Chapter 391-1: The Supreme God Clan crossed the river and demolished the bridge, Very different from the first impression (1)

"I know, Gu Changge is indeed someone that should not be underestimated. Now the outside world has a lot of hatred for our clan. If he hadn't thrown the blame on our clan, there wouldn't be that many disasters."

"The top priority now is to clarify what happened as soon as possible."

"But I have a doubt. Weren't there only four Great Sect leaders who fought against Gu Changge at the time? Why did eight people die in the end?"

"What happened to the remaining four?"

After hearing this, the Supreme God Emperor frowned and began to think about countermeasures.

Up to now, even if they declared to the outside world that this matter had nothing to do with them, it would not help them, but it would cause even more waves, which would outweigh the gains.

After all, that tomb was left by the Ancestor of their family, and if something happened to the rest of the forces, they would immediately definitely suspect them.

And Gu Changge's remarks testified, almost firmly clasp the blame on their heads that they couldn't take off.

Now they could only grit their teeth and swallow.

Hearing this, Jiang Luoshen was stunned and felt a little puzzled for a while. After thinking about it carefully, she suddenly felt that something was wrong.

At that time, she witnessed with her own eyes that there were only four Sect leaders who died at Gu Changge's hands.

How did the other four die?

Suddenly, she thought of a possibility and couldn't help shivering.

"Father, you said that it is not impossible for Gu Changge to have attacked and killed those four people. Thus intending to provoke hatred between us and those Dao forces."

"According to the news, Gu Changge was the last person to leave the underground palace. Even if the underground palace collapsed, it wouldn't take that long."

"He took the Ancestral divine orb before leaving the underground palace, and he definitely did something in the middle..."

"That's why he killed the other four Great Sect leaders."

Jiang Luoshen's words trembled slightly.

"Why did Gu Changge do this? Could it be just to frame my clan?"

"That's a wicked thought."

After listening to Jiang Luoshen's analysis, the Supreme God Emperor also felt that things were inseparable and his face became more and more sullen.

Suddenly, he was burning with anger. He never thought that one day, their Supreme God Clan would be framed like this!

However, to solve this matter, his only way was to welcome Gu Changge with a smile, and admit that he was unlucky.

If he insisted on going against Gu Changge, he would usher in even more trouble.

"Father, I think Gu Changge's plan to kill the four Great Sect leaders should be something else aside from framing my clan, but it's just a matter of convenience. It's just that I don't understand what he's trying to do.... .."

Jiang Luoshen frowned, thinking of another possibility.

She felt that Gu Changge's actions were definitely not without any purpose.

If he really wanted to frame the Supreme God Clan, he didn't need to go through so much trouble at all.

"No matter what the reason, there is no doubt that the eight Great Sect leaders died in his hands."

"Luoshen, you must send someone to capture the monk and that young man who escaped."

"These two cannot fall into the hands of others! They are the key to this trouble..."

"At the same time, I have to apologize to you! Otherwise, there probably will be a real disaster for my family."

The Supreme God Emperor's expression turned gloomy as he commanded.

The only solution he could think of was to place all the blame on the monk and the mysterious man.

Moreover, the collapse of the underground palace and the recovery of the formation patterns had nothing to do with Jiang Luoshen.

On the contrary, the two of them escaped at a critical time, and no matter how they looked at it, they were very suspicious.

He just happened to take this opportunity to throw this blame on their heads.

"I understand, father."

Jiang Luoshen slightly gritted her teeth and withdrew while her face paled.

She began to send her clansmen to arrest Jiang Chen and Monk Pu Du who had escaped at the time, and at the same time deal with this big crisis.

She also understood the Supreme God Emperor's words.

As the so-called block was worse than sparse.

The more sophisticated it was, the more they would want to clear the blame, and the more black they would be described.

On the contrary, if they admitted that they were responsible and placed themselves in the position of the victim, the effect would be different.

That was on the premise that Gu Changge was not allowed to intervene in this matter.

Soon after, a message from the Supreme God Clan shocked all parties.

This time, the Supreme God Clan also suffered heavy losses and did not return with a full reward as the outside world had guessed.

Only less than one-tenth of the clansmen had come back, and they didn't get their hands on any of the Ancestral things.

The underground palace collapsed, the formation lines recovered and the deaths of the Great Sect leaders had nothing to do with them.

All of that was caused by a mysterious man and a monk.

The cause of the incident was that Jiang Luoshen was deceived by the two of them.

The two of them ensured that they would be able to break the many formations in the mausoleum, so they took them to the tomb of the Supreme God.

As a result, at the critical moment when Jiang Luoshen and Gu Changge competed for the things of their Ancestor, the two of them suddenly took action to snatch the things away.

Then the formation was activated, causing the underground palace to collapse, and the destructive power exploded in an instant, causing such a tragic situation.

In order to confirm this, the Supreme God Clan revealed that the mysterious young man was actually a descendant of the Divine Origin Master.

His method was mysterious and unpredictable, it could change the trend of heaven and earth, and reverse the imprint of the formation pattern.

The divine orb of the Ancestor of the Supreme God finally fell into his hands.

And the two of them were now missing.

As soon as the news came out, it immediately caused a huge sensation.

Even the many Taoists who planned to seek justice from the Supreme God Clan were stunned and couldn't come back to their senses for a while.

Because this news was really shocking.

The presence of the legendary Divine Origin Master in the tomb of the Supreme God along with the formation patterns being activated and everyone being killed by him.

Even the Supreme Divine Orb was robbed by him.

Regardless of whether it was true or false, the moment the news spread, it caused a great earthquake-like vibration, which shocked many people.

And the identity of the young man was also exposed by the Supreme God Clan.

Jiang Chen!

It was the young man's name.

For a time, there was a sweeping sensation in the Upper Realm once again. Although many people doubted the truth of the Supreme God Clan's words, more people choose to believe them.

Unless the Supreme God Clan was really stupid, how could they do things like killing eight Great Sect leaders and attracting such hatred?

Obviously, the Supreme God Clan also suffered a lot in this matter.

Moreover, many people contacted what Gu Changge said at the time, and felt that the Supreme God Clan did not lie.

Soon, the name Jiang Chen began to spread among the various sects.

Many people were also searching for his whereabouts.

Whether it was the Ancestral divine orb of the Supreme God Clan or the inheritance of the Divine Origin Master, it was something that attracted attention.

Even a lot of free cultivators began to make up their minds about him and began to look for traces of this person everywhere.

After Jiang Chen himself and Monk Pu Du escaped from the tomb of the Supreme God, they immediately found a place to hide.

But the two of them never expected that the Supreme God Clan would be like this.

Jiang Chen and Monk Pu Du were both stunned.

"Not only did they cross the river and demolish the bridge, but now they are still fighting back, saying that the two of us took away the Supreme Divine Orb..."

Jiang Chen's teeth were almost crushed. Currently, his eyes were red, and he thought he would be safe after leaving the tomb of the Supreme God.

But he didn't expect a bigger danger to be awaiting him. Almost everyone now knew that he was carrying a lot of things.

Supreme Divine Orb, Divine Origin Master Inheritance...

But he didn't have any of these things!

Not to mention that many people thought that he killed eight Great Sect leaders.

With such deep hatred, how could they let him go?

"Amitabha, brother Jiang, from now on, you and I will be grasshoppers on the same rope."

Monk Pu Du sighed leisurely, but he was honest.

"Jiang Luoshen, this slut, she promised to let us go, but she went back on her word, and now she still framed me so despicably."

"I not only paved the way for her, cracked many patterns for her, but also delayed time for her to escape in the end... But she treated me like this!"

"When I get stronger, I won't let her go."

Jiang Chen hated her in his heart, besides Gu Changge, there was now another person he hated.

In his opinion, if it wasn't for the Immortal Boat Spirit at that time, the formation pattern in the tomb of the Supreme God would not have collapsed, and Gu Changge would not have been delayed.

How did Jiang Luoshen escape from Gu Changge?

But in the end, she actually changed the target of her revenge?

"Brother Jiang, let's keep an eye out. Now we'd better find a place to avoid the limelight."

"Little Monk has a place to go, but I don't know if brother Jiang is willing to go with this little monk..."

Monk Pu Du placed his hands together and sighed slightly.

Chapter 391-2: The Supreme God Clan crossed the river and demolished the bridge, Very different from the first impression (2)

Hearing this, Jiang Chen naturally had nothing to hesitate for. Now the black-robed senior had disappeared, and the Immortal Boat Spirit had fallen into a deep sleep.

The only thing he could rely on was the reliable monk Pu Du in front of him.

"By the way, Master Pu Du, I don't know your origin yet." Jiang Chen was a little curious.

"This little monk worshiped the Buddha Mountain back then and then cultivated at the Hanging Buddhist Temple. In the end, he was expelled from his teacher's door for not abiding by the rules. How many years has it been...? This little monk forgot."

Monk Pu Du smiled, and for a while, there was an aura of vicissitudes on his body, like an eminent monk.

Jiang Chen was stunned for a while, and he suddenly felt that Monk Pu Du was quite mysterious, and his cultivation was unfathomable.

.....

After returning to the True Immortal Academy, the first thing Gu Changge did was to refine the Supreme Divine Orb and the many origins he had gained in the tomb of the Supreme God this time.

A few days passed, and his cultivation was one step closer to the Supreme Realm.

As for the many rumors from the outside world, he heard them, and it was no surprise that the Supreme God Clan would throw the blame on Jiang Chen and that mysterious monk.

The so-called people did not kill for themselves.

As one of the oldest races in the Upper Realm, the Supreme God Clan naturally didn't want to cause public anger because of this kind of thing, and was always using the simplest reason to protect themselves.

It was just that the Supreme God Clan might have forgotten one thing.

Gu Changge only needed one sentence to make their plan go to waste in an instant. All of their efforts would be wasted, and even greater hatred would be incurred.

However, the Supreme God Clan behaved like this, but it also meant that they were submissive to him, biting their teeth and swallowing them.

Jiang Luoshen knew that the Supreme Divine Orb was in his hands and that those Great Sect leaders actually died tragically at his hands.

But she never mentioned this, instead, she placed the blame on the rest of the people, saying that the Supreme Divine Orb was also in Jiang Chen's hands.

From Gu Changge's point of view, it was more like the Supreme God Clan was courting him.

In that case, there was no need for him to continue to hold on to it.

"There has never been any news from Queen Xi Yao's side. Before heading to the Demon World, Bai Lian'er's matter must be settled first."

Gu Changge began to think about the next things.

During this time, he sent many people to investigate Bai Lian'er.

At the same time, he also asked Yin Mei to help him pay attention to the many branches of the Spring Breeze Pavillion.

There were many eyes on them now.

Bai Lian'er had always been mysterious and there were very few people who had seen her true face. Even the assassins of the Spring Breeze Pavilion had never seen the true face of the master behind the scenes.

Therefore, Gu Changge planned to let people destroy several branches of the Spring Breeze Pavillion first, and seize its important high-level officials first.

With Bai Kun in his hands, plus many high-level officials of the Spring Breeze Pavillion, it was impossible for Bai Lian'er not to show up.

Unless, she had already entered the Demon World.

"Master, outside the gate of the True Immortal Academy, Jiang Luoshen, the Princess of the Supreme God Clan, is asking for an audience."

And just as Gu Changge was thinking, the sound of the report emerging from outside the palace made his eyes narrow.

Jiang Luoshen wants to see me.

This made Gu Changge a little surprised. Didn't Jiang Luoshen almost die by his hands?

At this time, she still dared to come to him.

He had to say, this courage was quite big, wasn't she afraid of being killed by him?

"Could it be that because of Jiang Chen's matter, they want me to turn a blind eye, so as not to pierce the so-called explanation of the Supreme God Clan?"

Thinking of this possibility, Gu Changge couldn't help but smile, and then added, "Let her in."

The entrance of the True Immortal Academy.

Many young geniuses watched this scene in surprise.

A woman in a golden robe with a beautiful face stood there, tall and slender, and her whole body seemed to be glowing.

The facial features were exquisite and three-dimensional, as if it had been finely sculpted. She was flawless with her blond hair fluttering. The whole person exuded an air of indifference and nobility.

She was Jiang Luoshen, the Princess of the Supreme God Clan.

Many people recognized her, and they became more and more shocked. They didn't understand what Jiang Luoshen was here for.

The things that were making a lot of noise in the Upper Realm now were the grievances between the Supreme God Clan and many Dao lineages.

As the Princess of the Supreme God Clan, she appeared here at this time.

Wasn't she worried that something would happen to her?

Moreover, this time Jiang Luoshen was not accompanied by anyone. Standing there like an iceberg that would never melt, she was showing the coldness that made strangers unable to speak before her.

There was no expression on her face.

"Princess Luoshen, please come with me, master is waiting for you in the palace."

Soon, in front of the mountain gate of the True Immortal Academy, a burly creature turned into divine light arriving quickly, and bowed to Jiang Luoshen.

Seeing this scene, everyone was even more astonished. Naturally, they recognized the burly creature in front of him. He was a follower of Gu Changge. He was powerful and well-known in the True Immortal Academy.

Didn't that mean that Jiang Luoshen actually came here to see Gu Changge?

Didn't the two of them have conflicts in the tomb of the Supreme God, and had they fought?

There was even a powerhouse at the peak of the Great Sacred Realm of the Supreme God Clan who was killed by Gu Changge, shocking everyone.

Now, everyone was very curious and wanted to know the reason why Jiang Luoshen had come to find Gu Changge.

Could it be that in the underground palace, something happened between the two of them?

However, since Jiang Luoshen dared to appear here, in the eyes of many people, it also confirmed the authenticity of the news that the Supreme God Clan had spread before.

Soon, Jiang Luoshen followed the creatures leading the way to Gu Changge's palace.

And there was also a sensation in the True Immortal Academy because of Jiang Luoshen's arrival.

When many young geniuses got this news, they emerged from the caves in astonishment.

Jiang Luoshen was a little famous in the huge Upper Realm.

Although she was born not long ago, because of her powerful strength, terrifying talent, and beautiful appearance, she had become a goddess in the eyes of many geniuses.

The event in the tomb of the Supreme God this time did not detract from her charm to many young geniuses.

Now she did not hesitate to leave the clan and come to the True Immortal Academy alone to find Gu Changge, which was really the matter of envy for many geniuses.

At the same time, there were many guesses as to what was happening between the two.

"Princess Luoshen, master's in the palace, so I will retire first."

As the words fell, the creatures who came to lead the way withdrew.

Jiang Luoshen looked at the palace, there was no emotional fluctuation on her face, but her heart was trembling slightly, and the jade hand in her sleeve was clenched tightly.

The fear that made her uneasy. Not to mention the feeling of death looming over her.

In a trance, she saw the scene where Gu Changge grabbed her by the neck, lifted her up, and then slapped her into a blood mist.

Jiang Luoshen's face turned slightly pale.

Although her father had provided her something to protect her body, if something went wrong, she could escape from this place in an instant.

But she was still restless...

Coming to see Gu Changge, this decision had exhausted her courage.

If it weren't for the Supreme God Clan, she wouldn't be like this. Of course, this disaster was also caused by her, and she couldn't blame others.

She was strong and proud from the moment she was born. Destined to overlook everything and become the Empress of the Supreme God Clan in the future.

At this time, how could she allow herself to retreat?

Thinking of this, Jiang Luoshen took a deep breath, and her face returned to indifference again.

She pushed open the door of the palace and stepped inside.

But as soon as she entered it, she felt a faint tea fragrance wafting, light and gentle.

In the hall, a young man was fanning lightly between the teapots, his facial features were handsome, his hair was crystal clear, and a faint shimmer was flowing between each strand.

Because his white robe was relatively wide, he seemed to be paying attention to the size of the fire, and he looked very focused. The expression between his eyebrows was natural and warm, but he was a little lazy.

It was the first time she saw Gu Changge like this.

Jiang Luoshen also suddenly went into a daze, and what she wanted to say was swallowed.

In the tomb of the Supreme God, Gu Changge's first impression of her was that he was cold and strong. This man was much scarier than her.

Not only that, but he was also ruthless, despicable, and shameless.

But Jiang Luoshen never expected that after she was on extreme alert, she would see Gu Changge making tea casually and naturally, which was very different from what she had imagined.

Such an appearance, on the contrary, looked like an exiled Immortal who had detached from the world, rich and aloof.

But she still hadn't forgotten the fact that she was killed by Gu Changge once.

"Sit."

At this moment, Gu Changge's voice sounded, interrupting Jiang Luoshen's thoughts.

For some reason, she subconsciously sat down on the stone chair beside her.

Chapter 392-1: If you cant learn, there is no need to live, Heading to the Demon World to find someone (1)

As soon as Jiang Luoshen sat down, she felt something was wrong.

Why had she listen to Gu Changge's words? He had let herself sit down rather than sit down by herself.

Thinking so, she stood up again.

With a frosty expression on her face, she stared at him and said directly, "Gu Changge, this time I'm here to make a deal with you."

"I know."

Hearing this, Gu Changge raised his eyes and glanced at her before he fanned the fire under the tea stove unhurriedly.

The lavender flame presented a sense of terror that could burn everything, and even the void was turning a bit blurry as if it would collapse at any time.

Obviously, this was an extremely rare flame.

"You know?"

Hearing this, Jiang Luoshen frowned, not expecting Gu Changge's words.

Before her arrival, she had made all preparations, which naturally included guessing Gu Changge's reactions and his words.

But now that Gu Changge was aware, this made her feel like she had miscalculated.

For a moment, she stood there speechless.

"It's nothing more than wanting me to shut up and not expose the so-called explanation of your Supreme God Clan isn't it?"

"And the relative condition is that you will promise not to say that the four Great Sect leaders died in my hands, right?"

Gu Changge smiled casually, "After all, there were quite a few people who witnessed everything with their own eyes. As long as you are ruthless and capture the spirits of the clansmen who fled together at that time, you can naturally restore what happened at that time?"

"That's what I call a handle. Tell me, am I right?"

Hearing his words, Jiang Luoshen's expression changed, and she looked at him in disbelief.

She really didn't expect that Gu Changge not only knew her intention but even knew what she was going to say.

Suddenly, she felt that her whole body was being seen through.

Everything Gu Changge said was true.

At that time, there weren't many people who had witnessed Gu Changge killing the four Great Sect leaders.

In addition to her, there were also several clansmen at that time who had witnessed all this with their own eyes.

As far as she was concerned, this was the reason for her arrival to make a deal with Gu Changge.

If Gu Changge exposed their lies, then they would naturally make the matter public, and they would tear faces at Gu Changge.

But now it seemed that Gu Changge had long known about their intentions and didn't care at all.

"Looks like I'm right."

Seeing Jiang Luoshen's discolored expression, Gu Changge smiled and continued, "It seems that you are thinking a little too naively. Since I dare to kill those people, I am not afraid of their revenge. How credible do you think it would be to say this now?"

"Gu Changge, how exactly will you agree?"

Jiang Luoshen asked with a solemn expression.

Before she came here, she never thought that the situation would go so far.

This kind of thing were the words of their Supreme God Clan.

Although they had a way to capture the souls of the tribesmen and restore the scene at that time.

But there would definitely be doubts from the Dao lineage that they would be falsifying this matter, and the purpose was just to bring misfortune to the east.

As long as there was a slightly higher spiritual attainment, some memories could be easily tampered with.

This was not a very good way.

There were many loopholes.

Gu Changge obviously did not seem to be worried, so there must be other countermeasures.

Thinking of this, Jiang Luoshen felt that things were getting more and more difficult.

"My conditions are actually simple. I want you to stay here. I need a hostage from the Supreme God Clan by my side, and it's the kind that can be called at any time. Otherwise, I can't trust you. After all, both parties must show sincerity with trading such things..."

"Don't look at me like that."

"I hold the lifeline of your family now. Believe it or not, I only need one sentence. The rest of the Dao lineages will definitely be swept away by hatred and send an army to attack your family."

"I don't believe that the Supreme God Clan can stop them... Tsk, but the eight Great Sect masters represent the eight Great Sects of Taoism..."

Gu Changge slowly made himself a cup of tea, and uttered casually, as if he was talking about something casual.

Jiang Luoshen thought of the possibility, and her face turned pale, but she still gritted her teeth, cold as ice.

"Gu Changge, don't go too far, I can promise you the rest of the conditions, but this is absolutely not possible."

"If you want a hostage, I can send a message to the Royal father and ask him to send my sister here."

She thought of a compromise.

Didn't Gu Changge want a hostage and sincerity?

Then her sister could do the same!

In her capacity, how could she stay by Gu Changge's side as a hostage?

Not to mention the kind that was always on call.

After all, Gu Changge was extremely dangerous. Staying by his side, who knew when she would accidentally die, so she needed to be vigilant at all times.

The fear that had penetrated deep into the bone marrow before still appeared in her heart from time to time, and could not be erased.

It was like a ghostly nightmare.

"Your sister? Is she the future God Empress of the Supreme God Clan?"

Gu Changge raised his brows, and then took a sip of tea unhurriedly.

"My sister, although she is not the future Empress, she is also a talented genius in the Supreme God Clan. Even if she is not as good as me, her future achievements will not be low..."

Jiang Luoshen stared at Gu Changge, feeling very uneasy.

Gu Changge smiled and said, "What's the use of saying this? You sold off your sister so easily? But it's a pity, I only want you. If this condition cannot be agreed upon, then there is no need to discuss this matter."

After saying that, he continued drinking his tea, which seemed relatively leisurely.

Gu Changge was not in a hurry.

He expected that Jiang Luoshen would agree in the end and keep her as a hostage, on the one hand, he could make the Supreme God Clan cast their arms.

On the other hand, he would be getting a maid.

The future God Empress of the Supreme God Clan, this status was barely acceptable.

Of course, if Jiang Luoshen insisted on opposing him as she did at the Tomb of Supreme God last time—

Then Gu Changge didn't mind killing her again.

He didn't believe that there were so many puppets on Jiang Luoshen's body.

"Gu Changge, you... Can you change the conditions..."

Jiang Luoshen clenched her silver teeth tightly, as strong and proud as she was, she felt extremely aggrieved at this moment.

Although Gu Changge's sentence you sounded a bit inexplicably ambiguous. But there was no doubt.

"I'm not very patient, and I don't like to repeat something three times."

Gu Changge shook his head slightly, took a sip of tea, waiting for her to agree.

This kind of self-defeating thing made her feel ridiculous.

After all, she was also the future Empress of the Supreme God Clan, but she was so naive.

He had overestimated Jiang Luoshen's means.

"You... Why do you insist on this condition..."

Jiang Luoshen's face was full of unwillingness, and her jade hand clenched tightly.

Even though she had already made plans to suffer humiliation before coming to the True Immortal Academy to find Gu Changge.

Chapter 392-2: If you cant learn, there is no need to live, Heading to the Demon World to find someone (2)

This was completely unexpected, since Gu Changge's conditions were so excessive!

Yet, now it was hard for her to refuse!

As Gu Changge said, they thought they had Gu Changge's handle in their hands and could force him to submit and make a deal with them. But this handle was insignificant to Gu Changge, and he didn't care at all.

On the contrary, Gu Changge was holding the lives of her entire Clan. Eight Great Sect masters had perished!

Although it didn't sound like a big deal, the things behind this were terrible.

Among these Dao forces, although each one of them was not as good as the Supreme God Clan.

But if they teamed up, no matter how deep the foundation was, or how long the inheritance was, one had to be afraid and carefully weigh it.

Even if she told her father what Gu Changge said. Her father would definitely make her agree!

"Why did you have to mention this condition?"

Hearing this, Gu Changge thought about it seriously, and then looked at Jiang Luoshen carefully, "I have to ask you. Although your personality is quite bad, your appearance is barely enough to catch my eyes."

As the Princess of the Supreme God Clan.

Jiang Luoshen's appearance was naturally beautiful.

Blonde hair like waterfall, tall and slender, with straight legs.

Her facial features were exquisite and flawless, and her skin was as white as ice, which could be broken by blowing bullets. Her entire being had a sculptural three-dimensional feeling.

Gu Changge said these words very calmly and directly, without any intention of covering up, but it made Jiang Luoshen stunned for a moment.

She had never seen anyone say that to her.

She had heard a lot of flattery and had long been used to it, but it seemed to have a different feeling from Gu Changge's mouth.

He also knew I was beautiful?

Then why did he kill me so ruthlessly at that time?

"Humph! Gu Changge, do you think I have a bad personality?"

"But how can your character be any better?" Jiang Luoshen couldn't help sneering and added, "Fortunately your eyes aren't blind."

"It's no use talking nonsense. In my eyes, if your beauty doesn't please me, I could kill you at any time."

Gu Changge took a sip of tea unhurriedly, then glanced at her, and said leisurely, "I'll give you the choice, it's up to you."

"Well, I promise you that the conditions are fine, but you have to promise that you can't force me to do things I don't want. Furthermore, I cannot harm the interests of my Supreme God Clan."

Seeing Gu Changge's gaze from top to bottom, Jiang Luoshen was not as twisted as other women.

Instead, she looked at him coldly, showing off her beautiful face and proud figure generously.

"Oh, what if I force you?"

Hearing this, Gu Changge seemed very interested and said with a smile.

"Then I'll definitely fight with you."

Jiang Luoshen's eyes were cold, and a page of golden decree was tightly held in her jade hand.

"Okay, then you can call me master first."

Gu Changge glanced at her sleeves and didn't take it seriously, obviously he didn't take her conditions to heart.

"You..."

Jiang Luoshen's beautiful eyes were full of evil, and she was this close to sacrificing the divine weapon.

But considering that she was far from Gu Changge's opponent, she abruptly suppressed this anger.

She didn't come here to seek revenge on Gu Changge, nor to oppose him.

"I can't do this."

She said coldly, turning her face to the side.

"Then pour me tea and rub my shoulders, you can do that, right?"

Gu Changge's expression remained the same, looking extraordinarily casual.

"I can't do it. I will never serve anyone." Jiang Luoshen's voice was cold and unwavering.

As the Princess of the Supreme God Clan, she had always been high above, overlooking everything.

When the hell did she ever serve anyone? Not to mention pouring tea and rubbing shoulders.

"Then are you kidding me?"

Gu Changge smiled, but didn't look angry, "I can't do this, I can't do that, so what else can you do? Do you really want me to kill you?"

He said it lightly, although he didn't look angry.

However, Jiang Luoshen felt a terrifying chill and murderous aura rushing towards her, making her suffocate and tremble.

"I..."

Jiang Luoshen's complexion changed slightly, she couldn't help clenching her silver teeth. Her back was drenched with cold sweat, knowing that Gu Changge was giving her a final warning.

If she continued to be willful. Today's event would probably not be good.

"In front of me, it's best to put away your Princess temper, or maybe one day when I'm in a bad mood, and I'll shake things out of you False Gods."

Gu Changge glanced at her, "It doesn't matter if you don't know how to serve people, you can learn it. If you really can't learn, then there's no need for you to live anymore."

What he said was simple, but there was a terrifying killing intent imbued in his words.

Jiang Luoshen's face turned pale, and in a trance, she saw a mountain of corpses and a sea of ??blood, rushing towards her. Her whole person couldn't help but tremble slightly.

She clenched her small hands tightly and felt very unwilling, but she did not dare to face Gu Changge.

"I... I know, but Gu Changge, don't go too far."

Jiang Luoshen gritted her teeth, took a deep breath, and calmed herself down.

She strode hard and walked toward Gu Changge. For serving someone for the first time. She appeared very clumsy.

Seeing Gu Changge frowning and seemingly dissatisfied, she couldn't help shaking her hands and almost poured out the tea.

Gu Changge shook his head slightly as he felt very disgusted, "You can't even get a cup of tea, you are really a waste."

Jiang Luoshen's face was indifferent, but his heart was filled with humiliation. It was the first time that she had been scolded like this since she grew up.

She wanted to throw this tea on his face. But she only dared to say this in her heart.

After Jiang Luoshen entered the True Immortal Academy, she never left, but stayed here.

Many geniuses and Elders who discovered this later were shocked. They thought that Jiang Luoshen had come to find Gu Changge because of something.

But who knew that she wouldn't leave, but instead stay by Gu Changge's side.

What did that mean?

This made many young geniuses envious and full of hate, and at the same time, they were deeply touched by the huge gap between people, which was indescribable.

"Stay or not?"

Hearing the news, Yue Mingong felt a little jealousy in her heart.

She didn't know the purpose of Jiang Luoshen's meeting with Gu Changge, but the current Jiang Luoshen's actions were surprisingly consistent with the previous life.

It was just that in her past life, she went to the Gu family's house to visit Gu Changge.

In this life, she came to the True Immortal Academy to find him.

However, she didn't get into trouble with Jiang Luoshen, there was no need to care about this kind of thing.

Jiang Chuchu and Wang Ziji also left the True Immortal Academy because of an incident in the Human Ancestor Hall, and they did not know about this matter.

Otherwise, their reaction would definitely not be much better than Yue Mingong.

And for the next period of time, all the Taoists in the Upper Realm were searching for traces of Jiang Chen and Monk Pu Du.

In addition, there were also places with Absolute Heavenly Extinction that appeared from time to time in various places, causing a lot of panic.

Chapter 392-3: If you cant learn, there is no need to live, Heading to the Demon World to find someone (3)

Other than that, it was quite calm.

For a period of time, Gu Changge had been sending people around to search for the location of the branches of Spring Breeze Pavilion.

And it was this matter that had attracted the attention of many Taoist traditions and forces.

Spring Breeze Pavilion, an assassin organization, had a big gap compared to the long-established assassin organizations such as the Buddha, the Human World, and the Underworld.

But in recent years, it had become famous all over the Upper Realm, and countless geniuses and cultivators had died in their hands.

Gu Changge dispatched many cultivators to search for the location of the Spring Breeze Pavilion, which shocked many people and they did not understand his intention.

Could it be that the Spring Breeze Pavilion had offended Gu Changge?

And Gu Changge even announced a reward for this.

Any cultivator who could capture the assassins of Spring Breeze Pavilion would get rich rewards.

For a time, many cultivators in the Upper Realm moved when they heard the wind, and began to search for the location of the Spring Breeze Pavilion.

Many of their branches were wiped out.

Although the assassins of Spring Breeze Pavilion were hidden everywhere, many people were caught and sent to Gu Changge.

Although these killers were strict, they would rather die than give in.

But under Gu Changge's many torture methods, they still explained some things that happened in the Spring Breeze Pavilion some time ago.

"It seems that Bai Lian'er has already left the Upper Realm, and has brought many powerhouses from the Spring Breeze Pavilion to the Demon World? Is she planning to give the bag first, and then discuss the rescue of Bai Kun?"

Gu Changge raised his eyebrows slightly.

In this case, there was no need for him to stay in True Immortal Academy. His original plan was to wait for Bai Lian'er to show up.

Now it seemed that Bai Lian'er was a lot smarter than he thought, and she didn't come here.

"It seems that we can only look back at Bai Kun's home first."

Gu Changge left some orders to his followers.

Then, he left the True Immortal Academy without any followers by his side. Because the followers of the younger generation were now useless to him.

The gap in strength was too great, and at best, they could only be a jerk and show their prestige.

So Gu Changge set his sights on the powerhouses at the other levels.

The cultivation base must be at least at the level of the Sacred Realm, in order to be qualified to follow him and do things for him.

He asked Jiang Luoshen to return to the Supreme God Clan to bring some people, while he went to Chaotic Star Region first.

Chaotic Star Region, as its name suggests, was extremely chaotic, with many broken continents.

Vast and majestic starlight surged everywhere, and there were many star corpses and islands scattered. One could see many cultivators and caravans coming and going every day.

"Young master."

In an ancient city deep in the Chaotic Star Region, he met Ji Qingxuan. She was speaking to a group of people in the palace.

Her face was white, the facial features were beautiful, the hair was soft, and she was wearing a long purple dress that had a cool and bright feeling on her body.

Ji Qingxuan did not disappoint him.

Under her governance, the Chaotic Star Region appeared to be in good order.

In terms of order, it was much more stable than when the Thirteen Thieves ruled before.

And she already had the aura of a superior. After trying the taste of power, the flame called ambition in her could not stop the tendency to burn the sky.

When Ji Qingxuan saw Gu Changge, she seemed very excited as she took his arm, and reported to him the gains of this period.

"The income during this period was at least 30% higher than when the Thirteen Thieves ruled. Many caravans were very smart and did not dare to avoid the toll, and there were many fewer casualties..."

"In three years, I'll be sure to double the size!"

She was confident and had a natural talent for governing.

"Well done."

Gu Changge nodded and looked at her progress during this period of time.

Afterwards, a lot of powerhouses were selected from among the many thieves to take away, and the weakest cultivation base among them belonged to the Sacred Realm.

There were also several ones in the Great Sacred Realm, all of whom had offended the rest of the Dao lineages and fled here all the way, living a life of licking blood at the edge of a knife.

This was a group of desperadoes, powerful and experienced in fighting.

They naturally knew Gu Changge's identity, and they were naturally ecstatic when they knew they could follow him.

With this level of identity, what was their former enemy?

With a change of heart, they once killed their monstrous thief and became Gu Changge's subordinates.

The various tribes of the Ancient Immortal Continent and the Ancient Immortal Gu Family were also ordered by Gu Changge to send many powerhouses.

After doing all this, Gu Changge took a group of his subordinates to the agreed place and waited for Jiang Luoshen to arrive.

"You are going to the Demon World to find someone, what does it have to do with me?"

From a distance, Jiang Luoshen's voice sounded, riding the golden clouds, brilliance soaring into the sky, followed by many powerhouses of the Supreme God Clan.

Her face was very indifferent, and her tone was full of dissatisfaction.

During this time, she really suffered a lot from Gu Changge, and her arrogance was severely rubbed off.

Moreover, Gu Changge completely treated her as a maid.

Even while going to the Demon World to find someone, he ordered her to head to the Supreme God Clan to find people.

She was purely a tool. But... She also found unbelievably that she had gradually become accustomed to this kind of thing being ordered by him.

"Greetings, Young Master Changge."

Many powerful people from the Supreme God Clan greeted Gu Changge respectfully. Although they knew that Gu Changge planned to use them as coolies, they did not dare to complain.

"Then why are you following?" Hearing this, Gu Changge glanced at Jiang Luoshen lightly.

"I... Naturally, I'm worried that you will let the powerhouse of my clan die." Jiang Luoshen said coldly.

"Is that so? It just so happens that I need a maid who can be used on the road."

Gu Changge didn't care about this, and directly entered the space channel leading to the Demon World.

It was different from the rest of the world.

The Demon World was very special. It was located in the central area of ??the Upper Realm, and there were space passages that could easily pass through the boundary barrier.

Now in the Upper Realm, Gu Changge's reputation had reached an unprecedented peak.

His every move was being watched. Many people were even speculating about when he would become the head of the family.

With his strength, he could definitely do it easily.

The head of an Ancient Immortal Family who was only in his twenties?

And now, he suddenly brought a large number of powerhouses to the Demon World, which attracted the attention of many Taoists.

Many cultivators and creatures were shocked and speculated about the reason for what he did.

Chapter 393-1: The assassination plan of the son of the Demon Emperor, A big man from the Upper Realm (1)

The Demon World was vast and boundless. Long ago, it was divided into nine domains, each of which was ruled by a different Demon Emperor.

But after the chaos from six thousand years in the Demon World ended, the Demon World also achieved a rare unification.

Now the nine great domains respected Empress Xi Yao, the world was peaceful, and wars were rare.

Except for the remnants of the five Emperors, there was almost no force in the Demon World to resist Empress Xi Yao.

However, during this period of time, there were still many big demons, who were divided into one side, supported their own troops and tried to overthrow the regime of Empress Xi Yao. Due to this many wars had broken out in various places.

Xuan Yang Domain.

This was the territory once ruled by the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor.

The territory was vast and boundless, the mountains were green, and the sacred mountains seemed towering, which looked extremely magnificent.

However, it had now been merged into the Middle Heavenly domain of the Demon World.

There were various ethnic groups in the Demon World, making up for a large population. In terms of background, they were also top-notch.

And the Black and White Academy of the Demon World was located here.

Six thousand years ago, Empress Xi Yao established the Black and White Academy.

The same text in the book, cultivating the human way, was handing down many cultivation methods. This way many monster clan creatures would have the opportunity to get rid of their hair and horns, and have a glimpse of the Immortal way.

One must know that before this, all the clans in the Demon World firmly controlled the cultivation method in their own hands, and never let it spread out.

This also led to many demon clans who had just been born with spiritual wisdom, but had no blood inheritance, and could only live in ignorance.

Although they had a long lifespan, their cultivation base was low, and they could only be captured by the cultivators of other ethnic groups and become slaves for refining medicine, with a miserable end.

Empress Xi Yao's behavior like this could be said to have gone against the major ethnic groups in the Demon World, stripping their interests from their hands.

The major ethnic groups were naturally reluctant to hand over the cultivation methods. However, under her iron-blooded and tough tactics, although all ethnic groups were unwilling, they could only compromise in the end.

For a time, the Black and White Academy was regarded as the sacred land of the Demon World, the hope of countless creatures in the Demon World.

Countless monster creatures wanted to worship it, cultivate Taoism, and have a glimpse of the Immortal way.

After 6,000 years had passed, the power of the current Black and White Academy was even more terrifying.

It was up to the sky, down to the towns in eight directions.

Many demon creatures who had learned from the Black and White Academy had become the die-hards of Empress Xi Yao, which was her weapon to calm the chaos and suppress the remnants of the five Emperors.

"Have you heard? During this period of time, it seems that a big man would be coming to the Demon World. Her Majesty the Queen attaches great importance to it, and even sent someone to clean up the Temple of Picking Stars, which has been dusty for more than 6,000 years, for the big man to temporarily live."

"I also heard that the news is too sensational. It is said that the big man from the Upper Realm has a terrifying status and an unfathomable background."

"The last time an Immortal Great Sect leader came to the Demon World, I didn't see Her Majesty the Queen attach so much importance to it. This time, the extent is evident..."

In front of the Black and White Academy gate, an incomparably majestic ancient mountain gate was erected, as if it was the first mountain gate since the creation of the world, displaying desolation and longevity.

On the surface of the mountain gate, strands of chaotic mist hung down, and there were hundreds of millions of rays of light blooming and intertwining here, turning into black and white characters, which could reflect the sky at any time.

In the distance, there were countless creatures from the Demon World who were swallowing up the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, devouring the sun, moon, and glowing light to practice.

At this moment, in front of the mountain gate, there were several tall young men and women from the demon race who were shrouded in divine brilliance and had successfully cultivated.

They were discussing things and saying important matters, and their faces were suddenly full of shock and curiosity.

They were of extraordinary status, and they had already received news from the family behind them. They knew that this time a big man from the Upper Realm was coming.

Empress Xi Yao's attention had even reached an unprecedented level, and she intended to entertain civil and military officials in the Temple of Picking Stars to wash away the dust for that big man.

In their view, this kind of thing was absolutely unimaginable. If it was said to be the first time in 6,000 years, it would be no exaggeration.

Several people were talking when suddenly a young demon arrived from the mountain gate.

Wearing a blue robe, a tall and straight body, a handsome face, with a kind of indifferent self-confidence.

There were also many young creatures behind him, but most of them were beautiful women and were faintly headed.

When they saw him, the expressions of the men and women who were talking changed slightly, and they seemed to be a little afraid, and closed their mouths tightly.

Hearing the conversation between the group of men and women, the man in blue looked at them in surprise.

Seeing that they didn't say more, he smiled slightly, they walked into the mountain gate on their own.

"Ya'er, there will be a big man coming from the Upper Realm. How much do you know about this?"

After entering the mountain gate, the man in blue asked a woman with a beautiful face and a graceful figure behind him, seemingly curious.

Naturally, he heard a little bit of what a few people were talking about just now, which made him feel something was wrong.

"Young Master Qi, I have only vaguely heard that this time the identity of the person from the Upper Realm is very mysterious and terrifying. Her Majesty the Queen has not disclosed any news, but just asked the civil and military officials to head to the Temple of Picking Stars to wash the dust for them..."

The woman named Ya'er heard the words and replied as she told everything she had learned in detail.

Because her father was also a famous official in the Demon World, he was naturally qualified to come into contact with this matter.

Hearing this, the man in blue pondered for a while, and a thoughtful look flashed in his eyes.

"Is that so? The big man from the Upper Realm... Will it have anything to do with this matter...?"

Thinking like this, he couldn't help frowning before walking into the academy, and took everyone back to the cave where he was, intending to ask someone again.

Now the Demon World was not as peaceful as it seemed on the surface.

Various undercurrents were hidden in the dark and may erupt at any time.

And after the man in blue left, the young men and women in front of the mountain gate retracted their gazes, looking rather apprehensive.

"Jun Fan, it's him! As expected, his cultivation is unfathomable, just like the rumors."

"It is rumored that he is known as the strongest in the Black and White Academy. Except for Senior Sister Song, almost no one can compete with him. And I heard that his relationship with Senior Sister Song is not simple, and he has a lot of sympathy for each other..."

They talked, and their words carried the meaning of envy and emotion.

Chapter 393-2: The assassination plan of the son of the Demon Emperor, A big man from the Upper Realm (2)

The Senior Sister Song in their mouths was the only daughter of the Grand Master of the Demon World.

Her full name was Song Youwei. She had a beautiful face and a gentle and generous temperament.

Although she was of noble birth and loved by thousands of people, she did not have any arrogance and was gentle. She was the most perfect goddess in the hearts of all the younger generations of the Black and White Academy.

The Demon Master was the character who taught the Empress from childhood. His status was respected, he had only one person above him.

Now that Empress Xi Yao's methods were strong and iron-blooded, once she had made a decision, she would not change it, and the Demon Master was rarely able to persuade her.

In addition, Empress Xi Yao was also quite optimistic about Song Youwei, and she would be entrusted with important tasks after she had completed her studies at the Black and White Academy.

It could be said that even some Elders of the Black and White Academy attached great importance to Song Youwei and dare not treat her as an ordinary disciple.

The man in blue who just walked over, named Jun Fan, was the most outstanding disciple of the Black and White Academy in recent years.

With outstanding talent and strong cultivation, he had only been in school for half a year, and he had defeated many disciples of the older generation.

Some people even said that he was the third son of the King of Peace and Chaos. He had been hidden in the snow for a few years, keeping a low profile until this period of time.

There were many rumors, but not the same. No matter the rumor, it was enough to show that Jun Fan's identity was not simple.

His identity, background, and cultivation talent were the best choices that a few people could match, and he had become the object of admiration in the eyes of many young female disciples.

He was tall and handsome. And just as a few people were talking, the man in blue returned to his cave and sent the others back.

"How could someone suddenly arrive from the Upper Realm this time, could it be because of Uncle Bai's incident...?"

Jun Fan said softly, and his eyes flashed thoughtfully.

Whether it was the previous life or this life, he was called Jun Bufan, but in this life, in order to avoid suspicion, he changed his name to Jun Fan.

Some time ago, Empress Xi Yao suddenly began a search all over the Demon World for a person named Jun Bufan.

When he heard about this, the first thing Jun Fan did was to find his mother and discuss the name change.

As the King of Peace and Chaos, his father was highly regarded by Empress Xi Yao. Now that he was in his prime, he naturally didn't want to ruin his future because of this trivial matter.

As a result, Jun Bufan changed his name to Jun Fan, and logically escaped the search from Empress Xi Yao.

It just so happened that his father was the one in charge of this. From his father's point of view, he just had the same name as Jun Bufan six thousand years ago.

When he named him, he was so excited that he chose this name, hoping that his son would be as dazzling as that arrogant genius six thousand years ago.

But he never thought that after 6,000 years, Empress Xi Yao would search for someone with the same name and surname.

Although his son was not highly regarded by him, he had grown up with him since he was a child. How could he have something to do with the son of the Demon Emperor Xuan Yang six thousand years ago?

Later, relying on his father's relationship in this life, Jun Fan gradually showed his prominence and began to gain a lot of fame in the Xuan Yang domain of the Demon World.

He had been hidden in the snow for more than ten years, and once he appeared, the world knew it.

His deeds were admired by many young souls, and he was used as an example to learn from.

In addition, with the experience of cultivation in the previous life, as well as the many inheritances obtained in this life.

Jun Fan quickly caught up with many young geniuses, and joined the Black and White Academy, becoming one of the most dazzling existences of his peers.

At the same time, he secretly searched for the many backups left by his father, Xuan Yang Demon Emperor, for him in his previous life, and integrated those forces, which had become a small scale.

Many great monsters with profound cultivation were his subordinates, hiding in the dark, waiting for the day when his wings grew, to launch revenge against Empress Xi Yao.

"According to the information that my father left me, he once asked his old friend to give me something, and then his old friend will definitely come to me."

"I just don't know if the big man from the Upper Realm coming to the Demon World has anything to do with this..."

Jun Fan breathed a sigh of relief, the light in his eyes flickered, and he had a plan in his heart.

Now it was equivalent that he was in the dark, and Empress Xi Yao was in the light.

Empress Xi Yao didn't know that he had been reborn, and was accumulating strength to launch revenge.

This was a perfect opportunity for him.

"Although my cultivation base has only reached the Godking Realm, after refining the inheritance crystallization left by the Imperial father, my real cultivation base has already reached the Sacred Realm."

"This is one of my trump cards."

With the cultivation experience of the previous life, Jun Fan's cultivation process in this life was extremely smooth, as if he was loved by the heavens and the earth, and he was able to break through a small realm after a period of time.

In addition, in his Sea of Consciousness World, there were many divine pills, sacred medicines, divine sources, techniques, and other things left by his father and Emperor for him, and his realm of cultivation improved rapidly.

In a short period of time, he had broken through to the Sacred Realm.

But now this breakthrough speed was much slower, but Jun Fan was already satisfied enough.

When he was at this age in his previous life, he was only able to cultivate like this.

"Seven days later, it will be the Banquet of geniuses at the Black and White Academy. At that time, Xi Yao will definitely arrive with her real body and reward many geniuses with Royal wine, and this is my chance..."

Thinking of this, killing intent and coldness flashed in Jun Fan's eyes.

The childhood sweetheart he once loved deeply, but finally poisoned him with wine.

How could he forget this hatred?

In the next life, he would make Xi Yao regret what she had done, reveal her hypocritical face, and let her repay the pain.

So she decided to assassinate Xi Yao at the Banquet of the geniuses seven days later.

For this matter, he had been planning for a long time, bringing many of his subordinates quietly, and now they were hiding around the Black and White Academy, waiting to be dispatched at any time.

"In order to be safe, we have to figure out the identity of the mysterious big man, whether he is standing on Xi Yao's side, or will it be the backhand arranged by the father..."

Jun Fan's eyes were full of coldness, and then he gradually returned to calm. He took something out of his pocket.

This was a lavender brush with hollow marks on its body, like a flawless Immortal jade, round and natural.

As he touched the restriction on the brush, strands of lavender traces flashed across the void and finally disappeared.

After doing this, Jun Fan waited quietly in the cave. And not long after, there was a sound of footsteps outside the cave, Jun Fan looked happy, got up quickly, and hurried to greet him.

"Is there a problem?"

Chapter 393-3: The assassination plan of the son of the Demon Emperor, A big man from the Upper Realm (3)

Accompanied by a cold voice, a tall and beautiful woman appeared. She was wearing a long purple dress, her skin was delicate and flawless, and her hair was soft and luminous.

She was holding a lavender brush in her hand, which was exactly the same as the one in Jun Fan's hand.

"Qingzhu, you are finally here."

Seeing the woman in the purple dress, Jun Fan also had a smile on his face.

The woman named Qingzhu heard the words and sighed slightly, "You have something to ask me, why can't I come?"

"Sit." Jun Fan smiled and let her sit down.

However, Qingzhu shook her head and said, "No need, if you have anything to do with me, just tell me. Now, Her Majesty the Queen is in need of manpower. If I hadn't made an excuse, it would be difficult to get out to see you."

"Xi Yao is very busy, is she receiving that big man?" Jun Fan frowned.

Qingzhu nodded and said, "After all, it's a major event related to the Demon World."

Jun Fan's eyes flashed brightly, and then he said directly, "Actually when I called you this time, I also wanted to ask about this matter. Who is this big man?"

As the closest female official around Xi Yao, Qingzhu might know some things that many people don't know.

Hearing this, Qingzhu glanced at him, then sighed softly, "I mentioned it to you before..."

"The young master of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, Gu Changge? Could it be him?"

Jun Fan was shocked and said in shock, "Why would he suddenly come to the Demon World?"

Some time ago, Qingzhu had indeed told him about this. Empress Xi Yao once exchanged letters with Gu Changge and had many exchanges.

This made Jun Fan feel a little uncomfortable. After all, Xi Yao was once his fiancée, although she planned to poison him.

But for more than 6,000 years, he had never heard of any man besides her.

This made Jun Fan actually have a bit of fantasy and wanted to ask Xi Yao in person if she had regretted it over the years.

Has she ever had him in her heart?

But until some time ago, he learned that Xi Yao and Gu Changge had known each other at some point, and the two often communicated by letter.

This made him very uncomfortable. In terms of identity, Xi Yao was more than 6,000 years older than Gu Changge.

Gu Changge was at most a junior.

"I don't know what the Empress thinks either. As for why Gu Changge came to the Demon World, I don't know either." Qingzhu shook her head, also confused.

How noble was Gu Changge's identity, and the rumors about him in the Upper Realm were naturally clear to the Demon World?

In terms of strength and background, it can no longer be regarded as someone from a younger generation.

"Jun Fan, you can do it yourself. I'll go first. If the Empress finds out that I've left, she will inevitably punish me."

Then, after saying this, Qingzhu left, leaving Jun Fan alone, frowning and pacing in the cave.

In the end, he could only sigh deeply, feeling that this matter seemed to be getting tricky.

"However, Xi Yao didn't know that the female official Qingzhu beside her was actually with me."

Jun Fan breathed a sigh of relief and calmed down.

Almost everyone in the Demon World knew that Empress Xi Yao had the four most trusted and close female officials.

Mei, Lan, Zhu and Ju.

Some time ago, when Jun Fan went to a dangerous place in the Demon World to cultivate and was looking for his father's successor, he met Qingzhu there.

At that time, she came to help Empress Xi Yao to fetch something, but she was in crisis and her life was in danger.

Jun Fan couldn't bear it, so he took action to save her.

Although it was a very old-fashioned hero-saving beauty plot, it had unimaginable lethality for a woman like Qingzhu who had rarely seen a man.

In addition, Jun Fan's eloquence was good, his speech was extraordinary, his cultivation was strong, and his appearance was dignified.

Afterward, it made Qingzhu understand that following the ruthless Empress Xi Yao was actually not worth it.

Not only did she have to work for her, but she didn't even have freedom. In the end, if something was not done to the satisfaction of Empress Xi Yao, she would be punished horribly.

In the beginning, Qingzhu was actually very firm in her heart.

But after returning to the palace, because of unfavorable work, she did not get what Empress Xi Yao wanted. After being punished and claustrophobic for several months, she finally felt shaken.

Over time, she and Jun Fan became more and more familiar with each other, and they had a good impression of each other, and gradually agreed to help him be the inner spy beside Empress Xi Yao.

Because of this, Jun Fan also knew a lot about Empress Xi Yao's movements and began to plan to assassinate her in his heart.

When his thoughts came back, another gentle shadow flashed across Jun Fan's mind, and he smiled slightly, "You can ask Ya Wei about this, she is so smart, maybe she knows something..."

.....

At the same time, in the Imperial Palace of the Demon Realm, there was now a lively scene, with lanterns and festive mists lingering.

The palace towers were towering and magnificent like an ancient sky tower, located in the world.

Whether it was a civil and military official or an old monster with a high level of cultivation.

At this moment, they were all gathered here, with their family members, looking at the scene in the palace, their faces were different from awe, envy, or emotion.

The palace was magnificent, shrouded in chaotic mist, incomparably misty, and immortal air fluttering.

The melons, fruits, wine, and meat on the banquet are all shimmering and lustrous, all of which were rare delicacies that had not been seen for hundreds of thousands of years.

Not to mention the terrifying rhythm and energy contained in it was enough to make many people break through in cultivation and realize epiphany on the spot.

The maids in the banquet room were all beautiful, with fair color, wide robes, beautiful postures, singing and dancing with their soft voices.

However, the people who could take a seat in the palace were all big figures in the Demon World. They held the power and were highly valued by Empress Xi Yao.

Such as the Demon Master and the King of Peace and Chaos.

On the top place, a beautiful woman stood there with phoenix clothes and blue silk hanging down, seemingly luxurious and peerless.

There was a majesty that was hard to look at between the eyebrows, but because of the light red makeup between the eyebrows, it looked a little strange. Clear and charming.

Beside her was a black-clothed man with a handsome face and calm and deep eyes.

The sleeves were embroidered with mountains, rivers, stars, the sun, and the moon, and they seemed to be manifested at any time.

He was Gu Changge, and to his right was Jiang Luoshen.

As the Princess of the Supreme God Clan, in terms of temperament was enough for all the women present to lower their eyebrows.

"I apologize for troubling Empress Xi Yao to arrange such a big reception for Changge."

Gu Changge smiled and raised his glass.

Empress Xi Yao also smiled, looked at him, raised her glass, and said, "Young Master Changge is not far away from the Demon World."

As the two of them drank.

And many of the big figures in the Demon World below saw this scene, and their hearts were also very emotional.

Before coming here, no one thought that Gu Changge, the Young Master of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, would come to the Demon World.

In terms of identity and strength, there was nothing wrong with Gu Changge and Empress Xi Yao sitting in the same seat now.

Before this, even in the face of those Great Sect leaders, Empress Xi Yao rarely had such an attitude and even toasted herself.

This only made them feel shocked.

Chapter 394-1: Gu Changge is very picky, He can watch a big show (1)

And just when Gu Changge and Empress Xi Yao were talking happily. Outside the palace, a woman in purple hurried in.

Everyone glanced at her and recognized her as Qingzhu, the female official next to the Empress. Thus, they didn't care much.

Qingzhu, on the other hand, looked cold and calm, walking behind Empress Xi Yao and standing with Qingmei, Qinglan, and Qingju, with a respectful appearance.

Empress Xi Yao glanced at her but did not ask her where she went.

On the other hand, Gu Changge noticed the unnatural look on the purple-clothed woman's expression, and raised his eyebrows slightly, but didn't say much.

"I wonder why the Young Master Changge decided to visit the Demon World this time?"

Once the conversation was over, Empress Xi Yao opened her mouth and asked curiously.

Although she had written correspondence with Gu Changge, Gu Changge never mentioned the reason for visiting the Demon World.

This made her very curious.

Hearing this, Gu Changge put down the wine glass in his hand before smiling and replying, "Empress Xi Yao, did you know that some time ago, I went into the Chaotic Star Region to exterminate the Thirteen Thieves?"

Empress Xi Yao nodded, she naturally knew about this.

Because the person behind the Thirteen Thieves turned out to be the remnant of the Five Emperors who fled from the Demon World 6,000 years ago, the Demon Master Bai Kun.

This made her very shocked at the time.

Who would have thought that Bai Kun had been hiding in the Chaotic Star Region all these years?

No wonder she dispatched a lot of people, and was unable to find any movement.

But now that Gu Changge had arrested Bai Kun, she naturally didn't care about it anymore.

"Is it possible that Young Master Changge came to the Demon World this time because of this matter?"

Empress Xi Yao was a little thoughtful.

Gu Changge nodded and said with a smile, "It does have a lot to do with this matter, but there is still a part of it, it has something to do with you, Empress Xi Yao."

"It has something to do with me?" Queen Xiyao raised her eyebrows.

However, Gu Changge didn't say much. Empress Xi Yao's eyes moved slightly, and she also understood that this matter might involve a great deal.

It was really inappropriate to speak about this here, so she didn't ask any more questions.

And Qingzhu, who was obediently serving behind Empress Xi Yao, was a little disappointed when she saw this.

She thought that she could hear something crucial. In the end, Gu Changge just ended it with this sentence.

And just when Gu Changge was talking to Empress Xi Yao.

Below the banquet, there was a beautiful woman wearing a long coat and yellow dress.

She was talking to an old man in white with a calm aura next to her and looked upward from time to time with curiosity.

She looked picturesque as if she just walked out of a quaint picture scroll, with a poetic atmosphere, gentle and generous.

"Youwei, what do you think of the rumored Young Master Changge?"

The old man in white asked with a slight smile on his face.

The woman in the jacket and yellow dress was the only daughter of the Grand Master of the Demon Realm, Song Youwei.

She was the most brilliant young genius in the Demon World right now.

Hearing this at the moment, she raised her head and looked up, and couldn't help but smile, "Reporting to my father, Youwei feels that in terms of appearance and temperament alone, Young Master Changge can be called a God like Immortal, unparalleled in the world. ."

"It can only be said that Young Master Changge is worthy of being a famous person in the Upper Realm. No matter whether it is his bearing or his speech, I can't find the slightest flaw. Of course, in terms of cultivation, I dare not speak falsely. It is rumored that he has already reached the Quasi-Supreme Realm. It's just unbelievable."

"In front of him, I really can't be called a genius. Obviously, he is about the same age as me."

Her words were very simple and direct and her expression was normal, indicating that she didn't mean to flatter or please.

It was just to express her first opinion when she saw Gu Changge.

Gu Changge was indeed very good, even to the point where she couldn't find any flaws, and she couldn't find a genius who could compete with him. But she didn't have any idea, at most, it was only a kind of amazement and admiration.

Song Youwei was not a superficial person and naturally she was not the kind of person who tended to be inflamed.

"In terms of his current power, it is true that there are no young people better than him in the huge Upper Realm. Even the strength of those Great Sect leaders is inferior to him."

"I really don't know how such a monster can exist in this world."

After listening, the old man in white nodded in agreement, and then sighed, "Youwei, you can come with me to meet Young Master Changge in a while. I can be regarded as a familiar face in front of him."

"If you can get in touch with people like him more, it will be a good thing for you."

He didn't say anything to ask Song Youwei to please Gu Changge.

Not to mention that with his character, he couldn't do such a thing. Even Song Youwei herself would refuse something like this and it would be impossible for her to agree to such a request.

Of course, for Gu Changge, there were too many beautiful girls in the sky, and Song Youwei probably wouldn't catch his eye.

"Hmm, Youwei listens to father."

Song Youwei nodded, still looking at Gu Changge curiously.

However, Gu Changge seemed to have noticed her gaze, then looked over, smiled at her before nodding slightly.

Song Youwei was slightly startled, but she did not look away shyly like ordinary women, but instead smiled generously and looked at Gu Changge.

Noticing this scene, Empress Xi Yao raised her eyebrows slightly and asked, "Does Young Master Changege know Youwei?"

Gu Changege shook his head slightly and replied, "I don't know her, I just think she is a little different from the rest of the women."

"She is the only daughter of the Demon Master, her name is Song Youwei, and she is also a very dazzling genius in my Demon World." After hearing this, Empress Xi Yao nodded and explained.

"Song Youwei? This is a poetic name." Gu Changege smiled and looked away.

Soon afterward, the reception banquet was over, the guests and the host enjoyed themselves, and many big figures in the Demon World also said their goodbyes and left.

They could imagine that Gu Changege's arrival in the Demon World would definitely cause a huge sensation, causing unimaginable effects.

In the hall today, they had heard a part of the conversation between Gu Changege and Empress Xi Yao and understood that Gu Changege did not come to the Demon World for no reason.

So it was very likely that there would be unimaginable turmoil in the Demon World, and they had to prepare in advance. However, in the palace, many important officials trusted by Empress Xi Yao stayed behind.

With their family members, they planned to visit Gu Changege in person, making them familiar.

"The old master of the Demon World, greets Young Master Changege. This is the daughter of this old man, her name is Song Youwei."

Demon Master first took Song Youwei to stand up and bowed his hands toward Gu Changege, who was the first to take the seat after Empress Xi Yao.

While speaking, he introduced Song Youwei next to him.

Gu Changege nodded slightly and looked away, "Demon Master doesn't need to be too polite, Empress Xi Yao has already introduced her to Changege just now."

After that, he looked at Song Youwei with a warm smile, "Youwei, that's a good name."

Chapter 394-2: Gu Changege is very picky, He can watch a big show (2)

Song Youwei smiled, looking decent and generous, "Thank you, Young Master Changege, for your praise."

Afterward, the King of Peace and Chaos and others also brought their family members up to meet them. Their attitude was different from that of the Demon Master, and they seemed quite respectful.

After all, in terms of seniority, Demon Master was the teacher of Empress Xi Yao.

And they were only subordinates of Empress Xi Yao.

The King of Peace and Chaos was a tall, burly, arrogant man.

There was a scar between his eyebrows, adding a bit of fierce aura, and the cultivation base was the Quasi-Supreme Realm.

Gu Changge nodded his head one by one, but his expression did not change. He seemed very gentle and natural, without any impatience, which made the King of Chaos and others a little flattered.

Of course, at the same time everyone greeted them, Gu Changge was also looking at the group of people.

Except for Song Youwei, everyone else's Luck points were normal.

The Luck point of the King of Peace and Chaos was also a little higher, but it had not yet reached the category of people with Great Luck.

This made Gu Changge focus on Song Youwei.

Generally, people with Great Luck could easily lead to the Son of Luck.

This time, the son of the Demon Emperor might have something to do with Song Youwei.

However, he didn't startle the snake, and planned to wait and see for a while, investigating her along the way.

Soon, everyone had left, and in the palace, only Gu Changge's people and Empress Xi Yao's people were left.

"Young Master Changge just said something about me, I wonder what it is?"

Empress Xi Yao couldn't help but ask, she didn't ask too much about some things till now. And now the rest of the people here were her confidants and could be trusted.

Gu Changge glanced at her and smiled, but he didn't continue to sell him off, "I wonder if Empress Xi Yao still remembers Jun Bufan?"

"Jun Bufan?"

Empress Xi Yao's complexion changed slightly, she naturally remembered the name.

It could be said to be something taboo in front of her. The ministers and maids usually did not dare to mention this name and kept it a secret.

Behind her, the four female officials, Qing Mei, Qing Lan, Qing Zhu, and Qing Ju all changed slightly, especially Qing Zhu.

"The matter Young Master Changge mentioned is related to him?" Empress Xi Yao frowned and her face darkened.

Gu Changge smiled and said, "Yes, I asked an interesting thing from Bai Kun's mouth. The Demon Emperor Xuan Yang once asked him to find a suitable time to give a bag to a man named Jun Bufan. But as far as I know, isn't Jun Bufan the son of Demon Emperor Xuan Yang, who died 6,000 years ago? So I think this matter may be of great help to the Empress."

"Jun Bufan, he really cheated death!"

After listening, Empress Xi Yao's eyes flashed with coldness, and after shaking her heart, she quickly calmed down.

In fact, when she found out that Jun Bufan's tomb was empty, she was guessing about it.

"What... Just cheating?"

The four female officials, Qing Mei, Qing Lan, and Qing Ju, also widened their eyes in surprise.

Qingzhu's complexion turned pale, but Empress Xi Yao didn't notice it.

"Thank you, Young Master Changge, for telling me about this."

Empress Xi Yao's beautiful eyes took a deep look at Gu Changge.

Although she guessed that Gu Changge still had some things to tell her, but for the sake of it, she had reached the point of being benevolent and righteous.

After all, before that, she and Gu Changge only had a relationship.

"Empress Xi Yao no need to mention." Gu Changge smiled.

He had already said so, then Empress Xi Yao would definitely search everywhere for Jun Bufan's location, and it could save him some effort.

Empress Xi Yao nodded, then looked up at the moonlight outside the hall.

"It's late at night, Young Master Changge should rest early."

"Qingmei, Qinglan, Qingzhu, and Qingju are the confidants I have cultivated since I was a child. They are pure and clean, well-behaved and clever. If Young Master Changge doesn't mind, let them serve in bed tonight."

Then, she pointed to the four, Qingmei, Qinglan, Qingzhu, and Qingju behind her.

Hearing this, the four girls Qingmei, Qinglan, Qingzhu, and Qingju were taken aback for a moment.

Afterward, the three girls, Qingmei, Qinglan, and Qingju all had blush on their faces and shyly lowered their heads.

They didn't expect Empress Xi Yao to say that.

As the most trusted female officials around the Empress, their identities were also extremely noble in the entire Demon World, and only a few people could compare with them.

Many big figures and geniuses were very flattering to them.

They were cultivated by Empress Xi Yao from childhood, and they were instilled with the idea that everything they did was for the Empress, even their death.

So if one day, they were given to a big man by the Empress, they would not dare to have any complaints.

As for characters like Gu Changge, before that, they never thought that they would be able to get in touch with him one day.

At this moment, they were even very happy and looking forward to it. Unlike Qingmei, Qinglan, and Qingju's nervous anticipation, Qingzhu looked a little pale and uneasy.

After all, she had someone in her heart, so she was naturally unwilling to be given out to sleep by Empress Xi Yao like this.

"Oh?" Gu Changge didn't expect Empress Xi Yao to say this and was slightly surprised.

Although the four women Qingmei, Qinglan, Qingzhu, and Qingju were all celestial and treasure, they were rare in the world.

But after seeing the looks of Yue Mingkong, Jiang Chuchu, and others, it was inevitable to give him the feeling of a rogue vulgar fan.

He himself was not an ascetic monk or a generation of playboys, but this kind of thing really didn't bring much interest.

What was more, he always felt that there was something wrong with the woman in the purple skirt among the four women, and had to be noticed.

Of course, if Empress Xi Yao herself was willing to serve the bed, it should be a different matter. Not to mention that there was Jiang Luoshen by his side.

"Empress Xi Yao should spare this matter, Gu Changge is very picky."

However, before Gu Changge refused, Jiang Luoshen, who had an indifferent expression and never spoke, spoke up.

She glanced at Gu Changge, and there were runes flowing in her golden eyes as if she knew what he was thinking.

Since this time, Gu Changge had been treating her as a coolie, but she was almost used to it. Although there were complaints, they were not as strong as before.

Seeing this scene, she always felt very uncomfortable. With Gu Changge's identity, how could these rouge vulgar fans match the bed?

"Oh, that's what made me abrupt."

Hearing this, Empress Xi Yao glanced at Jiang Luoshen with no change in her expression. She naturally knew this Princess of the Supreme God Clan.

She was totally jealous of Jiang Luoshen. From her point of view, Jiang Luoshen was by Gu Changge's side and came to the Demon World with him, which was naturally a close relationship.

She only mentioned this kind of thing casually. Except for Gu Changge, what kind of woman could she want?

Hearing this, the three girls Qingmei, Qinglan, and Qingju felt a little disappointed, but they didn't dare to show it on their faces. Qingzhu breathed a long sigh of relief, and finally, let go of her dangling heart.

Afterward, Gu Changge, Jiang Luoshen, and others went to the palace arranged by Empress Xi Yao to rest. And Empress Xi Yao waved Qingmei and others back, leaving only Qingzhu.

Her face was very indifferent, and she regained the majesty of the Empress in front of her. Qingzhu felt a little uneasy in her heart, but his expression remained calm.

"Tell me, what happened just now?"

Chapter 394-3: Gu Changge is very picky, He can watch a big show (3)

Empress Xi Yao glanced at her lightly. Although Qingzhu's emotional change was only a moment, she still felt it.

As Qingzhu, it was absolutely ecstatic to serve Gu Changge to bed, how could there be resistance and unwillingness to come? Hearing this, Qingzhu's face turned pale, and fear arose in his heart.

"Servant knows she's wrong, and I hope Your Majesty will forgive me."

She knelt down with a plop, her voice trembling.

"Do you have someone you like?" Empress Xi Yao seemed to see through her thoughts at a glance.

Qingzhu's complexion was even paler, and she hurriedly shook her head to explain, "The slaves have always been pure and clean, and there is no place for overstepping, and I dare not deceive Your Majesty."

She knew that Empress Xi Yao didn't like people with unclean bodies around her. Therefore, although she and Jun Fan had mutual affection, they had never surpassed the line in the slightest.

Empress Xi Yao did not doubt her words. Qingzhu had followed her for so long and knew the consequences of deceiving her.

"I'll give you a chance to solve this matter yourself, otherwise if you let me know who he is, I won't leave his whole body."

"Go back," Empress Xi Yao said lightly, her expression was indifferent without any emotional fluctuations, and she was completely different from when she was in front of Gu Changge.

.....

"It seems that the people around Empress Xi Yao are not completely trustworthy. The methods of this son of the Demon Emperor are not simple."

After returning to the palace, Gu Changge sent someone to keep an eye on Song Youwei who he had seen today.

He was also paying attention to Xi Yao's confidants, but he did not remind Empress Xi Yao. If there was no accident, he could watch a big play next.

And soon, several days passed in a blink of an eye, and the matter of Gu Changge's appearance in the Demon World also caused a stir in all areas of the Demon World.

Because the Demon World was different from the rest of the Lower Realms, it and the Upper Realm interoperated with each other.

In fact, the Demon World could know a lot of things that happened in the Upper Realm with just a few inquiries.

Gu Changge's reputation was extremely big even in the Demon World, and many people knew of his existence. However, there were also many people who were speculating about the purpose of his trip to the Demon World this time.

Before this, there was no news of such a big event, which really shocked and surprised many big clans in the Demon World. And during this period, another major event in the Demon World was also held as scheduled.

Banquet of the geniuses!

For all the younger generation in the Demon World, it was an opportunity to leap into the dragon gate. If they could become famous at this Banquet of geniuses and be valued by Empress Xi Yao, they would definitely be promoted to a rank and honored as a lintel.

At this moment, in a cave in the Black and White Academy, Jun Fan was turning his back to several people and asked lightly.

"How are things going?"

Behind him stood several creatures with vague breaths, whose faces were difficult to see. They wore large robes and looked no different from the Elders of the Black and White Academy.

"According to the instructions of the little master, we have already controlled the ministers who are in charge of the royal wine at this banquet of the geniuses. Their wives and daughters have been taken away by us and sent to a safe place."

"With such a condition, there is no need to worry that they will disobey our orders."

Hearing this, they reported.

"That's good, although we control the imperial wine, judging from Xi Yao's degree of prudence over the years, she will definitely find someone to test the poison first."

Jun Fan nodded slightly, his eyes flashed coldly, and continued,

"So it's not enough. When the Banquet of the Genius will be held on the sacred mountain of the Black and White Academy, all the powerful figures in the Demon World will come. The surrounding terrain will be open, and it will be difficult for our people to hide, and Xi Yao has a cunning temperament and will definitely send many strong people protecting from the shadows. So you have to hide in the crowd and act on the signal."

"For this assassination, I have planned for a long time, and there is no room for error."

"Don't worry, little master, we have accumulated a lot of power in secret over the years, hidden very deep in the major families. And in this Banquet of the Genius, in addition to us, there are other five Emperors' remnants, and they will also help us. "

The figure whose face was blurred, the figure hidden in the robe opened his mouth, and there was confidence in his words.

Hearing this, Jun Fan couldn't help but nod his head, his face had even more icy killing intent, his fists clenched tightly.

"More than 6,000 years have passed, and now Xi Yao's cultivation is at the Supreme Realm at most. Unless she has another chance, it will be difficult to reach the Quasi-Emperor Realm. But even if she is in the Quasi-Emperor Realm, it will be fine. Uncle Ye already has the Imperial Artifact refined by father, and Xi Yao is doomed this time..."

Afterward, Jun Fan waved his hand to let the people behind him leave, and silence returned to the cave.

He looked outside the cave, his eyes flickering and thinking, obviously waiting for something.

In the past few days, he had planned to ask Song Youwei about something, but after Song Youwei returned to the Demon Master's mansion, she hadn't come to the Black and White Academy, which made him quite disappointed.

"Jun Fan..."

And soon, outside the cave, a purple-clothed woman arrived, with a cold face and a bit of sadness.

It was the female official Qingzhu next to Empress Xiyao.

"What's wrong?"

Seeing her expression, Jun Fan was a little puzzled, and then calmly brought her the tea that had been prepared on the stone table, "What happened, don't worry, drink tea first."

Qingzhu glanced at him, sighed, took a sip of the tea, and then told him what happened in the palace that day.

After listening to this, Jun Fan's face was a little ugly, and he was very angry.

"This Xi Yao actually asked you to serve in bed just to please Gu Changge?"

Qingzhu nodded and was also very angry, "Not only that, the Empress is still investigating things about you."

Jun Fan's face was a little uncertain, and finally, he sighed deeply, "Since she is unjust, don't blame me for being ruthless."

"Actually, I'm looking for you this time because I want you to help me. As long as this matter is successful, we don't have to worry about Xi Yao anymore.

"What's the matter?"

Qingzhu faintly guessed something in his heart, and her face turned pale.

"This is the poison I found at a great price, and it has miraculous effects even for the cultivators of the Supreme Realm."

Jun Fan took out a white porcelain bottle from his arms, and his face gradually became solemn, "Of course, you don't have to worry, if you use it alone, this is a medicinal powder with a nourishing effect, and it will not be regarded as poison. You will not be suspected by others."

Qingzhu's heart trembled, his face was even paler as a storm surged in her heart, and her fingers were shaking.

Poison the Empress!

Jun Fan actually planned to let her poison the Empress.

"I know that you are responsible for Xi Yao's daily spiritual food, and you are also responsible for the medicinal herbs and divine sources she cultivates. However, this matter is very safe and no one will know about it."

"No one will suspect you, I can guarantee that."

Jun Fan stared at her eyes closely, persuading her

Chapter 395-1: Its a pity that she looks so beautiful but doesnt warm the bed, The terrifying murderous intention at the Banquet of Geniuses (1)

What Jun Fan said was really shocking, making Qingzhu's fingers tremble and her face pale with her head roaring and buzzing.

Although she was ready to betray Her Majesty the Empress before, she definitely did not reach the stage of poisoning her. Her Majesty the Empress had nurtured her for so many years.

She was also kind to her.

If there was no training from Her Majesty the Empress, how could she have the status she had today? She could betray Her Majesty the Empress, but poisoning her was absolutely impossible.

"Qingzhu, don't worry, this matter has nothing to do with you. This bottle of pill powder does not contain any poisonous ingredients, so no one will notice it."

"I know that you have a good heart and can't do such a thing, but you have to know that Xi Yao is cruel and ruthless. If she knew that you had something to do with me, do you think she would still let go of her old feelings..."

"At that time, who can save you?"

Seeing Qingzhu's unbearable expression, Jun Fan seemed to have expected it long ago, sighed, and was still persuading.

"You... you're right."

"Once Her Majesty the Empress knows, it is impossible for her to let me go."

Qingzhu's face turned pale and her eyes widened. Hearing this, her heart began to shake, and she knew that she had no choice now.

When she promised Jun Fan to be the inner spy by Her Majesty's side, she should have thought of this day.

She was unwilling to just be a female official, and in the future, she would be given to a big figure by the Empress at will, just like that night.

In the eyes of the Empress, they were just tools or the kind that could be discarded easily.

"How sure are you?"

Soon, Qingzhu also calmed down, staring at Jun Fan and asking.

White-eyed wolf? No, if one couldn't even save their life, what was the use of this so-called loyalty?

At the same time, she took over the white porcelain bottle in Jun Fan's hand.

"If you succeed in this matter, more than 90%."

Seeing this, Jun Fan looked overjoyed and assured, "I still control the rest of the people now, everything is ready and I only need the east wind to blow. And the pill powder in your hand is only a reconciliation effect, if the rest of the steps fail, it wouldn't have any effect."

The implication was that everything Qingzhu did will not be noticed by anyone. Qingzhu nodded, knowing what Jun Fan meant.

This kind of mixed poison, if it was refined separately, would not constitute toxicity, but would have the effect of recuperating.

In this way, even if Empress Xi Yao was suspicious of her daily diet, she would definitely not be able to investigate the slightest toxicity. She was also a lot safer and didn't want to risk exposure.

"Then I'll trust you."

Qingzhu's face became firm, and there was a kind of madness in her eyes. If successful, she would also become a highlight in the history books to overthrow the Empress's rule, and her name would last forever!

Afterward, the two of them discussed for a while, and then Qingzhu got up to leave, looking preoccupied and walking heavily.

Jun Fan watched her leave, and finally sighed faintly, "Qingzhu, forgive me, if it succeeds in the end, I will give you the antidote."

After that, he looked at the teacup on the stone table, the tea in it was still steaming, and there was an elegant tea fragrance.

Jun Fan's eyes were very complicated. She couldn't blame him for that either.

After all, his identity was destined so that he could not be exposed to the sun now. If this assassination was successful, it would naturally be another matter.

If the assassination failed, what were the risks?

Qingzhu knew his identity. Once Empress Xi Yao noticed her, he would definitely be exposed.

At that time, what about his mother, father, and elder brothers and sisters in this life? And all kinds of terrible things.

Jun Fan couldn't imagine it.

So just in case, he poisoned the tea, and quietly let Qingzhu drink it.

Qingzhu didn't doubt him either.

At that time, if the assassination failed, Qingzhu would not be able to live without an antidote.

Others would think that she committed suicide out of fear of sin, and would not suspect him. If the assassination was successful, he would give Qingzhu an antidote and ask for her forgiveness.

"The plan this time is absolutely foolproof. As long as Xi Yao appears at the Banquet of Geniuses, there will be no surprises."

Thinking of this, Jun Fan's complexion became cold and bloody.

.....

"Young Master, you told me to stare at the woman in the purple dress, after leaving the palace, the direction she went to seems to be the Black and White Academy. But she didn't stay there long, and then left."

On the other side, in the magnificent palace, Gu Changge played chess leisurely and freely. Listening to this, he couldn't help but become a little interested.

Beside him, a man with a ferocious face and arrogance was reporting respectfully. The man's name was Tian Ze, and he was a subordinate he selected from the Chaotic Star Region.

"Black and White Academy? If I remember correctly, this place was created by Empress Xi Yao 6,000 years ago, in order to select geniuses."

Gu Changge said casually, "Then it seems that she headed to the Black and White Academy to find someone. She didn't stay for much time, but it was like a tip-off."

Thinking of this, he smiled.

If he hadn't paid attention at the time, he probably wouldn't have discovered such a thing.

Speaking of which, Empress Xi Yao herself probably never thought that the confidant she had worked so hard to cultivate would become the spy placed by others around her.

In this way, weren't her many whereabouts always exposed to the other party's field of vision?

Jiang Luoshen's brows twisted into curved characters, looking at the dead game on the chessboard, and at the inexplicable smile on Gu Changge's face, she was upset for a while.

She was not bad at chess. Why did she fail so many times in his hands? No chance at all?

"Also, if Jun Bufan is a little more ruthless, he can definitely find a way to poison Empress Xi Yao's daily cultivation and even her meals... But this is unlikely, and with Empress Xi Yao's vigilance, it is very difficult."

"Huh? No..."

Gu Changge ignored her and tapped the chessboard with his fingers. He suddenly thought of a possibility, he could do all this by hiding from the sky.

The premise was that the female official of Empress Xi Yao was courageous enough.

"Three days later, it will be the Banquet of Geniuses of the Demon World. Many big families from the nine domains will come to the Black and White Academy to participate, and Empress Xi Yao will also appear at this time."

"It would be a mixed bag at that time, and definitely a good opportunity to do it."

"If I were the son of the Demon Emperor, I would definitely choose this time to do it... And if my expectations are correct, Jun Bufan is now hiding in the Black and White Academy."

Gu Changge squinted his eyes and quickly figured it out.

The Black and White Academy alone had hundreds of thousands of disciples. It would be very troublesome to find them one by one.

So he was not in a hurry. Now that the scope was narrowed, as long as the son of the Demon Emperor showed up in front of him, he would definitely be noticed by him.

"Hehe, speaking of which, Empress Xi Yao is a bit pitiful, being kept in the dark without knowing it. If it follows the normal trajectory, there is a chance that this Banquet of the Geniuses may be succeeded by Jun Bufan."

Of course, Gu Changge didn't believe that Empress Xi Yao would have no means.

Although he saw through all this, he didn't plan to tell her. Gu Changge intended to control Empress Xi Yao, and the most crucial point was to make her depend on himself first.

As for how to make her dependent, it depended on whether Jun Bufan created opportunities for him.

The female official named Qingzhu might also become the key person who would influence the Banquet of the Geniuses three days later.

"Continue to keep an eye on her actions, and if you notice something unusual, report it to me at all times."

After thinking for a while, Gu Changge continued to instruct.

"Yes, master."

Tian Ze was instructed, his figure moved and disappeared quickly.

Gu Changge continued to tap the chessboard unhurriedly.

"At the moment, Bai Kun's daughter Bai Lian'er and her apprentice might have come to the Demon World, but they haven't found Jun Bufan, they just don't know if there will be any changes..."

He thought about it.

As the master behind Spring Breeze Pavillion, her cultivation was at least at the Quasi-Supreme Realm.

This power could not be underestimated anywhere.

"Gu Changge..." Jiang Luoshen's dissatisfied voice interrupted Gu Changge's thoughts.

"You've lost again." Gu Changge glanced at her casually, "Will you admit defeat?"

Jiang Luoshen gritted her teeth, then walked over silently and thumped his shoulders.

She had to say, practice makes perfect.

After a period of time, she became familiar with this technique, and it was not as light or heavy as it was at the beginning.

Her little white and flawless hands fell on his shoulders, full of beauty, the blond hair was hanging down, just like the sun, and there was a good smell of elegant fragrance.

"Well, it seems that you are not stupid, you have finally learned it." Gu Changge smiled.

Chapter 395-2: Its a pity that she looks so beautiful but doesnt warm the bed, The terrifying murderous intention at the Banquet of Geniuses (2)

Jiang Luoshen looked at him coldly, then rolled his eyes. She never thought that in her own capacity, one day she would actually learn to serve others.

In the past, this was simply a fantasy.

"Then when will you learn to warm the bed?" Gu Changge asked with great interest.

Hearing this, Jiang Luoshen's snow-white and delicate neck turned slightly red.

It was like a fine suet jade, and even pale golden blood vessels could be seen. The blood of the Supreme God Clan was golden and contained unparalleled divinity.

However, her expression was still very cold, and there was not much change, and she sneered, "Gu Changge, I said you can never force me to do this kind of thing, or I will die with you."

Hearing this, Gu Changge's tone was a little helpless and regretful, but he never forced her, "Really? It's a pity that you can't warm the bed with how beautiful you look."

Hearing Gu Changge complimenting herself on her beauty, Jiang Luoshen still enjoyed it, but she always felt that what he said was wrong.

What if she looked beautiful? Did she have to warm his bed? What kind of weird theory was this?

"Gu Changge, even if you praise me in another way, it's impossible for me to promise you." Jiang Luoshen sneered.

"Really?" Gu Changge smiled casually, with a casual and natural tone, "I'm not in a hurry anyway, and I remember you said that before. But aren't you quite skilled now?"

"You..."

Jiang Luoshen's expression froze, suddenly a little flustered, and then coldly said, "How can this kind of thing be mixed up?"

Gu Changge smiled and did not intend to continue teasing her.

And soon, three days passed quickly.

The prominent figures of the major families in the Nine Domains of the Demon World had all come to participate in this Banquet of Geniuses.

After all, this was a once-in-a-twentieth event. Almost all the big figures in the Demon World would come, especially Empress Xi Yao, who would give imperial wine to the geniuses for winning the ranking.

This was also an unimaginable honor for the young geniuses.

Not only could they show the limelight at this banquet and become famous all over the world. And if they were appreciated by Empress Xi Yao, they would also be promoted to rank and honored from now on, and shine on the lintel.

And this time after hearing that even Gu Changge had come to this Banquet of Geniuses to watch the ceremony, and would give a lot of prizes to the genius who had won the ranking.

Under the many rumors, it had attracted countless Demon World creatures. Many people came here just to see Gu Changge's true face, and to see this famous person in the Upper Realms.

Black and White Academy had a vast territory, covering hundreds of thousands of miles.

Among them, the mountains were covered, the sacred mountains were towering, the immortal birds flapped their wings, and the auspicious beasts roared, which was a scene of a fairyland resort.

The most majestic mountain range there was also the sacred mountain of the Black and White Academy.

In the beginning, it was said that the mountain where the dragon veins were suppressed for a radius of one million miles was surrounded by immortal mists, and all kinds of rays of light were hanging down, which was gorgeous and amazing.

Now there were many figures near the mountains. Men and women, young and old, regardless of their level of cultivation, flocked here to occupy the most favorable position.

In addition, it was the geniuses of all races and forces, not only the disciples of the Black and White Academy but there were also the disciples of the other forces.

Banquet of Geniuses, as the name suggests, was to provide such a chance for carp to leap over the Dragon Gate for all geniuses in the Demon World.

All the younger generations were eligible to participate in this banquet. At this moment, on a trail in the mountains, a man and a woman were on their way. The man was dressed in a sackcloth and carrying a basket, like a medicine farmer.

The woman next to him was also dressed in a sackcloth, with a sallow face, even a little ugly.

But the figure was extremely proud, every inch of his exuded amazing charm, so many young men passing by could not help but secretly watch over and then their complexion would change drastically, and some unappetizing hurried away.

"Sister Lian'er, do you think we can find the person the master said this time?"

The man with the basket on his back opened his mouth and asked curiously.

Hearing the words, the woman glanced at him lightly, and said, "If we can't find him here, we can't find him in that huge Demon World, and based on my intuition, he will definitely be here and do something daring."

"Then we can go back and save the master after we hand over the things to him..."

There was hope in the man's eyes. The woman shook her head slightly and said no more.

The two of them were hiding from the Upper Realm and left all the way to go to the Demon World to complete Bai Kun's mission. They were Bai Lian'er, and Bai Hua, the masters behind the Spring Breeze Pavillion.

Afterward, the two of them rushed to the area where the sacred mountain was located in front and began to occupy a favorable position with the crowd.

Many geniuses with a strong aura, enveloped in immortal light, had already been waiting at the foot of the mountain, and they seemed to be looking forward to it.

In this Banquet of Geniuses, millions of Demon World creatures came to watch the ceremony, which attracted worldwide attention.

Buzz!!

At this moment, above the sky, there were all kinds of splendid brilliance, which attracted everyone's attention at once. A road extended and directly connected to the sacred mountain.

There were four beautiful and impressive women on it, who came with a pen, ink, paper, and inkstone, and their lotus-like steps were like nine-day fairies.

"It's the four female officials beside Empress Xi Yao."

"They are here, and Her Majesty should be here soon."

Many creatures watched this scene, and their hearts were even more excited, and they recognized the identities of the four women.

Near the sacred mountain, many important officials began to appear, all with their family members and a large number of people, and took their seats in the guest area of the banquet.

And many people found that this time, the army of demons patrolling around the sacred mountain was several times more than before.

Many powerful knights patrolled all over the place and once they found something wrong they would immediately curb the disturbance.

At such a time, the safety of Her Majesty the Empress must be guaranteed. Although her cultivation was strong, she had not yet reached the level of invincibility in the world. There was nothing wrong with being cautious.

Soon, the geniuses of the Demon World appeared, all of whom were highly cultivated people of this generation, which instantly attracted the attention of many people, and the voices were loud.

A beautiful woman in a light yellow dress also appeared at the foot of the sacred mountain, she was generous and had a scholarly atmosphere like a lady.

Song Youwei, the only daughter of the current Demon Master. Her appearance immediately aroused the attention of many geniuses, their eyes fell over, and they were amazed, admired, admired, feared... not the same.

"Demon Master, it is really enviable that your daughter has such an amazing style at such an age."

The King of Peace and Chaos smiled and said jokingly to the Demon Master next to him, still quite respectful in his words.

Demon Master smiled softly and said, "The King has won the prize, but I heard that your third son is also someone who should not be underestimated. In a short period of time, they became a blockbuster, but they were hidden in the snow for more than ten years. Youwei also mentioned him many times in front of me."

Hearing this, the King of Peace and Chaos was even more delighted. He never thought that his unpopular third son, whose cultivation was mediocre, would have such a day.

Whether it was keeping a low profile, or there were other opportunities for him, as long as there was light on his face, it didn't matter.

At this moment, the King of Peace and Chao was even more moved. Song Youwei was not bound by a marriage contract, but she seemed to have a good relationship with his third son, and they got along very well.

It would be a good thing for him if he could match the two.

The two were talking, and a figure in the distance descended here, dressed in blue, with a handsome face, tall and straight body, with confidence and indifference, it was Jun Fan.

He looked around with a faint smile on his face, but he sneered and whispered in his heart, "Xi Yao, this day has come, are you ready?"

And at this moment, in the sky, there was a sudden burst of roar that shook all directions,

Immediately afterward, nine auspicious beasts shaped like unicorns came from the sky, their hooves stepped on the void, making the sound of wind and thunder.

Behind it, pulling a black jade chariot, it rumbled across the sky, with a fierce and astonishing expanse.

Behind the chariot, a mighty army of knights followed, either driving chariots or riding beasts.

"The Empress is here."

Someone exclaimed, and then almost everyone's eyes looked over with awe.

Chapter 396-1: Such perfection makes people feel unreal, What do you want from her? (1)

The black jade chariot stopped on the sacred mountain, and the many knights and the armies behind them scattered in the four directions, vigilantly scanning the surroundings with their auras flaring.

This was an elite force under Empress Xi Yao.

Over the years, they had been fighting everywhere, and the suffocating air emanating from them was overwhelming. From a distance, it looked like an invincible torrent.

"The Empress is here!"

"She even brought the Guards with her. It seems that Her Majesty the Empress is very vigilant about this Banquet of Geniuses."

At this moment, the eyes of almost everyone in the Demon World fell over with awe, reverence, admiration, fear, and so on.

Usually, Empress Xi Yao rarely left the palace, and there were very few demon creatures who had seen her true face.

No matter how important her decree was, it was distributed from her hands and she would order the female officials under her to execute it.

Now, many people were curiously staring at her, all wanting to see the peerless beauty of Her Majesty the Empress.

There were rumors that Empress Xi Yao was the most beautiful woman in the Demon World for more than 6,000 years.

Although such rumors were quite disrespectful, they still had unparalleled appeal to ordinary Demon World citizens.

At the foot of the sacred mountain, all geniuses looked up at the black jade chariot parked at the top of the cloud.

Whether it was a young man or a woman, they all had awe and respect in their hearts.

Even many young men had other ideas in their hearts, and they were just around the corner. For more than 6,000 years, no man had ever been heard to be near Her Majesty the Empress.

Even the confidants around her were all women.

For Her Majesty the Empress, who was so powerful and dominated the Demon World, being crowned for all directions, they had no other ideas in their minds, that was impossible.

And today's Banquet of Geniuses, wasn't it a chance for them to show their limelight in front of Her Majesty the Empress?

Thinking of this, they were even more aggressive and high-spirited.

"Xi Yao, have you ever thought that the first time you and I meet in 6,000 years will be based on such an opportunity?"

Jun Fan stood in the crowd, tall and straight, with a handsome face and an indifferent kind of demeanor.

At this moment, he clenched his fists tightly, staring at the black jade chariot above, a sneer flashed across his face and he quickly regained his previous indifferent confidence.

The top of the sacred mountain was shrouded in clouds and mist, like a fairyland, magnificent and vast.

Soon, the four female officials of Empress Xi Yao, Qingzhu, Qingmei, Qingju, and Qinglan walked quickly to the front of the cart.

Qingzhu looked submissive and stretched out a pair of jade-like hands to lift the curtain of the black jade chariot.

In the next moment, Empress Xi Yao, who was dressed in a phoenix robe and had a peerless demeanor, walked out of it.

She had blue silky hair like ink, seemingly tall and slender, with a touch of red makeup between her eyebrows and eyes that contained great majesty.

But her face was unclear as if it was covered by a layer of chaotic mist, and her eyes were indifferent, with dignity and aloofness.

"Young Master Changge, please."

However, as she spoke, her expression suddenly became cold and gentle, as if the snow was melting, there was a different kind of style.

"It's because Empress Xi Yao greeted him so much, and Changge was a little flattered."

With the sound of a chuckle, a black-clothed man walked out from the chariot.

There was a sense of transcendence in his every gesture as if everything in the world was centered on it.

Even the strands of hair flickered with brilliant light, like a young god, with an aura like an abyss, unfathomable, making many Demon World creatures dare not look directly, feeling shocked.

"Young Master Changge... He was in the same chariot with Her Majesty the Empress."

This scene slightly changed the faces of many big figures in the Demon World.

How much attention must be paid to the same chariot of Her Majesty the Empress?

Although they knew that there did not exist a dimension within the chariot, it was not as small as it looked from the outside. From this it could not be said that they were very close next to each other.

But one must know that even the female officials who were closest to Empress Xi Yao were not qualified to be in the same cart with her.

Not to mention walking out with a young man, especially in front of the big figures and people of the Demon Race from all over the world.

Before this, it was simply unimaginable. But thinking of Gu Changge's status and strength, they couldn't help but smile bitterly.

If one thought about it carefully, there was nothing wrong with this kind of thing.

It was just because before this, Her Majesty's temperament had always been indifferent, and strangers were not allowed to enter.

Seeing this scene suddenly made them feel shocked.

However, unlike the shocked and unbelievable expressions of everyone in the Demon World, Jun Fan's expression seemed a little gloomy when he saw this scene.

Although he disguised it well, it was still difficult to conceal the coldness between his brows.

He didn't expect to meet Xi Yao again after 6,000 years and see her with another young man walking so close. Although there was no intimacy, it still made him feel very uncomfortable.

He wanted to kill Xi Yao to take revenge on her, but as his fiancée, how could she be with other men?

However, Jun Fan's personality was not simple, and his complexion quickly returned to its natural state without the slightest change.

Not far from him, Song Youwei noticed Jun Fan's expression just now, with a slightly puzzled expression. But she didn't ask any more questions, she moved slightly with lotus steps, her skirt fluttered and she walked towards him.

"Brother Jun Fan." She smiled and said hello.

Jun Fan looked at her with a smile on his face, "Youwei."

"I thought you would return to the Black and White Academy during this time, but I didn't expect you to stay in the Demon Master's mansion, to have only arrived here now."

Song Youwei smiled and said, "No way, my father explained some things, so I wasn't able to get away, is it possible that Brother Jun Fan has something to ask me?"

When she spoke, she seemed very down-to-earth, very gentle, and natural, as if facing everyone like this.

Jun Fan smiled and said, "I was going to ask you about the big man from the Upper Realm in the last few days, but now it seems that there is no need..."

As he spoke, he looked at the young man who was sitting on the top of the sacred mountain, chatting happily with Empress Xi Yao, like a god descending from the earth.

Song Youwei was a little surprised, and then bluntly said, "It turns out that Brother Jun Fan wanted to ask about Young Master Changge. Although I only met him once, the first impression he gave me was very good. He is a perfect man... to the point of being so perfect that it feels unreal."

Hearing Song Youwei say this, Jun Fan felt a little uncomfortable. But he still said naturally and casually, "Really? It's rare to see you give a person such a high rating."

He had asked Song Youwei what she thought of him before, and although the evaluation was equally high, it was by no means at the level of Gu Changge.

Comparing the two of them, he looked very bleak now.

Song Youwei pursed her lips and said with a smile, "I have indeed never seen such a perfect man before, which gives me an unreal feeling like a mirror."

Chapter 396-2: Such perfection makes people feel unreal, What do you want from her? (2)

Jun Fan nodded but did not continue to struggle with this issue.

In any case, even if Gu Changge was standing beside Empress Xi Yao today, he would still choose to assassinate her.

This was a matter of the Demon World, and Gu Changge was just an outsider after all.

If Gu Changge didn't intervene, things would be easier. But if Gu Changge wanted to intervene, he didn't mind a little more trouble.

What was more, if something happened to Gu Changge in the Demon World, Empress Xi Yao would not be able to bear this responsibility.

Later, Jun Fan and Song Youwei continued to talk again and she asked her father how many people he had with him this time.

He and Song Youwei were also very familiar with each other, like a confidant and friend.

They had experienced together before, and they had also fought against each other in the Black and White Academy competition, and they were indistinguishable.

Because the two people's family background, appearance, and cultivation base were relatively well-matched, many people thought that they had a close relationship.

However, Jun Fan was very clear that Song Youwei treated everyone like this. She seemed to be gentle and generous, and she had a degree of advance and retreat, but she had always maintained a distance between them.

He was very excited about Song Youwei, but he was not very clear about Song Youwei's attitude toward him.

Hearing these questions, Song Youwei didn't doubt him, so she answered them one by one.

"Really? Then I'm relieved." Jun Fan nodded slightly in his heart and began to think about how to do it for a while.

For him and his subordinates, this was a rare opportunity that should not be missed.

"I wonder if Young Master Changge thinks that the geniuses of my Demon World are inferior to the geniuses of the Upper Realm?"

At this moment, on the top of the sacred mountain, Empress Xi Yao and Gu Changge were sitting at the same table.

She pointed to the mighty Demon World genius below and asked with a smile.

Because she knew that no matter how she compared it, the genius of the Demon World was not comparable to the arrogance of the Upper Realm.

Whether it was talent or background, they were far from comparable. However, she wanted to know what the geniuses of the Demon World were like in the eyes of Gu Changge, the strongest of the younger generation in the Upper Realm.

Gu Changge smiled when he heard the words. His eyes fell as it swept across the mighty young figure before he said, "In Changge's opinion, the only difference between the geniuses in the Demon World is the difference in the cultivation environment. After all, the environment in which they live is different. It determines their vision and the characters they come into contact with... From the perspective of cultivation, this group of geniuses in the Demon World in the Upper Realm, they can only be ranked below the middle, or even lower."

Empress Xi Yao nodded thoughtfully when she heard the words. She didn't think Gu Changge's words were ugly, as it was true.

How could the geniuses of the Demon World compare to those disciples who were born in the Ancient Immortal families and Immortal sects?

"That's why I want to change the environment of the Demon World, but there are always people who want to stop me and choose to rest on their laurels." She sighed softly, and there was a touch of melancholy between her brows.

Gu Changge glanced at her and said with a smile, "Right and wrong will be judged by future generations, and I think that with your ability, as the Empress, you can do all this, so you don't have to worry about it."

"Does Young Master Changge trust?" Empress Xi Yao looked at him deeply, her blue silky hair dancing lightly under the mountain wind, her facial features like paintings, and one couldn't pick out the slightest flaw.

Gu Changge smiled, then sighed with regret, and said, "Why don't you believe? Where there's a will, there's a way. In my eyes, the Empress is just such a person. Unfortunately, I'm just an outsider after all, and I can't help in the Demon World, otherwise I would like to help the Empress."

Hearing this, Empress Xi Yao stared at him blankly, not feeling a sense of disappointment in her heart.

He knew her so well, but after all, he was just an outsider.

Seeing her expression, Gu Changge continued to smile and said, "Now this huge Demon World is like a plate of quicksand. How can you not be admired for being able to achieve this level by yourself?"

The corners of Empress Xi Yao's mouth twitched slightly, but the arc quickly dissipated.

She asked with some interest, "Young Master Changge, are you flattering me?"

She was used to listening to all kinds of flattery and compliments, and she was already tired of it.

If the others had said this in front of her, she would have sent someone to drag him down and behead him. But hearing it from Gu Changge's mouth always made her feel happy.

This kind of emotion made her feel very strange, and she was obviously very tired of any men around her. But she had never felt such annoyance from Gu Changge.

Whether it was now, or the last time she met him for the first time at the True Immortal Academy, it was the same.

"Flattering? If Her Majesty thinks so, I seldom say such things to anyone unless it is a conspiracy..."

Hearing this, Gu Changge smiled, very frank and frank.

Empress Xi Yao's eyes were fixed on him again, as if she was very interested because of his simple and straightforward attitude, "What is the Young Master Changge planning for me?"

"There are no more than two kinds, one is your power, and the other is your body. This kind of question does not seem to be difficult to answer."

Gu Changge still smiled.

Hearing what he said, Empress Xi Yao was suddenly a little flustered in her heart, but she still maintained her usual composure.

"The Banquet of Geniuses has begun..."

She changed the topic, and her eyes fell on the many geniuses under the sacred mountain, and it seemed that they began to watch intently.

Gu Changge smiled and stopped talking. For him, this Banquet of Genius was nothing more than watching a big show.

Under his attention just now, he had found the location of Jun Bufan. It would be better if he kept a low profile.

It was a pity that he was too ostentatious. There were so many geniuses present. If Gu Changge wanted to check the Luck points one by one, he didn't know how much time it would take.

But Jun Bufan wanted to show himself, but also deliberately display his powerful talent of cultivation.

Of course, the main reason was Song Youwei. Gu Changge had been paying attention to her actions. Seeing her walking towards a man in blue, he suddenly had a guess in his heart.

Then he checked his Luck points.

Jun Bufan's identity in this life was revealed in an instant, but he didn't bother, and planned to finish the scene first.

The water in the Demon World was very muddy. In Gu Changge's view, even Empress Xi Yao was just a pawn to be used by others.

When she was playing against Jun Bufan, there were actually many eyes in the dark, staring at her.

In this game, she seemed to have the upper hand, but in fact, she did not. Even Jun Bufan could easily know her many actions and traces.

Not to mention the big fish hidden in the dark. The former five Emperors of the Demon World had disappeared in the end, had they really fallen?

In Gu Changge's view, the existence of Jun Bufan was of greater value in drawing out the big fish hidden behind him.

Chapter 396-3: Such perfection makes people feel unreal, What do you want from her? (3)

And when Gu Changge was talking to Empress Xi Yao.

The Banquet of Geniuses under the Sacred Mountain had already begun, and many geniuses showed powerful means, exert supernatural powers, and continued to climb to high ranks.

The cliff was towering, with many patterns and talismans flickering, exuding powerful pressure.

People with a slightly weaker cultivation base would find it difficult to support after walking a few steps and would fall off.

And this was just a checkpoint left in the sacred mountain.

If they wanted to climb to the top and go to the top of the mountain, they must not only stick to the level here but also need to beware of sneak attacks by other people, which was not easy.

Under the top of the mountain, there were still one hundred and eight white jade stairs, and various colors of rays of light appeared on them with a terrifying aura pervading around them.

All of the geniuses of the Demon World were trying to find a way to reach the top quickly and use various means.

There were also two people who have had conflicts before, and they fought here, and the terrifying fluctuations swept through all directions, attracting everyone's attention.

There were too many scenarios like this.

At the Banquet of Geniuses held every 20 years in the Demon World, there was always a conflict, and there were countless young people who had fallen here.

Even the family forces behind them dare not intervene to stop them.

Over time, many people also regarded this kind of Banquet of Geniuses as an opportunity for a fair and decisive battle that made a life-and-death decision here.

Gu Changge himself had no interest in this kind of thing.

According to the normal routines and plots, such scenes at the Banquet of Geniuses, which would obviously give the Son of Luck the limelight, generally did not have any surprises.

Today, although Jun Bufan encountered several opponents who claimed to be the young supremes of the Demon World. But when they fought there, the fluctuations were terrifying, causing a sensation all around.

Yet Gu Changge knew that such a battle would not last long.

As the reborn son of the Demon Emperor, Jun Bufan's means and strength could crush geniuses from the same realm, and there was absolutely no problem.

In addition, it was very normal to have a halo of Luck, conceal his strength, and pretend to be a pig to eat a tiger.

Therefore, after he glanced at Jun Bufan a few times before he lost interest to wait and see.

Instead, he turned his eyes to the surroundings, guessing where to start if there was a big chaos.

The Demon Master, the King of Peace and Chaos, the Marshal of the Monster Race... These people were all armed with heavy troops hiding in the vicinity.

In addition, many big demon clans from the Nine Realms of the Demon World were also stationed here after another.

But it was not clear whether those powerhouses were their people or not.

Looking at it now, Empress Xi Yao's side was really in danger.

"Bai Lian'er, the master behind Spring Breeze Pavilion, probably came here too, but I wonder where she is hiding now."

"It seems that aside from Empress Xi Yao, Bai Lian'er and others don't know Jun Bufan's true identity, so they are still waiting to see. What will the treasure bag in her hand be? It's worthy of the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor to entrust it to the Demon Master Bai Kun..."

Gu Changge squinted his eyes and swept across the four directions. From his current vision, there were too many creatures near the sacred mountain, densely packed and crowded.

If he really wanted to find where Bai Lian'er was, it would be really difficult.

If she was smarter, she would definitely change her face, and it was impossible to easily show it to outsiders. As the daughter of the former Demon Master Bai Kun, her appearance should not be a secret in the Demon World.

Thinking like this, Gu Changge's eyes flickered slightly, he waved his hand to his subordinates, and ordered, "Pay attention to the movement around you, if you see any suspicious person approaching, directly take them down."

"Yes, master."

Tian Ze and other powerhouses quietly hid in the void and disappeared quickly.

Seeing this scene, Qingzhu, who was standing behind Empress Xi Yao, looked a little unnatural, but no one paid attention to her at the moment.

She knew that something big would definitely happen today.

Whether it was for Empress Xi Yao or the entire Demon World, it was likely to have an indescribable impact.

By now, her palms were full of cold sweat. A few days ago, Jun Fan gave her a bottle of pill powder. After returning, she felt uneasy and nervous.

However, considering that this matter was related to her future life and death, she calmed down and began to implement it.

Usually, she was responsible for the many resources used by Empress Xi Yao to cultivate, as well as the spirit tea and immortal fruit she ate every day.

So she easily put the pill powder in it, and Empress Xi Yao didn't notice any abnormality.

As Jun Fan said, the ingredients contained in the pill powder did not possess any toxicity. Even if Empress Xi Yao had the least suspicion, she would not suspect her.

So Qingzhu also put his mind at ease and waited for Jun Fan to implement the last step of the plan today. However, now that Gu Changge was by Empress Xi Yao's side, she felt that things would get a little tricky.

And just now, Gu Changge also dispatched his subordinates to kill those suspicious people. Could it be that Gu Changge noticed something?

Qingzhu felt a little uneasy, especially from the conversation between Empress Xi Yao and Gu Changge just now, if something unexpected happened, Gu Changge would definitely not stand idly by.

In this way, how many chances were there for Jun Fan's plan?

"What's the matter? Did Young Master Changge notice something?"

Empress Xi Yao was paying attention to the many young talents below, when she suddenly heard Gu Changge's order, she couldn't help but raise her eyebrows and asked.

Gu Changge smiled and said, "It's nothing, I'm just a little worried all of a sudden."

Empress Xi Yao knew what he meant by this, and her heart was filled with warmth, she smiled and didn't ask any more questions.

Every time during the Banquet of Geniuses, in fact, she would be attacked either by the remnants of the five Emperors or by other big demons.

She was used to this kind of thing.

If there was no accident, in this Banquet of Geniuses, there were definitely many people who wouldn't be able to hold back and would choose the perfect time to attack.

Gu Changge sent his subordinates to search for suspicious people, so it was no doubt that he was protecting her in disguise.

This made Empress Xi Yao's previous strange emotions reappear in her heart. For more than 6,000 years, no matter what kind of crisis she encountered, she was the one to solve it.

Sometimes, the Demon Master would help her think of ideas and make suggestions. But more often, she faced it alone, relying on her iron-blooded means and cultivation to control and clean up everything.

After all of that, she was a bit exhausted.

Now that she saw Gu Changge, she always felt a sense of dependence in her heart.

However, this feeling was finally dispelled by her shaking her head. She was the Empress of countless demon clans, and Gu Changge was just a young junior after all.

"What does Empress Xi Yao think of this person?"

Just when Empress Xi Yao was in a complicated mood, Gu Changge opened his mouth, his eyes fell on the sacred mountain and Jun Fan, who seemed to be riding the dust, before he asked with great interest.

Chapter 396-3: Gu Changge is very picky, He can watch a big show (1)

And just when Gu Changge and Empress Xi Yao were talking happily. Outside the palace, a woman in purple hurried in.

Everyone glanced at her and recognized her as Qingzhu, the female official next to the Empress. Thus, they didn't care much.

Qingzhu, on the other hand, looked cold and calm, walking behind Empress Xi Yao and standing with Qingmei, Qinglan, and Qingju, with a respectful appearance.

Empress Xi Yao glanced at her but did not ask her where she went.

On the other hand, Gu Changge noticed the unnatural look on the purple-clothed woman's expression, and raised his eyebrows slightly, but didn't say much.

"I wonder why the Young Master Changge decided to visit the Demon World this time?"

Once the conversation was over, Empress Xi Yao opened her mouth and asked curiously.

This made her very curious.

Hearing this, Gu Changge put down the wine glass in his hand before smiling and replying, "Empress Xi Yao, did you know that some time ago, I went into the Chaotic Star Region to exterminate the Thirteen Thieves?"

Empress Xi Yao nodded, she naturally knew about this.

Because the person behind the Thirteen Thieves turned out to be the remnant of the Five Emperors who fled from the Demon World 6,000 years ago, the Demon Master Bai Kun.

This made her very shocked at the time.

Who would have thought that Bai Kun had been hiding in the Chaotic Star Region all these years?

No wonder she dispatched a lot of people, and was unable to find any movement.

But now that Gu Changge had arrested Bai Kun, she naturally didn't care about it anymore.

"Is it possible that Young Master Changge came to the Demon World this time because of this matter?"

Empress Xi Yao was a little thoughtful.

Gu Changge nodded and said with a smile, "It does have a lot to do with this matter, but there is still a part of it, it has something to do with you, Empress Xi Yao."

"It has something to do with me?" Queen Xiyao raised her eyebrows.

However, Gu Changge didn't say much. Empress Xi Yao's eyes moved slightly, and she also understood that this matter might involve a great deal.

It was really inappropriate to speak about this here, so she didn't ask any more questions.

And Qingzhu, who was obediently serving behind Empress Xi Yao, was a little disappointed when she saw this.

She thought that she could hear something crucial. In the end, Gu Changge just ended it with this sentence.

And just when Gu Changge was talking to Empress Xi Yao.

Below the banquet, there was a beautiful woman wearing a long coat and yellow dress.

She was talking to an old man in white with a calm aura next to her and looked upward from time to time with curiosity.

She looked picturesque as if she just walked out of a quaint picture scroll, with a poetic atmosphere, gentle and generous.

"Youwei, what do you think of the rumored Young Master Changge?"

The old man in white asked with a slight smile on his face.

The woman in the jacket and yellow dress was the only daughter of the Grand Master of the Demon Realm, Song Youwei.

She was the most brilliant young genius in the Demon World right now.

Hearing this at the moment, she raised her head and looked up, and couldn't help but smile, "Reporting to my father, Youwei feels that in terms of appearance and temperament alone, Young Master Changge can be called a God like Immortal, unparalleled in the world. ."

"It can only be said that Young Master Changge is worthy of being a famous person in the Upper Realm. No matter whether it is his bearing or his speech, I can't find the slightest flaw. Of course, in terms of cultivation, I dare not speak falsely. It is rumored that he has already reached the Quasi-Supreme Realm. It's just unbelievable."

"In front of him, I really can't be called a genius. Obviously, he is about the same age as me."

Her words were very simple and direct and her expression was normal, indicating that she didn't mean to flatter or please.

It was just to express her first opinion when she saw Gu Changge.

Gu Changge was indeed very good, even to the point where she couldn't find any flaws, and she couldn't find a genius who could compete with him. But she didn't have any idea, at most, it was only a kind of amazement and admiration.

Song Youwei was not a superficial person and naturally she was not the kind of person who tended to be inflamed.

"In terms of his current power, it is true that there are no young people better than him in the huge Upper Realm. Even the strength of those Great Sect leaders is inferior to him."

"I really don't know how such a monster can exist in this world."

After listening, the old man in white nodded in agreement, and then sighed, "Youwei, you can come with me to meet Young Master Changge in a while. I can be regarded as a familiar face in front of him."

"If you can get in touch with people like him more, it will be a good thing for you."

He didn't say anything to ask Song Youwei to please Gu Changge.

Not to mention that with his character, he couldn't do such a thing. Even Song Youwei herself would refuse something like this and it would be impossible for her to agree to such a request.

"Hmm, Youwei listens to father."

Song Youwei nodded, still looking at Gu Changge curiously.

However, Gu Changge seemed to have noticed her gaze, then looked over, smiled at her before nodding slightly.

Song Youwei was slightly startled, but she did not look away shyly like ordinary women, but instead smiled generously and looked at Gu Changge.

Noticing this scene, Empress Xi Yao raised her eyebrows slightly and asked, "Does Young Master Changge know Youwei?"

Gu Changge shook his head slightly and replied, "I don't know her, I just think she is a little different from the rest of the women."

"She is the only daughter of the Demon Master, her name is Song Youwei, and she is also a very dazzling genius in my Demon World." After hearing this, Empress Xi Yao nodded and explained.

"Song Youwei? This is a poetic name." Gu Changge smiled and looked away.

Soon afterward, the reception banquet was over, the guests and the host enjoyed themselves, and many big figures in the Demon World also said their goodbyes and left.

They could imagine that Gu Changge's arrival in the Demon World would definitely cause a huge sensation, causing unimaginable effects.

In the hall today, they had heard a part of the conversation between Gu Changge and Empress Xi Yao and understood that Gu Changge did not come to the Demon World for no reason.

So it was very likely that there would be unimaginable turmoil in the Demon World, and they had to prepare in advance. However, in the palace, many important officials trusted by Empress Xi Yao stayed behind.

With their family members, they planned to visit Gu Changge in person, making them familiar.

"The old master of the Demon World, greets Young Master Changge. This is the daughter of this old man, her name is Song Youwei."

Demon Master first took Song Youwei to stand up and bowed his hands toward Gu Changge, who was the first to take the seat after Empress Xi Yao.

While speaking, he introduced Song Youwei next to him.

Gu Changge nodded slightly and looked away, "Demon Master doesn't need to be too polite, Empress Xi Yao has already introduced her to Changge just now."

After that, he looked at Song Youwei with a warm smile, "Youwei, that's a good name."

Chapter 397-1: Oh no, I confused the two names, I'll wait and see (1)

Hearing this, Empress Xi Yao returned to her senses. Her eyes fell and she looked at the man in blue.

She frowned slightly, then stretched out and said, "This person's name is Jun Fan, he is the third son of the King of Peace and Chaos, and now in my Demon World, he is also a very dazzling genius. However, he has been hidden by the King of Peace and Chaos in the past few years, and he began to emerge recently."

As the Empress of the Demon World, her eyes were distributed all over the place, and she naturally knew many young geniuses. Geniuses such as Song Youwei and Jun Fan actually fell into her sight a long time ago.

In the beginning, the purpose of her establishment of the Black and White Academy was also to capture the geniuses from all over the Demon World and use them for herself.

If there was no accident, in today's Banquet of Geniuses, Jun Fan was bound to reach the top three. Thinking of this, she was in a good mood. She had rarely seen such an outstanding genius, who would definitely become famous in the Demon World in the future.

Hearing this, Gu Changge said with interest, "The third son of the King of Peace and Chaos, this name is a bit special, Jun Fan. What does it have to do with Jun Bufan?"

Hearing this, Qingzhu, who was standing behind Empress Xi Yao with her head bowed, turned pale, but fortunately, her head was lowered so no one could see it.

Empress Xi Yao glanced at Jun Fan at the foot of the mountain, nodded, and said, "I was a little surprised when I learned all this. But the King of Peace and Chaos is my hand pick, and I know how many of his children are from, so I don't care too much about this."

The King of Peace and Chaos was a character she knew well. So she had no doubts about this very similar heir's name.

Moreover, Jun Fan's cultivation talent was really dazzling, which made her have the heart to cherish talent. She thought that Gu Changge was suspecting something, so she explained with one more sentence.

Gu Changge smiled and continued, "Now it seems that this man named Jun Fan is a bit extraordinary. I think his strength is much stronger than the rest of his peers."

"Jun Fan and Youwei surprised me a bit."

Empress Xi Yao also smiled and looked at another equally dazzling genius, Song Youwei.

Her climbing speed was not much slower than Jun Fan's. And she didn't seem to use all her strength, she seemed to be at ease, her dress fluttered, and she had a sense of scholarly family.

She was always in no contest, falling behind Jun Fan. Many geniuses who shot against her had already rolled down, and their hearts were horrified.

Song Youwei's strength should not be underestimated.

"I see more than just surprises..."

Gu Changge's eyes were still very interested, and he meant something.

Near the sacred mountain, everyone watched this scene, and was full of admiration in their hearts.

In particular, Jun Fan's father, the King of Peace and Chaos, had an even more joyous look on his face.

He had no idea that Jun Fan would be able to stand alone, crushing his peers, and had already set foot on one hundred and eight steps. Many of the geniuses of the Demon World were suppressed by him and were not his opponents.

This made him happy, listening to the compliments and envious voices of many colleagues around him, and his smile did not stop.

"Fan'er really didn't let his father down!"

He sighed in his heart, the elder brother and second sister of Jun Fan behind him also had smiles on their faces, full of glory.

"Sister Lian'er, you said that young man is the one we are looking for."

Bai Hua and Bai Lian'er, who were hidden in the crowd, were also staring at the many scenes on the sacred mountain at the moment.

The person who spoke was Bai Hua, and his face was full of shock.

Bai Lian'er looked indifferent and said, "You can't be wrong, that person is definitely him. Apart from him, there is no one in the younger generation of the Demon World who has such strength."

Listening to the affirmation in Bai Lian'er's words, the color of the Bai Hua also changed several times.

"Then why does he still climb the top of the sacred mountain at this time? According to reason, isn't Empress Xi Yao the person he hates the most, why is he still like this?"

"Isn't he afraid that Empress Xi Yao will discover his identity?"

He was a little unbelievably authentic and couldn't understand Jun Fan's actions.

Bai Lian'er said lightly, "He just wants to prove himself. Even if he is resurrected from the dead, he is still excellent... From love to hate, now he is absolutely full of hatred and anger, and he will head to Xi Yao for revenge."

However, in her words, it was difficult to hide the sneer and disdain. Having grown up with Jun Bufan, she naturally knew his character.

Bai Hua listened thoughtfully and asked, "Then Sister Lian'er, do we still have to hand over things to him as Master said?"

Bai Lian'er heard the words, but there was some hesitation on her face.

Naturally, she also saw Gu Changge, who was at the top of the sacred mountain, chatting and laughing with Empress Xi Yao, a man she couldn't see through at all.

As for why Gu Changge appeared in the Demon World. She guessed that it was for her, or for the bag in her hand.

After all, her father fell into Gu Changge's hands, as long as Gu Changge had a little means, he could easily interrogate things from his mouth.

Otherwise, how could the timing be so good? As soon as she came to the Demon World, Gu Changge also followed?

So now she actually had two choices. One was to hand over the bag to Jun Bufan according to her father's request.

The second was to find Gu Changge, make a deal with him, and ask him to let go of his father, while she gave him the bag.

So now she was tangled in her heart as to how to choose. Gu Changge was not worth believing. If she could trust Gu Changge, she would choose to give the bag to him in exchange for her father's life.

Jun Bufan was just a stranger to her now.

Once the two grew up almost together, although they were not brothers and sisters, their feelings were not inferior to brothers and sisters.

But all of this changed after meeting Xi Yao. She had great hopes for Jun Bufan and wanted him to become a generation of Demon Emperors like Xuan Yang Demon Emperor, covering all directions.

In the end, Jun Bufan's actions deeply hurt her.

Even though she warned Jun Bufan many times, saying that Xi Yao's mind was impure and not as pure as she appeared on the surface, Jun Bufan never listened to persuasion, loved her without regret and died as expected in the end.

During this period, Jun Bufan even maliciously slandered Xi Yao many times because of her affairs. There were so many of those incidents.

In the end, she, who cared about Jun Bufan the most, ended up being the person he hated the most.

Thinking of this, the corners of Bai Lian'er's mouth couldn't help but display ridicule. She was so stupid back then that now she couldn't wait to cross the river of time and strangle herself to death.

If it weren't for this matter being her father's last entrustment, how could she have agreed to this? And just when everyone's mood was different, at the top of the sacred mountain, with Jun Fan's whole body glowing, many runes circulated as he took the last step.

On the one hundred and eight steps, there was a sudden humming sound.

In the end, a splendid brilliance shone there, red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and purple, light intertwined with various colors, and the colorful clouds were flowing, looking extremely dazzling and showing his first place.

Suddenly, there was a sensation in all directions, making a sound like a mountain and a tsunami. All the demon clan people looked at the man in blue walking toward the top of the sacred mountain, with expressions of amazement, reverence, and envy in their eyes.

"It's him!"

"The third son of the King of Peace and Chaos, this speed has probably broken the record of thousands of years, right?"

"It's terrifying! His strength is so strong? He is completely crushing everyone behind him!"

"It's unbelievable that even Song Youwei, the only daughter of the Demon Master, is behind him..."

Everyone looked at it in shock, but they didn't expect that at the Banquet of Geniuses, someone would break the record for 6,000 years.

After what they saw today, it would probably cause a lot of shock in the Demon World!

"Breaking the record..."

Empress Xi Yao also had a rare smile on her face, looking at Jun Fan who was walking toward her.

This talent was indeed rare, and it really surprised her.

Gu Changge's face did not change in the slightest, and his heart was full of interest. Now the higher Jun Fan stood, when he fell, he would naturally fall more miserably.

Jun Fan maintained neither a humble nor an arrogant look on his face and quickly landed on the top of the sacred mountain.

Looking at Empress Xi Yao and Gu Changge who were sitting in the same seat in front of him, he felt somewhat gloomy in his heart.

Just now under the top of the mountain, he had been paying attention to the movement above, knowing that Gu Changge and Empress Xi Yao had a good conversation.

Although there was no intimacy or transgression in the manner. But after all, it made him very uncomfortable, so he showed his true cultivation and broke the record of the Banquet of Geniuses in one fell swoop.

The current limelight was momentary. However, Jun Fan still maintained a somewhat humble expression and walked over.

"You are Jun Bufan, right?"

However, the next moment, Gu Changge's smiling voice sounded, which shocked Jun Fan's heart. His mind buzzed even more as if he was hit by a hammer, rumbling and blank.

His face changed slightly, and his first reaction was to be on guard, intending to crush the jade talisman in his sleeve and let the subordinates who were lying in ambush take action.

How did Gu Changge know his identity?

Could it be that Qingzhu betrayed him? And told all of this truthfully?

"Oh, no, your name is Jun Fan, I confused the two names."

However, all kinds of thoughts flashed in Jun Fan's heart, the vibration was abnormal, and he was about to make a move.

Gu Changge's voice sounded from the front again, with a sense of surprise and a slight apology.

Chapter 397-2: Oh no, I confused the two names, I'll wait and see (2)

Hearing this, Jun Fan was stunned for a moment, and then he was a little surprised and breathed a sigh of relief.

He didn't expect that he was too cautious and nervous, that was why Gu Changge's words caused such a big reaction.

Jun Fan didn't know if his performance just now would show any abnormality. He wouldn't usually be like this.

The most important thing was that Gu Changge's question was too caught off guard, making him unable to react, especially in front of Empress Xi Yao.

"Jun Fan greets Young Master Changge and Her Majesty the Empress."

Soon, Jun Fan regained his composure, greeted the two of them, and returned to his natural behavior.

Gu Changge looked at him with an inexplicable expression, then smiled and said, "Don't be too polite, seeing such a talented person today has opened this Gu's eyes, and he feels that the trip is worthwhile."

When Jun Fan heard this, he showed neither a humble nor an arrogant expression as he said, "Young Master Changge has overly praised me. In front of you, how can Jun Fan be called a genius?"

Empress Xi Yao glanced at Gu Changge, not knowing why Gu Changge called Jun Fan, Jun Bufan just now.

Could it be a bad joke?

But just now, she also saw Jun Fan's slightly changed and suddenly nervous expression in her eyes and felt a little strange in her heart.

In her opinion, Jun Fan's reaction was also normal. After all, anyone who knew Jun Bufan knew what his name meant.

Suddenly hearing Gu Changge shouting like this, Jun Fan's first reaction must be panic, and he would feel that it was nothing to show such an emotion.

The main reason was that she knew Jun Fan well.

"Young Master Changge, don't scare him."

Empress Xi Yao smiled and glanced at Changge, rarely showing a smile in front of outsiders, then waved to the female officer beside her to give Jun Fan a seat.

Jun Fan's eyelids twitched, he thanked her obediently, and then sat down, watching his eyes, nose, and heart as he gradually calmed down.

The expression that Xi Yao had glared at Gu Changge just now was completely engraved in his eyes.

He couldn't believe it.

Now that Xi Yao was the Empress of the Demon World, how could she show such an expression to a man and appear so intimate?

Thinking like this, Jun Fan was even more restless.

However, he was still thinking about Gu Changge's intention just now. Was it really confusing, or was it bad taste, or something else?

Then, he secretly glanced at Qingzhu. Seeing Qingzhu shaking her head slightly at him, he didn't mean anything else, and he couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief. It seemed that Empress Xi Yao had not noticed anything abnormal.

And soon, listening to the content of the conversation between Empress Xi Yao and Gu Changge.

Jun Fan's complexion was a little unsightly, but he was restrained and suppressed; he did not reveal any abnormality.

From what he heard, some of the conversations between the two were only said between people who were already very familiar.

In particular, Empress Xi Yao, who was usually dignified and proud, kept her words unsmiling and did not allow strangers to enter, but now she was chatting and laughing so much with Gu Changge.

Jun Fan took a deep breath and calmed himself quickly. A small leak would sink a great ship.

Soon, several figures appeared on the white jade ladder, all of which were young geniuses with high cultivation bases and powerful talents, including Song Youwei.

Jun Fan broke the record of the 6,000-year-old Banquet of Geniuses, which shocked their hearts. At the same time, along with envy, they also gave birth to unwillingness.

However, in front of Empress Xi Yao, they didn't dare to say anything. After they greeted each other, they began to take their seats and wait for a while for Her Majesty the Empress to personally bestow imperial wine, as well as many palace-specific spiritual foods.

These things contained unimaginable energy and rhythm creation.

In addition to the imperial wine, the spiritual food set up at the Banquet of Geniuses was also a sacred object that they couldn't get in touch with at ordinary times. It was invaluable and could help them make breakthroughs.

However, there were only 108 seats in the Banquet of Geniuses, which meant that among the tens of thousands of geniuses, only the first 108 people were eligible to take a seat, which showed the fierce competition.

"The strength that Brother Jun Fan showed today really surprised Youwei."

After being seated, Song Youwei looked at Jun Fan who was not far from her, showing surprise and said with a smile.

Jun Fan replied with a smile, "After all, this is an opportunity to show my strength in front of Her Majesty the Empress. It's so rare, so I naturally have to grasp it firmly."

His words had been recognized by many geniuses. At this moment, they were all looking at Empress Xi Yao, and many young men had obsessions in their eyes.

Although Empress Xi Yao's face was obscured by a layer of chaotic mist, and could not be seen clearly. But from this simple voice and appearance, it was already beautiful enough to make people fascinated and willing to fall into it.

Song Youwei didn't ask much about Jun Fan's answer.

It was just that she felt that the Jun Fan she saw today was slightly different from the one she had seen in the past.

In the past, Jun Fan would not be so public, and he would act in a conspiracy and move later. However, she didn't think much about it.

After all, this was at the Banquet of geniuses, and if there was an opportunity to be famous in the world, as a young man, naturally, he would seize it firmly.

Soon, at the top of the sacred mountain, one hundred and eight seats were filled with people. Everyone looked at Empress Xi Yao, who was in the first place, with a respectful expression.

"The banquet is full, let's begin."

Empress Xi Yao got up, her eyes swept across all sides, and finally fell on the faces of Jun Fan, Song Youwei, and others, and then said lightly.

The rest of the geniuses, before they had time to catch up, heard that a female official above announced the end, and immediately retreated with depression and regret.

All the people of the Demon World in the nearby mountains, and even many big figures, were also eagerly waiting, looking at this scene with great envy.

Every time in the Banquet of Geniuses, although they were just watching the ceremony, they could also feel the many good things contained in it.

Boom!!!

Boom!!!

Boom!!!

With three huge bells ringing, the sound spread to all parties, and the Banquet of Geniuses officially started.

During the banquet, a series of gleaming, glowing spiritual foods were brought up by many maids. The fragrance was heavenly and contained unimaginable divinity, which made the pores to be stretched out.

The first was spiritual food, which was cooked from the meat of all kinds of fierce beasts with powerful aura and then supplemented with many spiritual herbs, the effect was amazing.

Many geniuses took the first bite, and blood spurted from the pores, turning into a small continuous red mist. The power of the aura was as turbulent and vast as a river, and then quickly meditated and refined on the spot, daring not to waste a little bit.

Jun Fan kept an eye on Empress Xi Yao's actions.

Seeing that she asked the female officer beside her to test the poison first, and then eat it, she was so cautious, but it didn't surprise him. But these were the little things in the front, and the main event was in the back.

"The banquet of geniuses is divided into three feasts, first a meat feast, a fruit feast, and finally a wine feast..."

In the top place, Empress Xi Yao showed a slight smile and explained to Gu Changge.

Gu Changge nodded and said in admiration, "These meat foods are not simple, they contain unimaginable energy and good fortune. If you want to refine them usually it is quite difficult, but after cooking, it has become gentle."

He tasted a few mouthfuls and was not worried that there would be poison in these meats. Even the source of Absolute Heavenly Extinction could be refined and swallowed at will, not to mention the many poisons in this world.

In the field, the first meat feast had just started. Many young geniuses started to be unable to support it. They began to sit cross-legged on the spot, choosing to refine them, and the subsequent fruit feasts and wine feasts would be missed by them.

After all, it was no wonder that others couldn't absorb so much creation by themselves.

Soon, the second fruit banquet began, and all that were served were crystal clear spiritual fruits that contained many rhymes.

The shapes were different, the glow was thin, and some surfaces were even surrounded by divine light, with strange lines, and there was a faint effect of enlightenment.

At the moment of seeing this fruit, many geniuses' eyes straightened, their hearts trembled, and it was difficult to calm down. All the big people watching from a distance are also envious and jealous, and can't wait to replace them.

"It seems that this time, Her Majesty the Empress made a lot of money in order to prepare this Banquet of the Geniuses and even took out the Bodhi Dao Fruit."

"Even if it was the Imperial Palace, it would take a long time to take out so many of them at once."

Many great people sighed with admiration and envy. Even in their realm, they were extremely eager for the Dao fruit of Bodhi.

Because, it could help them realize breakthroughs. If they encountered a bottleneck, it was very likely that they would be able to break through and go to another world.

Empress Xi Yao actually took out this kind of good thing which really shocked them.

Soon, many geniuses did not hesitate, picked up the Bodhi Dao Fruit in their hands, and began refining.

Even Song Youwei took it carefully, rarely showing a cautious expression.

Jun Fan's expression remained unchanged, and he swallowed the fruit quickly, not wanting to be noticed by others.

Immediately, a rich fragrance began to permeate this place, the rays of light intertwined, reflecting the sky, and the sound of the Tao reverberated, resounding from all sides.

"After the meat feast and fruit feast are over, is the main event on this wine feast?"

Gu Changge couldn't help asking with interest as he looked at many geniuses who had fallen into a state of epiphany.

Empress Xi Yao nodded, with a hint of mystery in her smile, and said, "I have prepared for this banquet for a long time."

Gu Changge looked at her with an inexplicable smile, and said, "Then I'll wait and see."

Chapter 398-1: Are you scolding her or complimenting her, The time is finally ripe (1)

Hearing Gu Changge's words, Empress Xi Yao thought he couldn't believe it.

Instead, she explained it seriously and added, "For this banquet, I prepared more than 20 years in advance, and even went to the True Immortal Academy to exchange for a long-lost brewing method from an old monster."

"Besides, I also personally visited the extremely cold places in the Demon World and picked sufficient ice lotuses with an age of 8 million years in order to dilute the medicinal effect of the imperial wine as I was worried that they would not be able to bear it, and they would explode and die."

She had never said these words to anyone, not even to the closest female official behind her. No one knew how long she had been preparing for the Banquet of Geniuses over the years.

But in front of Gu Changge, she unabashedly explained all this, because she felt that Gu Changge would understand her good intentions.

"Really? Then, Changge should have a good taste of this imperial wine. If they knew that Her Majesty the Empress had put so much effort into this Banquet of Geniuses, they would probably be even more grateful."

Gu Changge raised his eyebrows slightly and smiled. He did not expect that Empress Xi Yao would pay so much attention to this Banquet of Geniuses.

Even doing so much by herself.

"I don't need them to be grateful to me."

Hearing this, Empress Xi Yao pointed her finger at the many geniuses below, laughed, and said, "They are the future hope of the Demon World. It's nothing for me to do all this."

However, there was still some pride in her words. After all, looking around, this endless and magnificent territory was her Empire.

These countless monster world creatures were her subjects. For her, the hard work she had put in for more than 6,000 years was totally worth it.

"What Her Majesty has done really impressed Changge."

Hearing this, Gu Changge laughed.

Immediately, he glanced at Jun Fan, who was sitting cross-legged with his eyes closed at the banquet, refining the Budhi Dao fruit. He could not see the slightest difference, and continued to ask casually,

"But, Your Majesty, do you think it's worth doing this?"

Empress Xi Yao frowned slightly, thinking seriously about Gu Changge's question.

"They will serve me sincerely in the future and inject fresh blood into the Demon World. I don't think it's worthless."

She didn't hesitate for long and said bluntly.

Gu Changge snorted, his smile seemed light, and he asked, "Is that so? So Her Majesty the Empress thinks that they will all serve you, that is why you trust them so much?"

"They are all geniuses selected by my subordinates, and I will naturally trust them."

Empress Xi Yao gave Gu Changge a strange look, not understanding why he asked such a question today.

Could it be that he was suspicious of the genius in front of him?

Empress Xi Yao felt that this was not very likely. A genius who could come here had entered her line of sight a long time ago.

If they had other plans, she should have known about it long ago.

"Is that so?"

Gu Changge nodded, noncommittal.

At this time, he somewhat understood the thoughts of Empress Xi Yao.

Before this, he was still guessing whether Empress Xi Yao would have any means to prevent the upcoming event of the Banquet of Genius. But from these words, he found that he seemed to have overestimated her.

Just now, he helped her test Jun Bufan's reaction, but Empress Xi Yao didn't notice it at all.

In this way, she would probably only react when Jun Bufan would place the blade to her neck.

Perhaps in Empress Xi Yao's view, even if Jun Bufan was not dead, he would not dare to appear in front of her at this time.

Empress Xi Yao was a qualified Demon Empress, but she was not a qualified Emperor.

In Gu Changge's view, as the so-called Emperor, how could she easily trust others, even her own confidants?

He felt that this time if had not arrived at the Demon World, Empress Xi Yao would definitely suffer a big loss, and it was very likely that she would have suffered heavy losses.

According to the general routine in such a situation, the current rule of the Demon World would definitely be overthrown.

After that, Empress Xi Yao would become a prisoner, and her fiancé, Bufan, who was poisoned by her, would reappear in the world, and announce the crime of Empress Xi Yao. From then on, he would take charge of the Demon World and become the new master of the Demon World.

Even if it was possible to change the situation. Once the turmoil was finally quelled, Empress Xi Yao would have to spend a lot of effort to find the mastermind behind the scene, Jun Bufan.

After all, Jun Bufan was right in front of her now, but she turned a blind eye. Instead, she was optimistic about him and had a heart for talent.

If it wasn't for Luck, Gu Changge would never have believed it.

"So, this is the normal plot and trajectory. It's no wonder if nothing happens..." Gu Changge shook his head slightly.

After that, Gu Changge squinted his eyes before looking at Empress Xi Yao, and said with a smile, "But I'm afraid everyone in the Demon World will never know that their always cold-blooded and cruel, Her Majesty the Empress, still has such a simple and lovely side."

"Young Master Changge... What do you mean? Are you complimenting me or scolding me?"

Empress Xi Yao was a little stunned when she heard his words, but after reacting, she almost couldn't turn her head around, and it was difficult to maintain her usual majesty as the Empress.

She wondered if she had heard it wrong. It was the first time she had heard someone say she was innocent and cute.

She suddenly felt very uncomfortable, and her heart was even a little flustered for no reason.

From the beginning to the end, she knew that she had never been related to these four characters. Not to mention her image in the hearts of everyone in the Demon World had always been cruel, murderous and ruthless.

In order to clean up the remnants of the five Emperors, she did not hesitate to send a large army to fight everywhere, and many great clans in the Demon World perished in her hands.

Because of her relationship, there were countless creatures in the Demon World who died directly or indirectly. How could she be so close to being innocent and cute?

Subconsciously, she thought that Gu Changge was probably laughing at her stupid idea just now.

However, Gu Changge looked calm, smiled, and said, "Of course, I didn't scold Her Majesty. It's just that I suddenly saw the other side of Her Majesty, and I felt that the contrast was quite big... It gave me such a feeling."

"My other side?" Empress Xi Yao stared at him.

In the end, she couldn't stand Gu Changge's straightforward gaze, turned her head away, and looked at the many young geniuses below.

Gu Change laughed and did not refute.

Of course, it was impossible to call her stupid at such a time. To be euphemistic, she was naturally pure. Her character had been beautified again, it was naturally pure and lovely.

No matter what Empress Xi Yao said, she was still an unmarried woman, of course, the premise was that her age was ignored.

With his status, he could easily impress her by saying something nice.

At this moment, after taking the Bodhi Dao Fruit, almost all the young geniuses were refining and absorbing.

Their body surface was shrouded in divine light, and immortal energy was flickering, not letting go of this once-in-a-lifetime epiphany opportunity.

Everyone was watching.

This process took some time, and soon the sky gradually dimmed.

Countless monster world creatures around the mountain stared at them with envy and jealousy in their eyes. They only felt that the aura of all the geniuses was getting stronger.

Twilight descended the west, and the orange afterglow fell, coloring the entire sacred mountain in pale gold, solemn and magnificent.

"Breakthrough..."

"I also broke through, as expected of the Bodhi Dao fruit."

Chapter 398-2: Are you scolding her or complimenting her, The time is finally ripe (2)

Many geniuses began to wake up, opened their eyes from the epiphany state, and suddenly exclaimed with joy.

The colorful clouds flickered, and the golden rays of light intertwined, filled with a powerful aura, and even sprayed out various colors from the pores.

The first thing they did was to sense the change in their own strength, and they were extremely surprised. Then they got up and thanked Empress Xi Yao with great respect.

They had long heard of the preciousness of the fruit of the Bodhi path. Before that, they never thought that one day they would be able to refine and absorb such a fruit.

In today's Banquet of Geniuses, they received many opportunities, which made them feel grateful to Empress Xi Yao from the bottom of their hearts.

"The cultivation base has indeed broken through a small realm, and this Bodhi Dao fruit is indeed extraordinary."

Jun Fan also opened his eyes from the epiphany, his expression seemed natural, and like the rest of the geniuses, he thanked Empress Xi Yao.

Although he would assassinate Empress Xi Yao later, he was not a fool to let go of such a bargain. But Jun Fan didn't know if it was his own delusion.

Gu Changge kept looking into his eyes, making him feel that all his secrets seemed to be invisible to him. That look was more like cat-and-mouse play.

He frowned secretly and looked away calmly.

"Did Gu Changge discover something? It must be my abnormality just now, and he noticed it..."

Jun Fan thought so in his heart and became more and more vigilant.

Now that everything was ready, it was only due to East Wind that the meat feast and fruit feast were over, and then the wine feast was done, it would be the time for him to start.

"Come here, serve wine for the geniuses."

At this time, Empress Xi Yao stood up again, waved her wide sleeves, and ordered the female officials behind her to serve wine.

Buzz!!!

In the nearby mountains, countless monster world creatures were silent for a while when they heard this sound, and then a tsunami-like excited sound broke out.

At this moment, almost everyone's eyes fell, implying expressions of curiosity, and excitement.

After all, the first two banquets were so precious, not to mention the banquet as the finale. Every time the Banquet of Geniuses would attract the attention of everyone in the Demon World.

There was even a case where a cultivator broke through just by smelling a wisp of wine.

So this time the banquet made them look forward to and curious and they wanted to know what kind of final banquet Empress Xi Yao had prepared.

As Empress Xi Yao finished her words, many beautiful women walked out behind her, with fluttering dresses and earthen pots in their hands. They were simple and gentle. Although the surface of the pots was sealed, there was still a strong aroma of the wine.

They walked in front of many geniuses. And then started pouring wine.

The series of actions was simple and straightforward, with no tedious steps.

The pale golden wine rolled down from the earthen jar, as if it contained spirituality, and fell into the white jade wine bowl in front of many geniuses.

"What kind of wine is this..."

The eyes of many geniuses widened, just smelling the aroma of the wine, their faces turned red, their feet staggered, and they even almost lost their feet.

The astonishing medicinal properties permeated into their bodies, and there was majestic energy as if it could burst the internal organs.

Buzz!!!

The void trembled, bursting out of various colors, intertwining and flowing there. This was a terrifying scene, and many people even saw various visions emerging from the wine bowl.

The sun and the moon rose and fell, the mountains and rivers were surging, the stars were slanting, the mountains and rivers were boundless with the thunder and lightning turning everything into ashes.

"Is this an immortal wine, isn't it rumored that the method of brewing has been lost?"

"Hey! It turns out to be demon wine. According to ancient rumors, only demons are qualified to drink this wine..."

"Where did Her Majesty the Empress get the recipe for its brewing?"

At this moment, there were many shocked voices all around.

Many big figures in the Demon World had recognized what kind of wine this imperial wine was, their eyes widened, and their hearts were extremely shaken.

As far as they knew, the method of brewing Immortal wine had actually been lost a long time ago. However, in the classics, there were still records of the immortal wine.

Its magical effect was indescribable, and even had the effect of rebirth.

Of course, Empress Xi Yao would never be able to brew the real Immortal wine. It was difficult for her to find all kinds of rare materials.

At most, it could only restore 1/10,000 of the utility. Even so, this bowl of Demon Immortal Wine made everyone's eyes red, envious, and jealous to the point of madness.

"The fate of this Banquet of Geniuses is beyond imagination."

The Demon Master, Peace King, and others were also shocked. Before that, they didn't know what kind of wine Empress Xi Yao had prepared.

"After this banquet, you will die."

Seeing this scene, Jun Fan was not surprised at all, he sneered in his heart, and was the first to drink up the golden wine in the wine bowl.

He started to sit and wait.

Empress Xi Yao has been preparing for this for a long time. But for this Banquet of Geniuses, he also prepared for a long time.

Until now, Empress Xi Yao did not know that the winemaker she was looking for had been secretly lost by him.

In order to be safe, Jun Fan even controlled many ministers who were in charge of the imperial wine this time, and firmly controlled the lives of them and their wives and daughters.

Boom!!

Following Jun Fan's sip of wine, the rest of the young geniuses also imitated his appearance and started drinking.

"It turned out to be the rumored immortal wine that has been long lost..."

Song Youwei was also shaken in her heart, but before drinking, she habitually raised her head and glanced at the top.

"Young Master Changge, do you want to try it?"

Empress Xiyao poured wine for Gu Changge herself, the corners of her mouth were slightly hooked, and she was quite happy seeing the shocked expressions of everyone.

Gu Changge sniffed with interest, and said, "The Demon Immortal Wine really lives up to its reputation. Just smelling it makes one's pores relax. In order to brew this wine, Her Majesty must have spent a lot of energy, right?"

"It looks like it's worth it now."

Empress Xi Yao smiled, and she was also full of herself.

The female officer behind her came forward to test her for drugs, just in case.

And Jun Fan, who had been sitting cross-legged below, watched Empress Xi Yao drink the bowl of wine, and a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

"The time has finally come!"

However, he had not crushed the jade talisman in his arms, because it would take some time for the poison to strike.

This was a mixed poison, if one drank it alone, it would not have any effect, and naturally, they wouldn't worry about being found out.

Now, in combination with the pill powder that Qingzhu had placed in the meal of Empress Xi Yao before, it had an unimaginable miraculous effect.

For a while, this place was filled with a strong aroma of wine, and it was colorful.

Many geniuses were a little drunk, trying to find a way to refine the medicinal effects of the wine.

"This wine tastes really good."

Gu Changge gently shook the bronze wine glass in his hand, took a sip, and said something like admiration.

"Xi Yao toasts Young Master of Changge with a cup."

"Thank you, Young Master Changge, for coming to the Demon World hundreds of millions of miles to tell me about this."

Perhaps because of drinking, a faint haze appeared on Xi Yao's fair and delicate face. However, the corner of her mouth was still slightly hooked, and she raised her hand to raise a glass to Gu Changge.
