to save her was probably to make up for what he did back then.

Complicated thoughts tangled Gu Xian'er's mind. In fact, after Gu Changge took that blade slash from her, he no longer owed her anything more.

What's more? She had the means to escape safely, yet Gu Changge still showed up in front of her at a critical moment to stand up for her.

Yet she...she said such hurtful words to him before...

Gu Xian'er felt guilt and regret well up in her heart.

When she made claims about having a good relationship with him, she actually carried a bit of hope...a bit of hope for Gu Changge...she expected him to show up but never saw him in the surroundings.

“Gu Changge, since you are going to say that, then how should we settle the matter about your sister killing my brother?”

The Seventh Princess' expression sank and she gritted her teeth when she listened to his words, and questioned in a cold tone.

She no longer wanted to make peace with Gu Changge!

Strands of brilliance appeared around her golden spear as she clenched it tightly, and its sharpness intensified.

Gu Changge's clearly wasn't willing to give her any face — he was completely unrelenting.

“What are you going to do about it? Go down and accompany him?”

Gu Changge said.

After that, his figure vanished from its spot and he disappeared into the void. When he reappeared again, he was standing in front of the Seventh Princess.

The Seventh Princess' pupils shrank and a chill went down her spine — the onlookers showed a similar response, too.

Her followers showed a drastic change and shock in their expression. They didn't sense the slightest spatial fluctuation, yet Gu Changge was already standing in front of them.

What kind of speed was that?

Was he able to scale the horizon at godspeed, or did he figure out a way to shrink miles into inches?

In the next moment, before they could react, they felt a terrifying aura burst forth from the empty space in front of them; at the same time, they felt a bright sun press down on them.

“It was his honor to die at Xian’er’s hand! Since you dare to touch Xian’er, then you can go and accompany your brother in the underworld.”

[Boom!]

As Gu Changge said those words, a dazzling sword light appeared from the Void in front of him. The sword light released a clanging sound, and sparks splattered in the surroundings — the terrifying edge of the sword light resembled an Immortal Sword that could cleave the Heavens. nOVElUSb.COM

Even more sword lights bloomed from his fingers as he pointed them in front of him like a sword. Sword after sword appeared in the sky and hung above the world with the intent to fall and tear apart the universe itself.

Although the [Infinite Immortal Wisdom] was a supreme offensive technique meant for the Primordial Spirits, Gu Changge could bring forth its might in other ways, too.

It didn’t involve the use of Spiritual Qi though, but the application of the Natural Laws.

After all, [Transcendence] brought a qualitative change to his control over his countless Mystical Abilities!

These sword lights were formed by Natural Laws, and they could destroy any cultivator’s Mystical Abilities unless they could bring forth Natural Laws of the same level to resist him.

He could deal with these Young Supremes even without revealing his true might with these abilities.

They were nothing but fish on a chopping block in front of him.

Right then, countless of Gu Changge’s followers also appeared in the surrounding mountains and started to besiege the creatures of the Sea King Palace, killing many of them.

A great battle broke out.

[Chi!]

Gu Changge walked forward with a leisurely and calm expression.

His fingers fell down and the void in front of him blurred — the sword lights clanged, as if a terrifying Immortal Sword was unsheathed, and the sword intent hung high in the sky like a wispy, large galaxy.

[Puff!]

“Don’t...”

Blood splattered in the Void as a terrifying expression appeared on the face of the male Young Supreme with a golden fish body; his face paled, and he desperately tried to escape with feelings of regret and pleas of mercy.

His entire body turned cold, and even his Primordial Spirit trembled.

Right now, his entire figure was enveloped by a terrifying killing intent!

He wanted to resist, and for that, he sacrificed his strongest weapon that released all of its Mystical Power like a surging tide.

The divine light of the weapon surged like a flood, and held might that could obliterate False God Realm masters without issue.

Alas! The sword lights in front of him didn't budge. The might of his weapon was reflected without effort, and the sword light penetrated his forehead between his eyebrows.

The protective brilliance around his body and Primordial Spirit were punctured without a hitch, and his soul directly turned into nothingness!

“What use would my overwhelming might be if you could resist it?”

Gu Changge said calmly.

His Cultivation Base was still in the Conferred King Realm, but he had clearly surpassed the level that was possible for those with a similar Cultivation Base.

Of course, no one was shocked when the strength came from him.

After all, he was someone who could slaughter a True God in seconds.

‘This...is this Gu Changge's real strength?’

Gu Xian'er was stunned by the scene in front of her. She had always wanted to surpass Gu Changge, and also had some other goals, but she never expected Gu Changge's strength to have reached such a point.

What kind of swordsmanship was that? His ability was so terrifying, and it appeared as if he was born to kill.

“Dead...”

“A Young Supreme died just like that...”

The creatures of the Sea King Palace were stunned and frightened.

After all, the one in front of them was a Young Supreme in the Middle Stage of the Conferred King Realm, yet he died within seconds in Gu Changge's hands — even his Primordial Spirit was annihilated.

Gu Changge's methods scared them.

As a Young Supreme, that person had countless methods to save his life, yet in front of Gu Changge, he didn't get the chance to use even one, and was killed with such ease!

What did that mean? It meant that Gu Changge's strength had surpassed the level they could resist!

Who would dare to approach him when he had such a terror-inducing sword technique in his arsenal?

There was endless sword energy falling down on them, as if it wanted to drown everything.

'It's a sword art that can borrow the power of the Natural Laws...'

The Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace was horrified at this moment. The power of the Natural Laws, something that could only be displayed by those in the Sacred Realm, was right now working in Gu Changge's hands.

This realization sent a chill down her spine, and even her Primordial Spirit trembled.

Young Supremes had a lot of methods, true, but she never expected Gu Changge to have such a card up his sleeve.

From her point of view, Gu Changge had mastered an extremely terrifying sword technique that was beyond their fighting ability.

Right now, unless she could bring out something on par with it, she wouldn't be able to compete with him.

She estimated that a random sword light from Gu Changge would instantly kill off a normal True God Realm cultivator.

'Gu Changge must be consuming a lot of energy to support that terrifying sword art, so he wouldn't be able to hold on for long!'

'I still have a chance! I can take the opportunity to kill him!'

With that, she watched the female Young Supreme of the Shark-Dragon Family resist Gu Changge's assault for a moment.

Soon, unwilling and down in the dumps, the Young Supreme died in Gu Changge's hands as the sword light pierced through her body. The brilliance in her eyes dimmed, and her vitality disappeared.

Right then, a hideous expression appeared on the Seventh Princess' face as she realized she had no other choice left.

If she didn't kill Gu Changge now, then Gu Changge would kill her!

[Boom!]

"Die!"

Her figure turned into a golden flame, and her spear swept across the sky with a burning radiance, turning into a massive flash that could kill anything and everything!

This was her strongest move!

At the same time, she sacrificed a splendid red furnace. The moment she opened the furnace's mouth, a monstrous fire containing traces of Natural Laws gushed out and turned into a divine chain that could incinerate everything in its path.

"Scarlet Yang Furnace's replica?"

Gu Changge raised his eyebrows as he recognized the furnace as the famous imitation of the Supreme Artifact of the Sea King Palace.

The furnace released divine fire containing the power of Natural Laws, but he didn't care about it.

It was just an imitation, so no matter how powerful it was, it could only exert might at the level of the True God Realm in the hands of the Seventh Princess.

Soon, the battle between the Seventh Princess and Gu Changge broke out in front of the shocked gazes of the onlooking cultivators. Dazzling brilliance spread everywhere and mountain peaks collapsed one after another...it was as if stars were exploding in front of them.

The sharp, dazzling brilliance made the cultivators close their eyes!

In the next moment, the fake Scarlet Yang Furnace was blasted away with a clicking sound, and a blue-haired figure flew out, covered in blood; the figure had an embarrassing appearance and half of her body was blown apart.

She looked ahead with a face full of disbelief and horror.

“Why?!”

The Seventh Princess was frightened right now, and couldn't believe what she encountered.

Just now, she and Gu Changge went head-to-head, yet even with her strong physique, she couldn't do anything against him, and had her body almost blown to smithereens.

Moreover, even the Scarlet Yang Furnace was blasted away by Gu Changge's boundless sword energy, and the power of Natural Laws contained in her furnace couldn't compete against him, at all!

She believed Gu Changge's Spiritual Qi wouldn't last long because of that monstrous sword art, but that wasn't the case.

He wasn't affected even in the slightest!

This terrified her.

“It's because I am a lot stronger than you...a lot.”

Gu Changge showed a playful expression, and his figure disappeared from its spot. When he reappeared again, he was already standing in front of the Seventh Princess, who had a distorted face because of her unwillingness.

[Boom!]

She lifted up her previously-beautiful face, which now resembled a ghost's, and said, “Gu Changge, if you dare to kill me...”

She had lost her previous Princess attitude, and was thoroughly afraid of death. Her Dao Heart collapsed completely the moment she lost to Gu Changge.

“I won't kill you.”

Gu Changge interrupted her and then sealed her cultivation base and threw her directly in front of Gu Xian'er, who was still in a state of shock, and said with an intrigue-filled smile, “Xian'er, your brother, I, will let you decide her fate. To kill or not to kill, you decide.”

He directly let Gu Xian'er decide the Seventh Princess' fate.

Gu Changge's Stats

Host: Gu Changge

Halo: Destined Heavenly Villain

Weapon(s): Eight Desolate Demon Halberd

Identity:

Innate Bloodline(s):

Cultivation Base: Late Stage of the Conferred King Realm [Pinnacle Stage of the Heavenly God Realm]

Mystical Abilities:

Destiny Points: 15000

Fortune Value: 0 (Dark)

System Shop: Open

Warehouse:

Cultivation Realms

[CULTIVATION REALMS]

Chapter 135: Masters were Correct; All Good-Looking Men are Tigers!

[Boom!]

With her Cultivation Base sealed by Gu Changge, the Seventh Princess was thrown in front of Gu Xian'er with disheveled hair, a ghost-like face, and a blood-covered figure.

The scene frightened all those in the surroundings, and everyone fell silent.

“The Seventh Princess lost...”

All the Sea Creatures trembled and showed faces full of terror — right now, they felt as if the sky had fallen on them.

They couldn't believe the truth in front of them, as it terrified them to even think about it.

The Seventh Princess, an invincible figure with a terrifying and rare talent among the Sea Creatures whom none could rival suffered such a gruesome defeat as soon as she made a debut in the outside world!

This was the first major event in her life, and now, there was a chance that she might fall right here right now.

After all, many Young Supremes had died in Gu Changge's hands, so there was no way he would let the Seventh Princess go.

Everyone knew that Gu Changge was mighty — it was clear from his previous track record — but no one expected him to be so despairingly strong.

They couldn't help but panic right now.

“Master is a Reincarnation of a True Immortal, and he's destined to stand at the pinnacle of the world and look down on the billions and billions of stars of the Upper Realm in the future...how can a mere seventh princess of the Sea King Palace be Master's opponent?”

A Yaksha-like creature said with a cold smile.

As soon as he finished his words, he reached forward and tore the Sea Creature in front of him in half and made his blood pour like a fountain in all directions.

All the Sea Creatures in the surroundings turned pale after listening to his words, and clenched their teeth as they trembled.

Their mighty formation also started to dissipate at this moment, and the strong smell of blood wafted in every direction.

It was a tragic scene, with corpses scattered all over the place — most of them belonging to the Sea Creatures — and that made all the onlooking cultivators tremble.

They didn't doubt the fact that today's events would cause a massive earthquake throughout the world; the earthquake was sure to shake the entire Ancient Immortal Continent, and that's what terrified even the Young Supremes.

'Someone as mighty and indifferent as the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace chased after Gu Changge's sister with the intent to murder her, but Gu Changge intervened at a critical moment and slaughtered all the Sea Creatures to defend his weak sister.'

'Even the Seventh Princess was defeated, and she was defeated without any ability to retaliate.'

No one could estimate the heights Gu Changge would reach in the future.

After all, he crushed the Seventh Princess with ease, just with the raise of a single palm. From the beginning to the end, no one witnessed him use any of his trump cards!

This was what shocked all those from the younger generation, as they couldn't estimate Gu Changge's true strength.

“I am afraid he's already stepped into the Realm of Young Sovereigns! Since ancient times, only the Young Supremes who have surpassed all of their peers and stand unmatched...can be called Young Sovereigns.”

“Young Sovereign! What an awe-inspiring title!”

One of the cultivators couldn't help but say with a trembling voice; right now, he was in awe of Gu Changge.

Young Sovereigns had to prove themselves through combat, and in the future, they could move unhindered throughout the Upper Realm.

The Supreme Heritages of the Upper Realm would rarely give birth to such a mighty figure — it could take anywhere from a few hundred thousand years to a few million years to see such an existence come to being.

There was no doubt that Gu Changge's appearance and strength terrified all the cultivators in the surroundings, and they couldn't help but reach the same conclusion: 'Young Sovereign!'

One couldn't just become a Sovereign by having a good talent, they also needed to show proof of tyrannical, unmatched strength.

What's more? Young Sovereigns could easily cross more than two Realms without issue when in battle.

In front of Young Sovereigns, Young Supremes were nothing more than ants that could be crushed to death with a single stomp!

Didn't the terrifying might Gu Changge display in the battle just now show that he was already a Young Sovereign?

All the cultivators felt their scalps go numb, and even their mouths dried up and they couldn't bring themselves to speak.

"Young Sovereign! I haven't heard those words in countless years, and now, the Young Master of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family has reached that Realm..."

Many cultivators spoke with trembling voices, caused by awe and fear.

What kind of shock would go through the world once this news spread?

They already knew the answer to that.

Gu Changge would sit above their heads like a terrifying, unshakeable mountain if no other Young Supreme stepped into the Realm of Young Sovereign soon.

"Gu Changge, are you really going to hand her over to me?"

Gu Xian'er, who still had a face full of shock, couldn't help but ask Gu Changge with a hint of disbelief lacing her tone.

The Seventh Princess, whose Cultivation Base was sealed, was thrown in front of her like a piece of rag by Gu Changge.

Without her Cultivation Base to back her up, she was like a poisonous snake that had its fangs pulled out! No matter how vicious it might be, it held no lethality.

Gu Xian'er couldn't help but blink her beautiful eyes as she thought about the matter, and the suspicions in her heart grew stronger.

There were too many oddities.

Although she claimed that Gu Changge would come to save her, but...Gu Changge was definitely scheming something!

"Gu Xian'er, is this the attitude you should have towards your savior?"

Gu Changge looked at her and asked with a faint smile.

Her delicate, flawless little face that made her resemble a porcelain doll was still somewhat pale, with blood trickling down the corner of her mouth...she looked somewhat embarrassed and lovely.

“Gu Changge, do you think I will thank you? Don’t even think about that happening! I would have survived even if you didn’t intervene, humph!”

Gu Xian’er’s face showed her cold and arrogant expression once more, appearing as if she was asking for another spanking.

Her heart, however, bubbled with joy, and all the feelings of loss and sadness vanished in the blink of an eye.

Of course, she wouldn’t show any of that in front of Gu Changge — even if it meant saying a simple thank you — as she refused to admit defeat.

After all, who asked Gu Changge to be her greatest foe?

What’s more? She was stating the truth!

Even if Gu Changge didn’t intervene, she could have escaped safely.

“That’s not good! Gu Xian’er, you wouldn’t have forgotten the lesson I taught you that day, right?”

Gu Changge restrained his smile and casually looked at her. At the same time, his desire to throw her down an abyss and suppress her there for half a decade or so intensified.

It was alright when he didn’t mention that, but now that he did, Gu Xian’er’s heart burst with shame and rage.

Although she, Yue Mingkong, and Gu Changge were the only ones present on the scene that day, Gu Changge was the only one who had dared to spank her like that since the moment she was born.

“Don’t be complacent! I will smash your face into the ground one day, so you can understand what it feels like...”

A hint of visible anger could be seen on Gu Xian’er’s face as she muttered to him.

She no longer held the hatred she held for Gu Changge when she left the Peach Village, and the complicated feelings budding in her heart worried her.

Gu Xian’er couldn’t understand the emotions rising in her heart.

Sure enough, her Masters were correct! All good-looking men were tigers.

“Gu Xian’er, you are itching for another spanking, right? You, with your ability, want to smash my face into the ground?”

Although Gu Xian’er uttered her words in a low voice, she couldn’t prevent Gu Changge from hearing her.

His Dao of Mockery had always been a cut above the rest, and even the Great Elder of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace couldn't contain his anger at his words, so how could a little girl like her not jump with rage when he specially targeted her?

Right after that, Gu Changge changed his tone to an indifferent and merciless one, and said, "If you want revenge, then prove to me that you are good enough! Don't make me look down on you anymore. Otherwise, you will be the same as before, a little kitten following behind me all the time — you will have no chance at revenge..."

Gu Xian'er's expression froze as she heard his words, and she recalled how she used to cling to Gu Changge back when she was a child.

Back then, Gu Changge was always indifferent to her and never bothered with her, and that hurt her a lot, but she kept up with her clinging.

Gu Xian'er fell silent as she thought about the past.

If she heard those words from him before leaving the Peach Village, then she would be enraged and want to murder him even more, but now, she didn't hold much hatred towards him.

Instead, she was incredibly calm right now.

She could tell that Gu Changge was hiding some secrets regarding their past, judging from all of his recent actions.

Back then, everyone in the Ancient Immortal Gu Family loved her, but Gu Changge was the only one who treated her with indifference and alienated her.

Now that Gu Xian'er thought about it, she felt that there was something strange about the past.

Did Gu Changge really have a reason for doing what he did? Surely, he couldn't have dug out her Dao Bones with such ruthlessness just to satisfy his 'cravings,' right?

Why did he do it? Why did he not kill her directly, and left her with a chance to survive?

Even now, he was intentionally mocking her to increase her rage and hatred towards him.

Why was that?

One had to accept the fact that Gu Xian'er had an amazing brain!

She analyzed every detail and possibility one after another.

When they were at the Supreme Peak of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace, Gu Changge almost lost his life under her blade! Since he's so powerful, it wouldn't have been hard for her to dodge her attack.

Afterwards, Gu Changge treated her with indifference and alienated her, as if he was looking at a stranger when he looked at her.

But...why did he show up to save her when she was in danger?

Was this not contradictory to his actions?

“Gu Changege, don’t think you can hide it from me for the rest of your life! I will investigate what happened back then...”

“After that, I will take revenge in a dignified manner and defeat you fair and square!”

Gu Xian’er stared at Gu Changege without blinking. By now, she was sure that he was hiding something from her.

“Gu Xian’er, you think too much.”

Gu Changege gave her a perfunctory response after listening to her words.

His response, however, increased Gu Xian’er’s belief in her guess.

Gu Changege showed a natural expression on the outside, but on the inside, he couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

He could already guess Gu Xian’er’s thoughts, after all, everything was going according to his plans and expectations.

Right then, a System Prompt dinged in his mind.

[Ding! Gu Xian’er, the Favored Daughter of Heaven, has shown a shift in her attitude towards you! You earned 1000 points of Fortune Value and 5000 Destiny Points.]

Gu Changege’s showed a smile full of intrigue as he listened to the prompt.

A bloke-head was a bloke-head, indeed.

Just a little trick, and she was dazed and disoriented.

He really couldn’t comprehend how her Masters could rest assured that she would be able to avenge herself after leaving their side?

“Gu Changege, what should we do with her?”

Gu Xian’er then looked at the disheveled Seventh Princess in front of her and asked Gu Changege for his advice.

She thought that she had ‘figured out the truth,’ so her attitude towards Gu Changege changed a lot.

She no longer showed hostility towards him when talking to him.

“What did you call me?”

Gu Changege glanced at her after he heard her words.

Sure, he gave a lot of face to Gu Xian’er on normal days, but he also had a bottom-line. Right now, it was time to let her understand the hierarchy between the old and the young.

At the same time, Gu Changege tut-tutted in his heart over the fact that even though Gu Xian’er was getting chased and almost died, her Fortune Value didn’t stop rising.

Could it be that this arrogant lass had the talent to climb through Realms during arduous moments?

It was possible that his sudden appearance interrupted Gu Xian'er's opportunity to break through.

Of course, Gu Changge had Gu Xian'er's 'best interests in mind', and understood that it would be better for him to let her grow by herself — she needed to be tempered.

Bullying her like this was interesting, too, every now and then.

She was clearly enraged, but in front of him, she could only stand helplessly.

Gu Changge considered whether he should artificially arrange some 'opportunities' for her in the future?

Like putting the blame on her head? That could help her make some enemies and whatnot.

At that time, if she really couldn't survive, then wouldn't he have another opportunity to be a hero saving the damsel in distress?

“Gu Changge, dream on! There's no way I am going to call you Big Brother.”

Gu Xian'er showed an indifferent expression when she heard his words, and showed an expression that said: 'I have your deepest secrets in my grasp.'

At the same time, however, she felt a chill go down her spine and wondered if someone was scheming to murder her or something?

Gu Changge didn't care about her response and said with a playful smirk, “To kill or not to kill, that's up to you. Since I gave her to you already, I don't care about what you do with her.”

His words were simple, but he had considered a lot before deciding on that.

To begin with, the Seventh Princess was clearly a monster that gave experience points specially prepared for Gu Xian'er, so even if she couldn't get the experience right now, she would end up claiming it some time in the future.

In simpler terms, Gu Xian'er would need to face a similar situation in the future.

As for why he threw the decision back at her? It was because he wanted the Sea King Palace to go after her.

The Masters behind her won't sit idle if that happens.

After all, who told this little lass to pull that trick from before and divert all the hatred towards him?

Gu Changge was already treating her with magnanimity by not teaching her a lesson outright.

Was there any reason for Gu Xian'er to direct hatred towards him?

“Humph! I knew you weren't here to save me out of kindness.”

Gu Xian'er understood the meaning behind Gu Changge's words. The Sea King Palace was a Supreme Heritage that controlled countless Sea Families, so there was no way Gu Changge would want to take the blame for killing their Seventh Princess.

He had already done his best for her.

Therefore, when the time comes for the Sea King Palace's revenge, the one they will target will be her.
Gu Changge had a heart as poisonous as before.

“Your brother, I, came to rescue you from afar, yet this is how you treat me? Gu Xian'er, I feel chills going down my spine because of your ungrateful behavior!”

Gu Changge couldn't help but tease her. At the same time, he showed a smug expression that made it clear that he was proud of his actions and didn't care about what she thought.

Sometimes, he was very silly, and other times, he was demonic.

“Seventh Princess, don't you think now that I was right when I said all of you will die if you dare to touch me?”

Gu Xian'er looked at the pale, frightened, and desperate Seventh Princess in front of her, and asked with a calm smile on her face.

“Don't kill me, I am willing to surrender...”

The Seventh Princess begged for mercy with unwillingness and desperation.

Right now, all of her arrogance had disappeared into thin air. She was smashed down by Gu Changge and her Dao Heart had also collapsed.

Although she still held a final life-saving treasure, her sealed Cultivation Base made it impossible for her to use it.

She...had reached a dead end.

The lawless Ancient Immortal Continent had opened, and all those from the younger generation were fiercely competing for opportunities, so it was obvious that the winners would live while the losers would die.

“Too late! You should have thought about this when you rushed out to murder me.”

Gu Xian'er showed no change in her expression as a big black sword appeared behind her and broke through the air to slash at the Seventh Princess without hesitation.

[Puff!]

Blood splattered in all directions, and the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace died just like that!

Gu Changge's Stats

Host: Gu Changge

Halo: Destined Heavenly Villain

Weapon(s): Eight Desolate Demon Halberd

Identity:

Innate Bloodline(s):

Cultivation Base: Late Stage of the Conferred King Realm [Pinnacle Stage of the Heavenly God Realm]

Mystical Abilities:

Destiny Points: 15000

Fortune Value: 0 (Dark)

System Shop: Open

Warehouse:

Cultivation Realms

[CULTIVATION REALMS]

Chapter 136: Don't You Love Digging Bones; Lord Longteng Will Like You!

[Puff!]

Blood splattered everywhere as the black sword light broke through the air and directly destroyed the Seventh Princess's Primordial Spirit!

Although Gu Xian'er faced setback after setback at Gu Changge's hands, but under the guidance of the old monsters back at the Peach Village, she had developed an extremely decisive temperament.

Right now, she felt no need to show mercy.

The Sea King Palace tried to murder her, and the Seventh Princess chased after her for so long, so how could she let her live now?

Soon, the Seventh Princess died and her body turned into a huge golden fish filled with divine intent.

Countless black and white stripes covered her figure that resembled a KunPeng.

"Fortunately, she's not a humanoid or I wouldn't know what to say right now."

Afterwards, with a calm expression, Gu Xian'er directly dissected the fish and cut the meat right in front of Gu Changge.

She was far too familiar with the motions since it wasn't her first time doing it.

After the Seventh Princess died and turned into a massive fish, she was nothing more than good food and a source of nice materials in her eyes.

Gu Changge looked at her with interest, but didn't interrupt.

Although Gu Xian'er spent most of her life under her Masters' tutelage, he could tell from her swift motions that she hadn't dealt with just one young genius and wasn't a greenhorn.

Alas! She wasn't as rich as actual Young Supremes, so the first thing she did was to pocket the Seventh Princess's Spatial Ring, as if she was afraid Gu Changge would snatch it from her.

"Look at how poor you are! I can't stand it anymore."

Gu Changge couldn't help but shake his head with an expression of regret.

According to the normal trope, Gu Changge would be taking out some treasures to 'relieve' Gu Xian'er after seeing her poor and pitiful appearance, but there was no way Gu Changge would do that.

Instead, he acted as if he was relishing in her plight.

Gu Xian'er gave her a sideways glance with a cold and prideful expression, while her small and delicate hands kept on ravaging the fish corpse in front of her.

After a while, however, she took out a dazzling rune bone intertwined with gold and black brilliance, and threw it in front of Gu Changge while saying, "Here, take this! Don't you like digging bones like this..."

Gu Changge just stared at her.

Gu Xian'er wasn't afraid of him at all, and looked straight at him with a calm expression and a triumphant smile on the corner of her mouth.

Since she was begging for her beat time and again, Gu Changge decided to fulfill her desire.

Just like before, a golden palm as massive as a mountain pressed down on her and suppressed Gu Xian'er's rekindled arrogance.

[Piak!] ?

"Gu Changge, I will pay you back for everything sooner or later..."

Gu Xian'er was embarrassed beyond measure and gnashed her teeth while her face blushed and made her resemble a boiled shrimp.

Gu Changge, however, was too lazy to give a damn about her and brought his bunch of followers and left the scene.

Gu Xian'er, on the other hand, was left suppressed under the golden palm, and gnashed her teeth with hatred.

Although she ended up like that because she provoked Gu Changge, getting suppressed so easily was still a matter of great embarrassment.

The moment she broke free, she looked in the direction Gu Changge left and madly cursed him in her heart. She cursed him to choke to death on water, and then went to find a place for secluded cultivation.

The cultivators in the surroundings only watched from afar, shocked, as none of them had the guts to approach.

"If only I could find a pit for her..."

Gu Changge showed a somewhat regretful expression as he left.

He really wanted to find a ditch where he could suppress Gu Xian'er for three to five years.

After all, what use was having a sister if you weren't going to bully her?

[TL/N: I can attest to this as I have a toy in the form of a smol sister. I use her cheeks to relieve stress.]

Alas! A Favored Daughter of Heaven like Gu Xian'er was better left by herself since she had her own opportunities to grasp.

Gu Changge couldn't be bothered to interfere with her life.

Afterwards, he looked through his Attributes Panel. After all, he earned 5000 Destiny Points this time, and that wasn't a small sum.

— — — — —

Host: Gu Changge

Halo: Destined Heavenly Villain

Weapon(s): Eight Desolate Demon Halberd

Identity:

Innate Bloodline(s):

Cultivation Base: Late Stage of the Conferred King Realm [Pinnacle Stage of the Heavenly God Realm]

Mystical Abilities:

Destiny Points: 20000

Fortune Value: 3500 (Dark)

System Shop: Open

Warehouse:

— — — — —

'I haven't jacked myself up in a while and my Cultivation Base right now is somewhat low.'

Gu Changge swept a glance at this progress of the [Heavenly Immortal Dao Codex] and directly decided to upgrade his Cultivation Base since he was too lazy to waste his time on Cultivation and Enlightenment.

His Cultivation Base broke through a major realm in one fell swoop and he directly stepped into the Initial Stage of the False God Realm!

His [Heavenly Immortal Dao Codex] also reached the Ninth Layer as countless secrets of cultivation, Mystical Abilities, and whatnot flooded his mind from the Ninth Layer of the [Heavenly Immortal Dao Codex].

He achieved another qualitative leap in his Cultivation due to the blessing of his [Transcendence] talent.

'Next, I should be getting a surprise from Ye Ling, the man of the hour.'

A strange smile appeared on Gu Changge's face as he thought about this.

He sensed the trail of aura Yin Mei left for him and followed after them.

.....

Soon, the news about the death and defeat of the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace at Gu Changge's hands spread everywhere like a hurricane, and caused a massive sensation in various areas of the Ancient Immortal Continent.

All of those from the younger generation who heard the news were horrified.

Many felt chills go down their spine even though it was daytime and they were standing under the sun, so much so that even their souls trembled.

Many cultivators fell into shock and silence after they listened to the details of the matter.

Speaking about the cause of the incident, it was the younger brother of the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace.

In order to avenge her young brother for his murder, the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace called upon all of her minions from the Sea Families — several Young Supremes, even — and hunted a young girl in blue.

The girl in blue turned out to be related to Gu Changge, the contemporary Heir of the Heavenly Immortal Dao Palace.

The chase continued for several days, and in the end, the Sea King Palace even set up a great formation to trap the girl in blue.

Everyone thought that the girl in blue would die without a doubt, but an accident happened and Gu Changge appeared out of nowhere and killed several Young Supremes with his tyrannical means. The Seventh Princess took the initiative to use countless powerful moves, but she failed miserably and lost after a single move, and then her Dao Heart collapsed.

In the end, the Seventh Princess died and the Sea Creatures who accompanied her were slaughtered.

Gu Changge's strength during this battle shocked everyone.

Young Sovereign!

Those two words set off a storm when they spread everywhere, like a meteorite smashed into the deep sea.

Even the Young Supremes who firmly believed in their invincible might couldn't help but gasp for breath and show a change in their complexion.

Although the Cultivation Base revealed by Gu Changge was only in the Late Stage of the Conferred King Realm, he defeated the Seventh Princess — who had a reputation for being invincible and was in the Pinnacle Stage of the Conferred King Realm — in a single move.

The result sparked a terrifying wave, and many speculated that Gu Changge couldn't just be in the Late Stage of the Conferred King Realm!

After all, no one had seen him go all out.

The Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace was definitely among the top-tier Young Supremes in the Upper Realm — after all, how many from the younger generation had reached the Pinnacle Stage of the Conferred King Realm? — yet in front of Gu Changge, she couldn't gather an iota of strength to fight back, and was defeated within an instant.

At that time, Gu Changge showed an extremely terrifying sword art which contained an absolute edge, and that sword art killed countless Young Supremes with just a wisp of its sword energy.

Chills went down the backs of all the Young Supremes on the Ancient Immortal Continent, and they asked themselves if they could resist in the face of such might, and realized that they couldn't.

Gu Changge, the mountain pressing down on their heads, turned even bigger and heavier.

The realization made everyone gasp for breath.

“Young Sovereign...Brother Gu's strength is terrifying indeed! I feel ashamed to be mentioned in the same sentence as him.”

A young man surrounded by spirits and phantoms shook his head with a wry smile and showed a face full of shock outside an ancient cave oozing Immortal Mist.

He was Ye Langtian!

Over the last period of time, he was only able to break through to the Middle Stage of the Conferred King Realm, so he didn't hold much confidence in winning if he were to be put against the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace, yet Gu Changge easily obliterated her.

There was no need to even think about the chasm between the two of them.

“In the younger generation, I am afraid that no one can go against Brother Gu except for actual Young Emperor's and those Ancient Monsters...”

Ye Langtian couldn't help but sigh, but that didn't mean his Dao Heart was shaken and he was now afraid of Gu Changge...it was just that he could see the chasm that separated them. It wasn't something he could make up with hard cultivation or just his talent alone.

Recognizing reality and understanding the gap between them wasn't bad.

Similar scenes transpired in other areas of the Continent as well

Countless cultivators of the younger generation had come to the Ancient Immortal Continent — the Dao Heritages alone sent innumerable disciples, not to mention the unaffiliated cultivators from all over the world — and all of the were shocked when they receive the news about the death of the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace at Gu Changge's hand.

Finding a divine opportunity wouldn't shock them as much as this piece of news did!

.....

[In a corner of the Continent right now.]

A world-shattering war was taking place in the Eastern region of the Ancient Immortal Continent.

Large tracts of mountains collapsed and lakes dried up as the aftermath of the battle shook thousands of miles.

Two women fought without break.

A person with a picturesque face wearing a large, blue, silk robe fluttering in the wind moved her flawless hands and flew through the sky at breakneck speed with a dazzling brilliance surrounding her.

Brilliant silver light bloomed in her hands, like silver vines rooted in the Void, and dazzling light overwhelmed her surroundings and overturned everything.

It was Yue Mingkong's mighty Weapon Art...it could be called an Imperial Art.

Alas! The other party resisted it well.

Yue Mingkong showed an indifferent expression on the outside, but on the inside, she was burning with worry as she increased the intensity of her attacks.

The cultivators in the surrounding were startled by the bout between the two peerless Empresses who appeared to cover the Universe with their jade hands and desired to rule over everything!

Yue Mingkong's opponent was a tall and slender woman with dragon horns, a beautiful face, simple clothes, and a wild and domineering aura.

Her aura struck terror in the heart of the weaklings, and she resembled a young True Dragon.

As she waved her arm for attack, the Void in front of her burst open and a massive hole appeared.

Such terrifying might made the cultivators in the surroundings tremble with fear, and they suspected that they might be jolted to death and turn into blood mist if they approached them too closely!

Right now, Yue Mingkong was bathed in silver light.

She appeared to be in control of Heaven and Earth in her surroundings as she grasped endless might in her hands that made the world around her rumble.

Still, she didn't dare to confront her foe head on, and could only use subtle tactics to fight her opponent.

"Crown Princess Mingkong is mighty beyond measure! She doesn't show her strength on normal days, but right now, she looks invincible!"

The onlooking cultivators couldn't help but show shock.

Yue Mingkong's unprecedented aura shocked all of them, and they wondered if any of them could even compete with her?

"This is the might of Crown Princess Mingkong! The Young Master of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family was already strong enough, and now, his fiancée turns out to be no worse than him."

“Which Young Supreme is she fighting? That woman’s face looks unfamiliar, and I don’t think she’s even a Young Supreme from the outside world! Her Cultivation Base has already broken through to the False God Realm! It’s unimaginable.”

Countless cultivators watching the battle trembled in their hearts, not because they were timid, but because the battle in front of them truly shocked them.

Yue Mingkong was already so strong, yet she still couldn’t take down the dragon-horned woman in front of her.

Suddenly, a cultivator widened his eyes after he thought of something, and took in a deep breath and said, “She...couldn’t be from the remnants of the Ancient Immortal Tribe, right?”

“Didn’t the Ancient Immortal Tribe perish a long time ago? No matter how vast the Ancient Immortal Continent might be, it was nothing but a small continent back in the era it’s from. Could it be that some of the Ancient Immortal Tribe’s people survived and are living here?”

The person next to that cultivator was agitated and felt incredulous over the revelation.

The Ancient Immortal Tribe, as the name suggests, was a mysterious Race that existed during the Ancient Immortal Era.

If they really existed on the Ancient Immortal Continent, then...the rest of the aborigines of the Continent might just be their subjects, no...their slaves, to be precise.

The Ancient Immortal Tribe has always been shrouded in mystery, and the contemporary Non-Human Ancient Immortal Families were more or less their distant relatives related to them through their bloodlines.

This alone showed the horrors of the Ancient Immortal Tribe.

Of course, the main reason for their fear towards them was the fact that the Spiritual Qi on the Ancient Immortal Continent was far denser than the outside world.

If there were remnants of the Ancient Immortal Tribe living on the Ancient Immortal Continent, then their younger generation would clearly be much stronger than the younger generation of the outside world.

The dragon-horned woman in front of them was a clear example of what they were thinking about.

She looked to be in her early twenties, yet she was already in the False God Realm...she easily surpassed countless Young Supremes of the outside world.

Yue Mingkong could naturally listen to the words of the onlookers, but her expression didn’t change as she already knew the details in her heart.

As a regressor, she, of course, knew that there were remnants of the Ancient Immortal Tribe living on the Ancient Immortal Continent.

What’s more? The dragon-horned woman in front of her was a leader of the Ancient Immortal Tribe’s younger generation, or how else could she have stalled her for so long?

It's just that Yue Mingkong never expected to bump into someone like her from the Ancient Immortal Tribe so soon.

The other party had real dragon blood flowing through her veins, so her physical strength was through the roof. It was said that her ancestor was a literal True Dragon with Cultivation Base surpassing even that of True Immortals.

As a leader among the descendants of the Ancient Immortal Tribe's survivors, the strength of the girl in front of her obviously couldn't be questioned.

If the one in front of her was another Young Supreme, she would have already crushed them — they would never be her opponent.

What's more? Yue Mingkong knew about the existence of someone even more terrifying than her, an amazing and brilliant figure known as Long Teng, who was said to be the Reincarnation of a True Dragon!

He held extremely tyrannical strength, and a conceited temperament that made him believe that if he claimed to be the second strongest in the world, no one would dare claim to be number one.

In her last life, he left the Ancient Immortal Continent and challenged all kinds of talents from all walks of life in the outside world. He never tasted defeat...but then, he disappeared without a trace one day.

[TL/N: Daddy Changge nom-nommed him.]

But now, Yue Mingkong concluded that Long Teng probably encountered Gu Changge and dug his own grave in the process.

'If it weren't for the fact that there are too many outsiders watching our battle, and I can't use some of my cards, how could she hold me back for so long...'

Yue Mingkong couldn't help but frown.

Right now, she didn't know about what became of Gu Xian'er, so she was somewhat worried about her.

Right then, the dragon-horned girl in front of her suddenly spoke up in the language of the outside world.

“Outlander, your strength is commendable! If you and I were on the same level, I might not even be your opponent.”

“I will give you a chance to surrender to our contemporary Heir, Lord Long Teng! He will appreciate a woman like you...”

[TL/N: beach wants her Lordyboi to die a bit early in this iteration.]

Gu Changge's Stats

Host: Gu Changge

Halo: Destined Heavenly Villain

Weapon(s): Eight Desolate Demon Halberd

Identity:

Innate Bloodline(s):

Cultivation Base: Initial Stage of the False God Realm [Pinnacle Stage of the Heavenly God Realm]

Mystical Abilities:

Destiny Points: 15000

Fortune Value: 0 (Dark)

System Shop: Open

Warehouse:

Cultivation Realms

[CULTIVATION REALMS]

Chapter 137: Unqualified to Prance in Front of Gu Changge; Trembling Mind!

‘Lord Long Teng?’

Yue Mingkong’s indifferent eyes showed some fluctuations as she listened to the name from the dragon-horned girl’s mouth, and confirmed her identity.

Still, she didn’t care about her.

The Long Teng she knew — although he was scary and was also the best of the younger generation, and never suffered defeat after leaving the Ancient Immortal Continent, so much so that even some ancient monsters who removed their seals weren’t a match for him — disappeared in the end as if he never existed in the world, and turned into a strange case.

Many cultivators felt regret over his disappearance as they believed that Long Teng’s talent could help him stand at the pinnacle of the world in the future.

Alas! He disappeared out of nowhere, and all they could do was sigh.

Many thought that Long Teng strayed into some forbidden area or fell into some Spatial Crack that led him to some entrapped world, and died there.

But now that she had regressed, Yue Mingkong felt that it was very likely that Long Teng fell in Gu Changge’s poisonous hands.

She remembered that one day in her last life, Gu Changge whispered something to her, and seemed to have mentioned Long Teng.

Gu Changge held the [Immortal-Devouring Demonic Art] in his arsenal, so how could he not salivate after Long Teng’s True Dragon talent?

With his character, it was impossible for him to let Long Teng go.

[Hum!]

Yue Mingkong soon came back from her trip down memory lane; her indifferent expression showed no change as the palm of her hand fell and formed a plain, jade hand that was translucent and crystal clear.

This Imperial Art of hers was quite tyrannical, and although the Realm she showed on the surface put her in the Middle Stage of the Conferred King Realm, the might she gave off easily reached the level of True Gods, and that shocked everyone in the surroundings.

One had to accept that if Yue Mingkong was in the same Realm as the dragon-horned girl in front of them, then she would have definitely dominated her without a hitch.

The dragon-horned girl showed a change in her complexion. With her Cultivation Base and physical strength, she could hold back Yue Mingkong, but she realized that she was the one falling at a disadvantage.

She immediately brought out her tyrannical physical strength! Radiance flowed around her figure, and she resisted her foe's blow, but her figure still flew back in the Void.

“Lord Long Teng asked me to gather genius women from the outlanders, so if you willingly submit to him, then you will surely have a happy time.”

“Only a woman like you is qualified to be with Lord Long Teng!”

The dragon-horned girl kept on persuading Yue Mingkong while exchanging blows with her.

A mighty genius like Yue Mingkong was hard to come by even among their Ancient Immortal Tribe, so much so that they might not even see one like her in hundreds of thousands of years.

Dragons were promiscuous creatures, and their Lord Long Teng had a hobby of collecting beauties from all kinds of races, and that was why he sent his people to capture genius beauties from the outside world. Anyone who got one for him could go and claim some rewards from him.

It was a coincidence that she came across Yue Mingkong!

When she saw her for the first time, even she, a woman couldn't take her gaze away from her flawless features and felt sour and jealous in her heart, so how could a man not feel his blood rush to certain regions of their body after seeing her?

Right after seeing her, she made a move to capture Yue Mingkong as she believed that it wouldn't be all that difficult, but now, she couldn't help but feel anxious after exchanging innumerable blows with her.

Yue Mingkong was as strong as her, and that shocked her!

She couldn't help but envy the beauty in front of her.

It was because of this that she decided to persuade Yue Mingkong in a language that she could understand.

After all, their Lord Long Teng could be said to be the most terrifying talent their Tribe saw in the last few million years. The old fogies in the Tribe even said that their Lord Long Teng could compete for the title of True Dragon in the future.

True Dragon! It was a mighty existence that surpassed even True Immortals!

The dragon-horned girl held utmost respect for her Lord Long Teng in her heart.

It was a pity that her face wasn't good enough to enter Lord Long Teng's eyes.

"You better pray that this Empress' fiancé doesn't hear those words..."

Yue Mingkong couldn't help but shake her head and say with a hint of mockery in her tone when she recalled Long Teng's fate in her previous life.

What were these so-called Young Supremes and Ancient Monsters in front of Gu Change?

They weren't even qualified to prance around in front of him.

"Fiance?"

The dragon-horned girl's expression showed a drastic change when she heard those words, and she said with a fierce tone, "Your fiancé is going to die then! No one can escape after touching the woman desired by Lord Long Teng."

Yue Mingkong didn't give a damn about her threat, and kept on exchanging blows with her.

At the same time, she wondered if she should expose some of her cards and kill the annoying dragon-horned girl in front of her?

However, she decided not to do so.

Wasting her trump cards on the dragon-horned girl wasn't worth it as the dragon-horned girl probably also had means to counter her attacks.

The dragon-horned girl, on the other hand, realized that it wasn't possible for her to win against the woman in front of her, so she prepared to take her leave as well.

She had to report the matter to her Lord Long Teng.

The Ancient Immortal Tribe lorded over countless Families of aborigines in the Ancient Immortal Continent, so they already knew about the young talents from outside coming in to gain some experience.

The birth of the Immortal Treasure was actually just the remnant brilliance of a treasure released by the Ancient Immortal Tribe.

It was their plan to attract the outsiders.

The Ancient Immortal Continent had been closed for a long time, and the younger generations of the Ancient Immortal Tribe wanted to go out to experience the outside world, to gain knowledge and experience...at the same time, they would also raise the prestige of their Ancient Immortal Tribe.

Long Teng was the leader of their Ancient Immortal Tribe's younger generation.

The dragon-horned girl, on the other hand, wasn't even in the top ten of their younger generation, yet she could still look down on all the Young Supremes from the outside world.

After all, the Spiritual Qi and Cultivation Resources in the Ancient Immortal Continent were far richer than what the outsiders could chance upon in the outside world.

Not to mention the fact that there were countless hidden opportunities littered all over the Continent.

For example: 'Supreme Stone Carvings, Remains of Quasi-Emperors...and much more.'

This allowed the younger generations in the Ancient Immortal Continent to be stronger than the younger generations of the heritages outside.

The dragon-horned girl felt that they didn't even need their Lord Long Teng to take action if they wanted to take down the outsiders.

'Long Teng, eh...how long will he live in this life?'

Yue Mingkong watched the dragon-horned girl leave, but didn't pursue her.

She had a deep and calm expression as she watched her disappear in the distance. The most important matter was that she knew that...the dragon-horned girl was dead meat.

'Gu Changge wouldn't think that I deliberately pinned this hatred on his head, right?'

Yue Mingkong's phoenix eyes narrowed and she tried to guess Gu Changge's thoughts based on his temperament, 'That Long Teng, he probably won't even take him seriously...at most, Long Teng will be regarded as prey.'

Although she put down her guard towards Gu Changge, she still didn't fully trust him.

'Once bitten, twice shy.'

Yue Mingkong also had her own thoughts.

She knew that the relationship between Gu Changge and her was much closer than before, but all of that...

In her final analysis, the reason Gu Changge revealed his secret to her, cared about her opinion, gave her Mystical Weapons, and even said words that could move her heart was all because the current her held some importance to Gu Changge.

Yue Mingkong had a clear mind now, and wasn't someone who would easily be tricked by Gu Changge.

Of course...she hoped that she was just thinking too much, and that she just misunderstood Gu Changge in this life.

She wanted to be by Gu Changge's side, she wanted to be his virtuous wife who helped him through everything, she wanted to bear his babies, she wanted to help him rule the world, she wanted to look down on the Heavens with him, and she wanted to stand at the pinnacle of reality with him.

Of course, on the premise that...that there were no 'vixens' coming up to court death!

Gu Changge only belonged to her!

'Xian'er...'

Soon, Yue Mingkong recalled something important and her expression changed as worry clawed at her heart. Immediately, she left the place and rushed towards the place where Gu Xian'er was trapped.

Her followers followed after her, releasing a mighty aura as their entourage moved forward.

Over the last period of time, Yue Mingkong relied on her prophetic ability to grab countless opportunities before anyone else could find them.

She even took away an Imperial Inheritance.

She also planned to find an opportunity to break through to the False God Realm.

Her apparent Cultivation Base was in the Middle Stage of the Conferred King Realm, but that was all an illusion; this was something she learned from Gu Changge!

[Boom!]

Mountains fell in her wake one after another.

It didn't take long for Yue Mingkong to bring her large group of followers to the area where Gu Xian'er was trapped by the Sea King Palace.

Along the way, she didn't see the figure of the cultivators who were previously watching the hunt, and that puzzled her.

Considering Gu Changge's temperament, there was no way he would care about Gu Xian'er's life and death, so she had to do something.

Although she knew that Gu Xian'er would survive the ordeal, and even achieve a breakthrough during a critical moment, that didn't mean Yue Mingkong wouldn't worry about her future sister-in-law!

[TL/N: you are in for a surprise, Yandere-chan.]

When she reached her destination, she smelled a strong smell of blood. Countless mountains and forests had collapsed and turned to dust; massive cracks could be seen everywhere on the ground, and the earth appeared to be ruined.

"Princess, we have received some news...Young Master Changge, he just left this place not too long ago..."

"The Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace died at Young Master Changge's hands!"

"Miss Xian'er...she's not in danger anymore. Young Master Changge appeared at a critical moment and saved her...all Sea Creatures of the Sea King Palace were slaughtered here."

Right then, one of Yue Mingkong's followers stepped forward and reported the details to her with respect.

"No wonder there's so much blood here! It turns out that he was here."

Yue Mingkong was shaken by the news, but soon reacted and gave the woman behind her a nod in response with some feelings of relief.

At the same time, she felt the birth of a complicated emotion in her heart which she had never expected to feel...to think that Gu Changge would show up and save Gu Xian'er.

He even killed the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace here.

If she remembered correctly, then the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace was murdered by Gu Xian'er when she set off to avenge herself for her grievance, and then the Sea King Palace set out to hunt her down.

Yet, in this life, the Seventh Princess of the Sea King Palace died so fast?

What's more? Gu Xian'er didn't achieve a breakthrough at a critical moment either.

The timeline was going in a different direction, and it wasn't a good thing.

'Did I really misunderstand Gu Changge...just what is he planning...'

Yue Mingkong rubbed her glabella and wondered.

To be honest, right now, she was shaken to her core.

One time could be a coincidence, but what about a second time?

What about a third time?

Could it be that her previous life's experience made her develop deep prejudice against Gu Changge in this life?

Was she projecting the one she experienced in the previous life on him, and thinking that he had a reason for everything he did?

Right now, Yue Mingkong couldn't help but question whether the past life she experienced was even real?

If it wasn't, then why were her experiences so real...every day, every night, every emotion, and everything else...she remembered it all so vividly.

If it was real, then did it mean that this life and world were different from the one she lived previously?

'Forget it, this matter will become clear sooner or later! But what could have caused the Gu Changge in my previous life to be different from the Gu Changge in this life?'

'His attitude towards Xian'er' is indeed different from before. It seems I will have to take an opportunity to go to the Ancient Immortal Gu Family and ask Uncle Gu about it after I am done with the Ancient Immortal Continent.'

Yue Mingkong soon left the place as well. Since she had come to the Ancient Immortal Continent, she wasn't willing to just raise her Cultivation Base to the False God Realm — she had other, higher ambitions.

.....

[East of the Ancient Immortal Continent, Near the Aboriginal Ruins.]

[Puff!]

A black and white divine light containing a strange power rushed towards a terrifying beast, and turned it into a hideous-looking bag of bones.

A young man with a handsome face took action at lightning-speed and eliminated the beast standing in front of him.

“So strong! Brother Ye’s strength amazes me!”

The scene shocked the young men and women behind him.

The man in front of them, who went by the pseudonym of Ye Lin, truly amazed them. The fact that they ridiculed him before made them wonder if they were blind before?

“Brother Ye’s strength is advancing by leaps and bounds! Only a short period of time has passed, yet he’s already about to break through to the Conferred King Realm...”

A woman with petite and delicate features said with a tone full of emotions — she was dressed in a feather coat, btw. [TL/N: OV HAR BREATHRAN!]

“That’s right! What’s more? He can kill False God Realm beasts in one blow! Even many of the Young Supremes aren’t able to achieve such a feat.”

A red-dressed charming woman with foxtails moving behind her pursed her lips and smiled. At the same time, she curved her eyes, and gave off a seductive appearance.

The young man in front of her couldn’t help but smile with satisfaction when he heard her words.

After all, the purpose behind him taking the initiative to show his strength in front of everyone was to posture.

What use was strength if one wasn’t posturing with it?

How are you supposed to capture the hearts of maidens if you aren’t going to put on a show of might?

Along the way, all they saw were majestic mountains and lush ancient forests. There were massive trees with their branches spread in all directions, covering the sky.

This place had even denser Immortal Mist streaming around. Clouds made of the mist floated around in all directions and displayed their strong vitality.

They could feel countless mighty auras hidden in the mountain ruins; Spiritual Qi intertwined and released gorgeous brilliance in the area that was filled with fighting spirit.

There were ancient artifacts releasing divine brilliance, and Immortal Herbs releasing their medicinal fragrance that permeated the surrounding thousands of miles.

Many cultivators robbed whatever they could get their hands on.

Even ferocious beasts in the Heavenly God Realm would appear every now and then. Terrifying fluctuations of energy would shoot towards the sky and shake everything when they appeared.

It was a chaotic battlefield. Be it the cultivators from the outside, or mighty aborigines, all of them were lost in battle.

Under Ye Ling's leadership, however, their group gained a lot of opportunities! What's more? They were even able to turn a calamity into fortune, and reached their current spot without encountering any disaster.

'Turtle Bro, is the good stuff the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation left for me really there? Why is it in the territory of the aborigines? Won't I be courting death if I go in there with my current strength?'

Ye Ling looked at the outline of the city in the distance and felt that it wouldn't be easy for him to break in unnoticed, so he asked the old ghost in his pendant.

'Humph! Where else do you think it's going to be? Ye Ling, the Heavenly Venerate was a character from the Ancient Immortal Era, and he was good at manipulating time itself, so it's a matter of course that he's already taken care of preparing everything for you.'

'Sure, there are many strong figures ahead, but you are the Successor of the Heavenly Venerate, so how come you are such a coward...'

The old turtle in the pendant spoke with disdain.

Ye Ling finally put down his worries after listening to the old turtle's words. After all, the old turtle was reliable most of the time, and wouldn't throw him into a pit of fire.

It's just that the matter involved the secrets of the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation, so he had to make sure the others wouldn't get a whiff about it.

Ye Ling would never reveal his secret, or he would become a massive piece of meat desired by a lot of powerhouses who would do anything to get their hands on him.

After thinking for a while, Ye Ling thought up a plan and then winked at Yin Mei and Chi Ling.

To him, these two women weren't outsiders.

Chi Ling and Yin Mei understood his signal, and immediately waved their hands to have their followers retreat.

"Ye Ling, what's the matter?"

Chi Ling questioned.

She couldn't understand why Ye Ling took the initiative to lead the way and brought them here.

"I need to go to the ruins in front of me and get some stuff done! If you believe me, you can sneak in with me, too."

Ye Ling said seriously.

The two women had countless tricks up their sleeves, and had, in fact, taken good care of him on the way.

Yin Mei's eyes rippled slightly, and she said without hesitation, "I believe in you!"

Actually, she already knew that Gu Changge had already reached their location, and wasn't far from her.

Because of the [Great Dao Treasured Bottle] implanted in her Primordial Spirit, Gu Changge could pass instructions to her without needing any other medium.

Ye Ling was moved when he saw that Yin Mei put unconditional trust in him.

They were about to sneak into the territory of the aborigines of the Ancient Immortal Continent, and the dangers of their actions couldn't be estimated, yet Yin Mei didn't hesitate at all in her response...it showed how much she trusted him.

And soon, Chi Ling, too, chose to agree as she, too, believed in Ye Ling's character.

After that, Ye Ling explained his plan and arrangements to the two, and how they would sneak into the ruins.

[On a nearby mountain peak.]

Gu Changge's figure appeared out of thin air and he looked at the ruins in the distance with a smile on his face.

It didn't take him long to find his destination with the trail left by Yin Mei.

For this operation, Gu Changge decided not to bring any of his followers, as it would be stupid to be too high-profile at this time.

'According to Yin Mei's report, Ye Ling's opportunity should be hidden inside those ruins, but it will take him some time to sneak inside.'

'I will have enough time to sneak in and find their ancestral tombs and finish my job.'

As he thought of this, the Void in front of Gu Changge blurred and he stepped inside it and disappeared.

With the previous experience, he was far more familiar with the process of locating ancestral tombs and sneaking in.

Gu Changge's Stats

Host: Gu Changge

Halo: Destined Heavenly Villain

Weapon(s): Eight Desolate Demon Halberd

Identity:

Innate Bloodline(s):

Cultivation Base: Initial Stage of the False God Realm [Pinnacle Stage of the Heavenly God Realm]

Mystical Abilities:

Destiny Points: 15000

Fortune Value: 0 (Dark)

System Shop: Open

Warehouse:

Cultivation Realms

[CULTIVATION REALMS]

Chapter 138: Damn Others or Die; Just Lending a Hand!

Gu Changge's plan was simple: 'he would devour the resources in the ancestral tomb and leave first.'

He wouldn't have a problem breaking through to the God King Realm after he's done with the ancestral tomb here.

He even felt that by the time he left the Ancient Immortal Continent, he would be able to condense the consciousness of the Sacred Realm and achieve the Quasi-Sacred Realm.

At that time, under the blessings of [Transcendence], his control over the Natural Laws would deepen, and he would even be able to use the Laws of Heaven and Earth at will.

Of course, it was based on the fact that he could absorb enough 'resources' from the ancestral tombs of the Ancient Immortal Continent.

Still, this place was different from the outside world, so even if he was found out, he would still be able to shift the blame on someone else's head and wouldn't need to worry about anything.

If he did something similar in the outside world, then the entire world would definitely turn into a frying pan on the verge of bursting.

Gu Changge wanted to develop himself in secret, but it wasn't all that easy. Although he had a scapegoat in the form of Ye Ling, it didn't mean that he could do whatever he wanted — he had to prepare a lot in order to keep everything under wraps.

"This trip to the Ancient Immortal Continent...I am afraid it's going to end up as a lesson for me on how to rob tombs..."

Gu Changge mumbled to himself.

Soon, a [Divine-grade Aura Concealment Talisman] appeared in his hand and a hazy brilliance shrouded his figure as brilliant runes intertwined around him.

His entire figure disappeared in the Void, and he quickly went towards the ruins in front of him.

Although he had only done something similar once before, he was already quite familiar with the entire process...he might just have talent in this 'field.'

Afterwards, he avoided the areas with strong auras and continued forward.

After arriving all the way in the depths of the ruins, Gu Changge walked out of the Void. In front of him were dilapidated palaces and pavilions shrouded in flowing, gray mist.

There were many mountain peaks of different sizes releasing different colors of light.

Suddenly, the Void trembled!

[Puff!]

Blood splattered everywhere with the sound of two swooshes!

The two creatures responsible for guarding their ancestral tomb widened their eyes in horror, and felt a chill between their brows.

After that, the brilliance in their eyes dimmed, and a hole appeared between their brows!

A sword light flashed past them and their Primordial Spirits perished!

Instant death!

Gu Changge retracted his fingers and walked out of the Void with a casual expression and went past them.

After a while, the two bodies fell on the ground with a bang.

With his current strength, he could easily deal with two creatures who were only in the Quasi-Sacred Realm.

With his Void talent, he could approach them in complete silence, too.

After devouring the White Tiger Family's innate talent, he turned it into a peerless sword art with the power of Natural Laws using the [Infinite Immortal Wisdom]!

Even a real Sacred Realm master might not be able to avoid grievous injuries if targeted by his sword art.

Gu Changge looked up at the ancestral tomb in front of him with a satisfied expression.

The ancestral tomb in front of him appeared small, but it was kept in great shape and the mounds inside it varied in size and shape.

Although it was covered in an ancient atmosphere, it still released a mighty aura that showed off its prosperity from eras gone by. There was no doubt that quite a few strong ones were buried in the ancestral tomb.

Some of the 'graves' were cracked open and released splendid brilliance...

Gu Changge knew at first glance that the brilliance was the essence of the ancient corpses buried inside. At this moment, their essence surged like a tsunami.

A slight smile appeared on his face.

There was a huge amount of 'cultivation resources' buried inside, and even he would salivate over them!

'Hoh! This doesn't seem to be an ordinary mausoleum — these wouldn't be the tombs of their Heavenly Geniuses, right?'

Gu Changge was surprised by the writing on the tomb in front of him; the tomb wasn't an ancestral tomb, but the ancient tomb of one of their Heavenly Genius.

As he walked past the square stone monument, he felt a monstrous energy and fighting spirit left behind by the said Heavenly Genius.

He had to accept the fact that even he felt that the group of people buried here were strong.

'There sure are great things in the Ancient Immortal Continent! Those who can be called Heavenly Geniuses here are all extraordinary creatures for sure. It must be even more so when talking about the people from the ancient eras.'

Gu Changge felt an unyielding fighting spirit from the tombstone in front of him — the aura it released seemed to be rushing towards the sky.

'Chen Que of the Hundred Forbidden Battle...'

'Holy Dragon King, Yuan Xu...'

'Bearer of God's Blood...'

.....

Gu Changge recognized some of the ancient writing as he walked past the tombstones.

Of course, he held no curiosity towards the origins of the geniuses buried here. They were already dead, and it was a fact that they couldn't achieve the pinnacle they would have been destined for otherwise!

What use was their overwhelming fighting spirit now?

'Damn others, or die.'

In Gu Changge's eyes, they were nothing more than 'cultivation resources.'

[Hum!]

After that, Gu Changge sat down cross-legged.

Soon, a black light appeared behind him and turned into a pitch-black [Great Dao Treasured Bottle] that dimmed the light of the world around him — the sun, the moon, and the stars dimmed in his presence.

After that, dark clouds seemed to crack in the corners of the mausoleum.

Countless suns, moons, and stars fell from there and illuminated the ground below and covered Gu Changge's figure!

He appeared to have a supreme visage carved out of crystal-clear, translucent jade, and his bones appeared to have black light flowing through them.

It was as if he was telling the world that: 'even if the Heavens collapse, I will live as an Immortal! Even if the world collapses, I will live as an Immortal!'

The tombs were cracked open and the bodies of the ancient Heavenly Geniuses floated out of them one after another — both men and women.

All of them had sturdy figures, with different shapes, and robes that made it clear that they were from different eras...their powerful talents were bare for the world to witness as their figures rushed towards the sky.

They went up and down under the starlight as the [Great Dao] swallowed their essence and refined everything in Gu Changge's body.

His Primordial Spirit and Cultivation Base improved at a rapid speed!

.....

While Gu Changge busied himself with refining and absorbing the essence of the Heavenly Geniuses in the ancestral tombs of the aborigines, Ye Ling's still stood outside the city with frowns as they wondered how they could sneak inside without anyone discovering them.

Chi Ling and Yin Mei had instructed their followers to stay there and wait for their return.

After the Ancient Immortal Continent opened up, a massive number of cultivators from the outside broke in and caused a great impact on the livelihood of the aborigines.

Because of this, it wasn't easy for the outsiders to approach their territories. Once they were seen, they would find themselves embroiled in a life-and-death battle.

Of course, there were quite a few daring young masters who dared to take the risks and went to the territories of the aborigines to steal all kinds of ancient Mystical Arts and Treasures of the Continent.

"Chi Ling, this is too dangerous! Although Ye Lin isn't weak, you are infiltrating the den of the aborigines, and they have countless True Gods, God Kings, and who knows, even Quasi-Sacred Realm masters..."

"You should reconsider this matter!"

Some of Chi Ling's followers spoke up at this time, and a handsome man with peacock feathers couldn't help but suggest to her with a frown.

He was named Kong Yang, a Young Genius of the Peacock Family. He once lost to Chi Ling and turned into her follower, but in fact, he was actually one of Chi Ling's admirers.

His strength wasn't much weaker than Chi Ling's, but he was still willing to become her follower, and that showed his thought process. [TL/N: foaking Lolicon Peasizedcock.]

Alas! Chi Ling had to pretend not to see through his intentions.

"I believe in Ye Lin's strength, so there's no need to say any more about this matter. You will stay here! If we end up in some accident, then you must escape."

Chi Ling said with a shake of her head.

She trusted Ye Ling and didn't believe he would do something dumb.

Kong Yang frowned when he heard her words, and said, “Chi Ling, why does Ye Lin want to go to the ruins out of nowhere tonight? He didn’t say anything about it before, but now, he wants all of you to believe him? What if he’s trying to harm you?”

“If I am not wrong, then he most definitely knows what opportunity is hidden in there, and that’s why he brought us here! Now that we are here, he doesn’t care about the others but wants to bring the two of you along...just what does he want?”

He had spoken out before as well and displayed his dissatisfaction and contempt for Ye Ling, but Ye Ling slapped him in the face and humiliated him in front of Chi Ling...Kong Yang still had that account to settle with Ye Ling.

Along the way, he paid attention to Ye Ling’s actions and behavior, and realized that Ye Ling was doing something weird and hiding many secrets from them.

The most important matter was the fact that Ye Ling seemed to know where to seek opportunities and how to avoid dangers; it was as if he knew in advance where all the dangers lay.

What did that mean?

It meant that Ye Ling had a goal and had planned for this a long time ago! Otherwise, why was he so adept and seemed to be in control of everything?

It’s just that Ye Ling kept all of them in the dark.

Kong Yang didn’t want Chi Ling to be tricked by Ye Ling.

Alas! Chi Ling’s next words made him clench his fists and ground his teeth with unwillingness.

“Kong Yang, your worries are unnecessary! I completely trust Ye Lin.”

Chi Ling shook her head and said with an unchanged expression. There was no way she would change her mind just because someone asked her to.

After that, she left and went to discuss the matter with Ye Ling.

“Dammit!”

“Ye Lin, damn you! I want to see just what you are plotting!”

Kong Yang’s expression turned ugly and livid as he stared in Ye Ling’s direction with rage and coldness in his eyes.

If Ye Ling wasn’t plotting anything, then why was he so sure that whatever he wanted was in the ruined city ahead?

On the other side, Ye Ling and the old turtle ghost in his pendant discussed the matter for a while, and then came up with an idea.

‘According to the old ghost’s words, there’s indeed a seventy percent chance of success. I didn’t even think about the Power of Reincarnation! With the mysteries it contains, we will be able to explore the place...’

Ye Ling was overjoyed.

The old turtle in his pendant, on the other hand, showed a strange expression as it muttered in its heart, 'Forget it! The Enlightenment Platform left behind by the Heavenly Venerate holds great importance, and I reckon the original guardians should still be around.'

'If everything goes well, then they should choose to submit to this brat, Ye Ling, but if it doesn't, then things will get somewhat difficult.'

The old turtle didn't know too much about the details of the matter, all it knew was that it was some kind of test left behind by the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation for Ye Ling.

If he could pass this test, he would get an extremely powerful boost.

"Ye Ling, let's go."

Right then, a charming, mind-numbing voice sounded.

[TL/N: Yin Mei is a top-tier vixen who can play the innocent girl and seductive beach all at the same time.]

Yin Mei also came over with gentle steps that made her resemble a lotus — she had already commanded her followers to do other things.

On her face she held a smile that could move anyone's heart, and her curved eyebrows gave her an extremely bright appearance.

Ye Ling lost his bearings for a moment, but soon recovered and smiled.

The scene didn't escape Chi Ling's gaze, and she couldn't help but frown. Speaking of which, wasn't Yin Mei the fiancée of Ye Ling's late brother, Bai Lie? How come Ye Ling now held such an attitude towards Yin Mei?

Although she didn't say anything about it, she couldn't help but shake her head in her heart.

Compared to the first time she met Ye Ling, the current Ye Ling gave her a sense of incomprehension.

Could Bai Lie's death be related to Ye Ling?

Right now, Chi Ling couldn't help but fall into deep confusion in her mind.

Could it be that Bai Lie was murdered by Ye Ling and Yin Mei together?

Why else would the two sneakily exchange glances along the way?

From what she could see, Ye Ling indeed seemed to have a different kind of emotion towards Yin Mei, or he wouldn't have gone to rescue her from danger even at the cost of exposing his identity.

The most important matter was the fact that Ye Ling didn't show any concern for Bai Lie, his virtuous brother who always valued him, and helped a lot in his cultivation — he seemed to have no respect for Bai Lie.

Instead, it was as if he wished for Bai Lie's death!

This shook Chi Ling's long-standing trust in Ye Ling, and she couldn't help but give birth to doubts in her heart.

"Chi Ling, why are you lost in a daze? We have to go!"

Ye Ling's voice interrupted Chi Ling's thoughts and brought her back to her senses. She decided to leave the matter for later. After all, Ye Ling didn't seem to have any ill will towards her.

After that, the three of them turned into brilliant rays of light and quietly sneaked towards the large ruins ahead.

At the same time, Ye Ling sacrificed a pitch-black stone that released a burst of brilliant runes that wrapped their figures from all directions.

"This can hide our aura! As long as we don't make any large movements, ordinary creatures won't be able to find us."

Ye Ling said to Yin Mei and Chi Ling, who were following behind him.

Of course, he noticed Chi Ling's expressions from before, but he didn't want to explain anything.

After all, he was now certain that Yin Mei held feelings of affection for him, and he, too, held similar feelings for her.

The two had fallen in love with each other!

He reckoned that even if his Big Bro Bai Lie was alive, he would, at most, sigh and not blame them for it.

Ye Ling didn't believe there was anything wrong with his feelings.

[TL/N: holy foak! This dude is more delusional than I imagined him to be.]

With how awesome he was, wasn't it only natural for him to attract the hearts and minds of favored daughters of heaven?

Ye Ling merely wanted to lend them a hand.

.....

[Inside the city.]

While Ye Ling and the others sneaked into the ruins, a group of old men with strange markings on their bodies gathered inside an ancient, magnificent hall with surging Spiritual Qi far denser than the outside.

Stars could be seen crumbling in their eyes as seas turned into nothingness, and all sorts of terrifying visions flashed past.

All of them were mighty, so much so that even the weakest among them was a Quasi-Sacred Realm master!

Still, their appearance wasn't human.

Some had wings, others had vertical eyes on their foreheads, some were covered in black pain, others were covered in gold that made them resemble immortals made out of gold.

The only thing common about them were the strange ruins flashing in their hands.

If one looked closely, they would realize that the ruins were floating up and down, and held extremely mysterious appearances...

Gu Changge's Stats

Host: Gu Changge

Halo: Destined Heavenly Villain

Weapon(s): Eight Desolate Demon Halberd

Identity:

Innate Bloodline(s):

Cultivation Base: Initial Stage of the False God Realm [Pinnacle Stage of the Heavenly God Realm]

Mystical Abilities:

Destiny Points: 15000

Fortune Value: 0 (Dark)

System Shop: Open

Warehouse:

Cultivation Realms

[CULTIVATION REALMS]

Chapter 139: Matters Getting More and More Interesting; The Treasure-Hunting Rat Didn't Disappoint!

"The Successor of the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation has appeared!"

An old woman with snake-eyes spoke up with a cold voice that could make the listener's scalp tingle.

In her hand, she held a rune that shone with divine brilliance.

"That's why I have called everyone here."

Another tall, old man with a pair of goat-like horns on his head said with an Immortal-like tone.

His voice, however, held a tinge of coldness.

The rest of the old men nodded and said with cold expressions, "It seems that the prophecy was true! He's here to take away the remains of the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate. I never expected it to take such a long time! I always thought that the slave seal was just an ancient rumor as no one could prove or disprove its existence."

"I never thought it would actually manifest now! It's unbelievable."

Speaking of which, an old man with an eagle's beak said with a gloomy expression as he felt the absolute suppression from the depths of its soul.

The rune on his arm burned, as if it was branded on it, and no matter what he tried, he couldn't erase it.

It hadn't manifested in eons, and that made them feel that the existence of the slave seal was just a rumor that they didn't need to pay any attention to.

All of them had the same belief until today...right now, they were shocked as this was the first time they felt the existence of the rune.

The absolute power of oppression bearing down on their souls could easily dictate their life and death.

It was the effect of the slave seal, which could be used to suppress all of them!

The slave seal was planted deep in their bloodline and was passed down through the generations until it reached them.

After knowing the truth of the matter, they were shocked, enraged, and full of disbelief!

The only thing they wanted to do now was to...slaughter the Successor of the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation.

How mighty were their ancestors?

Even the Tribe with True Dragon bloodline that now lorded over the Ancient Immortal Continent had to be polite in the face of their ancestors, yet...

Who would have thought that their ancestors would be suppressed by the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation and get slave seals planted in their blood and soul?! All that just to guard the opportunity the Heavenly Venerate left for his successor generation after generation!

Now that the Successor of the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate appeared and was approaching them, they couldn't help but be alert for the first time in forever.

After all, no one would want to surrender to a stranger they never met before, and dedicate everything to him.

Who would want something like that?

A retard, maybe.

It was for this reason that all of them gathered in a rush to discuss the matter. No matter what method they had to use, they had to make sure that the Successor of the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate died as soon as possible.

"The Enlightenment Platform of the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate is unanimously controlled by our major families now! Countless eons have passed, so who will be willing to let go of it? There's even a saying that the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate might have left a Cultivation Abode nearby, hiding countless treasures and heritage of the Venerate..."

"Perhaps, that Successor is the key to that Cultivation Abode!"

The faces of the old men brightened as they discussed the Cultivation Abode and plotted to grab the opportunities laying therein.

The relics of the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate ought to belong to them, they believed.

What dog-shit was a Successor who appeared out of nowhere now? How dare he covet their treasures?

“The Successor of the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate must be from the outside world, so he shouldn’t be that old right now. According to our agreement with the old monsters outside, the strongest who can enter from outside will, at most, be in the False God Realm.”

“That’s to say the Successor of the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate won’t be beyond the False God Realm. As long as he dares to come here, he will surely be buried here.”

The old men plotted with sneers on their faces and envisioned the happy ending.

True, it might not be possible for them to personally take action and slaughter the ‘bastard’ because of their slave seals, but that didn’t mean they couldn’t send someone else to deal with him.

Once the time arrived, they would set up a Confinement Formation and then wait for the so-called Successor of the Heavenly Venerate to walk to his death!

After all, they had affiliated themselves with countless other races of the Ancient Immortal Continent, so it won’t be hard for them to find someone in the True God Realm, or even God King Realm, to capture their target.

“Keep an eye on all the unfamiliar faces, especially those who came from the outside world! I would rather kill the wrong person than let the correct one get away.”

The old freaks started to give orders to their subordinates and put the entire city of ruins under martial law.

Only by killing the Successor of the Heavenly Venerate would they have a chance at freedom.

[Boom!]

Soon, Spiritual Qi surged in the sky and the atmosphere turned terrifying as all of them spread in every direction.

Astonishing auras appeared high in the sky one after another, and began to inspect all suspicious figures in their territory and surrounding areas.

At the same time, a large group of aborigines banded together near the ruins and cast a Confinement Formation under the command of their Elders to trap someone.

.....

‘What the hell’s going on? Did they discover us?’

Ye Ling, who quietly sneaked the ruins with Chi Ling and Yin Mei, showed a drastic change in his expression.

He felt several powerful auras pass above them as their overwhelming Spiritual Sense swept across all directions with the intent to raze everything to the ground.

Their sudden movements shocked him.

If he wasn't courageous enough, and hadn't experienced countless disasters before, he wouldn't be able to stay calm right now.

Right now, Ye Ling would have backed down if he didn't have enough guts.

“Why are there so many powerhouses all of a sudden? What are they looking for?”

Chi Ling asked with a frown.

The figure that swept past them was at least in the True God Realm, so if they weren't using special means right now, all of them would have died tragically.

“I don't know! Could it be because of me? Were our whereabouts exposed? But we hid ourselves so well that it's impossible for anyone to discover us! Could it all be a coincidence...”

Ye Ling asked with a puzzled expression.

For a moment, he forgot about his identity as the Successor of the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation.

It was the old turtle inside his pendant who showed a cold and thoughtful expression as he realized something.

“It looks like they are going to capture someone...”

Yin Mei suddenly said with a worried expression.

Ye Ling, too, started to worry after seeing her expression, and couldn't help but turn his face towards her with a smile and said, “We might be overthinking, Yin Mei! It might just be a coincidence, and probably has nothing to do with us.”

Yin Mei shook her head and didn't say anything, but the worry on her face didn't diminish.

Of course, she wasn't worried about Ye Ling — she didn't give one damn about what he said.

The sudden appearance of so many powerhouses, including those in the True God Realm and beyond, made her think of Gu Changge when she saw that they were looking for someone!

After all, she knew full well what Gu Changge was up to right now! It was very likely that he had sneaked into the depths of the ruins long before them.

So...could it be that Gu Changge's actions were exposed? She wondered.

Were the aborigines enraged over Gu Changge's actions and searching for him right now?

Yin Mei couldn't help but worry about him.

Speaking of which, if Gu Changge died here, then her restraints might disappear, and that would be a matter of joy for her, but for some reason, she couldn't help but worry about Gu Changge.

What's more? Gu Changge had instructed her to provoke the relationship between Ye Ling and Chi Ling in secret. After Ye Ling sneaked into the ruins, she was supposed to wait for the critical moment, and then 'accidentally' attract the attention of the powerhouses hidden in the ruins to capture them.

Such an order was tantamount to telling her to go kill herself! If she wasn't careful, then there would be a high chance for her to lose her life.

After all, once she attracted the powerhouses and exposed their trail, she would also fall into a dangerous situation, but since Gu Changge commanded her to do so, she had no choice but to follow through with it.

He was such an indifferent and heartless man, so why couldn't she stop worrying about him?

'Ye Boi, listen carefully! Those guys are definitely coming for you...'

Right then, the turtle in Ye Ling's pendant spoke up and made Ye Ling freeze on his spot.

They were coming for him?

What did that mean?

Ye Ling's head buzzed and he felt lightheaded for a moment.

'The Heavenly Venerate left a lot of good stuff for you, but he also left a test for you! There are guardians looking after the remains left behind by the Heavenly Venerate, so if you don't pass the test, not only will you get jack-shit, but there's also a chance that you might end up six-feet underground here.'

The old turtle explained.

Ye Ling's head almost exploded as he listened to his explanation, and he couldn't help but curse him, 'Why didn't you tell me about it before? Aren't you trying to kill me by telling me about that just now? What the heck was wrong with the Heavenly Venerate? Couldn't he just leave the opportunity somewhere I wouldn't have to go through trouble to get it? Aren't you just sending me down the road to hell?!'

Of course, he merely complained with words since he wasn't shameless to the point where he would forget the fact that he had already taken the inheritance of the Heavenly Venerate and received countless opportunities because of him.

Right now, he was like a man riding a tiger, and had no choice but to keep going.

Yin Mei noticed the change in Ye Ling's complexion, and felt relaxed in her heart.

'It seems that those people are coming for him...'

She breathed a sigh of relief.

Soon, the three of them continued forward. Compared to before, they were more careful and concealed all their tracks while avoiding the figures in the sky.

Ye Ling knew that the Enlightenment Platform left for him by the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation was made of Reincarnation Stone, which was an extremely miraculous material.

The Reincarnation Stone contained the Natural Laws of Time and Reincarnation, and it was a known fact that the Power of Time was the strongest attribute in existence.

Ye Ling was naturally excited to get his hands on it.

‘Now, your only chance at conquering the Enlightenment Platform is to find the Heavenly Venerate’s Cultivation Abode that contains his inheritance...’

The old turtle in the pendant began to teach Ye Ling how he could find the Cultivation Abode and enter it.

Otherwise, with Ye Ling’s current strength, he wouldn’t be able to compete with the Guardians of the Platform — Ye Ling had to find a way to gain the approval of the Guardians first.

This was his only chance at passing the test.

What the old turtle didn’t know was the fact that the so-called Guardians were a race subdued and enslaved by the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate, and weren’t willing to surrender no matter what!

Ye Ling gritted his teeth after listening to his words, and a burst of perseverance surged in his heart.

‘I must get there! How will I take revenge on Gu Changge if I can’t?’

‘He’s the true Successor of the Taboo Inheritance!’

Endless strength and confidence surged in Ye Ling’s heart as he recalled the face of his greatest enemy, Gu Changge.

[TL/N: Ye Ling kind gae, ngl.]

.....

Gu Changge kept himself hidden in the Void after leaving the mausoleum, and decided not to make an appearance.

Thanks to the corpses of the Heavenly Geniuses buried inside, he was able to greatly improve his Cultivation Base, and even got his hands on a lot of rare talents.

He reached the Middle Stage of the God King Realm in one fell swoop!

Gu Changge felt that he could even compete with a real Sacred Realm cultivator right now. If he could sneak an attack on them, then it wouldn’t be hard for him to slaughter them with a single move either.

This was just Gu Changge’s preliminary estimate of his capability.

After all, the Sacred Realm masters could destroy the stars just by raising their hands, and that was because they could control the Natural Laws. Cultivators below the Sacred Realm would be thoroughly suppressed by Sacred Realm masters, without any ability to retaliate in any way.

Even a mighty Young Supreme in the God King Realm wouldn't be able to contend with a true Quasi-Sacred Realm master.

The reason he could slaughter a Sacred Realm master was because he gained control over power beyond his current realm in advance.

Right now, his apparent Cultivation Base put him in the Initial Stage of the False God Realm, which was something unattainable for others from the younger generation at this stage, and that's why Gu Changge didn't intend to make any further breakthroughs.

If he revealed an unimaginable Cultivation Base for his age, then he would definitely attract the attention of those ancient old fogies hiding in their coffins.

They had lived through countless eras, so what kind of genius had they not seen?

Gu Changge reaching the Initial Stage of the False God Realm at his age, with his talent, was still reasonably acceptable, but anything beyond that...

He didn't want to put himself in the spotlight and bring unnecessary trouble his way.

After all, he was different from the other young geniuses.

He followed the path of the 'Immortal Devil,' so the Cultivation Base he obtained through the [Heavenly Immortal Dao Codex] was merely to confuse the public. Even if someone probed his Origin, they wouldn't be able to find any anomalies with him because he was indeed practicing the orthodox[1] [Heavenly Immortal Dao Codex.]

[1: Cultivation novels normally have two paths: orthodox and unorthodox.

The orthodox path is the one followed by the majority where they get a cultivation art, sit in meditation, absorb Spiritual Qi from the atmosphere around them, and raise their Realm.

The unorthodox path is the one followed by the minority that doesn't follow the sane route, and takes the insane route for quick gains. These are the people who indiscriminately slaughter people to increase their comprehension of the Dao, refine fetuses into pills, cannibalize whatever they can, turn people into Human Cauldrons, etc.

Unorthodox cultivators are generally considered scum of society and frowned upon by the rest of the world, and slaughtered wherever they are found.]

The [Immortal-Devouring Demonic Art] was his true foundation, but who beside him knew about that and his true strength?

His enemies?

All of his enemies who had witnessed his true strength were already in the netherworld.

'Speaking of which, I won't have any problem finding Ye Ling through the trail left behind by Yin Mei, but something seems to have disturbed the entire ruins — could it be that Ye Ling's tracks were discovered?'

Gu Changge, who was walking through the Void, couldn't help but frown.

At the same time, he felt that he might have overestimated Ye Ling's ability.

How come that trash was discovered so fast?

If he died here, how would he continue to pin the blame on his head?

'No, these creatures seem to be searching aimlessly, and don't appear to know what they are even looking for.'

But soon, Gu Changge noticed something different and narrowed his eyes.

Speaking of which, few knew about the fact that Ye Ling was the Successor of the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation.

There wasn't anyone other than him and Yue Mingkong, no?

Even if Ye Ling was kicked in the head by a mule, he wouldn't be dumb enough to expose such a secret before anyone.

'This ruin must have something the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation left behind for Ye Ling, but according to the usual routine, there must be a test or something prepared for the successor...is this the test for Ye Ling?'

Gu Changge quickly thought about this possibility, and tried to guess if he was correct.

[Hum!]

The Void rumbled and spatial ripples spread in all directions. At the same time, Gu Changge noticed a creature in the Heavenly God Realm searching for something near him.

The creature stepped into the Void and walked around quickly.

Alas! Even a Sacred Realm master wouldn't be able to sense Gu Changge's presence, let alone a weakling in the Heavenly God Realm, so Gu Changge couldn't help but tut-tut in his heart.

Sure enough, the Void Talent was tyrannical indeed. No wonder it was said that an Ancient Emperor of Slaughter with Void Talent almost succeeded in assassinating a True Immortal.

For those with the Void Talent, traveling through the Void was as easy as fish swimming through water, or a tiger in the forest.

Of course...this was the most basic use for the Void Talent.

"Who..."

Suddenly, the tall creature searching through the stone carvings in the mountains and the forests felt a chill go down its spine, and felt its soul freeze over; it could tell that someone was staring at it, and that fact frightened it.

It was about to turn its head, but found spatial ripples coming from the Void in front of it. Soon after that, it saw a man in white walk out of the Void with a casual expression.

"Shh! Don't make a sound, or you will die."

Gu Changge said with a smile.

In the next moment, a crack appeared in the space in front of him, and started to expand.

“You...”

The tall creature was stunned for a moment and then a terrifying rune started to take form in its eyes.

Alas! In the very next moment, it was directly swallowed by the expanding crack without time to react, and disappeared with a shocked and terrified expression.

Gu Changge also turned around and vanished into the Void.

Everything resembled an illusion, and no one noticed the sudden disappearance of a Heavenly God Realm master from the world — it was as if it evaporated into thin air.

The Heavenly God Realm creature was like a stone thrown into a sea, one that turned silent without much ripples.

“Where’s this? Who are you?”

[Hum!]

[Atop a mountain in a different world.]

The tall creature was thrown on the ground in front of Gu Changge. It looked at Gu Changge with horror and kept shouting as if it had encountered the most terrifying existence it could come across.

It was a Heavenly God that could look down on the True God ants and even slaughter an entire city with the flip of its hands, but in front of the person before it, it didn’t even have the ability to respond. A moment ago, it was outside, and in the next moment, it appeared in a completely different dimension.

This terrified it.

What kind of terrifying ability was this? Even those in the Sacred Realm might not be able to do something like this!

It was impossible to do something like this with just the power of Heaven and Earth, so it wondered if the other party controlled a Spatial Domain?

It felt chills go down its spine as it reached that conclusion.

The young man in front of him, who was obviously from the outside world, terrified it!

Gu Changge was worried that the creature might produce too much noise and attract the other creatures, so he brought it into his Inner World. After his strength increased, the Inner World’s ability to accomodate existences and stuff also rose.

Holding a Heavenly God inside it wasn’t an issue for the Inner World.

“I want to know a few things.”

Gu Changge said.

“What? I will tell you if I know the answer.”

The tall creature hurriedly complied in fright.

Here, it couldn't perceive anyone else's aura, and felt like it was an ant under the gaze of Heaven, humble and insignificant.

“Nah! I am used to finding information myself.”

Gu Changge said that and then directly chose to search through its soul.

A jet-black light appeared in the palm of his hand, and split into thousands of fine, black threads before covering the creature's forehead.

'It turned out to be an order from the Family Elders! I never expected to come across such an interesting secret.'

'Slave seal, Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate's Cultivation Abode...the treasure-hunting rat hasn't let me down.'

After a while, Gu Changge put an end to the suffering of the creature with a strange smile on his face.

Gu Changge's Stats

Host: Gu Changge

Halo: Destined Heavenly Villain

Weapon(s): Eight Desolate Demon Halberd

Identity:

Innate Bloodline(s):

Cultivation Base: Initial Stage of the False God Realm [Pinnacle Stage of the Heavenly God Realm]

Mystical Abilities:

Destiny Points: 15000

Fortune Value: 0 (Dark)

System Shop: Open

Warehouse:

Cultivation Realms

[CULTIVATION REALMS]

Chapter 140: The Mediocre Waste; Do You Want to be Stronger, Boy?

Gu Changge never thought he would learn so much information from a casually captured creature in the Heavenly God Realm.

The Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation left behind a Cultivation Abode, as well as an Enlightenment Platform!

As for the slave seal? It was a guess the creature made based on the orders of the Family Elders.

After going through some old-fashioned tropes, Gu Changge understood the gist of the matter.

After the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation suppressed the ancestors of these creatures, he didn't kill them, instead, he planted a slave seal inside them and left them with the task to protect the treasures the Reincarnation Heavenly Venerate left behind for his Successor.

Over time, however, the hearts of the creatures' descendants changed.

Now, many powerful creatures were looking for Ye Ling's whereabouts, and that showed their true thoughts.

Although Gu Changge was also plotting to deal with Ye Ling, he had to now go and save his life since he needed him to bear the title of the Taboo Inheritance's Successor.

He wanted to kill Ye Ling, but now wasn't the time for that.

Gu Changge already had a careful plan for what he would do next.

It just so happened that he could use the slave seal to create an opportunity for himself.

'Speaking of this, the Enlightenment Platform left behind by the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation mustn't be something specifically left for Ye Ling, or those creatures wouldn't have been able to occupy it for so long, so much so that they developed the thoughts of hoarding it all to themselves.'

Gu Changge figured out most of the plot.

After that, he dealt with the corpse in front of him and then left his Inner World.

From what he found from the soul search, there were five major Races in the vicinity of the ruins, and their ancestors were all servants of the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation.

Now, all of them were looking for Ye Ling.

'With Ye Ling's current ability, he will never be able to vie for benefits in the face of those five groups! Since this is a test, there must be an opportunity for Ye Ling to turn the situation around...'

'These ancient fogies...all of them like to engage in such old-fashioned pass the test if you want to inherit something nonsense. Who gives a damn about a test when you can directly steal opportunities nowadays?'

Gu Changge couldn't help but laugh out loud.

'As for Ye Ling, he must be looking for the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation's Cultivation Abode right now. There should be some way in there for Ye Ling to put a leash around the necks of those five groups and get their help.'

'That Cultivation Abode...if I am not mistaken, then it must be something like a small world. I wonder how it compares to my Inner World? The Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation must have left a lot of good stuff for Ye Ling.'

'However...I estimate that it will still all fall in my hands in the end.'

Gu Changge squinted his eyes with a smile and showed an intrigue-filled expression.

He analyzed everything from the past to the future, and knew that Ye Ling's next move would be to find the Cultivation Abode left behind by the Ancient Heavenly Emperor of Reincarnation.

Gu Changge wouldn't stop Ye Ling, no...he will help Ye Ling and make it easier for him to find the Cultivation Abode.

Gu Changge didn't have the leisure to go through the so-called test, after all.

He loved to pick the fruit when it ripened.

'I don't know how long it will take, but I don't think I need to worry about it with Yin Mei right next to Ye Ling.'

Gu Changge felt relieved as he thought of this.

After that, the Void in front of him blurred and he traveled thousands of feet away in a single step and left the place in haste.

His figure walked through the Void and avoided a large number of creatures.

Just like that, he crossed many ancient, ruined structures, and went straight to the depths of the ruined city.

The depths of the city held structures that weren't worse than the ones outside — in some cases, the structures inside were even better than the ones outside.

There were vast, tall pavilions that held a majesty to them that the ones outside didn't.

He could also see a majestic monument in front of him that exuded an ancient aura, and told of their past glory.

'According to the memory of that Heavenly God creature, the Elders of the Black Sky Eagle Family are the ones who hold the most power among the five races in this area, and their Cultivation Base has even reached beyond the Sacred Realm.'

Gu Changge's figure floated inside the Void as he glanced down with a calm expression.

There were many creatures and guards below.

Many places even had extremely powerful Formations protecting them and releasing vast divine might.

If an intruder stepped in, the Formations would easily slaughter anyone below the True God Realm.

In addition to all these, there were many False God Realm masters patrolling the place.

'The ancestors of the Black Sky Eagle Family should be hidden in the depths of this place, and their Cultivation Base should be beyond the Sacred Realm...it's possible that some of them might even be in the Quasi-Supreme Realm.'

'If I choose to infiltrate head-on, then I will only bring trouble on my head! I might even expose my identity.'

Gu Changge looked ahead with a thoughtful expression.

Of course, he still had a plan and a great deal of confidence.

Even now, he could use his terrifying background to crush these creatures, just like he used to crush people in the outside world, but although it was cool, convenient, and fast to subdue people with his background, it would take some time.

'The Enlightenment Platform is in the hands of the Black Sky Eagle Family's hands, so it seems that I will need to start with them to further my plan...'

Gu Changge quickly thought of his next actions.

In the next moment, the Void in front of him blurred and he walked forward with his hands behind his back.

Right now, he was heading towards a lively pavilion that had a lot of creatures mingling with each other.

Atop the pavilion were the words 'Intoxicated Immortal Pavilion' written in the Ancient Immortal Script.

From the memory of the Heavenly God creature, he learned that this place held the greatest weakness of the Black Sky Eagle Family's Patriarch.

.....

[In an elegant room filled with splendor and mist at the top floor of the Intoxicated Immortal Pavilion.]

Several non-human creatures covered in brilliant lights and dressed in extraordinary clothes conversed with each other.

The one at the center of attention was a young man holding a pretty aboriginal girl in his arms.

He was dressed in brocade clothes, and had a pale, frivolous-looking face. Behind him were a pair of jet-black eagle wings spread out in their full glory, with black light flowing around them.

The creatures were, right now, communicating in the Ancient Immortal Language.

One of the creatures was a young woman with a beautiful, jade-like face, but with a snake's tail.

She opened her mouth and asked with curiosity, "What happened in the city? Why are so many people going around in such a hurry?"

"Many Masters were dispatched, and I even saw True Gods and some Heavenly Gods! They seemed to be looking for something. Could it be that the cultivators from the outside world are coming for us?"

“That’s possible! The outside cultivators are quite bold, and even dared to trespass the station I was guarding. It’s really unbelievable. If not for the fact that the older generation isn’t allowed to make a move, do you think they would have been able to keep their lives until now?”

Hearing that, another young creature added with disdain, “If it weren’t for abiding by the ancient agreement, would I be stuck in here instead of going to the outside world? If we were able to leave, those cultivators wouldn’t even exist to come in here, no?”

They were already familiar with the details of this ‘experience-gaining’ trip, and knew that it was jointly held by the ancient fogies of the Ancient Immortal Continent and the outside world.

On the bright side, although it was the younger generation competing in hindsight, who could really ensure that the older generation wouldn’t intervene in the dark?

Still, since they dared to come to their gathering place, then they must be prepared to pay the price.

“All of the five major Families sent people to arrest them, so it mustn’t be a minor matter this time.”

Several people presented their opinion while looking at the man in the middle with a flattering expression.

“Brother Hei Ming is still the mightiest among us all! I heard you even have a follower in the Heavenly God Realm! Although we are called the Four Young Masters (B4s74rds)[1] together with you, and have been training hard to catch up with you all these years, we are still far inferior to you.”

[1: they are called the Four Young B4s74rds/Dandies, but the guy is using flowery language here to flatter their leader.]

The youth at the center of attention was named Hei Ming.

A bit of pride appeared on his face as he listened to those words, and said, “Commander Hei Yu isn’t by my side right now; he was also dispatched by my grandfather to find all suspicious outsiders nearby.”

[TL/N: nah boi, your Hei Yǔ (Rain) is now Hei Gù (Dead), gone, dead, finished.]

His words surprised everyone, and their curiosity surged after they thought about everything that transpired recently.

The woman with a snake’s tail couldn’t help but ask, “Brother Hei Ming, do you know what happened? Why did the five major families suddenly mobilize all their forces? It’s as if all the grass and trees have awakened as soldiers now.[2]”

[2: soldiers hiding in everything and everywhere.]

After all, Hei Ming was the only direct descendant from the five major families among them, from the Black Sky Eagle Family, so he had to know far more than them.

Although their identities weren’t simple either, they were still far from the direct descendants of the five major families.

It’s just that the reason Hei Ming could mingle with them was because his status in his family was probably not all that good.

In this dog-eat-dog world, the genuine direct descendants of the five major families all looked down on them, but compared to others in his Black Sky Eagle Family, Hei Ming had mediocre talent, and was kind of useless.

So much so that there were rumors that Hei Ming was the Black Sky Eagle Family's waste!

Many creatures secretly mocked him, and even some members of the Black Sky Eagle Family disregarded his existence and treated him with indifference.

The only reason Hei Ming could reach the Transcendent Realm was because his family poured massive resources into his cultivation, but he was still far from reaching the Great-Transcendent Realm.

[TL/N: man, I thought ants under the Conferred Lord Realm won't appear again, but here we are. Strange world, man, strange world. Dumbass couldn't reach the Saint Realm even with all that Spiritual Qi around him.]

He was an embarrassment to the Black Sky Eagle Family!

It was for this reason that Hei Ming, who used to be a motivated youth and cultivated hard, gradually lost his will to grow stronger.

Afterwards, he turned to wine to relieve his worries, and spent his days in the land of smoke and seggs, and became the leader of the so-called Four Young B4s74rds!

Of course, although Hei Ming's experience sounded tragic — so much so that Gu Changge had to wonder if he had come across another Favored Son of Heaven who would encounter an opportunity and slap everyone's faces when he searched the Heavenly God's soul — it actually wasn't.

Hei Ming might have mediocre talent, but he still had another background...his sister was the most outstanding genius of the Black Sky Eagle Family, and his grandfather was their most powerful Elder.

With that background, even if he ended up as a dude who only knew how to cause trouble and didn't make any progress in his cultivation, no one would dare say anything to him or provoke him.

After all, how much trouble could a harmless scoundrel even make?

On the contrary, many people bowed their heads before him and licked his feet to get closer to the Black Sky Eagle Family.

Especially after many received the news that his elder sister's status rose even more after she was taken in by Lord Long Teng of the True Dragon Family of the Ancient Immortal Tribe.

Hei Ming, himself, got a follower in the Heavenly God Realm at his beck and call, and that made all the other young creatures envy him.

After Hei Ming heard the question of the Snake Race's woman, he pretended to think about the matter, and then said, "I heard something major happened for the five major families, and all the Elders gathered together to discuss the matter..."

In reality, Hei Ming had no idea about whatever the heck was going on!

His status in the Black Sky Eagle Family wasn't all that good, and on normal days, he was treated as a non-existent descendant.

Except for his sister and his grandpa, no one else gave a damn about him.

Although Hei Ming didn't show anything on his face, deep down, he held the ambition to become a dazzling genius just like his sister.

He wanted to be a dazzling genius admired by millions of people.

[Hum!]

Right then, what the young creatures talking and laughing amongst them failed to notice were ripples in the Void around them — even a Sacred Realm master might not be able to perceive the ripples, let alone them with their meager Cultivation Base.

“Young Man, do you want to become strong? Do you want to become an existence standing above hundreds of millions of people?”

Suddenly, an ethereal voice entered Hei Ming's ears.

Gu Changge's Stats

Host: Gu Changge

Halo: Destined Heavenly Villain

Weapon(s): Eight Desolate Demon Halberd

Identity:

Innate Bloodline(s):

Cultivation Base: Initial Stage of the False God Realm [Pinnacle Stage of the Heavenly God Realm]

Mystical Abilities:

Destiny Points: 15000

Fortune Value: 0 (Dark)

System Shop: Open

Warehouse:

Cultivation Realms

[CULTIVATION REALMS]