Chapter 441-1: The Red Demon appears, Why dont you come out to see me? (1)

Hearing Gu Changge's request, the leaders of many Great Sects looked at each other, a strange look flashed in their eyes, and they did not refuse.

And judging from the strength shown by Gu Changge, he was indeed qualified to participate in this formation hunting.

On the contrary, several ancient monks of Buddha Mountain frowned slightly, feeling a little bad. They didn't trust Gu Changge and were worried that he was harboring evil intentions.

This concern was not without reason. Since Gu Changge could even do such a thing as releasing the Red Demon, what else in this world would he not dare to do?

But in front of everyone, no matter how strong Gu Changge was, he probably wouldn't dare to risk the power of the world and snatch the formation pattern.

Thinking about it this way, they were relieved a lot, but their eyes still fell on Gu Changge, staring at him closely.

"This is the formation pattern given by the old man at that time, it is very mysterious..."

Soon, the leaders of several Great Sects looked at each other. Without covering up, they worked together to take out the horn formation from virtual space.

Because they were worried about accidents, they kept this formation horn sealed up and let everyone take care of it.

Seeing this scene now, many people looked at it curiously, the talisman in their eyes was shining, and the brilliance flowed. They were extremely curious about this formation horn, wanting to know how mysterious it was.

Could this be the key to this Demon Slaying Conference?

"Is this the formation horn?"

Gu Changge frowned slightly, and said in surprise. He felt an aura similar to the formation pattern in the Demon Burying Abyss.

But it was just similar, at best it could be regarded as a copying past and drawing tigers, not even imitation.

In this era, even such a formation was simply unimaginable, it was simply not something that ordinary people could set up.

The vastness of the divine power contained in it was hard to fathom, majestic and thick, and the lines and imprints emerged as dense as stars, shining in the sky.

This formation horn was made of unknown material, it was only the size of a palm, the sun was shining brightly on it, and there were mysterious auras looming, constantly rising and falling in the void space.

Just the moment it appeared, it made the void tremble and even the signs of time flew. Everyone's expressions changed drastically, and they were greatly suppressed.

It was conceivable that once the horn formation recovered and exploded, the power contained in it would be terrifying.

This made them look happy and feel at ease. After all, in this way, wasn't the chance of suppressing the Red Demon much greater?

"With such a formation pattern, I am relieved to wait. If we cooperate with the strength of Young Master Changge, it will definitely not be a problem to kill the Red Demon."

Just when everyone was looking at this formation horn, the Matriarch of the Qingluan Clan opened her mouth and said with a smile, her words were quite flattering to Gu Changge.

She also cast a flattering look at Gu Changge. In this scene, the complexions of many powerhouses of the Golden Winged Clan turned livid.

If the Qingluan Clan would flatter and curry favor with Gu Changge. For their clan, it was definitely a heavy blow, especially when their Ancestor was slapped to death by Gu Changge.

These bald donkeys in Buddha Mountain were very selfish and didn't care about their affairs at all.

Even though their Ancestor was shot to death by Gu Changge because of the Buddha Mountain, they didn't say a single word, appearing extremely indifferent and staying out of the incident.

Gu Changge glanced casually at the Qingluan Clan but didn't care. There were many people who pleased and fawned with him, and not everyone was qualified.

He was still thinking about the formation horn in his mind.

Judging from the aura fluctuation just now, this formation horn could indeed pose a threat to Chan Hong Yi.

If she was more rational and clear-headed, she would not step into this trap. But now that he had appeared here, Chan Hong Yi would definitely feel his aura, and would quickly chase after him.

At that time, when her fierceness erupted, she would be like a ferocious beast that had lost her mind, and she would not care about the traps.

"This formation horn must be controlled by me. If someone else controls it, it will ruin my plan."

Gu Changge thought for a while, looked away and had a solution on how to deal with this matter.

"That's the plan this time. What we have to do next is to set up a world-shattering formation in the divine city, using this formation horn as the eye of the formation."

"In the four directions of south, east, north, and west, we will send powerhouses to guard. The world is round and square, and the sky is locked. They all hold an Imperial weapon. I don't believe that the Red Demon can escape with her ability after stepping in."

At this time, an Old Monster with a very old generation stood up and spoke with confidence in his words.

He looked very thin, with sunken eye sockets, but his body was surrounded by chaotic mist. His eyes were golden, like magic lamps, he had a childlike face with white hair, and his cultivation was unfathomable.

At their stage, everything in the world was just a show. Even if the Red Demon wanted to slaughter the common people in the world, as long as she didn't threaten them, they wouldn't bother.

The reason why they appeared this time was because they were interested in the way of the Red Demon. After killing her, they planned to study her body to see if they could be inspired by it and improve their cultivation further.

Otherwise, they would not have such good intentions to gather in this divine city and spend a lot of effort to hunt the Red Demon.

So what about slaughtering hundreds of millions of living beings, if their lifespan dried up in the future, it would be difficult for the five declines of heaven and man, and they would also devour the blood and food of all parties.

After all, their levels were already different from ordinary creatures. Everyone heard the words and didn't say much. They looked away, with different thoughts and plans.

"Since this is the case, how about letting me guard the formation with everyone from Buddha Mountain?"

"If you seniors are not at ease, you can send other powerhouses to come, but this junior feels that such a small number of people is enough for this place."

But at this moment, Gu Changge suddenly spoke again, glanced at everyone with a smile.

"What does Young Master Changge mean by these words?"

A Great Sect leader was puzzled and couldn't help asking.

The rest of the people also looked at Gu Changge in confusion, not understanding that at this moment, he suddenly said this.

Everyone from Buddha Mountain frowned. Even more, they didn't understand Gu Changge's intentions and felt that they were being led by the nose by Gu Changge from the beginning to the end.

"It's better to leave it to my subordinates and the eminent monks of Buddha Mountain. You only need to block the four city gates."

Gu Changge smiled slightly and replied like this.

"If there is a problem, I will bear it together with all the eminent monks from Buddha Mountain."

"Young Master Changge really wants to do this? With your strength, there is no need to take risks."

A Great Sect leader persuaded him that he didn't think Gu Changge couldn't do it. Instead, he was worried that something would happen to him here and they would be involved.

What was more, the location of the formation's eyes was a matter of great importance, and it was also the top priority, and there was no room for any mistakes.

So they had been discussing how to guard the center of the formation for the past few days and who was the most suitable person for this.

At that time, if the Red Demon tried to break through the formation pattern, she would definitely attack from the eye of the formation, so it was self-evident how dangerous that place was.

Many powerhouses were reluctant to go there, thinking that it was extremely dangerous and that they would lose their lives at every turn.

This had become a difficult problem for them to consider, but now Gu Changge actually proposed to go to the formation's eye to guard it, together with many ancient monks of Buddha Mountain.

While this shocked everyone, their expressions were a little weird.

It was a fact that Gu Changge did not get along with everyone from Buddha Mountain, but now he wanted to guard the formation with everyone from Buddha Mountain.

Could it be that he intended to take this opportunity to settle accounts with Buddha Mountain? Or did he not feel at ease about Buddha Mountain, so wanted to take care of it himself?

In short, everyone had different moods and speculations.

"Since Young Master Changge said so, we naturally have no objection."

Many ancient monks from Buddha Mountain also spoke together at this moment, agreeing with Gu Changge's statement.

If Gu Changge had plans for that formation horn, with them watching from the side, they would not forgive him for daring to do anything wrong.

"In that case, then I will send some strong men to help you at that time."

Seeing what many ancient monks of Buddha Mountain and Gu Changge said, the leaders of the Great Sects looked at each other and agreed, feeling inexplicably relieved.

Afterward, another powerhouse appeared in the divine city and rushed to him. His strength was terrifying and if he stomped his feet, it would cause a big earthquake.

He brought his own tyrannical methods and many rare magical materials and arranged them in various parts of the divine city.

What happened today also shocked many people. Gu Changge's strength had reached the point where they dare not ignore it, even if it was an Ancestor of a Clan, they had to treat him with respect.

The Qingluan Clan was also one of the best ancient clans in the Upper Realm. Now the Ancestor of their clan needed to treat Gu Changge with care, which had already explained the problem.

Flourish? No, this had reached the point where he was on an equal footing, and some even needed to look up to him.

After today's incident, there was no peace in the divine city.

Many ancient monks of Buddha Mountain, together with many powerhouses in the affiliated forces, began to discuss the following matters.

Gu Changge was quite leisurely and even found two brothers and sisters from the Ancient Ye clan to talk about the past.

However, Ye Langtian was extremely submissive to him and was no longer as comfortable as before. After Ye Liuli came back from the Lower Realm, her temperament also changed drastically.

She forgot many things, but she couldn't forget the past when she was humiliated by Gu Changge and almost killed by him. But she just buried these things in her mind, and she was afraid of Gu Changge from the bottom of her heart.

In the next few days, the divine city began to get busy.

Almost all the powerhouses were arranging and burning, laying down formations on city walls, palaces, pavilions, and other places.

The world was changing and inexplicable energy was emerging, covering the whole world as if the sun, the moon, and the galaxy were galloping and coming together.

Endless energy from heaven and earth surged forward and gathered in this divine city.

Chapter 441-2: The Red Demon appears, Why dont you come out to see me? (1)

The star field above the sky began to dim and many stars were shining, which was incomparably dazzling.

The profound meaning of the Dao emerged in the virtual space, at the same time, endless runes were evolving.

There were many phantoms of ancient immortals hidden in the space as if paying homage to this divine city, kowtowing their heads continuously.

A huge and ancient sound of chanting resounded, immortals appeared from all over the world, sitting there cross-legged, chanting for rebirth.

The entire divine city was shrouded in a faint divine brilliance. The rays of the sun interweaved and disappeared between the walls and palaces.

The big formation had been completed, it could be called the creation of heaven and earth, against the universe of the sun and the moon.

Where the eyes of the formation lay, there was a haze and the formation horn communicated with heaven and the earth, floating up and down there, flashing with dazzling light, vast and unpredictable.

Gu Changge appeared here with his black clothes fluttering, his hair crystal clear and a faint chaotic brilliance. Behind him was Alpha, who was in charge of guarding the formation.

In the other direction, along with the Buddha's light, many ancient monks of Buddha Mountain appeared, the treasures were solemn, the Buddha's light loomed and there was a brilliant light behind the mind.

The most powerful people from other directions also came here, including several Old Monsters with unfathomable cultivation bases who all came to the eye of the formation.

All of the strongest powerhouses were ready, hiding in the dark, waiting for the Red Demon to show up.

"The cultivation of the guard behind Young Master Changge is really unfathomable."

An Old Monster's eyes flashed strangely, and he took this opportunity to chat with Gu Changge.

Many people were curious about the identity of the guard behind Gu Changge and were afraid of his cultivation.

Gu Changge smiled lightly, "Alpha's strength, of course, needless to say. After all, I carefully selected him."

Hearing this, the Old Monster became even more afraid of Gu Changge. He had lived a very long time and his eyes were so fierce.

The guard in the dark iron battle suit showed unprecedented respect for Gu Changge.

A young man, even if his talent was terrifying and his strength was astonishing, how could he make a strong man of this level follow him wholeheartedly?

And just half a day after the formation was created, a terrifying rumbling sound came from the sky above the divine city, at the far end.

It was as if there was a boundless sea of ??blood, being pushed over by someone with a murderous aura covering the sky.

Suddenly, the vast earth shook and even the stars outside the region trembled as if they were about to fall.

"The Red Demon is here!"

In the divine city, almost all the most powerful people changed their complexions, and they were extremely dignified, staring at the end of the world.

Everyone felt this incomparable terrifying aura as if thousands of troops were attacking from the mountain of corpses and the sea of ??blood. It was icy cold, but piercing through the soul, making people tremble.

At the end of the day, a blood-colored light shot up to the sky. It was already a billowing red cloud condensed by evil spirits, boundless and shaking the world.

A woman in red, her hair reflecting the light of blood, her bare feet like snow like a lotus flower blooming in the sea of ??blood.

Clear and beautiful, but there was no trace of emotion on her face, indifferent and unfeeling.

She walked slowly, her pace was not fast, but with every step she took, the world seemed to tremble.

Everyone's hearts couldn't help but tighten, feeling that she seemed to be walking above their own hearts.

Even the existence of the Supreme Realm changed face, extremely dignified and very uneasy.

At this moment, some of them were even doubting that the Red Demon was so powerful that she could shatter the sky with her evil spirit alone. Could this time's big formation suppress and kill her?

Almost in an instant, the Red Demon came to the divine city.

The blood cloud pressed down on the city and it seemed that she didn't pay much attention to the formation patterns here.

Perhaps even knowing that this place contained great danger, she still set foot here without hesitation.

The monstrous evil spirits spread, covering the divine city with a range of hundreds of thousands of miles.

She stood high in the sky, her eyes were cold and heartless and she scanned the many buildings and pavilions in it.

In this ancient city, there was his aura. He was hiding here now.

"Why don't you come out and see me?"

At this moment, the faces of all the most powerful people changed drastically and they heard the voice coming from the mouth of the Red Demon.

Although it sounded like the sounds of nature, it contained a terrifying hatred to the extreme, which was creepy.

Many people couldn't help but shudder. They always thought that the Red Demon was irrational and since the birth of Demon Burying Abyss, she would only continue to kill.

Now she actually spoke, still in an extremely obscure and ancient language.

At the point of formation, Gu Changge looked calm and composed, knowing that Chan Hong Yi was talking to him.

However, he was still unmoved. When he went to see her at this time, let alone the hidden dangers of his identity, even Chan Hong Yi's hatred for wanting to kill him was difficult to resolve.

"The Red Demon seems to be saying... Why don't you come out and meet her?"

"Who is she talking to?"

An Old Monster who had studied ancient history deeply could not help frowning.

From the obscure language uttered by the Red Demon just now, its meaning could be discerned.

This made them look at each other, could it be that the Red Demon came all the way, killing, just to find someone?

Judging from her words of deep hatred, this person probably had a deep relationship with her, and there were many unknown secrets. It might be love, or it might be monstrous hatred.

They knew exactly what era the Red Demon was from. At this moment, it was tantamount to setting off a stormy sea in my heart.

If her words were true, then did it mean that there were people of the same age as her in this world?

Of course, they did not rule out the possibility that she was just muttering, not talking to someone.

"She has entered the city, activating the formation..."

In the next moment, a leader of a Great Sect gave a low shout. Suddenly the runes in his hands turned bright rays of light and burst out from all over the divine city, the profound meaning of Dao flowed, covering all places immediately.

At the same time, beams of light soared into the sky, as if cutting into the sky.

Then there was a bursting sound, the chaotic mist descended from the sky in clusters, covering the entire divine city.

This place suddenly became hazy and incomparably blurred as if it had come to the oldest time when the world was not divided.

The formation revived and a terrifying aura emerged, trapping the Red Demon.

However, her expression didn't change in any way. She walked into the city gate and there was no disturbance because of the formations or the traps set here.

Indifferent and ruthless, as if she only knew how to kill.

Boom!!!

"Attack quickly, suppress and kill this Demon, and restore peace to the world."

"Attack!!!"

Then, at the four city gates in the south, east, north, and west, the most powerful powerhouses appeared, surrounded by divine light and began to cooperate with the formation patterns here to attack her.

"Where is he?"

The eyes of the Red Demon were sparkling with red, like flawless red gems.

At this moment, she came down into the depths of the divine city, where she felt that familiar aura.

So, she walked forward, and formation patterns revived from the street under her feet, and an unparalleled and powerful divine power exploded, bombarding her.

Every place here was covered with patterns, and she would not be allowed to take one more step.

The dazzling brilliance exploded here, like countless stars exploding, making it hard to keep eyes open.

Under this kind of divine power, even the Enlightened beings could hardly contend.

Even the Red Demon seemed to be stopped at this moment, her eyes fell into the distance, and she was a little struggling to move forward.

"She is looking in the direction of the formation."

"Her eyes were on there..."

"Hurry up, stop her, or else the Red Demon will be freed, and we will fall short."

A tycoon of the Ancient Royal family, seeing the Red Demon seemed to be in a daze at this moment, suddenly shouted, holding a purple gold sledgehammer in his hand. Thunder and lightning crackled as the purple runes flooded the past like stars, attacking the Red Demon.

In the palm of his hand, there were countless divine lights evolving.

But the Red Demon just looked back at him as if to drive away annoying flies, she waved her sleeves, but there was no movement.

This giant of the Ancient Royal family wanted to back away in shock.

But it was too late, the sleeve bombarded him, causing him to scream and all of his divine powers were instantly wiped out, turning into a blood mist, collapsing and exploding.

The blood mist all over the sky permeated this place, which was incomparably astonishing and creepy.

Existence in the Supreme Realm was killed by her just like that?

Everyone couldn't help feeling terrified, the Red Demon was really too strong. If it wasn't for the formation pattern here to suppress her, it might be even more dangerous.

"Use the Imperial weapon, other means are useless to her."

A Great Sect leader reacted, and couldn't help shouting angrily. The golden light on his body was surging like a brilliant sun, and he began to touch other means.

The same was true for the rest of the powerhouses and Old Monsters. At this point, there was no other possibility, they either had to suppress the Red Demon, or be killed by her.

Boom!!

Unprecedented terrifying fluctuations broke out here. The sky was dark and all the buildings were destroyed and collapsed, even if they were engraved with formations, they turned into ashes.

Chapter 442-1: Who is hunting who? Its stupid (1)

This battle had a wide impact, sweeping the sky and the earth and it could be called a devastating disaster.

If not for the formation, even the outside world would have been affected and would have collapsed.

To put it bluntly, the strength of the Red Demon was unique in this era.

The powerhouses who fought with her were many Enlightened beings holding Imperial weapons. They had vicissitudes of life and were very cautious. It was just a Dharma body, but it was still so powerful that it was boundless.

When they fought against the Red Demon, they kept coughing up blood and retreating, and many of the divine powers they used collapsed and broke apart.

Some people sacrificed their divine powers and used the laws and chains of this place for their own use, but they were still smashed into ashes by the Red Demon's palm and they couldn't resist at all.

This was a horrifying and shocking scene. The Red Demon kept walking towards the divine city, with blood and bones under her feet as beams of divine light fell on her body, constantly intertwining and bombarding her.

But her aura didn't change at all, it was so strong that it made people tremble and realize that she had reached another level.

Boom!!

The dazzling brilliance was extremely gorgeous as it exploded again, many people coughed up blood and retreated.

An Old Monster looked horrified, before he knew it, the Red Demon had arrived to his side. She pinched his neck with her slender hands and lifted it up like a chick without any effort.

This Old Monster was one of the strongest powerhouses in the Quasi-Emperor Realm. But at this moment, he looked extremely weak, he was extremely frightened. His whole body glowed as Emperors emerged one by one, trying to resist the Red Demon.

But in the next moment, the Red Demon shook her palm lightly and twisted his head off.

Then there was a bang as red and white light exploded, including his soul, which was instantly annihilated.

"It's a monster, it's invincible..."

"I shouldn't have come here in the first place."

At this moment, many people regretted it. Seeing with their own eyes that a powerhouse of the level of an Enlightened being and a Quasi-Emperor would not have any power to resist the Red Demon.

How could this not make them despair?

"The strength of the Red Demon is indeed terrifying, but it is still impossible for her to come to our side in a short time."

At the center of the formation, several Old Monsters whispered. They were shocked, but also fiery, staring at the battlefield in the distance.

The Red Demon was very strong, but she was bound to be exhausted after a while. Even if she reached the center of the formation, she might not be able to retain much strength.

For them, this was an excellent opportunity.

"Amitabha... All the benefactors, in order to suppress the Red Demon, are so desperate and even willing to die, I really admire it."

Many ancient monks of Buddha Mountain put their palms together and looked at the great battle in the distance with compassionate expressions.

At the same time, they urged the Buddha's light in their hands to converge into the eyes of the formation to maintain the operation of the formation here.

Gu Changge always felt that he underestimated Chan Hong Yi's current strength. But judging from today's events, maybe he overestimated her current state.

According to his speculation, Chan Hong Yi should have already attacked him at this time. Yet she was still being dragged by a group of powerhouses, and they hadn't even activated the formation horn yet.

"It seems that she hasn't recovered yet and hastily sought revenge on me while dragging her wounded body. But she is as eager as ever."

Gu Changge shook his head slightly, not to mention feeling sorry for this woman. Though he still felt that she was as stupid as ever.

He casually poured some divine power into the formation eye and at the same time glanced at the many Old Monsters around him before looking at Chan Hong Yi.

From his direction, one could just see Chan Hong Yi's figure, even her snow-white face was stained with blood.

Those eyes were still indifferent, looking at him through the formation, she saw him.

However, Gu Changge just smiled casually and a terrifying hostility appeared in Chan Hong Yi's eyes again.

Many powerhouses behind her were blown away by her palm. She was full of evil spirits, wanting to come and kill Gu Changge.

The boundless hatred erupted and her power rose several levels again. The monks who had not reached the Supreme Realm collapsed and exploded in an instant under such fluctuations, turning into blood mist.

It could be said that the power she was displaying now had reached a certain limit. There were many cracks on her body, like white jade porcelain, which might break at any time.

"Activate that formation horn."

"Hurry up!!"

At this time, a Great Sect leader suddenly gave a low shout and his previous actions seemed very calm.

At this moment, when he discovered the flaw in the Red Demon, his eyes flashed, and he sacrificed a forbidden weapon.

This kind of forbidden weapon was very different from ordinary forbidden weapons and the method of sacrificial refining was so complicated that it was unimaginable.

At the moment when the energy started to erupt, it was like a scorching sun exploding on the body of the Red Demon.

When the rest of the people heard his words, they did not hesitate and started to resort to their own powerful methods. They were waiting for this moment, and did not delay any longer.

Otherwise, all of them would be slaughtered by the Red Demon in the end. The losses would outweigh the gains.

At the same time, the corner of the formation pattern where the eye of the formation was located began to glow, and dazzling brilliance flowed in all directions.

Simple and crystal-clear Dao runes circulated one after another, like a clear mirror, which could reflect various laws as it descended from the sky.

Those were golden ancient runes, like the carrier of Dao.

And the mysterious evolution of heaven and earth contained infinite divine power, it turned into all kinds of divine weapons, such as swords, guns, halberds, axes, hooks, bells, tripods, and seals... If it attacked the Red Demon, she would definitely be wiped out.

In a higher place, there was still a Dao rune evolving, turning into a red and shining world-destroying millstone, which rumbled and descended with the trembling momentum of the heavens.

Wisps of golden brilliance poured down, it was the aura that surpassed the Emperor Realm. The mountains fell and the ground cracked, turning into ashes.

Everyone cheered up, watching this scene, and felt hope.

The rest of the most powerful didn't hesitate as they all activated the forbidden weapons in their hands to attack the Red Demon together.

At this moment, the four gates of the Divine City seem to swallow everything in the world, incorporating all the laws of this place.

Afterward, they were interwoven into beams of light as thick as mountains and bombarded the Red Demon.

Even the outside world cracked a hole and immeasurable light rushed out. The stars seemed to have been sacrificially refined in advance, mixed with a vast aura, falling toward the bottom.

It was as if a catastrophe had fallen from the sky and everyone was about to be destroyed. In the vast aura, there was the meaning of destroying the world.

This kind of aura was simply horrifying and appalling, beyond imagination.

"Boom!"

A terrifying bombardment sound resounded through the sky and even spread out of the formation. It spread to every corner within thousands of miles, causing many monks and creatures who had escaped from the divine city to hear this sound.

This was the sound of the Dao, and hidden within the sound, there were even fragments of the Dao in the dark.

The Red Demon looked indifferent and calm and walked toward where Gu Changge was, neither dodging nor evading.

Therefore, she was almost solidly hit by all the brilliance.

Immediately, green smoke arose from her body and her evil spirit also dissipated. The whole person staggered as if it was difficult to stand still.

Under her feet, the ground was shattered, blasting out terrifying cracks that could even spread to the underground world.

And on her body, the cracks were even clearer, with blood seeping out of them.

The physical body of the Red Demon was terrifying, beyond the realm displayed today, no one could hurt her.

It was just that her original injury was difficult to heal, and after being bombarded by this external force, it began to recur.

This scene fell into everyone's eyes, the Red Demon was finally hurt and they couldn't help cheering, letting out a sigh of relief.

The Red Demon was not invincible, she would be obliterated by them sooner or later, and the injuries on her body were the best proof.

"As long as there are a few more blows, the Red Demon will be wiped out by us sooner or later."

Many of the most powerful people had hope in their hearts and they planned to cooperate again.

It had to be said that the formation horn was really strange and it contained indescribable mysterious power.

At the place where the formation eye was located, all the Old Monsters also breathed a sigh of relief and added with a smile, "It seems that this formation horn is really useful..."

While talking, they injected qi again to support the formation.

With the blow just now, without their cooperation, the Red Demon would not have been so injured.

However, to maintain this formation eye, the energy that needed to be consumed was a huge amount.

Even they felt a little overwhelmed and swallowed pills and other things to keep up at once.

A group of ancient monks of Buddha Mountain were also sitting cross-legged here. Constantly chanting ancient scriptures, and using some kind of secret method to provide support for the formation eye.

Gu Changge poured energy into it cooperatively, but his eyes kept falling on Chan Hong Yi. Seeing her current appearance, he also felt that the time was almost here.

Then, in the palm of his hand, a jet-black Dao rune fell into the eye of the formation along with the Demonic power.

After doing so, he glanced at the few people in front of him with interest.

"The consumption in the eyes of the formation has become stronger. It seems that the Red Demon is trying to break through the formation here, and she may have to leave."

At this moment, an Old Monster's expression suddenly changed, he felt a huge devouring power coming from the formation's eyes.

Chapter 442-2: Who is hunting who? Its stupid (2)

They needed a terrifying amount of energy to maintain the formation.

He felt that he couldn't hold on any longer. One must know that he had swallowed some divine pills, but the consumed energy could not be replenished at all.

"It takes more energy to maintain the formation... With me waiting for a few, it may be difficult to continue."

The faces of the other Old Monsters also changed suddenly. They underestimated the divine power needed to activate the formation horn.

In this way, they were likely to be consumed alive before the Red Demon was killed.

"I made a mistake, I didn't expect that even after using all my strength to activate this formation, it would still consume so much..."

Gu Changge's complexion was also slightly pale at the moment, his brows were tightly frowned, and he sighed with a dignified look.

"If we lose our support here, the situation of the battle would be finally reversed, I'm afraid it will change again."

An Old Monster had an ugly face and was very unwilling, feeling that they had miscalculated.

It was already hard to see the opportunity, was it possible to give up? They were not reconciled.

"I'll hold on for a while."

"At that time, I should have thought that it wouldn't be so easy to deal with the formation pattern for the Red Demon."

Several ancient monks of Buddha Mountain also became very dignified, and sighed. They also felt that their energy was being crazily swallowed by the formation horn.

However, many Great Sect leaders in front of them were fighting with the Red Demon, and it could be said that there were heavy casualties. If there was a problem on their side, it would definitely affect the whole situation.

However, after a while, someone couldn't take it anymore and stopped injecting energy into the eye of the formation.

If it continued, maybe his origin would be damaged, and they would be exhausted here.

And as someone stopped injecting energy into the eye of the formation.

The devouring force felt by the rest of the people suddenly became more terrifying. After losing the sharing, the pressure on them instantly increased several times.

The terrifying feeling of devouring, like a whale swallowing a dolphin, immediately made their complexions turn pale.

Even a kind of Old Monster with a profound cultivation base and a vastness changed his expression drastically. He hurriedly stopped, not daring to make fun of his own origin at this time.

"It can only be supported by pills, otherwise who can bear it... This formation pattern is really evil."

An Old Monster couldn't help cursing and hastily swallowed many pills.

At this time, even a group of ancient monks couldn't take it anymore. They had to shake their heads and stop as they began to replenish their energy.

"I'm afraid it won't work if it goes on like this."

Gu Changge shook his head slightly, swallowing the next elixir. He sighed, and said with some regret, "If there were more people at that time, I would not be so tired now, but I didn't know that this formation would consume so much energy... It was a misstep."

His words were recognized by everyone here, even the monks of Buddha Mountain, who disliked him, remained silent.

What happened here, the group of powerhouses who were fighting with the Red Demon in front also heard, and their complexions suddenly changed drastically.

Almost instantly, the formation covering the sky showed signs of dissipating.

And the Red Demon even seized this opportunity, her indifferent eyes lingered on Gu Changge for a moment.

In the next moment, on her jade hand, a series of Dao runes began to manifest, evolving into a simple and natural black giant clock. When there was a loud shock, a terrifying wave of gong sounded.

Before, she only relied on absolute strength to crush, and she would not use divine powers and so on.

But now, she also understood the difficulty of the matter. If it weren't for the sudden dissipation of the formation, she would have been in a lot of trouble today. As for how the formation disappeared, it was not difficult for her to understand with her current sanity.

Boom!!

The moment the formation dissipated, the situation reversed horribly. Everyone who had a slight chance of winning just now coughed up blood and collapsed as they exploded on the spot.

"Run away, the Red Demon can not be dealt with for the time being, staying here is just death."

Seeing this scene, more people chose to flee outside the divine city, not daring to stay for fear of being killed by the Red Demon in a short while.

She had already proved to everyone how terrifying she was with her strength beyond the Emperor Realm. This was no longer a situation that could be wiped out by working together.

Not to mention that there was a problem with the formation, it was even more difficult to deal with her and there was almost no possibility.

Many powerhouses naturally understood this truth, although they were unwilling, there was nothing they could do.

After a lot of planning and calculation, it turned out to be all in vain?

But there were only a few who could escape. The eyes of the Red Demon were full of fierceness at this moment. Almost all the living things in front of her were shot to death by her. Even the space was frozen, and the whole world seemed to be still.

This was a terrifying method, her sleeves swept across, the world was dark and everyone collapsed and exploded.

There was a lot of blood here, it was difficult to see living people, either corpses or broken weapon fragments.

And she was bathed in blood, walking toward the eye of the formation.

The complexions of the recovering Old Monsters changed drastically, and they felt fear and trembling.

The Red Demon was really too strong. In the current Upper Realm, probably, only the revival of the oldest and most ancient existences could compete with her.

But at the next moment, in front of everyone, the Red Demon suddenly staggered, a lot of blood began to flow from her body, and she almost fell to the ground.

Looking at it like this, it seemed that the red clothes became more and more bright red, as if she was soaked in blood.

Her already white face was even more bloodless and lost its luster. But that was all, she seemed to know no pain, no fatigue.

"This!"

"She's exhausted and her soul is dry!"

"It seems that the battle just now has consumed all her strength, and now she is no longer a threat to us."

This scene made all the Old Monsters who were planning to escape and the monks of Buddha Mountain startled and surprise appeared on the faces of many Old Monsters.

"Ammitaba, benefactor, you have committed a lot of evil, do you think there will be such a day?"

"Today, my Buddha will save you and let you take refuge in the realm of eternal bliss."

Several ancient monks of Buddha Mountain also stopped fleeing. Their faces regained compassion and looked at the Red Demon who was so close to them.

After that, they continued to sit up cross-legged and just in case, they still injected qi into the eyes of the formation, intending to use this to suppress the Red Demon.

"Brothers, since this is the case, let's discuss first how to divide the body of this Red Demon later? The old man wants a piece anyway."

"Of course, there is no problem."

"If you can gain insight into its secrets, it would not be in vain for the old man to come here to hunt her."

When the Old Monsters saw this, their eyes flashed sharply and they poured energy into the eyes of the formation.

Although the consumption was terrifying, at this point, they didn't care about the damage to their origin.

The Red Demon stood in front of them, her blue hair was stained with blood, her eyes didn't even change when she heard these words.

She could understand the words, but she didn't care, and she didn't need to care.

At this moment, she was looking at Gu Changge within the line of sight, this was the first time the two of them were so close after they were in the Demon Burying Abyss.

However, on Chan Hong Yi's face, hostility, evil spirit, hatred, killing intent... These emotions almost swept over, making people feel frightened and trembling.

Gu Changge was also sizing her up carefully, looking at her eyebrows, facial features, body shape and clothing.

He had to say that she was indeed beautiful. Even at this time, her palm-sized face and facial features were so exquisite that he couldn't pick out any flaws.

But those eyes were cold and heartless, making one feel that there was a boundless sea of ??blood about to drown from behind her.

"Young Master Changge, we can't hold on anymore, come here quickly, the Red Demon has no strength to resist at this point."

"Now is the last chance."

At this time, seeing that Gu Changge hadn't poured energy into the eyes of the formation, an Old Monster couldn't help but get a little anxious, and couldn't help shouting.

However, Gu Changge ignored him and looked at Chan Hong Yi before he shook his head lightly and said, "After so many years, you really haven't changed at all. You are absolutely stupid. Since you plan to seek revenge from me, then are you sure that you can do it? Why are you looking for me so recklessly, do you want me to kill you?"

His words were understated, without any emotion, as if he was teaching a junior casually.

But upon hearing this, all the Old Monsters and the ancient monks of Buddha Mountain who were at the center of the formation were all stunned for a moment, not understanding what these words meant.

Was Gu Changge talking to the Red Demon in front of him?

The next moment they realized the meaning of these words, the faces of all of them changed dramatically, it was unbelievable, and they felt terribly frightened.

"You... used..."

The Old Monster who spoke just now couldn't help looking at Gu Changge in awe, his voice was trembling, "Who the hell are you? You... you know the Red Demon?"

However, with a chirping sound, a black spear suddenly pierced through his forehead, cracking his skull with a bang and including his spirit, he was instantly annihilated.

"My lord."

Alpha shot quickly, very indifferently, his Quasi-Emperor Realm cultivation broke out, and he looked extremely powerful. After doing this, he stood respectfully behind Gu Changge, and glanced at the other people who were terrified to the extreme.

Chapter 443-1: Gu Changge, you are an eternal sinner, You will face retribution soon (1)

The void trembled, and the black spear was like immortal ghost iron.

Shockingly sharp, as fast as lightning, people were caught off guard, as it appeared out of thin air, carrying terrifying power.

With just one blow, it pierced through the eyebrows of the Old Monster just now.

The white bone residue mixed with blood splattered everywhere, even the soul was instantly annihilated, shocking everyone.

Everyone's scalp was numb and they got goosebumps.

Alpha was tall with radiant eyes, wearing a dark iron battle suit flowing with black light, holding a black spear, standing like a god of war, exuding a frightening and trembling aura.

"So strong!"

This scene shocked everyone and the faces of many Old Monsters changed dramatically, feeling a chilling chill.

The strength of this guard hiding beside Gu Changge was definitely beyond the Supreme Realm!

All of them might be in danger today.

Gu Changge's plan was so big that they didn't even know it before, and he hid it so deeply.

And what was Gu Changge's identity, why would he talk to the Red Demon like this?

They couldn't help looking at Gu Changge in awe. Someone discovered that the surroundings of this world had been blocked at some point.

Every inch of space seemed to be filled with lead water! There was no way they could escape!

Chan Hong Yi naturally understood what Gu Changge said just now. But at this moment, there was only hatred in her eyes, and there was no extra emotion other than hatred.

She wished she could kill the man in front of her.

"Why did you do this to me?"

The terrifying hostility resurfaced again, like a sea of ??blood about to drown Gu Changge.

However, Gu Changge just waved his sleeves. The wide robe was like a piece of universe refined, containing endless mysteries in which the stars rotated and the universe manifested, completely dispelling Chan Hong Yi's current hostility.

She was no longer as ferocious as before, with this level of strength she was no threat to Gu Changge.

"Gu Changge... Who the hell are you?"

Many people couldn't believe it, and couldn't help trembling.

The Red Demon actually spoke again, and the words were definitely meant for Gu Changge

Didn't that mean that the Red Demon was not muttering to herself outside the divine city?

But had found Gu Changge's aura, and was talking to him like this?

After she left the Demon Burying Abyss, the person she had been chasing after was actually Gu Changge,

"Alpha, kill them."

Gu Changge just casually glanced at the crowd behind him when he heard the words, and didn't say much, but gave instructions to Alpha.

He had no intention of letting these people live, so letting them know a little more was actually nothing.

"Yes, my lord." Alpha received the order, his eyes were abnormally cold.

A spear fell, piercing the sky that destroyed the world, stagnant in the void, carrying endless black light, flooding everyone.

"Gu Changge... What do you mean?"

An Old Monster was terrified in his heart, he couldn't help but fall backward, wanting to avoid it.

Boom!!

But his speed was still not as fast as Alpha's speed. The space seemed to be frozen at this moment, and there was no way to escape.

"Don't!"

He tried all means and all of his divine powers were being interpreted.

But he was still desperate, he didn't expect to fall here today and his heart was full of unwillingness and regret.

If he had known earlier, he would not have coveted the flesh and blood of the Red Demon.

Accompanied by a terrifying sound that shook the sky and trembled in all directions.

The golden shield sacrificed by the Old Monster was pierced by Alpha's spear and exploded. Then the whole person was nailed into the void like a candied haw.

Alpha's arm trembled slightly, an infinite force of energy and blood erupted immediately. The rain of blood filled the air, tearing the corpse apart.

The rest of the people also changed their countenance as they shuddered and cursed Gu Changge in their hearts, but they couldn't hide their fear and coldness all over their bodies.

What Gu Changge said to the Red Demon just now shocked them, but there was no time to think about it now.

Now they had encountered the biggest crisis within countless years of their cultivation.

Alpha was at the Quasi-Emperor Realm, and with their current state, it would not be a problem for him to kill everyone present.

Not to mention that many people had already consumed a lot of energy and they were no longer in their peak state.

Gu Changge looked back at the horrified crowd with a calm expression on his face, and said casually, "Didn't everyone see it by now? She's not someone you can covet."

"Gu Changge, you... you actually colluded with the Red Demon to kill us?"

"Could it be that the formation horn was also your doing?"

The few Old Monsters reacted quickly, feeling that Gu Changge's aura hadn't changed much from the beginning to the end.

Their complexions were ugly for a while and at the same time, they were frightened and angry.

They instantly figured out the cause and effect. They were angry and terrified, why Gu Changge would take the initiative to say that he would be responsible for guarding the formation.

It turned out that he had other plans, on purpose.

The reason why they felt that their energy was terribly consumed and it was difficult to continue to support them was probably due to Gu Changge's secret actions.

But they never doubted him at all, only now did they realize that this matter had a lot to do with Gu Changge.

"At the bottom of the Demon Burying Abyss, did you release the Red Demon on purpose?"

"Gu Changge, you are an eternal sinner. How many powerhouses have died because of you today? After you die, you will never be able to reincarnate forever, and you will not be able to reincarnate..."

All the ancient monks of Buddha Mountain also reacted at this moment. Their faces were also very ugly. It was difficult to maintain their usual composure and they all glared.

At the same time, various pieces of Buddhist artifacts were sacrificed. For a while, dazzling Buddha light burst out here, shining in all directions and the sky was crystal clear.

Dharma bodies of Buddha and Dao emerged as high as thousands of feet, intertwined with the rhyme of Buddha, phantoms such as Wrathful Vajra, Compassionate Buddha, Bodhisattva, etc., manifested in the empty space, chanting Buddhist scriptures to save the people here.

This was an unimaginable Buddhist technique, which had the means of saving all living beings and was the Supreme Divine power of Buddha Mountain.

All the ancient monks were very angry. They always thought that Gu Changge was greedy for the Meditation Robe, but they were all wrong.

His purpose was to release the Red Demon and even cheated them all along. How could they bear this hatred?

"Who knows what happens after death? Instead, you all will die here today, with both body and spirit."

Gu Changge smiled casually, and his words were as casual as if he had crushed a few ants to death. But halfway through, he looked at Chan Hong Yi and said, "Eat to your heart's content, everyone here today is prepared for you."

An astonishing hostility appeared in Chan Hong Yi's eyes and her indifferent pupils stared at him tightly.

The terrifying evil spirit surged into the sky, turning into a billowing blood-colored dark cloud behind him.

However, facing the many origins of life here and the dissipated laws and rhymes, she really couldn't bear it.

Especially since her current state was not good, old injuries had recurred and many cracks had appeared on her body.

"I will kill you."

She let out another sound from her mouth, murderous and shocking, without a trace of emotion.

"Then you can give it a try. I also want to know whether you have improved after all these years."

Gu Changege shook his head indifferently, without any change in expression.

In the next moment, Chan Hong Yi opened her mouth and screamed. The terrifying devouring power emerged, the star field trembled and red wolf smoke emerged from the sky and the earth.

This was the gathering of many origins of life here. Each of which was as vast as a galaxy, falling from below.

She was devouring these life essences. Her aura kept rising and even her broken body was being reshaped, becoming delicate and white, crystal clear like snow.

Seeing this scene, Gu Changege's complexion flickered and he estimated the time in his heart.

"What!"

"The Red Demon was also released by Gu Changege?"

The group of Old Monsters who were fighting was even more shocked when they heard the words of several ancient monks of Buddha Mountain.

At the same time, they kept dodging backward, not daring to confront Alpha head-on.

They didn't expect that the birth of the Red Demon had something to do with Gu Changege.

They thought that it was done by the monk from Buddha Mountain. It seemed that the other party had taken the blame for Gu Changege.

Thinking of this, their backs felt even colder. If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes today, they couldn't believe the truth of the matter.

It could only be said that Gu Changege was hiding too deeply. It was estimated that probably no one could see his true face from the beginning to the end.

Chapter 443-2: Gu Changege, you are an eternal sinner, You will face retribution soon (2)

"Gu Changege, if you do this, you will face retribution soon!"

Some people couldn't help roaring, especially when they heard Gu Changege tell the Red Demon that everyone here was prepared by him. They felt chills in their hearts, and their fear reached the extreme.

"Retribution? I am your retribution."

Gu Changege looked back at the Old Monster who was talking, his sleeves rolled up.

A golden divine light pierced through the air, piercing through the center of his eyebrows. In an instant, a golden divine bird could be faintly seen passing by.

This was the Origin True Feather obtained from the Demon World and it was even able to compete with the Emperor's Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword.

So in just an instant, the life of this Old Monster was terminated and his soul was annihilated together.

This was the True Feather that belonged to the Emperor Realm. It was strong and indestructible, comparable to an Imperial weapon.

The rest of the people were even more terrified, feeling that Gu Changge's strength was even far greater than this black figure.

"Gu Changge, you have colluded with the Red Demon, you should be punished for this crime!"

All the ancient monks of Buddha Mountain came to attack together at this moment, like King Kong glaring at him.

Their Dharma was profound and their faces were angry. Seeing that they couldn't fight against Alpha, they set their target on Gu Changge.

They held various kinds of Buddhist treasures in their hands which were incomparably simple, spouting rays of light, boundless, flooding toward Gu Changge like stars.

"Dang!"

However, accompanied by a terrifying towering sound, it pierced through the sky in an extremely leisurely manner.

A small golden pagoda appeared above Gu Changge's head.

This was the Heavenly Palm Tower, which had nine floors and ancient immortal texts were manifested one by one. The moment they appeared, they continued to extend.

There was a vast surging golden light blooming and the tower's body was simple and natural. With a slight shock, all the ancient monks coughed up blood and flew backward, making it impossible for them to attack Gu Changge at all.

"What!"

"This is the Heavenly Tower, it has fallen into Gu Changge's hands!"

They were shocked and only then did they realize that Gu Changge possessed countless treasures, including many of the Seven Heavenly Artifacts in his hands.

The defensive power of the Heavenly Tower was even more terrifying.

According to rumors, the Heavenly Tower was once suppressed by the luck of the Immortal Palace.

"Anyway, it's just death. Why do you all have to do unnecessary struggles?"

Gu Changge shook his head slightly, and his tone seemed to be sorry for them.

In the next moment, a long black knife appeared in his hand.

Strands of the laws from the Emperor Realm emerged, looking incomparably majestic as if it could transform into an unrivaled Emperor at any time and attack the world.

The vast black sword energy swept across and the rays of the sun gushed out.

One rune after another was condensing, sweeping the sky and the earth that was the profound meaning of the Dao, turning into a thick and majestic attacking force.

In just a moment, everyone from Buddha Mountain coughed up blood continuously and all the Buddhist treasures that had been sacrificed, collapsed. They were not Gu Changge's opponent at all.

Even an Enlightened being would have to turn pale and retreat in front of this sword.

The current powerhouses with the highest cultivation level in Buddha Mountain were no more than the third heaven of the Quasi-Emperor Realm, and they were still far from Enlightened beings.

Immediately, there was a bloody rain here. Many people screamed, collapsed and exploded with regret and despair. Deep unwillingness could be seen on their bodies as their spirits were wiped out.

Chan Hong Yi had been watching all this indifferently, watching Gu Changge slaughter everyone.

At the same time, she was also devouring the origin of life in this place, the thick red wolf smoke rose into the sky, covering all directions and gathering toward her.

The blood mist drifted and soon there were only the two of them left here along with Alpha who had retired obediently.

"It's finally quiet. After so many years, you have nothing to say to me?"

Gu Changge put away the Xuan Yang Heavenly Sword. His figure fell from the sky. His black clothes were unfurled, and he was spotless. It was not at all obvious that he came back from killing someone.

He smiled casually, with an easy-going appearance of talking to an old friend and at the same time walked toward Chan Hong Yi.

When Chan Hong Yi saw him approaching, a terrifying hostility appeared in her eyes again, with hatred deep in her bones.

The murderous aura filled the field and shattered the sky.

"I'm going to kill you." She just said this, without any emotion, indifferent.

A terrifying aura emerged from her body as if she was about to return to the way she had attacked just now.

After devouring many origins of life in this place, her injury had indeed improved, but she could only slightly suppress the old injury.

But it was much better than when she just left the Demon Burying Abyss. In the next moment, there was a change on her face that had never changed.

"You!"

Chan Hong Yi stared at Gu Changge steadfastly, her face became more hostile and she felt that other things had been mixed into these origins of life.

It was these things that made her unable to use her energy now. Although it only affected her energy for a while, she could quickly resolve it. But this moment of effort could change a lot of things.

"Do you feel like you can't use your energy? Then get some sleep."

Gu Changge noticed the change in her face and couldn't help smiling.

Then a moon-white Meditation Robe emerged in the palm of his hand, with many Buddha lights shining on it.

It seemed that the sun and the moon, the eminent monks who had attained the Dao were reciting Buddhist scriptures and blessing them with the Dharma.

The Buddha's light shone and poured as it sprinkled on Chan Hong Yi's face.

Wisps of suffocating aura were melting, like snow meeting the scorching sun.

At this moment, around the Meditation Robe, the glow of the sun was dense and transpiring, the Buddha's light was boundless and the auspicious colors were constantly blooming as if to wash away the Demonic nature of her body.

"After killing so many people, the hostility has almost dissipated, so it should be suppressed for a while."

Gu Changge narrowed his eyes and put the Meditation Robe on her body, wisps of hostile energy dissipated and it chirped like green smoke.

Chan Hong Yi's hostile face gradually calmed down and she looked around in confusion as if she was very puzzled.

She looked at her blood-stained palms and dress again, feeling even more dazed.

"Master... Master..."

Chan Hong Yi looked at the young man in front of him, felt the familiar aura, and couldn't help muttering.

This was an extremely important person to her.

Although she forgot a lot of things, she uttered these two words naturally and they had been imprinted in her life and could not be erased.

She stretched out her slender white palm as if she wanted to reach out. But on the way, she shrank habitually, worried that there would be patterns lighting up here and bombarding her.

"You are already outside."

Gu Changge smiled, grabbed her white and slender hands. He then took out a clean embroidered handkerchief from his arms, and carefully and gently wiped away the blood on her face and hands.

Chan Hong Yi looked around in bewilderment, her black jewel-like flawless eyes showed confusion, she turned her head to the side, her black hair drooping down, "Outside... outside?"

"Hmm, outside." Gu Changge nodded.

"Master... Master, it hurts... It hurts..."

Chan Hong Yi suddenly shrank her palms back, her voice was very soft.

Gu Changge looked at the crack in the bone of her hand. He didn't know how she got this injury. It had been a long time and it was difficult to heal.

It was corroded by many miscellaneous auras before, but now after the first battle, it cracked again, which was shocking.

In the previous state, Chan Hong Yi couldn't feel the pain at all and there was only endless killing in her heart.

Even though her body was cracked, her expression didn't change at all and she didn't know what pain meant.

But now she could clearly feel the pain, her face turned slightly pale and she bit her lip tightly.

She was dazed and confused. It seemed that she didn't know why it hurt so much.

Gu Changge was silent for a moment.

"The pain will be gone soon."

Then, his complexion revealed softness and wisps of gentle aura gathered and disappeared, turning into a divine glow which had the meaning of good fortune of the Nirvana Green Lotus Body, and contained amazing vitality.

"No... it doesn't hurt anymore."

Above the injury, wisps of green smoke emerged, accompanied by chirping sounds.

Chan Hong Yi's complexion turned pale and her brows were knit together due to the pain, but she still nodded.

She still remembered being punished by the Master because of the unbearable pain after fighting with others.

So even if it hurt, she had to say it didn't hurt.

Gu Changge glanced at her and shook his head slightly, knowing why she said that.

In his opinion, the reason why Chan Hong Yi split into two personalities during the long and endless time of being sealed in the Demon Burying Abyss had a lot to do with it.

No pain, no fear of pain, only hatred, but it could resist the long and boundless loneliness and the pain she felt.

Afterward, Gu Changge took Chan Hong Yi, turned it into a divine light, and left this place.

The blood mist was floating here, within a radius of hundreds of thousands of miles. The red light was still soaring to the sky and broken weapons were scattered, but they had turned into dead ruins.

Along the way, Chan Hong Yi was in a daze and at a loss. She couldn't remember many things, but she could never forget many things.

"Master... Master, why... why did you throw Hong Yi in that place?"

"You... you haven't even come to see me, I miss you so much."

"Hong Yi is very obedient, you... can you please not leave me alone, it's so dark there."

Chapter 444-1: Turned into a place of death overnight, Reduced to a death conference (1)

This time, the Demon Slaying Conference in the divine city attracted the attention of almost all the powerful forces in the Upper Realm.

Many powerful people went there with forbidden weapons and many Old Monsters that had not appeared for tens of millions of years had shown up. They were so imposing with their intent to hunt down the Red Demon.

Although many people had never participated, they had been paying attention to this matter.

The moment the Red Demon appeared and stepped into the divine city, many cultivators knew what it was like when she appeared above the sky and looked at it from a distance.

They saw the chaotic light soaring into the sky, followed by the thick chaotic mist spreading and the peerless heavenly sound submerging the air, covering all directions of the world.

The city seemed to have drenched into an older era and even before the creation of the world. With that, the scene could no longer be seen clearly.

Even a cultivator who was extremely proficient in the Heavens could hardly see the slightest bit of it but he could faintly feel the mighty fluctuations coming from there.

It was as if a peerless war drum was being hammered. The sound resounded in all directions. It was the sound of fighting and shouting.

The world seemed to be subverted, the universe was turned upside down, the sun and the moon lost their light and the big stars outside the territory trembled as they fell down one by one.

The sky seemed to be broken and countless lights burst out. There were brilliant rays of light, evolving into all kinds of powerful divine weapons.

Those were the weapons from many powerful beings. They floated up and down between the heavens and the earth, like a brilliant sun or a rolling river. Even a wisp of that aura could smash the stars outside the domain.

But even such a weapon made a crackling sound at the end as if it had been blown apart. Such a scene was incomparably astonishing. This even made them more shocked and curious about the actual situation.

How was the battle proceeding?

Could this plan to hunt down the Red Demon be realized?

But they had to say that the formations arranged in the divine city were very mysterious.

Even if many Immortal Great Sects and the Ancient Royal family tried to disperse the chaotic mist with the powerful weapons of the clan, it was difficult to see the scene clearly. In the end, they could only wait for the result.

The more they waited, the more palpitating it became.

Suddenly, when the formation above the divine city dispersed, endless blood light reflected the sky and even a vision appeared in the distance.

Blood rained down from the sky, everything screamed, the bloody lotus took root in the void, bloomed with brilliance and big stars fell down one by one.

In distant places, even on the ancestral planets of some ethnic groups, terrifying visions appeared. Many people began to mourn and cry, incomparably sad.

That was a sign of the fall of their powerhouse.

This scene was reflected in all directions of the world. Many people reacted, their complexions became extremely pale and they panicked.

From this point of view, this Demon Slaying Conference might not have ended well.

Such a terrifying vision had not appeared for countless years. This was the first time it was so scary, the sky reflected blood as it rained down.

Then when the endless rushing sound emerged.

Horrible figures, with disheveled hair, terrified and covered in blood, kept rushing out of the divine city, opening the space channel, trying to escape.

This kind of scene made the people watching from far away shocked.

Especially when they saw an extremely terrifying existence with their own eyes, covered by a blood-red palm print chasing after it and when the scene exploded in the sky, they were even more terrified and cold all over.

What happened later confirmed everyone's speculation.

This Demon Slaying Conference caused a sensation in the Upper Realm.

However, many people did not expect that it would end in such a way. What looked like a conference to hunt the Red Demon turned out to be a death conference.

Many powers and powerful powerhouses died tragically. Their bodies and spirits were both destroyed, including their weapons, they were all blown apart and the gods within them had died tragically, no one survived.

The once glorious and ancient divine city with clouds soaring into the sky and the silver waterfall hanging upside down, was reduced to death within a day.

Corpses and weapon fragments could be seen everywhere. The aftermath of the battle could still be seen in some areas.

If the cultivators with weaker cultivation bases approached, they were likely to be suppressed and killed by the aftermath aura.

Even the blood of the powerhouses who fell at that time also contained unimaginable divine power. Among the intertwined chains of laws, a single drop could penetrate countless mountains.

However, many people had noticed that the life origin left here had been swallowed up. So they guessed that the Red Demon might have left in the end.

From this scene, they could see the cruelty and horror of that war at that time.

The Red Demon had disappeared, and no one knew her whereabouts.

In this battle, many forces of the Upper Realm suffered heavy losses. Many Old Monsters who wanted to take her flesh and blood after hunting the Red Demon also died horribly.

Such a scene could be described as extremely tragic with no life in sight.

All the runes had been obliterated, the formations were surging and the divine light penetrated the sky. No one could control it and there was a crisis everywhere.

Some powerhouses who saw that the timing was wrong and fled, felt even more terrified after a while.

If they had hesitated a little at that time, they might have died tragically and followed in the footsteps of the others.

Regarding this battle, many powerful forces tried to restore and reshape the scene at that time with secret treasures, but they all failed.

The Heavenly secrets in the divine city were chaotic and all kinds of laws and order were interrupted as they collapsed on all sides.

In this way, the process of the battle could only be restored by relying on the retelling of those who escaped at that time.

Only then did many people know that there was a problem with the formation's eye, because the Red Demon tried to rush out of the formation, resulting in a shortage of manpower at the formation's eye, and it was difficult for everyone to maintain the formation.

Otherwise, such a tragic scene would not have occurred.

Speaking of which, this was a mistake.

For a while, in many ancient cities within the Upper Realm, there were cultivators and creatures discussing this matter, worried that the Red Demon was not dead.

And her trace was hard to find, and they didn't know where she was. If she suddenly appeared, wouldn't it be a devastating disaster for them?

"What a great opportunity, it's a pity that it was miscalculated."

"If we had allocated a little more manpower to the formation's eye, we might have been able to eliminate the Red Demon."

In an ancient city, near the window, several young cultivators were talking. There were men and women, young and vigorous, wearing uniform clothing, obviously from a certain sect.

At this moment, when they heard what happened in the divine city, they were quite shocked and moved.

This kind of thing was too far away from them. With their cultivation base, they were not even qualified to see on the sidelines.

Those Supreme beings and Old Monsters had unfathomable cultivation and had lived for thousands of years. But the powerhouses there also died tragically.

"I heard that Buddha Mountain and Young Master Changge were among the people in charge of defending the formation this time."

"There has been news from Buddha Mountain that all the monks dispatched this time have fallen and their soul lamp has been annihilated."

"Young Master Changge is missing and many people suspect that his life is also in danger... I just don't know if it's true or not."

Several young men and women talked softly when they mentioned Gu Changge.

Awe and admiration appeared on their faces, but they couldn't help but sigh and regret in their words. Because they also felt that Gu Changge was in danger this time.

Although Gu Changge's strength was very strong, he was still a person from the younger generation. Compared with those Old Monsters, he was still much more immature.

His age was less than a fraction of the others. Therefore, for Gu Changge to participate in this Demon Slaying Conference, many younger generations were extremely admirable.

This not only required strength but also unprecedented courage. But this time, how many people escaped from the entire divine city?

At that time, the person in charge of guarding the eye of the formation was said to have fought against the Red Demon even when his origin was damaged.

What were the chances of winning this battle?

From their point of view, it was even more uncertain, but there was no news that Gu Changge's soul lamp was extinguished from the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, so they didn't know if he was alive or dead.

Of course, some people speculated that the Ancient Immortal Gu Family had concealed the news and could hardly accept it.

After all, Gu Changge's astonishment could be said to have illuminated the entire golden age. Has there been anyone since ancient times who was able to stand shoulder-to-shoulder with him?

Many people felt very sorry about this.

In short, there were different opinions and many powerful forces in the Upper Realm were paying close attention to this matter.

If Gu Changge didn't die, he would surely achieve the highest achievement in this life. If the path to Immortality was opened, there might have been a place for him above the Immortal!

Chapter 444-2: Turned into a place of death overnight, Reduced to a death conference (1)

This time, the Demon Slaying Conference in the divine city attracted the attention of almost all the powerful forces in the Upper Realm.

Many powerful people went there with forbidden weapons and many Old Monsters that had not appeared for tens of millions of years had shown up. They were so imposing with their intent to hunt down the Red Demon.

Although many people had never participated, they had been paying attention to this matter.

The moment the Red Demon appeared and stepped into the divine city, many cultivators knew what it was like when she appeared above the sky and looked at it from a distance.

They saw the chaotic light soaring into the sky, followed by the thick chaotic mist spreading and the peerless heavenly sound submerging the air, covering all directions of the world.

The city seemed to have drenched into an older era and even before the creation of the world. With that, the scene could no longer be seen clearly.

Even a cultivator who was extremely proficient in the Heavens could hardly see the slightest bit of it but he could faintly feel the mighty fluctuations coming from there.

It was as if a peerless war drum was being hammered. The sound resounded in all directions. It was the sound of fighting and shouting.

The world seemed to be subverted, the universe was turned upside down, the sun and the moon lost their light and the big stars outside the territory trembled as they fell down one by one.

The sky seemed to be broken and countless lights burst out. There were brilliant rays of light, evolving into all kinds of powerful divine weapons.

Those were the weapons from many powerful beings. They floated up and down between the heavens and the earth, like a brilliant sun or a rolling river. Even a wisp of that aura could smash the stars outside the domain.

But even such a weapon made a crackling sound at the end as if it had been blown apart. Such a scene was incomparably astonishing. This even made them more shocked and curious about the actual situation.

How was the battle proceeding?

Could this plan to hunt down the Red Demon be realized?

But they had to say that the formations arranged in the divine city were very mysterious.

Even if many Immortal Great Sects and the Ancient Royal family tried to disperse the chaotic mist with the powerful weapons of the clan, it was difficult to see the scene clearly. In the end, they could only wait for the result.

The more they waited, the more palpitating it became.

Suddenly, when the formation above the divine city dispersed, endless blood light reflected the sky and even a vision appeared in the distance.

Blood rained down from the sky, everything screamed, the bloody lotus took root in the void, bloomed with brilliance and big stars fell down one by one.

In distant places, even on the ancestral planets of some ethnic groups, terrifying visions appeared. Many people began to mourn and cry, incomparably sad.

That was a sign of the fall of their powerhouse.

This scene was reflected in all directions of the world. Many people reacted, their complexions became extremely pale and they panicked.

From this point of view, this Demon Slaying Conference might not have ended well.

Such a terrifying vision had not appeared for countless years. This was the first time it was so scary, the sky reflected blood as it rained down.

Then when the endless rushing sound emerged.

Horrible figures, with disheveled hair, terrified and covered in blood, kept rushing out of the divine city, opening the space channel, trying to escape.

This kind of scene made the people watching from far away shocked.

Especially when they saw an extremely terrifying existence with their own eyes, covered by a blood-red palm print chasing after it and when the scene exploded in the sky, they were even more terrified and cold all over.

What happened later confirmed everyone's speculation.

This Demon Slaying Conference caused a sensation in the Upper Realm.

However, many people did not expect that it would end in such a way. What looked like a conference to hunt the Red Demon turned out to be a death conference.

Many powers and powerful powerhouses died tragically. Their bodies and spirits were both destroyed, including their weapons, they were all blown apart and the gods within them had died tragically, no one survived.

The once glorious and ancient divine city with clouds soaring into the sky and the silver waterfall hanging upside down, was reduced to death within a day.

Corpses and weapon fragments could be seen everywhere. The aftermath of the battle could still be seen in some areas.

If the cultivators with weaker cultivation bases approached, they were likely to be suppressed and killed by the aftermath aura.

Even the blood of the powerhouses who fell at that time also contained unimaginable divine power. Among the intertwined chains of laws, a single drop could penetrate countless mountains.

However, many people had noticed that the life origin left here had been swallowed up. So they guessed that the Red Demon might have left in the end.

From this scene, they could see the cruelty and horror of that war at that time.

The Red Demon had disappeared, and no one knew her whereabouts.

In this battle, many forces of the Upper Realm suffered heavy losses. Many Old Monsters who wanted to take her flesh and blood after hunting the Red Demon also died horribly.

Such a scene could be described as extremely tragic with no life in sight.

All the runes had been obliterated, the formations were surging and the divine light penetrated the sky. No one could control it and there was a crisis everywhere.

Some powerhouses who saw that the timing was wrong and fled, felt even more terrified after a while.

If they had hesitated a little at that time, they might have died tragically and followed in the footsteps of the others.

Regarding this battle, many powerful forces tried to restore and reshape the scene at that time with secret treasures, but they all failed.

The Heavenly secrets in the divine city were chaotic and all kinds of laws and order were interrupted as they collapsed on all sides.

In this way, the process of the battle could only be restored by relying on the retelling of those who escaped at that time.

Only then did many people know that there was a problem with the formation's eye, because the Red Demon tried to rush out of the formation, resulting in a shortage of manpower at the formation's eye, and it was difficult for everyone to maintain the formation.

Otherwise, such a tragic scene would not have occurred.

Speaking of which, this was a mistake.

For a while, in many ancient cities within the Upper Realm, there were cultivators and creatures discussing this matter, worried that the Red Demon was not dead.

And her trace was hard to find, and they didn't know where she was. If she suddenly appeared, wouldn't it be a devastating disaster for them?

"What a great opportunity, it's a pity that it was miscalculated."

"If we had allocated a little more manpower to the formation's eye, we might have been able to eliminate the Red Demon."

In an ancient city, near the window, several young cultivators were talking. There were men and women, young and vigorous, wearing uniform clothing, obviously from a certain sect.

At this moment, when they heard what happened in the divine city, they were quite shocked and moved.

This kind of thing was too far away from them. With their cultivation base, they were not even qualified to see on the sidelines.

Those Supreme beings and Old Monsters had unfathomable cultivation and had lived for thousands of years. But the powerhouses there also died tragically.

"I heard that Buddha Mountain and Young Master Changge were among the people in charge of defending the formation this time."

"There has been news from Buddha Mountain that all the monks dispatched this time have fallen and their soul lamp has been annihilated."

"Young Master Changge is missing and many people suspect that his life is also in danger... I just don't know if it's true or not."

Several young men and women talked softly when they mentioned Gu Changge.

Awe and admiration appeared on their faces, but they couldn't help but sigh and regret in their words. Because they also felt that Gu Changge was in danger this time.

Although Gu Changge's strength was very strong, he was still a person from the younger generation. Compared with those Old Monsters, he was still much more immature.

His age was less than a fraction of the others. Therefore, for Gu Changge to participate in this Demon Slaying Conference, many younger generations were extremely admirable.

This not only required strength but also unprecedented courage. But this time, how many people escaped from the entire divine city?

At that time, the person in charge of guarding the eye of the formation was said to have fought against the Red Demon even when his origin was damaged.

What were the chances of winning this battle?

From their point of view, it was even more uncertain, but there was no news that Gu Changge's soul lamp was extinguished from the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, so they didn't know if he was alive or dead.

Of course, some people speculated that the Ancient Immortal Gu Family had concealed the news and could hardly accept it.

After all, Gu Changge's astonishment could be said to have illuminated the entire golden age. Has there been anyone since ancient times who was able to stand shoulder-to-shoulder with him?

Many people felt very sorry about this.

In short, there were different opinions and many powerful forces in the Upper Realm were paying close attention to this matter.

If Gu Changge didn't die, he would surely achieve the highest achievement in this life. If the path to Immortality was opened, there might have been a place for him above the Immortal!

Chapter 445-1: Will you eat me? Two kinds of geniuses from Eight Desolations and Ten Regions (1)

The ancient palace was magnificent and simple, filled with a faint glow, its era was unknown as many ancient patterns were carved on it.

At this moment, the vast origin of life was gathering from all directions, evolving life symbols one by one and falling into the pool.

The immortal mist was dense as if the Milky Way was hanging down, it was extremely bright.

Chan Hong Yi was soaked in it, her blue hair was loose and she was still wearing the Meditation Robe, suppressing a terrifying hostility.

Those eyes, which were like black jewels, kept looking in the direction of the entrance of the hall.

After seeing Gu Changge stop there, she seemed to be relieved. Then she smiled contentedly and happily.

It seemed that for her, as long as she could see Gu Changge, it was the most satisfying thing in the world.

"Master... Father, Hong Yi must practice hard in the future. Don't... leave me again..."

She murmured and kept looking.

The rest of the body was soaked in the divine spring and when she spoke, she suddenly burst into bubbling bubbles, stupidly.

Buzz!!

However, strands of origin turned into brilliant rays of light, permeating the void space with a hazy meaning, continuously gathering towards Chan Hong Yi's body.

Those terrible injuries were slowly getting better. Especially in the dazed eyes, there was a sense of agility.

It seemed that as her body's injuries healed, the wounds of her soul were also recovering slowly.

Gu Changge stood at the gate of the Ancient Hall with his black clothes lightly stretched out. His eyes slightly closed and he could sense the direction of the laws here.

After Chan Hong Yi left the divine city, Gu Changge deliberately avoided everyone and then took her to the soul-nourishing place that he had prepared long ago.

There were many scattered origins of heaven and earth here, even some fallen ones.

There had been countless battles in Boundary Monument and the dead creatures were like the sand of the river. The life origin had gradually gathered over countless years and was boundless.

After killing War Immortal Li Xiu, just in case, he also controlled the many prohibition formations here.

On the one hand, he was worried that someone would notice and destroy this soul sanctuary. On the other hand, it was the formation of this place, which could be controlled by him.

If at that time, Chan Hong Yi's hostility reappeared, he could use the formation here to seal her in the Inner Universe.

However, this was only a deeper consideration and this step was not necessary unless it was a last resort.

And just as Gu Changge was thinking, there was a wave of fluctuation outside the ancient hall.

Alpha's figure emerged, a jet-black treasure bottle bobbed up and down in his hand, with the majestic intention of devouring everything.

"My lord, the collection is complete."

He respectfully handed over the vase.

Gu Changge glanced casually and nodded.

This was the Great Dao treasure bottle condensed by the runes of Dao. It was as vast as the sea, but it had been filled with the endless origin of life at this moment.

A clear sea of ??blood floated within it, turning into a red haze which was extremely misty.

"It's not enough. However, the origin of life in this place is already thin. You go to the frontier where the two realms are fighting. There are many cultivators. Kill them and fill another bottle."

Gu Changge shook his head slightly, a black rune emerged in his hand as it condensed into a black Dao bottle before he handed it to Alpha.

"My lord, should I kill the cultivators and creatures in this world?" Alpha's golden eyes showed some doubts, and he asked respectfully.

"It's not wrong to kill." Gu Changge nodded slightly, his expression unwavering.

"Yes." The void was blurred and a crack appeared as Alpha's figure quickly stepped into it, leaving without a trace.

Afterward, Gu Changge walked into the hall with the vase of the Great Dao.

Strands of red smoke rushed out of it, gathering toward Chan Hong Yi's body.

The already thin origin of life around her became thick again, like a sea of ??blood floating in the void.

Her face was a little confused, and her voice was very weak, "Master... Master..."

"What happened?" Gu Changge glanced at her, his hands kept moving.

The black rune fell into the pool.

At the same time, some divine medicines that were transpiring in the sun were thrown in, including red agate-like fruits, transparent and sacred small trees, shining with silver light.

"Are you... are you going to boil... me like before?"

Chan Hong Yi stared blankly at the divine spring that was gradually boiling due to the terrifying properties of the medicine.

The water temperature continued to rise, and even bubbling bubbles were emitted.

In the enveloping mist, her face became a little hot and her blush rose like a haze.

However, this fog was condensed from the origin of life and the peerless divine medicine. Each strand contained astonishingly extreme vitality.

Even the legendary medicine for the human body was nothing more than that.

"Boiled?" Gu Changge flashed some memory fragments in his mind, shook his head slightly, and said, "That's called foundation building, how many times have I told you?"

"Oh... oh, oh. This is called building a foundation, Hong Yi remembered it. Then... Master, I... I will boil it in a while, are you going to eat me?"

Chan Hong Yi was still a little confused and felt very unfamiliar with the word "foundation building".

But she remembered another very important thing, her eyes were like deer, looking at Gu Changge with some caution and joyful expectation.

"Eat you?" Gu Changge raised his eyebrows, walked up to her and felt that her confusion was really serious.

Chan Hong Yi nodded with a dazed expression which was rarely serious as if this matter was very important to her.

"Well... well, I have grown up and Master has eaten me. I... I can marry Master." She explained earnestly.

Gu Changge didn't expect what she meant by eating.

In his impression, Chan Hong Yi's personality was a bit upright, but definitely not to this extent.

"Where did you hear these words?"

Gu Changge put his head on her head, her voice gradually softened.

"Yes... at the foot of the mountain... Auntie, I asked her when I can marry Master."

"She... she said after Master eats me."

Chan Hong Yi's voice was a little weak and her expression was a little dazed as if she was thinking about it seriously.

After saying this, she couldn't help but tug on Gu Changge's sleeve, "Master... Master, can you stop killing Auntie?"

"Big... Auntie is a good person, she even taught me how to cook."

"I... want to cook for Master..."

In her memory, Gu Changge rarely let her contact outsiders. He mercilessly killed many strangers who tried to approach her.

Once, a young master of the hermit Immortal Clan was exterminated by Gu Changge because of this relationship.

"I'm not going to kill anyone this time." Gu Changge rubbed her head, his eyes were calm and deep, "Heal your wounds well."

"Uh-huh..." Chan Hong Yi nodded obediently.

In the next few days, the Ancient Hall was filled with a faint red haze.

Gu Changge was paying attention to the many news from the outside world and asked his subordinates to pass on the news.

What interested him the most was that many sects and forces were speculating about his life and death.

Some people said that he was suspected to have fallen, while others said that he was kidnapped by the Red Demon. There were different opinions.

This time, the Demon Slaying Conference in the divine city could be said to have caused a shock in the Upper Realm.

There were too many powerhouses who died and those who escaped were also seriously injured. It would take a long time for them to recover.

In particular, many ancient monks of Buddha Mountain died tragically, leaving no one alive.

This caused many people to speculate on Gu Changge's whereabouts. Whether it was the younger generation or the older generation, they all paid great attention to him and wanted to know his life and death urgently.

For Gu Changge, this actually didn't have much impact. Because he didn't need to feign death to deceive the enemy. In the current Upper Realm, no enemy could make him do this.

His main concern was Chan Hong Yi.

She was like a ticking time bomb, difficult to control and the outburst of hostility was even more unstable. She could turn into the same appearance as in the divine city at any time.

And as her injuries healed, her strength would only become more terrifying.

Gu Changge had checked her injuries and her recovery was less than one percent of what she was at her peak.

Now it seemed that the only way to stabilize her soul was to plan other things.

The Upper Realm was different from the previous era, lacking material with Immortal property, so it was difficult for Chan Hong Yi to fully recover.

In her current state, it was easy to deal with when she was confused. Once she was caught in the killing state, it was bound to be a hundred times more difficult to suppress than before.

During this period of time, Chan Hong Yi's injuries were recovering which meant that her strength when she went forward with slaughtering would only become more terrifying.

However, Gu Changge deployed the rest of the backups present here. In case there was no way to suppress her at that time.

A few days later, the origin of life within a million miles of the Soul Nourishing Palace had been thinned out.

The pale blood-colored rays that once floated on the sea of ??Boundary Monuments had dissipated and it would take at least tens of millions of years for them to come together again.

Gu Changge left this place with Chan Hong Yi but her current whereabouts could not be known to the outside world.

So Gu Changge thought for a while and threw her into the Inner Universe. Now he didn't intend to go back home first, there were still some things to deal with in the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions.

According to Alpha's report, Chu Hao, another Son of Luck was appearing on the side of the Boundary Monument Sea during this time, trying to break into the Eight Desolations and Ten Region.

Gu Changge reckoned that after he got rid of Chu Hao, his cultivation should be able to break through the Quasi-Emperor Realm.

But as time went by, the power of inviolability above the Boundary Monument became thinner and thinner, resulting in more and more forces arriving here.

A large black cloud swept away from the sky, shaking the void.

It was a majestic and vast ancient warship with many powerhouses standing densely on it and the rays of light surrounded their body. Their fighting spirit was brilliant.

Although it was difficult for the strong powerhouses to cross as it would cost a lot. But for the younger generation, it was an extremely suitable opportunity.

Almost all of the Immortal Sects, the Supreme Religion, including the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, had young generations who had come here a long time ago and went to the border to fight with the younger generation on the opposite side.

The last time Gu Changge manifested the Dharma Body of Faith, it was the epitome of a battlefield.

Crossing the sea of ??Boundary Monuments was very difficult for the other powerhouses, but for Gu Changge, who was proficient in the origin of space, it was like walking on flat ground.

Although there were many dangerous places on the way, it was difficult to hurt him now.

Gu Changge's robe fluttered, his face was calm and he walked on the waves on the sea of ??Boundary Monuments as if there was an invisible Golden Dao stretching under his feet, directly suppressing the majestic and heavy force emerging from the ground, He speed was very fast and he appeared tens of thousands of miles away almost instantly.

But soon, he noticed three Black Dragons appearing in the huge waves ahead, surrounded by black light. They looked extremely hideous and terrifying like a majestic island lying across.

They seemed to live in the sea of ??Boundary Monuments and were not afraid of the majestic pressure of this place. Its body surface was covered with dense black and blue scales, as strong as Immortal Gold.

The three Black Dragons noticed Gu Changge's expression, bared their teeth and displayed a ferocious look, and tried to attack him.

But at that moment, when the terrifying and vast pressure swept toward them, they trembled, their soul was almost frightened and they continued to drill into the depths of the sea of ??Boundary Monuments.

"The strength of the Supreme Realm just lacks a mount for transportation."

Gu Changge nodded slightly and walked toward them unhurriedly.

At this moment, the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions, the shore of the Boundary Monument Sea, was a barren and boundless yellow desert.

The endless yellow sand submerged the heaven and the earth and occasionally, withered bones appeared.

He didn't know how many powerhouses from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions had died in battle here and all of them died tragically while resisting the invasion of the Upper Realm.

Buried by wind and sand for many years, their bones were still immortal, exuding a glistening white light.

Pieces of barren hills and mountains spread here and some peaks were incomparably strange with brilliant rays of light and shrouded in divine splendor.

Some desolate forests were also among them, shrouded in thick miasma and chaotic mist.

From time to time, a huge mountain-like beast could be seen crossing the sky and landing on this place.

In some places, even the powerhouses of the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions built war fortresses as huge as stars.

But it had already been damaged before it fell from the sky, smashing out terrifying pits one by one.

Seen from a high altitude, this place was devastated with traces of previous battles all over the place.

This was a dangerous land with magnificent mountains and rolling yellow sand. But there was a very unusual scene, hidden in the depths, a group of people trekking here.

The ancient trees that seemed to have dried up seem to have lost their vitality.

Yet they still took root and grew. It could be seen that many black fierce birds were nesting on it, their eyes were like cold knives and their chirping sounds penetrated the void.

This group of trekking people were very cautious, their number was not small, there were some races, there were also foreigners, close to twenty or thirty people.

Most of them were young faces, but there were also many old people with a divine light looming on their bodies and their strength was very terrifying.

"It is said that the Venerable Spirit Gourd in our world once fought against a Supreme being named Supreme Dao from that world. It was hard to separate and in the end, a void was created."

"The two died of exhaustion in the end, but their inheritance and many relics, including divine weapons, all stayed here."

"However, that empty space is very strange. It will only manifest itself when encountering fluctuations of terrifying battles. Otherwise, we will never find the entrance."

Among the group of people who were on their way, a young woman spoke.

She was tall and graceful with long hair like silk, very smooth, dark green in color, even her eyes were dark green with a beautiful face, she was a rare beauty.

Her whole body was filled with a plant-like fresh breath, which makes people feel peaceful.

Many young men looked at her with admiration.

The woman's name was Lu Luo and she was from an ancient race of the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions. The blood of the Ancient Gods was flowing in her body, and she was close to nature.

All kinds of natural techniques would come at her fingertips without hindrance. She was also a very famous goddess of the younger generation in the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions and had many suitors.

"If it weren't for the battle between the two realms this time and the aftermath would have spread here, I'm afraid this void space would not have been revealed."

"It happened to make it easy for us."

Hearing Luluo's words, the other young men and women also nodded one after another. Their eyes sparkled and there was an aura that was completely different from the Upper Realm.

They were on the side of the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions, their status was not low. The family power behind them was very old and they knew a lot of secrets.

That was why after the discussion, they came here together to explore that empty space.

"Don't be careless, since we can know this void space, then those people on the other side may also know it."

At this time, another man in black with a slightly younger face spoke. His hair was very long, his face was not handsome, his figure was not very tall, and he was even a little thin.

But there was an aura that was difficult to ignore on his body. His eyes were radiant, his palms were covered with faint dragon scales, his knuckles were large and some parts had calluses. He obviously often practices various spells and moves.

There was a calm and natural aura around him. He was not surprised when dealing with things.

"Since brother Lin said so, then I will naturally be careful."

Hearing this, the rest of the young men and women all had serious faces. They were obviously in awe of the man in front of them.

Even a goddess like Lu Luo couldn't help showing appreciation in her eyes.

This man's name was Lin Wu, he was from the ancient and mysterious Dragon Blood Family, and he was a legendary genius in the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions.

His limelight was extremely dazzling and could be regarded as one of the invincible figures of the younger generation.

Lin Wu's background could only be regarded as ordinary, even born to a concubine of the Lin clan.

If it wasn't for the fact that the Patriarch of the Lin clan hadn't been confused for a while and had sex after drinking, Lin Wu probably wouldn't be there now.

Before the age of thirteen, Lin Wu was not very unusual, even far behind his peers and he was not valued by his family at all.

But at the age of thirteen, when he awakened the Dragon blood of the Lin family, his terrifying talent was revealed, which shocked everyone.

It could be said that the sword that had been honed for more than ten years showed dazzling brilliance.

How terrifying was Lin Wu's talent?

There was nothing in this world that he could not learn.

No matter how obscure and incomprehensible the technique was, he could reach the level of proficiency in a very short period of time.

In a word, there were two types of geniuses in the family, one was called Lin Wu, and the other were called others.

After more than ten years behind his peers, it was a miracle that Lin Wu could catch up from behind and become a dazzling and invincible existence of his peers.

However, Lin Wu's horror lay in his talent.

In the current Eight Desolations and Ten Regions, it seemed that the golden age had been accumulated for a long time. It was beginning to erupt and all kinds of horrors and ancient monsters appeared in the world.

The star of the troubled times was dazzling, even Lin Wu could only be regarded as one of them.

"I just don't know how likely we are to win this battle. It is said that there is a problem on that side, otherwise, there will be more powerful people coming..."

Seemingly thinking of something, the goddess Lu Luo sighed quietly, her expression was bitter and helpless with deep depression and fear.

When the other side was mentioned, hatred and anger appeared in almost everyone's eyes.

It was not the first time that the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions had been invaded. There have been many such instances since ancient times.

The many damaged war fortresses on the shore of the Boundary Monument Sea today were the result of countless years of fighting.

Soon, everyone hurried forward again cautiously, avoiding many fierce beasts here.

The goddess Lu Luo saw that Lin Wu seemed to be thinking something and couldn't help asking, "Lin Wu, are you still thinking about the past?"

Lin Wu nodded silently.

"You... you have to mourn. Brother Qingyang didn't give in at the last moment. He died bravely, and he is worthy of the name of your clan's Dragon Blood God of War." Luluo sighed.

She knew that Lin Wu and his elder brother Lin Qingyang had a deep relationship.

But some time ago, when Lin Qingyang fought against a young creature on the battlefield and narrowly defeated the opponent who was about to be killed, he was shot to death by an extremely terrifying existence behind him.

Together with an Ancestor of the Lin family, he also died tragically on the spot, turning into a blood mist and collapsing without leaving any traces.

This incident made Lin Wu furious for a long time, his eyes had almost turned red with hatred.

Chapter 446-1: Since ancient times, evil never overwhelms righteousness, I'll find something good again(Part1)

The black ancient trees were towering, withered, and without any vitality, but they were incomparably tall, standing on all sides of this desert.

The mountains were sprawling and undulating, with no boundaries, and the yellow sand was billowing, covering the sky and covering the earth.

These ancient trees had absorbed countless dead corpses of powerhouses for countless years, and they had become refined.

Seeking good luck and avoiding bad luck, they would not provoke the creatures passing by here.

However, Luluo and her party were still very cautious, fearing that the commotion here would be too big and attract the rest of the cultivators.

Now that the Upper Realm was fighting with the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions, this place was actually not too far from the frontier.

So as long as there was any change here, it was likely to be noticed by the cultivators with amazing perception over there, thus disrupting their plans.

"Lin Wu, I can understand your feelings, but at this time, we still need to mourn."

Luluo persuaded softly, feeling very sympathetic to Lin Wu.

At the same time, she also has a good impression of this legendary man, and she doesn't want to see him affected by this matter.

The terrifying existence that killed Lin Qingyang is by no means something that Lin Wu can face today.

Lin Wu's face was very calm, and he had restrained the previous silent emotion.

He nodded and said, "I know, you don't have to worry, Luluo."

Just as Luluo had a crush on him, he also had a deep affection for the well-educated, knowledgeable, and beautiful Luluo.

In the eyes of many people, when he and the Luluo Goddess stood together, they looked like a pair of extremely well-matched immortal couples.

"The man who killed brother Lin Wu's brother is said to have an unparalleled status on the other side. He is the leader there. No one is qualified to stand shoulder to shoulder with him."

Hearing the conversation between Lin Wu and Luluo, several other young men and women couldn't help but look over.

Someone sighed and said powerlessly on his face.

He was one of those who witnessed that scene that day.

The ancestor of the Lin clan was a quasi-supreme existence, and he was also an extremely powerful person of the extremely old generation of the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions.

However, he was slapped to death by the opponent's dharma body manifested from an infinite distance, shaking the sky.

And he heard that the other party was about the same age as them.

Before this, it was simply unimaginable, and he dared not imagine it.

Their so-called geniuses were really inferior to the ants in front of him.

"I know that man is strong."

When Lin Wu heard this, he seemed very calm, without any fear, and did not shrink back because of the opponent's terrifying strength.

"Brother Lin Wu, as long as you understand..."

The person who spoke just now also shook his head.

He knew that Lin Wu hadn't witnessed that scene with his own eyes, so it was difficult for him to know the terror of the other party. It was a world of despair and invincibility.

But at this time, it was impossible for him to persuade Lin Wu to let go of his hatred.

"There is no genius in this world that I can't catch up with."

Seeing everyone's expressions like this, Lin Wu's face was filled with self-confidence, almost slamming every word.

Hearing this, everyone's expressions changed slightly, and they felt Lin Wu's indomitable intention.

Many young men and women couldn't help admiring him even more.

Several elders also nodded, showing their appreciation.

At this time, the invasion of the upper realm was the time when the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions were united.

If the younger generation had the same attitude as Lin Wu, why would they worry about being invincible?

"We're going to end up against each other anyway, it's inevitable."

"Instead of retreating in despair, it is better to fight him to the death."

"Besides the Boundary Monument, we still have the last hurdle, and we haven't reached the point of despair yet..."

Lin Wu kept talking, regaining confidence for everyone, and said, "Although the upper realm is strong, since ancient times, the evil has never overwhelmed the righteous. This is an unchanging law of heaven. We are on the side of justice as if God is helping... .."

His words were indeed from the heart, and he was truly blessed by God to be able to make it this far.

Lin Wu had a secret that he had never told someone, and it had been hidden in the deepest part of his heart.

At the age of thirteen, on the eve of awakening his blood talent, he prayed by the ancient well in the backyard, hoping to awaken a good talent the next day, thus changing his embarrassing and neglected situation.

As a result, it was as if God had heard his prayers.

After a shooting star streaked across the sky, a multi-colored light suddenly appeared in the ancient well, as if there was a ball of light floating in it.

Lin Wu got the ball of light.

It was a mysterious space called Evolutionary Martial Space, hidden in his mind.

The Evolutionary Martial space was very mysterious, and it contained unpredictable things, which could not only help him deduce and control the divine power but also allow his consciousness to enter it.

The passage of time in it was very slow, allowing Lin Wu to have more time than ordinary people to cultivate.

And thanks to this Evolutionary Martial Space, he was able to quickly master various techniques and moves, and began to rise, becoming a young legend in the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions.

Otherwise, his own talent was actually very poor, and his dragon blood talent was gradually improved by relying on the Evolutionary Martial Space.

It was because of this reason that Lin Wu felt that he was blessed by the heavens.

The Eight Desolations and Ten Regions would be in chaos, and the invasion of the upper realms, wasn't it an opportunity?

...

At the same time, above the endless black Dead Sea.

A three-headed black flood dragon was riding the clouds and fog, traveling quickly on the sea.

On top of its head, a young man was sitting cross-legged, dressed in white clothes that were as white as snow, his hair seemed to be filled with chaos.

He seemed to be deducing something, each rune evolved behind him, and finally disillusioned, like the ancient worlds were constantly collapsing, and then reshaped again.

This was a terrifying scene, just the aura that permeated it could make people tremble.

In the palm of his hand, there seemed to be billions of worlds that were born and died.

The three black dragons under their feet felt their hearts jumping in fear, fearing that a wisp of aura would fall and blow them into ashes.

This young man was so powerful that it despaired, and it didn't dare to feel disrespectful at all.

"Is it almost there?"

Gu Changge raised his eyes, glanced into the distance, and asked casually.

There were no waves on the sea surface, and it looked extremely dead.

The closer he got to the coast, the more he couldn't feel the weakness of the power of inviolability.

The Boundary Monument was drying up, and it no longer had the restraint it had before.

It was conceivable that when the barrier here dried up, it would be the time when the army from the upper realm would attack with all its strength.

"My lord, after crossing the front area, we will be at the border of the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions..."

"The two sides once fought here. A legendary powerhouse of the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions forged something called a War Fortress, which can be connected to the power of stars outside the region. Its power is vast... That battle almost destroyed this place. My lord, when I was a little dragon, I witnessed that battle with my own eyes."

The three headed black dragon trembled when he heard the words, and hurriedly replied, telling everything they knew in detail.

It had reached the Supreme Realm, and it had lived for countless years. Because it lived in the Boundary Monument, its strength was much stronger than other creatures in the same realm.

Chapter 446-2: Since ancient times, evil never overwhelms righteousness, I'll find something good again(Part2)

But now it could only be reduced to a mount for transportation.

It did not dare to feel resentment for this.

It witnessed with its own eyes that on the way, a ferocious beast of the third level quasi-emperor rushed out, trying to devour the young man in front of it.

As a result, he just grabbed it casually, and the black runes condensed in his palm, turning into a black spear.

Then it pierced into the void, and with a bang, it was like a vast expanse of the ocean rolling back, washing the sky.

The terrifying beast of the third level quasi-emperor realm was pierced through the air, collapsed, and died tragically on the spot, which could be called an instant kill.

So it learned to be obedient and knew how terrifying the strength of the young man sitting above its head was.

"The fortress of war? The battle on that place doesn't not seem to be simple either."

In Gu Changge's eyes, the coast gradually emerged, and there were indeed many broken stars there, all of which were weapons that had been refined.

And from his angle, he could see gray clouds billowing in the sky, and many ancient warships were parked there.

Almost all the powerful forces that came to attack the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions gathered on that side.

On the contrary, he crossed all the way and rarely saw other cultivators.

Of course, there were very few people who crossed over here alone like him.

"Chu Hao didn't come here just to make a name for himself..."

"It looks like you will find something good for me again."

Gu Changge's eyes fell far away, he had already asked Alpha to pay attention to the movements of people from Supreme Dao Cave.

So after knowing that Chu Hao came to this side, and didn't rush to the battlefield immediately, but went to another place.

This aroused him interested.

According to normal routines and conventions, Chu Hao should have gone on a treasure hunt, but he didn't know how useful he was as a son of luck from the upper realm, and could play in the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions.

Moreover, the closer he was to the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions, the more he could feel the fragments of the broken Dao Law, as well as the strands of Immortal energy permeating the void space.

This made Gu Changge a little skeptical about the veracity of the rumors from the upper realm.

After the Taboo Era, the upper realm was shattered, including the rules of heaven and earth, and the laws of the Dao, and the Eight Desolations and Ten regions became one with the aura of immortality?

In this way, was it true that only by uniting the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions with the Upper Realm could the gate of immortality be opened again?

...

"What is that?"

"Be careful, everyone."

And just as Lin Wu, Luluo and others were on their way, an old man suddenly waved his hand to stop the crowd, frowning and looking forward.

On a majestic and infinite mountain peak, there was a golden eagle lying on its lair.

Its size was not very large, but it was carved out of gold, its whole body was shining, and even its feathers were shining, as if it was indestructible.

When it opened its huge mouth, its sound was like a divine sound piercing through the ears, and the eardrums were almost torn even from far away.

This was an extremely terrifying ferocious beast. It possessed multiple powerful talents and was capable of quasi-supreme strength. It occupied one side like an overlord, and no one dared to provoke it.

But now it was staring at a group of people in the other direction with great fear.

The clothes of that group of people obviously did not belong to the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions, and their aura was completely different. They didn't know when they came here.

The leader was a young man, very elegant and calm, with a glow around his body, and a powerful aura on his body, which makes people dare not underestimate him.

"This is the strong man from the upper realm, and they have come here as expected."

Lin Wu, Luluo and the others looked solemn, and felt that the young man's strength was extremely terrifying, and it would not be an exaggeration to describe it as unfathomable, and it was far beyond what they could compare at present.

"It doesn't look like much, but its strength is so terrifying. Are the cultivators on that side so scary?"

Their hearts were heavy, they felt that they were all from the younger generation, but why was there such a difference in cultivation?

The opponent's age was at most hundreds of years older than them, but their cultivation was far beyond their reach.

"It should be the younger generation left behind by the existence that fell together after the battle with Venerable Spirit Gourd..."

Luluo stared closely at that direction.

She could use all natural plants as eyes, so even though she was separated by a distance, she could still see the formations on the other party's sleeves clearly.

"Is it a force called Supreme Dao?"

Several old men looked at each other, a little dignified, the other party obviously came here to look for that empty space.

With such a distance, they were not sure about each other's strength, so they could only carefully hide in the dark and play by ear.

"Don't act rashly, we all must follow carefully and we can't let the other party notice."

Several old men looked at each other, and with a plan in mind, they turned their heads and said to Lin Wu, Luluo and others.

They were responsible for protecting a group of young men and women from accidents. After all, they were all geniuses from the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions, and they were the seeds of hope for the future.

If they were discovered by people from the upper realm, they would definitely not spare their lives, and would kill them all.

Lin Wu, Luluo and the others were very cautious and nodded, knowing the danger of this matter, they all followed carefully.

And soon, the golden eagle in the front was extremely fearful. Although it tried to escape, it was quickly killed. It let out an unwilling scream, and sprinkled golden blood from the air, and the pieces of golden feathers were stained with blood and sprinkled all over the mountain.

Lin Wu and the others watched with seriousness. The elegant man was very powerful, and he killed the golden eagle with just a few shots.

In the upper realm, at least he belonged to the existence of the leader level.

The patriarchs and other figures behind them were far from this strength, and only the ancestors in the family would be able to compete.

Such a person unexpectedly came to this place secretly and crossed the ??boundary monuments.

This made them feel apprehensive and vigilant. In this way, the Boundary Monument might become less and less safe.

"Mansion Master, if the location shown on the compass is correct, then the lost Supreme Dao Map should be here."

A short old man held a purple-gold compass in his hand, the pointer on it changed rapidly, and finally pointed steadily to the barren mountain in front of him, and then he said excitedly.

The refined man was Chu Hao who had crossed the sea of ??boundary monuments all the way.

Hearing this, he nodded, and by using the secret method to perceive, he could naturally confirm that the treasure of Supreme Dao Cave, the Supreme Dao Map was indeed left here.

Some people said that the origin of Supreme Dao Cave had something to do with their supreme cultivation, Supreme Dao Ancient Heavenly Technique of Forgiveness.

But Chu Hao knew that it wasn't the case. The origin of Supreme Dao Cave was only because of a mysterious map.

That map had been handed down from generation to generation, and it contained the deepest meaning of Supreme Dao Cave.

However, it was once carried by an ancestor-level figure of them, and he almost broke through the defense of the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions.

Unfortunately, he still fell in the end, and encountered a powerful figure from the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions, the Venerable Linghu.

The two sides died of exhaustion, and the treasures carried by the two were also buried in the place where they fought.

Chu Hao didn't know much about the venerable Linghu, he just knew that its treasure was an extremely mysterious gourd, and no one knew where it came from.

Every time the lid of the gourd was opened, a peerless flying sword would rush out of it, attacking everything without returning blood.

The end was horrible.

Such a treasure was likely to be one of the seven gourds that were congenitally born according to the rumors. It was conceived with a killing spirit, and its value was simply incalculable, surpassing the emperor's weapon.

Although Chu Hao wanted to retrieve the Supreme Dao Map that was lost by the Supreme Dao Cave, he also had thoughts about the mysterious gourd.

"Palace Master, I have found the entrance. Because of the aftermath of the battle, this place is very unstable. The space inside has been built up for countless years and may collapse at any time, so we have to find the Supreme Dao Map quickly."

The short old man next to Chu Hao couldn't help but speak cautiously, and at the same time pointed to the hazy land in front of him, noticing something strange.

Through this misty land, they could enter that void space and search for the lost Supreme Dao Map.

"Then let's go."

Chu Hao didn't hesitate for long, his luck had never been bad along the way.

This time looking for the map above, he didn't feel anything wrong, just like before, it was surprisingly easy and calm.

Buzz!!

As the words fell, there was a burst of ripples, and Chu Hao stepped in first.

The rest of people from Supreme Dao Cave looked around vigilantly and followed in after seeing that there was no trace.

Chapter 447-1: You will surprise me, a Leader of that world(part1)

"They've already gone in, shall we follow them?"

Just after Chu Hao and others from the Supreme Cave entered the misty land.

Lin Wu, Luluo and other geniuses appeared in the nearby forest.

It was a young man named Huo Rong who spoke.

He had red hair, like a burning flame.

Even his eyes had a faint red light, his blood flowing with magma, extremely hot.

"There is no rush. Seeing how cautious the other party is, they will probably wait at the entrance first."

"It's better for us to be cautious. They won't be able to find anything during this time."

Hearing this, Lin Wu shook his head and said, he was not in a hurry and seemed very cautious.

Apart from the mysterious Evolutionary Martial Arts space, it was because of his cautiousness that he was different from ordinary people.

So he thought that it would be better to wait a little longer.

"In that case."

"Let's listen to Brother Lin Wu."

Goddess Luluo also smiled.

She was tall and slender, wearing a light green long dress, and she was extremely beautiful and impressive.

There was a faint ink color in her eyes, and a natural fresh aura permeated her whole body.

Hearing her words, the rest of the young men and women also nodded, did not say anything, and still hid where they were.

Several old men glanced at Lin Wu approvingly.

At this point, he didn't have any impulses, he planned everything before acting, and was extremely calm.

It could be said that there were very few existences of the younger generation in the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions who could compare with him.

"If Lin Wu doesn't die, he will definitely stand at the top in my Eight Desolations and Ten Regions in the future, and be invincible."

They sighed in their hearts but saw the distant sky.

There was a black shadow as huge as a mountain, like a meteor, quickly falling toward this place.

"What is that?"

A group of old men frowned, first stunned, then shocked, feeling a kind of terrifying pressure, sweeping down from the edge of the sky.

Everyone was terrified and couldn't help trembling.

The faces of several young men and women turned pale, they almost suffocated, and their legs became weak.

Fortunately, an old man waved his sleeve, and a rune appeared, blocking the majesty that pervaded them.

Otherwise, they couldn't help but bow in that direction at this time.

It was an incomparable power, and just spreading it across a long distance would make one's skin burst open.

"A fierce beast of the supreme realm..."

Lin Wu's complexion was extremely heavy, and he almost said every word clearly.

"Three-headed black dragon, how could such a terrifying beast come to this place?"

They were very shocked and carefully concealed their aura, not daring to let it out so that they would notice.

"On that black dragon, there is even a figure sitting cross-legged..."

Luluo Goddess spoke, with a faint light in her eyes, and said in a very dignified voice, "I can't see its true face clearly, I can only feel its terrifying vastness, and it is absolutely beyond our power."

Lin Wu nodded, feeling a strange feeling in his heart.

That blurred figure seemed to have a great cause and effect on him, although he had never seen the other person's true face.

Buzz!!

A series of mysterious lines manifested in his eyes as if turning into laws.

He activated his Heavenly Eyesight, trying to see who the figure sitting cross-legged on the three-headed black dragon was.

But nothing could be seen clearly except for the blurry shadows.

The other party seemed to be standing in another world, the only god in the world, powerful, mysterious, and incredible.

He wanted to see more clearly, but he couldn't help but let out a muffled groan. His eyes were stinging and blood flowed out because of the backlash.

"Lin Wu..." Luluo Goddess gave him a worried look.

Lin Wu waved his hands and said, "I'm fine."

"What a scary person, I don't know how many times stronger he is than the group of people who went in just now."

"If the old man is not mistaken, that three-headed black dragon should be the terrifying overlord of the Boundary Monument Sea area, but now he is actually captured and used as a mount."

An old man said solemnly, his heart was filled with turbulent waves, and he was extremely afraid.

The rest of the people also had expressions of disbelief.

In this place, they encountered such a terrifying person one after another. This person's strength was definitely above the Supreme Realm.

"I feel that the person just now may have a great cause and effect on me."

Lin Wu said in a heavy voice, with a heavy heart.

Goddess Luluo knew what he was worried about, and she couldn't help comforting him, "Don't think so, we are still young, and sooner or later we will catch up with such an existence. But this time, it seems that we need to be more careful when entering it."

In their eyes, the terrifying figure sitting cross-legged on the three-headed black dragon quickly disappeared in front of the misty space.

The other party might have noticed them.

But it was more likely that he didn't care, and treated them as a group of ants.

"Let me contact the uncle of our clan. He is also nearby. Let's go in first. If we are in danger, he can come to support us."

A young man suddenly spoke at this moment with a heavy expression.

He felt a kind of fear, very uneasy and worried, and even wanted to stop there.

The rest of the people also nodded when they heard the words, and began to think about the way forward.

Anyway, after witnessing the horror of that figure just now, no one could remain calm.

That person was obviously a terrifying figure from the upper realm, although they didn't know why he came here.

But if they encountered each other, they would definitely be in danger, and it would be difficult for them to escape.

"Let's go."

Then, an old man's face became serious, and he dared to show his figure only after he felt the terrifying aura disappear.

Afterward, Lin Wu, Luluo, and others cautiously approached the misty space, and after a while of spinning around, their figures slowly disappeared into it.

"The leaf of the mysterious gourd that belonged to Venerable Linghu is in my hands. As long as I follow its direction, who is permeated by this aura, I can quickly find the place where Venerable Linghu fell."

After landing again, Lin Wu looked at the vast wilderness in front of him, and his heart gradually calmed down.

Although the opponent's strength was stronger than his, they obviously didn't know the exact location of the treasure here.

As long as he seized the opportunity and obtained the inheritance of Venerable Linghu, he could leave quickly.

At that time, who can find him?

"My lord, don't you care about those ants?"

On the back of the three-headed black dragons, Gu Changge sat cross-legged, his robes fluttered with the wind, his figure was majestic and motionless, wisps of brilliant divine brilliance intertwined with chaotic energy, looking extremely mysterious.

Hearing the words of the three-headed black dragon, he opened his eyes and said calmly, "Since they are all ants, is there any need to care?"

"Yes."

Hearing the words, the three-headed black dragon lowered his head and continued to walk toward the vast wild forest ahead.

Although the group of young men and women hid it well, they couldn't hide from its strong perception.

Of course, it was even more impossible to hide from Gu Changge.

But since Gu Changge didn't care about them, it naturally wouldn't go overboard and care about such trivial matters.

The mountains here were stretching and the ancient trees were verdant. Every sacred mountain and the ancient mountain was extremely majestic and glowing with rays of light.

There were also many powerful beasts living and entrenched on one side.

But after sensing the aura of the three-headed black dragon, they all fled in panic, not daring to approach.

This was the nature of fierce beasts, seeking good fortune and avoiding evil.

In the distance, colorful mist flowed, and immortal mist surrounded it. It was impossible to see that it was a nihilistic world caused by the aftermath of the previous battle.

The so-called void world was a small world whose exact location was unknown. It was hidden in the void, and it was very difficult to find it.

Generally speaking, such a world was very barren, and it was difficult for any vitality to manifest because it was destroyed in the previous battles.

"The son of luck from the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions has appeared. Is this about the plot of suffering in danger and saving the building from falling?"

"The two sons of luck have rushed to this place, it seems that they will give me a surprise."

Gu Changge's eyes swept across the front, and the corners of his mouth showed faint interest.

Before coming here, he just wanted to get rid of Chu Hao.

But just now he glanced around and found another thing that interested him.

Apart from Chu Hao, there was actually another child of luck appearing. Judging from the blue level of luck, it was not simple.

For Gu Changge, this could be said to be a surprise.

However, he did not startle the snake and wanted to know what kind of surprise this son of luck could bring him.

It would be too boring to just take him down like this.

Every child of luck, in addition to being a qualified leek, could also play the role of a treasure hunter.

In this huge empty space, it seemed that there were many good things hidden.

Among the many mountains, there were quite a few divine medicines that were extremely rare in the outside world, and they were quite old.

Of course, Gu Changge didn't like these things.

He just used this to infer that since the birth of this void space, it was probably the first time that an outside creature broke in, breaking the tranquility and peace of this place.

Afterward, Gu Changge followed the aura left by Alpha.

Chu Hao probably didn't know that among the people he brought, there were also strange faces mixed in.

With Alpha's cultivation base, no one would be able to find him unless he met a real enlightened person.

At this moment, there was a huge rumbling sound in the distance, like a large mountain range collapsing.

The dust and smoke rose to the sky, and the mountains on both sides crashed down, revealing a green lake, sparkling, boundless, and vast.

In the depths of the lake, there is a brilliant ray of light, as if some treasure was about to be born.

The vast aura swept through all directions in an instant, and the bright red light penetrated the world, alarming many powerful beasts here.

Indistinctly, one could see a map intertwined with black and white Dao like two black and white fishes, which manifested in the sky like a curtain of the sky.

The Dao rhyme was intertwined, as if there were thousands of mysteries in the world evolving, one life was two, two was three, and three was all things.

This was a shocking scene, which could even be seen under the reflection of the black and white Dao map.

A portal emerged in the lake, filled with immortal mist, and the precious light soared into the sky, extremely brilliant, like a land of inheritance.

But besides the brilliance, there was also a terrifying murderous intent.

A ferocious beast rushed quickly with greedy eyes, trying to snatch the Dao map.

However, it was pierced by the terrifying sword energy and it was cut into a blood mist.

Accompanied by the popping sound, its blood and organs splashed everywhere, which was incomparably frightening.

This was not the power of any formation, but the divine power contained in the black-and-white Dao map.

The runes were densely covered, and the sword energy traversed the world, even if it was a huge and terrifying beast, it was still turned into blood and cut to pieces.

Under this Dao map, there were still several figures with powerful auras.

The leader was Chu Hao, whose face showed a little excitement.

Behind Chu Hao, the rest of the people from the Supreme Dao Cave stared at their surroundings vigilantly, worried that some creatures would suddenly rush out.

"Supreme Dao Cave... it's right in front of our eyes."

Chu Hao couldn't hide the excitement in his eyes.

At this moment, he was standing there with a glow all over his body, reciting ancient scriptures in his mouth.

Brilliant symbols emerged one after another, intertwined constantly, trying to appease the black and white Dao map in the sky.

This was the map of the Supreme Dao Cave.

It was once lost here, but after they came in, it was awakened with a secret method.

There was no doubt about the mysterious power of the Supreme Dao Map. Although it had not awakened yet, the aura that emanated from it could easily kill the creatures approaching this place.

The former ancestor didn't fully comprehend the true meaning of the Supreme Dao Map, but he could easily control one side.

However, he never thought that after coming to this world, he would encounter a formidable opponent, die from exhaustion, and leave the Supreme Dao Map here.

Chapter 447-2: You will surprise me, a Leader of that world(part2)

Over the years, Supreme Dao Cave had kept a low profile and retreated from the world. The main reason was that the Supreme Dao Map was lost.

There were rumors that the Supreme Dao Map was an innate treasure, containing unimaginable mysteries.

Before the ancient era, there were immortals who came to the Supreme Dao Cave, borrowed this map, and tried to comprehend its essence.

However, after sleeping here for many years, and being awakened today, the state on the map above was very unstable.

The vast scene evolved in the Dao map, mountains, rivers, plants, trees, and stars all emerged, and then they turned into sword energy, cutting across the sky and falling down.

Under such a terrifying aura, even the Supreme being would change their expression, not daring to approach at will.

Chu Hao didn't expect that the current Supreme Dao Map would ignore their scriptures at all.

"It seems that the only way is to get in touch with the Supreme Dao Map through other methods, and then find a way to subdue it."

"It's too strong for me to win it over."

Chu Hao's complexion sank, and he quickly turned into a divine light and rushed towards the portal in the lake, from which the map above emerged just now.

In the past, the map on the top was sleeping in it.

Today, it was suddenly awakened by someone using a secret method, beheading any beasts that tried to get close to it.

Clap, clap, clap!!

The picture on the top was constantly moving, turning into a majestic power of the world, where the moon was destroyed and the stars were sinking, and the scene was terrifying.

Chu Hao's face was solemn, brilliant runes bloomed on his body, and he tried to appease it with all his strength.

At the same time, he sacrificed a treasure from the Supreme Cave.

It suddenly became too hot.

The moment it was lifted, the lid soared into the sky, releasing a vast ocean like a galaxy.

It was a crimson blue flame, containing terrifying destructive power.

It seemed to be able to refine all things.

The moment the stove appeared, it floated above Chu Hao's head, resisting the vast sword energy rushing out of the map above.

At the same time, the three legs of the stove glowed with incomparable brilliance, turning into hazy shadows of alchemy, devouring the aftermath of the rushing waves.

It had to be said that this was an extremely terrifying defensive divine weapon.

Its level was not clear, but it was definitely beyond the general emperor's weapon.

Immediately, vast fluctuations erupted here, as if large stars fell from the sky, and then turned into majestic destructive forces.

The map above shook, and the flying mountains, star wreckage, and the exploded matter all disappeared.

The whole world instantly became dark, which was the world on the map contained in it.

Under this kind of terrifying method, even the complexion of the rest of the powerhouses from Supreme Dao Cave changed rapidly and they wanted to evacuate this place.

They were well aware that once the vast divine power in the map above activated, they would definitely die and be forcibly refined.

"It's getting dark there. Could it be that a rare treasure appeared?"

Lin Wu, Lu Luo, and other people from the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions who entered this place later all looked at the scene not far away in shock.

They could feel the terrifying fluctuations intertwining.

It was more like a black sun, rising between the sky and the earth, constantly floating up and down, and a wisp of aura falling down was enough to cause the stars to explode, the earth topples, and the mountains and rivers to change course.

"Is that the treasure of the strong man who fought against Venerable Linghu?"

The goddess Luluo stared at the distant sky.

It could be seen that a Dao map intertwined with black and white was floating up and down on the edge of the sky, and it was constantly extending as if it wanted to devour the world.

The rest of the young men and women also nodded one after another, with more or less greed in their eyes.

Lin Wu turned his head to look at her, and said in a deep voice, "How sure are you that you can snatch it?"

Luluo Goddess was silent for a while, then shook her head and said, "Unless we can find the mysterious gourd of Venerable Linghu before then, we are not even 100% sure."

"It's a pity. If we get such a treasure, it will definitely play a key role in the battle with the upper realm at that time."

Lin Wu felt a little unwilling, the level of such a treasure had obviously surpassed the emperor's weapon.

Although it was left behind in their world, no one had gotten it for so many years.

Now seeing it resurface again, but it was being obtained by people from another realm, how could he be willing to do this?

The rest of the people also fell silent, they naturally knew what such a treasure meant.

If Venerable Linghu hadn't acted at the beginning, I'm afraid there would be more strong people on their side who died tragically.

As long as the cultivators who had known about the previous battle knew how terrifying that treasure was.

Sweeping the heavens and the earth, melting the universe.

Boom!!

But at this moment, there was a sudden shocking change from the lake in front of him.

A black spear emerged, accompanied by a black glow, clanging, and suddenly swept down from the sky and the earth.

Many people from Supreme Dao Cave were caught off guard, their faces were terrified and furious, and they exploded in an instant. They were swept by the spear, and the white bone residue was scattered everywhere.

More people broke out in cold sweats, were injured by the aftermath, and fell into the lake.

A tall figure wearing a dark iron battle suit appeared in the void, with bright eyes, standing there like an unrivaled war god.

A frightening and terrifying aura exuded from his whole body, extremely indifferent.

"Who are you?"

The rest of the people from the Supreme Dao Cave in the sky turned cold, they didn't expect that there would be someone following them in the dark and attacking several of them unexpectedly.

And the aura of the other party made them tremble a little.

This turned out to be a quasi-emperor existence with terrifying strength.

"There is an order from my Master to kill everyone."

Alpha's voice was very indifferent, without any emotional fluctuations, he stepped forward again and killed the rest of the people who were too high.

"Master?"

Everyone from Supreme Dao Cave was stunned for a moment, they didn't expect that there was someone behind this person, who was called the master.

Could it be said that it would be a strong powerhouse of the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions?

"Kill him, this guy is here to snatch the Supreme Dao map of my Supreme Dao Cave."

"Don't let him disturb the Palace Master."

Soon they realized and an old man roared, showing his supreme strength.

When they crossed the Boundary Monument Sea, they had already spent a lot and did not come to this side unless they surpassed the existence of the Supreme Realm.

Facing such a quasi-emperor existence, they were somewhat uneasy and flustered.

But at this time, it was critical time for Chu Hao to appease the Supreme Dao Map, and they would not allow others to disturb him.

Alpha was very indifferent, he slashed down with a spear in his hand, and a piece of rune flew out, flooding forward like a star, causing everyone to cough up blood and explode.

However, the people who were too high were not afraid of death at all, so they used various forbidden techniques to attack Alpha again and stop him.

"Damn it, you came to disturb me at this time."

Chu Hao's face was also ugly, very angry, and full of killing intent.

The stove was floating up and down above his head, resisting the pressure of the Supreme Dao Map, he kept chanting the ancient scriptures, trying to calm it down.

At this moment, how could he be disturbed by others?

"This person is very strong, but he is not from our world. When did he come in?"

"The cultivators of the other world are said to be very warlike, and there are endless civil wars, and it is difficult to have unity. Looking at it today, it is indeed the case."

Lin Wu, Lu Luo, and others were hiding behind the mountain, watching the battle closely.

Although they were also very curious about who this figure in the dark iron battle suit was, the fight between the two parties was just in line with their wishes.

If the Upper Realm was united, their defense would have been broken long ago, so why would there be so many things?

Compared with the Upper Realm, the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions were indeed united a lot, of course, it did not mean that there was no rivalry between them and so on.

Roar!!

At this time, there was a terrifying dragon chant sound from heaven and the earth.

A pitch-black three-headed dragon descended from the sky.

Its body was incomparably huge as if it was made of molten iron, its hundred feet were like a divine mountain, and its eyes were black and red like blood, bloodthirsty and ferocious.

The moment it appeared, it poked toward Chu Hao with one claw, bursting with black divine light, containing incomparable divine power.

Chu Hao was reciting the ancient scriptures, but he didn't expect to be attacked suddenly, his face was furious, and it could be said that he was caught off guard.

"You are courting death!"

His eyes were cold, and he didn't care too much about the map, he turned to look at the three-headed black dragon behind him, his fists were shining, and he went to attack this terrifying giant beast.

It had to be said that his strength was very strong, the golden fist had endless power, and it was as bright as if it was cast from divine gold, and the void in front of him exploded with a bang.

"So strong?"

The three-headed black dragon was also shocked, it didn't expect this man whose cultivation level was not as good as it, to be so strong.

Under this fist, there was a huge power to purify the world.

This was obviously some kind of supreme technique.

It also had to be cautious and started to fight Chu Hao.

For a moment, a dazzling brilliance erupted here, and the Supreme Dao furnace above Chu Hao's head was floating up and down, resisting the pressure of the Supreme Dao Map.

The two were fighting here, fighting together, the waves of divine power were like tens of millions, vast and endless, falling in all directions.

"Isn't this three-headed black dragon the mount of the figure I saw back then?"

"Is that black figure also a subordinate of that figure?"

Lin Wu, Lu Luo, and the others were shocked and looked around, trying to find the mysterious figure at that time.

After all, they took a look at it from a distance and left a terrifying pressure.

And just when Alpha was held back by the people from the Supreme Cave, Chu Hao was fighting with the three-headed black dragon.

Under the radiant lake, in front of the portal, a young man appeared at some point.

His white clothes were whiter than the snow, it was spotless, and his posture was like an immortal in the sky, which was extraordinary and refined.

It seemed to be comprehending the mystery in front of this light door quietly, giving people an unparalleled sense of tranquility.

The young man's body was shrouded in divine light, surrounded by chaotic energy. Just standing there, he seemed to be the center of the heavens and worlds.

The Supreme Dao Map above the sky seemed to feel something and was making a trembling sound as if it was about to be slapped down.

"Where is he?"

Lin Wu's voice sounded, with an unconcealable shock.

Vaguely, everyone felt that there were infinite scenes evolving on the map above as if an ancient scripture was being revived and interpreting Dao.

This was an incomparably shocking and astonishing sight, the door of light manifested Dao, and the map above was falling.

The divine light was dotted, extremely hazy, shrouded in chaotic mist, and there were three thousand worlds, surrounding that young figure, making him the only one in the world, eternal and immortal.

The chaotic divine flames burned, and each one had a sense of supremacy. It was so dazzling that many people dared not look directly at it. Tears flowed from their eyes, so they quickly closed them.

This scene was so similar that Lin Wu's complexion changed drastically again, and then he turned pale, and hatred surged up, almost gnashing his teeth.

"It was he! It was he who killed my brother!"

His voice contained deep-seated hatred, and his eyes were almost red.

The scene of his elder brother's tragic death was still fresh in his memory, and was recorded by many people with memory stones and passed back.

So he knew very well that it was the young man in front of him who killed his brother.

"Could it be... this is... the leader of that world?"

"He... came here unexpectedly? Is it his real body?"

Luluo and the others realized what Lin Wu said, and their complexions changed drastically and turned pale.

Chapter 448-1: Where does the courage come from? The gap gives rise to despair (1)

The fear from Luluo and the others was not unreasonable, but anyone who knew what happened that day would understand how terrifying the leading figure of that world was.

Before this, they had tried to guess the identity of the figure sitting cross-legged on the body of the three-headed Black Dragon, but they never thought this.

Because this was simply unrealistic, the sea of ??Boundary Monuments had not yet dried up. How could such a terrifying existence cross over already?

"Lin Wu, don't be impulsive."

The young man named Huo Rong also persuaded Lin Wu at this time, mentioning him to not be impulsive, worried that he would rush out, thus exposing their position.

He had a good relationship with Lin Wu and could understand his feelings.

At first sight of the enemy who killed his brother, how could Lin Wu bear it? The strength of the opponent was far superior to them and he was simply not someone they could fight at the moment.

"Lin Wu, calm down."

Several Elders from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions also spoke out to persuade him as they looked at the figure shrouded in endless divine light, full of fear.

"Why did that person appear here? Could it be that the Boundary Monument can't stop him?"

Someone thought of this and was worried.

If the Boundary Monument dried up, they would inevitably face endless attacks from the Upper Realm.

"I won't be impulsive."

At this time, Lin Wu also calmed down, clenching his teeth and suppressing his hatred to calm down.

"Let's leave this place quickly. Otherwise he will find our tracks, and we may not be able to leave by then."

Luluo's face was a little pale and the closer she got the more she could feel the terrifying aura that permeated the other party all the time. It was vast and deep, suppressing a person to suffocate.

Her words were approved by many people, and they planned to leave this place quietly.

Although the Supreme Dao Map was precious and was a rare treasure, they would have to fight for it. They had already seen that that refined man might die tragically here today. They all came from the Upper Realm, it was obvious that the man in white would not be left alive.

"Come on, move slowly and don't let the man notice us."

Lin Wu also nodded. She carefully concealed his own aura, not daring to show the slightest abnormality.

They had other things to do since the man in white was taking the map above. They had to take advantage of this opportunity to take away the Gourd of Venerable Linghu, and the timing was just right.

And just when Lin Wu and the others were about to leave secretly. Above the dome of the sky, the Supreme Dao Map clattered like a scroll, expanding continuously, swallowing the heaven and the earth.

A strange scene was evolving in it, the stars were being destroyed and the moon was sinking with the sky falling apart.

One by one, runes appeared pulsatingly, filled with endless brilliance. This was the ultimate Law of Heaven and Earth, and it was also the sound of the infinite Dao.

In a trance, everyone saw a page of ancient scripture containing the supreme essence, manifesting between heaven and earth. And here, in the middle of the lake, Gu Changge stood quietly in front of the portal.

Every inch of his skin was glowing, like flawless jade and even the strands of hair were filled with a brilliant chaotic brilliance. He didn't care about everyone around him. In his opinion, this moment was too precious, obviously much more important than the rest.

This thing obviously surpassed the Emperor weapon and had innate runes. The circulation of white and black light along with the distinction between black and white were the evolution and manifestation of Dao resided.

This was an unimaginable horror scene. Clusters of flames seemed to contain the Supreme Realm, surrounding them worshipping together. He calmly comprehended the essence of it and realized a kind of understanding about the Supreme Dao.

The Dao was like a knife, too ruthless.

Roar!!

And in the sky, the three-headed Black Dragon who was fighting with Chu Hao suddenly roared angrily. It felt the pain and kept bleeding as it was injured by Chu Hao.

The two fought frantically, constantly displaying their respective moves and divine powers. Its three bloody mouths sprayed out various colors of light, enough to turn the mountain peaks into ashes.

Its cultivation base was much stronger than Chu Hao's, but it was still at a disadvantage. Its scales exploded and blood rained down. It was not Chu Hao's opponent at all.

Chu Hao's strength was very strange. His fighting skills were unparalleled. It was a kind of unrivaled fighting technique that had long been lost. It even turned into an endless wind around him, making its big paws bloody and shattered. Even its horns were almost shattered.

"Go to hell with me!"

It displayed the strongest divine power and opened its three bloody mouths as if it could swallow even heaven and the earth. But among them, three different divine arts were evolving, turning into red flame, purple lightning, and black hurricane. They all were rushing toward Chu Hao.

However, Chu Hao was unmoved, his eyes were extremely indifferent.

In the next moment, the golden light surged. His blood was like smoke and his golden fist covered the sky, blasting the huge mouths of the three-headed Black Dragon.

Blood rained and the three-headed Black Dragon roared in great pain but it couldn't stop Chu Hao's fist at all.

Many of its bones were shattered, scales burst and blood was dripping. He was without the slightest prestige before.

"This guy... is strong, I'm no match for him. If it goes on like this, I'll be killed by him."

There was a hint of fear in the expressions of the three-headed Black Dragon. It thought that Chu Hao would be easy to deal with, so he volunteered to suppress and kill him.

In the end, he was not Chu Hao's opponent and he almost died because of his constant pressure and beating. Thinking of this, it evacuated quickly, not daring to continue fighting with Chu Hao. Otherwise, it would definitely die.

"Where do you want to escape?"

However, Chu Hao's gaze was cold and he didn't intend to let it go. Being disturbed by people over and over again made him angry. He wished to kill the three-headed Black Dragon in front of him to vent his anger.

Although Lin Wu and the others were leaving secretly, they were still paying attention to the movement here. Chu Hao's strength really shook their hearts. They couldn't calm down at all. He was another character they underestimated.

They had heard about the notoriety of the three-headed Black Dragon for a long time. It was an overlord in the Supreme Territory, and it was difficult to find an opponent.

But while fighting Chu Hao, he was severely injured and was not an opponent. Before, they even wanted to snatch the Supreme Dao Map from Chu Hao. Though now that they thought about it, it was really beyond their limits.

At this moment, the three-headed Black Dragon who kept running away saw Chu Hao attacking him with a cold expression. He couldn't help displaying fear and couldn't help shouting, "My lord, save me!"

Hearing this voice, even Chu Hao, who was attacking him with a cold expression, was stunned. He knew that there was another figure appearing in the field, but he concentrated on dealing with the three-headed Black Dragon and didn't bother or ask.

Now the three-headed Black Dragon with the strength of the Supreme Realm actually called that person Master?

This shocked his heart. It was then he saw the figure in a black iron battle suit who suddenly attacked him and his heart sank even more.

At this moment, Chu Hao felt a strange feeling in his heart and felt a creepy feeling almost instantly. He turned around suddenly, his eyes were shining brightly and he looked at the figure standing in the center of the lake.

"You can't even kill him, why should I save you?"

At this time, in the center of the lake, Gu Changge, who was meditating on the map above, also opened his eyes and sighed softly upon hearing this.

The three-headed Black Dragon was also trembling at the moment. He didn't dare to refute Gu Changge's words. It quickly knelt down respectfully and said, "I can be a mount for you."

Lin Wu, Lu Luo and others who were running away quietly couldn't help but tremble when they heard these words. They felt a chilling fear.

This feeling was simply out of their control and hard to suppress. A terrifying and ferocious beast in the Supreme Realm said that he was willing to be reduced to a transportation mount.

For them, this was simply unbelievable. But it happened right in front of their eyes. Was this the invincible power of the leader from that world?

"It's you... Gu Changge!!"

At this moment, Chu Hao finally saw the face of the figure in front of the portal, his pupils shrank. He couldn't believe it, "Why are you here? It seems that you were not killed by the Red Demon, and you even escaped."

He also always believed that Gu Changge was more ominous than good, that the disaster of the divine city in which the Red Demon killed many powerful people.

Gu Changge was impressively on the list.

In the end, he didn't expect that he would appear in the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions hundreds of millions of distances away.

"It seems that you are disappointed."

There was an understatement on Gu Changge's face.

Chapter 448-2: Where does the courage come from? The gap gives rise to despair (2)

Chu Hao's expression was very serious. He noticed the Supreme Dao Map that was slowly falling from the high space and his expression even became ugly.

This was the result of his hard work to appease it, but Gu Changge had taken advantage of him. If he didn't have divine skills, he would never have allowed Supreme Dao Map to calm down.

"You took away my love and ruined my ancient kingdom, I will not forget the hatred between us. Gu Changge, I've been waiting for this day for a long time."

Hatred appeared on Chu Hao's face. He was almost gnashing his teeth, and he didn't hide it at all at this moment. He couldn't forget how his beloved Tang Wan was persecuted by Gu Changge.

If Gu Changge had not interfered, how could the Vermilion Bird Ancient Kingdom have been destroyed?

How could Tang Wan leave him?

All of this was caused by Gu Changge.

During this period of time, he wished he could cut Gu Changge into a thousand pieces and burn his bones to ashes.

Lin Wu, Lu Luo, and the others did not expect that there was such an indelible hatred between this terrifyingly powerful and refined man and Gu Changge.

Even Lin Wu felt that Chu Hao was inexplicably pleasing to the eye. After all, both of them had the same enemy. Although the two were on different sides, they were the same on this point.

"What a coincidence, I've been waiting for this day for a long time."

Gu Changge just said calmly, without much fuss, "I just don't know where you got the courage to say such things to me."

"Courage? You'll find out in a moment," Chu Hao said coldly, he knew that Gu Changge was very strong.

But during this period of time, his cultivation base had improved a lot. He practiced several Ancient Heavenly Arts of the Supreme Dao Cave and his strength had improved to a higher level.

Even just now, he had not used many methods, and he had not used the Supreme Dao Furnace. Facing Gu Changge, it was not like he was powerless.

"Oh, then this Gu will have to wait and see."

Gu Changge smiled plainly, standing in the middle of the lake, an invisible golden road seemed to emerge under his feet.

He walked toward the shore step by step, at the same time he stretched out his hand. The space rumbled as he grabbed the Supreme Dao Map high in the sky.

Earlier, the Map above was extremely violent with terrifying energies intertwined but now it was very docile, floating quietly in the sky.

When Gu Changge's palm was about to reach out, strands of black and white divine light appeared on its surface and Dao flickered, obliterating his palm.

This scene made Chu Hao feel at ease, he couldn't help but sneer, "Gu Changge, you should give up. The map above is my treasure, and it's not something an outsider, can take it away."

"It doesn't matter, after killing you, I have plenty of time to refine it."

Gu Changge said lightly. Since Supreme Dao Map still had the intention of resisting, then he will put it down for the time being. Anyway, it would not flee to other places here anyway.

"Attack!"

At this moment, Chu Hao's energy had reached an unprecedented peak as he pounced to attack Gu Changge.

His whole body was full of golden light, the Supreme Dao Furnace floated above his head as the lid was lifted and a vast red-blue flame rushed out which could burn everything. Even the sky and the earth was blurred and the void collapsed.

At the same time, he roared angrily and unleashed his terrifying fighting technique. Moreover, he also deliberately used the secret method to increase the power of attack, and the power of his aura diffused from the Heavenly Spirit.

Almost every punch caused the void to collapse and explode, turning into dust. This kind of extremely strong power had risen by more than one level compared to just now.

Even the mountains, rivers and the earth were reduced to ashes in just an instant.

This place resonated and one after another big cracks spread out from behind him, traversing all directions before chaotic energy rushed out of them.

"His strength has become stronger than before."

Lin Wu and the others were shocked. From this battle, they deeply felt the confident and invincible temperament.

This was the Peerless Talent of the Upper Realm, and he was not very old. But this indomitable and indestructible aura made them feel awe.

They originally planned to evacuate quickly, but now they couldn't help but slow down, wanting to witness this peerless battle with their own eyes.

For a moment, the light of the punches here covered the sky, hitting Gu Changge who was still walking toward the shore.

Chu Hao didn't know how many punches he threw in an instant. Each punch could cause an ordinary Supreme Being to cough up blood and severely injure him. The void had collapsed and the rules were shattered.

However, in front of Gu Changge, there seemed to be a moat of heaven forever and it was impossible to get close at all.

All the fists disappeared out of thin air when they were about to fall in front of Gu Changge as if there was an invisible space in front of him that could isolate everything.

It was more like there was a world between Gu Changge and him. He would never be able to cross the distance in between. This was a scene of despair. No matter how Chu Hao roared or what kind of terrifying secret method he activated, he couldn't make that step.

This was already a difference in level and it could not be made up for by cultivation. Even the divine fire poured into the Supreme Dao Furnace was quickly annihilated when it was about to fall in front of Gu Changge without even causing any waves.

"Is this your courage? You really disappointed me." Gu Changge walked over unhurriedly, without any movement.

"Come again! I don't believe it!"

Chu Hao was startled and angry. He hated his own powerlessness. With all his strength, he couldn't even get close to Gu Changge. The gap in real strength might be even more difficult to make up.

This time, he burned his blood and used his strongest divine power.

At the same time, the Supreme Dao Furnace was activated and the meaning of vastness evolved in it as if it could swallow heaven and the earth, enveloping Gu Changge away.

"You should be desperate. With your strength, it is impossible to be the opponent of the Young Master. I advise you to attack the Young Master honestly. Maybe you can die happily."

The three-headed Black Dragon not far away couldn't help mocking. He was extremely happy and his injuries were improving rapidly.

"Is this the power of the leader from the Upper Realm? This gap... it's really huge."

Many young men and women of the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions were deeply shocked by this scene. Their lips were trembling, feeling too dreamy.

Just now they felt that Chu Hao was invincible. As a result, in front of this person, he didn't even have a chance to get close and he was so strong that it was hopeless.

The other party had never made a move from the beginning to the end. The cloud was calm and the wind was breezy, high above, overlooking everything.

"Lin Wu..."

Goddess Luluo looked worriedly at Lin Wu, who was pale. She feared that he would be hit hard. Because this person in front of him was the enemy who killed Lin Wu's elder brother Lin Qingyang!

How could he get revenge?

"I... I'm fine." Lin Wu clenched his fists and teeth tightly, deeply feeling his own weakness and powerlessness.

His strength was far from enough.

"This game should be over."

But at this moment, Gu Changge, who had a calm expression and had never made a move, suddenly stretched out his right arm forward.

He spread his five fingers and shook them forward. The laws of heaven and earth here suddenly condensed, turned into a golden spear as it pointed obliquely and stabbed forward suddenly.

The void was stagnant and the terrifying power, like a vast expanse of ocean, swept toward the sky and landed on the Supreme Dao Furnace in front of Chu Hao with a bang.

Boom!

The divine waves were monstrous, covering the sky and covering the sun. This furnace had a special texture and endless runes burst out, trying to resist, but it still was blown away and fell to the ground.

After losing the object to contend with, Chu Hao's complexion changed drastically. Cold air swept through his body and all of his strength gathered in his body, trying to smash this spear but it didn't work.

Gu Changge still stabbed mediocrely, without any smell of fireworks and it wiped out all his means.

Puff!!

Blood splattered, including the white bone residue as he exploded in the void.

"No... how is it possible... How can I die here?"

Unbelievable and deep despair appeared on Chu Hao's face. He was not reconciled but was easily pierced by this spear. All of his means, including the divine artifacts, Dao, and divine powers, were all wiped out and collapsed.

In the next moment, with a light shake of Gu Changge's right arm, Chu Hao exploded to pieces.

Chapter 449: Two groups of people

The golden spear seemed to be condensed into reality with golden, surging divine light and incomparable sharpness, but at this moment it was stained with blood, piercing Chu Hao.

Drops of blood containing divinity fell from the sky, smashing the lake into a deep pit. The blood mist drifted away, mixed with some bright white bone residue which was a shocking and frightening scene.

Gu Changge pointed his finger obliquely and with a light shake of his right arm, Chu Hao's body exploded as it collapsed into ashes, leaving nothing behind.

He killed him casually together with his soul. Chu Hao, the generational genius, just fell.

There was such a dead silence that one could almost hear the drop of a needle. Lin Wu and the others couldn't help but shudder, they didn't expect the ending to be like this before.

Even though someone as strong as Chu Hao tried his best, he couldn't even get close to his opponent and was easily suppressed and killed in the void.

This kind of power could really make others desperate, and it couldn't bring up the slightest fighting spirit.

"They are all from that world. They are so terrifying to each other. Is there any strong person in our world who can defeat him? Let's leave quickly..."

Huo Rong, a young man with fiery red hair, couldn't help but speak. His voice was very low, a little trembling, and fear arose in his heart.

The rest nodded and held their breath. Then they silently retreated to the distance, not daring to show the slightest abnormality.

Lin Wu, Luluo, and the others fell silent, feeling very heavy. This was the enemy they would face in the future. Even a terrifying powerhouse like Chu Hao didn't have the slightest resistance in front of him.

They didn't dare to imagine that when they faced Gu Changge, how much chance would they have?

This was really hopeless.

"What will the Heavenly Treasure Chest this time be..."

Gu Changge glanced in the direction where Lin Wu and the others left, but didn't care.

Although this space was vast, no one could escape his eyes. Since Chu Hao came here to find the Supreme Dao Map.

Then the Son of Luck of the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions should be looking for another treasure. So he still needed the other party to help him find that treasure.

In addition, Gu Changge felt that he could make more use of this Son of Luck from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions. It just happened to be a useful pawn for him to explore the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions.

Before killing Chu Hao, Gu Changge had already robbed him of many Luck points. So in the next moment, a purple Heavenly Treasure Box that only he could see fell out of Chu Hao's body.

There was a misty purple meaning, which was quite simple and mysterious. After rolling up his sleeves and putting away the Heavenly Treasure Chest, Gu Changge looked at the man who was too high up on the other side.

Chu Hao's death shocked them all.

"The Palace Master is dead! Gu Changge killed the Palace Master!"

Now his eyes were almost red. His whole body was glowing, he seemed to be crazy, and he was trying his best to avenge Chu Hao.

The vast fluctuations swept across the sky and the earth and they all sacrificed all kinds of divine weapons before they fell over with brilliant light.

However, Alpha's strength was terrifying, even in the face of everyone, he still had the upper hand. The black spear swept across like a heavenly knife and the wind was like a storm, raging in all directions.

Puff!!

Everyone coughed up blood and retreated. Their bodies were in severe pain and their bones were broken.

Gu Changge noticed that among them, there were two Supreme beings and they were also the two who had been struggling to support them.

Buzz!!

In the next moment, he squinted his eyes and reached out with his palm again. The void seemed to be stagnant. The huge golden brilliance condensed into a golden palm.

The runes flickered and fell toward them, trying to kill everyone. This palm was propelled like a millstone that could destroy the world, terrifying and majestic, unparalleled and unstoppable.

Boom!!

With the screams, everyone was desperate. They collapsed and exploded under this palm, unable to resist at all. Soon they were torn apart, and their body and spirit were destroyed.

"Master." Alpha was holding the black spear and stood respectfully.

The three-headed Black Dragon also knelt respectfully on a side. The world finally returned to peace.

"I will leave them to you."

Gu Changge nodded and then looked at the Supreme Dao Map.

With a thought, the majestic divine thought swept across like the manifestation of heaven with a will that could not be resisted and suppressed it.

There was a rattling sound in the map above as if a big star was turning, mountains and rivers manifested, terrifying sword auras emerged, slashing toward him.

"Innate sword energy seems to be just one of the methods..."

Gu Changge's eyes were a little thoughtful. When he saw the map above, he had already guessed its origin.

Was there any connection between the Supreme Dao Map and the Innate Supreme Sword Map in mythology?

After all, black and white were clearly distinguished and the division of Yin and Yang could balance Heaven and Earth, earth, water, wind and fire.

And with his order, Alpha opened his mouth and screamed, swallowing the blood mist that filled the place. Although many people's Dao was shattered just now, their Dao and cultivation were all contained in the blood mist.

Now at least the origin of an existence in the Emperor Realm could have an effect on Gu Changge. Therefore, he had no intention of devouring these origins of life, so it was better to leave them to Alpha.

After all, Alpha was conceived and born of a drop of his true blood. If it wasn't for being trapped in the Demon Burying Abyss for countless years, how could he be only in the current First Layer of the Quasi-Emperor Realm?

Under Gu Changge's forcible refining, although Supreme Dao Map resisted, it was gradually weakened.

Wisps of divine light fell down, enveloped in black and white, boundless as they fell on the top of Gu Changge's head. With his thoughts, the Supreme Dao Map was also evolving into a vast scene.

The space in front of him seemed to be swallowed by it, turning the void into reality. The integration of offense and defense was indeed extraordinary.

"I wonder what will be in the Heavenly Treasure Chest after killing Chu Hao..."

After refining the Supreme Dao Map, Gu Changge took out the purple Heavenly Treasure Chest.

A burst of purple light flashed, and a crystal-clear ancient mirror emerged from it. There were many simple patterns on the back, and he didn't know what era it was from.

"This is... Enlightening Mirror?"

Gu Changge raised his eyebrows slightly, a little surprised in his heart. Then he carefully read the introduction of this ancient mirror.

From the past to the present, there was a lack of profound knowledge. This was a mysterious secret treasure that could reflect many mysterious scenes.

This kind of mystery was indescribable, it could be the legendary underworld, it could also be the Nine Heavens Immortal World and it was more likely to be the traces of the river of time.

As for the effect of the reflection, Gu Changge had no way of knowing. But he remembered another thing, the space-time monument.

If it was used in conjunction with the Enlightening Mirror, would there be any magical effect?

The next day, Gu Changge went to find the Supreme Dao Furnace that Chu Hao had left behind at that time. After sealing it up, he found a place here to break through his cultivation.

Although the Supreme Dao Furnace was miraculous, it was of little use to him. So Gu Changge thought about it for a while and planned to go to Purple Pill Sect when he had time and hand over this furnace to Lin Qiuhan.

She had the alchemy talent and this furnace would be more effective in her hands. Then once, a sky-rocketing aura erupted.

The rosy light was misty, the immortal fog was lingering and fragments of the Dao kept falling, turning into a big white cocoon on Gu Changge's body, from which chaotic light diffused.

The sound of blood flowing in the blood vessels was like thunder rolling in the sky as if it was tearing the sky.

After killing Chu Hao and replacing a few of his bones, his cultivation naturally broke through to the Quasi-Emperor Realm.

If it hadn't been for the disappearance of the Heavenly Tribulation in these countless Epochs, otherwise, the momentum of his breakthrough alone would be absolutely boundless.

Shockingly ancient in the modern times. Such momentum did not last long, and soon the brilliance of this place dissipated. The cocoon wrapped in chaotic light split open and Gu Changge's figure stepped out of it.

"There are people coming to this space again... It seems that there are still two groups of people." Gu Changge raised his eyebrows slightly, feeling the faint fluctuations in the space.

Then he took a step forward and appeared above the head of the three-headed Black Dragon. Tearing open the void in front of him, he quickly disappeared from this place.

"According to the news from Miss and the others, they should have entered the void space here."

In the mountains not far from here, there was a group of powerful cultivators on their way. One of them was still frowning softly. The rest of the people also carefully looked at this strange and vast space.

"At the beginning, the treasure of Venerable Linghu was left here, but it's a pity that we didn't know it for so many years."

An old man with red light flowing from his body said with his eyes full of emotion. He was from the ancient Fire Clan in the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions and the blood like ancient magma was flowing in his body.

"Compared to the other world, what we lack are not geniuses and bloodlines, but a strong person standing at the peak. If there was one more treasure, it would also increase the chance of winning."

Beside him was a tall man in armor. He also nodded and said so. His name was Lin Yunxiao, he was a strong genius from the Dragon Blood Lin Clan, and he was also Lin Wu's uncle.

The rest of the powerhouses also nodded and swept around.

"However, Miss and the others said that cultivators from another world also sneaked into this place silently."

"So why be afraid, since they dare to come to our world, they must be prepared to be destroyed. This group of damned bandits must be burned and killed all the way, how many of our soldiers died tragically at their hands?"

Some people were angry, and their murderous intent boiled over. When it came to the Upper Realm, they wanted to go to the battlefield and kill the invaders from the Upper Realm.

For them, the Upper Realm had repeatedly invaded their home, destroying their peaceful environment. For countless years, many soldiers buried their bones on the shore of the sea of ??boundary monuments, leaving their wives and daughters to guard the mansion alone.

How could such hatred be relieved lightly?

Chapter 450: A Miss from the Gu family, Gourd Valley

"Um? Is someone coming from behind?"

At this moment, an old woman with dark green eyes suddenly turned her head as she looked in a certain direction and said in a low voice.

A faint dark green glow rose from her body as if there was vitality circulating.

Everyone was taken aback when they heard the words, and then they quickly reacted, unleashed various weapons and waited in full force, staring at the void behind them.

The old woman's name was Granny Lu Cui, she was a master of the Green Race and had the blood of the God of Life. There was a natural sensitivity to all things in nature. So in this kind of place, she could even use many plants as eyes and could perceive scenes that other beings in the same situation could not perceive.

Hearing what she said, everyone naturally did not dare to underestimate her and stared at the rear very cautiously. With brilliance, one set of divine soldiers appeared in the sky and they were sacrificed by them, displaying great power that was able to kill them at any time.

Appearing here at this time, they could only be cultivators from the Upper Realm.

"Who is hiding here? Do you dare not come out?"

The old man of the Fire Clan had a very irritable temper and the red light in his eyes was shining brightly. He waved his hand and turned it into a sea of flames, falling towards the void behind him.

"It's good that you perceived our existence..."

In the next moment, accompanied by a sneer, someone appeared behind the stone not far away.

A large group of cultivators and creatures covered with divine brilliance wearing various clothes from different forces in the Upper Realm.

The one who spoke was a middle-aged man with a face that didn't look like a human, with gray horns on his head.

At the same time, he also waved his hands forward, offsetting the attack from the old man of the Fire Clan.

"Sure enough, you are people from the Upper Realm. You have come here secretly."

The rest of the people from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions stared at the people who suddenly appeared in front of them with murderous looks and cold faces.

Granny Lu Cui's heart sank and her eyes swept over the cultivators and creatures in front of her. Judging from the aura, there were all ethnic groups and all Dao forces.

The few young men and women who walked at the back were obviously noble and were protected by the powerhouses in front.

Especially one of them was a beautiful woman in a blue dress with soft hair, a flawless white face, big and energetic eyes, a graceful figure and a charming appearance.

The rest of the young men looked at her with a hint of admiration.

"Eight Desolations and Ten Regions, this remote place will be breached by us sooner or later, so what's the difference between here and there?"

The middle-aged man who made a move just now sneered when he heard this and looked around at the people from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions in front of him. He appeared to be quite contemptuous.

This was the attitude of the various races in the Upper Realm towards the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions.

Because whether it was the cultivation environment or the cultivation resources, the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions were far from being comparable to the Upper Realm.

In the eyes of many young supreme beings from the Upper Realm, the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions were just remote places that could be breached at any time.

Hearing this, the eyes of the old man from the Fire Clan and Granny Lu Cui flashed with sullenness. The group of young geniuses behind them was also extremely angry, being so despised by everyone in the Upper Realm.

They were young and energetic, especially when the other party broke into their territory so naturally, In their world, being so arrogant really made them furious, almost maddened with hatred.

"Why? Does it poke your sore spot?"

The middle-aged man who spoke just now said contemptuously, "Who will be our opponent in the same realm? Have you forgotten how many of you died during the last battle?"

Hearing this, everyone from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions were even more enraged, their faces ashen.

This was their indelible scars, now being mentioned again, how could they not be angry?

The older generation could bear it, but the younger generation couldn't help it. Being mocked one after another, how could they endure it?

"You are courting death!"

Several young men and women shouted angrily and were about to stand up. But they were being held back by the old men next to them, who didn't let them be impulsive.

Although they had a large number of people, they were still within the territory of the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions. But this group of people from the Upper Realm obviously came prepared, so they should not be underestimated.

"What? You want to court death?"

Seeing this scene, several young men from the Upper Realm also stood up and asked calmly.

They had a strong aura, their bodies were surrounded by precious brilliance. Some people's bodies were covered with black light and they couldn't see their true faces clearly, which was a manifestation of their strong cultivation base.

Since they were able to come here, it showed that their cultivation was not simple. They were also young supreme beings from some famous town of the Upper Realm.

"Humph!!"

A group of young men and women from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions all had fiery faces, suppressing them desperately.

"Don't be impulsive, we'll think about what to do after we figure out their bottom cards. Since they are in our territory, they won't be too arrogant."

An old man's eyes flashed and he sent a voice transmission to a few people, he had a plan in mind.

After all, this piece of void space was within the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions. At that time, just in case, they even carried a forbidden weapon, which could seduce a treasure from the outside world.

When the time came, this treasure would strike a destructive blow, destroying this empty space and everyone in it would die. They were not afraid of death, but they didn't know if the people in the Upper Realm had the courage.

"We are here to find that treasure, not to conflict with them. I wonder what Miss Gu's plan is?"

At this time, on the side of the Upper Realm, a young man shook his head slightly, waved his hand to stop the others and said so.

He had handsome features, a tall and straight figure and a faint star glow flowing on his body. While speaking, he looked at the woman in the blue skirt, showing a slight smile, but she looked very personable.

The woman in the blue skirt nodded slightly and said, "Then we'll follow Brother Song's words."

The rest of the people also nodded when they heard the words. They calmed down and did not say any more words to mock the people from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions.

The young man who spoke just now obviously had a lot of prestige, his name was Song Yunfei, and he was a young supreme from the Supreme Dao Cave.

When he was in the Upper Realm, he was also a little famous, sweeping all sides invincible. He obviously had some kind of pursuit and admiration for the woman in the blue skirt.

Only then did he take this opportunity to reveal the secret of the Supreme Dao Cave, planning to bring people here to find it, in order to make her smile. Song Yunfei knew that the Palace Master Chu Hao was bringing a powerful man who was too high up here.

So he wasn't worried at all, he wasn't afraid that after telling the rest of the people, they would snatch the treasure.

It was just that he didn't expect to meet cultivators from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions here.

After that, the two groups of people separated and did not fight each other. They had their own plans and did not want to fight here.

A group of people from Eight Desolations and Ten Regions hurried toward the direction where Lin Wu and the others were, while worrying about Song Yunfei and the others behind them making a move, they kept watching them vigilantly.

After seeing them move in another direction, they were relieved.

"I feel that these people have other plans. They should be busy looking for something, so they avoid us on purpose."

However, Song Yunfei and the others didn't leave very far, so they stopped on the way. The woman in the blue skirt frowned slightly as if she was a little puzzled.

Song Yunfei smiled and said, "Since that's the case, why don't we chase after them and see what they want to do?"

He knew that even if he found the Supreme Dao Map at this time, they would not be able to take it away. So why shouldn't they take a look at what this group of people from the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions were going to do?

The woman in the blue skirt thought for a while when she heard this and then nodded.

In fact, she also knew that since Song Yunfei was willing to tell her the news about the map, he was not afraid that she would take it away. Thus, it was more reliable to find another treasure left here.

"Could it be related to the inheritance of the mysterious powerhouse who fell here after fighting with the supreme powerhouse of the Supreme Dao Cave?"

Another young Supreme's eyes moved slightly, thinking of something.

"Let's go and see. Could it be that they can find some other treasures?"

Song Yunfei waved his hand, appearing quite confident.

In front of beautiful women, he tried his best to maintain his image.

One must know that the woman in the blue skirt in front of him was a direct disciple of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family. She was beautiful and had a noble status, so it was rare to see her.

If he could seize this opportunity and thus gain his favor and enter the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, it would be a supreme fortune for him.

What did the identity of the disciple of the Supreme Dao Cave matter?

Now all the powerful forces in the Upper Realm knew that the Ancient Immortal Gu Family was mysterious and powerful, with a long history which could be called unfathomable.

At the same time, not far from here. The red rays of light were brilliant, intertwined above the sky, like a cloud of blood with an astonishing murderous aura.

It was more like endless gold and iron horses were rushing out of it, evolving between heaven and earth and turning into a vast ancient battlefield.

This was a low valley with towering peaks on both sides. Just like the ancient sacred mountain from the oldest epoch, it was shining brightly and surrounded by a mist of various colors.

There was a burst of purple glow and there was also a golden glow which was extremely mysterious. If one looked at it from a high altitude, this place looked like an upside-down gourd mouth.

There were also many gourd vines hanging on the peaks on both sides, taking root in the gaps and swaying in the wind. There were many gourds knotted on it, colorful, palm-sized and shining.

Now this place burst out with brilliance in the sky as if there was something extremely powerful being revived here, wanting to reappear in the world.

This kind of terrifying pressure was as turbulent as a vast sea, rushing like a big wave and had a world-shattering killing spirit.

At the location of Gourd Valley, Lin Wu, Luluo and others were standing here with solemn expressions. Especially the group of old people who looked back with some anxiety, worried that someone would rush here at this time.

Because the abnormality here was really amazing, it was estimated that it had shaken hundreds of thousands of miles around. They also did not expect that coming here to search for the mysterious gourd lost by Venerable Linghu would cause such great momentum.

"Lin Wu, enter into the valley, we will wait for you here."

Luluo looked solemn and said to Lin Wu that she knew that he caused the vision here.

"Brother Lin Wu, be careful, you are our hope."

The rest of the young men and women also looked slightly stressed. Although they also longed for something in the valley. But they also had self-knowledge. Apart from Lin Wu, the rest of them probably did not have this qualification and ability.

And what they could do at this time was to stall for him here. After a while, if someone sensed the treasure and came here, they could block them here to delay Lin Wu's time.

Hearing this, Lin Wu nodded and said solemnly, "I know. You must also be careful."

After saying that, his figure flashed, and he rushed directly to the Gourd Valley in front of him.

At the same time, a yellow-orange brilliance emerged from the palm of his hand. It was a withered and yellow gourd leaf, which looked like it was carved from yellow jade, exuding a hazy brilliance which was very magical.

It was this thing just now that triggered the amazing vision here. This was the gourd leaf that Lin Wu got by chance.

It was said that it was the accompanying leaf of the mysterious gourd in the hands of the venerable Linghi at that time. And it was through this gourd leaf that he could find this position.

Now he was very sure that in the depths of Gourd Valley, the mysterious gourd that was left here at that time was sleeping.

As long as he was given a little time, he could find the mysterious gourd and bring it out of this place.
