

Villain 401

Chapter 401-1: Just to hide from peoples eyes and ears, The sun suddenly comes to light (1)

"Nothing meaningful. I wouldn't interfere in the affairs of the Demon World, but I am concerned about Xi Yao's affairs. After all, this Gu is a good person who helps others. How can I sit still while you bully and take advantage of other people..."

Gu Changge smiled.

"Gu Changge, don't make a mistake. As someone from the younger generation, many things are beyond your control."

The Night Demon's face sank. He couldn't understand what Gu Changge meant by saying this, but it didn't prevent him from knowing that Gu Changge insisted on interfering in the Demon World.

Isn't Xi Yao's business the matter of the Demon World? What's the difference?

"Do you really think that being the Young Master of the Ancient Immortal family, you can really interfere in everything?"

Jun Fan had been paying attention to this side, and seeing this scene, the sneer in his heart deepened.

He knew that Gu Changge's strength was very strong, far from what he could reach now, but his Uncle Ye still had an imperial weapon in his hands, the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword!

If the strength of the Supreme Realm, combined with the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword burst out in full power unless someone in the Quasi-Emperor Realm existed, who could compete against it?

And what he was betting on was that Gu Changge arriving to the Demon World without his Guardian.

If he lost the bet, he didn't have to worry, he had already figured out a way out, but he would be a little unwilling.

"It seems that you are determined to seek death."

"I said, you can't touch Xi Yao, even if she once killed your whole family."

Hearing Night Demon's words, Gu Changge couldn't help from shaking his head slightly, though his tone was still calm, "If you are self-professed to cultivate, kneel down and beg for mercy, maybe I can spare your life for a while."

"You..." Hearing this, Night Demon's forehead almost jumped with blue veins, and he had never seen such an arrogant person before.

The realm of cultivation was far inferior to him, but he was so arrogant and looked like he already had his life under control.

When Jun Fan heard this, his heart was full of anger, and his face was not good-looking, "Damn, this guy is really arrogant! How dare he humiliate Uncle Ye like this."

And as the words fell, Gu Changge shot, and the peerless immortal sword that seemed to be condensed by countless rules instantly descended and slashed toward the Night Demon.

The five-colored divine light soared into the sky, and the sword energy was boundless, like the transformation of many stars, submerging the sky.

This power was too vast and terrifying, making everyone go pale as it was no longer something that human beings could compete with.

Faced with this kind of fluctuation, any creature would instantly turn into powder.

"You..."

The pupils of the Night Demon in the black gold robe shrank slightly, he didn't expect that Gu Changge would make the first move from above the sky.

In his hand, there was a long black sword that looked like cast from immortal gold, and his Supreme aura emerged as it slashed forward.

The movement was not very fast, but there was the sound emitted from heaven and the earth, and it suddenly crossed endless space.

"This is... the resonance of the Dao, the sound of harmony, and the sound of energy pervading the universe!"

"This is the power of an imperial weapon!"

Every big figure in the Demon World got goosebumps all over their bodies. This was enough to kill the common people, and it could only be drawn by the existence of taboos.

"Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword... How could it be in his hands...?" Even Empress Xi Yao's expression changed.

Dao Resonance, which had always only appeared in the most ancient legends, belonged to the power of the Emperor, and now they really saw it firsthand.

Between heaven and earth, there were terrifying projections that emerged from the unspeakable place, like the Supreme aura that existed in the Emperor Realm.

In it, the Dao was suppressed stubbornly, and innumerable strands were falling down. There were dragons leaping, phoenixes dancing, and the voice of God was like a knife, slaying all living beings!

However, this was just the accompanying heavenly sound, which contained endless terror.

The real killer move was the black heavenly sword, which pierced through the sky at once as if crossing many realms and slashed in front of Gu Changge's eyebrows in the blink of an eye.

The sky was torn apart, and the ages were turned into ashes.

It was terrifying!

Seeing this scene, even the King of Peace and Chaos and others, who had reached the Quasi-Supreme Realm were palpated and horrified.

This was the spiritual thought that could throb all living beings and creatures.

This sword was accompanied by countless black lines, each of which was a law, and each strand was enough to cut off a Quasi-Supreme, or even a Supreme being!

Innumerable threads, condensed on the black blade, focused on Gu Changge's forehead.

It was conceivable how terrifying this attack was. Time and space were cut off, and there was a vacuum of heaven, which looked invincible.

Even the immortal sword condensed in Gu Changge's hand could not help but shatter at this moment, and they were not on the same level.

"Clang!"

But in the next moment, a peerless heavenly sound rang out, and a golden nine-story pagoda emerged cast in divine gold, with the prestige of the world, and unparalleled strength.

It quickly emerged behind Gu Changge and hung down with vast golden laws. Every golden law was indestructible.

The sword fell on it, making a terrifying vibration, but it didn't do any damage, and Gu Changge stood still, not even lifting his robe.

Gu Changge's face remained unchanged, and he said lightly, "It can't even break through my defenses, what means will you use to deal with me?"

"This is..."

"The legendary Heavenly Tower?"

"How could it be in your hands!"

The Night Demon's complexion changed dramatically, he felt the trembling sound from the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword, his arms almost spasmed, and his bones shook violently.

After all, he was not a True Emperor, and it was difficult to exert the true power of Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword.

As for the Heavenly Tower in front of Gu Changge, it was said that it was the thing of the Immortal Palace, which had the effect of suppressing the Luck of the world. It was thick and indestructible.

Some even said that it was something used by a True Immortal!

Even if Gu Changge couldn't completely activate it, it was easy to protect himself in a short period of time.

The rest of the big figures in the Demon World were also stunned at the moment. At the moment of the collision just now, the peerless heavenly sound almost shattered their souls.

They dared not imagine how strong it would be to face this sword. But now Gu Changge was not only unimpeded, he even had the ability to use other means!

This strength was simply unfathomable, even if the Heavenly Tower could protect him, but without strong energy support, it was empty talk.

"The Heavenly Tower turned out to be in his hands... How many tricks did he hide?"

Empress Xi Yao's heart was also shaking abnormally. She wanted to speak out just now to tell Gu Changge to be careful.

But it seemed that she was completely overthinking it. Gu Changge's methods were beyond her imagination.

She estimated that even in the heyday when she was not poisoned, she would not be Gu Changge's opponent by using all means.

His strength lay in the fact that no one knew his bottom card and his true strength.

"How is this possible... How could the Heavenly Tower fall into Gu Changge's hands? This is not right..."

Jun Fan's face was not good-looking, his brows were tightly wrinkled. He took out another jade talisman hidden between his sleeves, and silently sent a message to notify the others, so that they could act quickly.

Gu Changge had become the biggest variable.

He initially took Gu Changge into consideration, but he did not expect that Gu Changge had so many means and even insisted on protecting Xi Yao.

"Let Uncle Ye hold off Gu Changge, and the rest take this opportunity..."

Jun Fan's eyes flashed slightly, and he informed the rest of the people through the communication talisman.

The battle below the top of the sacred mountain was also extremely terrifying. Everyone was fighting, attacking each other in the sky, and the bones were piled up.

Soon, the battle between Gu Changge and the Night Demon broke out again.

Gu Changge's dharma body of ten thousand feet was like the transformation of the Dao, with mysterious and endless fluctuations.

"Just hold him back..."

Night Demon received Jun Fan's voice, and now he understood how difficult Gu Changge was, his eyes flashed, and his figure rose into the sky.

"Are you going to hold me back?"

Gu Changge smiled, he still had this intention, and many methods were not easy to use in front of others.

Wasn't this Night Demon just looking to run away?

"Protect Empress Xiyao, if she loses a hair, you don't have to return to me."

He instructed Tian Ze and the others.

"Yes master, don't worry, we will protect Empress Xi Yao."

Although Tian Ze and the others looked fierce, their strength was not to be underestimated.

After that, Gu Changge's figure disappeared from the spot, the dharma body of ten thousand feet evolved, the void trembled with an extremely fast speed.

The two rushed out of this place and came to the outside world, where the most terrifying battle broke out.

Within a radius of tens of thousands of miles, there were desolate people, all depleted stars, broken continents, and lifeless star corpses.

"Gu Changge, why do you insist on helping her? Empress Xi Yao's methods are cruel, and the heavens are angry, if the great Demon World continues to be under her control, it will be destroyed sooner or later."

Chapter 401-2: Just to hide from peoples eyes and ears, The sun suddenly comes to light (2)

Outside the realm, Night Demon also breathed a sigh of relief.

He didn't intend to fight against Gu Changge, intending to delay him and give the others a chance to assassinate Empress Xi Yao.

"What does it matter to me if the Demon World is destroyed or not? I've said that I won't interfere in the Demon World. I'm not interested in how your Demon World is doing."

Gu Changge said casually, "If you want to keep delaying time, you don't have to."

"What do you mean by that?"

Night Demon frowned, and the black gold robe on his body was glowing, with an immortal aura, as if it could withstand the ages.

"Because you will die soon."

Gu Changge said, and at the same time, the Heavenly Tower flashed and descended from the top of his head and landed on his shoulders.

"How arrogant, you even took out the Heavenly Tower, you are underestimating me too much."

The Night Demon sneered. He didn't expect Gu Changge to be so arrogant. After arriving outside the realm, he first took out the Heavenly Tower.

How confident was he in his own strength?

"It was a cover-up just now, I didn't want to shock the world, or do you think I need to use weapons to defend against you?"

Gu Changge spoke calmly, smiling as if mockingly.

In the next moment, monstrous demonic energy suddenly appeared in his hand. This was a halberd forged by flawless black crystal, exuding a terrifying aura that shattered the ages and slaughtered the heavens.

"What is this Ominous aura?"

Night Demon's complexion changed slightly, and he sensed that something was wrong.

This was a strong sense of danger as if his soul was frozen and cracked, and it would be pierced by that devilish halberd at any time.

At this moment, the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword in his hand seemed to sense the danger, as if it was recovering, the aura above it was terrifying along with the brilliant radiance. It was sharp and pressing as the black light surged with an absolutely powerful blow.

"You're going to die, and you are still asking so many questions?"

Gu Change's expression was still turbulent. With his steps, the void blurred, and he disappeared from the spot in an instant. The Eight Desolate Demon Halberd swept down, and the nearby star field exploded at once.

The terrifying fluctuations caused Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword to make a terrifying cracking sound in an instant, and it seemed that it was difficult to continue to contend.

Puff!

Night Demon was severely injured in an instant. He groaned and coughed up blood, his internal organs were in severe pain, and his hand holding the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword was almost cracked.

This was a destructive power, and any level in front of it could only be turned into powder. At this moment, his face was horrified, it was unbelievable, why did Gu Change still have such means?

Even he, who possessed the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword, was far from his opponent.

Buzz!!!

In the next moment, Gu Change walked towards him, and a chaotic gray mist spread as he walked, covering the vicinity.

Heaven and earth were exhausted, all things turned dead, and they were plunged into eternal silence.

A black Dao, with black light hanging down, floated above his head, like a black hole swallowing the heavens, with a terrifying palpitation.

"How is this possible! You turned out to be a descendant of demonic art!?"

Seeing this scene, Night Demon finally reacted, and his complexion changed drastically, turning extremely pale.

He recognized Gu Change's identity. This made him desperate, and he couldn't believe it, how could Gu Change be the inheritor of demonic art?

It was so creepy that his skull was about to explode.

He raised his hand, and all the power poured into the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword, trying to rush out of this place.

The sword light was sky-shattering, and the laws from the Dao of the Sword flowed out.

Gu Changge's expression remained the same, the Eight Desolate Demon Halberd swept down, and the void exploded as if even the universe had ruptured and was split into two.

Afterward, the gray fog loomed over the sky, shrouding all the star fields, and there was a heart-pounding scream before everything finally returned to silence.

On the top of the sacred mountain, the figures of Gu Changge and Night Demon rushed out of the realm.

There were more assassins who rushed in instantly, and their strength was powerful. Many geniuses had suffered from their poisonous hands, and they couldn't resist for a moment.

For a time, this place was full of shouts, and everyone brought out their weapons and fought each other.

"I have sent orders to the army of the palace, and they will arrive soon."

Empress Xi Yao's face was calm and not flustered.

It was true that she couldn't use her energy, but just relying on the terrifying level of her fleshy body was not something that ordinary people could get close to.

Not to mention that there were many strong people left by Gu Changge by her side. This assassination was finally coming to an end.

During the thought just now, she already knew in her heart who betrayed her. While this made her angry, it was more of a chill.

It seemed that her next step was to shuffle all the confidants around her.

Before that, she never thought that the most trusted confidant she had cultivated since childhood would betray her one day and poison her meal.

Until now, she still remembered how she rescued her from the mouth of the big demon, and how she taught her the method of cultivation.

The companionship for hundreds of years was still fresh in her mind. In the end, she actually repaid herself like this.

"The naivety that Gu Changge said at the time turned out to be this. It seems that he already noticed it..."

The corner of Empress Xi Yao's mouth turned a little self-deprecating. This was no longer a matter for the authorities to be obsessed with. It was purely because she was too stupid.

And now, she began to think about another question, if Jun Bufan was not dead, where would he hide now?

Had he changed his face, or had he gone into hiding?

But what Empress Xi Yao could be sure of was that Jun Bufan was definitely the one who planned the assassination this time.

The Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword was the best proof.

Six thousand years ago, her mother You Yue Demon Emperor disappeared, leaving only the weapon and a simple letter.

The content of the letter was also very simple, it was to tell her that the Demon World was about to be in chaos and the weapons were left to her for self-defense, and she was asked to make up her own mind.

If it weren't for the content of the letter, she wouldn't have come this far. Therefore, the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword must have been left by the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor to his son in the end.

"I seem to have fallen into a misunderstanding because the body from Jun Bufan's tomb disappeared, so I thought that he died by fraud and was not really dead, and is just hiding somewhere."

"But what if this was his old suspicion? He deliberately led me to doubt this? He was actually dead at the time, but before the Demon Emperor Xuan Yang disappeared, he reshaped his soul and let him carry his original memory. Reincarnation? Because of this, I never found Jun Bufan?"

Empress Xi Yao's eyes could not help narrowing as the foggy clouds surrounding her thoughts were cleared.

"Could it be that I've been planning for so long and it will fail..."

But just when Empress Xi Yao figured out a certain key point, Jun Fan's expression turned ugly.

Although he was also fighting in the crowd, he had been paying attention to the battles outside the territory and wanted to see Uncle Ye come here after suppressing Gu Changge.

Uncle Ye was his biggest support now. If Uncle Ye took action, Empress Xi Yao would never have had the possibility to survive.

But now Uncle Ye was fighting with Gu Changge, and it was difficult to get out after delaying it there for the time being.

He underestimated the power of Empress Xi Yao on this side. Although he had sent many strong men to kill them, they all died tragically on the top of the sacred mountain, and could not hurt her at all.

Then once the army of the palace arrived, the situation would definitely be reversed in an instant, and many people would not be able to escape.

Thinking of this, although Jun Fan was not reconciled, he could only grit his teeth and summoned everyone to flee.

In this assassination, the person he underestimated the most was actually Gu Changge.

If it wasn't for Gu Changge, there would never have been any accident in this assassination, but Gu Changge's strength and means were unbelievably strong.

"Run away, don't stay."

Then, Jun Fan took a deep breath and sent a message to inform many of his subordinates.

He also began to think about the next plan, and he was absolutely unwilling to let Empress Xi Yao go like this.

Fortunately, in this assassination, he had been behind the scenes and had not really appeared.

In this way, he was still safe for the time being, and no one would suspect him. He was still in the dark, and Empress Xi Yao was still in the light.

"Qingzhu, I'm sorry..."

Jun Fan glanced at Qingzhu, whose face was a little pale in the distance, and felt a little sad in his heart.

Now the person most likely to reveal his identity was Qingzhu next to Empress Xi Yao.

However, in order to preserve his identity in this life, he could only kill her.

With Jun Fan's order, many assassins looked at each other and ran out of the mountains one after another, choosing to evacuate.

In the distance, the mighty Imperial Palace army finally crashed with a murderous aura and carried out a cleanup.

Chapter 402-1: I really hate Gu Changge, Its about what you want and what I want (1)

The sky trembled and the mountains shook! The sound of rumbling arrived, like a thousand troops galloping over to kill.

The black army descended from beyond the sky, attacking in all directions.

This was a group of elites, and even their mounts were pure-blooded beasts, with scarlet eyes, powerful strength, and silky hair, exuding a dazzling light.

"Attack!"

This group of troops got news from the palace, and then rushed to this place just a while ago.

Her Majesty the Empress was attacked, this incident shook the court and the opposition, making everyone angry.

After that the army in the palace quickly assembled, they rushed to the Black and White Academy through the teleportation array.

They were like a torrent as they began to surround and kill many assassins who had not yet had time to escape.

Suddenly, a massacre began, and there were screams everywhere.

The general trend had passed, and many assassins, even if they were unwilling in their hearts, were of no avail as they started to escape everywhere.

However, the speed at which they escaped was not comparable to the speed at which many large armies were chasing and attacking them.

Many people saw that it was difficult to escape, and they chose to self-destruct directly on the spot. Their body and spirit were both destroyed, the mist of blood drifted away, the end was ruthless and abnormal, leaving no survivors.

"It's over, these assassins all started to retreat, they all fled outside."

"It was quite a false alarm, thanks to Young Master Changge for holding down the Night Demon, otherwise the consequences would be unimaginable."

"Yeah, if there was no Young Master Changge, Her Majesty the Empress would have been really fierce this time. It is hard to imagine that the other party had prepared so many means in order to assassinate Her Majesty the Empress, even the weapon used by the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor was involved..."

"That's an imperial weapon! Fortunately, Young Master Changge still holds the Heavenly Tower in his hand, otherwise it would be hard to resist."

Many important officials of the demon clan who watched this scene, all breathed a sigh of relief at this moment, and they were relieved, and their hearts were full of emotion.

In the battle just now, they were also injured a lot. But compared to this injury, they were still more worried about the poison of Her Majesty the Empress.

If the poison was strong, then the Demon World would probably be in chaos in a short period of time, and it would make people panic.

It was estimated that many big figures were involved in this attack.

Even a Supreme Realm powerhouse like Night Demon attacked with the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword. Even Her Majesty the Empress in her prime would probably not be able to deal with it.

"Hmph, this person ran away. The guy who hides his head and shows his tail doesn't dare to show his true colors at all! But Your Majesty is fine, so I can rest assured when I wait."

From the sky, Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos, Demon Master and others all fell down, their bodies were covered in red while some places even showed visible bones, and the injuries were extremely serious.

Their opponents were very strong, and there were some people whose strength was even above them. If it weren't for the large number of them, they probably would have already been defeated and killed.

Whoosh whoosh!!!

Soon, everyone had no time to recover from their injuries, and they turned into a divine light and headed toward the top of the sacred mountain.

"Great, we survived, and the assassins escaped."

Seeing that this attack was finally over, many geniuses also showed joy on their faces, and heaved a long sigh of relief.

Many people were even more paralyzed to the ground. They were all supported by one breath just now.

"I failed this time, but there will always be a next time."

Jun Fan closed his eyes and heard from the rest of the young geniuses, sitting cross-legged and resting on the spot to recover from his injuries.

There was a deep sense of unwillingness in his heart, but at this time, no one paid attention to it.

"Your Majesty, are you all right?"

Song Youwei, who was also stained with blood, came from under the sacred mountain and asked respectfully.

"I'm fine..."

Empress Xi Yao shook her head.

She stood on the top of the mountain and looked out of the domain. With her current ability, she couldn't sense the battle that was taking place there.

Although she knew that Gu Changge was strong, she was not sure until the result came out.

After all, the other party was the Night Demon, a character who had been in the Demon World 6,000 years ago, and now he was holding the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword, which was even more powerful and almost invincible.

And just when Empress Xi Yao was thinking. Suddenly there was a faint wave from outside the realm, and then the void in front of her was blurred, and Gu Changge's figure appeared.

He looked calm, and his robes were as good as new, unstained by fine dust.

Empress Xi Yao and Song Youwei were both stunned, a little disbelieving that Gu Changge looked so relaxed. He didn't seem to have any problems, there was no injury on his body, his breath was steady, and there was no disturbance.

If they hadn't seen the battle between him and Night Demon just now, no one would believe that this would be what Gu looked like after the war.

"Thank you, Young Master Changge, for your kindness, are you all right?"

After reacting, Empress Xi Yao looked at Gu Changge and cupped her hands, and asked. Song Youwei also looked at Gu Changge with an unbelievable look.

How the hell did he look like that when he just came after fighting?

"Of course, I'm fine."

Gu Changge waved his hand, very casual, and then said with a somewhat regretful tone,

"That guy was smart as he suddenly ran away. I was worried about this side, so I didn't go after him. But nothing happened on your side, right? I think the assassins have already retreated."

"The Night Demon ran away? It seems that this is why these assassins escaped."

Song Youwei was a little surprised, and admired Gu Changge even more.

"Thank you, Young Master Changge, for your concern, I'm fine."

Empress Xi Yao shook her head, she actually didn't believe Gu Changge's words. She felt that this matter might not be as simple as Gu Changge had mentioned.

The Night Demon should not have escaped, but was killed by him. If Night Demon really escaped, then Gu Changge probably wouldn't look like this, and now she knew him a little.

Therefore, the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword should also be in Gu Changge's hands now.

However, since Gu Changge didn't say anything, she knowingly didn't ask. For today's matter, she had already accepted Gu Changge's great favor.

Although the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword was precious, it should be nothing for Gu Changge.

When the Purple Mansion was destroyed, most of the underlying resources fell into his hands.

One or two pieces of imperial weapons may be very precious to ordinary Taoist sects, but Gu Changge even had Immortal artifacts such as the Heavenly Tower.

Now she was a little curious about how Gu Changge killed Night Demon.

"It's fine." Hearing this, Gu Changge smiled and seemed to be quite concerned.

Just as Empress Xi Yao thought, after the Night Demon died, the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword naturally fell into his hands.

In addition, it also included the Supreme Origin of the night demon. It was just he didn't have to say this kind of thing, Empress Xi Yao should be smart and won't ask too much.

Gu Changge's trip to the Demon World, although he planned to find the son of the Demon Emperor and Bai Lian'er. But with the encounter of something like the Supreme origin, he naturally would not let it go.

It wasn't that Gu Changge planned to hide the news of Night Demon's death.

But he found that the Night Demon did not leave anything like a life token or something. If news of his death spread, Jun Bufan might panic.

He also planned to use Jun Bufan to draw out the big fish behind him, so naturally he didn't plan to startle the snake like that. Now, according to the current situation of the Demon World.

Empress Xi Yao was really just a chess piece, the real chess player was still behind the scenes and had never appeared.

Chapter 402-2: I really hate Gu Changge, Its about what you want and what I want (2)

Even if it was Jun Bufan, the Son of Luck, the same was true for him. If he wanted to intervene in this situation, he must first lead out the big fish behind the scenes.

"The real chess players should be the six Demon Emperors who disappeared. What secrets do they have?"

Gu Changge was very interested in their so-called secrets.

This kind of secret was nothing more than two possibilities, one was involving the Demon World, and the other was involving themselves.

"So it's either related to the Demon World, or it's related to them, carrying the luck of the Demon World. Could it be that you plan to ascend to the realm or attack the Nine Heavens?"

Gu Changge was quite interested in this.

Afterward, a group of ministers stepped forward. Seeing that Empress Xi Yao was safe, they all expressed their worries and fears while heaving a sigh of relief.

To be honest, this attack shocked many people and until now, they had not recovered.

Empress Xi Yao was able to survive the disaster, it was already a result of Great Luck.

If Gu Changge did not suddenly head to the Demon World, there probably would be no Empress Xi Yao in the world!

"I wonder if Her Majesty the Empress has any idea about this rebellion?"

Gu Changge had been paying attention to the expressions of Qingzhu and Jun Bufan.

Compared to Jun Bufan's calmness, Qingzhu's complexion was much paler and she was a little more anxious. It was not necessary for him to say anything since Empress Xi Yao had already discovered the problem.

"Thank you, Young Master Changge, for reminding me earlier that I was betrayed by those close to me because of my ignorance and arrogance. This kind of thing will never happen again from now on."

When Empress Xi Yao heard his words, she sighed deeply, and naturally knew what Gu Changge was talking about.

Gu Changge smiled and said, "Then, Your Majesty must move faster, or you will die without proof in a while."

"Death without proof?"

Empress Xi Yao was stunned for a moment, and then she realized what Gu Changge meant, and her expression became even colder.

"Come here, bring Qingzhu to me."

Her voice was cold, with great majesty. Gu Changge glanced at Jun Bufan among the crowd with interest.

As expected of the Son of Luck, he was quite meticulous in his actions.

In his opinion, the reason why Jun Bufan remained calm was because he was not worried that his true identity would be revealed by Qingzhu.

In that case, he should have already figured out a way out. After all, apart from the dead, there was no other person in this world who could keep secrets better.

However, Gu Changge was a little curious, how did Jun Bufan control Qingzhu's life and death?

Soul of life? Sorcery? Or Gu worms? Poison?

If it was on the premise that Qingzhu knew, then he would definitely choose the life soul or the demonic art, after that, he could control her life and death at any time.

Generally speaking, the attack time of Gu worms and poisons could not be controlled at any time. But there were exceptions to everything, that was, he didn't know how cruel Jun Bufan was.

Hearing this, the expressions of the people present were stunned for a moment, and then they realized the meaning of these words, and their expressions changed suddenly.

Her Majesty the Empress was poisoned, except for the people closest to her, who else could do it?

And looking at its appearance, it turned out to be the female official Qingzhu?

Everyone was in disbelief. The four female officials beside Her Majesty were her right-hand women and had accompanied her for hundreds of years.

Many people saw Her Majesty's female officials, and it was even like seeing the Empress in person. As a result, they discovered that female official Qingzhu actually betrayed Her Majesty the Empress?

It was so shocking that they couldn't believe it.

"What!"

"How is this possible, Qingzhu?"

Qingmei, Qinglan and the others' eyes widened even more, it was unbelievable that the sisters they had accompanied for hundreds of years actually betrayed Her Majesty the Empress?

This was simply a fantasy.

But seeing Qingzhu's pale and trembling lips, they fell silent and had to choose to believe.

In the crowd, Jun Fan maintained a calm appearance, but his heart was also shaking abnormally.

According to his original plan, if the assassination failed, he would let the poison in Qingzhu's body explode before Empress Xi Yao could find out who had betrayed her, thus destroying both her body and spirit and destroying everything. But in his opinion, it would take some time.

He didn't believe that Empress Xi Yao could find out who betrayed her right away and there should be a process of investigation.

But judging from the current situation, Empress Xi Yao knew who betrayed her almost instantly.

As for Qingzhu's current performance, there was no need to say more, and she almost wrote the word betrayal on her face.

This greatly exceeded his expectations.

"I overestimated Qingzhu's performance and underestimated Xi Yao..."

Jun Fan frowned. Fortunately, the poison he had given before was not ordinary and could be controlled by him.

If the situation was not good for a while, he could only reluctantly control the outbreak of poison in Qingzhu's body, and would not let her reveal his identity. Thinking of this, he was somewhat relieved.

"It's Gu Changge again. If he hadn't reminded Xi Yao just now, there would never have been such a thing. I have no grievances with him, but he repeatedly ruined my plan..."

Looking at Gu Changge, Jun Fan's expression was a little gloomy.

At this moment, everyone watched this scene silently.

Qingzhu was escorted by several guards to the front of Empress Xi Yao. Her face was pale, her lips were trembling, and her whole body was extremely frightened and fearful.

"I asked myself whether I treated you badly. Seven hundred years ago, you were still an ordinary girl, and was almost swallowed by a bull demon. At that time, I rescued you and brought you back to the palace... .."

Empress Xi Yao's face was very calm, her emotions did not fluctuate, and she did not have any anger.

She didn't ask why Qingzhu betrayed her, but just opened her mouth and talked about the past casually.

In her eyes, Qingzhu had grown from an ordinary girl with a little spiritual energy, cultivated and transformed step by step, and then grew to where she was today.

Although it was a female official, the emotion it contained was not comparable to that of ordinary people.

What about relatives? It was more like a child she watched growing up.

This feeling of being betrayed by her was more than simple pain to describe. When they heard this, everyone fell silent.

"How could the female officer Qingzhu betray Her Majesty the Empress..."

"Why is this?" Song Youwei also felt that this scene was too dreamy.

In the crowd, looking at the expression of Empress Xi Yao, Jun Fan suddenly felt some happiness in his heart.

Wasn't that how he felt when he was betrayed by Xi Yao?

All of this, was it not that Xi Yao was asking for trouble and suffering the consequences of herself.

"Your Majesty, kill me. I'm sorry for you."

Hearing this, Qing Zhu also fell to the ground with a face full of pain.

"Kill you?" Empress Xi Yao turned to look at her with an inexplicable look in her eyes.

In fact, after asking Qingzhu that night, she should have been vigilant.

At that time, she felt that this kind of thing was not a big deal. After she told her, Qingzhu would definitely follow her instructions.

But she overestimated Qingzhu's loyalty.

"Kill me, Your Majesty, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have poisoned your meal." Qing Zhu fell to her knees with an extremely painful expression.

Empress Xi Yao shook her head and said lightly, "Tell me, who arranged for you to do this? Besides, you are not the only one who poisoned me. In the imperial wine, there was another poison, and only when these two kinds of poison were mixed would it explode."

Qingzhu shook her head suddenly and said, "Your Majesty, you should kill me, I can't say it."

"Stupid." Empress Xi Yao frowned. She didn't expect that at this time, Qingzhu was still protecting the person behind her.

Chapter 402-3: I really hate Gu Changge, Its about what you want and what I want (3)

"I think Your Majesty can't actually ask anything. It's better to search for the soul directly, it will be faster."

At this time, Gu Changge, who had been watching the play, suddenly smiled and said. He knew that Empress Xi Yao was soft-hearted and could not bear to do this.

But as an Empress, how could she be soft-hearted because of such a small thing?

Since she subconsciously resisted this matter, when the wicked speak out about this kind of thing, it was fine for her.

"Gu Changge..." Seeing this scene, Jun Fan's complexion changed slightly, and he hated Gu Changge in his heart.

When Empress Xi Yao heard the words, she glanced at Gu Changge, then nodded and said, "Young Master Changge is right. Since you don't want to say it, Qingzhu, I have no choice but to ask people to search your souls."

She didn't expect Gu Changge to force her so much. But since he said this, then she had no reason to refuse.

A soft-heart shouldn't be something she should have.

"Your Majesty, I said..."

Qingzhu's expression was pale and terrified. She naturally knew what soul searching meant.

This was a kind of torture.

If Empress Xi Yao insisted on searching for her soul, then the secret between her and Jun Fan would definitely not be able to be kept.

"Actually, the Night Demon found me and asked me to cooperate with him..."

At this moment, she still had some fantasies in her heart, hoping that Jun Fan could save her, so she began to think of a reason, and planned to fool the past and delay the time.

"It's really stupid." Gu Changge couldn't help but smile, with a slightly mocking expression on his face.

"Shut up, at this moment you don't plan to tell the truth, you are still lying to me." Empress Xi Yao's face turned cold, but she didn't know Qingzhu's plan.

There was some anger in her heart, but more than that it was coldness.

But at the next moment, Qingzhu's eyes suddenly widened, as if she couldn't believe it, and then black blood gushed out from the corner of her mouth.

She didn't seem to believe that all this was true, she turned her head and tried to look down somewhere, but the light in her eyes finally dissipated, and she disappeared on the spot.

"It's not suicide because of fear of crime, it seems that the other party has left a way out. The person who instructed Qingzhu behind the scenes must be near this sacred mountain and not far away."

In this regard, Empress Xi Yao's expression did not change. Since Qingzhu chose to do this, she naturally had to do it well.

From what she saw now, everyone present was suspicious, and as long as Qingzhu had contacted people before, she could narrow down the search range very well.

Seeing this, Gu Changge smiled and said, "Yes, I believe that Your Majesty the Empress will be able to catch the people behind the scenes."

Qingzhu's death was what he expected.

Jun Bufan would definitely not let people search for Qingzhu's soul, otherwise his current identity would definitely be exposed.

Before that, Gu Changge didn't want to expose Jun Bufan's identity, he was still waiting for this bait to lure Bai Lian'er.

If he guessed correctly, the items in the bag should involve the secrets of the whereabouts of the six Emperors of the Demon World.

Jun Fan looked at all this calmly, and his heart calmed down. Now the trouble was solved for the time being, but there were still some problems to be dealt with in the future.

Soon, what happened in the sacred mountain of the Black and White Academy today shook the Demon World, and even many cultivators in the Upper Realm heard some news.

The scale of this attack was the largest in six thousand years.

There was even a powerhouse in the Supreme Realm who appeared, holding the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword that used to be in the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor's hand, which was extremely powerful.

As for the Quasi-Supreme and Great Sacred Realm assassins, there were also a lot of them, and their strength was monstrous.

Many big demon clans also suffered heavy casualties in this attack. Among the servants that followed them, many people suddenly erupted and slaughtered.

In addition, many young geniuses also perished here, and were brutally murdered by many assassins.

The most shocking thing was that Empress Xi Yao was attacked, and the people closest to her actually poisoned her meal.

Although the person who poisoned her in the end had also been killed, the matter was still not over. Empress Xi Yao began to thoroughly investigate the personnel around her, and the entire court was cleaned up.

None of the officials in charge of the imperial wine escaped, and no matter the reason for the betrayal, they were all beheaded.

The entire Demon World was doused in a bloody storm, and many big clansmen were in danger, for fear that Empress Xi Yao would suddenly take them with a knife.

Of course, in this rebellion, some people were cleaned up and killed, and naturally some people were rewarded.

The King of Chaos, Demon Emperor and others fought bravely to kill the enemy in this rebellion. Empress Xi Yao saw it and naturally rewarded many treasures and sacred objects.

The same was true for many young geniuses, they not only became famous, but they were also greatly rewarded for the protection of Her Majesty the Empress.

After cleaning up the court, Empress Xi Yao began to send people to follow around, intending to find the traces of Jun Bufan.

She was also investigating the whereabouts and movements of Qingzhu before, trying to find clues. After changing her way of thinking, many things became clear.

Since Jun Bufan was likely to be reborn from a remnant soul, then he was bound to have relatives in this life. Before that, she completely ignored this point. As a result, many people she knew well had great suspicion.

Moreover, the parents of this lifetime Jun Bufan were likely to be kept in the dark by him, or his accomplices.

With this clue, Empress Xi Yao was not worried about finding someone, it was just a matter of time,

Of course, during this period, in order to thank Gu Changge for her rescue, she naturally followed her promise and told him the truth about many things that happened more than 6,000 years ago.

Dealing with these things made her very tired.

But fortunately, the poison at the time wasn't serious. Under the treatment of many doctors, the poison began to recede after a few days, and her energy could already be used.

At this moment, in the palace, in the bath made of bluestone, the water vapors were steaming like an immortal mist, and many petals were floating on it.

An infinitely beautiful body, like the condensed body of the best immortal jade was soaked in it, the blue silky hair was scattered, with half-squinted eyes, and murmuring softly.

"Is this your willingness to help me, or is it purely a deal between me and you? If I refused then, wouldn't I be here now?"

She couldn't explain why Gu Changge really made her feel unpredictable.

The perfection shown was nothing more than the side he showed and wanted people to see.

At the very beginning, she regarded Gu Changge as someone from the younger generation who could talk to her, and even a kind of confidant.

Because Gu Changge understood her many intentions and the good intentions she had paid for the Demon World.

But then the more she knew about Gu Changge, the more she found that every word he said and every action he did had a strong purpose.

Such a person was indeed worth relying on, provided that she was useful to him. If there was no use or value, then this dependence could be ruthlessly destroyed by him at any time.

He only showed what he wanted others to see, so it seemed perfect and almost unreal. She could never know what was on the mind of such a person.

"You can't say that, how can there be so many ifs in this world. Besides, I don't think it's important at all, it's what you want and I want. Don't you think so, Her Majesty?"

Outside the bath, there was a curtain.

Hearing this, Gu Changge brought the white jade wine glass to the corner of his mouth, took a sip, looked calm, and smiled.

"Indeed, that's what you want."

Empress Xi Yao nodded, and with the sound of clattering, she stood up and walked toward him.

Chapter 403-1: The heart of defending people is indispensable, After waiting for a long time the fish is finally hooked (1)

"Are people like you worth entrusting with sincerity?" Empress Xi Yao was a little lazy, but she was murmuring more often.

Gu Changge stroked her hair and smiled, "Why not?"

"But the more I know you, the more uneasy I feel. Sometimes I really want to know if you're only in your twenties?" Empress Xi Yao didn't dwell too much on this issue but sighed slightly.

If Empress Xi Yao really needed someone to rely on now, there was no better choice than Gu Changge.

Under this premise, Gu Changge intended to use her to intervene in the Demon World, which was naturally a lot more logical.

Of course, Empress Xi Yao also knew very well that Gu Changge would give her necessary support at critical times.

As for the rest of the matters, he would not be bothered by it. It sounded more like a deal.

Gu Changge's approach was not to say that he was selfish to the extreme, but he was definitely rational to the extreme, and would not change any of his actions because of personal emotions.

So she didn't expect him to have the slightest emotion in it. This made Empress Xi Yao still a little disappointed.

For a while, the entire Demon World was in a panic because of the attack on Empress Xi Yao. Almost every day, one could see many creatures patrolling near the imperial city.

All the suspects were intercepted and checked repeatedly. If there was any abnormality, they would be immediately imprisoned in the Heavenly Prison.

The assassination of the Empress affected the minds of many creatures in the Demon World.

The rest of the domains were also shaken. In many places, there were even big demons who heard about this and felt that it was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. So they began to gather forces in order to resist.

The huge Demon World was no longer as peaceful and stable as it used to be.

Many people in the Demon World hated those traitors who assassinated Empress Xi Yao, and they spontaneously searched for suspicious people and reported them to the court.

He had to say that under the rule of Empress Xi Yao for six thousand years, creatures of all ethnic groups supported her a lot.

"Over the years, Empress Xi Yao has been winning people's hearts, but she has spent a lot of thought, so many people are willing to support her."

Inside the Heavenly King's Mansion, Jun Fan, dressed in blue, was quietly drinking tea in the courtyard.

Hearing the many rumors from the outside world during this period, his face seemed very calm.

It just made him feel a little surprised that the assassination of Empress Xi Yao actually made many creatures in the Demon World angry, not ecstatic.

In his opinion, this could only show that Empress Xi Yao had indeed spent a lot of thought and method in winning over people's hearts.

The demons had a cold temperament, and many times even if their relatives had an accident, they would appear very indifferent.

It was really rare to be angry like this.

"I haven't heard any news from Uncle Ye yet. According to the news, Uncle Ye should have escaped from Gu Changge's hands. This is also what Gu Changge said... but why hasn't Uncle Ye contacted me until now?"

Jun Fan frowned tightly, feeling a little uneasy in his heart.

Uncle Ye was his biggest reliance and with the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword, it was logically impossible for an accident to occur. He also didn't believe that Uncle Ye would abandon him and run away.

"Maybe Uncle Ye was injured, and now he is recovering from an injury somewhere, so I don't have to make a fuss."

Jun Fan thought and began to fall into contemplation. In his opinion, the next plan was the top priority. If he just gave up his revenge against Empress Xi Yao, he would not be reconciled.

During this time, Empress Xi Yao sent people to look for his traces. According to Qingzhu's whereabouts, the scope of the investigation was narrowed down to the Black and White Academy.

This was not good news for Jun Fan. Because of this, sooner or later, he would be found, and he always felt that Gu Changge knew something.

Later, he thought about it carefully. At the top of the sacred mountain, Gu Changge called him Jun Bufan, maybe it was a temptation.

Although Empress Xi Yao didn't think too much of his reaction at that time, it was difficult to guarantee that she would not think too much later.

"This is the only flaw I have left, but unless Xi Yao searches for my soul, she will never know my identity."

Regarding this, Jun Fan was still very relieved.

As the third son of the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos, his identity was extremely illustrious, not to mention that this time when Empress Xi Yao was attacked, he and his father fought bravely to kill their enemy and made great contributions.

If Empress Xi Yao searched his soul because she suspects him, it would definitely make many people, including his father, feel chilled.

In order to take care of the overall situation, Empress Xi Yao would not be able to attack him even if she guessed his identity without sufficient evidence.

"My father said at the time that some old people would come to give me something, and I don't know when it will be."

Jun Fan paced up in the courtyard. At that time, his father's subordinates were not only Uncle Ye. During this time, he still needed to find a group of people based on his backhand.

In the palace, the poison from Empress Xi Yao had almost been resolved. She sat in the top place and was still dealing with some memorials, but there were only three female officials beside her.

"Did you get something?" She asked lightly while flipping through the memorial.

"Reporting to Your Majesty, all the young geniuses in the Black and White Academy who have been in contact with Qingzhu have now been identified."

Qinglan respectfully reported.

"Really? Did Qingzhu have contact with the Elders at that time, or was it just the younger generation?"

Empress Xi Yao nodded and continued to ask. At the same time, her eyebrows were wrinkled, and what Gu Changge said that night echoed in her mind.

Even if she now knew who Jun Bufan was, she had no way to take action. These were Gu Changge's original words at the time.

Empress Xi Yao didn't know what it meant at the time, she just guessed that Gu Changge might already have a goal in mind, but he didn't tell her.

In response to this matter, she began a large-scale search, starting with the creatures near the sacred mountain that day, and finally locked the scope in the Black and White Academy.

So now the biggest suspects were among the younger generation in the Demon World today. These were the people she said she could trust in front of Gu Changge.

In the end, the suspect was among them, which was ironic. This reminded her of what Gu Changge said at the time, that she was innocent.

"Among the people who have been identified so far, there are no Elders of the older generation, because when Qingzhu went to the Black and White Academy, she went with your instructions. The Elders of the Black and White Academy did not know where and who she met." Qing Lan replied respectfully.

Empress Xi Yao nodded and waved her jade hand, "If that's the case, then investigate all the geniuses you've come in contact with, I don't believe there will not be any flaws. By the way, give me the list of geniuses who have had the most contact with Qingzhu."

She intended to see for herself who they were.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

Soon, Qinglan handed over a list, which clearly listed all the geniuses of the black-and-white school.

Some names were specially marked.

"Song Youwei, Luo Tian, ??Ye Geng, Jun Fan, Chen Xiao..."

She whispered these names softly, her eyes narrowed, and there was a hint of danger. After experiencing Qingzhu's betrayal, she did gain a lot of memory.

The geniuses in front of her all belong to the existence she knew well, and even ranked in the top ten of this banquet of geniuses, with dazzling rays of light, fighting bravely with many assassins and making credit.

Before the change, she would not have doubted at all. But now, in her opinion, these people were the most suspicious, even Song Youwei, who was a woman, looked the same to her.

"It's essential to be defensive. It's what he said, just like him, I will never fully trust anyone... What I see is just the surface."

Empress Xi Yao sighed slightly, then ordered to go on, saying, "Keep an eye on these people's movements, and no matter what they do, you must report to me as soon as possible."

"Yes." Qinglan got the order and stepped back quickly.

Afterward, Empress Xi Yao fell into contemplation.

Since the suspect was among these people, she must also pay attention to the family behind them.

Chapter 403-2: The heart of defending people is indispensable, After waiting for a long time the fish is finally hooked (2)

Among them, there was even the family of her teacher, the most powerful subordinate, the King of Peace and Chaos, who controlled the most troops.

If the problem happened to the children of the three of them, it would be really difficult to handle. No matter who moved, it would be a traumatic thing, involving a lot.

"So this is what he meant. Even if I know who Jun Bufan is, I can't start. Unless I can produce complete evidence."

At this time, she remembered what Gu Changge said again, and the smile on the corner of her mouth was a bit self-deprecating.

"By the way, at the top of the sacred mountain at that time, the words he said should also have a deep meaning... Jun Fan, Jun Bufan? Is there really a problem...? The performance of Jun Fan at that time is indeed a bit strange when I think about it now."

Empress Xi Yao frowned, thinking of this, she didn't doubt it at the time. But now, maybe this was the flaw.

"Did he just say it casually, or did he know something?"

Empress Xi Yao couldn't help rubbing her brows, feeling her head hurt.

In her opinion, Gu Changge's methods could no longer be described as mysterious and unpredictable, but Gu Changge never revealed too much of what she wanted to know.

And just when Empress Xi Yao set her suspicion on many young geniuses.

On the other side, Bai Lian'er, who had always been followed by Gu Changge's people, finally had the news.

"Young master, according to your instructions, we have been patrolling the vicinity of the Heavenly King's Mansion during this period of time, and finally found a pair of very suspicious men and women.

They seem to be no different from ordinary farmers, and they come every day with a basket on their backs. Pack some simple medicinal materials and set up a stall near the Pingchaan Palace."

"But the woman among the two is very perceptive. As long as someone walks within a hundred steps, she will become aware of it. So we don't dare to startle the snake. And from her appearance, she seems to be in disguise and looks very suspicious."

In the palace, the fragrance of tea was lingering with the mist. Tian Ze stood behind Gu Changge and said respectfully.

Hearing this, Gu Changge put down the chess piece in his hand, smiled, and said, "Good job, after waiting for so long, this fish has finally taken the bait. It's not in vain that I put this bait in for so long."

He knew that in the sacred mountain, Bai Lian'er must know the true identity of Jun Bufan.

So during this time, she would definitely not be able to show herself, intending to meet him in order to complete the task her father had given her.

And he only needed to be watched by people nearby, and he could wait for Bai Lian'er to fall into the trap.

After that, Gu Changge planned to get up and go to collect the net. This time, he didn't believe that Bai Lian'er could slip away as easily as she did in the ancient city of Northern Marsh last time.

Seeing this, Jiang Luoshen on the opposite side said with some dissatisfaction, "Can't you play chess with me first?"

"You can't win anyway, so why bother yourself." Gu Changge said casually, walked past her, and had no intention of continuing to play chess with her.

During this time, Jiang Luoshen was submissive, but she gradually got used to it.

However, in front of outsiders, she was still the aloof, indifferent, and noble princess of the Supreme God Clan, and the future Supreme God Empress.

"No, even if I lose, you have to accompany me to finish."

Jiang Luoshen turned her head to look at him, very dissatisfied. After finally seeing the hope of winning from Gu Changge, she naturally didn't want to let him go at this time.

Gu Changge suddenly smiled and said, "Who gave you the courage to talk to me like this, is it because I have been so nice to you during these past few days?"

Hearing this, Jiang Luoshen snorted coldly and did not continue to pester him.

During this period of time, she had known Gu Changge very well. When he needed her, all kinds of sweet words were spoken, and when she was not needed, he just wanted to kick her far away.

Soon, Gu Changge took many powerhouses to the area where the Heavenly King's Mansion was located. The Heavenly King's Mansion, on the other hand, was located to the east.

It was a magnificent and splendid group of palaces and mansions.

Many formation patterns were intertwined, and the colorful clouds were flowing as if a heavenly palace was located in the world.

.....

To the west of the gate of the Heavenly King's Mansion was an extremely spacious street.

The palace towers and pavilions were located on both sides, incomparably tall, shrouded in mist, vague, and they looked majestic.

Many shops, restaurants, and gambling stone shops were located here, which seemed to be quite lively, with cultivators and creatures coming and going.

"Sister Lian'er, we have been waiting here for five days, how long will we wait here?"

At this moment, on a simple street stall, a man and a woman were selling some simple medicinal herbs, such as Huang Jing, Poria, Tianma, ginseng, etc., which were still stained with soil and looked very fresh.

The man who spoke was sallow, thin, and malnourished. He was talking to the woman next to him in a low voice.

The woman's expression was very indifferent, and she only replied in two out of ten sentences to the man's words. It was just that her eyes would look in the direction of the Heavenly King's Mansion from time to time as if she was paying attention to something.

Although she was dressed in a sackcloth, she couldn't hide her amazing charm. Many cultivators or creatures passing by couldn't help but glance at her, and then became disgusted and almost vomited.

Because the woman was so ugly, not only did she have a big black spot on her face, but her eyes were one big and one small, and her nose was crooked.

She did not look scary, but it was almost the same. It was for this reason that their stall was not visited by many people, and they were very deserted.

"Wait for a second, the Demon World is not quiet during this time. If we go there rashly, it will definitely arouse Xi Yao's suspicion and cause a lot of unnecessary trouble."

The woman spoke indifferently when she heard the words, and her tone seemed very cold. It was Bai Lian'er and Bai Hua who had left the vicinity of the Sacred Mountain and then temporarily lived in the imperial capital.

After seeing Jun Bufan's failure to assassinate Empress Xi Yao, the two quietly left the Black and White Academy in secret and did not attract attention.

After discussing it for a while, they decided to hand over the bag to Jun Bufan according to Bai Kun's request. But now the Demon World was in chaos, and there was no peace.

Therefore, the two plan to wait and see outside the Heavenly King's Mansion for a while, find a suitable time, go to see Jun Bufan, and hand him the things.

Hearing Bai Lian'er's words, Bai Hua also nodded.

After arriving in the Demon World, Bai Lian'er was in charge of many things, and he was only responsible for divination and deduction occasionally.

"Sister Lian'er, look to the east, that's Gu... Gu Changge!"

"Why did he come here?"

At this moment, Bai Hua trembled slightly, and the voice sounded with great horror, causing Bai Lian'er, who had been staring at the Heavenly King's Mansion, to withdraw her gaze and look in the direction Bai Hua was looking at.

She saw a slender, tall, and upright man in black clothes, as bright as a young god, surrounded by many powerhouses. All the cultivators and creatures near the street were in awe, and retreated, daring not to block the road.

Bai Lian'er couldn't help shrinking her pupils.

"What should I do? Sister Lian'er, why did Gu Changge suddenly appear here?"

Bai Hua's voice contained uncontrollable fear and trembling. In this world, the person he feared the most and did not want to see was definitely Gu Changge.

"Don't worry, calm down first, and don't show any abnormality."

"Gu Changge appeared here, probably intending to investigate the Heavenly King's Mansion. It has nothing to do with us. Don't be nervous, and scare yourself."

Bai Lian'er quickly calmed down and said calmly.

Over the years, she had been in charge of the Spring Breeze Pavilion and has lived in seclusion behind the scenes.

From her point of view, it was impossible for Gu Changge to know that she was here. Therefore, it was very likely that he just passed through this place, and would eventually go to the Heavenly King's Mansion to calm down.

Chapter 404-1: Being a concubine is also the dream of countless sweet girls, This pair of sluts (1)

"As long as I restrain all of my aura, plus with the jade pendant left by my father, Gu Changge will definitely not recognize me now. After all, we do not have much of a relationship, and we haven't even seen each other's appearance."

"I just wonder what Gu Changge is going to do at the Heavenly King's Mansion this time? Did he discover Jun Bufan's identity?"

Beside the street, Bai Lian'er calmed down very quickly.

She retracted her gaze, lowered her head, and looked at the stall in front of her with an honest look.

When Bai Hua next to her heard these words, he forced himself to calm down and hid his hands in his sleeves, so as not to be seen trembling and not daring to show any abnormality.

Judging from their appearance, the two of them were a very ordinary pair of pharmacist siblings. Their clothes were simple and ordinary. They were trying to reduce their sense of existence as much as possible to avoid being seen as abnormal by Gu Changge at this time.

On the street, and in the palaces on both sides.

The eyes of many creatures from the Demon World opened wide at this moment, and they were a little shocked to see Gu Changge walking with many powerhouses from the other side of the street.

Gu Changge's identity was not a secret in the Demon World. If it wasn't for him, at the top of the sacred mountain at that time, Empress Xi Yao would definitely be unfortunate.

In the eyes of many creatures in the Demon World, Gu Changge's status was no different from that of Empress Xi Yao. Therefore, their expressions now seemed to be very reverent, and they all backed down.

"I wonder what Young Master Changge is here for? Is it to calm down the chaos within Heavenly King's Mansion?"

"If there was no Young Master Changge, Empress Xi Yao would have been killed at that time. Young Master Changge is the savior of our Demon World."

Many people whispered, and at the same time were very curious, because they couldn't usually see Gu Changge like this.

"Is this the Palace of Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos?"

Gu Changge was walking on the street, tall and slender, with black clothes woven from silk spit out by the 8 million-year-old God silkworm, embroidered with many ancient patterns.

All kinds of divine brilliance were flowing faintly and strands of laws along with divine chains hung down, revealing dignity and mystery.

At this moment, he seemed to notice the mansion in the distance and asked with some interest.

"Yes, Young Master. The mansion in front is the place where the current Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos lives. It has a radius of 30,000 miles, and there are unique caves in it, and the atmosphere is amazing."

The cultivator in charge of leading the way replied respectfully when he heard the words.

"It seems that when I have time, I have to visit the palace of the King of Chaos."

Gu Changge smiled and then walked down the street. However, when he walked to the stalls of Bai Lian'er and Bai Hua, he seemed a little surprised, and then stopped.

After a while, Bai Lian'er and Bai Hua looked up at him, their bodies tensed slightly, and then their expressions showed fear and fear, cautiously.

"How do you sell these herbs?"

Gu Changge casually swept the herbs in front of the two of them, seemed a little interested, and then asked.

"Reporting... Reporting to Young Master, these herbs are worthless, if you want, just take them directly."

Bai Lian'er looked very nervous, she didn't understand why Gu Changge suddenly stopped in front of them.

However, she remained calm in her heart, and then her face displayed a look of fear and anxiety as she opened her mouth cautiously with her voice trembling.

Her voice was hoarse and not pleasant, and with her ugly face, it was difficult for people to stop. However, Gu Changge didn't care at all, looked at the herbs a few times, and then looked up at her again.

Bai Lian'er lowered her head and didn't dare to look directly at him, looking extremely frightened and nervous. All the creatures and cultivators on this street looked at this scene in shock at the moment.

They didn't know why Gu Changge suddenly stopped in front of the pair of medicine farmers. Could it be that there was something special about the herbs of the two?

As for the siblings, they didn't seem surprised.

Although there were weak fluctuations on their body, their cultivation base was not strong, at most it was a little stronger than ordinary people.

Bai Lian'er's performance was also very normal to them, but when Gu Changge suddenly asked, it would be the same for any other person.

"Yes?"

Hearing this, Gu Changge suddenly smiled and said, "But I'm not someone who will take your things for nothing. These herbs are ten times the usual price, I want them all."

"What? Ten... ten times the price?"

"Thank you sir."

Hearing this, Bai Lian'er seemed to be in disbelief, her eyes widened.

Then she reacted to what Gu Changge said as if she couldn't believe that such a good thing could still happen in this world.

She showed a look of surprise and hurriedly thanked him, looking very excited and happy. However, her current face looked extremely ugly, and the birthmark covered half of her face, causing many creatures to turn their stomachs upside down.

"Where did you pick these herbs?"

Gu Changge nodded, and then continued to say with great interest, "Take me there, and I'll give you a hundred times the price."

"What? A hundred times the price?"

Hearing this, Bai Lian'er seemed to be shocked, showing an expression of disbelief.

At this moment, she couldn't help but wonder if she was clumsy.

Was there anything special about the herbs that she randomly found at that time? Why didn't she see it? Or did Gu Changge recognize her identity and deliberately tricked her?

"A hundred times the price?"

Bai Hua also looked shocked. These were some medicinal herbs they found in the mountains at that time, just to hide people's eyes and ears.

He couldn't help but doubt his own eyes.

Could it be that there was something special about these herbs that was worth a hundred times the price of Gu Changge to let them lead the way?

Although this hundred times the price was not worth mentioning for him. In other words, did Gu Changge already know their identities and was playing tricks on them?

Gu Changge looked at Bai Lian'er and asked with great interest, "What? Are you saying you don't want to?"

Hearing this, Bai Lian'er hurriedly shook her head and said, "We don't dare, if Young Master wants to go to that place, we siblings will just lead the way. We don't dare to ask the Young Master for a penny more."

No matter what the possibility was, she couldn't refuse Gu Changge now, otherwise, the consequences would be simply unimaginable.

Even if she burst out with all her strength, she could not be Gu Changge's opponent, and it would be difficult to escape in the end.

"That's good." Gu Changge nodded with satisfaction, "Don't worry, help me lead the way, I won't treat you badly."

Then, the powerhouses behind him came forward, took away all the herbs in front of him, and threw two crystal-like Origin Stones at them at the same time.

Bai Lian'er carefully put away the two Origin stones, as if she had never seen such a precious thing before.

"Does it really have something to do with those herbs?"

Everyone watched this scene, their hearts were shaken, and they couldn't understand the reason. The only possibility that came to their mind was that they seemed to be missing something good.

Since they could be valued by Gu Changge, those ordinary-looking herbs must have something extraordinary. Hearing that Gu Changge wanted these siblings to take him to the place where the herbs grew, they couldn't help but doubt it.

Did that mean that there was something hidden in that place? These herbs were actually contaminated with the aura of that place, so they became extraordinary.

Many people started regretting it, why they didn't see the extraordinariness of these herbs just now and missed an opportunity.

"They will follow me to the Heavenly King's Mansion, and then take me to that place later."

Then, Gu Changge said with a smile.

"Yes, my lord."

Bai Lian'er and Bai Hua did not dare to refuse and honestly followed behind Gu Changge.

Their moods were complicated, especially Bai Lian'er, who was even more shocked and disturbed, was he going to follow Gu Changge's side so inexplicably?

Did Gu Changge see through their identities? Or maybe they didn't pay attention at the time, didn't notice that the place where the herbs were growing was actually extraordinary, and there was something hidden.

"Greetings, Young Master Changge!"

And just when everyone's mood was complicated with speculations, outside the Heavenly King's Palace of Peace and Chaos not far ahead, a burly and tall man with no anger and prestige walked over quickly, with a strong suffocating aura on his body, the chaotic aura appeared powerful.

Chapter 404-2: Being a concubine is also the dream of countless sweet girls, This pair of sluts (2)

There were many people behind him, including many big figures of the Heavenly King's Mansion, as well as direct descendants, and Jun Fan was among them.

It was the King of Peace and Chaos.

When Gu Changge appeared in the vicinity, he got the news and hurriedly brought a group of family members to greet him, daring not to be disrespectful.

"Young Master Changge is here, it's really a flourishing brilliance."

The Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos bowed his hands, his expression humble and submissive.

Although he was many generations older than Gu Changge, he did not dare to call himself an Elder in front of him. Because whether it was cultivation or identity, he needed to look up at the current Gu Changge.

Many clansmen behind him also saluted Gu Changge one after another. Jun Fan was in the crowd, he also bowed his head, and his face was not unusual.

"The King of Chaos doesn't need to be too polite." Gu Changge nodded slightly.

Later, the King of Chaos led the way and brought him into his mansion.

Seeing the siblings, Bai Lian'er and Bai Hua, who were following behind Gu Changge, many people in the Jun family were stunned.

Wearing this appearance, even if their cultivation base was only a little higher than ordinary people. Where did they come from to follow Gu Changge's side?

The woman was also extremely ugly and looked rather strange. But they also did not ask much.

"Xiao Fan, is this the first time I have seen Young Master Changge so close? Are you saying I'm dreaming? He just smiled at me just now..."

"How can there be such a perfect man in this world? Alas, it's a pity, my identity is not qualified to touch him."

"Even to be a concubine, it is probably the dream of countless heavenly women."

In the crowd of Jun's family, the woman in a green robe opened her mouth and looked at the young man walking with the King of Peace and Chaos in front of her, with admiration and yearning in her words.

She was extremely beautiful, with a thin powder-covered face, delicate facial features and cloudy hair along with smooth skin. It was difficult to hide her figure under the loose robe, looking tall and graceful, with bumps.

It was Jun Fan's second sister Jun Yao. Beside her, Jun Fan's expression became slightly unnatural when he heard this.

Although he had been a human being in two lives, his sister in this life was very kind to him. He also really treated her as a sister. But hearing this now made him unbearable and uncomfortable.

He hated Gu Changge so much that he ruined his plan over and over again. If it wasn't for Gu Changge this time, how could he fail to assassinate his enemy and drag Qingzhu to death?

"What's wrong? Xiao Fan, what's wrong with your expression?"

Jun Yao was talking, and suddenly Jun Fan's expression seemed to be a little strange, and she couldn't help asking a little strangely.

"It's alright, but when I suddenly heard my sister say this, I felt strange in my heart. With my sister's beauty and identity, in such a huge imperial capital, how many young heroes have stepped over the threshold, and they have no chance to marry my sister."

"I didn't expect you to say such a thing..."

Jun Fan quickly recovered and shook his head slightly, seemingly helpless.

Hearing this, Jun Yao's face was a little red, she gave him a white look, and said, "What do you mean? Can't I have someone I admire as your sister?"

"Young Master Changge has such an identity and status, so many people admire him, so what do I count for?"

Jun Fan sighed and said, "Yeah, it's a pity, as my sister, I don't think you have the qualifications to connect with each other."

"That's why I advise you to put down your fantasies honestly and give up completely. People like Gu Changge will not be short of heavenly daughters."

"People probably don't look down on you."

He knew that if he slandered Gu Changge behind his back, it would have the opposite effect, making Jun Yao feel that he was careful.

Moreover, her sister's character had always been like this, and it was difficult to change what she believed. So he decided to change the way, let her understand that this fantasy was useless, and give up completely.

"Are you looking down on your sister? Or are you begging for a beating?"

When Jun Yao heard this, she glared at him angrily and said, "But you seem to know Young Master Changge very well."

Although she also knew that Jun Fan was telling the truth, she felt uncomfortable and unconvinced in her heart.

In terms of appearance, she was as confident as any woman in the Demon World, even Song Youwei.

"It's not that I don't know him, I just don't want you to waste your time. Sister, if you don't give up..."

Jun Fan shook his head slightly and said, "If you don't believe me, you can try it, and see if you have a chance?"

Hearing this, Jun Yao became more and more unconvinced, but when she thought of Gu Changge's status and strength, she became discouraged.

And while Jun Fan and Jun Yao were talking, Bai Lian'er, who was silently following behind Gu Changge, also quietly looked at Jun Fan with a complicated expression.

She did not expect that after 6,000 years, it would be such an opportunity to look at Jun Fan so closely again. If she hadn't followed behind Gu Changge, she probably wouldn't be able to step into the Heavenly King's Mansion.

Thinking of this, Bai Lian'er began to think in her heart, about how to find an opportunity to give that treasure to Jun Fan. However, in the Palace of Peace and Chaos, especially under Gu Changge's eyes, doing so would easily reveal her true identity.

In this way, it would lead to a great risk, which was not worth the loss.

"I wonder why Young Master Changge came here to find me this time."

And soon, in the hall of the main room, the King of Peace and Chaos asked Gu Changge to sit up and ordered someone to bring tea, and then he asked curiously.

As Gu Changge, he did not believe that he would visit him for no reason. There was definitely a reason for that in there.

Hearing this, Gu Changge opened the teacup, breathed lightly, and then smiled lightly, "Actually, this time I came here for Xi Yao's business."

"Her Majesty?"

The complexion of the King of Chaos changed slightly, and he didn't care why Gu Changge called Empress Xi Yao like that.

He couldn't help asking, "Could it be about the assassin some time ago? Is there some news?"

Everyone in the hall looked solemn, and even Jun Fan paid attention, although Gu Changge's name for Empress Xi Yao seemed rather intimate, and felt uncomfortable. But now, there was no time for him to think about it.

"Actually, it has something to do with it. Xi Yao has been feeling unwell recently. I want to help her share some burden, so I just thought of something, maybe it has something to do with the assassination some time ago."

Gu Changge took a slow sip of tea and then said with a smile.

"Young Master Changge, please speak." The Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos looked solemn, very cautious, and hurriedly said.

"Xi Yao is not feeling well..."

When Jun Fan heard this, he was stunned for a moment, then his face turned a little blue, and he hurriedly lowered his head, for fear of being seen as abnormal.

He thought about the news of the past few days. Empress Xi Yao was ill and had not been to court for three days. But during her poisoning, she was never absent.

Why was that? In particular, Gu Changge changed her previous title to Empress Xi Yao and became very close. He only thought of one possibility, and suddenly nameless anger burned in his heart, which was simply maddening.

"This pair of sluts..." He gritted his teeth and clenched his fists, and the expression on his face even turned a little hideous.

"What's the matter, Xiao Fan, are you not feeling well?"

Noticing Jun Fan's abnormality, Jun Yao gave him a worried look.

Jun Fan's expression changed quickly, he took a deep breath, calmed down quickly, and said, "I'm fine, sister, I was just thinking of that damn assassin who almost murdered Her Majesty, I was angry and couldn't help myself."

"Really? If you're not feeling well, go back to rest first."

Jun Yao knew Jun Fan fairly well and knew that he, like many geniuses in the Demon World, had some admiration for Empress Xi Yao.

Usually, he often inquired about Empress Xi Yao like his father.

Now hearing Gu Changge say this, as long as he was a discerning person, he would know what happened between Gu Changge and Empress Xi Yao.

In her opinion, it was also very normal for Jun Fan to have such a big reaction.

Chapter 405-1: If I kill him, we will become enemies; Actually, I am more interested in you (1)

"Sister, I'm fine, I made you worry."

Hearing Jun Yao's concerned words, Jun Fan smiled and shook his head slightly as if he had recovered.

Gu Changge glanced at Jun Fan with great interest after listening to the sound from the system prompt in his mind.

He then took a sip of tea, and said calmly, "Actually, I already know the person behind the assassination this time, so I wanted to calm the Chaos King. The son of the fallen Xuan Yang Demon Emperor is extraordinary, but now there is no one in his mausoleum."

"Xi Yao suspects that Jun Bufan was just cheating death at first, but now he is hiding somewhere, secretly planning all this behind the scenes."

"I also have some guesses about what Young Master Changge said. Night Demon, as a general under Xuan Yang Demon Emperor, has amazing strength. Except for the descendants of Xuan Yang Demon Emperor, it is estimated that no one in this world can make him work. I also guessed that Jun Bufan was just cheating death at the beginning, and all the assassinations were led by him behind the scenes." Hearing this, the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos nodded with a solemn expression.

Gu Changge smiled and added, "Because of this, Xi Yao deliberately searched all over the Demon World, and now she has finally found Jun Bufan's most likely hiding place."

"Where is Jun Bufan's hiding place?" Heavenly King's expression changed, and he was very shocked.

Jun Fan had been paying attention to the conversation between Gu Changge and his father, and his heart was quite shaken at this moment. He also wanted to know what Empress Xi Yao had found out.

But at the same time, he was relieved, because it seemed that Empress Xi Yao should have never suspected him.

"In the beginning, the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor had a son and a daughter, and Jun Bufan cheated death six thousand years ago. Although his elder sister Jun Ruoxi never participated in that battle, she then set herself up somewhere in the Demon World, making it a forbidden area for the Demon World. No one has dared to approach for a thousand years."

"Xi Yao suspects that Jun Bufan is actually hiding in that restricted area."

Gu Changge smiled slightly and continued to speak.

Of course, these words had nothing to do with Empress Xi Yao. At this time, she was still investigating many young geniuses, so how could she think about these things?

However, Gu Changge didn't mind helping her. After all, the hatred between her and Jun Bufan was not clear enough. The reason why Jun Bufan hadn't gone to his sister all these years, wasn't because he was worried about involving her.

It could be seen that Jun Bufan still had deep feelings for his sister. But this also happened to be Jun Bufan's weakness.

Even if the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor was not dead when he showed up later, his son and daughter would all be in his hands, so Gu Changge did not believe that he would remain indifferent.

If he wanted to catch a big fish, he needed bait to hook it.

"Jun Bufan's sister, Jun Ruoxi?"

Hearing this, Heavenly King Peace and Chaos changed his expression again, and uttered very cautiously, "Then I dare to ask Young Master Changge, what does Her Majesty the Empress mean, does she intend for me to lead troops there to carry out a cleanup?"

Jun Fan tried his best to remain calm, looking at Gu Changge, who was smiling like a Young God from the top place, but a huge wave was set off in his heart, angry and murderous.

At this moment, he could not wait to smash Gu Changge to pieces. In his two lives, he had never hated a person so much, not even Xi Yao. He didn't believe it to be Xi Yao's words, but it was Gu Changge's own plan.

Did he want to force him to show up through Jun Ruoxi? This Gu Changge really had vicious methods and thoughts!

"That's right, and this time at the top of the sacred mountain, Brother Jun Fan's performance was greatly praised by Xi Yao, and she feels that brother Jun Fan will be the leader of the Demon World in the future. So she plans to let the King of Chaos and Jun Fan, you father and son, take this task. If you find Jun Bufan, that's fine, if you can't find it, then it's not impossible to arrest Jun Ruoxi."

Gu Changge took a sip of tea and said with a smile.

Hearing the words, the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos suddenly became solemn and assured, "Thanks to Her Majesty the Empress's love, I will live up to the entrustment of Her Majesty the Empress."

"Xiao Fan, why haven't you come to thank Her Majesty the Empress and Young Master Changge?"

Having said that, he waved at Jun Fan who was standing behind him, with relief on his face.

Nowadays, among the younger generation in the Demon World there was no one like Jun Fan who had been entrusted by Empress Xi Yao. If he made a great contribution this time, his power was bound to surpass that of Marshal Zhen Guo.

"Jun Fan thanks Young Master Changge and Her Majesty the Empress for their high regard, I will not let you down."

Hearing this, even if Jun Fan's heart went extremely cold, he didn't dare to show any strangeness at this moment. He stepped forward and bowed respectfully to Gu Changge.

At this moment, he swore in his heart that one day he would personally cut Gu Changge to pieces and smash his corpse into pieces in order to vent the hatred in his heart.

"If that's the case, then I'm relieved. Since that's all the things that Xi Yao wanted to explain things, then this Gu will leave first."

Gu Changge smiled when he heard the words, and seemed very satisfied with the attitudes of King Peace and Chaos and Jun Fan.

With that, he didn't plan to stay here any longer and was ready to get up and leave.

"Young Master Changge, please."

Seeing this, the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos got up and sent them off. Gu Changge nodded, but when he walked in front of Jun Yao.

He stopped for a while, seeing her suddenly at a loss, he couldn't help smiling and said, "This is Miss Jun Yao, right? I heard from Xi Yao that your tea skills are good. If you have time someday, Gu would like to ask for a little advice."

"Ah... Young Master Changge..."

Jun Yao did not expect that Gu Changge would suddenly take the initiative to talk to her, and even called out her name. She felt a little dizzy, and she didn't realize what she was saying at all.

"Yao'er, Young Master Changge is talking to you."

Seeing this scene, the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos looked happy and hurriedly scolded, "What are you doing?"

Hearing this, Jun Yao suddenly reacted, and her face flushed a little.

She was a little shy as she lowered her head and looked up at Gu Changge embarrassedly before saying, "I have time any day, and Young Master Changge can visit me anytime."

Gu Changge seemed a little surprised, then smiled and added, "Since that's the case, three days later, I'll come to ask Miss Jun Yao about the art of brewing tea."

After that, he didn't stay for long and left with a group of powerhouses. Seeing that Gu Changge had disappeared, Jun Yao's face turned red and her head was still a little dizzy.

"Xiao Fan, look, Young Master Changge actually took the initiative to talk to me, and he even knows my name... Am I dreaming?"

This surprise came so unexpectedly that she wondered if she was dreaming. However, upon hearing this, Jun Fan's expression turned rather gloomy.

"I'm not feeling well, so I'm going to rest first."

He shook his head and walked away quickly. Jun Yao was a little strange, but he didn't care.

Her beautiful eyes were bright, and she was imagining the scene three days later. She was looking forward to it and hoped that the three days would pass soon.

After leaving the Heavenly King's Mansion, Gu Changge did not ask Bai Lian'er and his brother to take him to the so-called medicinal herb growing place but returned to the palace where he usually rested.

Bai Lian'er and Bai Hua were still very shocked in their hearts, and they did not recover from what happened just now. Jun Fan was Jun Bufan, others didn't know, but they knew.

Now, Gu Changge actually planned to let Jun Fan lead his troops to encircle his sister. This method was really cruel and vicious. They also didn't know if Gu Changge already knew Jun Fan's true identity.

Because at this time they themselves were incapable of protecting themselves.

Bai Lian'er was almost convinced that Gu Changge already knew their identities relying on her intuition that she had been in seclusion behind the scenes and in charge of Spring Breeze Pavilion.

Chapter 405-2: If I kill him, we will become enemies; Actually, I am more interested in you (2)

At that time, what Gu Changge said on the street was probably just to make fun of the two of them, and they almost took it seriously.

Hiding her body plus the jade pendant that her father left behind that could hide their aura, was actually useless. Bai Lian'er didn't know how Gu Changge saw through their identities, and it didn't matter now.

If she was alone, she was 30% sure that she could escape from the Gu Changge. But now there was still a burden of Bai Hua around.

She couldn't do anything about leaving him alone. The only thing she could do was to give up.

This feeling of being constrained and powerless made her very uncomfortable.

"Well, why do you have a birthmark on your face?"

But just as Bai Lian'er's thoughts were rolling in her mind, Gu Changge spoke up with a bit of interest, interrupting her thoughts.

Bai Lian'er came back to her senses, looked at Gu Changge and said, "I don't know what your lord means?"

"Elder sister..."

Bai Hua looked at Gu Changge with some fear. Although he was not very smart sometimes, he also felt that this was strange.

Gu Changge did not let them lead the way to find the location of the medicinal herbs, but took them back to the palace and sent everyone back.

What does that mean? It was self-evident.

"It doesn't make any sense, I just think you have a birthmark on your face, which doesn't look good." Gu Changge said casually.

Bai Lian'er looked at him lightly, and said, "I'm sorry, I was born with this birthmark. Since it's in the way of Young Master, then Young Master might as well let me go."

Gu Changge's eyes fell on her face, and he suddenly smiled and said, "What if I say no?"

"Then I can only keep getting in the way of Young Master." Bai Lian'er looked at him without fear.

"Really? It seems you've been trying to pretend to be confused with me."

Gu Changge said nonchalantly, "But you look like this, which makes me feel a little embarrassed."

Bai Lian'er said with an incomprehensible look, "I wonder what the lord means, please forgive the little girl for being stupid and unable to understand."

"It doesn't matter if you don't understand. After I kill him, you may be able to understand."

Hearing this, Gu Changge smiled lightly, and then reached forward with his palms.

The void suddenly blurred, and the terrifying power arrived like a surging wave, crushed and fell against Bai Hua whose complexion changed drastically.

He didn't even have time to react, and was caught in the void by the big hand transformed by Gu Changge's divine power.

"Sister, save me..."

Bai Hua was pale and frightened, and a mouthful of blood was coughed out, followed by a cracking sound of bones. All of his internal organs were torn apart.

If it wasn't for Gu Changge's control of his strength, at the moment just now, his whole body would explode, and his body and spirit would have been destroyed on the spot.

Seeing this scene, Bai Lian'er's expression also changed, and she glanced at Bai Hua coldly. If her father hadn't entrusted him to her, she would not be willing to take care of such a cumbersome waste.

And she would not be constrained by Gu Changge.

"Sir, what do you mean by this? We siblings have no grievances or enmity with you. We only make a living by collecting herbs and never provoke others."

Soon, Bai Lian'er took a deep breath and calmly uttered. Although Gu Changge probably already knew the true identities of her and Bai Hua, she still didn't want to take the initiative to admit it until the last step.

"It doesn't matter, if I kill him now, we will become enemies." Gu Changge smiled lightly.

Bai Lian'er's face froze, she didn't expect Gu Changge to say that.

And as his words fell, there was a sudden sound of bone shattering in the void, Bai Hua screamed, his face frightened as he felt it difficult to bear the pain.

"Sister, save me..."

His voice contained unspeakable fear and pain.

"You can't even bear this pain, you are really a waste." Bai Lian'er's face was cold.

Although she scolded Bai Hua like this, she couldn't just sit back and watch him die in front of her.

At that moment, she looked at Gu Changge coldly and said, "Let go of him, or you will never get what you want. My life is not worth much, and I am not afraid of death."

In the Spring Breeze Pavilion, she put her own life and death aside.

As an assassin, one's life could not be controlled by oneself at all, and no one would know when an assassination mission was carried out or not, whether they would stay there forever.

For Bai Lian'er, what her father Bai Kun gave her was like a task. In the course of this mission, if she lost her life, it would be her own choice.

She was indifferent to life and death, and everything was random. She was not afraid of Gu Changge's threat.

"It seems reasonable for you to say that. Your life is really worthless to me." Hearing this, Gu Changge smiled, and then let go of Bai Hua, "Is it time to show your sincerity? Already?"

Bai Lian'er stared at him coldly, and there was no emotional change in her eyes.

"What kind of sincerity do you want?" she asked.

"The sincerity I want is actually very simple. I don't like the way you are now. It makes me disgusted. I have to say that you have been very successful, at least in terms of disgusting people." Gu Changge shook his head slightly,

Hearing this, Bai Lian'er was a little stunned. He didn't expect Gu Changge's sincerity to be this. Then, she sneered, "I didn't expect you to be a superficial person too."

However, as the words fell, her face changed, returning to her original appearance.

Her disguising method was very clever, changing many times, not only changing the appearance, but also reshaping the bones, flesh, aura, etc. Even if it was a powerful existence who could see through the origin, it would be difficult to see any abnormality.

Of course, this kind of bone-shaping and blood-clotting method was very painful, and it belonged to the means of Killing Emperor inheritance, but it could provide a great degree of secrecy and camouflage, and it was difficult for people to see through.

"It's much more pleasing to the eye."

Gu Changge nodded slightly and looked at her again. Because of her special physique, Bai Lian'er had an amazing charm. However, his expression did not change much.

"It seems that the inheritance of the Killing Emperor has indeed fallen into your hands. Even the Supreme Being would have difficulty seeing through this means of changing appearance."

"Is this your purpose?" Bai Lian'er's expression changed slightly.

Although there had been many rumors in the outside world over the years that the mysterious owner of Spring Breeze Pavilion had the inheritance of the Killing Emperor, it was never confirmed.

Gu Changge didn't answer her question, but said directly, "I can let your father go, and at the same time I can make the Demon World give up on chasing him."

"What are the conditions?"

Bai Lian'er stared at him closely and said, "If you keep your promise, I will naturally give you that bag. Otherwise, even if you kill me, you won't be able to get that bag."

"No, you seem to have misunderstood what I meant." Gu Changge interrupted her with a wave of his hand and smiled,

"Compared to that bag, I'm actually more interested in you."

Bai Lian'er naturally knew what Gu Changge meant. She looked at him coldly, lost in thought.

Gu Changge was not in a hurry either, speaking to her, whether it was the bag or Bai Lian'er, he wanted both.

Bai Lian'er had been in charge of Spring Breeze Pavilion by herself for so many years, so it was not necessary to say more about her skills and methods.

Although her background was not as good as that of old-fashioned assassin organizations such as the Buddha and the Underworld, their apparent strength was no longer enough.

For Gu Changge, secretly cultivating an assassin organization would definitely do more good than harm.

"How can I trust you? It's hard to believe someone like you."

At this moment, Bai Lian'er suddenly raised her head and stared at Gu Changge with cold eyes, as if she wanted a definite answer from him.

Gu Changge was not surprised and smiled, "It's not about you wanting to trust me, but you can only trust me now."

"Your father, the forces behind you, and your cumbersome junior brother, all of their life and death are under my control. Who else do you think you can trust now? Of course, you don't have to care about them, and it doesn't cost me anything."

Bai Lian'er was silent, she was thinking about the gains and losses in her heart.

People like Gu Changge were not worth trusting, but if she didn't trust him. She was likely to die today, but Bai Hua would definitely die.

Her father would die, and the force that had been painstakingly managed for more than 6,000 years would soon fall apart without her.

And if she agreed to Gu Changge, from now on, she would have to obey his orders and be under his control?

"I see." Bai Lian'er was silent for a moment, then nodded.

Chapter 406-1: Would he choose to forgive her? So that's the case (1)

The palace was magnificent, the spiritual energy was like a tide, the treasure light was looming, and many divine weapons were hanging on the wall, shining brilliantly.

Bai Lian'er was dressed in a sackcloth, but she couldn't hide her natural beauty. Her facial features were exquisite and her face was cold.

Although it was enchanting and moving, it had a cool and glamorous aura that was like an iceberg of eternity.

"I promise you."

Her voice was amazingly charming, but it didn't have any emotion, giving people a very awkward feeling.

Gu Changge stood with his hands behind his back, smiling, looking at Bai Lian'er and Bai Hua.

The radiance flowed on his immortal robe embroidered with many patterns, the sun, moon, stars, mountains, rivers, and seas seemed to be all included, revealing the meaning of dignity and mystery.

"I knew that Miss Lian'er was a smart person, and it's easy to talk to a smart person."

Hearing this, Gu Changge smiled slightly, and then commanded outside the hall, "Luoshen, serve tea for Miss Lian'er."

At the entrance of the hall, Jiang Luoshen was very curious about the pair that Gu Changge suddenly brought and rolled her eyes upon hearing this.

But since she was noticed by Gu Changge, she didn't bother to hide her figure and walked in from outside the hall. She had bright blonde hair, was tall, curvaceous, and had bright eyes, with a noble bearing.

"You really take me as your maid."

She snorted slightly, then walked beside the tea set, and started to activate Supreme God fire to make tea for Gu Changge in a skilled manner.

Bai Lian'er glanced at Jiang Luoshen. She knew her identity and was a little puzzled as to why she appeared beside Gu Changge, but she didn't ask any more questions.

She looked at Gu Changge coldly and added, "I hope you can keep your promise, and I'm much older than you, so you don't have to call me a girl, just call me by my name."

Gu Changge smiled disapprovingly, and said, "Age is nothing for us cultivators to care about. Why should Miss Lian'er be obsessed with these little things?"

"What's more, now that we are together, you don't need to be so outspoken."

"Humph, I don't dare to be with Mr. Gu. I have the self-awareness to do so."

Bai Lian'er's expression was indifferent, with an attitude of indifference.

Gu Changge didn't care either, and continued, "I think that Lian'er might be able to give it to me."

Bai Lian'er sneered, "Didn't you just say that you are not interested in the bag? That thing is not on me, I put it in a secret place."

She was very cautious and knew that the bag was not simple, so she did not carry it with her.

Instead, she hid in another place, because she was afraid that after being caught by Gu Changge, she would not have the conditions to negotiate with him.

"Is that so? Then I'll have to ask Miss Lian'er to fetch it for me. During this time, I will order someone to take good care of your junior brother."

Hearing this, Gu Changge looked a little stunned and then smiled.

"Sister Lian'er..."

Hearing this, the expression of Bai Hua changed, and he was in awe and fear for Gu Changge.

The fear of facing the crisis of life and death just now was unforgettable. He felt that he had arrived in front of the gate of hell. If it wasn't for Bai Lian'er to stop him, he would have been killed by Gu Changge.

"Since I promised you, I won't go back on it easily. I still have this credit."

Bai Lian'er naturally knew the meaning of Gu Changge's words, because he was worried that she would take the opportunity to escape.

"I naturally believe in Miss Lian'er, but I should take care of him." Gu Changge smiled.

Bai Lian'er gave him a cold look, not feeling favorable toward Gu Changge at all.

This was a self-interested, ruthless guy who wanted his reassurance. Before that, she must ensure that she had sufficient value for Gu Changge.

Otherwise, everything was negligible.

So she didn't expect Gu Changge to keep his promise in the future.

With that, her figure moved and walked outside the hall. Gu Changge smiled and watched her disappear without being stopped.

"You are letting her go now?"

Jiang Luoshen had already vaguely guessed Bai Lian'er's identity, and his heart was a little shaken.

Gu Changge glanced at her, "Just make tea, why are there so many questions?"

"I... tell me, will I die?"

Jiang Luoshen frowned and looked very dissatisfied. Gu Changge just treated her as a coolie, and now he didn't even answer her question.

"Do you think everyone is as brainless as you?"

Gu Changge shook his head slightly and then ordered someone to take Bai Hua down so that he could take care of him.

Jiang Luoshen stared at him coldly, just wanting to throw the boiled tea on his face. However, after Gu Changge glanced at her, she still chose to bury her head honestly and make tea.

From Empress Xi Yao's side, although she sent someone to ask him about the King of Chaos sending troops to clear the restricted area, Gu Changge didn't explain much.

He knew that Empress Xi Yao was already suspicious of Jun Fan, and his suspicion of the rest of the geniuses was far less than that of Jun Fan. However, even if Empress Xi Yao knew that Jun Fan was Jun Bufan, it would be of no use now.

Because she couldn't come up with evidence, if she rashly guessed, it would chill the hearts of many people.

After all, on the top of the sacred mountain, Jun Fan and his father, the King of Peace and Chaos made great contributions to saving Empress Xi Yao.

Without any evidence, if she said that Jun Fan was the son of the former Xuan Yang Demon Emperor, it would alienate the relationship between the monarch and the minister, which would make many people think that the King of Chaos was powerful, which aroused the fear of Empress Xi Yao.

So now, what Empress Xi Yao wanted to do most was to investigate Jun Fan to see if she could find any clues.

"Your Majesty, according to the news, Young Master Changge did indeed go to the Heavenly King's Mansion of Peace and Chaos."

In the palace, Qingmei looked at Empress Xi Yao who was reading the memorials behind the papers, and reported with a respectful face,

"The King of Peace and Chaos suddenly led his troops away, should that be what he meant?"

Empress Xi Yao rubbed her brows, feeling a mess in her head.

"Apart from Young Master Changge, there is probably no one in the Demon World who can send the King of Chaos to do things."

Qingmei replied respectfully.

Empress Xi Yao nodded, her eyes pondered, and she added, "What does he mean by that? The forbidden area was occupied by Jun Ruoxi as early as 6,000 years ago? At that time, she also signed a contract with me, the well water does not violate the river water and does not interfere with each other."

At that time, she had just dominated the Demon World, and her foundation was unstable. As the eldest daughter of the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor, Jun Ruoxi had cultivated for many years, and her cultivation was unfathomable and difficult to provoke.

Few people knew about this matter, and Empress Xi Yao had not announced it to the public yet.

Now that the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos sent a large army, it was very likely that Jun Ruoxi would think that she had unilaterally broken up the contract of that year.

Chapter 406-2: Would he choose to forgive her? So that's the case (2)

Although Empress Xi Yao didn't care much about this, she was more concerned about Gu Changge's reason for doing this.

Because Jun Ruoxi was Jun Bufan's sister?

"Among the army that went this time, Jun Fan was also among them... Could this be Gu Changge's temptation?"

Empress Xi Yao's slender fingers tapped on the table.

In the past few days, many young geniuses had been investigated, although no evidence had been found, many suspects were also ruled out.

Now, the people she suspected the most were Jun Fan and Zhao Tian, ??the only son of Marshal Zhenguo.

Among them, Jun Fan was the most suspicious, and Zhao Tian was also noticed by her because he was in charge of the military and had a lot of contact with Qingzhu.

But now, the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos suddenly sent troops to a restricted area somewhere in the Demon World and said that it was at her will, which made her stunned at the time. It was then she realized that it should be Gu Changge's decision.

After asking now, it was indeed the case.

"It seems that during this time, I have to pay attention to this matter. If it's really Jun Fan..."

Empress Xi Yao's expression turned cold, but until now, she still couldn't understand the purpose of Gu Changge's reason to arrive at the Demon World this time.

At first, she thought that Gu Changge was planning to help her, but then she realized that she was thinking too much, which was a big mistake.

As far as Gu Changge was concerned, it didn't really make any difference for him to help her or not. Changing the ruler of the Demon World had no effect on Gu Changge because he didn't care about the Demon World at all.

When Gu Changge first approached her, he had a strong purpose. She didn't think about these things thoroughly at the time, but now she understood them.

She didn't have anything to complain about, it was just a matter of choosing each other. Now she wanted to know even more about what was Gu Changge's purpose.

"Could it have something to do with the six Emperors who disappeared?"

Empress Xi Yao frowned, because of Gu Changge's relationship, the Demon World had been a lot more peaceful these days, and there had been fewer rebellions.

But she was still a little uneasy in her heart, not because of Jun Bufan's cheating death, but because of the six Emperors who disappeared.

Could they be Gu Changge's ultimate goal?

And soon, on the other side, Bai Lian'er went back and forth. She did not disappoint Gu Changge, and handed him the mysterious bag.

However, Gu Changge didn't open it in front of her, but smiled and mentioned another matter, "In addition to the bag, there is actually one more thing, I want to trouble Miss Lian'er."

"Say."

Bai Lian'er stared at him, and her words were concise. She was actually very curious about what was hidden in the bag.

It was just that Gu Changge didn't open it in front of her, which made her a little disappointed.

"Jun Fan, as the remnant of the Five Emperors 6,000 years ago, has been secretly plotting assassinations, trying to overthrow the reign of Empress Xi Yao in the Demon World. I think Miss Lian'er, as a former member of the Demon World, definitely doesn't want to see such a situation..."

Gu Changge still smiled, with a smile like a spring breeze.

Bai Lian'er sneered, "No, this is exactly what I want to see."

"No, you don't want it. How could an honest and kind person like Miss Lian'er want to see this? So I want to ask Miss Lian'er to help me find evidence that Jun Fan was secretly planning to assassinate Empress Xi Yao. I know you can do it."

Gu Changge waved his hand to interrupt her before she could finish speaking, with an unquestionable tone.

"You... I see."

Bai Lian'er's expression froze, she didn't expect Gu Changge to be able to say such words with such a calm face.

He was so shameless and hypocritical, how could he still have a face? But she also knew that she couldn't refuse this kind of thing now.

"If that's the case, Miss Lian'er should go see your junior brother first. Don't worry, he eats well and sleeps soundly like your father. You don't have to worry."

Afterward, Gu Changge asked Bai Lian'er to go back, and when the time was ripe, she would naturally inform him.

Bai Lian'er's face was cold, she thought she was hypocritical enough, but in front of Gu Changge, it was still far from enough.

Soon, everyone in the hall was sent out, and Gu Changge began to explore the treasure in his hand.

From the outside, this was an ordinary bag, embroidered with some simple patterns, without any runes or pattern fluctuations.

Even the material was an ordinary cloth that was commonly seen. But in it, the aura was not simple, and it was mysterious and profound, supreme and majestic.

Buzz!!

In Gu Changge's eyes, two colors of black and white appeared, and the faintly visible scene of six reincarnations evolved in it.

He intended to gain insight into the mystery of this bag. Although, from the appearance alone, he really couldn't see anything, he knew that if someone else forced it to open it.

This bag will definitely be destroyed automatically, and the terrifying power would explode, and the things in it would not be revealed.

"Is it reserved for Jun Bufan? No one can open this thing except him."

Gu Changge's brows wrinkled slightly, it seemed that the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor did indeed arrange a lot of back-ups.

This bag contained unimaginable things, perhaps involving the secrets of the Demon World. If he forcibly opened it, he would definitely touch the restrictions and destroy the contents.

"Could it be that only Jun Bufan can open this thing? I don't believe it."

Gu Changge continued to try again, and in the palm of his hand, a black light loomed, and finally swallowed the bag.

Chirp...

A wisp of light blue smoke floated out, and a dazzling brilliance suddenly lit up.

A striped road became clear, and it could be seen that many ancient demon inscriptions were written on the surface by special means.

As soon as these demon texts touched the power of Gu Changge, a terrifying power burst forth, as if it was alive.

Vermillion Bird, Qinglong, White Tiger, Pixiu, Black Tortoise... all kinds of demon characters, transformed into powerful phantoms, roaring in the void, surging and almost causing the place to burst open.

"Although forcibly opening it is a little troublesome, it's not impossible."

In the void, the Great Dao treasure bottle appeared, where it went up and down, and the vast black light hung down, covering this treasure bag.

For a while, the bag didn't move, as if it was imprisoned there before an inexplicable power and field appeared.

Gu Changge started to open it. Then he felt a majestic and heavy aura pouring out from it, like the power of heaven and earth, suddenly descending on him.

The void began to collapse, black holes appeared, and large cracks spread nearby. This power was even more terrifying than chaos, as heavy as the sky.

Buzz!!!

However, with the slight trembling of the treasure bottle, this terrifying power became stable and calmed down, and it flowed quietly there like starlight.

"This is a strand of the origin of the world... And it's the origin of the world that's transforming toward a higher level."

Gu Changge raised his eyebrows and was a little surprised.

He has an Inner Universe. Although it had not evolved completely, it was only a prototype, but he was familiar with the aura of the origin of this world.

Chapter 406-3: Would he choose to forgive her? So that's the case (3)

"The Demon World has transformed and tried to evolve towards a higher world. Is this the reason for the disappearance of the Six Emperors?"

"Do they want to take advantage of the evolution of the Demon World to take the opportunity to attack the Upper Realm?"

Almost instantly, Gu Changge guessed the purpose of the Six Emperors.

For more than 6,000 years, they were hiding from people's eyes and ears, just to hide in the dark and arrange all this?

In this way, in the process of the evolution of the Demon World, there was bound to be a breath leaking out, and many Daoist sects in the Upper Realm had not noticed it, leaving the Demon World alone.

"It must be that the six Emperors covered their aura and they covered up this secret by themselves. The cultivation base of the six Emperors is unfathomable. In terms of the Luck of the Demon World, it is impossible to produce six Enlightened people."

"This plan should have started a long time ago..."

Gu Changge narrowed his eyes and thought of the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword, which was a genuine imperial weapon that could be exchanged for a fake.

According to the Luck of the original Demon World, it was difficult to give birth to an Emperor, let alone refine an imperial weapon.

Thinking about it this way, there were indeed many clues and flaws. If he hadn't come to the Demon World this time, he probably wouldn't have noticed this problem.

"In this shocking situation, the Demon World is the chessboard, the living beings are the chess pieces, and Jun Bufan and Xi Yao are the two chess pieces in their hands..."

"It just happened that the six thousand years of chaos in the Demon World could cover up the truth of the disappearance of the Six Emperors, and put the blame on the head of Xi Yao. I thought she was a bargain, but she is the symbol of bad luck."

"It's a good calculation."

Gu Changge couldn't help but smile. Now that he had seen through the Six Emperor's plan, he naturally won't let it go.

From the very beginning when he came to the Demon World, he felt that Empress Xi Yao was just a chess piece, and only by controlling her would he have the chance to make a move in this chess game.

Now it seemed that he had more of the initiative.

"For the outside world, the Six Emperors have long disappeared, and many people think that they are dead. If the Six Emperors really died, no one would notice."

"The origin of the Six Emperors, the origin of the evolution of the Demon World... This is really something to covet for."

Gu Changge also didn't believe that the six were already in the Emperor Realm. Although the Demon Realm was evolving, it had not yet reached that stage.

For him, this was not a perfect time.

Afterward, Gu Changge devoured the origin of the world in front of him with the treasure bottle.

However, what surprised him a little was that in the origin of the world, there was actually a strand of the Law Body from the Demon Emperor Xuan Yang.

Of course, in front of the Dao bottle, although this Dao law body erupted with terrifying power, it was of no avail and was quickly swallowed up.

The Xuan Yang Demon Emperor not only left Jun Bufan with a strand of his Dao Dharma Body as a means of life-saving, it even contained some origin.

After swallowing this strand of Dao Dharma body, Gu Changge noticed this part of the memory, and his expression suddenly became very interesting.

"Tell Jun Bufan that all of this is a misunderstanding. The reason why Xi Yao poisoned him 6,000 years ago was actually because the Six Emperors behind the scenes persuaded him to let go of his hatred. Then he asked Jun Bufan to follow what Xuan Yang Demon Emperor had left for him. A key and find where it is..."

"Tsk, so the real routine would be this?"

Gu Changge couldn't help rubbing his chin, feeling that he underestimated the level of bloodshed.

Six thousand years later, Jun Bufan, the son of the Demon Emperor, was reborn to take revenge, and finally found out the truth.

The reason why Empress Xi Yao would poison him was that the Six Emperors set up a plan in advance and intended to guide her.

The purpose was to create chaos in the Demon World, Empress Xi Yao would be in charge of the Demon World, and Jun Bufan would secretly take revenge, so as to confuse the eyes of many Dao sects in the Upper Realm and secretly gain time for them.

It had to be said that he underestimated the means of the Six Emperors, especially the Demon Emperor You Yue and the Demon Emperor Xuan Yang, who even planned to use their own children.

Now Gu Changge wanted to know how Jun Bufan would behave after knowing the truth. Would he choose to forgive her? Or cut off everything?

"The key mentioned in the Dao Law body of the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor... He said that he left it to Jun Bufan, so it seems that only Jun Bufan can get the key."

Thinking of this, Gu Changge separated a wisp of his Demonic Mind, which evolved following the breath of the origin of the world just now, and restored the bag to its original shape.

Although the aura was similar, it was still too far from the real origin of the world.

As for the many forbidden runes on it, he just recovered a little according to the previous appearance, and it was difficult to guarantee a complete restoration.

"It depends on whether Jun Bufan can see through all of this, but it doesn't matter if he can see through it. After all, it was Bai Lian'er who sent this thing to him."

"If he wants to doubt, he will only suspect Bai Lian'er. Bai Lian'er doesn't dare to reveal my existence, so he can only bite the bullet and continue."

Gu Changge squinted his eyes, and there was playfulness in his eyes. He didn't care about this, and then called someone to find Bai Lian'er and handed this bag to her.

"What exactly is this?" Bai Lian'er asked, very direct, very curious about the things in this bag.

"Then, according to your father's request, give this bag to Jun Bufan. I don't know what it is. I can't open it now."

Gu Changge shook his head with a calm expression.

"Yes?" Bai Lian'er didn't believe it.

At that time, she also tried to open this bag but found that it contained extremely terrifying power. Once opened, it was bound to be destroyed by it.

Logically, Gu Changge should have no other choice.

But her intuition told her that Gu Changge knew what it was, and he not only finished reading it but also restored it to its original state.

He definitely had such means.

"For this kind of thing, is it necessary to deceive Miss Lian'er? We are on one side now." Gu Changge smiled.

"You're so hypocritical, just don't say it."

Bai Lian'er sneered, took the bag, and then flickered before stepping into the void, and disappeared.

Jun Fan was not in the imperial capital now but went along with his father to pacify the chaos, he went to slay his original sister Jun Ruoxi.

She knew about this, so it was not difficult to find Jun Fan.

As a descendant of the Emperor, her own methods of concealment and ambush were extremely high, and the existence of an ordinary Supreme Realm would never be able to detect her aura.

After watching Bai Lian'er leave, Gu Changge put down the teacup. His eyes were faint, and he began to think about another chess piece. Now, he also understood the pattern of the Demon World and the plans of the Six Emperors.

In this chess game of the Demon World, he should also be the general!

"Jun Yao..."

Chapter 407-1: Fits a flawless image, Old acquaintance meets (1)

The pavilion was magnificent with lingering immortal mist. Many beautiful and moving demon women could be seen dancing gracefully.

The fragrance of tea was deep waffled in the void, relieving everyone as this looked like an elegant room.

A woman in a green robe sat with her straight and slender legs under the lining robe closed, delicate and flawless. She was extremely beautiful, with a thin powder-covered face, delicate facial features and her hair like clouds.

It was difficult to hide her figure under the loose robe, looking tall and graceful.

Opposite the woman, a young man was sitting with his legs crossed and his expression seemingly easy-going and natural with a warm smile like a spring breeze. Many dancers couldn't help but look at him secretly, with envy in their eyes.

"This is the tea I just brewed, what do you think, Young Master Changge?"

Jun Yao's face had a bit of shyness. It was completely different from the arrogant and generous expression in front of outsiders.

If there were people who are familiar with her here, such as Jun Fan, they would definitely be surprised and feel incredible.

Hearing this, Gu Changge picked up the white jade teacup in front of him and took a sip. He couldn't help but admire, "As expected of Miss Jun Yao, this is the first time I've drunk such tea."

"Astringent bitterness and sweet. If you taste it carefully, you can feel the various emotions and desires of all beings. It's really wonderful."

Hearing Gu Changge's praise, Jun Yao's face also displayed joy and even more shyness.

"Young Master Changge has overpraised me, it's good that you like it."

Her fingers pinched the corner of the skirt, not as natural as it seemed. For today's appointment with Gu Changge, she had been preparing for three days and hardly slept.

Not only that, but she had also dressed up seriously and even the makeup was completely different from usual. Applied to look delicate and beautiful, without losing the aura of a lady.

"Of course I like it. I didn't expect the Demon World to possess someone with the art of tea brewing like Miss Jun Yao. It's fortunate for me."

Hearing this, Gu Changge smiled and sighed, "I heard that Miss Jun Yao was good at tea before, but I was still puzzled at the time. After experiencing it today, I can only say that it is true."

"Young Master Changge has overpraised me. I just like to study these things since I was a child, and it's just that some things can't be on the table."

When Jun Yao heard this, she quickly waved her hand and added, "There are more masters who are proficient in tea brewing than I am."

Gu Changge shook his head, looked at her, and said, "Why should Miss Jun Yao be moderate? Since ancient times, everything has been accessible to Taoism, tea ceremony, painting, chess... These are all great roads, how can they not be on the stage?"

"In my opinion, in the future tea ceremony, there must be a place for Miss Jun Yao."

Jun Yao felt that Gu Changge looked down on herself too much, and she was so embarrassed to praise her so much, but it was more of joy.

Usually, even if other young geniuses flattered her to please her, she would not care. But today, because of Gu Changge's compliments, she was delighted.

Afterward, the two talked for a while, Gu Changge seemed to remember something, made an excuse, and planned to get up and leave.

"If Young Master Changge likes it, Jun Yao will be waiting for you to brew tea every day. If you have time, you can come here..."

Seeing this, although Jun Yao was reluctant to part ways, she also knew that, in her capacity, being able to have tea with Gu Changge was something she couldn't imagine before.

How dare she ask for anything more?

However, at this moment, she didn't know where her courage came from as she suddenly said this to Gu Changge.

As soon as she finished speaking, a haze appeared on Jun Yao's face. She felt bold and her heart was beating fast.

Hearing this, Gu Changge seemed a little surprised. He then smiled and replied, "If that's the case, then I'll thank Miss Jun Yao first."

After saying that, he left the attic directly and his figure gradually disappeared.

"Young Master Changge, walk slowly." Jun Yao felt that she couldn't even finish her words as she trembled and stuttered.

Before that, she had never imagined that one day she would be able to get in touch with Gu Changge, and even sit across from him and talk like this.

After parting with Gu Changge, Jun Yao still had a dreamy feeling. She still felt her heart beating so fast, it was still thumping around.

Just now, she thought that Gu Changge would reject her and tell her not to think about anything. But she really didn't expect Gu Changge really said that.

"However, did Young Master Changge agree, or refuse...?"

Jun Yao's brows twitched, her heart was full of joy and entanglement. She was worried about gains and losses, for fear that all of today would turn into a fantasy.

In the next few days, Gu Changge would come to her from time to time, and the reason was naturally to ask her about tea brewing or something.

It was naturally impossible for Jun Yao to refuse, it was too late to be happy, and even at some point, she felt that she had a chance.

Gu Changge's demeanor, in her opinion, was extremely graceful and gentle, and he was not arrogant and unapproachable because of his status.

This was more in line with the flawless image in her heart.

This feeling was getting stronger and stronger. If it wasn't for the fact that her father and younger brother Jun Fan had already gone with the army to conquer the restricted area, she would have wanted to share this good thing with them.

"Judging from the Luck of Jun Yao, she is different from the rest of the Jun family. Presumably Jun Fan should take his sister very seriously."

Gu Changge naturally had no idea about Jun Yao, at most he planned to use her to calculate Jun Fan.

Such a goddess of heaven, with high self-esteem and eyes higher than the top, was a goddess in the eyes of ordinary people.

They had their own set of selection criteria in their hearts, so it was easier for them to move backward.

He just had to satisfy the beautiful fantasies in her heart.

Jun Yao has a lot more Luck points than Qingzhu. In Gu Changge's opinion, this was because of the relationship between Jun Yao and Jun Fan.

Even Jun Fan's father in this life, the King of Chaos, didn't have much Luck.

This showed that Jun Fan had a closer relationship with Jun Yao than with his father, the King of Chaos.

In the following days, the Demon World gradually returned to calm.

After Empress Xi Yao experienced an assassination some time ago, she now had stricter control over the people around her.

The upper and lower levels of the imperial court were all cleaned up. Although there was a lot of turmoil, they gradually calmed down.

Many big families in the Demon World were in danger, for fear of encountering the liquidation of Empress Xi Yao.

Because of Gu Changge's relationship, the great clans in the Demon World had much deeper awe for Empress Xi Yao than before.

"You seem to be avoiding me all this time?"

At this time, in the palace, Empress Xi Yao was processing the memorial when she suddenly heard Gu Changge's voice.

She didn't know when Gu Changge appeared in the hall, displaying interest. He just seemed to appear out of thin air, without a trace of fluctuation.

If Gu Changge hadn't spoken, she wouldn't have noticed.

"Greetings, Young Master Changge."

Seeing this, Qingmei, Qinglan, and the others hurriedly greeted him, then looked at him with their eyes, and bowed their heads honestly.

Chapter 407-2: Fits a flawless image, Old acquaintance meets (2)

"I've been too busy these days. Why? Are you feeling left out?"

Hearing this, Empress Xi Yao glanced at Gu Changge, and after being slightly shocked, she quickly regained her composure and continued to look at the memorial in her hand.

"Her Majesty the Empress is very busy. Since you didn't come to see me, I can only come here." Gu Changge smiled and then waved his hands to let Qingmei, Qinglan, and the others leave.

Empress Xi Yao was very uncomfortable with his gaze.

Although the two had already had the most intimate relationship, when she thought that all of this was intentional by Gu Changge, and not sincere towards her, she felt very uncomfortable, even unspeakable.

So she was avoiding him on purpose, but she didn't expect that Gu Changge would take the initiative to find him today.

"What's the matter with you?" Empress Xi Yao asked, still looking down at the memorial in her hand.

Gu Changge looked down at her swan-like white and delicate neck, then smiled as he bent over, and wrapped his hand around her, saying, "Am I not here to help you solve the trouble?"

"Trouble?" Empress Xi Yao's body froze, but she quickly recovered and asked knowingly.

"Of course." Gu Changge smiled.

"Can you be sure that Jun Fan is Jun Bufan?"

Seeing Gu Changge smiling, Empress Xi Yao turned her head and glanced at him, but she also naturally laid down in his arms.

She had been suspecting this for a while, but unfortunately, she could not find the slightest evidence. She felt that Gu Changge should know something, but he never told her.

With this thought in her heart, Empress Xi Yao's face seemed unusually calm.

"Of course, what's the use of you then? Aren't you the Empress?"

Gu Changge smiled and said, "Don't ask me about everything, you have to think about it yourself."

Empress Xi Yao shook her head and said, "If I knew, would I still ask you? What did you say that day? After you lied to my body, you don't care?"

"It's what you want and what I want, can this be called cheating?"

Gu Changge smiled and denied, "Jun Fan's matter will soon come to an end. You will know what to do when you see it."

Hearing what he said, Empress Xi Yao nodded and didn't ask any more questions.

In the following days, Gu Changge would occasionally go to the palace to ask her to explain some things.

After Empress Xi Yao discovered Gu Changge's true face, although she had grudges in her heart, in today's huge Demon World, Gu Changge was the person who had the closest relationship with her.

Therefore, she had never expressed this emotion and naturally, she would not refuse Gu Changge's various requests.

She also wanted to know what Gu Changge planned to do.

How would Jun Bufan and Jun Ruoxi affect Gu Changge?

.....

Boom!!

The army rolled over as the sky trembled and the ground quaked lightly. The beasts roared and the birds were frightened away.

This was a boundless and lush ancient forest with thick fog and many places were surrounded by colorful clouds.

Many knotted trees were like mountains, covering the sky and the earth. Spiritual herbs and fruits, flying springs and waterfalls could be seen everywhere with the deep bushes revealing the vastness.

If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, many people would never have believed that this would actually be a forbidden area in the Demon World. All the creatures who had strayed into this place for more than 6,000 years had disappeared without a trace, like a stone sinking into the sea.

From the outside, it looks like a fairyland.

"The front is where the restricted area lies. Everyone can stay in the same place, and they are not allowed to move."

The mighty army of the Demon World appeared here, suffocating and murderous. The King of Chaos appeared on a mountain peak as he looked ahead and ordered.

He was dressed in bronze armor, holding a big axe. His eyes were bright and shining with many runes intertwined, turning into a rolling divinity, emitting a suffocating deterrent.

"Father, are we really going to clear this place?"

Besides the King of Chaos, Jun Fan frowned slightly, looking at the restricted area in front of him, feeling helpless and unwilling in his heart.

This was the place where his real sister, Jun Ruoxi, lived in seclusion.

Even if he lived a new life, he never came here, because he didn't want to disturb Jun Ruoxi, and he didn't want to involve her in this matter.

But now, he couldn't help it.

Even he was dispatched to clean up this place, and he couldn't help himself.

"Isn't this nonsense? Her Majesty the Empress personally ordered it, not to mention that Jun Bufan is very likely to be hidden in this place. That is the chief who planned to assassinate Her Majesty the Empress behind the scenes. If you catch him, do you still worry that my Jun family will not be powerful?"

The King of Peace and Chaos glanced at Jun Fan, speaking meaningfully.

With ambition in his eyes, he stared at the vast ancient forest in front of him and seemed to have seen his great future in it.

Jun Fan fell silent after hearing the words. He also thought of many ways to stop all of this, but it was of no use. With his current strength, it was impossible to stop Gu Changge's will.

He didn't believe that Empress Xi Yao could do such a thing, it was definitely ordered by Gu Changge under the guise of Empress Xi Yao.

Its real purpose was to force him to appear.

For various reasons, he saw it very clearly.

At present, the problem before him was how to rescue Jun Ruoxi and prevent her from being caught.

"Six thousand years ago, my elder sister was about to step into the Quasi-Supreme Realm. Now that six thousand years have passed, even if her talent is not as good as mine, she should be in the Quasi-Supreme Realm at this moment."

"It's really troublesome if she wanted to escape safely."

Jun Fan frowned. When he was not born, his sister was already in the Sacred Realm. After so many years, it was impossible for her to not make any progress.

To him, Jun Ruoxi was much more important than his cheap father, the King of Chaos. The person who could make him valuable in this life, besides Jun Yao, was Jun Ruoxi.

However, it was also a coincidence that the identities of the two of them were his sisters.

"Father, I'll go around first to check the situation here. If there is anything unusual, I will send you a message."

Afterward, Jun Fan opened his mouth and planned to leave the team first. He wanted to enter the restricted area from another direction and be the first to find Jun Ruoxi before the Heavenly King of Chaos.

Hearing this, the King of Peace and Chaos did not suspect anything, nodded, and asked, "Would you like me to give you a team?"

"No, it's much more convenient for me to be alone." Jun Fan refused, and then he didn't wait for the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos to agree as his figure swept away, turning into a divine light and heading for the rest of the direction.

The King of Peace and Chaos did not care about Jun Fan too much and began to instruct the army, and at the same time sent people to look at the situation here.

After Jun Fan left the team, he turned into a divine light and headed for the depths of the mountain range. Although this place was designated as a restricted area, it did not impose many restrictions. As long as one paid attention to some fluctuations, it was easy to reach them.

Buzz!!

However, when he rushed to leave, a faint ripple suddenly spread in the void, followed by an inexplicable wave.

Chapter 407-3: Fits a flawless image, Old acquaintance meets (3)

"Who is it?"

Jun Fan noticed this abnormality, his expression changed slightly, and he stopped very vigilantly.

"Long time no see, is that how you treat old friends?"

In the void, there were fluctuations, and then a figure walked out, with an enchanting and cold face with amazing charm.

"Are you... Lian'er?"

When Jun Fan saw this figure, his face was stunned for a moment, and then his eyes widened in disbelief, becoming a little excited.

"I haven't seen you for a long time. I didn't expect you to be here, how did you find me?"

However, Jun Fan quickly calmed down, looking at Bai Lian'er's calm and indifferent expression, and couldn't help asking.

He didn't expect that after more than 6,000 years, he would meet a former acquaintance like this. However, Bai Lian'er's appearance was completely different from before.

If it weren't for him being very familiar with Bai Lian'er, and he almost didn't recognize her just now, this would be the weak girl who used to follow him like a follower.

For a while, Jun Fan was quite emotional, but he was more curious about how Bai Lian'er found him, and how did she know his true identity?

"Seeing an old friend, you actually look like this. Jun Bufan has not changed after more than 6,000 years." Bai Lian'er said lightly, looking very cold.

Jun Bufan frowned upon hearing this, feeling that there was something wrong with Bai Lian'er's attitude. It was as cold as a piece of ice without emotion.

After realizing the reason, he couldn't help but smile.

He also knew that some things in the past had hurt Bai Lian'er, he didn't care about her advice, and even listened to Xi Yao's words and maliciously slandered her.

For this woman who used to be like his own sister, he actually felt a little guilty in his heart.

"The past has passed, how can there be a threshold in this world that cannot be overcome? Lian'er, how did you know my identity and how did you find me?"

Jun Fan smiled bitterly, then remembered something important, and couldn't help but ask sternly.

Bai Lian'er just sneered at what he said, and then said lightly, "I actually have something to do with you. As for how I found you, you have to ask yourself if blatantly assassinating Xi Yao was worth it. Do you think everyone is a fool like her?"

Jun Fan's complexion changed slightly, and he was a little uncomfortable with Bai Lian'er's sneering tone, but he still understood what Bai Lian'er meant.

When he assassinated Empress Xi Yao, Bai Lian'er already knew his true identity?

"So you've been hiding near the Heavenly King's Mansion these days, and now you have the opportunity to show up alone?"

Jun Fan couldn't help asking, and quickly figured out the cause and effect. He was very curious about why Bai Lian'er had approached him.

"Looks like you're not stupid."

Bai Lian'er sneered, and then said lightly, "I need you to help me rescue my father."

"Your father?"

Jun Fan's complexion changed slightly. He actually knew about Bai Lian'er's father, Bai Kun, who fell into Gu Changge's hand. But with his current ability, how could he be Gu Changge's opponent?

Not to mention rescuing Bai Kun, he couldn't even resist Gu Changge's current will.

Unless he subverted the rule of Empress Xi Yao and became the new master of the Demon World, everything would be in vain. Thinking of this, Jun Fan's expression changed slightly, and his heart began to struggle.

Bai Lian'er was his former childhood sweetheart, and Bai Kun was also an Elder who watched him grow up. Logically, he couldn't just see him die.

But now he couldn't do anything, so how could he leave the Demon World and go to the upper world to rescue Bai Kun?

Wasn't it hard for even many powerhouses?

"Don't be in a hurry to refuse. Although you are not Gu Changge's opponent now, it does not mean that you will not be in the future."

Seeing his expression, Bai Lian'er instantly understood what he was thinking, and could not help but say lightly, "At that time, your father asked my father to give you something when the time is right, but my father was taken care of. When Changge took him away, he handed it over to me and asked me to come to the Demon World to find you and give it to you."

Hearing this, Jun Fan's heart trembled slightly, he thought of what Xuan Yang Demon Emperor had told him, and said that someone would come to him and give him something.

At this moment, he had no doubts about Bai Lian'er's words.

"No problem, Lian'er, don't worry, your business is mine, and it is impossible for me to die without saving Uncle Bai Kun."

Thinking of this, Jun Fan breathed a sigh of relief and felt assured. He knew that if he didn't agree, Bai Lian'er would definitely not give that thing to him.

Hearing this, Bai Lian'er nodded with satisfaction, and then took out a bag from her sleeve. It looked extremely simple, without any patterns and formations, and the fabric was extremely simple, without any surprise.

This bag was the one that Gu Changge gave her.

On the way, she tried to open it but found that it also contained terrifying power.

If it was forcibly opened, not only this bag will be destroyed, but maybe even she will get injured.

"This is..."

The moment he saw this bag, Jun Fan was shaken in his heart, and a strong impulse was born, as if there was something in this bag that only belonged to him.

This feeling was extremely strong, and his complexion changed for a while, and he finally revealed a deep surprise.

"Thank you Lian'er. You didn't hesitate to take such a big risk and give this to me. I don't know how to repay you for this kindness."

Jun Fan said with a smile and planned to take it from Bai Lian'er, but Bai Lian'er sneered and didn't give it to him, but took it back.

"What do you mean, Lian'er?"

Jun Fan's expression froze slightly. He didn't expect to see Bai Lian'er, who used to be obedient, become like this after 6,000 years.

"I want you to swear with the heart of Dao, that you will rescue my father from Gu Changge, otherwise I will not give you this treasure."

Bai Lian'er looked at his expression, and her eyes flashed, she thought of Gu Changge's order and felt a little pitiful for Jun Fan.

The whole person was being toyed with in the palm of his hand, without knowing it.

Gu Changge had already known Jun Fan's true identity, but Jun Fan had no idea about it and even thought that he was in a safe position to win.

Hearing this, Jun Fan frowned. He didn't expect that Bai Lian'er didn't trust him, but this also dispelled the last doubt in his heart.

Afterward, he swore on his Dao heart, and after speaking, Bai Lian'er nodded with satisfaction and then handed the bag to him.

However, Jun Fan did not open the bag in front of Bai Lian'er.

Instead, he put it away carefully. Bai Lian'er didn't care about this either, Jun Fan was no longer the stupid kid over 6,000 years old.

Now he had the means and scheming talent, although he believed her words, he did not believe her.

"What are your plans now?"

After getting the bag, Jun Fan couldn't help asking, because he found that the current Bai Lian'er was very powerful, at least a Quasi-Supreme.

After getting in contact with such a strong person, he naturally had to find a way to use her for himself.

"I don't have any plans right now, I'm just waiting for you to rescue my father." Bai Lian'er said coldly.

Chapter 408-1: The Gate of Death and the Gate of Life, and the true identity of the son of the Demon Emperor is exposed (1)

Hearing Bai Lian'er say this, Jun Fan nodded and began to think about words in his heart, but at this moment, he suddenly noticed some subtle changes in the surrounding mountains and terrain.

"What is this?"

Bai Lian'er frowned and also noticed the change.

"Is that you? Bufan?"

A faint and ethereal voice sounded, and then entered the ears of Jun Fan and Bai Lian'er.

"This... this is Sister Ruoxi's voice. Is that you? Sister Ruoxi..."

Hearing this voice, Jun Fan was stunned for a moment, and then his face showed joy, and he couldn't help asking.

He was planning to find Jun Ruoxi's whereabouts, but he didn't expect that at this time, Jun Ruoxi took the initiative to find him.

Although he had not heard this voice in more than 6,000 years, he was too familiar with it.

"It's me, Sister Ruoxi. Where are you now?" Jun Fan's voice was filled with uncontrollable joy and excitement.

"You can find me by following the voice."

This ethereal voice sounded again, and it also contained a little excitement and joy.

"Jun Ruoxi."

Bai Lian'er's eyes changed slightly, then she followed behind Jun Fan to the source of the voice, and walked all the way.

At this time, in the depths of the forbidden area, there was a low blue stone ancient well, with a thick purple mist, which led directly to the depths of the ley lines.

And among them, there was a vague figure sitting cross-legged, floating up and down, as if cultivating, but also like self-styled in it.

This was a woman, motionless as if there was no vitality, her skin was as white as suet jade and her white hair was scattered, covering her face.

If there were cultivators here, they would definitely be shocked, because the spring water in this ancient bluestone well was a very rare divine spring, flowing with colorful clouds and the laws were chained and intertwined, which was very mysterious.

Moreover, the aura here was extremely chaotic and terrifying, even if a Sacred Realm cultivator stepped in, it would burst into powder in an instant, leaving nothing left.

In addition to this ancient well, there was also an amazing aura of life, like the legendary fountain of life. The white-haired woman closed her eyes tightly, motionless, but now she seemed to open her eyes.

Finally, two terrifying divine lights shot out from her eyes, golden and radiant, containing peerless divine might.

"Bufan, you are finally here. I waited for you six thousand years ago."

The woman's eyes became very soft, but her figure seemed to be unable to move, and she still sat cross-legged here.

"Sister Ruoxi, are you in this well?"

At this moment, Jun Fan's shocked voice arrived from outside. He looked for the voice and immediately found this place, but he only saw an ancient well and never saw Jun Ruoxi's figure, which made him very shocked.

Behind him, Bai Lian'er, was holding a crystal-clear image stone under her sleeve, and quietly imprinted many pictures of this place on it.

She found that this ancient well was extraordinary, it seemed to have endless vitality, the immortal energy was transpiring, and even her cultivation base had some signs of loosening.

One must know that she was at the peak of the Quasi-Supreme Realm. In this realm, she had not made a breakthrough for many years. Now, because of a well, she felt a mysterious change.

This shocked her heart.

What was hidden in this well? Was Jun Ruoxi hiding in it?

"I'm here, Bufan, don't get close to this place now, with your current cultivation, you can't do this."

Hearing Jun Fan's words, Jun Ruoxi in the well opened her mouth and her eyes were soft. Although she was looking at the void in front of her, her eyes seemed to fall on Jun Fan's face.

"I know, sister."

Jun Fan nodded, but his heart was still shaking, and he also felt the mystery of this ancient well.

And soon, he remembered the important matter of coming here this time and wanted to warn Jun Ruoxi to be careful.

However, before he could say anything, Jun Ruoxi shook his head and said, "I already know what you are about to say, they won't be able to find me here unless it's the person I want to see, it's impossible to see me. When I made a contract with Xi Yao, it was just to delay her. I know you have some doubts in your heart, but now it is difficult for me to explain anything to you. As long as you know, you can only open the gate with the key. As for the gate, you can find your father and ask him the truth in person."

"There's not much I can tell you."

Jun Fan heard the words, and his heart was shaken. Could it be that something happened more than 6,000 years ago, and what other secrets could not be known?

He was poisoned by Xi Yao, and then he came back to life again. In fact, there were other hidden secrets.

"The key, what is that? And the door you mentioned, sister, where is it?"

There were too many doubts in Jun Fan's heart at this time, and his mind was very confused.

"I think father has given you the key. As for the Gate of Death, I don't know where it is. Only those who hold the key can find the Gate of Death." Jun Ruoxi said slowly.

"Gate of Life, Gate of Death, could it be that the ancient well where you are now, sister, is the Gate of Life?"

Jun Fan couldn't help but ask, and suddenly remembered a sentence he had heard from his father, the Gate of Death and the Gate of Life.

At that time, he also specifically asked him, but the father just smiled without saying a word and did not explain. Now it seemed that these two things were closely related.

Hearing this, Jun Ruoxi nodded and said, "You are right, and now I am in charge of guarding the Gate of Life. I can't leave this place for half a step until the Gate of Life is opened."

"There's not much time left for me now. You need to find your father quickly. He should have something very important to tell you."

Hearing these words, Bai Lian'er's heart became even deeper. She knew that there were rumors in the Demon World that there were two portals between heaven and earth, one was the Gate of Life and the other was the Gate of Death.

These two portals were arranged by the Supreme existence of the demon race in the most ancient period. Among them, there were countless formations, which were mysterious and unpredictable, and ordinary people would undoubtedly die if they entered by mistake.

And these two portals were also related to the biggest secret of the Demon World. She was suddenly very curious, Jun Ruoxi obviously knew something.

The Six Emperors disappeared, and now it seemed that there was still another secret.

In other words, her father's escape for so many years, and even the death of her mother, was actually related to the Six Emperors.

Moreover, her father even foolishly regarded the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor as his brother, helped him keep the treasure for more than 6,000 years, and finally let herself send it to Jun Bufan.

The six thousand years of hiding and chasing were really ironic. Thinking of this, Bai Lian'er's expression became even colder.

After that, Jun Fan and Jun Ruoxi were separated by an ancient well, and they began to reminisce about the past, telling about their experiences over the years. Bai Lian'er watched all this with cold eyes and tightened the jade hand holding the image stone.

She was a little worried just now that she would be noticed by Jun Ruoxi. Fortunately, the jade pendant her father left was finally reliable, and Jun Ruoxi did not notice her secret movement.

Bai Lian'er's eyes were faint.

Just now, Jun Fan was still hesitating about whether to save her father or not, never thinking about why this happened.

Compared with Gu Changge's indifference and hypocrisy, Jun Fan made her feel more disgusted.

Afterward, Jun Fan and Jun Ruoxi separated and they went to find the Heavenly King of Chaos. According to his request, Bai Lian'er hid in the void and did not show up.

At the same time, she differentiated a dharma body and handed this image stone to Gu Changge, which was considered to have completed what Gu Changge explained.

The matter of clearing and suppressing this restricted area ended naturally without incident. The King of Chaos led many large armies to search inside and out, but they could not find any trace of Jun Ruoxi and Jun Bufan. In the end, they could only return without success.

He felt that Jun Ruoxi and Jun Bufan had probably heard the wind and fled before he came here.

Although he was disappointed, there was no accident. After all, the two of them were not stupid, so how could they stay there and wait for others to kill them?

However, Jun Fan did not return to the imperial capital with the army. He planned to find the Gate of Death first. According to Jun Ruoxi, his father, Emperor, left him the key to unlocking the Gate.

Only with this key could he find the Gate to Death.

As for where the key would be, he actually already had a guess in his mind.

During this process, he opened the bag that Demon Emperor Xuan Yang had left for him. After learning the message left in it, he was stunned for a long time, unable to regain his senses. In the end, his mood was extremely complicated, and his heart was full of mixed feelings.

Happy? anger? Unwilling? Dazed... There were all kinds of emotions.

He finally let out a long sigh. If things were as stated in the bag, all of this was just a misunderstanding, then what was the point of his revenge?

Chapter 408-2: The Gate of Death and the Gate of Life, and the true identity of the son of the Demon Emperor is exposed (2)

.....

"Reporting to Your Majesty, I led the troops to clear the restricted area for a week, but Jun Ruoxi and Jun Bufan have not been found. I suspected that they had already escaped and had no choice but to come back. I was late..."

"I also hope that Her Majesty the Empress will forgive me."

In the splendid palace, the King of Chaos, who had returned from the restricted area, was now reporting the results of the incident.

Empress Xi Yao was wearing a phoenix robe, sitting on top place. Hearing his words, her face was very uncertain, she seemed to be angry, but more of it was cold.

She said nothing.

Everyone in the hall looked very solemn, cold sweat broke out on their foreheads, and they didn't dare to breathe. They felt that Empress Xi Yao was in a bad mood.

Even the Demon Master, Marshal Zhenguo, and others remained silent, watching the development of the situation.

The forehead of the King of Chaos also oozed with cold sweat. In his opinion, this was because of his ineffectiveness, which made Her Majesty the Empress angry.

"Come here, take down the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos, place him in prison, and at the same time arrest everyone from the Palace of Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos. Those who violate the order will be killed without mercy."

In the next moment, Empress Xi Yao's icy voice suddenly ordered, which contained undoubted iron blood and murderous intent.

Boom!!

Hearing this, everyone in the hall was stunned for a while, and then there was a bang in their heads as if they had been hit by a huge hammer as their head turned blank.

Their eyes widened and their faces changed drastically, unable to believe that Her Majesty the Empress said this in person.

One must know that the King of Chaos was her most powerful subordinate, like a sharp blade, invincible in all attacks, and had cleared many obstacles for her.

Empress Xi Yao could have such an achievement today, it could be said that the King of Chaos was indispensable. But now, she actually wanted to punish the King of Chaos for such a trivial matter?

And also harm the whole government?

This kind of punishment, even in the past six thousand years, had only happened a few times, and it was still the kind of big crime of betrayal and collusion with the remnants of the five Emperors.

Could it be that the Heavenly King of Chaos was high-strung the master, and took the opportunity to beat it, or what?

"Your Majesty, I don't know..."

The complexion of the King of Chaos also changed suddenly, and he almost doubted whether he heard it wrong. If he was punished for such a trivial matter, it would be unreasonable.

"See for yourself."

Empress Xi Yao seemed to have regained her composure at this moment, and when she heard the words, she threw a crystal clear image stone in front of the King of Chaos.

Filled with doubts, the King of Chaos picked it up and injected his energy into it.

However, immediately after seeing the picture, he reacted, and with a swipe, his face suddenly lost all blood and turned pale.

Clang!

His fingers trembled, and the image stone could not be held firmly, and it fell directly to the ground.

"How is this possible..."

The King of Chaos trembled, unable to believe his eyes.

Based on his cultivation realm, he naturally knew whether the picture in this image stone was true or false. This scene made everyone in the hall shudder.

Someone saw the picture just now, and although it only flashed by, they saw it clearly and knew what it meant.

After the shock, the expressions they looked at the King of Chaos were already full of sympathy, emotion, and other complexities.

"How could things become like this..." The Demon Master sighed.

Who would have thought that Jun Fan, the third son of the King of Chaos, would still have such an identity? This was simply terrifying.

"What else do you have to say?"

Empress Xi Yao's face was cold, "You have disappointed me too much."

The Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos had a dejected and unbelievable look on his face. In the end, he could only laugh bitterly and slumped to the ground. Regardless of whether it had anything to do with him or not, the foundation he had built for thousands of years was now ruined.

"I didn't even know about this..."

Until now, the mind of the King of Chaos was still a bit dazed and unbelievable.

The true identity of his third son, Jun Fan, turned out to be Jun Bufan, the son of the Demon Emperor Xuan Yang from six thousand years ago. This news was really shocking.

In the main hall, many ministers had different expressions, and they never expected him to be involved in this matter.

"No wonder Jun Ruoxi disappeared in the restricted area... It seems that Jun Bufan notified her to leave..."

Everyone was shocked and felt that Jun Fan was hiding too deeply, even hiding it for so many years.

Some time ago, the assassination of Empress Xi Yao seemed to be Jun Fan's plan.

Everyone felt chills on their backs. If Empress Xi Yao hadn't suddenly come up with evidence today, they would have been kept in the dark without knowing it.

Later, the King of Chaos was detained. As a Quasi-Supreme existence, if he wanted to, he could definitely break free.

But if he did this, he would really be in the same group as Jun Bufan, so he didn't dare to act rashly and was honestly imprisoned.

"Today's affairs are not allowed to be spread out, and those who violate the order will be dealt with as the crime of collusion and betrayal."

Empress Xi Yao glanced at everyone coldly as she left the hall.

"Congratulations, Your Majesty."

The Demon Master and the others all smiled bitterly and looked at each other, not daring to go against the will of Her Majesty the Empress. If this kind of thing spread out, it would cause a huge sensation.

However, the fact that everyone in the Heavenly Palace of Peace and Chaos was sent to the Heavenly Prison was no trivial matter, and anyone with a heart would definitely guess it.

At the same time, in the other side hall, Gu Changge was drinking tea slowly, looking quite leisurely and content.

There was still a vague figure standing in front of him. From the appearance, it was no different from Bai Lian'er. It was her dharma body, and she was answering Gu Changge.

"That's the way it is. If you don't believe me, I have nothing to do." Bai Lian'er said lightly.

She also brought back the image stone.

"Miss Lian'er is joking, how could I not believe you?" Gu Changge smiled upon hearing this.

"The Gate of Life, the Gate of Death, the key... It seems that the secrets of the Demon World will soon surface."

"If Jun Bufan was a little smarter, he should have found out that you betrayed him, but I have already told Xi Yao to strictly forbid many ministers from spreading the matter, so she should be able to hide it for a while, Jun Bufan will not doubt you for the time being." Gu Changge said immediately.

"Then do I still have to thank you for thinking of me?" Bai Lian'er sneered.

Gu Changge shook his head slightly and said, "You don't need to be polite, Miss Lian'er, there is no need for us to do this."

Bai Lian'er rolled her eyes at him, too lazy to say anything more to him.

At this time, footsteps arrived from outside the hall, and Empress Xi Yao entered. She recognized Bai Lian'er at a glance, and she was an acquaintance after all.

In her eyes, the former Bai Lian'er was just Jun Bufan's follower, weak and pitiful, and meddlesome. It was hard to connect with this enchanting woman with a cold temperament today.

"I have already imprisoned the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos in the Heavenly Prison according to your request, and the same goes for his family members."

She made a long story short, and after looking at Bai Lian'er, she withdrew her gaze.

On the other hand, Bai Lian'er was too lazy to look at her, and treated her as a stranger she didn't know. If it weren't for Gu Changge's relationship, she would not have appeared in the palace.

"I see." Gu Changge nodded without explaining anything.

Although Empress Xi Yao was a little puzzled, she didn't ask any more questions.

In her opinion, the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos absolutely did not know Jun Fan's true identity. The so-called ignorant was innocent, and she could not be angry at the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos because of such a thing.

Over the years, the King of Chaos had made great contributions to the stability of her dynasty. She was not someone who would cross rivers and demolish bridges.

However, since it was Gu Changge who requested that the Heavenly King of Chaos and his family be detained, she naturally complied.

"How did you ask Bai Lian'er to do things for you?"

However, Empress Xi Yao still had doubts in her heart. As far as she knew, the relationship between Bai Lian'er and Jun Bufan was like a brother and sister.

How could Bai Lian'er betray Jun Bufan, respond to Gu Changge, and provide her with the image stone?

"Naturally, it's because Miss Lian'er is smart and rational. She doesn't want to help someone abuse his power." Gu Changge replied with a smile.

"It's natural because this guy threatened me with my father's life..."

Bai Lian'er hehe interrupted Gu Changge, looked at Empress Xi Yao and said lightly, "Otherwise, do you really think I will be kind to help you?"

When Empress Xi Yao heard these words, she had an expected look.

Chapter 409-1: Gu Changges final plan, An indispensable existence (1)

"Father, quickly tell me this is not true, how could Xiao Fan be..."

In the Heavenly Prison, all the family members of the Heavenly King's Mansion were imprisoned. Including the wife of the King of Chaos, the eldest son Jun Ping, the second daughter Jun Yao, and the rest of the top executives of the Jun family.

At first, everyone was stunned and confused. They didn't know what was going on. Suddenly, the army broke in and surrounded the palace. Then everyone was detained in the Heavenly Prison.

Here, they met the King of Peace and Chaos, the backbone of the Palace of Peace and Chaos.

But he seemed to have suddenly aged several decades. He looked extremely depressed with the vicissitudes of life, his face was full of sadness, and his brows had never been stretched.

"It's true, Her Majesty the Empress got evidence of Xiao Fan's betrayal through some means. Now all the civil and military officials of the dynasty already know about it. The glory of our Jun family will not reappear after today."

When the King of Peace and Chaos heard Jun Yao's words, he couldn't help but glance at her and sigh. His expression was deeply depressed and helpless.

Until now, there was still a groan in his head, and he could not react. What happened today had hit him too hard.

The King of Chaos was both helpless and angry, but Jun Fan was secretly planning to assassinate Her Majesty the Empress behind their backs.

Once this kind of thing was exposed, it would destroy the Jun family and the Palace of Peace and Chaos!

"How is it possible? Xiao Fan admires Her Majesty the Empress, how could he do such a thing... Is there any misunderstanding in this?"

Jun Yao's face turned pale, her voice trembled and she couldn't believe the exact answer.

In her impression, Jun Fan was a confident and steady young man. Although he was a little arrogant at times, in comparison to his talent and cultivation, it was nothing.

It was absolutely impossible for him to do such a thing, especially hiding it from all of them.

"Xiao Fan is hiding a lot from me."

Jun Fan's eldest brother Jun Ping opened his mouth and sighed deeply.

Judging from his appearance, he was extremely burly and tall, like the King of Chaos, with an aura like a gangster.

The rest of the senior members of the Jun family were also shocked at the moment, and their hearts were palpated because of this news.

Before that, they never thought that Jun Fan's hidden identity would be Jun Bufan, the former son of Xuan Yang Demon Emperor.

Many people couldn't help but feel resentment toward Jun Fan. He didn't even care about them after such a big event that affected the whole family.

No wonder Jun Fan did not return to the imperial capital this time but made an excuse to leave. It seemed that he already knew the reason and used this to avoid disaster.

Of course, there were also many people speculating that the real Jun Fan was actually dead, and that the person occupying his body now was actually a person from more than 6,000 years ago.

"That's it, no need to say more. Let's see how Her Majesty the Empress will deal with it now. If she loses her anger, maybe she will go easy on us. I think Her Majesty the Empress will also be angry."

"My loyalty to her can be seen from the sun and the moon. Her Majesty the Empress is not an unreasonable person."

Soon, the King of Peace and Chaos waved his hand and uttered, calming everyone down.

However, he was not sure about Empress Xi Yao's final attitude.

After all, the matter involved was really too big. If Gu Changge hadn't suddenly come to the Demon World, Her Majesty the Empress would definitely be facing far more ominous risk to her life.

Of course, he was angry because of Jun Fan's betrayal and concealment. With this kind of thing being discovered, it would definitely bring disaster to the whole family.

"How can things suddenly become like this in one day..."

Jun Yao's lips were pale and her hands were clenched tightly. She was still taking care of the flower tea planted, and planned to wait for the next time she saw Gu Changge, to let him taste it.

Now that she was in prison, she didn't know how things would develop next. From the daughter of the noble king of chaos to a prisoner, her life and death were unpredictable.

This huge gap left her at a loss for a while.

However, she was not an ordinary person, so she quickly calmed herself down. There was no use in worrying about this kind of thing.

She didn't want to blame Jun Fan. Judging from his usual actions, Jun Fan didn't show anything unusual. But how could he become the son of the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor, Jun Bufan, who had been dead for 6,000 years?

Just when everyone in the Jun family was gloomy, footsteps suddenly sounded outside the Heavenly Prison. The complexions of many prison guards changed, and they lowered their heads and looked respectful.

A black-clothed man arrived, with a detached and mysterious temperament, with an innate nobility.

"Young Master Changge..."

Jun Yao's face was slightly startled because she didn't expect to see Gu Changge there.

Did he come to visit her in the prison after knowing her situation? Thinking of this, Jun Yao's heart couldn't help beating fast, and her face turned a little shy.

Many members of the Jun family also watched this scene in shock, and then they all saluted across the heavenly prison, "Greetings, Young Master Changge..."

"Greetings, Young Master Changge." The King of Chaos also displayed joy on his face and hurriedly saluted.

In his opinion, Gu Changge's visit was related to his daughter Jun Yao.

It seemed that some time ago after his daughter had contact with Gu Changge, she did get on his good side, and even made Gu Changge visit her in person at this place.

This brought hope to the mind of the King of Chaos. In today's Demon World, if there was one person who could save him, it was definitely Gu Changge.

Even the grandfather who taught Her Majesty the Empress since childhood would never dare to touch Her Majesty's bad head at this juncture.

But Gu Changege was different.

He had a close relationship with Empress Xi Yao and was also Empress Xi Yao's savior. If he came forward in person, Empress Xi Yao would definitely agree.

"Young Master Changege, why are you here?"

A haze appeared on Jun Yao's jade face, and she looked at him shyly.

Gu Changege nodded slightly, glanced at the many members of the Jun family, his face seemed to be a little clear, and then said to her, "I just learned about this from Xi Yao, I thought it might be some kind of misunderstanding, but I also looked at the image stone..."

Having said that, he sighed and did not continue.

The expressions of everyone in the Jun family darkened, and they naturally knew what Gu Changege meant.

Since he said that Jun Fan was the son of the Xuan Yang Demon Emperor, it was already a certain and unchangeable fact.

Jun Yao's expression was also a little sad, she shook her head and said, "I'm sorry Young Master Changege, I made you worry."

Gu Changege shook his head slightly and said, "You don't have to be polite, Miss Jun Yao, and you don't have to worry. I believe that when Xi Yao's anger subsides after a while, you will be released."

Hearing this, everyone in the Jun family felt a little relieved, and the King of Chaos also showed joy. Since even Gu Changege said so personally, then Empress Xi Yao will definitely let them go in the end.

"Mmmm, I'm sorry, Young Master Changege, you had to visit me personally because of this kind of thing..."

Hearing what Gu Changege said, Jun Yao was also a little at ease, her voice was shy, and her face was a little red.

"I don't want you to worry too much either, don't worry, with me around, you will be fine." Gu Changege smiled.

After that, he nodded slightly toward the King of Chaos and the others, then turned around and walked out of the prison without staying for long.

"Uh-huh....."

Jun Yao's heart was pounding because of Gu Changege's words. Her head was dizzy, she watched Gu Changege leave, until she couldn't see a trace of his figure, and then she came back to her senses.

"Thanks to you, Yao'er. Without you, your father really wouldn't know what to do this time..."

"Tell me, how far have you and Young Master Changge proceeded, for him to come to see you personally? Why didn't you tell my father about such an important matter as Yao'er before..."

The King of Chaos looked at Jun Yao with a look of joy and added.

In his opinion, even though Jun Yao usually had a somewhat arrogant temperament.

But her appearance needed absolutely no explanation, in the huge imperial capital, apart from Her Majesty the Empress, the only person who could compare with her was Song Youwei.

What was more, after hearing that Gu Changge liked to drink tea, Jun Yao studied this method deeply, and it was not impossible to win Gu Changge's love.

Hearing this, Jun Yao said in a panic, "Father, what nonsense are you talking about, I just have some research on the tea ceremony, and it happens that Young Master Changge is interested in this. It is not what you imagined, otherwise, with my appearance, How can I get into the eyes of Young Master Changge?"

Even so, she was still a little overjoyed.

In this regard, the King of Peace and Chaos just smiled nonchalantly, "I know, I know, my daughter is thin-skinned, but the closer your relationship with Young Master Changge is, the better."

Chapter 409-2: Gu Changges final plan, An indispensable existence (2)

If Jun Yao could become his concubine, even if he was not the King of Peace and Chaos, in this huge Demon World, the Jun family would be able to instantly become one of the best wealthy families, and even Empress Xi Yao would have to give him face.

Of course, he could only think about this from his ancestral grave.

In terms of Jun Yao's identity, even if she was high up, she was still not qualified.

What he thought was that if Jun Yao had a relationship with Gu Changge and got a child or something, in terms of the power of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, they would definitely not let the descendants of their direct line be left behind.

In this way, his family would naturally be able to climb that level.

At this moment, everyone in the Jun family looked at Jun Yao with admiration. Judging from Gu Changge's attitude towards her just now, it was enough to show that Jun Yao had a heavy weight in his heart.

Otherwise, with Gu Changge's status, how could he be condescending enough to come to such a place.

Outside the Heavenly Prison, Empress Xi Yao was already here waiting for Gu Changge. After seeing him come out, she couldn't help but ask, "Are you going to use the Jun family to find Jun Bufan?"

She could see Gu Changge's intention clearly.

Gu Changge glanced at her and said casually, "No, the Jun family can't find Jun Bufan. Even if he knew about it, he wouldn't care. Do you think Jun Bufan would care about the lives of everyone in the Jun family??"

Hearing this, Empress Xi Yao nodded thoughtfully and said, "Then what is your purpose for doing this?"

If Jun Bufan cared about the life and death of Jun's family, then he naturally would not use this identity to plot and try to assassinate her.

"My purpose in doing this is naturally to help you solve troubles." Gu Changge smiled and said.

Empress Xi Yao stared at him, and finally stopped asking more. Since Gu Changge didn't want to say more, it was useless for her to ask.

Moreover, Gu Changge's capture of Jun Bufan, for her, was indeed helping her solve the trouble.

The fact that the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos was detained along with the whole family caused a lot of uproar in the imperial capital. Many people speculated that the Heavenly King of Peace and Chaos was ineffective in his work, and he was suppressed by Her Majesty the Empress.

However, this kind of thing couldn't cause a big sensation in the huge nine domains of the Demon World.

It was just like a small pebble thrown into the lake, which caused a little wave, and soon returned to calm.

In the next few days, Gu Changge would visit Jun Yao from time to time in Heavenly Prison, making her feel that she was quite concerned about her affairs.

In addition to the gratitude of everyone in the Jun family, they were greatly relieved and felt that the time to see the sun again was not far away.

Then, seeing that the time was finally up, Gu Changge walked over with a heavy face, frowning, and at the same time ordered someone to release Jun Yao.

Jun Yao was surprised, but she was more puzzled about why he only released her and didn't care about her clan.

"Young Master Changge, what's going on?"

Jun Yao was puzzled, especially when Gu Changge seemed to be in a heavy mood.

Gu Changge looked at her and sighed softly,

"In this period of time, I have already investigated clearly. Jun Fan is no longer the one he used to be. He should have been taken over by the son of the Demon Emperor from six thousand years ago."

"What!"

Jun Yao's face turned pale when she heard these words, although she had guessed this possibility. But hearing it from Gu Changge's mouth was like a thunderbolt, which made her heart tremble, and she couldn't bear the sadness.

"Xi Yao is still angry, and I can't persuade her, but after thinking about it, she decided to give you a chance to wash away your crimes."

Gu Changge glanced at Jun Yao, and then said again.

Jun Yao endured the grief in her heart and couldn't help asking, "What does Her Majesty want us to do?"

If it was the previous Jun Fan, he would never be able to do such a thing that would put his family in danger. So she also knew that the current Jun Fan was actually not the original Jun Fan, he was just wearing a layer of Jun Fan's skin. That was it.

Her real younger brother was taken over by Jun Bufan, the son of the Demon Emperor who died 6,000 years ago!

She would avenge this no matter what!

"Xi Yao feels that Jun Fan is secretly planning a major event to disrupt the Demon World. Now maybe only you can stop this... In fact, I don't want you to take this risk." Gu Changge said with some helplessness.

Jun Yao had calmed down at this moment, and she said firmly, "I am not afraid of danger. As long as I can rescue my family and avenge my brother, I will do anything."

Gu Changge sighed, and then took out a crystal clear jade talisman flowing with divine light from his sleeve, and said, "If that's the case, then I don't need to persuade Miss Jun Yao any more. Crush the jade talisman, as long as you crush this thing, if you encounter danger, you should be able to save your life. Moreover, after you crush this jade talisman, I can sense your position and can come as soon as possible to save you."

Seeing this, Jun Yao was stunned for a moment, and then she was filled with infinite emotion and took over the jade talisman.

"I see, Young Master Changge is so kind and virtuous, Jun Yao doesn't know what to do in return."

Gu Changge waved his hand, and then said cautiously, "Miss Jun Yao doesn't have to do this, this is also a gift for tea that day, this matter is very important. I will talk to you in detail later, you must remember and keep that in mind, or you will endanger your life."

"You have to know that the current Jun Fan is no longer the younger brother you knew before. Once his interests are at stake, he will not consider you and the family behind you."

Jun Yao nodded heavily, with a solemn expression.

Afterward, Gu Changge started to tell her what to do according to the original plan.

Jun Yao now had no doubts about his words. Although it sounded a little troublesome, as long as she didn't reveal any flaw, there was no problem.

"I know, don't worry, Young Master Changge."

Gu Changge smiled and said, "Then be careful."

After that, he took Jun Yao away from the imperial capital and waited for a figure to arrive at the place that had been calculated.

In Gu Changge's plan, Jun Yao had to play a very important role, and it was even a matter of success.

Since the Gate of Life was now guarded by Jun Bufan's sister Jun Ruoxi, then this Gate of Death would definitely be found by Jun Bufan, let alone the key in his hand.

Gu Changge intended to find the Gate of Death through Jun Bufan, and before that, he couldn't be scared.

.....

"Father, is what you said true?"

At this moment, Song Youwei's eyes widened in Demon King's mansion, feeling a little unbelievable.

When the Demon Master heard these words, he let out a long sigh, and replied, "I didn't believe it at the time, but the image stone can't be faked."

Although Her Majesty the Empress had instructed not to spread the matter, she couldn't stand Song Youwei's stubbornness.

He could only tell her about it.

However, Song Youwei was very smart and would not spread this kind of thing casually, so he was quite relieved.

"So that's the reason." Song Youwei was still in disbelief and looked in a trance.

She hesitated in her heart before finally sighing deeply. Just now, she also received a message from Jun Fan, saying that he had found a ruin and invited her to go with him.

Song Youwei had a deep understanding of the formation runes, and she was not shallow in the study of ancient relics. She was also very interested in these.

Many times Jun Fan would invite her to go with him. But now, when she heard the news suddenly, it really shook her heart, and she was confused for a while, not knowing what to do.

Jun Fan was actually Jun Bufan?

The son of the Demon Emperor from six thousand years ago, the fiancé who was poisoned to death by Her Majesty the Empress?

That was to say, some time ago, the assassination of the top of the sacred mountain was actually planned by Jun Fan, and now the Heavenly King's Palace of Peace and Chaos was implicated because of his relationship.

No wonder she always felt that Jun Fan's expression was a little strange at that time, so there was such a reason.

"Father, I won't tell anyone about this, but I'm going out for a while..."

Afterwards, Song Youwei calmed down and said to the Demon Master.

She still decided to find Jun Fan and personally ask him the reason. She didn't believe that Jun Fan was a wicked person, now that the Demon World was peaceful, stable and prosperous.

Her Majesty the Empress could be said to have contributed.

Did Jun Fan really intended to destroy all this, or was it just to take revenge on Her Majesty the Empress from 6,000 years ago?

For many things, she had to personally ask Jun Fan.

Demon Master frowned, looking at Song Youwei's expression, he vaguely guessed what she was thinking.

Song Youwei and Jun Fan had a very close relationship. It was impossible for her not to worry or care about such a big matter.

Chapter 410-1: The big net is up, Wont Miss Ruoxi show up? (1)

"You're so old, and I advise you on many things, but you probably won't listen to them. You have your own opinions."

"But you have to know that this matter is of great importance. I feel that Her Majesty the Empress is just a pawn. The one who really wants to attack Jun Bufan is actually Gu Changge."

"So you have to think carefully about the terrifying consequences... Once you get involved in this kind of vortex, everything can shatter at every turn."

Demon Master sighed, knowing that he couldn't persuade her, but as a father, he had to explain many things to her, worried that she would regret it because of impulsiveness.

"Father, I got it. Don't worry, I have my own way."

Song Youwei nodded solemnly. From the first time she saw Gu Changge, she felt that the perfection he showed was really unreal.

How could there be such a perfect person in this world?

This so-called perfection was naturally a disguise revealed to outsiders. No one knew what the real Gu Changge was like.

Afterward, Song Youwei hurriedly left the imperial capital and rushed to the agreed place according to the message left by Jun Fan. However, in the forest outside the imperial capital, she encountered someone, which surprised her.

She had tried her best to avoid the cultivators of the imperial capital and enter the remote mountains and forests, how could she meet any acquaintance here?

Looking at the other party's appearance, it seemed that she was also avoiding something, with a sad expression on her face.

Thinking of this, Song Youwei took the initiative to show up, walked towards the other party, and asked, "Sister Jun Yao, why are you here?"

This person was Jun Fan's second sister Jun Yao, and Song Youwei was fairly familiar with her.

Jun Yao didn't seem to expect to see Song Youwei here, she was a little surprised, and then hurriedly said, "Youwei, why are you here? Do you know what happened in the imperial capital? I heard rumors that my father and others were imprisoned by them in the Heavenly Prison... What's going on?"

Hearing this, Song Youwei was stunned at first and then sighed in her heart. It seemed that Jun Yao was not in the imperial capital when this happened, so she escaped.

And when she heard the news of the imperial capital, she didn't dare to show up, so she could only hide in the deep mountains and ancient forests and happened to meet her.

"I don't know what happened. Her Majesty the Empress seems to be furious because of this incident, but I don't know exactly what happened. By the way, why are you here?"

Song Youwei sighed and pointed to a pavilion not far away, "Let's go there and talk in detail."

Jun Yao's face was gloomy, and she said in pain, "I don't know what's going on. I left the imperial capital and planned to go to find a flower tea, and then I heard about it on the way back to the imperial capital. How could this be? I don't know how Xiao Fan is doing now."

Song Youwei felt sympathy and felt that Jun Yao was also a pitiful person. But she was also hesitating whether to tell her the truth of this matter.

'Forget it, let her ask Jun Fan in person about this matter. I'm an outsider, so it's not easy for me to intervene.'

Thinking of this, she still chose to hide it.

Later, Song Youwei only told Jun Yao that Jun Fan invited her to explore a ruin, but did not say anything else, but after hearing this, Jun Yao hesitated and decided to go to Jun Fan with her.

In this regard, Song Youwei would naturally not refuse. The two of them quickly went on their way.

After watching the figures of the two gradually disappear, a figure in Immortal clothes walked out of the void.

"I just said that Song Youwei has so many Luck points, how can she be like an unrelated person? I wonder what role she would play in this incident."

Gu Changge was a little interested, and things had come to this point.

He had already weaved an invisible large net and was waiting for the last moment to close the net.

In this big game of the Demon World, he had already made a move, how would the Six Emperors come to pick it up?

.....

At this moment, Jun Fan, who was a million miles away from the imperial capital, was in a remote area with mountains and ravines.

The aura here was very strange, and there was a black wind whistling in the air.

The monstrous black wind swept in as the heavy fog turned mighty, covering the world. The sky was dark, and no other colors could be seen.

I wonder what kind of energy this black gale is made of. It may be laws, or it may be a broken divinity. This kind of aura is very strange, alternating between cold and hot, and it is all-pervasive.

"Sure enough, just like what the father said, the laws of heaven and earth ahead have changed, which are completely different from the local laws of the Demon World."

Jun Fan said to himself, when he took a step, there was a rumbling sound from his body, and he used the secret treasure to counter this aura, which was shocking.

He felt that the Gate of Death was actually here.

There were many dangerous places in the Demon World, and this place was once known as the Heavenly Extinction for strangers. Even the soil was blood-red, black clouds rolled, and the scene was terrifying.

There were rumors that this place was transformed after a being from the mysterious Nine Heavens' Burial Ground fell a long time ago.

"The place where the corpse flower grows is full of death... The Gate to Death is most likely here."

However, Jun Fan did not enter rashly. Because there were many fierce runes in this place, there was a Quasi-Supreme who tried to go to this place to attack the Supreme Realm but got lost here.

When he was finally discovered, he had already turned into a dead bone.

He planned to wait for Song Youwei to come over, because Song Youwei had studied these things a lot, and she even got the inheritance of a Demon World power.

That Demon World power, who once set up a great formation of gods, killed a Quasi-Emperor Realm creature that came from the Upper World.

Apart from him, very few people knew about it.

"If Youwei comes here, things should go a lot smoother."

Jun Fan's eyes flickered, he knew where the key Jun Ruoxi said was hidden now. It was in his sea of ??consciousness!

Back then, his imperial father gave him the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword, but he didn't say anything about the key, because the time had not come.

In the past few days, after Jun Fan entered the Sea of ??Consciousness space and searched again, he finally found the unsurprising key in the corner.

"Are you so sure that the Gate of Death your sister said is here?"

In the void, a deep black smoke drifted past and then turned into the figure of Bai Lian'er.

As a mirage, her body was this smoky substance, illusory and hard to find. She looked at the red ground in front of her and asked lightly.

Jun Fan glanced at her and said with a smile, "I can't be wrong."

There was another reason why he didn't say much. Because of the key, he could feel the specialty of this place.

But at this moment, Jun Fan's face suddenly changed, and a communication talisman in his arms lit up.

His spiritual sense penetrated, and after reading the message, he was a little shocked at first, and then his face quickly turned gloomy.

"What's wrong?" Bai Lian'er asked, seeing his strangeness.

Jun Fan looked at her coldly and said, "You betrayed me?"

Bai Lian'er sneered, then looked at him lightly and said, "I'm not your person, how can you say that I betrayed you?"

"You..." Jun Fan's heart surged with anger, his fists clenched tightly, he never imagined that his childhood sweetheart would give him such a show at this time.

He did not expect that during the period of his absence, everyone in the Heavenly King's Mansion would be imprisoned.

If he hadn't installed any observer outside the imperial capital, he probably wouldn't know that such a big thing happened.

Since the last assassination failed, Empress Xi Yao had carried out a major cleanup inside and outside the imperial capital. Many of his observers had been removed, and he could not immediately know what happened in the imperial capital.

In Jun Fan's view, the occurrence of such a thing showed that Empress Xi Yao definitely already knew his true identity and had sufficient evidence.

And the person who could provide this evidence to Empress Xi Yao, apart from Bai Lian'er in front of him, there could hardly be anyone.

"Did Xi Yao tell you to do this?"

Jun Fan's face was very ugly, he was extremely vigilant, and many of his life-saving backhands were ready to sacrifice at any time to fight against Bai Lian'er.

Chapter 410-2: The big net is up, Wont Miss Ruoxi show up? (2)

Bai Lian'er didn't answer, just looked at him with pity, and said, "It's already come to this, and you don't even know who is my master? You are really pitiful."

"Is it Gu Changge?!"

Jun Fan reacted and almost gritted his teeth. He hated this person who destroyed his plan over and over again.

"Looks like you're not stupid. Don't worry, I don't plan to fight you, so put away your means. You should have never offended someone you shouldn't offend, Jun Bufan, I'm looking forward to the scene where Gu Changge kills you..."

Boom!!

In the next moment, accompanied by a burst of creepy laughter, Bai Lian'er's figure turned into a deep black mist and instantly dissipated in place without a trace.

"Damn it, I won't let you go."

Jun Fan's face was gloomy, and his fists clenched tightly.

A pale golden paper page with many dense divine patterns flowing on it, containing unparalleled divine might, was hidden in his sleeves, ready to be sacrificed at any time.

If Bai Lian'er hadn't left just now, he would have already attacked.

This was one of his trump cards, even if Bai Lian'er's cultivation base was unfathomable, he still had the confidence to fight her to the death.

"When Bai Lian'er brought the bag to me, she felt uneasy and kind, that bag might have been manipulated by Gu Changge, even if he couldn't open it, if he left a brand or something, he could find my whereabouts..."

Jun Fan was very cautious, and then began to find a way to remove many auras from his body, and at the same time used many secret treasures to cover up his deeds.

After his identity was exposed, Empress Xi Yao would never let him go. Once his position was determined, she would definitely send troops to hunt him down.

He was absolutely certain of this.

Then, Jun Fan turned into a divine light and ran into the red land, intending to investigate the location of the Gate of Death while waiting for Song Youwei's arrival.

Although Song Youwei was informed of his whereabouts, he believed that in terms of Song Youwei's character and person, he would not be exposed.

In today's huge Demon World, there were not many people who could make him trust so much, but Song Youwei was definitely one of them!

"Sister is in danger now. Since Gu Changge is the mastermind behind the scenes, he must already know about the Gate of Life. I can only hope that my Elder sister has the means to hide her whereabouts and prevent Gu Changge from finding it."

But at this moment, Jun Fan's heart was still worried about another thing, and he seemed very anxious and worried.

.....

"The location of the Gate of Life seems to be a bit extraordinary. The moment ordinary people step into this place, they are affected by the general trend of this place..."

At the same time, on the top of a mountain, Gu Changge stood there, with divine light in his eyes, as if hundreds of millions of runes were evolving, looking at the deep scene.

Behind him were Jiang Luoshen, Tian Ze, and many other powerhouses he brought from the Upper Realm.

This was a boundless and lush ancient forest with thick fog, and many places were surrounded by colorful clouds.

Many knotted trees were like mountains, covering the sky and the earth. Spiritual herbs and fruits, flying springs, waterfalls could be seen everywhere, and the bushes were deep, revealing the vastness.

It was Jun Bufan's sister, Jun Ruoxi's seclusion place.

"There is indeed something hidden here. It seems that the changes in the Luck of the Demon World are closely related to the disappearance of the Six Emperors. They have been hiding from people's eyes and ears all these years, and it is not the real news..."

Jiang Luoshen frowned, and there was light flowing in her eyes, and she used the means of the Supreme God Clan to explore this place.

"Princess, I think we can search this place side by side. If you don't believe me, turn it over. I don't believe that we can't find the mysterious location."

Behind Jiang Luoshen, a strong man of the Supreme God Clan spoke, feeling that this ancient and vast mountain could not stop them.

Jiang Luoshen said lightly, "If it was that simple, Gu Changge would have already started, how could he have waited until now."

Hearing this, Gu Changge looked back, glanced at her, and said, "It's really not that simple, but unfortunately we didn't arrest the guy named Jiang Chen, otherwise, it would be much more convenient if he was there."

He was telling the truth. With his current ability, he could at most perceive the unusualness of this place.

Every inch of land here was covered with an Ancient Formation of Gods. The power of the Gods was vast, the runes were looming and they contained terrifying power.

At this time, there was naturally a lack of a treasure hunter to explore the way.

It was a pity that Jiang Chen was now escaping from the Upper Realm, otherwise, Gu Changge would want to arrest him and lead the way.

"I don't believe you can't do anything about it." Jiang Luoshen glanced at him and said, "I think you just find it troublesome..."

Gu Changge laughed and said, "It seems that you know me quite well. I do have a solution. After all, you are here, so I really can't throw you over there. I can see at a glance where there are formations."

Jiang Luoshen stared at him coldly, if her eyes could kill, she would have killed Gu Changge countless times.

Buzz!!

At this time, waves of fluctuations suddenly arrived from the void, then it became blurred, and a deep black mist appeared in the air.

Bai Lian'er's figure stepped out of it.

"It seems that Jun Bufan already knows." Gu Changge glanced at her and asked casually.

"He knows." Bai Lian'er said lightly.

"Okay, lead the way."

Gu Changge nodded. He did have a way to find the path. At that time, Bai Lian'er followed Jun Bufan into this place. Although there were many lines, it was difficult to find the exact location.

But as long as there was a general orientation, he could gradually narrow the range, and could still find its hiding place.

Hearing this, Bai Lian'er didn't talk nonsense. When her figure moved, it turned into a mist with a bang, filling the void space and moving toward the front.

Gu Changge followed, and the runes in his eyes turned into a black-and-white brilliance like Reincarnation, exploring the changes in the patterns around him.

"Since that well is where the Gate of Life is located, it is naturally a place where life meets life. In this way, it is actually not difficult to find..."

Under the manifestation of Reincarnation, all the scenes here were clearly listed.

The laws of heaven and earth, the trend of the terrain, the flow of air, the intersection of vitality...

Gu Changge's pace was not fast and he followed behind Bai Lian'er.

But he felt that as he came, the aura here was constantly changing, and the other party should have noticed his arrival, trying to stop him and hide her own aura.

"If you break into this place rashly, you will definitely get lost." Jiang Luoshen noticed this change and frowned.

Gu Changge didn't care about her. He had already sensed where the well was.

On a low mountain, in an ancient well that was flowing with rays of light, endless vitality was gushing out, and immortal energy was transpiring.

As the most hard-to-find "Gate of Life" in the Demon World, there were many changes here at this moment, and wisps of dawn emerged from it, transforming into the void.

A white-haired woman sat quietly in the ancient well, her white hair like a waterfall covering her face. She had never moved, and her whole person had a fairy melody, ethereal carved from white and flawless ivory.

Even her long skirt was pure and clean, without a trace of variegation.

It was Jun Ruoxi.

At this moment, Jun Ruoxi's brows were tightly wrinkled, her eyes seemed to be opened, and she felt a terrifying aura that was constantly approaching this place.

She couldn't see the appearance of the other party, but she only noticed that the other party was extremely terrifying. The aura was incomparably chaotic and majestic, but it also carried a heart-pounding infinite order. Under this majesty, she actually had the illusion of being an ant.

This was the first time she had encountered such a feeling. Even if she tried to hide the aura of this place and block the other party's footsteps, she couldn't do it at all.

Buzz!!

Her tightly closed eyes finally opened, trying to see the face of the other party.

"This Gu is not far away, won't Miss Ruoxi show up to see him?"

But at this moment, a voice suddenly sounded from above the ancient well, which made Jun Ruoxi's calm face change, and the chill on her back became overwhelming.
